This item is filmed at the reduction ratio checked below/
Ce document est filmé au taux de réduction indiqué ci-dessous.

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

CHARTER.

STATUTES OF ONTARIO.

46 Victoria, 1882-3, Chapter 64.

An Act to Incorporate the Institute of Accountants of Ontario.

[Assented to 1st February, 1883.]

Whereas an Association has been for some time organized under the name and style of the Institute of Accountants of the Province of Ontario, (on the basis of a like Institute duly chartered in Great Britain, and hailing from London, Liverpool, Manchester, Glasgow, and other large commercial centres therein), and such Association now numbers over two hundred members, hailing from Toronto, Kingston, Hamilton, London, Brantford, Belleville, St. Catharines, Cobourg, and other commercial centres of the Province, such membership comprising the financial managers and accountants of leading firms in such localities ; and whereas Samuel Bickerton Harman,

President ; John J. Mason, Vice-President ; and G. W. Banks, E. R. C. Clarkson, R. T. Coady, W. H. Cross, W. A. Douglas, H. W. Eddis, W. F. Findlay, R. H. Gray, Francis C. Ireland, J. W. Johnson, John Massey, R. D. Millar, J. T. Moore, A. G. Ramsay, Charles Robertson and S. Whitt, members of the Council of the said Association, on behalf of the members thereof, have petitioned to be granted a charter of incorporation to enable them more efficiently to give effect to the aims they seek to accomplish as an intellectual and educational movement to raise the standard of accountancy, with such corporate powers as are hereinafter mentioned ; and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition ;

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Constitution.

1. The said Samuel Bickerton Harman, John J. Mason, G. W. Banks, E. R. C. Clarkson, R. T. Coady, W. H. Cross, W. A. Douglas, H. W. Eddis, W. F. Findlay, R. H. Gray, Francis C. Ireland, J. W. Johnson, John Massey, R. D. Millar, J. T. Moore, A. G. Ramsay, Charles Robertson and S. Whitt, and all other persons who may hereafter from time to time be admitted to membership of the Corporation, are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate by the name of "The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario," and the said Corporation (hereinafter called the Institute) shall subject to the provisions of this section, be capable in law, by its corporate name, to take, purchase, hold, sell and dispose of, all and any goods, chattels, lands, tenements and hereditaments, and any real or personal property whatsoever, and any interest therein, which may from time to time be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Institute ; but the Institute shall not engage in trade, or so deal in lands, or any interest therein, but may receive, manage and invest voluntary contributions and donations from members or others as a benevolent fund for the benefit of needy or non-prosperous members or their families, including families of deceased members; provided always that the said Institute shall only have power to acquire and hold such real estate as shall not at any one time exceed an annual value of three thousand dollars, and shall have and hold such real estate only so far as the same shall be necessary for the purposes of the said Institute within Ontario.

2. The Institute is hereby empowered to promote, Objects. and increase by all lawful ways and means, the knowledge, skill and proficiency of its members, in all things relating to the business or calling of an accountant, and to that end to establish classes, lectures and examinations, and prescribe such tests of competency, fitness and moral character as may be thought expedient to qualify for admission to membership, and to grant Diplomas of Fellowship to competent members, enabling them to use the distinguishing letters F.C.A. (Fellow of the Chartered Accountants) as a test of such competency.

3. The Institute, in general or special meeting By-Laws. assembled, may make By-laws for carrying out its objects, and may alter and vary the same from time to time; and after the first set of By-laws has been made no new ones shall be made, nor shall any By-law be altered unless written notice thereof has been given at a previous meeting.

4. The Officers of the Institute shall consist of a Government. President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and a Treasurer (the same person being eligible for both the last mentioned offices), and such other Officers as may be provided for by the By-laws; the affairs, business, and concerns of the Institute shall be managed by a Council, including the said Officers, the number of which shall be regulated by the By-laws, all of whom shall be members of the Institute, and who shall be elected annually at such time and place as may be provided by the By-laws; all vacancies which may occur in the Council by death or otherwise, in the interval between two annual meetings, may be filled by the Council.

First Council.

5. The said Samuel Bickerton Harman, John J. Mason, G. W. Banks, E. R. C. Clarkson, R. T. Coady, W. H. Cross, W. A. Douglas, H. W. Eddis, W. F. Findlay, R. H. Gray, Francis C. Ireland, J. W. Johnson, John Massey, R. D. Millar, J. T. Moore, A. G. Ramsay, Charles Robertson, and S. Whitt, shall be the Officers and Council of the Institute until others under the provisions of this Act shall be elected to fill their place.

Fees.

6. The Council may fix an entrance and an annual fee or subscription to be paid by all members, and may vary the amount from time to time, and no member shall be personally liable for any debt of the Institute beyond the amount of his unpaid fees or subscription as aforesaid.

Annual meeting.

7. An annual meeting shall be held for the election of the Council of the Institute, and for such other business as may be brought before such meeting, at such time and place, and under such regulations and notices, as by the By-laws of the Institute shall be determined; and in default of such election being held at the proper time, the existing Council shall continue to act until their successors shall be duly appointed.

Membership.

8. The Institute may admit as members such persons as it sees fit, and may expel any member for violation of the Rules and By-laws of the Institute on complaint and after inquiry.

Affiliation.

9. The Institute shall have power to affiliate with any other Institute or Association of accountants, whether in the Dominion of Canada, Great Britain or the United States of America, or elsewhere, for purposes of mutual benefit to the profession.

Membership interest

10. If any member, during his lifetime, ceases to be a member of the Institute, he shall not, nor shall his representatives, have any interest in or claim against the funds or property of the Institute.

PRIMARY EXAMINATIONS.

The object of the Primary Examination by the Institute is to reasonably ensure that future candidates for membership shall be men of good general education, the Council holding the view that the comparatively slow progress made hitherto, towards obtaining recognition from the public of the claims of accountancy to be considered as a profession, has been due in no small measure to the superficial character of the education deemed to be necessary to fit a man for intelligently undertaking the duties of an accountant, or even of a book-keeper (understood in the sense of one versed in one branch only of accountancy). While it may be true that every accountant will find his own level, on the ground of natural ability alone, it is equally certain that the accountant who has had the initial advantage of a good general education, supplemented by a judicious course of special training for his calling or profession will out-distance the accountant who has not had these advantages, everything else being equal.

The aims and objects of the Institute, being, as set forth in the Charter of Incorporation, educational and intellectual, are considered to be best possible of fulfilment by prescribing as a "sine qua non" of membership that the general education of the future members shall be of a satisfactory nature. The Council desires to avoid so far as may be possible the actual holding of Primary Examinations, having no special facilities for the early training of young men in subjects of general education. These facilities being so abundant and the standards of study and examination in our High Schools and in the many Colleges and other Educational Institutions to be found scattered over the Province, being so unquestionably high, the Council will in all cases recognize the desired standing acquired therein. Thus far, it has not been thought expedient to adopt any arbitrary specification of the educational attainments necessary to secure for the candidate registration as a Student of Accounts in the Institute, without further formal examination. The merits of each case presented for consideration will be taken carefully into account by the Examining Committee of the Institute, and if the evidence fails to satisfy the Committee, then the candidate will be required to undergo the Primary Examination prescribed by the By-laws.

The scope of the Commercial Leaving Examination of one of our leading Colleges, here given, will afford a fair indication of the requirements of the Institute as to an equivalent of the Primary Examination.

OBLIGATORY SUBJECTS.

1. Reading.—Reading in a clear, forcible and pleasing manner, so as to bring out the sense of the thing read. Some knowledge of public speaking. As a business man's public reading consists chiefly in reading reports of committees, minutes of meetings, resolutions, etc., these should receive special attention.

2. Penmanship.—A graceful, legible business hand ; a larger style for ledger heads, etc. ; neat, plain figures ; envelope addressing ; making out (including ruling) invoices and business statements.

3. Spelling.—Every-day words ; words relating to business, and their meaning ; the meaning of words and phrases used in the financial and commercial columns of a newspaper ; correct use of capitals.

4. Arithmetic.—Rapid and accurate computations in the simple rules ; Fractions (vulgar and decimal), Simple Interest and Compound Interest (both with and without interest table) ; Partial Payments ; Discount (cash, trade, bank, true) ; Percentage ; Commission ; Stocks and Bonds ; Equating Accounts ; Partnership Settlements ; Exchange (as to Canada, United States, England, France and Germany).

5. Composition.—Ability to write grammatically ; changes of construction, knowledge of punctuation, business letters, summaries, minutes of meetings and committees, telegrams, advertisements, resolutions, market reports, accounts of local events, agreements.

6. Geography.—Mathematical and Physical Geography ; the physical features and political divisions of Canada (provinces) the United States (states) and Europe (countries) with capitals and chief cities. The exports, imports, manufacturing and commercial centres, commerce and manufactures, commercial facilities of Europe, United States, Canada, West Indies.

7. History.—A general knowledge of the history of Great Britain and Canada, and special acquaintance with Canadian federal, provincial and municipal institutions.

8. Commercial Law.—Ability to write out accurately any ordinary business form ; to know the law and usage as to negotiable paper ; contracts.

9. Book-keeping.—Single entry, retail (Invoice Book, Sales Book, Day Book, Cash Book, Bill Book, Journal, General Ledger, Personal Ledger), and ability to make therefrom a statement of resources and liabilities, of income and expenditure, and show loss or gain. Double entry, wholesale or retail (mercantile, manufacturing and commission businesses, with all the necessary books, pay-rolls, statements), single proprietor or partners; the use of Cash Book with special columns and Journal with special columns; methods of preserving letters received, copies of letters sent, and other business papers; banking as to deposit, withdrawal, discounting, collecting, as these should be known by the merchant, and ability to keep the necessary books as a banker.

OPTIONAL SUBJECTS.

10. Mensuration.—Square and Cubic Root; Square, Cubic and Board measure; the measurement of triangles, circles, cylinders, ellipses, cones, pyramids and spheres.

11. Drawing.—The Free Hand, Practical Geometry, and Linear Perspective of the Provincial Art School course.

12. Algebra.—Problems in simple equations involving three unknown quantities; problems in easy quadratics; a fair knowledge of factoring.

13. French or German. The High School text-books with special reference to commercial correspondence in these languages.

14. Phonography.—Isaac Pitman's to a speed of 100 words per minute.

15. Typewriting.—The Remington to a speed of 40 words per minute; tabular work.

INTERMEDIATE EXAMINATIONS.

The Intermediate Examinations of the Institute are intended to afford to students who desire to take up accountancy as a profession, an opportunity to test their general progress in professional knowledge, to enable the Council to form an estimate of their capabilities, and to advise upon and direct, so far as may be, their course of preparation for the Final Examination, which qualifies for admission to membership as an Associate.

There is the further intention to provide recognition of the attainments of those candidates who do not purpose attempting the Final Examinations, but desire to have the Certificate of the Institute of competency to undertake the duties of a bookkeeper.

The scope of the Intermediate Examinations, therefore, will, generally speaking, be limited to a thorough comprehension of the duties of one required to undertake the duties of chief bookkeeper in a first-class business. The questions will be, as far as practicable, framed to elicit the views of a candidate surveying the questions from such a standpoint.

The books recommended for study are as follows :

1. MERCANTILE ARITHMETIC—High School Arithmetic.
2. NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS—Promissory Notes, Drafts and Checks, by J. W. Johnson, F.C.A. Law of Business, Parsons.
3. BOOKKEEPING—Canadian Accountant, by Robinson & Johnson.
4. AUDITING—Auditors, by Pixley. Auditors, by Dicksee.
5. SHAREHOLDERS' AND PARTNERS' ACCOUNTS—Expert Bookkeeping, C. A. Fleming, C.A. Shareholders' Manual, J. D. Warde.
6. INSOLVENCY—The Assignment and Preferences Act, R.S. Ont., 1887, c. 124. The Winding-up Act, chap. 129, R.S. Canada. Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Act, R.S. Ont., c. 183.

Some of the foregoing works deal very clearly with subjects other than those for which their reading is recommended, and the student is advised to note the views of the different authors (wherein they differ), by comparative study.

The Intermediate Examinations will be held during the third week in the months of May and November in each year, at the offices of the Institute in Toronto and elsewhere within the Province where educational Institutions have been affiliated for such purposes. At each point where there are candidates to be examined, a member of the Institute will be present and supervise the Examinations.

Each paper will be composed of ten questions, having a uniform value of ten marks each, making a total possible six hundred marks. Three hundred marks will pass the candidate, provided he shall have obtained forty marks or over on each of at least five papers, otherwise he shall be held to have failed in the whole examination. On each paper three hours will be allowed to candidates, two sessions of three hours each being held daily.

Applications for examination in the Primary and Intermediate Examinations must be in the form provided in the Schedule to the By-laws, and must reach the Secretary, accompanied by the necessary fees, not later than the last day of the month preceding that in which the examination is to be held.

THE FINAL EXAMINATIONS.

The Final Examinations of the Institute will be held during the third week of May and the third week of November annually, at the offices of the Institute, or such other place in the City of Toronto as the Examination Committee shall decide.

Each paper in the written examination will consist of ten questions, and each question will have the value of ten marks, the total possible number of marks being six hundred. Sixty per cent. or three hundred and sixty marks will pass the candidate, provided, however, that fifty per cent. or over shall have been obtained on at least five papers; otherwise the candidate shall be deemed to have failed, notwithstanding his aggregate marks. On each paper three hours will be allowed to candidates, two sessions of three hours each being held daily.

Each candidate will, before the commencement of the examination, select a "motto" or fictitious name, which he shall sign to the papers containing his answers. A memorandum of identification shall be inclosed in a sealed envelope and the same lodged with the Secretary. This envelope shall remain sealed until after the Examination Committee shall have made their report to the Council.

Passing the Final Examination does not entitle the successful candidate to be styled an Associate, or to membership in the Institute. The Charter of Incorporation provides that admission to membership and all the privileges thereby conferred shall be by the vote of the members. The Examination is a test of eligibility only, on the ground of professional attainments. The name of each successful candidate will be presented for ballot of the members at the meeting of the Institute next ensuing, provided the further fees, as provided by the By-laws, shall have been paid.

In the event of a candidate failing to pass the Final Examination he will be permitted to offer himself for examination a second time upon payment of one-half the prescribed application fee.

Applications for examination in the Final Examinations must be in the form provided in the Schedule to the By-laws, and must reach the Secretary, accompanied by the necessary fees, not later than the last day of the month preceding that in which the Examination is to be held.

The Council recommend for study the following :

1. BOOKKEEPING—Goodwin's Improved Bookkeeping and Business Manual, published by J. H. Goodwin, 1215 Broadway, New York. Hamilton & Balls' Bookkeeping, published by Gee & Co., 34 Moorgate St., London, Eng.

FELLOWSHIP DEGREE.

Admission to Fellowship may be obtained only upon the strictest compliance with the conditions prescribed by the By-laws relating thereto. As to Test 1 :—The Examiners will take into account evidence of the candidate's capacity for carrying through, in a business-like and skillful manner, expert professional work which has been entrusted to him. Evidence of the candidate's intention to continue in practice, if admitted to Fellowship, will be weighed.

The candidate will be at liberty to furnish evidence in the form he himself shall prefer.

As to Test 2 :—The thesis will be judged by points as follows :

1. Clearness of meaning.
2. Command of language.
3. Accuracy of facts.
4. Arrangement of facts.
5. Comprehensive treatment

Applications for admission to Fellowship must be in the form prescribed in the Schedule to the By-laws, and must reach the Secretary, accompanied by the necessary fees, not later than the last day of the month preceding that in which the regular Examinations of the Institute are to be held.
