ADAM LESSEDEN IS CHICAGO'S FUTURE

The Strenuous Life is Killing the Men
That City
WILL ALL DIE OUT
And in Few Centuries Women
Will Rule the Roost, Says
a Health Official—Prescribes Simple Life

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—The strenuous life is killing the men of Chicago at a tremendous rate while the women of the city are increasing their longevity by the simple life. In the weekly official health bulletin issued yesterday, health commissioner Evans declares that a few centuries will see Chicago an Adamless Eden. He drew his conclusions from the death rate in Chicago for 20 years ago, and especially the last few months, when five members of the stronger sex died for every two of the fairer. Dr. Evans makes the startling statement that during the last seven months of 1907 in Chicago about 12,000 men succumbed as compared to 8,000 women. He says that at a rate that is 29 per cent. faster than that of the women. "They work harder. They take less care of themselves than of their wives and daughters. They court danger. They dissipate more. They exhibit a carelessness befitting a family with danger." The remedy, according to an eminent physician, lies in the return to the simple life of our fathers.

THE WEST END HAGUE Peace Conference Held at New Clark Wharf This Morning.

There was a "peace conference" on the west side this morning. The meeting place was the new Clark wharf, and the delegates were Ald. McGoldrick, Bullock, Baxter and Holder, of the sub-committee of the board of works, appointed to deal with the west side improvements, and Clark, Clarke & Adams, Engineers, Peters and Inspector Duffy.

As a result of the meeting it is announced that the work will proceed at once with the erection of the warehouse, and that the crews of men under the rival contractors will work amicably together.

This afternoon Clarke & Adams' men are conveying lumber to the warehouse site and the work will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible. The framework for the structure is all ready to be put together, and it is thought that by the end of the week the warehouse will be well under way.

D. C. Clark has made rapid progress with the foundation for the warehouse during the past week, and it is now practically complete except for the Union street extension. The top flooring is now being laid on the northern section of the wharf, and judging from the present progress the wharf will soon be completed.

The aldermen appeared well satisfied with the result of the meeting, and they expressed the feeling that the work would now go along without friction.

A SPORTSMAN'S LUCK

Not since he was campaigning in South Africa has Capt. Fred C. Jones had such an experience as befell him on Saturday. The Times does not vouch for the absolute accuracy of this story, and if Mr. Jones will say any portion of it is untrue it will be promptly retracted.

Mr. Jones had been fishing at a lake, and had been removed for some time from the ministrations of a barber. More over the sun was very hot and the flies faithful to their task. Mr. Jones' beard grew apace, the sun blistered him and the flies did not forsake him. When he struck civilization on Saturday his friends didn't know him. One of them responded to his greeting by saying "Nothing today," and hurried on. Another whom he accosted asked him why he did not go to work, and earn his own living. His barber even asked him to call again, and required proofs of his identity, which, after careful investigation, were furnished by his brother, R. Keith Jones, who happened to be in the shop at the time and recognized his clothing.

After half an hour's treatment with clippers, shavers, razor, soap, and healing preparations, Mr. Jones emerged smiling and recognizable. He had enjoyed his outing, caught a fine lot of fish, and regarded the passing discomforts with the philosophic indifference of a seasoned campaigner. But his photograph as he appeared at the door of the barber shop would frighten an amateur sportsman out of a year's growth.

The executive of the Canadian Club will meet in the Times building at four o'clock this afternoon.

John Martin, better known as John the Greek, has been reported by Patrolman Howell for furious driving on Union and Waterloo streets.

WILL ANNEX ISLE ROYALE

Adventurous Canadian Seeks to Plant British Flag on Lake Superior Island Claimed by United States.

DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 4.—A despatch from Port Arthur, Ont., says: Canadians led by Captain S. C. Young, of the 99th Regiment started yesterday in a yawl to launch for Isle Royale in Lake Superior with the intention of hoisting a British flag on the island and formally declaring the territory a part of the British empire and a portion of Canada.

Isle Royale has been held since early in the last century by the United States, but Canadians resist the suggestion that the island is rightfully held by the United States. Captain Young has not applied for any has been received governmental sanction for the expedition.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 4.—No advice has been received at the state department concerning the reported Canadian expedition to Isle Royale in Lake Superior with the intention of hoisting the British flag and formally declaring that territory as a part of Canada. According to officials of the state department there never has been any question between Canada and the United States as to the United States' ownership of the island.

FIFTY YEARS WEDDED LIFE

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Climo to Celebrate Golden Wedding
Tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Climo, will celebrate their golden wedding tomorrow at their home on Mount Pleasant avenue. On August 6, 1857 they were married at Cornwall, England.

They came to St. John about forty years ago, at which time Mr. Collins entered the employ of the Telegraph newspaper as a printer. He afterwards started in business as a photographer and was very successful in this line of work. About ten years ago he retired from business and has been occupying his leisure time since then in developing a very pretty garden at his Mount Pleasant home. He has made a hobby of his garden and it is greatly admired by all who pass that way. He has also late years contributed many interesting articles and letters to the city newspapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Climo have seven sons and daughters. The sons are: Harold, photographer, on German street and Charles, photographer in Halifax. The daughters are: Miss Alex Robertson, of Vancouver; Mrs. D. Angeline of Halifax; Mrs. George Travis, of Vancouver; and Mrs. Frank D. Adams, of St. John. There are also several grandchildren.

Mr. Climo was formerly Miss Mary Ann Daniels of Cornwall, England.

Mr. and Mrs. Climo will have a reception tomorrow evening at which all their relatives and friends are invited. They are both enjoying excellent health and their friends wish them many more years of happiness together.

SOME HEATED REMARKS

The hot wave is producing serious results in newspaper circles in Digby and Yarmouth, and it may be necessary to invite the rival journalists to come to this summer resort to regain their coolness. A Digby writer speaking of tourists wrote this statement:

"The visitors are not only Americans, but Nova Scotians as well, particularly Yarmouth people, who prefer this town to their own as a summer resort."

Whereupon the Yarmouth Telegram rejoined:

"Digby is jealous of all other places that obtain a portion of the tourist travel. They are simply 'hogs' in this matter—they want the whole, and will scruple at nothing to obtain it. For several years they undertook to slander the neighboring town of Annapolis with wilful misstatements. This became a matter of bitter newspaper controversy, and the town council of the two places had their guns trained upon each other. Annapolis got the better of the fight, and Digby took back water. Now, Yarmouth is threatened, and we do not fear any damage from our old and sleepy friend Digby. The evident intention of this writer, whoever he may be, is to turn the tide of tourist travel from Yarmouth to that place by getting the city papers to publish such insidious and lying slanders as the above. But it won't work."

A CHAPTER OF TRAGEDIES OCCURRING IN CANADA

Sir William Hingston's Daughter and Judge Davidson's Son Drowned While
Boating--A Drowning at Buctouche--
Wreck on the Grand Trunk.

MONTREAL, Aug. 5.—(Special)—A double drowning tragedy took place at Verennes on Sunday when Shirley Davidson, son of Mr. Justice Davidson, and Miss Eileen Hingston, daughter of the late Sir Wm. Hingston, were drowned. Mr. Davidson was a week and guest at Lady Hingston's summer residence, some miles down the river. On Sunday morning the two went sailing and hours after the canoe was found without signs of its occupants. It is believed a sudden lurch threw Miss Hingston out and Davidson jumped to rescue her. A strong current probably swept the canoe beyond their reach and they were too far from the shore to swim. The bodies were not found.

Broken Rail Wrecks Train

HAMILTON, Aug. 5.—(Special)—The Grand Trunk main line between Hamilton and Niagara Falls was blocked during the greater part of yesterday, because of the wreck of a freight train west of Crimby station. The accident happened about 7 a. m. and was caused by a broken rail. Thirteen cars were wrecked and their freight, which comprised furniture, drugs and watermelons, was piled in a great heap. A brakeman was the only person injured, and he had only a slight cut.

Bustin—the plaintiff's counsel—which occurred today at Hatfield's Point.

THE DREDGING

Conflicting Statements Are Made
Regarding the Two Machines and Their Work.

It depends on the source of information what kind of information one gets about the dredging operations at Sand Point. The Times stated the other day that the new dredge had not been working on the crib sits for over ten days. This statement was flatly contradicted. CHAPTER III. THE HUT ON THE MOOR.

Where—where? The question grew that the more he thought the more he was puzzled. He had been so long in the habit of seeing the girl in the morning, and he had been so long in the habit of seeing her in the evening, that he had almost forgotten that she was a girl, and that she was a girl who was not his wife.

The weather had changed in the night, and the smiling harvest calm had given place to a raw, blustering wind. The few driving clouds were now being driven away by the wind, and the sun was shining brightly on the hills.

Beware of the Bee

It isn't the meadow all so green— It isn't the grazing cow, It isn't the lambs on the frisk, Nor the hay that goes to the mill; It isn't the farmer with the scythe, Awaiting the roadway call; It isn't the wife that blows the horn No, it's none of these at all.

HOW TO SWIM

Valuable Instruction for Readers of The Times

Gracious swimming is synonymous with easy swimming. The one cannot exist in natural locomotion without the other, and, following in logical sequence, one may safely make the assertion that if one swims gracefully and easily one swims with easy swimming.

There is no such thing as a speedy, long-distance, ungraceful swimmer—such a contradiction is a practical impossibility. No one can swim nearly or fast-of-course, except by the aid of artificial means.

PROVINCIAL POLITICS

Not for a quarter of a century have the people of New Brunswick had a better opportunity than now offers to clear the political atmosphere and remove the stigma that has made the province a byword for a generation past.

It is not too much to say that in the past quarter of a century this province has suffered materially because the people did not apply business principles to the estimate of men and measures in the legislature at Fredericton.

Universal regret will be felt that the stringency of the money market has affected one or two industries in the flourishing town of Amherst.

Certain newspapers in this province, all of them in receipt of government patronage and notorious for their blindness to the faults of their own party, fell upon the Times and Telegraph with bludgeons as soon as these papers set forth an independent programme.

It is stated that out of four men appointed to positions in connection with the St. John post office in the past few months two were discharged for habits of intoxication and a third threw up the job after one day's work.

It is perfectly clear that the western grain crop will be short this year, although this will be somewhat offset by increased acreage.

Newspapers throughout the province are quoting a statement from the St. John Globe about the "oldest daily" in St. John, in which the Globe states that it is itself the oldest, having begun publication as a daily in 1838.

PLAIN SPEAKING This is a time for plain speaking in connection with west side affairs.

been working harmoniously together to rush the work. When the government pier at the head of the harbor was being built the pile driving, wharf building, grain conveyor and warehouse construction were all going on at once.

THE GLOBE DISTURBED

Following the example of some others of the lesser journals of the province, the Globe on Saturday evening devoted its attention to the Daily Telegraph.

Universal regret will be felt that the stringency of the money market has affected one or two industries in the flourishing town of Amherst.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
WAS FINED $29,240,000
Judge Landis Made the Fine as Heavy as the Law Would Allow and Expressed Regret That He Could Not Impose Heavier Penalty.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—Judge Kenes Landis today, in the United States district court, fined the Standard Oil Company of Indiana $29,240,000 for violation of the law against accepting rebates from railroads. The fine is the largest ever assessed against any individual or any corporation in the history of the United States jurisdiction. The case will be carried to the higher courts by the defendant company. The penalty imposed upon the company is the maximum under the law and it was announced at the end of a long session in which the methods and practices of the Standard Oil Company were mercilessly scored. The judge in fact declared in his opinion that the officials of the Standard Oil Company, who were responsible for the practice of which the corporation was found guilty, were nothing less than thieves. Judge Landis commenced reading his decision at 10 o'clock and occupied one hour in its delivery. The court held that the railroads have no more right to a rebate for a shipper than a board of assessors would have to make a special assessment of any party. The court expressed regret that the law failed to provide more serious punishment than a fine but insisted that the penalty should be the limit of the law. It is expected that the case will be heard during the January term of the United States Court of Appeals. Under the seven indictments still pending against the Standard Oil Company, an additional fine amounting to $88,440,000 may be levied against the company if it is found guilty. There are in these seven indictments a total of 4,422 counts and the maximum fine in each count would be $20,000. Washington, Aug. 4.—Significant revelations are made public in a report submitted to President Roosevelt by Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, concerning the operations of the Standard Oil Company. In a previous report, the means and methods of the Standard were explained. The present report sets forth the results of these methods and the effect they have had on the consumer of oil and on the profits of the Standard Oil Company. It deals with profits and prices showing how the manipulation of the oil industry by the Standard has affected the pocketbooks of the United States people. Commissioner Smith says: "The Standard Oil Company is responsible for the course of prices of petroleum and its products during the last twenty-five years. The Standard has consistently used its power to raise the price of oil during the last ten years, not only absolutely, but also relatively to the cost of crude oil." The Standard has claimed that it has reduced the price of oil; that it has been a benefit to the consumer, and that only a great combination like the Standard could have lowered the price at the prices that have prevailed. "Each of these claims," says Commissioner Smith, "is disproved by the report." The increase in annual profits of the Standard from 1885 to 1904 was more than $70,000,000. The report says: "The total dividends paid by the Standard from 1882 to 1906 were $51,922,994. The dividends for each year were: 1882, $1,000,000; 1883, $1,000,000; 1884, $1,000,000; 1885, $1,000,000; 1886, $1,000,000; 1887, $1,000,000; 1888, $1,000,000; 1889, $1,000,000; 1890, $1,000,000; 1891, $1,000,000; 1892, $1,000,000; 1893, $1,000,000; 1894, $1,000,000; 1895, $1,000,000; 1896, $1,000,000; 1897, $1,000,000; 1898, $1,000,000; 1899, $1,000,000; 1900, $1,000,000; 1901, $1,000,000; 1902, $1,000,000; 1903, $1,000,000; 1904, $1,000,000; 1905, $1,000,000; 1906, $1,000,000. These enormous profits have been based on an investment worth at the time of its original acquisition not more than $7,000,000." In his letter to President Roosevelt, transmitting the report, Mr. Smith says: "The following facts are proven: The Standard has not reduced margins during the period in which it has been responsible for the price of oil. During the last eight years covered by the report (1898 to 1906) it has raised both prices and margins. Its domination has not been acquired or maintained by its superior efficiency, but rather by unfair competition and by methods economically and morally unjustifiable. The Standard has superior efficiency in running its own business; it has an equal efficiency in destroying the business of competitors. It keeps for itself the profits of the first and the second, the monopoly profits secured by the second. "The profits are far above the highest possible standard of a reasonable commercial return, and have been steadily increasing. Finally the history of this great industry is a history of the persistent use of the worst industrial methods, the exclusion of competitors, the raising of prices from the consumer and securing of excessive profits for the small group of men who over a long series of years have thus dominated the business of the world. "In a few days another section of the report will be made public, setting forth the importance of price discrimination in restraining the business of competitors and augmenting the profits of the Standard."

PORCROPS IN THE WEST

(Toronto World)
The Canadian west is up against a more or less bad crop and the public both in the east and west must prepare themselves for it. The west has had a great run of luck, has had marvelous droughts, has had a great flush of settlers and a still greater influx of money. Money, enterprise, people, and crops wherever grain was sown bountiful harvests were reaped, sometimes even thirty fold. A temporary jolt was bound to come to this marvelous success and it is likely to come in the shape of a poor harvest this year. The great question then, today, is to ascertain how much falling off there will be in 1907. No exact statement can be reached as long as the growing season continues. If the rains continue, if warm weather continues, and if there is an absence of frost—all these will do a great deal to redeem the situation. Nevertheless it must be accepted that in some places there is not more than a quarter of a crop, in other places less than a half and it is not likely that in many other places it will run up to the average. One consolation of the situation is that prices are likely to be higher, consequently farmers will get more per bushel this year than they got last year; wherefore, what they lack in bushels will be partially made up in price. Some of the farmers who are fortunate in carrying over a portion of last year's harvest will be able to sell this grain at advanced prices that are likely to prevail. We must expect from now on a considerable talk about hard times in the west. There will be more or less of a money stringency; there will be more or less of requests for renewal of payments as they become due; and there will be a demand on the banks for accommodation of one kind or another that as a matter of fact the banks will not see their way to conceding. One result is that the over-valuation of real estate in the west must be called in and lower prices must prevail. There is no reason, for instance, why real estate in Winnipeg should be four times the value of real estate in Toronto; and when an attempt is made to hold up real estate at a value of four times what the same land can be bought in Toronto at, the same distance from the centre of the city, it must end in lower prices governing. The same thing applies to the over-valuation of farm lands in the west, especially if they are beyond the reach of the railways. Poor crops and stringent money must have an effect on all values of the west for some months to come. What will be the situation in the west? It is an enormous amount of money will be expended in the west, on railway construction, and every farmer with his team and every man in the west if he care to work in this way, can get plenty of railway construction to fill any spare time. He will also have an opportunity to invest in agriculture and to see where he really is as regards the wheat crop; to consider whether it is not time to go more extensively into cattle raising and dairying; how he is to get cheaper lumber and cheaper building material and cheaper railway rates and better government; for all these things are a concern of his and should receive the attention of the western farmer just as much as the acquisition of land. And to tell the truth the people of the west now for some years have devoted very little attention to a number of vital questions; questions that they have made secondary to the question of getting hold of the land and rough-cutting it so that it will produce wheat that they might sell at a high price. If the crop, then, should turn out to be smaller by a good many millions of bushels than that of last year, it will be only a temporary setback; for everyone now has faith in the Canadian west, everyone sees the her plainness and the revenue a successful and enterprising farming population. Also that cities and towns are springing up and must spring up over the country. New industries, too, will be created, and the Canadian west will diversify itself just as much as the rest of the world. The Western Canadian, therefore, will accept what he has to accept, and then decide to give more attention to improving his style of farming, improving his form of government, how to get better treatment from the railways in the way of traffic charges, how to get diversity of employment for the people, and how, generally, the west is to be made an integral and at last a dominating factor in this great country of Canada. This will be a great year for the western farmer to make himself posted on public rights. He has neglected or appeared to neglect them for years. A bad crop may make him think.

The Story of Romulus and Remus

Romulus and Remus were twin brothers, born of a Vestal Virgin named Sylvia. Their father was the god Mars. One day as Mars went down from his place in the mountain to the city of Alba—which was on the river Tiber—he beheld Sylvia going from the temple to a well for water. He fell in love with her and soon thereafter found an opportunity to tell her of his passion. Sylvia returned Mars' love and they were secretly married. In course of time Sylvia gave birth to the twin brothers, Romulus and Remus, one of whom was to play so important a part in the building of Rome. The king of Alba, by name Amulius, on learning of the secret marriage of Sylvia and Mars, ordered that the two babes be put to death and that the twin babes be thrown into the river Tiber. This order was obeyed, for none dared disobey the king. But the babes were placed in a wicker basket which floated on the water till it came to the projecting roots of a fig tree which grew at the water's edge. The basket was overturned through contact with the tree's roots and the babes were tossed upon the sandy bank. At the same moment a she-wolf coming down the river to drink heard the cries of the lonely babes, and going to the spot where they lay she licked their faces and bodies till they were warm and ceased crying. Then she carried them to her cave up in the mountain where she suckled them with her own cubes. While yet babes they were found at the cave door one day by a herdsman who took them to his own home and reared them as his own sons. But as they grew up he told them of the strange manner in which he had found them. One day, after Romulus and Remus had grown to manhood, they chanced to meet their grandfather, brother to the cruel king. They told him their strange story and he knew at once that they were the sons of his murdered niece, Sylvia. He divulged this secret to them and they swore to avenge their mother's death by taking the life of the wicked king. With a few strong followers Romulus and Remus broke into the king's palace at night and with drawn swords cut off his head. Romulus founded Rome in the year 753 B. C.

WILD RACE RIOT IN NEW YORK STREETS

New York, Aug. 4.—The fighting element among the whites and blacks in the vicinity of 18th street and Fifth avenue, lined up according to their racial prejudices again today, this time to settle a baseball dispute, and when the argument was under fifty persons, required medical treatment and of that number two may die. Probably 5,000 persons took part in the fight, but the 300 policemen who dispersed the mob after everyone was fought out, got only nine prisoners; and of these two were women. Baseball bats, sticks and stones on one side and razors on the other, were the favoured weapons. Up and down the street for blocks, the mob surged while the police reserves from eight precincts hampered away wherever their clubs could reach a head. From windows and roofs crockery and furniture were hurled upon the heads of the rioters.

Clark's Harbor, Aug. 1.—A raft of wrecked boats, about 6000 feet, belonging to E. Leatham, moored on Cape Sable flats and awaiting shipment to St. John, went adrift Sunday, July 21, and was carried out to sea. In the rough waters it was broken up and scattered. The fishing boats fell in with the debris Monday following and handed about all of them. The mooring rope appears to have been cut and the presumption is that some one wantonly set Mr. Leatham's number adrift.

FOUND AT LAST.

Word went forth from Chicago that he was wanted in court there. Then a sort of shiver ran over the country East and West—North and South. It was as if Japan had declared war against us. As if the Panama Canal had suddenly fallen through the crust into the Pacific. Men spoke in whispers or held their breath, and women hugged their children to their breasts and went about with pale faces. Word came from Cleveland that he wasn't there. Word came from Toledo that he wasn't there. Word came from New York that he wasn't there. Then shivers went over the country again. Men went about on tip-toe during the day, and didn't do any running out o' nights. People saw rings around the sun and moon and said that some great calamity would befall the land if he could not be found. Word came from Tarrytown that he wasn't there. Word came from his son's house that he wasn't there. He seemed to have disappeared off the face of the earth. "Find him or every man of you will get the bounce" was the message that went forth to every U. S. Marshal in the United States. They got a hump on themselves. They hustled. They moved. They swept their collars. They beat up the cranberry marshes and the buckberry swamps. They looked up into the trees and down the mouths of wells. They searched the cellars and the garrets. Eighty millions of people held their breath. Eighty million people shivered in their beds. All at once a red-hotness passed along the telegraph wires and the operators threw up their hands and shouted with joy and then passed the word along to every civilized nation on earth. "John D. has been found at Pittsfield, Massachusetts, and served with a subpoena!" JOE KETCH.

PORTLANDS 13 HAMPTON 6

Locals Win in Slugging Game -- Both Pitchers Touched Up -- St. Peter's Defeat St. Roses 18-5.

The Hamptons went down to defeat on Saturday on the Victoria grounds, the Portlanders taking them into camp to the tune of 13 to 6. For the first four innings the play was rather loose, heavy hitting by the visitors allowed the locals to run up their 13 runs, while the best the locals could do was four.

The Hamptons team, in their native white suits, present a fine appearance on the field, and afford an example that might well be followed by city teams, who seldom appear all in uniform.

Umpire McAllister gave entire satisfaction to both teams as indeed he always does. When "Petey" undertakes the job of arbitrator the sporting public can rest assured there will be no wrangle, and the "kay" that everything is on the square.

Table with 3 columns: Team, Runs, Hits, Errors. Includes Portlanders, Catcher, Hamptons, etc.

St. Peter's Defeated St. Roses 18-5. The St. Peter's team, led by St. Peter's, defeated St. Roses in a one-sided and unimpressive game on the Victoria grounds Saturday afternoon.
