

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

BRITISH AMERICAN LEAGUE.—A meeting of this Association was held at Quebec, on the 19th inst., at which some interesting scenes occurred. The Morning Chronicle thus alludes to the subject:—

By our paper of yesterday there was an account of the proceedings of the first meeting of the British American League. By that account a considerable difference of opinion among the members of the League must have been apparent. No two seemed to agree upon anything, except this, that the country was in a most wretched commercial state; that some change was needed, and that change speedily. Few men, born in Britain or Ireland, and in the habit of boasting of their birth, from their cradle up, can be expected to relinquish instantly the very pride of being a British subject. It is not natural. There are ties of blood and some heartstrings which bind us in spite of ourselves to the mother country. There is no abandoning suddenly the land of the brave, the home of the free. Only the very worst treatment from the treatment from the present state, only the direst misfortunes could make a really loyal man think of annexation—a man would as soon change his religion as change his flag. We trust that it is the desire of very few indeed, that Canada should be annexed to the American Union; annexation might increase our taxes; there might be a railroad in Canada, bridges and canals in abundance; but these would be made by strangers and enjoyed by strangers; if Canada prospered it would not be on account of her annexation, but because a new people had taken possession of her and were profiting thereby, a people knowing the advantages of these railroads and canals. Canada has been suffering, as Mr. Wilson expresses it, from bad legislation, and here is the real British League should then be an auxiliary legislature, should point out that which is wanted, and agitate until the Lords and Commons know it and carry out their wishes. This country must not be weighed down by antiquated prejudices and cruel opinions; it must have signs of progress and new life; there must be energy, a renewed energy on the part of the British party, so they may shake off the incubus which oppresses them. Attention must be given specially to that which we can do ourselves; we ought to manufacture our own cloth, grow our own corn, and build ships for ourselves. In all local concerns we should, not only be permitted to govern ourselves, but we should actually do so. With the Lower Provinces we should be joined, so that it would be the interest as well as the duty of every British American, to foster and encourage improvements in every corner of British America. The League is calculated to do much good or much harm.

In the Montreal Herald there is an account taken from the Toronto Examiner of a singular action at law tried at the Home District Assizes—Brown vs. Stone. The plaintiff was a slave who had escaped from slavery, and who on reaching Toronto, wrote a letter to his master stating that he left him by compulsion, and if he would tell him where he would find the defendant, he (the plaintiff) would meet or follow him, as he was determined to go home. Upon this the defendant came to Toronto and saw the plaintiff, who agreed to return, upon his master giving him an undertaking that he would pay him wages, which he did. Soon after this, and late at night, the defendant was arrested upon an affidavit of the plaintiff, that the defendant was indebted to him in the sum of $500 for wages due for past services, and that defendant was about to leave the Province to defraud him of his debt. The defendant put in bail and returned home. The jury gave a verdict for the defendant without leaving the box, it being evidently an unprincipled and singular attempt of the negro to "raise the wind."

The Crop in Pennsylvania.—The Harrisburg Telegraph gives most cheering accounts of the growing crop, and it adds that if the farmers should have good weather to gather in, the amount will be as great as the best of the seasons we have had for years.

RESULTS FROM CALIFORNIA.—The receipts of specie in New York, from California, swell the accounts of duties received at that port, of the funds of the sub-treasury, and of specie in the banks, to a remarkable amount. The following is the account of the receipts of one day:—

Table with 2 columns: Description, Amount. Amount of duties received, $64,145; Deposits, 5,150; Received in the sub-treasury, 260,011; Balance, 1,120,733.

The Journal of Commerce says:—The numerous arrivals of specie here from California and other quarters, as well as the favorable rates of the foreign exchange, have swollen up the amount of coin in our Banks to a very large sum. There is a gain in the precious metal in the bank rates to this day, since the last accounts, of $1,362,000, when the amount was $5,238,000.

By Southern Telegraph to-day, we have accounts from Texas which state that a large number of emigrants, on their way to the gold regions of California, had been attacked by the Indians, and five hundred murdered. The Cholera is increasing most fearfully at the West.

During the 45 hours ending yesterday, there were two hundred and fifty-five deaths at St. Louis, Mo.

At Cincinnati, Ohio, yesterday, there were eighty-four deaths by Cholera, and the epidemic is largely on the increase.

At Philadelphia, on Sunday, there were 24 cases of Cholera, and 10 deaths.

In Commercial matters, there is no change reported—business is dull and the weather excessively hot.

DEATHS FOR THE CHOLERA.—Lord P. has in a letter published in the British Journal says that in his own knowledge, this dread complaint has proved a certain cure for cholera, both in Paris and Germany, and if taken in time the cure is generally effected before it is possible to procure a physician. The following is the recipe:—

Recipe.—One and a half ounce of spirit of wine; one-quarter ounce of camphor dissolved in the wine. Get a small vial of spirits of hartshorn.

Directions.—First give a teaspoonful of hartshorn in a wine glass of water. Begin immediately and give five drops of spirit of wine, (camphor) filling the tea spoon with cold water and a little sugar. Repeat this every five minutes until you have given three doses. Then wait fifteen minutes, and commence again as before, and continue half an hour, unless there is returning heat. Should this be the case, give one dose more, and the cure is effected. Let patients perspire freely, as on this life depends, but add no additional clothing.

The Morning Chronicle, in noticing the erection of the Magnetic Telegraph, says, it is rather a remarkable fact, that it is not within a very few weeks, scarcely one hundred years since, these remarkable discoveries were made in electric fluid that have caused the name of Dr. Benjamin Franklin to be memorable in history. North America was the scene of these discoveries in 1749.

The Yarmouth Herald says, that the corner stone of the new Congregational Church was laid in that town on the 17th ult. in the midst of a concourse of people.

The Weather at P. E. Island.—For the last month past we have had the weather unusually cold for this season of the year, scarcely a night passing over without frost, and that by appearance of the trees in some places in the woods of a very severe nature. It has been very dry, and for the last fortnight there has been a regular drizzle, every day do we hear of rains, dews, fogs, &c. being destroyed in various parts of the country; indeed, the atmosphere, has been quite clouded with smoke for days past. Vegetation is progressing but slow. The middle of June is at hand, and we may say we have not had one really warm day until to-day.

The effect of the continued dry weather is painfully observable on the crops; the grain looks very indifferently, and the grass much worse. We fear, the crops will suffer materially if we do not soon have rain. Saturday June 15.

From the New Brunswick Extra of Thursday last, 28th June.

Arrival of the Steamship

Hibernia.

The steamship Hibernia, Capt. Stone, arrived at Halifax yesterday afternoon, and the Express reached the City about 9 o'clock this morning. The Hibernia brings 90 passengers—22 for Halifax.

The Caledonia was seen on Sunday morning, and would reach Liverpool on Tuesday morning.

Debate on Canadian Affairs.—On the 12th a discussion took place in the House of Commons on the recent act to provide compensation for rebellion losses in Canada, but the subject was finally postponed to Friday evening, when it was resumed, and at the latest accounts from London was proceeding.

The Command in North America.—It is reported that Lieut. Gen Sir John Harvey, the last Governor of Nova Scotia, is to succeed the late Sir Benj. D'Urban as commander of the forces in British North America. No successor has yet been named to the colony of the 51st foot.

The cholera is alarmingly prevalent in France.

Marshal Bugeaud died of cholera at Paris, on Friday.

Accounts from Germany state that the insurgents have defeated the Bavarian and Hessian troops at Bergstrasse, and driven them back to Hensheim.

Owing to the stirring events on the Continent to which the week has given birth, business has somewhat receded, though not to the extent which would have been apprehended. The markets for Cotton and Broadstuffs have maintained more than an average firmness, and although the transactions will not justify bear comparison with those of the preceding week, quotations have been well supported.

The accounts from Manchester report no change of any moment since Tuesday. Upon the whole the market wears a healthy aspect.

The National Securities have been firm throughout the week, notwithstanding the attempted revival of insurrectionary turbulence in France, and the distracted condition of Central Europe. The funds maintained an upward tendency since Monday, closing firm last night. Consols 92 1/2 for special transfer, and 91 1/2 for account, without the dividend. Exchequer bills, 42 to 46 premium. Bank stock firm at 194. In the foreign Market transactions have been limited.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

The Corn market has been steady during the week, but with only a moderate amount of business passing. Flour slightly in advance on the 25th, best Western Canal being at 23s per barrel; Ohio, 21s to 24s 6d; Baltimore, 23s 6d at 24s.

Wheat in advance 1/2d, at 2d per bushel; Canadian 6s 1d, at 6s.

Corn Meal dull at 15s, 6d at 16s per bushel. Provisional beef sold in a retail way, but without advance.

Pork, Western Prime Mess active, all other qualities dull.

Bacon, firm with extensive sales.

Hams, in fair demand, but at irregular prices.

LIVERPOOL TIMBER MARKET.

Timber still remains inactive; a fair consumption of Deals, however, is taking place, but at extremely low prices, nor is there any prospect of the rising as long as the present average supplies continue. Staves are dropping in value as the near approach of the import season advances.

PARLIAMENTARY.

The two houses of Parliament have now given their sanction to the Navigation bill, the measure having passed the House of Lords on Tuesday, and before we go to press we fully anticipate that the royal sanction will be given to the final abolition of the Navigation laws.

The Bishop of Oxford (Wilberforce) made an excellent attempt to exclude Brazil from the operation of the measure, in order to prevent Liverpool ships from proceeding to Rio, thence to Africa for slaves, and making a return voyage by way of Rio to Liverpool, but only nine peers shared in the alarm of the bishop of this course of trade, and his proposition was rejected by a large majority. The Parliamentary Oaths bill, to enable Jews to sit in Parliament, has passed the Commons by 272 to 206, which is a somewhat larger majority than the Tories mustered on the division last session. Ourselves are very doubtful.

Lord Palmerston, in very explicit terms, has denied that we are in any way, connected in the intervention of the French in the Roman territories; that he only recommended diplomatic intervention, having for its object the return of the Pope to Rome, but to promote a good understanding with his subjects, based upon practical and real separation between the spiritual and temporal authorities.

A select committee has been appointed, to inquire into the practice of receivers appointed under the Courts of Chancery and Exchequer in Ireland.

Mr. Disraeli has given notice that on next Tuesday week he shall move that the House do resolve itself into committee to take into consideration the state of the nation. We only mention from this notice a field day upon agricultural affairs.

IRELAND.

The state prisoners yet remaining in Richmond bridge, and from a new point that has been raised on their behalf, are likely to be so for some time longer. They were to have been removed by the Trident to sea in a boat from Dublin to Cove, there to be placed on board the convict ship for Australia. The commander of the Trident had received orders to proceed from Kingston to the entrance of the harbor at the North Wall, in order to take Mr. Smith O'Brien and his followers on board on Saturday night, and have all in readiness for sailing at daylight the following morning. The prisoners had received the necessary official information respecting their intended removal, and they had, in consequence, made all needful preparations on Saturday evening. A large body of mounted police was ordered to be in attendance at Richmond bridge, but about nine o'clock counter orders were issued to the commander of the Trident, as well as to the police, and the state prisoners have since remained in their old quarters. It appears that Mr. S. O'Brien took steps to protest against the commutation of his sentence to transportation for life.

THE IRISH STATE PRISONERS.

It seems that Mr. Smith O'Brien has obtained high legal opinion that no commutation of the sentence for high treason can take place unless the prisoners should be a consenting party. At all events, there has been a suspension of the order for the removal of the state prisoners to the convict ship.

Mr. O'Brien is not alone in his glory yet, nor is he likely to be, if the point already mentioned—which he raised—be good for anything. All the others sentenced protest against the mitigated punishment of transportation.

It is contended by the prisoners that such a short of a new act of parliament can ward off their transportation. If they refuse to go away they cannot be executed, according to the sentence, inasmuch as the Queen has regularly signed the commutation. After all, the Court of Queen's Bench may make short work of the matter.

The Dublin Commission Court opened on Thursday, but Mr. Gavan Duffy's case was not adjourned to the judge who charged the grand jury.

It appears that insurrection has again broken out in Cork. Several cases are reported.

ATTEMPTED INSURRECTION IN PARIS—AND ARREST OF NUMEROUS MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY.

The news from France is of an exciting character. The Montagnards, headed by Ledru-Rollin, have made an unsuccessful attempt to incite the people to revolt. Mr. Ledru-Rollin having made a violent speech on Monday, denouncing the flagrant invasion of Rome by the French troops, was answered by Odillon Barrot, but Ledru-Rollin not desisting, the Minister's reply was declared "that the Constitution had been violated, and that he and his friends would defend it by every possible means, cetera de ordine." This produced a scene of tumult, which Mr. Thiers said that all discussion was impossible after an appeal to arms had been threatened, and upon a division upon the order of the day, there appeared in favour 381, against 233, so Ministers showed a majority of 158.

LATEST FROM FRANCE.

Paris, Thursday Evening.—Reported Arrest of Ledru-Rollin.—A letter from a well-informed quarter says—"The triumph of the Government and the friends of order (among whom you must reckon Cavaignac and all his party) is complete. The insurrection of the Socialist and Red Republican faction is demoralized. Their leaders have shown themselves to be great cowards as regards Ledru-Rollin, Boichot, Batiot, and a host more have taken to the flight. The Government has, however, succeeded in capturing Ledru-Rollin at Valenciennes."

THE WAR IN ITALY.

Accounts from Rome state that General Oudinot, having got rid of M. Lesseps, broke the convention which the latter had signed, and advanced to the western suburbs of Rome for the purpose of effecting an entrance by the gate, St. Pancras. After a pretty sharp contest, the Romans appear to have both overpowered and lost some prisoners, who were sent off immediately in Corsica, but the French also suffered considerably, and only contrived to gain a precarious position in the suburbs of Corsini and Panfil, Garibaldi was harassing the French the whole time, and very nearly turned the flanks of the assailants. It is plain from the despatches of the General, dated the 5th and 6th of June, at Villa Sanctori, that he has opened his trenches and regularly besieged the city.

ROME.

MARSEILLES, June 11, 11 o'clock P.M.—The following is a copy of a despatch since instant received from London:—

Advices have been received from Rome to the effect that the French troops were masters of all the positions taken by them on the 3rd and part of which had been retaken by the Romans. The fighting lasted three days; the loss of life on both sides is considerable. General Oudinot has decided on getting possession of Fort St. Angelo, the works are already advanced to within 300 yards of the fort. The French suffered much from the intense heat, which had broken out in the city.

We have intelligence from Civita Vecchia of the 7th inst., at which time every thing at Rome was in status quo, the French not having entered the city.

IMPORTANT FROM HUNGARY.

From Vienna and Hungary there is little news. No further fighting had taken place. A large body of Russians is stated to have entered Presburg, and subsequently advanced into the island of Schutte. Prince Paskievich has issued a proclamation to the Hungarians, the purport of which is, that if no resistance is offered, the Russian will be as friends; if on the contrary they are determined to resist, the Hungarians will be treated as enemies.

The Magyar Government is making every effort to induce the people, and has ordered all clergymen to preach against the Russians.

THE CHOLERA.

A notification from the Board of Health appears in the Gazette of the 12th, announcing the re-appearance of the cholera in various and distant places in England, Wales, and Scotland.

From returns which accompany this notification it appears that since the latter end of March, cholera has broken out in 12 different localities in the metropolis, in 27 towns in England and, and in 17 towns in Scotland; and that in several of these places, as in Southampton, Liverpool, London, Haverhill, Gloucester, Koyntam, Bath, Merthyr Tydfil, Cardiff, Kilmarnock, Galashiels, Kelso, and Dundee, the disease has continued to spread.

At Paris the epidemic has raged to a more destructive degree than it did in 1832. It is making frightful ravages in Egypt, in the cities of Alexandria and Cairo.

Its simultaneous appearance at these distant spots favours the theory that it is mainly owing to some electric causes in the atmosphere.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

Madame Catalani, the celebrated singer died at Paris recently of cholera.

A considerable quantity of hoops has been imported Newcastle from Holland.

A vessel called the Jane, which has sailed from Liverpool for Africa carried out about a dozen methodist missionaries.

The total of the sums insured at all the fire offices in England during the year 1845, on farming stock exempt from duty, was £28,573,895.

Several of the farmers in the neighborhood of Liverpool have already sold their recently planted potato fields to speculators in the south at the rate of £15 per cent.

Lord Stanley has paid the passage money of a great number of his poor Irish tenants, provided them with clothes, given a small sum of money to each, and sent them off in America.

Garibaldi, the Roman commander, is described as a most picturesque warrior, the ideal of a brigand—eminently handsome, with a red blouse, broad belt full of pistols, wide-brimmed hat, and green trowsers. According to letters from Cyprus, dated on the 27th of April, the great distress prevailed in that island in consequence of the ravages committed by flights of locusts, which had wasted the crops.

Sir James Graham, it is stated, has withdrawn his name from the Carlton Club, and that that the recent proceedings in Parliament have banished all idea of the Protectionists again co-operating with the Peelites.

In a charge delivered by the Archbishop of York at Thirsk, on Monday, he said—"This much, was quite clear, that the 6th Edward and in that of Elizabeth, held the peculiar doctrines of Calvin, almost without exception on election, predestination, and final reprobation."

European Intelligence.

By the Steamship Hibernia we are in possession of one week's later intelligence from Europe. The news continues of much interest. The Continent remains in an unsettled state. The Red Republicans in France have attempted another revolution, headed by Ledru-Rollin, which had signally failed. Paris has been declared in a state of siege.

There has been more fighting at Rome, in which the Roman loss is estimated at 100 killed and 450 wounded—the French are reported to have lost 2,000.

Business generally was not so brisk as reported by last mail, but upon the whole the market were a healthy aspect.

The English Mail which reached St. John on Thursday morning last, was not received here until Saturday evening, nearly 60 hours after its arrival there, a fair sample trial of the Postal arrangements in this Province.

Collecting with an intelligent friend upon this outrageous delay, he suggested, that a subscription paper should be opened at once, and all who feel any interest in receiving the English Mail in St. Andrew's and St. Stephen's should subscribe for the purpose of engaging a competent person, with a pair of horses and light wagon to convey the English papers and letters from St. John to St. Andrew's, on such days as they may arrive after the regular mail has left that city. The cost for conveying the mail up to January next would be trifling when compared with the present delay. It has been ascertained that this service could be performed for a small sum weekly or fortnightly as the case may be. We trust some of our business men will move in the matter at once.

Lectures.—On the evening of the 25th & 26th ult., Mr. J. C. Winterbottom, who has been for many years an Agent of the British and Foreign Temperance Society, delivered two very impressive and interesting lectures to crowded and attentive auditors in the Town Hall. The Lecturer from his extensive experience was well qualified to state the awful amount of crime which directly or indirectly resulted from the use of intoxicating liquors. He also showed the great havoc made on human life by intemperance—and demonstrated in the clearest manner the many evils arising from what is continually termed moderate drinking, and completely refuted every argument that has been advanced in favor of the practice. He also showed that the greatest blessings had resulted in consequence of total abstinence—both to individuals and communities.

The lectures were interspersed with a few pleasing temperance odes, which were admirably sung by the lecturer, assisted by some ladies and gentlemen from the different choirs in this place.

Our townsmen, Mr. W. Plessante, kindly presided at the Piano, and with his usual ability played a number of beautiful pieces, arranged for the occasion, and we here remark, in justice to Mr. Plessante, that any thing we could say, would be but a poor compliment to a gentleman of his acknowledged taste, &c.

Intelligence.
Hitherto we are in possession of late intelligence from the continent of Europe in an unbroken series of news from France, which has been received, led by the Parisian signal, Paris in a state of siege, no fighting at Rome, no loss is estimated at 100,000—The French are retreating.

which reached St. John last, was not received, nearly 60 hours before a fair sample of the news in this Province.
