Story of an Abduction Off Yokohama of Young Girl

HEROINE IN ASYLUM

She is Said to be the Daughter of an English Lord—Story Comes From New York and May Need Grain of Salt.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The Tribune this morning says:—The daughter of an English lord was kidnapped off the coast of Yokohama in November last and brought to this city on board a yacht, being taken from the yacht at quarantine a raving maniac and transferred to an insane asylum. These facts became known yesterday when it was learned that the officers supposedly for the arrest of the man who is held responsible for the kidnapping.

Not a word was given out at police headquarters concerning the case, although Police Inspector McLaughlin is quoted as having asserted that he was only waiting for his detectives to make an arrest before given all the facts.

From a trustworthy source it was learned that an English lord, while traveling in France in 1876, met a woman who afterwards became the mother of a child. This child, a girl, was taken to England by the lord in question and kept away from his family. He finally contacted a friend, the captain of a merchantman plying between London and Yokohama, should adopt the girl.

The girl was brought up at Yokohama. On sea trips with her adopted father she is said to have met the lord, who lived on his estate.

Soon the girl came to be spoken of as an heir to some of the lord's property, and this fact led to the kidnapping. The report is that she was taken from a boat on which she was a passenger to a yacht. Several weeks later the yacht is said to have been in New York harbor but the woman was missing. The London and Yokohama police corresponded, and the New York police were asked to hunt for the missing woman.

The search of the central office detectives resulted in their finding her in an insane asylum or sanitarium here. When the yacht came into port, the authorities found the woman virtually a prisoner in a cabin, where she had been kept for weeks. The quarantine authorities discovered that she was mentally unbalanced, and it was even reported that she had become a raving maniac.

Central office detectives visited Jefferson Market Court on several successive days last week, expecting a visit from a man who was reported to be the father of the girl. For some reason, this man, who was expected to make a formal complaint upon which a warrant was to be asked, did not appear in court. A warrant was issued yesterday by an unknown magistrate, and armed with this, the central office detectives went to West Chester Court and called, among other places, it is said, at a well-known country club there, seeking to serve the warrant.

Dr. Doty, head of the medical staff at Jefferson Market, said last night that he could not recall the finding of any such woman on a yacht. No such patient could pass quarantine without the officials there knowing it, for a registry was kept, he said, on which an entry was made of the arrival and departure of all patients.

ALLIANCE WILL A T

May Get After Women Who Hold Liquor Licenses—They Are Not Persons.

A woman is not a person under the meaning of the act. If this be true, according to Rev. W. S. Pritchard, no less than three women in St. John are holding liquor licenses, who, according to law have no right to them. The reverend gentleman pointed out that since for the reason given above Miss Mabel French was refused admission to the bar and the magistrate had recently given a woman the freedom of the city on the same plea, that the alliance would bear it in mind in dealing with temperance matters.

HE DENOUNCED LABOR UNIONS

Archbishop of Dubuque Made Strong Statement from the Pulpit.

CLINTON, Iowa, Feb. 5.—Archbishop Keane, of Dubuque, delivered a sermon in St. Patrick's church yesterday. The archbishop said in the course of his remarks that "the man who slights his work and gives his employer less than he agrees to give is a thief, and any labor union that applies him in the slightest of work is a school of thievery."

BIG FIRE AT ASBURY PARK

One Big Hotel Burned and Several Others Threatened—Guests Have Narrow Escape

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Feb. 5.—Several large hotels and one hotel partly burned today in a fire which destroyed a block of buildings near the Ocean Beach. Hundreds of guests packed their effects and prepared to leave their rooms when the fire was at its height and threatened to wipe out a large section of the city. The Hotel Astoria was partially destroyed, many of its guests having narrow escapes. Several well known structures near the beach were burned to the ground together with a number of small buildings. The West End Hotel was on fire twice and the Ocean Hotel caught fire once, but bucket brigades extinguished the flames in each instance. A low tide is estimated at $30,000.

THIS WINTER A RECORD BREAKER

Cold Wave is Over Now and Mild Weather Continues.

Contrary to expectation the cold wave of Saturday has passed and the weather is extremely mild again. The predicted snow storm came, but the snow has almost gone again in consequence of the rain and warm temperature. The fall snow, if measured on the level, was two inches.

A southerly gale sprung up yesterday about 9 o'clock, and continued until about four o'clock this morning. The wind was from the south and the temperature rose to 44 degrees above the zero. The greatest velocity was between 2 and 4 o'clock yesterday, it continued at 40 miles until 4 o'clock last night, gradually decreasing until about 4 o'clock this morning, when it was blowing 34 miles.

The wind is still southward and indications point to it shifting to west and northwest, and the prospects of another cold wave top or tomorrow. The highest temperature during the night was 40, and the lowest 36. On Saturday morning the temperature registered 6 below and the highest temperature was 8 above. By 9 o'clock Sunday morning it was 20 above, and continued to rise until 40 was reached during the night.

The 9th of February last year was considerably different from the present day, the lowest temperature being 10 below, and the highest 10 above the cipher. There was 20 inches of snow on the ground.

In 1902, which was the preceding mild winter, on the same day, the highest temperature was 20 above and the lowest 6 above. There was good sleighing, with 5 inches of snow on the ground.

So this winter has all previous records beaten for mild weather.

GREATEST STRUGGLE LABOR HISTORY IS ABOUT TO COMMENCE

Coal Miners and their Employers Lining Up for Trouble in Pennsylvania Coal Fields—State Constabulary Organized to Keep Order—Operators say They Are Ready.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—A Pittsburgh dispatch to the Tribune says:—While the coal miners of the United States and their employers are preparing for the greatest struggle in the history of labor, the state authorities of Pennsylvania are rushing preparations to preserve the peace. The equipment for the new state constabulary is being sent out from the state arsenal at Harrisburg, and before the date the strike is scheduled to begin, April 1, every section of the mining country will be under the direct control of mounted troops, especially trained for this kind of work.

The Pennsylvania state constabulary consists of four troops of cavalry organized especially for this coming strike. One of these troops is located at Greensburg, 25 miles from Pittsburgh, one at Greenville, in the Northwestern part of the state, one at Wilkes-Barre, near Scranton, in the hard coal region. They are on duty day and night. Every man is a graduate of the United States army with a good record.

A meeting of miners' delegates, which will be the largest ever held, will be held in this city Monday. The resignation of President Patrick Dolan will be demanded at this meeting for his vote at the Indianapolis conference, a defiance of instructions of his constituents. Dolan will attend the meeting to defend his position.

President Dolan when seen at the hotel refused to make any statement relative to the coming strike.

"It looks serious," was all he would say. "I tried to prevent it, but did not succeed." The anthracite coal operators have stored millions of tons of coal in the numerous coal pockets in Eastern Pennsylvania. This coal will be dealt out so that the strike can be carried on for a year if necessary. It is said that it is the intention of the operators in the east to maintain prices quietly during the strike period so as to keep the public satisfied, as it is the intention to break up the miners' union rather than make any money out of the fight. The bituminous coal operators started last fall to store some coal. They were suddenly confronted with a demand for coal and advanced prices. By April 1, it is doubtful if there will be two weeks' supply of soft coal stored.

Operators Are Ready. NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—A Wilkes-Barre dispatch to the Tribune says: "Although the anthracite operators are declaring that the threat of the mine workers to declare a general strike is a 'bluff,' they have been quietly preparing for it for some time." Ever since it became evident from the organization tour of President John Mitchell in this region last summer that he would have the mine workers demand an eight-hour day and recognition of the union, when the present agreement expired in April, the operators determined not to grant it, and forecasting that the union might order another strike, resolved not to be caught as they were in 1903, with a short supply of coal on hand. From that time they have steadily been storing coal. The year's output was over 30,000,000 tons, and despite the mild winter the colliers have worked continuously.

Western and eastern dealers, inspired by the coal companies, have accumulated large stocks, and all of the companies have been buying coal, building new storage plants and erecting high fences about their collieries, so that in the event of a strike workmen may be readily protected from interference. They have also been quietly taking a poll of men on whom they believe they can rely if a strike takes place. As nearly as can be ascertained some 7,000,000 tons of coal are in storage places about the country. If it becomes certain that a strike will take place, the coal companies can increase this amount in storage rapidly, as well as to the steady output and the unusually mild weather, the dealers are well stocked and there is not a brick demand for coal.

MALDEN CITY, Pa., Feb. 4.—The collieries throughout the anthracite region have orders to operate at full capacity from now until next April. A number of washeries in the Schuylkill field that have been closed will resume operations tomorrow on full time. The companies expect to add 3,000,000 tons of coal to their storage stock in the next eight weeks.

There are at present five steamers at Sand Point, two of which came in this morning. The Manchester Shipper from Manchester, Captain Hamer, brought but one passenger, Thomas Dairdon, who came out here on a shooting expedition. He will proceed west tonight.

The Manchester Shipper had a delightful passenger on her, Captain Forester, brought no cabin passengers, but 120 tons of coal. The American flag was a fine looking lot, and some were detained. The majority of them will go on board the steamer commencing this afternoon.

Shortly after the arrival of the Manchester shipper, a delivery wagon went over the wharf, but happily not in the water. The accident occurred outside of No. 2 shed. The horse became frightened and the wagon went over the left side of the wharf onto the railway tracks below. It was some time before the vehicle was hoisted to the wharf again. It was badly damaged. The driver at the time of the occurrence was out of the Manchester Shipper.

Furness steamship Annapolis, arrived this evening from London via Halifax. The Annapolis was formerly the German steamer Capri, 1280, and had been running between New York, Pernambuco and other South American ports. She has a newly fitted saloon amidships and excellent accommodations for a limited number of passengers. She is commanded by Capt. Canham, who is well known here, and who, for quite a while was chief officer of the Evangelist.

Capt. Canham reports having passed in 46 north, 47 west, about a dozen small ice bergs. After making the Nova Scotia coast he met with thick weather. The steamer Mount Temple which arrived this morning as above stated made a quick run across the Atlantic. She was not out until the 9th.

C. P. R. steamship Montclair, Capt. Hodges, also arrived last night from Bristol. She has some cargo for this city and the west.

A St. Valentine high tea and sale will be held in St. Andrew's church lecture hall on the evening of Feb. 13th. See advt. on page 3.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

The Times new reporter was billed to appear at the Queen's rink Saturday afternoon at 5.15 o'clock, by special engagement, to yell for three quarters of an hour. When he got there and found that the locker team from the morning paper was padded with professionals, he took his voice home to yell for supper.

These cold waves that we hear about, that never get here," said Mr. Hyman, Hornbeam, this morning, are easily explained. They mean well, and they start all right. They know they ought to be here, and that we are expecting 'em. So they rush off at a high rate of speed. The natural result follows. Their speed is so great, and they produce so much friction that by the time they get here they're all wet up."

The engagement between Mr. Peter Binns, Jr., and Miss Birdie McWhart has not been broken off, as some malicious or envious person has reported. It was even stated that they had quarrelled, and that Birdie had removed her new teeth and in a fit of pique hurled them at Peter, causing a slight contusion on his forehead. The story is wholly false. Birdie has not taken her teeth out once since the engagement was announced.

Only four delegations waited on Mr. James Jones on Saturday to ask him to be an alderman candidate. James will be at his office all day today, and will have his lunch brought in. He is anxious not to disappoint any of his friends, who may be eager to offer him their support.

The members of the Thistle Curling Club are talking in whispers today. Not that they have anything to conceal, but they over-worked their vocal organs on Saturday night, and have not yet recovered. The members of St. Andrew's Club have good lungs but "sore throats." Hoot, hoot!

Alliance Met This Morning

Committee Appointed to Consider Plan for Church Cooperation in People's Mission.

The regular meeting of the Evangelical Alliance was held this morning in the parlors of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Rev. W. S. Pritchard, the chairman, presiding. The treasurer said that full accounts of collections of the week of prayer had not been handed in. Those so far received are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Includes St. Stephen's, St. Luke's, Laddow St. Baptist, W. E., Victoria Street (Baptist), etc.

Rev. L. A. McLean introduced to the alliance Rev. Mr. Ross, of the Congregational church, who had been invited to act as a corresponding member.

Rev. Mr. Pritchard, of the Congregational church, reported that he had continued his work at the Industrial Home, which was going on as usual.

Rev. Mr. Pritchard announced that he had been elected as a member of the Board of the Boys' Industrial Home, which was elected by the unanimous vote of the alliance.

The president announced that the proceeds of the collections taken in the different churches during the week of prayer would be devoted to the Boys' Industrial Home.

The matter of the People's Mission was brought up for discussion and Rev. P. J. Stackhouse said that if the work was to be interdenominational, the co-operation of the churches would be very helpful. He thought also that the hall could be used for Sunday afternoon temperance meetings such as are held in the north end. Such a place, he felt was needed in this end of the city. It could also be used for the meetings of the alliance.

A committee to investigate and report on the matter was appointed. Rev. A. B. Cobbe, Rev. J. F. Floyd and Rev. Samuel Howard.

Rev. Dr. Fotheringham desired that his name should not be used as a member of such a committee as he understood that Halifax had been made to take people there who had been members of his congregation.

Among those present were Revs. J. A. McLean, Dr. Fotheringham, C. W. Hamilton, S. Howard, H. P. Reid, J. F. Floyd, W. S. Pritchard, D. Hutchinson, P. J. Stackhouse, Chas. Cobben, A. B. Cobbe, H. Sprague, F. S. Bamford, M. Trotton, A. H. Foster, T. Marshall and J. G. B. A meeting of the programme committee was held subsequently.

Prophet May Not Have Measured Up To His Part—Cossum Blames People Who Pocketed Money Instead of Giving Up To Elijah.

OHIOAGO, Feb. 5.—Followers of John Alexander Dowie were amazed yesterday to hear from the platform of St. John Baptist church in Zion City (Ohio) that the work of their leader had failed. The statement came from Elder W. H. Cossum in a sermon.

The elder declared that his conception of Dr. Dowie was that of a man who had been permitted to look forward into the future and grasp the great principles which will govern the millennium and had attempted to apply them to present conditions.

"He has not succeeded," said the elder, "because to say so, yet I will say so with a realization of what the failure of my statement means. He may not have measured up to the great vision which forced him to seek to establish some of the great idealistic principles in the Kingdom in Zion City in this church and in the state which he thrust into business life, but he has not succeeded."

"Why is not for me to say; but I know one reason why he has failed. It is because the men and women whom he has had in the church did not acknowledge the vision with him. Instead of giving him their money, they put it into their pockets. Instead of fulfilling promises which they gave to him in black and white, they lied to him, turned away from him, and left him with only a few millions, whereas he discovered personal reasons for he is a man of like passions with us. If he has failed it is because he stepped out into environments so strange, and his whole experience was so new that he did not know how to carry it out fully."

MONTREAL STOCK MARKET

(Montreal Witness, Friday). The stock market boom has had a severe check this week, and prices, in a general way, have suffered a reaction. This was due to a bearish attack on Wall street, which sent that market down several points along the whole line of securities. As has been frequently pointed out, this market cannot easily rise in face of a declining market in New York, although it should be said that prices here, even during the gloomiest period of the New York selling, were held remarkably steady. New York has continued its regular during the greater part of the week, and as a consequence, the market here generally has been awaiting developments and marking time. Detroit, that has so long been waiting for a favorable opportunity to advance, easily passed for a couple of days ago, and has since been very strong, with a large number of excellent buying orders on its account. Montreal Street was weaker with the rest

CURLING

Thistles Won Raymond Cup. This has 60 points that was the word passed around late Saturday night and still kept moving Sunday. The Thistles-St. Andrew's final game was played Saturday afternoon and evening and the former club won. The ice was in perfect condition for good curling and as a result there were some close scores. There were also some surprises. The Thistles won in ten ends, lost in three and tied in one. In the afternoon they won by 20 in their own building and by four in the St. Andrew's. In the evening play they did even better, coming out with a majority of wins. Robert and George don't make well. Kimball rink was very weak.

Moncton Defeated Sackville. Moncton, N. B., Feb. 4.—(Special)—A four-rink match between Moncton and Sackville curlers here yesterday in Reed trophy contest. Moncton won by twenty points. Scores by rinks: Moncton, 10; Sackville, 0.

Canadians Hold Trophy. Montreal, Feb. 4.—(Special)—Two rinks from the L. Lawrence and Thibault rink won the provincial curling championship trophy at an international curling contest against rinks from New York and Ottawa.

HOCKEY. Sackville Team to Play Here. The Sackville team, the present holders of the provincial hockey championship, will play here on the 16th.

Stanley Cup Holders Defeated. Montreal, Feb. 4.—(Special)—Ottawa's Stanley Cup holders, the Montreal Wanderers, were defeated by the Montreal Canadiens in a game that attracted a large crowd of spectators.

That Newswriters' Game. Three-two was the score at the end of a scientific game of hockey played at the Queen's rink on Saturday afternoon between a team composed of members of the Times and Globe staff and a nondescript collection of players from the Telegraph and Sun, with three courses players who may have been at one time members of a team that won the Stanley cup.

Tea Shots. There is something wrong with the weather club. Frank White, with his mate, Gregory, put up a great fight, the former winning by two points, both made in the last two ends.

MUNICIPAL LIGHTING The question of municipal lighting is now being threshed out in Boston. A measure to adopt such a policy was defeated in the common council on Thursday night last, although 43 voted for it and only 10 against. Fifty votes, or two-thirds of the entire membership of the body, were needed to pass the measure. The vote was not taken until long after midnight, and when the roll was called there were a number of the councilmen who refused to be recorded on the measure.

This, however, does not settle the question, as it will come up for consideration next Thursday night. Last Thursday night's session is described as the longest and most disorderly held for years. The debate on municipal ownership lasted over four hours, and there were frequent interruptions. The galleries were crowded and at times so noisy that the chairman had to threaten to have them cleared. One advocate of the measure before the council read telegrams from the mayors of several cities which he said showed the municipal ownership was a success. Against this were petitions from the Chamber of Commerce, Real Estate Exchange, Boston Merchants' Association and other business men and taxpayers opposing the measure. In the end, as already stated, the measure failed to secure a two-thirds vote.

A SCORCHING ARRANGEMENT Mr. David B. Fagan, a maritime province man, but for a quarter of a century a power in financial circles in Chicago, electrified the representatives of seventy-three Presbyterian churches, in Chicago the other night by the following speech, which is receiving the more attention because it is the utterance of a rich man: "Perhaps you think it impossible that a man's soul should entirely shrivel up in the pursuit of wealth. If you know some millionaires as well as I know them you would agree with me that they had lost the last vestige of the soul they may be presumed to have possessed before the mania for money-getting possessed them. I would like to acquire millions, but if the process is going to make me like some of the old devils I know who are millionaires I don't want the money.

"To me there can be noadder sight," said Mr. Fagan, "than an old man, already numbered by the world's wealth, but eager only to increase it before he topples from the earth. You yourselves have seen such men. They are more numerous in smaller towns than in larger cities. Almost every small town has its wealthy man who never part with a dollar if they can help it.

"Recently I saw a letter from a millionaire referring to the death of a clerk who faithfully had served him thirty years. The man who wrote this letter is rated at $20,000,000. He is an Easterner. "In this letter, after disposing of several matters, he referred to the death of his old employe incidentally, and detected that the exact date of the severance of his connection with the office, because of his long illness, he ascertained, the exact amount due him for the fraction of the month he had worked be figured out, and a cheque for the amount be mailed to his widow. Do you imagine that old cornucopion has a soul?"

Aid. Christie estimated the cost of the waterworks extension at half a million. It is now shown that $400,000 of this amount will be required without reference to claims for damages on the part of the contractors or property owners. There is the removal of pipe lines in the city to be reckoned with, when the new pressure bursts some of the old mains. Half a million may prove to have been a moderate estimate.

It is stated that the Minister of Justice will introduce at the coming session of parliament a Sunday Observance Bill, along the lines asked for by the Lord's Day Alliance. If stringent in its provisions it will meet with vigorous opposition especially from Quebec members.

Torrey and Alexander have gone to Philadelphia. Mayor Weaver will doubtless be glad to have their assistance in setting up a higher standard of living in this world, whether he unconsciously accepts their view concerning the next one or not.

Two men have crossed from London to the French coast in a balloon in an hour and three quarters. Doubtless the time will come when the sometimes distressing experience of crossing the channel by steamer may be changed for an aerial journey in complete comfort.

It is pleasing to learn on the authority of a St. John man who was present that the crew of the lost steamer Valencia did not betray cowardice and brutality in the face of the death that overwhelmed so many persons.

There appears to be a fairly good prospect for the establishment of the much needed sanitarium for consumptives in this province.

The city council will have a busy session this afternoon. Greater power and responsibility for heads of departments will be up for consideration.

PURPOSES OF ADVERTISING

(New York Commercial) Ordering advertising space is not a question of how little a merchant needs to spend to obtain mere representation in the advertising columns, but of how prosperous and important wishes to appear before his trade. The purpose of advertising is to advertise, and the best advertising of all is the well displayed appearance of prosperity and importance. Whatever may be the amount of a firm's advertising appropriation, it should be so spent as to create an impression of success and self-confidence. The business world at large estimates a business house first of all, by the seriousness with which it regards itself, and unless a firm attaches importance to its own station in the mercantile community, it need not expect others to do so.

The old saying that "nothing succeeds like success" is as true today as ever, but it may be added as a corollary that in the absence of actual success, and during the struggle to achieve it, nothing succeeds like the appearance of success. In the presence of success, nothing is more effective than advertising, and in the absence of success, nothing is more effective than advertising. No justification can be found for failing to keep one's business achievements constantly before the buying public, or for placing one's customary manifestations of internal progress in the foreground. No explanation of such a policy is possible, except a false idea of economy. To the advertising department is always entrusted the responsibility for communicating to the buying public not only such occasional announcements as the routine of the business requires, but also the delicate task of moulding the public's opinion of the firm as to its responsibility, its merit and its success. The use of space in magazines and newspapers is not by any means the only method of doing this, but it is the most important, and the one first of all that comes to mind when the word "advertising" is mentioned. Look at the advertising pages of any trade or export publication, and see for yourself if you do not unconsciously give the greater commendation to the most liberal advertiser. The thing that counts is the general impression you carry away after you have looked over the advertisement or later, when you see the reader's mind, and the impression usually is gained by the reader unconsciously. The accumulative effect of generally displayed, persistently repeated advertising is the thing that brings the business man or lady to the point where he makes for the accomplishment of this purpose is always to be desired at any reasonable cost.

The advertiser who ignores the powerful effect of well displayed announcements and who tries to save money by cutting down the amount of his advertising expenditure or by trying to pass it around among all the mediums, does not realize that the most effective advertising is that which is seen by the greatest number of people. Do not regard him as seriously as he regards himself.

AMUSING BLUNDER

(Chambers' Journal) Each profession has its stock jokes, its stories innumerable, and to each belongs a flavor of its own. That of the point of a jest lies not in the tongue of him who makes it, but in the ear that hears, is the testimony of the great dramatist. The doctor on his rounds and the judge at the bench have both an audience ready and willing to accept as the highest wit the bon mots of the speaker; and there is no club gathering of men that does not acclaim one of its members as supreme in the respect, and are ready to yield due recognition to that other people do not regard him as seriously as he regards himself.

There is, however, a vast amount of unconscious humor always floating about, and to those who perceive it the world is ever very amusing. It must be admitted that the blunders and jests clerical stand for some reason prominent both in number and in merit producing qualities. The reason, of course, is not far to seek; the very surroundings in which they occur, the very supposition of one's preconceived notions of reverence, all tend to cause a reaction in the ordinary mental equilibrium, and the simplest mistake or accident under such circumstances assumes the proportions of a huge comedy.

The divine who is drawing the attention of his congregation to a special communion service on the following Sunday informed them that "the Lord will be in the forenoon and the bishop in the evening" is chronicles with praying for the children of his parish in those words: "And now, O Lord, bless the lambs of this fold, and make them meet for the Kingdom of Heaven." While a Scotch minister innocently, perhaps, hit the mark by telling his people, "Well friends, the kirk is urgently in need of siller, and as we have failed to get money, kindly we will have to see what a bazzar can do for us."

There was a certain amount of excuse to be made for the young curate who, remarking that some people came to church for no better reason than to show off their best clothes, finished up all his glance over their audience. "I am thankful to see, dear friends, that none of you have come here for that reason."

But what can be said of the negro student, who, conducting the prayers at one of the great missionary colleges, said: "Give us all pure hearts, give us all clean hearts, give us all sweet hearts," to which the entire congregation made response, "Amen."

The giving out of church notices has often proved a pitfall for the unwary. "During Lent," said a rector lately, "several preachers will preach on Wednesday evenings, but I need not give their names as they will be all found hanging up in the porch."

"It was a rector who gave out a hymn beginning, 'Awake, my soul, stretch every nerve,' before his sermon, and a curate who read in the lesson for the day, 'He spoke the words, and callousness came and grossness immovable.'"

BIG NEW YORK FIRE

New York, Feb. 4.—The six-story factory building at 107-113 Grand street, at the corner of Meave street, in the heart of the silk and linen district, was burned today with a loss exceeding $250,000. Charles Scholtenhouse & Sons, manufacturers of ribbons, suffered a loss of $100,000, fully insured, and Bernhard, Ullmann & Co., dealers in yarns, embroideries and trims, lost more than $150,000, partly covered by insurance.

burning from all the windows within a few minutes after the first alarm was sounded. So many thousands of people were attracted to the scene that police reserves from eight down town precincts had to be summoned. There were a number of narrow escapes, but only two persons, a fireman and a policeman, were hurt, their injuries being slight. John Maxwell was a passenger to this city from Fredericton this morning. F. R. Perry returned from Boston today. The fire was a spectacular one, flames

JOSEPH McCAFFREY HAS WRITTEN TO HIS FAMILY

St. John Man Who Was In Valencia Wreck Sends Home Story of the Disaster—He Denies that There Was Any Cowardice.

Captain John McCaffrey, of the West End, has received from his son Joseph, who was one of the survivors of the ill-fated steamer Valencia, copies of the Seattle Times and the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, which, besides giving a graphic description of the scenes at the time of the terrible disaster, illustrate them by some fine cuts, some being a full page in size.

The former paper publishes an interview with the St. John man. Mr. McCaffrey also sends a copy of his evidence as given at the inquiry. His interview given to the Seattle paper was: "I would like to meet the reporter who said the women were sent to their fate on the Valencia," said J. McCaffrey, of St. John (N. B.), at the Rialler Grand this afternoon. "To my personal knowledge Captain Johnston begged them with tears in his eyes to take a last chance on the last raft that was sent away, but they wouldn't go, and what could we do? Every moment we delayed meant that the raft was liable to be dashed to pieces; so, after the captain and the stewardess had begged the women and children to take a chance and they refused, we who had decided to group this last straw went over the side and were whirled away. All I've got to say about the terrible loss of life is this: When we first struck, Captain Johnston ordered the boats to be lowered to the rail, but he did not intend that they should be sent away from the ship until morning. I have the slightest doubt in the world but that all would have been saved. At least there would not have been such a terrible loss of life. As it is, the best thing we can do is to hurry away from this part of the country and forget."

Probably the most thrilling picture, and one that gives the best idea of the fearful hardships endured by the unfortunate survivors, is a quarter-page cut in the special supplement saved by the Seattle Daily Times, which shows a life raft with eighteen people, including the St. John man, huddled together in tow of a big life boat. The life boat, with its six occupants, is having a hard time to make headway in a big sea with its burdensome tow. A glance at the picture shows a pitiful sight on the raft. The occupants, with life preservers about them, are bunched together on the more fragile part of the raft. Another picture shows Mr. McCaffrey in a group of five survivors rescued from the life raft. All are just as they were taken off the raft, and the clothes they were stowed in are all that they have been able to take away from the Valencia.

SAY PATIENT'S DEATH WAS DUE TO DOCTORS' NEGLIGENCE

Halifax Hospital Has a Sensation—Death of a Patient Results in Charges Being Made Against Doctors.

Halifax, Feb. 4.—(Special)—Counsel for the prosecution and defence in the Victoria General Hospital investigation regarding the death of Edward Lively, a patient there, addressed Commissioner Pipes on Saturday evening. Hon. Mr. Pipes is holding the inquiry. On the one side J. B. Murray, who accused the widow of Lively, argued for two hours and a half that Lively had at the hospital been the subject of neglect, in difference and cruelty, which may have caused his death, that two of the attending staff doctors, Chisholm and Murray, were responsible for this and that the interests of the hospital and public confidence in it, demanded that they should no longer be permitted to have any part in the care of patients or any share in the administration of medicine and surgery within its walls. On the other hand H. A. Lovitt spoke for nearly three hours, severely attacking Dr. N. K. Murray, who accused him in effect, of having been the means of bringing these charges against Drs. Chisholm and Murray before a public assembly. He contended that no wrongdoing on the part of the gentlemen named had

FUNERAL WAS VERY LARGE

Forty Railway Men Followed Conductor Hagerman's Body to Grave.

Fredericton, Feb. 4.—(Special)—The great esteem in which the late Conductor William Hagerman was held was manifested this afternoon by the large number of people who turned out to pay their last tribute of respect to his memory. The list of mourners included forty members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, twenty-five of whom came from St. John by special train, kindly placed at their disposal by Supt. Downie. An impressive funeral service was conducted at the house by Rev. Mr. Sykes, assisted by Rev. Dr. Rogers and G. B. Payson. The funeral cortege was then formed with the members of the brotherhood in advance of the hearse and proceeded to the rural cemetery, where interment was made. The cortege, made up of people in sleighs and on foot, extended nearly three blocks. The chief mourners were George Hagerman, H. H. Hagerman, Geo. W. Burden, M. P. P., Hanford Burden, Leo Hagerman, W. J. Edgcombe, Robert Donaldson, Edward Moore and others. Members of Victoria Lodge, Oddfellows, of which deceased was a member, walked in the rear of the chief mourners. The floral tributes included a wreath from C. P. R. conductors and a broken wheel from Driver Donaldson and Conductor James Patterson, of Fredericton branch. The special which brought the members of the brotherhood from St. John made the run to this city in one hour and thirty-five minutes. The party returned home at 5 o'clock. The residence of William J. Crawford, Brunswick street, was badly gutted by fire about 1 o'clock. It caught from an overheated furnace pipe and made considerable headway before being discovered. The furniture was all removed and was but little damaged. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $1,000. The home is insured for $1,000 and the furniture for $500. George P. Taylor, a well known resident of Margerville, died today after a short illness. He was a teacher at St. John for a number of years previous to the great fire of 1877. His wife, who died about a year ago, was also a teacher. He was about seventy-five years old. Postmaster Hilyard, who was operated on for appendicitis at Victoria Hospital Friday, had a bad time today and Dr. Crockett, Asherton and Bridges, after consultation, found it necessary to perform a second operation. At one time this afternoon he was thought to be dying and members of the family and clergymen were hastily summoned. Later on he rallied somewhat, but his condition this evening is quite critical.

REV. G. A. KUHRING PREACHES ELOQUENT MEMORIAL SERMON

Rector of St. John's Refers to Death of Late Rev. John de Soyres, Late Rev. Prof. Sheraton, and Late Alderman Thomas Millidge.

On Feb. 3 a year ago Rev. John de Soyres, late rector of St. John's church, was called to his rest, and yesterday morning in the church to whose service he gave the best years of his life, a reverent and touching reference was made to his memory by the present rector, Rev. Gustav A. Kuhring.

"Never has the honest declaration of the principles upon which Dr. Sheraton contented to take office been altered, but what a position he won for himself in the church in Canada! His loss is all the more keenly felt because he was so young in years and so full of life and vigor."

HE WAS KNOWN IN THIS CITY

Roderick McKenzie Who Was Found Dead Saturday Was Brother in Law of Mrs. Thos. Walker.

Kingston, Ont., Feb. 4.—(Special)—The body of the man found near the railroad track here Saturday morning has been identified as that of Roderick McKenzie, manager of the Bank of Montreal, in this city. He was found dead near the G. T. R. tracks, and one-half mile east of the lower station, at 8:30 o'clock.

When the body was found it had not become cold, so that death had occurred not more than half an hour previous. It was found that death had resulted from a drug which Mr. McKenzie had taken. The bottle was found, also a small bottle of glycerine, in his pocket.

Mr. McKenzie was born in Lennoxville (Que.) fifty-seven years ago. His father was chief factor of the Hudson's Bay Company. In 1867 he entered the service of the Bank of Montreal and continued with it ever since. He arrived at Halifax, St. John (N. B.), Newmarket (N. B.), Cornwall and Kingston.

STOMACH ON THE BRAIN

What if a Man Gain the Whole World and Lose His Appetite

The man with a well-behaved stomach never thinks about it. He eats what he likes and likes what he eats. He knows he'll enjoy it, because he knows that he has a stomach that will easily digest it.

But the man with the bad, brassy, gurgly stomach is the man who is always thinking about it. He can seldom eat what he likes most, and seldom likes what he eats. He stomach worries him before meals, after meals and between meals.

Stomach troubles are the result of indigestion. Indigestion is the result of a weak stomach. A weak stomach is the result of a brain that is not properly nourished.

Noted New York Divine Resigns on Account of ill Health—His Assistant Succeeds Him.

New York, Feb. 4.—The Rev. William E. Rainford, for 22 years rector of St. George's Protestant Episcopal church, Epiphany Square, this city, has resigned the rectorship owing to continued ill health and the Rev. Hugh Birkenhead, the assistant rector, has been elected by the vestry in Dr. Rainford's place.

The resignation of Dr. Rainford was in the form of a letter to J. Pierpont Morgan, senior warden of the church, from Cairo, Egypt, dated Jan. 7 last. While the state of Dr. Rainford's health which has kept him from active duty about a year was well known to the parishioners, the announcement was a great surprise and created a mild ripple of excitement and much whispered comment in the congregation.

Dr. Rainford became rector of St. George's parish in 1883. He was then 22 o'clock last evening. Included in the party were A. Brown, John Wade, Chas. Johnston, Thos. Dales, A. Ramme, Thos. W. H. McQueen, Walter and Frank Millican, Walter Brown, Charles Greene, and John Crossley.

VIN MARIANI

The Ideal French Tonic is used by the great Armies and Navies of the world, to prevent sickness, fevers, fatigue, give new blood, restore health, strength and vigor. The "United States Health Reports" say: "It stimulates body and brain and restores quicker and better than other Tonics, and we have no hesitation in recommending it."

Vin Mariani is not a mere tonic but a reconstructive for fatigued brain and muscle.

Rev. Mr. Trafton's Remarkable Address in Union Hall Yesterday.

THE FIGHT IS AT AN END
Dominion Textile will be Given Representation on Board of Montreal Cotton Company.

THE FIGHT IS AT AN END
The long and bitter fight between the Dominion Textile Company and the Montreal Cotton Company is at an end.

THE FIGHT IS AT AN END
The fight started owing to an attempt made by the Textile Company to secure the controlling interest in the Montreal Cotton Company, and in buying the latter the two companies have agreed that the remaining entirely independent of each other, each company should confine itself to the manufacture of certain lines of cotton, and in this way not compete against one another.

THE FIGHT IS AT AN END
In addition to this the much more important decision has been reached by the Textile interests representation on the board of directors of the Montreal Cotton Company, and that will be done at the annual meeting of the company, to be held on the second Tuesday of this month.

THE FIGHT IS AT AN END
During the fight for the control of the company the Textile interests secured quite a large amount of the stock of the Montreal Cotton Company, and it is this stock that will entitle them to representation on the board of directors.

THE FIGHT IS AT AN END
At the present time there are seven members on the board of directors of the Montreal Cotton Company and the present intention is that this should be increased to nine.

THE FIGHT IS AT AN END
In making the announcement of the agreement to the Herald today a large statement was made by the company which was greatly commended by the press, and when the exact terms of it would be announced to the shareholders at the annual meeting they should be entirely satisfactory to them.
