THE RABBIT ON THE WALL.

BY CATHERINE ALLAN.

The cottage work is over,
The evening meal is done;
Hark! through the starlit stillness
You hear the rattle run.

The cotter's children whisper,
Then speak out one and all,
"Come, father, make for Johnny
A rabbit on the wall."

He smilingly assenting,
They gather round his chair;
"Now, grandma, you hold Johnny—Don't let the candle flare—"

So speaking, from his fingers
He throws a shadow tall,
That seems, the moment after,
A rabbit on the wall.

The children shout with laughter,
The uproar louder grows,
E'en grandma chuckles faintly,
And Johnny chirps and crows.

There no'er was gilded painting,
Hung up in lordly hall,
Gave half the simple pleasure,
This rabbit on the wall.

Al! who does not remember,
When humble sports like these,
Than many a costlier pastime
Had greater power to please?

When o'er life's autumn pathway
The sera leaves thickly fall,
How oft we sigh, recalling
The rabbit on the wall.

FRIGHTFUL STEAMBOAT ACCIDENT.

On Monday Morning, the 27th of Jan., at three o'clock, the steamer John Adams, Capt. H. A. Jones, with a heavy freight and a large number of passengers, bound for Cincinnati, when near the head of Island Eighty-two, in the Mississippi, struck a snag or stump, and sunk in two minutes. The cabin parted from the hull, and the latter went down about sixty feet of water. She had about ninety or one hundred deck passengers, a few of whom only were saved. The cabin, in breaking from the hull, separated in the middle, which, doubtless, was the cause of many of the cabin passengers saving their lives. The ladies in the cabin were all saved. After suffering many hours in the water, they were enabled to get ashore. The forward portion of the cabin, including the fixtures, floated down to the head of Island Eighty-three, where it grounded. About three o'clock in the afternoon, the steamer Peytona came along, and took the passengers on board from that part of the wreck. From thence, the Peytona proceeded with all possible haste to the other portion of the wreck.

Owing to the early hour at which the John Adams sunk, almost every one was asleep, and it being so sudden few were able to get sufficient clothing to cover themselves, and many of them are indeed in a most destitute condition.

Captain Sialcross makes the following summary of persons on the boat, and the number saved:—

Cabin passengers	34	100

Officers	11	11
Crew, &c.	7	32
Total	107	230

This shows the number missing to be 123.

The deck passengers were Californians, and German and Irish Emigrants, who were going to Cincinnati. The cargo was also for Cincinnati.

FURTHER NEWS BY THE AFRICA.

New York, Feb. 15.

The steamer Africa arrived at Cork on the 2nd January. She broke both her shafts when nine days out, and ran to the Westward six days, until she put into Cork. She has chartered the Cambria to bring her freight, which was to sail for New York on the 4th inst. It is thought it will take three months to repair the damage to the Africa's machinery. Her mails came by the Africa, and also the passengers. She experienced very severe weather. She broke the shafts of both engines during a hurricane, and the paddle-boxes being both carried away, she was totally disabled. After six days' beating westward, she finally put back, and reached Cork at 8 P. M. on Wednesday, the 22nd January. The vessel sustained no damage beyond that above stated. Crew and passengers were all well. A card was published at Cork, by the passengers of the Africa, in high testimony of the great power and strength of the ship, in contending for nine days against an almost unparalleled Western gale, under great, and to her admirable conduct, in standing 500 miles. They awarded high praise to Capt. West for his great exertions, and particularly to his first officer, and also to the Chief Engineer.

The Cambria left Liverpool for Cork on the 27th, and was to leave there on the 4th February with nothing but the cargo of the Africa.

The propeller City of Glasgow arrived from Philadelphia on the 30th ult.

The weather on the British coast has been very stormy—many vessels were obliged to put back.

ENGLAND.
London, Jan. 31.

Outline of Her Majesty's Speech.
Her Majesty will announce that she receives the most friendly assurances from foreign powers, and is gratified to know that peace has been restored in those States in the North of Europe so lately engaged in war, or preparing for the commencement of hostilities.

The Queen then congratulates the Members of both Houses on the tranquility which prevails, not only at home but in all foreign parts, and the confidence in her Majesty's Government.

Her Majesty regrets that in some Counties Agriculture is rather depressed, but she trusts it will be only temporary.

Her Majesty then directs attention to the trade with Brazil, and suggests the desirableness of arranging the sugar trade, &c., with that country.

In the usual phraseology, the intention respecting Brazil will be acceptable news to the Free Traders of Liverpool.

The law reform measures will be uniformly acceptable.

Ministers have a plan for relieving Agriculture, but it will not be matured until the Chancellor of the Exchequer sees what kind of a Financial statement he can make.

Lord John Russell's Cabinet was safe.

FRANCE.
The Ministerial crisis is over. Another new Cabinet has been formed. A messenger from the President informed the Assembly that the following Ministers had been appointed:

- M. Daillez, Minister of Interior.
- Mr. Brémont, Foreign Affairs.
- Gen. Randon, War.
- Admiral de Valentin, Marine.
- M. Girard, Public Instruction.
- M. Schneider, Commerce.
- M. Germain, Finance.
- M. Magne, Public Works.
- M. De Boyen, Justice.

None of the new Ministers are members of the Assembly. The "Messenger" says that it was merely a transition Ministry, till prejudice should disappear, and a reconciliation should be effected.

There was a meeting on Tuesday evening of the Legitimists; two questions were discussed:—The Dotation, and the repeal of the Electoral Law of the 31st May. The Dotation met with almost unanimous opposition.

As to the Electoral Law, the proposition for repeal was rejected by a majority of 6. The Dotation Bill is to be introduced, but as the three million might appear heavy, only half that sum will be presented. It is hoped thus to overcome the discontented, and the Ministry does not doubt of its success in this first campaign in the turn of affairs.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

REMOVAL OF THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.

The Council went into Committee of the whole on Mr. Alderman Ridout's resolutions in reference to the removal of the Seat of Government from Toronto.

Ald. Ridout said, in moving the adoption of the resolutions now before them, he wished to be understood as not acting in a spirit of hostility towards the inhabitants of Lower Canada. It was desirable that intercommunication should exist, but it was desirable that Western Canada should have justice done to it. He disclaimed the idea of being actuated by selfish motives. His resolutions were brought forward strictly on public grounds. He was a member of the Grand Jury, whose address to the Governor General had been characterized as unprecedented; but he would maintain that the course they pursued was perfectly correct. So far as the Governor General was concerned, he must say that he had never neglected an opportunity of furthering the objects of commerce and agriculture, when his presence or talents could be of service; and for the good in this manner conferred upon this district, during his residence in the city, the inhabitants are under considerable obligations to His Excellency. But the reasons for the removal of the Seat of Government were not conclusive. It had been considered desirable that both branches of the Legislature should have an opportunity of becoming personally acquainted with the inhabitants and the resources of both sections of the country, and that this could only be obtained by having the removal in the middle of the existing course of Parliament, and not at its close. There could be no doubt that if the Parliament removed during the approaching summer, disappointment and angry feeling would be excited, which might lead to an agitation for the dissolution of the Union.

Mr. Hayes seconded the motion.

Ald. Keeshaul agreed with the resolutions, but suggested that they might be considered expediently. He was at Montreal when Mr. Sherbrooke's resolutions were passed, and distinctly recollected that they were agreed to on the understanding that the Seat of Government should remain four years at the place to which it was removed; though he was afraid the present resolutions would have little effect, yet the Legislature ought to be made aware that the removal of the Seat of Government during the present year, will be looked upon by Western Canada as a gross departure from the understanding previously come to.

The Mayor was of opinion that decided efforts should be made by every constituency in Upper Canada, as well as that of Toronto, with the view of producing an impression, not on the Governor General or the Government, but on the popular branch of the Legislature. They were indebted to the Governor General for expressing his opinion so early, and for so completely throwing the onus on his advisers. The interests of this section of the Province required that the Seat of Government should remain here the full term of four years, which appeared to him to be the period indicated in Mr. Sherbrooke's resolutions.

Mr. Ashfield continued with previous speakers.

Mr. Smith thought the Council should concentrate its efforts to an attempt to produce an impression upon Mr. Lafontaine; for Lafontaine rules Baldwin, Baldwin rules Huchins, and the three together rule the Governor General.

Mr. Dunn thought they should at once agitate for a dissolution of the Union, or a Federal Union of the Provinces.

Ald. Dempsey concurred in the resolutions.

Resolved: That the Council should be authorized to answer a question with regard to the Seat of Government. If they were indebted to anybody at all, it was to Mr. Lafontaine. The Governor General's answer was dictated by the Ministry, and it is known that the Ministry are dictated by Mr. Lafontaine, who is the embodiment of French Canadian influence. He should be sorry to deny to his Excellency any respect or courtesy which is due to him as the representative of the Queen, but he could not acquiesce in commitments to him to which he is not entitled under the present system of Government. No doubt, the object of the present understanding to which allusion had been made, was that the Members of Lower Canada should spend half their term in Upper Canada, and the Members of Upper Canada half their term in Lower Canada, and thus become acquainted with the wants and wishes of both sections of the Province.

The preamble to the resolutions was then agreed to with a slight alteration in the wording.

On the resolutions being put,

Ald. Robinson considered they were not worded sufficiently strong. It was desirable that the Council should declare deliberately and unreservedly that the removal of the Seat of Government at the present time will lead to a repeal of the Union. He would suggest as an amendment to one of the resolutions,—

"That if the removal of the Seat of Government does take place, it is the deliberate opinion of this Council that it will lead to a dissolution of the Union at present existing between Upper and Lower Canada, to prevent which the Council recommend a dissolution of the present Parliament, and an appeal to the country, in order that the opinion of the people respecting this measure may be obtained."

After some further consideration the resolutions were agreed to, and on the Council remaining were adopted, and it was ordered that a copy of the resolutions be transmitted to each member of both branches of the Legislature by the Worship the Mayor, in behalf of the Corporation.

FURTHER NEWS BY THE AFRICA.

New York, Feb. 15.

The steamer Atlantic arrived at Cork on the 2nd January. She broke both her shafts when nine days out, and ran to the Westward six days, and had to put into Cork. She has chartered the Canbria to bring her freight, which was to sail for New York on the 4th inst. It is thought it will take three months to repair the damage to the Atlantic's machinery. Her mails came by the Africa, and also the passengers. She experienced very severe weather. She broke the shafts of both engines during a hurricane, and the paddle-boxes being both carried away, she was totally disabled. After six days' beating westward, she finally put back, and reached Cork at 8 p. m. on Wednesday, the 22nd January. The vessel sustained no damage beyond that above stated.— Crew and passengers all well. A card was published at Cork, by the passengers of the Atlantic, bearing high testimony of the great power and strength of the ship, in contending for nine days against an almost unparalleled Western gale,
of great severity, and to her admirable captain under sail, in standing 1800 miles. They awarded high praise to Capt. West for his great exertions, and particularly to his first officer, and also to the Chief Engineer.

The Canbria left Liverpool for Cork on the 27th, and was to leave there on the 1st February with nothing but the cargo of the Atlantic.

The steamer City of Glasgow arrived out from Philadelphia on the 30th ult.

The weather on the British coast has been very stormy—many vessels were obliged to put back.

ENGLAND.
London, Jan. 31.
Outline of Her Majesty's Speech.

Her Majesty will announce that she receives the most friendly assurances from foreign powers,
and is gratified to know that peace has been restored to the States in the North of Europe recently engaged in war, or preparing for the commencement of hostilities.

The Queen then congratulates the Members of both Houses on the tranquility which prevails, and expresses her confidence in the wisdom and ability of the Government, and the introduction of an Act for the regulation of deeds, to be equally applicable to England, Ireland and Scotland.

Her Majesty then directs attention to the trade with Brazil, and suggests the desirableness of arranging the sugar trade, &c., with that country.
In the usual phraseology, the intention respecting Brazil will be acceptable news to the Free Traders of Liverpool.

The law reform measures will be uniformly acceptable.

Ministers have a plan for relieving Agriculture,
but it will not be matured until the Chancellor of the Exchequer sees what kind of a financial statement he can make.

Lord John Russell's Cabinet was safe.

FRANCE.
The Ministerial crisis is over. Another new Cabinet has been formed. A messenger from the President informed the Assembly that the following Ministers had been appointed:

M. Dufaure, Minister of Interior.
Mr. Bresson, Foreign Affairs.
Gen. Randon, War.
Admiral de Valbent, Marine.
M. Graul, Public Instruction.
M. Schuebler, Commerce.
M. Germain, Finance.
M. de Falloux, Public Works.
M. de Ruyon, Justice.

None of the new Ministers are members of the Assembly. The "Messenger" says that it was merely a transition Ministry, till prejudice should disappear, and a reconciliation should be effected.

There was a meeting on Tuesday evening of the Legation; two questions were discussed—namely, the Dotation, and the repeal of the Electoral Law of the 31st May. The Dotation met with almost unanimous opposition.

As to the Electoral Law, the proposition for repeal was rejected by a majority of 6. The Dotation Bill as to be introduced, but as the three million might appear heavy, only half that sum will be presented. It is hoped this to overcome the discontented, and the Ministry does not doubt of its success in the first campaign in the turn of affairs.

by the friends of Retrenchment that one Commissioner and competent engineers could do all the business: That one of them might be called Assistant Com- missioner, that a second political head was unnecessary. This was hooted at by the Globe, and he learnedly proved that the office must be filled up by a member of Parliament, or the law would be violated. The public works Act, and Responsible Government required it, &c., &c. Mr Wethelton had defeated a man from the Upper House selected by which another defeat was avoided, and public opinion set at defiance. By the resignation of Mr Merritt, another Commissioner was want- ed. But it would not do to force the peo- ple. What was to be done? Make Mr Bourret of the Upper House, Chief, and Mr Killaly, Assistant, without a seat in either! Admirable responsibility! The most important department of the Govern- ment without any one to answer a question to the people's Representatives! We have no doubt of Mr Killaly's ability and fitness for the duties of the office, but he should be in Parliament.—N. American.

Guy vs Ferris.—We learn, with much regret, that this case has terminated in a verdict of £25 for the plaintiff! Colonel Guy's case was closed on Tuesday, when eloquent speeches in defence were delivered by Messrs. Johnson and Loranger, to whom Mr. Guy replied on Wednesday morning. Mr. Justice Monrolet then gave a luminous and lengthened charge to the Jury, which occupied upwards of three hours. The Jury retired to consider their verdict, and not being able to agree, were given in charge for the night, and the Court adjourned till Thursday morning, when they brought in the verdict we have stated. The result surprises us very much, but we await the report of the case enlarging upon it.—Globe, Feb. 18.

The Montreal Transcript, speaking of parliamentary Parliaments, says that "the system will occasion alternate excitement and alternate dissatisfaction. It cannot last. If it does not end in Lord Elgin going home and the Parliament coming back, it will end in a dissolution of the Union, and that will involve territorial and fiscal questions of a most serious nature, to which we may hereafter advert."

Great Slaughter of Bears and Deer.—
Three bears were recently killed about 5 miles from St. Croix Falls, by Mr Cadott an old one and two cubs. The mother weighed about four hundred pounds. But we learn from the veteran hunter, P. F.
Bouche, that a much greater slaughter was perpetrated in the Bruin family on the East Fork of Willow river; and the Sioux Indians have recently killed forty bears and upwards of fifty deer in the woods of that river, and are still on the chase.—

Extraordinary Yield of Wheat.—Wm.

formed us, that he imported from Rochester last year, 11 bushels and 40 lbs of the Sull's wheat, which he sowed on 7 acres, and which yielded the large quantity of 327 bushels of superior wheat, and averaging over 45 bushels and 41 lbs to each acre.—Port Hope Watchman.

Great Britain in 1800 and 1850.—
According to the Leeds Mercury, the population of Great Britain has nearly doubled between 1800 and 1850. At the beginning of the century it was below 11,000, 000, and it is now upwards of 29,000,000.
Adding the population of Ireland, the United Kingdom will number upwards of tracted by him or Lola Montes, during

New Orleans, Feb. 11.—The magnificent steamer Antarct bound from New Orleans to Memphis, with a heavy freight,
and a number of passengers, came in collision, on the 9th instant, with the steamer Agonia, coming down. The Antarct sunk immediately, and it is supposed,
over thirty persons were lost, including several cabin passengers belonging to Tennessee, five negro firemen, and one engineer. It is supposed the boat and cargo will prove a total loss.

Jenny Lind has met with immense success here. The proceeds of the first two concerts were over $40,000.

TEMPERANCE IN ILLINOIS.—The Tribune of Sunday says, a bill has been presented in the Illinois House of Representatives which prohibits the sale of intoxicating liquors in quantities less than one quart,
unless sold by druggists and physicians,
in good faith, for medicinal, medical, or sacramental purposes. If sold to an adult,
the fine is $25 for every breach of the law,
and if to a minor under the age of 18 years, the penalty is not less than $30 or more than $100. The act also repeals all former laws upon the subject, and completely destroys the license system. Action has yet to be taken on it in the Senate.

Already negotiations are going on actively on this subject in the various factions of the State. The "Gazette de France" states that Prince Demidoff has received permission from the Em- peror of Russia to reside in Paris. Trade is impro- ving.

SCHLESWIG HOLSTEIN.
The German Government has announced that the negotiations respecting the formation of a Provisional Government for Holstein have been brought to a successful issue. The new Government of Holstein will consist of Federal and Danish Commissioners, who will be supported by a Council of the chief noblemen and moderate middle landed proprietors of the Duchies. The delay in this long-protracted negotiation has been owing to the underhand intrigues of Prussian Commissioners. It has at length been arranged that Fredericfort is to be given up to the Danish troops.
Slesian and Brazilian agents are on the alert to entice the soldiers who are being discharged from the Holstein army.

The Rosenthal states, from Schwerin, that in consequence of the late protests, the Government force of 4000 Austrians will be quartered on the Grand Duchy of Mecklenburgh.

According to the Danish papers, the King of Denmark has ordered an immediate exchange of all prisoners made in the late campaign in Holstein. It is reported that the officers of the Holstein army, who were, previous to the war, in the Danish service, and who subsequently broke their oaths of allegiance, by arming against Denmark,
will be banished for ever from the Danish dominions.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.
REMOVAL OF THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.
The Council went into Committee of the whole
on Mr Alderman Kidout's resolutions in reference to the removal of the Seat of Government from Toronto.

Ald Kidout said, in moving the adoption of the resolutions now before them, he wished to be understood as not acting in a spirit of hostility towards the inhabitants of Lower Canada. It was desirable that intercommunication should exist, but it was desirable that Western Canada should have justice done to it. He disclaimed the idea of being actuated by selfish motives. His resolutions were brought forward strictly on public grounds. He was a member of the Grand Jury, whose address to the Governor General had been characterised as unprecedented; but he would maintain that the course they pursued was completely correct. So far as the Governor General was concerned, he must say that he has never neglected an opportunity of furthering the objects of commerce and agriculture, when his professional talents could be of service; and for the good of his manner conferred upon this district
during his residence in the city, the inhabitants are under considerable obligations to His Excellency. But the reasons for the removal of the Seat of Government were not conclusive. It had been considered desirable that both branches of the Legislature should have an opportunity of becoming personally acquainted with the inhabitants
and the resources of both sections of the country, and that this could only be obtained by having
the removal in the middle of the existing course of Parliament, and not at its close. There could be no doubt that if the Parliament removed during the approaching summer, disappointment and angry feeling would be excited, which might lead to an agitation for the dissolution of the Union.

Mr Hayes seconded the motion.

All resolutions agreed with the resolutions, but suggested that they might be considered separately. He was at Montreal when Mr Sherwood's resolutions were passed, and distinctly recollected that they were agreed to on the understanding that the Seat of Government should remain four years at the place to which it was removed. Although he was afraid the present resolutions would have little effect, yet the Legislature ought to be made aware that the removal of the Seat of Government during the present year, will be looked upon by Western Canada as a gross departure from the understanding previously come to.

The Mayor was of opinion that decided efforts should be made by every constituency in Upper Canada, as well as that of Toronto, with a view of producing an impression, not on the Governor General or the Government, but on the popular branch of the Legislature. They were indebted to the Governor General for expressing his opinion
so early, and for so completely throwing the onus on his advisers. The interests of this section of the Province required that the Seat of Government should remain here the full term of four years, which appeared to him to be the period
indicated in Mr Sherwood's resolutions.

Mr Ashford coincided with previous speakers.

Mr Smith thought the Council should concentrate its efforts to an attempt to produce an impression upon Mr Lafontaine; for Lafontaine rules Baldwin, Baldwin rules Hincks, and the three together rule the Governor General.

Mr Dunn thought they should at once agitate
for a dissolution of the Union, or a Federal Union of the Provinces.

Ald. Dempsey concurred in the resolutions.

Ald. Therapen dissented to the compliments bestowed on the Governor General, for having directly answered a question with regard to the Seat of Government. If they were indebted to anybody at all, it was to Mr Lafontaine. The Governor General's answer was dictated by the Ministry, and it is known that the Ministry are dictated to by Mr Lafontaine, who is the embodiment of French Canadian influence. He should be sorry to deny to His Excellency any respect or courtesy which is due to him as the representative of the Queen, but he could not acquiesce in compliments to him to which he is not entitled under the present system of Government. No doubt, the object of the present understanding to which allusion had been made was, that the Members of Lower Canada should spend half their term in Upper Canada, and the Members of Upper Canada half their term in Lower Canada, and thus become acquainted with the wants and wishes of both sections of the Province.

The preamble to the resolutions was then agreed to with a slight alteration in the wording.

On the resolutions being put,
Ald. Robinson considered they were not worded sufficiently strong. It was desirable that the Council should declare deliberately and unreservally that the removal of the Seat of Government at the present time will lead to a repeal of the Union. He would suggest as an amendment to one of the resolutions,—
"That if the removal of the Seat of Government does take place, it is the deliberate opinion of this Council that it will lead to a dissolution of the Union at present existing between Upper and Lower Canada, to prevent which the Council recommends a dissolution of the present Parliament, and an appeal to the country, in order that the opinion of the people respecting this measure
may be obtained."

After some further consideration the resolutions were agreed to, and on the Council resuming were adopted, and it was ordered that a copy of the resolutions be transmitted to each member of both branches of the Legislature, by His Worship
the Mayor, in behalf of the Corporation.

ARRIVAL OF THE BALTIC.

New York, Feb. 20.

The Baltic arrived at 12 o'clock to-day, making the passage in 12 days. She brings 30 passengers, and Liverpool dates to the 8th inst.

Politics, foreign and domestic, are quiet. The English Parliament assembled on the 4th inst. The Queen opened it in person. Lord Russell introduced his measures on the Papal question. The Government propose to make all the acts of the Roman Bishops, in their official capacity, illegal, and to declare every property bequeathed to them for religious purposes forfeited to the Crown. The Bill also prevents the assumption of any title belonging to an Anglican diocese, or to any place or district in the United Kingdom.

Lord John Russell in his speech in Parliament, complained in strong terms of the animosity invariably exhibited by Rome towards England, and especially in the late appointment of Bishop Cullen, the declared enemy of the Queen's Colleges, as Primate of Ireland.

No mention of the Colonies was made in the Queen's Speech, and the omission created much surprise.

The Liverpool Journal—a poor authority—states that it is the intention of both Government and the Opposition to hurry over the business of the session so that Parliament may be prorogued in May, with the view of allowing more attention to be paid to the Great Exhibition.

The same paper states that the excess of total income over expenditure for the year is £2,579,000.

The use of flax instead of cotton in the manufacture of woollen and cotton-goods is attracting much attention.

The President of France has followed up his advantage, and demanded an additional sum of 1,800,000 francs. The bill was ordered to be printed and referred. There was strong opposition to the grant.

By the latest accounts it appears the whole weight of the Legislative influence is to be exerted against the President. A report has reached Paris of the serious illness of the Duke of Bordeaux, at Venice. His state was so critical that he has received "extreme unction."

The Moniteur of Paris publishes a decree that a census shall be taken of the population of France. It further announces that a British force has blockaded the port of the Tulu in the State of San Salvador.

The Austrians are preparing to occupy Lubec with 1800 troops.

Mazzini, of Rome is as active as ever. A violent convulsion is anticipated ere long, in Italy.

The overland mail from India, with dates to 23rd Jan. has arrived. There was very little news. Money much depressed. The large house of Deda, Bohog, and Muncharji, failed for £250,000 sterling. Sir C. Napier issued his farewell address to the army.

GUELPH HERALD.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1851.

CONSISTENT REFORMERS BROUGHT TO THE TEST.

We remember being present, many years since, in a Church Court in Scotland, during the investigation of a case involving divers grave charges against a certain dominie (parochial schoolmaster) of rather eccentric habits. One of the members of presbytery was a young preacher, possessed of a considerably larger modicum of self-conceit than of either legal acumen or oratorical ability, and whose essays at speech making were ever most especially dull, prosy, and unedifying, exciting in the auditory more yawns than cheers, and indeed marring every affair in which he interfered. The case had not proceeded far, when our juvenile Solon rose and commenced an oration, from the tenor of which it was soon apparent that he had espoused the cause of the delinquent dominie. The defendant, who had seen him take the floor with evident emotion, and which continued to increase during the preamble of his address, was no sooner convinced that he had obtained so able an advocate, than overleaping, in the excitement of the moment, the gravity of demeanor which the reverend Court was wont to command, he threw out his arms in the direction of the speaker, exclaiming with the most beseeching look and imploring accent, "Oh pray Mr M—if you please, sir, don't you speak in my behalf, or I'm a gone corbie." This touching appeal called forth such irresistible shouts of laughter from the audience, echoed and re-echoed from aisle and gallery, repeating for the first time such profane sounds, that the moderator was compelled to adjourn the Court "until" as he said "they should be able to resume their duties with becoming gravity." We have often since then, when witnessing a cause strangled by a bad advocate, had recalled to our remembrance Parson M—and the "gone corbie," and never more forcibly than by the progress of the abortive attempt of our neighbor to defend the member for Waterloo, the gentleman whose name is enshrined in the breasts of a great majority of the constituency of this County, as one of the most true, independent, and consistent Reformers in Parliament, from the attack of the Clear Grits. Many a public man, whose political independence and consistency might better bide the test than that of the "enshrined," has been sacrificed by an injudicious advocacy, and our neighbor will right soon rue the day he brought his "short sixes" to bear on the North American—perhaps the most ably conducted journal in the Province—one broad side of which is sufficient to send a whole flotilla of such craft to the antipodes. The attempt to impute selfish and interested motives to our Toronto contemporary was alike puerile and injudicious, and was repelled with becoming unction. That a member should during a session do the work of a zealous and unscrupulous partisan, and at the eleventh hour denounce the very acts he has aided to perpetrate, and the men he has helped to place themselves in a position obnoxious to public censure, is passing strange, and only to be accounted for on the supposition of a determination to retain office at all hazards—under any auspices—in "consistency" with the creed of the "independent" divine who could sing, under every change in the religion of the State,

"Whoever is King, I still will be Vicar of Bray." There is something to our mind especially discreditable in this eternal waiting to see how the cat will jump, this Persian-like worshipping of the rising sun; and such chameleon changes merit to be met with distrust and distaste by the party to win whose favor they have been advertised. The Ministry, in obedience to their Lord Protector, Lafontaine, are about to remove the Seat of Government to Quebec, despite their implied pledge that it should continue 4 years where first located, and to the manifest detriment of Upper Canada. Mr. Fergusson, et hoc genus omne, are now silent spectators of the suicidal measure, and so aiding in its accomplishment. When the work shall have been consummated, and the cry for a dissolution of the Union is echoed from forest to forest and from lake to lake, we shall doubtless have these enshrined consistent ones lamenting that Government should have done a deed they have now themselves the power, but not the will, to prevent. It is evident there can be no better criterion by which to ascertain the "consistency" of a Parliamentary Representative, than by contrasting his avowed political principles with his votes and their obvious tendency.

The annexed, from the North American, is the first page of such an essay. We shall watch its continuation with much interest, but with small dubiety as to the result.

"THE HAND WRITING ON THE WALL." VOTES VS. PROMISES. A press of business, apart from Editorial duties, made it impossible for us during the past two weeks to spend much time in the examination of books and records to exhibit the true character of certain Honorable mis-representatives of the people. In the case of Mr. Fergusson of Waterloo, the observations we felt it our duty to make a few numbers since, have been attributed to malice, to personal feeling &c. &c., and we have been accused of attacking without cause, a sterling reformer, not only doing him injustice, but jeopardizing the cause of reform. All this however was not enough. Mr. Fergusson's organ in the precipitancy of a blind zeal endeavored to transfer the seat of war from his patron's camp into ours.—The move was a silly one. It exhibited bad strategy. The positions taken up were so absurd and untenable that they could not be held for a single hour. But in repelling this rash onset we are obliged to unmask our heaviest battery, and if the consequences are more serious than he expected, Mr. F. must blame his own folly.

When the honesty, consistency, or independence of a member of Parliament is under discussion, it will be admitted that his votes are the best evidence. If he cannot stand up and look these witnesses in the face, he had better not come into Court. We shall produce these witnesses in the present case in order that the public and the reformers of Waterloo especially, may hear their testimony. Though not strictly regular, we shall at the same time for convenience sake, take their evidence in other cases beside that of the member for Waterloo.

The Journals of the last Session are before us. In the very first division the representative of Waterloo is found voting against what is not a Tory measure, not a project for annexation, not a principle distasteful to reformers—we mean true reformers. But against granting leave to introduce a Bill involving two of the most vital principles in the reformers' creed, and forming two of the planks of our platform!

The Hon Mr Boulton moved, seconded by Mr Hopkins "that leave be given to bring in a Bill to prohibit the expenditure of Public Monies for purposes not previously authorized by Law, and to limit the granting of PENSIONS."

Readers will no doubt expect to find the name of every reformer in the House among the "yeas" on such a question.—But no, the Ministry did not wish to be forced to give an opinion on such a question. It might be awkward. They did not intend to vote for such a measure, and they did not like to vote against it directly, so they determined with their tyrant majority of willing followers to crush it in the bud. It is seldom that leave to introduce a Bill is denied. The asking leave is a mere form. The right to withhold it is only asserted in extraordinary cases. In the hands of an unscrupulous ministry it is a dangerous power, and when used in such cases as the above makes Parliament a mockery, and legislation a farce. Messrs Baldwin & Co. determined not to allow this Bill to be introduced. They did not wish to be "prohibited from spending public moneys for purposes not authorized by law" else how could they support their friends, or give an occasional $2000 to an enemy, as in Mr Robinson's case? They did not wish to be "limited in granting pensions" else how could they give $1200 a year to Tucker, or make room for a brother-in-law by pensioning Jameson out of the way at the small sum of $3,000 a year? It would never do, to impose restrictions in such cases and the shortest way to avoid it was to smother all discussion. The hint was given, and when the Yeas stood up there were but 21. We observe among these the name of but one Frenchman, the Hon L J Papineau—a brilliant exception. Among the Nays are 16 of Mr. Lafontaine's French tail, all the Ministers, and the following Upper Canada members:—Bell, Barritt, Fergusson, Flint, Hall, Johnson, McFarland, Morrison, Richards, Smith of Durham, Smith of Wentworth, and Thompson, in all 36. So the Bill was not allowed to be brought in! (See Journals, page 5.)

The next division was also an important one. Some persons may think that the ministry and those who supported them on the occasion did right. We say nay. Their vote was a direct violation of the sacred right of petition. The object or prayer of the petition was beside the question. If couched in respectful language, and presented in conformity to the rules of the House it should have been received. It was a petition from Rowland Wingfield and others, praying the passing of an address to Her Majesty for the adoption of certain measures to release Canada from her dependent state and allow her to become an independent sovereignty within herself.

Mr. Baldwin moved, that it be not received; Yeas 57, among whom was Mr. Fergusson, and the other gentlemen above named. The following were the only members who nobly stood up for the right of petition—Cameron of Kent, De Witt, Holmes, McConnell, Papineau, Prince and Sanborn. So the right of petition was summarily snuffed out.—(Journals, page 9) The next vote of Mr. Fergusson was to cloak the Ministry and enable them to escape responsibility to Parliament.—Hon. Mr. Boulton moved an address to His Excellency for copies of reports of the Attorney General relative to reserved Bills. It is well known to those who have looked into the machinery of our present "Responsible" system, that it is an easy matter for the Ministry to kill off a measure after it has passed by advising the Governor to reserve it for Her Majesty's assent, and then advising Her not to assent to it! This may be safer, especially for a Reform Ministry, than earlier and more open hostility. A suspicion of some dodge of this kind gave rise to the above motion. If the Attorney General had been willing to let Parliament and the country see what he had done, he would at once have voted for the address. But he shunned this kind of responsibility and refused the information; Yeas 21. Nays 42.—Among the latter—besides ministers and their French tail, we find of Upper Canada members—Bell, Fergusson, Flint, Hall, Morrison, Notman, Smith, of Durham and Thompson.—(Journals page 14.)

So the Attorney General was allowed to hide what he had done from his constituents and the country.

The votes of the member for Waterloo and other quasi reformers on the amendments in reply to the Speech, afford matter for serious comment, but we must defer the examination of these and subsequent votes till our next number.

Cunningham, J. Fife, J. Morris, A. Barclay, P. Kellalar, J. Mays, J. B. Husband.

The By-law making the above appointments contains a clause to the effect that parties thereby appointed to office, who shall neglect to sign the declaration of office within 30 days, or refuse to perform any of the duties belonging to such office, shall be liable to a penalty of £5.

A By-law was ordered to be brought in to impose a tax on Dogs, and that the Township should be divided into two sections for the purpose of Assessment, either Assessor being charged with making up the Lists for one Division.

A By-law for the regulation of Taverns and Houses of Public Entertainment was passed, embodying the regulations hitherto issued by the Court of Quarter Sessions, and requirements of the recent Tavern Act.

The Council adjourned to the 3rd March, then to meet at Blyth's Tavern.

TOWNS COUNCIL.—There have been a couple of meetings of the Town Council without much business being transacted. A By-law has been passed, we believe, to assess the taxable inhabitants £20, to be paid to the Treasurer of the Benevolent Association, to be appropriated at its discretion. Now, although we believe the object of the Society most praiseworthy and deserving public support, we have no idea of compulsory charity, which is to our seeming too much akin to compulsory tithes. Moreover, we are persuaded the Council have no right to assess for such a purpose. The St. George's, St. Andrew's, or any other of the local charitable institutions, have the same claim on the Council to assess the inhabitants for their special behoof. Charity, to have any worth, should be voluntary, not compulsory, a free-will offering. The Township Council last year imposed a tax for the same purpose; they however discovered the impropriety of the course, and have refused to continue it.—We believe the desired amount would be more cheerfully and readily obtained by voluntary contributions. The Council have passed a very excellent by-law for the regulation of Taverns.—They meet again on Thursday, at 4 p. m.

GUELPH BRANCH BIBLE SOCIETY.

The Fifteenth Annual Meeting of the Guelph Branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society was held in the Wesleyan Chapel on Tuesday evening, the 18th inst.—G. J. Mickle, Esq., in the chair. The meeting having been opened with prayer, the Annual Report was read by the Secretary, and it was Resolved,

On the motion of Mr. A. Stephens, seconded by the Rev. R. Torrance, 1. That the Report be adopted, and printed under the direction of the Committee.

Moved by the Rev. J. G. McGregor, seconded by the Rev. C. Grigor, 2. That this Branch Auxiliary Bible Society, considering the untiring efforts of the worldly and unbelieving to pre-occupy the minds of men with the seeming productions of the press which are either useless or positively hurtful to the interests of true religion: recognize it as their bounden duty as believers in divine revelation to endeavor to promote every scriptural scheme which has in view the spread of the pure word of God, which contains the only effectual antidote against the moral poison thus extensively introduced and circulated by these impious and immoral publications.

Moved by the Rev. J. Spencer, seconded by the Rev. J. J. Braine, 3. That, in view of the determined efforts of the Man of Sin to oppose the truths of the Word of God, this Meeting would be impressed with the necessity of equally zealous efforts on the part of all true Protestants to promote the universal circulation of the Holy Scriptures, as the only and the sufficient rule, both of faith and practice.

Moved by the Rev. Jas. Richardson, seconded by John Inglis, Esq., 4. That the efforts of the Upper Canada Bible Society, in connection with this Branch, are crowned by the blessing of Almighty God, and that this consideration demands our gratitude, and should stimulate us to increased exertions; that the thanks of this Meeting are due to the Officers of this Society, and especially to the Collectors; and that the following persons be appointed for the ensuing year:—

President—C. J. Mickle, Esq. Vice-Presidents—Revs. C. Grigor, R. Torrance, W. S. Griffin, J. G. Macgregor, John J. Braine, and J. Spencer; A. J. Fergusson, Esq., M. P. P.; John McLean, Esq.; and Dr. Orton. Treasurer and Depositary—T. Sandilands, Esq. Secretary—Mr James Hough.

With a Committee of twelve gentlemen and eight ladies—Collectors.

TAVERN LICENSES.

It will be in the recollection of our readers that the County Council, at their last session, petitioned the Governor General to avail him of the provision of the Act 13th and 14th Vic., cap. 65, sec. 9, to appoint the Treasurers of the different Municipalities to issue and receive the proceeds of Tavern Licenses within their respective bounds, the amount being now ostensibly the property of the Municipal Corporations, that so the per centage charged by Government for collection (amounting by some statements to only 12), and by others to 33 per cent.) might be saved, the petition was duly forwarded to Head Quarters, and the Warden is to-day in receipt of the following reply:—

INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE, Toronto, 19th Feb., 1851.

SIR:—The Memorial addressed to His Excellency the Governor General on behalf of the Municipal Council of the County of Waterloo, and signed by you as Warden, praying that His Excellency would appoint the Treasurer of each Municipality respectively as the Officers to issue Tavern Licenses instead of the Revenue Inspectors, having been transferred to this Department, I have it in command to inform you in reply, that while the Imperial Act 14 Geo. III, continues in force—under which certain duties are imposed upon Tavern Licenses, and which provides that the amount collected shall be paid to the Receiver General—it is not the intention of the Government to disturb the arrangements under which Licenses are issued by Revenue Inspectors.—The Government have, however, taken the necessary steps to obtain a repeal of that Act.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant, J. CARY, Deputy In. General.

BENJAMIN THURTELL, Esq., WARDEN, County of Waterloo, Guelph.

It will be noticed that the obstacle stated by the Deputy Inspector General as preventing compliance with the prayer of the petition, is the provision of the Imperial Act 14th George III, which imposes a duty of some £3 on each tavern license, payable to the Receiver General. Now, we are informed that payment of this duty, imposed seventy-seven years since, has not for many years, if ever, been enforced in the colony. If such is really the case, the object of Government in now scratching up and carrying into force an obsolete Act is sufficiently apparent. It will, however, remain to be seen whether the Municipality will prefer having their money passed through the Government sieve at the expense of a large deduction from the amount, or if, by exercising the right of petition simultaneously and energetically, they will compel the Government to permit the produce of the tax to be at once handed over to the proprietors.

We understand the Reeve of this Township has called a special meeting of the Council to take action in the matter.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE GUELPH HERALD. Durham, Glenelg, Feb. 22, 1851.

DEAR SIR:—You would observe in the columns of your contemporary, the Advertiser that a Public Dinner was given to George Jackson, Esq., on Friday, the 7th inst., at Mr. Isaac May's, Durham Hotel, here, when upwards of seventy gentlemen partook of the good cheer provided by our worthy host and hostess.

Urgent business called me to the Sound, and so prevented my attendance; but I am given to understand that the arrangements were complete, the room tastefully decorated with evergreens, and the whole affair passed off with the greatest harmony, and to the great credit of those who took an active part in it.

If you consider it worthy of notice, I will feel obliged, on the part of the committee, by your giving it a space in your valuable paper. It was quite the reverse of a political character; politics were entirely placed in the background; and nothing but unity and concord prevailed.

Yours truly, A Member of the Committee.

We insert the above communication, as well in testimony of the ecclai attendant on the recent dinner to Mr. Jackson at the Saugan, as to give us an opportunity of stating that we should have willingly complied with our correspondent's request had it been sooner made, but the affair is now so sufficiently known to our readers generally, and so long gone by, that a recapitulation of the details would not be particularly interesting.—Ed. HERALD.

FARMERS' AND MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—On Friday evening, the Rev. J. J. Braine delivered a very interesting, erudite, and eloquent lecture to the Institute on "Mental Culture"—dwelling especially on the propriety of devoting much attention primarily to the study of English Grammar, noticing and illustrating the derivation, peculiarities, and provincial patois of the language.

On the conclusion a vote of thanks was, on the motion of Mr Pirie, seconded by the Rev. R. Torrance, offered to the Rev. Lecturer. The Hall was well filled, and the address listened to with much attention and evident gratification.

The next Lecture—"On the History of the Physical Sciences"—will be delivered by the Rev. R. Torrance, in the Temperance Hall, next Friday evening, at half after seven o'clock.

CURLING.—The Paris Curlers defeated the Fergus Club by 18 shots, in a match played at Fisher's Mill on Tuesday week. The succeeding Friday, they beat the Toronto Club by 16 shots on Burlington Bay. During the present season, with the exception of the check they received at Galt, they appear to have carried all before them. It was intended that the match between the Guelph and Fergus Clubs should come off at Fergus tomorrow, but the present state of the ice and the roads precludes all possibility of play; so that the combatants must necessarily postpone the affair until the weather proves more propitious.

A HINT TO MUNICIPAL AUDITORS.—By the Municipal Act, the Auditors of County, Town, and Township Municipalities are directed to publish an Annual Statement of the Receipts and Expenditures of their respective Corporations in two of their county papers, during the month of February. The County of Waterloo contains twenty-six Municipalities, of which three only have as yet complied with this requirement of the Act.

TEMPERANCE SOCIETY.—Mr. R. D. Wadsworth of Hamilton, will deliver an address on Total Abstinence in the Temperance Hall, on Saturday Evening, at half after 7 o'clock—the Temperance Choir will be in attendance. From the well known talents and long tried zeal of the lecturer in behalf of the Temperance Movement, we anticipate a large attendance. There will be a collection taken up to assist in defraying the expenses of the lecturer. We omitted to state in our last issue, that at the monthly meeting of the Society, held on the 14th inst., a very admirable and eloquent address was delivered by the Rev. J. G. McGregor, in which the cause of Total Abstinence was advocated as that of patriotism, philanthropy, morality and religion. Addresses were also delivered by Messrs. D. Savage and W. Stevenson. The Hall was full, and at the conclusion, 32 names were added to the roll of membership.

To the Editor of the Guelph Herald. SYDENHAM, OWEN SOUND, Feb. 14, 1851.

SIR:—Since my return home, my attention has been directed to two Letters published by James Hodgert, Esq., Revenue Inspector for the County of Waterloo, who appears very wroth with your humble servant for having brought under the notice of the County Council, at its late session, the subject of the Inn License Fund. He is very welcome to make what capital he can out of what I said at the time; and had it not been to satisfy the public, who may not know Mr Hodgert, and the amount of credibility to be attached to his statements, I should not have troubled myself with answering the said detestable epistles. In doing so, I submit, first, the dates of the Four Licenses issued to Taverns within the Town Plot of Sydenham, in the Municipality of Derby, and also certain other documents, to show that I was right in what I stated before the Council.

Dates of Licenses now in my possession for 1850:— Kennedy Orr's License, No. 95, 5th Jan., 1850. James Coleman's " " 97, 5th " " Wm. A. Corbett's " " 116, 19th March " John Cobean's " " 15th Aug. "

You will observe that Mr Corbett's License is dated the 19th March, and not on the 5th April as attempted to be made appear by Mr Hodgert, which is rather an important point in the settlement of the question.

The following is a copy of a Schedule sent to the Treasurer of the County from the Inspector General's Department:—

Schedule of the Net Amount payable to each Township Municipality within the County of Waterloo, for Duties on Tavern Licenses paid to Receiver General between 1st January and 31st March, 1850:

Table with 2 columns: Municipality Name and Amount. Guelph: £61 16 10. Arthur: 5 9 2. Erasmus: 13 12 11. Peel: 5 9 9. Waterloo: 106 4 11. Glenelg: 2 14 8. Wilmot: 64 12 11. Wadesley: 10 19 5. Garafaxa: 5 9 2. Nichol: 12 17 6. Woolwich: 2 14 8. Egrement: 5 9 3. SYDENHAM: 15 12 6. Net amount currency, £324 2 6. Inspector General's Office, Toronto, 26th April, 1850. (Signed) J. CARY, Dep. In. General.

Copy of Certificate from the Treasurer of the County, of the amount received by me for the Town Plot Sydenham, within the Township of Derby:— "Treasurer's Office, 29th Jan. 1851."

I hereby certify that I paid to the order of Richard Carney, Esq., to A. M. Stephens, Esq., on the 15th July last, the sum of £15 12s. 6d., being the only sum received by me on account of Tavern Licenses for the Township of Derby from the Government.

(Signed) WM. HEWAT. Having now given you the foregoing documents, I will proceed to show that the money must not have been paid on account of Three Licenses, and not of Two as stated by Mr Hodgert.

And, first, I will state that Revenue Inspectors are compelled to make Returns to the Inspector General's Department, of all Licenses issued during the Quarters ending 5th January, 5th April, 5th July, and 10th October, in each and every year.

Now, you will observe that Mr Corbett's License was paid for on the 19th March. The Return must be made immediately after the 5th day of April, and the Schedule is dated the 26th day of April—three weeks after the Returns should be made. Now, what is the conclusion, but that the £15 12s. 6d. was paid on account of Two Licenses, and not of Two.

This conclusion may be fairly assumed also from another fact apparent on the face of the matter. Mr Hodgert says I was paid 12s. 6d. over what Cojeman's and Orr's Licenses amounted to, namely, £13; but you must observe also, that instead of 12s. 6d., if Mr Hodgert is correct, I must have received £2 10s. more than he could have paid to the Receiver General; because Mr Hodgert would deduct 12 1/2 per cent, his allowance for collection, which amounts to £1 17s. 6d. on the aforesaid sum of £15; so he paid only £13 2s. 6d. to the Receiver General; the difference, overpaid to me, between those two sums, viz. £15 12s. 6d. and £13 2s. 6d., is £2 10s. as above.

Now, it is likely that the Government Department, which with its numerous checks is almost like a piece of machinery, could have made such a mistake? Is it not more likely that the £15, 12s. 6d. was paid on account of Three Licenses than Two, especially as there was ample time between the 5th of April and the 26th of April, the date of the Schedule, for the Government to make the said appropriation of Inn License Fund to each Township, after Mr Hodgert made his Returns on the 5th of April.

I shall say no more on that score. The next is with the "last of the Hurons Licenses," taken out by the immaculate Mr. Carney; the account of which is, that to oblige Mr Cobean, and to save him from the consequences of selling spirituous liquors without license, I took a lot of land from him, which he had ineffectually tried to sell all the summer on purpose to pay for his license, and which I would not take until the last moment, as I did not want it; but as Mr Hodgert arrived here on the evening of the 14th August, on his Tour of Inspection, Cobean had to take his License, or run the risk of being fined. I consequently took the Assignment of the lot on the 15th August, and paid the money for the License on the 15th August to Mr Hodgert, who is now welcome to all he can make out of the transaction.

As I said before, I should not have troubled myself to have noticed the aforesaid letters, had it not been for the fact, that persons at a distance, who may not know Mr Hodgert, might attribute more credit to his statements than they are worth, and have consequently been more particular than I otherwise should have been.

I beg to remain, Mr Editor, Your obedient servant, RICHARD CARNEY.

The Advertiser will please copy the foregoing, to give his readers an opportunity of seeing my reply to Mr Hodgert's letters.

POSTMASTER GENERAL.—We learn that His Excellency the Governor General has been pleased to offer the Postmaster Generalship, with a seat in the Cabinet, to the Hon. James Morris, and that Mr. Morris has accepted. We are sure this appointment will be received throughout the country with much satisfaction. Mr. Morris is, we believe, a native of Scotland, but he has passed very many years in this country, and has amassed a large fortune as a Canadian merchant. He is well known as an energetic, upright practical man, of close business habits, peculiarly well adapted, it is conceived, for the office entrusted to him. His accession will undoubtedly bring increased public confidence to the Administration. The new Post-office arrangements will come into operation on an early day, when Mr. Morris will enter on his duties; but in the meantime, we believe, the hon. gentleman will be sworn in as an Executive Councillor.—Globe.

PROGRESS OF TEMPERANCE IN HAMILTON.—The annual Meeting of the Temperance Reformation Society, took place in this City on Monday evening. From the annual report we learn that no less than 800 inhabitants have signed the pledge during the past twelve months. The Committee appear quite confident as to the future. The following gentlemen were elected office-bearers for the ensuing year: President—John Fisher, Esq. Vice Presidents—Rev Messrs A. Booker, H. Wilkinson, D. Goldsmith, S. Bolton, Thomas Webster, and F. Berry. Treasurer—Mr John A. Spencer. Secretary—Mr A. Ferrie.—Spectator.

DEATH OF DAVID THOMPSON, Esq., M. P. FOR HALDIMAND.—We regret to learn that this Gentleman expired yesterday morning. He had been in delicate health for some time past, and his recovery was not expected. Mr Thompson was a consistent supporter of the present Ministry in Parliament; and in business he was active, shrewd and indefatigable. His loss will be severely felt in the county, which his enterprise had done so much to reclaim from the wilderness.—Id.

BOSTON, Feb. 18. RESISTANCE TO THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW.—There has been much excitement in the city in consequence of the rescue of a fugitive slave, named Shadrach, from the United States Marshal, on Saturday last. The Court House was occupied with troops this morning, to preserve order during the examination of the prisoners charged with having aided in the rescue.

WHY HE WORE A WIG.

Not long since, a thoroughbred Yankee arrived at one of our hotels, and excited considerable attention by his inquisitive manners. Among the things which appeared to him as out of the ordinary course, he observed that a finelooking young man of twenty wore a wig. "Why was it?" How did he lose his hair so young? were questions the Yankee would fain have heard answered. At last his curiosity became so strong, that he resolved to apply for information to the young man himself.
