

ASQUITH ANNOUNCES FAILURE TO END THE MINERS' STRIKE; WILL PUSH THE BILL THROUGH

British Premier Visibly Affected Today When He Informs Commons That Conferences Have Proved Fruitless.

REASSERTS HIS DETERMINATION NOT TO INSERT THE SCHEDULE

The Situation Throughout the United Kingdom Grows More Appalling Hourly, and Distress Is Terrible—All Trains Will Be Stopped By the End of the Week.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 26.—In a short speech in the House of Commons this afternoon Premier Asquith confessed the Government's failure to terminate the coal strike as follows:

"We have done our best, with perfect thoroughness and impartiality, and it is with profound disappointment that I have to confess to the House that all our labors have been unavailing."

The Premier made a final appeal to the disputants.

"If at this time our parties cannot come to a reasonable agreement on a matter of relatively small proportions, they will have a very serious account to render to the country. The Government has done all it can."

Premier Asquith's idea is that once the principle of minimum wage has been established by the law there will be better basis for a compromise between the disputants.

The Premier told the House of Commons again this afternoon that the Government could not consent to the insertion of any figures in the minimum wage bill, but at the same time he was sorry that an agreement had not been reached between the employers and the men, outside of the minimum daily rates of $1 25 for men and 50 cents for boys.

Premier Asquith, who was obviously laboring under tense emotion at the failure of his efforts, closed his brief remarks almost inaudibly.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 26.—The coal mine owners of the South Wales coal district have become tired of the continued conferences with the members of the cabinet and the miners. They left the council chamber at the foreign office at 4 o'clock this afternoon, showing every evidence of being disgruntled.

"We have chucked it," said one of them, "because the miners are constantly meeting our concessions with new demands."

Premier Asquith, however, still clings to the shreds of his optimism.

"It is not yet beyond the range of possibility that an arrangement may yet be come to by the parties outside of the minimum wage bill," he told the House of Commons this afternoon. At the same time Mr. Asquith announced his determination to push the bill through all its stages today.

LONDON CLERGYMEN FAVOR PUBLISHING MARRIAGE LICENSES

Think It Would Be a Move In the Right Direction.

Although the majority of the local clergy regard as an absurd law the amendment to the marriage laws, where it is proposed to fine a clergyman performing a marriage when one or the other of the parties to be married is intoxicated, those seen by The Advertiser today were unanimous in the opinion that the present marriage laws are in need of investigation, and that several improvements could be made.

CHICAGO PACKERS NOT GUILTY IS VERDICT OF THE JURY

Decision Given After Seventeen Hours Consideration.

[Canadian Press.] Chicago, March 26.—Not guilty was the verdict with the jury returned today in the trial of the Chicago packers accused by the Government of violating the criminal sections of the Sherman anti-trust act.

The verdict was returned before U. S. court after the jury had spent over seventeen hours. The packers have been on trial for many months charged with a combination in restraint of trade.

The defendants were in court when the verdict was read. Each defendant smiled, and some shook hands with their attorneys. The courtroom was crowded. The verdict came as a surprise to many who had been watching the case and had feared the 19-hour wait meant a long-drawn battle in the juryroom.

27TH ANNIVERSARY OF RIEL REBELLION IN THE NORTHWEST

Death Has Riddled the Ranks of 7th Battalion Which Went to the Front.

Today is the 27th anniversary of the outbreak of the Riel rebellion in the Canadian West, which a short time later resulted in the departure for the scene of action of the Seventh Fusiliers of London, many of whom are still scattered about the country, some retired, others active and mightily prosperous.

The uprising was first considered a matter of moment on March 26, and on April 7 the men of the then Seventh Battalion departed from London to take part in the campaign.

A number of the officers have passed to the great beyond during the past few years, including Major McMillan, paymaster of the regiment, and afterward judge at Cayuga; Chaplain Ball, father of Police Magistrate Ball, of Woodstock; Quartermaster-Sergeant J. B. Smythe, afterwards known more familiarly as Squire Smythe; Lieut.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OPENS CONVENTION

A Special Service Marked the Occasion in St. Paul's Cathedral Today.

SERMON BY THE BISHOP

His Lordship of Huron Deals With the Church and the Missionary Spirit.

The formal opening of the 25th annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Huron took place this morning when, after registration of members, a service was held in St. Paul's Cathedral. Bishop Williams preached an able sermon, choosing his text from St. John, chapter four, and part of verse six: "No man cometh unto the Father but by me."

"In none of his recorded sayings does the Lord declare more clearly his mission to the world in these words," said Bishop Williams. "They are in keeping with the claim that he came to the world in the name of God, and as no other will ever come again, I would ask you, today, to consider these words in their bearing upon the heathen world and our attitude towards it, and I would ask you to think of them inclusively and exclusively. First of all, inclusively."

Into the Dark Ages. "At first sight they appear to limit the possibilities of knowledge, of light and of truth to him who is named the Father, but I do not think that was exactly in the Saviour's mind when he uttered them. The words really carry us into the dark ages and dark places of the earth, and tell us that wherever in those ages or places the devout aspiration for the unseen, the aspiration towards God, wherever there is the perception of a gleam of light, and wherever there is heroic, self-surrender, self-sacrifice, in consequence of that perception, there is Christ, though his name be not named, and though we see him not, and where Christ is, there is access to the Father. We know that in every nation he that fears God is accepted of him."

This inclusive sense of the word shows there is a wideness of God's mercy, and there is no race or people or individual beyond his mercy. Christianity Stands Alone. "The words which have an exclusive sense, Christ, the Lord, is the one access to the Father. His words are quite explicit. Christianity is not one among many ways of access to the Father. Christ claims to stand alone, and Christianity claims to stand alone. The real tendency of other religions is to lead men away from God rather than to lead them to him."

ROW IN SHORT ORDER OVER A YOUNG PUP

Three Men Were Embroiled Without Knowing What It Was About.

A pup, the chum of a gentleman who drank too freely, was the innocent cause of a row last evening on Clarence street. Last evening a fight resulted in three men being taken to the police station charged with disorderly conduct. The men were allowed to go immediately when it was shown that he was acting the role of peacemaker, while the other two were assessed $2 each, with the option of ten days in jail by Police Magistrate Judd this morning.

According to the story, William Brennan left his dog on Clarence street while he went into a factory to apply for employment. Two C. P. R. railway men passing at the time looked good to the dog, who started to follow them. One of the men attempted to discourage the canine, but was engaged in petting him before saying farewell when Brennan appeared. A free fight was on before the parties really understood the reason. One of the railroaders stepped in to stop the trouble and lost his hat in the fracas. Just as a police officer appeared.

This appeared to be good evidence of disorderly conduct, so the policeman took all three to the station. The railway men, however, allowed to peacemaker was, however, allowed to go, while the others were locked up for the night.

Move To Have C. P. R. Run South to Manufacturing District.

A SUBWAY AT G. T. R. CROSSING

Big Trunk Line Is Likely To Come East on Adelaide Street.

Negotiations were opened on Monday afternoon between the city council and the C. P. R. to bring the company's line across the G. T. R. east of the city, down into the manufacturing district of the east end, connecting with the London and Port Stanley Railway.

Ald. Johnston, chairman of the special committee dealing with this matter, took Superintendent King and District Freight Agent Mulkern, of the railway, over the ground. They started their tour of inspection from Pottersburg, went over the possible crossings east of the city, and then came on down town to select possible routes to join with the London and Port Stanley Railway.

Later Mayor Graham, Ald. Murphy and Ald. Moore met the gentlemen, and the whole question was informally discussed.

Crossing the G. T. R.

It was thought that the Grand Trunk could be crossed east of the city by means of a subway to better advantage than a bridge. It would be impossible to secure a level crossing there, it was pointed out, the Dominion railway commission being utterly opposed to it, owing to the danger.

The question of a connection between the London and Port Stanley and the C. P. R. at St. Thomas was also taken up, and these questions will be dealt with later.

Superintendent King decided to bring the whole matter to the attention of Mr. McNichol, vice-president of the C. P. R., at Toronto, and another conference will be arranged in a short time.

"The negotiations were formally opened," said an alderman. "The representatives from the company were met by certain aldermen, and taken over the route, and shown the advantages. Mr. King, who has been in the city but a short time, was not familiar with conditions, and he went carefully over the ground. He was much taken with the feasibility of the scheme, and though it would be of advantage, not only to the company, but to the city."

C. P. R. Will Make Application.

"The matter will be brought to the attention of Mr. McNichol immediately and as soon as it has been definitely decided what kind of construction is to be made use of in crossing the Grand Trunk, the C. P. R. will ask the city to co-operate with them in an appeal to the Dominion railway commission for the right to cross the Grand Trunk tracks."

"There will be no objection to that, as it will be obviously to the advantage of the city to furnish competition with the Grand Trunk in the south-eastern section of the city. We did not decide on the actual route to be taken in coming into the city. It will probably be in the neighborhood of Trafalgar street, where an easy landing can be made."

In addition to the city council, the manufacturers and board of trade will be asked to assist in getting the company the right to invade that section of the city. The interswitching charges are considered prohibitive, and the ships are discriminated against.

Connection at St. Thomas.

"Some mention was made regarding a connection between the C. P. R. and the London and Port Stanley at St. Thomas. That is very vague as yet, but it will be taken up when the time comes."

"I expect word from Mr. McNichol at any time. I understand that he is quite conversant with conditions here, and is anxious to have some improvement in the service in London. He will not delay matters long."

"It is the intention of the special committee, I understand, to rush negotiations in order to get the C. P. R. down into that section, and connected with the L. and P. S. before the matter of track elevation is finally decided. If the C. P. R. is down there, and doing business, there will be better opportunities for bringing the C. P. R. into the negotiations and securing a union station. That is the end towards which we are working, and we will hurry the matter along."

Removing Freight Sheds.

"Ald. Wright is very anxious to have the C. P. R. freight sheds removed from Wellington street, and it was suggested that they be built near the present M. C. R. sheds. However, that matter was not dealt with, but will come up some time later."

Negotiations have been finally opened, and I would not be a bit surprised if something was not accomplished in a very short time."

No date was set for the next conference, but it will be held as soon as Mr. McNichol is heard from.

TO LIGHT FALLS.

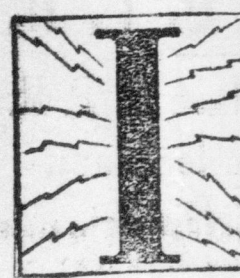

Niagara Falls, Ont., March 26.—Evan B. Fraser, M. P., will interview Premier Whitney tomorrow in an effort to induce the Government to grant $50,000 towards the illumination of Niagara Falls.

JACK BINNS' LESSONS IN WIRELESS.

Any Boy Can Make His Own Wireless Outfit. — — — Jack Binns

[By Jack R. Binns.]

AM in favor of teaching boys how to operate wireless telegraphs for the reason that it is from amateurs that most of the improvement in the wireless will come.

Efforts have been made to pass a law that would restrict the use of the ether by amateur wireless operators. It is true that sometimes the wireless companies and the Government wireless is hard put to it to find any room in the air for their messages, on account of the ticking of the amateurs. Around New York, particularly, during the winter time when young men stay at home and talk with each other through the air, the wireless companies sometimes have to wait until late in the evening before they can do much work.

However, I believe, in the unrestricted policy for amateurs for their having more leisure to observe and experiment, than have the operators who are employed by a company, will be better able to make those improvements which come only from long and leisurely experimentation. The study of wireless telegraphy is not only a fascinating pursuit for boys, but it also is of great practical value to them. In following out instructions which are simply expressed in the

For a few cents more than $5 any boy who follows the simple lessons that are to be given, will be able to own and operate a wireless apparatus that will send a distance of 25 miles and will receive messages from a distance of 10 miles.

Two boys in a neighborhood, each

The wireless that we are going to make can also be used as a field wireless and for that reason it seems to me that it would fit in fine style with the summer expeditions of Boy Scouts.

The first lesson will appear in tomorrow's edition of The Advertiser.

Fire Burned All Night.

It was nearly 5 o'clock before the chief was satisfied in his mind that there was no danger of the flames spreading more than they had done. Every part of the block that was destined to destruction was burned or burning, and the whole made a sensational spectacle for the hundreds of onlookers who had been gathering all afternoon, attracted to the scene by the dense pall of smoke which could be seen for miles in every direction. At 7 o'clock the fire was still at its height, so far as appearance went, but there was nothing about it then to give anxiety to the department, and the streams of water were reduced to about seven branches. These were kept going until after midnight, when a considerable party of firemen in charge playing water on the smoldering ruins. The chief expects to have men at the place until late this morning, as the piles of debris seem likely to burn for many hours.

FIGHTING FOR A MILLION

Alberta Supreme Court Hearing Case Over Railway Bonds.

[Canadian Press.]

Edmonton, Alta., March 25.—The second round of the fight between the Alberta Government and the Royal Bank for the control of one million dollars of the proceeds of the sale of bonds of the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway Company, now lying in the bank, opened in the supreme court this morning. The appeal of the bank and of the railway and construction companies was argued before their lordships. Eminent counsel are engaged on the case and the result of the appeal will attract widespread interest. Whatever the outcome may be at this stage the case will be carried direct from the supreme court of Alberta to the privy council.

William Clark, president of the American syndicate, is directing the case here. A representative of Morgan and Co., who underwrote the bonds, is present.

JOINED IN DEATH.

Pittsburgh, March 25.—John S. Smith, aged 86, and his wife, aged 79, are dead at their home in Reynoldsville, Pa., and they will be buried side by side Wednesday. Mr. Smith died at 7 o'clock Friday evening, and his wife passed away at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Many times Mrs. Smith had said: "If John dies first I want to live long enough only to know that he is dead."

Both became ill with pneumonia. When the husband died the aged woman, in another room, knew by the faces of her children that her husband had gone. She called them to her bedside.

"John is dead, isn't he?"

"When told the truth, she said: 'Don't bury him till Wednesday.' She joined him in death 36 hours later.

A SPECTACULAR TORONTO FIRE DOES HALF MILLION DAMAGE

The Street Car Barns With Hundreds of Motors and Trailers Destroyed, and Several Small Near-By Factories Wiped Out—All-Night Conflagration.

ESTIMATED DAMAGE

Toronto Railway Company, Cars, $360,000; buildings, $100,000.
R. A. Sabiston Co.—Machinery and contents, $25,000; building, $10,000.
A. B. McColl & Co., warehouses, $25,000.
Marshall Sanitary Mattress Company, stock, $10,000.
Gendron Manufacturing Company, stock, $5,000.
Perforated Music Company, stock, $5,000.
Muirhead Varnish Company, contents, $10,000.
Laidlaw Lumber Company, Canadian Northern Railway and other small losses, about $5,000. All covered by insurance.

Toronto, March 26.—Over two hundred street cars were destroyed, a blanket factory and its contents were wiped out of existence, two warehouses and a huge car-shed were gutted, and a large number of other buildings sustained more or less injury, entailing a loss to the insurance companies of about $500,000. In the course of a raging fire yesterday afternoon and evening, which started at 3 o'clock in one of the cars in the northeast corner of the King street barns, and almost instantly flashed to every part of the block bounded by King and St. Lawrence streets, Eastern avenue and the Don Esplanade. The precise extent of the damage cannot yet be computed, as many of the firms affected have not been able to estimate their losses, and it is not even known just how many cars, or what kind of cars, were in the railway barn. It is thought that there were about 125 trailers and 100 motors, the latter including several of the "police" type, which are valued by the company at $9,000 each. The great majority of the cars, however, were of the open kind, and most of them had just come from the painting shops in readiness for use in the warm weather. The big car barns, which are several hundred feet in length, are practically a total loss.

Aside from the railway company,

He Could Not Walk or Sleep

BUT DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED HIM.

Quebec Postmaster's Remarkable Recovery Is the Talk of the Whole Country.

Rumpleville, Megantic Co., Que., March 25.—(Special)—The remarkable cure of Mr. Achille Vachon, the well-known merchant and postmaster here, is the talk of the whole countryside. Mr. Vachon was confined to his bed with kidney disease. One box of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him. But let him tell his story in his own words: "I was troubled with kidney disease," Mr. Vachon says, "I got so bad I could not walk, while my sleep was broken, and I could not rest. It was then I sent for Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the second day after starting to take them I rested better, and before I had finished the box I was in excellent health. You can publish this statement, for I want my friends to know what a grand remedy Dodd's Kidney Pills are."

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure sick kidneys. They have never been known to fail. Cured kidneys make pure blood, and pure blood will cure nine-tenths of the ills to which the flesh is heir. If you haven't used Dodd's Kidney Pills yourself, ask your neighbors.

A VOTES FOR WOMEN BILL DEFEATED IN LEGISLATURE

Two Measures to Extend Franchise to Women Were Voted Down.

Toronto, March 26.—Party allegiance was laid aside for an hour or so in the Legislature yesterday afternoon when the bill to extend the political franchise to married women and spinsters was discussed. At the present time these two classes of women can vote in municipal elections, and W. McDonald, Liberal member for Centre Bruce, introduced the bill to amend the Ontario Election Act merely to extend the provincial franchise to them also.

Mr. McDonald deplored the fact that male foreigners with only one year's residence in the country can vote and yet women, no matter how much property they own, cannot exercise the provincial franchise.

"I have nothing to say in favor of manhood suffrage," said Mr. McDonald. "I'm not blaming the Government, for I know it was first introduced by Sir Oliver Mowat. But I don't care from whom it originated. It has been a source of corruption ever since, and in seaport towns, especially, many men not long resident in the country can be bought at election time for a mere song."

"It is to offset this transient vote that we propose to extend the vote to married women and spinsters with property qualifications," he added.

"Hear, hear," said Capt. Machin, the Conservative member for Kenora. "I endorse the bill heartily, for it is just extending the provincial vote to the same women who can now vote in municipal elections."

Liberal Leader.

On this subject, N. W. Rowell threw aside for the moment his official position as leader of the Opposition, and spoke as a plain, ordinary member.

"I support this bill, as member for North Oxford," he said. "Unmarried women and spinsters can now vote on municipal affairs, which include a wide range of subjects over which this House has jurisdiction. The granting of the political franchise, as this bill provides for, would be elevating, and give added intelligence to the electorate."

Mr. James Whitney was not silent either. "One question I am not disposed to quarrel about is whether woman is or is not the equal of man," he said. "But I maintain that if we are ever going to get around this question—if it's going to be settled at all, it will be by opening the flood gates and letting all the sisters in."

"But isn't this little bit of a cherry just the entering wedge of the whole subject? And the question of woman suffrage is absolutely dull and dead in this province at the present time. Therefore his motion for a discussion of the question of woman suffrage all through the last campaign. And some of the deputations of women who came here to the parliament buildings said openly that the reason they wanted the franchise was because they were agreed that government by men had failed." Sir James added that Mr. McDonald no doubt had introduced his bill as the result of persuasion by little groups of women who agitate these matters in practically every constituency in the province.

Provincial Secretary Hanna said that a suffrage bill had never been presented to the House in this form before. The people had not discussed it, neither had the press. It wasn't even mentioned at the last election. Therefore he moved an amendment to Mr. McDonald's bill, giving it a six months' hoist.

Allan Studholme said he would support the bill. It didn't convey as much as he wished, for he wanted to see women side by side with men. However, it was a step in the right direction.

The bill was lost on division.

"Tuberculosis is the greatest enemy mankind has to fight at the present time," said Dr. McQueen, North Wentworth, in urging the second reading of his bill to prevent the spread of pulmonary and other forms of tuberculosis. Dr. McQueen drew attention to the fact that out of all the expenditures of the province, only a paltry $271,000 was spent annually on hospitals and sanatoria. He explained, moreover, that while 88 per cent of the cases reported in 1908 died, 93 per cent died in 1909, and 89 per cent in 1910. Compulsory notification of the provincial board of health was one of the preventive methods advocated. The member for North Wentworth said that by this means there was a combined action between the state and the individual. In preventing the development of this disease, advances are being made, he said, there being no specific medical treatment that would bring about a cure once the disease had gained much headway.

The Eight-Hour Bill.

"I'm pleading that the Government do not give this bill a six months' hoist," declared Mr. Studholme, in discussing the eight-hour miners' bill. "Labor is distrustful in this instance, or they have got the idea, rightly or wrongly, that the remarks of the minister of lands and mines indicate that he is playing into the hands of the mine owners."

"I want to say, and if I'm wrong I ask you to correct me, that there's not a member of this House has been here eight hours a day for five days a week since the session started."

"We've been here some nights," commented Dr. Jessop, Lincoln.

"Yes, and I've had the pleasure of keeping you," replied Mr. Studholme.

Sam Clarke, West Northumberland, defended the eight-hour bill. He thought that the member for East Hamilton spoke courageously, honestly and conscientiously.

Vote Today.

N. W. Rowell said he merely wanted to make it known that he could not consent to a six months' hoist of the bill. He thought the principle of the bill should be affirmed with unanimity by the House, even though there was some delay in working out the details. Similar objections have come up in this regard and always the decision has been in favor of the eight-hour day. I'm not talking about details. They can be modified in committee."

Mr. Rowell, therefore, agreed to press the bill, and on the recommendation of Sir James Whitney, the vote will be taken today.

Notes For Women.

At the night session the slogan, "Votes for Women" ruled the air. Allan Studholme and T. R. Whitesides both championed the suffrage cause, but both gladiators were felled. The member for seat B, East Toronto, wanted to extend the same right to married women holding property as is now given to widows and spinsters.

Provincial Secretary Hanna pointed out that if there were any abuses in the present law, Mr. Whitesides' bill would not remedy it. If this bill were passed a man owning property could, by placing part of it in his wife's name, get another vote for his own purpose.

The recommendation of the Provincial Secretary, Mr. Whitesides' bill was withdrawn.

Mr. Studholme then talked for over an hour on his own bill to give women the franchise.

"I want to see woman have the same right to vote in political elections," said he, "that she now has in municipal elections."

The member for East Hamilton during the course of his remarks justified the window-smashing proceedings of the English suffragettes. At 10:30 p.m. Mr. Studholme commenced the discussion of his universal eight-hour bill.

Hon. Dr. Pyne introduced a bill regarding "the compulsory school attendance of adolescents." By the provisions of the new bill, young people between the ages of 14 and 17 years can on a vote of the board of education, be compelled to attend night school if it is found that their education has been neglected. They may even be compelled to leave work and attend day school. The bill will come into force as a local option measure when recommended by the municipal boards of education throughout the province.

LONDON, TUESDAY, MARCH 26.

"STAY IN ONTARIO."

The Advertiser is gratified at the general response to its "Stay in Ontario" propaganda. Words of appreciation come from many quarters, including the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Sincere, commendable, other papers have been started on the same track.

All through Western Ontario local publicity campaigns have been stimulated. New associations have sprung up, and there promises to be a wide-spread chain of them over a district that is well worth advertising.

The movement is in no sense antagonistic to Western Canada's development; we are paying the west the tribute of copying its methods, with perhaps something less of exaggeration.

Hitherto Western Ontario has simply taken it for granted that it is the garden of the earth and that everybody knew it. Probably the man who has "gone west" does know it best of all, however prosperous he may be in his new world. Dr. Drummond's pathetic poem of "Saint Sebastian," pictures the feelings of a French-Canadian woman as she thinks in her prairie home of "the hill of Saint Sebastian that's very far away." Many a western man or woman, we can wager, looks back with like longing to the old Thames Valley, or the smiling fields of Lambton, Kent and Essex, or the noble woods of Huron and Bruce, or the grand farm-land of Oxford, Elgin and Middlesex, or the lovely wells and glades of Springbank, or London's homes and gardens. But as they try to forget these things, and as so many in and out of this region have failed to realize them, Western Ontario now gives herself a rousing shake from her complacency and careless comfort. We have something to talk about, the goods are up to specifications and better.

Western Canada, on the other hand, is not so secure at present. Things are less rosy since the defeat of reciprocity. There is less reason than ever for leaving Ontario. Here are advantages both of soil and of market. Especially this part of Ontario is characterized by wide variety of production.

Evidently this "Stay in Ontario" movement has now taken root and will bear good fruit. One defect at present is lack of labor. We must rely in part on the Government for a remedy. But much may be done to keep labor as well as capital in Ontario and as farmers wake up to the fact that agriculture may become more scientific and intensive, our soil and climate so well adapted to the new ideas will hold them against the lure of the prairie.

FORCE THEM TO STUDY.

It is not often a candid critic can say a good word for the education department of Ontario, whose record for five or six years has been a series of blunders, but Dr. Payne has at last introduced a bill which aims at removing a grave defect in the school system of the province. It is a timid and half-hearted step, but it is in the right direction. It enables municipalities by a vote of the electors to compel the attendance at school of boys and girls between the ages of 14 and 17 who are not employed, who are not receiving an education, or who, if working, have not taken certain high school examinations.

Although in this province we are spared the disgrace of Manitoba, where there is no law compelling children to attend school, there is a sufficient reproach in allowing Ontario boys and girls to escape all schooling at 14 years of age. Many of them are obliged to go to work too early, but the state is not obliged to cease caring for their training as citizens. Between the ages of 14 and 17 or 18, the impressionable years when education counts for so much, there is a fearful gap in many lives. Industrial schools will be a partial corrective, but these exist only in favored localities. Besides, the average boy or girl is not a voluntary student. Compulsion must be exercised in some form. The Germans, in their wisdom, force their youth to continue schooling until the age when a trade is acquired, German boys and girls in employment are compelled to attend day classes for several hours a week, and the employers are compelled to grant them the time. This is the ideal policy. It would cause some disorganization in shops, offices, and factories if suddenly applied in this province, but it will come later. To make adolescents attend night classes after the day's work would be a hardship in some cases, but they would be making better use of their time than the majority of them do at present. There is an army of boys and girls in this province who come to an absolute standstill at the age of 14 so far as mental equipment or application is concerned. At least a few of the spare hours idled away in the streets or in empty pleasures can be reclaimed to some useful purpose.

HOW AMERICANS CHANGE THEIR CONSTITUTION.

The Taft-Roosevelt controversy confirms anew this observation of James Bryce 25 years ago:

"The process of amending a constitution even in one specific point is a slow one, to which neither the Legislature, nor the people as the sanctioning authority, willingly resort. Hence, a country possessing, like England, a sovereign legislature, would correct the next session of Parliament without delay or trouble."

This was said of state constitutions, but it applies with almost equal force to the federal constitution. An amendment to the federal constitution can be proposed only on the application of two-thirds of both Houses of Congress, or the Legislatures of two-thirds of the states. A convention must then be called to draft the amendment, which must subsequently be approved by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the states. As the constitution of the United States stands above Congress and out of its reach, so the constitution of each state stands above the Legislature of that state, and cannot be varied in any particular by acts of the State Legislature. Any statute passed by the Legislature which a court of law may find to be inconsistent with the constitution is invalid. This was the fate of the workmen's compensation act passed by the Legislature of New York State, which Roosevelt is citing so effectively at the present time.

When a state constitution is to be amended the initiative usually comes from the Legislature by a simple majority in some states and a two-thirds majority in others. A constitutional convention is then elected by the people, the convention sits, and its recommendations are submitted to the voters for ratification or rejection. This process occupies some years. In Delaware alone can a change of the constitution be made by act of the Legislature passed through two successive Legislatures. Roosevelt's plan is to make a short cut to constitutional amendments by providing that where an act of the Legislature is declared unconstitutional by the courts, it shall be referred directly to the people who can legalize it by a majority vote. He would leave the federal constitutional provisions untouched.

In Canada the Federal and Provincial Parliaments are not hedged about by the restrictions imposed on Congress and the State Legislatures. Here any Legislature can immediately override the courts, if it is acting within its jurisdiction. This power is sometimes exercised unjustly, and has been notoriously abused, in the opinion of many Canadians, by the Ontario Legislature in late years. It is more democratic than the American system, and on the whole produces better results in the public interest, but its superiority will not be so manifest if the Americans can make their constitution more flexible and responsive to the public will without a sacrifice of stability.

When winter insists on lingering in the lap of spring, Nature should make spring stand up suddenly.

Mr. George Lang, the greatest rancher of the West, says that the reflecting of reciprocity killed the goose that laid the golden egg. But the goose wasn't even given a chance to lay the egg.

The Ontario Legislature gave a partial woman's suffrage bill the six months' hoist. The Legislature may enjoy the performance now, but a few years hence a woman's suffrage bill will not be so easily lifted.

The Postmaster-General changed the name of Stoney Point, Essex County, to Pointe aux Roches. He has now changed Pointe aux Roches back to Stoney Point. The volatile Mr. Pelletier has antagonized both French and English. Is this the way the postoffice department is to be run?

Three million Britons are idle and hundreds of thousands are living on charity, while fifty men are sitting round a table to decide their fate. Supply and demand, freedom of contract, the law of wages and the other economic shibboleths sound ridiculous in such circumstances as these.

FOLKS FROM MAINE.

[North Virginian-Planet.]

The Governor of Maine went at the school and was telling the pupils what the people of different states were called.

"Now," he said, "the people from Indiana are called 'Hoosiers'; the people from North Carolina 'Tar Heels'; the people from Michigan we know as 'Michiganders.' Now, what little boy or girl can tell me what the people of Maine are called?"

"I know," said a little girl.

"Well, what are we called?" asked the governor.

"Maniacs."

THE SENATE DISCUSSES THE MANITOBA BILL

Senator Choquette Proposes Another Amendment Regarding Separate Schools.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, March 26.—The senate resumed discussion of the Manitoba boundaries bill, and another amendment looking to the establishment of separate schools was proposed by Senator Choquette.

The bill should not be proclaimed law until the supreme court of Canada had passed upon the educational rights claimed for the minority in Keewatin.

In the Commons the judges' bill was given a third reading, after Mr. Proulx, of Prescott, had moved to strike out a provision for two more high court judges in Ontario. He said he understood they were to go to two Conservative members who had unsuccessfully sought portfolios. The amendment was lost.

HENRY TO COMMAND.

Berlin, March 26.—It is reported in naval quarters that Grand Admiral Henry of Prussia is to resume the command-in-chief of the German high seas fleet in the autumn, when the fleet will be augmented by the forthcoming third active battle squadron.

Prince Henry retired from the command in 1908, and has since held the rank of inspector-general of the army.

TAFT AND ROOSEVELT GRIP IN PRIMARIES

New York and Indiana Selecting Delegates for Republican Convention.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, March 26.—The polls will open at 3 o'clock this afternoon and stay open until 9 p.m., for the primary battle waged in New York State between the followers of President Taft and Theodore Roosevelt, for delegates. The fight centres in New York City, in the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, and the Roosevelt men declare that the result here will be the only fair test of sentiment regarding their candidate.

The Republican county committee, which has declared itself for President Taft, said that Taft delegates will sweep the county. The Roosevelt supporters, who are just as carefully organized, and who have been making a vigorous campaign in every district, declared that the result of the vote would be a big surprise to their opponents.

The Roosevelt committee carried their campaign up to the last minute by advertisements in this morning's papers. Fair weather was expected to bring out a record primary vote in this city.

Outside of the Republican struggle for national delegates the primaries today are interesting as the first to be held under the new state law.

A Fight To Finish.

Indianapolis, March 26.—Taft and Roosevelt forces prepared to fight every inch of the way in today's Republican state convention to elect four delegates-at-large to the national convention.

The resolutions, credentials and rules and organization committees, hopelessly divided, seven to six, or eight to five, with the majority on the Taft side, at all night sessions made majority and minority reports ready to be submitted to the convention and to be tried in the fray on the floor. Both factions claimed a majority of the 1,439 delegates, but each admitted the margin was close.

Unsightly Skin Diseases

Disfiguring skin diseases always seem to appear on the face and hands, so that they cause a feeling of shame as well as pain and suffering.

Internal treatments have never proven very satisfactory in the treatment of scurf and similar skin troubles, but when Dr. Chase's Ointment is applied you can see for yourself and feel for yourself the benefits which are being obtained.

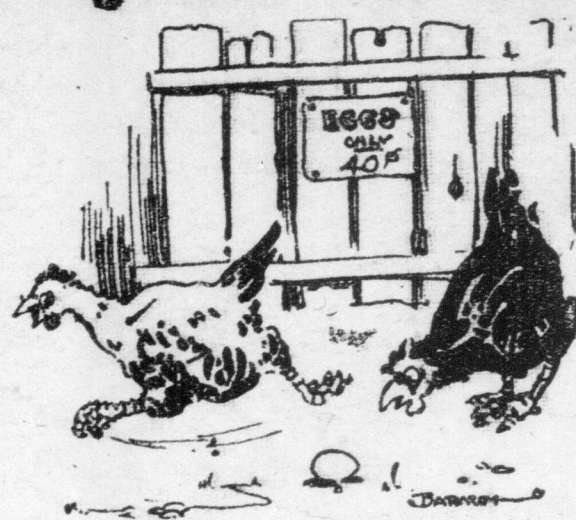

It soothes the inflamed, irritated skin, and in fact, the Ointment has an extraordinary healing power causes a new, smooth skin to form where the sores have been.

In every home there are many uses for Dr. Chase's Ointment, as for pimples and blackheads, barber's itch, chafing, erysipelas, chilblains and wherever there is itching skin or a sore or ulcer that refuses to heal.

This ointment is pure, clean and pleasant to use and may be applied to the most delicate skin.

I sing the praises of the Hen
Who always lays quite freely when
The price of eggs is low;
And if you have a hen or two
They'll sometimes lay an egg for you,
Or that's what they're supposed to do—
They rarely do it, though.

Without the hen there would not be
Such advertising rhapsody
Of riches by the trunk
Which will reward the thrifty man
Who joins the poultry-raising clan
(What other folks have done—YOU Can't)
You know the line of bunk!

If you have three hens, say, or four
Which scratch around the kitchen door
Your net returns are high.
But when you try the poultry trade
And buy two hundred "special grade,"
They moult and pine and wilt and fade
And get the pip and die.

Without the hen the omelette
We would not know, we could not get.
How we would suffer, then;
We could not have a chicken feast.
Shine actors would be much increased—
The Hen she is a Noble Beast
And so I sing the Hen.

EAST KENT MEMBER IS NOT RESIGNING

Splendid Meeting of Reform
Association Was Held at Ridgetown.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS

In Support of Dominion and Provincial Leaders — Government Was Keenly Criticized.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ridgetown, March 25.—The annual meeting of the East Kent Reform Association was held here today and Mr. D. A. Gordon announced that all rumors regarding his resignation were absolutely without foundation. The announcement was received with enthusiasm by the large gathering. President S. P. Sturges was in the chair.

Mr. Gordon made a fine speech. He criticized the new Government for its method of dealing with the tariff by the appointment of a commission on which to shift responsibility. In order to show that Premier Borden had no bed of roses he illustrated the effect of the Nationalist control in the naval issue. The naval policy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier had been the best thought-out programme since Confederation.

Strong in the West.
"Redistribution would be followed by increased Liberal strength from the west, and though the party had been defeated reciprocity was not dead. The Liberals, he said, looked confidently to the future. That the new Government was bent on petty revenge was shown by the fact that though the postal revenue at Walsburg was $20,000 a year, and though a site for a new postoffice was paid for and an appropriation previously made, the Government had now dropped the project.

There were some rumors that he would retire at once, that he was in a poor state of health. As far as I can express an opinion," he said, "I feel as good as any man, and I have not had a day's sickness for many years, for which I am thankful. If the Liberals will bear with me I will continue as at present until my business demands my retirement. When that time comes I will give due notice, and the announcement will come from regular and authorized sources."

Excellent speeches were made by several members, Mr. James C. Black, of New Scotland, being called upon first. He made a plea for continuous organization, advocating a Liberal Club for Ridgetown.

Mr. John B. Peels, of Duart, told of Conservatives as sorry as himself that reciprocity had been defeated. He characterized the good roads bill of the Borden Government as a method of bribery. He urged the farmers to organize, like other producers, and agree as to prices.

Tribute to Sir Wilfrid.

Mr. H. W. McLarty, W. E. Galbraith, and Dr. P. B. Robertson gave addresses, the latter paying a special tribute to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. As to Mr. Gordon he made the suggestion that when politics interfered with his business he give up his business. "I feel there is more in the playing of the game than in the ruins you make," said Mr. L. J. Reycoff, in making a brief speech in which he declared there could be only one effect of the present Government's position: that at the people's first opportunity they would make that man who had made this country Premier again. He spoke highly of Leader Rowell, and, seconded by Mr. A. Johnson, moved a resolution of confidence in the Opposition in the Legislature, and in Mr. Rowell and Mr. Ferguson, the representative of East Kent. This was unanimously carried, as was also the following resolution offered by Mr. H. McLarty and Dr. Robertson:

"That this meeting expresses its confidence in Sir Wilfrid Laurier as Liberal leader, and Mr. D. A. Gordon as our representative for East Kent, and that we will continue the fight for reciprocity and the many good measures brought about by the grand old Liberal party."

The officers elected were: President, James Webster, Orford; vice-presidents, James McNeel (Eberts), W. E. Galbraith (Morpeth); secretary-treasurer, L. J. Reycoff, Ridgetown. Municipality vice-presidents and secretaries were also elected.

CORONER NOTIFIED OF COMING TRAGEDY

Mother Sick and Disheartened, Kills Daughter and Self.

[Canadian Press.]

San Francisco, March 25.—"Cremate the remains of my daughter and myself and deposit the ashes in the same casket. I have kissed her good-night, and will now turn on the gas. I am sick and without relatives, and cannot leave my daughter to the mercy of the world."

When Coroner Leland opened his mail today he found the above message, and upon investigation discovered Mrs. A. Morse, of Chicago, and her 15-year-old daughter, Ethel, dead from asphyxiation in an apartment here. The woman had mailed the letter to the coroner on Saturday, and it is believed the deaths occurred that night. Mrs. Morse left no Chicago address.

NO. 1 TO DEAL WITH LEVEL CROSSINGS

City Council Sent Railway Commission Letter to Finance Committee.

AFTER STREET RAILWAY

City Engineer Wright Ordered To See
That the Company's Agreement
With Corporation Is Carried Out.

The question of grade separation and the abolition of level crossings in London will be taken up at once by the finance committee of the city council.

At a special meeting of the council held on Monday afternoon, the communication from the Dominion Railway Commission was read, and passed on to that committee.

"This communication should be referred to No. 1 to take such action as may be considered necessary," said Ald. Richter. "We can do only preliminary work at this time. In my own opinion, it will be some time before anything important can be done. If we get down to business by the autumn we will be doing fairly well."

"I guess we will not have some of the work ready for the Duke of Connaught to inspect," commented Mayor Graham.

The letter was sent to the finance committee without comment.

After the Street Railway.

The city engineer has a busy time ahead of him, as the council instructed him to see that the London Street Railway Company maintained their schedules on all the various lines, and also equipped their cars on the Cleveland plan.

The schedule calls for a 7-minute service on the Wellington, the West London, and Ridout lines, an 8-minute service on the Oxford line, a 10-minute service on the Rectory street and Richmond and Ottawa avenue lines.

Mr. Wright reported that the company were not living up to this schedule, the only line showing any signs of keeping to the time limit being the Belt cars.

"Have we anything as to the feasibility of operating this schedule?" asked Ald. Richter. "There is no question that the schedule has not been maintained, but I would like to know the reason. However, I suppose if it is not feasible the company will come forward with the reasons."

"They will let us know what they think," said Mayor Graham. "We need not worry about them."

Style of Car.

Mr. Wright also reported on the style of car, the contrivances for the safety and convenience of the public, and the grade of cars, and make such recommendations as, in his judgment, will remove causes for complaint.

This will be the two-way service on the new line in the north end, which was finally adopted by the council without amendment. The new track-rolling will be along Victoria street, from Victoria to Oxford, and down Adelaide from Oxford to Central avenue.

No Exclusive Franchises.

Mayor Graham explained that the bill introduced by Hon. I. B. Lucas in the Legislature to prevent granting exclusive franchises to telephone companies would come up before the private bills committee on Thursday, and City Solicitor Meredith thought that it would be in the interests of the city that his worship attend the meeting.

"We are vitally interested," declared his worship. "We obtain $4,000 a year from the Bell Telephone Company, and we should not lose it."

His worship will pilot the London bill through the private bills committee on Wednesday, and then discuss the telephone bill on Thursday.

Those present at the meeting were Mayor Graham, Ald. Richter, Johnston, Spittal, Ashplant, Murphy, Moore, Coles, Blandford and Robinson, and City Clerk Baker.

Engineer Acquitted of Charge of Being Intoxicated on Duty.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, March 25.—Oscar Hicks, C. P. R. engineer, arrested on a charge of being intoxicated while in charge of a passenger train, was acquitted in police court this morning. It was shown that he had taken a glass of whiskey to relieve the pain.

He had taken the light engine from the Union Station to the roundhouse, but had not been in a condition to start out, and the fireman had secured another engine to take the train. Hicks, who had ridden that far on the fireman's seat, was removed. As he had never been in charge of the locomotive while it was attached to the train, Magistrate Dennis said he would give him the benefit of the doubt, and dismissed the charge.

Order Asks Removal of Limitation on Real Estate Business.

Ottawa, March 26.—The bill of the Ancient Order of Foresters, which would remove the limitation of $20,000 under which it can do business in real estate, was before the banking and commerce committee of the Commons yesterday. The minister of finance said the whole surplus might be put into real estate. Chairman Ames explained that the order wanted to erect a building for itself. The minister thought it might be financially dangerous, and Mr. J. A. M. Atkins thought the banks and insurance companies should be stopped putting up skyscrapers for rental purposes. The bill was deferred.

HEART DISEASE CURED

Kingston Girl Saved by "Fruit-a-tives"

Heart Weakness and Heart Irritation are the common outgrowth of indigestion. Gas is formed in the stomach and this accumulation of gas bulges out the walls of the stomach and presses against the heart. "Fruit-a-tives" will always cure this weak, irritated condition of the heart by curing the stomach.

Ten Million Each for These Youngsters, Ryan's Children

THOMAS P. RYAN'S GRANDSON: WILLIAM, THE ELDEST; THOMAS AND JOSEPH, THE BABY. ANOTHER PICTURE OF JOSEPH INSET.

Ten million dollars each is to be the heritage of the three grandsons of Thomas Fortune Ryan, the New York financier.

The boys are sturdy little chaps, whose mother, Mrs. William K. Ryan, has raised them in a commonsense way. The father died during the babyhood of the youngest.

Until recently Mrs. Ryan and her boys lived in the little Swiss village of Vevey, which combines an excellent climate and splendid educational advantages. Here the boys became healthy and strong, and acquired French and German. Last summer they spent in a modest bungalow on the coast of Massachusetts.

William, the eldest, aged 9, knows all the fairy tales by heart and delights in playing the role of fairy princes, improvising now and then to suit his convenience. Reprimanded at breakfast one day for helping himself to his brother's marmalade, he responded blandly, "Today I am a prince, and you know a prince can do no wrong."

William resembles in looks his paternal grandfather, but Thomas, the second boy, has inherited the money grabber's characteristic fearlessness. He has none of his elder brother's fastidiousness and niceties. Only 7 years of age, Thomas followed his tutor into the harbor, without flinching, determined to learn to swim. He did, within a few days.

The baby, Joseph, takes very seriously the heaven and hell in which his Irish nurse Nana believes, and he talks at great length about them.

STORM SEWERS BEFORE PAVEMENTS

Engineer Wright Says Provision Must Be Made To Carry Away Water.

FIVE PER CENT. DEADLINE

City Council Put Down a Pavement Against Wishes of People Where Charges Exceed This Amount.

Storm water sewers must come before any permanent paving is done in the city of London. The fact was brought out most prominently at a meeting of the special local improvement committee held on Monday night.

City Engineer Wright declared that it was impossible to lay any more pavements until it was seen what disposition was to be made of the storm water.

"It is possible that some pavements may be laid this fall, when we have seen where the storm water will go," explained Mr. Wright. "It may be that some of the streets where the levels are taken, can take care of the water without difficulty. Some of them will not need to be opened for sewer pipes. In my opinion, however, it would be folly to lay any permanent pavement until we have storm water sewers."

People Must Wait.

"What about those people who have petitioned for pavements, and who want them badly?" asked Ald. Moore. "They will simply have to wait," answered Mr. Wright. "There are very many like that."

"We did intend paving one of the main arteries in the city this year," explained Ald. Johnston. "However, I guess we will not be able to do it." "What about some of the streets that must be improved in some manner?" again asked Ald. Moore.

"We have made arrangements to scrape them, and put them in as good repair as it is possible under existing conditions," declared Ald. Wright.

Local Improvements.

The local improvement committee then laid down the provisions of the governing of local improvements.

The first clause, declared that the owners of property may petition for and have put down any class of pavement which, in the opinion of the engineer, with the concurrence of the council, is suitable to the locality in which such pavement is to be laid.

The second clause went on to state that the council could not initiate, against the wishes of the people, any pavement, the yearly charge per lineal foot frontage for which exceeds 5 per cent per lineal foot, of the assessed value of the land per lineal foot. For instance, if the assessed value of a property on a certain street is assessed at $2 per lineal foot, the council has not the power to lay down a pavement the annual charge for which will exceed 10 cents per lineal foot. The idea of the committee is, to prevent the council constructing an expensive pavement on property of low value.

A Case in Point.

The third clause in the bylaw relates that the council, when in the opinion of two-thirds of their number and of the city engineer, it is necessary to put down an expensive pavement on a leading thoroughfare, may do so, but cannot assess the property owners for more than 5 per cent of the assessed value of the land per lineal foot. For instance, if the council decided to put down a pavement on Ridout street south, which is classed as a leading thoroughfare, this clause would apply. The property at the upper end is valuable, and could easily bear the cost. At the upper end, where the land is less valuable, the council must pay the difference in the cost. If some of this land is valued at $1 foot, and the pavement, for the sake of argument, cost 40 cents, the council would have to pay 25 cents a lineal foot, or the difference between 40 cents and 5 per cent of $1.

The leading thoroughfares, as defined in the bylaw, are as follows: Richmond street, Adelaide street and Quebec street on the north, Oxford, Dundas, the Hamilton Road on the east, Wellington and Ridout streets and the Wortley and Wharfedale roads on the south, and the Pipe Line, Mount Pleasant avenue and the Wharfedale road is unloading with Dundas and Oxford streets to the west.

Engineer Has the Say.

The suitability of various classes of pavement shall be determined by the engineer, with the concurrence of the council, on the basis of the probable traffic thereon, locality and the nature of the subsoil, and the engineer shall make a full report to the council in each case, setting forth the reasons for his recommendations.

In the opinion of the committee streets having heavy traffic thereon should be paved with brick, asphalt block or other suitable, stress-bearing material laid on a substantial concrete base.

On the better class of residential streets, sheet asphalt, bitulith, bituminous bound macadam, tarmac and other similar surfacings on a medium concrete base, should prove satisfactory and can be readily adapted to the various districts as regards cost. In this connection, it is the opinion of the committee that a good class bituminous-tar macadam pavement on a concrete base, costing from $1.25 to $1.40 per square yard, exclusive of kerb and gutter, should prove very satisfactory, and can be put down locally and repaired when necessary, with ready facility.

Oil-Bound Roadways.

In the outlying districts and in localities in which land has a comparative low value oil-bound or water-bound roadways will be comparatively cheap and should prove reasonably satisfactory.

The recommendations were highly satisfactory to the committee and were sent on to the council.

"I think the local improvement act will work out satisfactory now," explained Ald. Richter. "We used to pay

A Modern Force in Business

ADVERTISING has established a new order of things in commerce. It has become a mighty power in business progress; a complex yet comprehensible transmitter of many parts for the distribution and selling of merchandise and service.

Its function is fivefold:

To enlighten or educate—to create new wants or to satisfy old ones—to protect and foster legitimate enterprise—to establish a medium of understanding between buyer and seller as a basis for mutual profit and advantage—to prescribe an economical price and the maintenance of a fixed standard of quality.

None know better than the buying public how well these functions have been fulfilled.

Modern advertising has given us an insight into various manufacturing processes. The producer has taken us, the consumers, into his confidence and told us just how his mince meat, his flour, his clothing, etc., is made. We know why certain things should or should not be. Advertising has told us—broadened our understanding and guided our judgment.

Modern advertising has enabled us to unlock the treasure house of the world's divinest melodies through the medium of the player-piano. The motor car has lengthened the business day and brought the fragrant countryside to our door. Men shave in comfort in ten minutes where they used to take twenty. A magic bottle provides us with cold drinks with the weather at 90 degrees or gives us a warm beverage when Jack Frost dips at 40 below.

Modern advertising has elevated the standard of business ethics. It protects the manufacturer from unscrupulous competition and the consumer from base imitation. It conserves trade—extends business—creates good will. It enables the corporation, the manufacturer or private individual on trial to take his case directly to the public, and to secure the public's judgment on his policy or character based purely upon their respective merits.

Modern advertising has opened up new opportunities to the oppressed and poor of far-off lands. It has turned an unceasing tide of immigration to new countries. It has developed nations, and made the name of the New World a promise of better things among the people of the Old.

All this advertising has done and will continue to do. It is the ever-increasing influence for the advancement of mankind—the most potent, indeed, of the many forces influencing human action.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write if interested.

WOMEN, AVOID OPERATIONS

Many Unsuccessful — And Worse Suffering Often Follows. Mrs. Rock's Case A Warning.

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will show how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when often it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement.

Paw Paw, Mich. — "Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for several months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it." — Mrs. ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has restored the health of thousands of suffering women. Why don't you try it?

EATONS' BIG MOVE

To Erect a Ten-Story Building on Yonge Street, Toronto.

Toronto, March 26. — The World today says: Complete plans and specifications for a ten-story building to extend from Yonge to Church streets, and from Carlton to Alexander streets, yesterday came into the Toronto customs house from New York.

This is what the World forecasted a few days ago, and that the retail section of Toronto will suffer an upheaval, is, of course, inevitable.

The factories will remain where they are, and it is said that the site of the store will be donated to the city for a park, to be called Eaton Square. Either way will happen, and all Eaton's downtown property will become the site for the Federal Square buildings.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

W. S. S.: Your hair will never grow long, thick and lustrous while you use soap for shampooing. The alkali in soap is too strong for the delicate hairs, causing them to become dull, brittle and fall out. If you use a hair conditioner twice a month with a teaspoonful of castor oil dissolved in a cup of hot water, your hair will grow long and thick, and will be soft, lustrous and free from dandruff. Castor oil cleanses perfectly, removing all dirt and dandruff, and relieves scalp-irritation instantly.

Della: Peroxide will make the hairs less noticeable, but if you really want to remove that growth from your cheek, apply a paste made with powdered dandruff and water. After two or three minutes rub it off, wash the skin and your cheek will be firm, white and hairless. Druggists will charge a dollar for an original one-ounce package of dandruff, but it is worth several times its cost, as it never fails.

Rose: Lack of exercise and eating too much rich food during the winter months account for your sallow, pimply complexion and lost energy. You can best overcome the condition by taking a good system-tonic and blood-purifier, made by dissolving one ounce karsene in a pint of alcohol, then adding ½ cup sugar and hot water to make a quart. Take a tablespoonful before each meal and in a short time you will feel like a new person. Your sallowness will give way to a rosy, healthy complexion. This simple blood-purifier is a wonderful energizer, and cannot be recommended too highly as a reliable system-tonic.

Mrs. T. C. No one can afford to neglect his or her eyes. If you want bright, clear, beautiful eyes that will be much admired, you can have them with very little care. Get an ounce of cryostat in a pint of water. Put two or three drops of this tonic in each eye daily and you will be surprised how it will strengthen your weak, tired eyes and make them strong, healthy and sparkling. Many oculists who use this simple tonic get excellent results in treating eye troubles generally. It is very soothing and has enabled many to dispense with wearing glasses.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

young people avoid you when you have your face smeared with paint and powder. To cover up your freckles and other complexion defects. If you will use this lotion you will find proper relief and nobody can tell that your complexion is perfectly natural. Dissolve 4 ounces of salicylic acid in ½ pint of water (or hot water) and add 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. Apply to the face, neck and arms, rubbing gently until dry, and your skin will take on a very charming look. This lotion is much better than powder as it removes that shiny, oily look to the skin and does not rub off easily. It is the finest skin-whitener and complexion-beautifier I ever used.

Della: C. The longer you put off fat-reduction, the harder and firmer the tissues will become and the less easily dissolved. The most effective, harmless remedy known to science is made by dissolving 4 ounces of paraffin in ½ pint of water. By taking a tablespoonful before each meal, you will soon note a most satisfactory disappearance of your fat without any injury to your health. No dieting or violent exercises are necessary with this wonderful remedy. It leaves the skin smooth and un wrinkled.

Mrs. G. C.: Hair specialists agree that a quinine hair tonic is far superior to any other kind for removing dandruff, stopping falling hair and promoting a healthy growth of lustrous hair. However, the tonic will be worthless if not fresh made. You can prepare a splendid quinine tonic by mixing together ½ pint alcohol and one ounce quinine, then adding ½ pint cold water. This is an excellent remedy for scalp and hair troubles and the only satisfactory hair-grower I have ever found.

Dora: If you want a complexion cream that will not grow hair or make the skin shiny and oily, get an ounce of almond oil, 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine and mix into ½ pint cold water. This cream is good for and prevents chapping, and is very cleansing, healing and softening to the skin. Use morning and night and you will soon note a wonderful improvement in your complexion. This dependable beauty will tone your skin, refresh, which comes only from a smooth, clean, healthy complexion.

COAL SHORTAGE IS CAUSING BOAT OWNERS MUCH ANXIETY

Sarnia Fleet Has Only a Comparatively Small Supply On Hand, and and General Strike Would Tie Up Steamers In a Few Days.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Sarnia, March 26.—The scarcity of coal, together with the prospects of a strike on April 1, will seriously affect the steamship lines operating not only out of this port but all over the lakes. The ferry company, operating between Port Huron and Sarnia, will be compelled to shut down next week, according to the officials there, unless they are able to procure coal at once. As it is, they only have coal enough to last the boats through this week.

It is possible that one boat only will be run in order to economize on the present slender supply. It is reported that the Port Huron and Duluth Steamship Line have just coal enough for one boat to make a single trip. If no more fuel can be secured before navigation opens the company will suffer a serious loss.

A Fair Supply.

The Northern Navigation Company have a fair supply on hand, but are worried over the possibility of a shortage. The Reid Wrecking Company are also anxiously watching the situation. The company has a certain amount of coal stored, though not enough to tide them over a strike. Not only vessel owners but every branch of industry, dependent on coal, are beginning to realize the seriousness of the situation and every possible chance to secure a carload or so of coal is eagerly grasped at.

The Northwest is in the grip of a coal famine, and it is said that nearly every freighter on the lakes will be used to transport fuel to the stricken country as soon as navigation opens. This may, in all probability, affect the shipments of various other products, such as grain, iron ore, etc., owing to the fact that these cargoes will have to await the cessation of the coal demand.

AMERICAN MINERS OBJECT TO GOVERNMENT INTERFERENCE

Leader White Says That Fair Argument Will Settle Differences.

[Canadian Press.]

Cleveland, Ohio, March 26.—The United Mine Workers of America would resent any Government interference or intervention in the situation that confronts operators and miners.

"We did not want any interference from the Government," John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers organization, said. "There is no point of difference between operators and miners that cannot be settled with fair argument."

President John Walker, of the Illinois Mine Workers, expressed a similar view, and it is said that most of the leaders of the organization are of that opinion.

A few days ago Former President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, was to have conferred with President Taft, but announcement was made that the proposed conference had been postponed.

DIZZY HEADACHES CURED IN ONE NIGHT

If Troubled With Head-Fullness, Ringing Noises, Specks Before the Eyes, the Stomach Is at Fault.

"I had terrible pains in my head. My appetite faded away and when I did eat anything it disagreed and made me very sick for hours after each meal. The active pains in my stomach and the dizzy headaches. I had to endure almost set one wild. Sometimes attacks came on so severely that I had to go to bed. Without this grand system-cleansing remedy I would be sick, but each day brought me better health and spirits. I was cured and made as strong, ruddy and healthy looking as one could wish, and will always use and recommend Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

A SEVERE COLD DEVELOPED INTO PNEUMONIA.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP Cured Him.

Too much stress cannot be laid on the fact that when a person catches a cold it must be attended to immediately, or serious results are liable to follow.

There is only one way to prevent pneumonia, and that is, to cure the cold just as soon as it appears.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will do this quickly and effectively.

Mr. Hugh McLeod, Esterhazy, Sask., writes:—"My little boy took a very severe cold, and it developed into pneumonia. The doctor said he would not live. I got some of your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and he began to improve. Now, he is a strong healthy child, and shows no sign of it coming back."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BABE IN POSSESSION OF ITS GRANDFATHER

Mr. Harry Christopher Denied Story Told By Mr. Geo. Vaughan.

Mr. Harry Christopher, 440 Pica-cadilly street, and family wish to contradict the statement made by Mr. George Vaughan, that he has obtained possession of his infant daughter. The baby was born in St. Joseph's Hospital in this city on June 17, instead of Niagara Falls, as stated by Mr. Vaughan. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan had resided in Niagara Falls, Ont., since September last. Three weeks previous to her death Mrs. Vaughan returned to the home of her father in this city. She had been ill for some time, and gradually became worse, until she died on Feb. 15 of this year.

Mr. Vaughan has stated that his wife repeatedly asked for him during her illness, but such is not the case, the family allege. In fact, she did not wish his name mentioned in her presence. Mrs. Vaughan's dying wish was that her father should keep her baby.

MEXICAN REBEL LEADER WARNS UNCLE SAM

Says All Mexico Would Unite Against Invasion By the United States.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, March 26.—Whether the Washington Government recognized the rebels in Mexico as belligerents or not the rebellion there would continue until the Madero Government had fallen, was the announcement made here last night by Major Campa, head of a party of revolutionaries who are on their way to the American capital.

The major said that President Madero had violated all the promises he made when he took office, and would most surely be overthrown, the action of the United States authorities making in the process a little more bloody than it otherwise would have been, as the rebel leader, Orozco, had thirty thousand armed men behind him. Major Campa also said that if the United States dared to send a soldier into Mexico, the whole population would rise as one man to repel the invaders.

LONDON IS HOPEFUL OF SECURING CAMP

Col. Hodgins Is To Make a Report of the Department.

The chances that London will secure the military camp this year are considered very much brighter than at any time since the remarkably low one-way fares of the city, making a thorough inspection of the locality likely to be set aside for the military manoeuvres. From what can be learned, it is highly satisfactory to all parties concerned.

"I have heard nothing whatever," said Lieut.-Col. Hodgins. "The matter is still under advisement by the department, and absolutely no information has come to me regarding the intentions of the Minister of Militia."

"We are very hopeful," said Mayor Graham. "We have heard nothing of a definite nature as yet, but we are working on the scheme. I feel certain that the camp will be located in London."

As announced in The Advertiser some days ago, representatives from the militia department went over the ground west of the city, making a thorough inspection of the locality likely to be set aside for the military manoeuvres. From what can be learned, it is highly satisfactory to all parties concerned.

How to Make Better Cough Syrup than You Can Buy

A Family Supply, Saving $2 and Fully Guaranteed.

Sixteen ounces of cough syrup—as much as you could buy for $2.00—can easily be made at home. You will find nothing that takes hold of an obstinate cough more quickly, usually ending it inside of 24 hours. Excellent, too, for croup, whooping cough, sore lungs, asthma, hoarseness and other throat troubles.

Mix two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water, and stir for two minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a 16-ounce bottle, then add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

This is just laxative enough to help cure a cough. Also stimulates the appetite, which is usually upset by a cough. The taste is pleasant.

The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in gualacal and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe is now used by thousands of housewives throughout the United States and Canada. The plan has been imitated, but the old successful formula has never been equaled.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

STREET WATERING COSTRAISED CENT A FOOT

It Is the Intention to Oil 18 Miles of Streets This Year.

Street watering will cost 4 cents a foot instead of 3 cents, the figures for last year and previous years.

This decision was arrived at on Monday evening at a meeting of No. 3 committee called for the purpose of dealing with the question of oiling the streets. It was also decided to treat eighteen miles of streets with oil this coming season. About half this distance will be scarified, graveled, rolled and oiled.

City Engineer Wright explained to the committee that oiling had proved highly satisfactory last year, and he recommended that at least eighteen miles be undertaken this year.

The charge for this will be 4 cents a foot for one treatment," said Mr. Wright. "That will suffice in the majority of cases. If any more is needed another coat can be put on at 3 cents a foot. There are a number of streets, such as Waterloo, that should be rolled and graveled and oiled. This will give them an excellent road for three years, at a cost of 8 cents a foot, including the oiling. That is very reasonable, I think."

Four Cents a Foot.

"I would recommend that a charge of 4 cents a foot be made for street watering. You will remember last year we charged but 3 cents. The result was that we had not enough money to properly water the streets. When the foot spell came we could not go over the streets three times, the usual number, and consequently there were many complaints that the work was badly done. If we charged 4 cents we could do good work, and keep the dust down. We cannot do so at 3 cents a foot."

The committee thought this explanation satisfactory, and recommended that this charge be made.

Those present were Ald. Robinson, Ald. Ashplant, Ald. Murphy, Ald. Moore, Ald. Blandford, City Engineer Wright and Secretary Baker.

CITY AND COUNTY TALKING NEW JAILA Conference Was Held on Monday When Proposal Was Discussed.

Negotiations for the selection of a new site for the new county jail were opened up on Monday afternoon, when a committee composed of Warden Jos. T. Buttery, of Strathroy, Sheriff Cameron and Capt. T. E. Robson, had an interview with Mayor Graham, Ald. Moore, Ald. Robinson, Ald. Spittal, and other members of the council, relative to the matter.

In the opinion of Sheriff Cameron the present jail is inadequate to accommodate the prisoners, and there is no guarantee of their safety once they are incarcerated. He is endeavoring to bring the city and county together in an attempt to have a new structure erected to replace the present antiquated building.

The matter was informally discussed at the conference yesterday. The press were not furnished with any information as to what transpired, but the information leaked out as to the purpose of the interview.

Another meeting will be held in the immediate future, when the project will be discussed still further.

TRUSTEES INSPECTING CHESLEY AVE. SCHOOLLively Debate May Take Place Over Addition to Aberdeen.

Trustees W. T. Strong and Rev. J. Gibson Inkster made a tour of inspection of Chesley avenue school yesterday, and as a result it is expected that a lively debate will take place over the proposed addition to Aberdeen school, instead of Chesley avenue.

"The trustees should make a thorough canvass of the schools in the city," said Rev. Mr. Inkster, "and discover where changes are necessary and the like. The present situation is not known to most of us, and it should be before we undertake to expend so large sums of money. We are going to look over Chesley avenue today, and later we will see some of the others."

TRUSTEES MUST PAY $400 AND ALL COSTSArbitration Concluded in London Township Land Case.

Judge Elliott, Mr. Thomas C. Knott and Mr. Charles Wakeling, sitting yesterday as arbitrators in the dispute between the school trustees of section 27, London Township, and Daniel Bacon, heard the evidence in the matter, and decided that the trustees must pay $400 and costs for a certain piece of land adjoining the school property.

The land, which belonged to Mr. Bacon, was 8 rods by 15 rods, and was valued by the owner at $500. An offer of $200 was made by the school board, so the matter was sent to arbitration. Mr. Edmund Meredith, K.C., appeared for the school board, while Mr. John Macpherson represented Mr. Bacon.

The Boon of Health Makes Manly Men

[From Statistic Student.]

Private statistics of a physician with a national practice, indicate that fully 50 per cent of the middle-aged men are partly or wholly deficient in ability, manliness, and health. If men could only know the meaning of the usual symptoms which presage the oncoming of premature age, many could be saved from misery, despondency and an early grave. Symptoms should not be confounded with disease, but should be accepted as warnings of the approach of disease.

That many may know what to do when such symptoms exist the following symptoms and prescription are published:

A premature break-down of the vitality is indicated by dull, sunken eyes, cold extremities, backache, headache, fatigue, pains in small of back, pains in back of head, spots before the eyes, weakness in spine, twitching and trembling, impaired memory, loss of appetite, wasting, thinness (or abnormal fat), shrinkage, flabby, flesh, wrinkles, dullness, languor, constipation, kidney disorders, irritability, lack of ambition, timidity, weak-spirited, dragging walk and unmanly carriage.

If the reader decides to get three ounces of ordinary syrup of sarsaparilla compound, and one ounce compound fluid hainwort; mix and let stand two hours; then get one ounce compound essence cardiol, and one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cardamon), mix all together, shake well, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and one at night.

This contains no opiates whatsoever, and may also be used by women who suffer with their nerves with absolute certainty of prompt and lasting benefits.

By preparing the treatment at home secretly no one need know of another's trouble, while the ingredients are much used in filling various prescriptions, so that even the purchase of them separately need occasion no timidity.
