ONTARIO GOVERNMENT CLEARS THE WAY FOR HYDRO RADIAL RAILWAYS

NETWORK OF RADIAL RAILWAY LINES WILL SOON BE BUILT UP IN ONTARIO AS RESULT OF MR. BECK'S BILL

Municipal Councils Given Power to Raise Money by a Vote of the Ratepayers for Construction of Radials, Which Will Be Operated by Commissions—Land for Rights of Way May Be Expropriated, and Province-Wide Radial Extensions Are Anticipated.

The linking up of a province-wide system of radial railways following the transmission lines of the Hydro-Electric Commission is not an impossibility within the near future. It was to the intense gratification of the government and the applause of the opposition, that Hon. Adam Beck last evening brought in a bill which will clear the path for an immediate commencement of such railway construction, if so desired, in answer to the clamor of rural districts for accommodation from the public ownership power scheme, and in pursuit of the policy which the commission has commented upon as a possible solution of the transportation problem.

At the last moment of the afternoon session, when the speaker was upon the point of adjournment, the power minister introduced his measure in brief terms and explained its purpose, which he expressed the gratification which all would feel, and hoped that the outcome would be satisfactory.

"This is an act respecting the public institution and operation of electric railways," stated Mr. Beck, "and in session, when the speaker was upon the point of adjournment, the power minister introduced his measure in brief terms and explained its purpose, which he expressed the gratification which all would feel, and hoped that the outcome would be satisfactory."

Way Made Clear. Radial railways extended through the rural districts, he explained, were not regarded as a rule, as paying propositions, and sometimes as not feasible in many parts of the country. The government had felt that deep consideration should be given before any such enterprise should be undertaken, and it was felt that in the case of some rural places, the lines would not be possible, except under great difficulties. Now, however, it was hoped that the way would appear more clear, for the bill he was submitting provided for agreements and arrangements which would simplify the situation to a large extent.

One of the important provisions of the bill states that the commission, whenever required by the lieutenant-governor-in-council, may enquire into, examine, investigate and report upon the cost of constructing and operating electric railways in any locality where power is supplied by the commission, with a estimate of the probable revenue, the possibility of the undertaking and the economic value to the locality to be served.

May Make Agreements. Two or more municipal corporations may be authorized by the same authority to enter into an agreement with the commission (1) for the construction, equipment and operation of an electric railway system with power supplied by the commission, or (2) for its construction by the commission and for its operation, or (3) for its construction and operation by the corporation and in either case for the same purposes.

WATER METERS MAY BE PLACED IN EVERY HOUSE IN TORONTO

Famine of Past Few Days Is Strongest Argument in Favor of Installing Them, Says Mayor Hocken—Supply Is Normal Again All Over Toronto.

The near water famine that had Toronto guessing for 24 hours whether to go into camp over at the island or take chances on Commissioner Harris doing the right thing at the right moment, went into past history at 7 o'clock last evening. At that hour the men at the island pumping station were ordered to turn a full current of water into the tunnel. The water went on at once, and soon after the territory north of College street had a normal supply, and the reservoir commenced to fill.

It took four days to prevent the water from going into the tunnel, and it took nearly 24 hours to start the water into the tunnel. Of a certainty the machinery installed at the 6-foot pipe at the island for regulating the flow of the water thru the tunnel passed a blind inspection when it was placed there in 1908. When the responsibility for that refractory valve is fixed upon the offender, there will be a bad quarter of an hour or more for him.

During the 24 hours that the water supply was practically cut off from the district north of College street, the inconvenience was more or less distressing. Many people anticipated the shortage by filling bath tubs, etc., but the great majority were unprepared. Stock at

KINGSTON, April 16.—(Special.)—The board of trade is still crying out for cheap power, and taking every step possible to get it. The secretary of the board states he wrote to the Hydro-Electric Commission some time ago relative to securing cheap power for the city from the Madawaska River, and also to Dr. A. E. Ross, M.L.A., but that as yet, he has received no reply. Members declare eastern Ontario should be given a fit service, and are moving to have proper representation at the Hydro-Electric Commission.

OLIVER'S CHARGES AGAINST ROGERS CONCERNING WESTERN LAND DEAL WILL COME UP IN HOUSE TODAY

Premier Rather Took Wind Out of Opposition's Sails by Suddenly Announcing Closure Resolution Would Be Temporarily Side-Track—Murphy and Verville Defy New Rules.

OTTAWA, April 16.—(Special.)—The opposition tried hard to work up a grievance today. When the house met, Hon. Frank Oliver presented a resolution reciting that one, Arthur Donaldson, had been allowed to homestead land of great value within the corporate limits of the City of Prince Albert, by Hon. Robert Rogers, then minister of the interior, and that Mr. Rogers, for his part in the transaction, deservedly received the honor of the House. This resolution was declared out of order because notice thereof had not been given, but Mr. Borden promised that as soon as the charges were concluded, he would, by moving the house into supply, give an opportunity to the opposition to present the resolution.

FRIEDMANN SELLS HIS SECRET FORMULA

AN OBVIOUS ERROR.

In the fourth column on the front page of the World yesterday morning, in the story dealing with Hon. Adam Beck's new bill limiting the powers of municipal councils, an error was made which was so obvious that it hardly needs correction. The first line of the last paragraph began, "the bill will not go thru." Obviously it should have been, "the bill will now go thru."

COLORED MAN IS SENTENCED.

GUELPH, April 16.—(Special.)—Victor Gings, a local colored man, 21 years of age, was this afternoon sentenced to a year in the Central Prison at hard labor on a charge of attempted rape and indecent assault on an old white woman. He was tried at the spring assizes before Judge Meredith and a jury, who brought in a verdict after twenty minutes' consideration. The judge charged very strongly against the prisoner.

DISMISSED ACTING MANAGER OF TORONTO HYDRO SYSTEM HAS ISSUED HIS STATEMENT

W. R. Sweany Says He Is the Subject of a Cowardly Attack; That the Communication Sent to the Mayor Was Not Properly Considered, and That It Was an Unheard-of Procedure Where Business Methods Preval.

W. R. Sweany, the deposed acting general manager of the Toronto Hydro-Electric System, handed the following statement to The World at an early hour this morning:

Certain misrepresentations which have appeared in the press within the last few days, bearing on the unfortunate conditions prevailing in the Toronto Hydro-Electric System, necessitate the publication of some facts from which the public can judge as to whether or not the procedure in forwarding a petition to the board of control was justified. I do not propose to here set forth in detail the conditions leading up to this action, awaiting the decision of the council on the matter.

OTTAWA PASTOR HELD FOR FRAUD

Rev. Carl Peterson Arrested at Northampton, Mass.—Mail Order Swindle Is Alleged.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., April 16.—(Special.)—Charged with using the mail to defraud in representing himself as an expert poultry breeder and accepting return, Rev. Carl Emil Peterson, formerly of Ottawa, Ont., was arrested in his home, 65 Locust street, by Deputy United States Marshal Edward J. Leyden of Springfield, and taken to Northampton. Rev. Mr. Peterson was arraigned before United States Commissioner John L. Rice in Springfield today and placed in the bonds of $1000 to appear in the United States District Court in Portland, Maine, now sitting.

ADVERTISED WIDELY.

It is charged that Rev. Mr. Peterson extensively advertised that he was an expert breeder of poultry, that he was president of the Houdan Poultry Association of Portland and that he had taken prizes with his birds in the big shows in Madison Square, Garden in New York and in the Ottawa show. The officers of the Houdan Association state that Peterson was never president of the association and that injury had resulted from his claims.

LICENSE AND ASSESSMENT BILLS ARE UNDER CRITICISM

Opposition Members Claim That Government Measures Do Not Go Far Enough—Mr. Rowell Would Tax T. & N. O. Property the Same as Private Land.

Two fertile subjects for opposition oratory were provided in the house yesterday afternoon when the second readings of the Liquor License and Assessment Law Amendment Acts were introduced by the government. The strength of the opposition which the Liberal powers have been storing up for some time since the intention of the government became apparent along these lines, broke forth in lengthy and loud-voiced criticism at the tardiness and general inefficiency of the measures. Although nought but discussion resulted, it was promised that before the house adjourns there will yet be opposition amendments introduced, and the old fights will be fought once more to show that the demand of the province is for more advanced legislation.

Very briefly in each case and without any attempt at vindication, the provincial secretary brought in his measures and stated the general purpose of them. That pertaining to liquor restriction aroused the special attention of the critics.

"We were led to believe that something would be done in the line of anti-liquor," observed William Proudfoot at the outset. "The province also understood that the government meant what it said. But the surprise is that it has not been carried out in any way they promise."

It was then pointed out that the measure was weak and played directly into the hands of the liquor men. The wishes of the temperance party had been practically ignored through.

A Big Bluff.

"If the provincial secretary had worked 24 hours per day for the last six months he could not have produced a bill with less disaster to the liquor people and a bigger bluff to the temperance advocates. This bill is the biggest nothing which has ever been laid before the house," claimed Sam Clarke.

The speaker argued that there was no demand for liquor before eight o'clock in the mornings and that the licensed people could hardly believe that no further restriction than this was planned.

"He who is honest enough to be bold and bold enough to be honest has fallen down and taken his lieutenant with him," he said.

William McDonald of Bruce thought that every man should be at home in the bosom of his family and that if the hours had been cut off in the evening instead of the morning, this pleasing state of affairs would result. He

The Solar Plexus a Great Nerve Centre

With the single exception of the brain itself, the solar plexus is the most important nerve centre in the human body.

Situated just back of the stomach and close to the spinal cord, the solar plexus supplies the motor nerves to the vital organs. Injury to or weakness of the solar plexus consequently means incapacity of the vital organs of the body. This explains why a blow which reaches the solar plexus means helplessness to the person receiving it.

These nerve centres all demand an enormous quantity of good, rich blood, and, failing to get this, the nerve cells are starved and depleted and fail to supply vital energy to the digestive and eliminating organs.

KEEP HOSPITALS FROM RESIDENCES

HOLDING LAND STRIPS Provision Made to Stop Practice of Some Realty Dealers.

Whether private hospitals will have the right in the future to build within fifty feet of private residences in cities will lie in the discretion of Dr. Bruce Smith, inspector of hospitals and jails for the province. This move was decided upon in the municipal committee yesterday morning in the temporary disposal of W. K. McNaught's bill for the protection of owners of homes by the prohibition of this practice.

The bill, which had at first been restrictive in nature to apply to buildings not finished or under course of construction, had been amended during this session, but even so Mr. Hanna felt that it would work a hardship in its radical nature.

Dr. Smith will enquire into the situation and decide the best method of restricting such buildings in the interests of all concerned.

A further measure, which is directed at the selfish practice of real estate men in the holding of strips of land in face of a proposed road extension. The method is sometimes seen of men buying up land where a natural extension alone may go and holding up the improvement plan by their exorbitant demands.

Hereafter in plans of subdivision submitted to the city if a grievance of this kind is discovered redress may be obtained from the railway board. The chief trouble seems to occur in the holding of strips of land on a boundary which are not required to be submitted under the present act, which was ordained at last session.

Incomes from investments were formerly exempt to the extent of $500, and in the new bill Mr. Hanna increased this amount to $400. Mr. Rowell stated that this amount should be raised to $800 so that the opposite would bring in an amendment to so provide. There were widows and retired persons, he said, whose incomes from investments had been reduced to less than $500 he thought they should not be taxed.

Mr. Rowell's criticism on the bill, Mr. Rowell dies with working out of the Assessment Act in New Ontario. He claimed that New Ontario, in the western provinces, and those in the western provinces, and that a different policy was necessary from that adopted in well settled provinces. The lands of the Temiskaming and Northern Railway, which were not being used for railway purposes, he thought, should be held in the same manner as the property held by other persons.

Before sitting down Mr. Rowell decided the premier for taking his views on a tax reform "from such a conservative assessor as Mr. Forman of Toronto." He stated, however, that James was careful not to adopt all Mr. Forman's views. "He takes not on another," he said. He then read from a report by Mr. Forman in which it was stated that he was of the opinion that the reforms advocated "would encourage those who would own their own homes." This statement of Mr. Forman's just embodies the very thing he was going for.

Failure on the part of the opposition to charge the Ontario Government with blame for the scarcity of farm lands in Ontario, during the period of ten years, as disclosed by the Dominion census of 1911; and in view of the general scarcity of farm lands in Ontario, which, for some years past, has caused grave concern to the farmers of the province, and has resulted in a number of farmers leaving the province, and in the case of some, in the cultural production of the province; this house is of the opinion that a select committee of the house, or a commission, should be appointed to inquire into the situation and report as to what means should be taken to remedy or improve existing conditions.

In replying to the motion, Hon. J. S. Duff, minister of agriculture, stated that the farmers were having no more difficulty in securing labor than the men engaged in other industries. He quoted a list of farm statistics to show that the value of the produce and live stock of the farms, and of the farms themselves had increased enormously in the past ten years, and that introduced an amendment to the motion, stating that the government expressed its satisfaction with the state of affairs.

Mr. Stuehlmeyer's Views.

Allan Stuehlmeyer, who spoke for one hour and ruthlessly exposed the government's immigration policy, maintained that every capable workman or farmer who came to Ontario was worth his weight in gold to the people of the province, and he declared that he would be in favor of a grant of $20,000,000 for colonization work, if it was spent properly. His scheme was that hand-picked families should be brought out and "advanced" $2,000 each in order to start them on farms.

T. R. Atkinson, North Norfolk, claimed that Mr. Duff's argument that the live stock of the province was worth more than it was 10 years ago was faulty. He declared that the value of the live stock was much more than that there were not more than two-thirds the number of cows that there were 10 years ago. He introduced an amendment to Mr. Duff's amendment, but the government amendment carried by a vote of 16 to 47.

TORONTO DOESN'T BENEFIT GREATLY

By Money Received From Earnings of Street Railway Company.

PAVEMENTS ARE COSTLY

And Revenue Is Eaten Up by Cost of Repairs.

In a statement upon the receipts and expenditures of the moneys received by the city from the earnings of the Toronto Railway Company, the transportation committee will report to the city council that the net revenue today to the city is only $128,000 per year. The statement reports: "For some curious reason the city has been assuming the entire cost of track pavement instead of charging a fair proportion to the local properties. Had the local properties been charged their fair proportion there would not have been the present outstanding liability of $2,000,000 against railway pavements which must be liquidated out of the general tax during the next few years."

"The rolling stock of the Toronto Railway Company is exempt from taxes, and the company pays taxes only upon a valuation of about $2,500,000 for plant and land. Out of the net railway revenue the city must contribute to the sinking fund on costs of railway pavements."

Definite Accounts.

"Your committee recommend that definite accounts be opened in connection with the Toronto Railway system, and the city railway system, showing all moneys paid out to and received by the city for these enterprises, and that the city auditor and the corporation counsel be instructed to submit an outline for such accounts to your committee."

"Your committee further recommend that the cost of street railway pavements, apart from the cost of the rolling stock, be assessed as a local improvement, and that legislation be sought for this purpose."

Civic Markets.

Ald. Wanless will submit to the city council, through the transportation committee, a memorandum on the effects of markets on the cost of living. It will contend for better transportation facilities so that the supply of food will be increased. PETITIONS IN CIRCULATION

FACTORYING SUNDAY SERVICE ON THE METROPOLITAN LINE

Residents Think, However, That Some Concessions Should Be Made by the Company in Return For the Privilege in Township Roads—Newmarket Power Agreement Will Be Voted On—Fire in Ward Seven - Brampton News.

The campaign for Sunday cars on the Metropolitan Railway got actively forward. Some of the car conductors were handing petitions around yesterday and getting the signatures of passengers in favor of a Sunday service.

While the desire for Sunday transit is fairly general throughout the district, some residents do not see the idea of unconditional petitions being submitted.

"Talking to The World last night W. G. Ellis said: 'I suppose the majority are in favor of a Sunday car service, but it would be a pity if the company were to get this addition to their franchise rights without some stipulations being made as to the frequency of the service and the fares to be charged within the city limits.'"

It still costs seven cents to reach Bedford Park from the C. F. E. tracks, and the company might at least grant a five-cent fare to the northern limit of the city.

Excelsior D. D. Reid is very much in favor of a Sunday car service, but he also thinks that something should be given in return. "It would only be reasonable," he said, "that the company should make their fare five cents to the city boundary. They are benefiting city conditions and might give the public a slight share of the advantage."

The World was informed on good authority last night that the Canadian Northern is behind the market scheme on North Yonge street. The market will be a basket market, where small growers can sell their produce directly to the city. A number of recent sales at good prices in the block between Walker and Alcorn avenues point to this being the location.

A conference has been taken place and the next meeting of the township council will be on Monday.

Road conditions through the township are very much improved during the past two or three days and deliveries of all kinds are more regular.

Commissioner Snyder has twenty newspapers out, and the new work in the way of curbs, sidewalks, and gutters is under way at an early date.

The duties of a new councillor in York Township are getting more and more on every day, and will continue to do so as the various subdivisions become closely settled.

It is no small task to distribute the various district improvements through any municipality, and the township staff in all departments.

A conference has been taken place and the next meeting of the township council will be on Monday.

Road conditions through the township are very much improved during the past two or three days and deliveries of all kinds are more regular.

Commissioner Snyder has twenty newspapers out, and the new work in the way of curbs, sidewalks, and gutters is under way at an early date.

The duties of a new councillor in York Township are getting more and more on every day, and will continue to do so as the various subdivisions become closely settled.

It is no small task to distribute the various district improvements through any municipality, and the township staff in all departments.

NAME OF NEW HYDRO MANAGER WILL BE MADE PUBLIC TODAY

At the Same Time Mr. Ellis of the Hydro Commission Will Issue a Full Statement as to Why a Mutiny of the Employees Was Unnecessary and Unjustifiable.

"I expect to announce today the name of the new manager of Toronto hydro-electric system," said Commissioner Ellis, "and at the same time give to the public a full statement of the form of management of the hydro-electric department, and why a mutiny of the employees was unnecessary and unjustifiable."

"From the time we realized that our first manager was not up to the standard of excellence essential to the needs of the Toronto system, we have been seeking a man qualified for the position. When our manager retired and we appointed Mr. Sweeney acting manager, we continued our search for a capable manager, and it is only recently that we have been successful."

M'CORMACK SINGS FINE PROGRAM

- Tonight John McCormack, the most famous singer of these out-time ballads, will be heard for the first time in Toronto, when he appears at Massey Hall. His name has recently preceded him, as the advance agent for such concert artists, has been unusually large. Tonight his program will be as follows: 1. Air: "The Quaker Girl" (Coulcan tute) Mr. McCormack. 2. (a) Romances: "The Quaker Girl" (Coulcan tute) J. S. Bach. (b) Gavotte "The Quaker Girl" (Coulcan tute) J. S. Bach. 3. (a) Down in the Forest: "London Road" (b) A Spirit Flower: "Campbell Tipton" (c) Mother of Mine: "Frank Tipton" (d) Melodie "Tschalkovsky" (e) Perpetuum Mobile "Novacek" (f) Irish Song: "The Quaker Girl" (g) Down by the Sally Gardens (h) At the Mid Hour of Night. 4. (b) Finale Act II, "Boheme" Mascagni. Tomorrow night's program will be entirely different from the above. At seven o'clock tonight there will be a "rush" seats put on sale for the accommodation of those who have not already secured their tickets.

The Quaker Girl. The seat sale for "The Quaker Girl" will open at the theatre this morning. This announcement means that the most important attraction for the current season will be presented for all next week, for there are few, if any, who will not concede this honor to "The Quaker Girl," besides its success of three continents, with its marvelous record of two years in London, one year in Paris and one year in New York. The production, of over 1000 picked singers, headed by Victor Morley, will present this famous musical comedy here for the first time last season at the Park Theatre, New York. "The Quaker Girl" is a unique score has by this time by the accomplished and whistled a great deal in Toronto, and it is not an advance praise. The book is by James T. Tanner, and the music is by Adrian Ross and Percy Greenback. The cast includes matinee Wednesday and Saturday.

DISMISSED ACTING MANAGER'S STATEMENT

Continued From Page 1. I take in connection with the present controller, who, if he is thoroughly understood, the duties of his position, would (as is done elsewhere) render it more difficult for him to do his work with his own forces. To me it appears that the accounting branch of our business is at present being conducted at the highest unit expense we have.

The agreement with the commission will include the location of a proposed line of railway, the character of the equipment and the service and the maximum tolls and fares to be paid thereon; the proportion in which the cost of construction of equipment and maintenance and operation shall be borne by each of the corporations interested; the proportion of the rental, right-of-way, power, etc.

During the day Judge Doherty, minister of justice, commented upon the newspaper report that three Russians naturalized in Canada had been expelled to Siberia upon their return to Russia for evading military duty. He said that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had referred to this case as illustrating how difficult was our Canadian naturalization, these men not being British subjects anywhere except in Canada. Mr. Doherty said that the facts of the case would be investigated, but he was inclined to believe that the Russian Government would not be justified in even the United Kingdom.

OTTAWA, April 16.—(Special)—That brokers who bring about bank mergers get commissions from the purchasing bank, and that directors of the bank which is swallowed are often pensioned off by the absorbing bank, were statements frankly made to the banking and commerce committee tonight by Mr. Judson Pease, general manager of the Royal Bank. Mr. Pease declined to go into details in reference to the recent merger of the Royal and Traders banks, and Chairman Ames ruled that he was not obliged to answer any questions, as he was a voluntary witness.

That more than one-half of the paid-up capital of the chartered banks of Canada is invested in office buildings was another statement volunteered by Mr. Pease, which somewhat startled the committee. An interested spectator who was Mr. A. E. Dymont, ex-M.P., who is credited with having been instrumental in bringing about the recent bank merger, said that he was first questioned about the proposed central gold reserve, and said that it would not advantage the bank to have the gold stored in a vault. They preferred to issue their own notes against gold rather than to deposit the gold with the government and receive Dominion notes, as at present.

Real Estate Holdings. Mr. Pease said that, according to the returns, 22 per cent. of the paid-up capital of Canadian banks was invested in real estate. As a matter of fact, the value of bank premises was always returned at about 60 per cent. of their value, so that it was safe to say that one-half of the paid-up capital of our banks was represented by bank premises. The Royal Bank, he said, had inherited from the Traders Bank a skyscraper in Toronto which would be sold as soon as possible. His bank had no financial interest in the new building erected in Toronto, which it would occupy merely as a tenant. Bank premises, in his opinion, should be returned at a low value. The Bank of Montreal carried its real estate at the nominal valuation of one pound.

POINTED A PISTOL AT WIFE AND CHILDREN

William Corbett Threatened to Shoot Family and Was Arrested—Four Boys Were Caught in House on Island—Thieves Taken Into Custody.

Returning to his home at 21 Royce avenue last night in an intoxicated condition, William Corbett is alleged to have threatened to shoot his wife and children. He left the house and went to a liquor store, presumably to get more drink. A neighbor phoned the police and Sergeant Irvine proceeded to the store. Corbett saw him approaching. He ran along Delaware avenue and Constable Payne followed him on a bicycle. After a short struggle, Corbett was placed under arrest, charged with carrying a concealed weapon. The gun was not loaded.

CAUGHT IN HOUSE ON ISLAND

Caught in a house at 34 West Island Point yesterday afternoon by Island Constable Arthur Cloutman, four boys were taken into custody on a charge of housebreaking. They are Allen Grey, Michael Riddon, Patrick Garvin and Joseph Ellis. The first three named boys appeared before Commissioner Starr in the juvenile court a few weeks ago accused of breaking into a sealed car at Bellevue. At that time they were allowed out on suspended sentence.

DETROIT BURGLARS CAUGHT

Detective Older saw Lewis McGinn and Samuel Losoff walking along Chestnut street last night with a large, leather looking bundle. The officer brought the pair to a halt and investigated. He found that the paper concealed about sixty or seventy pounds of copper and brass. As the men could give no satisfactory explanation for having the goods in their possession, they were taken to the police station. One time, the officer arrested them both. During the past month or so a number of factories and other places have been burglarized and brass and copper taken. The detectives are attempting to connect the prisoners with the crimes.

SEVERAL SMALL FIRES

The firemen had several runs last night, but prompt work on the part resulted in the losses being small. Fire broke out in the coal yard of William McGill Coal Co., at 228 Wallace avenue and caused damage to the coal sheds amounting to $400, and about $150 to the contents. When a blaze originated in the basement of a house at 30 Clarence street, occupied by Barney McKee and owned by William Beers of York street, $300 damage was caused to the building and $15 to the contents. Another fire occurred at 100 Sycamore street, a house owned by the Singer Estate and occupied by M. Callaghan. The damage to the building was $50 and to the contents $100. Late last night a house at 319 Sycamore road, owned and occupied by Tom McClellan, caught fire. The damage caused to the building amounted to $25, but a loss of $125 resulted to the contents.

Not a Game in International On Account of the Weather

Toronto Lacross League Reorganized for Season

Cincinnati Breaks Into Winning Column Defeating St. Louis 3-2

RAIN STOPPED OPENING GAMES

NEW YORK, April 16.—Old Man Jim, after branding the Leafs with his mark, took a flying visit over the International League towns that were scheduled to hold the opening games yesterday, and the Barrow clubs were all idle. A steady downpour was the order in New Jersey all day and the grounds at Newark were a small sized lake.

Every town on the circuit reported the same brand of juiciness and all the games were necessarily canceled. It is doubtful if the Leafs and Newark will be able to get down to business today. If the rain lets up a big squad of men will be put to work with sponges in an endeavor to get the Newark park in shape, but the officials are not over-enthusiastic with the outlook.

The Leafs spent the day in the Bristol Hotel, New York, and it was a sore bunch of ball players. Several of the squad are much overweight and not a game of any kind has been played in eight days. Manager Kelley is especially down-hearted and will not say much for his team's chances when they get into action.

Infielder Schultz is on his way to New York to join the team, and Outfielder Jackson of the Boston Nationals is slated for Toronto. If he is not held up by walvers, Jackson is a seasoned player and will likely be used in the utility role.

President McCaffery paid a visit to Philadelphia in case of players, but failed in his mission. He also failed to land the Princeton star that he made a special trip to get. These are indeed dog days.

Charlie Isaacs and Pitcher Kubat left New York yesterday for Scranton, where they were sent by Manager Kelley. Catcher Trout will be carried until after the Leafs get home.

Cincinnati Reds have turned Andy Kyle, the Toronto boy, back to the Akron, Ohio, club.

It is not merely a matter of money that is keeping Ty Cobb from joining the Detroit Tigers. The money matter is only a secondary consideration. The Powers Ty refused to be disciplined like the rest of the team and wants to be treated as a prince. Ty doesn't like to attend morning practices, wants special rooms at the hotels, wants the club run to suit Mr. Cobb and, in fact, just wants the earth with a nice little kidded fence around it. President Navin issues a statement in which he says Cobb has been suspended and if he persists Cobb will have to knuckle under the same as any other member of the club and that he will not be accorded any special favors. Right you are, Mr. Navin.

The Paragon board drew a big crowd of the faithful yesterday and there was much sorrow when the teams got together today every play, just as it happens, will be shown. The board is showing at the Star Theatre.

With the filing of $1000 bonds by each of the six clubs in the league, the New York and New Jersey Baseball League is now an established institution.

This is where they will play today if the weather man has no objections. Toronto at Newark. Buffalo at Jersey City. Montreal at Providence. Rochester at Baltimore.

Galt will enter a team in the Trolley League.

INDIAN HEAVEN TIED THEM UP

Reds' New Twirler Let Cardinals Down With Three Hits—Cincinnati's First Win.

CINCINNATI, April 16.—Cincinnati uncovered what appeared to be a promising recruit today when 23-year-old Johnson, an Indian pitcher, held St. Louis to three scattered hits and the locals won for the first time this season by a score of 5 to 0. Johnson allowed but three bases on balls. On the other hand Peritt, the St. Louis pitcher, was hit hard, as well as after three innings of play and was ineffective, also somewhat wild. Cincinnati scored three runs in the eighth inning. Egan tripled and Grant walked. Both scored when, in an effort to prevent a double steal, Wingo and Oates made wild throws. The game was called at the end of the seventh to allow Cincinnati to catch a train for Pittsburgh. Score: Cincinnati..... 5 St. Louis..... 0. A. B. R. H. O. A. E. Huggins, 2b..... 3 0 0 2 0 0 0. T. L. C. DROPS THE SENIOR SERIES

Twenty-four years in existence is the boast of the officers of the Toronto Lacross League and still gaining in strength. The annual meeting of the T. L. C. held at the Iroquois Hotel last night was the best attended in some time, and prospects are bright for the biggest season in the history of the club. Several amendments were discussed. The most important being the motion to drop the senior and junior series, the age limits of which conflict with the junior and juvenile series of the O.A.L.A. Frank Doyle, secretary of the provincial organization, attended the meeting and explained the amendment to the members. After discussing the question, the unanimous decision was to drop only the senior series, leaving the league composed of the junior, juvenile A and juvenile B series.

The following teams were represented: Mattlands Juvenile A and Junior, Elms (juvenile A and Junior), Riverdale (Junior), Woodbine (Junior), St. Simons (juvenile B), Castles (Junior), Lansdownes (Junior), Broadview (juvenile B). It is also expected that Weston and Victorias will enter teams.

The following officers were elected: Hon. president, F. C. Wagborne; president, J. E. Dundas; first vice-president, W. D. Teagart; second vice-president, W. Ferguson; secretary-treasurer, J. R. Flabbergast at Good Odds Wins Hotel Handicap at Jamestown—Long Shot Lands the Third.

NORFOLK, Va., April 16.—Flabbergast, piloted by Wolfe, won the feature at Jamestown today, the Monticello Handicap, in good time, considering the state of the track. John Furlong, the favorite, finished second, his heavy impost and the water-soaked track proving too much of an impediment. The rainy weather caused a sharp cut in the lists, and only five horses started. Sonny Boy repeated his last Saturday's success in the opening event, the Greenwood Purse, $300. The third race, with the only big field of the day, proved a complete upset to bettors and dopsters alike, when another of the Nasurtium progeny, J. H. McCarren's colt, Willis, quoted as high as 40 to 1, headed the Queen Bee favorite to the wire. Mrs. Tyson's Malatine was regarded as the best entry, but the mare was withdrawn. The other winners were all fairly well backed, the not by any means all favorites. Summary:
FIRST RACE—Greenwood Purse, $300, conditions, 4 1/2 furlongs: 1. Sonny Boy, 112 (Skirvin), 7 to 5, 3 to 5 and out. 2. Tea Enough, 103 (Ferguson), 7 to 1, 2 to 1 and 4 to 5. 3. Edna Leska, 105 (Teahan), 5 to 2, even and 1 to 3. Milky Way and Margaret Meise also ran.

German Druggist Who Killed One Wife and Tried to Do Away With Two Others Had Enough Poison in His Possession to Kill Thousands.

Berlin, April 16.—(Copyright)—Karl Hopf, a Frankfurt druggist and a student of black magic, has been arrested, charged with murdering one wife and attempting to murder two other wives. Hopf is an officer of reserved, champion boxer, and has traveled through India. His first wife died soon after the birth of a child, under symptoms of poisoning, but proof being found Hopf won a process for libel against his accusers, receiving also a large sum of money for which his wife was insured.

He afterwards married a second wife who also fell sick under poisoning symptoms, but recovered and secured a divorce. Hopf now met a third wife, who was a pretty Frankfurt girl, and married her in London.

He had just passed thru the bankruptcy court, he promptly insured his bride for $20,000 at an annual premium of $1250. Last February this third wife was taken to a hospital, where the doctors immediately suspected poisoning.

Finally the police arrested Hopf in his apartment, besides cyanide and arsenic, cholera and typhus bacilli laboratory was littered with books on magic, alchemy and secret medicine. Hopf reported to have confessed the attempt to murder his third wife.

STATE CURBON NIAGARA POWER

ALBANY, April 16.—(Can. Press)—Regulation by the state of the amount of water which may be diverted from the Niagara River above the falls on the American side for power purposes would be provided for in bill introduced today by Majority Leader Wagner of the senate. The measure, which embodied the recommendations of Attorney General Carmody recently submitted to the legislature by the governor in a special message, is designed to repeal practically all outstanding grants of water diversion for power purposes and to limit diversions to the Niagara Falls Power Co. and the Hydraulic Power Co.

If the measure becomes law, future diversions by these two companies will be restricted to 8000 and 6500 cubic feet per second respectively. These are the same restrictions which were contained in the Burton Act which expired in March last. Provision would be made that the remainder of 4000 cubic feet per second, not utilized under the present law, remain under the jurisdiction of the conservation authority over measurements of waters diversions which would provide severe penalties for violation.

The right of the state legislature to restrict diversions of waters, "in order to prevent impairment of the scenic grandeur of the great falls at Niagara," is also provided for.

BIG MISSIONARY PLANS ADOPTED

Canadian Contingent Will Soon Make a Conquest of China.

NEED MEN AND WOMEN

Shortage of Funds Has Given Place to Shortage of Workers.

Big new plans were adopted at the closing session of the Presbyterian Foreign Mission Board yesterday. A report was received from a special committee on the new conditions in China. The committee requested that the establishment of the Republican government had revolutionized religious conditions, and must be met on a colossal scale. The first essential was an immediate addition to the missionaries in Honan, besides the appointments made on Tuesday.

The report of the committee was adopted and the executive authorized to inaugurate a great forward movement for the evangelization of the vast area assigned to the Canadian Board. The executive was empowered to secure at the earliest possible date a party of fourteen new missionaries to go to Honan and four for Formosa. In the past the difficulty had been securing funds; now the problem was stated to be the securing of men and women qualified and ready to go out. The financial report, it was announced, would show a handsome increase over last year.

A call for volunteers for the next Canadian contingent to China will be issued at once by the mission executive.

READY TO START ON NEW STATION

Railways Are Awaiting City Council's Decision on Subway Height.

Chief Engineer Ripley, who is in charge of the C.P.R. and C.N.R. grade separation work across the north of the city, and who is to superintend the erection of the new $2,500,000 C.P.R. and C.N.R. joint station at North and York streets, stated that everything was in readiness for a start to be made on the station. He said that on the decision of the question of an 18 or a 14 foot Yonge street subway, which comes before the city council next week, being given by that body, no time will be lost in commencing work on the new station. The board of control have recommended a 18 foot subway and the widening of Yonge street at that point to 86 feet.

While the new Toronto Station will be erected independently of the Yonge street subway to be built under the tracks, the commencement of the station could not be made until the question of the depth of the subway has been decided upon, as the difference in the depth of this would materially affect the floor levels.

To Absorb Freckles and Other Blemishes

Every spring I receive many letters from girls seeking some reliable recipe for removing their freckles. Last year I advised many to try mercurized wax. Such favorable results were reported that this season I have recomended this for the purpose. The wax seems to possess unusual properties which completely absorb every freckle with blemishes. The complexion improves wonderfully, becoming as soft as a rose petal, and as delicately tinted.

Get an ounce of mercurized wax at any drugist, spread a thin layer of it over the entire face every night for a while, washing this off in the morning. For pimples and all cutaneous blemishes, the treatment is superior to any that has been known under my observation. Springtime also brings wrinkles to many sensitive skins and are much exposed to sun and changing temperatures. Pour a half pint white head into a basin, then an ounce of powdered sassafras, which quickly dissolves. Bathe the face in this; the effect on a wrinkled skin is remarkable.—Marie Demarest in Ladies' Favorite Magazine.

CARE OF THE BOTTLES.
The best bottles for baby are those that are round and cylindrical, and have a narrow neck for the attachment of the nipple. The one important requirement is that they have no corners on the inside, being rounded both at the top and bottom. Whatever the shape of the bottle, it must be easy to clean. It is best to get as many bottles as there are feedings, in twenty-four hours.

As soon as the baby has taken his feeding, wash out the bottle with cold water, then with hot water and soap or washing powder. A long-handled bottle brush is splendid for this. Rinse the bottle thoroughly and put into it a heaping teaspoonful of borax, with some warm water, and allow it to stand full of this strong borax solution until the next morning. Then all the bottles can be sterilized together and prepared for the fresh supply of food.

The nipples should be washed well with cold water and then with boiling water, and left standing in strong borax solution or in boracic acid solution until needed. When the bottles and nipples are first bought they should be put in a saucepan of cold water. Set the pan on the stove and let the water come to a boil. Throw in the nipples, and boil bottles and nipples for five or ten minutes. This sterilizing of the bottles must be repeated each morning, if you would keep your baby free from the diseases caused by impure milk. See that the nipples are not too large and the feeding of the baby. One cannot emphasize too much the necessity of absolute cleanliness about everything that comes in contact with the baby—especially his food. No trouble is too great, if it keeps your baby as well as he should be.

GIRL WINS SUIT AGAINST POLICE

SIMCOE, April 16.—Gladys Meredith, the Brantford girl, who sued Chief of Police Slemin and other officers of that city, was awarded $1500 as bail for assault and humiliation, late this afternoon. She sued Chief of Police Slemin, Detective Chapman, Constable Boylan and Dr. E. C. Ashton of Brantford, for $10,000.

Miss Meredith, an English girl of 19 was, she charged, held for examination by the police and Medical Officer Ashton, of Brantford, while under no criminal charge. A vague connection with the finding of an infant body in the Grand River was the police excuse.

Mr. Lally McCarthy, K.C., for the defendants, in his address to the jury, dwelt upon the fact that the plaintiff at the time of her going to the police station was not under arrest. "Counsel for the plaintiff, J. M. Godfrey, K.C., laid stress upon the fact that the 19-year-old girl was confronted by two officers, and from the time she left Silsbys's mill, until a second medical examination was made, she was never away from the police. This constituted an arrest, and her detention further was imprisonment. The doctor in examining her, the plaintiff having sworn is was not an assault, therefore committed an assault.

Judge Severe on Police. Justice Latchford charged heavily against the police, saying that the girl's story was substantiated by the witnesses. He advised the jury to consider very seriously that the girl was never out of sight of the police, and to ask themselves if this did not constitute an arrest. The jury then retired.

Mr. McCarthy, for the defence, objected to his lordship's charge, saying that it was more favorable to the plaintiff than that of plaintiff's counsel. He had considered only one side of the evidence, Mr. McCarthy stated. The judge then decided to divide the charge into false arrest, and assault against Dr. Ashton, the examining physician.

Purifying Water With Gas

Impure drinking water is a danger to be avoided at all times. The health of our homes demands a constant supply of Pure Drinking Water. How to get this has been the question. Distilled water is recognized as the only absolutely pure drinking water to be had anywhere.

Distilled water is crystal-clear, free of mineral salts in solution, sediment, lime, etc. It is technically known as H²O, Chemically Pure.

To purchase Distilled Water is an expensive luxury, but with our Gas Water Still installed in your kitchen it becomes an easy and cheap way of obtaining it.

Every Home Should be Equipped With a Gas Water Still

No home should be without a Gas Water Still. It is essential to the family welfare. A Gas Water Still is necessary the whole year round, and will be found after a trial to be the only safe and efficient means of obtaining this purest of pure drinking waters. A small gas flame boils the water into steam, which in turn is condensed, cooled and aerated as it flows from the machine.

With our Gas Stills it is possible to obtain Distilled Water for only 2 CENTS PER GALLON—THINK OF IT!—ONLY 2 CENTS PER GALLON. This apparatus is small, compact and reliable. Easily installed over the kitchen sink.

INDUSTRIAL WORK IN PLAYGROUNDS

FOUR PERIODS OF LIFE

To illustrate her lecture "Industrial Work on the Playgrounds," given at the King Edward School Tuesday evening, Miss Florence M. King of the public school staff, made an attractive assortment of models, of toy villages, houses of larger variety, furniture, clocks, dressers, bureaus, piano, mats, and the rest, all the work of pupils in classes of which she had charge.

Works Upward. The kindergarten works upwards towards manual training, said the lecturer, and manual training has a moral, commercial and cultural value. When taught in the schools, it develops the spirit of social service.

The life of the child is divided into four periods: the motor or symbolic, when a stick may to him represent a horse or gun; the working critical period, when he wants to "make things go"; the useful period, when he desires to be useful and to acquire habits and self-reliance, and the gang or group period, when he likes best to work with others, especially those of his own choosing.

Miss King advocated teaching a series rather than a number of isolated lessons. This idea was illustrated by miniature villages of primitive, Indian, the Indian wigwam and carouses; the houses of the Eskimoes, an African and lastly a Canadian village. African and plaster-of-paris were the materials used, and the plastic fingers of the children of our schools had been the instruments.

The making of these could be carried on in the playground, so it was meant that the work should take the place of play, but rather that an hour or two every week should be devoted to this early manual work, which might be carried on advantageously on wet or rainy days.

C. J. Atkinson, president of the Playgrounds Association, presided, and a vote of thanks was tendered the lecturer for her interesting, which was brimful of interesting suggestions.

Tells How to Cure Quickly.

"Even when I was young I was not robust and healthy like other girls. I suffered from headaches, and I was of blue feelings that deprived me of the joyful spirits and pleasures other girls seemed to get. After I married I found I could not throw worries off like other women, and that weariness made me very unhappy. There was no cause to feel so sluggish, and this accounted for my poor color, my tiredness, languor and despair. The pills the doctor gave me were too purgative, made me weaker because they were too drastic for my constitution. Dozens of my friends recommended Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and they were so mild and helpful that I decided to try them. I acted so quietly as Dr. Hamilton's Pills were so comfortable to use. I was afraid I knew they had helped, but I was engaged in cleaning up my system, they did the work of a tonic and blood medicine combined, and I proved to be a marvelous degree with Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and I now mainly by using them just once or twice a week."

WOODIE IN THE MUD

Friskie Chuck, the little groundhog girl, jumped out of bed in her underground house, and climbed up the stairs to the tower, where she could look out of doors. This tower was raised above the ground, so Uncle Booster or Mr. Chuck could look and see if any bad alligators or other troublesome creatures were coming along. But none was this time, so Friskie looked out of the window, and she exclaimed: "Oh, it's raining yet!"

"It's raining hard!" asked her brother Waddie, wondering if he would have time for another nap before getting up to start for school.

"Oh, very hard," replied Friskie, running down the stairs from the lookout tower so fast that her hair braids went flying, like a cow's tail when it's running away from a bumblebee.

"But you know," she went on, "April showers bring May flowers, and this is April. We must expect rain."

"But not so much of it," objected Waddie, the other brother of the little woodchuck girl. "We've had enough. It's been nothing but rain and mud for the last week. I'm getting tired of it."

"So am I," said his brother, as he began to dress. "I don't see why we can't have May flowers without April showers."

"What's that about showers?" cried Aunt Jerushia Ann, the dear, little, fussy, old lady woodchuck. "Is the rain coming in? Oh, shut the windows! It will spoil the wall paper. Oh, call the policeman! Send for a policeman! Tell the trolley car conductor I want to get off. Oh, cucumbers! Oh, automobiles! Oh, ash cans!" and she fanned herself with a hairpin, she was so excited.

"It isn't anything at all," said Uncle Booster, most kindly. "The children were just talking about the rain. It isn't coming in—it's just coming down, harder than ever."

"Oh, I'm so glad it isn't coming in anywhere," spoke Aunt Jerushia Ann, as she ate a peppermint candy, so she would not be so nervous. "Rain always makes my hair come out of curl. Oh, dear! Oh, hot cross buns! How naughty I am!" and she sat down in a kitchen chair, and rocked like anything.

"But I really don't see why we have to have so many April showers to make May flowers," said Waddie, as he sat down to breakfast.

"I will tell you," spoke Uncle Booster. "You see the flowers have a long winter sleep, and their eyes get frozen so tightly shut that they can hardly open them again when spring comes. Flowers themselves are all eyes, you know, and they open to look at the sun and the green grass. And some morning glory, close their eyes and go to sleep every night, when the sun goes down, and awaken in the morning."

"Of the flowers go tight shut, it takes a nice, warm April rain to open them again. Just as if you glued your paws warm water to make them come unglued."

"I see," spoke Friskie. "So that's why we have April showers, Uncle Booster, is it?"

"Exactly so," said Uncle Booster, as he helped himself to some fried sweet clover with carrot sauce on it.

"Well, we'd better get ready for school," spoke Waddie. "I'm going to wear my rubber boots. It's awful muddy."

"It surely is," said Mrs. Chuck, as she helped Friskie to get her rainy-day muddy shoes on. "Don't get the mud on the children's shoes."

So off the three little woodchucks started thru the April shower for the hollow stump school where Professor Choo-Choo was the teacher. And it rained harder than ever. But Waddie and Waddie and Friskie had their umbrellas and raincoats and boots, so they did not mind it.

And after they were gone Aunt Jerushia Ann went all over the house looking to see if, by any chance, a window might be open so the water could come in and spoil the wall paper. But there was none, I am glad to say.

Waddie Chuck had to stay in school that afternoon, when the other animal children had gone home. Professor Choo-Choo happened to bite his left paw while eating a piece of chocolate cake for his lunch, and he could not clean off the blackboards very well. So he asked Waddie to stay in after school and help him, and the little woodchuck boy did.

When Waddie finally started for home it had stopped raining, and he hurried on, thinking he could catch up to some of his friends, and maybe his brother and sister. His umbrellas under his paw for no raindrops were coming down now.

All of a sudden, as Waddie was going past a big hollow stump, a bad old fox made a leap to grab him. And he nearly caught Waddie, too. But the little groundhog boy gave a jump out of the way, and ran on, on, crying: "No you don't!"

And he ran so fast that the fox could not get him, for the fox was lame in his left hind leg from having been caught in a trap once, when he was trying to catch a chickie.

On and on ran Waddie, and before he knew it he had run plump into a big mud puddle! You see he was thinking so much about the fox that he did not notice where he was going. Right into the mud he ran, and he sank down over his boots. And Oh! it was such sticky mud!

Waddie tried to pull out first one leg and then the other, but he could not do it. Down he sank deeper in the mud, and it oozed into his boots until they felt as heavy as lead. He could not walk, and he could not run, and he began to think that maybe he would sink away down over his head, and then he could not talk, which would be very sad.

"Oh, dear!" he cried. "What can I do? How can I get out?"

But there was no one to answer him. Only an owl hooted, for it was getting dark. Faster and faster in the mud stuck poor Waddie, and the harder he pulled the deeper he got.

Then, all of a sudden, along came that bad old fox again, creeping up to tickle Waddie in the ribs, and the little groundhog boy tried harder than ever to get loose, but that mud was so sticky, just like glue, he could not get out.

THE GARDEN

CONDUCTED BY RACHEL R. TODD, M.D.

Pruning the Roses.

Now is the time to prune the roses, when they are just commencing to show their "eyes."

In order to prune roses properly, you must always bear in mind what kind of rose is under treatment. The hybrid perpetuals, the teas, the climbers, the mosses, all require different pruning. As a rule, however, the teas should be more lightly pruned than any of the others, simply clipping a few inches from the tops of the canes, and thinning out the shoots where they have grown too thick.

The hybrid perpetual should be trimmed back to within four or five "eyes"; the new shoots that will appear will bear the blossoms, for this season. Be sure to cut out all dead wood; every bush will show more or less winter killed canes, all of which must yield to the shears.

Many gardeners, especially those who are not any too sure of themselves, with regard to rose-pruning, make the mistake of not pruning away sufficient wood, to force the plant to a strong and vigorous growth. A reliable rosarian states that the rose surgeon who wields his knife without fear will reap a triple fee in bloom.

The rosarians get their flower shoots from the new canes of the previous season, and if there are plenty of these in evidence, all the older wood should be sprigged up from the base; if these basal canes are few, it will be safer to shorten the old canes to an inch from where any new canes spring from the top. The point for an amateur to be careful is, not to cut away the one-season-old canes, in mistake. See to it, this coming summer, that a few vigorous new canes are coaxed up from the very base of the plant, to be in readiness for next summer.

A safe general rule to follow, if rose growing is new to you, is to prune the roses back to within half their old growth. Experience, and careful questioning from any successful rosarian with whom you can talk, will soon give you knowledge and above all, confidence in the matter of pruning. Having gained a certain amount of knowledge, you will come easier to you to prune freely, which means plenty of roses.

A MAN IN THE OPEN

By ROGER POCOCK

(Copyrighted 1912, The Bobbs-Merrill Company.)

We slept that night at Hat Creek station, where Tearful George proved a most kindly host. He told me of a woman who had passed last week on the way to Jesse's ranch. The teamster was Iron Dale. So far I had wondered whether my name was Scotch into Mrs. Grumble, but now the scent of the pine brought ease of mind, and in the great calm of the wilderness one is ashamed to fret.

Our next march brought us rather late for the midday dinner at Fifty-Nine Mile House, which marks the summit of the long climb from Ashcroft to the edge of the black pines. The light was beginning to wane when we set out into that land of silent menace, where black forests cast blue shadows over deathly snow, and the cold was that of the space between the stars. Once we had to pull up to adjust a trace, and in that instant our sleigh, with all our gear, was poised from dreadful motion. A snow-covered boulder faced us as the ice challenged: "You think I moved? A deadfall loomed to ask 'Did I mean?' A howl-free became rigid as the ice had been swaying, a gaunt pine leaned as the stopped in the act of falling upon our sleigh. All of them, alert and full of menace, watched us. The trees were dead, the water was all frozen, the snow was but a shroud which seemed to lift and creep. What were we doing here in the land of the dead? The shadows closed upon us, a mist rose, flooding over us, and far off the cold split a tree asunder with loud report as of some minute gun.

We drove on, freezing, and right glad I was to be welcomed with all the ruddy warmth and kindly cheer of the Fifty-Nine Mile House. There we had tea, and secured fresh horses for the last stage of our journey. I learned also that the driver entrusted by the Hudson Bay Company with provisions for Hundred Mile House had gone off with the team, leaving the sleigh still loaded in Captain Taylor's yard.

The malign bush seemed cowed by sheer immensity of glittering starlight as we drove on. Only once I ventured to speak, asking Mr. Euse to look out for Ninety-Nine Mile House. There he accustomed to halt there would try to stop. I did not want to stop.

He nodded assent, and crouched down beside him. I waited until a brave red warmth shone out across the snow from all the lighted windows of Spite House. Mr. Euse lashed his horses, and in a moment more we had passed into the night again. Presently we crossed the little shaly bridge over Hundred Mile Creek, then swung to the left into Captain Taylor's yard. I could see on the right the loom of the old barns, on the left the low house, and at the end one window dimly lighted, which told me my friend still lived. While Tom, the assistant, stabled the team, Mr. Euse and Billy got snow shovels from the barn, and hewed out a way to the deep drifted door at the rear end of the building. Presently the Chinese servant led us in, and I made my way thru the barroom and dining hall to that door behind the right. How changed was the grand old Hundred since the days, only five years ago, of pompous assidues, banquets, dances, when these rooms overflowed with light, warmth and comfort, now dark, in Arctic cold, in haunted silence! I crept into the captain's room, where, in an armchair beside the stove, sat a man, I knelt beside him, taking his dreadfully swollen hand.

"Dear wife," he muttered, whose wife must have been dead all these years, "this hulk is going to be laid up soon, in Rotten Row. Can't all of us founder in action?"

"I ran away. But then there was much to be done, fires, lights, supper, beds, and the unloading of the sleigh full of hospital comforts, which would set me patient a great deal more at ease. When I left my patient, how often so that night, supposing all lucky people to be in bed, I found Mr. Euse making himself some tea. Gladly I joined him beside the kitchen stove, and so pleased with its warmth and the tea, for I was weary, past all hope of any sympathy. Besides, the poor man was just dying with curiosity as to our journey and his engagement as my engineer. So, for that one and only time I told the story of Jesse's fate, and mine. True creature would stop me at times to check the pronunciation of words, or note the English manner of placing accents, his own odd way of showing sympathy.

And then I tried to explain the scheme which needed his services as an engineer. "Let's see," he checked my rambling statement. "Try if I've got all that correct. This Cariboo wagon road runs from Ashcroft to Quesnelle, due north, except at one point where the government wouldn't pay for a bridge across the Hundred Mile gorge. "So at the ninety-five-mile post the road swings eastward five miles, passing Spite House to the head of the gorge, where it crosses Hundred Mile Creek, right here.

"From here the road turns west again on the north side of the gorge, and after one mile on the level, drops down the Hundred Mile Hill, which is three miles high, and a terror to navigation.

"From here the road turns west again on the north side of the gorge, and after one mile on the level, drops down the Hundred Mile Hill, which is three miles high, and a terror to navigation.

"At the bottom the road turns north again for Quesnelle, at a cabin called the One Hundred and Four, where old Pete Mathson lives, a hearty little person, like a Skye terrier with a faithful heart.

"An old man has blazed a cut-off, crossing the foot of the gorge, then climbing by an easy grade to the ninety-five-mile post. The said cut-off is five miles long. Made into a wagon road, it would give a better gradient for traffic, save four miles, employ local labor at a season when money is scant, and be at all-round blessing to mankind. At the foot of the gorge we'd locate the new Hundred Mile House. "Incidentally, Spite House would be side-tracked, left in the hungry woods four miles from nowhere."

"Tell me," I urged, "what you think." "My dear madam, when I've made a survey you shall have dates and figures for a temporary snow road, a permanent way, and a house."

Aching Lumbago Backs Are Quickly Helped and Permanently Cured

YOU CAN EASILY PROVE THIS To cure Lumbago—surely it's a good thing to know how. This information meant to Jno. E. Neave the difference between invalidism and robust health. Writing from his home near Cornwall, he says: "A severe and prolonged attack of Lumbago in my youth rendered me at all times liable to aches in the back and loins. So established became the predisposition, and so frequent the attacks, I confess I accepted the condition as my particular weakness to be borne with as much composure as any evil circumstance might permit. One day an unusually bad attack developed, and unfortunately there was no medicine of any kind in the house. I sent to a neighbor for help, and received with a strong recommendation a bottle of Nerviline. My friend was surprised we didn't use Nerviline, saying that they found use for it in their families almost every day. So quickly did Nerviline check the attack, and so grateful was the relief that I was in a day on the high road to recovery. I have cured my tendency to Lumbago with Nerviline, and consider it the most powerful pain-subduing liniment ever made."

For curing colds, hoarseness, tight chest and winter ill, Nerviline is a marvel, as for Lumbago, Sciatica and Rheumatism, Nerviline is considered to be without a peer. In the home it is especially valuable, because it cures cramps in half a minute, stops nausea, controls vomiting and upset stomach. For internal or external use, wherever there is pain, apply Nerviline. Get the five family size bottle, trial size 25c, at all storekeepers and druggists, or the Cataract Co., Buffalo, N.Y.

Breakfast Cakes.

SUCH a glorious day yesterday. The moment I looked from the window and sniffed the fresh spring air, I said to myself, "what a morning for a good breakfast." And thereupon I went into the garden and weeded my strawberry beds—six little ones—by way of giving myself an appetite for said breakfast.

The appetite arrived first, in fact the cook, who can stand more repose than any other person I ever knew, was not yet on the scene. His job to balance her inaction and my unlassitude, I made cakes.

In the winter we make them and use all over the country. I follow the popular fallacy that corn meal is too overbearing to use very little meal and more wheat flour. Then we change the name from Johnny cake to Jacky cake.

Delicious Jacky cake—I don't believe half the women in the country ever heard of you. Yet you do away with the tedious operation hitherto gone thru to produce something like you, but not one-tenth so good. One cup of sifted white flour, six tablespoons of white corn meal, a teaspoon of salt, two teaspoons of baking powder and enough milk to make a soft batter.

Drop from a tablespoon into hot greased griddle. Fry a dark brown on both sides. Insert a bit of butter and eat with maple syrup.

"How did you ever make cakes," said cook, "when there weren't eggs?" You don't need eggs for griddle cakes. Have them soft boiled instead, the eggs I mean. You know none of the prepared flours for breakfast cakes call for eggs, so why should you use them? To make Jacky cakes or any corn meal mixture try to get Virginia meal. There are a few water wheels left down there and they make proper meal.

No flour-like yellow meal was ever worth making up into cake or bread; it is made of field corn. "Pig-corn" Uncle Reasus calls it. The sweet corn is always white, and to be good it must be grayish in color, and coarse in texture.

It is ground by stones that turn slowly so the flavor of the corn is not burnt out. Some few dealers in every city have the coarse, white corn meal. You can find it and it is worth seeking for.

MADE IN CANADA EXHIBITION TOUR

Second Train Will Be Sent Out on a Larger Scale.

The splendid success of the "Made-in-Canada" Exhibition tour thru Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta last year is responsible for the Canadian Home Market Association's decision to repeat the enterprise this year, only on a larger and improved scale. Another fact that leads to the repetition of the tour is the fact that the success of the tour of 1912, is the impetus which followed in the wake of the tour in its course across the prairie last year. The establishment of several factories and warehouses in prairie and western Canada directly to the "Made-in-Canada" train. An even greater impetus may be expected this year for any defects or weaknesses discovered in the initial trip have been strengthened or remedied in the train of 1913. All the exhibits will be different from those of last year's train, and the comfort of the visiting public has been provided for by better entrance and exit facilities, more lighting and better display signs.

The tour will be organized on practically the same basis as that of 1912, and will cover about 120 cities and towns in the west, occupying about 52 days. The train will leave Montreal on May 14, and after visiting half a dozen cities in Ontario, will exhibit in Winnipeg about May 21, proceeding westward, and returning to Montreal about July 5. The itinerary will embrace the principal points on the lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Canadian Northern Railway and the Grand Trunk Pacific west, Winnipeg.

The train will be electric lighted through, and the cars will be arranged with the aisles along the side, leaving the greatest possible width for the exhibit booths. Stops will vary from two hours to forty-eight hours, depending on the size of the town or city visited.

The route after visiting Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Sudbury, will be along the main line of the C.P.R. to Winnipeg, making stops at Port Arthur, Fort William, Dryden, Kenora and Kenawap. After leaving Winnipeg it will spend a day in Brandon and will then proceed along the Souris line, via Arcola to Regina, touching all the principal towns of the district. Leaving Regina it will touch Macleod and all the principal points from Macleod to Moose Jaw. After four weeks on the C.P.R. it will be turned over to the C.N.R., who will handle the train from Regina to Prince Albert, and from Warman to Edmonton, where they will transfer it to the G.T.P., who will operate it over their system from Tofield to Aird, and from Edmonton to Melville, and from Melville to Canora. At the latter point it will be turned over to the C.N.R. again. Making stops at Dauphin and intermediate points, the train will proceed to Winnipeg where the exhibits will be dismantled. This is a much more comprehensive tour than that of last year, and practically all the points covered, except the larger cities, will be new ones.

One of the features of this year's trip will be a moving picture show. In addition to the lantern views, which were shown last year, there will be two or three moving picture films of Canadian scenes, which are bound to prove of interest to those who visit the train. As last year, the lectures will be given in the open or in some suitable hall, at all evening stops, but in the day time it will be held in a special car which will be equipped for this purpose.

No exhibit will attract greater interest than that of Ontario produce and dairy products, splendidly arranged in one of the cars by the Agricultural Department of Ontario.

MEN AND COMPANY MAY AGREE TODAY

Teamsters' Strike Is Not Expected to Last Very Long.

The freight delivery business of Toronto is facing a tie-up by the strike yesterday morning of more than 400 teamsters of the principal express companies of the city. The men demand an increase of from $44 to $50 a month to a standard of $55 a month. The employers were willing to meet the demand of a monthly wage of $53, but the men refused to compromise, and the strike was the result.

The following companies are affected: The Dominion Transport Co., 180 men; Hendrie & Co., 100; Sheahan Express Co., 80; and the Canadian Northern Railway Co., 30.

One of the officers of the union informed The World last night that he believed the companies effected would not hold out long as the difference between what the men demand and what the companies have offered only amounts to $2 per man per month. He expected a settlement will be reached. If this is not done the striking teamsters will endeavor to induce the other freight carriers of the city to go out with them and thus cause a general tie-up in the delivery of freight.

BROCKVILLE FAIR RACES.

BROCKVILLE, April 16.—(Special.)—The race committee of the Brockville Fair has decided upon an attractive race program for the next exhibition in September, the card embracing nine events for three days, starting on Labor Day. The purses aggregate $3000. The stake events may be changed somewhat to work in the circuit with Ottawa exhibition. Correspondence to that end is now going on.

STEAMSHIP FREIGHT SEASON WAS OPENED

Lake Season Started Three Weeks Earlier Than Last Year.

The steamship freight season was officially opened yesterday. This is about three weeks earlier than was the case last year. The fifteen steamers of the Inland Line, the twenty steamers of the Merchants' Line and the six steamers of the Canadian Lake Line were all placed in service for the season. The steamers of these lines left Toronto and Montreal for the upper lakes and those at Port Arthur steamed east. Toronto opens the season this year with seven more freight steamers than sailed from Toronto last season.

R. A. Winters, of the Port McNicoll ward of trade, said to The World yesterday that every indication pointed to the opening of navigation on Saturday, April 19, in that it is expected that the steamer Assiniboia will leave on her first trip from Port McNicoll for Port William. This is two weeks earlier than last year and will mean more trips for the C. P. E. fleet. He said that the elevators are in first-class condition for what is expected to be a record season. At least a score of the boats now loaded at the upper lakes will discharge at the Port McNicoll elevators. Last year's grain has been pretty well cleaned out, there being not more than a half million bushels left, which, it is expected, will be moved shortly.

E. SPENCER T. & D. ACTING SECRETARY
Special Meeting to Be Held Monday to Fill Offices of President and Secretary.
An executive meeting of the T. & D. was held last evening at the Labor Temple. Mr. W. C. Borlase and Secretary Tom Robertson. Both of these gentlemen, who have been hard working officers and general boosters of the soccer game in Toronto, were obliged to withdraw from active service, owing to urgent business reasons. Mr. Borlase is leaving for the west very soon and, still the league would be sought and still have both of these officers remain in their positions, under the circumstances they regretted very much to do so.
It was decided to hold another meeting on Monday night at the S.O.E. hall and then this business will be thoroughly taken up. A new secretary will be appointed and Vice-President Guthrie will be elevated to the president's chair.
In the meantime Mr. E. Spencer, 1043 Dovercourt road, was chosen secretary, pro tem., and all referees appointed to Saturday's games are requested to mail the results to him.

FOREIGN DEMAND STIFFENS WHEAT

Baltimore Reports Exceptionally Heavy Export Business --- May Wheat Weakens.

CHICAGO, April 16.—Strength was imparted to wheat today by the export situation, net gains of 3-4c to 7-8c being recorded. Corn closed irregular, a shade lower to 1-33 up. Oats made a net advance of 1-8c to 3-3c. Provisions were irregular, 10c lower to 15c higher. It became known today that a great deal of business in hard winter wheat was done on yesterday's dip, the seaboard, chiefly Baltimore, taking upward of five hundred thousand bushels here. It was claimed in a message from Baltimore that export business there was the best in 16 years, but this was modified somewhat later by messages saying that some business was being done in resales. The market was down a little, but the deferred options were fairly firm. Bull leaders sold early, but bought on the dip. Covering by shorts gave strength to oats after some early weakness. Provisions, especially pork, had a weak undertone on increased western hog run. Pork finished the day at losses, but lard and ribs were some higher on packing-house buying.
