LOVELL & GIBSON'S
CANADA ALMANAC.

1846.

Explanation of the Calendar Pages.

At the head of the respective pages for each month are given the ordinary Tables of the Changes and Quadratures of the Moon. These Tables—together with the three first vertical columns of each page—it is presumed need no explanation.

The fourth and fifth columns shew the mean times of the rising and setting of the sun. The quantities are only set down to the nearest minute.
The uncertainty of the observed times of the rising or setting of Heavenly Bodies, on land; caused by the varying amount of Horizontal Refraction, and the general liability to the intervention of terrestrial objects in such observations, renders a closer approximation unnecessary for ordinary practical purposes.

In the sixth column, marked "Sun South," are given the times which should be shewn by a well regulated clock or watch when the Sun is on the Meridian.

The seventh column contains the Moon's place in the signs of the Zodiae.

The eighth column contains the mean times of the rising or setting of the Moon. These quantities are only set down to the nearest minute, for the reasons mentioned above in respect to the Sun.

| Greatest Phase,..... " 21  | Mean time in the Evening. |
| End of Eclipse,..... " 47  | }                         |

Duration of visibility=53 minutes. Magnitude of the Eclipse (Sun's Diameter=1) 0.23 on the Southern Limb. The path of the Central and Annular Eclipse will first touch the Earth in Longitude  $135^{\circ} 51'$  West, and Latitude  $2^{\circ} 11'$  South, and taking a north-easterly course will traverse Guatemala, the West India Islands, and the Atlantic Ocean, and reaching Africa, will terminate near the Southern part of Morocco.

II. An Annular Eclipse of the Sun, October 20th, invisible at Montreal. Conjunction in Right Ascension at 56 minutes after 2 in the morning. This Eclipse of the Sun will be visible in Africa, Australia, the Indian and great Southern Oceans.

Venus will be Evening Star until the 22d day of March, thence Morning Star till the 15th day of December, thence Evening Star the remainder of the year.

They come! they come! each blue-eyed sport,
The Twelfth-night king and all his court—

'Tis Mirth fresh crown'd with mistletoe!

Music with her merry fiddles,

Joy "on light fantastic toe,"

Wit with all his jests and riddles,

Singing and dancing as they go.

And Love, young Love, among the rest,

A welcome—nor unbidden guest.

FEBRUARY.

Sir, the no-th-east, more fierce than Russian cold,
Pierces the very marrow in the bones,
Presses up on the brain an arid weight,
And superflows life's current with a force
That checks the heart, and soul, and mind, and strength,
In all their purposes.—

Up with the double window-sashes—quick!
Close every crevice from the withering blast,
And stop the keyhole tight—the wind-fend comes!

Muttering, the winds at eve, with blunted point,
Blow hollow-blustering from the south. Subdued,
The frost resolves into a trickling thaw.
Spotted, the mountains shine; loose sleet descends,
And floods the country round. The rivers swell,
Of bonds impatient. Sudden from the hills,
O'er rocks and woods, in broad, brown cataracts,
A thousand snow-fed torrents shoot at once;
And where they rush, the wide resounding plain
Is left one slimy waste.

Next came fresh April, full of lustyhed,
 And wanton as a kid whose horne new buds.
 Upon a bull he rode, the same which led
 Europa floting through th' Argōfick fluds :
 His horns were gilden all with golden studs,
 And garnished with garlands goodly dight
 Of all the fairest flowers and freshest buds
 Which th' earth brings forth; and wet he seem'd in sight,
 With waves, through which he waded for his love's delight.

Born in yon blaze of orient sky,
Sweet May! thy radiant form unfold;
Unclose thy blue voluptuous eye,
And wave thy shadowy locks of gold.
For thee the fragrant zephyrs blow,
For thee descends the sunny shower,
The rills in softer murmurs flow,
And brighter blossoms gem the bower.

Now cometh welcome Summer with great strength,
 Joyously smiling in high lustihood,
 Conferring on us days of longest length,
 For rest or labour, in town, field, or wood;
 Offering, to our gathering, richest stores
 Of varied herbage, corn, cool fruits, and flowers,
 As forth they rise from Nature's open pores,
 To fill our homesteads, and to deck our bowers.

More hot it grows : ye fervours of the sky

Attend the virgin—lo ! she comes to hail

Your sultry radiance.—Now the god of day

Meets her chaste star—be present zephyr's gale

To fan her bosom—let the breezes fly

On silver pinions to salute his ray ;

Bide of his soft desires, with comely grace

He clasps the virgin to his warm embrace.

The reapers now their shining sickles bear
A band illustrious, and the sons of Health!

They bend, they toil across the wide champaign,
Before them Ceres yields her flowing wealth;
The partridge-covey to the copse repair
For shelter, sated with the golden grain,
Bask on the bank, or thro' the clover run
Yet safe from fetters, and the slaughtering gun.

The orient is lighted with crimson glow,
The night and its dreams are fled,
And the glorious roll of nature now
Is in all its brightness spread,
The autumn has tinged the trees with gold,
And crimsoned the shrubs of the hills;
And the full seed sleeps in earth's bosom cold;
And hope all the universe fills.

There is a fearful spirit busy now.<sup>3</sup>

Already have the elements unfurled

Their banners : the great sea-wave is upcurled

The cloud comes : the fierce winds begin to blow

About, and blindly on their errands go;

And quickly will the pale red leaves be hurled

From their dry boughs, and all the forest world

Stripped of its pride, be like a desert show.

Now comes the season when the humble want,
And know the misery of their wretched scant ;
Go, ye, and seek their homes, who have the power,
And ease the sorrows of their trying hour.

There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth,
To him who gives, a blessing never ceaseth.

Hoary, and dim, and bare, and shivering,
 Like a poor almsman comes the aged Year,
 With kind "God save you all, good gentlefolks!"
 Heap on fresh fuel, make a blazing fire,
 Bring out the cup of kindness, spread the board,
 And gladden Winter with our cheerfulness!
 Wassail!—To you, and yours, and all!—All health!

EXPLANATION:—Opposite the given time and under the Latitude will be found the required greatest Azimuthal distance of Polaris. If there be any odd minutes of Latitude, not at the head of the table, take the next lesser Latitude, and add to the Azimuth corresponding thereto, the product of the given excess of minutes multiplied into the difference for 1', standing below rejecting fractions in such product: the sum will be the Azimuth required. The corresponding time from Meridian passage added to, or subtracted from the hour of transit, will shew the true mean time of such greatest Azimuth, West or East of the Meridian.

4.—Letters to and from the United Kingdom are subject to a uniform charge of 1s. 4d. currency, per half oz. They are sent through the United States to Boston, under the charge of an officer appointed for that purpose by the British Government.

NEWSPAPERS.

Colonial Newspapers not exceeding 2 oz. sent by the post to any other place within the British North American Provinces, pay one halfpenny, to be prepaid or not at the option of the sender.

If sent to any British Colony beyond sea, (not intended to pass through the United Kingdom,) or to any foreign country, except U. States—one half-penny—to be prepaid.

If sent to any part of the United States—one penny—to be prepaid.

Newspapers sent from the United States, are liable, on delivery, to a Provincial rate of one penny, in addition to U. S. postage.

Colonial Newspapers sent to the United Kingdom, by way of Boston, and British newspapers from the U. Kingdom to any part of Canada, are rated at one half-penny, payable on delivery.

With the exception of these last, (which are not limited as to weight,) a newspaper to pass under the foregoing regulations, must not exceed 2 oz. otherwise it becomes liable to pamphlet postage, i.e. one penny per oz.
