GOVERNMENT TO GIVE WAY ON EXCLUSION

According to Talk in Lobbies of Commons Time Limit is Gone—Greatest Difficulty for Cabinet is Deletion of Clauses for Referendum.

LONDON, Thursday, July 15.—Despite the feeling of optimism which is said to prevail as a result of Lord Beauchamp's declaration in favor of a conference on the lines of Lord Dunraven's amendment it is difficult, says The Daily News, writing of the situation up to last night, "to see how a settlement can be arrived at owing to the present temper of the parties."

The time limit is, by general consent, gone. The government will resist the deletion of the referendum, but it might concede the grouping of the six "plantation" counties as one area to be decided by one poll, thus abandoning the original county option.

AN ABSCONDING CLERK ARRESTED ON LINER

The Ontario Cabinet In the Melting Pot

Several cabinet meetings of the Ontario Government have been held lately, and it is stated that another is to be held today. Nothing has transpired of the occurrences at these important conclaves, but there has been a considerable amount of putting two and two together, not always with the normal result.

There is nothing, for instance, in the defeat of Hon. J. O. Reame to disturb the party equilibrium. His position in the cabinet was representative of the French-Canadian vote and influence. That vote and influence have intimidated to Sir James Whitney that there was no gratitude to be expressed through Dr. Reame, Sir James may feel at liberty to act as he pleases.

The health of Hon. J. J. Foy is somewhat precarious, and it would not be surprising if he wished to retire, as, indeed, he has desired to do, it has been stated, for some time past. This leaves the attorney-generalship open. With all due respect to Hon. James Duff, it is generally felt that, however estimable personally the present minister of agriculture is, the department should be strengthened by a head who would be an unquestionable and aggressive authority on all the important issues connected with the department.

The situation is, in fact, one of outstanding reorganization. Mr. Foy should vacate his post; the section of opinion he represents must be consulted in furnishing his successor in the cabinet whether as attorney-general or with another portfolio. Rumors mentioned Mr. George Lynch-Saintanton and Mr. McSarry. The man to follow Mr. Foy, falling any other, may be Mr. A. Claude Macdonell. He is in sympathy with the Ontario policies. He is popular in Toronto. He is a friend of the people. Whether he should go to the attorney-general's chair or to the department of public works is almost immaterial. He would be excellent in either office.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, While Professing To Set Rumors of New Issue at Rest, Intimates That Directors Will Take Action in Fall Under Authority Conferred by Parliament.

Until a very big man, one of the head-and-shoulders fellows in the world of finance can get Mr. Lucas out better stay where he is.

MONTREAL, July 15.—In order to set at rest rumors about any issue of new stock and other disquieting stories about Canadian Pacific Railway affairs, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy today issued the following statement: "After the payment of all fixed charges and dividends the company entered upon the new fiscal year, July 1, with $86,000,000 in cash and $14,000,000 in equipment securities after having spent upwards of $20,000,000 on railway and steamship construction, for which four per cent. consolidated debenture stocks have been authorized, but not offered on the market."

The end has nearly been reached with all the important works of construction and improvement that were contemplated at present, and therefore no necessity exists for the further issue of capital stock. "It is not unlikely, however, that the directors will, at the meeting in October, recommend to the shareholders that the authorized ordinary share capital be made to conform to the amount for which the company has legal warrant, so as to provide for the future capital requirements, as and when they arise."

VILLA IS KEENLY DISAPPOINTED THAT HUERTA ESCAPED CLUTCHES

C.P.R. TO INCREASE CAPITAL STOCK BY MEANS OF "LEGAL WARRANT" OFFICIAL STATEMENT HAS "JOKER"

The World reads with mingled feelings Sir Thomas Shaughnessy's announcement, herewith annexed, that there is to be no more issue of capital stock for the Canadian Pacific. Any money needed of late was raised by debenture stock, somewhat like a bond. He has confessed, in substance, the error of the enormous increases in the capital stock of that company under his presidency.

REBEL GARRISON IS WIPED OUT

COLUMBUS, New Mexico, July 15.—The annihilation today of the constitutionalist garrison at Palomas, Chihuahua, by federal regulars broke the peace of northern Mexico and revived reports of counter revolutions in the republic. Three hundred guerrillas under Gen. Roque Gomez attacked the little border town in view of troops of the United States army patrol. Every man of the village garrison was killed. It is reported.

NEW YORK STATE CONTROLS POWER

Compromise Measure is Agreed Upon at Washington After Long Delay.

DIVERSION OF WATER

Issuance of Permits Will Be in Hands of Federal Authorities.

Special to The Toronto World. WASHINGTON, July 15.—Permission from the federal government to the State of New York to control the waterpower situation on the American side of the Niagara River above Niagara Falls is provided for in the compromise measure which was ordered favorably reported from the house on foreign affairs today. The bill which will be placed on the house calendar, is composed of sections taken from the Cline bill and the bill by Representative Smith of Buffalo, N.Y., who has held up the war department's insistent desire to take entire charge of the waterpower situation at Niagara Falls. Representative Smith has supported the plea of Attorney-General Carmody of the State of New York that the situation at Niagara Falls does not justify the war department in taking the control of the hydro-electric power to be produced away from the state. Permits to Divert Water. As the bill will be brought up in the house the secretary of war will be empowered to grant permits for diversion of water from Niagara Falls to any state, or county or town or to any public service corporation. Permits granted to the state will allow the state to pass on the permits to the hydro-electric power producing concerns under restrictions guided by the war department, then the secretary of war can step in and take charge. Limitation Remains. The bill makes no change in the existing limitation of 16,600 cubic feet of water per second to be diverted from the American side of the water wheel over the falls. In order to prevent power companies from locating on the Canadian side and shooting millions of volts of power into New York State plants, thus using water which will greatly lessen the amount going over the falls, but which would not be under the control

GRENVILLE MEMBER HANGS ON TO SEAT

G. Howard Ferguson, Conservative-elect for Grenville, positively denied that he would resign his seat in favor of Dr. Reaume, minister of public works, who was defeated. "I have no intention of doing such a thing," said Mr. Ferguson. "It would be absurd for a member of the eastern part of the province to give up his seat to a man from the western part. Besides I had a hard enough time getting in without opening up the riding again to a stranger."

Is the Modern Woman on a Marriage Strike?

By Winifred Black

Winifred Black

MRS. RHETA CHILDE DORR says that women are going on a marriage strike—unless immorality among men is eradicated. There's nothing wrong with that statement, Mrs. Dorr—except this: Women are not going on a marriage strike unless the men behave—they've gone.

Twenty years ago every girl who graduated from high school or from the convent wanted to be married, or at least engaged to be married, before she'd been out of school a year. Forty years ago every unmarried woman over 20 had to be prepared to give an account of herself to any one who cared to ask. She was a freak—and she knew it—and nobody tried to keep her from knowing it in the least.

Today the intelligent girl who marries before she is 22 is the—"freak."

I spent the Christmas vacation with a lot of young people home from various schools for a good time.

Some of them were clever and some of them were stupid, some of them were sensible and some were silly. They all liked to have what they called "a good time," but every one of them was scared blue at the idea of falling seriously in love. We talked about it one day, some of the girls and I.

"Love," said one of the girls—and she was the prettiest one of the lot, too—"no, thank you, not for me. I saw my aunt die by inches because she loved my uncle—and my uncle treated her as seven out of ten men seem to treat their wives.

"He gave her a fine home and a limousine and plenty of good clothes—and we all knew all the time about The Other Woman.

"We couldn't help it. I'd rather die than care enough for any man on earth to let him treat me like that."

Faith and Public Opinion.

"No love for mine," said a Smith College girl. "A home some day, yes—an establishment, a place of my own in the world—a husband—and children. I shan't marry a man unless I respect him, but I do hope I shall never be fool enough to fall so dead in love with a man that I couldn't live without him, even if he did act like a cruel fool."

"Marriage," said the boarding school girl, "I suppose so. Nobody seems to be able to get out of it—for long. Mother says it's a necessary evil. And so the talk went, and they meant it—every word of it, these little, soft-eyed, round-cheeked, slender things not long out of their mothers' arms. That's what comes, ladies and gentlemen, of allowing women to learn to read and write.

The modern woman is not going to live with the man who is unfaithful to her—and let's her know it. Public opinion will not let her do it.

It used to take pride to make a woman stay with a man, even when she knew that he was dead in love with some one else—and didn't care whether she knew it or not. Now it is her pride that makes her leave him.

I do not, for myself, agree with this point of view. To me love is just one of the things in marriage—the most important thing, to be sure—but only one thing after all.

There is the home; there are the children; there is the whole structure of the family. I do not see that it is right to tear all these things down just to try to be "free" and "happy" yourself.

Happiness is not the only word in the dictionary of life. Way up in the first volume there's a little word called Duty that seems to me to read a good deal—after all.

Women are too much like men—these days—and I confess I do not quite see where, in the new scheme of things, the children are going to come out. Or the family—or the home.

Gone Because Unappreciated.

It is not important that Mrs. Mary Smith is a happy woman. It is important that she is a good woman, and that she keeps the flame burning on the hearth at home. But the modern woman will not keep that flame burning—alone.

I believe that the woman who would was the higher and the nobler type of woman. But, gentlemen, you didn't appreciate her—and she's going so fast that in another generation she'll be a tradition—and a tradition alone—like the ox team that grandpa drove grandpa home in, after the wedding out in Wisconsin 50 years ago.

The new girl isn't half so sweet and, perhaps, half so good and noble as her old-fashioned mother—but she is the girl of the period. And if you live in this period you've got to live with her—or without her completely.

Between you and me, I'm afraid we women have the best of the bargain. A woman can live without a man a great deal easier than a man can live without a woman.

A woman can make a home out of a hall bedroom and an oil heater—and a man can't even make a home out of the finest club that was ever founded—and in the human heart there is planted deep a love and a longing for home that nothing on earth will ever supplant.

If you want a home, Mr. Man, you will have to have a wife. And if you want to keep a wife these days you'll have to behave yourself.

Mrs. Rheta Childre Dorr says so—and the only thing wrong about her statement is that she should have made it in the present tense—instead of the future.

It is a condition, gentlemen—and not a theory—that confronts us. Dear me, how serious it does begin to look—to some people!

Advice to Girls

By ANNIE LAURIE

Dear Annie Laurie:

I have a friend who lives in a village not far from a great city. She has few gentlemen friends, but is very fond of society, and she likes to go to all of the entertainments, but is especially fond of the theatre.

Now, there is a young gentleman with whom she is acquainted who has an automobile, but who is very bashful.

She believes that he would take her automobiling or would go with her to the city to attend the theatre if she would ask him. She hesitates, however, to ask him, because she thinks such a course would be improper. She has asked me for advice, and I am at a loss what to say.

Will you kindly tell me whether or not my friend ought to take the initiative and ask the gentleman?

QUESTIONS.

No, Query, she ought not to take the initiative and ask the gentleman. Run as fast as you can when you see him coming, you foolish, foolish girl you, because I don't believe you wrote that letter for a friend, Query. I believe you wrote it for yourself. And it's about time you had some advice of some sort.

Why do you think the man wants to take you automobiling when he's never asked you? Is he deaf and dumb, or only tongue-tied? Can't he even speak the sign language, and, stay, why not a letter?

Now listen, little girl, and listen hard; you need to hear what I'm going to say. If that man wants to take you automobiling, or to the theatre, or to a tango party, or to a prayer meeting, he'll ask you, all right. You won't have to tell him how. Let him alone, poor wretch, let him alone.

Don't make his life such a burden to him that he's afraid to drive his own automobile down the street for fear some goose of a girl is going to throw herself in the path and get killed just to make him pay some attention to her.

Why do you think he is bashful? He isn't bashful, he's just bored—and, besides, he's afraid of you. I should think he would be.

If you want to go to the theatre why don't you buy some matinee tickets and go? Don't throw away your own self-respect just for an automobile ride and a theatre ticket.

It wouldn't pay, dear, it wouldn't pay—never, never does.

Why do you think the man wants to take you automobiling when he's never asked you? Is he deaf and dumb, or only tongue-tied? Can't he even speak the sign language, and, stay, why not a letter?

NOVELTY IS BEAUTY'S GOAL

Clothes That Startle by Their Originality. Yet Please the Critical Eye, Are Fine Art

"HERE is a philosophy of clothes, I have been told," smiled Ethel Aromita Kelly from the easy chair in her cosy room, "but I know nothing about that.

"All I know is this one thing: a girl who wants to look pretty enough to be remembered must study, not the prevailing fashion, save as a guide, but her own little self. Mere prettiness in an ordinary dress is soon forgotten, but in a gown that is startlingly original, yet pleasing to the eye, it will long be remembered.

"I always make my own clothes—yes, economy is a big factor—but a greater factor is the opportunity it gives me to make the most of what pleasing lines I possess. I follow the fashion up to a certain point, but there I turn aside and twist it to some original novelty. In the costume I wear in 'The Passing Show' I think I achieved a stage novelty.

"After all, the great thing is novelty, isn't it? It is the everlasting goal of life and art—and clothes."

Slimness by the Bran Muffin Diet

By LUCREZIA BORI

Prima Donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York.

Special arrangements have been made with Senorita Lucrezia Bori, the famous prima donna soprano, who has created a wonderful impression in Europe and New York on account of her remarkable beauty and artistic attainment, to write for this paper a series of articles on beauty. There is probably no authority her equal in giving the newest and most approved methods of attaining and preserving "the divine right of woman."

THIRTY-TWO pounds in six months!" exclaimed a friend whom I met recently and gazed at in astonishment, for there didn't seem to be half as much of her as when I saw her last. "Thirty-two pounds of useless fat, disgusting, annoying, embarrassing fat!" she continued to wail.

And the difference to me! Any woman with a will can lose her excess weight. But it takes time, patience and perseverance. She gave me the "cure" which had worked such wonders for her, for one of the remarkable things about her reduction is that she looks younger, fresher, less wrinkled than when she was so plump.

It seems to me that, in telling what her cure requires of the patient, she omitted to mention her own, and I contend that any woman who eats a breakfast of beefsteak, or roast beef, or mutton, without a bit of butter, and makes luncheon of one unuttered bran muffin and a glass of skimmed milk every day for six months, is little less than a heroine and a martyr.

Breakfast and luncheon, bran muffin and skimmed milk. Dinner, a bit of beefsteak, or roast beef, or mutton, a single lamb chop, tomatoes raw, stewed, baked, every way but fried; spinach, cooked in little or no water with salt for the only seasoning; lettuce, in fact nearly all green vegetables; oranges, grapefruit, all sour fruits; no tea, or coffee, or cocoa, or alcoholic stimulants of any kind; no sweets, no pastries, no loaves. And not so much food at any given time that you feel the least bit of stiffness.

Every day a good brisk walk of from three to five miles. Always actively. Never any naps. Only seven hours' sleep. Three sweats each week, and a warm bath each night. A cool sponge each morning and a dozen or two of leeches to be taken twice a day, the leeches to be taken lying flat on the back, and raising the feet in the air with the knees rigid as many times as you can without over-exertion.

Besides some few minor exercises, this is all of the system. But I believe that if you adhere strictly to it, with no lapses for six long months, you will accomplish whatever in the way of fat removal you set out to do. If you want to look a whole lot younger and more to look a whole lot better and brighter in season, the whole of the train, and more contented with life, it will pay for all the hardships of the training season.

The sweats are taken by hopping into a bath in a hot bathroom, with two pounds of Epsom salts in the bath water. Stay until you feel that you have opened the pores, and then wrap yourself, without drying, in a wool bathrobe and jump into bed, pile on a lot of clothes and stay there until you feel as if you were in a sea. Under the clothes rub your body during the sweating process. Begin the cooling off with great care, for there is danger of taking cold.

My friend's husband declares the plan followed is the same used when cooling a race horse after the race. The patient is rubbed down with a prep- aration of alcohol, salt and camphor.

This rub-down compound is made with a pint of alcohol in which is dissolved an ounce of camphor gum and two tablespoonfuls of salt, then add a pint of water.

The entire secret of flesh reduction," said my friend, "lies in taking out all the starches and sweets of the diet, and burning up the excess adipose tissue with absolute pleasure to your physical life. Fat is simply a disease, and is becoming recognized as such by medical men. It may lead to all manner of serious physical ills. But I am an example of what may be done in the way of reduction. I can say with a clear conscience woman can weigh whatever she wills."

Marriage and Relatives.

"HE man who takes up his residence near his mother-in-law is a fool. I'm learning that more and more every day. If Mary is excited and pleased about anything she runs across the street to tell her mother; if she's at all dis- tressed, in fact nearly all her dis- tress, she tells the same. Some day, when I have more time than optimism, I'm going to write a stirring jeremiad on the evils of dwell- ing near your kin.

The young husband and wife need considerable time for soul adjustment, unless they're soul mates, and my wife and I are not. And the proximity of my relative with an aptitude to give advice complicates things considerably.

At the risk of being dubbed a heartless, cold-blooded ironclad I maintain that there should be a residence limit of three blocks away for any relative—mother, sister, aunt or cousin.

And the reasons? Very simple, indeed! Adjoining houses of kin know too much about each other's business. You haven't nearly your own troubles to think about. The women visit back and forth too much. Many a night when I come home—and I'm the old-fashioned type that inclines toward the light in the window and that sort of thing—my house is dark and Mary is across the street with her mother. Similarly Mr. Fenfield con- siders to me that he frequently comes home to a dark house, and finds Mrs. Fenfield over with Mary. Doubtless, every reader is bristling and declaring that such beautiful affection between mothers and daughters ought to be encouraged. Granted! It ought not inter- fere, however, with the machinery of either house.

You can see too much of your relatives and your in-laws. I'm learning that bitter fact, too. And when you get so much of each other and know every thing about each other's business, it leaves nothing very stirring to talk about. If you're three blocks away, or better still, three miles, you look forward with absolute pleasure to your visits, and have a lot to talk about. You get the troubles in a lump and you worry about them in a lump. You don't hear some trifling mishap every day, as I find I do.

Mornings it's something like this: "Peter, isn't it a pity, mother's down with one of her headaches, and it's the maid's day out. Were you coming home for lunch?"

"I did think of it," I venture. "Well, you'd better not, for I'll have to run over there and do some of her work for her, and you'd better get your lunch down soon."

And I depart with the pleasant recollection that Mary has not only her own household tasks to attend, but her mother's as well; that the day will be none too pleasant for her, for Mrs. Fenfield is a altogether unbearable.

Or another time: "Mother's been crying most all day. An old school friend of hers died, and she's so blue that it makes me feel hor- rible." And my wife then sinks into melan- choly glumness for the rest of my dinner.

That's the sort of thing I mean. Mary knows every trivial misstep of her mother's home things, that, if she were further away, she'd likely not hear or worry about. And the constant com- panionship with her mother is fostering that sense of dependence which I have so frequently deplored. Mrs. Fenfield will not admit that Mary is a woman grown and capable of thinking for her- self. Therefore she constantly bribes with maternal advice, and Mary turns more and more to her for guidance.

Heaven help the man who begins mar- ried life too near any relative!

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Why Emotion, Not Reason, Rules the People's Will

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSBERG

A. B. M. A. M. D. (Johns Hopkins).

NOT one lawyer, physician, clergyman, financier, or for that matter, any man or woman, bases his or her actions, reasonable though these be, upon any logical thought.

The object of the Bonapartes of the law, the pulpits, or of any one who tries to influence others, is not to put facts and philosophy without flaws before the world, but to touch some common chord with which to elicit attention, sympathy, interest and power.

In fine, when the public are greeted by any so-called leader, writer, or other influential person, the supremacy of the latter depends more upon the agreement of the auditors' minds with the protagonist's words than on the mass of facts presented.

To most persons, in reality, the question with refer- ence to a statement is not, "Is it the whole truth and nothing but the truth?" but, rather, Does it please, and coincide with their sentiments, feel- ings and previous impressions.

A man with locomotor ataxia, who had been unable to walk for some years, was caught in his rolling chair in an elevator. He leaped out in great fright and has been walking ever since.

The will thus brought into action by shocks and surprises had lain dormant for years.

The causes of intellectual ac- tion, according to Dr. Ralph H. Vincent, eminent as a psychologist, are purely emotional. Facts are not inciters of emotion, but rather the result of the emotional process.

Mental life is an elaborate balance between ideas, reflections, sentiments and facts. No single act is strictly the result of facts, emotions or ideas. Any impression made upon your feel- ings leads the intellect to influence your actions. The things done, or thought, are the consequences more of the emotions aroused than of the facts presented.

Hypnotism, salesmanship, advertising, spell-binding, puppet-pounding, the heal- ing art and all sorts of conditions of suggestion depend for strength and efficiency less upon the number of the facts presented than upon the suscepti- ble emotions excited.

Fatigue, sleep, even the infectiousness of indolence, a slight "cold," in- juries, friendships, confidences, mutual interests all suspend in a fashion the powers of motion, of sense and of tissue and thought resistance.

The state of reverie by day and the dreaming attitude at night find their counterparts in the hypnotic state, sleep walking and somnambulism are degrees of both conditions.

Unconscious Will Power. The sleep walker clearly sees his way as he passes by, but he does not under- stand words or persons. He is aware only to perform one isolated act.

Dr. Carpenter explains how, if words are used in reference to the subject in hand, they do understand.

A young lady at school frequently talked in her sleep. If encouraged by questions connected with the talk she soon disclosed all her own peccadilloes. She was, however, insensible to all other sounds.

In the active, motor, waking state nothing is remembered of either the somnambulant or the real hypnotic state during waking hours.

Under the stress of fear extraordinary feats have been performed by many unexpected persons. Men chased by dogs have leaped high fences, cleared hurdles and achieved unheard of rec- ords.

Dr. Hirschberg will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and sanitation subjects that are of general interest. He will not under- take to prescribe or offer advice for in- dividual cases. Where the subject is not of general interest, letters will be an- swered personally, if a stamped and ad- dressed envelope is enclosed. Address all inquiries to Dr. L. K. Hirschberg, care this office.

It is wise always to keep a bottle of this solution. If the stained article cannot be washed, then alcohol must be used. Flowers weather quickly in the heat, but a small piece of camphor in the water will keep them fresh much longer.

Cakes get very dry in warm weather, but if placed in a tin box with an apple they will keep moist. Renew the apple when withered. The cake will not "stale."

Rain spots on cloth need not be re- garded hopelessly. Wipe off the way of the nap with a silk handkerchief or very soft brush. If this be done quick- ly, no marks will remain.

Soup quickly goes sour in the warm days, but it will keep sweet if a pinch of carbonate of soda is added to every quart.

Sunburn is not uncommon, but it can be removed by washing the face in warm water in which a lemon has been squeezed and a pinch of borax added.

Fruit stains are very "summerish." To remove them from white material, boil milk and hold the stained part in it for a minute. On linen apply pow- dered starch at once, and leave for a few hours.

Hot and stuffy rooms can be made cool and fresh by suspending a sheet wrung out in cold water over the open doorway. If a visitor comes it can be removed in two seconds, and your friend will surely remark how deliciously cool your room is.

Three Minute Journeys

Where Fish Are Caught by Hand

By TEMPLE MANNING

LATE in the dry season, when the rivers are low in the heart of Africa, the Gwari, who inhabit the central Soudan, set out on prolonged fishing expeditions. I found the natives who live on the banks of the rivers pro- ficient fishermen, taking great pride in their work, but the villages Gwari are not very sporting in their methods. They go for the final result rather than for the pleasure of the sport.

They pour the juice of locust tree pods into the pools, to which the streams have shrunk, and this causes the fish to leap out of the water. Wildly they leap, flopping out on the dry river bottom as often as not, but the excited natives do not wait for the fish to catch them- selves. They lean over the shallow water, finding great delight in snatching the leaping fish as they flash from the river.

I have seen a small party of half-naked Gwari work their way from pool to pool down the river and stop at noon with an afternoon's work ahead of them as they catch back to the fishing camp. Sometimes they will bet their most treasured possessions on the number of fish each man will catch with his hands during the expedition. "This custom of using the 'jump juice'"

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 16.

CHRISTIANITY AND BUSINESS.

"I commit my soul into the hands of my Saviour in full confidence that, having redeemed it and washed it in His most precious blood, He will present it faultless before the throne of His Heavenly Father, and I entrust my children to maintain and defend at all hazard and at any cost of personal sacrifice, the blessed doctrine of the complete atonement for sin thru the blood of Jesus Christ once offered and thru that alone."

These striking words are taken from the preamble to the last will and testament of the late John Pierpont Morgan, who died in March, 1913, leaving great possessions. His sixty millions of dollars ranked him among the wealthiest in a land of millions.

As a banker and financier of the most modern type, he outstripped all his contemporaries and reigned supreme in that Wall street which has been the bane of the United States.

Mr. Morgan, without doubt, was sincere in that expression of his faith and obeyed its requirements in his personal walk and conversation. Yet for years before he placed it in the forefront of his will he had been the dominant figure in the conduct of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railway, whose practical bankruptcy has just formed the subject of investigation by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

What the commissioners discovered is contained in the terrible report they recently sent to the senate. In scathing terms it discloses the long series of transactions which in ten years raised the total capitalization of the New Haven Railway from $83,000,000 to $117,000,000, exclusive of stock premiums, and left it staggering and stumbling under burdens too heavy for it to bear.

The policy pursued by the Morgan-Rockefeller-Mellon triumvirate had for its object the establishment of a monopoly of transportation in the New England States. It was carried out by a board of directors, who were nothing more nor less than office boys, with absolute disregard of the law and of the higher obligations of right and fair dealing. The commissioners say roundly that their enquiry reveals one of the most glaring instances of maladministration in all the history of American railroadings. They can hardly find language strong enough or condemnatory enough to characterize what they describe as "reckless and profligate financing," "grave dereliction of duty" and "breach of trust."

For this, they insist, directors should be individually liable to civil and criminal law.

These transactions, so severely denounced, took place at the instigation and instance—indeed on the express orders—of the late John Pierpont Morgan, whose confession of faith has been quoted. During his life Mr. Morgan was a lavish benefactor of the church. To the great Cathedral of St. John in New York he presented a costly memorial. He it was who arranged the most spectacular visit ever paid by an Archbishop of Canterbury, when the present holder of that exalted office toured the United States and the Dominion. To the Cathedral of Acolli in Italy he restored its stolen cope, and in the public garden of that town stands a marble bust of its benefactor. All these and many more happened during the years when the "crimes of New Haven" were being perpetrated. Indeed it might well appear as if the ancient faith preamble, universal for centuries, had been revived by Mr. Morgan in anticipation of the exposure that could not but follow from an investigation which he must have been conscious in January, 1913, could not be avoided or long delayed.

Sharp indeed is the contrast between the personal life of this modern master of finance and the character of his business methods. A professed believer in the divinity and doctrine of the founder of the Christian faith he apparently recognized no discrepancy or inconsistency between his profession and his practice. Acts were committed with his knowledge and at his direction which have brought sorrow and loss to hundreds and thousands of his fellow Christians, but had caused him no compunction, nor did

DECIDES TO RETIRE FROM PARLIAMENT

E. A. Lancaster Will Not Be Candidate for Next House.

Canadian Press Despatch. ST. CATHARINES, July 15.—E. A. Lancaster, M.P. for Lincoln for the past 14 years, author of the celebrated marriage bill and chairman of the railway committee of the commons, who recently returned from a rest trip to a Nova Scotia sea resort, will not again offer himself for re-election, and his chief reason given is that the seasonal indemnity of the Dominion commons is not sufficiently high.

Lancaster was presented with an illuminated address by the executive of the Ontario Conservative Association expressive of the appreciation of his services to his constituency and the whole Dominion, trusting that he would soon be restored to health, which wishes were heartily reciprocated by a substantial purse of gold, the amount extending to four figures. It was in reply to this felicitous compliment that Mr. Lancaster made the announcement of his decision and asked that a convention be called to name a successor. He will sit out his present term in the house.

Calgary Herald (Con.): The compelling issue of the campaign which was decided yesterday was education and the government's treatment of the schools. Almost the solid Orange vote of the province was against government candidates, and that meant much.

COL DENISON IS ORDERED FROM MONTREAL COURT

Canadian Press Despatch. MONTREAL, July 15.—Col. G. T. Denison, police magistrate of Toronto, was ordered out of the police court here today. The colonel, who is visiting Montreal, thought he would like to see how justice was administered by the police court judges here. He had been invited to visit by one of the judges here.

NEW BRUNSWICK'S TURN NEXT.

St. John's Telegraph (Lib.): While the Whitney government was sustained in Ontario, it is conceded that Mr. Rowell has injected new life and vigor into the government of this province. The result in the election, that despite the majority liberalism was rising in that province, was cheered at by the Conservative press. There will be no jeering at the Liberals in Manitoba.

NATIONAL SCHOOLS NOW SAFE.

Winnipeg Free Press (Lib.): National schools have been preserved to Manitoba by the Liberal inroads upon the Roblin government's position. The Roblin government had increased its majority in the house, and had even maintained its lead of 15 seats.

SIR ROBLIN'S PAPER SAYS IT WAS HOCKEN.

Manitoba's Verdict. Whatever the majority, there can be little doubt that the government has had a severe blow. It is evident that there has been a popular turnover which the Conservatives did not anticipate. What does it mean? The government's record on the temperance question has not been satisfactory to the temperance men of both parties. And the government's attitude upon the school question no doubt cost it not a few Orange votes.

These two things have probably been the chief reasons for the reduction of the government's majority. One unique feature of the campaign was Mrs. McClung's entry into the political arena in opposition to the government. —Christian Guardian.

MANITOBA'S VERDICT.

There is but one explanation of the result—it does not do to trifle with the "little red schoolhouse" in the province of Manitoba. That same "schoolhouse" drove the Dominion Conservative party out of power in the government yesterday. For it was the Orange vote which nearly brought disaster to Premier Roblin, coupled with the "machine" which has been resented by a large number of people, and especially the Orangemen of Manitoba—of whom there are a large number.

The result in Manitoba, following close upon that in Ontario, will undoubtedly be a warning to the politicians not to "monkey" with the "little red schoolhouse." And it is a warning which may well be taken home by other governments in Western Canada.—Calgary News Telegram.

ROBLIN BROUGHT IT ON HIMSELF.

Halifax Herald (Con.): Thousands of Conservatives joined with the Liberal opposition to administer some sharp discipline to Premier Roblin and his colleagues, because they considered he had brought it on himself.

Roblin has been in office fourteen years, and that period may have been quite enough for the government of this province. His record of usefulness and when the public inquired into the details of his administration, with new ideas and new ideals, with more regard for the popular will, with less entanglement with corrupting influences, and with less of that official arrogance which "long holding of office" usually engenders.

NORTH YORK PICNIC AS BIG AS EVER
Enormous Crowd Poured Into Jackson's Point by Car and Train.
STIRRING ADDRESSES
Victorious Candidates Discussed Issues of Recent Election.

It is estimated that over twenty thousand people were present at the annual picnic of the North York Liberal-Conservative Association, held yesterday at Jackson's Point. Special trains were run by the G. T. R. and the York Radial to carry the thousands of holiday-makers to their destination, besides an enormous number of private automobiles. The North York Liberal-Conservative Association, held yesterday at Jackson's Point. Special trains were run by the G. T. R. and the York Radial to carry the thousands of holiday-makers to their destination, besides an enormous number of private automobiles. The Point was gaily decorated for the occasion with flags and bunting, and the first thing that met the eye at the railway station was a huge laural arch bearing the words: "I'm glad you're our hero." North York is satisfied with our hero," "North York is satisfied with our hero," and "We welcome you home, Sir James," to the greatest picnic in the world."

Gay Procession.
A great procession was held in the early part of the day from Sutton to the grounds, and hundreds of automobiles and rigs took part, headed by bands from Aurora, Mount Albert, Richmond Hill, Malvern, Markham, Beaverton, Steelesville and Uxbridge.
At 3 o'clock a great open air meeting was held on a specially decorated platform, decorated with bunting and welcome phrases, and a crowd of about eight thousand were treated to the most interesting speeches by the members of the legislature present.

Mr. H. H. Henson, M.L.A., welcomed the visitors to the great annual event of the North York Conservatives, and thanked the organizers of this grand occasion for their support from Mr. Rowell in the last four years, and he would ask him to state his position when the house met.

To Be Transformed.
G. S. Henry made the announcement that the rural life of Ontario was going to be transformed by the Hydro-Electricity Act, and at the present time the minister of power was paying considerable attention to the proposition of constructing radial lines through the province. Addresses were also given by J. Carson, M.L.A., Hon. J. B. Ferguson, M.L.A., and E. J. McLaughlin, M.P.

An interesting feature of the day's proceedings was a prize baby competition, when over thirty infants were held up in the arms of proud mothers for the judges' decision, but before the award was made the large audience was treated to a contest for lung strength and endurance, in which honors were about equal, and from which their mothers may conclude that they need have no fear of the future health of the babes.

Aurora Baby Won.
The judges were Mrs. A. Alexander, Aurora, and Miss F. Marks, New York, and they had much difficulty in selecting the winner on account of the very fine specimens presented, but finally the winner proved to be a baby from Aurora, who took the highest marks for build and good looks. Edward Ryland, Zephyr, was second, and Herbert, Clara, Uxbridge, third. A splendid sports program was arranged and carried out in the afternoon, including football, baseball and lacrosse matches, girls' and boys' races, married women's races and fat men's races, but the most exciting event was the mile farmers' race for a new plow. After the race the winner, in a very close contest, proved the winner, with H. Jones second.

Two Members Arrested.
Early in the afternoon two young men were apprehended by the county police and charged with collecting money under false pretence. It appears that they made known they were asking subscription for a farmers' journal and with every subscription received they gave a four-page paper. They had made many victims and had gone throughout the day, but when

TAMWORTH GIRL DISAPPEARS NO CLUES TO WHERE REABOUTS FOUND

Miss Blanche York Has Been Missing a Week, and Nobody Has Been Able to Account for Her Absence—Some People Fear Foul Play.

Special to The Toronto World.
KINGSTON, July 15.—Where is Miss Blanche York? This is the question on everybody's lips in the little Village of Tamworth, and her disappearance has caused the biggest sensation that the neighborhood has had in many years. Miss York has been missing for a week, suddenly disappearing as if by magic, and in spite of every effort which has been made to find her, nothing has been heard which would give the slightest clue as to her whereabouts. Her parents are prostrated with grief, for they cannot give any reason for her going away, and friends of the family are searching all over the district to solve the mystery. Miss York, a prominent farmer living two miles from Tamworth.
Missing a Week.
She was employed as a seamstress and for some time had been engaged at the home of Mrs. T. Walsh in the village of Tamworth. She finished her work a week ago tonight (Wednesday), and about 9 o'clock in the evening she started for her home. She never reached it however, but as her parents did not know that she had started for home, and were of the opinion that she was still with Mrs. Walsh, no enquiries were made until the following Saturday. On Saturday evening they expected her home over the week-end, and when asking about her, they were shocked to find that she had left for home three days previously. Immediately word was sent to the police and a thorough search was made, with no success.

OLD CHUM RESCUES SUBMERGED FRIEND

Saved Him From Poverty and Cold Charity of Police Court.

When they were boys they played together; they were chums. Then the ocean of life and the storm of the years buffeted them sorely, and they were old men now. But still they are chums, and so was hurried before the magistrate yesterday charged with being a vagabond, and a white-haired old man, who, and timorously asked if he "could take him home," "Are you his brother?" asked the magistrate.
"My chum," stated the old man, calmly, with pride on the last word. "So they let old Fred Haywood go away to the home of his more fortunate friend."
Quite different was the next case. Both got two years. Louis Parsons and his companion were sentenced to a like term at Kingston by magistrate Kingsford. Parsons was convicted on two charges of the offence of shopbreaking and one of drunkenness. Muller was implicated in one of the theft charges and the shopbreaking. Both got five convictions registered against them.

GREAT CORNETTIST SCORED TRIUMPH

Herbert L. Clarke Honored by T. M. P. A. at Massed Band Concert.

Twenty thousand of Toronto's people gathered at Exhibition Park last night for two purposes—to hear the massed band demonstration and to honor Herbert L. Clarke, whose musical career began here and who since has become the foremost cornet soloist of the world. He had friends and admirers in thousands.
To each of his three solos Mr. Clarke was required to give encores. "Scherzo—Showers of Gold," "Romantic—The Southern Cross," both composed by Mr. Clarke, and Suppe's "Light Cavalry" were his three numbers. His interpretation of all was clear, sweet and flawless in style.
The bands taking part were Queen's Own, Royal Grenadiers, Highlanders, City Band, 12th York Rangers, Canadian Engineers, Body Guards and Army Service Corps.
Midway thru the program F. A. Reid, president of the T. M. P. A., presented Mr. Clarke with a locket. Speaking of the occasion at his conclusion, Reid said: "Mr. Clarke is a deeply pleased. Always I have been proud to call Toronto my home. I am prouder than ever to do so now."

CARBALJAL PRES. OF MEXICO
HUERTA'S CAREER.

Victoriano Huerta took oath as provisional president of Mexico Feb. 19, 1913, the day after Francisco Madero had been arrested at the national palace.
Three days later Madero and Jose Maria Pino Suarez, vice-president, were shot to death on their way to the penitentiary. The manner of their death has never been satisfactorily explained.
One of Huerta's first acts as president was to telegraph William H. Taft, then president of the United States, the following message:
"I have the honor to inform you that I have overthrown this government. The forces are with me, and from now peace and prosperity will reign."
Civil War at Outset.
The republic was at once plunged into civil war again, notwithstanding the assurance by Huerta of a proclamation of general amnesty. The Sonora State Congress officially repudiated the provisional government. Zapata, revolutionary leader to the south of the capital, after negotiating a few days with the regime, went back to his guerrilla campaign. Salazar, one of the highest generals in the army, denounced Huerta. Carranza, constitutionalist leader in Chihuahua, assailed him. Francisco Villa announced himself an adherent of Madero. Pascual Orozco, of the clan of northern revolutionaries, was the lone notable figure among the disaffected who declared for the government.
Recognition Refused.
Hampden Carter, of the office of his administration by the refusal of the fund he would appoint a man to St. John, N.B. He accordingly asked witness to do this, to which the latter consented. The funds were to be used for the "good of the province in the province."

Tangled Finances.
E. R. Teed was continued on the stand during the afternoon session. He told of several transactions in connection with the money collected. He had placed the money in a safety deposit box at the Bank of St. John, but after the charges were made by Mr. Dugal he had placed the cash in the form of a special deposit in the Bank of Nova Scotia. Before this he had loaned the Flemming-Gibson Co. Limited, the sum of $15,000 out of the fund on the note of the company. This had all been paid back, with interest. He also told of buying some Maine and New Brunswick Electric Co. stock from Mr. Flemming and placing the earnings on stock in an account with the Bank of Nova Scotia, and from this fund money had been paid out for party purposes. The original sum collected was still intact.
Before the session adjourned Mr. Carvell asked witness what party the fund was for, and the witness replied that it was for the local government party.

THAW TO GET INCOME FROM FATHER'S ESTATE

Canada Press Despatch.
PITTSBURG, July 15.—After six months of legal battle, Harry K. Thaw, in a decision handed down by Judge James W. Over in orphans' court today, is awarded the income from his father's estate which has been denied him by the trustees since he was adjudged insane for the slaying of Stanford White. By the decision Thaw gets $160,773. Judge Over says Thaw is legally entitled to the money, despite the fact, that alienists declare Thaw is suffering from an exaggerated sense of self, which would make it unwise to commit any large sums of money into his personal hands.

United States to recognize him Huerta soon faced growing difficulties in raising funds to run his government. On May 1 Huerta announced that he would urge congress to call elections in October to pick his successor. The congress elected October 26 as the date of the election, and a decree to that effect was issued by Huerta on June 2.
Feliz Diaz, who had announced himself as a candidate for the presidency, was sent to Japan on July 17.
Henry Lane Wilson, the American ambassador, was recalled to Washington and Nelson O'Shaughnessy, charge d'affaires, was left in charge of U. S. interests in Mexico.
Peaceful intervention by U. S. Early in August it became known that President Wilson intended to send John Lind, former governor of Minnesota, to Mexico as his personal representative in an endeavor to arrange a basis for the republic's peace. Huerta announced that he would not tolerate foreign interference.
Nevertheless, Mr. Lind delivered his note from President Wilson. Huerta rejected the proposal for the American Government, chief of which were the suggestions that he resign and that he not be a candidate on election day. Relations between Mexico and the United States became acute.
Ruled as Despot.
Huerta was attacked by the Mexican senate on Oct. 5 by Senator Dominguez, who had the hardihood to speak what was in the minds of himself and some of his colleagues. Dominguez disappeared. The chamber of deputies adopted a resolution calling for an investigation.
In the election campaign certain influences close to the dictator worked for his return to the presidency, with Gen. Blanguet as his runner-up. When it became certain that the elections had resulted in no constitutional choice on account of the failure of the voters to give an outright vote to himself, the legislative authority, calling for the election of new members on Oct. 5, the constitution was amended to allow the incumbent to continue in office until the next election.

DEFIED UNITED STATES.
On Nov. 12 Huerta refused to accede to the American demand for his resignation and John Lind left Mexico City for Vera Cruz.
Meantime the United States despatched warships to the Mexican coast and Americans continued to leave Mexico.
Definite proposals were made by the United States to Carranza and his adherents. Several of the European powers, notably Great Britain, Germany and France gave prompt support to the policy of the United States. The constitutionalists waxed stronger and continued their advance to the south.
International Complications.
The situation became so critical that Great Britain, Germany, France, Spain and Japan ordered warships to Mexican waters.
Fighting continued at Tampico and many other centres and Torreon was taken by the constitutionalists.
An embargo placed on the export of arms from the United States in February of the present year.
Then came the departure of John Lind from Vera Cruz and the arrest of a party of American blue jackets at Tampico, for which an apology and salute were demanded by the United States, and refused by Huerta.
On April 12, blue jackets and marines were landed and occupied Vera Cruz, in consequence of the reported arrival of a large quantity of arms and ammunition for Huerta.
Shortly after a mediation proposal from Argentina, Brazil and Chile was accepted and a conference ensued at Niagara Falls.
Meantime important cities fell into the hands of the constitutionalists. The victorious armies continued their march on Mexico City, where rumors have been in circulation for many days of the approaching resignation of Huerta.

Gunboat Smith and Georges Carpentier Fight in London Tonight

CARPENTIER MEETS SMITH AT LONDON

American White Hope Will Take on Frenchman Before Record Crowd at Olympia.

LONDON, July 15.—The sporting public of the world's metropolis and England is excited over tomorrow night's battle between Georges Carpentier, heavyweight champion of Europe, and Gunboat Smith, white hope champion of America, at the Olympia, as perhaps they never have been before. Following the fever for boxing matches which has been fulfilled for several months, the game has gradually forced its way back into the public's fancy.

Carpentier was given a remarkable reception upon his arrival here. He did only light work today. Carpentier's manager, Des Camps, became so enthusiastic that he predicted Georges would knock Gunboat out in two or three rounds. At Harrow Smith put in his last work today and refused to be distracted by the hoop.

"That'll be goin' some, won't it?" was the only comment of the Gummer.

Betting was at an even money today. Those backing Smith are counting on his heavy punch and the fight in an early round. They do not believe Carpentier will be quick enough to get away from Smith, as he has been able to dodge away from the European fighters.

On the other hand, the Frenchman's backers point out that Carpentier has fought 20 rounds with Joe Jeaneke. He has also demonstrated that he carries a knockout punch, and will take a speed and cleverness.

It will be a hard fight, but I am confident of winning," said Carpentier today. "I have been warned of Smith's punch and prepared for it," Carpentier said, my sparring partner, knows Smith's style, and I have trained to meet it.

"You know it only takes one punch to do the work," said Gunboat. "I have to smile at this talk of my fast enough to keep Carpentier busy. His style of fanning his arms, jumping and prancing will be of no use to him. I expect to win before the twentieth round."

Tremendous interest has been aroused in the fight, and it is expected that 20,000 persons will be at the ringside. Carpentier was wildly cheered wherever he appeared today. On arriving Carpentier entered a carriage, whereupon admiring Frenchmen unboxed the horses and pulled the carriage to an hotel, followed by a cheering throng.

STAGE FOURTH BATTLE OF YEAR ON SATURDAY.

The D.L.A. season is only half-over, and there is yet a chance for either the Toronto or the Tecumsehs to beat the Nationals in the race. It is true that the Frenchmen have not been beaten yet, but they are not to be forgotten that they had a narrow escape at the hands of the Toronto couple of weeks ago, and only beat the Irish-Canadians by a single goal last Saturday. The Nationals, it appears, are not getting any better, while the other three teams are improving rapidly.

The Nationals have four games to play in this city, and might easily lose them all. This is one of the facts that gives particular interest to the game between the Toronto and the Tecumsehs at Scarborough Beach on Saturday next. Toronto has two out of three of the games played with the Indians this season, but the Redskins are confident of evening the score on Saturday. They say that the terrific heat of last Saturday bothered them more than it did the Toronto, and that they are the equals of the blue shirts in everything but luck. One thing is certain: the Tecumsehs never expect to win two-out-of-three, and next Saturday's game will be as hard-fought as any of the other three.

LONDON CRAZY OVER THIS BIG FIGHT

LONDON, July 15.—The Gunboat Smith-Georges Carpentier heavyweight fight at Olympia tomorrow night is the topic that overshadows even the home rule argument here tonight. The French boxer was given a great reception when he arrived here and will be the favorite in the betting when he steps into the ring. The photo shows Smith at the left and Carpentier at the right.

CARSLAKE BROKE WORLD'S RECORD

Took Minute and Half Off Time for Fifty Miles—First Spill at Drome.

In winning the fifty-mile race at the Motordrome last night, Rowley Carslake, the most wonderful board track rider in the world, rode the most wonderful race of his entire wonderful career, and at the same time clipped about one and one-half minutes from the world's record for the distance. The repetition of the word "wonderful" may appear an exaggeration, but it does not seem an adequate description of the exhibition of nerve, speed and endurance which the popular Australian gave in this, the longest and most exciting race yet seen at the local Drome.

When the lights flashed for the start Carslake crouched low over his machine and shot into the lead, and in the full moment he led the rest of the field by a distance of two and a half seconds. His elapsed time in the race, his clean white sweater could be seen flashing under the lights as he sped around the track once every one and one-half seconds. Five, ten, fifteen and twenty seconds covered, and he did not move. Thirty, forty and finally fifty miles were passed and he was still motionless on his machine. Three laps further on he shut off his power, and for the first time in that awful grind he sat about ten feet behind him, saking admiration at the absence of wind resistance, and had a comparative joy ride for that distance. At the fifth mile Carslake went out well in front and won by about four laps. Ayrault, the French champion, had been riding a beautiful race until his machine went bad and he lost about ten laps. When he got into the race again, he had gone only a short distance when his hand wheel locked and he was thrown over the handle-bars. He hung on to a machine, however, and the fans had the cheers which greeted him as he passed under the lights a winner have never been equaled at the Motordrome.

The results were as follows:

Unlimited team bicycle pursuit race—First heat won by Spencer and Frank Brown; second heat won by Wilson and McMillan; final heat won by McCarthy and McDonald; second, Spencer and Brown; third, McMillan and Wilson. Time—10:53 4/5 for 4 1/2 miles.

First heat won by Henkman, Detroit; second, Carslake, Australia; third, Bob Barclay. Time—2:0 1/5.

Second heat, won by Ayrault, France; second, Harding, Birmingham; third, Burchell, Atlanta. Time—2:14.

Final heat won by Henkman's second, Carslake; third, Ayrault. Time—2:12.

Two-mile bicycle race—Won by Burchell; second, Laribee; Toronto; third, Don Barclay. Time—1:28 4/5.

Fifty-mile race, third event of the world's motorcycle series—Won by Carslake; second, Henkman; third, Bob Barclay; fourth, Joslin; fifth, Ayrault; sixth, Harding. Time—36:50 2/5. This is a world's competition record.

The final event of this wonderful long-distance series is the one-hour race on Saturday night, in which the six riders will all start again. Four of them, Barclay, Carslake, Henkman and Ayrault, have a chance to win the £500 purse, which goes to the winner. Judging by the incidental happenings in the first two days and the final test should be sensational.

PALMERD AND ROGGE TODAY.

Palmerd, our new southpaw, will start against Buffalo in the first game today, and it is hardly likely that the Buffalo coach will be able to get his goat, as Palmerd will be on the mound for the second game of the double-header. Bauer will not wear a Toronto uniform any longer. After yesterday's exhibition against Hamilton, he was given his release.

OTTAWA, July 15.—The cabinet today awarded the contract for section 3 of the Trent Valley Canal to Ralph Macdonald & Co. at $3,150,000.

DEFAULTED CRICKET MATCH.

BERLIN, Ont., July 15.—New Dundee won tonight the W.F.A. senior district over Preston in Waterloo. Preston having failed to supply grounds on which to play. Preston and New Dundee were tied, and Galt and Berlin were suggested, to play on neutral grounds. Neither was satisfactory, and Waterloo was decided upon. It being Preston's turn to provide the grounds, nothing was done, and New Dundee claims the game by default.

NO SURPLUS FOR THE SHAREHOLDERS

Receiver Presents Statement of Chaplin, Milne, Grenfell Firm.

LONDON, July 15.—After dealing very fully with the history of the Chaplin, Milne, Grenfell Co., the official receiver said there would be no surplus for the shareholders. He drew attention to the fact that $295,000 had been borrowed. The directors stated the immediate cause of the suspension was the failure of the Canadian agency to pay their loan.

Further, the Bank of England had declined to discount the company's bills. Depreciation in the value of securities held was responsible, too. The courtiers showed liabilities of $217,500 and assets of $397,525, making the deficiency as regards creditors $29,027. Sir William Plender was unanimously approved of as liquidator.

FARMING, LIVE STOCK, HORTICULTURE AND EVERYTHING OF FARM INTEREST

LOSS OF FAT IN SKIM MILK IS CERTAIN IF TEMPERATURE IS LOW

When Drawn From the Cow, the Temperature is About Ninety Degrees and This is the Best Temperature at Which to Separate — Should It Fall Below, It is Best to Warm Before Separating.

A bulletin discussing the causes of variation in the percentage of fat in market cream obtained from farm separators, is a recent publication by the Washington experimental station. The question of the variation of fat in the cream marketed at different creameries causes considerable trouble at times among its patrons, and will continue to do so until the farmers understand more fully the conditions that cause this variation. The farmer is prone to conclude that when the cream is all from one herd, and there are apparently no irregularities in the feeding, milking, or in the separating of the cream, the percentage of fat in the cream should not vary. Extreme variations in tests are liable to make him feel that the testing of the cream is not accurately done. The fact is that a uniform test from week to week would be more indicative of dishonesty than a variation of a few per cent. in the test.

When the cream screw is set to deliver a certain percentage of fat in the cream, under normal conditions there will be a definite ratio between the skim milk and the cream separated—that is if the separator delivered 12 pounds of cream, and 88 pounds of any other cause. The higher the speed the greater the centrifugal force, and the more rapidly the skim milk will leave the bowl. Thus, if the speed is increased, the capacity of the skim milk outlet increases, which leaves less milk for the cream outlet, and consequently a richer cream is the result.

Crowding Separator.
Crowding the separator will give a thinner cream with a large loss of fat in the skim milk. Decrease in the rate of inflow results, first, in a smaller amount of cream in proportion to skim milk; second, in a higher percentage of fat in the cream; the loss of fat in skim milk is not materially affected. The more milk that there is in the tank the more rapidly will the milk flow thru the bowl on account of the greater pressure. If the tank is kept one-third full the cream will be thicker than when the tank is kept brimful.

If just enough flushing is used to discharge the cream remaining in the separator bowl, the percentage of fat in the cream will be materially changed. When an excess of water or skim milk is used the fat in the cream will be lowered considerably. It is better to pour the flush water or milk into the supply tank; it will run gradually thru the machine, and the greater part will pass out thru the skim milk outlet, making little change in the richness of the cream. Great variation in the richness of the cream is brought about by the practice of removing the float and pouring the flush water or skim milk directly into the bowl.

What The Grain Brokers Say

Finley, Barrell & Co.: All rallies in wheat from these prices should be met with sales.
Ware Leland: Believe while present conditions prevail wheat prices should work lower.
Harris, Winthrop & Co.: Rallies in wheat are, of course, in order, but to hold them we must find something new.
Lamson Bros. & Co.: It seems advisable to take profits on severe declines in wheat with the idea of replacing it on rallies.
Logan & Bryan: Believe it will take more support in wheat than has been evident recently to cause much improvement in prices.
S. B. Chapin: Wheat will be oversold on the declines, bringing about rallies, but any permanent advance seems unlikely at present.

WHEAT ADVANCES ON RUST REPORTS

Market Closed Strong—Corn Gained—Oats Off Slightly.

LITTLE LIVE STOCK PLACED ON MARKET

Well Finished Cattle Found Ready Sale at Good Prices.

HOG VALUES DECLINED

Common and Light Steers and Heifers Sold Below Cost to Drovers.

CHICAGO, July 15.—Black rust reports more ominous than at any previous times this season formed one of the leading causes today for an advance in the price of wheat. The market closed strong, 7-8c to 1 3/8c net higher. Corn gained 5-8c to 1c, oats finished 1-16c off to 3-8c up and provisions the same as last night to a rise of 1 1/2c.

Serious Inroads.
It was freely admitted that now Minnesota fields as well as those in South Dakota showed serious inroads from black rust. Advice were at hand also that the plague had traveled to within thirty miles of the border of North Dakota. The ravages already in some places were said to be worse than in 1904, when the spring crop throughout the Dakotas and Minnesota suffered widespread ruin.

Bullish cables helped keep the wheat market on the up grade from the start. Liverpool quotations made a sudden jump, and there were estimates that owing to the backwardness of European crops the import requirements of trans-Atlantic countries might amount to as much as 720,000,000 bushels. Uneasiness in regard to threats of a railroad tie-up counted also against the bears.

Bulge in Corn.
Failure of predicted rains led to a bulge in corn, and so, too, did a sharp advance at Buenos Ayres, where the weather had been unsatisfactory and the weather bad for shippers. Enlargement of country offerings tended to check any decided upturn for oats. Provisions followed the course of the grain market.

LIBERAL SUPPLIES PRICES UNCHANGED

Choice Butchers Absent—Continued Weakness in Market for Lambs.

Receipts of live stock were light, only 46 car loads, comprising 220 cattle, 1502 hogs, 636 sheep and lambs and 135 calves. All cattle well finished found ready sale, but they were very scarce, not enough to supply the demand, but common light young steers and heifers, grass-fed, were plentiful and hard to sell at 25c to 35c per cwt. less than they cost the drovers in the country.

One load of 1300-lb. steers brought in by Geo. Ward of Brampton were sold by Dunn & Leveck at $8.75 to the Swift Canadian Company.

The next high price was $8.40. Cow prices were lower, few going over $4.50. Stockers and feeders were scarce and generally of poor quality, few sales being made at prices trending downward.

A few choice milkers sold at a little higher values, but not many of them. Veal calves were as firm as ever, not enough being on hand to supply the wants of the many buyers.

Lamb prices again advanced to 11c per lb. live weight as shipments were light. Sheep sold at steady prices. Hog prices were about 10c to 15c lower.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK

CHICAGO, July 15.—Cattle—Receipts, 16,000; market steady. Beef, $7.70 to $9.00; Texas steers, $6.40 to $8.00; stockers and feeders, $5.75 to $8; cows and heifers, $5.20 to $7.10; calves, $7.50 to $11. Hogs—Receipts, 23,000; market active; light, $8.50 to $9.25; mixed, $8.45 to $9.25; heavy, $8.20 to $8.95; rough, $5.50 to $8.45; pigs, $7.30 to $8.95; bulk of sales, $8.80 to $8.95.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 26,000; market lower; native, $5.25 to $8.10; yearlings, $5.75 to $7.20; lambs, native, $6.25 to $8.
