DARKNESS MORE DREADED THAN ANY REAL DANGERS

Entombed Miners, Rescued After Seven Days Confinement, Tell of Their Trying Experiences—Saved by the Light of Their Lamps.

JOHNSTON, Pa., April 30.—After being entombed since last Friday noon in the Berwind-White Coal Company mine No. 36 at Pottsville, near here, the seven miners who were shut off from the world by a sudden rush of water caused by the breaking of a wall of an abandoned mine were rescued late tonight. The men were greatly exhausted. Owing to their weakened condition it was decided not to bring them out until after the mine had been drained. The men were reached at ten o'clock by Sidney Redon and Charles Ream who made a dash through fifty feet of water-filling headings. Earlier in the day John Polya, brother of one of the imprisoned men and three comrades made a futile attempt to reach the imprisoned men.

Stiney Redon and Charles Ream volunteered for the second rescue party. Like the party that set forth earlier in the day, they left the pumping crew and plunged out into the water and darkness. Over an hour elapsed before either man was heard from and then Ream came swimming back through the heading bringing the first news from the imprisoned men. He reported that the seven men were alive and in good condition, but that until more pumping was done the passage to the place where they had taken refuge was impassable to those who could not swim.

Ream and his comrade carried to the imprisoned men simply a flask of brandy and a little water. He reported that Mike Bolya had since the break in the wall between the abandoned works been in charge of the movements of his comrades.

When the flood broke out, according to the story he told Ream, he led his men to the highest point in the heading when the "overcast" was situated. Under Bolya's direction each man before him raised his lunch basket. When they arrived at the "overcast" every lamp but one was extinguished and one by one the lamps were each burned out until when they were reached by Redon and Ream there was but a slight light remaining.

Bolya stated that the lamps were lighted because the darkness and noise of the water rushing in the headings was so terrifying that the men feared that their reason would leave them if left in darkness.

Bolya said that of all the dangers they faced the darkness was the most terrible. Twenty stores of rations was husbanded until Monday morning, since during the whole time they were imprisoned they had gone without water, fearing to drink the water from the abandoned works. Ream said that at the place where the men had sought refuge there had been a supply of ties left for track laying purposes. With these Bolya and his comrades had built a platform upon which they had found safety from the flood.

NEW TROUBLE PUT ON SWETTINGHAM

Jamaica Governor Gives Impression that Panama Canal Commission Charged for Relief Supplies

KINGSTON, April 30.—Sir James Alexander Swettingham, who will retire as Governor of Jamaica on May 4, in addition to the insult to Rear-Admiral David, of the United States Navy, which caused his withdrawal, is being blamed for undesired criticism that has been heaped on the Panama Canal Commission.

When Kingston was destroyed by the earthquake and fire, on January 14, the Canal Commission rushed supplies and tents from Panama to the stricken city on the steamship Advance.

In a letter on the subject to the General Relief Committee about three weeks ago Governor Swettingham said he had received a bill for $18,000 from the Canal Commission for the supplies and tents. This brought censure from the press, but an investigation shows that no bill was rendered and there had been no thought of rendering one. In reply to an inquiry from the government of Jamaica the commission replied that the supplies sent were valued at $18,000. Colonel Goetzke declares this was in no way intended as a bill and the full correspondence now made public proves his assertion.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, April 30.—Advice received here says that General Miguel R. Devila, the provisional president of Honduras, took the reins of government by force of arms and without recognizing the provisional junta. It is also said that General Sierro, who proclaimed himself president of Honduras is recognized and aided by Nicaragua and Salvador and also that the various departments and the foreign colony side with him.

SOCIALIST DEMONSTRATIONS AND LABOR STRIKES ABOUND ON MAY DAY

Troops Called Out to Preserve Peace in Paris--- Gathering in Rome Prevented by Police--- Many Reports of Labor Troubles in Europe and America

BOSTON, May 1.—An unusually quiet May day throughout New England with the exception of this city was experienced in labor circles today. Minor troubles in the building trades in some of the cities and towns were most discordant notes outside the greater Boston district, when 1,500 went out for higher wages today, while the teamsters' strike which started a month ago is still in force with almost daily scenes of disorder.

CHICAGO, May 1.—The first strike, ushering in May Day in Chicago, was called yesterday in the plant of the Western Electric Company, located at Hawthorne. It was sympathetic in nature. Because of a grievance of the electricians' union against the company several hundred building mechanics walked out under orders from the Associated Building Trades.

ROME, May 1.—The police forbade a public meeting here today organized by the Socialist to commemorate May Day, at which Maxim Gorky had promised to speak. All the efforts leading to the gathering were frustrated. The police broke through the cordons, entered the Gardens, and held a meeting. Several Socialist deputies delivered fiery speeches but Gorky did not appear.

PARIS, May 1.—Although the entire garrison of Paris was under arms and 600 mounted Republican guards and 100 police reserves were on duty in order to prevent the gigantic May Day demonstration planned by the Socialists, the city presented almost its normal appearance this morning.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 30.—Lieutenant General Rudiger, minister of war, went to Tsarskoe Selo today to report to Emperor Nicholas concerning the incidents in the Duma Monday. As he is known to be furious at the attacks made on the army, a rumor is in circulation that he persuaded the Emperor to dissolve the chamber. The session of the cabinet tonight, however, was occupied with ordinary business and one of the ministers said there was no doubt the Duma would reassemble on the date scheduled, May 13.

WIRELESS GIVES WARNING OF COMING EARTHQUAKES

MANILA, May 1.—Experts believe that it is possible to be warned by wireless telegraph eight or ten hours in advance of volcanic shocks. Experiments are now in progress as a result of observations during the last trembles. At that time vibrations in the wireless were noted eight hours before the earthquake was felt. The phenomena can be explained on no other hypothesis.

VALLE STREET. NEW YORK, May 1.—Prices today sagged small fractions on small opening dealings. The holiday in the London market contributed to the dullness. U. P. received 5-8 and the first sale of U. S. Steel was of 3,299 shares at a decline of 1-4, the preferred stock and Pennsylvania made small fractional gains.

CORONA, I. I., April 30.—Mrs. H. Kreiss, 65 years of age, was shot and instantly killed today by her next-door neighbor, Louis Roedener, aged 25. Roedener then shot himself. He died in an ambulance on the way to the hospital. For some time past there has been a bitter feud between them and no long ago she had him arrested and bound over to keep the peace. The shooting followed a quarrel.

MAKE A STRONG PLEA FOR HIGHER MORAL STANDARD

BOSTON, May 1.—An animated contest between the conservative and liberal schools of theology over the election of deputies to the annual general conference of the Episcopal church at Richmond, Va., in October, confronted the delegates to the 22nd convention of the diocese of Massachusetts here today. The report of the committee on Public Morals was in part: "We call upon parents to feel their sacred responsibility for judicious instruction of children as to sex and the relation of personal purity to health and happiness."

FIVE MEN BADLY HURT IN EXPLOSION

Quebec Laborers Breaking Ice Jam With Dynamite. Package Exploded While the Whole Party Were Standing Close by—Only Two Escaped

QUEBEC, May 1.—An explosion in which five men were shockingly injured, occurred in the county of Montmagny, near the townships of Moose and Armand yesterday afternoon. The victims are Emile Robin, Art Robin, C. Colin, G. Motin and S. Picard and it is feared that four of them, especially Emile Robin, who is the most gravely injured of the five men, may die.

WILL SELL A LOT OF CONDEMNED EQUIPMENT

Rifles, Pistols, Bells, Bugles, Knapsacks, and Other Accoutrements to be Auctioned Off

In compliance with orders from the militia headquarters at Ottawa, a large quantity of condemned ordnance stores will be sold at public auction by Auctioneer T. T. Lantlam at the stores department, Sydney street, on Wednesday morning next. The articles to be sold are old accoutrements, such as capotes, belts and bayonets. These articles in most cases, have been condemned on account of the different new styles of accoutrement which have been put in commission during the past three or four years.

LONDON, May 1.—The freedom of the city of London was conferred today on Sir Robert Bond, the Newfoundland Premier, at the Guild Hall this morning. Sir Robert Bond was not here when the other premiers were made freemen of the city.

HARRY THAW'S EARLY THREAT

He Was Prepared to Kill White on Christmas Eve, 1903, It is Claimed.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Harry Thaw went to the Madison Square Theatre prepared to kill Stanford White on the night of Christmas eve, 1903, and was prevented only by the sagacious interference of one of his own private detectives.

BILL SQUIRES SIGNS AGREEMENT TO MEET WINNER OF BURNS-O'BRIEN FIGHT

First American Pictures of Bill Squires.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30.—Bill Squires, the Australian pugilist, has signed an agreement to meet on May 30, the winner of the Burns-O'Brien fight. The location is not named but will probably be at Colma, near this city.

The pictures shown above give a good idea of what the Australian champion who aspires to meet the best in America looks like. They were taken in San Francisco. Though Squires has a big chest and shows powerful development all over the body, he looks muscle-bound, and those who know the familiar type of speedy American boxer, will require a good deal of showing to believe that the Antipodean can hold his own with Uncle Sam's best.

TOLSTOI, MAN OF PEACE, PREACHES REVOLUTION.

He Has Been Convinced That the Animal-Like Fight in Russia Cannot End Till the Government Yields and Ceases Its Policy of Repression

BERLIN, April 30.—Count Tolstoy's revolutionary pamphlet, which was published in Russia, is to be brought out here in a fortnight. It is entitled "The Way to Social Liberty." Although it embraces a dual appeal to both the Russian Government and the people, its chief aim is to arouse the latter to the belief that the only cure is in a successful revolution. Tolstoy practically repudiates his former principle of passive resistance and boldly declares for a war against the present Government and the people. He is also reminded of the death, each individual being inspired by what God has at all times demanded for the existence of human beings.

"I am now strongly convinced that the best the Government can do is to give in to the revolutionists, but at the same time such a proposition on my part may be considered an expression of my insanity, and I am also reminded of persons near me—revolutionists, conservatives, peasants—unhappy revolutionists manufacturing bombs, unhappy, misguided people ordered before field court-martial, and then shot—I am reminded of the clear divine law known as conscience. Finally, do you realize that at all times God has demanded, so that the absurd and destructive fog now existing will disappear."

Tolstoy relates a conversation with two workmen who had much to do with his change of view. In part he says: "They made it clear to me that only through stopping the Government—only through the execution, but the arrests and banishments—could this fearful animal-like fight of a people be stopped.

KING OTTO, MAD RULER OF BAVARIA, IS NOW 59

Insane Monarch Begins Sixtieth Year Strong in Body, Mentally Unimpaired.

MUNICH, April 30.—With little visible change apparent, since he ascended the throne of Bavaria twenty-two years ago, the mad King Otto today entered upon the sixtieth year of his life.

For many years he has never been seen outside the grounds of Fuerstentried Castle. He has been hopelessly insane since the summer of 1884, his kingdom being ruled by a regent, yet the royal title is still vested in the use of pieces of clay surrounded by a host of lackeys and servants, who approach and serve their insane master with all outward signs of homage and respect, while they and all the world know of his utter decay for he is the King.

REPORTER:—These details have had it that the King has become worse. Those in a position to know, however, state that this is not true, and that there has been little change in his condition since he ascended the throne. He was hopelessly insane then, as he is now. His lucid intervals always have been few and of short duration. He is totally ignorant of his terrible affliction and converses on subjects referring to his immediate surroundings logically and with volubility of speech.

When at his worst his attendants have the greatest difficulty to prevent him filling his mouth with what ever he can lay hands on, and when out walking in the park he has been discovered devouring grass or leaves, and even filling his mouth with earth. Occasionally he will invite the gentlemen of his court to dinner, and while they are discussing the meal, will himself stand with the servants and steadily nibbles at the dainties within his reach. His medical attendant and the physicians who visit him from time to time are firm in the opinion that the King will still live many years, his digestive faculties being unimpaired. What of a frolicsome disposition he thoroughly enjoys playing at being soldier, but he has become too old and awkward to take a keen relish in climbing trees, once his favorite pastime. In his religious devotion he has been known to exhibit great piety, and the celebration of the mass has invariably a soothing influence on his distracted mind.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MAY 1, 1907

PNEUMONIA.

The climate of St. John is peculiarly adapted to the development of pneumonia; the prevalence of damp weather, the frequent changes of temperature, high winds, squalls, sunshine and shadow, all create these conditions which lead to weaknesses in the lungs, and by causing sudden shocks to the system bring on this much dreaded disease. During the present spring and in the winter which has just ended, pneumonia has claimed many victims in this city, for though this malignant inflammation is not always to be regarded as a deadly affliction, still it is difficult to overcome and will not readily yield to any known form of medical treatment. The best that can be done by physicians is to provide those conditions which help the patient to battle against that weakness which has set on him.

The board of health returns show that next to consumption pneumonia is the most deadly disease now prevalent, and the persons who suffer from it are far more numerous although the death rate is not nearly as high. A recent report states that during the year 1904 45,000 people in the United States died from pneumonia and there has been no decrease in the death rate since then. There have been no advances in medical science which can in any way guarantee a cure of this disease, and the patients, it would appear, recover through nature's efforts or not at all. Seventy-five per cent. of those who contract pneumonia get well, but if convalescents were left to the same kind of treatment, not over two per cent. would recover. There are a number of diseases such as smallpox, fever and others, which, having once taken hold of the man, leave him immune against them for the future. The patient in pneumonia it is very different. The patient is weakened for life and is more liable to a second attack than he was to the first. As it happens, though, many people who have contracted the disease early in life, develop it from year to year until finally their constitutions become so weak that they are unable to battle against it. Medical science today knows a great deal about pneumonia and how to prevent it, but has not yet discovered any very satisfactory means of curing, although recent experiments with a form of antitoxin are giving good results. Pneumonia technically is an inflammation of the lungs, due to the presence of germs. These germs erode and block the air passages, and cut off a large portion of the air supply. They weaken the heart by pumping blood through clogged channels, and finally they secrete poisons through the blood, send them to all parts of the body and disable the vital organs. A pneumonia patient, although his lungs are directly affected, seldom dies of suffocation. As a rule, death is a result of heart failure. The blood of a healthy person is sufficiently strong to meet and kill the germs which are in the lungs, but when the power of resistance is lowered or there has been shock, or where from any of the other cause to which humanity is exposed, germs get a foothold, pneumonia is simply a struggle between blood and germs. In three cases out of four the victory goes to the blood. Medical statistics prove that a person addicted to the use of alcoholic liquors is more liable to contract the disease than a total abstainer. Yet, the most temperate man may develop pneumonia by getting his feet wet, by a sudden chill, over work, violent exercise, eating too much, or by loss of sleep. In the great majority of cases, physicians find it impossible to in any way check the course of the disease. It runs itself, and in from three to seven days after the beginning of an attack there is usually a change for the better or worse. If this change occurs without mishap, the patient is more or less well, though he may be left with a bad cough and a severe lung weakness.

In olden days, pneumonia patients were confined in hot, close rooms and all manner of drugs were employed against the disease. Today, the doctors adopt a different system of treatment. They realize that fresh air, brightness, lots of water and other drinks, and good, but easily digested food are necessary. Modern methods of reducing fever and relieving the pain are also employed. Formerly whiskey was used as a stimulant, but nowadays it is considered dangerous, and the fresh air treatment is almost largely adopted for pneumonia as for consumption. In some of the New York hospitals pneumonia patients are put in beds upon the roof and treated just as those in sanatoria. Good nursing is of more value than drugs, and this is always insisted upon. The best way to prevent pneumonia is by avoiding exposure and excesses and by seeking to maintain the body in good condition by regular sleep and wholesome food. Cold baths and sensible clothing are better than warm baths and heavy underwear. Those who live out doors form the smallest percentage of victims. Indoor workers the most numerous.

EYESORES.

In this state and solemn burg there are many little incidentals, trifling enough in their way, and unnoticed now through familiarity, which call for criticism from visitors. In the middle of the city, within a stone's throw from the bus centre, are heaps of rubbish, tumbled down fences, vacant lots which have been converted into dumps, and untenanted shops where fragments of faded lithographs hang from the windows. These things are not pleasant to look upon. Because a corner lot is waiting for a building is no reason why the fence around it should fall to pieces, or that fence if repaired should go without a coating of white wash. Nor is there any particular reason why all the odds and ends gathered off the streets should be scattered about that lot. In St. John there are hundreds of places, eyesores in their present condition, which by the expenditure of two or three dollars could be made neat and attractive. It would not be a waste of money. Why should lithographs torn from the billboards when their usefulness has ceased, be thrown behind those boards to be yielded by the wind around the streets? Is it nice to think that a man with a vacant shop will lease the windows for a display of theatrical or patent medicine posters, receiving in return a show ticket or a box of salve? Yet these things are done, and done thoughtlessly, because people have not got into the way of caring about the appearance of their city.

"THE BEST OF ALL BELLES."

He loved a fair maiden, She smiled on his face, He sent her nice candy, And flowers to boot. He took her in autos, But when the snow fell—'Twas a pair of swift runners—She was his sleigh "belle."

They wanted their own home, A small house he took, And found with shock, joyful, His fair bride could cook. Than this, his church "belle."

A small house he took, And found with shock, joyful, His fair bride could cook. Than this, his church "belle."

His tongue cannot tell, For she makes life so feasting, His own dinner "belle."

Mrs. Chatter is a dreadful gossip. Mrs. Eager—"Is she?" Mrs. Talkative—"Yes. Indeed. Why you can't tell her anything scandalous about anybody that she doesn't know already."

"Why does your pussy cat visit me so little today?" Young Hostel—"I see she heard mamma say 'at you was a little ratty.'"

"Since Keadley came in for all that money I don't suppose he'll know me." "Well, fate evens things up. Since he started to learn how to run his automobile you wouldn't know him."—The Catholic Standard and Times.

"Your husband says that when he is angry he always counts ten before he speaks," said one woman. "Yes," answered the other, "it's his motto. Since he got dyspepsia home seems nothing but a class in arithmetic."

GIRL BLACKSMITH DOES MORE WORK THAN MEN

Shoes Horses and Makes Wagons With Utmost Skill

Collects Bills and Cares for Books in Leisure Hours—Fond of Her Calling.

ST. LOUIS, April 30.—Miss Minnie Hagmann, sixteen years old, daughter of Lorenz Hagmann, a blacksmith, is a blacksmith herself. That young girl has been in her father's shop for three years, and, as she expresses it, "knows all about everything" she can do a horse as quickly and as neatly as the best of them. She can make a wagon, too.

In fact there is nothing about the shop that she does not understand; no kind of work that she is unable to perform. Her father has no man in the shop who could do half the work his daughter does, he says. "She understands the business," he remarked, "and takes an interest in her work. I couldn't do without her."

When asked whether she intended remaining in her present work, Miss Hagmann replied that she did. She said that it was her ambition to become "the best blacksmith in all the country."

In addition to her general shopwork, Miss Hagmann is her father's bookkeeper. She collects all the bills. With all this she is not "tired and worn out" to be a regular attendant at Sunday school and church.

Knowing that many of the young men anxious to win the hand of a young woman who runs successfully a blacksmith shop and who could, if necessary, perhaps be president of a college, Miss Hagmann was asked if she had given the subject of matrimony any thought. The girl smiled slightly and then replied: "Not yet."

Miss Hagmann, in answer to a question as to the number of hours she devoted to her work, replied that she had no special hours. "I get up early," she said, "and am busy usually by sun-up. I spend most of the day in the shop. The books are posted at night. I do not lose much time in collecting bills, as nearly all the patrons come in and pay."

The girl showed much pride in pointing out the good points of a new wagon. Miss Hagmann replied that she said, "Look how strong it is. Don't you think the trimmings are all right? I will finish painting it today."

Asked whether she did not consider blacksmith work rather hard for a woman, Miss Hagmann happily replied that she did not. "A woman can work if she will," the fair mistress of the anvil and forge replied.

ARREST TOWN COUNCIL FOR NEGLECTING ROAD

Borough Lawmakers Summoned to Answer for Maintaining Nuisance.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 30.—A session had been sprung in Archbald by the entire Borough Council being placed under arrest, charged with maintaining a nuisance in neglecting to keep the Wild Cat road in proper condition for public travel. The Councilmen are: Abraham Howells, Andrew Kowanska, Thomas McDonald, Edward Munley, Thomas Kenney, John McAlle, Gus McAlle, John Murrier and Martin Cawley.

Arrests were made on a warrant issued by Justice S. W. Arnold, of Tockville, at the instance of the citizens of Scott township. The road, for the neglect of which the councilmen were arrested, connects Bakely borough with Scott township, and the citizens who appeared at the hearing last night, testified that the road was impassable, there being enormous boulders in the way.

The Councilmen themselves swore that the road is as well kept as any in the State. Howells testified that he had gone over the road yesterday and had driven one and one-half miles in twelve minutes. Justice Arnold reserved his decision, and before deciding will drive over the road himself.

A FATAL ADVERTISEMENT.

Vestris, the great dancing master, died at eighty-three and it was said he would have lived till a hundred but for a sudden and mortal blow in the shape of an advertisement. One day he asked for a newspaper, probably for the first time in his life. Scarcely had he opened the sheet when his eyes lighted upon the following: "Wanted, a professor of dancing at Calcutta. Must be a skillful chiropodist at the same time." He took to his bed and never left it alive.

TELEPHONE WORK GOOD FOR THE EARS

"Hello" Girls Need Not Fear Loss of Hearing

Result of Exhaustive Investigation and Examination of 371 Operators by Copenhagen Expert.

LONDON, April 30.—The question of whether the continual use of the telephone is injurious to the hearing has been the subject of an exhaustive investigation by Dr. Bleigard, of the Laryngological Clinic, of Copenhagen. An examination of 371 "hello" girls leads him to believe that continual telephone work does not damage the hearing. On the contrary, some subjects are declared to have had their hearing materially improved owing to the practice attained in immediately distinguishing foreign sounds from those incidents to telephone work.

Dr. Bleigard reaches the conclusion that a naturally healthy, normal ear will not be harmed by telephone work, except through accident, lightning shocks, short-circuiting, etc. He advises those contemplating this sort of work to submit themselves to an expert examination. He says that persons inclined to nervous trouble, congestion of the blood and sufferers from headaches should be dissuaded from entering the calling.

Mr. Henry Duprey, the champion shot of Canada, had a rare piece of luck the other day. He went out in the evening. In a few minutes he saw a flock of about twenty geese and getting in range he fired and six dropped, and a few minutes later got one from another flock, a total of seven in less than an hour after he left his home. Three years ago Mr. Duprey got five in one shot—Moncton Times.

TIED TO RAIL, RUN OVER BY TRAIN, MAN REVIVES

Disembodied, He Survives Long Enough to Describe Robber Assaults.

PITTSBURG, April 30.—Beaten into unconsciousness and laid on a railroad track where a locomotive ran over him, cutting off both legs and one arm, Frank Driska died after revolving long enough to tell how he got into his predicament.

Driska was 42 years old and a workman. While crossing the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad in Allegheny he was set upon by two negroes.

He said he knew nothing more until roused by the locomotive crushing his limbs. His cries brought some railroad men.

Driska gave a good description of the assault. Robbery was the motive.

537 LIVES, $10,000,000, RECENT LOSS AT SEA

In Four Months Marine Disasters Have Reached Enormous Proportions.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Since the first of this year the money loss in marine disasters has been about $10,000,000. It has been one of the most disastrous seasons in shipping history for insurance companies. In human life the cost has been frightful, as 537 persons met death.

The most appalling disasters followed. Loss of the Larchmont on February 13 in Long Island Sound. She was run down by a schooner, and 183 lives were lost. The City of Berlin sank off the Hook of Holland on February 23, and 200 passengers and crew perished.

When the Jena, a French cruiser, blew up late in March, 120 sailors were killed. No lives were lost in the accidents which resulted in the greatest damage to property. When the big lined Dakota, of the Great Northern Company, was sunk in the Bay of Tokio, all the passengers and crew were rescued without difficulty. The Dakota foundered on a group of rocks, and there was no way to get her off nor to save her valuable cargo.

PROMOTION FOR KINGSMILL

Appointed to Command of Special Service Division.

LONDON, April 30.—Canadian satisfaction is expressed over the official announcement that Captain Kingsmill, former captain of the battleship Dominion, has been appointed to the command of the special service division of the home fleet at Devonport. The appointment indicates, as Star messages forecasted, that the Admiralty did not intend the calamity to the Dominion to impede Capt. Kingsmill's promotion. He will become Rear Admiral next year, and then be available for a far higher step upward.

TEMPORARY LORDS TO BE APPOINTED

Alleged Intention of British Government. Such Appointments, However, to be Only for the Existence of the Sitting Parliament

LONDON, April 30.—The Observer, whose political informants are and vary, has a story to tell which will be interesting to those who are interested in the government's intentions towards the House of Lords. These intentions, according to the Observer, have been already embodied in a bill, which will aim to redress the balance of heredity in party predominance by the simple method of the election of temporary members of the House of Lords.

The government, says the Observer, "will obtain a working majority in the House of Lords by recruiting a sufficient number of Liberals, whose merit has been previously recognized by appointment to the Privy Council. Such appointments will be only for the existence of the sitting parliament. When it is dissolved the appointees will retire from the House of Lords as members do from the House of Commons."

The Observer subsequently suggests that the prospects of the early introduction of the bill is extremely doubtful.

KING ONCE MORE AS PEACEMAKER

Bearer of France's Olive Branch to the Vatican.—Plan Was Interfered With

LONDON, April 30.—It was hoped in quiet quarters a few days ago, that a reconciliation between France and the Vatican might be effected through the mediation of King Edward. There is reason to believe that the matter was carefully considered in Paris during the King's visit at the outset of his present tour, and that preliminary arrangements were made. It was for this reason that the King of Italy left Rome to meet King Edward at Genoa, so that there would be no embarrassment of etiquette over non-intercourse between the two sovereigns. King Edward was then to visit Rome in the absence of King Victor Emmanuel, and informal mediation with the church authorities might have been undertaken. The plan, however, was interfered with at this point, and the King of Italy is hinted that the hitch was due to a protest of the British Government.

REJECTED SUITOR SHOOTS GIRL DEAD

Frank Endrucat Follows Martha Corias from Prussia and Kills Her in Store

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 30.—Martha Corias, a Prussian, twenty-two years old, was shot and almost instantly killed early today by Frank Endrucat, also a Prussian. Endrucat fired a bullet into his own head, but she recovered. Endrucat sought the hand of Miss Corias in Prussia four years ago, but she spurned his love and he struck her down with a hatchet. For this crime he was sent to prison for three years. The young woman came to this country and obtained employment in Philadelphia.

There was a short conversation in German, of which Miss Corias, cleft in the stores, understood only little. Finally Endrucat drew his revolver, exclaimed, "Take that!" and fired twice at the girl. The first shot pierced the heart. Then the man placed the revolver to his right temple and fired, falling over the girl's body.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 30.—While a force of men worked to rescue two men buried under a fallen roof, the Rev. Peter Brulight, of Olyphant, ran from his home, two miles away, yesterday to reach No. 5 shaft of the Delaware and Hudson Company mine to administer the rites of the church to the imprisoned men.

BOARD OF WORKS

The board of works met at City Hall last night. Aid. McGoldrick presiding. The following tenders for street rail- way blocks were accepted:—2,000 square yards at 45c, Hilyard Bros.; and 1,500 square yards at 45c, F. E. Sayre Co. Aid. Mooney and Sons' tender for granite curbing was accepted. It was 3,000 yards at 4c. a lineal foot, curbing, $1.50, and rough granite, $2.50 per yard.

James J. Whalley's tender for hardwood was accepted. It was 35 cords of mixed hardwood at $5.25 a cord. The Robert Reford Co. was allowed the contract for supplying asphalt, 600 barrels at $4.25 per barrel. The Street Railway Co. was awarded the contract for the tar, 850 barrels at $2.25 per barrel.

The cold storage question next came up. Aid. Baxter moved that the Lands Produce and Cold Storage Co. be granted lots 15, 19, 22, 30, 31, 32, 33, and 34 between Wellington and Nelson alps, West End, the rental to be $500 per year, with exception from taxes. The report of the committee was accepted and the question settled. A petition signed by a large number of residents from Queens Ward asked that the asphalt factory be removed from the corner of Leinster and Carmichael streets.

After some discussion a committee composed of Aid. McDermott, Bullock, Hannu, Lewis and the director, was appointed to look into the matter. A committee reported favorably upon the carrying of the D. A. R. terminal. The work on the wharf will cost about $4,000.

A bill from Gandy and Allison for ten bags of salt at $1.00 was objected to by the director. He stated that the market price for salt was 40c. It was moved and carried that the bill be received and that the director make this firm aware of the existing market price.

Every means was employed to expedite the work of relief. Meantime, a messenger summoned the priest.

Patric McHugh was lowered into the mine and hurried to the scene of the disaster. A few minutes after he had performed his office the men were dead. The vicins were Patrick Gallagher, of Dunmore street, and John Novak, of Priebrun. William Hesse was at work near them, and heard the roof cracking. He shouted a warning and started to run. Gallagher and Novak followed, but were caught by the fall.

INSURANCE MONEY WAS TAKEN BY A STRANGER

But P. E. Island Man's Booniversary Succeeds in Recovering the Full Amount Bequeathed to Her

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., May 1.—In September last Archibald Matheson, a native of Milltown Cross, P. E. I., died at Carson City, Nevada. He was a Knights of Pythias and carried two thousand dollars insurance in favor of his niece, Mrs. Adam Hickson, of Commercial Cross, P. E. I., nee Johanna Stevens. After his death the money was secured by a fraudulent beneficiary, Miss Johanna Stevens, of Denver, Cal., where she claimed to be his niece. The bona fide beneficiary took proceedings to recover the money and after investigation by the Supreme Lodge of Chicago, Miss Stevens, of Denver, surrendered the money although she had paid Matheson's debts and put a monument over his grave. Yesterday S. A. MacDonald, of Charlottetown, granter of the Knights of Pythias, who had been acting for Mrs. Hickson, received a check for two thousand dollars from the insurance company of Chicago, Miss Stevens, of Denver, is still a mystery.

SPORT

BOXING CHAMPIONSHIPS. BOSTON, Mass., May 1.—Of the seven national boxing champions who won their medals in the final bouts held last night in Mechanics' Hall by the Amateur Athletic Union of the Boston Athletic Association, five were from this city and two from New York. Seventeen bouts were contested during the evening and five of them were decided by knockout.

Summary: 130 pound class—John O'Brien, of Boston, defeated Dennis, of Boston, in four rounds by decision.

115 pound—Henry Miers, Boston, defeated Edward J. Walsh, New York, by knockout in second round.

125 pound—D. J. Doyle, New York, defeated Edward J. Walsh, New York, in three rounds by a decision.

145 pound—W. S. Kirkland, Boston, defeated S. J. McKenzie, Boston, by forfeit, McKenzie breaking his hand.

165 pound—Wm. McKinnon, Boston, defeated Peter Kenney, New York, in three rounds by a decision.

Heavyweight class—Ellory Plain, New York, defeated Philip Schlossberg, U. S. Battleship New Jersey, by a knockout in second round.

BASEBALL DECISION. ALBANY, N. Y., May 1.—A decision of interest to baseball magnates and players was handed down yesterday by the Court of Appeals against the New York Baseball Club of National League and in favor of Fred Pfeffer, at one time one of the best known professional players in the country. Pfeffer brought an action against the National Exhibition Company which is the corporate name of the New York Club.

His claim was under contract by which he claimed he was to receive $2,000 a year and $600 additional for playing to the best of his ability. He claimed to have been suspended unjustly, it being charged he was not in playing condition. He asked for $800 and interest.

His claim was afterwards assigned to Frank Russell, who has finally won after long litigation. Congratulations are in order for Alderman P. J. McManus, of the Harrington street shoe merchant, who was yesterday wedded to Miss Teresa Thornton.

Both the bride and groom are active workers in several societies and they are highly esteemed. Rev. Father McManus, of St. Mary's College, and brother of the groom, officiated at the nuptials at St. Mary's College. Miss Mollie Thornton was bridesmaid and Edward Cummings best man. The bride wore a travelling suit of grey, and black hat with Ostrich plumes. The happy couple are touring New Brunswick, and on their return will reside at Rockingham.—Halifax Herald.

WILL CONSIDER EXPRESS RATES

Will be Readjusted by Railway Commission

R. L. Borden Will Tour Eastern and Middle Canada—Dr. Pugsley in Ottawa—Rioters Discharged

OTTAWA, April 30.—The express rates will be taken up by the railway commission for readjustment some time next month. The same course will be followed by the express companies as being followed in the case of telephone rates. The companies are to be required to file their schedules of charges with the commission and then to come before the commission and justify them. The telephone companies notified the commission, after they had filed their rates, that they were prepared to meet any objections which might be made to any or all of them. The commission, however, decided that the Bell Company, which was the one involved, should undertake to convince the commissioners that all of their charges were fair and just.

Six men under indictment for manslaughter and riot have been discharged by Magistrate Talbot of Hull. The men were strikers who took part in the bloody Buckingham riots last winter. They were released on a technicality because some papers were not properly stamped.

It is understood here that R. L. Borden, leader of the opposition, will tour eastern and middle Canada before the house opens again. It is understood that he will first go to the East and hold a series of meetings in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. The pending provincial contest in the latter province with the prospective contest in St. John are expected to induce him to give more time to that province than he otherwise would. Mr. Borden will give a good deal of his time to the province of Quebec.

Hon. William Pugsley, premier of New Brunswick and candidate for the Dominion seat in St. John city, is in Ottawa. Dr. Pugsley declined to discuss politics, but it is understood that he is here to consult with Hon. H. R. Emmerson, by whom he has been retained to bring liberal actions against the Frederickton Gleaser.

His Excellency Earl Grey and Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, will sail for England on the Virginia on May 10.

OTTAWA, April 30.—There is no foundation for the cable report from Berlin that substantial negotiations have taken place between the German and the Canadian governments for the improvement of trade relations. The surtax which Canada imposed against German goods some years ago has been a source of irritation and the German government has several times approached Canada in a confidential way through the German consul general to have it removed. However, Germany never offered to correct the conditions which inspired Canada to impose the surtax. There have been no recent negotiations of a character which appeared likely to lead to any definite result.

HOLDS UP 12 CARS TO PUNISH WINK AT WIFE

Irate Bridgroom Goes Through Trolleys With Club to Avenge Insult.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 30.—Armed with a heavy club Oscar Huggard, married only two months, held up a dozen trolley cars in Atlanta yesterday and demoralized the entire system, in an effort to find a conductor who winked at his wife.

Huggard stationed himself on Whitehall street, a main thoroughfare, and as a car approached he leaped aboard, rushed to the conductor, and, brandishing his club, cried: "Are you the man that winked at my wife?"

"Winked at your wife?" the conductor said, aghast. "Why, I never saw you or her either before in all my life."

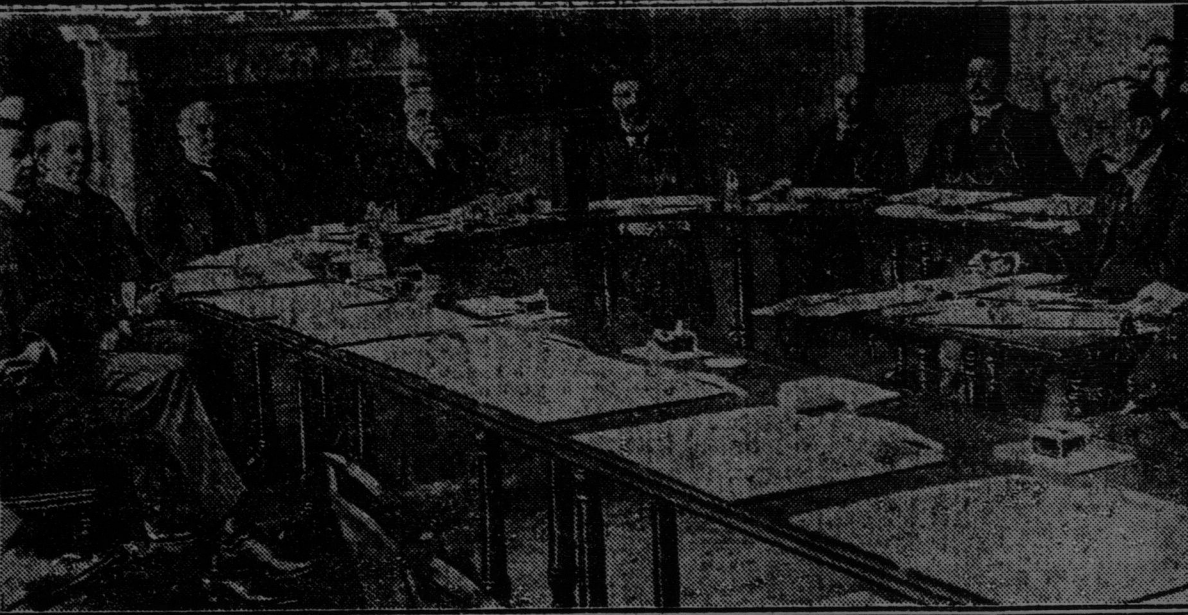

After an argument of ten minutes or more that brought all the men in the car to the platform the motorman was allowed to go on. But the husband resumed his watch, waiting for the next car. Five cars were held up in this manner without finding the winkor, and then Huggard brought Mrs. Huggard into action. Together they held up seven more cars without finding the conductor who winked.

By this time traffic on the Whitehall street line was demoralized. The police arrested Huggard. He is a business man, and promptly gave bond.

According to Mrs. Huggard, as she left a car, she had been winked at by one of the conductors.

Sir Joseph Ward, Premier of New Zealand; Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Premier of Canada; Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, Premier of Great Britain; Lord Eglon, Colonial Secretary; Hon. Alfred Deakin, Premier of Australia; Dr. Janssen, Premier of Cape Colony; General Botha, Premier of the Transvaal; Sir William Lyne, Minister of Trade and Customs, Australia.

LONDON, April 30.—With the exception of a brief word or two from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, today's conference was taken up with an exhaustive address by Premier Deakin on the preference.

His address lasted two hours, and he was listened to uninterruptedly. The debate will be resumed tomorrow morning.

It is understood there will be three days more sitting this week and two next, when the conference will likely conclude.

W. J. Abbott, chairman of the British Chamber of Commerce here, is endeavoring to induce the colonial premiers to accept an invitation to visit Paris. W. C. Robertson, an important member of the board, says that doubtless when Laurier visits Paris he will have practical proposals in his pocket for increased trade facilities.

Tupper Suggests Compromise

Sir Charles Tupper expressed himself as quite satisfied so far with the proceedings of the conference. He thoroughly concurs in the attitude of Laurier. "But," said Sir Charles, "the whole thing is, they should restore the shilling registration duty on wheat, and it could be done without any infringement on free trade principles. Put it on foreign wheat and exempt Canadian.

"My health is fairly good, but against my doctor's orders I am attending the London Chamber of Commerce banquet tomorrow night."

Broderick Speaks for Canada

Hon. I. P. Broderick gave the first statement regarding the proceedings of the colonial conference made by a Canadian member of that body. This statement gains importance from the fact that he has attended all the meetings of the conference, no substantial report of which has been allowed to get into the press here.

He said he was very favorably impressed with the military and with Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman. He showed desire in every way to preserve complete colonial freedom of action. This attitude would be greatly appreciated in parts of Canada where autonomy was considered the first essential in the well being of the Empire. The speeches of Mr. Haldane, the secretary of state for war, and Lord Tweedmouth, the first lord of admiralty, suggested on naval and military co-operation, were very pleasing to Canadian aspirations. Both distinctly repudiated any suggestion of colonial forces being under a central head, but left perfect freedom to the individual dominions.

The fact that it has been decided to make the conference a meeting between governments, each government meeting on equal grounds, would be more highly appreciated by Canadians as contrasting with former conditions under which the colonial premiers, presumably as subordinates, to talk over matters with him. This decision showed the true status of the self-governing colonies, and would do great deal to strengthen Canada's regard for the motherland.

Broderick added respecting the question of preference: "Canada's position is pretty well known. Canadian ministers desire to keep outside English party politics. If Great Britain were to grant Canada a preference, Canada will do nothing to embarrass the present of any British government. Canada desires perfect fiscal freedom for herself and others."

During a recent visit to England a letter from the Hon. G. T. R. opened negotiations with the White Star Company, with the object of securing for its largest number of school directors from Liverpool to Montreal, but negotiations fell through, owing to the company being unable to spare steamers.

300 NEW YORK BABIES ADOPTED IN LOUISIANA

Large Order is Placed With Foundling Asylums by Southern Families.

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 30.—Orders for 300 babies have been placed with the New York Foundling and Orphan Asylum by Louisiana families, and are being filled as rapidly as possible.

Already 117 boys and girls have been brought through New Orleans on the way to the homes of their future parents in southwest Louisiana. Two carloads of the babies destined for Louisiana homes have been placed this year, the last of the consignments being received yesterday.

There being sixty babies in this car, they were sent to Opelousas, from which point they will be distributed to various places in St. Landry parish. The average age of the babies was 3 1/2 years. They were in charge of G. Whiting Swayne, special agent of the asylum, and two trained nurses, two sisters of charity and Mrs. Bowen, a wealthy philanthropist.

PUPILS WHO SCRATCH BARRED FROM SCHOOL

Itch Among Foreigners Causes Their Suspension at Morristown, N. J.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., April 30.—On advice of Health Physician James Douglas, the Board of Education has temporarily deprived the Italian children of Morristown, living in the colony of Flagler and Race streets, of school privileges.

Many of the youngsters are suffering from "itch," and the action was thought best for the welfare of the other pupils in the school which they attend.

The Health Board has had much difficulty with the Italians in regard to communicable diseases. Italians when ill, after consulting local physicians and being ordered to keep to their beds and in seclusion, have often called in Italian physicians from Newark and New York.

It is asserted that the latter say that an American doctor doesn't know how to prescribe for Italians, and tell them they are not seriously sick. The Italian rebel against going to the contagious hospital when ill, and try to conceal the presence of contagious diseases from the health officers. Recently an Italian escaped from the hospital, and when recaptured told the nurses: "No goods grub; too much milk."

SHOOTS FRIEND DEAD IN A DUEL OVER GIRL

Young Men Meet After Church and One is Hit by Five Bullets.

BRISTOL, Va., April 30.—John Johnson, 23 years old, son of a well known farmer at Greendale, was shot and instantly killed by Noah Paxon, a neighbor, today, in a pistol duel occasioned by jealousy over a young woman.

Five shots took effect in the body of the young man.

The combatants had been friends all their lives until a month ago, when rivalry over the hand of Miss Dorah Breedlove, 17 years old and pretty, caused an estrangement. The young men met immediately after church this morning when the shooting occurred. Paxon escaped, the deputy sheriff and posse are in pursuit with bloodhounds.

The girl who was the innocent cause of the tragedy is said to be prostrated.

BACK AFTER 12 YEARS; WEDS ANOTHER'S BRIDE

Man, Long Missing, Persuades Old Sweetheart to Elope.

NASHVILLE, S. D., April 30.—Frank Bachelder, who mysteriously disappeared from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Bachelder, in Harding County, twelve years ago last fall, and was long believed to be dead, returned to his old home a few days ago and carried off Miss Kate Clausen, the sweetheart of his youth, just in time to prevent her marriage with Edward Pritchett.

Invitations to Miss Clausen's marriage to Pritchett were out. The young woman's trousseau was ready, and all preparations for the nuptials had been made. The wedding was to take place Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents.

Thursday morning Bachelder appeared on the scene, went to see Miss Clausen, to whom he had been engaged before he left his home twelve years ago, revealed his identity, and begged her to jilt Pritchett and run away with him.

She consented, and without any unnecessary delay the elopement was planned and executed.

Bachelder told only Miss Clausen the story of his disappearance, and his family and friends do not know why he ran away or where he had been. He promised to tell them later.

RAPID GROWTH OF AMHERST, N.S.

Encouraging Report at Annual Board of Trade Meeting

Population Has Nearly Doubled in Ten Years—Will Invite Sir Charles Tupper to Speak There

AMHERST, April 30.—The annual meeting of the Amherst Board of Trade was held this evening. Over forty members were present. They were the guests of vice-president C. A. Lushby, of the Amherst Foundry Company. The annual report showed the growth of the town from 1896 when the population was 4,025 to the present year when it is over 8,000. The assessment ten years ago was less than two millions. Assessments this year are nearly three and a quarter millions. Custom receipts in 1896 were about twenty-eight thousand dollars, this year the amount will be nearly one hundred and twenty-nine thousand dollars. The output of the factories during the last year is nearly five million dollars and over one million dollars was paid in wages by the main industries of the town. The I. C. R. freight receipts increased in ten years from ninety thousand dollars to three hundred and ten thousand.

The officers were elected as follows: C. A. Lushby, president; H. Pipe, vice-president; A. D. Ross, secretary and treasurer. A committee was appointed to ascertain if Sir Charles Tupper could be induced to come to Amherst, his old home, and deliver a address this summer. A short toast list was taken up and many interesting speeches made, all breathing a spirit of hopefulness and buoyancy. The outlook for the future of the town was never brighter than at present.

THE GERMAN-CANADIAN TRADE

London Cables Uneasy Over Supposed Negotiations

Ottawa Reports However Deny That Anything Substantial Has Been Done Between the Two Governments

LONDON, April 30.—Herr von Lindemann's presence in London as representative of the German government, on a mission to the British government, leads to some surmise whether, in addition to the South African boundary questions, he is entrusted to carry forward Canadian trade negotiations already begun between Germany and Canadian governments. In any case the completion of German commercial arrangements with the United States and the general friendliness established between British and German governments are calculated to assist Laurier and Fielding in their German mission and the abolition of the surtax in each country is regarded as certain.

The authoritative Berlin journal, the Voelische Zeitung, announces that the recent interchange of views between the German and Canadian governments resulted in the Canadian offer which would, says the Zeitung, reduce the Canadian tariff on German goods very nearly to the level of the British preference. Germany being expected to make a corresponding modification of German duties against Canada.

Seeing the case with which the lower prices and standard of living and highly organized method of dumping, enable the German textile and other manufacturers from the large part of the British home markets, the German eagerness to stand well on the Canadian market is readily understood. Experts here have little doubt that under that kind of an arrangement German goods can knock out Canadian manufacturers in many lines of cheap woollens and textiles, and also knock out a good deal of Britain's present trade with Canada.

FOR A MILLION ...OF MONEY

By Arthur W. Marchmont.

With this terrible news she again sought refuge in her own room, and in solitude spent hours of bitter poignant grief.

"In the early evening Jack came over. But she would not see him, although her heart was aching for the comfort he could have given her, and scribbled a line that she could not bear an interview yet. He persisted, and all but insisted upon seeing her; but she led to that determination.

"She would see no one but Mr. Casement; and when he came he could only confirm his telegram. Such a marriage as that alleged had certainly taken place, and the signature, 'Richard Parmenter,' corresponded with her father's handwriting. The witnesses, a Mr. and Mrs. Thibodeau, were alive too, and had recognized the photograph of Mr. Parmenter, which the lawyer had shown to them.

"She listened in silence; as if it had been the sentence of death; and then said she wished to be alone.

"He was to stay at Silverbeech that night, and he said that he would like to get her father's will, 'if you have it kept,' he added. 'In the safe.' She got him the keys of the safe and together they opened it.

"With a confident look he took out the packet of papers among which it was always kept, and unfolded the tape.

"Your father was a most methodical man," he said. "Here it is."

Then his face fell, and a look of profound consternation spread over it.

"The cover with the endorsement which his clerk had made was there, but it contained only some blank sheets of paper.

"Olive had seen his blank and caught a glimpse of the lock sheets of paper.

"What does that mean, Mr. Casement?" she asked, not fully understanding the gravity of the matter.

"The lawyer folded up the paper quickly and forced a smile. 'Go to bed now, my dear young lady. You have been intensely tried today. In the morning I'll look more closely into things. I'm very tired too.'

"But when she had gone, he tossed up his hands. 'Good heavens! Begged as well as poor girl poor girl. How terrible!'

CHAPTER VII

Beggared and Homeless.

Olive bore the news of her loss of fortune with surprising fortitude. Mr. Casement kept the fact of the loss of the will to himself as long as he dared; and in the presence of collecting all the papers of his late client, he had every nook and cranny of the Manor searched during the interval between his return and the day of the funeral.

"I don't expect to find the truth then."

"What will it mean to me, Mr. Casement?" she asked.

"Probably a long, legal tussle my dear young lady. I have the instructions and a draft will, and shall, of course, endeavour to have that draft proved."

"And if you fail?"

"Everything will then turn upon this alleged marriage. It is that proved to have actually taken place, I fear that all your late father's property will go to the person who claims to be his wife. But don't despair, yet, of course, I shall never despair. It is not the money I care about, but my dear father's good name. I am resolved to clear that."

"Of course you are; and I am equally resolved to assist you. But although you young people are accustomed to think lightly of wealth, we old ones take a different view."

"What can these Merridews do?" was her next question.

"Nothing, without a long, legal fight; and I should think that some sort of compromise—"

"I will not compromise with them. If it is their will, they shall have it. Mr. Casement. To compromise would be to acquiesce in this calamity," declared Olive, very firmly. "It is true, or it is a lie. There is no half-way house."

"But Mr. Casement had made a mistake when he declared that the Merridews could do nothing. He had spoken in ignorance of a fresh misfortune which he did not ascertain until he had returned to his home that evening; and in five hours some time before, and in it the draft will had been burnt.

"Meanwhile, Gilbert Merridew acted with much shrewdness. He had waited anxiously to ascertain whether any other will than that which he had destroyed was forthcoming; and when none was propounded, he went down to Silverbeech.

"Jack had been at the Manor just before, and a long and very trying interview had taken place between him and Olive. She had told him that her fortune was probably lost, and like the true, manly fellow he was, had urged her to marry him at once.

"I said the other day I would welcome such a test, dearest," he said, "it will make no difference to me. We'll do what I said then. Leave these thieves to enjoy their plunder, and you and I will go ahead. It is you I want, not your money."

"But she would not hear of it. His mother's words rang in her ears, and the hot flush of shame these words had roused mantled her cheeks again at the remembrance. She would be made wife until this terrible bar had been removed.

"He pleaded and urged and argued.

FINE SCHOONER A TOTAL LOSS

The Anna Ran Ashore at West Quoddy in Fog

She is at Three Masting—J. Splane & Co., are the Managing Agents—Very Little Insurance

John Splane, the Water street shipping merchant, received a wire yesterday afternoon to the effect that the large stern schooner Anna, which he is managing agent, was ashore at West Quoddy and would probably prove a total wreck.

The Anna, in command of Captain John Kerrigan, was on a voyage from Philadelphia to Calais, Maine, with a full cargo of coal.

Captain Kerrigan reports that for the past few days he encountered dense fog along the Atlantic coast.

Monday night, with hardly a minute's warning that they were so near the shore, the vessel ran up on the rocky shore at West Quoddy. Every member of the crew was killed, and the vessel was done by the captain and crew, but with each high sea the vessel with her heavy cargo had would crash on to the sharp rocks, which quickly pierced her bottom. It was not long before the hold was full of water. Captain Kerrigan and the crew were able to get safely ashore, but not without considerable difficulty.

There is very little insurance on the hull and the loss to the owners will be heavy, as she was a fine vessel. The cargo is fully insured.

The Anna was a vessel of 465 tons register and was built in 1874 at Stony Brook, N. Y. She was 41 feet in length, 24 feet breadth of beam and 12 feet one inch draft.

Mr. Splane left for the scene of the wreck by the C. F. R. last evening.

HAROLD ALEXANDER MET SHOCKING DEATH YESTERDAY

14 Year Old Employee of White Candy Co. Had His Skull Crushed in Elevator Accident at the Company's Factory on Union Street

—He Was on the Elevator in Violation of Orders—Coroner Berryman May Hold an Inquest.

Harold Alexander, aged fourteen years, an employe of the White Candy Company, was instantly killed at his factory on Union street about half-past three yesterday afternoon, in an elevator accident. There were no witnesses of the boy's death.

Alexander worked in the cream room on the third floor of the factory. Unobserved by those working with him he went to the toilet room in the basement and attempted to return by way of the elevator. Another boy named George Gillespie got on the elevator with Alexander. When the ground floor was reached Gillespie jumped off. A barrel of candy stood near at hand, and Gillespie at Alexander's request reached into the barrel and handed him some of the contents. The elevator was slowly rising, and the support of the elevator platform, until caught by the edge of the floor above, Gillespie, after giving the candy to his companion, turned away and so was unaware of the latter's actions.

Another of the factory hands, a girl who worked on the third floor, happened to look down the elevator shaft immediately after the rising platform had passed the second floor. Seeing Alexander lying across the platform, and not knowing that he had been killed, she called down, "Look out, who was that coming down there, or you'll get hurt," and then turned away.

As the elevator passed the third floor the boy's head caught under the safety

REMARKABLE INVENTION FOR THE CULTURE OF HAIR

THE EVANS VACUUM CAP is a practical invention constructed on scientific and hygienic principles by the simple means of which a free and normal circulation is restored throughout the scalp. The minute blood vessels are gently stimulated to activity, thus allowing the food supply which can only be derived from the blood, to be carried to the hair roots, the effects of which are quickly seen in a healthy vigorous growth of hair. There is no rubbing and as no drugs or chemicals of whatsoever kind are employed, there can be nothing to cause irritation. It is only necessary to wear the Cap three or four minutes daily.

60 Days' Free Trial!

THE COMPANY'S GUARANTEE

An EVANS VACUUM CAP will be sent you for sixty days' free trial. If you do not see a gradual development of a new growth of hair, and are not convinced that the Cap will completely restore your hair, you are at liberty to return the cap with no expense whatever to yourself. If, as requested, as an evidence of good faith, that the price of the Cap be deposited with the Chancery Lane Safe Deposit Company, of London, the largest financial and business institution of the kind in the world, who will issue a receipt guaranteeing that money will be returned in full on demand without questions or comment, at any time during trial period.

The eminent DR. I. N. LOVE, in his address to the Medical Board on the subject of Alopecia (loss of hair) stated that if a means could be devised to bring nutrition to the hair follicles (hair roots) without resorting to any irritating process, the problem of hair growth could be solved. Later on when the EVANS VACUUM CAP was submitted to him for inspection, he remarked that the Cap would fulfil and confirm in practice the observations he had previously made before the Medical Board.

DR. W. MOORE, referring to the invention, says that the principle upon which the Evans Vacuum Cap is founded, is absolutely correct and indisputable.

An illustrated and descriptive book of the Evans Vacuum Cap will be sent, post free, on application.

MISS MACDONALD ILL WITH TYPHOID

DIED IN FREDERICTON

FREDERICTON, N. B., April 30.—The special meeting of the city council held this evening was, as expected, a lively nature. The chief warriors at arms were Mr. Hooper and Mr. A. K. Griffin was appointed city engineer at a salary of $90 per month, and Nathaniel Inch, caretaker of the city burying grounds.

All of the officers were reappointed. The report of the fire committee, taking out the part giving the control of the department to the chief, Aid. Hooper finally won out by a vote 7 to 3. The particular part of this report, which provided for the committee consisted of two aldermen who were asked to ratify the firemen's pay, which was voted down on the ground that the assessment based on last year's say had been passed upon.

The steamer arrived shortly after five o'clock this evening with a large party. The river continued to rise slowly and the probability tonight points to rain.

Miss MacDonald, government stenographer, is seriously ill with typhoid fever. At the city council meeting this evening, Aid. Moore, chairman of the water department, announced that Frederickton would have filtered water tomorrow.

FREDERICTON SORRY TO LOSE M. S. L. RICHEY

Late Manager of Bank of Montreal —Presented With Address and Silver Trog—Leaving for England

FREDERICTON, N. B., April 30.—The late manager of the Bank of Montreal, Mr. M. S. L. Richey, who was presented with an address and a handsome silver troy, by a few local bankers and business associates. The presentation took place at the Queen Hotel, and the address was read by John Palmer, who expressed the deep regret that was felt by all Richey's friends.

He thanked the donors, but regretted leaving Frederickton, where he had lived longer than in any other place, and to which he had become deeply attached. Some of those present were the Lieutenant Governor, Alex. Gibson, Hon. Senator Thompson, W. T. Whitehead, Geo. W. Allen, R. S. Barker, Edward Moore, J. A. Winslow, J. B. Scott, John Palmer, A. D. Shute, John Reid, A. B. Atherton, O. S. Crockett, J. J. McCaffrey, W. H. Norton Taylor, A. H. Randolph, D. E. Grove, F. E. Winslow, C. A. Allen, George W. Dibble, A. H. Street, J. D. Finlay, J. H. Crockett, J. W. McCroskey, John Kilburn, John McConnell, D. Monahan, Dr. J. W. Bridges, and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Richey leave for St. John on Friday, from whence they will leave for England on the Empress of Britain on a two months trip.

GOTTON MILL MEN MAY GO ON STRIKE

Fire Thousand Operatives Likely to be Out of Work Thursday—Want Increase of 15 Per Cent

MONTREAL, April 30.—The difficulty which has been brewing in St. Henri, St. Anne's, Hochelaga and Magog cotton mill in all likelihood will be a reality on Thursday morning affecting 6,000 cotton operatives.

A new scale of wages, which demanded an increase of 15 per cent, was submitted to the Dominion Textile Company April 18. At a meeting of the representatives of the Canadian Federation of Textile Workers and the company an offer of 10 per cent, was made. The delegation representing the workers had not power to accept a compromise, and the matter was placed before the strike committee and other local unions. It was turned down and the union members decided to declare a strike in aid of the I. C. R. general strike on Monday. The Dominion Textile Company on Wednesday morning, in answer to the demand for a fifteen per cent. increase is not conceded beyond that time.

According to the officials of the unions all other departments will be called out Thursday morning. There will be, however, no strike in the Valleyfield mills of the Dominion Company. There the employees demanded a general increase of 15 per cent. The company was represented at the conference and decided to accede to the demands.

RIG CLOSE DOORS TO STRANDED STRANGER

Religious Man, Thrown From Train in Pittsburg Suburb, is Refused Food.

PITTSBURG, April 30.—Charles Bach, 70 years old, evidently refined and devoutly religious, was put off from a train Wednesday and after a long and fruitless search, was left stranded in the fashionable and wealthy suburb without money and without funds.

His home is in Balston, N. Y., and he was en route there from Florida. The initial of the train was delayed, and at every one of them he was refused admission to the train. He had lost his ticket, and was left in a stranger's care.

Bach was finally taken in charge by W. G. Ewing, who notified the police. The latter telegraphed to Balston, and soon word came back that Bach was a respected man of that place.

Mr. Ewing kept him all night at his home, and this morning a collection was taken up in the First Methodist Episcopal Church for his benefit.

He started for his home this evening, reading his Bible, as he had done constantly during his stay in Wilkesburg.

2000 AT FUNERAL OF JILTED GIRL, SLAYER

Oil City Woman, Who Killed Recreant Lover and Self, Buried.

OIL CITY, Pa., April 30.—More than 2,000 persons, many of whom drove all night to be present, today attended the funeral of Miss Belle Stroup, who on Wednesday shot and killed herself and Thaddeus S. Ross a few hours before he was to have married another girl.

The funeral services took place at the Methodist Episcopal church at Centerville, and the body was buried in a country graveyard. The Stroup family is very prominent in that section, and the procession of mourners reached from the church to the cemetery.

In his funeral sermon the Rev. Floyd Williams caused a sensation, saying that the girl was better off with Stanford Whites, Harry Thaw and men of their stamp. Our daughters in their homes are safer without them. May God have mercy on their souls."

RELIC OF SHAKESPEARE

Of the few genuine relics of Shakespeare preserved in his native town, the most interesting are his signet ring, with his initials "W. S." on it, and the desk at which he sat in the grammar school of Stratford.

The longest mile in the Hanoverian. It is 11,558 yards.

BODY OF DROWNED MAN IDENTIFIED

The body of the man found in the St. John river on Sunday last, has been positively identified as that of William Theriault, of Oldtown, Maine, who was drowned at Annotock Falls, on the twelfth day of December last.

Theodore Boulter, who is proprietor of the hotel at Oldtown, where Theriault boarded for over twenty years, arrived in the city yesterday and drove out with Coroner Macfarlane, to view the body. He recognized it immediately as that of his former boarder. Mr. Boulter said that Theriault was in the employ of the Annotock Dam Co. at the time of his death, and was assisting to put in a gate in the coffer dam which the company had under construction, when he slipped and went over the falls. His body was never seen again until it was found on Sunday last. Mr. Boulter also identified a ring found on the man's hand, and a jack-knife.

Theriault was a respectable hard-working French Canadian. He was unmarried but several brothers survive him. Louis, who lives at St. Leonard's, N. B., arrived in the city last night. The remains will be interred in the Catholic cemetery at Sand Point today.

S. J. SELIG, OF MONCTON, PASSED AWAY YESTERDAY

MONCTON, April 30.—The death occurred here today of S. J. Selig, an employe of the I. C. R. and has been in the city for about three months with stomach trouble. He was formerly a resident of the I. C. R. since 1872. He was born in Lunenburg, N. S. Mr. Selig is survived by a wife, three daughters, Mrs. McNaughton, Dorchester, N. B., Mrs. H. M. Fairweather, and Mrs. Clarence Fairweather, of Moncton and two sons, Bennett of Rhodes, Curry & Co., Amherst, N. S., and Alonso, of I. C. R. engineers' office here. Deceased was 74 years of age and a prominent Orangeman.

BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA WILL LEAVE TRINIDAD

HALIFAX, N. S., April 30.—The Bank of Nova Scotia has decided to close its branch in Trinidad. The decision of the directors of the bank was mainly brought about on account of the recent death of E. T. Hammett, inspector of the bank, who died in that city of fever. Hence, the decision to close the branch was mainly brought about more extensively than before the recent earthquake. The Port of Spain Gazette says that the decision of the bank to abandon Trinidad came as a surprise, as the work of embellishing its new banking room was well under way, and in view of the satisfactory character of the business transacted.

ANOTHER FATAL ACCIDENT ON C.P.R.

FORT WILLIAM, April 30.—In an accident seventy-five miles east of here last night on the C. P. R., three employes lost their lives. The dead are: Wm. Fuxler, engineer; E. J. Veaudry, brakeman; and Valancon, brakeman.

The train was the second section of No. 130, a regular freight, and left here about 11:30 last night. The accident happened at Fire Hill, a small station east of Nipigon.

The bridge over a small creek being washed out, the engine plunged into the opening while going at the regulation speed.

The body of the engineer has been found, but those of the fireman and brakeman have not been seen, and are probably buried under the engine. Fire added to the horrors of the wreck.

COURTEOUS ACTION OF KING VICTOR EMMANUEL

ROME, April 30.—King Edward, while passing outside of Rome on his way to London today, was met by King Victor Emmanuel at a country station. The meeting was a most interesting conversation for about fifteen minutes. The courteous action of the Italian King in leaving Rome to say good-bye to the British ruler is considered to be further evidence of the cordial feelings existing between the two sovereigns and as a desire to emphasize the good relations between Italy and Great Britain.

STEALING OF LIQUOR FROM C. P. R. BOATS

Hearing in the Manson Case Ended Today.

Prisoner Remanded for Sentence—Gang of Men Were Too Drunk to Remain at Work

The case against Kenneth Manson, charged with stealing a bottle of liquor from the C. P. R. at Sand Point, was resumed in the police court this morning.

W. H. Fritz, a C. P. R. watchman, testified that the gang in which Manson worked on the night the liquor was stolen, knocked off at midnight. Shortly after five o'clock in the morning he saw Manson coming from No. 7 hatch. He was smoking and under the influence of liquor.

Robert Gregg, the shed foreman, and Grandish Fryer, the night agent of the C. P. R., gave evidence that when Officer Walsh brought the prisoner into the station Manson offered several times to pay for the stolen bottle of liquor.

The prisoner took the stand and said he had two drinks before seven o'clock on Monday evening and did not have any more liquor until he found a rotten bottle on the Sand Point beach. He took a couple of drinks from the bottle. He was not at any time in the hold of the steamer nor did he see any person drinking or under the influence of liquor.
