GRAND FALLS PROJECT REPORTED UPON

cent. margin of spare capacity, it could be operated as a base load plant under 100 per cent. so as to absorb the estimated additional capacity which would become available through the development of the main storage. In other words this layout will permit a decision to be made at any time in the future when the main storage becomes available, as to comparative economy of enlarging the plant to accommodate its own load factor or of operating wholly on base load under 100 per cent. load factor and handling peak loads at Musquash, Pokok or other sources of power feeding into the ultimate high voltage transmission loop.

UNIT COSTS.

Mr. Acres report states positively that the unit cost per horsepower on the high tension lines at Grand Falls will be $118.08 and $133.25 respectively, which will not be exceeded in event of the actual construction now covered. The initial plant is a permanently complete commercial unit, while at the same time it action appears to duplicate the future provision of a duplicate pressure tunnel and three additional 25,000 electric horsepower units will provide a plant capable of utilizing the full ultimate potentiality of the watershed under any ordinary load factor and with one unit of 20 per cent. of the installed capacity ordinarily required for the other words Mr. Acres says that Grand Falls by utilization of the entire watershed is capable of producing 150,000 electrical horsepower. Storage in international and Canadian waters only is required for the initial development, the maximum would provide for utilization of an artificial storage in the State of Maine.

QUEBEC LIQUOR LAW IS SEEN AS BIG MORAL HELP

Has Made 50 Per Cent. Cut in Convictions for Drunkenness

CHAIRMAN SAYS GOVERNMENT GAINS

Revenue to Province in Three Years Has Exceeded $12,000,000.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Fewer arrests and increased revenue were cited as the proofs of the moral and financial success of the Quebec Liquor Law by L. D. Cordeau, head of the Liquor Commission for the Province of Quebec, who gave figures just before he sailed on the French liner France for Havre. Commissioner Cordeau, accompanied by members of his family, is going abroad for a brief vacation. Commenting on the liquor situation in Canada, he said: "The Quebec Liquor Law, which is now in its fourth year of operation, has been an unqualified success, both from the moral and social and financial viewpoint. Official statistics show that convictions for indictable offenses in the Province of Quebec during 1918-19-20, the three years preceding the Quebec Liquor Law, averaged 120 per 100,000 of population; while for the three years 1921-22-23, on the same basis, convictions have been only 114.

Fewer Convictions. "Figures as regards convictions for drunkenness are even more striking. In 1920, convictions were 325 per 100,000. They were 425 in 1921, 300 in 1922 and 287 in 1923. I believe these few figures are convincing proof of the moral success of the Quebec Liquor Law.

"As to the financial aspect, sales for the first three years have totaled $84,724,855, out of which the sum of $19,144,848 was paid to the federal government on account of customs and excise duties, while at the same time, we turned over to the Quebec government the sum of $12,462,989 in profits, besides accumulating out of our earnings a working capital and reserve of $1,900,000 in round figures. I do not believe many government-owned commercial ventures are in a position to show such favorable results.

Popular Law. "Except for the criticism of the extreme prohibitionist element, and a small group of politicians, I can say that the Quebec Liquor Law is at the present time endorsed or at least sympathetically looked on by the population of the whole province; this single fact naturally accounts largely for the great measure of success it has attained. No law can work well against the will of the majority or an important minority of the population to which it applies."

NOBILITY AT WORK. CANNES, France, April 22.—Mrs. E. H. Tattersall, who married a son of a British lord, started to work in a dress-making establishment here within a week after her marriage. Her husband consented to the employment because his wife desired to do some kind of work.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., APRIL 22, 1925.

PORT FACILITIES.

The end of the winter port season is a reminder that Saint John not long ago, through the Common Council and the Port Committee, presented at Ottawa a strong case for additional facilities here, including piers in Courtney Bay and other improvements necessary to the successful handling of the traffic that should flow through this harbor.

As nothing has been heard of the matter lately friends of the port feel that unless the requisite appropriation is to be regarded as certain, additional representations should be made and every possible influence brought to bear in order that the too long delayed requirements of the traffic may be met.

The facilities, the construction of which was asked for by the port delegation which went to Montreal and to Ottawa in connection with the matter, are vitally necessary. They constitute an essential link between the railways and the ships. They should be regarded as a national rather than as a local expenditure, urgently requisite in order that the Government and the C. N. R. may carry into effect the policy of giving Canadian ports the traffic which is rightly and naturally theirs.

Enterprises of this sort are not completed in a day. Construction would necessarily occupy a considerable period, although the plans for the first unit of the piers and for other improvements both in Courtney Bay and in the main harbor are in readiness.

The Mayor and Commissioners and the Port Committee, should they feel that any additional effort is necessary in order to make sure of favorable action at Ottawa, will have the most hearty support of all the citizens, to whom this forward step in the equipment of the port is of the utmost importance.

A GOOD DECISION.

Thanks to yesterday's decision by the Common Council the way is now clear for the construction of a pavilion on the Rockwood playground. The Rotary Club, which has shown a keen and commendable public spirit in this matter, has raised $2,000 and has been ready for some time to build this pavilion, which is absolutely necessary in order that the fine playground may be properly utilized, and the doubtful element was the lack of any guarantee of proper supervision.

This evidently will mean construction without delay. The pavilion will be so built that any requisite additions can be made from time to time as they may be required. This playground, as Commissioner Frink yesterday, is one of immense possibilities and its complete development will be of great and lasting value to the city.

AWKWARD EITHER WAY.

The peace treaties that Germany signed expressly forbid any union with Austria or any annexation of Austrian territory by Germany. There was no intention on the part of the victors of permitting Germany to strengthen herself in the matter of territory and population by acquiring, peacefully or otherwise, any part of the broken up Austrian empire.

For the present at least any such union is out of the question, but the conduct of Marx in openly proposing such a policy indicates how ready he is to cater to the German spirit of resistance by giving defiance to Allied opinion in advocating a breach of the treaty. Victory for Marx in the election is generally expected. Should he become President and attempt to carry out his campaign proposal with respect to Austria, the Allies would have to forbid it, but the result would be to create further trouble and ill-will.

On the other hand, victory for Hindenburg, were that possible, would give new life to the Monarchist and militarist element and would revive the hopes of all those who are constantly seeking some sense of escape from the payment of indemnities and whose aim is to build up formidable military power again.

These German election manifestations, though they may be largely campaign gestures, all tend to increase suspicion on the part of France and to strengthen France's determination to secure guarantees of security from her former Allies, failing which she will insist upon holding Germany indefinitely under the menace of French bayonets, convinced that no other course will serve. France in the matter of its finances has grave domestic troubles on its hands, and for some time at least uncertainty is bound to reign.

When the United States had only a million motor cars in operation, which was not so many years ago, people began to talk as though the market would soon be exhausted. To-day there are about 20,000,000 automobiles in the world, of which an immense proportion, about 18,000,000, are in the United States, Canada and the British Isles, yet there is excellent ground for the belief of the manufacturers that the market still warrants continued high speed production.

They are going right ahead in that belief, and this season's sales will undoubtedly indicate that they are right. Both the domestic and the foreign markets for Canadian and American cars are still capable of absorbing an immense number of vehicles both for pleasure and for commercial purposes. Indeed, what is called the point of saturation is nowhere in sight. The foreign market alone offers striking possibilities, as is evident from the very fact that Great Britain and continental countries, in the number of motor cars operated, are so far behind the United States average.

The real hero of the island, of course, is Alexander Selkirk, who was put ashore on the island in 1704, some 14 years after the Spanish had landed there. It was at his own request that he landed, after he had a quarrel with his captain. His heart failed him none the less when he saw the ship about to leave and he begged the captain to take him on board again. But his entreaties were of no effect, and the vessel sailed away without him.

Whatever the limit is, it is not yet in sight.

The Canadian dollar is at par again for the first time this year, but it has been hovering around that point right along.

Mr. Fawcett tells the Government that New Brunswick needs a better market for the farmers. That is quite true, and the Government agrees with it. Now if Mr. Fawcett will tell the Government how a provincial administration can secure a better market for farm products everybody will be pleased.

Hon. Mr. Ballantyne challenges Mr. Joseph Archambault to contest one of the federal elections with him at the next federal election. Mr. Archambault might seem a division outside Montreal and ask Mr. Ballantyne to meet him there. Such a contest would resemble the old-time trial by combat, but it would settle nothing. It would be easy for either to select a constituency favorable to himself; but the issues between the parties must be settled by a jury consisting of the whole country. The Ballantyne offer means little more than that Mr. Archambault does not agree with Mr. Archambault's politics. Mr. Archambault returns the compliment. Thus the meeting is unanimous, but the country is no wiser as a result of these denances.

A rough estimate by shipping men published in 'The Telegraph-Journal' this morning indicates that the ships coming to this harbor during the twelve months ending with March spent some $2,800,000 here in the purchase of supplies, in wages, port dues, and for other services. The winter port business, while about equal to that of last season in freight, was not so great as was expected at the beginning of the season, owing to a smaller western crop and to some depression in general traffic. The tremendous importance to Saint John of the annual disembarkment here by the shipping cannot be measured even by the statement that there is an expenditure here of nearly $3,000,000 in twelve months from that source. As a matter of fact we should bear in mind that this disembarkment, whatever the exact figures are, will be greatly increased in a better traffic year. In all probability the grain crop will be much larger this year, and with improved business conditions there will be a much greater general traffic. Saint John needs additional harbor equipment, and the campaign here a greater percentage of Canadian exports and imports go through this fortunately situated harbor must be carried on with increasing energy. We should look forward to a time, not long distant, when the present traffic will be doubled.

Odds and Ends

"You never know what you'll find among the odds and ends." - From "Notes by a Wayfarer."

Tourists for Crusoe's Isle

The tourist will soon be able to include in his trip the island where Robinson Crusoe lived. An enterprising hotel proprietor is about to erect a hotel on Juan Fernandez, and a regular steamboat service is to be maintained between the island and Valparaiso to attract visitors from all parts of the world.

Juan Fernandez, which is about twelve miles in length and five miles across at its widest part, lies some 450 miles from the coast of Chile, to which it belongs. It was the striking narrative which Alexander Selkirk, the Scottish sailor, had to tell of his lonely life on the island that led Defoe to write "Robinson Crusoe."

There is a cave, or grotto, which he used as his house. Around the walls are still a number of rusty nails and "rubbish" and "cupboards." Then there is Lookout Point, a lofty pinnacle over 2,000 feet above the level of the sea. Selkirk is said to have climbed this peak every day during the first eight months' stay on the island in the hope of attracting the attention of some passing ship.

As it is today. About 250 persons live on the island today. The men are principally engaged in fishing and are a few whalers. They live in log bungalows around Chambers Bay, and though they have beautiful gardens with cherry trees, two schools, a small church, a post office, and the new wireless station are the only public buildings.

Selkirk was by no means the first sailor, or even the last, to live a lonely life on the island. Although the true story of Juan Fernandez is not at all well known, it has had an interesting history. It was discovered by a Spanish sailor, Juan Fernandez, after whom it was named, as far back as 1683. After he reported his find to his government, he decided to settle down on the island, telling his captain he would end his days there.

The real hero of the island, of course, is Alexander Selkirk, who was put ashore on the island in 1704, some 14 years after the Spanish had landed there. It was at his own request that he landed, after he had a quarrel with his captain. His heart failed him none the less when he saw the ship about to leave and he begged the captain to take him on board again. But his entreaties were of no effect, and the vessel sailed away without him.

When Selkirk was there. Selkirk was by no means ill-provided, for he had a fair stock of books, a Bible and several other books, a few cooking utensils, and a few mathematical instruments. He had vegetable seeds also, from which he raised a fine garden the next year. He kept his fowls supplied with goats' flesh, and the plimento tree, which flourishes on the island, supplied him with pepper and candies and sweet-smelling firewood as well. He made clothes out of goatskins.

During his long stay on the island he saw many ships, but of these only two put in to shore. Some Spaniards landed, and Selkirk, and gave chase. This was the only occasion on which the outer world invaded his solitude until the arrival of the ship in which he finally left Juan Fernandez forever.

Selkirk was rescued from his lonely kingdom after a stay of four years and four months by Captain Rogo, who described him as "a man dressed in goats' skins and wilder in appearance than the goats themselves." With him the glory of Juan Fernandez passed into fiction and lives forever in Defoe's pages. On his return to England, Selkirk met Defoe and told him of his adventures.

The Chilean government has leased the island several times to private speculators. In 1868 it was taken over by a German engineer, who established a thriving colony there and who erected a tablet to the memory of Alexander Selkirk. In 1877 the island was again let, this time to an eccentric Swiss, who wished the delights of seclusion. He took with him a small band of colonists, who, from their manner of life, might have been the Swiss Family Robinson. But their third of the experience and came away.

A delegation composed of H. Mont Jones, P. W. Kinsman, W. K. Haley, W. P. Lewis, A. M. Belding and A. L. Foster appeared before the council and asked that some provision be made for a caretaker of the grounds and building if they erected the pavilion, for which the money was now available.

It was estimated that between $400 and $500 would be needed.

After the delegation had presented their case Mayor Potts assured them the matter would be attended to and the building looked after.

A delegation composed of H. Mont Jones, P. W. Kinsman, W. K. Haley, W. P. Lewis, A. M. Belding and A. L. Foster appeared before the council and asked that some provision be made for a caretaker of the grounds and building if they erected the pavilion, for which the money was now available.

It was estimated that between $400 and $500 would be needed.

After the delegation had presented their case Mayor Potts assured them the matter would be attended to and the building looked after.

BANDIT, SOUGHT FOR 4 YEARS, IS CAPTURED

Found in Chicago Library Making Researches For New Bomb

SOUGHT MEANS TO BLIND BANK CLERKS

Four Murders and Many Other Crimes Are Charged Against Him.

SUFFERN, N. Y., April 22.—Described by the police as the most dangerous American criminal and with a record eclipsing even that of the notorious Gerald Chapman, Henry J. Fenneke, alias Henry J. Darcho, wanted for four murders, for the shooting of a Chicago bank president and for a score of hold-ups in various sections of the country, will be brought back here to stand trial for the murder of two bank employes, District Attorney Morton Lexow has announced.

James B. Moore, assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Pearl River, and Siegfried Buitz, a clerk, were shot to death by a lone bandit during an attempted hold-up of the bank at noon on December 21, 1921.

Sought Four Years.
For four years Fenneke has been the subject of a nation wide search by city and state police and private detectives in connection with the Pearl River shooting. He is also wanted for the murder of two Pennsylvania state policemen.

Last Saturday evening while in the John Crerar Library in Chicago, Fenneke was arrested by a squad of detectives, while he was reading a book on chemistry. The police say Fenneke told them his researches were being made in the interest of a new bomb designed to blind bank clerks temporarily. He also said that he was working on a chemical preparation with which he hoped to open bank safes without any detonation. Among other aliases, Fenneke is also known as Jimmie Knight, Ralph Goodwin and C. F. Richards.

Taken Without Fight.
Just as the arrest of the notorious Gerald Chapman was effected through a woman, so was it with Fenneke. Upon learning that he made frequent visits to the library and had planned to meet a dentist there that very evening, guards were placed in the vicinity. When Fenneke arrived police headquarters were notified and a squad of detectives dispatched to the library at once.

They entered the building with revolvers drawn and everything in readiness for a pistol battle. It had been Fenneke's habit that he would never be taken alive and he was known to be the type who would keep his word.

Although a murmur of excitement swept through the room as the detectives fled silently in, so engaged was Fenneke with his studies that he was not aware of their presence until he was seized from behind of a sudden and pinned to the floor.

REVIEW YEAR AND ENJOY PROGRAMME

Congregation of Carmarthen Street Methodist Church in Successful Get-together.

A very successful congregational social was held last evening in the Carmarthen street Methodist school room when a large number gathered to hear reports of the branches of the church work carried on through the year, and to enjoy a social time.

Isaac Mercer was in the chair and warmly welcomed all present. All departments of the church showed marked improvement and all reports submitted were gratifying. The members of the congregation have not been idle during the year and all have taken a great interest in the work of the church, thus strengthening the hands of Rev. A. D. MacLeod, the pastor, who, it was declared, had been an inspiration to all.

Rev. Mr. MacLeod gave an interesting address which was enjoyed by all. The musical part of the pro-

Weddings

Bryson-Walsh

A pretty wedding was solemnized in Holy Trinity church this morning at 8:30 o'clock by the Rev. Arthur Kinsella, when Florence Gertrude, only daughter of Mrs. Theresa and the late Captain E. A. Walsh, was united in marriage to Joseph W. Bryson of Quebec City. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Gerald, and looked charming in a sand bengaline suit, platinum hair, red sage hat, and sand shoes and stockings to match, and carrying a white ivory prayer book. She was assisted by Miss Mary Kinsella as bridesmaid, who was prettily gowned in a cocoa flat crepe dress, with Isabella fox fur, jade green hat and cocoa shoes and stockings to match, and wearing a corsage bouquet of panies and sweetheart roses. The groom was assisted by George Kenneth Carleton as groomsmen. After the wedding the bridal party returned to the bride's home, 163 St. James street, where a dainty breakfast was served, after which the bride and groom left on the 7:15 train for Montreal and Quebec.

The bride traveled in a roseware crepe dress and a chic squirrel and moleskin coat, with rust hat and shoes. Numerous gifts of linen, cut glass and silver received added to the popularity in which the bride and groom were held. They received a beautiful silver service from the office staff of the F. R. where the groom is a valuable employee. The bride will be remembered as a popular amateur actress playing several leading roles for St. Peter's, Y. M. C. I. and K. of C. The best wishes of a large circle of friends will go out to the bride and groom for their future happiness. They will reside in Quebec City.

MANY REMEDIES FOR BAD BREATH

BAD breath is due to either of three things, decayed teeth, disordered stomach or catarrh.

Many remedies for bad breath or halitosis, as it sometimes is called, are widely advertised.

A simple remedy, when the bad breath is caused from the stomach, is a teaspoonful of sulphate of soda in a glass of water about one hour before breakfast every morning.

Licorice is an excellent sweetener of breath, and it possesses the advantage of having but little odor of its own.

Licorice may be chopped into small pieces and kept on the dresser table for occasional use.

It is said, too, that a bit of myrrh or burnt alum, taken at night will answer the same purpose. Charcoal tablets also are good.

A dentist should be consulted when bad teeth is the cause, and a physician also might be able to remove the cause when the breath is from the stomach, or from catarrh. Heavy smokers often have bad breath. Most persons who chew tobacco have a tobacco breath.

The chewer probably could remedy his breath if he would cease his mouth out after every chew.

Adventures of the Twins

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON. THE FEATHER CAKE.

It was Jack and Jill's birthday—so Mrs. John baked a fine big double birthday cake and set it out to cool.

It was a beautiful birthday cake all covered with white icing with pink scalloped around the edges and "Jack and Jill" written on top in pink icing letters.

Mrs. John was so proud of it that she went out on her back porch every two minutes to look at it and try the icing with the tip of her finger to see if it was hard enough to set away.

"Not quite hard enough yet," she said each time. "Won't the children be surprised when they sit down to dinner to see such a fine cake with their names on and everything. I shall put sixteen little pink candles on top—eight for Jack and eight for Jill—and have them all burning at once."

"Thank you, Mrs. John," said the Old Shoe Woman gratefully. "I must hurry home now and get lunch. The children will soon be coming home from school. When the Old Shoe Woman had gone,

"Yes," said Mrs. John proudly. "It is as light as a feather. I put a lot of baking powder in, and stirred the flour five times, and stirred it very carefully, putting the beaten whites of the eggs in last. And when it was in the oven I took care not to so much as walk across the floor. Yes, it is a very nice cake and when it is cut I shall send each of your children a piece."

"Thank you, Mrs. John," said the Old Shoe Woman gratefully. "I must hurry home now and get lunch. The children will soon be coming home from school. When the Old Shoe Woman had gone,

"I felt relieved at once—and now as soon as my stomach 'talks' back I answer with Carter's and have the last word." On sale at Drugists.

MUSICAL EVENT ENJOYED BY MANY

Mrs. S. K. Scovill and Mrs. L. V. Lingley Delight Audience in Centenary Hall.

A capacity audience in Centenary Hall last evening greatly enjoyed a musical treat given by Mrs. S. Kent Scovill, pianist; Mrs. Lewis V. Lingley, vocalist, and Miss Beryl Blanch, accompanist. The concert was arranged by the Loyalist Chapter, I. O. O. E., and proved successful in every way.

Mrs. Scovill was greatly enjoyed in her brilliant numbers. Many expressions of keen pleasure at her rendition of an encore, "Ave Maria," by Henselt. A series of beautiful tone poems and grand concert selections, with technical difficulties that seemed as mere trifles, so nimble were the fingers of the paces, held all at the closest attention and brought storms of applause. Mrs. Scovill responded and played besides the Henselt number, Kreisler's "Caprice Viennois."

MRS. LINGLEY SINGS.

Mrs. Lingley sang with sweetness and clearness of tone, making every word heard, thus adding to the enjoyment of her selections, which were all especially suited to her lyric voice. She sang for an encore after her exquisite pretty song, "Nesting Time," the favorite love song, "Gray Days," by Noel Johnston.

Lovely bouquets were presented both ladies. Miss Blanch also received her measure of attention for her accompaniments to the songs. The members of Loyalist Chapter who were in attendance at the recital and who were responsible for the artistic arrangement of the stage were Mrs. W. L. Caldwell, regent; Mrs. William Vassie, Mrs. F. Gordon Sanction, Mrs. Yerald F. Furlong, Miss Kathleen Sturdee, Miss Emily Sturdee, Miss Eileen Gillis and Mrs. G. McAvity. Mrs. D. W. Ledingham and Mrs. Reginald Wright took the tickets.

Mrs. Douglas Thorne, Mrs. George Andrews, Mrs. R. Belyea, Miss L. Preston and Miss Hazel Watters.

RECALLS DAYS OF GRIM WORK IN GREAT WAR

General Smith-Dorrien's Recollections of Struggle Published in London

DRAMATIC SCENE IN CHURCHYARD

News Topics of Empire Metropolis Told in Letter.

Correspondence of The Times-Star. LONDON, April 22.—General Sir Horace Smith-Dorrien's recollections published by John Murray with a fascinating photograph of King Edward, leave the impression of a British military genius equally plucky and incompetent. The author probably has as much of the pluck and as little of the incompetence as anyone. In 1879 at Isandhvana gallant catastrophe overwhelmed us, solely owing to failure of ammunition, with cartridges of it un-packed within easy reach. In 1914, during the Mons retreat our men shot like machine-guns, but their cool courage was not backed by adequate staff intelligence. Sir Horace evidently thinks Lord Ypres lacked calm determination, and perhaps indomitable mental alertness, and that Lord Haig, commanding the other corps and Sir Horace's division, was slow-moving. That view was shared by the French staff.

DRAMATIC SCENE

Officers and men who shared the Mons rigors may have a wry smile over Sir Horace's methodical diary, recording the pleasant enjoyment of staff comradeship on campaign, and appreciating the stained glass in notable French churches en route. His chat with a French policeman, who was on duty at the Hotel Bristol when King Edward stayed there, is amusing. His account of Hubert Hamilton's funeral in the Lacouture churchyard at night, with as many officers present as could be spared from the fighting line, is dramatic. A big German attack was in progress, but the chaplain read the burial service beautifully, though rifle, machine-gun, and artillery fire nearly drowned his voice, and bullets streamed through the churchyard trees. Why Lord Ypres first eulogized and then condemned the Le Gateau stand, Sir Horace does not know.

THE NEW DUKE

The decision making Brigadier-General Sir Edward Seymour the 18th Duke of Somerset seems to have caused little stir. Yet it is, next to that of Norfolk, the oldest dukedom, dating back to 1547, exactly 60 years later than the Howards' honor. The new duke is an old blindfolded boy, served in the Dublin Fusiliers, and married a lady with the beautiful Saxon name of Rowena, like Scott's heroine in "Ivanhoe." The first Duke of Somerset was Sir Edward Seymour, brother of one of Henry VIII's spouses, and was two years in the Tower for simony and extravagance, notably in building Somerset House, at a time when the King's soldiers were sadly in arrears of pay. After trial for high treason in old Westminster Hall, he was finally beheaded incidentally, though his dukedom is confirmed, the present Sir Edward's title of Brigadier-General, included in "Who's Who," was abolished by the War Office some time ago. It is apparently too late this year, owing to railway time-table arrangements, to start summer time earlier. The ardent supporters of the movement, who regard summer time as the most practical boon parliament has conferred on the community for generations, do not mind that, if only the permanent period can be fixed reasonably. The hostile interests have been routed in committee, but are rallying for a final attempt to cut the summer time as short as possible on report. Whether they can succeed in a House of Commons overwhelmingly pledged to the bill fixing it at six months remains to be seen. The backers of the bill realize that unless the period is adequate the change is hardly worth while.

TITIAN'S VENUS AND ADONIS

Hard times and high taxes since the war have greatly aided in the depopling of English art treasures by American collectors. Quietly during the last five or six years some famous masterpieces, long in the stately homes of England, have been sold to agents with millionaire clients across the Atlantic. The latest and most notable sale of Titian's "Venus and Adonis" from the Althorp House collection of Earl Spencer. Two hundred thousand pounds is not an excessive price to put on this great picture, though it is only one of several studio repetitions of the same subject by the artist. The painting shows almost comically how modern taste in physical beauty has changed. Titian's Venus is a decidedly fat lady who would be utterly lost in this age of the fashionable slim silhouette, and even the youthful Adonis has the build of a middle-aged stockbroker.

"UNCLE AUSTEN"

There was quite a "pretty little domestic episode" in the House of Commons one night this week before dinner. The distinguished stranger's gallery had a solitary occupant, a nice little boy with a nice Eton collar and calmly critical eyes. He displayed a keen, sophisticated interest in the Parliamentary business, and took great joy in Mr. Churchill. It may have been "put on" just to meet the occasion, but in the case of the modern post-war schoolboy you never can tell. Later on it was ascertained that the distinguished visitor was Neville Chamberlain's son and heir, and his illustrious uncle, Austen, the Foreign Secretary, paid him a visit in his lonely eyrie. After intimate converse and much interesting information about parliamentary personalities and affairs, Uncle Austen had to leave and resume his official vigil over Europe's problems, but before parting from his nice little nephew the Foreign Secretary, adjusting his hereditary monocle, slipped him a crinkly treasury note.

Re-Appointed

DR. H. M. TORY, President of the University of Alberta, who has been re-appointed to the Council for Scientific and Industrial Research in Canada for a period of three years.

has been talking of these decisions for a long time, but I gather that an amusing misunderstanding accounts for the renewed talk of Lord Birkenhead succeeding Lord Reading at Simla. Some time ago, in an interview in a women's periodical, Lady Birkenhead spoke of "your going to India." That has been taken as a hint that the Earl of Birkenhead was to be the next Viceroy. It referred merely to an intended visit, since made unnecessary by Lord Reading's home-coming. Lord Birkenhead's ambitions, it is understood, are centred in home politics.

BAD LIQUOR WILL CAUSE INSANITY

German Scientist Says Old Time Drink Less Painful Than Present Kind.

CHICAGO, April 22.—American prohibition, "which fails to prohibit," will ultimately result in a wave of insanity, according to a psychiatric diagnosis advanced by Dr. Emil Kraepelin of the University of Munich. Dr. Kraepelin is in America to make a study of paresis, or softening of the brain, in the American negro and the Indian. He will pursue his investigations in one of the big North Dakota asylums and in Mexico. Incidentally he refused to accept an honorary LL.D. from Northwestern University, offered him through Chief Justice Olson of the Municipal Court by President Scott and the Northwestern Fellows. He had previously declined similar honors from the University of Washington and the University of Pennsylvania.

On Increase "If anything," said Dr. Kraepelin, "insanity is increasing both in the United States and Europe. America's experiment with prohibition might lead to some interesting results if the enforcement act attained any success. "But American prohibition! There is no such thing. It only leads to the drinking of concoctions that will soon and certainly destroy the mind. A man had better get drunk on pure liquor than to take a single drink of some of the stuff I hear of. "Wherever I go I see only the failure of prohibition. Americans are drinking as much as ever, only the quality of their liquor is not so good as before. And even a small quantity of bad liquor taken into the system, I believe, is worse than a much larger amount of pre-Vaistad drinks." He expressed the opinion also that suicide was showing an alarming increase. "This is due," he pointed out, "mostly to the general urban movement of our population. The cities offer innumerable temptations. Life is hectic. It is the vices of the larger cities that are

LONDON, April 22.—One of the visitors from out West to the bright lights of Broadway last week was David Carr, a pioneer prospector for copper in Arizona. Corn Plasters For Commons' Members

LONDON, April 22.—Members of the House of Commons were dumb-founded the other day to receive by registered post envelopes containing Hashish corn plasters. Strangely enough the distribution of this gift had its significance, and the plasters were made of Hashish, or Indian hemp, and that the propagators originated the idea of a general distribution as a protest against the scheduling of Indian hemp as a poison by the Home Office.

MORE MARKETS FOR N.B. FARMERS ARE REQUESTED

Leader of Agrarians in N. B. House Says Too Many Leaving Province

BONUSES FOR BOYS, MARTIN'S SUGGESTION

Premier Declares Government Not Planning to Give Any Grants.

FREDERICTON, April 21—Estimates totalling $671,428 passed the House in committee of supply this afternoon. The vote for immigration caused a brief debate, in which the members of the Farmers' group took part, while the public works department estimates for ordinary roads, and bridges and patrol service also brought about a brief discussion.

A Chase Fawcett, leader of the Farmers' group in the House, declared that the department should make a determined effort to secure more and better markets for the farmers now residing in New Brunswick. He realized that some encouragement should be given to the question of immigration but pointed out that more farmers were leaving the province than any other class of people because the agriculturist cannot find markets for his product.

URGES FARM BONUS.

John S. Martin, Labor member from Northumberland, suggested that the Government through co-operation with the Federal authorities, take steps to encourage New Brunswick boys to stay on the farm by some system of bonusing. He had heard it said that immigrants who arrived here recently were given a bonus from the Federal Government and believed that New Brunswick people should be the first to receive such aid.

This drew from Premier Veniot the statement that at one of the conferences of provincial premiers this suggestion had been discussed. The Premier added that he did not intend to have the provincial government give bonus to any immigrants, and declared emphatically that immigrants who cannot pay their way when they arrive here will not be a benefit to the province and will eventually be a burden to the country rather than an asset.

SHARP WILL SPEAK.

At this stage Colonel Wetmore, of Kings, chairman of the agriculture committee, said that P. E. Sharp who recently returned from Europe where he went on a special trip to secure immigrants for New Brunswick, would appear before the committee on Friday morning and be able to give the members of the House considerable information on this question.

GOOD PROGRESS MADE.

Exceptionally good progress was made and when the hour for adjournment arrived the House had completed consideration of estimates for legislation, the Attorney-General's department, the Department of Agriculture, Department of Lands and Mines and Department of Public Works.

The item of $5,000 to defray expenses in connection with the appeal of Saint John bridge case to the Privy Council gave Attorney-General Rand an opportunity to explain that this money was being voted to pay the legal expenses incurred by the Government. In reply to Mr. Peck, of Albert, Hon. Mr. Rand said that the total cost of this appeal might run into $14,000.

OUTLAY CENSURED.

J. A. Young, of York, made a brief criticism of the proposed expenditure for the Department of Agriculture, declaring that of $138,295, the total amount voted, the sum of $60,100 would be used to pay salaries of officials.

CRITICISM OF C.N.R. EXPLAINED BY E. W. BEATTY

C. P. R. President Tells Why Competitor Mentioned in Circular to Employes

THORNTON DEFENDS BUSINESS METHODS

Says National Road Spends Lower Proportion of Gross Earnings.

MONTREAL, April 21—Asked for a statement in regard to a Canadian Pacific Railway circular published in Toronto today which referred to "lavish expenditure of public money by a competitor," and to methods of competition by the Canadian National Railway, Sir Henry Thornton, president of the latter road, said:

"I have nothing to say excepting to point out that for the year 1924 the Canadian Pacific Railway expended on traffic account $8,841,350, or 4.61 per cent. of its gross earnings, and the Canadian National Railway System spent $6,892,751 or 2.93 per cent. Expenses chargeable to traffic represent largely the money spent in securing business.

BEATTY'S STATEMENT.

President E. W. Beatty, of the C. P. R., also issued a statement concerning the company's circular published in Toronto, as follows:

"The statement referred to is apparently based upon a confidential communication sent to our officers bearing plainly upon it the word 'confidential.' It will not be denied that Canadian Pacific officers have the right to discuss among themselves the railway situation as it appears to them.

LETTER CALLED ACCURATE.

"The circular letter to the company's employees published in The Toronto Globe speaks for itself and every statement is absolutely accurate. A comparison of the traffic expenses of the two roads without an explanation of what is included in each would be entirely misleading. In the Canadian Pacific traffic expenses are included the expenses of its Oriental and European organizations whose work is largely in connection with steamship service. Eliminating these expenses the amount chargeable to the rail lines for 1924 is $3,769,000 or a slight decrease under those of the previous years as against the National figures of $6,892,750, an increase of $1,099,000 over 1923.

COMPETITION OUTLAY.

"That a great deal of money has been spent on the National properties for competition of Canadian Pacific, or in other words, in an effort to secure a greater share of existing traffic for its railway cannot be disputed. "I imagine that the general public is already quite aware that the operation of any railroad as great as either of Canada's two great systems can only be carried on by an expenditure of money such as may fairly be termed 'lavish.' On that we may agree reserving our own opinion as to the economic soundness of the situation arising out of that expenditure."

ROMAN MEAL Prevents Indigestion

Envious Neighbours!

The Canada Paint Co., Gentlemen, The Living Room which we finished with your 'Alba-Gloss Enamel' is the envy of all our neighbours. I did not believe it possible to secure such a lovely rich gloss and so pure and white. We also enamelled our Bath Room and Kitchen using two coats of your 'Flat Undercoating' and then the Enamel. Thanks for your suggestions. The painter is strong for your Enamel. Mrs. W. Howard

What Would You Do?

(Bangor Commercial) What would you do if you were driving your car late at night on a lonely road, accompanied by your wife and three men should step in front of your machine and order you to stop? That was the situation that confronted a Hampden man recently and he stepped on the gas and made a hasty exit only to be followed by another car and finally overhauled by his pursuers who then disclosed their identity as enforcement officials. It might be remarked in passing that the man who was ordered to halt is not in the bootlegging business and never has been and believed that highwaymen were attempting a hold-up.

Keen Interest In West Saint John Sunday School Boys Athletic Meet

Along The Sport Trail

By RAY HANSEN

HARNESS RACING enthusiasts in this city must feel pretty blue these days when they read about the activities of horsemen in other provincial centres. After this summer there will be no more racing on Mosepath Park and unless the Exhibition Association directors come to the fore and arrange for a track to hold meets in connection with their annual fairs the outlook for the sport here is anything but bright.

Interest in the coming horse-racing season is seething in Fredericton. Recently, a syndicate of Fredericton sportsmen sent an envoy to the middle west to pick up a candidate for the Main and N. B. circuit this year and forthwith a rival syndicate of this hustling horse centre despatched an ivory hunter of its own to secure a candidate that could beat the other selection—and the end is not yet.

BOTH THE Amherst and the Saint John War Veterans bowling teams have issued challenges for the Marvin trophy. The former will meet the Moncton quinquies, present holders of the trophy, during the latter part of the week and later the winning team will be called upon to defend the silverware against the Saint John boys.

HORSE RACING is not the only sport on the wane in Saint John. Amateur boxing, so popular a few years ago, is now a back number and unless steps are taken to revive interest in the manly art it will not be long before this healthful recreation will be relegated to the archives. This is indeed regrettable. Only a few years ago a large number of youths were keen to learn the art of self defense and fans were treated to many thrilling tournaments which rivaled and, not infrequently, surpassed professional cards.

SHADES OF John L. Sullivan and Bob Fitzsimmons! What's next? Old Tom Sharkey plans on entering the ring and showing the present crop of boxers how the game was played a quarter of a century ago. It's a wonder that some of the old timers do not turn over in their graves.

JACK DEMPSEY, world's heavyweight boxing champion, is at present enroute to New York. Prior to his departure from Los Angeles he emphatically denied that there was any trouble between him and his manager, Jack Kearns. He said they were contemplating a motion picture venture together. He claims he will defend his title although he will not be ready until late in the year. All kinds of reports are being continually circulated about the champion and his plans. It is certain that these will tend to do more harm than good so it is time that some of the sport writers called a halt.

Recruit Pitcher Is Returned To Rochester

DETROIT, Mich., April 22.—William Moore, recruit pitcher, has left Detroit to join the Rochester team of the International League. He joined the Tigers to catch team and is returned.

No Cause For Worry

An old Scotsman, traveling from the land of his birth down to Birmingham, decided that, as the weather was bitterly cold and the trains badly heated, he would take a bottle of whiskey with him, and every time he felt chilly he'd just have a nip.

Where Did Tris Speaker Join the Cleveland Club, and with what team was he with before that?

—F. R. N. Speaker joined Cleveland at the start of the 1916 season, coming from the Boston Red Sox.

What was the nickname Billy Papke was known by during his ring career?

—D. R. S. The "Illinois Thunderbolt."

HIS WIFE GONE AND CASH TRANSFERRED

Westport, N. S. Man Will Take Steps to Recover $1,500 Bank Account.

DIGBY, April 21.—To awake in the morning and find that his wife had disappeared and to be notified that $1,500 had been withdrawn from the bank, was the experience of a man named Morrell, at Westport, a few days ago.

The head of the house had noticed that all was not well for more than a week and at times became rather suspicious, but despite the warnings of neighbors failed to take action until too late.

Frank Jones, K.C. of Digby, is looking after the case for Mr. Morrell and an attempt will be made to get back the $1,500 which has been found to have been placed in a special account in the bank.

Some interesting developments are looked for when the case is tried in court.

SOUTH END ARE SEEKING SENIOR BALL SANCTION

Expect Definite Answer This Week From Officials

Formal application for a senior sanction has been made to W. E. Stirling, vice-president of the M. P. B. A. A. U. of Canada, and in charge of amateur affairs in West Brunswick, by the South End League, and a definite reply is expected this week on the matter. In view of the great success that attended the league's operations last year, which was the most successful of any amateur league in the Maritime Provinces and the biggest here since the break into professional ranks several years ago, the league officials take the view the winners of the South End League be given the right to play off for the provincial and maritime titles. This was denied them last year by the amateur authorities, and the league submitted to the ruling a different attitude, however, is being adopted this year, as they claim it is only fair they should receive equal treatment in this matter with other leagues in New Brunswick. Simply because they are operating in Saint John should not bar them from competing for the provincial title is their contention. Vice-President Stirling has promised consideration of the application.

BOUTS TONIGHT

Willie Harmon to Meet Jack Palmer—Bernstein to Engage Tony Palmer.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Boxing bouts tonight will get a glimpse of the lad who is rated by Mickey Walker, world's welterweight champion, as one of the most formidable contenders for the title. Willie Harmon, east side welterweight, is the lad so seriously regarded by the class champion. Harmon is scheduled to show his wares against Jack Palmer, Philadelphia welterweight, in one of the principal ten-round bouts at the New Manhattan, C.

In another ten-rounder Jack Bernstein, Yonkers youngster who formerly held the 180-pound championship title, will engage Tony Palmer of the east. A third ten-round struggle will be between Spencer Gardner, Rhode Island junior lightweight, and Len Kemp, English candidate for honors in the class.

SOLDIER OF CROSS WELL PRESENTED

A play entitled "A Soldier of the Cross" was successfully staged by members of the St. Mary's Y. P. Society last evening. The school room of the church was filled to capacity and the presentation of the play was greatly enjoyed by every present. This was the closing function of the Young People's Society for the year and the members of the cast were praised for their work by the actor, Rev. R. Taylor McKim.

Made It Success

Those taking part in the production were Harold Pepp, George Buckley, Arthur Thomas, Walter Wilson, Miss Dorothy Lane, Miss Enid Nutter, Miss Ada Chamberlain, Miss Olive Brundage, Miss Bertha Kettle, Miss Helen Stevens, and Miss Blanche Tull. The committee in charge of the scenery was composed of George Buckley, Walter Brundage, Raymond Sullivan with Harold Pepp in charge. Miss Emily Pinede presided at the piano. There were musical numbers by Miss Pinede, Miss Nutter and Arthur Thomas. An offering was taken for missions.

English Pedestrian Dies; Walked 350,000 Miles

"Since Aug. 6, 1900, I have walked 350,000 miles. Finished in Exeter, Am now going to London to get my reward." Such was the last entry found in the diary of the 95-year-old pedestrian, Mark All, upon his death recently at the Shirley Warren Infirmary, Southampton. He was known throughout England as a prominent walker, and his identity was revealed only by the diaries in his possession. He was reported to be engaged in a walk of 350,000 miles for a wage of £2,000.

Warns Citizens Of Some Collectors

A warning to the public to beware of unofficial canvassers for the relief of miners in Nova Scotia was issued last night by Edward McGinnis, secretary of the Trades and Labor Council here.

Warns Citizens Of Some Collectors

Mr. McGinnis stated that he had received a telegram from Thomas Shuck, coed board member of the Sub-Division No. 5 of the United Mine Workers of America to state that unofficial canvassers had arrived in Saint John from Nova Scotia and that great care should be taken to see that subscriptions were not given to these persons who had no right to make a canvass.

Three Promising Rookies

PHILADELPHIA, April 22.—Connie Mack considers himself very fortunate in respect to his recruits. Already it is apparent that he has picked up two likely catchers in Cochrane and Fox and a capable infielder in Red Smith. Mack is particularly impressed by Cochrane. He thinks he will greatly bolster up the club by his batting and spirit. Back of the bat he is a regular chatterbox. Cochrane's catching style isn't impressive. He is inclined to fight the ball a trifle, much after the style of Wally Schang when he broke in, but he has much baseball ability and looks like a coming star. Smith is a clever shortstop and should Galloway fail, the Athletics will have a capable performer ready to step into the breach.

Are Planning To Construct "Olympic City" In Amsterdam

AMSTERDAM, April 22.—The committee, which is planning the Olympic games for 1928, is already hard at work here. It is arranging to erect the necessary buildings in the grounds of the Netherlands Park Sports Company, where the "Olympic City" will rise. As soon as the elections are over, a government bill will be submitted to parliament providing for a subsidy of one million florins, which with another million provided by Amsterdam, will be used on construction work and organization of the games. A national subscription will also be opened to obtain further funds.

Y. M. C. I. TIE FOR LEAD IN TOURNEY

Turn in High Scores—Blacks Lost Both Games in Yesterday's Play. The Y. M. C. I. team of this city got away to a good start in the bowling tournament at Eastport for the championship of the Maritime Provinces and Eastern Maine. They defeated Halifax and Blacks and went into a tie with St. Stephen for first place. Blacks lost both games played yesterday, while Eastport and Caisis won and lost one game each.

Another Finnish Star Seeks Marathon Honors

A Sierrons, Finnish marathon runner, who won that event in the last Olympic Games in France, and who hopes to emulate to some extent his fellow countryman Paavo Nurmi, had arrived in New York. He will train for a month before entering any contests in the United States. He is 34 years old. He was accompanied by his trainer, Carl Kolthman.

FAMOUS RUNNER WILL OFFICIATE AND GIVE MEDAL

Considerable interest is being manifested by the boys of the West Side in the Sunday school track meet which is to be staged on Saturday afternoon on the new playground running track in Lancaster. The meet has been sanctioned by the amateur authorities. Eldridge Eastman, world's famous runner, will be the official starter and in addition will appear in an exhibition race. He will also assist in the classification for the handicap events. The programme will be as follows: Running high jump, running broad jump, 80 yards handicap race for juniors and intermediates, 100 yards handicap race, one mile and a half mile relay, and a three-mile cross-country run if sufficient entries are received to warrant holding it.

Programme Includes Three Mile Marathon Race

Interest in Athletics. These races are being held simply to promote greater interest in clean athletics among the teen age boys of the West Side. It is the initial step towards larger efforts in the future. Entries should be given to R. H. Parsons by Thursday night, with the name, age, church and weight of the boys. The winner of a special 100 yards handicap race will be presented a gold medal, donated by Mr. Eastman. The boys who wish to enter these events should assemble at Courtenay Hill tonight and tomorrow night from 6:30 until 7:30 when Mr. Eastman will be on hand to instruct them in starting.

A Safe Fit and Safe Wear

INDUSTRIES ARE SPEEDING UP IN RUSSIA

Workers Producing More Goods and Thus Cheapening Costs

PUNISHMENT FOR SLACK DISCIPLINE

Trade Unions Attend to Problems of Stopping Waste.

By WILLIAM HENRY CHAMBERLIN
United Press Staff Correspondent.
MOSCOW, April 22.—The workers in the Russian factories have been subjected to a steady speeding-up process during the last year. The need for increased productivity of labor has been emphasized upon every possible occasion and the trade unions have devoted a good deal of attention to the problems of cutting out waste and stimulating more intensive labor.

The reason for this productivity campaign is easy to understand. Russian industry in the fall of 1923 was faced with a very serious sales crisis. Prices of manufactured goods at this time were abnormally high and prices of farm products were very low. So the peasants simply boycotted city products. They were making their own clothes and shoes and cutting to a minimum the consumption of such articles as sugar, salt and kerosene.

Increase Production.
The industries were obliged to cut prices to the bone in order to regain their market; and the only way to make up for the financial losses involved in lowered prices was to increase and cheapen production. Ever since Felix Dzerzhinsky, famous as the organizer of the Chekka and subsequently a very efficient commissar for Transportation, took over the management of the state industries early in 1924, he has been hammering away on the two slogans of cutting prices and raising production.
The figures for 1924, which are now available, show that the campaign for increased productivity was very successful. The production of the workers increased by 24 per cent. during the period from January to December, 1924, the output of the individual worker increased by 38 per cent. The heavy industries, especially the

At the root of many a bad hard to keep the disposition serene when a corn is jabbing and biting it with pain. You can cover the tip of a corn with a match-head. But this tiny pain-center makes one feel mean all over—and act that way. Doctors know that corn may irritate the whole nervous system—so the patient end a corn pain in ten seconds, and the corn itself in 48 hours.

Helpful Advice to Overworked Women

DAY in and day out, week in and week out the tired, over-worked housewife and mother toils on, sweeping, dusting, cooking, cleaning and mending. Is it any wonder that after a time a weakness, such as Mrs. Chapman had, develops and the wife and mother pays a toll in physical weakness and pain for her efforts of love, the natural result of overwork?

Women who find themselves afflicted with weakness, pain, headaches, backaches, nervousness, irritability and melancholia will be interested in Mrs. Chapman's letter, and should realize that Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is especially adapted to overcome such conditions.

Mrs. Chapman's Letter Reads as Follows:
New Albany, Ind.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a weakness which many women have from over work, and from which I suffered for quite a while. I wasn't fit to do my work and my sister advised me to take this medicine. After the first few days the pains were not so severe as they had been and after taking a few bottles I am not bothered any more. I am doing my housework every day and highly recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman suffering from female trouble. Only yesterday a friend called me on the phone and knowing what I had for me wanted to know what to ask for at the drug store, as she meant to give it a trial."—Mrs. C. E. CHAPMAN, 1920 Elm Street, New Albany, Indiana.

May Bar Her From Flying

Prerty Mlle. Bolland, France's only professional aviatrice, may be barred from flying by a law proposed by the International Aeronautic Association which permits only masculine professional pilots. She has appealed to the French Government for a revision of the law.

metal industry, are still subject to high overhead costs, because their huge plants are not supplied with sufficient orders to keep them working regularly; but a number of the better organized factories in and around Moscow have practically reached pre-war standards of production, despite the fact that the present legal working day is eight hours, as against nine or ten before the revolution.

This increased productivity has been largely made possible through strict labor discipline. Workers are no longer permitted to attend meetings and wander about the factory on various errands during their working time.
Lateness and absence from work are severely punished.

Perhaps the chief factor in improving the productivity of labor has been the general introduction of the piece-work system of payment. This is being done wherever the nature of the work permits it.

Baskets sold for substantial sums as their charms were extolled by Alexander Magee and Alexander Robertson, auctioneers. Mrs. MacIntyre was in charge of the social and Mrs. Pitman of the fancy work and candy sale. Those assisting at the social were Mrs. Reed Lewis, Mrs. Lewis MacIntyre, Mrs. W. G. Woodruff and Mrs. O. J. Lawson. Mrs. W. G. Woodruff and Mrs. John Chard assisted at the candy table. Mrs. W. J. Bevis and Mrs. Robert Magee sold refreshments. A short programme was given with Arthur Harris at the piano in solos and accompanying choruses. He and Lorne MacFarlane and Alexander Magee sang several pretty trios. The money raised will be used for the building fund of the Orange Hall in East Saint John, now in course of construction.

NOTABLE SUCCESS

Saint John Men at Get-together of Rotary Clubs at Border.

A notably successful get-together of the Rotary Clubs of St. Stephen and Milltown, on the Canadian side, and the recently formed Rotary Club of Calais and Eastport, in Maine, held at St. Stephen on last Monday evening, was reported by Dr. J. L. Spangler, who returned home from there yesterday. It was "Ladies' Night" under the auspices of the ladies of the Calais and Eastport Rotary clubs and fully 300 members and their wives were present for an entertainment programme and dance, followed by the serving of refreshments. Dr. Spangler was the chief speaker, his subject concerning the Rotary Club. S. C. Matthews, local entertainer, scored a big hit, according to Dr. Spangler. "Mr. Matthews," says Dr. Spangler, "was right up to form, and he was the outstanding success of the evening." The chairman for the occasion was Howard Marchie, president of the St. Stephen Club. The welcoming address was delivered by Earle Hyslop, while solos by Cecil Nesbitt were well received.
