JEWISH RIOTS IN LONDON.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The day of atonement was marked in London by serious rioting in the Jewish quarter of the east end. Over two thousand Jews engaged in a disturbance and nearly three hundred police had to be called out before the disorder was quelled. The trouble arose over the action of nonconforming members of a social democratic Jewish club at Spital Fields, in the heart of a district containing about 2,000 Jewish inhabitants.

EXHIBITION IS BOOMING.

Great Crowds are in Attendance Today.

Judging Has Begun in Several Departments—Horse Show the Feature This Afternoon.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAMME.

7.30 p. m.—Band concert in Industrial building—City Cornet Band.
8.00 p. m.—Vita-graph moving pictures.
8.30 p. m.—Vaudeville programme.
9.00 p. m.—Fireworks.
9.30 p. m.—Special programme.
—R. G. R. Band, in Industrial building.

This morning visitors to the exhibition began trooping in at an early hour and by noon there was a large crowd present, mostly from outside the city. All indications point to a vast attendance this afternoon and evening. Thousands of citizens being much interested in the society horse show, so far the weather is perfect, but the cool air late in the day makes it incumbent on all who desire comfort to come provided with wraps and light overcoats.

There was a little confusion and some changes in the programme of yesterday afternoon and night, due in a great measure to an attempt to provide the public with a big bill of amusements, so large in fact that some events lapsed over on their successors. This state of things has been remedied and today all things will be carried out as the hours announced by the management. Judging is proceeding quite rapidly this morning and the horse ring especially presents an animated spectacle. The L. Governor and Mrs. Snowball are doing the exhibition this morning.

J. L. Banks, of Sackville, is here. Mr. Banks, of the Gold Hunter, Caladonia, N. S., is here in the interests of that paper.

The occupants of the tented city, to wit the exhibition midway, are believers in the old adage that the early bird catches the worm. They were in full blast as soon as the gates opened this morning.

The working day is drawing its close and eager watchers, all anxious to pick up the latest points in butter making, while the carriage exhibit has a throng of favorites who greatly admire the display of vehicles, which from the standpoint of quality and beauty, is the best seen here for many years.

If you want to see your friends visit the exhibition this afternoon and evening. They are coming in like an invading army in the interests of the fireworks display will take place promptly at nine o'clock tonight. The bombardment of Port Arthur will be the chief starting feature.

AN INTERESTING EXHIBIT.

One of the sights that will appeal to all housekeepers is a range in actual use, baking bread, biscuits, etc.

The range used is a "Monarch" steel range, made by the Enterprise Foundry Co., Sackville, N. B., for whom Emerson & Fisher are selling agents. This interesting exhibit will be found in the booth of the Ogilvie Milling Co., which is situated near the band stand in the main building, where a practical demonstration will take place each morning, afternoon and evening.

CROWDS COMING.

Visitors to the exhibition continue to come from outside points in increasing numbers. The Halifax and Sussex trains brought big crowds this morning from the east, as did also the Boston express from the west. It remained, however, for the special excursion train from Moncton and the Atlantic express to bring the really big crowds. The Moncton excursion train was made up of eleven cars and each was filled. A concrete and steel bridge was brought this crowd up to nearly a thousand. The Atlantic express brought some hundreds.

This afternoon two excursion trains will arrive, from Fredericton and Woodstock, respectively, and tonight there will be more.

(Special to the Star.)

MONTREAL, Sept. 20.—At the morning session of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, Rev. T. Albert Moore, of Toronto, secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, accompanied by Rev. J. A. Gordon, D. D., Rev. J. L. George and A. M. Crombie, addressed the congress and asked the members to support a bill to prohibit work on Sunday which is to be brought before parliament. The delegates received a tremendous ovation and the request will probably be granted.

JAPANESE ONCE MORE ATTACK PORT ARTHUR

Much Spoils of War.

GENERAL ATTACK ON PORT ARTHUR.

CHEE POO, Sept. 20.—5.30 p. m.—Authoritative information has been received here of a general attack upon Port Arthur by the Japanese forces, which began yesterday before day-break and continued until dark. All indications point to an effort to capture certain of the northeast main forts.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 20.—Lieut. General Stoesel, commanding the Russian military forces at Port Arthur, reported by telegram that on the night of Sept. 18th the garrison repelled two attacks on the redoubt protecting the waterworks.

SPOILS OF WAR.

TOKIO, Sept. 20.—(Noon)—Field Marshal Oyama, commanding the Japanese forces in Manchuria, telegraphed today as follows: "An investigation of the trophies captured by us, made since our last report shows the number of Russian buildings occupied by us in the neighborhood of Liao Yang station, to be 263 houses and 214 warehouses, covering an area of 58,000 square yards. We also seized 78,350 bushels of barley, 100,000 cases of millet, 800 cases of kerosene, 1,800 cases of sugar, 166 tons of coal and much cowhide. The machine guns captured by General Kuropatkin will be reported later."

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 20.—Gen. Stoesel's dispatch read: "Port Arthur, Sept. 16.—The enemy continues daily to bombard the forts and batteries inside the forts, but still without showing any great activity. The wounded are recovering and eagerly resuming their places in the ranks. They are hungry."

"The troops are in excellent spirits. About three o'clock this morning at least one Japanese battalion attacked the redoubt protecting the waterworks. The garrison of the redoubt repulsed them with rifles and machine guns supported by artillery. The Japanese sustained great losses and did not again attempt to take the offensive."

JAP REINFORCEMENTS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 20.—The following dispatch has been received from General Kuropatkin: "The reinforcements made Sept. 17, established the fact that the Japanese position at Banputze is strongly held by a brigade with guns. There was no enemy east of Banputze, but Japanese reinforcements arrived Sept. 18, in the vicinity of that village. Large Japanese forces from Liao Yang have already crossed to the right bank of the Tatse river."

JAP BRAVERY.

MOSCOW, Sept. 20.—Commander Dabitch, of the Japanese cruiser Gromobol, one of the Vladivostok squadron, has been interviewed here. He tells the story of the battle of the squadron with the Russian fleet. It was his last battle before. He says that during the fight the Gromobol fired 6,000 shells. Commander Dabitch himself was twice wounded, once by the bursting of an 8-inch shell, which left splinters in his body. He spoke of the Japanese bravery as being fanatical, and says: "During the sinking of the Japanese transports by the Vladivostok fleet it was almost impossible to rescue their crews. At one time the water around the cruiser was filled with a thousand Japanese who sank rather than be rescued. Two were thrown a rope which fell across them, but they deliberately threw off the rope and sank, shaking their fists at the Russians."

CATHOLIC CHURCH ROBBED.

Thieves Steal Communion Service and Money—The Priest's House Was Also Robbed.

(Special to the Star.)

MONTREAL, Sept. 20.—The Roman Catholic church at Cape St. Paul was "ransacked" by thieves at an early hour this morning. The communion plate and thirty dollars in cash were stolen. The thieves also entered the presbytery and stole $100 and various articles belonging to the parish priest, Father Bresset.

HALIFAX WEDDING

(Special to the Star.)

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 20.—Miss Agnes Hayes, daughter of Captain John Hayes, pilot, and Daniel P. McKenna, were married this morning at St. Mary's Cathedral. Miss M. Greany, St. John, was bridesmaid. She was dressed in pale blue silk with white chiffon. Mr. and Mrs. McKenna left for Montreal to reside.

KILLED AT HALIFAX.

(Special to the Star.)

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 20.—Philip H. Nicoll, aged 65, an employee of H. W. Wentzell & Co., wholesale grocers, fell down the elevator shaft from the third floor to the basement and broke his neck. He leaves a wife and a large family.

RUSSIA ANGRY AT BRITAIN.

Says She Has Assumed Protectorate of Thibet

Bear Threatens to Disturb Existing Conditions When His Paws are Free Again.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 20, 1904.

With the arrival here of the full text of the British treaty with Thibet, the irritation of the Russian press at its sweeping character is more pronounced. The Russ, which is now considered to especially reflect the views of the foreign office, bitterly complains that Great Britain has gone beyond her promises concerning the expedition, by acquiring a virtual protectorate over Thibet, whereas she had pledged herself to merely regulate trade relations between India and Thibet. Instead, the paper declares, Great Britain has imposed upon Thibet onerous terms, which give her a monopoly, forbidding Thibet, without Great Britain's consent, to enter into relations with the outside world. The Russ foresees that the occupation of the Chumbi valley by the Russian will be prolonged, even after the payment of the indemnity, and expresses surprise at China playing into the hands of Great Britain in depositing the Dalai Lama and appointing in his place a protégé of Great Britain. In conclusion, the Russ says significantly: "The proclamation of the British protectorate must be regarded as an accomplished fact, but whether it will be real and lasting must depend upon future events in central Asia."

The sensational articles in the British press about the alleged Russo-German secret understanding regarding the Far East have not attracted much attention here. It is denied in responsible quarters that Germany has overstepped the bounds of neutrality in any particular. The existence of a secret treaty between Russia and Germany is absolutely denied. The Japanese suspicions of Germany are attributed here to the memory of the part which Germany, with France and Russia, played in compelling Japan to abandon the Shimonoseki treaty concluded between Japan and China as a result of the war between those countries ten years ago.

TO SUPPRESS ROWDYISM.

Business Men of Brooklyn Form Themselves Into a Law and Order League.

"NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Sworn to put an end to the existence of gangs of street hoodlums, lawless organizations of foreigners, stop the carrying of concealed weapons and to protect women from insult and annoyance by rowdies, seventy-four business men of Brooklyn have been incorporated as "The Citizens' Protective League for Law and Order." The incorporators propose to encourage men of intelligence and standing to join the league and to not open the way to membership to everybody who may wish to join.

Sheriff Heisterberg, of Kings county, has appointed the members deputy sheriffs and steps may be taken to secure later special police powers for members of the organization.

Special details will be assigned to work among the great crowds which surge to the Brooklyn bridge during the rush hours of morning and evening. These details will make extraordinary efforts to suppress rowdyism in every form.

PULP MILL FOR SALE.

Property and works of The St. John Pulp Company, Limited (In liquidation), situate at Mispago, Saint John County, New Brunswick. The Mill Property of the Company comprises over three hundred acres. Works are situated on the Mispago River, a quarter of a mile from the sea and six miles by water from the City of Saint John. The wharf accommodation is ample. Works are new and substantially built of pressed brick, fitted with modern and up to date appliances, including electric plant, and are capable of producing two hundred tons of pulp per week. There is room in the present building for additional plant, which when installed would double the output. The mill dam is substantially built of stone and is about fifty feet high. The water is taken to the turbine wheels in an iron flume five feet in diameter, which gives ample supply for driving machinery and pulp making. Tenders for purchase of above described property will be received by the undersigned up to October first, 1904, the highest or any tender not necessarily accepted. Further information will be furnished on application.

THE REMEDY.

The virtuous Globe is grievously shocked over the revelations of recent election trials in Ontario. "It is sad, indeed," it mourns, "to think that in such a province as Ontario, in which there are good educational institutions, religious establishments of the strictest kind, and where there is every prospect that may please, man is as well as by the law, has only a majority of one, and stands to lose that one and more before the trials against others of its following are concluded. Consistent is also made of the fact that while the trials of these Liberal candidates exposed a condition of organized political corruption unparalleled in Canadian history, and resulted in the summary unseating of the candidates, the one Conservative member accused of obtaining his election by illegal practices was triumphantly acquitted."

If the Globe, with an absent-mindedness excusable in a journal of its years, has really forgotten these things there is some understanding of its subsequent wanderings in the same article, concerning the great difficulty of grappling with this evil which is "really a form of anarchy, deliverance from which requires punishments far more stringent than any yet attempted." But for a man with honesty and common sense and the possession of the facts in this miserable Ontario business there should be no such difficulty. These men who have carried out the astounding election frauds that have shocked the decency of all Canada have not done the work for love of the Liberal party or of Mr. Ross. Neither have they done it simply for fun. Somebody has paid, and paid well, for this dirty work and though there may exist no direct proof that money passed between members of the Liberal government of Ontario and the corruptionists, yet the facts need no proving. Even now, when it has only a majority, with the prospect of being in a minority in a few days, this shameful government persists in holding on to office and hopes, in the bye-elections which it proposes to bring on, to regain its slender majority by winning again these seats from which the courts have ousted its candidates. And how it proposes to win them, the evidence furnished at the recent trials is an indication.

Under these circumstances, what honest and common-sense man, not blinded by party bigotry, can say otherwise than "Turn them out and try the others. If they also prove rotten turn them out and unless their successors are pure turn them out too." There you have in a nut-shell the best remedy for political corruption, probably the only remedy, certainly a permanent remedy.

OUR FORECAST.

The interest which Attorney General Pugsley is taking in the federal campaign assures the people of this part of Canada that they will not suffer from the lack of election schemes. It is rather understood among those who are supposed to have inside information, that there is to be a revival of that vast programme of railway schemes which was before the legislature for incorporation year before last. This included a railway running diagonally through the province with branches in nearly every direction, to every centre of population. It is said that this composite scheme will come to the front about the time the candidates are named, especially if Dr. Pugsley is one of them. With it will be connected a plan for a Grand Trunk Pacific branch to this port by the river valley. Mr. Borden's policy of making St. John a free national port is to be borrowed and tacked to the programme. The cold storage warehouse is to be annexed. There is more than this in the system, but it will not do for us to spring it all on the people at once.—Sun.

ENTERPRISE AND ECONOMY.

The Telegraph is a very enterprising newspaper, likewise economical. It isn't every paper that would have energy and foresight enough to have pictures made two years ago of the interior of the main exhibition buildings and the annex, so that they would be ready for use in today's issue. Neither has every newspaper the sense of economy that would lead it to publish those pictures when they were first taken, as illustrations of the 1902 exhibition when they were really intended to represent the 1904 show.

Someone in the Star office has meanly suggested that the pictures really represent the exhibition two years ago and has backed up his suggestion by pointing out that they do not in the least look like the interiors as they are today. He lends further support to his argument by producing a Telegraph of Sept. 4, 1902, with cuts that, barring the presence of some names which have since apparently been chiselled off, bear a strange resemblance to those used today.

But, unless the Telegraph itself admits that it has attempted to deceive its readers in this silly fashion, we prefer to hold to our first theory.

The chief Liberal organ in Ontario is moved to remark that "The Liberals of Ontario have good reason to be ashamed and indignant because of the revelations of political crime made in the election court at Saint John, N. B." Just how ashamed and indignant they are is illustrated by the following from the Hamilton Times, a "steady support" journal not afflicted with the spasms of virtue that bother its Ontario contemporary. "It is but another illustration of the rank folly of over-sensuous and misguided men causing hardship to a candidate by acts which are uncalled for and inexcusable. Mr. Smith had a majority of 250 votes and will probably have that majority doubled next contest."

If Canada really is "with Laurier," as the Montreal Herald, with subsidised confidence, proclaims every day, then Canada stands a very good chance of losing its job in the near future.

THE TOYS.

My little son, who looked from thoughtful eyes.
And moved and spoke in quiet thoughtfulness.
I struck him, and I dissembled.
With hard words and unkind.
His mother, who was patient, being dead.
Then, fearing lest his grief should visit his bed,
I found him slumbering deep.
With darkened eyelids and his lashes yet.
I visited him sobbing wet,
And I, who would not weep,
Kissed away the tears, left others of my own.
For on the table drawn beside his head,
He had put within his reach
A box of toys and a red velvet stone.
A piece of glass sharded by the beach.
And six or seven shells.
And two French copper coins, ranged
With careful art.
To comfort his sad heart.
So when that night I prayed
To God, I went and said:
Ah, when at last we lie with tranced breath
Not seeing Thee in death,
Thou rememberest of what toys
We made our joys.
How weakly understood
The great commanded good,
Then, fatherly not less
Than I, whom Thou hast moulded from
Thou'lt leave Thy wrath and say,
Even now, when it has only a majority, with the prospect of being in a minority in a few days, this shameful government persists in holding on to office and hopes, in the bye-elections which it proposes to bring on, to regain its slender majority by winning again these seats from which the courts have ousted its candidates. And how it proposes to win them, the evidence furnished at the recent trials is an indication.

A STRANGE ACCIDENT.

A strange accident took place last evening when John Martin and his wife were driving down past Salamanca on their way to the home of Mr. Martin's brother, Mr. James Martin. During the severe electrical storm which passed over the city, between seven and eight o'clock last night, when suddenly one of the wheels and shafts of the vehicle were smashed to atoms. Mr. Martin jumped out and was unhurt save for a severe shaking up. Mr. Martin was also unhurt. The occupants are of the belief that the carriage was struck by lightning and there seems no other explanation of the accident. If this idea is correct, it was certainly a most miraculous escape for the occupants of the carriage and for the horse.—Frederick Gleason.

A DOUBLE WEDDING.

At Dorchester, N. B., this morning a very pretty double wedding was celebrated. The brides are the Misses Annie and Rebecca, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Chambers. Miss Annie was married to Mr. Gallant, of Amherst, and her sister to Mr. G. B. Papineau, apothecary in the maritime penitentiary. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. A. D. Cormier, parish priest, at 10 o'clock. Mass was celebrated in connection with the event.

QUEBEC CAMPAIGN.

(Toronto Mail and Empire).
Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Quebec campaign is going on merrily. Le Soleil, his organ in Quebec City, now announces that E. L. Borden will declare war with the United States when he becomes premier. Sir Wilfrid, it seems, is the only guarantee of peace, and the only protection from conscription. A nice, kindly, truthful politician is Sir Wilfrid Laurier!

THE TIME HAS COME

When ladies will not buy shoddy suits for their boys, when Hewson Tweed suits wear twice as long. They are saying "Nothing but Hewson Tweeds will do."

FALL MILLINERY.

At ten o'clock today Macaulay Bros. held their millinery opening. The hour was put a little late to enable the suburbanites to be present. The prevailing trimmings this year are chenille bands, Prince of Wales feathers, hackle feather, and military plumes, after the style of those affected by the Lancers and Hussars. There is a great demand on poupon feather rosettes, and the dealers have had no little difficulty in satisfying this demand. The more prominent shades are of bottle green, peacock tints, tangerine, shades of mole and in many cases are touched with bright reds.

One striking hat was a brown model hat in mushroom shades of soft brown and white. It is of a large flat shape, with brown crown and brim; the under facing is of white French felt and edge of brown chiffon. An exquisite rose and foliage in mushroom shades nestled against the hair. Paris gurgles lace and chiffon encircle the crown, and there is a face of lace and chiffon.

A striking toque in old mahogany color is trimmed with chenille and flowers and ribbons in lighter tones. The hat is finished with steel cachibons.

A high rolling turban of black chenille, faced with tangerine panne velvet, is particularly attractive. It is draped with black maline over tangerine panne velvet and finished at the back with a pair of black mercury rings.

Among the bonnets one that attracts attention is of black chenille and black velvet, with white on- greys and steel cachibons, with broad black satin ribbon ties.

FREDERICKTON NEWS.

FREDERICKTON, N. B., Sept. 19.—Several deaths are reported today in Fredericton and its vicinity. At Marysville last evening, Charles Clayton, one of the best known residents of that place, passed away. Mr. Clayton had resided at Marysville all his life. He was a widower, six children—Mrs. W. T. Day, Mrs. John Gibson and Mrs. John Cochrane, all of Marysville; Charles W. of this city; Horatio of Bangor, and Claude. The funeral is to take place tomorrow afternoon.

Today word was received of the death last evening at Fairville from general debility, of Thomas L. Atherton, one of the oldest citizens of Fredericton. The deceased had reached the ripe age of 85 years, and leaves besides a daughter, Mrs. Aaron Libman, of this city, a brother, John Atherton of Houlton, Me. The remains arrived by this evening's train from St. John, and interment will be made from the home of his daughter tomorrow morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grammen of the Rural road are called upon to mourn the death of the third and last surviving member of their family. Only a week ago the other two children passed away, and yesterday the remaining child, a boy six, succumbed. The case is indeed a sad one, and the afflicted parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their severe loss.

Martin Lemont, who has been confined to his bed for a year past, suffering from a complication of diseases which have puzzled the medical fraternity, is reported to be lying today in a critical condition and slight hopes are held out for recovery. Last evening, however, he had a bad attack of hemorrhage, and this morning had another one equally severe. In his weak state the attacks have had a telling effect.

At Scully's grove this afternoon the Fredericton Tartars and the strong Wakefield aggregation met on the diamond and gave a fine exhibition of the popular game. Though the home team was defeated by a score of 3 to 6, the spectators were all delighted with the quality of ball put up. Malloy pitched for the Tartars and did excellent

The engagement is announced of Geo. H. Ferguson, traveler for the Hartt and Sons, of the County, and Miss Margaret Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Johnson of this city. Both parties are social favorites, and the announcement is pleasing to a large circle of friends.

London Nearing Bankruptcy (London Express).
By slow but sure degrees the city of London is advancing toward a condition of bankruptcy.

This disagreeable and surprising fact is proved in unmistakable manner by the corporation accounts for 1903, which were issued last night. The actual cost of carrying on and maintaining the immense interests of the city was £269,968, while the receipts amounted to only £255,638, necessitating overpayment to the extent of £14,330. The overpayment in 1902 amounted to £78,339, so that the city's indebtedness has increased by nearly £118,000 in a single year.

Seeing that the total available assets in cash are only £201,585, it will be but eleven years before the city is insolvent. If the expenditure increases at its present rate.

TO FIGHT CONSUMPTION.

Good Houses, Good Air and Good Exercise Necessary.

While tuberculosis is spread through infection, it must be remembered that its predisposing cause is in the body itself. If one could get rid of narrow chests and bring up children in healthy surroundings, we should resist the sources of infection more successfully whatever they are. We are all in danger from bacilli, but we do not all get consumption, because many of us have constitutions with a sufficient power of resistance. Good houses, good air, good exercise must be brought to the help of the weak constitutions; and they are also necessary if we are to have strong constitutions and the weak are to be eliminated. By so much hygiene as we have already practiced, and before any special precautions began to be taken about consumption the mortality from it has decreased, since 1850 to 1855 by 53 per cent. It is probably still decreasing steadily, though it accounts for a tenth of the annual mortality, if all the forms of tuberculosis that appear in the registrar general's report are reckoned. Bronchitis and pneumonia are more familiar than phthisis. In the army the death rate from tuberculosis has been reduced from 15 to 12 per 1,000 per annum since the Crimean War. It is a well known story how consumption was much more prevalent in the line regiments, where each man had 100 feet, and how the death rate began to fall when the barracks became more fit to live in.—Phil. Ledger.

OVERCOATS

For Fall and Winter Wear

FALL OVERCOATS.—Probably you've stood on the ferry-boat or the breezy trolley recently and shivered while envying the man with an overcoat. Of course, winter isn't here, but the season of chilly mornings and evenings has arrived, and the comfortable man appreciates having his overcoat handy, and the particular man wants a new one.

Special prices in Fall Overcoats, such as $8; silk faced, $10.80 and $12.80. The cloth is gray cheviot and we guarantee it a splendid wearer.

RAINCOATS.—The general utility, rain and shine garment. New stock of grays and fancy colors. Prices begin at $8.50; then $11, $12, $12.50, $13.50, $15 to $20. The latter a very smart coat of the celebrated Priestly cloth—no better made.

WINTER OVERCOATS.—An abundant stock—overflowing our spacious wardrobes. Great values at these popular prices, $10, $12, $13.50, $15 and $16. Broad shoulders, loose flowing, medium length and long coats—grays, blacks and fancy Scotch Tweeds. Garments that are very high class in appearance and workmanship and remarkably moderate in cost.

HIS FEARS WERE REALIZED.
(From the Youth's Companion).
A Georgia statesman says that while he was in the shop of an optician in Atlanta he once heard an amusing conversation between the proprietor of the establishment and an aged dandy, who was just leaving the place with a pair of spectacles.

As the old chap neared the door his eyes lighted upon a most extraordinary looking instrument conspicuously placed upon a counter. The venerable negro paused for several moments to gaze in open-mouthed wonder at this thing, the like of which he had never seen before. After a long struggle with his curiosity, he was vanquished. Turning to the optician, he asked:

"What is it, boss?"

"That is an ophthalmometer," replied the optician in his gravest manner. "Sho!" muttered the old man to himself, as he backed out of the door, his eyes still fastened upon the curious looking thing on the counter.

HER EXAMPLE.
(From the Charlotte, N. C. Observer).
His aunt in Charlotte was extremely anxious that the young man should make a good impression when she took him to call on her dearest friend—a woman revered for her old-time sense of the strictest proprieties. But two minutes after they had got into the parlor she was horrified to see him sitting, or rather lounging, in such an undignified manner. What in the world could she have thought of you?"

The young man laughed easily. "Don't let that worry you, auntie," he said. "She was sitting on her feet."

NEW ENGLAND LEAGUE ENDED.
BOSTON, Sept. 19.—With the game between Fall River and New Bedford at the latter city today, one of the most prosperous seasons in the history of the New England baseball league came to a close. Haverhill won the pennant. In each of the eight cities where the league is represented by a baseball club, interest in the game has been sustained from the beginning to the end of the season, and for the first time in many seasons the schedule was completed.

The Nashua team led the league early in the season, winning a long string of victories, but were finally passed by Haverhill and New Bedford, the former team closing the season at the head of the league. The team played 122 games, winning 78 and losing 43, having a percentage of .645. New Bedford earned second place with a percentage of .544, having won 65 out of 122 games. Nashua and Fall River followed in third and fourth place, while the other teams finished the season in the following order: Manchester, Concord, Lowell and Lawrence.

PORT ELGIN RACES.
SACKVILLE, N. B., Sept. 19.—Horse races were held in the Port Elgin driving park on Saturday afternoon. A special train was run from Sackville, but the races were not very largely attended, though much interest was manifested in the events.

In the three-minute race, Topsy C. driven by Wm. S. Teed of Sackville, took first money; Nigger, J. M. Gullon, Sackville, second; and John M. John M. McGlashan third. Time, 2:54, 3:01, and 3:00.

In the 2-40 class there were a number of entries, but all were withdrawn with the exception of Braxillan, G. B. Fenwick, Sussex, and Maynot, H. B. Fenwick, Tidnish, N. B. Maynot took the first heat, but the three following were captured by Braxillan, while the race, Time, 2:39 1/2, 2:38 1/4, 2:40, 2:41.

After the races an exhibition half mile was trotted by Abbot W. F. H. Copp, Bale Verte, and Sussex Queen, James McDuff, Sussex. This was one of the best events of the day. The quarter was trotted in 33 1/2 seconds, and the half in 1:16. These colts are exceptionally fine ones and show considerable speed. It is estimated that Mr. Copp has refused $400 for Abbot W. while Mr. McDuff is standing offer of $500 for Sussex Queen.

MARSHAL OTAMA.
The Japanese General a Fighter by Fate and Not From Choice.

Far from being a hard-eyed, shaggy, and somewhat suspicious-looking man, as he is often represented, the hero of so many difficult campaigns is the kindest, most amiable old gentleman it would be possible to meet. He himself declares that he has no liking whatever for war, and that it is irony of fate, not personal inclination, which has made him the soldier he is today. Like most of Japan's great men, he is not rich in this world's goods. He is far too liberal to amass a fortune. It is told of him that during the Chinese war he bought provisions for his men and horses out of his own pocket, rather than pilage the wretched homes along the route.

In fact, charity got to be such a mania with him that his wife, an extremely economical woman, had to act as treasurer and dole him out a small allowance daily.

During his residence in Paris he was often greatly upset by the way dumb animals, particularly horses, were abused. Once he got into a dreadful muss with a cabby, and both had to explain their conduct. Though the marshal could speak but little French, he stormed around until justice was given him and he saw the Jehu condemned to a $20 fine. Japanese merchants in Paris, as well as cabmen, remember this active military attaché, though in quite a different way.

One day, sitting in front of a cafe, he noticed a Japanese offering some beautiful fans at exceedingly low prices, lower even than the same article could be purchased in Japan. Beckoning the man to him, he asked how he could do it. The other told him how, owing to long illness, business had dropped off. He was unable to pay the rent, which would come due on the following day, so he and his wife, rather than lose all their stock, were selling what articles they could scrounge out on the streets of Paris.

The attaché had several important engagements on hand that afternoon, but he postponed all and hurried off with the unfortunate merchant. After thoroughly examining into matters, he paid the rent, suggested the man's moving into a better quarter of the capital, and during the rest of his stay there did what he could to work up a clientele among his friends. From that day the merchant's affairs flourished, and two years ago he died worth a nice round sum. By his will he left $20,000 of it to his benefactor.—Chicago Tribune.

MEISTER SINGERS CONTRACT CLOSED.
The Meister Singers, who were to perform at the Amusement Hall all this week, have cancelled their engagements owing to the fact that they find it impossible to sing under the conditions prevailing there. Adjoining the hall in which they sang was the vaudeville entertainment and the noise from this greatly interfered with them. Last night after a conference with the exhibition management they decided to discontinue their performances.

THE END SEAT DOES IT.

"It's funny how people talk without knowing what they are talking about," said the man on the end seat of the open car. "Half an hour ago I heard a man saying he'd like to be in Norway just now to get cool."

"Well, isn't it cool there?" was asked.

"It was there just a year ago this time, and in one day there were sixteen cases of sunstroke in the town where I was stopping, and that same night three prisoners in the lock-up were bitten to death by mosquitoes. I was twenty cents a pound, with little to be had, and I walked two miles to buy a glass of lemonade and then found it scalding hot."

"No strike. Don't you do any longer for Norway. You just eat a hearty boiled dinner, take two sessions of hot Scotch, and then get an end seat on a car and let her go Gallagher and keep your pain fan a-waving."

"This hotness is all imagination. You won't make more than one round-trip before you'll want to get home and tumble into a feather bed and draw a pair of woolen blankets up to your ears."

THERE WERE OTHERS.

It was a colored woman who had called at the police station to report that her little son, four years old, was lost.

"Did you say his name was Reube?" asked the sergeant.

"No, sah. I dun said dey calls him Reube sometimes."

"Then that isn't his name?"

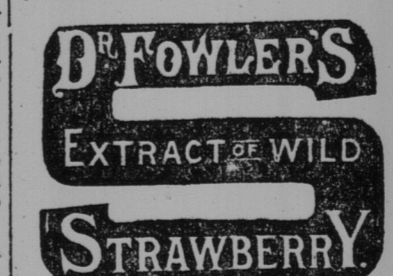

"Bress you, no. We hab'n't rich folks, but we hab'n't so pore dat we can't gib our children proper names. Dat boy's cognomen am Gwage Washington. Bonaparte, Lincoln, Grant, Roosevelt, White, and we only calls him Reuben when we want him to jump out de way of a street kyan in a hurry."

SHOES THAT HELP

Cork-soled bathing shoes have found great favor with young women and children who are learning to swim this summer. They obviate the greatest difficulty in the lesson of swimming—that of keeping the feet up. There is just enough cork to float the feet with a little effort on the part of the swimmer.

The ball game between the Grand Union and Dufferin Hotel teams did not take place yesterday as scheduled. The Grand Union nine did not show up, so the Dufferin boys returned to the hotel.

It has been a household remedy for nearly sixty years.

Its effects are instantaneous and it does not leave the bowels constipated.

Don't accept substitutes. They're dangerous.

MRS. H. V. CRANDALL DEAD.

Lady Well Known in This Province Dies in Brooklyn, N. Y.

The death occurred at Brooklyn, N. Y., Sunday afternoon, of Mrs. Crandall, wife of Henry V. Crandall, aged sixty years, after an illness of three or four days.

Mr. Crandall formerly lived in Moncton, and while there built ships and also kept a store. He left this city some fifteen years ago, and has many friends here who will extend sympathy.

Mrs. Crandall, who was closely connected with the W. C. T. U., and kindred organizations, as well as a prominent member of the Baptist church, visited Moncton a year ago and made many friends here, who will hear with deep regret of her death. Besides the husband, four sons and two daughters survive.—Moncton Transcript.

Mrs. Crandall has several friends and relatives in this city. Her daughter, Miss Sadie Crandall, was here visiting her cousin, Mrs. H. D. Mott, only a couple of weeks ago.

New York Neckwear.

Distinctly different from that shown in other stores, because of its newness. "BUSTER BROWN" TIES for ladies, in burnt orange, "polly" green, Bismark browns, cardinal, plain white and other colors, from 35c. to 75c. each.

Ladies' Belts,

The newest that can be found. A strikingly pretty belt is that made from gun metal silk, finished with handsome buckle and back piece, which retails at 65c. Black at the same price.

Pretty Moire Belts

At 25c. and 35c. each (in black only.)

Ladies' Tailored Skirts.

The biggest skirt bargain we have ever offered. There are only thirty in the lot. This makes the bargain all the more desirable, because of the small number. Their regular price is $7.50. This lot was picked up from a manufacturer at nearly half their regular price, and the sale price will be $3.95. They are handsomely trimmed with silk. A Sunday school concert of a novel sort will be held Thursday in Portland street Methodist church under the direction of Miss Mins, Harding, soloist, of Boston. The programme, which will be provided by the children and young people, will consist of a fancy, a pretty pantomime and flower drill and some artistic Greek tableaux.

The potato crop is said to be excellent throughout Sunbury county. Buckwheat is also a fair average crop where it was not blighted by the early frost, but oats are a light crop in most parts. Potatoes are not selling high as expert merchants say there is no demand on the American market at present, the average price being $1.50 per barrel, which will not cover freight and duty. — Frederick C. ST. JOHN VITAGRAPHED.

Pictures Will be Taken Wednesday —The Falls, Yacht Racing, Fire Department Etc.

Shortly after Meyer Cohen, of the American Vitagraph Company, had his conference with the Tourist Association, representatives of the Board of Trade, and Mayor White, he received a telegram stating that the man who is to take the pictures of the John for use of the company would arrive here Wednesday morning and would have to leave Saturday afternoon.

At once notified the parties referred to and as a result a meeting was held in the Tourist Association rooms this morning, when it was decided to proceed with the work at once. A programme was outlined and details are now being arranged.

The subjects approved of by all are a trip through the falls when a good view of the Cushing pulp mill will be obtained, a cruise and boat ride on the R. K. Y. Club of Millidgeville, a trip around the harbor, and a sail up river, drill by the school children and a turn out of the fire department. In the latter, pictures will be taken of the apparatus leaving the station and one of the entire department passing a certain point. Chief Kerr expressed himself as perfectly willing to turn out the apparatus, but would first have to secure the permission of the director of the safety board. It is expected that the pictures in this connection. In the trip around the harbor, through the falls and up river the machine will be on the boat and it is expected that excellent views will be secured.

MAN KILLED AT I. C. R. WHARF.

Albert Johnston's Brains Were Dashed Out.

He Fell 25 Feet and Struck the Edge of a Scow, Meeting Instant Death.

Falling from an over-hanging staging on the barge Grande, discharging coal at the east side of the I. C. R. pier, Albert Johnston, this morning, struck his head on the side of a coal scow, and was killed instantly andaneously. The skull of the unfortunate man was shattered so that his brains ran out.

The barge Grande, from Sydney, C. B., for the past few days has been discharging a heavy cargo of soft coal, consigned to R. P. & V. F. Starr, Ltd. The coal is dumped from over-hanging stagings into scows lying beside the barge, and then shipped across the slip to the Starr wharf, or otherwise disposed of as the owners desire.

This morning, about 8.45 o'clock, Albert Johnston, the victim of the fatality, relieved Timothy O'Leary, who was handling a barrow on the staging at the stern of the barge, to enable the latter to get a drink of water. Johnston, though somewhat experienced in the handling of barrows on stagings, had not been during the discharging of this cargo in such work.

The bucket filled with coal was hoisted in the regular way from the hold and Johnston and another man emptied its contents into the barrow. Johnston then wheeled the barrow down the staging, a distance of about thirty feet, and carelessly carried it to discharge the load. This little lack of caution proved his undoing. The leg of the barrow, in the act of carrying, struck his foot and unbalanced him. He fell over and shot down head first, striking the side of the scow. He never moved afterward.

His fatal fall was witnessed by men on the other side of the slip. His fellow workmen did not see himself, and at first were mystified at his disappearance from the staging. Running to the edge of the scow, they found him lying limply, with his brains scattered about him.

Mr. Johnston and Dr. Murray MacLaren were hastily summoned, but the victim of the mishap was past earthly help.

His body was put in a rowboat and later taken to York Point slip, whence it was removed to his home on Smythe street. His wife and family of four small children are stricken with grief at their father's awful death.

Albert Johnston is Norwegian by birth and has been in this country for a number of years. He came here as a sailor, but for several years has been in the employ of Messrs. Starr. His employers regarded him as a careful and steady help.

This is the first time that Messrs. Starr have had an accident of such fatal consequences occur to any of their workmen.

EQUITY COURT.

Judgement Against J. J. McGaffigan Ltd.—Interesting Suit re Sir.

Albert Smith's Estate.

At the regular session of the St. John Equity Court, opened this morning, a number of common motions were made.

Judgement was taken against two of the defendants in the injunction suit brought by Baird & Peters, tea dealers, against J. J. McGaffigan, Ltd.; Agricultural District No. 24, Fredericton, and environs; and the Blue Ribbon Tea Co., of Toronto. This is the action to restrain Agricultural District No. 24, from granting commemorative prizes, as the result of competition at the last Fredericton exhibition, to J. J. McGaffigan, Ltd., and the Blue Ribbon Tea Co. J. J. McGaffigan, Ltd., and the Blue Ribbon Tea Co. were the defendants against whom judgement was taken, as they allowed the bill to go against them by default. Barnhill, Ewing & Sanford appeared for the plaintiff.

In the matter of Gertrude E. J. Fort, in mortgage of certain city property, L. A. Curry, K. C., moved for foreclosure of the mortgage, and an order was made to that effect.

C. H. Ferguson moved for foreclosure of the equity of redemption of a mortgage held by the estate of the late Sir Albert J. Smith, of Westmorland county, one of New Brunswick's distinguished public men, who died in 1894. The foreclosure suit is brought by his widow, Sarah M. Smith and H. R. Emmerson, minister of railways and canal, executors of his estate, and the representatives of the late Daniel A. Casey, who are scattered all over the North American continent. The principal of the mortgage is $2,000 and accrued interest about $900. An order was made foreclosing the mortgage, and granting leave to the plaintiffs to bid in the property when offered for sale.

Argument was commenced in the foreclosure suit of Albert Buchanan vs. William Harvey and Frederick Forsyth. W. H. Truman appeared for plaintiff and E. G. Kaye for the defendant, Harvey.

LABOR MEN DISPLEASED.

There was some talk this morning that possibly the Trades and Labor Council would take some action with regard to the employment of outside labor at the exhibition. As the regular meeting of the Trades and Labor Council, however, does not take place until Friday, it is thought that it would then be late to register an effective kick, and so it is improbable that any action will be taken beyond some expressions of disapproval by individual unions. Some labor people advocate extreme measures. They even talked of organizing a boycott of the exhibition. But there is slight probability of anything like that occurring.

POLICE REPORTS.

George Smith, James Cohers, Arthur Smith and Thomas Nickerson have been reported by Sergt. Campbell for fishing on the harbor without a license. A purse containing a small sum of money found at the corner of Mill and Main streets, was returned to the owner by the police.

Mrs. J. C. MacLaren, of St. John, and wife of the inspector of customs for New Brunswick and P. E. Island, has placed her daughter Eva in the Ladies' College, and is spending a few weeks at Hillside Hall—Halifax, N. S.

B. G. Evans, the former manager of the Central Railway, arrived from New York this morning.

Miss Kane and Miss Agnes Kane, of Halifax, formerly of this city, are spending a few days here.

POLICE COURT.

Some Exhibition Drunks Fined—The Assault Case Again Postponed.

In the police court this morning one drunk was fined four dollars and ten days. Robt. Templeton, a Scotchman, eighteen years of age, was found asleep in a car in the I. C. R. yard, near Mill street. He had nothing to say at first but it was finally found out that he came here a week ago from Pictou, but has not been working. He was fined eight dollars or twenty days as was Frederick McDonald, a Sussex man who could not read and has not as yet, what he was doing on Main street at an early hour this morning. The man Adams, arrested for assaulting a street car motorman was again before the court and two witnesses called to show good and bad conduct. The case stands over till tomorrow.

Frederick McNealy was fined eight dollars for committing a nuisance in city hall, west side.

DUNLAP, COOKE & CO.

The display of fur garments in the latest designs and running the whole gamut of richness, made by Dunlap, Cooke & Co. in their large tasteful pavilion in the very centre of the main building floor, instantly catches the eye of every visitor to the St. John exhibition.

J. D. Hazen, K. C., M. P. P., who viewed this exhibit last evening when asked by the Sun what he thought of it, said it was not only a great feature of the exhibition, but credit to the province enterprise and ability. It was a display of which the people of this section of the dominion should be proud.

Last night, in fact all afternoon and evening, the staff in attendance was kept busy showing goods and booking orders for early delivery. And the exhibition is yet in its infancy. With the influx of visitors from other parts of the province which will set in today, will come a still greater volume of patronage. But the firm is prepared to give careful attention to all comers.

UNDERWRITERS ARE MERCIFUL

They Allow Moncton Ten Days of Grace for the Completion of its New Water Main.

The work of laying the new water main in Moncton is progressing fairly well, and it is now expected that the work will be completed by October 1st. Some months ago the Board of fire underwriters notified the mayor and council of Moncton that they would increase the insurance rates if certain things were not done in a stipulated time. An additional flat rate was imposed, which it was decided to increase if the new main was not completed by October 1st. Word was received today by the contractors that they were doing the best they could, but that they had encountered several unexpected obstacles in the way of completing the work. The contractors asked that the time be extended ten days, and it is now understood that this request will be granted as the underwriters do not before it comes. This is very discouraging and certainly it stands to reason that the battalion will not keep up its full strength.

Yours truly, A PRIVATE.

GIVEN FREE AT EXHIBITION.

Messrs. Dearborn & Co. are giving free a 10c. package of their celebrated Economic Tapioca, with each 30c. purchase of Perfect Baking Powder or National Blend Coffee.

WITH ADVERTISERS.

Visitors to the exhibition who will be making purchases of dry goods will profit by visiting the store of F. A. Dykeman & Co. They have made extensive preparations for the exhibition, and their stock has been recently replenished with novelties picked up in the novelty centres, by their buyers, and also some special clearing lines which the buyer secured from some of the factories and agencies in Montreal and Toronto.
