THE CAUSE OF EMPIRE HAS BEEN WELL SERVED BY QUEBEC MEMORIA

Stirring Addresses by Imperial Celebrities at State Banquet-New Zealand Contributes to Battlefields Fund.

PRINCE HEARTILY THANKED FOR HIS KINDLY INTEREST

QUEBEC, Que., July 26 .- (Special.)-The state dinner was a brilliant funcon Saturday night at the citadel. Colonial representatives were a feature of the celebration, which more fully represented the imperial character of the celebration than any previous social function.

The guests were received by the governor-general, before the magnificent dining room in the citadel was entered by the guests, among whom were practically all the notable visitors who are kept at the celebration.

After the royal toast, Earl Grey proposed that of the Prince of Wales.

"I do not believe there is a man in Quebec, I do not believe there is a single intelligent Canadian in any part of Canada, into whose distant hut the echoes of these festivities will reverberate, who will not feel most grateful to your royal highness for your sympathy, which has caused you to leave England—that happy isle—at the very pleasantest season of the year and to face the discomfort of a double crossing by the rude Atlantic in order that you might do honor to Canada on her three hundredth birthday and lay the wreath of your homage at the foot of the statue of Champlain," said his excellency.

"By coming to Canada at this season of the year, when your presence is so earnestly desired in England, you have given to the British race a standing lesson as to the way in which it should be the duty of every subject of the King to subordinate his personal interests and convenience to the higher interests of the empire and the crown. Further, your royal highness, in putting yourself to so much trouble and inconvenience in order that you may pay homage to Champlain and do honor to Quebec, you The guests were received by the plain and do honor to Quebec, you have associated yourself for all time with Champiain, the hero of Quebec, in the hearts of the people.

Well Fit to Be King.

Well Fit to Be King.

"Sir, the fact that this is the sixth occasion on which you have visited Canada is in itself sufficient to show how well qualified you are in heart and action to be the heir to the throne, not only of Great Britain, but of Greater Britain. In making yourself acquainted with every portion of the empire you have given an example which it would be well if those subjects of the crown who have the necessary opportunity would increasingly follow. All they want is your royal

"I constantly wonder how those who jog along year after year in the same old tedious ruts and who lavish their surplus fortunes upon foreign holi-day resorts do not, as a change, some-times cross the Atlantic in order that they may make themselves acquainted with the charms and attractions of this wonderful Dominion. Just as there is not one who had been in Quebec during this wonderful week who will not be glad to revisit it, so I believe there are few Britons who have spent their holiday in Canada who would not do so again as often as they can. A trip across the Atlantic in a C.P.R. Empress or in one of the turbine steamers of the Allan of the turbine steamers of the Allan Line is in itself a holiday. I, therefore, believe that your royal highness' example will be followed by an increasing number as soon as people at home realize their opportunities.

"The motto which has decorated this city by day and illuminated it by night," Si Nous Nous Connaissors Mieux Nous Nous Almerons Plus." (If

Mieux, Nous Nous Almerons Plus.' (If we know one another better we shall love one another more') represents a great truth of which this week has been an eloquent illustration, which ought to be carved in imperishable letters on the doorstep of every Briton. Sir, the speech which you made at foot of the Champlain statue and words with which you dedicated to race fusion and peace the sacred ground on which the two races won equal and imperishable glory will long

Clark, conductor on a Cumberland street car, saw the trouble, and bringing his car to a stop, ran to the fire escape and hoisted the weight which let the ladder down again to the ground.

That no one was killed was probably due to the action of Manager William S. Williams. Grasping the situation, he at once sent word to the actors to go on the stage. Eleven of the performers came before the curtain and began to sing. Hearing the sound of the voices those in the rear of the crush halted and turned around. Then realizing that the danger, if it had existed, was over, they returned to their seats and the panic was quelled.

It would be very unwise to base much upon this assumption. The sultan is face to face with the greatset domestic crisis of his long reign, and it will tax all his wonderful resources in statecraft to survive it. It may be assumed that he won't give much consideration to outside problems until he has solved the domestic one.

Ontious Signs.

What makes the revolutionary movement most ominous for Abdul Movement

What makes the revolutionary movement most ominous for Abdul Hamid is the orderliness and restraint with which the plans of the Young Turks are being carried out. There is every indication of a careful systematic working out of a well developed plan and this augurs ill for the present regime. One consequence of this sudden crisis will be the postponement of the attempt of the powers to impose the Macedonian reforms. It is an interesting feature of the situation that in the sed macedonian reforms. It is an interesting feature of the situation that in the region of Macedonia controlled by the revolutionists the evils which Christendom has so long deplored have, for the time being at any rate, almost ceased to exist. How to Cure Heartburn.

The cause of heartburn and hiccoughs is fermentation in the stomach. Magical relief comes from Nervince ware entirely unable to causes heartburn, just as it relieves and cures indigestion, cramps, gas belching and other ailments of the shouthed and groaned in accompaniment. Furthermore, members of the men's family were compelled to play the Dutch national hymn, while the people below shouted:

"Down with Castro!" and "Long may Wilhelmina live!"

The police were entirely unable to cope with the demonstrators, and their efforts in this direction were somewhat feelble. No bodily harm was done to anyone, but the shouting and cheering sood as a 25c bottle of Polson's Nerviline.

WRECK CATCHES FIRE

AUTO PINS VICTIMS

BURLINGTON, Vt., July 26.—A special to The Free Press, from Platts- Dead Are Rescued burgh, N. Y., says:

A shocking automobile accident ocurred about six miles west of Port lenry last night, resulting in the instant death of J. E. Dodge of Malden,
Mass., and Lockwood Reed of Port Henry. B. E. Titus of Syracuse, N.Y., who was in the car at the time of the who was in the car at the time of the accident, escaped uninjured.

Mr. Dodge, the owner of the car, with his family and a party of friends, was camping about ten miles west of Port Henry. Saturday evening the three men set out for Port Henry for a load of provisions, and were making the return trip when at a point about six miles west of Port Henry Dodge lost control of the machine in some unaccountable manner, and the car dashed into a stream known as Muddy Brook and turned turtle, pinning Dodge and Reed underneath. The machine was a large touring car and the two men were unable to move.

Instantly there was a heavy explosion and the car took fire, burning the victims beyond recognition.

A GREAT ORGANIST.

Mr. Edwin H. Lemare, the eminent Curacao, Dutch West Indies, are strain English organist, is well known by ed to the breaking point. as an artist. In Pittsburg recently he investigated the Angelus, that wonderful pneumatic piano-playing device. Here is his statement: "Any pianist or musician must admit the wonderful virtuosity of the Angelus,—its artistic possibilities in the hands of the capable musician, either amateur or propable mus for artistic interpretation, it is, in my opinion, absolutely unique. The Angelus with its wonderful devices for phrasing and emphasizing notes should be welcomed by all true musicians." In Canada the Angelus is sold as an interior part of the Gourlay piano, an instrument which in five years has won an unquestioned position in the van of Canadian pianos, not only for the clarity and beauty of its tone. but for its careful construction and its staying-in-tune qualities. The Gourlay-Angelus is an ideal combination, worthy of a place in any studio or in any drawing room. Messrs. Gourlay, Winter & Leeming will be glad to worthy of a place in any studio of charged.

Last of the Olympic Games Winners Receive Rewards

ucen Alexandra Presents Gold Medals-Dorando Receives Ovation-Record of Nations.

LONDON, July 26 .- The Olympic borand, the Hailan who made such a brave fight for the Marathon race, walked briskly around the track and up the steps to the royal stand to receive the gold cup, a present from the queen for his plucky finish in this event. He was given a perfect ovation, the people rising in their seats and cheering him for 15 minutes. The Italian looked quite strong and did not show any signs of the frightful ordeal thru which he went Friday. He was escorted around the arena by a number of his compatriots, one of whom bore on high an Italian flag.

The other trophies having been presented, the crowd rose and cheered Queen Alexandra, who retired as, the band played the national anthem.

This was the conclusion of the fourth revival of the Olympia.

The American committee has decided to present a medal to Dorando, on which will be inscribed the flags of the United States and Italy, and a Marathon figure. It will be sent thru the United States and Italy, and a Marathon figure. It will be sent thru the United States and Italy, and a Marathon figure are the conclusion of the fourth revival of the Olympia.

Some of the Sunday papers published ditorials on the Olympiad. The Observer says: "We did not shine in the traditional forms of athletics. The American exhibitions of strength and skill were magnificent. In whatever way we count the wins, they undoubtedly carried off the greatest honors."

The Stunday Times says: "The main lesson of the games is that other nations, with the enthusiasm of youth, are pressing vigorously to wrest from us the laurels for the new world. The are pressing vigorously to wrest from us the laurels for the new world. The 400 metres incident is particularly regrettable as an American was concerned, because an American is not a guest, but is a son of the house. Had it been passed at the first asking in all probability Mr. Hughes bosses thought it safe to reject the measures. The fortunate opening of a senatorial vacancy enabled the governor to secure the election of a supporter of his policy and the heroism of Senator Foelker carried the bills Hughes has intimated that he will accept a renomination if in accord with public sentiment. His principles, he says, are thoroly understood by the people, and if they so desire he will regard it as a privilege and a duty to regard it as a privilege and a duty to continue in office. Will the Republican bosses now put up a machine man against him? That, it is said, will depend on the electoral outlook—that is if the people want him they will get him. Unless all indications are misleading they will emphatically declare for the man who has imported so much of independence and high printing ciple into United States politics.

But tho Mr. Pugsley is not persona grata with the Liberals of New Brunswick, it is not easy to see where Mr. Emmerson has any strength outside the County of Westmoreland, and even here it is an unknown quantity at the present time. The late Mr. Blair, who had elements of strength that Mr. Emmerson never possessed, dropped from sight very quickly when he failed to be identified with either party, and Mr. Emmerson and his friends, who imagine that there is a political future for the ex-minister, are chasing a veritable will-o'-the-wisp. As for Conservatives, they will regard the efforts of Mr. Emmerson to unhorse Mr. Pugsley with amusement, in the good prospect of sending both these gentlemen into retirement at the next election."

The St. John Sun (Liberal), however, devotes a column to a "boost" for Dr. Pugsley. It commends his extreme modesty and energy in mastering the details of his department.

"The recognition Dr. Pugsley has won," observes The Sun, "even from those who viewed with none too friend-ly eyes his promotion from provincial those who viewed with none too friendly eyes his promotion from provincial politics over the heads of many capable men with strong claims, is the more creditable to him because he has not sought publicity. Probably no minister contributed less talk to the Hansard reports than he. Except when public works business was under discussion he was more frequently.

Moreover, as The Sun points out, Dr. Pugsley has "made good" in his efforts to capture things for St. John, notably the St. John River wharves, october or the first week in November. notably the St. John River wharves, the establishment of a permanent channel from Fredericton to Woodstock, the St. John drill hall, the construction of the first government where its construction of the first government go

More than that, he dropped from his subsequent speeches, both in the house and out, all reference to political corruption as an issue between the two parties. He understood his ministerial duty as public rather than political, and acted accordingly, indefatigably and with an energy unexcelled in the history of his department. All prospects are reassuring, except the purposes from the Canadian financial institutions has not deterred some of the insiders of the active speculative stocks from endeavoring to take advantage of the movement at New York to bid up their specialties here. The beank statement for June is confirmative of the beank statement for June is community within the next short wide. Deposits on demand increased, but those on notice showed another falling off. As the former is a highly fluctuating quantity, and governed to some extent by the volume of loans, the banks are unable to count on this for making more than temporary arrangements. The decline in deposits on notice is likely due to business depression, and represents the withdrawals of savings of worksnamed for expenses during periods of unemployment.

The general feeling in business circles is quite optimistic on the ground that the early marketing of the crop in the west, which is assured, will cause a sharp increase in the demand for expenses during periods of unemployment.

To the turkey that was tame epicures the country over prefer the turkey that was wild. However, clergymen are notoriously not epicurean in their tastes, and a certain Methodist preacher in Baltimore had once definitely expressed a preference for the domestic bird. Accordingly, when, one day last winter, he accepted an invitation to dine with a member of his congregation, that member, in ordering the dinner of the colored servant, laid stress upon this point.

"Now, remember, Ezekiel," he commanded, "Dr. Fourthly likes domestic turkey. You will therefore discontinue your usual practice, and get not a wild, but a tame one."

"Yassir," nodded the darky.

"Understand?" repeated the host-to-be, "A domestic turkey."

STEAMBOATS ON THE ABITIBI

A New Country Made Easily Accessible to Tourists.

Now that trains are running regularly to McDougall's Chutes, it is possible to make an extra trio thru a beautiful district hitherto almost impossible to reach. Walsh & Co, of the Crutes, early this summer prought into the country four steamboats or tugs, which ply on the Black River, Abitibl River and Lake Abitibl. The boats run between the different falls and the Transcontinental Rallway right of way. These boats are used for the towing in of supplies and machinery to the G. T. P. contractors, and also to carry arilway men and adventurous tourists.

The beautiful scenery and the cool bracing anr of this great northern region are things to be remembered for many a day. The exciting incidents and fascinating enjoyment of a trip thru this rough and rugged section of New Ontario will well repay the traveler. The manager of the steamboat company, Richard Walsh, McDougall's Chutes, will be pleased to furnish any desired information.

submit to arrest on a charge of illtreating his wife.

The officers, Conrad Rausher and Herman W. Krosowski, had been sumnoned by Mrs. Albert Bulz, who declared her husband had abused her and had threatened to kill her. When they reached the house they found that Bulz had barricaded himself in a room, and when he did not respond to their repeated commands to admit them, they forced the door. As 'he door gave way a flood of gas poured out.

An instant later when one of the policemen struck a match there was a terrific explosion and both officers were hurled thru the door. Their faces, hands and arms were badly burned.
Bulz's body was found lying on a couch
in the room.

In the investigation which followed the accident, it was learned that Mrs.
Bulz had been married before and that her former husband also ended his life
by suicide.

Description of Marathon

The oldest Londoner admits that the tance separating him from the Sout Townspeople Evince Little Interest in Local Matters.

Marathon gathered the most wonderful crowd ever seen in the city. Just out of sight of the start, at Windsor Castle, were a little ring of scarlet uphoistered gilt chairs and a round table, on which stood a great bowl of red roses. Here came Lord Desborough, followed by the princess of Wates with her three young debentures to the amount of $5500 for building a fire hall and to install a fire alarm system, and out of an available 900 votes, only 95 were polled in the four sub-divisions. The 95 who used their franchise, three to one, were of the opinion that the town can struggle along for a while yet without a fire hall or a fire alarm system, for only twenty-two voted in favor and seventy-three against.

The vote for bylaw No. 239 was slightly different. This bylaw called for the issue of debentures for $2000 to the control of the store of debentures for $2000 to the control of the co Marathon gathered the most wonderful

Without change the three leaders pounded over the roads until they entered the stadium in the order that had been maintained during the last five miles. It was then that each man put forth his last and waning effort, and the race immediately resolved itself into one of the most dramatic finishes ever witnessed. Dorando and Hayes, with the finish in sight less than a mile away, began a grueling the state of the stade of the less than a mile away, began a grueling sprint, which in view of the pace which they had carried from the start was little

Scarboro Farmer Sums Up the Outlook in a Few Words. Alfred Mason of L'Amaroux, and one of the best known farmers in Scarboro Township, dropped into The World office a few minutes on Saturday af-office a few minutes on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Mason says the hay crop, so far as he has seen in the township, will not cut as much as last year, while the quality of that left late in the season has apparently been greatly damaged by rust and the heavy rains. Barley is a fair crop, not heavy in the straw, but good, while pease are better than for a long time. Oats, too, will be a fair crop, while in some places the mangold crop is making a magnificent growth, and in others the outlook is not good. not good.
"On the whole we ought to have a good average year," said Mr. Mason.

a fire hall or a fire alarm system, for only twenty-two voted in favor and seventy-three against.

The vote for bylaw No. 939 was slightly different. This bylaw called for the issue of debentures for $2000 to make up the deficiencies created by the sale of debentures below par a year ago. Had this bylaw been also defeated, the ratepayers would have been called upon to raise the $2000 out of this year's taxes, which they did not relish, and the bylaw carried by sixty-nine to twenty-five.

The vote taken on Saturday was an expensive one. Counting the solicitor's fee for preparing the bylaws, advertising the same, printing and stationery, salaries to election officials, etc., every vote polled will cost the town in the neighborhood of four dollars. The accompanying table will show the town's voting strength and the votes polled in each subdivision, being only one vote for every ten entitled to vote:
