

STEAMER WRECKED IN COLLISION ALL PASSENGERS WERE SAVED

Lady of Gaspe Was Rammed Near Three Rivers Late at Night—Passengers, Mostly Women and Children, Were Terrified When Boat Started to Sink Quickly.

[Canadian Press.] Montreal, July 29.—The steamship Lady of Gaspe, which cleared from Montreal about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon with over a hundred passengers and a heavy cargo, was wrecked about midnight by a terrible collision with the Crown of Cordova.

The Crown of Cordova had left the wharf about ten minutes after the Lady of Gaspe, and is said to have kept fairly close to the other vessel as far down as Three Rivers. It was just below this point that the collision occurred.

STRENUOUS DAYS FOR THE TEACHERS AT THE BARRACKS

Three Score of Them Are Taking the Instruction Course.

Pedagogues in Fine Physical Shape and Rapidly Learning Military Lore.

About three more weeks of training remain for the three score school teachers who are taking a six weeks' course of instruction at Wolseley Barracks. All of those who originally entered upon the course have remained on the job, and have made great progress in mastering the arts of war.

Is This What You Are Doing For Your City?

Attacked and Robbed Near Fair Grounds

Newly-Arrived Britisher Assaulted By Two Unknown Men Who Take All His Money and Make a Getaway.

Charles Waters, one of the newly-arrived English immigrants, was attacked near the fair grounds late last night and robbed of all his money.

They searched his pockets, taking what little money he had, and made off. Owing to the darkness he was unable to recognize them, and could not describe their appearance.

London Bouncing Babies; Send In Their Pictures

Bouncing baby boys! Bouncing baby girls!

The Advertiser wants to print the pictures of a bunch of 'em.

It wants to show Londoners and the world the bouncing-est of 'em, and it believes there are proud fathers and mothers who will be willing and anxious to show what sort of humanity London is building with.

So this great family journal will print the babies' pictures—one each day if enough of them come in. It prefers babies between three months and two years, and it would like to have weight and age, name of parents and residence.

There are no finer babies than London's. Other city newspapers have been boasting that their babies are the best in the world. The Advertiser wants to show them how blunderingly wrong they were.

Robert Henry Miller, the son of Robert Henry Miller, is one of the bouncing-est baby boys in London.

Bobby's parents are Irish, and he is an Irish-Canadian. His father is a molder at McClary's. At 6 months Bobby weighed 28 pounds, at 8 months he has made the scales bob hopelessly.

Bobby paid a visit to The Advertiser office not long ago. He expressed displeasure with his picture as it was printed the first time. He said "Aboo!" three times in an angry tone, which being interpreted means: "My picture will have to be printed again. The first one didn't do me justice, and someone is going to be hurt if it doesn't go in again."

Robert challenges the world for his age. He has won one first prize—at the McClary picnic—and promises to be a contender in every contest he enters.

MEXICANS MAY FORCE HUERTA TO RESIGN SOON

Will Have to Retire Before the Country Can Be Relieved From Troubles.

Wilson Is Still Silent as to What Course He Will Take.

Washington, July 28.—President Wilson had no announcement to make today about the policy the United States would pursue toward Mexico, but there is every reason to believe no steps would be taken by this country pending the outcome of the plans being laid by leading Mexicans to bring about peace.

HYDRO WORKER FIVE ESCAPE BREAKS ARM AWFUL DEATH

Knocked From Pole When Phone Wire Makes Short Circuit.

LONDON, TUESDAY, JULY 29.

NO EXCITEMENT.

The people have accepted the change of 1911 from Laurier to Borden just as they did that of 1896 from Laurier to Laurier, and are concerning themselves with other things than politics.

If the naval hullabaloo has not excited the masses, but wearied them, the story has been told before. After losing in a big contest it is as hard for a politician as for a pugilist to "come back."

A POLITICAL MYTH.

Some of our Conservative contemporaries are reproducing with affected gravity, and commenting on a story told by Mr. Whelpley in an article in the August Century. It is to the effect that in 1899, a Canadian Liberal interviewed President McKinley, and suggested to him that if he would send two millions of dollars to be expended in a Canadian election he would guarantee the annexation of this country to the republic.

A POSSIBILITY.

Bobbie—"Oh, mamma. Have you seen Uncle Jake? He looks awfully happy." Bobbie's Mother, anxiously—"What's the matter with him? I think he has been taking some of that good-natured alcohol."

THE RIGHT KING.

"Or could you favor an elastic currency?" "Yes," replied Grandpa Munchelker; "but I'd like to see some of that good, old-fashioned elasticity that had enabled a $2 bill to reach all the way around a family market basket."

REASONABLE COURTESY.

All ladies do not at all times prefer to sit while men stand. We have seen a young woman give up her seat to an aged or crippled man, or to a mother carrying a baby, or to a tired-looking woman. This should be the universal rule of both sexes.

THEIR SPECIALTIES.

"Find out what is your child's speciality," says a mother's magazine. It is not an easy task. Sometimes candy, at 60 cents a pound seems to be the favorite, and then again there is a marked tendency to Bulgarian blouses.

SUN YAT SEN'S APPEAL.

Sun Yat Sen's second appeal to the powers will probably be as fruitless as his first.

The great Chinese patriot some months ago openly accused Yuan Shi Kai of the murder of members of the democratic party, and pleaded with the powers to veto his application for loans, alleging that the money would be used to finance Yuan's despotic ambitions.

Sun's second appeal asks for the refusal of further moneys to Yuan in the name of justice and humanity, but justice and humanity have nothing to do with international finance which looks only at the rate of interest and the security.

TIME-SAVING.

Dorcas—"Won't your meeting be very late if all the members are going to take part in the debate?" Mrs. Dorcas—"Why, no, dear! We'll all speak at once."

ASSISTED.

"Bridget does your mistress assist you in cooking?" "Yes; very much." "How does she do it?" "By kaping out of the kitchen."

NO GOSSIP.

Mrs. Dearborn—"I met your little girl yesterday." Mrs. Wabash—"Don't you think she is like me?" "Why, no, I couldn't get a word out of her."

HER REPLY.

"Would you marry a man who has the reputation of being not more than half-witted?" "No, but I'll be a sister to you."

AN EASY LANDING.

"Mummy, I'd like to be as fat as that woman when I grow up." "Why so, dearie?" "Cos then I shouldn't hurt myself when I fell out of bed."

THE OTHER WAY ON.

An "advanced" woman tells the New York Tribune that "women are headed straight for trousers." We beg to inform the dear girl that the manner of approach must be reversed before the effort can be successful.

TWENTY-EIGHT CENTS A DAY CANADIAN LOYALISTS.

"I'm a Canadian, the son of an English father with British ancestry, British traditions and British training. Do you think I'll permit the men who scattered torches down the streets in Toronto after Louis Philippe Pelletier, the Nationalist, the critic of our fellow countrymen to hire English at twenty-eight cents a day to do their fighting for them to call me disloyal? Are these the kind of men we are to learn our loyalty from?"

Fifty Imberilled in Tenement Fire

New York, July 29.—One of the ramshackle tenements of the Chinatown district, proved to be a trap in which the white wife of a Chinaman was burned to death and from which several persons were taken seriously burned during a fire early today.

Tobias M. Carel Dies at The Hague

The Hague, July 29.—The death occurred today of Tobias Michael Carel, Asser, a member of the permanent court of arbitration and of the Dutch council of state, at the age of 75.

ELECTED OFFICERS

J. Guest Is New Head of Minerva Encampment at Wingham. Wingham, July 29. At the regular meeting of Minerva Encampment, No. 47, last night, the following officers were elected:

STOLE JEWELS

Harriman's Daughter Loses Rope of Pearls Worth $50,000. New York, July 29.—Gems valued at $75,000, including a rope of pearls worth $50,000, were stolen from the home of C. C. Rumsey, at Narragansett Pier during the 24 hours ending Sunday night.

DAMAGE WAS SMALL

Sarnia, July 28.—An alarm of fire was turned in about 3 o'clock this afternoon from the Diver box factory, in close proximity to the Cleveland Sarnia sawmills. A small blaze in the factory was the cause of the alarm.

Pope was allies at the Boyne, and that not only the Pope, but most of the Catholics in Europe outside of France and Ireland, rejoiced that the battle of the Boyne resulted as it did. British Catholics, it is true, have no love for King William, but that is not because of the Battle of the Boyne, but because of the "broken" treaty of 1701-1702.

CLAIMS BANKS LOWERED VALUE OF GOVT. BONDS

Secretary of Treasury Says Concerted Action Was Taken to Defeat Bill.

There Is Not Going To Be Any Financial Trouble.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, July 29.—Secretary McAdoo, of the treasury department, has issued a statement flatly charging that the decline of government 2 per cent bonds to 95 1/2—a new low record—was due "almost wholly to what appears to be a campaign waged with every indication of concerted action on the part of a number of influential New York City banks to cause apprehension and uneasiness about these bonds in order to help them in their efforts to defeat the currency bill."

Not Charged Off.

Secretary McAdoo announced it was not his intention to require the banks to charge off the present depreciation below par, but that the banks might continue to put in the bonds at par in their statements to the comptroller of the currency, at least until some material change in conditions should compel the adoption of another course.

All Worth Par.

In his statement, Secretary McAdoo declared the 2 per cent were worth par notwithstanding their decline in the New York market.

What Pavement Was It?

Now that the news of Mayor Graham's adventures in the west has leaked out it is being wondered whether it was on a Rocmac pavement that the auto, the stoppage of which caused the London mayor and his companions to go wandering over the prairie, could not negotiate.

Brickbats for Glaubitz.

General Manager H. J. Glaubitz of the water commission, is receiving brickbats these pleasant summer days. They are not mental, temperamental, imaginary, or printed brickbats.

Who's to Pay Bill?

Just how the money for the pavement of the "trade arteries" into London, if those thoroughfares ever are paved, is to be raised is a question that is troubling the "think-boxes" of some of the city fathers.

Where Are the Figures?

Incliner figures are as hard to find about the city hall as hen's teeth. Yesterday an attempt was made to find out what had already been paid to the engineer in charge of the installation of heating apparatus at Victoria Hospital, and the necessary equipment to accomplish this at the incliner. The figures not yet having been filed in City Treasurer Bell's office, the applicant was sent to Building Inspector A. M. Piper.

Want Inspected Meat.

While it will be well on in August before the board of health holds its next meeting, the members are far from passing up the inspected meat question. Government inspection of all meats sold in the city of London is what the board wants.

Electrolysis Costly.

Electrolysis—the cause of Sunday afternoon's break in the water main at Horton street, that caused such a flow of water—has been a rather costly proposition for the London waterworks department. At present there are bills of between $1,100 and $1,200 against the street railway company for damages done by electrolysis.

WALKERTON YOUTH DROWNED.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Walkerton, July 28.—Leo Kelly, son of Ed. Kelly, of Greenock Township, was drowned yesterday in Ogdensburg, N. Y., and his body is now on the way home for burial. Up to May last the young man, who is only 20 years of age, was working on the construction work of the electric light company here.

CAMLACHIE.

Camlachie, July 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Ross Carrick returned to Toronto yesterday, after spending their vacation here. Misses Jean and Kathleen Symington returned back to Toronto yesterday, after spending a short vacation with the girls' parents.

CHARLES S. HAMLIN IS NEW ASST. SECRETARY

New Official Made an Amusing Mistake Over Canada's Finance Minister.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, July 29.—The nomination of Charles S. Hamlin, of Boston, to be assistant secretary of the United States treasury, received an amusing incident that occurred when Mr. Hamlin occupied the same position during the Cleveland administration. This is the reminiscence of a former secretary.

LINEN SECONDS

Three Days' Sale---Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Here is an invitation to the best sale of Linen Table Cloths that has appeared in many months. It includes

300 Fine Damask Table Cloths

A purchase of "Mill Seconds" direct from the manufacturers. The defects are very insignificant, and do not detract from the appearance nor the wear of the cloth.

300 Table Cloths seems a large quantity, but we do not think it will supply all who are waiting to make purchases during this sale, so it is absolutely necessary to come early Thursday morning for first choice.

Prices Average About One Half

Every Table Cloth is warranted pure linen. The sizes are as follows: 1x1 yards, 1 1/4x1 1/4 yards, 1 1/2x1 1/2 yards, 2x2 yards, 2x2 1/2 yards, 2 1/2x2 1/2 yards, 2x3 yards, 2x3 1/2 yards, 2 1/2x3 1/2 yards, 2 1/2x4 yards, 2 1/2x4 1/2 yards.

AROUND THE CITY HALL

Moving Day Coming.

Moving day, in the best family circles is May 1, in the city "circles," however, it isn't going to be Sept. 1. On that date the city officials are billed to desert the old city hall, that has sheltered them since there was a London city hall, and his time to the temporary municipal palace, they are to occupy in the old Spencer Block, till the new one is ready—whenever that will be.

Would Amend Bylaw.

London's traffic bylaws—has worked out well, as applied to vehicular traffic, but there is a strong feeling in certain quarters that the ordinance should be amended to give the traffic squad control over pedestrian traffic as well as the vehicular drivers. It is claimed that when a driver once gets the signal to go ahead from the traffic officers pedestrians persist in cutting across in front of his vehicle to the extreme danger of themselves and to the risk of the driver.

Collection Is Doubled.

When the "bills" for the garbage collection system were first worked out it was proposed to have only a weekly service for the residential sections. When Superintendent Dodd took hold of the system, however, he found that a semi-weekly service could be worked out advantageously, and as a result the entire residential area is now being served on the recommended basis. The collection end of the garbage system has been so far from criticism, that being devoted entirely to the "smells" at the incinerator.

Truce Still Prevails.

The truce in the board of education over the question of Principal F. W. C. McCutcheon and his efficiency still prevails. Hot weather and the holiday season is the main reason for this, however, and the members of the board anticipate some lively action after the school resumes in the fall. Nothing has yet been done toward appointing an investigator, but this appointment is regarded as a foregone conclusion when the school term reopens.

Spotlight on Framrup.

Now that the spotlight of publicity has been turned on the neat little Framrup in the council to appoint one of the aldermen and a city official as garbage department inspectors, at $1,200 per month, more than usual interest is being directed toward that body. Its possible action on the recommendation of the board of works to purchase an auto as a means of conveyance for Superintendent Dodd, of the garbage department, is something that has already caused a conjecture. The superintendent declared that if provided with an auto further inspectors would be unnecessary. In view of that statement just what is done with the recommendation will, it is believed, be an indication of how strong the "frame-up" party was.

Plan Big Program.

Big things in the building line are scheduled for the board of education in 1914. In the first place there will have to be an addition made at the Collegiate. At the lowest this will cost over $50,000, and if the plans of the Ontario Department of Education are carried out and the nucleus of a new school built instead of an addition the price of the Collegiate changes may run up to $95,000. Then there will be the technical school, at an expenditure of say $40,000. For this debtures have already been authorized to the extent of $35,000. Another $20,000 and likely more will be spent on the construction of a new school for South London on Riverway avenue. Alterations and additions to existing school plants will bring the total building of the year up around the $200,000 mark, if not larger.

Billie Burke, in Paris, Tells All About the Forthcoming Change in Feminine Hair and Hats

[By Billie Burke.]

The Ritz-Carlton, Paris, July 29.—Paris in summer, especially the latter part of July and all of August, is given over to the tourist. All the "haute mode" is away at the French summer resorts or at the country houses.

However, when this letter is being written, one sees some of the fashionables still in the gayest city of all the world.

Fashions in hats and hair have again begun to change. Contrary to the abrupt change from one mode into another. The present tight skirts and large waists have been about eight years in the process of evolution from the wide skirt, the small waist and the big hips period.

It does not take quite so long, however, to change the shape of a hat as it does the shape of a woman, so the new hair modes to come in universally by the spring styles. This winter you will see the extreme dressers and many actresses who pride themselves on being a little in front of the procession with hats pushed way up in the back and held there by the hair, which is worn in a high psycho knot like ones in the sketches.

These hats are very piquant looking and I think the wearing of hats of the kind illustrated will necessitate a change in the "sloppy carriage" which now is so popular. A hat pushed down over one's eyes makes one hold one's head up. Consequently one cannot walk with the ugly drooping shoulders and the protruding abdomen that is so much in vogue at the present moment.

Everything now, however, points to the high profile in the back and a flat look from the front of the head, while just the opposite is correct for the pose of the body.

Incidentally, I'm going to make a confession. I AM A HAT FAN and so, of course, I bought one of each of the styles that I am sending you. Two of them were in black and white and the other was all white, but I haven't adopted yet the style gowns that is skin tight in the back and which makes the front curved—and much "to the fore." Perhaps I will do so, for as yet all gowns are made with draping that is forced forward and a high round abdomen effect that was seen in the United States here and there before I left.

The Poets' Corner

LAUS DEO. Love on my heart from heaven fell, Soft as the dew on flowers of spring, Sweet as the hidden drops that sweet Their honey-throated chanting.

Now aever from him do I part, Hosanna evermore I cry, I taste His savor in my heart, And bid all praise Him as do I.

Without Him nought is, Nor was afore, nor e'er shall be; Nor any other joy than His Wish I for mine to comfort me.

My eyes for beauty pine, My soul for Godde's grace, No other care nor hope is mine, To heaven I turn my face.

One splendor thence is shed From all the stars above; 'Tis named when God's name is said, 'Tis Love, 'tis heavenly Love.

And every gentle heart That burns with gentle fire, Is lit from eyes that mirror part Of that celestial fire. —Robert Bridges.

TIT-BITS

Farrow's bank for women, which was inaugurated a couple of years ago in London, has proved so successful that it has been removed to new and enlarged quarters.

Lingerie collars embroidered in the colors of the suit or gown are very attractive. For instance, an old-red crepe gown has a collar of ecru batiste edged with Val lace, and embroidered in a vine of tiny roses in old-red silk.

Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught sent four silver candlesticks as a gift to Lady Gwendyn Ponsonby, daughter of the Earl and Countess of Bessborough, on the occasion of her marriage to the Hon. Windham Baring. The Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Sweden with Prince Arthur and Princess Patricia of Connaught sent a silver flower bowl.

Large cameo brooches are all the rage just now in London, and the fashion is seldom seen without one, either wearing it at her throat or at the V decolletage of her evening frock.

PROBLEMS OF THE FAIR SEX SOLVED BY CYNTHIA GREY

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, unless letters have to be answered in turn as they are received. No letters can be answered privately.]

This is Flattering! Dear Miss Grey: Here I am bothering you again, but have been pleased with your answers so far.

1. What are the meanings of Ada, Emma, Beatrice, Charles, Agnes? 2. What do you consider pretty names? 3. What do you consider a proper age for marrying? 4. What would make an exquisite ball dress?

Thanking you in advance, and hoping we have not troubled you to any great extent, we remain,

ROSEBUDS. A.—1. Rich Gift; Industrious; Happy; Manly; Pure. 2. There are many. Personally, I prefer the old-fashioned names, such as Elizabeth, Dorothy, Bettina, Catherine, Hester, and so on.

3. Any time from the early twenties till—well I think no one over the century mark should venture into the realms of matrimony. 4. Marquise, null, nimon, volle, or muslins are all pretty, dainty materials for a party dress.

Had Best Propose. Dear Miss Grey: I am twenty-five, keeping company with a girl one year my junior. I have a chance for a good job in Detroit. Now, would you advise me to go to Detroit? I can hardly think of the idea, for I love this girl dearly.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES BIRR. The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Austin Hodrins, when the following program will be given:

Address, Miss E. Guest, B. A.; Roll-call; Answers, How to Make Farm Life Attractive; Music, Miss T. Robson, Miss O'Neil. Lunch will also be served. All ladies are cordially invited. I think she cares for me. W. You had better accept the good job.

The Fairy at the Well AS TOLD BY AUNT GERTIE. Chapter II. Pearls and diamonds were dropping from her mouth. "How is this, my daughter?" asked the mother in a very different tone of voice than she had ever used to the plain girl before. The poor child told her all the story: all about how she had met the old woman; how she had asked for a drink of water; and how she had given it to her. "Well, well, well," said the mother, "certainly must send my other daughter."

"THERE'S MANY A SLIP" When Amateur Fishermen Ply the Line, But Clever Mrs. S. Lands Her Rug All Right. [BY "OLIVE."]

To go fishing had been Alonzo Snider's dearest wish for many a day. He had longed for the opportunity when with hook and line, accompanied by his old friend Andrews, and a good lunch, he could flee to the haunts of the perch and bass, and the shady kingdom of the trout.

"Press of business at the office had always been the overpowering excuse, but at last the grand opportunity arrived, when he could throw off the shackles of business worries for one whole afternoon, and bask in the sunshine on the banks of the river.

The day was fine, and laden with all the paraphernalia for the trip, including a luncheon (for even a fisherman has been known to become hungry), Snider and his pal trudged patiently along the dusty road, pausing now and then to wipe the perspiration from their brows, for the way was long and the sun hot.

"We've simply got to catch some fish, even if we have to buy 'em, for everybody will have the laugh on us if we come home empty-handed," said Alonzo. The cool banks of the river were no sooner reached than the beer was brought forth and applied in the most approved manner, and the sport began in earnest. Several times Andrews thought there was a suspicion of a tug at his line which would upon investigation prove that some hungry fish of enormous proportions (according to Andrews' mental estimate), had found the worm to his liking. Fresh up to the time to time, but not even a minnow could be coaxed from his hiding place in the cool depths below. Patiently they sat there, stopping occasionally to appease the inner man until you could almost hear the "Don't look as if we'd have enough bass to hand around to the neighbors," remarked Snider, pulling in his line, only to find his imagination had played him false once more. "I'm going home."

Just at this moment, as Andrews helped himself to another ham sandwich, a tug at the line caused him to rise hurriedly and commence hauling it in. It was a fish, to all appearances, of the identical size that has so often adorned song and story. The excited Snider hovered near, a slice of cherry pie poised in mid-air. "Pull him in," the fisherman had been shouting. There was a snap, and the fish, with a section of the line, disappeared down the river.

Snider was disgusted. So was Andrews, who gazed disheartened at a lost meal floating serenely away. "I'll bet you, Snider," he said, "that fellow weighed—"

Snider was in no humor to judge the approximate weight of the fish. "I'm going home and buy a couple of bass at Platt's fish store," he exclaimed disgustedly. Andrews readily agreed. "They'll never know the difference, and we'll never tell," he said.

It was a very excited little woman that met her husband at the door of the Snider home and hurled a volley of questions at the complacent Alonzo bending under the weight of two big bass. To all queries she was answered with such brevity as he answered evasively.

KATHERINE LESLIE'S HOME CHAT Jane—Jack—And the M chs. Before Jane went to the country for the summer she gave me as many instructions about household matters as John Grumley's wife gave to that misguided husband of hers when she went forth to drive the plow. Jane made a list of the things she wished me personally to attend to, since Jane knows that I am a person of erratic memory. Then having given over this list to me, she said, "You know, Hannah" (she calls me Hannah because my name is plain Kate), "you will be alone in the flat and you won't have anything to do." Jane shares the popular delusion that the woman who remains at home for the summer has nothing to do. All the labor is in the country, and at the seaside! "You will promise me to see that the moths don't creep up Jack's dressing gown. You will look in the middle cupboard and see that they don't get into Jack's clothes. Hang them on the upper balcony two or three times a week. It won't be any trouble, and there are only two cupboards full. Then there are a lot of Jack's clothes—his knockabout things in a big press downstairs. You might keep an eye upon them truth came out. The nicely-fried fish reposed on the table, basking in butter and deliciously browned. A sight good Mr. Snider long remembered. Even a ring at the telephone did not disturb his blissful anticipation until his ear caught a few words from the lips of Mrs. Snider, who answered the call. "Yes, this is Mr. Snider's house. . . . Oh, yee, Mr. Platt . . . left his cigar case? . . . I bought some fish . . . all right, thank you, I'll tell him . . . yee, good-bye."

Mrs. Snider added peculiar stress to the last sentence, and turned from the telephone trying vainly to suppress a laugh. She saw a very comical man sitting at the table gazing at the delicately-browned bass. "I don't believe I want any fish tonight after all," he said, "I'll buy that rug you like so well if you don't mention this to anybody," he meekly volunteered.

Mr. Snider has never mentioned the subject of fishing since that day, but Carl Andrews still tells the story of the big one that got away. Mrs. Snider holds her peace, for a brand new rug adorns the hardwood floor of the library. But the stranger of it all is that Mr. Snider has never entered Platt's fish store since.

Everybody's talking of Mother's vacations and holiday vacations. Big brother is packing his suitcase with old clothes, a tin teapot, and some folding fishing tackle. He's off to the woods with "the fellows" for a fortnight's camping. Big sisters are carefully folding up their muslin dresses and the next train will see them en route for Muskoka. Little Mary and the twins have just returned, brown as Indians, from a three week's stay in the country. Father is in Montreal—on business, of course, but nobody would be surprised to learn that he is also "relaxing a little bit" in the Laurentians before coming back to "the grid." Mother is—why mother is just at home plodding on as usual.

And, bless you, all the "mothers" need relaxation and rest, once a year at least; they need to get away from home and the care of you all, and see new people, and eat meals which they haven't cooked themselves. That's right—get a railroad guide at once and send "mother" off somewhere.

Tea-Table Talk. The last issue of "Women's Century" contains a most interesting and convincing letter on "Fair Vestries." Women as members of vestries in the Anglican churches, recently discussed by the Synod of Huron diocese. One cannot forbear drawing attention to the last paragraph, and particularly to the hint conveyed in the final sentence. One fancies the delegates to the Synod of Huron, or in fact to any other similar convention or congress, would find their time rather less enjoyable if the ladies of the city withheld their hospitality.

A quote in part from the letter of "Fair Play": "The speakers in opposition had no sound argument to advance, but rang the changes on the old 'saw' that, 'woman's sphere was the home.' One would imagine that vestry meetings occur daily, instead of once a year, to hear those men of antiquated ideas, advance the reason, that presence at them would take women out of their homes. The woman in England from time immemorial has been members of the vestry, and when the Anglican Church was planted in Canada, the law on vestry was the same as in England. After some years the Canadian rule was changed by inserting the word 'male,' thus excluding women, and taking away a right that had been theirs. In nine other dioceses in Canada, this right has been restored, viz: Nova Scotia, Montreal, Ontario, Ottawa, Niagara, Saskatchewan, New Westminster, Calgary and Caledonia.

A petition signed by 2,460 women scattered over 83 parishes of the diocese of Huron, presented to the committee set apart by the Bishop at the last Synod, to bring the matter before this year's Synod. This, as I stated before, was most enthusiastically received and debated. When the vote was taken there was a majority of both clergy and laity in favor, but as it takes a two-thirds vote of each, to carry a motion involving a change in the constitution, it was lost. Let me add, just for the present, that the reform is sure to come, and we women "bob up serenely," feeling we must have patience with the prejudices of men and the ignorance betrayed by many, who spoke against the motion.

It is wonderful the smallness of some men's minds, they are like "enclosed gardens"—then, too, the lack of manliness amazes one. Think of men beholding the London women for hospitable during Synod week, going out and voting against their hostesses being recognized by the church and given

IF CONSTIPATED OR BILIOUS—"CASCARETS"

Headache, Sour Stomach, Biliousness and Bad Taste Gone By Morning.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

FARMERS INTERESTED IN CROP COMPETITIONS

There Will Be a Big List of Contestants in Ingersoll District.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ingersoll, July 29.—Farmers of the surrounding districts are now showing much interest in the standing field crop competition conducted by the Agricultural Society. There is a big list of contestants, and oats constitute the crop. The judging will take place this week, which is earlier than usual owing to the remarkably fine weather. No new or sensational developments marked the return of Chief Fish from Montreal yesterday, bringing with him Ex-Policeman Wright, who is unable to give an account of how he happened to land in the eastern metropolis. Many citizens evidence a sympathetic interest in the case, final disposition of which will likely be made on Thursday.

The death of Mary Ann Reed, a widely-known resident of Beachville, and relict of the late John William Reed, occurred yesterday. She was in her 66th year and highly esteemed by many friends. The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon to the Beachville Cemetery.

The humidity almost equalled the season's record. Following a comparatively cool spell everyone suffered. The day was a good business-getter for the laundries and the lightest materials permissible were very much in demand for those forced to be on the streets. The thermometers consulted registered close to 90 during the hottest period.

Nine More Trainmen Dismissed on I. C. R.

Railwaymen Are Very Indignant and Trouble Is Expected.

[Canadian Press.] Moncton, July 29.—Six more brakemen and three conductors of the Intercolonial Railway received notice yesterday that they were being dismissed, while Conductors Daniel Sullivan, James McInnis and John Coltrane were sent back to working, while the rest are to be dismissed. The railwaymen are very indignant, and something, they say, will happen in a few days. The question of a strike is being talked about, but the men intend to wait until their grand lodge officials arrive. They intend holding an indignation meeting. It is said that the dismissal of F. P. Brady, general superintendent, and Mr. Richardson, general yardmaster, will be asked, but that the general superintendent of railways, is also to be petitioned.

An unconfirmed report is being circulated to the effect that 30 firemen will be laid off, and ten engineers will be put back to firing again.

GARDEN PARTY

Belmont Ladies' Guild Held a Most Successful Entertainment.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Belmont, July 29.—The garden party given by the Ladies' Guild of St. George's Church was a decided success, although the evening was rather cool. Mr. F. L. Lewin, of Huron College, presided as chairman, and he and Mrs. Lewin sang a few solos very acceptably.

Addresses were given by Rev. J. Currie and Rev. L. Bartlett; solos by Miss Swift, of Nilestown, Mr. Lewin and Mr. George M. Bovey, and readings by Miss Nellie Taylor. Miss Mason, of London, acted as accompanist. The proceeds were about $65.

I say, even the children are beyond my understanding. I found a child weeping and endeavored to offer it a stick of striped candy, you know. But it persisted in his grief until a larger girl seized my candy and addressed it thuswise:

"Aw, chase the sob number, Esteline. Nix on the map sprinkler. Make a face like a tooth powder ad, and give your molars air to grow in. Come on, quit polishing your lamps and take your knucks out of your eyelids. Dip this fake zebra tail in your windpipe! Mister, you're a kind old geezer, but why don't you talk United States?"

STAG ISLAND TO BE VENICE

Big St. Clair Resort Will Be Greatly Improved in a Short Time.

MAY PUT ON NEW BOAT

SARNIA BRANCH OFFICE, 209 Front Street, Office hours, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., 2:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Sarnia, July 29.—Stag Island, the resort some four or five miles below Sarnia, in St. Clair River, will be made into a river Venice when the plans of the management are carried out.

It is the intention to survey the island and split it up into building lots ranging from $200 to $1,000 in price. These lots will be sold, and the proceeds used to enlarge the canals on the island, build in addition to the hotel, and install various attractions to the public.

The island will combine the features of a Venetian Canal Island, and the venture promises to be a successful one. Under previous ownership the resort catered to the exclusively "four hundred" but there wasn't four hundred of the elite, and as a financial proposition it was not a money-maker. The new proprietors intend to cater to the masses, and by inducing people to locate there permanently each summer, derive a steady revenue, besides the profits from making the place a popular resort for the public.

It is understood that a boat will likely be purchased to run between Sarnia, Port Huron and the island, as the present service is far from good.

Strike Is Bringing Miners to Canada

Rejections at the Border Make New Record This Month.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Sarnia, July 29.—The local immigration office will total over eighty rejections for this month. This is a record-breaker, as the usual monthly average does not run much over forty. Large numbers of the miners from Calumet and other parts of the copper country are coming to Canada on account of the strike. Many of these are Cornishmen, and being British subjects and well supplied with money, they have no trouble getting into the country.

The Italians, Russians, Hungarians, etc., however, are turned back unless they come up to requirements. The men are of the opinion that the strike will be settled in a very short time.

Rushing Work on New Waterworks

Construction Will Not Be Finished Before Next Summer.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Sarnia, July 29.—The construction of the new waterworks at Point Edward is progressing favorably. Haste is being made to put the pump wells down before the cold weather starts, and in order that the building for the machinery may be erected.

The excavating of the filtering basin has not been started yet, and work on the basin will not be begun for a month or two yet. Although the contract specifies that the new plant must be completed by the first of the year, it will be well on into next summer before the construction work is finished.

Two or three of the sections will likely be laid by the first of the year, and these can be used as soon as they are put in commission.

IN NEW QUARTERS

Canadian Inspectors Old Offices Were Far Too Small.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Sarnia, July 29.—The Canadian immigration inspectors at the tunnel have moved from their old quarters in the west end of the depot into the new offices, just north of that building, on the west side of the customs house. The department demanded better quarters for the inspectors here a long time ago.

PRACTICALLY GIVEN UP TO DIE

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Kidneys and Bladder

Williamstown, Ont., July 27th, 1910. "I have much pleasure in testifying to the most marvellous benefit I have derived from taking "Fruit-a-tives." I was a lifelong sufferer from Chronic Constipation, and the only medicine I ever secured to do me any real good was "Fruit-a-tives." This medicine cured me when everything else failed. Also last spring, I had a severe attack of Bladder Trouble coupled with Kidney Trouble, and "Fruit-a-tives" cured these complaints for me, when the physicians attending me had practically given me up.

I am now over eighty years of age and I can strongly recommend "Fruit-a-tives" for Chronic Constipation and Bladder and Kidney Troubles."

ENGINEER AND BRAKEMAN BOTH KILLED IN WRECK

Charles Thompson, of Goderich, and Fred Pierce, of Mimico, Meet Death in Bad Smash at St. Catharines—Inquest Will Be Held.

[Special to The Advertiser.] St. Catharines, July 28.—Two men are dead, two men are injured, two engines and a dozen freight cars were wrecked, as the result of a train wreck on the Grand Trunk depot at two o'clock this afternoon. The dead are: Charles Thompson, engineer, Mimico, and Fred Pierce, brakeman, Fort Erie.

The dead engineer was in charge of No. 644, which was hauling a heavy westbound freight train from Niagara Falls. The train was moving at a high rate of speed and ran into an open switch at the station, crashing with tremendous force into engine No. 1263, which was standing on a siding near the freight sheds.

Died at His Post. Engineer Pierce stuck to his post and died at the throttle. His body was mangled in the wreck, one leg being severed. The body of Thompson was not found for about two hours after the accident, when it was discovered buried under a pile of coal. One of the brakemen who saw the wreck said that it looked as if the rushing freight train was beyond control. Another said that the semaphore was not turned against the train, and that there was no signal for the engineer to stop. A Close Call. Two St. Catharines men named Richard Daniels and George Chitt were loading a box car at the standing train at the freight sheds when their car was smashed to kindling. Another car partly telescoped it, and was forced completely on to the top of the car they were working in. They were both seriously, but not fatally, injured. Daniels, who is the foreman of the car repair gang, was injured internally, and taken home in the ambulance. Clout was hurt on the head, but is not regarded as in a dangerous state.

A tramp who was stealing a ride on the fast freight has been held at a witness at the inquest, which was opened Monday night, but adjourned until Tuesday evening. He states that the outside semaphore was set against the in-coming train. The regular switchman was away, and his place was being filled by a temporary man, who will make no statement. Thompson's relatives reside in Goderich and the remains will be taken there.

BELMONT.

Belmont, July 29.—Mr. Wm. Davidson, of Oakland, Cal., is visiting his mother here. Dr. Charles Shain, food inspector of Hamilton, who has been here for a couple of weeks, has left for home. Mrs. Shain, with their son and daughter, will remain here a week or two. Dr. McGaw has leased Dr. Shain's house on Main street. The work of gravelling Main street will be completed as far south as the C. P. R. station in a few days, but the steam roller will be working here for a couple of weeks. C. C. Groat, con. 6, North Dorchester, is loading a car with settler's effects, and will move to Swift Current, Sask.

WANTS INVESTIGATION INTO UNION LIFE CO

Strong Criticism Was Made at a Meeting of the British Shareholders.

London, July 29.—A meeting of British shareholders of the Union Life Assurance Company was held yesterday at the Hotel Cecil. Mr. A. M. DeBrekka, chairman, said that the committee had earnestly endeavored to bring about a reconstruction, but without success. He criticized several members of the London advisory board, and condemned the administration of the company both here and in Toronto. Efforts were being made to get the Finance Minister of the Dominion to investigate thoroughly the company's affairs, and to punish those to whom punishment was due. As matters now stood, he considered that the shareholders' money was entirely lost. He intimated that legal proceedings might be taken against the directors collectively and individually. A resolution was unanimously passed appealing to the Canadian Minister of Finance to take all possible action to cause a Government inquiry to be held as to the failure of the company, particularly as to the prospectus issued to the English shareholders in 1910.

A Home Recipe For Removing Wrinkles

[From Woman's National Journal.] Who will blame the modern woman for trying to look as young and attractive as she reasonably can? Why should she be placed at a disadvantage in numerous ways by wearing wrinkles, if she can avoid these hateful marks of advancing age? Few women, however, know what to do to effectually rid themselves of wrinkles or sagging. None of the advertised preparations is satisfactory and most of them are very expensive. But a very simple and harmless home remedy, which any woman can make, will work wonders where all the patent preparations fail. Buy an ounce of powdered salicylic acid at any drug store. Dissolve the whole ounce in a half pint of witch hazel and use it as a wash lotion. The results are practically instantaneous. Marked improvement is noticed immediately after the first trial. Wrinkles and sagging are corrected and the face feels so refreshed and smug-like.

PAID FOR HONOR OF FIGHTING FIRE IN THE OLD DAYS

Back in the Fifties It Was No Trouble to Secure Men.

Interesting Records of the Forest City Fire Department of Many Years Ago.

"Backward, turn backward, O, Time in thy flight."

Fire Chief John Aitken maybe isn't poetically inclined—he's too much of a fighter for that—but just the same it's safe betting that he would like to turn back the wheels of time a little.

It was in 1851 that the chief wouldn't have to be worrying about ten more men for his department. Under prevailing conditions he can't get the men—the council refusing to authorize their appointment and salaries. Such was not the case, however, in 1851.

Fire Fighting an Honor. In those days there was no demand for firemen that was not filled. In fact the honor of being a member of the London fire department was so great that the board once paid five shillings for the mere joining of the department!

Over at fire headquarters there are some interesting documents of the London fire departments that were. In the minute book of the old Phoenix Fire Company, under the date of June 6, 1851, the following is to be found:

"Proposed and seconded that William Galahar be a member of this company." Carried.

"Proposed and seconded that William Westland be credited with 5 shillings and to pay the company two shillings six pence of a balance due the same."

An Order for Belts. Under a date of July 4 of the same year appears a record of the next monthly meeting. Among other items the secretary of that day put down in his book was the following:

"Proposed and seconded that D. Perrin and William Westland be appointed to find the company with twelve belts, not to exceed 10 shillings."

Whether or not the honor of becoming a member of the fire department increased with time or not is not stated, but in the records for September, 1851, is found the following:

"Proposed and seconded that Jacob Brown be a member of this company." Carried.

Hydro was an unknown quantity in those days. In an expense item for October is seen: "Charge 1/3d for candles."

Coming a little farther along toward modern times and the present demand for firemen that is not filled by willing volunteers who were prepared to whack up 5 or 10 shillings to be a fireman, are some interesting items in the record book of the London permanent department. Chief Engineer Thomas Wastie, London's first chief of a permanent fire department, kept a record of his brigade, and an interesting record it is.

Lieut. George Gray, of No. 5 station, is the only member of the present fire department who served under Chief Wastie as a permanent fireman. Captain James D. Riddle, of No. 2 station, and pipeman J. D. Riddle, of the same station, were "callmen" under Wastie, though their appointments to a permanent force came under Fire Chief Roe.

Gray's Long Record. "George" Gray went on a permanent fireman in 1878, five years after Captain Findlater became a callman, and three years before Fire Chief John Aitken became a fireman. J. D. Riddle went on as a callman in 1878, but after six months service was discharged. He went back in 1880, and was a callman for five years before becoming a permanent member of the department.

On May 1, 1880, J. A. Roe, formerly a callman of the department, became chief of the permanent brigade. Chief Roe had his troubles about getting additional men when he took over the department, the same as Fire Chief Aitken has at the present time. However, the fire, light and gas committee of the council in 1880 was a little more gracious in granting his requests for additions. In its meeting of May 23, 1881, it is decided to grant an addition to the permanent department. That addition was Jack Aitken, 25, painter, present head of London's department.

Chief Aitken's Record. Chief Aitken entered the service of the fire department on the day of the Victoria disaster, May 24, 1881. When the addition of 1881 was made the London fire department roster, exclusive of the callmen, some of whom received $150 per year, and the rest $100, was:

Chief $800
Foreman $500
Assistant foreman $450
First driver $450
Second driver $450
Firemen $400

The fireman was Chief Aitken. A little more than a year after his appointment—October, 1882 to be exact—the chief got his first promotion, being appointed as assistant foreman and receiving an increase of $80 in salary. In September, 1891, he was appointed foreman (captain) of No. 3 station, South London, and in 1903 was transferred back to fire headquarters, succeeding A. McMurphy as assistant chief of the department. On the death of Chief Larry Clark in the Westman fire of 1908 he became head of the brigade. Turning back the leaves of Fire Chief Wastie's records some interesting items appear in the expense account. Under the head of capital expenses in 1878 appears one item: "New springs and painting book and ladder, R. Dennis, King street, 165."

Another item appears in the same year credited to J. A. Roe, later chief, with $22.50 for painting apparatus. Expenses of the department, so far as horses is concerned, hasn't grown very much since those days, for there appears a statement of the purchase of "one bay horse, 6 years old, sound by warrant of farrier, $150."

Appointment Lists. In the appointment lists of the old book are found some more interesting items. Lieut. George Gray leads the list for length of service in 1878. Fire Chief Aitken comes next, May 24, 1881. In order of service, Pipeman Riddle comes next, having gone on the permanent paid force in 1885. Captain Thomas Aitken, the chief's brother, and now in charge of No. 2 station, joined the brigade in 1887. He received his promotion to captaincy when the chief went from No. 3 station to headquarters as assistant.

It was in 1888 Captain Findlater went on the permanent department, after fifteen years' service as a callman. He was immediately appointed as foreman of No. 2 station, a position he has since filled, though the title has been changed to captain. The following year Captain Robert McIntyre, No. 2 station, was appointed. In 1903 Charles Scott, now deputy chief, John Mitchell, captain of No. 5, and R. A. Haylock, lieutenant of No. 4, were appointed.

In 1893 W. H. Secombe, the pipeman, Robert McIntyre, who lost his life at the City Hotel fire in 1908, was appointed. The same year Alex. ("Sandy") Borland, now chief of the Woodstock department, joined the brigade. In 1900 W. A. Howard, now chief of Peterboro brigade, was appointed. In 1903 Charles Scott, now deputy chief, John Mitchell, captain of No. 5, and R. A. Haylock, lieutenant of No. 4, were appointed.

HOW "MARRYING PARSON" EVADES THE REGULATION

Rev. Robert M'Intyre Finds a Way for Hurry Up Weddings.

According to the Buffalo Courier, Rev. Robert M'Intyre, of Bridgeburg, is maintaining his reputation for making folks happy on a moment's notice despite the new provincial regulations which require fifteen days' residence of at least one of the parties seeking to be united in marriage. The story follows:

"Love will find the way" is a pretty safe bet. But it never had a thing on Rev. Robert M'Intyre, the "marrying parson" of Bridgeburg, Ont.

Leave it to the experienced dispenser of the "promise-to-obeys" stuff to strew the paths of fond lovers with roses despite the Canadian highroads.

Bridgeburg used to be a mecca until the authorities passed a law compelling couples desiring to get married to publish the fact three weeks in advance. It was real heaven for elopers. The parson used to marry about 300 couples a year. But since the law went into effect business has taken an awful slump.

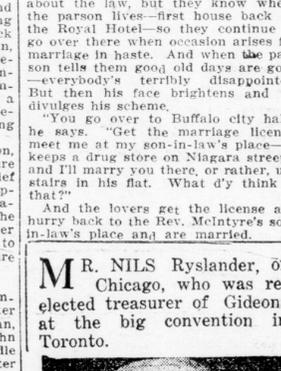

Evades Regulations. Recently it behooved the parson to bestir himself. And he did. Instead of marrying them over there he married them over here—see?

A lot of young folks don't know about the law, but they know where the parson lives—first house back of the Royal Hotel—so they continue to go over there when occasion arises for marriage in haste. And when the parson tells them 300 old days are gone—everybody's terribly disappointed. But then his face brightens and he divulges his scheme.

"You go over to Buffalo city hall," he says. "Get the marriage license, meet me at my son-in-law's place—he keeps a drug store on Niagara street—and I'll marry you there, or rather, upstairs in his flat. What'd you think of that?"

And the lovers get the license and hurry back to the Rev. McIntyre's son-in-law's place and are married.

M R. NILS Ryslander, of Chicago, who was re-elected treasurer of Gideons at the big convention in Toronto.

STEAMER WRECKED

Quebec, July 29.—The purser of the Lady of Gaspe reached Quebec this morning, and in his account of the accident says the Lady of Gaspe was on her way to the Gulf of St. Lawrence on account of a dense fog, when at 11:30 o'clock the Crown of Cordova came along and ran into the gulf liner, cutting her amidships, crushing in her side and making a big hole.

The captain of the Lady of Gaspe, realizing that the damage done was serious and that his ship was in danger of going to the bottom with all on board, which besides a general cargo, had one hundred passengers on their way to the Gaspe coast, had the anchor lifted and ran his vessel for the beach.

The lifeboats of the steamer went into the water and the passengers were all safely landed at Cape Magdalen and cared for by the farmers.

The Crown of Cordova, after telegraphing to Quebec for assistance, continued her way to this port. Her husband, J. H. Hackett and assisted by port tug J. H. Hackett and the tug stern, she now lies at anchor in the stream, with a big hole in her bow, two feet above the water.

MAIN EXTENSIONS FOR A LARGE AREA PLANNED FOR CITY
 Newly-Annexed Districts May Be Served Before Winter Sets In.
 Proposed to Serve North End With Supply Main Up William Street.
 Main extensions of the waterworks that will be put through this year cover an immense area of territory. Annexation added a big responsibility to the water commission and an effort is being made to have the major portion of the newly-annexed districts served with water for domestic and fire protection purposes before winter sets in.
 Over in Chelsea Green the new mains will hardly go in before another year, but the old mains of the Chelsea Green village service are being used. Source of supply, however, has been changed. Under the village regime Chelsea Green water was from a well on the north bank of the river and the power plant at the McClary Company's east end works supplied the "pumping station." Now the old mains have been connected to those of London proper and city water goes across the river to London's newest southeasterly suburb.

Queens To Picnic.—May Queen, Rebekah Lodge, lady members of the I. O. O. F., will picnic at Springbank on Wednesday evening, and they have invited Chorazin Lodge to join them there and partake of their hospitality.
Aylmer Old Boys.—Monday's program at the reunion of the Aylmer Old Boys will be in charge of the London contingent. A special program has been prepared, containing many feature events. The prize list is large and many entries have been received. The Seventh Regiment band will accompany the Old Boys on a special train on the Pere Marquette at 9 o'clock, returning before midnight. The officials in charge of the program are: President J. T. May, George H. O'Neill, H. H. McCall, T. G. Dockstader, Gerald Ingram, and several other former residents of Aylmer.

Pastor Entertains.—Rev. J. H. Boyd gave a lawn party to the young people of the church on the church lawn on Monday evening. A large number gathered and an excellent program was provided by Miss Newbury and one of her pupils in elocution. Pianos solos were rendered by Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mr. John Wilson, Mr. Charles Maynard, and Mr. Robert Douce. Messrs. F. Whiner and Charles Maynard sang a duet that was well received. Refreshments were provided by the pastor of the church.

Teachers Entertained.—The teachers in training at the barracks were the guests of the Colborne Street Methodist Epworth League on Monday evening. An excellent program was provided by the league, and the teachers rendered several choruses. The numbers by the Forest City Quartette and the instrumental number by Mr. Yeates were features of the program. Addresses were delivered by Messrs. Leppard, Kirkwood, Halliday and McDonald, of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. The teachers appreciated the kindness of the young people, and thanked them heartily for the evening's entertainment, which came as a break in their work.

A BUMPER WHEAT CROP.
 Thousands of Men Required—This Year's Harvest Promises To Be the Largest in the History of Canada.

According to present indications the wheat crop of 1913 will be the greatest ever harvested in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta, thus requiring the farm laborers of the east to assist in harvesting the world's greatest bread basket.
 The Governments of the respective provinces state that many thousands of men will be required for this year's harvest. These will have to be principally recruited from Ontario, and the property of Canada depends on securing labor promptly. The Canadian Pacific, on which company will fall practically the entire task of transporting the men to the West, is already making special arrangements for this year. Excursions from points in Ontario to Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta will be run and special trains operated, making the trip in about thirty-six hours and avoiding any change of cars or transfers. This will be a day shorter than any other route. Dates, rates and conditions will be announced in a few days. M. G. Murphy, district passenger agent Canadian Pacific Railway, 77-79 t.w.

FOR RENOVATING MATTING.
 Matting faded and worn off but still too good to be thrown away can be made to look almost like new. Scrub it thoroughly and let it dry. Then go over the entire matting with green dye, using a soft, broad paint brush. A gallon of dye, of the kind used for cotton goods, may be made out of one package, costing ten cents. The results will be surprising. Both the dress and the three rugs can be treated in this manner.
ENJOY THE COOL ATLANTIC SEA BREEZES.
 Those contemplating a seaside trip should bear in mind the excellent train service offered by the Canadian Pacific. Fast Express trains leave Montreal 9:15 p.m. daily and 9:00 a.m. daily, except Sunday, for Portland and other Maine Coast Resorts.
 Connecting trains leave Toronto 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 p.m. daily. Day train carries dining car and parlor car and night train standard sleepers to Montreal.
 Through standard sleepers for St. Andrews, N. B., leave Montreal 7:25 p.m. daily. Connecting train leaves Toronto 9:00 a.m. daily.
 The Canadian Pacific is the only line operating through parlor and sleeping cars between Montreal, Old Orchard Beach, Bradford, Saco, Kennebunkport and Kennebunkport.

Private May Dies of His Injuries
 Hurt in Collision During First Day of the Military Camp.

Pte. Richard May died in Victoria Hospital Monday afternoon from injuries received about a month ago on the first day of the military camp of No. 1 division troops. A team of horses which he was driving away and collided with a tree at Oxford and Adelaide streets, throwing May out.
 When May was removed from the field hospital to Victoria Hospital to undergo his operations off on one of his holidays, which were frequent at that time, and the operation had to be held by light from the emergency gas plant. His condition had always been in doubt, and he was able to take practically no food whatever, his death resulting from lack of nourishment. He was a member of the Sixteenth detachment, Canadian Army School of Instruction, and had lived near Fanshawe, London Township, where his mother and two brothers, James and William, reside. Two other brothers also survive him, George and John, who live in London Township, and John, of this city.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from George Logan's funeral parlors, to St. John's church, and will be private. Ven. Archdeacon Richardson will conduct the funeral services.

FARMERS ARE VERY BUSY HARVESTING FINE CROPS

Working From Daylight Until After Dark for Many Days Now, But Returns for Their Toil Will Be Big And All Are More Than Pleased With the Yield.

Farmers all through this district are now making every second count. They are up before daylight and work till after dark.
 They are pressing every available person into service in their effort to handle the harvest which the splendid weather of the past few weeks has brought along much faster than was anticipated.
 All the men and boys, and in many instances, women and girls, are out in the fields, each as busy as can be. With the oats, wheat and barley all ripening together, the hay to care for, and the berries to pick, besides the cattle to look after, and dozens of chores to do, the farmer will not have a moment for many days to come.

Are Well Satisfied.
 Notwithstanding, everyone is well satisfied, as the harvest this year will be a splendid one, and there is a big crop of all the products. The district all around London has been especially favored by the weather this season, and the rains have come most opportunely.
 As a result, the quality of the grain and other crops is excellent, and the farmers will have a good balance on the right side to show for their hard work.
 It is not often that there is a season when so little damage is done by hail and windstorms. Insect pests have also been comparatively scarce this year. Fruit men all through the district will have a record quantity of plums, peaches and apples for shipping.
A GOOD YIELD.

Big Demand for Offices.
 Down-town offices are becoming more and more in demand. The previous increase has been a natural one, but the result of the Carling block sale and several other realty transfers that are pending will cause an almost abnormal demand. The fact that the old city hall building will be turned into offices and that several other buildings will be either rebuilt or remodelled, will hardly meet all demands, it is feared, and there may be a serious dearth of suitable office space in the near future.

Some Old Tenancies.
 When the old tenants are forced to leave, some of them will be terminating tenancies that run close to the century mark. The Carling block was an office building before London was what it is today. The old landmark has sheltered many famous Londoners as its tenants, and its passing will be regarded with regret, though that regret will be touched with real appreciation that the city is coming into its own, and that London's development has been such that postoffice quarters are far too cramped now, and an adequate site has at last been purchased by the Government for the proper extension of the postoffice.

RAIN WAS WELCOME.
 [Special to The Advertiser.]
 Wyoming, July 29.—A rain of much benefit to the country in general fell here on Sunday evening. While too late to help barley, wheat or corn earlier on, it will be of immense value to the later fields and to the hoe crop.
 No severe lightning nor destructive wind accompanied the rain in this locality, consequently only good came of it.
FRUIT IS PLENTIFUL.
 [Special to The Advertiser.]
 Belmont, July 29.—Harvest is in full swing in many parts of the district. All along the lake shore and in through the Arkona district there is a splendid lot of fruit, and growers through the new co-operative methods of selling are expecting record returns. Grain cutting is commencing, and in a few days will be occupying the entire attention of the farmers. Oats, barley and wheat are all ripening fast, and fine yields are looked for.

RAIN DID GOOD.
 [Special to The Advertiser.]
 Ingersoll, July 29.—Berry growers reported favorably on the crop conditions today in consequence of the rain which fell Saturday night. The storm period was very gratifying and much good was done. While the rain was not accompanied by the usual electrical disturbances it fell rather heavily and penetrated to a considerable depth. The result was very conspicuous on the berry crop.
 Berries which had shown signs of shrivelling took on a natural appearance and the crop will be much more plentiful. However, more rain is needed.
FARMERS ARE BUSY.
 [Special to The Advertiser.]
 Ailsa Craig, July 29.—The farmers of this vicinity are very busy at present harvesting their crops. Apparently all the wheat, barley and oats are ripening together.
 Mr. Dan McKellar has commenced pulling the flax and reports a good crop.
 Fruit is very plentiful all through the district and farmers everywhere are well satisfied with the season.

MIDDLESEX FARMERS NEEDING MEN BADLY NO LACK OF WORK

Plenty of Situations for Immigrants, Says Dominion Officer Riggs.
Reeves of Townships Will Convene to Discuss Caring for Families.

Farm laborers were never in such demand by the farmers of Middlesex County as they are at the present time, according to Immigration Officer John Riggs. The local immigration officer's statement of the demand is one given as an explanation of a statement made last week to shut off the supply of immigrants for this section because of lack of work. This is not the case, the only possibility of any shut off being ordered being solely because of local accommodations for receiving families while being distributed to the farmers.
Clamoring For Men.
 Farmers are clamoring for men, says Mr. Riggs, and while some difficulty is being experienced in having them take
