TUBERCULOSIS IN SCHOOLS

Dr. Duncan's Suggestion
Accepted By Hon. Dr.
Pyne

Legislation will be Formed to Overcome Present Conditions

The following is taken from the current number of "Canadian Outdoor Life." It deals with a subject in which Dr. J. H. Duncan, of this city, has deeply interested himself ever since he became a member of the Board of Education, and a matter in which nearly every Chathamite is interested:

"It is understood that Dr. R. A. Pyne, Minister of Education, has under consideration the framing of legislation, if necessary, that will tend to prevent the spread of tuberculosis in the schools. The advisability of including lessons on the subject in the school textbooks is also being considered. The regulations may provide for more uniformity in respect to the medical inspection of teachers and pupils, particularly in sections where tubercular diseases are known to be somewhat prevalent. The idea originated with Dr. J. H. Duncan, of Chatham, a member of the Board of Education there, and a specialist on tubercular diseases, who has for some length of time advocated such action as that mentioned. The death rate among teachers, it is said, is an exceedingly high one. Next to stone cutters, more of them die from phthisis than among those of any other profession or trade. The confinement of the schoolrooms and the vitiated atmosphere are largely responsible. The pupils are also, of course, affected by the fast two named causes, hence the desire, in view of the constantly increasing ravages of phthisis and tubercular diseases generally to adopt some plan of aiding to counteract it. "Canadian Outdoor Life has on several occasions dealt with this question. The records of the Muskoka Homes for Consumptives show, as Dr. Hunter indicates, that many teachers and scholars are afflicted with this dread disease. The opportunities of the teacher to inculcate lessons on right methods of living can hardly be overestimated. In "Outdoor Life" of February we republished from the Educational Record, Quebec, with comments, an important article suggestive of what was likely to be undertaken by the Educational Department in that Province, and in an earlier issue we told of an educational move in connection with the schools of Montreal City along these lines. Ontario should not be behind in this work."

GRAFT EVIL IN CANADA

The Presbyterian General
Assembly Discuss Social Problems

Montreal, June 7.—A high and stirring note was sounded yesterday afternoon in the Presbyterian general assembly in connection with the report on church life and work. Along with it were taken up overtures from Halifax, Lunenburg and Yarmouth, Toronto and Kingston and Winnipeg presbyteries, all desiring by which religion and temperance, Sabbath observance and systematic giving were dealt with by different committees. The words may read coldly, but the great intellectual weight and influence of the men who took part in the discussion, and their intense earnestness produced an unwonted effect on those present. The whole matter was referred to a committee.

Dr. Pidgeon spoke of the need of leadership in moral reform. The Methodist Church was ahead in organization. "Ralph Connor" declared that intemperance was on the increase west of the Great Lakes. He instanced a western brewery turning over $100,000 a month, 75 per cent. of which was profit. A friend had asked him what was the matter with Winnipeg. He had spent the previous half-hour refusing drinks. Canadians held down their heads on account of some in public life who were not a credit to us. Was the church doing all it could to improve the situation?

He instanced a western town where vice flaunted itself in silks and satins, and the best customers of the merchants were representatives of vice. A Presbyterian missionary came on the scene and declared that those signs of vice must disappear, and they did. If they had a man or a committee to mass their forces they might do almost anything. G. M. Macdonnell, K. C., Kingston, declared that Canada was not suffering a hundred part as much from intemperance as from graft.

Mr. Clements M. P. In British Columbia

The following refers to Mr. H. S. Clements, M. P. of this city, who is at present touring the west:

"Mr. H. S. Clements, M. P. for West Kent, Ont., was a visitor to New Westminster to-day, renewing acquaintances with former townsmen in the persons of Mr. W. E. McLeod and Mr. F. E. Lyle. Mr. Clements is a young man yet, but his acquaintance with this district dates back twenty years or so, when he was freight clerk on the Rithet between here and Victoria, and also for a time engaged in farming on Lulu Island, where he operated the first steam binder in use in the province. Returning to Ontario, Mr. Clements did very well and is now a prosperous farmer and manufacturer." — New Westminster Columbian.

In a letter dated from Vancouver, B. C., which has just been received in this city from Mr. Clements, the popular member for West Kent, has the following to say: "Mrs. Clements and I have just returned from Victoria after a very pleasant sail. We had a very enjoyable visit with old Chatham friends, including D. M. Eberts, the Robertson boys, and a number of others. They are all doing well here. "Vegetation in British Columbia is very far advanced. In my humble opinion this country is just in its infancy and has a great future before it. I see a great change since my last visit in 1888. "I just had a chat with Fred F. Quinn, another old Chatham boy, and Frank Coatsworth. They are both well, and wished to be remembered to their Chatham friends. "Crops are very backward in Manitoba and the Provinces, and under the most favorable conditions they will not have more than half a crop. "I expect to leave here on Sunday, stopping at several points in the west on our way back. I am spending the evening with John Bole, son of Sir McKenzie. He is the Customs officer here. He has been more than kind to me during my visit here. "D. M. Eberts, who is speaker in the British Columbia Legislature, especially wishes to be remembered to L. L. Nichol, Peter Robert, Vital Ouellette, S. Stephenson, Anthony Ouellette, and many others whom I have for the present forgotten. "A strong Canadian sentiment prevails in this province, which I hope to see grow throughout the Dominion." The letter was dated May 30.

HARD LUCK FOR PREACHER

A Colored "Divine" Wanted
A Free Trip To Montreal

Fails to Work Chief Holmes
—Advised To Saw
Wood

A colored man, who hails from Windsor, was a visitor at the office of Chief of Police John Holmes yesterday. He claimed that he was a missionary and he wanted a railway pass from Chatham to Montreal, where he alleged he was going to preach the Gospel to the ungodly. Apparently, he did not think this section of the country stood in need of his exhortations. He told the Chief that the Mayor of Windsor had furnished him with a pass to Chatham, and that since coming here, Mayor Stone had promised him a pass to Montreal.

The alleged preacher was a strong able-bodied man, and the Chief was suspicious that he was a four-flusher, and when he telephoned Mayor Stone, his suspicions were confirmed. "I never promised the man anything," replied his Worship. "I told him to go to you, and I am leaving the matter entirely in your hands." Needless to say, the alleged preacher failed to fool the foxy Chief, who suggested that it was fine weather for sawing wood, and there was plenty of work in Chatham and vicinity for an able-bodied man, if he wanted to make a living. "Ain't I goin' to get no pass, then?" irately asked the "man of the cloth."

"The only pass you are going to get here, is one to count ties to Montreal if you want it," replied the Chief. "I would advise you to go to work. That is about all we can do for you to-day."

The "missionary" took his departure without even thanking the Chief for his well-meaning advice.

ALDERMAN WESTMAN IS GREATLY PLEASED

Ald. Harry Westman was noticed on a street corner yesterday shaking hands with his friends, who were all congratulating him upon the part he took in passing the Wolverine By-law.

"For myself," he told The Planet, "I am more than pleased. It is a citizens' victory, and if the same spirit is maintained that now exists, there will be no trouble in pushing Chatham forward. The ladies especially are to be thanked. There were only two that refused to come out and vote. The weather was too bad for the two. The men who donated the use of their autos are deserving of special thanks."

"It was indeed gratifying to see how the press assisted the Board of Trade and Council in this fight. Their part in the campaign was by no means a small one. If the same feeling continues between the press and the people as at present exists, Chatham cannot help but boom."

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

At the conclusion of the Finance committee's session, the Council resumed, and the following motions were dealt with:

It was moved by Mr. Clark, seconded by Mr. Irwin, that a special grant of $50 be made to assist in purchasing two boats to be used as ferries across the river at or near Louisville, and that Mr. Abraham be appointed to see that the boats are constructed and payment made upon his order.—Roads and Bridges.

It was moved by Messrs. Dillott and Denholm, that all grants to roads be ordered to be struck out.—Roads and Bridges.

It was moved by Mr. Irving, seconded by Mr. Ribble, that a grant of $500 be made to repair the River road at Dequetteville Point, near Prairie Siding, in Raleigh Tp.—Roads and Bridges.

A by-law to appoint a new caretaker of Harrison Hall, in succession to A. W. Merritt, was given its first reading. This by-law makes some changes in the former regulations governing the janitor's duties in Harrison Hall. The inspection and supervision of Harrison Hall is placed in the hands of Major Coogan, the County Constable, in addition to his present duties, and for this work Major Coogan will receive $75 extra salary. Another caretaker will be appointed to do any necessary work in the way of sweeping, etc.

A number of miscellaneous by-laws regarding grants, etc., were given their first reading, after which the Council adjourned to meet again at ten o'clock Friday morning.

The Council resumed at eleven o'clock, all members being present. The Public School inspectors' reports were received and read. They were as follows:

There will be delegates here from Ottawa River in the East to Vancouver in the West, numbering in all about 150. It is expected the Convention will last until Thursday evening. The sessions will be held in the Auditorium, King street.

FIRE BUGS START BLAZE

Deliberate Attempt To Destroy the Whole
City

Allentown, Pa., June 7.—What was apparently an effort of incendiaries to destroy the City of Allentown occurred here early yesterday when firemen were called almost simultaneously to fight three fires in the business section of the city.

The first fire occurred in the stock-house of Bitner, Hunsicker and Company, one of the largest dry goods houses in the Lehigh Valley, the second in the Prince Furniture Company building, and the third at the furniture factory of Helfrich, Bohner and Co. An effort was made to draw the firemen from the business section by turning in false alarms from remote residential sections of the city. Total loss was $125,000. Three arrests on suspicion were made.

TWO RAILWAYMEN KILLED.

Disastrous Collision At Shawinigan Junction.

Montreal, June 7.—Further details of the train accident at Shawinigan Junction Wednesday night show that the special train in charge of Conductor Dicare ran into an engine engaged in shunting at Shawinigan Junction yard. Brakeman A. Desjardins was killed instantaneously, and Fireman A. Doyer was so seriously injured that he died shortly after the accident. No details as to the cause of the accident, which will form the subject of an official investigation and a coroner's inquest, have yet come to hand. Engineers of the train, locomotive and shunting engine escaped without hurt. Both engines were smashed up, and several cars were badly damaged. The line was blocked for many hours with the wreckage, but was cleared for traffic this morning. The two men who lost their lives were residents of Montreal.

IMMIGRATION BUNGLES.

The fact that in a great many cases a very undesirable class of immigrants are being brought into Canada, has been the subject of many heated discussions among men of this city who take an interest in public affairs. Only a short time ago a local clergyman in the course of his sermon undertook to score in no uncertain terms the action of so-called immigration agencies in making Canada a dumping ground. The following, which appeared in a despatch from London, Ont., recently gives an idea of how the matter is viewed in that city.

"The police authorities are beginning to recognize the seriousness of the state of affairs that is becoming so prevalent in regard to the increasing number of immigrants who come under their care.

"The chief trouble seems to be that some of the cases are those of half-witted men who are being flooded on the country by the department and are filling the asylums and other public institutions because they are not responsible citizens and not able to discharge the duties and obligations of even an ordinary member of the community.

"When interviewed in regard to it Saturday, Chief Williams said that the seat of the trouble was in the old country. The philanthropic institutions in the old country would not send their good citizens to the colonies, but keep them at home, where they had plenty of employment for them.

"The steamship companies and emigration bureaus and such like receive a bonus for every man they send out, and the better class do not come in touch with them," he said.

"The immigration institutions with their so-called high ideals, and talk of the great work they are doing in bringing out immigrants for Canada and Australia are only doing it for the money that is in it, and any kind of a man will do as long as he is of age.

"Do you think that I would help send men to Australia and such places as long as they would make good policemen? I don't think so, and I don't think that these institutions would either.

"Many of the landed gentry in England are interested in this emigration business and it is a fact with many of them. But don't you think for a minute they will send their good men out here. It is the undesirable class that they help out of the country, and send over here."

"The chief went on to say that it gave the people in this country an altogether wrong impression of old countrymen in general, and it made it hard for the better class to get positions when they were entitled to them on their own merits alone, because of the bad repute that the emigrants had gotten into through the selfishness and graft of the people who made a business of sending emigrants out.

"The police court have had several cases of insanity of a more or less dangerous type in the last two or three weeks, and the county authorities have the same tale to tell as numerous cases come under their notice of emigrants of unsound mind."

THE MASK OF HEALTH

Few People Are Really As Well As They Look. Cause and Remedy.

Many people in Chatham, both men and women, who believe themselves to be in perfect health, are often in the greatest danger.

Indigestion, which is so common a trouble, is the principal cause of the greater share of the general poor health. It has misleading symptoms that seem to have no reference to the stomach, such as headache, sleeplessness, specks before the eyes, pains in the back and side, etc.

The success of physicians everywhere with the prescription that is now embodied in Mi-o-na stomach tablets has made this remedy in the last few years the acknowledged specific for the treatment of stomach diseases. The secret of this success lies in the fact that Mi-o-na is prepared expressly to strengthen the digestive organs and its use for a few days puts the whole digestive system in such shape that it can care for all of the food that is eaten without pain or distress.

Simply take a Mi-o-na stomach tablet before each meal and on retiring, and it will so strengthen the stomach that you can enjoy a hearty meal without the least fear of distress or suffering.

C. H. Dunn & Co. give an absolute unqualified guarantee that your money will be refunded unless Mi-o-na cures. They take the whole risk and the remedy will not cost you a penny unless it cures you.

No life is more costly than the worthless one.

CHAIRMAN DENHOLM MAKES AN EXPLANATION

Chairman Denholm, of the Education committee of the County Council, at one of the recent sessions brought in a report on the County's payments towards the Chatham and Ridgeway Collegiate Institutes. In reference to the local institution he reported that the County's share this year was lower than it was in previous years.

"I would just like to say," said Mr. Denholm while speaking to a Planet reporter afterwards, "that the reason of the decrease in the County's share towards the institution is due to the fact that the number of pupils from the County has decreased. I would not want to have anyone think that we are trying to get out of paying what is our just share toward the Collegiate. The decrease is merely due to natural causes."

PUBLIC KISSING IS NOT A CRIME

New York, June 6. — Judge Whitman in the Yorkville court has decided that kissing in public is not disorderly conduct, if the girl is willing.

James F. Higgins, a clerk living in East Eighteenth street, was standing in a Second avenue doorway with three girls, one of whom he was embracing. Policeman Stapleton came along and told Higgins to "beat it." Higgins refused, whereupon he was locked up on a charge of disorderly conduct. When Higgins was arraigned the court asked the policeman if Higgins had been drunk.

"No," was the reply.
"Well, what did he do?"
"He was kissing a girl on the street."

"Is that all?"
"Yes."
"Is that a crime?" broke in the anxious Higgins.
"Well, that depends," said the court, smiling. "I don't think it is unless the girl objects."

"O, she didn't object," said Higgins.
"I guess this young man was merely saying good-night to his lady friend," said the court, "and I don't see anything wrong in that. I will discharge the defendant."

A PURE CASE OF COOL NERVE

New York, June 5. — A negro entered the office of Mayor Mark M. Fagan, of Jersey City, and said:

"Mr. Mayor, you have not much longer to live. If there is anything you would like to have done I would be grateful if you would tell me, for I am about to kill you. Is there anything?"

"Yes, there are many things," said the Mayor, keeping his eye on the negro, who was reaching to a hip pocket. "Sit down and we will talk them over."

He touched a bell under his desk. "This will take quite a while," went on the Mayor. "You had better take paper and pencil. Meanwhile, here is my secretary, and I will leave you with him for a second while I go into my private office to get my papers. You will enjoy seeing them."

The negro was willing. The Mayor's complacency pleased him immensely. Mayor Fagan went to a telephone in the next room and asked for two policemen at once. Then he coolly faced death again by going back to the negro. He sat down before him and talked with him earnestly for several minutes. The negro made notes and promised he would carry out all the ante-mortem wishes of his intended victim to the letter. Ten minutes passed and there was a rap at the door.

"Some one wants to see you," said the Mayor. The negro went to the door and the two policemen, who had hurried in breathless, grabbed him. He said he was John Cannon, of the Lafayette district. Later it was learned that he was released recently from Snake Hill asylum, having been sent there as insane after making similar threats against the life of former Mayor Hoos. He is said to have lost his mind through overstudy.

STRIKES THAT LASTED.

Battles Between Labor and Capital that Continued for Years.

The large number of strikes, especially among longshoremen, which have taken place in Canadian cities during the spring, may recall to many that the boycott by its teachers of the West Ham Educational Authority in England may very possibly prove the beginning of one of the most prolonged strikes of modern times. The National Union of Teachers has a membership of 60,000, and already it has pledged itself to support the strikers for five years at the least, paying them full salaries during the whole of that period.

The great Bethesda strike, which was recently brought back to memory by the death of Lord Penryn, lasted just over three years, cost the district in wages alone £364,000, and seems likely to have crippled the British slate industry for some time to come.

This is, up till now, the longest labor war on record, but it looks like being exceeded, in point of time, by that which broke out two and a half years ago at the Hensworth Colliery, Yorkshire, and which is still unsettled, the pits meanwhile lying idle, and the men receiving regular wages for doing nothing—from the Yorkshire Miners' Union.

Two and a half years, by the way, is precisely the length of the duration of the engineers' strike which broke out in Sunderland in the spring of 1883, which left the men just where they were, while it cost the Union £200,000 in strike pay.

It may well be, however, that all the above mentioned strikes will be eclipsed by the great strike of agricultural laborers which began last month in the province of Ferrara, Italy.

The men have been saving up for the struggle for more than twenty years past, and as an indication of the spirit that animated the strikers, it may be mentioned that their womenfolk have sent away from the scene of conflict all their babies, seventeen hundred in number, to be cared for in artisan households in various parts of Upper Italy.

THINKS KINDLY OF CANADA.

Chancellor Von Buelow's Remarks as to Trade and Emigration.

A recent despatch from Baden (Germany) says:

It is evident from incidents in the remarkable official and unofficial reception given to the British journalists now touring in Germany, that the German Government and all commercial classes await with sympathetic interest the outcome of the present visit to Europe of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Mr. Fielding.

Prince Von Buelow, the German chancellor, received Percy Hurd, who is one of the visiting journalists. He expressed warm interest in Canadian progress, and asked for minute details of Canada's recent advance in population, wealth and national status.

He said it was gratifying to know that the Germans who formerly went to Canada proved so prosperous. He knew they would make good settlers. Especially did he know they would make loyal Canadian citizens, but he himself, as a German, was anxious for Germany's welfare, and rejoiced that whereas 25 years ago Germany emigrated 300,000 people, some of the best of whom went to Canada, to-day Germany found work and a future at home for all her people.

He expressed surprise at the extent of United States immigration into Canada. All he heard confirmed him in the belief that Canada was destined to become a great country, whose progress Germany watched with sympathetic concern.

At a civic banquet in the Town Hall, which was followed by a reception in the Reichstag, Herr Von Mendelssohn, the well-known banker, said, amid cheers: "It would be very desirable if trade relations between the two great states, Germany and Canada, were again to become normal and friendly."

The present visit to Germany of British journalists would, he hoped, contribute, to that end, because there were really no divergent commercial or political interest between Canada and Germany.

Sharing Our Blessings.

What we have we should give, we are bound to give. We should never withhold it. It is not ours to keep only for ourselves. God gives nothing for selfish hoarding or for selfish use. Always we are his stewards, and are blessed ourselves in order that we may be a blessing to others. This is true of every good thing we receive. It comes to be a good thing to us if we refuse to share it or to pass it on.

This is true of our common, earthly blessings. The great law of love all we have at the call of God for human need. The love of God, which is given to us so freely and with such infinite lavishness, blesses us only when we too become loving like God and love others as He loves us. The divine forgiveness can become ours only if we will pass it on, forgiving as we are forgiven.

We can get God's comfort in our sorrow only when we are ready to give it out again, comforting others with the comfort wherewith we ourselves have been comforted of God.—Rev. J. E. Miles.

King Edward's Birth.

The connection respecting the birth of a royal baby in Spain recalls an incident in connection with the appearance in this world of the present King of England. Among the notabilities at Buckingham Palace awaiting the auspicious event was the great Duke of Wellington, the hero of Waterloo, then over 70 years of age. The young nurse came into the reception-room and announced the birth. "Is it a boy?" asked the veteran duke. "It is a boy, Prince, your grace," answered the dame in a somewhat offended tone. Some months later, when asked by a lady how the youngster was getting on, the duke replied: "Well, madam, very well, if I am any judge. I am told that all healthy babies kick hard and cry loudly, and I can personally testify that His Royal Highness is a very healthy baby."

Where Sentiment Clings.

"There is a lot of sentiment in New York," said a renting agent. "Some of our tenants find it in chunks, and then they come and tell us about it. It is usually centered in some room in a boarding or furnished room house on our list. You wouldn't think there would be much romance attached to a place of that kind, yet that is where the spirit of sentiment most frequently manifests itself. Some people, mostly women, of course, come back year after year and ask to be allowed to see certain rooms in certain houses. Great events in their lives apparently took place there. Maybe somebody was born there, maybe somebody died, or it might have been some other tragedy of some other joy. Anyhow to those persons those particular rooms are hallowed spots, and on certain dates, anniversaries probably, they make a pilgrimage there. Sometimes the tenant, if a newcomer, suspects thieves and refuses permission to enter, but as a rule, the most stony hearted yields to the spirit of romance and the visitor is allowed to weep and mourn to her heart's content."—New York Press.

There is a lot of sentiment in New York," said a renting agent. "Some of our tenants find it in chunks, and then they come and tell us about it. It is usually centered in some room in a boarding or furnished room house on our list. You wouldn't think there would be much romance attached to a place of that kind, yet that is where the spirit of sentiment most frequently manifests itself. Some people, mostly women, of course, come back year after year and ask to be allowed to see certain rooms in certain houses. Great events in their lives apparently took place there. Maybe somebody was born there, maybe somebody died, or it might have been some other tragedy of some other joy. Anyhow to those persons those particular rooms are hallowed spots, and on certain dates, anniversaries probably, they make a pilgrimage there. A meeting to arrange the schedule of games will be held next week.

In the summer of 1905, under the instruction of the City Engineer, a pavement was laid on Murray street. The crossings and approaches to the crossings were torn up at the time of paving. The approaches were then filled in with plank as a substitute until they would lay cement. The cement, as yet, has not been laid, and residents in that locality are complaining of the same. It not only is a detriment to the appearance of the street, but is at times very slippery and unsafe. The ratepayers of that section would like to see the paving completed.

IT WAS A WILD RUMOR

Busybody Starts Untruthful Tale About Messrs. Johns and Greene

Said Planet Had an Article About Them Putting Up Job

An instance of how quickly a wild rumor will spread, was in evidence this morning. Somebody with a love for trouble, carried the story abroad that County Councillors George Johns, of Bothwell, and A. W. Greene, of Zone, were going to bring in sensational charges against certain county officials. The busy-body who circulated this report gave it out that he had exclusive information to the effect that The Planet editorial department had got in possession of the story, which would be published in this evening's issue of the Great Home Journal.

Messrs. Johns and Greene were naturally anxious about the matter, and when a Planet reporter appeared on the scene during a committee meeting this morning, Mr. Johns immediately button-holed him.

"I have been told," said the wide-awake member from Bothwell, "that you have an article about Mr. Greene and me going to put up a job on County Crown Attorney Herb Smith and Auditor Fritz Falls. Now, I want to say that there is nothing to it, and whoever started such a story had little to do. For myself, I may say that I have nothing but the greatest regard and respect for our Crown Attorney, and as for Mr. Falls, you will remember that I said during the committee meeting yesterday afternoon, that I believed his report to this Council was a great source of education to the members and, while I did not agree with him in every particular, I thought it was a very clever and concise report."

"What I have to say about any county officer I will say open and above board. I never go behind any man's back to knife him," concluded Mr. Johns.

OIL PRODUCTION 1,300 BARRELS PER DAY

The production of the Tilbury East oil field has for the past few weeks hovered around the 1,300 barrels a day mark, and more often going above than below it. This is higher than ever before, and the figures are steadily creeping. New wells, of course, tend to keep up a high standard, but the immaterial boost that they give does not unduly stimulate the field's production, for the reason that the steady gain shows that the old wells are still doing a fair share toward keeping the figures high.—Tilbury Times.

ORCHARD MADE BOMBS: STARTLING MURDER CASE

Boise, June 7.—Harry Orchard, the man who says his true name is Albert Horsley, and who assassinated former Governor Frank Steunenberg at Caldwell, on the night of Dec. 30, 1906, resumed his gruesome story as a witness against William D. Haywood, secretary and treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, in the District Court yesterday morning. The fearsome relation of five years of crime has not been finished. The climax is yet to come, if indeed there can be a climax more terrible than the one already reached in the narrative told by the witness.

First Orchard gave the names of several persons he met in San Francisco when he went there to kill Fred Bradley, formerly manager of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mines, in the Coeur d'Alenes. Orchard part of the time was known as Barry. On returning to Denver, wearing a soldier's uniform, he called up Pettibone by telephone and told him Bradley was alive, but had lost his sight and probably would be deaf the remainder of his life.

A Living Example.
 "Pettibone said that was better than if I had killed him outright—that Bradley would now be a living example," continued the witness. Orchard said he asked for money and received $125 from Pettibone.

Orchard said Haywood next asked him "to go to work on Judge Gabbert of the Supreme Court of Colorado."

"He said Judge Gabbert," Orchard went on, "had been rendering decisions against Moyer, whom we were trying to get out of Telluride on habeas corpus. I went to Judge Gabbert's house with Steve Adams and a shotgun, but we did not see the judge."

"Haywood also wanted us to try again at Governor Peabody, who was about to be re-elected, and to shoot Frank Hearne of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co., and Dave Moffatt, president of the First National Bank, who were behind the first against the federation."

He and Adams had no chance to kill these men.

Another Judge Named.
 "We were also to get after Judge Goddard, who, Haywood said, was instrumental in defeating the eight-hour bill, which had been declared unconstitutional," Orchard continued.

Orchard said he prepared a bomb in Pettibone's cellar, to place beneath Peabody's bedroom window at Canon City.

Orchard declared that Pettibone gave him $100 before he went to Canon City with the bomb, but that an explanation he had jokingly made in response to a question from a traveling companion, who had heard a clock ticking in the grip with the bomb, caused Pettibone to suggest that the attempt be deferred.

Something to Show.
 As Pettibone wanted something pulled off before the convention, to show for the money spent, he and Orchard made a bomb for Judge Gabbert, and placed it in a vacant lot which the judge daily crossed. A wire was left outside of the bomb, to which a pocket book was to be attached, so that anyone picking up the purse would upset the sulphuric acid inside the bomb.

"Pettibone had to go next day to Salt Lake City to attend the convention of the federation. I was afraid to touch the old bomb, so I prepared a new one. As Judge Gabbert started out the next morning I rode ahead of him on a bicycle and fastened the pocket book to the wire. I rode away, heard an explosion an hour afterward. A man named Wally was killed. Judge Gabbert had passed without noticing the pocket book."

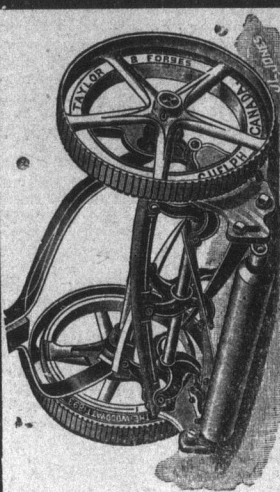

He said former Adjutant-General Sherman Bell, who had helped break up a strike, next was selected.

Wanted Too Much Money.

Orchard said Moyer told him they should get rid of Johnny Neville, "who knew too much about the independence Depot affair and was demanding money." Haywood, Orchard continued, "said we ought to get ex-Governor Steunenberg. He thought that if we got him after letting him go seven or eight years, and then went back to Paterson, N. J., and wrote letters to Judge Gabbert, Judge Goddard, Peabody, Bell and the others, telling them they were not forgotten either, that would have a good effect. Moyer said it would better than killing them."

THE One Minute Washer

Revolutionized the soiled clothes question and makes domestic life easy. A fly wheel under the bottom of the tub of the One Minute Washer is a feature of the machine exclusively its own. This fly wheel is driven by a gear wheel with crank attached and revolves on little steel balls like the wheels of a bicycle. You would be surprised how hard it is to stop the machine when once it is in motion. Two strokes of the handle are sufficient to get up speed and then the fly wheel does half the work. The construction of this machine is the very best and is made of Louisiana cypress imported from the United States. The machine filled with clothes to its capacity makes from fifteen to twenty reciprocating motions (forward and backward) before coming to a stand still.

The Price Is $10

After you have used one, twice the money would not persuade you to give it up, if you could not replace it.

CHATHAMITES ACQUIT

THEMSELVES WITH HONOR

In the Toronto University results, which have come out recently, the names of many successful Chathamites appear.

Notable among these are R. M. Campbell and Bruce McQuarrie, two former pupils of the Collegiate Institute. Mr. Campbell was successful in passing his third year, besides landing the Marison scholarship for Biblical Literature. He also got honors in Greek and Hebrew. "Bob" is a former Planet carrier boy, and his many friends in the city are very proud of him.

Bruce McQuarrie received honors in classics. It will be learned with interest that he has secured a charge at Lake Lannigan, Vancouver Island, for the summer.

Shirley M. Holmes, the bright young son of Dr. T. K. Holmes, was successful in passing his first year in medicine. Shirley is a clever boy and it seems quite natural that he should do well in this branch of study, his father and two brothers having attained to such prominence in the medical profession.

Among those who have completed their first year examinations in arts, are, J. A. Fletcher, Miss A. S. Hutchison and E. C. McQuarrie. The latter is a brother of Bruce McQuarrie, and he belongs to a family of boys in Valetta which is counted one of the cleverest in the country.

The above record speaks well for the Chatham Collegiate. Each of the above candidates is a former student of this institution, and the early training received at the local High School no doubt had a great deal to do with the excellent records made.

No Trading on Bourse.

Genoa, Italy, June 7.—Trading on the local Bourse was suspended yesterday, owing to the heavy losses involved in the monthly settlement, amounting to about $2,400,000. The suspension of operations on the Bourse was followed by the announcement that the brokers declined to transact any further business, thus creating an exceptional position.

The newspapers are asking the Government to intervene.

WALLACEBURG

Wallaceburg, June 6.—A visitor to Wallaceburg enquired of a prominent citizen about the relative merits of the two leading industries, namely, the glass works and the sugar beet factory, and was told that the glass works was the better industry of the two, and gave as a reason that the glass works ran practically all the year round, while the sugar factory was run comparatively a short time in the year.

PRETTY SOMBRA WEDDING

Sombra, June 6.—A pretty wedding was celebrated yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stokes, when their daughter, Gertrude A., was united in marriage to Dr. G. E. Chapman, of Wilkesport, formerly of London, Ont., Rev. A. C. Justice officiating.

Mrs. Chapman, mother of the groom, Mrs. Richards and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Chapman, of London, were among the guests present.

Death is not the greatest ill; life not the greatest good; happiness not the noblest end.

You can throw your money in the air anywhere about the town and it will land on a pretty fair suit. There is but one place where it will land on the best one—that spot is right at this store. Talk doesn't do it. The garments make it so.

It is easy enough to offer poor clothing at low prices, or fine clothing at high prices, but to make to measure first-class garments at the smallest possible cost is another thing. Yet that's exactly the mission of this store. This is how we prove it.
