On this point," he wrote, "no official action was taken by the embassy which assured itself privately that the matter had not escaped the attention of the members of the committee."

VACATION JOYS
An Object Lesson for Which Some Crumbs of Comfort May Be gleaned by the Vacationless.

WEIRD EXPERIENCE OF A YOUNG SAILOR
Wakes to Find Bloodshot Eyes Glaring Into His Own—Puts Up Desperate Fight—Then Runs.

To be waked up in the middle of the night and find a pair of evil bloodshot eyes glaring into yours is not an experience guaranteed to have a quieting effect upon the nerves. However this rather weird experience fell to the lot of a young Nova Scotian who had shipped for the first time on the sailing ship Peerless, now lying at the Ballast wharf.

When the young man awoke from his sleep to find a seeming madman glaring at him, he thought his life to be in danger, and springing from his bunk struck at the intruder and knocked him down. Nothing daunted, his opponent again advanced to the attack only to be felled a second time.

This time the man lay still for a few moments but after regaining his feet once rushed in only to be hit on the jaw and knocked off through the cabin door onto the deck.

The now thoroughly terrified blue nose thinking that his life depended on his efforts rushed out after his adversary and administered a sound licking. Then fright gained the upper hand and springing into the rig-to thank you from my heart for the honor you have conferred upon me, and to say that, of course, I accept. I have been president and have seen and know much of life, and I hold it by far the greatest honor and the greatest opportunity that has ever come to me to be called by you for the time being, to the leadership of this great movement for the common people.

ROOSEVELT CHOICE OF PROGRESSIVE PARTY CONVENTION IN CHICAGO

"I appreciate to the full the burden of responsibility you have put on me," concluded the Colonel. "With every particle of high purpose there is in every bit of ability, every bit of good sense I have at your disposition to carry out the principles to which you have here today dedicated yourselves.

When the cheers that greeted the close of Roosevelt's speech subsided Beveridge introduced the resolution. He pledged himself to aid Roosevelt in the "fight for the common good," and concluded: "I had rather go down in a time of grave national peril, than to victory with any other presidential candidate."

The platform further declares that it begins with the following preamble: "The conscience of the people, in a time of grave national problems, has called into being a new party, born of the nation's awakened sense of justice.

"We of the Progressive party dedicate ourselves to the fulfillment of the duty laid upon us by our fathers, to maintain that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, whose foundations they laid."

The platform further declares that "the old parties have become the tools of corrupt interests, which use them impartially to serve their selfish purposes," and that the new party offers itself as the instrument of the people to "sweep away old abuses, to build a new and nobler commonwealth."

It declares under the heading "The rule of the people" for direct primary elections for nomination of state and national officers and candidates for the presidency, for popular election of United States senators, and urges on states the use of the short ballot, "with responsibility to the people secured by the initiative, referendum, and recall." Among other things it pledges "a more easy and expeditious method of amending the federal constitution," equal suffrage, enactment of legislation limiting campaign contributions and expenditures and providing for publicity thereof. It opposes participation by federal appointees in state or national conventions. The platform demands "a restriction of the power of the courts as shall leave to the people the ultimate authority to determine fundamental questions of social welfare and public policy."

Child Labor Scored.
It declares against child labor and for a minimum wage for women, for prevention of industrial accidents, safeguard for health of employees, publicity as to wages, eight hour work day, and establishment of a federal department of labor.

It urges re-establishment of country life commissions and pleads immediate action to deal with high cost of living.

It demands national regulation of interstate corporations and urges the establishment of a federal commission to supervise interstate industrial corporations and favors strengthening the Sherman Law to insure competition in business and prevent unfair trade practices.

It pledges enactment of a patent law that will prevent monopolies, and abolition of the commerce court.

It condemns method of issuing currency notes through private agencies and urges control thereof by the government alone, and opposes the Aldrich Currency Bill.

That the Panama Canal shall be so operated as to insure sea competition with transcontinental railroads, and that American railroads controlled ships be denied the use of the canal.

The platform expresses belief in a protective tariff which shall equalize conditions of competition between the United States and foreign countries for all classes, and demands tariff revision because the present tariff is unjust to the people of the United States, and pledges the party's support of a non-partisan scientific tariff commission. It condemns Payne-Aldrich bill, and the democratic party's tariff policy as "destructive of the protective system."

Wants No Reciprocity.
It demands immediate repeal of the Canadian reciprocity act.

It favors inheritance and income tax, and any international agreement for the limitation of naval forces, and the construction of two battle-ships a year pending such agreement.

It favors governmental action in behalf of immigrants, a wise and just policy of pensions for soldiers and sailors, and the immediate creation of a parcels post.

In conclusion the platform "appeals for the support of all American citizens, without regard to previous political affiliations."

Would you like to meet the man who owns a factory just like the one you intend to build?

You'd ask him how it was designed, what it cost, what materials he used, why he used them, how satisfied he has been with his investment—you'd probably fire questions at him for an hour.

—and then you'd want to see the building itself.

You might travel a thousand miles to meet that man and then find him too busy to talk to you.

But you can get all he knows without moving from the chair you're sitting in. Turn to your stenographer and dictate a note requesting a free copy of

"Factories and Warehouses of Concrete"

Return mail will bring you a book containing every scrap of information you could desire—from the man who has built a factory just like the one you are planning.

Yes, just like it, because over 235 factories and warehouses, housing 97 separate industries are described and illustrated with photographs.

Every question you would ask is answered—not in generalities, but in specific facts and figures.

It's a handsome book, as befits the most complete and authoritative publication on reinforced concrete factory and warehouse construction ever written. No dry-as-dust treatise for engineers, but a frank plain description of reinforced concrete construction for business men.

Tedious Tasks.
A couple of wayfarers stood for an hour or more in front of a market watching employes clean fish.

"Ain't that the limit?" exclaimed one. "Can you think of anything worse than a job like that?"

"Sure I can," the other replied. "That ain't half as bad as scaling the Alps."

ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, AUGUST 8, 1912.

TWO NOTEWORTHY OPINIONS.

Two expressions of opinion from widely different points of view, but both emphasizing the duty of Canadians, as a united people, to assist in the maintenance of Great Britain's naval supremacy.

The Christian Guardian, the official journal of the Methodist church, commenting on the "navy question" in its last issue, thus sums up the situation:

Frankly, we may say that if the plans that our representatives in consultation with the Home authorities are now working out are to be satisfactory to the majority of Canadians, they will have to be more comprehensive and extensive than some that have heretofore been talked of.

No charge of inflaming the popular mind could justly be laid against the Guardian, representing as it does the best thought in the Methodist church.

The other expression of opinion, referred to, comes from the pen of Mr. W. D. Lighthall, a Liberal in politics, and appears in the Toronto Globe.

While ordinarily, like most other Canadians, a disbeliever in special war preparations and an earnest advocate of peace, I do not see how we can overlook the serious dangers of the present situation to ourselves and the Empire.

The appeal of Mr. Lighthall that all party differences should be set aside in considering this question and that united support should be given to the Government, is as timely now, perhaps, than the conferences with the Home authorities are concluded, as at an earlier date.

THE SCIENCE OF BUTTERMAKING.

It is a recognized fact that the price received for butter is very largely influenced by its quality and this in great measure determined by the care given the cream from which it is made.

The bulletin commences with the health and feeding of the cows and follows the subject through the various stages of milking, separating, storing and delivering the cream, each section being dealt with from the standpoint of the man on the farm rather than of the official in an office.

The bulletin says: "Keeping the cream for longer than two days at the farms has, no doubt, much to do with the old cream favor so common in gathered cream butter, and we can scarcely expect to have this defect remedied so long as cream is gathered less than three times each week."

FATUOUS CRITICISM.

The Boston Transcript rises to protest that newspaper commentators in the United States do not attempt to stick to facts when dealing with a political opponent.

I wish that my room had a floor, I don't do much care for a door, But this walking around Without touching the ground Is getting to be such a bore.

We do not believe, says the Transcript, that plagiarism is one of Governor Wilson's sins. At least it has never before been charged against him, and the foregoing appeared in Golett Burgess's "Lark" some time before the governor had any need of it for personal application.

Apparently, however, Governor Wilson, rather than a liking for philosophy in this sugar-coated form occasionally, Professor Ford of the department of politics at Princeton, has a very appreciative sketch of him in the August Review of Reviews.

As a beauty I am not a star; There are others more handsome by far, But my face—I don't mind it, For I am behind it.

"There is no evidence," the Transcript stoutly maintains, "that Governor Wilson has laid claim to originality, impromptu or otherwise, in the use he has made of the humorist's work."

FREE TRADE THEORIES.

An instructive exhibition, indicating the practical character of the campaign for Tariff Reform in the Old Country, was given recently at the headquarters of the Tariff Reform League, in Manchester.

As part of the display, in answer to these claims, Mr. Lloyd George's statement at a dinner at the Trocadero Restaurant was quoted:

You cannot feed the hungry with statistics of national prosperity, or stop the pangs of famine by reciting to a man the prodigious number of cheques passed through the Clearing House.

Readers were then invited to observe the Free Trade Union's "bill of fare" for the "millions of men, women and children of the richest country in the world, who, according to Mr. George, 'go through life laden in poverty, wretchedness and despair.'"

Another exhibit was in the shape of two Singer's sewing machine catalogues, one obtained in Manchester, and the other in Berlin. Two identical machines were illustrated, of which the prices were £9 19s in England and £9 13s 6d in Germany.

As evidence of the unanimity which prevails between the two great political parties in Great Britain in welcoming the offer of the Dominion, the opinion of the Earl of Selborne, who was First Lord of the Admiralty for five years in the last Conservative Government, is worth quoting.

Speaking in the House of Lords regarding the naval situation, he said: "I have no hesitation in saying that their utterances concerning the Dominions form a landmark in the history of the world. I don't for one moment grudge that it has fallen to the lot of 'political opponents to be in office when the time came 'to say those words, because they are sentiments which 'we share to the full.'"

The Longshoremen's Association are asking the city that a shelter may be erected at Sand Point for protection from the cold weather during the winter season.

The announcement that players in the big leagues are contemplating the formation of a union for "protection" gives promise of interesting developments in the game.

It's time to think about glasses when you do not see as well as you should; when you suffer with headaches which medicines fail to relieve; or when your eyes fail to do a normal amount of work without tiring.

And when you think about glasses you should bear in mind that we have every facility for making accurate eye examinations, that we make up in our workroom all the glasses we sell, and that every pair is guaranteed to be correct.

PUGSLEY BOBS TO SURFACE AGAIN

Emerges from State of Suspended Animation on East Side of Obscurity to Boost Liberal Cause.

Mr. William Pugsley for some time past had been lying in a state of suspended animation on the east side of obscurity. The grasses of forgetfulness almost hid him in his portly form.

Mr. Pugsley's dictum seems odd. It is based on no whit of evidence. New Brunswick is more Tory than ever.

CHEAP FARES TO TORONTO EXHIBITION.

In connection with the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto, which will be held this year from August 24th until September 1st, the Intercolonial Railway will give very low excursion rates, which will give the opportunity to many to visit the "queen city" on the occasion of its great annual fête.

The Toronto Fair is the largest and most successful in Canada and the permanent buildings have been constructed and its extensive grounds are being landscaped.

From St. John the round trip will be $22.20, good going August 22, 24, 25, 27, 28, and September 4 and 5. A special rate of $16.30 will prevail on August 23 and 29, and on September 3 and 6.

THE WEATHER

Toronto, Aug. 7.—Local thunderstorms have occurred today in the southwestern counties of Ontario, but the weather from the great lakes to the Maritime Provinces has been mostly fine. In the west it has been for the most part fair and moderately warm.

AROUND THE CITY

Umbrella Found. An umbrella was found in King Square yesterday afternoon. The owner can have the same by applying at the central police station.

Slight Blaze. About six o'clock yesterday afternoon No. 4 company of the fire department was called out for a slight fire in the McLean Holt Co. Building. Only slight damage was done.

School Board to Meet. A special meeting of the school board will be called on Friday noon at three o'clock. At this meeting plans will be considered in connection with the visit of His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught.

To Fredericton in Motor Boat. Harry Black left yesterday morning in his motor boat, Helen B., for Fredericton. On the way up the river he will stop at the Cedars, where he will be joined by A. Welsh, the well known Boston bowler, and his friend. The party will spend a few days at Fredericton.

Wouldn't Go Home. Gunner White provided considerable excitement on Fort Howe Hill last evening when, under the influence of liquor he refused to go home when told by Policeman Linton. White then attempted to argue the matter with the result that he spent the night in North End police station.

Lightship Lurcher. The lightship maintained on the Lurcher Shoals, off Yarmouth, N. S., will be removed from her station on about the 31st August, 1912, to undergo necessary repairs, pending which her station will be shown by combined gas and whistling buoy, painted red and showing an occulting white light. The lightship will be off her station for about four weeks.

Changes in Hospital Staff. Dr. Thomas Walker, sr., presided at the monthly meeting of the hospital commissioners, held yesterday afternoon, when the routine business was transacted. During the past week there have been several changes in the staff at the hospital, as Dr. McVie, and Dr. Halsey has returned to his home at Digby. They are replaced by Dr. S. H. Adams, Dr. H. B. Warrier and Dr. S. C. Jones.

Prospective Investors Here. On the Montreal train last evening were two Toronto men, who have spent several days in the city looking over the opportunities for investment here. It is understood they represent several Torontonians who have invested heavily in the West, and are now looking to the eastern provinces for opportunities. It is also stated that they were well pleased with St. John, and something tangible is likely to result from their visit.

Notes the Progress. W. R. Burton, who left St. John 25 years ago and has since been engaged in the wallpaper business in New York, is spending a few days here. Mr. Burton is much impressed with the changes which have taken place in the city during the last quarter of a century, and says that the development here has attracted attention even in New York, particularly among the former residents of St. John who are now resident in that city. The opinion seems to prevail that St. John is about to come into her own and enjoy a period of prosperity such as has not been known since the palmy days when wooden shipbuilding was in its prime.

Going Some, Eh? The following is a comparative statement of automobiles imported into Canada from the United States during 1909 to 1911, as compiled by the Department of Commerce and Labor:

IN THE COURTS

The Supreme Court. Two writs in actions for damages were issued from the supreme court, Aug. 2.

The first of these was in a suit of the administratrix of J. A. Ryder against the St. John Street Railway Company. The amount claimed is $2,400. HOLIDAY TO MARK VISIT OF CONNAUGHT

Many Functions of Interest Planned For the Nineteenth

IMPORTANT OCCASION

Little Likelihood of Repetition of Old Home Week Fiasco—Royal Welcome for Royal Visitors.

Monday, the 19th inst., the important day in connection with the visit of His Royal Highness will be a public holiday. The official proclamation declaring the day a holiday will be made today by His Worship Mayor Frink.

As there are to be many functions on that day which will interest the citizens all of whom will no doubt be desirous of participating in the welcome of the Governor General and party, the proclamation of the holiday will assuredly be met with approval.

Although one day of the Old Home Week was expected to have been observed as a holiday there was no official proclamation, and while a few of the merchants met the wishes of the mayor in regard to the matter, the majority kept their business places open as usual.

In connection with the visit of His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, accompanied by the Princess Patricia, it is understood that the Royal party will visit the General Hospital, the Protestant Orphan Asylum and the House for Incubables. If this rumor should prove to be true the different buildings will undoubtedly be decorated in honor of the occasion and a short programme arranged at each.

Already an excellent programme is being arranged for the entertainment of the Royal visitors and it is certainly up to the citizens of the city of the Loyalists to make their visit a memorable occasion both for the citizens themselves and for the party. It should be true that a visit to these public institutions is included in the programme the occasion should be a red letter day in the history of each.

Cost of Dressing Reduced 35 p. c. Do not be skeptical. We have carefully investigated this matter and find that the average person can reduce their dress bill at least 35 p. c. by having their old garments dyed or Dry Cleaned. Hundreds of people are doing this. Why not you? TRY UNGAR'S, 25 Waterloo street.

Dependable Silks. To buy silks is one thing and to buy Dependable Silks is another. You can buy silks everywhere, but the dependable silks that are on sale at F. A. Dykeman & Co.'s store, 38 and 39 inches wide at 97 cents a yard, make the biggest silk bargain to be had in St. John. They are rich, weighty, lustrous, faultless in black and colors and of a texture that will give the best of satisfaction in wear. The extreme wide widths enable you to cut the garment much more economical than from the narrower goods.

RECALLS HORRORS OF IROQUOIS DISASTER

Visitor to City Eye-witness of Awful Sights when Chicago Theatre Burned—Hundreds Lost Lives.

The horrors of the Iroquois Theatre disaster in Chicago about nine years ago, when hundreds of people were burned to death or crushed in the panic which ensued when the fire was discovered are recalled through the visit to this city of Lee Parvin, business manager of the Red Rose musical company which will be produced here next week.

Mr. Parvin was in Chicago at the time of the fire and was engaged with an attraction playing in another theatre. On the afternoon of the fire he was within a few blocks of the Iroquois when the alarm went in, and hastening at once to the scene as an eye witness of some of the awful sights following the disaster which evoked such a feeling of indignation throughout the entire country, and which was in a large measure responsible for the taking of precautions to make theatres everywhere as near fireproof as possible.

At the time of the disaster the Iroquois Theatre was occupied with a company playing Mr. Bluebeard, a big musical show. The fire occurred during a matinee performance and when the alarm was raised the large audience at once rushed for the exits. Hundreds were crushed to death in the mad rush for the outer air and the disaster went down in history as one of the most appalling in America.

THOUGHT HE SAW THE "MANAWAGONISH GHOST"

West End Man Has an Experience on a Lonely Drive which at First Promised Mystery.

A solitary West End man who had occasion to drive in the Manawagonish Road at a late hour one night this week thought for a time that he had managed to raise the "Manawagonish ghost" which enjoyed a brief time in the popular imagination several years ago. Just outside of Fairville on a particular dark part of the road he was startled by something white moving along just off the roadside, while at the same time groans as if from a person in death agony were heard across the still night.

He looked once, then looked again and at the second glance his hair did stand "like quills upon a fretful porcupine." There was no mistake about it. He had seen a ghost.

Keeping pace with the man came an easy walk and but a few yards from the roadside moved the mysterious figure. When he advanced to the team to investigate for his curiosity was then even greater than his fright. When he advanced to the roadside the object stopped and a few steps further explained the mystery. The "ghost" was nothing more than a wandering cow with a large sheet of white paper across her back, although how the paper got there is almost as great a mystery as if the ghost had been real.

YELLOW MAN SENDS THE PRICES SOARING

Oriental Must Have Modern Footwear, So Whites Must Pay More—Leather Goes Up Ten Per Cent.

From time to time men of high and low degree have made long speeches about the great danger of the yellow peril, while people who own the world do not take notice of the automobile, and again the trade unions insist that workmen shall have higher wages. Now it has come to pass that these intonances, working together have managed to hold the price of shoe leather ten per cent.

This statement follows the announcement yesterday that after September 1st the price of leather will be notched up ten per cent.

Fall shoes will cost the consumer just fifty cents per pair more than he pays for his springtime riches, and the alleged reason for this is that the Chinese and Japanese have adopted civilization to such an extent that the majority of them have taken to wearing western shoes of the latest styles. That the yellow peril is assuming larger proportions is assured by the fact that if every Oriental wore shoes all the white people would have to go barefooted.

Goat is Obsolete. The styles have changed. Ten years ago the goat supplied 90 per cent. of all shoes manufactured. Now this animal only supplies 15 per cent. Ten years ago "dongola" was the real class of footwear. Now nearly every body wants calf, which is an ideal material. But as hides are only a by-product with the ranchers anyway, a larger supply is not to be obtained. In defense of the cattle ranchers it might be said that if they were to raise calves, which is an ideal material, the demand for the people would all be vegetarians in a short time.

The automobile also assisted to reduce the price of shoes. This is proved by the following logical reasoning: There are 500,000 people in the world who invest in an automobile each year. Each machine has three hides in its make-up. That means a million and a half of hides per year, and as a million and a half of hides would make a considerable number of shoes, so the price goes up accordingly.

PASSING OF THE MISSION BOARD

United Baptist Body Held Last Meeting Yesterday and is Now Section of Canadian Board.

At the meeting of the United Baptist Foreign Mission Board routine matters were taken up. The preliminary report of the secretary treasurer was presented and will be adopted at a special meeting which will be held when the accounts shall have been closed.

Yesterday's meeting was the last of an independent board, as it will in future be known as the eastern section of the Canadian Mission Board. The headquarters of the new central board will be at Toronto, but the local board will still continue as a dependent body. The old Baptist Mission Board has been in existence since 1873 when the first missionaries were sent out by it, going to India.

FIRE MEN HAD THE TIME OF THEIR LIVES

Members of Local Department Well Received in Capital

WERE HIGHLY PRAISED

Excellent Showing Made and Handsomely Decorated Cart Captivated People of Fredericton.

The St. John firemen will return this morning from Fredericton where they participated in the big parade yesterday and captured the prize of $25 for the best decorated piece of apparatus in the procession. When it is considered that the local men from all over New Brunswick, as well as those from Halifax and Amherst, they have cause for congratulation on the fine showing made. Chief Kerr, himself a native of Fredericton, accompanied the St. John men and saw to it that they enjoyed the trip to the utmost.

A telephone message from one of the boys last night said that the Fredericton people, and particularly the members of the Fredericton fire department did their best to give the visitors from St. John the time of their lives, and the boys have nothing but words of praise for the hospitality shown them.

The piece of fire apparatus taken to the capital by the local firemen was instantly recognized in yesterday's procession as the prize winner, and was greeted with outbursts of applause all along the line of march. It was judged by many as being one of the prettiest ever seen in Fredericton, and the men had a good right to feel proud of it.

The cart that represented St. John and was that of No. 1 Salvage Corps and Fire Police, and it alone is a fine looking piece of apparatus, while the decorations were in excellent taste. Purple prevailed with here and there a touch of white.

A Handsome Display. Over the body of the cart was a high topped canopy, the lines being made of purple chrysanthemums, and this was surmounted by a huge gold crown. In the base of the crown was a small globe of apparatus, while the sides were decorated with white chrysanthemums. In the centre of the base was a gold basin, in which was a small fountain, and in the basin were a number of natural water lilies, and hanging over the side of this was a number of ferns. From the top of the canopy to the brass railings of the cart were a number of streamers of purple satin ribbon, and these were decorated with purple flowers. Over the driver's seat was an arch outlined with purple chrysanthemums, and in the centre in large gold letters were the words "St. John." From the rear step to the tailboard of the cart was a banner with purple flowers, and in the centre were the letters "S. C. & F. P." The apparatus was hauled by the St. John firemen, who have a most beautiful bay, and with shining harness he was crooked in such a manner which shows the great care in the construction of the apparatus, takes of him.

As the St. John apparatus passed along the broad streets it was greeted with loud applause.

Highly Commended. While the St. John cart came in for the largest share of praise during the morning parade, the thousands of people who lined the route of procession were given a great surprise when it appeared in the night procession, for it was richly illuminated.

The old Chinese lanterns and the oil lamps were a thing of the past to the St. John boys, for they appeared in line with their apparatus brilliantly lighted with small electric lights, and they were not faking lights, but the real things.

In the helmet box under the driver's seat was a large battery, and from this the power was sent to nearly one hundred of the small lamps that were used in the decorations. The arch over the driver's seat, the rear step of the cart and the outlines of the canopy, as well as the crown, were studded with lights, and a light was also used as a taper for the white bell under the crown. The effect was rich and brilliant, and was received with well merited praise and admiration.
