BEAR GULCH MINE.

Particulars of the Appointment of a Receiver for the Property.

LIVINGSTON, Oct. 4.—The first round in the case of John Mordock, trustee, against the Bear Gulch Mining company and A. C. Jardine and other directors, which has been under consideration for several weeks, closed today with the appointment of Alexander Livingston, assistant cashier of the First State bank, as receiver by Judge Henry. In his decision Judge Henry holds that Rose Tracy, intervenor, was the owner of 5,000 shares of stock, which was increased by a subsequent issue to 40,000; that at the meeting held for the purpose of increasing the capital stock of the company no notice was given to Rose Tracy of such meeting, and that the notices issued and served upon some were contrary to law. As a result of the illegality of the meetings the court holds that the present board of directors and officers of the company were not legally elected and that a receiver is necessary to take charge of the business of the company.

The court also passes upon several minor points in the case, but states that the question of who is entitled to the ownership of the Bear Gulch mining claim will be determined later on.

When Judge Henry announced his determination to appoint a receiver he further stated that he would allow counsel until noon to agree upon some one for the position who might be acceptable to him. The counsel were unable to reach any satisfactory agreement and the court thereupon appointed Livingston, with the proviso that he file a bond in the sum of $300,000. This bond will be filed Monday morning and Mr. Livingston will then enter upon his duties.

The Bear Gulch company has a capitalization of $1,500,000, held principally by residents of St. John, N. B.

THE BOER GENERALS

Deny That Kruger Carried Off State Funds.

UTRECHT, Holland, Oct. 11.—At a meeting in honor of the Boer generals held here last night, General Botha definitely denied the reports which have been circulated that Mr. Kruger had carried off state funds, and declared that, on the contrary, the president had contributed to the Boer cause with money from his own pocket. General DeWet, referring to the controversy on the subject of an audience of the Boer generals with Emperor William, said his majesty had invited them and that hence the generals had not refused an audience. General DeWet added:

"If an emperor or king should desire to see us, it would be a great honor, and we should certainly apply to the British minister to introduce us." Six thousand eight hundred dollars was subscribed at the meeting.

RAILWAY WRECK.

Two Men Were Killed and Six Were Injured.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 11.—An eastbound Big Four freight train ran into the rear of another freight train in the centre of the Wabash River bridge here last night. Two men were killed and six seriously injured. The dead: Matthew Hennessy, of Matton, Ill., conductor; unknown man in charge of car of poultry. The injured men were removed to a hospital. The rear train was running at a high rate of speed when it struck the rear end of a slow train.

AN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIR.

The government is making an investigation. The authorities charge the crime to the revolutionists.

MONCTON AND OIL.

The Moncton Transcript says that town is probably on the eve of a great development. It anticipates that an oil refinery will be built there and that oil for fuel and for power purposes will be available; and that Memramcook oil may even be used as fuel for I. C. R. locomotives.

The Telegraph, which calls attention to every error in other papers, informs its readers today that Prof. Jack is a "practical" bridge builder. Is this "amazingly journalism"?

THE COAL STRIKE.

Yesterday's Efforts at Settlement a Complete Failure.

The Operators Decline to Recognize the Miners' Union, and Depart From New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—After two days of conference between the anthracite coal mine operators on one side and the governor and senior senator of New York and the two senators from Pennsylvania on the other, the strike of the United Mine Workers of America is apparently as far from a settlement as the day it was declared. Gov. Odell laid before the operators today the proposition that if they would concede to the miners an advance of five cents a ton in the price paid for mining coal, he would promise that the miners would resume work. Being told further that the concession would carry with it recognition of the miners' union, the operators promptly refused to entertain the proposal and took their leave. Later in the day they and the Pennsylvania senators departed from the city, the latter going to Harrisburg.

John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, announced his intention of leaving the city early tomorrow morning, his destination being Wilkesbarre. Mr. Mitchell took no part in any of the conferences yesterday and today, he being in New York, it is understood, in order that he might be within reach should the negotiations reach a stage where his decision for the miners would be required.

Gov. Odell feels that he has done all that it is possible for him to do under existing laws toward bringing about a termination of the strike. He would not say tonight whether or not it was his intention to call the state legislature in extraordinary session to consider the enactment of a law under which the contention between the coal operators and the miners might be brought to an end. This, the governor said, was something he would not discuss at this time.

GOV. ODELL SPEAKS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Governor Odell at a late hour was asked whether he had determined on any further move. He said:

"I have not received any official notice of the rejection of our proposition." "Has it been suggested that you call an extra session of the legislature?" was asked.

"I have not thought of it as yet. As I said, I am waiting for an answer from the operators." The governor said tonight that he would go to Newburgh tomorrow to register and return here on Monday morning. Then he said he would again take up the matter actively if no decision was arrived at by the miners and operators.

GUARDED BY TROOPS.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Oct. 10.—Details of the Tenth Regiment were placed at various points about town this evening to save non-unionists from being held up by strikers. Non-unionists from the Henry Clay shaft were taken home in a regional ambulance this evening, owing to an angry mob hovering near the mine. The local collieries will be guarded by troops all night to prevent strikers from attacking the non-unionists and to guard against incendiarism.

The special sale of black sateen undershirts will continue at F. A. Dykeman & Co's. Over one hundred dozen have already been sold of this line.

TELEGRAPH PLEASE COPY.

Some Remarks on the Reliability of That Journal.

(The Freeman.)

The uninformed citizen who wants to learn what is going on in the world of provincial politics must be sadly puzzled if he reads both the Sun and the Telegraph. According to the one, the opposition speakers have very successful meetings, while according to the other the meetings are failures and the reception discouraging. In one instance or the other, there is an absolute falsehood or tissue of falsehoods. Which is the liar? As it is notorious that any kind of a public meeting in a small place is well attended at this season, there is at least a suspicion that the Telegraph correspondents are aiming to belittle rather than fairly report, and on the basis of such stories the editorials are as jubilant as if the opposition had been crushed at the polls. It may be thought a good policy to minimize the strength of an opponent, but the public are apt to draw their own conclusions and form their own judgment as to a newspaper's reliability.

THE HIGGINS FAMILY.

(The Freeman.)

Only one of the newspapers, the Star, appears to have thought of the grief-stricken family of which Higgins is a member. Whatever may be said of the home influences, it must be remembered that this severe lesson is one which entitles them to common human sympathy, and that their condition is a sad one indeed.

THE LUNATIC PRINCE.

(Moncton Times.)

A horrible suspicion is seizing the minds of the readers of the St. John Telegraph that that journal is being edited at Fairville.

TROOPS ON GUARD

To Intimidate Strikers in New Orleans, Saratoga and Switzerland.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 10.—It is expected that the crisis in the street car strike will come tomorrow. Governor Heard and Mayor Capdeville sought to effect a settlement today, but the proposition they presented was rejected by the union tonight. Tonight Governor Heard issued a proclamation against unlawful assemblies on the streets and warning the people to preserve order.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Oct. 10.—Protected by the Second Regiment, the Hudson Valley Railway Co. today again operated its full schedule of trolley cars in Saratoga, Washington and Warren counties. The striking motor-men and their sympathizers, however, are exhibiting a more belligerent attitude than ever. Further trouble is feared.

GENEVA, Oct. 10.—Several leaders of the strike who are also anarchists, have been arrested and imprisoned by order of the government and numerous undesirable foreigners have been expelled from Switzerland. There was a repetition of disorderly demonstrations tonight. Troops and police charged the mob and sixty arrests were made.

BERNE, Switzerland, Oct. 11.—The Bundesrath this morning applied to parliament for permission to mobilize federal troops should their service become necessary at Geneva owing to the strike there.

THE MORMON DID IT.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The coroner's jury that has been investigating the death of "Mrs. Anna Pulitzer, whose body was found in the Morris canal on Sept. 18, rendered a verdict tonight in Jersey City, that the woman came to her death through violence at the hands of William Hooper Young.

THE CAWLEY TRAGEDY.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 10.—Anna, the four-year-old sister of Cawley died tonight. Raymond Cawley died later, making four deaths in the family. It is reported that the two other injured will probably die before morning. After a thorough examination by the coroner it was reported that Cawley did the deed in a fit of insanity.

IT WAS MURDER.

(Special to the Star.) TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 11.—The coroner's inquest into the death of Geo. Whalley, found dead in Evans' warehouse several weeks ago, was concluded late last night. The verdict declared Whalley died at the hands of a party or parties unknown.

A MANITOBA TRAGEDY.

A Mennonite teacher in the Manitoba village of Altona, shot three school trustees and three little girls, and then shot himself. The tragedy arose out of complaints about his management of the school. The teacher and all the trustees will die, one child is dead and another probably fatally injured.

HAMLET FIXED HIM.

Hamlet was rehearsing his famous soliloquy, when he saw a countryman looking through the latticed window at him.

Without paying any attention to the peeper, however, Hamlet continued: "To sleep! perchance to dream; ay, there's the rubber." The countryman took the hint and hurried on his way.

George Kennan declares that the women of Russia are the most self-sacrificing in the world, that the girls have the most exalted ambitions and will make marvelous sacrifices in order to accomplish them. In the upper classes they are the most markedly individual, the most brilliant, the most accomplished. They are all highly educated, many of them speaking a number of languages fluently and being at the same time accomplished musicians.

BASE BALL.

Today's Game.
St. John and Haverhill will play again today on the Victoria grounds, when another good game may be expected. The local team will have a strong team in the field, with Klobendanz on Coughlan in the box. In fact, it is expected that Klobendanz will pitch the first part of the game at least, if not the entire contest. A good fast game may be expected.

Haverhill, 4; St. John, 2.
The Haverhill team of the New England League defeated the local team on the Victoria grounds yesterday afternoon in an interesting contest. There was a fairly large crowd present and all enjoyed the game.

The visitors are a smart, active aggregation, and play to win from start to finish.
Klobendanz, an ex big league pitcher, was between the points for the locals and held the Haverhill hitters down to five hits for a total of six bases. McGinley, the crack Haverhill twirler, was very effective. He was only found for five for a total of seven bases, wild throw by Thompson allowed Barrett to cross the plate.

The score:

Tuesday will see the athletic events, and the time of receiving entries for these, has been extended until this evening. The handicap for the 100 yards professional race is 7 yards, but for the 125 there is no limit. Among the professionals who will compete are Tom Keene, Fish Marsh, Thos. F. Neary, John O'Neil, Dan Kiley, L. E. Morris and Eldridge Eaton. Messrs. Keene, Marsh and Neary of Boston are here, and "Piper" Donovan is expected.

Among the amateurs who will compete in the races are John P. Murphy, C. A. Wilnot, Cecil R. Morris, Chas. Nelson, F. Bernasconi and Charles Kiley. Captain McCaffrey and John Ward of Carleton have entered for the hammer throwing.

HALIFAX DOES WELL.
HALIFAX, Oct. 10.—A large crowd were at the depot this evening to see the oarsmen off for St. John. They were Moshier, Heffler, Patterson, Prepper, W. Duggan and Coats, all amateurs. The best professional crew selected to represent Halifax is composed of Chas. Duggan, Wournell, Lovett and McEachern. They leave in the morning. Halifax expects to win all events. The men are all good and the boats are a superior lot. St. Patrick's Club four-oared amateur will also compete in the four-oared race, making two amateur crews from Halifax.

This is the largest collection of oarsmen that has ever left Halifax. Coats, Duggan and Moshier will make it warm for Ross and St. John, and Heffler and Patterson will give a good account of themselves in the double and the Halifax Rowing Club crew ought to win the amateur four.

RACES AT MOOSEPATH.
The horse races at Moosepath yesterday afternoon were witnessed by about 600 people, and in spite of the heavy track some good contests were offered.

FOOTBALL.

Decisive Victory for Fredericton—Score 13-0.

The football match between Fredericton and St. John resulted in a decisive and deserved victory for the former team by a score of 13 to 0. The game was fairly well contested and at times interesting, but it was not football.

The visitors were as much stronger than their opponents as the score indicates. Their forward line was by far the stronger, and at times showed an inclination to play together, while the Fredericton half line, while not brilliant, played a steady game and showed a good appreciation of the value of opportunistic kicking. C. Allen's dodging runs gained his team lots of ground.

The game was a chase from start to finish, barring occasional rallies made by the home team when the ball was a few feet from their line. Play throughout was clean and gentlemanly on both sides.

S. Jones refereed, and the touch judges were H. Forbes for St. John and N. P. McLeod for Fredericton.

The teams lined up as follows:

ST. JOHN.	FREDERICTON.

AS THE TWIG IS BENT.

Statements by School Pupils in Examination Papers.

There is something about an examination paper which makes even bright pupils daft, says the Detroit Free Press. History is an especial stumbling block. In a batch of history papers one teacher found the following statements:

"Commodore Perry was a hero man. He led a good army and was at the head." "Robert Lee was a man in the army. He did a good deal, I think, and made some speeches. Anyway, he invented the first steamboat." "The battle of Bunker Hill was fought June 17, 1775, after prayer."

This contribution to Benjamin Franklin literature was made: "Benjamin Franklin discovered an electric light. He was a poet."

To the question "Name three American inventions and their inventors," one pupil answered boldly: (1) The discovery of America by Columbus; (2) The invention of electricity by Benjamin Franklin; (3) The invention of the steamboat by Robert Lee.

Some of the early discoverers would not know themselves from the descriptions given. "Columbus was the man who discovered America in 1792. Sebastian Cabot was one of the men who helped to discover an American. Magellan started out with a lot of men in some boats he had made, but he didn't have good luck. Magellan was the first man who made a globe. He discovered the straits between the southern end of South America and a rock."

Burgoyne's invasion was quickly disposed of by one boy with, "Burgoyne thought that by going around his route that the people of America would think it a great piece of business and would be frightened."

Lee's surrender was described in this fashion: "Lee's provisions gave out and the power and other things. Lee's surrender caused great excitement among the patriots. The British rode to the battlefield and Lee was already there on the point of surrendering had Washington not rode up."

The name of William McKinley came into the examination and one paper said of him: "William McKinley was the last president of the United States and he was one of the best presented United States ever had. He was a lovely man and liked by most every one. He was killed while visiting the Panama American Exposition."

A girl wrote frankly: "I don't know much about the Mexican war, the Mexicans fought on one side, but I don't know who fought on the other."

A lad who wrote the way he talked struggled to give his ideas of Queen Elizabeth in "Elizabeth thought she was pretty but she wasn't."

"Cromwell was an English general who went in search of the golden fleece," said one paper, and another, "Neville, earl of Warwick, was a king maker. He made kings from the beginning until now."

An ancient history paper yielded the following facts: "After each half of the battle Brute and Cassius committed suicide. Julius Caesar died in a military school in Spain. Julius Caesar thought he'd study oratory so he took of Miletus. As a child pines and dies without its food, so Athens pined and died without its food Pericles."

The physiology papers are always funny. The stomach is like an apple dumpling with the apple for food," appeared in one paper, and in another, "The international canal consists of the mouth, asparagus and stomach."

MOTHER GOOSE ON THE COAL QUESTION.
The north wind doth blow
And we shall have snow
And what will the babies do then—
Poor things?

The fires are out,
And the coal's up the spout
And may never come downward again—
Poor things?

A little pig found a fifty-dollar note,
But he bought him no hat and no very fine coat.
He bought him no trousers, no booties nor
No collar, cravat, nor gold-headed cane,
But, round as could be, he marched up the
And for a bushel of coal gave up all his rocks.

Peanut pudding hot,
Peanut pudding cold,
Peanut pudding in the pot,
Nine days old.
Some like it hot,
But can't have it so,
No coals 'neath the pot,
So the fire won't go.

There was an old woman, and what do you think?
She lived upon nothing but victuals and drink.
Yet, she prayed not for victuals and drink,
Poor old soul,
Her wishes were all for a little hard coal.

Jack and Jill went up the hill
For a pail of anthracite,
But their purse was thin when they reached
the bin,
And they never got a mite.

So out they got and home did trot,
Their case was far from pleasing;
They had to dance and jump and prance
To keep themselves from freezing.

Old Mother Holbein
Went to the coal bin
For something to start her fire,
But when she got there
The coal bin was bare
And she turned away, full of ire.

Tom, Tom, the piper's son,
Steal some coal and away he run,
But a dozen men
Got it back again
And Tom went homeward crying then.

Simple Simon met a coal man
Says Simple Simon: "Hello, ole man
Say, what have you there?"
The coal man said to Simple Simon,
Showing wondrous pleasure:
"I possess a precious treasure."
When Simple Simon went to look
Upon the coal man's chum, he
Just nabbed it and the scene forsook—
Simon was no monkey.

Little Jack Horner,
Sat in a corner,
Eating a piece of pie;
He found, when he bit,
Some hard coal in it.
And said: "What a rich boy am I!"

POLICE COURT.

James Lenihan seemingly enjoys sitting in sullen silence in a warm dry dock to living in the open with coal as high as beef. He got out of jail only a few weeks ago and was full again last night. FREAK JOURNALISM.

The St. John Telegraph, which professes to be a newspaper, and which displays considerable enterprise in news gathering, contains no mention of the opening of the Sackville exhibition by Mr. Hazen. It is clearly a case of "sour grapes."

A NEW FIRM.

A partnership has been formed between E. C. Elkin and A. H. Chipman for the purpose of doing business in bonds and stocks, fire and marine insurance, and real estate. Elkin & Chipman are the general agents in Canada of Mitchell, Schiller and Barnes. At present Elkin is the leading investment.

An attractive display of Albatross and Redona flannel shirt waists shown at Dykeman's is worth the attention of every lady in St. John.

A THOUSAND WELCOMES.

St. John is preparing to extend to Miss Jessie MacLachlan a right hearty welcome when she appears at the Opera House next Monday and Tuesday evenings, as is evidenced by the great demand for seats. The sale exceeds that which attended Miss MacLachlan's former appearances here so great is the desire to hear this inimitable interpreter of the songs, of old Scotland, songs that in sentiment and beauty far surpass those of other lands. Miss MacLachlan's life work is devoted to popularize her national music, and the great success which has attended her efforts everywhere is very flattering. She is the one singer who has moved a St. John audience to tears, laughter and cheers, old familiar airs taking on entirely new aspect as interpreted by her. Mr. McCluskey, too, will be warmly welcomed by the people of St. John, and altogether the two events of next Monday and Tuesday promise to eclipse all recent events in a similar line. There are a few good seats still available for both concerts.

BRAVE FELLOWS, ALL.

Thirty Regiments of Veterans Represented in the 5th. Royal Band.

The men of the 5th Royal Garrison Regiment have adopted as their regimental march the "Boys of the Old Brigade," and no selection could have been made which would have been more appropriate. Taking the band as a criterion of the whole regiment, it is found that in it are members of many line regiments. Broad tongued Gordon Highlanders blow the clarinet alongside of sturdy Yorkshiremen. A full blooded Irishman who, strangely enough, was formerly one of the world famed Black Watch, beats the side drum, with a Welshman standing on one side and a Shropshire on the other. Among the thirty-five men in the band, fully thirty different regiments of the British army are represented. There are Gordon Highlanders who hold in their memories, along with the traditions of a hundred years, the steady advance up Dargai's heights and the horrors of the Spion Kop death trap. Highland Light Infantrymen who lost their kilts at Waterloo; Wessex, Essex and Sussex volunteers, Shropshires, Derbys, Camerons, Royal Irish, all are represented, and all find pleasure in recalling their many experiences. With one single exception the bandmen wear medals, all have seen service, and some have for over twenty years—none for less than twelve—known no other dress than the King's uniform. They are a cosmopolitan crowd, these sturdy, music making fighters, but in every one there lives the memory of some far away field, the wild and treacherous Indian frontier or the thirsty and ironstone koppe of the waterless karroos, where they played a part in Great Britain's chorus of victory and in obedience to the will of their leader made harmony from introduction to finale in Britain's grand triumphal march.

That their bayonets have been turned into clarionets and their rifles to music stands, but the old fighting spirit is still there, and remembering their past, remembering that though strangers to each other they have all done the same work, they play as no other band has ever played in St. John the music of their regimental march, and while playing, through every man's mind there pass the words of the song and he thinks of the time when he moved

Steadily, shoulder to shoulder,
Steadily, blade by blade;
Ready and strong, marching along
With the boys of the old brigade.

PERSONAL.

Rev. L. G. Macneil, Judge Forbes and D. McLean returned yesterday from the Maritime Presbyterian Synod at New Glasgow.

Mrs. John E. Wilson left yesterday on a visit to her former home, Thelford, Vermont.

De B. Carritte was in Halifax yesterday.

Mrs. Eustace Barnes and Miss Lou Russell left yesterday for Montreal and New York.

Hon. Wm. Patterson and his private secretary, John Bain, left last evening for Ottawa.

Supt. Osborne returned this morning from Sydney where he has been with Mr. Skinner and Mr. Piers. The latter returned to Montreal by the I. C. R. from Moncton. Mr. Osborne reports that the trip proved very satisfactory.

J. C. Moore and W. F. Campbell of New York are in the city in the interest of Collier's Weekly. Mr. Moore is a Canadian, and can quote Dr. Drummond's poems with a habitant accent and gesture that would delight the doctor himself.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ACTION.

At the meeting of the government in Fredericton yesterday, in the matter of the application of Wm. Thomson & Co., backed by St. John members, for a subsidy of $5,000 for the St. John and South Shore steamer service, it was voted to grant a subsidy of $3,000 a year for five years, provided the Dominion government granted the service $6,000 a year, which it is understood Mr. Blair has promised shall be done.

As to the Hartland bridge, an order was passed that it should be free on Sundays, and henceforth funeral processions will probably not have to pay tolls.

Members of the government came to St. John last evening.

DAY OF ATONEMENT.

The Jewish Day of Atonement began early last evening and will continue until sunset today. During the twenty-four or thirty-six hours included in this time, no member of the Jewish church is permitted to eat or drink. It is a day of strict fasting. Even smoking is forbidden and the faithful are ordered to spend the whole day in the synagogue, praying and reading the law. Today the services in the synagogue are well attended and will be continued until sunset.

On Wednesday next the feast of the tabernacles begins and will extend over four days.

A CAPTAIN'S BRIDE.

On Wednesday evening at the Baptist church, Port Greville, occurred the marriage of Capt. Maynard Beals of the American term schooner Melrose, to Miss Lottie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Moore of the Hatfield House, Port Greville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Steeves of Advocate. Miss Susie Moore, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The wedding trip will be on the Melrose to Philadelphia.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT IDEA.

"Do you think there is any use of trying to reform politics?" asked the serious citizen.

"Certainly not," answered Senator Sorghum without a moment's hesitation. "Reformed politics couldn't possibly be made to pay."—Washington Star.

THE CARNIVAL.

Splendid Programme Prepared for Tonight's Concert.

Halifax Oarsmen Arrived Today to Take Part in Monday's Big Regatta.

The Neptune Rowing Club boat house was a busy place this morning. A general overhauling of boats was going on, and everything was being made ready for the big contest Monday. This morning the following Halifax oarsmen arrived: William Duggan, William Coates, Arch. Mosher, who row single; Ernest Heffler and Charles Patterson, amateur doubles; John Preeper, who strokes the four oared amateur, and Frank Walsh, who strokes the St. Patrick's Club four. They brought over with them seven boats: four singles, a double and two four oared boats. They were met at the station by a committee from the Carnival Association and Neptune Rowing Club. The Halifax men are not saying much but have a great air of confidence. However, the local men have been rapidly getting in shape and will make a bold bid for first honors. The course will be marked off Monday morning in order to obtain one that is most favorable. Eleven more men are expected from Halifax tonight. They are:

St. Patrick's Club—J. E. Young, bow; Edward Pearson, forward midship; George Horton, after midship.

Four Oared Professionals—Wornell, Duggan, Crew, W. Wornell, stroke; John McEachern, after midship; Chas. Duggan, forward midship; James Lovett, bow.

Riley-Robinson Crew—Riley, stroke; Robinson, after midship; Foley, forward midship; Ferguson, bow.

It is just possible that the last crew may not come.

Tonight the band of the Fifth Regiment will give its final concert. This organization is one of the best ever brought here and the manner in which last night's concert was received shows that the people appreciate the music they supply. The carnival committee did not bring the band as a money making venture and the prices were fixed at the lowest possible rate, which with full houses at every concert would barely cover the cost. The bandmaster, W. E. Cooper, has arranged a programme for this evening that will include many of the encores of the week, and a number of other popular selections. The programme is:
