PLACER GROUND

Can No Longer Be Covered by Hydraulic Concessions.

GOLD COMMISSIONER MUST BE SHOWN

That Ground Is Worthless for Placer Mining Purposes

BEFORE GRANTS WILL ISSUE.

Gold Commissioner Given Power to Hear and Decide All Disputes Regarding Possession.

A most important regulation was posted in the gold commissioner's office today, whereby securing of hydraulic concessions will be much more difficult in the future than has been the case heretofore. The important section of the regulation is as follows:

"His excellency is pleased by and with the advice of the Queen's privy council for Canada, to order, and it is hereby ordered that the said order in council of the 2d of March, 1900, shall be amended so as to provide that no application for a lease for hydraulic mining purposes shall be entertained for any tract which includes within its boundaries, any placer, quartz or other mining claim acquired under the regulations in that behalf, or in the immediate vicinity of which placer, quartz or other mining claims have been discovered and are being profitably operated, and also that the gold commissioner shall, in addition to furnishing the reports above referred to, be required to furnish a certificate that the location applied for does not contain any such placer, quartz or other mining claim, nor have any such claims been granted in the immediate vicinity of such location."

Another very important order passed the privy council of Canada on August 25th, a copy of which has just been received at the gold commissioner's office here.

The digest of the order is that the gold commissioner is given authority to hear and determine all disputes with respect to entry having been granted two or more persons covering the same ground in whole or in part, and he is also given power to set aside any grant for a mining claim when it is shown by evidence that such grant has been by fraud, misrepresentation or error, and to confirm any entry which is proven to have been made according to the regulations. Such cases determined by the gold commissioner, however, may be appealed to the minister of the interior who shall also have the right to hear the evidence adduced and to cancel or confirm such grant or entry.

Big Liquor Seizure.

When the steamer J. P. Light arrived here from up the river night before last she was seized with all freight on board, the object of the general seizure being to capture a large shipment of contraband liquor consigned to Ole Olsen at this place. As the stuff was shipped to represent groceries, hardware, crockery and, in fact, nearly every other article of known merchandise, it was necessary to seize the entire cargo until it could be segregated and the liquor separated from the legitimate cargo. All the stuff was taken off and the steamer was permitted to sail for up the river this morning. A full inventory of the smuggled cargo has not yet been made, nor can it be until all the boxes are opened and their contents listed. It is known, however, that it amounts to several tons and cost in the aggregate a number of thousands of dollars. It is all Canadian stock.

A Dinner Party.

A dinner was given to Mrs. Major Wood by Senator Lynch at the Hotel McDonald last evening. The other guests besides Major Wood, included Justice Craig, Capt. and Mrs. Starnes, Miss Tache, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald and Mr. D. Doig.

Senator Lynch leaves on an extended tour in a day or two and will be absent all winter.

Union Campaign Meeting.

First gun to be fired by all candidates at once. Orpheum theater building Monday, the 24th September, at 8:30 p. m. This meeting is a joint meeting of the four candidates for the Yukon council.

Arthur Wilson, Alex J. Prudhomme, Auguste Noel and Thos. O'Brien, will be present and address the electors.

Supporters of each candidate will also be given an opportunity to address the electors.

This is a joint meeting of all candidates and the supporters of each will be there in force.

Whose Letter Is This?

By the mail yesterday came a letter directed thusly:

"Grand Forks, Y. Tea., care of Nugget Mail Carrier, 40 above Bonanza."

An effort will be made to find the person for whom it is intended, although the foundation upon which to work is quite limited.

Mr. Wilson Up the Creek.

Mr. Arthur Wilson, in answer to a call from the Forks, left for the creeks yesterday afternoon. Before returning for Monday night's meeting Mr. Wilson will organize provisional committees for the Yukon party ticket, at the Forks and Lower Bonanza.

Mr. Wilson's reception in Dawson has been more than gratifying and the complete organization of the creeks will be proceeded with at once.

Sawdust Shut Off.

The supply of sawdust which the various mills have generously contributed to the Yukon government for use on the streets of Dawson for the past few months has ceased unless a stipulated price is paid therefor. The same "kibosh" has been put on the formerly gratuitous slabs, many loads of which have been advantageously used in street improvement. As there are yet many places on the streets which, in campaign parlance, "need fixing," it is probable that the government teams will be put to work hauling gravel from the river bed. It is possible that a tramway may be constructed to the bed of the river and that a line of gravel cars will be operated between there and some central place in the city where the gravel will be dumped and afterwards distributed where needed.

The liquors are the best to be had, at the Regina.

Gins and brandies by the bottle or case at Northern Annex.

CLEARING AWAY

Debris Remaining After the Great Flood at Galveston.

MANY BODIES BADLY MUTILATED.

Ample Provision Is Being Made to Relieve Want of Sufferers.

BIG COAL STRIKE IS ON.

Affects 150,000 Men and Will Be a Long, Hard Fought Battle Between Capital and Labor.

Galveston, Sept. 16, via Skagway, Sept. 21.—Several thousand men are working to clear the beach of debris.

One hundred and fifty bodies were found today in the beach wreckage. No attempt is being made to identify mutilated bodies. Relief trains are arriving from all over the country.

Newspapers are printing the names of all identified bodies, and they assert that the state health officer has placed the mortality at 8000 persons.

One American and one British steamer has been floated and will both be saved. Other wrecked steamers are in a bad way.

A train from New York carrying physicians, nurses and supplies arrived today.

All destitute persons wishing to leave the city are given free transportation.

The Relief Fund.

Austin, Sept. 16, via Skagway, Sept. 21.—The governor make a statement denying that the relief fund has reached $900,000; he says it is yet far short of that mark.

The Coal Strike On.

Philadelphia, Sept. 16, via Skagway, Sept. 21.—The anthracite coal miners' strike began today. It is likely to be a long, hard struggle. The strike affects 150,000 men.

Hangman's Scaffold.

The scaffold upon which Alexander King will be executed on the morning of the 2d of October is now almost completed. It stands just back of the jail and between that structure and the big barracks building, being directly up against the latter building. The scaffold is fully 20 feet high, the platform on which is the drop being about 12 feet from the ground. A heavy piece of square timber extends across the top to which the rope will be attached. It is probable that a drop of about six feet will be given. In a few of the States a prescribed drop is fixed by law, but as a rule the most satisfactory results are obtained from long drops. The last legal execution witnessed by the writer the drop was 7½ feet and the affair was most successful. The trap door in the scaffold now being erected will be considerably above the regulation size, being about 3½ square feet. It is probable that the scaffold and rope will be tested by the dropping of a heavy weight before being used for the purpose for which it is being erected.

In the meantime Alexander King sits in his cell within a few yards of where the scaffold is being erected, but the sound of the saw and hammer has no more apparent effect upon him than if they were not heard.

Mysterious Shooting.

The community living on the sidehill were startled last night by the sound of two rifle shots fired within a few minutes of each other. The reports occurred about 11 o'clock and a man was seen immediately afterwards running rapidly down the hill with a lighted lantern. No information could be gleaned as to the cause of the firing or the identity of the excited man.

Dangerous Sidewalks.

The proverbial stack of black cats is not in it when compared with the blackness of the nights which are being visited on this country at present, and people who are not provided with lanterns have no business outside after 8 o'clock. Already one serious accident due to the darkness and negligence in providing lights at dangerous points has occurred and as a result a poor, hardworking woman is laid up in a hospital with a broken leg.

Other and maybe more serious accidents are bound to occur unless immediate steps are taken to protect night pedestrians from the numerous pitfalls and death traps which beset the town. On Third avenue between Fourth and Fifth streets, there are not fewer than one dozen broken boards in the sidewalk and not a street light in sight. The deep ditch at the corner of Fourth avenue and Sixth street, where the sad accident of Tuesday night occurred is still unguarded, and is a menace to life and limb even in daylight.

The demand for something to be done and done at once in the matter of repairing sidewalks and providing lights is greater at present than at any time in the history of Dawson.

Chas. E. Severance Capias.

When Charles E. Severance reaches Whitehorse on the Bailey he will need a long poke well lined with dust to put aside the demands which have been wired in the form of capias warrants to Capt. Primrose.

Three are three of the deadly bars to progress, sworn to by The Yukon Iron Works, the N. A. T. & T. Co. and George Albert Esterbrook. The amounts respectively are $507,1383 and $1304.40, aggregating $3194.40.

Fire Last Night.

At 12:40 o'clock last night the watchman at the warehouse of the Standard Oil Co. discovered a cabin on fire back of the big warehouse. Although the fire had made considerable headway, the prompt and systematic use of a couple of hand fire grenades furnished by the Standard Oil Co. extinguished it without the necessity of calling out the department. Owing to the proximity of the fire to the big oil emporium it was feared for a short time that the results might be very serious.

Given a Farewell Dance.

The friends of Frank Burkhard and E. H. Hatch, who leave for Dawson today, gave them a farewell dance last night at Firemen's hall. The affair was attended by nearly all of Skagway's society folk. Dr. Keller's orchestra furnished the music.—Alaskan, Sept. 15.

The young men above referred to are pioneers of Skagway, Burkhard's father being one of the first merchants to engage in business there in the summer of '97. Ed Hatch for a long time was cashier for the pioneer road builder, Geo. A. Brackett. He is now associated with Lilly Bros., in whose interests he is coming to Dawson. Both are of the stamp that makes good citizens.

THE PLATFORM.

The platform adopted by the citizens' convention and published elsewhere in this paper is worthy close perusal and study by everyone who is in any degree interested in the welfare of the Yukon territory. In that platform is represented the fruits of three years' work. The demands made therein for changes in existing laws are by no means new. They are the conclusion of long continued and exhaustive discussion and represent the deliberate and unbiased judgment of the great majority of the people of the territory.

There is no escaping from the fact that the various planks contained in that platform if made into law would meet the hearty approval of 99 out of every 100 men in the Yukon today. The platform represents the crystallization of all the efforts that have been put forward in the past. The terms in which it is laid down are plain and distinct. There is nothing said that is not intended and but little can be suggested that would add weight to what the platform contains.

The various questions of concern to the public weal are treated succinctly but forcibly and an examination of the platform leaves no doubt in the mind of the reader as to the meaning which its framers intended to convey. We submit to the votes of the territory that there is but one logical position for them to assume in this campaign. The work of concentrating and organizing the people of the territory into an effective political movement has been accomplished only after the exertion of extraordinary effort. This movement knows nothing of the issues at stake between the great parties on the outside. It has nothing to do with Conservatism, Liberalism or any other ism that does not directly concern the welfare of the territory. The men who have banded together in support of the platform of the citizens' convention have done so because they know that in supporting that platform and the candidates who stand upon it, they are lending their assistance to the protection of the one industry upon which this territory depends for its very existence.

Self preservation is instinctive. It is natural for men to strike and strike the hardest blow of which they are capable when they know that their lives may depend thereon. The situation in the Yukon territory today requires a blow from every man who possesses the power to deliver one. It is a fight for right, the winning of which means a realization of our wishes and the losing of which means indefinite postponement.

We ask the voters to study the platform and candidates of the citizens' convention and give both their support to the end that the fight for good laws begun three years ago may reach a fitting climax in a magnificent political victory.

The amount of summer work which has been carried on during the past season totals a remarkably large figure. There is no longer a close season so far as mining operations in the Klondike are concerned. Work is now carried on steadily throughout the twelve months of the year, which fact makes Dawson a better business town than ever. The winter work now in contemplation from all reports, will be fully as extensive as last winter, although fewer claims will be worked on lays and better methods will prevail generally. It is certainly to be hoped that there will be no repetition of the difficulties which occurred last spring. The number of wage suits brought against unsuccessful claim operators, principally laymen, indicates plainly that business methods must be applied to the working of placer ground as well as in any other enterprise.

The Galveston tidal wave horror is without question one of the most frightful disasters of modern times. It is conservatively stated that the loss will reach the neighborhood of 5000 lives and the damage to property will run into an untold number of millions. The attention of the American people has temporarily been directed away from the presidential campaign by the appalling event and contributors from all over the States, and many from Canada also are sending money and supplies to the aid of the sufferers. In all probability the city of Galveston will never be rebuilt, as a possibility of a repetition of the recent disaster will prove sufficient to deter most people from a desire to locate in that particular locality.

The through telegraph line to Vancouver will be completed and in active operation not later than the first of November. Such at least is the present expectation of the agents of the Dominion line. It will be something remarkable, however, if the work is kept open during the winter, as the country through which it passes is heavily timbered in many places and almost constant patrol will be necessary if it is kept free of falling timber.

A Confident Challenger.

Out at Skagway the people are not only sporty but in order to encourage sports they offer large odds and ample inducements. A late Skagway paper contains the following acceptance of challenge:

"I hereby accept the challenge of Dr. J. A. Cleveland to wrestle collar and elbow, and I will bet $100 to $5 that I lay him on his back nine times out of ten.

"I will also bet $100 to $5 that I can with bare fists, knock him out in one round, the proceeds to go to the Arctic Brotherhood.

"CHARLES WALKER."

Steer Attacks Train.

A wild Texan steer attacked the passenger train from Whitehorse today, and came out second best in the encounter. Where the train crossed the trail the steer had full possession of the track. He succeeded in chasing the passengers who had gotten out of the cars to cover, and when the engine came down, he charged it. He got a horn under the cow catcher and attempted to dump the big locomotive down the embankment, but he didn't. It was found necessary to kill the animal after the brief fight. He was too much damaged to proceed further. The steer belonged to W. E. Temple, and was en route to Dawson.—Alaskan, Sept. 15.

Skagway Still Harping.

The matter of the bonding privileges extended by the United States to Canada is the basis for a mighty grievance to the merchants of Skagway who, owing to the privileges mentioned, are practically debarred from doing business with and selling goods to the interior. At a late meeting of the chamber of commerce of that town a lengthy document was introduced and passed which concludes as follows:

"Of the many wrongs we have suffered at the hands of Canada, the chamber makes no special mention, but assures you that they are sufficient in our estimation for us to ask the rescinding of the bonding privileges granted to Canada, even had the Canadians given us real bonding privileges instead of empty promises. If the showing here made is not sufficiently thorough or conclusive to your department, we beg that you will immediately order a full investigation, and that upon being satisfied of the reality of our grievances you will at once take steps to save the American trade of the Yukon, and American shipping to this port, from ruin. If it is not lawful to rescind the bonding privileges granted to Canada, then insist that the Canadian government shall fully reciprocate every concession granted to it. If the bonding privilege must remain in force, then we must secure from Canada the right to enter our goods at their values in the principal markets of the United States, and the right to carry Canadian goods in bond at this port. Failing to do this, Skagway will soon become nothing but a memory of blasted hopes."

From Ear Klondike.

The Herald has received a copy of the Daily Klondike Nugget, published at Dawson, Y. T., and advertised by the enterprising publishers, as having a circulation many times larger than that of any paper published between Juneau and the North Pole.

The very modest charge of $40 a year or 25 cents a copy is asked for the privilege of reading Yukon news, while advertising space costs in proportion. Its editorial page is devoted to local interests. Gold diggings affairs share the space with news of the outer world, generally credited to New York papers. Typographically it is one of the prettiest newspapers we ever saw; it is clean and clear and is a credit to its publishers and the circumstances under which it is issued.

Mention is made of the fact that Ross E. Bryan, formerly of El Paso, has become the father of a fine boy, born June 7, at Dawson City.—El Paso Herald.

More Horses Coming.

Mr. Schafer yesterday shipped 12 of his horses from the Dyea railroad work to this city. He will bring in the balance of them today and will take a part of them to Dawson and there engage in winter packing.—Alaskan.

Mistaken Identity.

Mr. S. McKay was a victim on Friday of an unfortunate case of mistaken identity. A lady who had lost a watch saw Mr. McKay on the train and thought he was the man she suspected and called in the police, who detained Mr. McKay a few minutes until the lady was confronted with him and found out her mistake. Mr. McKay and his many friends were at first indignant at the delay caused him in missing the train, but on apologies being made the matter was amicably settled.—Whitehorse Star, Sept. 14.

Innovation in Theatrical Work.

The Orpheum theater which for some weeks has presented a dark and deserted appearance in marked contrast to the light and life of other days, is undergoing many changes in its appearance and interior arrangements, besides being thoroughly renovated.

A large portion of the front will be occupied by two drug stores, the entrance is to be changed so as to have no connection with the bar, and the whole inside of the theater proper is to be first thoroughly renovated, and afterwards papered or painted. The boxes are all to be decorated, and the stairway leading to them is to be changed. Altogether it is doubtful if the old Orpheum will not be so changed as to be difficult of recognition.

The saloon will be taken by Spitzel and Jones, and it is said, will be one of the handsomest places in town.

A theater without a bar and without gambling will certainly be a great change in such enterprise in Dawson, and one which will be welcomed by many as the beginning of a new era. It is one more evidence of the surprisingly rapid progress the city is making towards the dignity and standing of an age beyond her years.

The Orpheum will be under the management of Mr. Alec Pentages, who, although a young man, is still a veteran manager in Dawson. The house will lose nothing through being under his direction for Alec is popular with the public and has a host of personal friends.

Just when the Orpheum will again throw its doors open to the public is necessarily very largely a matter of speculation at present, as there is much work to be done first. There will be no unnecessary delay, however, and the theatrical people are all ready to make their bows as soon as the building can be got in readiness for them.

TERRORS OF CHINESE INFERNO

It is Not Pleasant to Look Forward to Inhabiting.

Post-Mortem Tortures of a Terrible Nature Are Applied to People Who Have Been Wicked on Earth.

The Chinese purgatory is not a pleasant place to contemplate as a future abode. It is distinctly unpleasant even when compared with the gehenna as painted by the most orthodox Christians. Even Dante's inferno is not so bad as the place to which naughty celestialists must look forward.

To the Chinese mind the proper punishment for sins done in the flesh is a series of post mortem physical tortures of the most horrible kind. These are vividly illustrated by means of pictorial charts with which every Chinese is familiar. An examination of one of these religious charts is most interesting.

It is because the Christian missionaries preach that these torments do not exist that they have aroused the anger of the Chinese, and especially of their priests. The present troubles are therefore directly connected with these pictures.

The Chinese love of cruelty and ingenuity in inflicting torture are vividly shown here. For every offense committed there is some different and peculiar way of tearing a man to pieces. Life on earth does not differ much from this imaginary purgatory. The Chinaman puts his enemy to the torture at every opportunity, and bears it himself with wonderful equanimity. He must suffer somewhat from it or he would not take much trouble to inflict it, but the fact that he can conceal his feelings at all shows that they are very different from those of white men. This custom of torturing makes the danger of Europeans and Americans falling into Chinese hands during the present outbreak very alarming. They are clearly a bad as Apaches.

An explanation furnished by an educated Chinaman of the various tortments illustrated on charts gives one a clear idea of the Chinese conception of purgatory.

The human bodies which have been impaled upon the sharp limbs of bare trees will at once arrest the attention.

These are the bodies of women who have been guilty of the murder of their husbands. This is a very dreadful crime in China, much more so than the murder of a wife by a husband.

On the top of an ornamental bridge is pictured an unfortunate creature with his hands bound behind his back, while the executioner, with a devilish expression, pulls the eyes out of his face with an enormous pair of tongs. After the victim has been operated upon his body is handed over to the assistant executioner, who tosses it into a lake. This is the punishment inflicted upon a man for the murder of his brother. The slightest body floats for a hundred days in the lake, after which it is fished out for further disposition.

A very curious scene is where a tiger is used as a chopping block while a man is bound across his back and an executioner is in the act of cutting the man in two with an enormous knife. A Chinese authority explains that the tiger plays a very important part in Chinese religion. He is supposed to be animated by an intelligent spirit and to eat up only wicked men. The particular tiger has misbehaved himself by eating up good men, and for punishment he is to be used as a chopping block in purgatory for a certain period. The man tied across his back, who is being divided in two, has been guilty of disrespect to a priest.

In one case an executioner with an enormous sword is engaged in dismembering a human body lying on the stump of a tree. As he cuts off the head, a leg, etc., he sticks it on the sharp limb of a tree. The body before him has lost every limb but one arm. This is the punishment inflicted on a blasphemer, or one who said that there was no "shin," or soul, in a man. It is the most dreadful punishment that can be inflicted, for this is the greatest of all crimes against religion.

Two torturers are engaged in putting a man head downward into a receptacle which looks like a large ornamental flower pot. His legs are still sticking up in the air, while his body and head are already out of sight. This vessel is filled with boiling water, and the victim is suffering thus for having spoken ill of a mandarin.

In several places on the chart there are pictures of animals. They play an extremely important part in Chinese religion. In one case a man is lying on the ground, while three curiously spotted animals with long tails are gnawing at him. These are intended to be cows and calves, and the man is condemned to be eaten by them because he had killed some members of their species in life. Another man is having his eyes picked out by a crane. He has been guilty of killing one of these birds, which are very sacred in China. Many other birds are hurrying up to take part in the execution, including the goose, the parrot, the chicken and others.

Still more curious are the pictures of the chicken and the kid, who are walking away with what appear to be tickets labeled "1" in their mouths. These contain souls which have once inhabited men and which, having been judged in purgatory, are now being sent on earth again in this form.

A woman having a board with a hole in it fastened about her neck is being led away by two men of very curious appearance. Three small children who look like demons cling about her. She is a woman who murdered her children, but died too soon, and is being sent back from purgatory to spend some more years on earth before undergoing the next transformation. She is condemned to have the demon children always dodging around her to remind her of her crime.

One executioner gouges out the eyes of a man whose hands are tied behind his back, while another feigns with a grin on his face holds the victim's head. This man has been guilty of disrespect to his parents, which is one of the worst crimes among the Chinese.

Treachery to the emperor is the crime for which one of the terrible punishments is inflicted. The traitor is fastened feet upward between two upright posts, while two executioners saw him in half lengthwise.

A pair of scales of Chinese pattern, with a man bound hand and foot at one end and a weight at the other, is pictured. The man's hands, feet and pigtail are bound together behind his back, and he is suspended face downward, in a most painful situation. His crime was wasting food, which, with considerable reason, is considered very wicked in China.

When the punishments are completed, the former dwellers upon earth come before the judge again to learn what shall be done with them next. If they have been good on earth, they are sent back to become princes and rich men. Then, according to their degree of unworthiness, they are condemned to be soldiers, workmen, sailors, women, and so on down to the lowest forms of human life. Most of those who have undergone punishment are too bad to go back to earth again as men, and therefore their spirits must pass into the bodies of animals. Those who have sinned least inhabit the bodies of horses and cows, while others become snakes and rats.

The fact that any animal may have a human spirit makes it wrong for a Chinaman to kill one of them. On the other hand, it is often not considered wrong to kill a white man, because many of the priests teach that they are not men, but devils.

An Advocate of Peace.
"You ran at the first fire, did you?" said the colonel of a colored regiment that distinguished itself during the war of the rebellion.

"Yes, sah," was the unblushing reply. "An I would have run sooner if I had knowed it was comin'."

"But have you no regard for your reputation, Sam?"

"Reputation is nuffin to me, sah, by the side of life."

"Well, if you lost your life you would have the satisfaction of knowing that you died for your country."

"What satisfaction would dat be to me, sah, when the power of feelin it was gone?"

"Then patriotism is nothing to you, Sam?"

"Nuffin whatever, sah."

"If all our soldiers were like you, traitors might have broken up the government without resistance."

"Yes, sah, dat's so; dere would hab been no help for it. I wouldn't put my life into de scales 'gainst any government that eber existed, for no government could replace de loss to me. I spect, though, dat de government would be safe 'nuff if all de soldiers were like me, as den dere couldn't be no fitin'."—Collier's Weekly.

On Clear Creek.

Within the past few days a large number of Dawsonites have gone up the Stewart river and are prospecting and staking claims on Clear creek, a tributary of Stewart, which empties in about 40 miles back from the Yukon. On Clear creek about 130 miles back some very fine prospects have been found and pans going as high as 25 cents can be found at the grass roots. Among other Dawson men now up there are Frank Slavlin and Alex McFarlane. E. W. Sullivan was endeavoring yesterday afternoon to arrange for shipping up several tons of freight to that creek.

BACK FROM CLEAR CREEK.

Wm. Finne and H. L. Kagel Tell a Good Story

About the Stampede—Forty Men Staked the Whole Country First, But Left Alternates Open.

Wm. Finne and H. L. Kagel, two prospectors who returned from what is called the Stewart river country but what seems should take another name by reason of its remoteness from Stewart river, arrived last evening after a very hard trip of 11 days. They are stopping at the Yukon hotel, and this morning gave a brief account of their trip.

Mr. Finne had been over the ground between here and the recently stamped district in '98, and so, when the partners started on this trip they took the overland route with horses, knowing it to be the shortest and although it lacks much of being a good road, they believe it is easier than the way up the Yukon to the mouth of Stewart, up that stream to mouth of Clear creek, and then 140 miles up stream to the scene of the present strike.

By the overland route the distance is about 125 miles all told. The men are very enthusiastic over the prospects of the country, having located No. 37 above the right fork of Clear creek, where they got very good prospects, considering the little work the time at their disposal allowed them to accomplish, which was a little panning along the rim, where they got some good coarse gold.

They describe the lay of the land there as being something like that at the forks of Eldorado and Bonanza here, and say that holes sunk back in the flat, which is covered with from three to four feet of gravel, produce even better prospects than what are found on the rim. From 75 to 80 cents have been found in the gravel on the flat, which lies from four to six feet higher than the bed of the creek.

That a great many people have gone into the country is shown by what the two returning prospectors say concerning the numbers they met as they were coming out.

On the divide between Stewart and the Klondike they met one party of 40 from Dominion which was accompanied by a pack train, and during the same day met fully 10 more, all going the same way. There is a big flat of about 25 miles to cross just beyond this divide, and at night camp fires were seen burning pretty much all over it as far as could be seen.

"When the stampede started," said Mr. Finne, "there were only about 40 men in the country, but when we got there it was all staked just the same, and if it had not been for the fact that the 40 active stakers were in ignorance of the fact that crown claims were open for location, we should not have been able to find anything worth locating."

"As it was they left every alternate ten claims for the crown, and we got in in consequence. Even that ground is all located now."

"It is the best ground sluicing proposition I ever saw, because there is so much fall to the creek. It is summer diggings and there is nothing to be gained by going back there this winter, so we will return in the spring."

"Evidently the fact that there is gold on Clear creek has been known for a long time, as we found where sluicing had been done a long time ago. The only way I can account for the claims having been worked and abandoned is by the supposition that when the last workers were there, transportation facilities were not nearly so good as now, and the ground was not considered rich enough to pay under the then existing conditions."

The men had a hard trip coming back, as they came through a wide belt of burned timber which was disastrous to their clothing, tearing pretty nearly all they had on to shreds. They lost their horses which they did not recover, and as a result walked steadily all one day and night and well into the next day.

River News.

News of the racing steamers arrived this morning by the Yukoner and by wire. The boats are the Victorian, Columbian and Sybil. They were passed bunched within one hour of each other by the Yukoner, about 100 miles up river, with the Victorian in the lead. All were under heavy steam pressure and going at a speed never attempted before on the Yukon. This morning a wire was sent down from Selwin that the Victorian and Columbian had passed that point, the Victorian leading, at 6 this morning and the Columbian following one hour later. The Sybil was not reported and it is thought she may have slipped by in the early morning. Bets are being freely made as to the possible winner of the race and news of their progress is watched for with the keenest interest along the water front.

The steamer Ora arrived yesterday with 17 tons of general merchandise, 11 tons of which were consigned to Mrs. S. Wall, wife of the editor of the Daily News. Among the consignment brought in by Mrs. Wall are some thoroughbred Belgian hares, the raising of which has become a profitable fad on the outside. The Ora's passengers were as follows: A. McDonel, A. Sweeney, M. Keeney, F. Wood and Mrs. S. Wall.

The Clifford Sifton arrived at six o'clock last night with 70 tons of freight. She unloaded at the Yukon dock and is billed to sail early today. No passengers arrived on her.

The Yukoner pulled into the C. D. Co.'s dock at 8 a. m. today with 125 tons of freight, 29 sacks of outside mail and the following passengers: J. Gense, G. M. Taggart, Godfrey Gempe, John Cannon, C. H. Gaass, May Myers, Mrs. H. Turner, Mr. J. J. McDonald, A. Trobald, Mrs. R. C. Kirk, Mrs. H. T. Faulkner, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Thomas, T. Lloyd, H. Lloyd, V. C. Garst, F. Burkhard, Rachel Byeland, Aug. Bay, H. Sopper, T. Leland, J. J. Stiles, J. H. Garbel, W. Garbel, Wm. Ward, Geo. Murphy, Mrs. Anderson, W. C. Fitzsimmon, Mrs. A. A. Hepen, Miss Hepen, Wm. Ogilvie, Mrs. McGowan, Miss Butts, Harry Chapman, J. B. Tyrrell, T. Snow.

The following was received by wire: Steamer Anglian passed Hootalinqua going up at 5 this morning.

Lightning passed Hootalinqua coming down at 4 this morning.

The steamers Victorian and Columbian passed Selwyn going up at 6 and 7 this morning, respectively.

Ocean steamers Dolphin and Humboldt arrived at Skagway last night and sail today.

The J. P. Light was held at her wharf last night by the police, they taking temporary possession of the boat owing to three cases of whisky being found on her. It is understood that the liquor in question was purchased in Vancouver, was not subject to customs duties and was allowed by the authorities at Whitehorse to be shipped without a protest from them.

The steamer Monarch changed her register this morning and is now a British bottom. It cost her owner, Capt. Green, the sum of $2400 to ply under the flag of Great Britain. The nephew of the captain, J. Green, will act as pilot of the boat and she will sail on the upper river independent of the big company. She will be used for the rest of the season carrying cattle and general freight from Whitehorse.

COMING AND GOING.

H. W. Jewell, of Last Chance, is registered at the Donovan.

T. H. Brooks, of Bonanza, was seen on the streets this morning.

L. A. Hansen, of Hunker, is registered at the Fairview.

W. Gayn is down from 47 Bonanza on a business trip.

Mrs. Charles Wooden, of Seattle, is visiting friends in Dawson.

A. J. May, of Dominion creek, is in the city this week on business.

Mrs. Nellie Walthers recently returned from an extended visit to the outside.

The Klondike river, much to the surprise of freighters, was up this morning to such an extent as to be almost impassable.

The Yukon hotel will have a new register tomorrow, and Clerk Payne is searching for a large diamond to wear in his shirt-front hereafter.

Arthur Sibbet arrived a day or two since from the outside with a large consignment of freight and machinery for his bench claim opposite 31 below on Bonanza.

George E. Ames, of Grand Forks, came down from that town yesterday to receive the remnant of railroad camp outfits and other material to be disposed of in Dawson.

Joe Connors, a well known saloon man of Circle City, is registered today at the Donovan. He reports the business outlook for Circle during the winter good, and is going to return there shortly.

W. C. Peddler and wife arrived yesterday from Bennett. Mr. Peddler is one of the pioneer business men of Juneau, Dyea and Bennett, and is now going to enter the business field of Dawson. He is of the firm of Whitney & Peddler.

Mrs. Sam W. Wall returned yesterday from an extended visit through the coast states. She left her boy in Washington to avoid subjecting him again to the rigors of the Yukon winter. Mrs. Wall brought back with her 20 tons of general merchandise.

Commissioner Ogilvie returned by the record breaking Yukoner this morning from Whitehorse. What dispositions the commissioner made of the numerous petitions for roads, sidewalks, fire-fighting appliances and legislation are matters not yet made known as he has been at home since leaving the boat.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

A stranger named Chas. Hennessey, not of three star fame, was before Magistrate McDonell this morning on the charge of having violated a Yukon health ordinance. He pleaded ignorance of existing laws and all present wondered where he came from that such practices are recherche. A fine of $5 and costs was imposed.

Frank Sattler, who up to the 19th instant was operating a rocker for Leonard Gainesberg, on 49 below Bonanza, was in court this morning on the charge of having stolen gold dust from the rocker to the value of $1500. According to the evidence of the prosecuting witness and his sons, Sattler had been taken in the act and had been then and there set upon by the various members of the Gainesberg family, knocked down and his pockets rifled. A sample of the dust claimed to have been taken from Sattler's pockets at the time was in evidence. Sattler conducted his own defence in which he showed himself to be a man of considerable tact and intelligence. Hearing of the case occupied the remainder of the forenoon, at the conclusion of which Sattler was held over to the territorial court.

Arctic Brotherhood Tonight.

The winter season in "A. B. dom" will be inaugurated tonight in "due and ancient style," beginning at 8 o'clock in the camp, McDonald hall, Restauranter Germain, and possibly two or three others, will eat icicles at the throne of the Arctic Queen.

It is desired that every A. B. in the city, whether a member of the local camp or not, be present.

Will Ratify.

Tomorrow night the supporters of Messrs. O'Brien and Noel will hold a grand ratification meeting over the Monte Carlo, at which place the candidates have secured headquarters.

Sergeant Wilson Hors du Combat.

Sergeant J. J. Wilson, in charge of the town station division of the N. W. M. P., and than whom there is not a better and more efficient officer in any city in the land, has been laid up for two or three days past with a severe cold which has been accompanied by a slow fever and severe headache. He was feeling better today, but has not regained his usual rugged appearance. Of the entire local governmental machine Sergeant Wilson's position would be the most difficult to fill as efficiently as with his incumbency.

HE WAS LUCKY

The Story of a Man Who Had a Good Day All Around.

"Talking about luck," said A. S. Levine of the Star Clothing House, "make me think of a young fellow who called here the other day to buy some small necessity. He was what is called among the gang 'strictly of the hog.' A more dilapidated and impoverished looking man you could not find in all the territory.

"What attracted my attention was his pricing some swell overcoats, fur lined, which I had just unpacked. He did not buy, however, but a few days later in he came and ordered not only the coat but a complete outfit, including the finest fur garments in town.

"It seems he had salvaged a raft which was floating down stream without a soul aboard and for his trouble got paid $90.00. That same afternoon he stopped a runaway horse and got another $20.00, and that night was paid $450.00 by a man he had staked in '97 and who had just sold a claim in Forty-mile district and returned to Dawson on the Tyrrell.

"Now, that man was lucky all round, and, if I do say it, he was lucky in coming to the Star Clothing House, for he not only saved a considerable amount on his outfit, but he has got the finest goods obtainable in Dawson.

"I might add," continued Mr. Levine, "that we are now prepared to sell all lines of goods applicable for the winter months, including Fur Coats, Caps and Gloves, Felt Shoes and Heavy Finely Woven Socks, as well as Underwear in all sizes and manufacture. Tell the public to come around and see what is offered at the Star Clothing House and compare our prices with others."
