Germans Manage To Reach Barbed Wire Entanglements.

FORCED TO FALL BACK

Russians Capture Village Ten Miles North of Katra Dorna.

[Canadian Press.]

PETROGRAD, Jan. 20.—The following communication from general headquarters of the Russian army was issued today:

"There is nothing of importance to report of the operations on January 19 along our entire front, except the usual fire fighting and cannonading."

"In the region north of Rawa, the Germans made two attempts at a partial offensive. They were stopped by our fire, and the enemy was compelled to fall back."

"On the evening of January 19, the Germans made an attack on the village of Vilkovitski on the left bank of the Duna River. They made an attack against the head of the bridge, under the glare of searchlights, rockets and straw, which had been set on fire, at a distance of three hundred paces. This attack was repulsed by the efficient fire of our artillery."

Fire Two Villages.

"The same evening in Western Galicia the Germans, after cannonading heavily our positions south of the town of Radloff, and setting on fire two villages behind our position, made an attack on them. Compact detachments of the enemy reached our barbed wire entanglements, but our destructive fire prevented further progress. They suffered heavy losses, and were compelled to fall back on their position."

"In Bukovina our troops are advancing with success. They have occupied, after some fighting, the village of Johannsch, about ten miles north of Katra Dorna, where they captured and made prisoners both officers and men."

WHAT BERLIN SAYS.

BERLIN, via wireless to Sayville, Jan. 20.—The Russian offensive at Radanawka and at Sierpce, in Northwestern Poland, near the border of West Prussia, reported in the German official bulletin issued on Tuesday last, appears to have been a part of a continuation of the Russian offensive already reported at the first named place.

The Russians seem to have received reinforcements in this region, and to have advanced to an extended front directly northward toward the East Prussian frontier, or toward the west. Their repulse as announced by the Germans is consistent with military officials here to have removed any present danger in that locality.

Freight Traffic Extended.

BERLIN (via London), Jan. 20.—10:45 p.m.—The Prussian railway transporting of private freight traffic to Siberia, which has only a few miles to the rear of the German frontier, on the Russian river in Russian Poland, The connection for freight traffic, which has reached only as far as Wloclawek.

HUNDRED THOUSAND ARMENIANS STARVING

Migrate To The Caucasus To Escape The Turks, Says
Bishop Mesrop.

BOSTON, Jan. 20.—The condition of 100,000 Armenians, who have migrated from Turkish territory to Russian territory, is described as deplorable, in a cablegram from the central committee for Armenian relief, at Tiflis, received today by Bishop Mesrop, chairman of the Armenian national defense committee. The message was authorized by Catholicos Sourman, patriarch of the Armenian church, and bore the signature of Bishop Mesrop. It read:

"As a result of the war with Turkey about 100,000 Armenians have been driven to the Caucasus to save themselves.
The situation is extremely deplorable.
Many are dying of cold and hunger, in order to save our people from ruin, great assistance is necessary. In the name of these martyrs we beg you to organize or contribute money. Address contributions to Theodoros, director of Bank of Commerce, Tiflis."

READY FOR ANYTHING

Reichsbank President Says Germany Can Meet Burden.

BERLIN, Jan. 20.—(By wireless to Sayville, L.I.)—Rudolph Havenstein, president of the Reichsbank and one of the foremost financial authorities of Germany, asserts that the country will be able to meet any burden which may be imposed by the war upon its financial and economic resources. The Overseas News Agency quotes Herr Havenstein as saying, when an honorary degree was conferred upon him by the University of Bonn:

"I not only hope, but I know, that we shall be able to fight through this immense struggle in the domain of financial and economic affairs, we are equal to every demand, however long the war may last."

BRITISH VESSEL ABLAZE

NEWPORT, Va., Jan. 20.—A British steamer, the vessel, forced the British steamer Newcastle, from Baltimore for Bordeaux with grain, to put into this port today for survey. It is not believed the cargo was damaged. The Newcastle left Baltimore Sunday and the fire was discovered and extinguished Tuesday.

MARVELOUS BALSAMIC ESSENCES CURE CATARRH; NO DRUGS TO TAKE—A DIRECT BREATHING CURE

Statistics Prove Ninety-seven Per Cent of Canada's Population Is Infected With the Germs of Catarrh.

This disease is most dangerous owing to its tendency to extend to the bronchial tubes and lungs, where it causes Consumption. Unfortunately the people have had faith in sprays, ointments and snuffs, which only irritate the throat and cause a national curse. Science is advancing every day, and fortunately a remedy has been discovered that not only cures but prevents catarrh. This new treatment, "Catarrhose," has sufficient power to kill the germs of Bacterial Catarrh and Asthma. It contains

SOISSONS BATTLE TOOK AWFUL TOLL FROM BOTH SIDES

French Lose Vantage Point Which It Will Be Impossible To Regain Till Aisne Flood Subsides.

[Canadian Press.]

BEFORE SOISSONS, Jan. 18.—(By courier to Berlin, Jan. 20.—(Via London, Jan. 21, 9:35 a.m.)—At the headquarters of a German army yesterday evening Gen. Von Kluck and his staff celebrated the battle and their success at Soissons in typical German military fashion, with a simple soldier's meal and a bowl of punch brewed by the expert hands of Von Kluck himself, a graceful little speech by the general, and a silent toast to the dead—both French and German.

The earth was still dropping on the graves of the fallen. So many men perished during the eight days of the bitter struggle for the heights across the river from Soissons that today the fourth day after the conclusion of the battle, the plateau and gorges are still strewn thickly with dead, although 4000 members of the industrial army been engaged without a pause in clearing up the battlefield.

Most of the German dead have been given to the earth; but the French in-fantines in their last gasp have been and blue uniforms gawdy faced Turcos, colonials, Alpine riflemen, and bearded territorials are still sprawling in attitudes natural and almost along the heights, in the deep cut gorges of the plateau and across the flat valley led on the north shore of the Aisne.

The Associated Press representative was the first, and up to the present the only man to inspect the battlefield and to have the opportunity to supplement the brief official reports with descriptive details gathered on the spot.

The results of the German success are regarded here as highly important.
The French were completely expelled from the heights north of the Aisne—a vantage ground from which they had hoped to launch a successful attack against the big elbow in the German line, and driven across the river which now runs brimful and at many places is overflowing its banks between the two armies.

The French retain a foothold north of the river only at one point—St. Paul—where the bridge from Soissons crosses, and hold this apparently on sufferance, since the bridge head is completely commanded by German artillery on the heights. The river at this time forms an effective barrier to any repetition of an attempted French offensive on this section of the line.

The battlefield covers a front of approximately seven miles. On the western side is a deep valley running northward, which is bounded on either side by the turpikes from Soissons to La Fere and Laon. A high level plateau flank steeply a couple of hundred feet from the valley of the Aisne and this side of the valley forms the centre and eastern flank of the battlefield. The French have been unable to dislodge the German forces from the plateau, and along the heights, in the deep cut
flat valley led on the north shore of the Aisne.

The battle began on January 13 with a French attack on the valley to the west of the two turpikes. The attack had been prepared for by a terrible artillery bombardment. Field artillery concentrated the fire on the German trenches and there was such a rain of shell and shrapnel on the defenders that they were unable to make an effective defense against the French infantry attack. The French with great dash carried part of the German positions, but by their success they damped the vigor of their artillery bombardment.

RAIDERS CROSSED ISLANDS OF DUTCH

Protest Likely To Follow Violation of Neutrality.

RECALL GERMAN PROTEST

Objections To French and British Airships Crossing Switzerland.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—The most important feature of the latest German exploit, the raid on the Norfolk coast last night, which cost four lives, is, in the highest degree, the presumption that the raiders, both in coming and returning, violated the neutrality of Holland.

All dispatches from Amsterdam received since the raid positively declare that the airships passed directly over the outer Frisian islands, and it is considered that the neutral declaration of the Government will make a formal protest to the Netherlands Government.

Although the issue of life and property in last night's raid was insignificant compared to that of the more spectacular sea raid on the Yorkshire coast, public indignation runs, if possible, even higher than after the event, and every comment heard is chiefly concerned with the question of the violation of Holland's borders.

An especially interesting feature of the case is that it is only a short time since Germany herself formally protested to Switzerland against an alleged breach of her neutrality by the French and British aeroplanes while making for Friedrichshafen. On that occasion, it is remembered here, the allied raiders were able to demonstrate beyond all doubt that they had passed only over French and German territory. In the present case there seems to be no doubt that the Germans passed above the Frisian islands, if not over a portion of the mainland.

ALBERTA FARMERS
WANT CHEAPER MONEY

EDMONTON, Jan. 20.—James Speak-man, of Innisfail, is elected president of the United Farmers of Alberta.
In his capacity as president of the prohibition plebiscite was taken next July, that all the unions would get out and work to put up a big majority against the liquor trade.

Resolutions asked the Government to provide legislation, whereby the farmer may secure cheaper money and a better line of credit, which it is believed can be secured by means of cooperative credit associations, and urging the organization of a wholesale distribution society on a purely co-operative basis, owned and controlled by the local unions of the U. F. A.

MAYOR IN MONTREAL WEST.
MONTREAL, Jan. 20.—James Ballaty was elected mayor at the nominations today in Montreal West.

EL PASO, Texas, Jan. 20.—The elimination of both Vanuista Carranza and Francisco Villa is proposed by a new movement in Mexico. This was learned today in most authentic reports from the interior.

The movement is headed by General Alvaro Obregon, Carranza's military chief, and General Eulalio Gutierrez, the national convention's provisional secretary, who recently fled from the capital.

"They have agreed together and with several of the Carranza and Villa leaders it is reported, to organize an independent movement to establish a lasting peace."

A statement attributed to General Gutierrez while in power at the Mexican capital, was quoted here tonight as follows: "I will use all my power in a last effort to restore peace in Mexico and to that end I will insist upon the elimination of both Carranza and Villa.
If my life is spared I believe that the effort will be successful."

Several prominent Villa officials have been jailed, or met execution as a result of the new movement, it was reported here. Luis Benavides, General Villa's private secretary, and confidential adviser, is reported in jail at Mexico City.
The troops which left Mexico City with Carranza have formed a junction with Obregon's column and are preparing to enter the capital, according to apparent reliable reports. Villa remained today at Aguas Calientes.

GERMAN OFFICERS WOULD DELAY RAID

But Order Is Given That the Advance Into Egypt Must Be Pushed.

[Canadian Press.] London, Jan. 21.—(10:30 a.m.)—A dispatch from Cairo, Egypt, to Reuters Telegram Company says: "A German officer who was recently employed in an important post by the Turkish Government in Syria, states that German officers recently made an urgent report to Berlin via Constantinople, recommending the postponement of the Egyptian expedition until its organization and equipment were improved and reinforced. The report was that the advance must be pushed at all costs."

"German experts declare that the expedition under present conditions can only result in small raiding parties reaching Egypt, as the main body must advance along a route well known to the enemy, making opposition easy."

GERMANS DELIGHTED

Consider Air Raid Shows British Seas and Warships Useless.

[Canadian Press.] Berlin, via Amsterdam and London, Jan. 21.—(10:20 a.m.)—The isolation of the British islands is considered successful, says the Morgen Post in its comments on the air raid made by the Germans on the English coast. "Of what use to Great Britain," it adds, "are the surrounding seas and war vessels, if our airplanes cross the water, dropping bombs?"

COUNT CAPTURED

Hamilton Again Protests Its Running Through Town of Burlington.

MRS. JOHN WHITE, OF WOODSTOCK, DEAD

Woodstock, Jan. 20.—Announcement of the death of Mrs. John White, wife of Lieut.-Col. John White, of this city, came as a decided shock to a large number of friends. ## GERMAN BOMBS LIKE GIANT PLUMBS; EXPLOSION TERRIFIC

One Made a Hole Into Which Front of House Tumbled—Houses Within Hundred Yards of Crash Lose All Their Windows and Roof Tiles.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—While a German report issued today states that the aircraft raid on the towns of Norfolk was successful it appears so far that only four or five persons were killed and about as many injured. The extent of property loss has not been estimated. It is generally believed, from the small size of the missiles used, that the raid was made by aeroplanes and not by Zeppelins. The report that a Zeppelin had been brought down by fire of a warship is denied. Two of the bombs which failed to explode were seen by the Associated Press representative today at Yarmouth. In appearance they were like giant lead plums and when standing upright, reached to a point several inches higher than a sentry's knee. The bombs were exhibited to the public in the armory, which itself was showered with steel during the raid. One of the bombs broke in the fall and lumps of a yellowish substance taken from it were distributed by a sentry as souvenirs. This mass was simply a wax packing which had been used inside the shell, probably in order to give more force to the explosive. One of the bombs was found this morning lying under the boots of a teamster's horse. The teamster, ignorant of its nature, kicked the bomb away and then drove on.

The dispatch says: "The guns of the Austrian fleet and force at Cattaro furiously bombarded Mount Lovchen for several hours. A great quantity of ammunition was expended without damage to the Montenegrin positions. A heavy fall of snow in the past few days has stopped military operations on all fronts."

Voice of the People

A Reply to Mr. Stevenson.

To the Editor of The Advertiser.—

I have read Mr. De Forest's letter in your columns and also the reply of Rev. Robert Stevenson, in your issue of Friday last. I have no file of the former letter, and only recollect in a general way that he deprecated war among Christian nations, and voiced the sentiments of those who believe in a concerted peace propaganda. When I commenced to read Rev. Mr. Stevenson's reply, I quite naturally inferred from his pessimistic outlook upon life and his insistence on a personal coming of Christ to reign, as essential to the ushering in of his kingdom and the advent of universal peace—that we were being "instructed" by some over-zealous disciple of Pastor Russell. Imagine my surprise and chagrin when I saw the writer's name indorsed, "Congregational Minister." I do not know the rev. gentleman, but have no doubt as to his sincerity though I cannot help saying that his letter, coming from such a source, cuts a sorry figure, being pessimistic and depressing in tone, reactionary and un-Scriptural in conception and teaching, and well calculated to be misleading among the masses in its influence. His cocksureness in thus publicly championing these bizarre conceptions is truly amazing. He even berates his brethren in the ministry for what he calls their "ignorance and prejudice," saying that he is "heartily ashamed of a great many of them," and for what reason?—because they have the Christian faith and hope to look for and pray for universal peace and the Christianizing of the world at large, while he is intent on proving (to his own satisfaction) that the world is ruled by Satan and continually getting worse, so that he will spend his life in preaching views regarding the personal return and reign of Christ as essential, either to universal peace or the Christianizing of the world at large. He reaches the limit in his bizarre heresies when he makes the startling and thoroughly unorthodox assertion that the gospel is to be preached among all nations for a witness, but not as a means of converting the nations in this age. God's revealed purpose in this age is to take vengeance on "a people for his name" who will in the next age rule and reign with Christ's "six."

The adoption of such a view would not only thoroughly belie the plain teaching of Christ and his apostles as to the pressing urgency of spreading the gospel message, but would utterly nullify all Christian effort towards the saving of the heathen world and the carrying out of the church's marching orders to go "into all the world and make disciples of the nations."

Besides, how much do we really know, or should know, about the quasi-seventeenth state of society on the earth that, according to such teaching, is to usher in Christ's kingdom and universal peace at the second advent? Our business is to improve the golden hours and opportunities of the present; it is to let the clear, steady light of God's truth in us shine out against the dark background of the world's sin and sorrow, not simply that we may convince the world of coming judgment, but that they, seeing our good works, may glorify our Father who is in Heaven. Our business is not so much to convict the world as to save the world, and to save the world, we must first save the souls within our gates, the heathen at home and abroad. What? The gospel itself, a witness, but not to save the world, as Christ said on one occasion: "Say not ye, there are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? Behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields that they are white already unto the harvest." And again: "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few. Pray ye, therefore, the Lord of the harvest that he would send laborers into his harvest." Many other instances might be mentioned where Christ emphasized the urgency of sending the gospel to the nations as in the parables of the talents, and of the marriage feast. There was no vicious procrastination in the teaching of Jesus that would encourage his followers to neglect the world's present needs, and with irreconcilable will and folded arms live in anticipation of some miraculous spiritual cataclysm that would usher in heavenly conditions on the earth and put all men in rapport with heavenly ideals. Again, if the rev. gentleman is ashamed of his brethren because they cannot see eye to eye with him, I am also ashamed of the miserable cramped-up idea in Mr. Stevenson's letter that Satan is still ruling this world, and that the world is going from bad to worse. No, the world is not a back-gate world, but a forward-gate world, and Satan, like the sea, can go so far and no further. Only once do we read that the shadow of the world's dial went backward, and then only for a sign. If, instead of taking a broad telescopic view of life and the world, we take a microscope hole and corner view, we may easily become pessimistic and come to rash conclusions. Mr. Stevenson thinks that we have only to pick up a newspaper any day to prove that the world is getting worse. But, for every case of murder, or theft, or oppression, or drunkenness, we read about how many, many cases are there of those who hold life sacred, or the rights in property, inviolable, or oppression to be condemned, or drunkenness to be abhorred. It is the sum that usually comes to the surface and too often receives undue attention, while beneath is the pure

Too Many Trees.

The suggestion to trim trees to give men work does not go far enough. Why not take out every second tree, and we would still have twice too many? London does not get enough sunlight. Many roofs are covered with mud, all on account of too many trees. Let the poor people advise this from a sanitary standpoint. Forest trees should not be on narrow streets.

Suggests a Lottery.

Patriotic funds are getting low. Another appeal does not succeed, why not try what Germany for years has been making money out of, viz: a lottery. In these strenuous times, Canada must do all she can, even if it is gambling. We must get more money. Germany has been getting money this way for years, and thousands of dollars have gone from the United States and Canada for lottery tickets to help the German army. Why can't we do the same now, when our existence is in the balance? London has lots of capable men to run this thing in a honest way, and give a poor man a chance to win a big prize. PATRIOTISM.

SIX ARRESTS FOLLOW LOCAL CAR DERAILMENT

Ten Tons Copper Stolen From Toronto Hydro Commission.

TORONTO, Jan. 20.—The Toronto police have recovered 20,000 pounds of copper wire, mostly the product of a hydro-electric system, and 4,000 pounds of brass journals, belonging to the C. P. R., which was stolen in the most barefaced fashion in the last few weeks. Three line-men and three Toronto junk dealers are under arrest.

The derailment of a car at London, Ont., necessitating the closing of the tracks, gave the clue. Some of the thieves were committed in the most open fashion, the poles of the Scarborough division of the Canadian Northern being stripped for a distance of two miles in broad daylight and before the eyes of many passers-by.

Canadian Firemen Cancel Contract With Buffalo Organization.

ST. CATHARINES, Jan. 20.—The firemen of Niagara-on-the-Lake having a difficulty in securing an orchestra for their New Year's ball engaged a German organization from Buffalo, but were obliged to cancel the contract because many of the residents declared they would not attend a dance if a Canadian orchestra could not be procured.

It is understood that the German musicians intend to retaliate by refusing to play for any Canadian organization that puts foot in Buffalo.

DETROITERS REFUSE CANADIAN MONEY

One Firm Rejecting It Said to Have Canadian Branches.

LEAMINGTON, Jan. 20.—Canadian shoppers in Detroit are annoyed at the action of some of the downtown merchants, who are either discounting or refusing Canadian money. One specific case is that of a firm which is refusing to accept it at any price. This firm, it is said, has branch stores in London, Chatham, Berlin, Brantford, Toronto, and other Canadian cities. Canadians will resent this action.

Colds or Coughs

Should Never Be Neglected.

If They Are, Some Serious Lung Troubles Are Sure To Follow.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

Cures Coughs and Colds on their first inception, and will thereby prevent you from becoming affected with some serious lung trouble, such as bronchitis, pneumonia or even consumption.

When you ask for "Dr. Wood's" see that you get it, as there are many imitations on the market.

"Dr. Wood's" is put up in a yellow wrapper: three pine trees the trade mark; price, 25c and 50c, and manufactured only by Dr. T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Mrs. Thomas Bridges, Gorrie, Ont., writes: "I was so bad with a cold I gave up work, and I was in bed four weeks, being unable to do anything. I thought the cold was turning to bronchitis, so I changed my medicine to Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, used three bottles, and they completely cured me, and I am as strong as ever. I highly recommend it to all sufferers."

SURE WAY TO GET RID OF DANDRUFF

End Itching Scalp and Stop Falling Hair—At Once.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning the dandruff will be gone, and your hair will be shiny, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do it by this means: get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only destroys the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and undiluted food powder will need. This simple remedy has been known to fail.

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When cross, feverish and sick, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and it cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again. "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by California Fig Syrup Company, San Francisco, Cal. Refuse any other kind with contempt.
