WEEKLY JOURNAL A

W. C. ANSLOW

Our Country with its United Interests.

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

WHOLE NO. 1247

Ge

H

205

U

E

Z

R

F

G

A

Vol. XXIV.-No. 51

I have just received Ten New Parlor

Suites, excellent value.

Hair Cloth Suites from $35.00 Raw Silk Suites from $45.00

These are the best value I have ever offered, all Walnut frames, and

NEWCASTLE.

P. S .-- I have opened a Branch Store in Chatham, nearly opposite he Canada House, and will attend this store every Wednesday and Newcastle, Aug. 26, 1891

April 6th. 1889

b. It's NEW

" 45.00

PUBLIC WHARF,

Clifton House.

Princes and :43 Germain Etree'.

ST. JOHN, N. B.

A. N. Peters, Prop'r.

Heated by Steam throughout. Prompt at ntion and moderate charges. Telephone ommunication with all parts of the city.

" 70.00

5 Bales GIBSON'S G<sup>D</sup>EY COTTONS, 2 "HOCHELOGA WHITE" 10 p'cs. GREY & WHITE SHEETING, in Plain and Twill.

Wholesale & Retail.

NOTICE

DRUGS.

CHEMICALS

PATENT MEDICINES.

John Ferguson,

Raimie " " 35.00 Plush " Petet Points " " 42.00 Tapestry "

PARLOR

Hair Cl'th Plush bands " 43.00

the best of workmanship.

Newcastle, September 1, 1891.

hat am, - -

L. J. TWEEDIE

ATTORNEY & BARBISTER

AT LAW. NOTARY PUELIC,

CONVEYANCER &c.

OFFICE-Old Bank Montreal.

J D. PHINNEY.

Barrister & At orney at Law

B, FAIREY,

Saturday.

Newcastle, Wednesday, September 30, 1891.

min min

STITTES. Cotton -- Warp! Belected Biterature. sary to describe two sides of a triangle to at the young gentleman who stood visibility of undertaking a grand temget something almost within reach. Not before him. WHITE & GREY Cotton, withia her memory had everything assum- "What yer want? he growled, un FUR THE GOOD O' THE DEES. Id so compact a shape. graciously. TRICT. Sheeting, "I wish father had been a committee The other threw ! imself with easy man years ago,' was her inward com- audacity into the chair near Father -Opening at the--When Jared Hill's name was proposed ment. Jared. to fill the vacency caused by the death SALTER BRICK STORE At dinner his satisfaction at the results of Elucation, his heart almost stopped of his morning labors enlivened his con-500 BUNDLES PARKS' beating. It was the regular caucus for versation. He grew witty and shrewd the one to apply to.' WHITE, BLUE, RED, GREEN & ORANGE the nomination of new officers, but the in his remarks, unfolded some of his 'You didn't hear I'd been elected yit ers will be selected from the regular or changes in contracts and read a long list old ones had served so long that nothing plans for improving the farm, and talked did yer ? but the death of an incumbent could with some of the hopeful buoyancy of a 'Not exactly, but I understood there WARP, ever make toom for other aspirants. A young man. Nos. 6, 7, and 8.

nomination was therefore equivalent to Instead of going directly to work so it is almost the same thing. I am an election. An opposition ticket was again, he looked over his meagre library. going away to morrow or next day, and sympathy with the great contemplated prepared as a matter of form, but no- There was the Bible, the almanac, 'Life I thought I would see you immediately. body seemed to differ from the conserva of Washington' and in an out-of-the way 'Ever teach efore ? tive policy of the Bunchtown tax payers. corner the little book he was searching 'Let well enough alone' was their for, the ' Report of the Bunchtown board some experience.'

Father Hill, as he was faintharry vestigated its contents before or at least John and Will who stood a little way will be aided by the fervent prayers of in all cases, the minister did well to act self-importance and high resolves. The read with abstation. from the scene.

school-house should be fixed up and the 'The very first thing is to find out the For answer the young stranger took tive of race and creed. teacher should be the best to be had for size of this 'ere district,' he muttered to the chair he had been sitting in and the money. When he went into town himself. He put his finger along the he'd it out at arm's length for several he would inquire about new desks and lines which told in a surveyor's terms the seconds. other new-fang'ed ' fixin's. ' I'll be just extent of the district. To his surprise he the best committee man there ever was found that the farm he was now manage in this district. I mean ter be.' He ing had originally formed the boundary much impressed by this feat so easily almost said this aloud as he entered the line. He had added on and sold off in performed. Not one could do it, to their of commons this afternoon is again in surprise and disgust. little gate of his own yard. places as the former owner had done.

His wife was sitting by the window His possessions acquired a new value in watching for him. He never noticed his eyes as a corner of the Bunchtown before how gray her hair was growing, district.

how round and bent forward the awk- Something of this thought was in his ward shoulders. Somehow the light on the table back of her emphasized her unattractive features. Yet Lucy was the

The boys and their father sceme

(To be continued.)

Temperauce.

A SAD SCENE IN COURT.

some time past the religious authorities

ishes in the north. The correspondent engineers hal everywhere a reputation has been given to understand that the of being able and high minded men, and contemplated crusade will be entered the minister did right in treating them "I thought of teaching this fall in upon as soon as the eyes of the church as such. Mr. Girouard proceeded to carry on the great mission. The preach- make allowance for extras on account of secular priesthood, and perhaps from of contracts on the Intercolonial, on both, and they of course will have to be canals, etc., in which Mackenzie, as "Not exactly, but I understood there would be no opposition to your election subject in hand, and to be in perfect payments to contractors in excess of the r.form. It goes without saying that the always wrong to give contracts to other inauguration of this movement will be e than the lowest tenderer. Mr. Girouard watched with manifold interest by the read another long list of contr 'Two winters in Buggsville. I've had people of Quebec and the Dominion, given by Mackenzie, including the Lev of education'. It was several years old 'Could you thrash two big fellows Canada in this their latest endeavor to would not say that Mackenzie di and that the higher clergy in French dock contract to this same firm. II T Father Hill, as he was familiarly and is quite probab'e he had never in- like them ?-indicating with his thumb elevate the moral status of their people wrong, on the contrary in most, perhap perance crusale, the same to be carried But the house would remember that

Gaspe to the river Ottawa, and from the

on in every village and town from long after the enquiry legan the whole every good citizen of Canada irrespec on the advice of his engineers. what Mr. Girouard conceded was right for Mackenzie, he claime I, was right fo other means by which Sir Hector w OTTAWA, September 18.-The house victimized was by his old intinu committee on the controverted elections Thos. McGreevy-an intimacy bill. Mulock got an amendment limit began when Sir Hector was in oppo ing the amount of costs to be taken on tion, and which he probaly knew n petition. It was also decided to increase reason for bringing to an end. As t the amount of deposit to be put up on political contributions, Mr. Giroual appeal from $100 to $500 except when said such subscripious had undoub!

Langevin, and could not con lemn him for Dominion Parliament.

the appeal was on preliminary proceed- been made. The evil of political st nge. Laurier moved an amendment scriptions was, no doubt, serious, but having things handy, had cluttered up the been waiting to see you.'

saudcate.

Children Cry for | Pitche's Castoria,

THE UNION ADVOCATE, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1891. The Union Advocate, were found fault with out ne thought the represented. were found fault with but he thought the lower district with him and then Report of the Miramichi Ladies' Personal. Sons of Temperance. 21-S. S. Coila, 161, McDonald, Pelly Is-The Rustler. Mr. M. Russell's new steamer made her first land, iron pyrites, M. S. F. Co. ; bk Dagny, Auxiliary Bible Society. trip to Redbank on Thursday last. It was 519, Gjertsue, London, bal., N. B. T. Co.; were of omission and not commission. A wrangle then ensued between Mr. WHITNEYVILLE DIVISION NO 329. Established 1867. Mrs. R. A. Chapman and Mr. Fred. The Seventy First Annual Meeting of Chapman were in town last week spend-This Division is in a healthy and a cold wet day and consequently but few per- brig Dagny, 523, Rosendahl, Sharpness, bal, He thought there were lots of things to | W. Robinson and Mr. Morrison in refer-NEWCASTLE, MIRAMICHI, N. B. WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMB'R 30, 1891. Ind fault with in the affairs of this town. WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMB'R 30, 1891. Ind fault with in the affairs of this town. WEDNESDAY, September 10 a nearly and consequently but few per-WEDNESDAY, September 200 wet any and consequently but few per-ing a few days smoog friends here. Ind fault with in the affairs of this town. Ind fault with in the affairs of this town. WEDNESDAY, September 200 wet any and consequently but few per-ing a few days smoog friends here. Ind fault with in the affairs of this town. Ind fault with in the aff long and useful career, notwithstand-ing a large number of valued and use-since. the pripe of the since the since of the since since the since ment was managed. We had two fine im- another appointed. Mr. Morrison Hall, Chatham, on the 24th September, Messrs. James Farrel, of Cloquet, ing a large number of valued and use- since. berries, W. S. Loggie. plements for extinguishing fires but they charged him with placing amounts in at 2 o'clock p. m. Miss Chlamers, wis-Consin, Allan Farrel, of Montana, ful members are crossing the border and Sam'l Osborn, all former residents into Uncle Sam's domain, others are plements for extinguishing free but they charged him with placing amounts in at 2 betoek p. m. and set of montana, with placing amounts in at 2 betoek p. m. and set of montana, with placing amounts in at 2 betoek p. m. and set of montana, into Uncle Sam's domain, others zre fieldent, occupied the chair. fire company and seemed to be no one which Mr. R. denied. Mr. Morrison Rev. W. Altken was called upon to of Newcastle, are visiting their former steadily taking their places. The Official Antal Farrent, of Montana, into Uncle Sam's domain, others zre fieldents and Sam'i Osborn, all former residents of Newcastle, are visiting their former steadily taking their places. The Official Antal Farrent, of Montana, into Uncle Sam's domain, others zre fieldent, occupied the chair. Mr. Hennessy advertises a carload of Dignard, Tignish, bal., A. & R. Loggie; Sept. 25-sch Minney E. Moody, 112, Long, lberal o look after things. At the recent fire in town the steam said to have been paid to Mr. W. In the meeting were read to Mr. W. In the meeting were read to wel-Mr. H. donted after the meeting with prayer. The homes after several years absence. At the recent fire in town the steam said to have been paid to Mr. W. In the meeting were read to wel-Mr. H. donted after the meeting with prayer. The homes after several years absence. Mr. P. -Miss Susan Russe', Mr. On the meeting were read to wel-W. P. -Miss Susan Russe', Mr. -Mis to look after things. W. P.-Miss Susan Russe', W, A.-Wm. McTavish, fire engine stood in the middle of the Drummond for clearing sidewalks of and approved. The secretary stated come them sgain amongst them. He offers it at a small advance on cost, 24-schs Grizilda, 61, Bentin, Picton, coch Conservative R. S.-Frank Hare. and will deliver it at the steamboat M. S. F. Co. ; Marie Delphine, 76, Horton, road idle while the fire was burning snow, and Mr. Drammond stated he had that the legacy of the late Miss Percival Mrs. W. J. DeBlois, of Halifax, A. R. S.-Miss O.ivia Parker, because there seemed to be no one to got only $5.00, and in consequence of is acknowledged in the report of the formerly of Chatham, arrived here from wharf at Chatham for down river cus- New York, oil, E. Oil Co. ; Mary Star of the F. S.-John Jardine, direct it where to go. It was afterwards this and other charges his account was "British and Foreign Bible Society" Montreal early yesterday morning, sen, 59, Bouteelier, Pictou, bal., master; tomers. Treas.-Geo. E. McLean, sent to the marsh creek bridge. The referred to and investigated by a com- for 1891 in the following terms-"The She leaves for her home again on Maggie Roach, 43, McLean, deep sea fishing, Chap.-John Menzies, Small Pox. regulations of firewards needed to, be mittee of council and his account cut Committee regret to hear that one of Thursday morning. 38 bl 1 Mackerel, W. S. Loggie ; Rose, 11, C.-Major McTavish, the vice-presidents of the Miramichi M. Adams, E-q., M. P., arrived home A case of small pox is reported at Basque, Tracadie, herries, W. S. Loggie. looked after so that the service might down. A. C .- Miss Alberta Dunnet, be made as effective as possible and if Mr. Fairey thought these wrangles Ladies Auxiliary, Miss Percival, has yesterday morning. Dalhousie. The patient is a French-CLEARED. I. S.-Wm. Sherard. Sept. 19- sch Amy B., McLean, Pieton, the ratepayers would give him the nom-ination he would endeavor to do his present at this meeting to decide to the Society shows her remembrance have been visiting relatives of Mrs. man, who is believed to have come O. S .- Alex McLean, from Carleton, P. Q and brought bal., master; bk John Hansen, Osulasen, the disease with him. He has been Sharpness, deals, W. Richards; sch Win. A full meeting of this Club is called for Monday evening next as matters of importance are to P. W. P.-Everett Goodfellow. completely isolated and is reported as Sinclair, Shippegan, lumber, W. S. Leggie. toing well. The health authorities 22-sch Margaret Ann, Buckler, Sydney, lumber, master; sch Lorre, Souier, Shippegan, NEWCASTLE DIVISION NO 45. The officers elect for the ensuing qua as matters of importance are to be brought up. Chair taken at 8 his opinion that the lower district has not a free con-training the respected of the respected have acted promptly and it is hoped gen. cargo, W. S. Loggie. Sept. 23-sloop Beaver, Dignard, Poke-monche, tin cases, A. R. Loggie ; S. S. Coi a, Restigouche Teachers' Institute. the disease will not spread. a right to be represented. It was not would they take Mr. Kethro and Mr. tribution of £30 stg., and conveying an W. P.-W. C. Anslow, o'clock. J. R. LAWLOR, from any act of theirs they had elected Doyle, and when they had nominated expression of the Home Society's appre-W. A.-Minnie Maltby, The teachers Institute of the Co. of The Family Herald. McD onald, Glace, bal., master; sch Rose, Ass. Sect. two men last year, they had the grit to them an important question was would ciation of the work of the Auxiliary. R. S.-Thos. Hill, Restigouche met in Campbellton on the We offer the UNION ADVOCATE and the Ache, Shippegan, gen. cargo, J. B. Snowba l. stick to the two men who had been they all vote for them. Several of the It was agreed that the Chatham De- 24th inst. and was in session for two A. R. S. -Sherman Troy, Sept. 29, 1890. 24- sch. Mary, Star of the Sea ; Bouthelier, nominated from their district and elect- former speakers reiterated their state- pository be placed under the care of A. successive days. Several excellent F. S.-Alvin Falconer, Montreal "Family Herald and Weekly Star" for $1.60 per year. Montreal, oysters, master. Treas.-Daniel McGruar. ed them and left ours out and they were ments. Mr. Morrison referred to the J. Loggie, and accordingly removed to papers on subjects relating to education Chaplain,-James Falconer, not to blame for that. When he was statement of Mr. Troy that he had acted his store. It was also agreed that Mr. were read, freely discussed an l applaud-The Council Election. Blackville & Derby Agricultural Con.-Ben Maltby, nominated he had made up his mind if in a dastardly manner, and neither he Loggie be allowed the usual discount ed. Several model classes were taught Correspondence. A. C.-Martha Sutherland, Society Ploughing Match and The approaching Council election is elected to work for the best interests por any other should make such a for his work. by experienced teachers, with the best The reports from the Depository in results. Mr. Edgett, teacher of the T. S.-Edward Falconer. and Cattle Show. still creating considerable excitement of the parish. However some persons charge without his prompt denial. O. S.-Walter guiherland, RESTIGOUCHE AND VICTORIA among the ratepayers and the meeting had gone back on Monday's meeting Mr. Fairy moved that a committee be Chatham were read as follows :--Superior School, Charlo, taught a class Organist. - Mary Russell. The following is a list of the Prizes to be awarded COLONIZATION RAILWAY CO. of Monday night of last week, called by and this meeting was called to take into appointed to nominate two candidates for Miramich' Ladles' Auxiliary Bible S'ty on Square Root, which specially elicited at the Show of this Society to be held on its ground at Indiantown on Wednesday, 14th October, 1891. It was on motion decided to have a public the Merchants' and Manufacturers' consideration the nomination of two councillors, one from Newcastle and one To A. J. Loggie. installation of officers on Thursday evening, high commendation. He purposely se-DRAUGHT OR FARM HORSES. Association in the best interests of the candidates for councillors, and he was from Douglastown, which was seconded 1891. Aug. 19. Editor Advocate. lected a class of pupils who knew noth-October 1st, and that the mombers of Holdfas ratepayers was not a success, principal- here now only as a ratepayer. and of the subject. He first illustrated by a system of blocks what a square is. He then illustrated by reference to plants what is meant by a root; and by a system of blocks what a square is. He then illustrated by reference to plants what is meant by a root; and 1st Pr. 2nd Pr. To Bibles sent to Newcastle SIR-A meeting of the charter menby Mr. Crocker, and carried. Mare One Year old $1.25 ly because ratepayers went there who He had listened to Mr. Kethro and Depository, 1.50 bers of this Railway will be held at The following were appointed Messrs. do. Two do. do. 1.75 were pledged to support the self nom- thought he would, if elected, have his James Brown, George Stables, B. Sept. 7. Cash $1.00, 1 memo. book 8c, Mrs. do. Three do. do. 1.75 Campbellton on the 15th of October next inated candidate no matter who else hands full if he meddled with things Fairey, W. Norman and George Brown, .75 to take into consideration all business. plants what is meant by a root; and horough or Gelding one year old 1.25 1 08 then combined the two ideas together McCurdy, elding two years old with which the council had no business, and the committee retired. During was nominated. that would help further the interest of Hence on the following morning when and if he did his best he would still be the few minutes they were absent about do. Three do. do. 2.25 1.75 square root. He then taught them by To Our Subscribers. ring Colt, Thorough, Gelding or the said road. I would suggest that a $11 54 figures drawn on the blackboard how to it was learned that the parties had de- found fault with. In reference to the half of those present left the hall. 1.00 Mare .75 survey be made of the different lines clared their intention to vote for Messrs. fire department there was a board of Mr. Brown reported that the com-A large number of persons are in-Cr. extract the "square root" of any given TROTTING OR CARRIAGE HORSES. Via Eel River Valley and the Campbell-Kethro and Hennessy in spite of their firewards who attended to the duties of mittee had concluded to nominate Messrs. April 21. number of squares. He had three boxes debted to us for subscriptions, as well Mare one year old 1.50 1.00 ton Route, the Tide Head line has already apparent acceptance of the nomination the departm ent, hired a man to look Kethro and Doyle. On motion report By 1 bookcase $15 00 containing some hundreds of squares of as for advertising and job work, but do. two do. do. 1.25 been surveyed. Each of the three sur-1.75 different colors, and taught them to 81 48 build up a square with them on the should be pleased to have the same set-Gelding two years old of Messrs Hennessy and Morrison after the steam fire engine and perform- was adopted. A motion was then made Invoice of Bibles from Brown 2.00 1.00 veys should be placed before the governwhen the vote was taken to make the ed other duties and he felt that even Mr. to make the choice unanimous but on 1.50 Bros. choice unanimous, it was felt that the attempt to discard political issues in partment was efficiently looked after A vote of thanks was passed to the 34 15 table. He then made them work ques- tled forthwith. It takes cash to run a do. 1.75 1.25 ment and they will decide which of the June 19. " table. He then made them work ques-tions on the blackboard in detail, and newspaper and when so many of our Spring Foal, Thorough, Gelding or 2.00 <sup>1.75</sup> three lines will be the easiest made and 1.00 the best for the whole country. As this civic matters had failed, and nothing and was out of debt. He had alluded to chairman and the meeting adjourned. $130 63 not according to the abbreviations gen- subscribers let their accounts run for Mare 1.50 is to be a colonization road it should be further could be done in that direction, this department in reply to Mr. Kethro. On Monday evening several friends of erally given in the Arithmetics. As a years without payment it is difficult to CATTLE. It was resolved upon to call a public meeting yet it was felt that this would sho tail and hence many who had membered that the new law made the sho tail and hence many who had 1.00 put in the best place for that purpose. $119 09 whole the model lesson taught by Mr. keep things moving. We have always Bull one year old 1.50 1.50 Where there are facilities for farming, 2.00 lumbering and sawmilling, when these do. two do. do. do. three do. do. and upwards Edgett was a grand success, and called been unwilling to place accounts in the 2.00 forth the approbation of the whole hands of a collecting justice, hoping, ap-3.00 also fail and hence many who had membered that the new law made the Mr. Morrison to allow himself to be put 2.00 1.75 9 78 Institute, It would be well if Mr. parently against hope, that the delin- Heifer one year old attended the first meeting declared rate per day for road tax 50 cents, and in nomination and he is now in the field books sold), three branches of business succeed all their intention to have nothing to do with the second as there was a deter-would find every cent of the money of the Parish. The following are in th 1.00 1.00 others will follow and be a complete Edgett would take his box to the pro- quents would honestly pay their just do. two do. do. 1 25 8128 87 vincial Institute and repeat his model debts, but we have been too sanguine One pair Steers one year old .75 success, and the country will boom 1.00 do. do. do. two do. do. do. do. do. three do. do. do. do. do. four do. do mined effort being made to drop Mr. could be expenden to advantage. The field. and now come to the conclusion to force 1.50 Amount of goods on hand along for at least a quarter of a century, lesson. 2.00 Morrison because of his political prin- question of improved sewerage would Donald Morrison, 2.00 which should be pleasing to most of the .75 people on the new line of railway. payment of all amounts due. 105 Bibles, $87 30 2.50 ciples and they would not countenance have also to be taken into consideration. THE UNION ADVOCATE has been re- Spring Calf, Bull, Heifer or Steer John G. Kethro. 50 Testaments, Sunday School Helper. 5 72 such a scheme. Mr. Morrison is a man He was not eager to run, knowing as duced in price to ONE DOLLAR per year Lawrence Doyle. 3 Psalm Books, 1 29 SHEEP AND PIGS. Yours Respectfully, of experience as a councillor and was wanted on the council to look after the from the town it would entail upon The September number of this inter- strictly in advance, and it will be to the Ram and Ewe one to six years old 1 Book Case, 15 00 1.00 ROBERT MILLER. esting publication presents the protrait interest of our subscribers to pay up Spring Lambs Ram and Ewe their arrears and get the paper at the Spring Pigs Boar and Sow .75 1.50 Eel River Crossing, Sept. 21st, 1891. 1.00

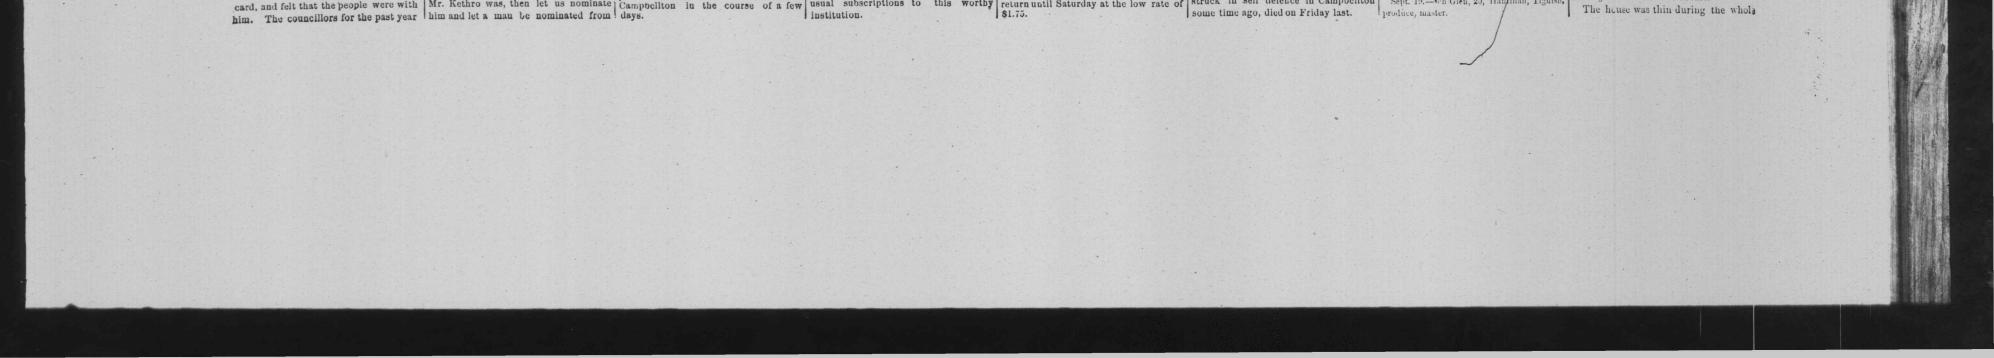

inswick's Great Loss.

NOW

interests of the upper district as well

| interests of the upper district as well  | them a large amount of work to have to   | New Drunswick's dreat Loss.  | 6 109 31  | of Mr. George Haddow, of Dalhousie,   | their arrears and get the paper at the  |  | Let River Crossing, Sept. 21st, 1691.   |
|--|--|--|--|---|---|--|---|
|  | look after the affairs of the lower dis-   | A Restigouche correspondent writes   | The following collections were receiv-   | a well known S. S. worker. The "S.  | reduced price, and if they are put tolegal expenses in collecting through a   | FRUIT, VEGETABLES AND SEEDS.   | SEVOGLE RIVER, Septer 23rd, 1891.   |
| A man of experience in council matters   | tricts.  | as follows :   | ed by the Treasurer,   | S. Helper" is published at Sussex, at   | justice of the peace the fault will be  | Apples per Half Bushel .70 .60   | DEAR SIR.   |
| was needed especially by the towns-  | Mr. Crocker would like to ask Mr.  | The late Superintendent of Educa-  |  | 25 cents per year, or in clubs of five or   | theirs not ours. It is not honest to ex-  | Apples—Crab per Half Bushel.50.30Onions—Potatoe.70.60  | As Mr. R. R. Call will be away from   |
| people and in Mr. Morrison they were   | Morrison a question. Did he intend   | tion, Mr. Crockett, passed through Res-  |  | more at ten cents per year for each   | pect and receive the property of anotherwithout paying for it, and we hope all  | Onions—any variety .70 .60   | Newcastle, it will be impossible for me   |
| satisfied they had the right man, and  | to run with Mr. Doyle of Douglastown ?   | tigouche last week en route to assume  |  | subscription.   | indebted to us will prove they have   |  | to see him before leaving for the States,   |
| only for the idea last year that he was  | He had heard so and would like to  | his duties as Professor of Classics in   |  | The following sketch accompanies the  | been thoughtless rather than dishonest  | Mangold Wurtzels one bushel .60 .50Beets do do 60 50   | so with your kind permission, I shouldlike to thank him through the medium  |
| sure of his election making them carelessof depositing their ballots the upper   | know if it was true.   | Morin College, Quebec. The education-  | Middle District, 21 00   | pleasant picture of Mr. Haddow :  | by paying up the amount of their indebtdness at once.   | Potatoes do. do60 .59  | of your valuable paper for the liberty he   |
| of depositing their ballots the apperDistrict of the Parish would not have   | Mr. Morrison asked him to give his   |  |  | Mr. Geo. Haddow, of Dalhousie, N.   |   | Carrots per Half Bushel .60 .50  | gave me of fishing his trout pools wherein  |
| been left unrepresented at the Council   | authority, which Mr. Crocker declined  | ed a great loss by his removal. His  | Douglastown, 7 25  | B., whose portrait we give this month   | Recent Publications.  | Turnips—Swedish one bushel.60.50Turnips—White one bushel.60.50   | I caught one day 50, another day 45 and   |
| board. The opposition to Mr. Morrison  | to give. Mr. Morrison said that up to  | name is a household word even to the   |  | is the treasurer of our Association. He   |   | Pumpkins per 1 dozen .60 .50   | the third day 76 fine sea trout.  |
| comes entirely from the Liberals of the  | that time he had made no such  | remotest corner of the province. He  | $98 87  | is prominently and well-known in his  | HARPERS MAGAZINE for October presents   | Beans-Colored one bushel .80 .50   | I cannot help but mention the praise-   |
| town who care not by whom the Parish   | arrangement, but he felt at perfect  | was the most popular man in our midst  | Sales in Chatham Depository, 9 78  | own denomination, especially in his own   | the following table of contents:-" Frontis-   | Indian Corn per half bushel .60 .40  | worthy manner in which the fish war-dens protect the salmon rivers, especial y  |
| is represented at the council board so   | liberty to make such an arrangement  | from the Governor-General downwards.   |  | County and presbytery, where his coun-sels are highly valued. We could not  | a succession and rich guarter of Callo  | Squash per half dozen.50.30Timothy Seed half a bushel.75.50  | those who came under my direct notica.  |
| long as they can prevent him from being  | if he thought proper. He would ask   | No government ever did a more unpop-   | $108 65   | but observe at the recent Restigouche   | Cairo in 1890; Thy Will be Done ; Letters of  | Clover do. do. do  | namely Messrs. George Easty, James  |
| the mensor antetives as he appears   | Mr. Crocker if he did not state that the   | ular or more dishonorable act than the   | From this statement it is apparent   | S. S. Convention how the young, and in-   | Charles Dickens to Wilkie Collins; A Legendof Sonora; The Art Students League of New  | Beets do. 1 lb30 .25   | Easty and the overseer Mr. Pat. Hogan.  |
| to know too much for them, and this feel-  | meeting on Monday night was a fizzle,  | government of New Brunswick in dis-  | The status how in the sad halfus   | deed the old, seemed to regard him  | York, Peter Ibbetson; Interpreted; An Un-   | Carrot do. do30 .25  | Hoping you will insert the above in   |
| ing was very evident at the meeting on   | as those present would not vote ior  | missing the late Superintendent of Ed-   | or the areasting compared first  | with love almost filial. He is spoken of  | finished Story; Glimpses of Western Architec-   |  | your paper, you will greatly oblige   |
| Friday night by the remarks made.  | such a nomination, and he had then   | ucation. They have yet to answer for   |  | as "A model Supt." Before the S. S.   | ture ; St. Paul and Minneapolis ; A Courier's   | PLOWING MATCH-5 PRIZES.  | Yours most sincerely,   |
|  | stated the whole thing was a farce.  | such conduct before another tribunal than the electors of Kent last week.  | cate a considerable deficit. This is notowing to any want of liberality but  |   | Ride ; An Imperative Duty ; Common Sense in   | rirst Prize $5.00   | JULIUS A. ESCOBAR, M. D.  |
| FRIDAY EVENING'S MEETING.  | Mr. Crocker said he had asked Mr.  |  | owing to any want of liberality butsolely to the fact that a large number  | less than thirteen letters inviting his   | Surgery ; London-Plantagenet III. the Peo.  | Second Prize 4.00Third Prize 3.50  |   |
|  | Morrison a question but his answer was   | cation. As a teacher in a common   |  | attention to association methods. Some  | pro, inais of a rainters wile: Editor's Essy  | Fourth Prize 3.00  | Dominion Parliament.  |
| Mr. P. Cox was appointed chairman,   | an evasive one. Had he not been down   | school, as principal of a Grammar  | tributious. This is a matter of regret,  | will remember his words when there.   | Chair, Study, Monthly Record and Drawer."   | Fifth Prize 2.75   | Common Anomente   |
| and on taking his place on the platform  | to see Mr. Doyle to ask him if he would  | school, and as principal of the Normal   | but it is hoped that the collectors in   | Since then he has proved one of our   | Published by Harper & Brothers, New York,   | Exhibition to be held on the grounds of the Sc-ciety at Indianto vn.   |   |
| made some remarks in reference to the  | not run with him. He (Crocker) object-   | school he succeeded in imparting some  | these Districts will make special ef-  | most valued workers.  | at $4.00 per year.   | Persons intending to compete in the Plowing  | (Continue 1 from first page).   |
| object of the meeting of which he had  | ed to any increased taxation, we were  | of his euthusiasm to his pupils. Some  |  | The writer first met him at the Con-  | ST. NICHOLAS for October contains :   | Match will be on the Grounds at or before ten o'.  | arguing that Murphy was not quite so  |
| but a very misty idea. However he  | poor and did not want to pay any more  | of his former pupils are among the best  | send in the much needed contributions  | vention of 1889 and those first impres-   | "Frontispiece-You Make so Much Noise I  | clock. None will be received after eleven o'clock  | black as he was painted, Mr. Tarte said .   |
| saw present one of the candidates nom-   | taxes, and the town expenditures should  | scholars in the Dominion, such as Dr.  |  | sions have ever since deepened. We  | Can't Sleep; An Artist Who Loves Cats and   | excepting by decision of the board.All exhibitors before entering any animal or for  | he felt it his duty to make some observa-   |
| inated on Monday night and he would  |  | McCurdy, Proffessor of Languages in  | for the year.  | thank God for such a Christian friend   | Dogs and Paints Them ; The Fortunes of Toby   | competition in the Plowing Match, must obtain  | tions about the conduct of the minister   |
| call upon Mr. Hennessy to come for-  | work of a commissioner appointed by  | the University of Toronto. The people  |  | and worker and pray Him to increas  | Trafford ; A Curious Relic ; Chan-Ok ; Tee-   |  | of justice. He wished to say that from  |
| ward and address the meeting.  | Mr. Morrison, (Cries of Name, name,but he declined to name him,) the system  | throughout the province were highly  | be sent as a free contribution to the Pa-  | them through the land.  | Wahn Folk-Lore ; Little Plunkett's Cousin :   | or on the morning of the Exhibition.   | the moment that it appeared that there  |
|  |  |  | rent Society, and that the balance of the  |   | A School Girl's Recollections of Hans Christian   | All stock intended for Exhibition must be on the ground at or before ten o'clock, n. m., and none  | was ground for the charges, that moment   |
|  | was wrong the money should be expend-  | able article on the conduct of the gov-  | money on hand be used in furthering the  | Obituary.   | Andersen ; The Time o' Night ; The Story of   | will be received after eleven o'clock except by de-  |   |
|  | ed by public tender. A piece of road leading up to Mr. Hennessy's which had  | ernment in dismissing his former teach-  |  | Obituary.   | Nebraska Allen ; Black Art ; Books of Olden   | cision of the board.   | and Henry, counsel for the department,  |
| candidates, and the dissatisfactionevinced on the day following was the  | heading up to Mr. Hennessy's which had   | er, the high econium he gave him as  | tricts.  | A Correspondent Writes It is our  | Time; Jack-in-the-Pulpit; Letter and RiddleBoxes; and Verses, Pictures and Jingles."-   | Exhibitors of stock of every kind must be ownersof the same and prepared to prove the age andbreed if required.  | to confer with him and the counsel for  |
|  | least $2.50 per rod, which if sold by pub-  | an educationist and as one of his in-  | The following resolutions were unani-  | nainful duty to announce the death of   | Published by the Century Co., New York, at  |  | the prosecution. These counsel said that  |
| Whether this meeting would ratify the  | lie competition could have been done for   | structors.   |  | Andrew Harvie, Esq., of Nash's Creek,   | 88.00 per year  | The following Committee will prepare the groundsfor Exhibition and Plowing Match.  | their instructions were to co-operate in  |
| proceedings of Monday night or pro-  | To conte a rod He did not bleme the  | We have followed the career of Mr.   | bearers be reelected viz :   | Restigouche, which took place at his  |   | To lay out the grouds for Plowing Match, B. N.T. Underhill, F. H. Jardine and Francis Parks.   | carrying the investigation to the end, and  |
| ceed to nominate others did not concern  | commissioner but the system was  | Crockett sor upwards of thirty years in  | President-Miss Chalmers.   | residence on the evening of the 22nd  | THE PANSY for October is well filled with   |  |   |
| him very much, as he already held two  | wrong, and our money if properly ex-   | the province as an educationist. We al-  | Vice-presidents-Mrs. Snowball Mrs.   | inst., aged 54 years. On the previous   |   | Schofield, Wm. Schofield.  | in tracing out any frauds that might  |
| offices, that of Trustee of Schools and  | pended would be ample for the services.  | ways thought that the only blunder he  | Street and Mrs. Parker.  | Sabbath he attended divine worship in   |   | By order of the Board.THOMAS PARKER, JAMES S. WILSON.  | have been committed. He asked Mr.   |
| Alms House Commissioner, and he  | Mr. Morrison thought in justice to   | made was in accepting the office of Sup.   | Treasurer-Mrs. McCurdy.  | the Presbyterian Church, of which he  | testal It is salling the D T it of  | Destilient   | Osler and Mr. Henry whether they canie  |
| thought that was quite enough for him,   |  | erintendent of Education in New Bruns-wick. We deeply regretted that such  | Secretary-Mrs. Aitken.   | was a faithful Elder for many years.  | pany, Boston, at $1.00 per year.   |  | at the request of Sir Hector Langevia.They told him they did not but were   |
| and he had neither the time or ability to  | He had made no such arrangement with   | a distinguished scholar and a teacher of   | 2nd. That the General Committee be   | He felt somewhat indisposed on the  |   | are men and women by thousands suffer-   |   |
| properly represent them at the council   | Mr. Doyle as stated by Mr. Crocker but   | such rare ability should fritter away  | re-appointed.  | following Monday but no danger was  | Mill Burned.  | ing from all sorts of diseases, bearing  | acting under instructions of the minister   |
|  | ha felt himself quite at liberty to do as  | most of his time in settling petty dis-putes of trustees or boundaries of  |  | apprehended until a few hours previous  |   | on physicians and getting no better  | of justice. From that period he had all   |
| others in place of these nominated on  |  | school idistricts. The government of   |  | to his death.   | The mill of the St. Lawrence Lumber   | hat asther man 1 1 1 1 1   | the assistance which they or the minister   |
| Others in place of these   |  |  |  |   |   |  |   |
| Monday evening he was quite willing it   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.  | N. B. after all may have done a very   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-   | He was held in high esteem by all   | Co., at Bathurst, known as the Burns  | hand there's a remedy which says it can  | of justice in their respective situations   |
| Monday evening he was quite willing it   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.  | N. B. after all may have done a very good thing, not intentionally indeed, in  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.   | He was held in high esteem by allclasses of the community as will be  | mill with a quantity of lumber was  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousands   | of justice in their respective situationscould give. He (Tarte) thought the   |
| should do so, as he had not the least  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a man  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent's  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-   |   | totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement' you say Yos but not  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on the  |
| should do so, as he had not the least  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith to much experience was nothing   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent's  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.   | classes of the community as will be   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman had  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine is   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice in  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith: o much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sending   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the position  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then called   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith: o much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspire  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and Miss  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered fire   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinary   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the position  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then callednoon. He stated that Mr. Morrison  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith to much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He had   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspire  | Chatham, Upper District—Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District—Miss Sumner.Middle District—Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook—Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown—Miss Miller.  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He was   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :—  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the position  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like to  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith to much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He had   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his old   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not be  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinary   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placed   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith so much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendeut'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-  | Chatham, Upper District—Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District—Miss Sumner.Middle District—Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook—Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown—Miss Miller.Napan, Upper Dist. —Miss Jardine.Lower District—Miss Bremner.   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-rlages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequles were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollars   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay your   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said 36 are in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he had  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith to much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and while   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhat  | Chatham, Upper District—Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District—Miss Sumner.Middle District—Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook—Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown—Miss Miller.Napan, Upper Dist. —Miss Jardine.Lower District—Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District—Miss Fal-  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although he   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere are no inverse.   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said 36 are in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he had  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet he  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against the   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony which   | Chatham, Upper District—Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District—Miss Sumner.Middle District—Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook—Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown—Miss Miller.Napan, Upper Dist. —Miss Jardine.Lower District—Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District—Miss Fal-coner.  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. He   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarymostrums in this :—It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay Yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said 36 are in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he had  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after having   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the Upper   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-  | Chatham, Upper District—Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District—Miss Sumner.Middle District—Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook—Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown—Miss Miller.Napan, Upper Dist. —Miss Jardine.Lower District—Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District—Miss Fal-coner.Middle District—Miss Maud Davidson.   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequles were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wants   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said 34 at in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it winhe gave notes and endorsed notes he ad   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at first  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything ever  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Annle Aitken,   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-rlages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since his   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :—It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay Yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, you  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said 34 at in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it winhe gave notes and endorsed notes he ad   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the people   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith to much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find with  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Annie Aitken,Nelson-Miss Sutton.  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on a  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queer   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said 4 at in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if whenhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the Bay  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doing  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxes   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he replied by   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Annie Aitken,Nelson-Miss Sutton.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he was   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :—It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, yonget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willing  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said 34 at in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it will inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have dore   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular man  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith so much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increased   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Annle Aitken,Nelson-Miss Sutton.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequles were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memory  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queer   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said 34 at in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it will inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doneit. Pacaud need not have paid these  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man for   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith so much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moon   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Annie Aitken,Nelson-Miss Sutton.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherished  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :—It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, yonget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willing  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said <sup>3</sup> for in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it whenhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doneit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith so much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase for  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District—Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District—Miss Sumner.Middle District—Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook—Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown—Miss Miller.Napan, Upper Dist. —Miss Jardine.Lower District—Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District—Miss Fal-coner.Middle District—Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District—Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District—Miss Annie Aitken,Nelson—Miss Sutton.Derby—Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackwille—Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown—Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville—M.s. Rae.   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left a  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficient  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :—It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, yonget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said 3 at in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it will inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The mone gaussed on them was in the   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much to  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 10 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the crection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our town  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Annie Aitken,Nelson-Miss Sutton.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters to   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,000 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vessels  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said <sup>3</sup> for in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it whenhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doneit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tocare the hed hear told he was long  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our town   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Annie Aitken,Nelson-Miss Sutton.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left a  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,000 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that building  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said that in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if the inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gaussed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said that  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meeting  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office the   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. MCG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stells, second  | <ul> <li>Chatham, Upper District—Miss Mc-Lachlan.</li> <li>Lower District—Miss Sumner.</li> <li>Middle District—Miss Sumner.</li> <li>Middle District—Miss Benson and MissLetson.</li> <li>Black Brook—Miss A. Loggie.</li> <li>Douglastown—Miss Miller.</li> <li>Napan, Upper Dist.—Miss Jardine.</li> <li>Lower District—Miss Bremner.</li> <li>Newcastle, Upper District—Miss Fal-coner.</li> <li>Middle District—Miss Maud Davidson.</li> <li>Lower District—Miss Maud Davidson.</li> <li>Lower District—Miss Annie Aitken,</li> <li>Nelson—Miss Sutton.</li> <li>Derby—Mrs. John W. Miller.</li> <li>Blackville—Mrs. Grindlay.</li> <li>Doaktown—Mrs. John L. Mnrray.</li> <li>Whitneyville—M.s. Rae.</li> <li>Redbank—Mrs. Murray.</li> <li>Sugary—Mrs. Todd.</li> <li>4th. That a cordial vote of thanks be</li> </ul>   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,000 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vessels  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said that in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if the inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The mone gaussed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned in  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with the   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debt   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stella. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late of   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Annie Aitken,Nelson-Miss Sutton.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligence   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters to   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter so  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said that in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if the inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gaussed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for biggs f   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest of   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months in  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stella. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Annie Aitken,Nelson-Miss Sutton.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pasty year and also to  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.The St. John Exhibition.  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,000 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :—It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said " in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if whinhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gaussed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bicuse fhe was not yet in a position to say work   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass now   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fund   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pastycar and also tothe Press for gratalitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closed  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their lass.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said that in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if thehe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for hismse fhe was not yet in a position to say thatverdict ought to be found in respect to   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith so much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Crocker   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he replied bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stella. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,were united in the holy bonds of mat-   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pastycar and also tothe Press for gratalitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closed  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequles were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services in  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said " in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if whinhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gaussed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bicuse fhe was not yet in a position to say work   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchanis to   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith so much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for the  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pastycar and also tothe Press for gratalitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closed  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their lass.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturday   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, on   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "A in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if a inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he adknown of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gaussed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for hiese fhe was not yet in a position to say thatverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 10 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference to   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pastypear and also tothe Press for gratuitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their lass.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturday   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning and   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes-but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, yonget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "A in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if a inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he adknowu of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gaugesed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bicuse fhe was not yet in a position to say foryeard to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited for   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith so much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he replied bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stella, seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,were united in the holy bonds of mat-rimony on the evening of the 23rdinst ; by the Rev. A. Carr, assistedby the Rev. T. Nicholson. The cere-mony took place at the residence ofJames Reid, Esq., uncle of the bride  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pasyyear and also tothe Press for gratalitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their lass.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the opening  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said that in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if the mo-he gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknowu of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The mone gased on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bicase fhe was not yet in a position to say forverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious to   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pastycar and also tothe Press for grataitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not at  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church. Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "And in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it was inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for hierse fhe was not yet in a position to say thatverdict onght to be found in respect toSir Heetor. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. The  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the pollceman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as parties   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pasty car and also tothe Press for gratalitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1891.  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened up   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church. Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "And in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it was inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for hierse fhe was not yet in a position to say thatverdict onght to be found in respect toSir Heetor. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because it  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the pollceman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as parties   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pasty car and also tothe Press for gratalitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1891.  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequles were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley and   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :—It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said * In the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it was anhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bicase fhe was not yet in a position to say forverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing the  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence shey had accepted the nom-ination.  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks were   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pastyper and also tothe Press for grataitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1801.In Camp at Sussex.  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their lass.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference, will conduct the   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :—It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "A at in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it willhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bicuse fhe was not yet in a position to say foryestverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence hey had accept the nom-ination.But politics had crept in and there  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon which   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pastypear and also tothe Press for grataitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Susser.The Newcastle Field Battery of   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their lass.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.Governor of P. E. I. were present.   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference, will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection in   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "And in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it was anhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it was anhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for hiese fhe was not yet in a position to say forverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into tha   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchanis torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence hey had accept in and therescemed to be a split in the arrange-   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith so much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stells. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,were united in the holy bonds of mat-rimony on the evening of the 23rdinst ; by the Rev. A. Carr, assistedby the Rev. T. Nicholson. The cere-mony took place at the residence ofJames Reid, Esq., uncle of the brideThe bride was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom was supported byDr. Murray. The grounds in front ofthe boxe were illuminated by a num-ber of chinese lanterns. The blendinglights had a charming effect on theflower beds which tastefully decoratedthe surroundings. It is now almost a  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pasty car and also tothe Press for gratalitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Sussez.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtillery, Col. Call commanding, left   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.Governor of P. E. I. were present.The opening address being delivered bythe C. E Experit and then Sir Leonard  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Method'st Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference, will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe evening will be in aid of the  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "A in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it was anhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it was anhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for hierse fhe was not yet in a position to say forverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into thagovernment generally as if every member   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the mejority,and hence .hey had accept the and therescemed to be a split in the arrange-ments, and hence this meeting was  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 10 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.It should not be done by day's work but  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pastypear and also tothe Press for gratalitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1801.In Camp at Sussez.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtillery, Col. Call commanding, leftNewcastle by special train on Tues-day of last week and arrived safely at  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their lass.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.Governor of P. E. I. were present.The opening address being delivered byafter addressing those present at some   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Method'st Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference, will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe evening will be in aid of the  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.Discuss .Funeral will take place this (Wednesday)afternoon at half past two o'clock.Shipping Hews.Sept. 22 - schr J. H. S., 40, Sonier, Tra-cudie, B. Berries, J. Young.Sept. 23 - schrs Reality, 88, Miller, Tracadie,Blue Berries, Golden City, 22, Coughlan,Chatham, Oats, master.Sept. 29 - schr Marian F., 23, Soniet.  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "A in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if whinhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if whinhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if whinhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistence from friends on thegave notes and endorsed notes he hadhouse of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bicase fhe was not yet in a position to say forverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into thisgovernment generally as if every memberwere implicated, accused the ministers  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchanis torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence hey had accept in and therescemed to be a split in the arrarge-ments, and hence this meeting wascalled. We wanted business men of   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 10 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.It should not be done by day's work butsold at public tender. When Mr. Geo.  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pastycar and also tothe Press for grataitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Susser.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtillery, Col. Call commanding, leftNewcastle by special train on Tues-day of last week and arrived safely atSussex the same evening. Since then   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.Governor of P. E. I. were present.The opening address being delivered byMr. C. E. Everitt and then Sir Leonardafter addressing those present at somelength declared the exhibition open.  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Method'st Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference, will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe evening will be in aid of the  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :—It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "A in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if whinhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if whinhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if whinhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistance from friends on thegave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistence from which the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bicase fhe was not yet in a position to say thatverdict ought to be found in prespect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir sitence. Then he pitched into thagovernment generally as if every memberwere implicated, accused the ministersof suppressing evidence, and launched   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence hey had accept in and thereseemed to be a split in the arrange-ments, and hence this meeting wascalled. We wanted business men ofexperience to represent us and if the  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase taxation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.It should not be done by day's work butsold at public tender. When Mr. Geo.Brown was cammissioner he sold the   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pasty year and also tothe Press for grataitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Sussex.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtillery, Col. Call commanding, leftNewcastle by special train on Tues-day of last week and arrived safely asSussex the same evening. Since thenthe Battery with the other forces have   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequles were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.Governor of P. E. I. were present.The opening address being dellvered byMr. C. E. Everitt and then Sir Leonardafter addressing those present at somelength declared the exhibition open.The display is a fine one and the vari   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Method'st Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference, will conduct theserviceat 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe evening will be in aid of the   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :—It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "A in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if whinhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if whinhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if whinhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistance from friends on thegave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistence from which the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for hiese fhe was not yet in a position to say thatverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into thagovernment generally as if every memberwere implicated, accused the ministersof suppressing evidence, and launchedout in one of his old-fashioned slang- |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the Canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and Ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence _hey had accepted the nom-ination.But politics had crept in and therescented to be a split in the arrange-ments, and hence this meeting wascalled. We wanted business men ofexperience to represent us and if theratepayers would vote for such the   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the pollceman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.It should not be done by day's work butsold at public tender. When Mr. Geo.Brown was cammissioner he sold therepairs in this way and he did not think   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stella. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,were united in the holy bonds of mat-rimony on the evening of the 23rdinst ; by the Rev. A. Carr, assistedby the Rev. T. Nicholson. The cere-mony took place at the residence ofJames Reid, Esq., uncle of the brideThe bride was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom was supported byDr. Murray. The grounds in front ofthe house were illuminated by a num-ber of chinese lanterns. The blendinglights had a charming effect on theflower beds which tastefully decoratedthe surroundings. It is now almost atruism to say that there was a fine dia-ply of valuable presents given tothe bride by many friends. Severaltrains on the I. C. R. which runs nearby passed during the evening gave a   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Annie Aitken,Nelson-Miss Sutton.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pasty year and also tothe Press for grataitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Susser.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtillery, Col. Call commanding, leftNewcastle by special train on Tues-day of last week and arrived safely atSusser the same evening. Since thenthe Battery with the other forces havebeen kept hard at work and are re-mentod ex mediar work and are re-  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.Governor of P. E. I. were present.The opening address being delivered byMr. C. E. Everitt and then Sir Leonardafter addressing those present at somelength declared the exhibition open.  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Mi ssionary Services .There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10 30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference, will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe evening will be in aid of theMissionary Society.A Gift .   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "And in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but if whichhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for hierse fhe was not yet in a position to say westverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Heetor. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into thisgovernment generally as if every memberwere implicated, accused the ministersof suppressing evidence, and launchedout in one of his old-fashioned slang-whanging harangues.  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that theMerchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence .hey had accept the nom-ination.But politics had crept in and thereseemed to be a split in the arrange-ments, and hence this meeting wascalled. We waated business men ofexperience to represent us and if theratepayers would vote for such theaffairs of the town would be properly  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.It should not be done by day's work butsold at public tender. When Mr. Geo.Brown was cammissioner he sold therepairs in this way and he did not thinkMr. Morrison appointed Mr. Brown.  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stells. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,were united in the holy bonds of mat-rimony on the evening of the 23rdinst ; by the Rev. A. Carr, assistedby the Rev. T. Nicholson. The cere-mony took place at the residence ofJames Reid, Esq., uncle of the brideThe bride was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom was supported byDr. Murray. The grounds in front ofthe borde was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom sus supported byDr. Murray. It is now almost atraism to say that there was a fine dis-ply of valnable presents given tothe bride by many friends. Severaltrains on the I. C. R. which runs nearby passed during the evening, gave aroyal salute, which was a contrast to  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Annie Aitken,Nelson-Miss Sutton.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pasty year and also tothe Press for grataitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Susser.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtillery, Col. Call commanding, leftNewcastle by special train on Tues-day of last week and arrived safely atSusser the same evening. Since thenthe Battery with the other forces havebeen kept hard at work and are re-mentod ex mediar work and are re-  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.The opening address being delivered byMr. C. E. Everitt and then Sir Leonardafter addressing those present at somelength declared the exhibition open.The display is a fine one and the variocs amusements provided by the com-mittee have attracted and interested thethousands of spectators who have   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whitington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference, will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe weing will be in aid of theMissionary Society.  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :—It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "And in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it washe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it washe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknowu of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for hiese fhe was not yet in a position to say westverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Heetor. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into thisgovernment generally as if every memberwere implicated, accused the ministersof suppressing evidence, and launchedout in one of his old-fashioned slang-whanging harangues.Mr. Cameron closed at one o'Clock in  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence hey had accept in and therescemed to be a split in the arrange-ments, and hence this meeting wascalled. We waated business men ofexperience to represent us and if theratepayers would vote for such theaffairs of the town would be properlyconducted. It was not creditable to  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Crockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.It should not be done by day's work butsold at public tender. When Mr. Geo.Brown was cammissioner he sold therepairs in this way and he did not thinkMr. Morrison appointed Mr. Brown.He thought that if such an arrange  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stells. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,were united in the holy bonds of mat-rimony on the evening of the 23rdinst ; by the Rev. A. Carr, assistedby the Rev. T. Nicholson. The cere-mony took place at the residence ofJames Reid, Esq., uncle of the brideThe bride was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom was supported byDr. Murray. The grounds in front ofthe borde was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom sus supported byDr. Murray. It is now almost atraism to say that there was a fine dis-ply of valuable presents given tothe bride by many friends. Severaltrains on the I. C. R. which runs nearby passed during the evening, gave aroyal salute, which was a contrast tothe music skilfully rendered by Miss  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pastypear and also tothe Press for grataitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Sussex.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtillery, Col. Call commanding, leftNewcastle by special train on Tues-day of last week and arrived safely atSussex the same evening. Since themthe Battery with the other forces havebeen kept hard at work and are re-ported as making good progress.  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their lass.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.Governor of P. E. I. were present.The opening address being delivered byMr. C. E. Everitt and then Sir Leonardafter addressing those present at somelength declared the exhibition open.The display is a fine one and the variots amusements provided by the com-mittee have attracted and interested thethousands of spectators who havethronged to the exhibition. Our St.   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fail and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Method'st Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the Londou(On t.) Conference. will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe evening will be in aid of theMissionary Society.  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said * In the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it wanhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it wanhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknowu of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doteit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more goased on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bickse fhe was not yet in a position to say factverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into thisgovernment generally as if every memberwere implicated, accused the ministersof suppressing evidence, and launchedout in one of his old-fashioned slang-whanging harangues.Mr. Cameron closed at one o'clock inthe morning, having spoken three hours  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence .hey had accept in and thereseemed to be a split in the arrange-ments, and hence this meeting wascalled. We wanted business men ofexperience to represent us and if theratepayers would vote for such theaffirs of the town would be properlyconducted. It was not creditable tothe shiretown that during the past year   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith so much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.It should not be done by day's work butsold at public tender. When Mr. Geo.Brown was cammissioner he sold therepairs in this way and he did not thinkMr. Morrison appointed Mr. Brown.He thought that if such an arrangement had been made as that spoken of   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stells. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,were united in the holy bonds of mat-rimony on the evening of the 23rdinst ; by the Rev. A. Carr, assistedby the Rev. T. Nicholson. The cere-mony took place at the residence ofJames Reid, Esq., uncle of the brideThe bride was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom was supported byDr. Murray. The grounds in front ofthe boxe were illuminated by a num-ber of chinese lanterns. The blendinglights had a charming effect on theflower beds which tastefully decoratedthe surroundings. It is now almost atrains on the I. C. R. which runs nearby passed during the evening, gave aroyal salute, which was a contrast tothe bride by many friends. Severaltrains on the I. C. R. which runs nearby passed during the evening, gave aroyal salute, which was a contrast tothe music skilfully rendered by MissGait. At midnight the wedding party   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pasyyear and also tothe Press for grataitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Sussez.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtiller, Col. Call commanding, leftNewcastle by special train on Tues-day of last week and arrived safely atSusser the same evening. Since thenthe Battery with the other forces havebeen kept hard at work and are / re-ported as making good progress.   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.The opening address being delivered byMr. C. E. Everitt and then Sir Leonardafter addressing those present at somelength declared the exhibition open.The display is a fine one and the variocs amusements provided by the com-mittee have attracted and interested thethousands of spectators who have   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,000 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference. will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe evening will be in aid of theMissionary Society.A Gift.The Moniteur Acadien notes the pre-sent ation to Rev. M. F. Richard, ofRogersville, of a handsome silver-headedcane by Messrs. Clark, Kerr & Thorne,  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "And in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it was inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more goased on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for hiese fhe was not yet in a position to say theverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into thisgovernment generally as if every memberwere implicated, accused the ministersof suppressing evidence, and launchedout in one of his old-fashioned slang-whanging harangues.Mr. Cameron closed at one o'clock inthe morning, having spoken three hoursin support of the alligation that Sir  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence hey had accept in and thereseemed to be a split in the arrange-ments, and hence this meeting wascalled. We wanted business men ofexperience to represent us and if theratepayers would vote for such theaffirs of the town would be properlyconducted. It was not creditable tothe shiretown that during the past yearit was represented by men from the  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 10 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.It should not be done by day's work butsold at public tender. When Mr. Geo.Brown was cammissioner he sold therepairs in this way and he did not thinkMr. Morrison appointed Mr. Brown.He thought that if such an arrangement had been made as that spoken ofby Mr. Crocker, that it was a dastardly  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stells. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,were united in the holy bonds of mat-rimony on the evening of the 23rdinst ; by the Rev. A. Carr, assistedby the Rev. T. Nicholson. The cere-mony took place at the residence ofJames Reid, Esq., uncle of the brideThe bride was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom was supported byDr. Murray. The grounds in front ofthe house were illuminated by a num-ber of chinese lanterns. The blendinglights had a charming effect on theflower beds which tastefully decoratedthe surroundings. It is now almost atruism to say that there was a fine dis-ply of valuable presenus given tothe bride by many friends. Severaltrains on the I. C. R. which runs nearby passed during the evening, gave aroyal salute, which was a contrast tothe music skilfully rendered by MissGalt. At midnight the wedding partymarched in procession to the station,which is only a few hundred yards dis-   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pasyyear and also tothe Press for gratatious advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Sussez.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtillery, Col. Call commanding, leftNewcastle by special train on Tues-day of last week and arrived safely atSussex the same evening. Since thenthe Battery with the other forces havebeen keept hard at work and are / re-ported as making good progress.   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-rlages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequles were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their lass.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.Governor of P. E. I. were present.The opening address being delivered byMr. C. E. Everitt and then Sir Leonardafter addressing those present at somelength declared the exhibition open.The display is a fine one and the various anusements provided by the com-mittee have attracted and interested thethousands of spectators who havethronged to the exhibition. Our St.John exchanges are filled with descrip-tions of the various exhibits, which aresaid to be equal to any shown before in   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference, will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe evening will be in aid of theMissionary Society.A Gift.The Moniteur Acadien notes the pre-sent ation to Rev. M. F. Richard, ofRogersville, of a handsome silver-headedcane by Messrs. Clark, Kerr & Thorne,of St John. On the head is inscribed a  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.Discuss .Funeral will take place this (Wednesday)afternoon at half past two o'clock.Shipping Hews.PORT OF NEWCASTLE.ENTERED-FROM SEA.Sept. 22-schr Capella, 30, Bell, Ch'town,Bell, master.Sept. 23-schrs Reality, 85, Miller, Tracadie,Blue Berries, J. Young.Sept. 23-schr Marian F., 23, Sonier,Tracadie, Bue Berries, W.n. Ferguson.ENTERED COSTWISE.Sept. 22-schr Capella, 30, Bell, Summer-side, Laths, master.Sept. 22-schr Capella, 30, Bell, Summer-side, Laths, master.Sept. 22-schr Marian F., 23, Sonier,Tracadie, Bue Treis, J. Young.Sept. 23-schr Marian F., 23, Sonier,Tracadie, Bue Treis, W.n. Ferguson.ENTERED COSTWISE.Sept. 22-schr Capella, 30, Bell, Summer-side, Laths, master.Sept. 22-schr Capella, 30, Bell, Summer-side, Laths, master.Sept. 23-schr Mary Joseph, 56, Domour,Magdaten Islands, Lumber, G. Burchill.Sept. 25-schr Marie Delphine, 76, Ellis,Richibucto, Oil, Eastern oil Co.,   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "And in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it was inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doteit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more goased on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bickse fhe was not yet in a position to say theverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into thisgovernment generally as if every memberwere implicated, accused the ministersof suppressing evidence, and launchedout in one of his old-fashioned slang-whanging harangues.Mr. Cameron closed at one o'clock inthe morning, having spoken three hoursin support of the alligation that SirHector connived at the conspiracy. He  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence hey had accept in and thereseemed to be a split in the arrange-mets, and hence this meeting wascalled. We wanted business men ofexperience to represent us and if theratepayers would vote for such theaffairs of the town would be properlyconducted. It was not creditable tothe shiretown that during the past yearit was represented by men from thejower 'part of the parish, and he did   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith so much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the pollceman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.It should not be done by day's work butsold at public tender. When Mr. Geo.Brown was cammissioner he sold therepairs in this way and he did not thinkMr. Morrison appointed Mr. Brown.He thought that if such an arrangement had been made as that spoken ofby Mr. Crocker, that it was a dastardlyproceeding on his part after having   | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. MCG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stells. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,were united in the holy bonds of mat-rimony on the evening of the 23rdinst ; by the Rev. A. Carr, assistedby the Rev. T. Nicholson. The cere-mony took place at the residence ofJames Reid, Esq., uncle of the brideThe bride was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom was supported byDr. Murray. The grounds in front ofthe house were illuminated by a num-ber of chinese lanterns. The blendinglights had a charming effect on theflower beds which tastefully decoratedthe surroundings. It is now almost atruism to say that there was a fine dis-ply of valuable presents given tothe bride by many friends. Severaltrains on the I. C. R. which runs nearby passed during the evening gave aroyal salute, which was a contrast tothe music skilfully rendered by MissGalt. At midnight the wedding partymarched in procession to the station,which is only a few hundred yards dis-tant. The young lads of the place,  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pasyyear and also tothe Press for gratatious advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Sussez.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtillery, Col. Call commanding, leftNewcastle by special train on Tues-day of last week and arrived safely atSussex the same evening. Since thenthe Battery with the other forces havebeen kept hard at work and are / re-ported as making good progress.  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their lass.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.Governor of P. E. I. were present.The opening address being delivered byMr. C. E. Everitt and then Sir Leonardafter addressing those present at somelength declared the exhibition open.The display is a fine one and the variors amusements provided by the com-mittee have attracted and interested thethousands of spectators who havethronged to the exhibition. Our St.John exchanges are filled with descrip-tions of the various exhibits, which aresaid to be equal to any shown before inSt. John, as well as descriptions of the  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10 30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference, will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe evening will be in aid of theMissionary Society.A Gift.The Moniteur Acadlen notes the pre-sent ation to Rev. M. F. Richard, ofRogersville, of a handsome silver-headedcane by Messrs. Clark, Kerr & Thorne,of St John. On the head is inscribed across, under which is engraved the re-  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said * In the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it was inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bicase fhe was not yet in a position to say factverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into thagovernment generally as if every memberwere implicated, accused the ministersof suppressing evidence, and launchedout in one of his old-fashioned slang-whanging harangues.Mr. Cameron closed at one o'clock inthe morning, having spoken three hoursin support of the alligation that SirHector connived at the conspiracy. Hetwelt particularly with the Esquimault   |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that theMerchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence hey had accept in and thereseemed to be a split in the arrange-mets, and hence this meeting wascalled. We wanted business men ofexperience to represent us and if theratepayers would vote for such theaffairs of the town would be properlyconducted. It was not creditable tothe shiretown that during the past yearit was represented by men from thelower part of the parish, and he didnot think it desirable that such a state   | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith so much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en.deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.It should not be done by day's work butsold at public tender. When Mr. Geo.Brown was cammissioner he sold therepairs in this way and he did not thinkMr. Morrison appointed Mr. Brown.He thought that if such an arrangement had been made as that spoken ofby Mr. Crocker, that it was a dastardlyproceeding on his part after havingbeen nominated to run with Mr. Her-  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he replied bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stella. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,were united in the holy bonds of mat-rimony on the evening of the 23rdinst ; by the Rev. A. Carr, assistedby the Rev. T. Nicholson. The cere-mony took place at the residence ofJames Reid, Esq., uncle of the brideThe bride was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom was supported byDr. Murray. The grounds in front ofthe house were illuminated by a num-ber of chinese lanterns. The blendinglights had a charming effect on theflower beds which tastefully decoratedthe surroundings. It is now almost atruism to say that there was a fine dis-ply of valuable presents given tothe bride by many friends. Severaltrains on the I. C. R. which runs nearby passed during the evening gave aroyal salute, which was a contrast tothe music skilfully rendered by MissGalt. At midnight the wedding partymarched in procession to the station,which is only a few hundred yards dis-tant. The young lads of the place,who were strictly on their good be  | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Annie Aitken,Nelson-Miss Sutton.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pasty year and also tothe Press for grataitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Susser.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtillery, Col. Call commanding, leftNewcastle by special train on Tues-day of last week and arrived safely atSusser the same evening. Since thenthe Battery with the other forces havebeen kept hard at work and are re-ported as making good progress.   | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequles were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.Governor of P. E. I. were present.The opening address being delivered byMr. C. E. Everitt and then Sir Leonardafter addressing those present at somelength declared the exhibition open.The display is a fine one and the various amusements provided by the com-mittee have attracted and interested thethousands of spectators who havethronged to the exhibition. Our St.John exchanges are filled with descrip-tions of the various exhibits, which aresaid to be equal to any shown before inSt. John, as well as descriptions of thevarious entertainment, provided and all   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services .There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference. will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe evening will be in aid of theMissionary Society.A Gift.The Moniteur Acadien notes the pre-sent ation to Rev. M. F. Richard, ofRogersville, of a handsome silver-headedcane by Messrs. Clark, Kerr & Thorpe,of St John. On the head is inscribed across, under which is engraved the re-   | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said * In the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it was inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bicase fhe was not yet in a position to say factverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into thagovernment generally as if every memberwere implicated, accused the ministersof suppressing evidence, and launchedout in one of his old-fashioned slang-whanging harangues.Mr. Cameron closed at one o'clock inthe morning, having spoken three hoursin support of the alligation that SirHector connived at the conspiracy. Hewell particularly with the Esquimaultcontract, and took extreme ground,  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that theMerchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence hey had accepted the nom-ination.But politics had crept in and thereseemed to be a split in the arrange-ments, and hence this meeting wascalled. We wanted business men ofexperience to represent us and if theratepayers would vote for such theaffairs of the town would be properlyconducted. It was not creditable tothe shiretown that during the past yearit was represented by men from thelower part of the parish, and he didnot think it desirable that such a stateof thing should be continued.  | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.It should not be done by day's work butsold at public tender. When Mr. Geo.Brown was cammissioner he sold therepairs in this way and he did not thinkMr. Morrison appointed Mr. Brown.He thought that if such an arrangement had been made as that spoken ofby Mr. Crocker, that it was a dastardlyproceeding on his part after havingbeen nominated to run with Mr. Hen-nessy. He believed in the middle or  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he replied bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stells. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,were united in the holy bonds of mat-rimony on the evening of the 23rdinst ; by the Rev. A. Carr, assistedby the Rev. T. Nicholson. The cere-mony took place at the residence ofJames Reid, Esq., uncle of the brideThe bride was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom was supported byDr. Murray. The grounds in front ofthe house were illuminated by a num-ber of chinese lanterns. The blendinglights had a charming effect on theflower beds which tastefully decoratedthe surroundings. It is now almost atruism to say that there was a fine dis-ply of valuable presents given tothe bride by many friends. Severaltrains on the I. C. R. which runs nearby passed during the evening gave aroyal salute, which was a contrast tothe music skilfully rendered by MissGalt. At midnight the wedding partymarched in procession to the station,which is only a few hundred yards dis-tant. The young lads of the place,who were strictly on their good be-haviour, illuminated the road withhardney. Mr. and Mrs McDonald took   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Maud Davidson.Lower District-Miss Annie Aitken,Nelson-Miss Sutton.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pastypear and also tothe Press for grataitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Susser.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtillery, Col. Call commanding, leftNewcastle by special train on Tues-day of last week and arrived safely atSusser the same evening. Since themthe Battery with the other forces havebeen kept hard at work and are re-ported as making good progress.The Deaf and Dumb.Subscribers to the funds of theFredericton Institution for the Edu-cation of the Deaf and Dumb will beinterested to learn that Mr. Willard  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-rlages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequles were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their loss.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.Governor of P. E. I. were present.The opening address being delivered byMr. C. E. Everitt and then Sir Leonardafter addressing those present at somelength declared the exhibition open.The display is a fine one and the various amusements provided by the com-mittee have attracted and interested thethousands of spectators who havethronged to the exhibition. Our St.John exchanges are filled with descrip-tions of the various exhibits, which aresaid to be equal to any shown before inSt. John, as well as descriptions of thevarious entertainment provided and allseem well pleased at the patronage ex-   | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000. Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services.There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10 30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference, will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe evening will be in aid of theMissionary Society.A Gift.The Moniteur Acadlen notes the pre-sent ation to Rev. M. F. Richard, ofRogersville, of a handsome silver-headedcane by Messrs. Clark, Kerr & Thorne,of St John. On the head is inscribed across, under which is engraved the re-  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :—It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.  | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "And in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it was inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bicase fhe was not yet in a position to say forverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into thisgovernment generally as if every memberwere implicated, accused the ministersof suppressing evidence, and launchedout in one of his old-fashioned slang-whanging harangues.Mr. Cameron closed at one o'clock inthe morning, having spoken three hoursin support of the alligation that SirHector connived at the conspiracy. Hetwelt particularly with the Esquimaultcontract, and took extreme ground,alleging that Sir Hector shared in the  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that theMerchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxlous torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence .hey had accept d the nom-ination.But politics had crept in and thereseemed to be a split in the arrange-merts, and hence this meeting wascalled. We wanted business men ofexperience to represent us and if theratepayers would vote for such theaffairs of the town would be properlyconducted. It was not creditable tothe shiretown that during the past yearit was represented by men from thelower part of the parish, and he didnot think it desirable that such a stateof things should be continued.Mr. Anslow was called upon and                        | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the pollceman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.It should not be done by day's work butsold at public tender. When Mr. Geo.Brown was cammissioner he sold therepairs in this way and he did not thinkMr. Morrison appointed Mr. Brown.He thought that if such an arrangement had been made as that spoken ofby Mr. Crocker, that it was a dastardlyproceeding on his part after havingbeen nominated to run with Mr. Hen-nessy. He believed in the middle orlower district having a representative in | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stells. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,were united in the holy bonds of mat-rimony on the evening of the 23rdinst ; by the Rev. A. Carr, assistedby the Rev. T. Nicholson. The cere-mony took place at the residence ofJames Reid, Esq., uncle of the brideThe bride was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom was supported byDr. Murray. The grounds in front ofthe house were illuminated by a num-ber of chinese lanterns. The blendinglights had a charming effect on theflower beds which tastefully decoratedthe surroundings. It is now almost atruism to say that there was a fine dis-ply of valuable presenus given tothe bride by many friends. Severaltrains on the I. C. R. which runs nearby passed during the evening, gave aroyal salute, which was a contrast tothe music skilfully rendered by MissGalt. At midnight the wedding partymarched in procession to the station,which is only a few hundred yards dis-tant. The young lads of the place,who were strictly on their good be-haviour, illuminated the road withtorches. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald tookthe express to St. John and other places | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pastypear and also tothe Press for gratalitous advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Sussez.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtillery, Col. Call commanding, leftNewcastle by special train on Tues-day of last week and arrived safely atSussex the same evening. Since thenthe Battery with the other forces havebeen kept hard at work and are re-ported as making good progress.The Deaf and DumbSubscribers to the funds of theFredericton Institution for the Edu-cation of the Deaf and Dumb will beinterested to learn that Mr. WillardDemmons, who was appointed to the  | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-cases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him "he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their lass.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.Governor of P. E. I. were present.The opening address being delivered byMr. C. E. Everitt and then Sir Leonardafter addressing those present at somelength declared the exhibition open.The display is a fine one and the various amusements provided by the com-mittee have attracted and interested thethousands of spectators who havethronged to the exhibition. Our St.John exchanges are filled with descrip-tions of the various exhibits, which aresaid to be equal to any shown before inSt. John, as well as descriptions of thevarious entertainment provided and allseem well pleased at the patronage ex-tended.Announcement was made here yester- | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fail and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Missionary Services .There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whittington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference. will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe evening will be in aid of theMissionary Society.A Gift.The Moniteur Acadien notes the pre-sent ation to Rev. M. F. Richard, ofRogersville, of a handsome silver-headedcane by Messrs. Clark, Kerr & Thorne,of St John. On the head is inscribed across, under which is engraved the re-verend gentleman's name and the year.Died . | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.   | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said "A at in the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it was anhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChalcur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bicase fhe was not yet in a position to say forSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into thisgovernment generally as if every memberwere implicated, accused the ministersof suppressing evidence, and launchedout in one of his old-fashioned slang-whanging harangues.Mr. Cameron closed at one o'clock inthe morning, having spoken three hoursin support of the alligation that SirHector connived at the conspiracy. Hetwelt particularly with the Esquimaultcontract, and took extreme ground,alleging that Sir Hector shared in theplunder.  |
| should do so, as he had not the leastdesire to become a member of the Coun-cil.Mr. T. W. Crocker was then calledupon, He stated that Mr. Morrisonwas now present and he would like tohear him before he (Crocker) spoke ashe might feel inclined to pitch into him.Mr. Hennessy was very good in with-drawing from the nomination, yet heobjected to his withdrawal after havingreceived a majority of votes at firstballot. It was evident the peoplewanted him, and as he was a man doinga large business and was a popular manhe thought he was the right man forthe position.Mr. Fairey said he had not much tosay. He had been told he was longwinded. He explained that the meetingof Monday night was called with thebest intentions and in the interest ofthe ratepayers and the canvass nowbeing used that the Merchants' and Manu-facturers' Assn. wanted two merchants torepresent the Parish and ignore the work-ing men was untrue. Neither Mr. Hen-nessy or Mr. Morrison were anxious torun and they only did so because itseemed to be the wish of the majority,and hence shey had accepted the nom-ination.But politics had crept in and thereseemed to be a split in the arrange-ments, and hence this meeting wascalled. We wanted business men ofexperience to represent us and if theratepayers would vote for such theaffairs of the town would be properlyconducted. It was not creditable tothe shiretown that during the past yearit was represented by men from thelower part of the parish, and he didnot think it desirable that such a stateof things should be continued.Mr. Anslow was called upon andmade some remarks. | he was in the hands of his friends. Mr.Crocker's remarks, coming from a manwith 0 much experience was nothingbut bosh, and he was surprised at him.Why Mr. Crocker charged him with en-deavoring to increase tazation. He hadalways tried to keep down the taxes asmuch as possible and the first man whodid sell the repairs of roads and side-walks was appointed by him, and whileMr. Crocker makes charges against thepresent commissioner for the UpperDistrict whom he was afraid to name,yet he states he has no fault to find withthe commissioner. The county taxesfor several years past had been increasedto pay for the erection of the new jail,and there was also a large increase forschool purposes. The taxes in our townfor 1889 and 1890 was less than for pre-vious years. When he was in office thepolice fund was over 700 dollars in debtand the policeman three months inarrears for his pay, and now the fundwas entirely out of debt. Mr. Grockerhad not the slightest authority for thestatement he had made in reference tohis asking Mr. Doyle to run with him.Mr. James Troy thought to an un-prejudiced observer it seemed to be nouse to hold public meetings as partiesdid not act up to agreement arrivedthereat. Mr. Crocker's remarks werein order. The principle upon whichour road work was done was wrong.It should not be done by day's work butsold at public tender. When Mr. Geo.Brown was cammissioner he sold therepairs in this way and he did not thinkMr. Morrison appointed Mr. Brown.He thought that if such an arrangement had been made as that spoken ofby Mr. Crocker, that it was a dastardlyproceeding on his part after havingbeen nominated to run with Mr. Hen-nessy. He believed in the middle or  | N. B. after all may have done a verygood thing, not intentionally indeed, indriving him from the Superintendent'schair in the celestial city and sendinghim off to the ancient capital to inspirethe youths there.Charlo Notes.In a sequestered place where a trav-eller spent a few days, being somewhatdepressed with the monotony whichprevailed, asked a friend with a little de-gree of irritation "does anything everhappen here?" with a view of maintain-ing the credit of the place he repiled bysaying, " it is just where you are mis-taken we had an eclipse of the moonthe other night." In River Charlo wehad an eclipse of the moon some timeago, and A. McG. McDonald, Esq., ofCampbellton, and Miss Stells. seconddaughter of A. McNair Esq., late ofNashes Creek Mills, now of Vancouver,were united in the holy bonds of mat-rimony on the evening of the 23rdinst ; by the Rev. A. Carr, assistedby the Rev. T. Nicholson. The cere-mony took place at the residence ofJames Reid, Esq., uncle of the brideThe bride was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom was supported byDr. Murray. The grounds in front ofthe borde was attended by Miss Galt,and the bridegroom was supported byDr. Murray. It is now almost atraism to say that there was a fine dis-ply of valuable presents given tothe bride by many friends. Severaltrains on the I. C. R. which runs nearby passed during the evening gave atroyal salute, which was a contrast tothe music skilfully rendered by MissGalt. At midnight the wedding partymarched in procession to the station,which is only a few hundred yards dis-tant. The young lads of the place,who were strictly on their good be-haviour, illuminated the road withtorches. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald tookthe exures to St. John and other places   | Chatham, Upper District-Miss Mc-Lachlan.Lower District-Miss Sumner.Middle District-Miss Benson and MissLetson.Black Brook-Miss A. Loggie.Douglastown-Miss Miller.Napan, Upper DistMiss Jardine.Lower District-Miss Bremner.Newcastle, Upper District-Miss Fal-coner.Middle District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Lower District-Miss Mand Davidson.Derby-Mrs. John W. Miller.Blackville-Mrs. Grindlay.Doaktown-Mrs. John L. Mnrray.Whitneyville-M.s. Rae.Redbank-Mrs. Murray.Sugary-Mrs. Todd.4th. That a cordial vote of thanks begiven to the collectors for their diligencein the work of the pastypear and also tothe Press for gratatious advertising.The Meeting adjourned and was closedwith prayer by the Rev. Mr. Marshall.JANE AITKEN,Secretary.The Manse, Newcastle,Sept. 28, 1891.In Camp at Sussez.The Newcastle Field Battery ofArtillery, Col. Call commanding, leftNewcastle by special train on Tues-day of last week and arrived safely atSusser the same evening. Since thenthe Battery with the other forces havebeen kept hard at work and are re-ported as making good progress.The Deaf and Dumb.Subscribers to the funds of theFredericton Institution for the Edu-cation of the Deaf and Dumb will beinterested to learn that Mr. WillardDemmons, who was appointed to thestaff of the Institution in May last,will abortiv call upon them for the inter- | classes of the community as will beseen from the fact that about 80 car-riages were in the procession that fol-lowed his remains to the grave. Theobsequies were performed by his oldpastor, Rev. Thos. Nicholson. He wasskilful in the treatment of many dis-eases, and even performed many suc-cessful surgical operations, although hehad received no medical training. Headministered also to the spiritual wantsof those wi hin his reach. Since hisdeath we heard an aged woman on abed of sickness say of him " he wasno apprentice in prayer." The memoryof the deceased will be long cherishedin the neighborhood. He has left awidow, five sons and two daughters tomourn their lass.The St. John Exhibition.According to announcement the ex-hibition was opened on Wednesday last,and will remain open until Saturdaynext. The exhibition at the openingwas in a state of incompleteness not atall creditable, but by the day followingthings were pretty well straightened upand has attracted daily a large numberof spectators. Sir Leonard Tilley andMrs. Tilley, accompanied by the Lieut.Governor of P. E. I. were present.The opening address being delivered byMr. C. E. Everitt and then Sir Leonardafter addressing those present at somelength declared the exhibition open.The display is a fine one and the variots amusements provided by the Lieutdows of spectators who havethronged to the exhibition. Our St.John exchanges are filled with descrip-tions of the various exhibits, which aresen well pleased at the patronage ex-tended.  | mill with a quantity of lumber wastotally destroyed by fire on Wednesdaynight of last week. The watchman hadbeen through the mill at 9.30 o'clock,and shortly afterward discovered firebetween the boiler and engine house,which spread rapidly and could not becontrolled. Thirty thousand dollarsworth of lumber was destroyed, on whichthere was no insurance.The mill was insured for $18,009 or$20,000, the Western Insurance Co.being interested to the amount of $10,000(partly reinsured) Etna $2,000, Hartford$2,000, Imperial $2,000, British Ameri-cian $2,000.It is stated that there is sufficientlumber on hand to load the vesselsalready chartered, and that buildingwill go on during the fall and winter soas to be ready for work in the spring.Mi ssionary Services .There will be missionary services inthe Methodist Church, Newcastle, onSunday next, Oct. 4th, morning andevening.Rev. Mr. Whitington, M. A., Mission-ary from Japan, will (D. V.) conductthe service at 10.30 a. m, and the Rev.Mr. Gundy, ex-President of the London(Ont.) Conference. will conduct theservice at 6.30 p.m. The collection inthe wening will be in aid of theMissionary Society.A Gift.The Moniteur Acadlen notes the pre-sent ation to Rev. M. F. Richard, ofRogersville, of a handsome silver-headedcane by Messrs. Clark, Kerr & Thorne,of St. John. On the head is inscribed across, under which is engraved the re-verend gentleman's name and the year.Died.  | hand there's a remedy which says it canhelp them because it's helped thousandslike them. 'Another patent-medicineadvertisement,' you say. Yes—but notof the ordinary sort. The medicine isDr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,and it's different from the ordinarynostrums in this :It does what it claims to do, or itcosts you nothing !The way is this : You pay yourdruggist $1.00 for a bottle. You readthe directions, and you follow them.You get better, or you don't. If you do,you buy another bottle, and perhapsanother. If you don't get better, youget your money back. And the queerthing is that so many people are willingto be sick when the remedy's so near athand.Discuss .Tuneral will take place this (Wednesday)afternoon at half past two o'clock.Shipping Hetts.DORT OF NEWCASTLE.ENTERD-FROM SEA.Sept. 22-schr Capella, 30, Bell, Ch'town,Bell, master.Sept. 23-schrs Reality, 85, Miller, Tracadie,Bue Berries, J. Young.Sept. 23-schr Marian F., 23, Sonier,Tracadie, Blue Berries, W.n. Ferguson.ENTERED COASTWISE.Sept. 22-schr Capella, 30, Bell, Summer-side, Laths, master.Sept. 22-schr Marian F., 23, Sonier,Tracadie, Blue Berries, W.n. Ferguson.ENTERED COASTWISE.Sept. 22-schr Capella, 30, Bell, Summer-side, Laths, master.Sept. 22-schr Marian F., 23, Sonier,Tracadie, Blue Berries, W.n. Ferguson.ENTERED COASTWISE.Sept. 22-schr Capella, 30, Bell, Summer-side, Laths, master.Sept. 23-schr Marian F., 23, Sonier,Tracadie, Blue Berries, W.n. Ferguson.ENTERED COASTWISE.Sept. 23-schr Marie Delphine, 76, Ellis,Richibineto, Oil, Eastern oil Co.,Sept. 23-schr Marie Delphine, 76, Ellis,Richibineto, Oil, Eastern oil Co.,Sept. 23-schr Reality, 38, Miller, Tignish,Lumber, master. | could give. He (Tarte) thought thecountry was to be congratulated on thefact that the representative of justice inthe government was found in the positionin which Sir John Thompson had placedhimself.He said * In the financial ruinbrought upon him by conspirators he hadto accept assistance from friends on this(the liberal) side of the house, but it is inhe gave notes and endorsed notes he hadknown of their connection with the BayChaleur scandal, he would not have doreit. Pacaud need not have paid thesenotes. He should have renewed them.The more gassed on them was in theQuebec courts and would be returned indue time. In closing Mr. Tarte said thathe felt sure that the house would dowhat ought to be done, but as for bicase fhe was not yet in a position to say factverdict ought to be found in respect toSir Hector. Mr. Tarte spoke three and ahalf hours.When he closed each side waited forthe other to speak next and finally Mr.Cameron of Huron took the floor. Thetone hitherto had been julicial, but Mr.Cameron commenced by abusing theministers and conservative members fortheir silence. Then he pitched into thisgovernment generally as if every memberwere implicated, accused the ministersof suppressing evidence, and launchedout in one of his old-fashioned slang-whanging harangues.Mr. Cameron closed at one o'clock inthe morning, having spoken three hoursin support of the alligation that SirHector connived at the conspiracy. Hetwelt particularly with the Esquimaultcontract, and took extreme ground,alleging that Sir Hector shared in the   |

2.00

ion. Not more than fifty mem. |fuse to sit with persons found guilty of calculated to deal with the matter colly bers were in the house at any one time any criminal offence and they could not and dispassionately. This was shown during the last speeches. If all the membets who are to speak on the question Dalton McCarthy accepted this view with all due deference, was more like a hold the floor as long as the last two of the case, but said that parliament stump speech than a judicial statement speakers the debate will last all the never constituted itself a court to try He (McCarthy) would show that Mr. criminal offences. When the courts of Laurier was strikingly inaccurate, and week. OTTAWA, Sept. 23.-After orders of the the country found a man guilty, parlia- that he could not possibly have read the day were called, Mr. Lister proposed the ment could accept its verdict, but parlia- evidence or even the report which be day were called, Mr. Lister proposed the motion of which he gave notice yesterday. He asked for a select committee to in-miner into charges against Hon. Mr. Huggart, and named Messrs. Mills, Edgar, unjudicial fashion before political com- John Macdonald's alleged boast of Barron, Lister, Dickey, Wood (of Brock-ville), Girouard and McLeod, Mr. Lister in parliament. There were other offen- the dead might have been spared, at ea to When the speaker had real the motion Hon. Mr. Huggart rose to make this parliament in a wrong time of the dead might have been spared, at spoken warmly and kind'y immediately Hon. Mr. Huggart rose to make his statement. He said he would begin by proper way. It was not an offence for proper way. It was not an offence for giving an explicit and flat cenial to the a contractor to sit in parliament until the spare him he might at least have refrainstatement that he had been a partner with contractors on section B, or had beez nany way interested in that con-Laurier was tight in saying that a per-John's words were spoken in reference tract. He had first heard of this charge son who had done so was an immoral done so was an immoral to Cartwright's allegation that countie eleven years ago, and shartly afterward person, he had assisted in making an eleven years ago, and shartly afterward person, he had assisted in making an appeared before the Canalian Pacific immoral person speaker of the house, and sir John, quoting this, had said that and had sat with them in the Queen's Cartwright's charge of bribing people He then stated that he had no interest government. He protested against with their own money only meant that in the contract, and, later, at Winnipeg, dragging old and stale charges pre- public money had been expended to the in a suit between two parties en gaged in viously tried, into the committee of a public satisfaction. the contract he had again given testimony house over burdened with legitimate to the purpose. Mr. Huggurt said he business. Mr. Mills argued in the same would take this opportanity of stating his sense as Mr. Laurier. connection with Mr. McLaren, one of the contractors, who had been and was his partner in their business at Perth. At the solicitation of Mr. McLaren he had assisted in arranging the terms of his house were to go into matters of all ages, To the Ratepay crs of the parish agreement with other members of the on which any member could conjure up contracting firm. He had advised Mr. a scandal. McLaren as to these relations during the Sir Richard Cartwright said that Sir McLaren as to these relations during the progress of the contract, and had assisted in the final settlement. The only interest he had was that McLaren should not suffer loss to his credit. The only remuneration or consideration or benefit investigation. He threatened that in ish in particular. he ever received was his personal expen-ees, when he had occasion to travel. He carried it would be made to appear in the best of my ability. Soliciting your support I am Gentlemen, did not know that the tirm ever contri- the papers all over Canada, as well as in buted to political funds; certainly no the United States and England, that the contribution was made at his solicitation government was guilty and dared not or to his knowledge. Having made this meet the charges.

statement; the postmaster general with- Messrs. Casey, Gilouard, Edgar and drew from the house. Lister continued the debate.

The minister of justice observed that A vote was taken at 10.30, when the this was not as presented a question of amendment was carried by a vote privil-ge, and according to the regular 102 to 78. Majority 24. rule it should have gone on the notice Col. Amyot then resumed the debate GENTLEMEN :paper as a regular notice of motion. He preferred, however, not to press a rule which made it impossible to reach the motion this session. He preferred to motion this session. He preferred to empty house. During his speech, in the partial with THE PUBLIC INTEREST. waive the rules and ask the house to deal small hours of the morning, an interestwith it now. Irrespective of the desire i g episode occurred. Col. Amyot con- Ge of members making charges who asked demned Sir Hector for not asking the for investigation, and of the members advice of the then mayor of Quebec, charged who might desire inquiry for the Franceis Langelier. purpose of vindication, there must come Mr. Ives observed: "But he was a a time beyond which the house could boodler.'

not go back to enquire into transactions Mr. Langelier-'That is a lie.' of the distant past. No doubt in a Col. Amyot a lvisel Ives to swallow time like this there was a desire on both that contradiction, when Mr. Ives resides that all charges should be investi- marked that the man who made the congated rather than be allowed to go to tradiction was a partner to Pacaud. the country as they stand But this house could not undertake to make it-journment of the house on behalf of self a court for trying all possible Col. Amyot, as there were only two or charges of all possible ages. One settled three members in the house. The memrule was needed to protect the house bers were called in and voted the motion from groundless and irresponsible down, and then Col. Amyot resumed charges. The charges should definitely and finished his speech.

state the offence and be made on the re-Today Sir Adolph Caron was the first state the offence and be made on the re-sponsibility of some member who was prepared to take the consequence if he failed to show ground for what he stated. But Mr. Lister made no allegation for But Mr. Lister made no anegation for which he could be held responsible in case he should fail altogether. He charged that Hon. Mr. Haggart was beneficially interested in section B con-the history of Sir Hector, dwelling on tract, but did not so make the statement his long and eminent public services, in as to allege an offence. Mr. Lister had fact that he was the life long associate kept himself in such a position that if it should be shown that Mr. Haggart had acted with perfect propriety, and the government had done likewise, he could come feward stating that he had rot come forward stating that he had rot charged any crime, and was therefore not upon his integrity cr hon or had been enchargeable with a violation of his privi-lege. Mr. Lister had not stated that Mr. should not induce members to treat Sir Haggart violated the independence of Hector with leniency they should lead parliament, but if he had violated the the house to treat him with fairness. act in 1879 Mr. Haggart was liable to a Sir Acolph then went into a discussion penalty for the balance of that parlia- of the evidence, arguing that the minis ment and to certain penalties, provided they had been sued for within twelve they had been sued for within twelve months. It could hardly be said that gineers, and that in these cases unde his holding an interest in a contract consideration he had done in the main twelve years ago would make it impossi- what every minister must do-acted on ble for him to sit in parliament today. The offence was statutory only and had Mr. Laurier replied in a speech not been discovered a disqualification. which occupied the house until the not been discovered a disqualification. When Hon. Mr. Jones, who having lost his seat for the same offence, and was waiting re-election, was before his nom-ination called to the point as minister of militia. So far from parliament treat-ing the offence as a stigma which contin-ued to attach to a man, it had immedi-ingly after Mr. Anglin had forfeited hus exit, and obtained re-election, returned him to the high position of speaker of the house. He did not cite these as tu quoque arguments. So far as he knew, both sides of the house agreed that the quoque arguments. So far as he knew, both sides of the house agreed that the violation of independence of parliament did not disqualify members from resum-ing positions of trust in after years. In this argument he was assuming that Mr. Is had proved all he expressed a de-that the whole matter of section B had been tried, once before a commission, that the whole matter of section B had been tried, once before a commission, and that sworn evidence had on two oc-casions been given by Mr. Haggart and Mr. McLean contradicting the charges now made. If the charges had been made earlier in the session he would have asked the house not to deal with them, unless they were made explicitly them, unless they were made explicitly Laurier expressed regret that his own and fully on responsible authority. At this late hour in the session he would ex-press the opinion that in any case, since they had remained 11 years, they might Shortly after Dalton McCarthy took Newest Designs and Makes in safely stand four months more. He the floor in the evening session proceed- Cloths includingmoved in amendment that the house do ings began to grow lively. It was now proceed with the orders of the day. generally understood that the equal FINE CHEVIOT SUITINGS,

Mr. Laurier said it was the right and privilege of the house at any time to un-seat unworthy members. It was both a question of privilege and a question of prints. He began his speech by regret- BEAVER, CHEVIOT, duty for the house to purge itself of ting that the trial of this case had not NAP, PILOT, VICUNA, and persons who might be shown to be untit to associate with representatives of the people. Members had the right to re-= TWEED SUITINGS,

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria,

NEWCASTLE.

APPLT TO

Newcastle, Sept. 22, 1891.

C. S. RAMSAY.

Swpd.

60 AND 62 PRINCE WILLIAM STREET, St. John. N. B.

W. C. Anslow.

