Dominions' Attitude on Protocol Is Stressed By Chamberlain

LEAGUE COUNCIL TOLD QUESTION IS EMPIRE ONE CANNOT ACCEPT Assures Assembly That Empire Is In Sympathy With Purposes of Pact

British Foreign Secretary Tells of Objections

Canadian Press Despatch. GENEVA, March 12.—The position taken by Canada and the other self-governing units of the British Empire, was stressed by Austen Chamberlain, Great Britain's secretary for foreign affairs, in the course of his long-heralded discourse on the famous pact for security and disarmament before the Council of the League of Nations today.

Mr. Chamberlain made it clear that the British attitude toward the pact was that of the Empire, and resulted from consultation and close co-operation between the Dominions and the mother country.

Dominions Reject Plan. One of the most important features of Mr. Chamberlain's address, which outlined the British objections to the pact, was that telegraphic communication with the British Dominions and India showed that Canada, Australia, New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, and India were also unable to accept the pact. He said he was not yet in possession of the views of the Irish Free State.

Sympathy Expressed. After emphasizing the sympathy that existed throughout the British Empire with any effort to improve the international machinery for world peace, Mr. Chamberlain said that successive administrations in Great Britain, with the full approval of the self-governing Dominions, not only had in theory favored arbitration, which was one of the features of the pact, but had actually disarmed to the limit of national safety. They had taken a full share in creating and supporting the League of Nations, and the Permanent Court of International Justice, while the immense sacrifices they had made in the cause of general security, were matters of recent history.

Amendment Needed. If therefore, continued Mr. Chamberlain, after consulting the Dominions and India, Great Britain saw insuperable objections to signing and ratifying the pact in its present shape, this was not because she felt herself out of harmony with the purposes of the pact, but because she felt that the pact was intended to serve, or was opposed in principle to plans for clarifying the meaning of the League of Nations' covenant or strengthening its provisions.

Amendment and interpretation may in themselves be desirable," he said, "but the British foreign secretary, "but His Majesty's government can not believe that the pact as it stands provides a suitable method of attaining that task."

U. S. GIRL DIVORCES EGYPTIAN HUSBAND Jean Nash is Freed Just One Month After Wedding Ceremony.

British United Press. PARIS, March 12.—"Kipling was right; the east and west should never meet," Jean Nash said today, conferring reports of her divorce in Cairo from Sabet Bey, son of Egyptian royalty. "We have found we are not suited to each other as husband and wife. The difference of religion (Sabet Bey is a Mohammedan) was insurmountable," she said.

The divorce was granted just one month after her marriage to the wealthy Egyptian.

Rookie Knew When 'Twas Time to Quit NEW YORK, March 12.—Nick Cullone, versatile recruit in the camp of the New York Yankees at St. Petersburg, would prefer some other position than center-field, while the team is in Florida. Yesterday, while chasing a triple far into the weeds, and to the edge of the lake, he came upon a six-foot alligator. Nick got back to the infield before the runner had reached second base—but without the ball.

By Canadian Press. OTTAWA, March 12.—An immediate appeal for funds to alleviate distress among ex-service men and dependents in the mining areas where work has ceased in Cape Breton, was decided upon by the conference of the G. W. V. A. representatives from all provinces meeting in Ottawa today.

To Ask Federal Aid. Federal government financial aid will also be asked, it being pointed out by the conference that the lack of food and clothing among the miners of Cape Breton constitutes as great an emergency as the Halifax disaster, the Japanese earthquake, the Russian famine, and the Leeward Island hurricane, to which Federal government funds were voted. The appeal for funds will be directed to over 800 branches of the G. W. V. A. throughout Canada, and is regarded by the conference only as an emergency fund until Federal government assistance is effected.

PICTURESQUE CEREMONY AS N. B. HOUSE SESSION BEGINS

Ideal Spring Weather and Many Visitors Make Scene At Fredericton a Notable One

HYDRO MATTERS FEATURED IN SPEECH

Development at Grand Falls and on Petitcodiac Referred to—Free School Books For Some Grades Are Forecast—Further Improvement of Highways and Continued Federal Aid

By D. LEO DOLAN. Staff Correspondent of The Times-Star. FREDERICTON, March 12.—Marked by traditional pomp and ceremony, and attended by a military display that sparkled with war-time elegance, the fifth session of the eighth New Brunswick Legislature opened here this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Beautiful springlike weather, with a bright sunny sky, made the day a most ideal one for a gala House opening. There was the usual parade, the military escorts, the customary salute and all the ceremonial that is such an important feature on this occasion.

A Scene of Beauty. Parliament square was thronged with people an hour or so before His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, W. F. Todd arrived at the House. Inside the historic building the main chamber presented a colorful scene with many beautifully gowned women occupying guests' seats on the floor. Although the Lenten season makes impossible some of the social features that marked the opening of the house years ago, when the Assembly was called at an earlier date, yet today's ceremonies lacked little of the brilliancy of former openings. The Legislative Chamber presented a magnificent scene of beauty, the fashionable gowns of the ladies, contrasting the sombre khaki of the military officers attending His Honor. As usual packed galleries featured the opening and all available seating capacity was taxed to the limit.

The members of the House assembled in chamber before 3 o'clock and at that hour Hon. A. A. Dwyer, speaker of the House took his seat.

New Members Introduced. Premier Veniot announced the official returns of the by-elections held during the recess in Moncton city and Gloucester county. They were read by Very Rev. Dean Neale. The new members of the House, Hon. I. C. Rand, Attorney General, and A. Reilly, of Moncton, who had previously taken the oath of office, which was administered at noon by Sir Douglas Hazen, chief justice, were formally introduced. The Attorney General was presented the Speaker by Premier Veniot and Hon. Fred Macge while Mr. Reilly was presented by C. D. Richards, leader of the opposition and Lewis Smith, chief opposition whip. Applause greeted both new members from their respective sides of the House.

Headed by the York regimental band the composite group of honor from the York regiment, 7th Canadian Machine Gun Battalion and the University of New Brunswick C. O. T. C. paraded from the Army to the Parliament buildings at 2:30 o'clock. The march of honor was commanded by Major John Scott, of the York regiment, Capt. R. H. Stewart of the same unit, as Adjutant, while Capt. Frank Barton of the 7th Canadian Machine Gun Battalion acted as subaltern, and Lieut. A. D. Scovill, of the University of New Brunswick, as fourth counten.

IS ACTING PRESIDENT. BERLIN, March 12.—Dr. Walter Simons took the oath today as acting President of the German republic to succeed the late Friedrich Ebert.

The FOLLOWING are the outstanding features of the Speech from the Throne at the opening of the N. B. Legislature today: Hope for strengthening of lumber market in Europe and U. S. Government to assume responsibility for medical insurances of that burden. Further improvement of main highways, as well as secondary and branch roads proposed. Hope for continuation of federal aid for highway work. Consideration of plan for selected immigration and settlement on Provincial lands. Water power development at Grand Falls and in the Petitcodiac. Free school books for certain grades in the public schools. Maritime rights under Confederation and the use of Canadian ports for Canadian trade stressed. Hope expressed that Valley Railway will be taken over by Federal Government. Mothers' pensions.

ESTIMATES LESS FOR BRITISH ARMY Reduction of £500,000—Recruiting Last Year Was Disappointing.

LONDON, March 12.—(United Press). Great Britain plans to spend £44,500,000 on its army during 1925 and 1926, according to estimates announced today. Last year's estimate was £48,000,000. Britain's standing army now includes 160,000 men, as compared to 161,000 a year ago. Recruiting during the last 12 months is reported to be disappointing. Of the 84,000 men needed for routine replacement only 80,000 have been enlisted. Sixty per cent of the applicants, moreover, have been rejected owing to the high standard of the requirements.

Lapointe Urges National Unity TORONTO, March 12.—Outlining the tenets of Liberalism before the Heliconian Club here last night, Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, emphasized the need for national unity so that the various parts of Canada could be assimilated into a harmonious whole. Judicial Separation is Granted by Judge in Montreal Court.

By Canadian Press. MONTREAL, March 12.—Aime G. Coussol, an invalid, who has been confined to bed for a long time, and is incapable of moving because of rheumatism and paralysis, was assaulted and maltreated by his wife, Mary Jane Agnes Dwyer, who gagged him to the point of suffocation in April 1924, and later beat him and twisted his neck, according to a judgment handed down by Mr. Justice De Lorimer in the Superior court, granting the husband's suit for a judicial separation.

The plaintiff declared that he was instituting the action for separation on grounds of unseemly cruelty and abuse.

The wife's Plea. The defendant, said Mr. Justice De Lorimer, pleaded that she had always been a good and faithful wife, always loving, taking care of the plaintiff and generally believed to be due to the inefficiency of the works here. Sudden awakening of the industry to the danger of a good sign.

Nigerian Incident. There is likely to be a battle in Parliament over the snubbing of Lord Leverhulme by Sir Hugh Clegg, Governor of Nigeria, which is causing considerable indignation. It appears that at Lagos on January 10th Sir Hugh, in his official capacity, gave a dinner-dance in honor of Lord Leverhulme, who was visiting the port in his steam yacht, Albion. In his private capacity, however, the governor refused to dine aboard the Albion on the following evening. The refusal was said to be due to his resentment to a statement alleged to have been made by Lord Leverhulme that the government of Nigeria was in the hands of "bureaucratic and autocratic officials, who retain the worst features of our colonial system which two centuries ago lost us our American colonies."

THE LEGISLATURE

As the session of the Legislature which begins to-day is the last before a general election, the Speech from the Throne, which is published in full in The Times-Star today, will command unusual attention. It contains little that should prove contentious, but as a pre-election session commonly involves some "talking at the country" the Premier's hope to compress the work and the talk into six weeks may be difficult of fulfillment.

Steady progress in the guarding of the public health is referred to, and the people of the province are reminded that since this department was established the incidence of communicable disease has been lessened by more than fifty per cent, infant mortality reduced from 135 to 100 for each thousand births, and deaths from all causes decreased from 16.16 to 12.3 per thousand. This has all been brought about since 1920, "a saving of from 800 to 1,200 lives annually."

The Government, says the Speech, while making no special effort to encourage immigration on a large scale, has recognized the necessity of increased population to stimulate development, and yet clearly recognizes the necessity for great care in the selection made. It has therefore sent qualified agents to visit the agricultural districts of Great Britain and the Scandinavian countries to secure desirable settlers.

With reference to Grand Falls the Speech says that all preparatory work in connection with the development has been completed, "and we are now awaiting the decision of the International Waterways Commission to permit of the undertaking of this great work, which my Government is sure will stimulate the growth and progress of the province."

It is a source of satisfaction to my Government to note that the attempts made, jointly by the Government and a number of our leading citizens, assisted so ably by the press, to bring about a freer exchange of commodities between the various Provinces of Canada, have met with a large measure of success. To assure a complete realization of our hopes in this respect it is absolutely necessary that a more equitable system of adjusting freight rates on all Canadian railways be adopted, and my Government desires to assure you that no effort will be spared to bring about such a change as will be deemed equitable and fair to the Maritime Provinces.

With regard to the taking-over of the Valley Railway by the C. N. R., the Government says that negotiations are still in progress, "and have reached a point where the Government feels justified in expressing the hope that this railway will soon be taken over by the Dominion authorities."

LONG STRIDES

There is an old saying that "a watched pot boils slowly." Those who look at the country's trade month by month, or year by year, are in no position to realize how much development of national business there has been in twenty-five years. In Mr. Frank Yeight's "Five Thousand Facts About Canada" a table is given making some comparisons between the years 1924-25 and 1900-01.

In that Canada's agricultural production has increased from $364,096,996 to $1,942,182,000. Trade with the United States from $135,667,000 to $1,081,963,000. Trade with the United Kingdom from $175,961,000 to $518,644,000. Manufacturing production from $481,053,000 to $2,489,848,000.

Life insurance from $431,069,000 to $3,488,208,000. Even if allowance be made for the difference in the value of money now as compared with 1900, the figures are nevertheless striking. In 1918 exports of Canadian products were valued at $355,554,000. During the war the increase was abnormal and the value passed a billion dollars in 1918. There was a decline by 1922 of $740,240,000, but after that period the value rose again, and for the twelve months ended January last exports were valued at $1,064,000,000. Here, again, allowance must be made for the difference in prices, but while those to-day are much higher than in 1918, they are somewhat lower than they were two years after the war. At least it is significant that exports are again approaching the highest point they reached during the war period.

Imports have shown a steady decline since 1921, when they were valued at nearly a billion and a quarter. For the year ended March 31 last, they fell below a billion, and for the twelve months ending last January they stood at somewhat less than $800,000,000. In the twenty-five year comparison, one unsatisfactory feature is the extent to which our trade with the United States has grown in comparison with our exchanges of goods with Great Britain.

HEIR ONLY TO INFAMY.

It is amazing that serious discussion is caused in Germany to-day by the suggestion of a Nationalist newspaper that the former crown prince should be elected as Germany's next President in succession to the late President Ebert. Berlin dispatches indicate that the Nationalist party has been giving serious consideration to some such scheme for the left-handed return of the Hohenzollerns to a high place in the direction of German affairs.

It is a source of satisfaction to my Government to note that the attempts made, jointly by the Government and a number of our leading citizens, assisted so ably by the press, to bring about a freer exchange of commodities between the various Provinces of Canada, have met with a large measure of success. To assure a complete realization of our hopes in this respect it is absolutely necessary that a more equitable system of adjusting freight rates on all Canadian railways be adopted, and my Government desires to assure you that no effort will be spared to bring about such a change as will be deemed equitable and fair to the Maritime Provinces.

With regard to the taking-over of the Valley Railway by the C. N. R., the Government says that negotiations are still in progress, "and have reached a point where the Government feels justified in expressing the hope that this railway will soon be taken over by the Dominion authorities."

Attorney-General Gives Notice of Petition to Federal Government

WILL SEEK SUPPORT OF N. B. AND P. E. I.

Movement Started in New Brunswick Only Few Weeks Ago.

Canadian Press Despatch. HALIFAX, March 11.—A definite step toward bringing about a much needed reform in the Maritime provinces was taken by Attorney-General Walter J. O'Hearn in the local Legislative Assembly today, when he gave notice of a motion to petition the Federal Government to pass such legislation that would provide that all criminals sentenced to the Maritime penitentiaries at Dorchester for the execution of sentence.

This reform has been campaigned for by several maritime newspapers for years, and has been urged by various organizations and individuals. A movement looking towards the enactment of such legislation was started in New Brunswick only a few weeks ago in connection with the impending execution of Harry D. Williams now in Fredericton jail awaiting execution for the double murder of his young niece.

The motion provided that copies of the resolution be sent to the Legislative Assemblies of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island for whatever action they might deem advisable in connection therewith.

Remarkable Codicil.

A remarkable codicil in the will decreed that the chests and the money are to be kept untouched for 100 years after my death, when I shall be present to see them opened and handed out to the heirs on the male side. A romantic episode in connection with the search for evidence for his father's chest, which had been hidden in a secret drawer. The tradition of this chest was that it had been taken to the Hastings Workhouse by James Taylor's stepmother and family, when they entered the institution in 1878. From that time all trace of it was lost until recently, when Mr. Taylor discovered it in possession of another relative. When the secret drawer was opened some missing documents were found. All sorts of fantastic stories crowded round the story of the chest. One British claimant stated that he had been over to Holland and seen the chest in the possession of a man alleged to be. The Consul-General on answer to enquiries has stated the estate has been wound up and the will of the late Taylor van der Hulst rests in the municipal archives of the city of Haarlem in the Netherlands.

ROMANTIC STORY OF BOY'S SUCCESS

Codicil Says Dead Testator Will be Present at Opening of Chests.

LONDON, March 12.—A Woolwich family, several Scottish households and some Americans are concerned in a judgment by the highest court in Holland that they are not entitled to $35,000,000 claimed as due to them from the estate of a Scotsman who died in the Netherlands in 1778, leaving his great fortune to accumulate for some generations for his parents' next-of-kin. He had no direct heirs. A chest with secret receptacles occurs in the story but the romance is knocked out of it by the legal fact that all the money in this super-Jarvis case is to remain where it has been for generations.

Majuba Veteran Claimant.

The Supreme Court at The Hague has just upheld the decision of the High Court of Amsterdam, rejecting the claims of the appellant claimants to this great fortune—which was left in 1778 by Pieter Teyler, a merchant prince of Haarlem. One of the most active claimants was James Taylor—a storekeeper in Arsenal and a Majuba veteran—who claimed to be directly descended from Pieter Teyler's youngest brother, William. Many other Taylors, representing nine Scottish families, also claimed kinship, and pooled their resources in order to secure the dead man's millions.

HEART TROUBLE.
NEITHER Mr. nor Mrs. Mann were upset very much over what the doctor told Mr. Mann about his heart. Both were tickled, and could hardly realize that they were not men seriously ailing with some sort of malady.

The hint of a possible heart weakness, however, stirred their interest, and they began a study of the heart, its troubles and what to do to keep from "dropping dead" suddenly as folk do in the papers.

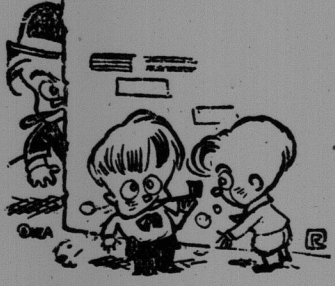

Their interest was heightened when they learned that heart trouble is responsible for one-ninth of the deaths at all ages, and for one-sixth of the deaths in persons of 40 and over.

Heart trouble kills more people than tuberculosis, more than cancer, scrofula, pneumonia or Bright's disease.

In addition there are thousands suffering from some kind of heart disorder. It is estimated that more than 2,000,000 persons in the United States are subjects of serious heart defects.

Tuberculosis once was the prime killer. The anti-tuberculosis crusades throughout the country have served to educate the people against the "white plague," however, until today, the death rate from tuberculosis, is comparatively low, in comparison to the death rate from heart disorders.

Adventures of the Twins

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON.
BUSTER BEAR'S INVITATION.

The folk in the Land-of-Deer-Knows-Where didn't know whether or not to ask Buster Bear to Mrs. Bunny's party. "We'd better take a vote on it," said Old Daddy Cracknuts wisely. "Because if Duster took a notion he could do a lot of damage and smash up the whole party."

"That's right!" agreed Mister Prickless Porcupine. "We'll take a vote on it and see if Buster has enough friends to get him in."

So they called a meeting and passed around papers and everybody wrote on it "yes" or "no" according to the way he felt about the bear boy coming.

There were more "yeses" than "noes," so it was decided that Buster was to come.

Busy Wally Woodchuck got up and said that he had one thing to say and that was that if Buster was to come it must be understood that none of his family was to come except Duster himself. Another thing—Buster would have to wear a pair of squeaky shoes.

"A pair of squeaky shoes?" cried everybody. "But why?"

"Because," said Wally Woodchuck firmly, "then we can all hear him come in, and after he comes we can hear

Stamps, that if the little piddler man and the Twins came in for their mail, to please send him over at once.

When they got the message it didn't take them five minutes to go to the place where the bear family lived on the side of a hill.

"My, I do hope that Mrs. Bear will give me a big order," said Mister Peg Leg. "I'll not have to peddle much longer. I have almost enough money now to buy my peg leg. This one gets shorter and shorter every day."

They rang Mrs. Bear's door-bell and soon the little piddler man was showing her all his wares.

Mrs. Bear picked out a red and purple tie and a pair of white kid gloves for Buster to wear. "Have you any shoes with very loud squeaks in them?" she asked next.

Mister Peg Leg scratched his head. He had shoes but none with squeaks in them. He didn't know what to do. Just then he heard something over in the woods that made him smile, and he winked at the Twins. "Sure," he said. "I have the very thing."

ALUMNAE MEETING. The executive of the High School Alumnae met last night at the home of the president, Mrs. Margaret Lawrence, who was in the chair. Arrangements for bringing Charles G. D. Roberts to speak in St. John were discussed. It is hoped that the Alumnae may be able to secure him as a speaker, but definite word had not yet been received up to last night. The arrangements for the awarding of the High School Alumnae Memorial Scholarship were also under consideration and it was pointed out that some of the students believed that only children of soldiers were eligible. It was definitely announced that there is no such qualification of the scholarship award but all other things being equal the children of soldiers would receive the preference.

detook to work themselves through all the Scouting stages from tenderfoot to first class Scouts and to have their badge certificates filed at the local office as soon as they had won them.

As this filing of certificates was not being carried out by all of the Scoutmasters for the records of the Scouts it was decided to ask the Scoutmasters to make monthly reports of their troops.

It was announced that the Gilwell Camp for New Brunswick would be held from June 30 to July 10 and it was thought the camp would be held at Keswick again this year. Applications to attend camp were said to be coming in already.

The holding of a general parade of all Boy Scout troops in the city was heartily approved and it was suggested the parade should be held some time before the annual parade to church and if possible to have as part of the general parade a meeting at which Boy Scout slides could be shown.

The church parade it was decided should be held on a different Sunday from the annual parade of the R. C. N. V. It company, as some Scouts were also members of the Naval Volunteer Reserve.

A meeting place for the District Troop on Saturday was again subject for discussion. It was hoped some place might be found in order that the meeting could take place this week.

REMOVAL POWER OF PRESIDENT IS TO BE ARGUED

Case of Employee at Portland, Ore., Involves Big Question

CONCURRENCE OF SENATE REQUIRED?

Prerogative of U. S. Executive to be Matter for Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—(United Press).—The power of the President of the United States to remove appointed officials from their offices without the consent of the United States Senate will come before the Supreme Court this month or next, in one of the most important cases handed by the tribunal in many years.

Two of the greatest constitutional lawyers in the nation will argue the case of Frank S. Meyers, who was removed from his office as postmaster at Portland, Ore., before the term for which he had been appointed expired.

Woodrow Wilson signed the executive order of removal early in 1920.

The specific question at issue is this: "Does the President under the constitution have the power to remove appointed officials without the approval of the United States Senate?"

The Supreme Court thought the question so important that after the case was argued before it last December, it asked the consent of both Meyers and the government to appear before it with George Wharton Pepper, Pennsylvania senator, and one of the leading lawyers of the country, appearing as friend of the court to argue against the President's power to remove without the approval of the Senate.

Says President Has Power.

James M. Beck, Solicitor-General of the United States and a noted constitutional authority, will argue the case for the President's power of summary removal. The argument will be held about March 17 if Pepper has had enough time away from the Senate to investigate the case fully. Otherwise, it will be held early in April.

This is the first revival of the question since the administration of Grover Cleveland, during which Congress protested violently against his summary removal of officials of the government.

The makers of the constitution argued long and violently over the question, legal authorities say, but could arrive at no agreement on the President's power to remove his workers. So no specific reference was made to the question, the constitution as adopted merely providing that the President shall have power to "appoint, with the consent of the senate," the officials.

Action by Coolidge.

The removal power has been used frequently in recent years, President Coolidge having summarily ousted several United States district attorneys this winter upon recommendation of Attorney-General Stone. Investigations conducted by Stone caused him to take his cases to Mr. Coolidge, who issued executive orders ousting the men charged with failing in their official duties, after they had refused requests for their resignations.

Young Mother Regains Health

AND NOW RECOMMENDS DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS TO ALL SIMILAR SUFFERERS

Mrs. Wm. Maddix Suffered from a Weak Back

ST. GILBERT, P. E. I., March 11.—(Special).—"I am the mother of three children and after the birth of the oldest my back was very weak," states Mrs. Maddix, a well known resident of this place. "Later it became very painful, until last winter I got so bad that I could hardly stand. I then took four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills which completely relieved me. I have great confidence in them and recommend them to all my friends."

Mrs. Maddix's trouble came from the kidneys, as is evidenced by the relief she got from Dodd's Kidney Pills. When the kidneys become clogged or out of order, the circulation becomes sluggish, the impurities are not strained out of the blood and the result is weakness and lack of energy all over the body. This condition is not only disagreeable but dangerous as well. The impurities in the blood are the seeds of disease.

NEEDS FUNDS FOR POOR RELIEF WORK

Associated Charities Reports For Month Received at Meeting Yesterday Afternoon.

The Associated Charities board at its meeting yesterday afternoon passed a special vote of thanks to the unknown friend who had presented the very welcome gift of $200. This sum it had been stated in a newspaper paragraph, the unknown friend would contribute when the citizens of St. John had given the other $1,500 required to raise the needed $3,000. As soon as the $1,800 had been secured the good friend of the organization presented the $200, making it sure that the association can carry forward its administrative work on behalf of the city poor for the current year. The funds for poor relief, however, are still much in need of replenishment.

In the absence of W. Shivers Fisher, who with Mrs. Fisher has gone to Bermuda for a short visit, the chair was taken by Mrs. George F. Smith.

Gifts Received.

Gifts in kind which were reported on and which had been a very great boon in relieving distress among the city poor were the gifts of macaroni from the Cabell firm, and the gift of boxes of raisin bread from the Sun-Maid Raisins competition conducted by The Telegraph-Journal and Times-Star. The loaves of bread had been distributed to those whose names had been supplied by Miss Grace O. Robertson, the secretary of the Associated Charities.

Several cases of distress were under consideration at the meeting, and particular reference was made to the families of three men who are sick with pneumonia. These families will have to be cared for for several weeks until the bread-winner is about again.

Report for Month.

Miss Robertson's statistical report showed that the month had been an exceptionally busy one. The statistics for February were as follows:

JUDGMENT IS GIVEN IN SCHOOL QUESTION

Members of Quebec Appeal Court Unanimous on 6 of 8 Issues.

QUEBEC, March 11.—Declaring that the provincial legislation of 1905, which said that for school purposes, a Jew was considered to be a Protestant, was ultra vires of the legislature and opposed to the spirit and intent of the British North America Act, and of legislation prior to the union, the Court of Appeals today, which under Mr. Justice Greenshield had heard argument on eight questions relative to this matter submitted by the Board of Protestant School Commissioners for Montreal, rendered their judgment and were unanimous in all but two of the answers given.

The judgment of the Court of Appeals also declares that the provincial legislature has no right to pass a law providing that Jews be made members of the Protestant Board of School

PUTS UP 3-STORY BUILDING FOR BOY

Millionaire, Former Newsboy, to Deed New York Structure to Son.

NEW YORK, March 12.—A. E. Lefcourt, millionaire garment manufacturer and builder, who began life as an East Side newsboy, announced he will put up a $10,000,000 building and deed it to his 18-year-old son, Alan, as an investment, to inculcate a sense of thrift and responsibility in his mind and impress upon him "the vision of the future city."

The building, to be devoted to the silk and woolen industries, will be erected upon the William Waldorf Astor property, extending from 34th to 35th street and adjoining the southwest corner of Madison avenue. He expects to have it completed Feb. 1, 1926. It will be 30 stories high.

"I want my son to have all the advantages which I was denied as a boy," Lefcourt explained. "I have acquired the Astor property because I believe it will be the hub of the textile industry, just as Seventh avenue is now the garment district."

"My son, who will soon be 18 years old, is just an ordinary boy, yet I want to instill in him now the ideals which I have fostered for many years and train him so that when he reaches his majority he will be ready to take hold where I leave off."

LATEST IN LONDON

Snow-white Dye For Hair is Newest Fad of Fashionable Ladies.

LONDON, March 12.—A leading West End hairdresser said recently that hair-dyeing is now one of the most lucrative parts of his trade.

Many women are asking for their hair to be dyed white because of the distinguished effect snow-white hair gives the owner. Others are seeking a "steely-gray color while others want the "pepper and salt effect" created when hair begins to be streaked with gray.

Red and copper tints are going out of fashion and possessors of this class of dyed hair are most anxious to undergo the new process.

CONDITION OF MILK MUCH IMPROVED

THERE is no criticism of the milk arriving in the city at the present time, J. F. Tilley, milk inspector, said yesterday. Following the announcement that it had been necessary to reject 11,000 quarts of milk sent to the city during one month there was a very marked improvement in the condition of the milk arriving here.

Mr. Tilley believed that the unusual mildness of the season was to blame as the producers had not realized that they must take the precaution necessary in warmer weather and had not cooled their milk sufficiently before shipping.

He believed they were now taking all the required care in handling their milk and the present satisfactory state of affairs was the result. Only one or two cans of milk had to be rejected each day and it was very hard to reach the standard where every can of milk could be passed as fit for pasteurization.

TEMISCOUATA M. L. A. LOSES HIS BATTLE

His Three Amendments, Calling for Changes, Are Defeated.

QUEBEC, March 11.—New Brunswick's efforts to develop a hydro-electric system were before the Legislative Assembly today when the bill of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission Company was read.

The agreement between the authorities of the two provinces was finally endorsed.

The matter was first debated by Hon. E. L. Patenaud and Jules Langlois, Conservative of Temiscouata, as regards the question of whether the New Brunswick ministers mentioned as promoters of the bill were authorized by their province to extend works outside of New Brunswick.

Premier Takes a Hand. E. Theriault, of L'Islet, who is sponsoring the bill, handled this matter and when the discussion seemed to drag out interminably, Hon. M. G. Gauthier, and finally Hon. Mr. Taschereau took a hand.

The matter then turned to the amendments which Jules Langlois wanted. He had three demands, each of which was defeated in turn by a party vote.

Mr. Langlois then turned to the one which had been defeated in the private bills committee and which sought to make the New Brunswick authorities go into the retail electrical business as far as including St. Louis du Ha Ha and offer the power for industries and for public and private lighting, at the wholesale price obtaining at Edmundston, and this in the valley of Lake Temiscouata and its tributaries.

Mr. Langlois argued that as the province of Quebec was to give up its waters there should be some form of compensation in the way of service. The amendment was defeated.

Liberal Amendment. Mr. Langlois brought on his third amendment, reading that "the company (Continued on page 15, third column)

"SOCIAL OUTCASTS" TROUBLING JAPAN

Conflicts Result Between Towns People and the Subshisa.

TOKIO, March 12.—A thorn in the side of Japan that has been giving trouble again after comparative quiet for some time is the national organization of so-called social outcasts, the Subshisa. There are approximately 2,000,000 members living in the country.

They were ruled social outcasts by an early Tokugawa Shogun several centuries ago. There is no actual reason at this late date why they should continue to be so regarded from Prince Tokugawa, the last of the Shoguns.

This the people, however, refuse to do and conflicts from time to time result. One in Gumma prefecture recently resulted in eight casualties when several hundred persons representing towns people and the Subshisa residents fought nearly all one night over an insult to one of the outcasts by a citizen who refused to apologize. An inquiry has resulted in about 50 arrests, reports state.

Premier Hopes To Have Legislature Finish Session In Six Weeks

Carries Queer Hatred Of Erin To The Grave

CORK, March 12.—Oliver Stephen, owner of the docks and shipyards at Passage West here, and chairman of the Queenstown Gas Company, carried to his grave a great and queer hatred of Ireland, where he had always lived and prospered. He left $250,000 to his wife, but on condition that she spend no more than three months in each year in Ireland and he preferred the three months be spent in Cork, in Dublin. Upon failure to do so, part to remain outside of Ireland at least nine months in the year, her portion of the estate will be forfeited.

FAVOR LOTTERY TO FINANCE OLYMPICS

Dutch to Raise Funds in This Manner if Government Refuses Help.

AMSTERDAM, March 12.—A lottery loan will finance the 1928 Olympic games if the chamber of deputies at The Hague refuses to vote the appropriation of one million florins for the games now before the House, the Dutch Olympic Commission has decided. The tickets will be put on sale in every country which took part in the Olympic games at Paris, provided its laws permit loans with lottery features. This excludes the United States.

The Dutch commission reached its decision after the project for a popular subscription, considered a firm, had been abandoned because of lack of encouragement. The bill for the appropriation was introduced on governmental initiative and the opposition to it is political. The present outlook appears to be that it will be disposed of before the end of the month.

Should the lottery not meet with success, then the Dutch committee will all this province was covered with the matter of granting powers in Quebec, and not as to the powers of the New Brunswick people to extend outside their own province.

Langlois Amendments. The matter then turned to the amendments which Jules Langlois wanted. He had three demands, each of which was defeated in turn by a party vote.

SAYS RELIGIOUS REVIVAL ONLY MEANS TO END

Rev. James Dunlop Gives Inspiring Address at Central Church

POWER OF CHURCHES FOR PUBLIC BENEFIT

Pastor Declares City Congregations Could Solve Civic Problems.

Declaring that evangelistic services sometimes became a kind of spiritual Coney Island and that there were religious hobbies who do no work for their church and pay no taxes for the support of any religious cause, Rev. James Dunlop addressed those attending the mid-week service at the Central Baptist church last night. There seemed to be a general misconception of the purpose behind revival services, he said. People attend them to get a new thrill. The spiritual lobbies drift from one revival meeting to another with their hearts in a state of continuous spiritual effervescence. Evangelistic services becoming a kind of spiritual Coney Island and time, money and talent were dissipated at them with prodigal enthusiasm.

Church of God. A revival of religion was as natural and more necessary than a revival of trade, he said, adding that the Church of God was the only human institution with the seeds of new life within itself. Nations fell and remained dead at different times that it was dead, always revived, in fact, he said, the history of the church was the history of revival.

Both unanimously agree that in any event, whatever reforms are made in the present way of reckoning the days, months and years the calendar must not be divided into 13 months of 28 days each.

Replies have just been received by the League of Nations from all of the leading governments, churches and organizations of the world relative to the various projects under consideration for reforming the calendar on a basis to meet present day needs and life.

One of the favorite projects was that of the thirteenth month year with 28 days to the month and some little odd or ends of a day left over at the close of the year. Unfortunately both organized labor and organized capital have landed a blow to this project.

Keeps Less Than $15 From $166 Weekly Pay

NEW YORK, March 12.—Although Judge Charles W. Boote of Yonkers City Court draws $166 a week as salary he told Robert E. King, a young man who admitted that he "held out" $15 a week on his wife he did more than he, the Judge, could do.

"When I make $80 a week," said King, "I give my wife $35. I keep $15 for myself."

"How much?" queried the Judge. "Fifteen dollars," repeated King. "You do better than I am able to do. I can't keep that much for myself," said the Judge.

Crossworditis Health Help

CHICAGO, March 12.—The Chicago Department of Health's weekly health bulletin has emphasized the benefit of crossword puzzles to general health and happiness. It was discussed under the title of "Crossworditis."

The cause and effects of "the savage little crossword puzzle microbe," the bulletin said, "may be largely explained by the fact that part of our lives and much energy must be put into amusement to satisfy the play instinct within us. Therefore any play or game that has a mental 'kick' in it is quickly accepted and eagerly pursued."

United family circles and happiness to convalescents and chronic invalids were listed in the report as among the good purposes served by the crossword puzzles.

LABOR AND CAPITAL OPPOSED TO REFORM

Say Proposed Change in Calendar Will Not Prove Beneficial.

GENEVA, March 11.—Organized labor and organized capital are at last hand in hand, on a subject which has been under consideration for some time, and that is on the reform of the calendar.

Both unanimously agree that in any event, whatever reforms are made in the present way of reckoning the days, months and years the calendar must not be divided into 13 months of 28 days each.

PICTURE SHOWS BISMARCK HAD LOVE AFFAIR

Secret Revealed After Many Years at Famous Opera House

FAMILY TRIED TO PURCHASE PORTRAIT

Pauline Lucca Had Wonderful Influence Over Famous German Statesman.

LONDON, March 12.—A secret that might once have stirred all the diplomatic world of Europe is now revealed for the first time at Covent Garden Opera House.

Among the collection of musical souvenirs now exhibited there is a photograph of Bismarck, the Iron Chancellor, taken with a famous opera singer of his day, Pauline Lucca. It is the only remaining evidence of a love affair which might have remained for ever hidden.

The photograph was taken in 1865, when the two subjects of it were spending a holiday at Bad-Gastein. It was a caprice of the singer's that her distinguished friend should be photographed with her. At first he was unwilling, but at last he gave in to her request with the words: "Life is earnest, art is gay!"

Only Frivolous Words. They were probably the only frivolous words ever spoken by the Iron Chancellor, who as the picture plainly reveals, was not expected that the picture would leave her hands, but by some mysterious means the plate was captured by the photographer, and his enemies prepared to make it public.

It was recaptured just in time to avert a serious scandal, and for years the Bismarck family endeavored to obtain and destroy every possible copy.

The present photograph, the only one remaining in existence, was discovered in a parcel of papers in the museum room at Covent Garden.

Take Part in Opening

FRIDERICTON, March 11.—Expressing the hope that the fifth and last session of the eighth Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick, which opens tomorrow, would be completed within six weeks, Hon. P. Veniot, Premier of the province, announced tonight that the Government's legislative programme would not be unnecessarily lengthy.

"This is going to be a business session," said Premier Veniot, "and if the Opposition desire to talk at length, then I propose to have night sessions in order that the passage of measures which are to come before the House may be expedited."

"There is not very much Government legislation on the assessment programme and I do not think any of our proposals will be contentious," added the Premier.

Hon. Mr. Veniot intimated that he would have the House sit in the evenings during the debate on the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne and that the same policy would be followed in the budget debate to be held under way. If possible, the Premier said, the session would conclude within six weeks.

Considerable Talk Likely. New Brunswick will have an election this year and pre-election sessions are always featured more or less by a plethora of speech-making. It is evident from the Premier's announcement tonight that a great deal of the oratory will have to be delivered in the evening sittings, this being necessary if the session is to conclude as soon as the Government leader anticipates.

Interest in Hydro. Naturally the paragraphs in the Speech from the Throne referring to hydro development in New Brunswick are engaging the attention of the political leaders here. Premier Veniot intimated that the legislation to be introduced by the Government this session would have to do entirely with the Grand Falls development scheme. Details announced regarding the Grand Falls project will, of course, be delayed until the International Waterways Commission meets at this month.

This afternoon representatives of the St. John Power Commission conferred with Premier Veniot on matters affecting the hydro development in St. John, but no formal statement as to the issues discussed was forthcoming after the conference.

Quebec Paper Represented. Hon. J. E. Michael arrived here this afternoon and attended the meeting of the Government at which matters connected with the session were discussed. The press gallery of Quebec, a French-Canadian evening paper, is interested in the Grand Falls hydro legislation and Mr. Brunet will follow that party for his paper.

Among the members of the Assembly who arrived tonight were J. L. Peck, M.L.A., of Hillsboro, who is accompanied by his wife, and R. B. Smith, M.L.A., of Ormoco.

HAMILTON GIVES THEATRE FIVE YEARS OF LIFE

Playwright Predicts Passing of Drama Through Commercial Abuse

DECLARES REFORM IS SECONDARY ISSUE

Preacher Holds Citizen Play Jury Lesser of Two Evils.

NEW YORK, March 12.—While the Rev. John Haynes Holmes, from his pulpit in the Community Church, declared that censorship of the drama by a citizen jury should be upheld as the lesser of the two evils, "vileness and suppression," Cosmo Hamilton, author and playwright, gave it as his opinion that no method of dealing with the unclean play question made much difference, since, he predicted, the stage was dying.

"Five year's time," he said, "will find not a single theatre around Forty-second street and the present theatrical district. It will be all office buildings. There may be a few non-commercial theatres in existence in the neighborhood of Fifty-seventh street, but the stage in America is almost at its last gasp."

Has No Regrets. He pictured the lugubrious lot of the playwright dealing with commercial managers and said that he would not be sorry to see the commercial theatre die.

Mr. Hamilton spoke at a luncheon of the Union of East and West at the Ceylon India Inn. The subject under debate was "The Stage as Pulpit." Among those who spoke were Clarence Derwent, Wallis Ford, of the "Figs" company, and Horace Holley, Charles F. Weller presided.

"Look at a theatrical map of this country of the present day and at another of the year 1910," Mr. Hamilton said, "and note the difference. In 1910, the map was dotted with cities circled with red, which were known as good theatre towns. Plays could go on there and play for three years. Today, there are only two theatrical towns—New York and Chicago. Outside of them the stage does not exist. It has been supplanted by the cinema and the radio."

"There are a few commendable institutions, such as the Theatre Guild, the Actors' Theatre, the Provincetown Players and a group of little theatre enterprises which may survive. But the commercial theatre will go and I for one shall not be sorry for it."

"I have written and seen produced so many plays that I have lost count of them, but I have never been able to do what I wanted to do—that is, to put a little faith and honesty and true observation of life—in any except one, 'The Blindness of Virtue.' The managers would not stand for it and they would not stand for it because they were afraid the public wouldn't want it."

Charged With Killing Prohibition Officer

NEW ORLEANS, March 12.—Charges of murder have been filed against Byron, Eustace and Robert Dunn of Vinton, and Winfred Burr of De Quincy, La., as a result of the killing of William E. Collins, Federal prohibition agent and Samuel E. Duhon, deputy sheriff of Calcasieu Parish, according to advices received from Lake Charles.

Collins and Duhon had started out on Friday night with a search warrant to seek liquor in the home of the Dunn brothers near Vinton and there, but they failed to arrive. Search disclosed their bodies in the back of an automobile in an old cemetery.

SCHOOL FOR PARROTS. A resident of a state in the southwest has established a school of English for parrots. Here the birds are taught a dozen or so common-place words and phrases prior to being shipped to the bird dealers of the country.

The parrots come from the forests of Mexico and only birds six to eight weeks old are accepted. It is said that each year there are thousands of "graduates" from this bird college, which is the largest school of its kind in the world.

SUN YAT SEN DEAD AFTER LONG FIGHT

First President of Southern China Succumbs to Operation.

PEKIN, March 12.—Sun Yat Sen, the South China leader, died this morning. (Yesterday morning by our time.) Surgeons operated on Dr. Sun Yat Sen at the Rockefeller Hospital here Jan. 26 declared his case hopeless and gave him only ten days to live. The aged Chinese clung to life, however, the ten days passing, leaving him weaker, but still alive.

On Feb. 18, against the advice of the hospital authorities Dr. Sun was removed by friends and associates from quarters on Kuomintang to the former residence of Wellington Koo, former minister. It was there that he died.

As the Southern leader yesterday was slowly passing into his final sleep, his headquarters in Canton announced that his troops had occupied Swatow, in the province of Kwangtung, whence all the rebel leaders were said to have fled without giving battle.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen was the first president of Southern China.

NORMA'S LATEST.

"The Lady" Norma Talmadge's latest pictorial release, now showing in the city theatres, is said to be as fine a thing as has ever been played with cities circled with red, which were known as good theatre towns. Plays could go on there and play for three years. Today, there are only two theatrical towns—New York and Chicago. Outside of them the stage does not exist. It has been supplanted by the cinema and the radio.

BILL GETS THIRD READING IN P. Q. LEGISLATURE

must do all the work required to maintain in their present state of usefulness the wharves and other improvements necessary to maintain the public ferries in summer and winter on Lake Temiscouata.

When this was defeated, Dr. Moreau, Liberal, Rimouski, brought in the amendment which had practically been agreed on by private bills committee and which reads:

"Before delivering any portion of the power developed as a result of the works provided for by this act, the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission Company shall make the necessary arrangements with the New Brunswick Power Commission to place at the disposal of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council of the Province of Quebec, at a place on the boundary line, determined by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council of the Province of Quebec, a permanent quantity of 5,000 horse power.

Disposal of Power. The Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council of the Province of Quebec may authorize any person or company to utilize all or part of such electric power. Within three years from the date of such authorization, notice thereof, and of its intention to avail itself of the electric power provided for by this act, the New Brunswick Electric Power Company for every person or company so authorized.

The price or rental for such power delivered to such point of the inter-provincial boundary shall be the same as required for an equal quantity of power delivered under similar conditions and circumstances to a consumer or municipality situated within the limits of the province of New Brunswick."

This amendment was carried. It embodies the agreement reached between the Quebec authorities and the province of New Brunswick.

Famous Austrian Bootmaker Dead

BERLIN, March 12.—The German newspapers pay high tribute to Peter Menth, Austria's most celebrated bootmaker, who died at the age of 84 at Kitzbühel, Austria. Menth was buried in the historic costume of Hans Sachs, his great medieval predecessor, whom Richard Wagner immortalized by making him the central figure in the "Mastersingers of Nuremberg."

The former Minister of War, Baron von Auferberg-Komarov of Austria, delivered the funeral oration over the coffin of Menth, while scores of celebrated Austrians stood beside the grave. Menth was credited by his army officer customers as being the world's best maker of cavalry boots, which were his specialty.

Bavaria, the greatest beer drinking section of the world, is to have "Doctors of Beer." The Agricultural College of Westphalia provides a special course in beer making, with the purpose of keeping Munich ahead of the rest of the world as a brewery centre. Graduates will be given a special degree, which, translated, means "Brewery Director." There is a school farm where hops are scientifically grown and where a miniature brewery is maintained. The students make a scientific study of all phases of beer production, no doubt including tasting. Contents are held while prizes are awarded for the best brews.

FAMILY CAN LIVE IN A MATCHBOX

Door of Home of Pygmy Mice Less Than One-half Inch High.

LONDON, March 12.—A family of pygmy mice at the Zoo has "issued" a challenge to the world. The pygmy shrew is the smallest mammal in Great Britain, and a foreign cousin of his has held the distinction of being the tiniest mammal in the world, but the miniature mice at the Zoo "go one better."

They are prepared to get through a smaller hole than any other mammal. In fact, they have done it, for 15 which left Gambia for the Gardens more than half managed to escape through an aperture little larger than a keyhole. No wire netting is manufactured of sufficiently small mesh to secure them, and a family of them could settle down in a match-box. The Zoo specimens have a more common African myrmica, and it is the first time they have been exhibited at the Zoo. Though they have already bred at the Zoo, under special care they are very delicate little creatures needing probably more attention than their monstrous mammalian relative, the elephant.

NO MORE WORK. PARIS, March 12.—Prince Roland Bonaparte will provide a trust fund from which all his servants are to be paid their regular salaries for the rest of their lives. The prince, a grand-nephew of Napoleon, became wealthy when he married the daughter of M. Blanc, the enormously rich founder of Monte Carlo.

Baldwin Company Sues Rumania

BUCHAREST, Rumania, March 12.—The Baldwin Locomotive Company has begun suit in the courts here to recover the outstanding balance of about $2,000,000 of its claims against the Rumanian Government for locomotives delivered in 1918-1920.

The suit was brought owing to the failure to reach a satisfactory understanding with the Finance Minister regarding liquidation of the balance of the debt owed by the Rumanian Government.

It was announced from Bucharest last month that a definite agreement to liquidate the Rumanian debt to the Baldwin works of Philadelphia was expected, that a payment on account had been authorized and that the reported intention of the company to bring suit had been dropped.

Do This After Severe Illness

How to Speedily Gain Strength and Put on Needed Weight.

Nothing like the wonderful vitalizing vitamins in Cod Liver Oil to help convalescing people to quickly get strong and well—everybody knows that.

But no body wants to take the ill-smelling, horrible tasting, stomach-upsetting oil itself, so nowadays, up to date medical men are ordering a tablet of Cod Liver Oil and it surely has proved a blessing to thousands of people who have been sapped of their natural strength after a severe illness and especially after the Grippe or a stubborn cough or cold.

MARY PICKFORD'S "LITTLE EVA" DAYS

Her First Leading Man Recalls Them on Visit to Hollywood.

HOLLYWOOD, March 12.—(United News)—Mary Pickford's first leading man has just appeared to remind her of her "Little Eva" days.

He is Edward Earle, who came to Hollywood after a number of years in Long Island movie studios. The acquaintance dates back to the time when Mary, 8, and Edward, 14, played juvenile leads in such popular old productions as "East Lynne" and "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Played in East Lynne. Touring about the East in regular road company style, one-night stands being taken as a matter of course, Mary played Little Willie in "East Lynne," while Earle took the part of Richard Hart, sometimes doubling as an officer to satisfy requirements of a limited troupe.

"I remember how I was always afraid the audience would laugh at you in the officer part," Mary told Earle when the two came together here to talk over their early adventures. "You looked so young and your voice had that habit of breaking off into a high soprano every little while—especially

BAD BLOOD IS THE CAUSE OF PIMPLES AND BOILS

When you tried to be impressive," Mary was Gladys Smith then, before Biograph started her to the fame she later achieved. Of course she was Little Eva in "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Earle did triple duty in that, playing Marka, a lawyer, the captain of LaBelle Riviere and Dr. Thureaut.

What you need when the blood gets out of order is a good tonic to tone and build up the system and put the blood into proper shape.

For this purpose there is nothing so equal

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Mr. L. A. Deibert, Allan, Sask., writes: "For several years I was troubled with boils and pimples. I tried many treatments, but could get no results. I then took Burdock Blood Bitters and became free of my trouble. It is the only medicine I ever took that did me any good." B.B.B. has been on the market for the past 46 years; put up only by the T. MUST AMEND ACT TO TAX HOLDINGS OF C. N. RAILWAYS

City Will Have to Take Matter Up at Ottawa

DISCUSSED AT MEETING TODAY

Chairman of Assessors and City Solicitor Are to Make Reports

The matter of amending the city assessment act to cut out the provision exempting the property of the crown and the securing of permission to tax the property of the C. N. R. located in the city limits was discussed this morning by the City Council and referred to the chairman of the board of assessors and the city solicitor for a report.

E. M. Olive, chairman of the assessors, said the proposition to tax the C. N. R. had been made by himself for two reasons. One was to get more taxable value and more revenue, and the other was to equalize the burden now placed on the C.P.R. by the city in the way of taxation.

Mayor Potts said this morning that a special meeting of the Common Council would be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock to discuss the proposed fire insurance companies legislation and a committee from the Board of Trade would be heard at that time.

THE COURT HOUSE. Commissioner Wigmore said this morning that he would call soon a meeting of the committee which had been set up to study the proposed new court house.

Mr. Foss and Fred Z. Fowler appeared in support of an application by the company for exemption on its plant and equipment under legislation which allows for exemption in new industries. He said the company was employing 15 girls at present and hoped to increase the number here long. That he considered this one of the finest locations in Canada for a manufacturing plant was a statement made by Charles A. Foss to the Common Council this morning while discussing with them the matter of tax exemption on the plant of the Energy Electric Company.

Mr. Foss and Fred Z. Fowler appeared in support of an application by the company for exemption on its plant and equipment under legislation which allows for exemption in new industries. He said the company was employing 15 girls at present and hoped to increase the number here long.

The value of the equipment installed now was $8,000 and it was planned to install another $8,000 unit in the very near future. Since opening here the company had met with good success, the only drawback being the price of gas, which he felt was too high.

He had found this a good location for industry as it was possible to bring raw material here by water at a very cheap freight rate and he was of the opinion that not enough was made of this factor by the manufacturing plants located here at present.

Mayor Potts asked Mr. Foss to send a letter to the council setting out definitely what they wanted in the way of tax exemption and said the council would give the matter careful consideration.

SIGNS MULTIPLY. There have been many signs of spring, from the boys playing marbles to the little girls playing hop-scotch on the city sidewalks.

WEDNESDAY evening another sign was noted. A prominent citizen was met carrying under his left arm a case from which protruded golf sticks, some evidently needing repair.
