WHAT OTTAWAY AVENUE WILL LOOK LIKE WHEN MEDICAL SCHOOL AND OTHER PROPOSED NEW BUILDINGS ARE COMPLETE

View is looking westward from Colborne street. On the south are the present hospital buildings. On the north, No. 14 is the proposed new Nurses' Home; No. 12 is the new Children's Hospital, and No. 13 is the Medical School, now under course of construction.

G. T. R. SUPERINTENDENT HAS RECOMMENDED EXPENDITURE OF $350,000 IN THIS DISTRICT

Two New Stations To Be Built and Improvements Made To Local One — Paris to London Rails To Be Replaced With 100-Pound Ones.

Superintendent C. F. Forrester of the Grand Trunk announced, upon his return to the city from the east today, that he had recommended the expenditure of approximately $350,000 on new stations and other improvements in this district to the head office at Montreal. Mr. Forrester stated that the greatest amount will be spent on the laying of new 100-pound rails between here and Paris, on a stretch 50 miles long. These rails will also be placed on 35 miles of track between here and Sarnia.

Two New Stations.

Two new stations will be erected, one at Clandeboye at a cost of several thousand dollars and another at Hawtree, on the Port Dover line. Mr. Forrester's estimates also call for the remodelling of fifteen stations in the London division.

There will be several thousand dollars spent on improvements in this city, according to Mr. Forrester's announcement. Most of this will be done in the east end of the city, where the new reclamation yards will be erected. Improvements will also be made to the Richmond street depot, if his estimates are approved.

It was at first believed that no action would be taken by the company on the estimates of the divisional superintendents on account of the liability of the government taking over the road. Immediate action is now considered probable, however, for local officials say that the government will not take over the road before nine months at the earliest. Most of the improvements will have to be made this summer, it is stated.

BRITISH AND U. S. OFFICERS TAKEN BY BOLSHEVIKI

Capture Is Believed To Have Taken Place West of Irkutsk.

London, Jan. 29.—Eight American and two British officers are believed to have fallen into the hands of the Bolsheviki, according to the Daily Mail's correspondent at Harbin, whose statement does not give details, and is not precise. It apparently indicates that the capture of the officers occurred to the west of Irkutsk, but no date is given.

The dispatch adds that Gen. Semenoff's force has been reduced by desertion to about 2,000, that the fact of Admiral Kolchak's collapse may be taken as a fact, and that virtually the whole of the population of Siberia is ready to accept Bolshevism.

AUTOMOBILE OWNERS TO BE REQUIRED TO PAY HIGHER INSURANCE RATE

Thefts and Accidents Have Doubled In Past Few Years.

New York, Jan. 30.—Sharp increases in premiums paid by automobile owners for insurance against theft and accident are to be announced shortly by the eastern conference of the National Automobile Underwriters, it was stated today in insurance circles. The underwriters were said to be wavering between an increase of 40 per cent and one of 50 per cent.

Automobile insurance men declare that thefts and accidents have more than doubled within the past few years, and that only a generous increase of rates can save them from being forced out of business. Owners of automobiles are blamed in part for the condition, the assertion being made that car owners who carry insurance "sit back and let the insurance companies do the worrying about accidents and thefts."

OBJECT TO DAYLIGHT SAVING.

Kentville, N. S., Jan. 30.—The Nova Scotia Farmers' Association, in annual session here yesterday, unanimously passed a resolution opposing the enactment of any so-called daylight saving law by the Legislature of Nova Scotia or the Parliament of Canada, and strongly protested against the railways advancing the clocks one hour.

CANADA'S RECORD IN GREAT WAR IS ONE OF WHICH TO BE PROUD

London, Jan. 30.—Revised figures compiled by British statisticians on the contributions of the various allied nations to the fighting forces during the war, place Canada well in the lead of the overseas dominions not employing native troops. The Dominion is credited with 640,886 effectives, Australia coming next in the list with 416,809. India's army composed largely of native troops, was 1,401,350.

The statement shows that Great Britain during the period of the war placed a grand total of 8,654,467 men in the field. The contribution of the United States was 2,000,000 men.

The casualties of the troops of the British Empire, including Canada, India, Australia and other colonies, total: Killed, 851,117; missing and prisoners, 142,057; wounded, 2,067,442.

U. S. FIRMS OFFERING TO COVER DISCOUNT TO MAINTAIN TRADE

Connecticut Jewelry Company Agrees To Accept Canadian Checks At Par.

REGRETS HIGH RATES

American Business Houses Notice Decided Falling Off in Trade.

Quebec, Jan. 30.—The fact that the exchange rate between Canada and the United States is beginning to worry some of the American merchants, who find orders from Canada dropping off as a result, was emphasized here yesterday by a letter received by a Quebec jeweler from a cutlery manufacturing firm in Connecticut. The letter inclosed a price list and said in part:

"We have decided to issue this price list to our Canadian wholesale distributors on the same basis as to our United States wholesale distributors, and as further evidence of our desire to cooperate in these difficult times we have decided for the present and until further notice to accept Canadian checks at par in payment of our invoices. We want to make it as easy as possible for our friends to do business with us, and hope that the present unfavorable exchange conditions will shortly right themselves.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Winnipeg, Jan. 29.—Twelve alleged hold-up men who have been terrorizing citizens all winter with brutal and petty holdups, are under arrest tonight. On other occasions Chinese laundrymen were tied to each other and beaten without mercy after being gagged. Police said autos were used by the gang.

C. P. R. LIKELY TO DOUBLE TRACK ROAD FROM HERE TO GUELPH JCT. DURING YEAR, OFFICIALS DECLARE

Plan Not Yet Approved by Head Office, But Need Is Urgent As Traffic Is Hampered— London To Windsor Probably Will Be Similarly Treated.

The double-tracking of the C. P. R. Railway between here and Guelph Junction will likely be included in the plans for the coming year, according to local officials of the road. Owing to the heavy traffic between here and the Royal City, it is understood that the officials at Montreal realize that it is most essential that another track be laid, and in all probability work will be commenced during the coming summer. It is planned to have a double track between Toronto and Windsor during the next few years.

Not Yet Approved.

The double-tracking of the 73 miles between here and Guelph would mean the expenditure of many thousand dollars. So far the plan has not been approved by the head office of the road, but it is a common secret in railway circles that the company will do this work as soon as possible.

During the past few years the traffic between Toronto and Windsor has increased greatly, and the company has already double-tracked the section between Toronto and Guelph. The traffic between here and that city has been greatly hampered during the past year or more by the single track between here and Guelph, and at times it has been exceedingly difficult to keep the freight traffic moving between these two points.

Need Is Urgent.

Certain officials of the road were surprised that the expenditures approved of by the officials at Montreal, as announced yesterday, did not provide for the double-tracking of the entire road between Toronto and Windsor. They point out that if the road is to compete successfully with the G. T. R., which already has double-track between Toronto and the border, it will be absolutely necessary to lay the extra track.

Some Sections Ready.

Between London and Windsor there are sections which are already double-tracked, therefore it will not be necessary to lay new track over the entire 111 miles between here and Windsor. It is also believed that the Border City will benefit by extensive improvements there during the coming year.

At the present time, the old C. P. R. passenger station at that city is closed, and the C. P. R. is using the M. C. R. depot, which is a good two miles from the centre of the city. The ferry system at the border is no longer used by the C. P. R. for passenger trains, but those trains go through the M. C. R. tunnel to Detroit.

SOLDIER CHAUFFEUR MAKES HIS WAY TO LONDON WITH CAR DESPITE SNOWDRIFTS BLOCKING THE ROADS

Drives His Auto Over Street Railway Route and Says the Roads of France Were Worse At Times.

"Where there's a will there's a way," goes an old adage, and the will of the motor truck driver snowed up at the Byron "San" found a way on Thursday afternoon to get his Red Cross bus to London, although the Pipe Line road was piled high with snow drifts and had not heard the honk of a motor car for weeks.

Mr. Chauffeur drove the machine to the Byron street car loop, and from there ambled the ties to London.

Motorman Arthur Rockett, who guides the destinies of the Springbank car, threw on the brakes with a jerk when he saw a huge motor truck flash round the curve near Woodland Cemetery and bear down on him. When asked if the going was not a bit bumpy the motorist replied that it had been a lot worse in France, and he did not mind it. However, several companions did, and they abandoned their trip on the spot to continue it in the Springbank pullman.

The chauffeur continued the trip to the city, changing from one set of tracks to the other whenever he saw fit. The rocky road to Dublin, he declared, had nothing on the bumpy road to London, via the street railway track.

LLOYD GEORGE WILL SUGGEST REFERENDUM ON NATIONALIZATION

Coal Mines Question May Be Left To Electors To Decide.

London, Jan. 30.—Premier Lloyd George is about to offer the miners a proposition that a referendum of the 20,000,000 electors of Great Britain bo taken on the question of the nationalization of the coal mines, it is asserted by the Evening Globe today.

CANADA IS AWAITING BRITAIN'S ACTION ON ARMENIAN RELIEF

Sir Geo. Foster Knows Nothing of Reported $5,000,000 Contribution.

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—In reference to the report from Washington that Canada is expected to contribute $5,000,000 for relief purposes in Central Europe, Sir George Foster, acting premier, stated last night that no definite decision had been reached. Canada, he said, was waiting to see what action would be taken by Britain and the United States before deciding upon the size of its contribution.

PROVINCES MAY HAVE TO DECIDE QUESTION OF AN EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Government Seeks Information Regarding Canadian Delegates.

Tom Moore and F. A. Acland Sailed On Liner Delayed by Storms.

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—By Canadian Press—Cables were sent to Paris today to discover the whereabouts of Canadian delegates to the governing body of the international labor office. Atlantic storms have given rise to a disappointing situation.

The two delegates, F. A. Acland, deputy minister of labor, representing the Dominion Government, and Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress, representing orgalzed labor—sailed from New York for Cherbourg on the Kaiserin Aguusta Victoria. Apparently they were in plenty of time for the opening of the conference in Paris on the 26 inst. But, delayed by the rough weather at sea, the Kaiserin was late. When last seen she had put in one of the English channel ports. There is, therefore, no question of the safety of the delegates; but it is questioned here if they have been able to reach Paris Paris before the conclusion of the more important business.

The situation is regarded as particularly disappointing in view of the fact that at the international labor conference held in Washington during November, Canada made a strenuous fight for representation of the governing body.

To Determine Legislation.

What its conclusions have been will largely determine whether labor legislation will be introduced at the coming session of the House of Commons. Canadian Government delegates assented to five out of six conventions adopted by the conference.

When the two delegates left Ottawa, they expected to be absent at least six weeks. Deliberations of the governing body, it was thought, would cover probably a fortnight or three weeks. Press dispatches tend to indicate, however, that although only in session since Monday, the governing body is nearing the end of its deliberations.

So far as Canada is concerned, there is the additional question of the jurisdiction of the Dominion Parliament. This is particularly the case in regard to the eight-hour day convention. The department of justice still has the point under consideration. There has been much searching of authorities, under the B. N. A. act the Dominion Parliament has jurisdiction when the question is one of giving effect to an international obligation. The question apparently is whether the Washington conventions can be so classed. It is likely, although the Government is awaiting for advices from Paris before considering the matter further, that the upshot will be reference of the eight-hour day to the provincial governments.

SPARE POOR, BUT KILL ALL RICH, IS LATEST WORD SENT TO REDS

Bolsheviki Proclamation Calls For No Mercy On Capitalistic Class.

TWO CATEGORIES LISTED

The Anti-Bolshevik Soldiers Forced To Fight Will Be Spared.

London, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—A Bolshevist proclamation, which is being spread among the Red soldiers in North Russia, ostensibly to halt the unnecessary killing of prisoners, has been received by the British war office, after having come into the hands of the North Russian Government.

The proclamation divides the "whites" into two categories—the first, designated as the real enemies of the soviet republic, such as capitalists, their sons, and officers; the second, those who fight against the soviets only because they are either forced to do so, or are ignorant. Red soldiers are warned not to kill those in the second category, because "then White soldiers would be afraid to desert to us."

Regarding the first category, the proclamation declares: "Naturally mercy to officers, big landowners or capitalists, who all are permanently or consciously enemies of ours, is out of the question. Death to these scoundrels, who are responsible for the bloodshed now and he prolongation of civil war. There is no mercy for them, nor can there be any."

GOVERNMENT NOT TO INTERFERE WITH BOARD OF COMMERCE IN ITS METHODS OF INVESTIGATION

Textile Manufacturers' Appeal in Protest Against Questionnaires, Not To Be Acted Upon in Any Way, Decides the Dominion Cabinet—Board Will Be Permitted To Act Its Own Way in Securing Necessary Information.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—The Government has decided not to interfere as between the board of commerce and the textile manufacturers in the matter of the so-called appeal of the latter body against the questionnaires which its members are required by the board to answer. The Government, which heard representatives of the textile manufacturers some days ago, promised their representations immediate consideration. Yesterday, however, in a memorandum, the board of commerce represents, but firmly points out that the Government had no power to interfere, inasmuch as the board was exerting its powers of inquiry under the statute. The board hinted that it would pay no heed to any action the Government might take.

Will Not Take Action.

It is stated this morning that the Government will take no action in the matter at all. The cabinet takes the view that anyone who desires recourse from the board's requirements may go to the board for such recourse. The Government has power to rescind an order of the board, but in this case no order is involved. The statute provides that the board may ask for information and that those from whom it is sought "shall" give it, on penalty of heavy fines.

Certain members of the building trades have complained against the request of the board to supply information as to the cost of and the price charged for their materials, and some have flatly refused to give such information. The board has remained firm, however, and such concerns may be now assured that they have no appeal to the Government.

MANUFACTURERS' ATTITUDE.

Toronto, Jan. 30.—"Under Section 41 of the board of commerce act, the governor-in-council may upon petition of any person, lodged within one month after the making of the 'order' at any time vary or rescind any such order and such order by council shall be binding upon the board and upon all parties." Thus, in a statement handed out today the head office of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association replied to the statement by the board of commerce yesterday denying the authority of the cabinet to entertain an appeal against its questionnaire, dealing with the operation, costs and profits of the textile industry. The association claims that the "request" of the board attached to the issue of the questionnaires "constitutes by its very nature, any order and decision of the board." In its opinion, "to assume that the board of commerce has unchallenged jurisdiction over the manufacturers of Canada would be to ignore the fundamental principles of British law that every person, no matter what the quality of an order made upon them may be, is entitled to the right to be heard."

The statement includes the full text of the manufacturers' appeal against the questionnaire of the board.

ITALIAN SOLDIERS ATTEMPT TO LYNCH INSULTING SAILOR

Incident Occurs When the Steamer Africa Docks At Singapore.

SLAVS AND GERMANS

Trouble Led To a Clash That Has Created a Grave Situation.

Rome, Jan. 30. — Italian soldiers clashed with Slav and German sailors on board the steamer Africa of the Trieste Lloyd Line at Singapore recently, when one of the sailors insulted Italy, according to a report to the Messaggero. It is said the incident was one of considerable gravity.

Four hundred Italian soldiers being brought back from Siberia had been landed on the dock at Singapore by the steamer Nippon, when they saw the Africa, which was the first steamer flying the Italian flag they had seen in years. The soldiers' cheers were echoed by the Italian passengers on the Africa, but suddenly there came the cry: "Down with Italy!" from somewhere near the stern of the vessel.

The enraged sailors at once invaded the decks of the Africa, intending to lynch the man who had shouted the insulting words, but were met by the commander and officers of the ship who defended the members of the crew. The Marchioness of Durazzo, wife of the new Italian charge d' affaires in Peking, addressed the Italians, and finally restored calm. It is said that the majority of the crew were Slavs or Germans. The man who caused the disorder was later found and landed under a guard of British police.

Mob In Louisiana Compels Juror to Agree to Verdict

Ducked in Mudhole and Publicly Whipped.

Monroe, La., Jan. 29.—Because a juryman failed to agree to a verdict of guilty in the case of Alvin Calhoun, negro, alleged confessed slayer of N. E. Arnold, a young white farmer, a mob publicly whipped the recalcitrant juror and then dipped him in a mud hole, said reports reaching here tonight from Tallulah, where the trial was held.

After his chastisement, the report said, the mud-covered juror returned to the juryroom and agreed to a verdict of murder in the first degree. He then was ordered to leave town by a delegation of citizens.

LOCAL TEMPERATURES.

Following were the highest and lowest temperatures recorded in London during the 24 hours previous to 8 o'clock last night: Highest, 28; lowest, 1 below. The official temperatures for the 12 hours previous to 8 a.m. today were: Highest, 26; lowest, 23.

PART OF FRENCH LOAN GOES TO HELP BOLSTER EXCHANGE RATE

Radical Increases in Taxation Will Be Ordered At Once.

TRY TO HOLD TRADE

Financial Policy of Government Is To Try and Prevent Panic.

Paris, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press).—An important part of the proceeds of the new French loan, applied to the retirement of paper in circulation, will be one of the essential features of the Government's plan to improve the financial situation of France, the Associated Press is able to say.

Radical increases in taxation to balance the budget and, if necessary, rigid restrictions on the importations of luxuries to check the depreciation of the franc, are other measures which have been decided upon.

The financial policy of the French Government is to avoid as far as possible restricting trade with all nations, particularly her allies and associates, and any prohibition of importations will be measured only by the absolute necessities of the exchange situation.

Although the gravity of the situation is fully appreciated, there is no panicky feeling in official circles. It is estimated by persons in close touch with the problem that it will require about five years for France to overcome her financial difficulties.

ODESSA IS TAKEN BY UKRAINIANS

Capture of City Carried Out Under Gen. Pavlenko.

Vienna, Jan. 29.—The capture of Odessa by Ukrainian forces commanded by Gen. Pavlenko is announced by the Ukrainian Press Service.

A committee of Ukrainian, Russian and Jewish citizens succeeded in restoring order, the advices state, and in improving the provisioning of the city and the administration of its affairs.

6,000 N. Y. COMPOSITORS WILL GET $45 A WEEK

New York, Jan. 30.—The 6,000 compositors in the union book and job offices in New York city will receive $45 a week, an increase of $9 a week over their old scale, it was announced here today, through a new agreement made by the employing printers and "Big Six" Typographical Union. The new scale calls for a 48-hour week until May 1, 1921, and the increase is retroactive to January 1.

High Prices Will Remain For Some Time to Come

London, Jan. 30.—Lower prices will be slow in coming, said Reginald McKenna, former chancellor of the exchequer, and now chairman of the London City and Midland Bank, addressing stockholders today. Any attempt suddenly to bring about a decrease in the cost of living, he said, would mean disaster.

"The spending power of the public has increased from 1,198,000,000 pounds sterling in 1914, to 2,693,000,000 at present," he said. "This, with loans to the state, has raised bank deposits, and consequently increased the buying capacity of the public. With increased currency, prices of commodities have soared, but increased production will bring prices down.

"I would urge a reduction of the country's expenditures to a figure less than the tax revenues, by which means alone the issuance of currency can be restricted, and London re-established in her old position as a financial centre and the free gold market of the world. It is my opinion that this country's rate of taxation is higher than any other in the world, and is dangerously near the point where thrift, business enterprise and the needed development of capital may become seriously impaired."

C. P. R. AUTHORIZES LARGE IMPROVEMENT EXPENDITURE IN THE LONDON DISTRICT

Will Spend $245,000 During the Year For New Stations, Additions, Etc.—London's Share Is $7,000 For Round House Improvements.

During the coming summer the Canadian Pacific Railway will spend $245,000 on improvements in this district, approval of expenditures to this amount having been received by Superintendent A. Williams from the head office in Montreal. The improvements include the erection of new stations at Ayr and at Puslinch. London will benefit to the extent of $7,000, this sum to be spent for improving the local roundhouse.

At Ayr $23,000 will be spent for a new station, which will be one of the most modern structures owned by the company in this district. This will greatly improve the village of Ayr and will mean much to Western Ontario. The station at Puslinch, situated near Guelph, will be erected at a cost of $11,000.

Chatham will benefit more than any other part of the district, as $45,000 in improvements is to be spent there this year. Plans for that city call for the expenditure of several thousand dollars on the extension of the interchange branch with the Pere Marquette Railroad. A new platform will be laid at the Chatham station and a large steel tank will also be erected. Plans call for other extensive improvements at the Maple City.

Extend Express Room.

A forty-foot extension will be made to the express room of the Galt depot, the interior of which will also be completely remodelled. The company plans to spend $16,000 in that city. The roundhouse at Windsor will be equipped with new machinery to cost several thousand dollars.

Between Zorra and Woodstock a passing track will be laid. It is estimated that this will cost about $8,000.

Superintendent Williams states that the approval of $245,000 expenditure does not mean that only this amount will be spent in this district during the coming summer. The estimates for this district run into a much larger sum and call for improvements at practically every station in the London division.

The superintendent will secure the materials for the erection of the two new stations, and the work is expected to commence about March 1.

MANY DEPUTATIONS HEARD ON THURSDAY BY COUNTY COUNCIL

Essex Wants St. Thomas-Longwoods Highway.

HIGH SCHOOL GRANTS

$300 Voted To Each One in County, Besides $2.50 For Every $1 From Province.

A deputation from the Essex County Council came before the Middlesex County Council on Thursday to ask the latter body to support the building of a provincial highway through St. Thomas as well as on the Longwoods road route. The Essex Council was unanimous for this plan, the deputation declared. The Kent County Council had been waited on also, and it favored the proposition. The matter was referred to the board of road directors.

Deputations from Metcalfe Township and from Caradoc Township were present to ask that changes in the designation of county road system in their municipalities be made. The matters were referred to the board of road directors.

R. M. Hobbs, an aged resident of the Proof Line road, asked for compensation for damages done to the portion of his property over which traffic went during the time that a section of the road in that locality was being repaired. He asked for 75 rods of fence wire, and $50 as restitution. The board of road directors will deal with the question.

The Children's Aid Society asked for a grant, and had its request sent on to the finance committee.

Representatives from the London District Junior Farmers' Improvement Association asked for a grant. They said that other counties were giving similar organizations grants ranging from $250 to $500. The agricultural committee will deal with this.

County Hospital Patients.

County patents in Victoria Hospital cost Middlesex $5,058.12 during the year 1919, according to the report of Trustee W. J. Laidlaw. The cost per day per patient was $2.79.

School Inspector Johnson of West Middlesex gave his annual report for the year 1919, and had it adopted.

Motions that $200 be granted to Manor Park School, $200 to Wardsville High School and $50 to the East Middlesex Teachers' Institute were referred to the finance committee.

Fred Bayly was appointed trustee of the Thorndale High School for a term of three years, and Dr. Kerrigan was appointed trustee of the Strathroy High School for a like period.

On the recommendation of the finance committee the county council granted $300 to each high school in the county, and decided to grant $2.50 for every $1 granted to these institutions by the Provincial Government.

DELIGHTFUL EVENING GIVEN BY ARTISTS AT WESLEY HALL

Luta Laymon and Mrs. Brickenden Acclaimed by Large Audience.

Wesley Hall was filled last night for the Luta Laymon recital, which, was indeed an overwhelming success, not only for Miss Laymon herself, who appeared perhaps to better advantage than ever before but also for Mrs. Catharine McCormick Brickenden, who by no means took a secondary place on the program. It was a dual triumph and as such it should be recorded.

Miss Laymon's beautiful contralto voice, with its marvelous volume, rich tones and delightful quality was heard in fascinating Italian, Russian groups of songs, but the number of the evening which stood out as something beyond all the rest was Sidney Homer's "Song of the Shirt," sung with an understanding and abandon which would be difficult to excel. Miss Laymon's voice is particularly adapted to this song and gives a setting which is magnificent.

Other numbers which might be specially mentioned were: "Then Weep O Grief Worn Eyes," from Le Cid (J Massanet), and "Deep River." The last one of the Russian group, "The Hopak," was splendidly executed, the singer having caught something of the fire of the Russian composer, Moussorgsky. The Russian group also included "Heavenly Clouds" (Dargomijsky) and "Lilacs" (Rachmaninoff), and the Italian group "Caro Mio Ben" (Giordani), "O Cessate di Piagarmi" (Scarlatti) and "Il Segreto per esser felici" (Donizetti).

Mrs. Brickenden gave a delightfully varied program, opening her numbers with the classic "Taming of the Shrew" by William Shakespeare, but perhaps no number on the entire program was more delightful than a selection from James Barrie's "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals." The extraordinary versatility of the reader was evidenced as she changed from one character to another with the utmost rapidity and conviction. During the evening she presented the parts of an old father, a young suitor, a shrewdish-tempered maiden, an old Scottish charwoman and others of different dialect, a rough young Scottish soldier, a fashionable mamma, her foppish suitor, her incorrigible young daughter and a small boy who didn't want to go to school. And every one was a convincing character.

Mrs. Brickenden has been rarely heard in public here and never to any extent until last night, when she proclaimed herself an entertainer of the most delightful kind. Her splendid personation of Shakespeare's ill-tempered Katharine stood out in marked contrast to Barrie's quiet, bashful little old charwoman, who invented a son that she might have a share in the war.

"Poor Dear Mamma" from "The Gadsbys" (Kipling), was also excellently done, the conquest of mamma's suitor by the young daughter of the house being told in a manner in which every humorous point was brought out delightfully. A last encore was given on request, it being the personation of a young boy, who used every excuse to obtain permission to stay home from school.

A. D. Jordan acted as accompanist.

"FAIR AND WARMER" AT GRAND THEATRE SCORES ANOTHER HIT

Famous Farce Delighted Audience Thursday On Return Engagement.

"Fair and Warmer," Avery Hopwood's latest success, which drew crowded houses to the Grand Theatre when it was shown here recently, was again accorded an enthusiastic reception when, in response to popular demand for a return engagement, it was again featured at the Grand last night.

The play, which was reviewed by The Advertiser fully when it was first screened here, is a riot of richest humor, and last night's audience was kept in a perpetual condition of merriment by the hilarity-provoking situations which were developed in the story.

"Fair and Warmer" established a record-breaking success in New York, and London theatregoers who witnessed the play will surely admit that this was deserved.

HENRY C. PERCIVAL, VETERAN OF FENIAN RAID, PASSES AWAY

Died On Same Farm Where He Was Born Eighty-One Years Ago.

The death of Henry Christopher Percival occurred on Thursday at his residence, lot 8, concession 2, London Township. He was born in 1839 on the farm on which he died. Here his father, the late Joseph Percival, settled down about the year 1818, when he came to Canada from Ireland.

The deceased was a regular member of St. Matthew's Anglican Church, East London, for a great many years. He was a veteran of the Fenian raid, and also served the colors with the old 6th Field Battery in 1866. He was one of the few left to recall the old pioneer days and the subsequent growth of the city of London.

He is survived by his widow, three sons and one daughter. The children are: Frederick, at home; Harry C. with the G. T. R., and Morris, with the D. S. C. R., and Mrs. Philip Brooks (formerly Miss Fern), of London Township.

The funeral will be held on Saturday at 2:30 p.m. to the Grove Cemetery. Services will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Beverly.

HOSPITAL FOR SICK CHILDREN BADLY NEEDED

Question Is Discussed At Luncheon Given by Hospital Trust.

COUNTY WOULD HELP

Warden Confident Grant of $12,000 Would Be Made by Middlesex.

The question of securing funds for the proposed children's hospital was discussed at length, when members of the county and city councils visited Victoria Hospital on Thursday evening, and were tendered a lunch by the hospital trust. The necessity for a children's hospital in this city was vividly described by a number of speakers, and Warden Thomas Clark of Middlesex, expressed the belief that the county would make a grant of $12,000 towards the fund, and possibly more.

Dr. H. A. McCallum in a brief address stated that there was nothing more important in the life of the city at the present time than a hospital for the sick children. At this time, when the country had successfully emerged from a war, he believed much attention should be given to the children. Many men were lost in the war, he said, and it was necessary to make men out of the children of the present day. Canada could not afford to have children growing up in these times with maimed arms or legs.

If a children's hospital were established in this city, specialists would come to London to care for the little ones, Dr. McCallum stated. There were not the proper facilities here at the present time for specialists in children's diseases to practice. He also considered a hospital essential if the nurses were to be properly trained in the care of sick children.

Build Up Manhood.

Dr. Robert Ferguson said that it was necessary to start early to build up Canadian manhood. A children's hospital he considered absolutely necessary, and the county of Middlesex would not be backward in making a grant to the fund. It was the duty of both county and city to measure up to the need of the poor. The war had shown Canadians what they could do, and he did not believe it would be a great task to raise the money for the hospital.

Dr. Ferguson referred at length to the crowded condition of Victoria Hospital, and the great need of an addition to that institution. Hospitals were essential in a nation's progress, and this city needed greater hospital accommodation. He stated that there was no children's hospital within 120 miles of London. Much time and money were devoted to transportation, and other projects, while the children, the foundation of the country, were sadly neglected.

Surgical operations for certain diseases of children could not be carried out in this city, owing to lack of facilities of treating the patients, after the operations were performed, according to Dr. Cameron Wilson, who considered a children's hospital urgently necessary. He believed that a united London would get behind the movement and the County of Middlesex was sure to cooperate.

Sure County Would Help.

Mayor C. S. Little said that the city and the county had always united on vital questions, and he believed there could be no division between them in the question of the establishment of a children's hospital. The county had never refused to help in any worthy cause, his worship stated. He believed it a certainty that the city council would permit the hospital trust to take charge of the new hospital, if it were erected.

Miss Stanley, lady superintendant of the hospital, considered it impossible to train nurses properly to deal with children's diseases under the present conditions. The medical men set the standards, she said, and the nurses and young physicians of the staff maintained them. She also stated that the nurses' home was crowded, and the young ladies in training would have to be provided with more room.

Warden Clark was fully convinced that the county would make a substantial grant. He said that he was the oldest warden of Middlesex County and had watched this city progress during the past 70 years. The progress of London ought not to be hampered by the lack of a children's hospital here.

Western "U" Plans.

Arthur T. Little spoke briefly on the plans for Western University. An enormous sum would be needed for the carrying out of plans for this great educational institution. Subscriptions of more than $100,000 would be needed to carry out the plans, Mr. Little said. The difficulty encountered, he stated, was that the people would necessarily have to subscribe to something which would not be completed in this generation. It was the duty of the people of today, however, to consider the education of the generations to follow.

Ex-Warden Scratch of Essex believed that the campaign to secure funds for the children's hospital was a most noble undertaking.

George McNeil gave a lecture in the operating-room, illustrating the various diseases of children.

Col. W. M. Gartshore presided, and expressed the opinion that the children's hospital would be established here before many months had elapsed.

NEW COMMERCIAL SCHOOL MAY BE BUILT IF EXPENSE OF ALTERATION TOO GREAT

No. 2 Committee of Board of Education Will Probably Be Asked To Investigate Princess Avenue Heating Problem.

Heating arrangements for the Princess avenue school, which is being used as a commercial high school, were discussed at the inaugural meeting of the commercial advisory committee of the board of education Thursday afternoon.

Trustee A. A. Langford was re-elected to the chairmanship.

Princess avenue school is still regarded as one of th public schools of the city and No. 2 committee will therefore probably be asked to make an investigation. What action is taken will depend largely on the result of this.

Some years ago tenders for installing a new heating system and for other alterations were called for and averaged about $4,000. This was considered too much money to spend on an old building at that time and accordingly the Lord Roberts school was built to replace it.

Crowded conditions at the Collegiate forced the committee in charge of commercial education to rent the old public school from the public schools committee and it has been in use for about a year.

May Build New School.

It is highly probable if a change in the heating system now involves much expenditure, that a new commercial school will be built. This would not be done this year, however.

Trustee Langford thought it would be well to have the commercial department of the collegiate entirely separated from the general school under its own principal. He believed that Principal W. H. T. Mooney had too much now to look after. Trustee Mrs. Tanner was of the same opinion. Trustee Eggett pointed out that the longer any changes were deferred the more they would cost, as building prices were rising steadily.

H. Humphries, an outside representative on the committee, believed that it would be well to give commercial education more attention than it had in the past. Trustee Langford thought that the needs of the commercial school could be clearly brought out by the committee.

If a new school is built it is possible that it may be situated on some of the land owned by the city on King street. This was purchased in connection with the Federal Square proposition.

WHO PRESIDES AT PROBE NOT KNOWN

Nothing Definite in Ontario Hospital Inquiry.

Whether Judge Talbot Macbeth will preside at the inquiry that has been instituted by the Provincial Government into the charges made by Harry Lawder against irregularities at the Ontario Hospital here is not yet known.

When Judge Macbeth was appointed, Mr. Lawder's lawyer wrote a letter of protest to Premier E. C. Drury and has received the premier's reply, which states that the matter will be taken up immediately with the provincial secretary.

"We are merely marking time until we hear from the Government," said Major G. N. Weekes, counsel for Lawder, when asked the latest developments in the case.

REAL ESTATE BOOM HITS BYRON VILLAGE

Several Fine Houses Are in Course of Construction.

Byron, Jan. 30.—Real estate operations are booming in this village, houses being at a premium. At the present time there is only one small cottage in Byron precincts that is empty.

Three houses and a large garage are in course of erection, while several Londoners have signified their intention of beginning building operations as soon as spring arrives.

Riley Harrison is building a two-story brick residence, while Delmar Wadsworth is erecting a fine red brick house and a large garage, 100 by 50 feet. Earl Arnold has in the course of erection a story and half brick dwelling. Mr. Carroll of London will build here as soon as the weather clears up. John Calver has purchased the home of Leslie Griffith.

NO ROOM IN HOSPITAL FOR SICK PRISONERS

The full-house sign was passed out to Governor James Carter of the county jail when he endeavored to secure accommodation in Victoria Hospital for three prisoners at the jail who are ill with the flu. "I was told that there wasn't a vacant bed in the hospital," said the governor today. "We are doing the best we can for the patients, and they are getting every attention. However, you have got to admit that the jail is hardly the proper place for a sick person.

"As it is, we have no means of safeguarding the other prisoners, there being no isolation ward, and all doors being made if iron bars. I think one of the men is getting better, while the other two have temperatures of 102 degrees."

ASSAILANT STILL AT LARGE.—As yet the assailant of James Houghton, 762 Hill street, who was struck on the head by someone about 6:30 o'clock on Tuesday evening, just as he entered his home, has not been found. Only the arrival of some passerby saved the aged man from being murdered, is his belief. He was in a semi-unconscious condition when found, and was sent to Victoria to have some wounds on his head dressed. Nothing was 'awen from the house, and all the doors were locked, he told the police.

RUNAWAY SMASHES WINDOW.—W. R. Smith of R. R. No. 2, Lambeth, was shaken up, and a large plate glass window in Beemer's garage was smashed when a race horse driven by Mr. Smith ran away on Queen's avenue. The horse, which was hitched to a cutter, was frightened by an automobile which attempted to pass it. Running wildly west on Queen's avenue, it made an unsuccessful attempt to turn down Richmond. Swerving in front of the postoffice, it threw Mr. Smith to the pavement and then continued to run at a breakneck speed down Queen's on the sidewalk. When Beemer's garage was reached the horse turned and started back east, swinging the cutter through the window. The horse was stopped by its owner as it reached Richmond street.

PETER McINNIS ILL

Poor Peter McInnis, one of the most familiar figures on London streets, is in Victoria Hospital and is really sick, too. The many people who know him here regret to learn that he has a touch of the old-fashioned influenza. He does not believe in being a victim to the new-fangled kind.

Feeling out of sorts, he just betook himself down to the hospital yesterday and was admitted. According to his own statement, "Oh I'll be 'round again in a few days," it will not be long before Peter will be seen at his old job.

CITY'S POWER TROUBLES NOW OVER FOR A WHILE

London's power troubles are over for a while at least, in the opinion of General-Manager E. V. Buchanan. The longer period of daylight is relieving each day the situation. Power can be cut off in the early morning hours now, so that a load is carried to another part of the day. The ice at Niagara was responsible for the shortage, which necessitated cutting off the power in the city at certain periods.

This cause will be removed soon, it is expected, and London will receive its full supply until another winter comes.

WESTERN GRADUATES WILL ORGANIZE GENERAL ALUMNI ASSCCIATION NEXT MONTH

This Will Include Those of All Departments.

Plans are being made by a strong committee for the holding on February 19 of a general gathering of the graduates of Western University in all departments and its allied colleges, for the purpose of organizing a general alumni association that will include all who have graduated here.

It is expected that there will be a large attendance, both of local graduates and those now outside of London. Dr. Robert Ferguson is to be chairman of the gathering, which will be of an informal character, and there will be several good speakers, as well as a musical program.

POLICE BREAK UP CARD GAME SUNDAY MORNING

As Consequence Four Are Charged With Gambling on Lord's Day.

The police broke up a fine little card game last Sunday at 237 Horton street, and in consequence Jacob Harris, Noah Fox and Alex. and Isaac Hershorne appeared in court today charged with gambling on the Lord's Day. Abraham Wexter and George Chittick, the two other alleged members of the party, had not yet been served with summonses, so Chief Williams asked for an adjournment. Edmund Meredith, K. C., asked that the case go on, but the chief was firm.

Mr. Harris explained that he had to act as a witness in a case in Toronto next week, and was not sure that he would be home in time if the case was postponed for a week. It was finally arranged to have the trial a week from Monday.

MAJOR OSBORNE LEAVES FOR THE OLD COUNTRY

Major Baron Osborne, who was provost marshal in this city for the greater part of the war and since the signing of peace a familiar figure about town, and especially in the G. W. V. A., left at noon today for England, where he is to reside in the future. Many of his fellow-members of the G. W. V. A. and "pals" of the army days were at the station to bid him "bon voyage."

A farewell party was held in the rooms of the G. W. V. A. on Wednesday night by many of his friends. A musical program and smoker was provided. The major was presented with a box of cigars.

PREVENTORIUM SCHOOL AT BYRON TO GET FINANCIAL AID FROM DEPARTMENT

Dr. McMurchy Is Recommending That Grant Be Given It.

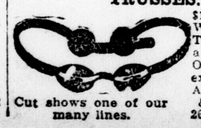

Money for the school at the Byron Preventorium is expected from the department of education by the local board of education. Dr. Helen McMurchy, inspector for schools of this kind, has written to Public School Inspector C. B. Edwards, stating that she hopes to recommend to the department that it make a grant to this school. The board has been providing teachers and equipment for the institution.

It is thought that the department should make grants in proportion to the amount expended on education by the various municipalities.

Free high school and university education is by no means a new idea. The school authorities here are in possession of a copy of the Fisher bill, which passed through the British Parliament in 1918. It provides that no pupil shall be denied high school, university or any kind of education which would make him more useful through lack of funds. Instead the state pays his expenses.

In England the Government pays 75 per cent of the cost of educating the people, while here the Government pays but 3 per cent.

Never in the world's history were so many poor books in circulation as at the present time. It seems a pity that so many strong arm authors are wasting their time writing books when they could be so much better employed sawing wood or shovelling coal.

The sex problem is being worked overtime, but always appears to be popular amongst a certain section of the community.

What we need today is another Charles Dickens or Wm. Thackeray to put our literature on a plane which would compare favorably with that of 50 years ago. "OLD TIMER."

ST. GEORGE'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH HAD A GOOD YEAR

Is Making Great Progress in the Community.

Reports submitted at the 29th annual congregational meeting of St. George's Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening, showed that the church was making great progress in the community. The meeting was very largely attended, and Rev. John Hosie, pastor of the church for several years, presided.

The financial report showed that $1,450 was raised for congregational purposes during the year. The congregation and various organizations of the church also raised $285 for missions and other benevolent purposes.

A special vote of appreciation was extended to the congregation of the New St. James's Presbyterian Church for the kindly interest it had taken in the affairs of St. George's congregation during the past year. A vote of thanks was also extended to Miss Ella Angus, of the choir, for the valuable work she had accomplished during the year, and also to those who had assisted the congregation of the church.

The church now represents 45 families and 126 members.

A Western Ontario Housing Association Is Now Projected

Local Commission Thinks Co-ordination of Work of the Municipal Commissions Would Effect Added Efficiency and Economy.

A Western Ontario housing association to co-ordinate the work of the separate municipal housing commissions was projected at a meeting of the local commission last night. City Clerk Baker will communicate with other cities, where housing commissions are in existence to determine their views on this matter.

Chairman E. R. Dennis said he believed the new Provincial Government had an open mind on housing matters and would welcome any practical suggestions from the municipalities on the matter. He thought an association formed of the existing housing commissions of the district would lend strength to any plans proposed and would help in the development of legislation for housing purposes.

Another phase of such an action might be co-operative buying. He thought materials could be purchased much more cheaply if bought for all municipalities at once. The experience of each commission would be available for all the others as well.

In all probability a convention will be arranged here. The other municipalities will be asked to send representatives. Steps will be taken at this meeting to form a permanent association.

James Govan of the provincial secretary's department and Alfred V. Hall, landscape architect for the provincial commission, attended last night's meeting. They looked over the plans of the commission on the Pine Lawn project, and recommended that the commission proceed with the plan, as approved by J. A. Ellis of the Bureau of Municipal Affairs.

Land Surveyor Wanted.

Accordingly the commission decided to secure the services of a land surveyor to prepare the preliminary plans. The chairman and Commissioner Victor Jackson were appointed as a committee to interview applicants for this appointment. Until this preliminary work is done no definite building plans can be made, but the commission intends to proceed with as many houses as possible, as soon as building can be done. As many as 40 houses may be built this year.

To carry out this work the commission will likely ask the Government to extend its debenture allotment by about $200,000.

Mr. Govan was pleased with the work already done here. He declared the buildings already erected to be of a much better construction than in many other cities.

BROWNSVILLE SETS GREAT EXAMPLE IN FORWARD MOVEMENT

'Disobeys' by Offering Money Before Requested.

London District Given Head Over All Other Methodist Circuits.

"Disobedience" on the part of Brownsville (South Oxford) Methodists in raising their quota in January has given London conference a start over all other parts of Canadian Methodism in the National Forward Movement campaign. The conference total is $550,000, and the national total $4,000,000.

In both churches on the Brownsville circuit, laymen stood up during service one Sunday, without collusion, and said that the people were ready to give at once. Returned soldiers were prominent in the offerings which were received at the church on a Monday.

The Brownsville story is being used all over Canada in anticipation of the February 9-14 drive of the churches.

Methodism, with 400,000 members, is counted on for an average of $10 per person. Ontario's quota is $2,800,000. The Toronto conference has been assigned $1,100,000, and Hamilton $600,000.

Hamilton has the inspiration of a minister whose average salary for 25 years has been $800 and who is giving $300 of his present $1,200 annual salary.

One Brantford layman, according to the Christian Guardian, has had $5,000 ready for the Methodist enterprise for the past three months.

Brock, Saskatchewan, has the honor of being the first Methodist appointment in the united National campaign to surpass its objective. Brock "went over" in November. That province is to raise $300,000 for Methodism.

TO INTERVIEW CITY COUNCIL COMMITTEE ABOUT PLAYGROUNDS

C. of C. and Social Service Joint Committee Will Make Recommendations.

At a joint meeting of the playgrounds committees of the Social Service Council and Chamber of Commerce, held in the Chamber of Commerce board room yesterday afternoon, Chairman Morley Adams, Rev. J. G. Stuart, Mr. Beemer and Mrs. Gemmell of the Mothers' Club, were appointed as a deputation to interview the finance committee of the city council regarding the expenditure of the $20,000 voted by the citizens on January first for public playgrounds.

The joint committee has since last fall gone into the matter of public playgrounds in an exhaustive way, and feels that it is in a position to make certain recommendations to the finance committee.

The members were opposed to having the school yards used as playgrounds, as it would mean a large staff of supervisors. The Mothers' clubs of the city were also against this idea.

It was the general opinion that a playground in each of the four sections of the city would fill the bill for the time being. That any co-operation that the city council or No. 1 committee might ask would be gladly given by the joint committee, was the feeling of the meeting.

SIGNALLERS' ASSOCIATION OF CITY NAMES OFFICERS

Capt. Butler Is President, and Capt. May Secretary.

A well-attended meeting of ex-signallers was held in the G. W. V. A. rooms on Wednesday evening, and some important business was transacted. Capt. Chester Butler was elected president, and Capt. H. T. May secretary of the association. A committee of ex-signallers composed of H. S. Griffiths, C. Malone, L. P. Malone and A. Newnham was also appointed. The next meeting will take the form of a smoker and card party in the sergeants' mess at the armories on Wednesday, February 11.

The members of the association are increasing in number, and now comprise ex-signallers of all sorts of units; infantry predominates, but there are various other units represented, from the R. A. F. to anti-aircraft batteries. The association should appeal to all who were employed on communications overseas, and operators, linemen, battalion runners and even pigeon men come equally under the title of signal service.

Any ex-signallers are invited to attend the smoker on Wednesday week, and should get into touch with the officials of the association, as a very successful evening is anticipated.

OUTSIDE LABORERS HAVE FORMED AN ORGANIZATION

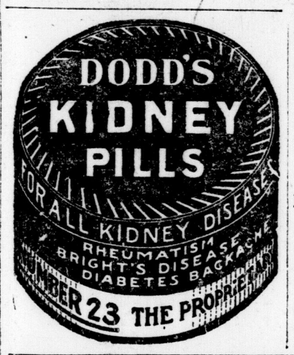

To Be Called Hodcarriers' and Laborers' Union.

Men engaged as outside laborers were successfully organized by H. Wray, A. F. of L. organizer, at 380 Richmond street, on Thursday night. An application for the charter already has been sent to the international headquarters. More than 75 members were secured as a nucleus for a very strong organization. The new union is to be known as the Hodcarriers' and Laborers' Union. All men who do outside labor are eligible for membership.

As soon as this union is of sufficient strength a building trades council will be formed in the city. Delegates for this are chosen from the unions connected with the building trades in almost identically the same way as members are selected from various unions to act as delegates to the trades and labor council.

SKILLED HELP SHORT IN CITY, BRADSTREET'S SAYS

London reports to Bradstreet's that the industries of this city and district are experiencing activity and a shortage of skilled help. The comparatively small surplus of labor is confined mostly to unskilled workers. The building trades are less active during the severe weather, but there are enough building projects already assured for 1920 to make this year a banner one in London's history.

Increasing attention is being paid to export, and numerous manufacturers have decided to exhibit their wares at the forthcoming Canadian show in London, England. Country trade is brisk, subject to the usual drawbacks caused by severe weather and copious snowfalls.

Country produce, especially butter and eggs, are selling in a firm market. Potatoes have advanced recently. City retail trade is quite satisfactory, and good reports are given by travelers operating in Western Ontario. Collections are satisfactory.

HUMANE INSPECTOR TO TOUR CITY OUTSKIRTS

Many Reports of Cruelty Have Been Received.

Inspector George W. Burgess of the Humane Society is making preparations for an inspection trip around the districts in the vicinity of London. One of the first places that he will visit will be Komoka.

Numerous reports have been received by him of people mistreating their animals. He is making the trip to verify the reports.

People are said to be leaving horses out in the cold, with very little to eat, if anything, and he is determined to put a stop to this practice. Animals suffer as much as human beings under these conditions, he points out.

SPOKE TO BIRD LOVERS

W. E. Saunders Lectured at Western University.

Bird-lovers of this city were given a treat last night when a large number of them listened to a lecture given by W. E. Saunders in the arts building of the Western University. The subject of his address was "Introduction to Bird Study."

Mr. Saunders began his talk by telling of the conditions under which the many different species of birds lived, and he explained that certain families of birds were peculiarly adapted to live in the way they did.

The speaker told of the many species common to our own city and neighboring country. He spent some time in explaining how the different birds feed. He drew attention to the many species that live here during the winter. Mr. Saunders strongly urged his audience to be kind to the birds and to help them as much as possible.

A HOMEMADE GREY HAIR REMEDY

You Can Make at Home a Better Grey Hair Remedy Than You Can Buy.

Grey, streaked or faded hair is not only unbecoming, but unnecessary.

Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken grey hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water, add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Orlex Compound and ¼ ounce of glycerine.

These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or the druggist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a grey-haired person look twenty years younger. It is easy to use, does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

Business Profits Tax Frightens Away Foreign Capital, Curtails Expansion, Declares C. R. Hunt

Gives His Reasons From Manufacturers' Point of View For Opposing Renewal of the Impost—Would Abolish It Immediately.

Charles R. Hunt, president of Hunt Bros., Limited, is strongly opposed to the business profits tax, declaring it unfair and bad business, and in the following letter gives his reasons:

I read with interest your article on federal taxation ,appearing in your publication under date of January 2, and feel that there is a broad scope for enlargement on this important question.

The daily newspapers of Canada should put clearly before their readers the rulings and effects of the present business profits tax, in effect up to December 31, 1919, and I feel that you would no doubt be willing to at least listen to a review of the matter as it appears to me, and I think I may safely say, to the majority of Canadian manufacturers, both large and small.

To begin with, the business profits tax is unfair, because it discriminates, as you will note by the following examples:

Firstly—It applies only to concerns employing more than a specified capital.

Secondly—It applies only to certain kinds of industrial enterprises, agricultural undertakings being entirely exempt.

Thirdly—If the manufacturer has a bad year he must bear the loss himself. If the following year is a good one, the government takes the excess profit and refuses to allow any portion of it to be applied against the previous year's losses.

Fourthly—Large professional incomes are not affected, except in the way of an income tax, whereas the businessman who takes a risk and succeeds is in reality taxed for his successes.

Effect on Capital.

At this time, when Canada should undergo a period of commercial expansion, the business profits tax is about the worst measure that could be in effect, as no foreign capital would have an incentive to take risks in a new field where a curtailment of profits was insisted on, as there would be no way in which plant extension could be provided for. Not alone will the chances of foreign capital coming here be negligible, but Canadian capital will seek other countries for an investment.

It would appear to me that a renewal of the business profits tax is most inadvisable and detrimental to the national interest, as it simply discourages greater production and penalizes efficiency.

What Has Been Done.

We have only to look at what the business profits tax has done to curtail expansion in some lines of Canadian business. Briefly I give you four cases:

1. A steamship company operating from Canadian ports under Canadian register has already transferred a large percentage of their ships to the register of a country having no excess profits tax.

2. A certain shoe manufacturer who was offered orders in excess of the company's capacity decided early in 1919 for an extension of plant, including the purchase of additional real estate. Immediately upon renewal of the business profits tax all extension plans were dropped.

3. A leather tannery, whose total output was sold and many export orders refused, has decided to expand their plant for greater production purposes, but will not do so unless the business profits tax is dropped.

4. In a certain town in Canada there is a steel plant not quite completed, on which all work has stopped, pending a decision on the part of the Canadian Government in regard to the renewal of the business profits tax.

I think it you could embody the above facts in readable form it would show the general public, and in addition convey to our legislators the great necessity of abolishing this tax permanently.

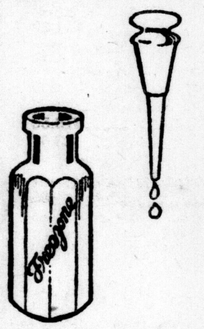

The manufacturers of Canada as a whole, however, will not, I think, have any objection to paying a fair income tax, provided it is indiscriminately administered. Yours very truly,

CHARLES R. HUNT.

Catarrh
Of the Stomach
Is Dangerous

"Thousands Have It and Don't Know It," Says Physician. Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion—How To Recognize and Treat.

"Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from furred, coated tongue, bad breath, sour, burning stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, bitter eructations, gas, wind, and stomach acidity and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach," writes a New York physician.

Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucus membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the foods and digest them. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the fermented, unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

In catarrh of the stomach a good and safe treatment is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure Bisurated Magnesia in half a glass of hot water as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water washes the mucus from the stomach walls and draws the blood to the stomach while the Bisurated Magnesia is an excellent solvent for mucus and increases the efficiency of the hot water treatment. Moreover, the Bisurated Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach and sweeten its food contents. Easy, natural digestion without distress of any kind should soon follow. Bisurated Magnesia is not a laxative, is harmless, pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any local druggist. Don't confuse Bisurated Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, milks, citrates, etc., but get it in the pure bisurated form (powder or tablets), especially prepared for this purpose.—Advt.

STRIKE AT BOSTON TO AFFECT LONDON SHIPPERS, IS FEAR

Railway Officials See Trouble For Exporters.

Lonon shippers will be affected by the strike of the longshoremen at Boston, officials of the Grand Trunk stated today. Owing to the difficulty encountered in securing ships, owing to the shortage of shipping between America and Europe, the Boston harbor has been used extensively by shippers in this district, it was stated. During the strike of the longshoremen at New York, local shippers suffered, it is claimed, and conditions have never returned to normal since that tie-up, which occurred several months ago.

According to one freight official, a shipper never knows now just by what port his cargo will be shipped. It has been more difficult to ship via New York since the strike in that city, and for this reason much freight from this district has been going by way of Boston.

The average citizen cannot realize how seriously a strike such as the one at Boston affects this country, officials claim. During the last strike such large ships as the Mauretania were forced to carry the same cargoes between Liverpool and New York a number of times, as there were no dock hands to unload on this side of the Atlantic. With shipping so scarce at the present time, this brings about a serious condition.

MAGISTRATE GIVES DRUNK HIS CHANCE

Does Not Impose Even Customary $10 Fine.

An unfortunate individual who had embraced King Alcohol to the fullest extent was picked up at Dundas and Colborne streets on Thursday evening by the police in a paralyzed condition, and according to the police was numb for a large portion of the night.

He stood up in police court this morning with a half-ashamed and foolish grin on his face, and answered all the questions put to him with his eyes turned away from the court.

Doesn't Know.

"What put you in that condition?" queried Deputy Magistrate P. H. Bartlett, who occupied the bench in the absence of Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon, who is in Toronto on business.

The prisoner gazed at the floor and slowly shook his head. "I don't know," he confessed.

"I don't think that whiskey would have made a man as ill as you were last night," observed Chief of Police W. T. T. Williams.

Mr. Bartlett's heart was touched at the condition of the man, and, contrary to the custom that has been in vogue for some time of fining every drunk $10 or ten days, he allowed the prisoner to go.

Another Chance.

"I'm going to give you another chance under the circumstances, and will not fine you. I will not say, though, that you will get the same consideration if you come up here again. I hope that this will be a warning to you," said Mr. Bartlett.

The man did not seem to know that he was free to go, and it was not until a constable touched his arm and pointed to the doorway that led to freedom that he realized the law had no further claim on him.

MACHINE GUNNERS HELD A VERY ENJOYABLE SMOKER

Col. Coles Pleased With Organization Progress.

Members of the 2nd Canadian Machine Gun Brigade, which had its headquarters in this city, staged a smoker at the armories on Thursday evening, which was an unqualified success.

Lieut.-Col. W. G. Coles spoke of the wonderful progress which had been made in the work of organization of the local companies of the unit. Since the first meeting many men had joined. Almost all the officers had been secured, but appointments were still open for non-commissioned officers. He thanked Sergt.-Major W. Carter, W. O., and his wife for providing the refreshments and the orchestra, composed of members of the band of the Great War Veterans Association, for the excellent music.

Then followed cheers for those who had helped to make the affair a success, including Capt. Beresford of Ottawa, who had been working hard organizing the brigade. He is organizing companies in Chatham, Windsor, Sarnia, Stratford and Guelph as well as here.

Next week no meeting will be held, but during the week following an announcement of one will appear in the papers.

At present the majority of the personel of the unit is composed of men who were machine gunners with overseas battalions.

SONS OF ENGLAND GIVE HEARTIEST WELCOME TO SOLDIER-MEMBERS HOME

Lodges Unite In Banquet Tendered To Veterans of War.

A banquet was tendered by the city lodges of the Sons of England to their returned soldier members last night in the Foresters' Hall. It was one of the most successful events on the records of the society. About 100 were present, 40 of whom were the honored guests.

The supreme secretary, David J. Proctor of Toronto, and the supreme vice-president, T. J. Roussell, also of Toronto, were visitors for the occasion. It had been decided previously that the lodges would wait until all members returned before spreading a banquet or giving a public welcome.

The following toast list was proposed and responded to, District Deputy Bro. Frank Newton presiding: Silent toast "To Our Departed Brethren," "The King," "The Army and Navy," responded to by Sergt. T. Holmes of the Royal Marines; "Our Returned Brethren," by Bro. Ed Smith; "Our Order," by the supreme secretary, David J. Proctor. Supreme Vice-President T. J. Roussell also spoke.

Solos were sung by Bro. A. Bowyer, and a quartet — Bros. A. Bowyer, C. Burnett, L. McNichol and J. Stafford. The meeting broke up just after midnight. The refreshments were preceded by card-playing.

A letter from Past District Deputy Bartlett was read explaining his inability to attend on account of sickness. A past district deputy's jewel was to have been presented to him.

SAYS ACCUSED HAS SPENT $250 IN LIQUOR RECENTLY

Chief Knows Man's Record—Pays Tribute To Another "Customer."

There is one returned soldier who is wasting his money on the Demon Rum. He is making weekly visits to the police court charged with being drunk, and today was the day for another visit.

"I am told that he has spent $250 in the last two months on liquor," said Chief Williams. "I am also informed that there is a movement to have his money held for him by the Soldiers' Aid Commission, and paid out in weekly sums. He doesn't seem to be able to look after it himself very well."

The magistrate hoped that this would be done, and fined the culprit $10 or ten days in jail.

"I'll pay, sir, and gladly," said the man as he was led away.

"He is one of our oldest and most respected customers," declared Chief Williams, in introducing a habitual drunk to Deputy Magistrate P. H. Bartlett. "Yes," continued the chief, "I've got to speak a good word for him. He is always orderly and never gives us any trouble."

Despite the chief's extravagant praise his friend was fined the usual $10.

The Shamrocks defeated the Thistles last night by the score of 14 to 13. This was one of the fastest games that has been seen in the Girls' Basketball League this year. The Thistles were playing a good game, and at half-time were leading in the scoring, but after a hard fight they were downed by one point.

Helen Woolley and Hazel Fritz starred for the Shamrocks. Annie Hazelgrove of the Thistles put up an exceptionally good game, and is responsible for the good showing of her team.

DELIGHTFUL OPERETTA AT CRONYN MEMORIAL

"The Japanese Girl" Presented In An Exceptionally Clever Manner.

"The Japanese Girl," an operetta, combines bright and tuneful choruses, interesting solo work, gay costuming and an attractive garden scene, was presented at Cronyn Memorial Church last evening, under the direction of Miss Dorinda Abbott and under the auspices of the Men's Club of the church.

An old Japanese custom, that of leaving behind a growing plant or singing bird when a near relative leaves home for any length of time, suggested the plot for the operetta.

O Hanu San, a young Japanese beauty, with some of her friends, are celebrating her "coming of age" when word arrives that her father will not return as he as been called to war. Down-hearted at first, she appeals to the bird, which by its bright and joyful song seems an omen for good. While festivities are continued, two curious Canadian girls with their governess enter the Japanese garden, which act is very much resented by the Japanese girls. Hanu San enters and invites them to remain as her guests and the fun and frolic continue.

Miss Elsie McDermid, as O Hanu San had the leading role. Her voice, which is clear, flexible and musical, was heard in several solos as well as in a trio with Kitu San and Kayo San, her cousins. These parts were well taken by Misses Alicia Element and Nettie Jones, their voices blending together particularly well. Miss Edna Guy as Miss Knowall, the governess, was excellent. The humorous parts were taken by Misses Jane Metcalfe, Irene Burns and Alice Carley, all of whom did some clever acting. The chorus work was a special feature of the performance. The ensemble was excellent, enunciation and tone exceptional, and parts well balanced.

To Miss Abbott falls much of the credit for such a delightful, well-trained and artistic production. The London Conservatory String Ensemble, under the direction of F. L. Willgoose, with Miss Verna Dobbyn at the piano, accompanied the singers.

A reading by Miss Jane C. B. Metcalfe was much appreciated, as was also a solo by Miss Alice Carley, who has a voice of fine quality and good range.

THE MEN ALWAYS IN DEMAND.

From Ottawa there comes the word that every deputy minister has been warned that staffs must be reduced and the less useful people dismissed. No doubt this is necessary, even though it may appear harsh and must cause considerable hardship. It is noticeable that one class of employes are not being let out, indeed, they are being given special inducements to remain where they are. These are the specialists, the men and women who have so mastered their field that they are indispensable. And so it is always, the man who can make himself master of that field in which he has chosen to do his life work will find the world coming to his door seeking his advice and his help. John Bunyan puts the matter very concisely in some remarks on the medical profession:

> "Physicians," he says, "get neither name nor fame by the pricking of wheals or the picking out thistles, or by laying of plaisters to the scratch of a pin; every old woman can do this. But if they would have a name and a fame, if they will have it quickly, they must do some great and desperate cures. Let them fetch one to life that was dead, let them recover one to his wits that was mad, let them make one that was blind to see, or let them give ripe wits to a fool—these are notable cures, and he that can do this, if he dost thus first, he shall have the name and fame he deserves; he may lie abed till noon."

It is an old lesson, but one that must constantly be impressed upon youth, that what the world wants always is men and women who know more than their fellows. And whatever the vocation the process is ever the same: first to acquire a knowledge of the fundamentals of the work, then to become familiar with the methods by which advances in knowledge are made and last and all the time abundance of hard work done with the utmost thoroughness. There is no other road to real success.

PROTECT THE FORESTS.

At the Northern Ontario convention held a few days ago it was stated that at the present rate of destruction the forests of Northern Ontario would be wiped out within fifteen years. As this estimate was based on expert knowledge and investigation, it is a startling revelation of the Hearst Government's failure to protect and conserve a basic resource, and of the necessity for the immediate and vigorous application of a forest policy that will remove the menace. Few things are so surely tied up with Ontario's rapid and healthy progress as the forests. Their disappearance would involve the loss of immense water powers which in time could be harnessed for the use of the entire province. As well immense resources in fisheries and game would vanish with the passing of the forests, and there would be a serious depreciation in the value of our mineral wealth. Reckless, wasteful lumbering operations, inadequate fire protection and the lack of an up-to-date comprehensive policy of reforestation are given as the principal reasons for the present unfortunate situation, according to those who have carefully investigated.

In this matter of forest conservation Quebec is far ahead of Ontario. The Gouin ministry has put into force a vigorous policy of conservation that is registering excellent results. Reforestation is being applied vigorously and widely, fire guards are numerous and are equipped with the latest forest fighting apparatus. Even the aeroplane has been recruited to this most important service of the people. The Drury Government might to excellent advantage study what our eastern neighbor has accomplished in the vital matter of forest conservation. Whether in co-operation with the Federal Government or on its own initiative, the new administration will be expected to at once act to remedy this situation, which so seriously affects the entire community.

WELL MEANING, BUT UNFORTUNATE.

Queen Mary is to be the recipient, if the president of the International Anti-Cigarette League has her way, of a letter from this individual, Miss Gaston of Boston, drawing to her majesty's attention the rumor that she smokes a cigarette after luncheon, and asking for a denial. The letter as written ends with this sentence: "It will be exceedingly unfortunate if English standards fall below those of this county through your example."

Within a few hours of this news tit-bit being sent from Boston, there comes a dispatch from Chicago announcing that a theatre in that city had opened a smoking room for women at a cost of $10,000 and quoting the manager as saying that women drove him to it by smoking in the washroom, boudoir and lobby.

It is to be supposed that this president means well and merely is afflicted with that ocular trouble which makes the view of things near at hand hazy while permitting excellent sight of those afar off. Unfortunately, well-meaning people often make themselves rather ridiculous. There are hundreds of thousands of women and men, probably many millions, in Britain and in the United States who never have had this smoking rumor brought to their attention, and never would have heard of it had not Miss Gaston written her letter and announced her action in the press. Now that she has succeeded in making a fuss about it, many of those who are mentally feeble enough to be influenced by the Queen's personal habits may elect to follow the example she is alleged to have set. If they do, the credit or blame belongs to Miss Gaston, not to the Queen.

So far as is known, no theatre in Britain has found it necessary to take the step to which the Chicago manager was forced, so a logical inference is that the zealous lady might find enough to occupy her whole anti-cigarette energy near home, without dabbling in foreign personal and private business which does not concern her. If the letter reaches the hands of Queen Mary and she takes the trouble to have it answered, she will be exhibiting a courtesy which ought to be crushing. If the epistle gets only its deserts, it will have its resting-place in the waste basket.

GOMPERS AND THE REDS.

Samuel Gompers, through the Federationist, the official organ of the American Federation of Labor, condemns the Red movement completely, finally and for all time. Gompers exposes the Bolshevist constitution. He shows that Lenine's "dictatorship of the proletariat and peasantry" doesn't exist.

It is reassuring to learn that American trades-unionism is awake to the danger of Bolshevistic propaganda in the new world. Gompers says of this that while it is causing a lot of trouble it is doubtful if it is more effective than that "conducted by those who claim to be entirely detached from Russian influence and Russion payrolls." What he strikes at is the whole doctrine of disorder and destruction, whether it emanates from Moscow or the parlor Bolshevists of Boston.

That there is a Russian Bolshevist menace to the United States can be proved out of their own mouths. In the Review, a New York weekly, Jerome Landfield gives the following statement made by the president of the Petrograd soviet last February:

> We are willing to sign an unfavorable peace with the Allies. . . It would only mean that we should put no trust whatever in the bit of paper we should sign. We should use the breathing space so obtained in order to gather our strength in order that the mere continued existence of our Government would keep up the worldwide propaganda which Soviet Russia has been carrying on for more than a year.

Lenine himself, however, sets forth the whole plan with singular clarity and characteristic Bolshevic logic in his proclamation calling the Congress of the Communist International:

> The present is the period of destruction and crushing of the capitalistic system of the whole world, and it will be a catastrophe for the whole European culture, should capitalism with all its insoluble contradictions not be done away with.
>
> The aim of the proletariat must now be immediately to conquer power. To conquer power means to destroy the governmental apparatus of the bourgeois and to organize a new proletarian governmental apparatus.

In the same proclamation Lenine puts himself on record as follows:

> The dictatorship of the proletariat must be the occasion for the immediate expropriation of capital and the elimination of the private right of owning the means of production, through making them common public property. The socialization (meaning doing away with private property and making it the property of the proletarian state, which is managed by the workers on a socialistic basis, of the large-scale industries and the central bodies organized by the same, including the banks, the confiscation of the capitalistic agricultural production, the monopolization of large-scale commerce, the socialization of the large buildings in the towns and in the country; the establishment of a workmen's government and the concentration of the economic functions in the hands of the organs of the proletariat dictatorship — are the most essential aims of the day.
>
> In order to protect the socialist revolution against external and internal enemies, and to assist the fighting proletariats of other countries, it becomes necessary to entirely disarm the bourgeoisie and its agents and to arm the proletariat.
>
> The world situation demands immediate and as perfect as possible relations between the different groups of the revolutionary proletariat and a complete alliance of all the countries in which the revolution has already succeeded.
>
> The most important method is the mass action of the proletariat, including armed struggle against the Government power of capitalists.
>
> The destruction of state authority is the aim which all Socialists have set for themselves, Marx included and at the head; without the realization of this aim true democratism, that is, equality and liberty, cannot be realized.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Wanted, a premier. Apply Dominion of Canada.

Uncle Sam bids fair to have a full stable of contenders for his presidential prize this year.

Whatever the indications for the peach crop may be, the ice crop is assured for this year at least.

Rumor has it that the premier is on his way to Egypt. Maybe he is planning to consult the sphynx on our affairs at home.

Wonder what has happened to our old friend, Bob Rogers, lately. He hasn't offered a solution of national affairs for six weeks now.

Civil service positions at Ottawa will be less popular after the house-cleaning that is now in contemplation The traditional Ottawa "soft job" is being subjected to too many risks these days to make it attractive.

Complimentary remarks are being passed, and quite deservedly so, on the architectural grace and design of the several new factories that are under way in London at the present time. It is something to be adding new industries to the city, it is still better to find those industries erecting for their use buildings that are creditable in outward appearance and up-to-the-minute in the provision for the comfort and welfare of the employees. It is an evidence of the new spirit which views labor in quite another light than that which prevailed even a generation ago.

The London and Middlesex Historical Society has issued part ten of its printed transactions. A number of most interesting papers on early London history read before the society by its members are included. The Historical Society is performing a useful service in preserving in its publications such a large amount of information relating to the development of this city from a hamlet to a city of more than 60,000 people. It is a pity that London is still without an historical museum where the life of an earlier day might be shown. It would be an important addition to the educational institutions of the city and one that would become of greater value year by year.

From Here and There

HOW TO FIRE.

[Hamilton Times.]

A businessman who is also a smoke expert took the trouble yesterday to climb the Times office stairs and draw a plan and explain to the editor the proper way to fire a furnace so that it will not belch forth black clouds of smoke every time the stoker fires up. An expert fireman who knows his business, he said, will never shovel a fresh charge of black coal all over the surface of the fire. Rather he will merely throw a shovelful or so of coal on the front of the firepot. After that has been partially ignited he will spread it all over the surface, and thus keep the whole firepot covered with red and smokeless coal.

Fresh black coal makes no heat and creates no steam or power, but it wastes the coal when it is thrown all over the firepot, and is of no benefit until it gets red. But in the meantime it is going up the chimney in smoke, blackening everything it comes in contact with, and making a nuisance of itself. If this theory of stoking be correct, those who own furnaces should see that it is done as laid down by our expert.

AN IRISH ANSWER.

An Englishman and an Irishman met one day, and the former, wishing to have some fun with Pat, asked him if he was good at arithmetic.

"I am that," said Pat.

"Then, could you tell me how many shirts I could get out of a yard?" asked the Englishman.

"Well," said Pat, "that depends on whose yard you get into."

MODERN IMPROVEMENTS.

[John Ruskin, in "Modern Painters."]

"Well; but railroads and telegraphs are so useful for communicating knowledge to savage nations." Yes, if you have any to give them. If you know nothing but railroads, and can communicate nothing but aqueous vapor and gunpowder—what then? But if you have any other thing than those to give, then the railroad is of use only because it communicated that other thing; and the question is—what that other thing may be. Is it religion? I believe if we had really wanted to communicate that we could have done it in less than 1,800 years without steam. Most of the good religious communication that I remember has been done on foot; and it cannot be easily done faster than at foot pace. Is it science? But what science—of motion, meat and medicine? Well; when you have moved your savage, and dressed your savage, fed him with white bread, and shown him how to set a limb—what next? Follow out that question. Suppose every obstacle overcome; give your savage every advantage of civilization to the full; suppose that you have put the Red Indian in tight shoes; taught the Chinese how to make Wedgewood's ware, and to paint it with colors that will rub off—what next? Gradually, thinking on from point to point, we shall come to perceive that all true happiness and nobleness are near us, and yet neglected by us; and that till we have learned how to be happy and noble we have not much to tell, even to Red Indians. The delights of horse-racing and hunting, of assemblies in the night instead of the day, of costly and wearisome music, of costly and burdensome dress, of chagrined contention for place, or power, or wealth, or the eyes of the multitude; and of the endless occupation without purpose, and idleness without rest, of our vulgar world, are not, it seems to me, enjoyments we need be ambitious to communicate.

To watch the corn grow and the blossoms set; to draw hard breath over plowshare or spade; to read, to think, to love, to hope, to pray—these are the things that make men happy, communicate these things when you have got them.

WILL HAVE HANDS FULL.

[Saskatoon Phoenix.]

The United States has refused to accept its allotted share of the indemnity from Germany with respect to the German ships sunk at Scapa Flow. The refusal seems to be based on the high and lofty ground that the United States is not getting enough. The League of Nations is going to have its hands full just as soon as it gets into working order, and it will probably wish before it is through that the whole German navy had been sunk before the armistice was signed.

WARNING TO THE LIVING.

[Cincinnati Inquirer.]

A man died owing a Missouri editor six years' unpaid subscription to the paper. The editor did not send any flowers. He attended the funeral and placed a palm-leaf fan and a block of ice on the casket.

THE VALUE OF A NEWSPAPER.

[Peterborough Examiner.]

For the past three days the people of Winnipeg have been without daily newspapers, owing to a famine in newsprint. The absence of their favorite sheets has already taught the public to appreciate how big a part the newspapers play in their daily life. Naturally when there is no authentic method of distributing news the city has been flooded with foundationless rumors of happenings in the world at large. Stories that lose nothing in vividness as they pass from one to another have been circulated and as a result the telephones of the newspaper offices have been kept constantly busy by citizens anxious to ascertain the truth about some of the stories that spread through the city. The experience of Winnipeg calls attention to the value of the daily newspaper in keeping its readers informed of the real facts of what is occurring in the world. The service that is given in this respect is not understood until a crisis like that in Winnipeg shows how effective is the work of the newspapers in the prevention of wild rumors and false reports that would be daily features were it not for the corrective influence of the press. Again, the absence of the newspapers has had a discouraging effect upon business, and upon every other line of the city's activity. Three newspaperless days have been enough to give Winnipeg people a much higher opinion of the press than they have hitherto entertained.

FATHER AND SON—CHUMS.

[Farmer's Sun.]

Some few years ago a wealthy businessman in conversation with a friend said: "Can you guess what I am going to give my boy this year?" The friend, knowing the man to be very wealthy, at once thought of a check of huge proportions. After making a number of guesses as to the amount of money he was likely to give the boy, the businessman interrupted with the remark: "I am going to give my boy an hour of my time every day in the week, and two hours on Sunday, to use in any way he may desire."

That was the beginning of the Father and Son movement, which has for its object the development of a closer and more intimate relationship between the two. We have mothers' days and children's movements of various kinds, all of which are important and most worthy, but, after all, no movement is fraught with greater possibilities than this Father and Son undertaking.

Many fathers make the mistake of thinking that they fulfill their whole duty towards their boys when they provide them with food, clothing, shelter and pocket money. They then wash their hands of the responsibility, forgetting that companionship means more to a boy than all the riches in the world. Better by far for the father to leave the son a smaller amount of money and invest some of his time in cultivating a closer acquaintance with his boy and thereby help develop the lad's character.

During a certain period of a boy's life he looks to his father as his ideal, and if that father will but interest himself in his child's pursuits, he can retain the boy as a chum. This relationship keeps the father young, while the father's comradeship is infinitely better for the boy than if he were allowed to go out on the streets to find his chums and associates among questionable companions.

In the country there are exceptional opportunities for a closer and more intimate relationship between father and son. The work on the farm and the closer relationship in the home make for comradeship. Father and son can have a common bond, and yet develop a healthy rivalry in stock-raising etc. Give the boy a few animals of his own and notice how interested he will become.

We may as well frankly admit it. Many boys have left the farm because they were not given an opportunity to share in the management of the farm, nor were they given even a small interest in it. A boy who has his own chickens, pigs, calves or horse, is certain to be more contented and grow up to be a happier and better farmer than one who is denied these rights.

The Father and Son movement possesses great possibilities for every parent, but perhaps it affords greater opportunities for the farmer than for any other class of citizen. The first week in February is known as Father and Son Week. Let those of us who are parents take stock of our shortcomings in this respect and resolve to make the balance of the year one of comradeship with out sons. Be your boy's chum!

LOVE OF THE WILD

BY ARCHIE P. McKISHNIE

The man turned toward the path to the creek, and the boy stood tall and straight before him.

"Of course, you understand why us Bushwhackers can't just be friends with you, teacher," said the boy. "It's because you are one of them—and they are doin' all they can to break into our little world."

He pointed toward the open.

"Out there is where they belong; them and you. Go back there, teacher, and tell them to go. It's best, I tell you—best for everybody."

Away down across the clearing on the far bank of the creek, a burst of yellow-red light fluctuated against the skies, and the metallic ring of a saw twanged out, silencing the whip-poor-will's call. Colonel Hallibut's mill was running overtime. All this stimulated that restlessness that had lately been borne in the soul of the young Bushwhacker. He stepped from the shadow and shook his fist at the red glow.

"Dam 'em," he cried. And paying no heed to the figure which stood, with bowed head, on the path, he stepped away across the clearing toward the pale light streaming from the log-house window.

CHAPTER II.

Glow and Gloss.

Boy opened the door and passed silently inside. Beside the wide fireplace the long gaunt figure of a man was bent almost double. He had a thick shock of sandy hair tinged with grey. His bewhiskered face was hidden behind tobacco smoke. A time-stained fiddle lay across his knee, his sock feet rested on the hickory fender, and the ruddy glow of the log fire threw a grotesque shadow of him against the whitewashed wall. A pair of high cowhide boots, newly-greased and shiny, rested on his one side, while a piece of white second-growth hickory, crudely shaped to the form of an axe-handle, lay on the other. In one corner of the room a bunch of rusty rat traps lay, and across deer antlers on the wall hung a long rifle, a short one, and a double-barreled fowling-piece.

The lad simply glanced at the man without speaking, and taking the dipper and wash-basin from the bench, passed outside again. When he re-entered, a girl of about eighteen years of age was pouring tea from a pewter pot into a tin cup. Her face was toward him, and a smile chased the shadow from the lad's face as his eyes rested upon it. He dried his hands on the rough towel hanging on the door and crossed over to the table. He drew back the stool, hesitated, and asked of the girl in a low tone:

"Is she sleepin', Gloss?"

The girl shook her head. Her hair was chestnut-brown and hung below her waist in a long, thick braid. Her eyes were large, grey, and long-lashed like a fawn's.

"You'd best not go in yet, Boy," she said. "Granny's readin' her chapter now."

"I'll just go in for a minute, I guess." He entered the inner room and stood gazing across at the low bed upon which a wasted form rested. An old woman sat beside the bed, a book in her blue-veined hands. When she closed the book, Boy advanced slowly and stood beside the bed.

"Are you feelin' some better, ma?" he inquired gently.

"Yes, Boy, better. I'll soon be well." He understood and he held the hot hand, stretched out to him, in both his own.

"You're not nigh as well as you was this mornin'," he said hesitatingly; "I guess I know the reason,"

She did not reply, but lay with her eyes closed, and Boy saw tears creep down the white cheeks. He spoke fiercely.

"He threatened as he'd do it, and he did——"

He checked himself, biting the words off with a click of his white teeth.

"I know just what he told you, ma. I know all he told you, and he didn't lie none. I haven't been to his school. I can't go to his school. I've tried my best to stay 'cause I knowed you wanted me to. But I go wild. I can't stay still inside like that and be in prison. I don't want more learnin' than I have. I can read and write and figure. You taught me that, and I learned from you 'cause—'cause—"

His voice faltered and feebly the mother drew him down beside her on the bed.

"Poor old Boy," she soothed tenderly, smoothing the dark curls back from his forehead; then sorrowfully, "I wonder why you should hate that for which so many people are striving?"

"Don't ma— don't speak about it. You know we talked it all over before. You called it enlightenment, you remember? I don't want enlightenment. I hate it. I'll fight it away from me, and I'll have to fight it— and them."

He shuddered and she held him tight in her weak arms.

"Dear Boy," she said, "it will be a useless struggle. You can't hope to hold your little world. Now go, and God bless you. Kiss me good-night, Boy."

He bent and kissed her on the forehead, then springing up crossed the room. At the door he halted.

"Yes, ma," he said gayly, in response to her call.

"Did you meet the teacher?"

One moment he vacillated between love and truth. Once he had lied, uselessly to save her. But he hated a liar. He went back to the bed slowly.

"Yes, I met him, and I told him that he best be leavin' these parts."

Her eyes rested upon him in mingled love and wonder.

"I don't like—I don't trust that man," said the mother earnestly. Now go, Boy, and God bless you."

When Boy sought the table again the tea and meat were stone cold. He smiled at the girl, who was standing beside the fireplace, and she said teasingly:

"I told you you better not go."

The man with the fiddle across his knees straightened up at her words, and he looked over at Boy with a puzzled expression on his face.

"Thought maybe you'd joined a flock of wooocock and gone south," he remarked. "Wonder you can leave that bush long enough to get your meals. Where you been, Boy?"

"Nowhere much," answered the boy, looking hard at his plate.

"Well, we had that teacher chap over again tonight," said the father, "—smart feller that."

Boy glanced up quickly and caught a gleam of humor in the speaker's blue eyes. Then he looked at the girl. She was laughing quietly.

"The teacher says that you've been absentin' yourself from school," went on the man. "I asked him if absentin' was a regular habit in scholars same as swappin' jack-knives, and you ought to have seen the look he gave me.

"'It's a punishable offence,' says he.

"'Well, I don't mind you whalin' Boy some,' says I; 'I'm sure he needs it.'

"'I won't whip a boy like him,' says he. 'I don't have to, and I won't.'

"'Well, I don't know as I blame you for not wantin' to,' says I. 'Boy's some handy with his fists, bein' a graduate in boxin' of long Bill Paisley's.'"

The big man stood up and stretched his six-foot figure with enjoyment. In his huge fist the old fiddle looked like a hand-mirror. He threw back his shaggy head and laughed so loudly that the burning log in the fireplace broke in twain and threw a shower of red and golden sparks up the wide chimney.

"When we were talkin' and I was coaxin' the visitor to set up to supper and make himself to home, who should drop in but Bill Paisley himself. Gosh, it was fun to see how he took in the teacher. 'Nice night, sir,' says Bill, bowin' low and liftin' off his cap. I shook my head at him, but he didn't pay any attention, so I went on eatin' and let 'em alone. Bill got out his pipe and felt in all his pockets, keepin' his eyes right on the teacher and grinnin' so foolish that I nearly choked on pork rind.

"'Would you mind obligin' me with a pipeful of Canada-Green?' he asks; 'I suppose you have a plug of twist in your pocket, sir?'

"The teacher frowned at him. 'I don't smoke Canada-Green,' says he short and crisp-like.

"'Chaw, maybe?' grinned Bill, putting his pipe away and lickin' his lips expectant.

"'No, nor chaw—as you call it.'

"'Dear me,' sighed Bill, and after while he says, 'dear me' again.

"By and by Paisley limbered up and told the teacher he was right down glad to meet a man fearless enough to come to this wild place in the cause of learnin.'

"'You're a martyr, sir,' says Bill, 'a brave man, to come where so many dangers beset the paths. Swamp fevers that wither you up and ague that shakes your front teeth back where your back teeth are now and your back teeth where your front ones should be. There are black snakes in these parts,' says Bill, 'that have got so used to bitin' Injuns they never miss a stroke, and they'll travel miles to get a whack at a white man, particularly a stranger,' says he. 'Then there be wolves here big as two-year old steers, and they do get hungry when the winter sets in.'

"The teacher squirmed. 'I'll get used to all that,' says he

"'Sure,' agreed Bill, 'just the same it's a good thing you're a brave man and a husky chap. Met any of our Injuns yet?'

"'A few,' said the young feller lookin' scared.'

"'Injuns are mighty queer reptiles,' says Bill, 'but you'll get along with 'em all right if you humor 'em with presents and attend their pow-wows. Might be a good idea to let on there's injun blood in you. But whatever you do, if you should happen to have a little nigger blood in you, don't tell 'em. Injuns naturally hate niggers.'

"'Bill got up and went in to say 'howdy' to ma. 'She wants to see you, mister,' he says to the teacher, when he came out. 'I suppose you've learned among other things, that there's such a thing as talkin' too much, so be careful.'

"When Bill went away Gloss and me sat down and listened to what that Simpson and your ma had to say to each other. He told her all about you stayin' away from school and a lot of things that seemed to worry her. I thought it queer, 'cause ever since he has been comin' across here, we've tried to make him feel at home. But I just put it down that he had it in for you, Boy, on some account or other."

Boy glanced at the girl and her eyes fell.

"If it hadn't been our own house I would have thrown him out," McTavish declared.

"I met him down by the creek as I was comin' home," said Boy absently, "I told him he'd best be leavin' these parts."

The girl came over and leaned across the table toward him.

"Boy," she said, "do you suppose he will go?" he asked quickly.

"Would you rather he'd stay?"

"No."

"Then he'll go"

She passed from the room, and Boy sat huddled, his head in his hands, his eyes fastened upon the guns hanging on the wall. From the shadows Big McTavish's fiddle was wailing "Ye Banks and Braes." The fire died and the long-armed shadows reached and groped about the room, touching the dried venison strips and the hams and bacon hanging from the ceiling, glancing from the oily green hides stretched for curing on the walls, hovering above the bundles of pelts and piles of traps in the corners of the room. But Boy's mind was not on the trapping activities that soon would bestir the times once more. In his soul he was pondering over the question of his new unrest: a question which must be answered sooner or later by somebody.

Can We Conquer Russia by Kindness?

The hand that feeds Russia is liable to be bitten, in the opinion of some skeptical editors, who doubt the wisdom of applying to our dealings with Lenine the apostolic injunction: "If thine enemy hunger, feed him." According to one paragrapher, it looks as though the Allied statesmen thought the policy of "feed the brute" ought to work as well with a hostile nation as it is supposed to do with a balky husband. The Echo de Paris wonders how "we are going to do business with Moscow, since by military requisition they can take anything sent into Russia." The New York Times, in taking a dig at Mr. Lloyd George, says that he "having failed to kill the wolf, now offers him a juicy bone." Yet as we study the editorial opinion in this country we find much approval of the new Russian policy. The Newark News calls it "the most sensible and hopeful move that has been made in dealing with the Russian muddle."

A very enjoyable time was spent on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs, 142 Briscoe street, when a kitchen shower was given there in honor of Miss Ethel Thompson of this city. The evening was spent in cards, games and music, after which refreshments were served and good wishes showered upon the young bride-to-be.

The Senator Coffey Chapter, I. O. D. E., were the hostesses of a very jolly party given last night in St. Peter's Parish Hall, when the guests were the men from Tecumseh and Wolseley Barracks. Miss Caesar and Mrs. Leech, both Red Cross Hospital visitors, were in charge of the arrangements for the entertainment which consisted of cards and games. The men left after spending a most delightful evening.

The girls of the Central Y. W. C. A. had a most delightful toboggan party at the Country Club slides on Wednesday evening, about forty of them setting off early in the evening with seven huge toboggans. Miss Helen d'Avignon, girls' work secretary, who had arranged for the party, accompanied them and after an evening's merry sport, the whole party returned to the King street residence, where Miss McDonald and Mrs. Davidson were waiting to serve wieners, hot rolls, coffee and cake to the hungry throng.

Last night the Y. M. C. A. dining-room was filled with two hundred girls of the Y. W. C. A. Extension Clubs in the city when they were banquetted there at a quarter to seven. Mrs. John Crawford, the Y. W. C. A. extension secretary, had arranged for the banquet, and the tables were prettily decorated for the occasion. Miss Isabel Tanton made an admirable toast mistress, toasts being offered by the girls to the Y. W. C. A., Dominion Y. W. C. A. Council, Girls' Clubs, and so forth. During the evening the room rang with club yells and songs, the party breaking up after one of the most delightful times ever spent.

A pretty post-nuptial reception that attracted many callers was that of Mrs. A. M. Hunt, who received at her residence, 47 Gerrard street, on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Hunt was assisted in greeting the guests by her mother, Mrs. McFarlane. Mrs. Herbert J. Childs invited to the tea room where pretty shaded candles cast a soft glow over the tea table laid with a cluny lace cloth and centred with crimson roses. Tea was poured by Mrs. S. P. Reynolds and Mrs. Wm. Copp, and assisting in the tea room were Miss Myrtle Justin, Miss Maude Norris and Miss Maude McFarlane. Little Miss Jean Todd made a charming door attendant.

In future Mrs. Hunt will receive on the second Thursday in the month.

FARMER—WILKINSON.

A very quiet but beautiful wedding was solemnized at "Shady Side," Wyoming, Ont., on Saturday, January 24, at 6 o'clock, when Mrs. Sarah Lucinda Wilkinson of Wyoming and Mr. Oscar J. Farmer were united in marriage. The Rev. J. P. McLeod performed the wedding ceremony.

The bride and groom entered the drawing-room to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, played by Miss Mary Wilkinson. The bride wore a Copenhagen satin dress with over-dress of georgette crepe of the same shade, which was heavily beaded in black and gold. She also wore a corsage of deep pink roses.

After the signing of the register, the company sat down to a full-course wedding dinner. The after-dinner hour was greatly enjoyed by the company of immediate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Farmer will reside at 269 Ridout street, London, Ont.

MacVICAR—ARMSTRONG.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong, Brigden, was the scene of a very pretty event on Thursday evening, when their youngest daughter, Lyla Kathleen, was united in marriage to Russell MacVicar of Regina, Sask. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was attended by two little flower girls, Mary and Kathleen Armstrong; a ring-bearer, Miss Helen Armstrong; and trainbearer, Miss Charlotte Armstrong, all nieces of the bride. The Wedding March was played by Miss Cora Capes, and Miss Kerr of Courtright was soloist.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white satin hand-embroidered, with bridal veil and orange blossoms. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Davis of Petrolea. After a very dainty wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. MacVicar left for points east, but will return to Brigden for a few days previous to taking leave for their home in Regina. Only the very immediate relatives were present at the wedding. The presents were very beautiful and numerous.

A few of Miss Lyla Armstrong's girl friends called on Tuesday evening previous to her marriage, and presented her with a beautiful inlaid solid mahogany sewing tray.

LAUNDRY SOAP.

Good soap is essential for cleaning purposes. Soap is made of fat in combination with a strong alkali. In the great war there was need for enormous quantities of glycerine for shells, and as glycerine is obtained from fats there was a scarcity of fats, which greatly increased the cost both of fats and soaps.

When soap is bought the housewife pays, not only for the materials used, but for the manufacture and the sale. She pays the manufacturer, the advertiser, the wholesaler and the retailer, and each party who handles the product must take pay for transfers. It must appear then to everyone that a housewife saves money by making her own laundry soap. The process is simple and every woman can learn how it is done in a very short time.

On farms there is much waste fat called cracklings when the lard is tried out, and this makes excellent soap. We women will need to learn every thrift recipe known, and exercise wise economy while we are paying off our enormous war debts. I give below a good recipe for cleansing purposes:

Laundry Soap.

1 can lye
4½ lbs. fat
½ lb. borax
½ lb. resin
8½ qts. soft water.

Put all together in a large enamelled preserving kettle and boil one hour. Pour into pans and cut into cakes when cooled.

Note—A large iron pot, if it can be secured, is the best receptacle to use for this kind of soap.

GIRL GUIDE NOTES

About 35 of the Girl Guides at the First Methodist Church had a jolly skating party in Victoria Park, returning later to Wesley Hall, where refreshments were served and games enjoyed.

At the last meeting of the troop at St. Paul's Cathedral, two interesting talks were given the girls, Miss Matthews speaking on "Guide Loyalty and Prayer" and Mrs. Westland on "Guide Activities."

A supper meeting of the Girl Guide captains of the city was held on Wednesday night at the Central Y. W. C. A. building, when the badge work was discussed and plans laid for a big guide rally in the city about May 28.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

Admire the great, reverence the good, and be joyous with the genial. —Charlotte Bronte.

84 Years Young.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have been a constant reader of the Mail-Box, and I enjoy it very much. I have many old stockings that need new feet. Now I'll try my luck and ask Miss Grey for that famous stocking-foot pattern. You might think "what does an old woman of 84 years want with that pattern?" Well, if I get it, and when I am done with it, come and see, and you'll find that I didn't sew it on the top of the leg. Here is an old recipe for smallpox to be taken as soon as the pox appears: two ounces cream tartar, one pint water; stir until it is dissolved. Let the patient drink it until it turns the stomach and the disease is thrown off. Inclosed you will find ten cents for the children's hospital. NOT OLD.

Ans.—Just real glad to send the pattern to you, and am sure you will know exactly what to do with it. Thank you for the recipe and donation to the fund.

Two Little Sunbeams.

Am sending 10 cents from two little "sunbeams." One is three years old, and the other six months. I was telling the tree-year old about the poor, sick babies, and she said: "Poor wee lambys, do they kye-kye?"

I do not need the stocking-foot pattern, it seems to be helping quite a few. I wonder if any of your readers every try to thicken stews with fine sago or tapioca in place of flour. It makes a nice change. ICICLE.

Ans.—Thanks so much for the contribution from the little folks. Glad to send the pattern and have your useful hint.

CORNER OF GOOD THINGS

Will send you a cake recipe, which never fails me. Light Walnut Cake.—One egg, 1 cup white sugar, 1 cup sweet cream, 2 teaspoons baking powder, ½ cup walnuts, 1 teaspoon vanilla and flour to stiffen. Hoping someone will find it good. IMA TEASE.

Fried Cakes.—Half cup sugar, 1 cup sweet milk, pinch of salt, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 8 tablespoons lard, 1 teaspoon lemon, flour enough so to roll out. Mix until soft. Then fry in hot lard. BLUE EYES.

Cream Puffs—One cup hot water, ½ cup butter boiled together, while boiling stir in 1 cup flour. Remove from fire and stir to a smooth paste; when cool add 3 unbeaten eggs, stirring for 5 minutes. Drop in a buttered pan with small tablespoon, and bake 25 minutes; when cold cut open with a sharp knife and fill with whipped cream, or the following: One cup milk, ½ cup sugar, 1 egg, 3 tablespoons flour, cook and flavor, let cool and fill puffs.

Tart Filling—One cup currants, 1 cup brown sugar, ½ cup butter, 2 eggs, a little lemon peel. Beat all together, fill tart crusts and bake. From JULY.

Here is a recipe for War Cake, which is economical for After War: One cup raisins, 1 cup water, 1 tablespoon lard or butter; boil together 5 minutes; let cool, then add 1 teaspoon soda, salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon nutmeg and 1 teaspoon pastry spice, 1½ cups flour. Bake for 45 minutes in moderate oven in one loaf. PEGGY.

Johnny Cake.—One cup milk, 1 cup flour, 1 cup cornmeal, 1 egg, ½ cup sugar, 2 level teaspoons baking powder, a little salt, piece of butter the size of a large egg. Cream together, butter and sugar, add egg, then milk, lastly all dry ingredients. JULY.

Ginger Drop Cakes.—One cup granulated sugar, ½ cup butter and lard, 1 egg, ½ cup molasses, 2 teaspoonfuls ground ginger, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoonful baking soda, 1-4 cup hot water, 2½ cups flour. Make 24. GWENDOLYN.

Johnnie Cake—Two cups flour, 1 cup cornmeal, 2 tablespoons shortening, 1 egg, 1 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon cream tartar, 1 cup sour milk.

This is also a dandy recipe. Don't know what the name of it is. It's good though: Two cups flour, 2 cups bran, 1 cup brown sugar, 1 cup raisins, 1 teaspoon soda, or 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon cream tartar. Mix with buttermilk to batter. Bake in long pan. JEANETTE

COSY CORNER CHATS.

Little Good-for-Nothing—In answer to your inquiry re your friend. If he listens to tales without giving you a chance to justify yourself you are better without his friendship, but no doubt by this time you have had a letter from him and "all is revelry and joy."

I have the offer of entering the movies in Toronto, but so many of my friends think it is a low position. I would like to hear from some of the readers their views of same. FAIR 17.

"Molly Bon" was asking how to take an inkstain out of red tapestry tablecloth.

Soak inkstains in sour milk. If a dark stain remains, rinse in a weak solution of chloride of lime. MARGARET.

I have never written to your page, but have enjoyed the letters very much. I have tried quite a number of the recipes and found them good. ANOTHER GRANDMOTHER.

Am a new member as my brother is taking The Advertiser. I turn to your page, it is so interesting, I think it is the best part of the paper, so many good recipes. WILD ROSE.

I am greatly interested in your Mail-Box letters, and I find it a very good help in various ways. MOTHER OF FOUR.

May I come in and spin a web, right in your corner, too, as I am a new member and am a little shy. I love to read the letters on farm and city life. I live on the farm and know what work is. I am only seventeen, and have been turning the grindstone all my life. I have hoed corn and picked tomatoes and blocked beets and did all kinds of work on the farm. But really I love to work outdoors. GIRL WITH THE APRON.

Am I too late to walk in and wish you and all the Boxites a Happy New Year? I hope not. We have oodles of snow now and a nice ride behind jingle bells can hardly be nicer. The other evening we were prancing along nicely on the way to a friend's, when all of a sudden we found ourselves in the snow, the cutter tipped over neatly and our old pony looking back wonderingly at us. Oh, it was all so funee!"

Well, we got started again and we looked like snow men after such a spill. We were simply wrapped up in it. PUSSY 1ST.

Two Dewdrops—Send your name and address on a stamped envelope, mentioning what your request was.

This is my first visit to the Mail-Box, and I hope I may be a welcome stranger, for such I am in this section of the country.

I would appreciate getting a recipe for orange marmalade, and I hope I may be able to be of some service to some one else in the near future. AN ADMIRER.

Ans.—In reply to your inquiry, would suggest that you submit your verses to the editor, as there is no available space in the Mail-Box.

If people would gargle their throats with salt and water often when they feel a cold coming on, it would help, and also toughens the throat so as not to get cold easy. Will Mustnotell please copy "There Is a Difference" for me, and will Raleigh Milkmaid please send me some of those comic recitations she offers? I have not got "Bill Mason's Bride" for her, but have other good ones if she wishes them, and will also send some to "Mustnotell" if she wishes. Please send some as soon as you can, and I will leave my address with Miss Grey. ISABELL.

This is my first call to the Mail-Box, although I enjoy the letters so much. I notice where Raleigh Milkmaid asked for the words of "Bill Mason's Bride," which I am inclosing for her. I wonder if anyone ever tried making pressure with fingers in the ears and at the same time making vigorous motion of the jaws, as in act of chewing for hiccoughs, or nose-bleeding. Pardon me taking up so much of your time. BE-ATRIS.

If you put a small piece of butter in starch while it is still hot your irons will never stick. Rub your hands with vinegar before you hang out your clothes and you will find that your hands don't need gloves. IDA.

Received your stocking-foot pattern and think it fine. I am saving all the letters in your page and making a scrap book of them. MRS. A. J.

THAMESFORD GIRLS' CLUB.

The Grace Country Club of Adams School entertained the women of the section on Saturday, January 24. A very short but pleasing program was rendered, after which lunch was served, and everyone enjoyed a sociable half hour. The next regular meeting will be held on February 7.

CAYUGA W. I.

At the last meeting of the Women's Institute of Cayuga, held at the home of Mrs. M. A. Crooker, Mrs. Mitchiner read a most interesting paper on the "Homeless Children of Halifax and." The paper gripped its hearers to such an extent that it was decided to give $25 of the Red Cross funds to the aid of these unfortunates, as soon as permission could be received from headquarters to make the gift.

KERWOOD W. I.

The Woman's Institute held a very successful meeting at the parsonage, when Mrs. (Rev.) Diehl gave an excellent paper on "Thoughts for the New Year." Mr. Hudson gave a couple of excellent readings, and an instrumental solo was rendered by Miss Hughes. The society decided to give $50 to the Armenian relief fund.

GOT RID OF THE COUGH THAT STICKS

Some coughs seem hard to shake off—stick right to you in spite of all you do to get rid of them.

Those are the kind of coughs that are dangerous—that weaken the lungs so that the germs of consumption find a ready foothold.

We know of no remedy that will cure stubborn coughs—coughs that won't let go—like Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It allays the inflammation, soothes the irritation, and heals the diseased mucous lining of the lungs and bronchial tubes.

Mrs. Leo. Allen, Petite de Grat Bridge, N.S., writes: "Last winter I had an awful cough that kept me in the house for over two months. I tried several cough remedies, but got no relief. I was almost discouraged when a grocer here offered me a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. After taking that one my coughing began to cease. I took two more, and they cured me completely."

Get the genuine Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup; put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c.; manufactured only by the T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Salts.

So far as remedial effects are concerned nothing in the line of salts has ever been discovered which is preferable to common Epsom salts. There are fourteen varieties, and brands of saline physics exploited anew each year, but ordinary Epsom salts will accomplish all that any other saline cathartic or laxative can accomplish.

The effect of any and all of these saline physics is the same in quality, though different salts vary in the dosage required to physic. That is the whole story—asine on the buncombe dispensed with the package.

The action of saline cathartics is hygroscopic—that is, they all have an affinity for water, [illegible] from the lining of the intestine. Of course that is irritation and the irritation excites peristaltic movement, and so the evacuation is produced.

It is all right to take a dose of salts once in an eon or so, for some particular illness; or sometimes it may be necessary to continue taking salts, if the doctor so directs, in a serious illness. But it is a sad mistake to take salts frequently or habitually merely to move the bowels, and only a veritable old woman would ascribe to salts any "purifying" influence on the blood—an old woman or a keen gentleman with some fancy salts to market.

Rochelle salts produces a more noticeable diuresis than does Epsom salts; that is, increases the excretion of urine.

Mixtures of these and other saline cathartics labelled with the impressive names of [illegible] mineral springs or resorts, are no more and no less useful than the common grocery store salts, though some of us do like our medicine from fancy packages; perhaps we get the habit by indulging in boxed air for breakfast when we are young.

Often an active saline cathartic is advisable at the onset of such an illness as acute caryza. A tablespoonful of Epsom salts, taken dissolved in an inch of water in a glass, half an hour before breakfast or before breakfast time if it is to be therapeutic fast day. Some of us, however, were victimized by grandma in our infancy, and hence we have an antipathy to salts and other medicines—they are so suggestive of "worm medicine."

Liquor Magnesium Citratis (solution of magnesium citrate) is provided by the United States Pharmacopoeia for finical people; it is a pleasant way to take a saline cathartic. One bottle is a fair dose—twelve ounces—though it may be taken in several divided doses. This is best prepared when needed. It tastes like lemon fizz.

Here is the way the druggist makes it:

Dissolve one onuce of citric acid in four ounces of water. Add half an ounce of magnesium carbonate and stir till all dissolved, adding about four ounces of water, then filter and set aside. Place in a strong, thick citrate bottle two ounces of syrup of citric acid. Pour carefully down the sides, without disturbing the heavy syrup, the solution set aside. Drop in 39 grains of potassium carbonate crystals. Quickly cork, and tie cork in place. Do not stir up or shake until the dose is to be taken. Keep in a cool place.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Cocoa, Stimulant.

Our children attend a country district school, carrying their lunches. At noon the teacher prepares cocoa and she ridicules the children for not taking the cocoa. I have objected to their drinking it, under the impression that it contains caffiene. Am I right, or is cocoa a wholesome, nutritious beverage for young children? The teacher tells me she is willing to accept your opinion. (Mrs. W. I.)

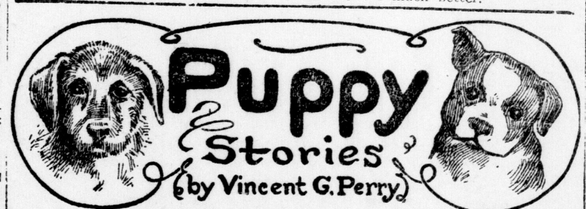

ANSWER—Cocoa itself (without added milk or sugar) is more nutritious than either tea or coffee without these additions. A pound of cocoa as purchased contains somewhat less nourishment than a pound of peanut meats or a pound of potato chips cooked. The stimulant in cocoa is theobromine (closely resembling caffiene of coffee and theine of tea in effect on the nervous system). Theobromine acts as a stimulant chiefly on the kidneys, moderately upon the heart and least upon the brain; caffiene acts as a stimulant chiefly upon the brain, moderately upon the heart, and least upon the kidneys. On account of the stimulating effect on the nervous system, I believe it is not a suitable beverage for children. Milk is the more nourishing and more wholesome beverage for children's school lunches. Cocoa is all right for the teacher and for most persons over sixteen. Only occasionally, owing to its large content of oxalic acid, cocoa proves injurious to adults. Some hot soup served at the school lunch would fill the bill much better.

LIMPY DICK.

It was so long ago Limpy Dick had his leg hurt; he had almost forgotten how it happened. He was a funny-looking little dog anyway, and you can be sure he was much funnier-looking when he ran on three legs. Now, if Limpy Dick had wanted to, he could have run on all four legs like any other dog, for he had not been badly hurt at all, and was just lame, because people sympathized with him, and he liked to be pitied and made a fuss over.

Of course, conduct like that isn't a bit dog-like and the other little dogs of the neighborhood held a meeting to see what could be done about it.

"He's getting altogether too proud over his lame leg," Bobbits, the woolly dog, declared.

"Much too proud!" agreed Darkey, the Spaniel.

"Why would you believe it, my mistress called him a poor little dear the other day, just because of that fake lame foot," Petty, the Pomerania, spoke-up. Petty was a pampered doggy and resented his mistress' pity for the other dog.

"What will we do about it?" asked Skinny, the wolf-hound. "I am sure he is a deceitful little dog."

"We will talk it over with Bruno, the Newfoundland," suggested Buster, the Boston, and the others agreed.

Big Bruno listened to their story and then sat down to think it over. "I have a plan," he said at last, and they gathered the other dogs around him and whispered it to them.

"Come on and see the wild boar," said Buster to Limpy Dick the next morning.

"What is a wild boar?" asked Dick as he rested himself.

"Why, it's the funniest animal ever," Buster spoke up eagerly. "There is one down by the river. We are all going to see it."

Now Dick was a curious dog, and the thought of seeing a strange sight interested him.

"But my lame leg," he said doubtfully.

"I will help you along," Buster promised.

That won Dick over, and he limped off with the Boston.

"I don't see a boar," he said, as they got near the river. "Where—" but he did not finish, there was a great growl and then a big mud-colored object sprang out at them.

"Run for your life," Buster cried, and Limpy Dick did run as fast as he could. But, my, how soon his leg had got better! In his fright he had forgotten to "play" lame.

"Ha, ha, ha!" laughed the other dogs, as Dick ran into them down the street. "Where is the lame leg now?"

How ashamed Dick was, for he realized a trick had been played on him. Sure enough, one had. Down the street came Bruno, the Newfoundland, but how changed he was. The old dog had rolled in the mud to make himself look like a boar, and his trick had worked. Dick was cured, he never limped again much to the joy of the other dogs.

Hockey is on he boom locally, and one of the biggest owds of the season may be expected ut to watch the intermediate team in heir first journey into the semi-finals the O. H. A.

Like most of the teams that the eals have met this season, little is nown of the Glencoe team except that ey have the whole-hearted support of village full of red-hot fans, a good any of whom will accompany the am here for tonight's game. They ve been playing good hockey in their strict, but just what brand of hockey at means will be shown in this game. avenport, who played for London last ar, is playing centre for the visitors night, and his work will interest a nch of local fans.

The locals have been digging into the rkout game since their last appearance here against Watford, and are in better shape than at any other time this season. The district gave them little trouble, but they know now that they are up against the real thing and have worked accordingly. The few appearances they have made here, have impressed the fans with the fact that London is represented by one of the speediest crews that ever represented the city in the O. H. A., and for tonight's game, they expect some real team work of the variety that will make the team look a greater factor than they have been, for the honors of the intermediate section this season.

W. Tackaberry has been slated to handle tonight's game, and from his work hereabouts can be depended upon to make both teams play hockey for the full sixty minutes.

STRATFORD TEAMS SPEND BUSY TIME TONIGHT

STRATFORD, Jan. 29. — Mitchell seniors play here tomorrow in a senior northern league fixture, and a good match is expected. The winner will likely play Seaforth.

The local juniors go to St. Marys for the first home and home game with the Stone Town team to decide the district honors. The kids expect to win.

LINDSAY SIX ANNEX DISTRICT HONORS IN FAST HOCKEY GAME

Defeat Peterboro Juniors by a Score of Seven to Four.

LINDSAY, Jan. 29.—By defeating Peterboro Juniors by the score of 7 to 4, the Midgets annexed the district honors by five goals here tonight. The game was fast and furious, Referee Whitehead being quite lenient. The Midgets used their weight effectively on the Peters. Lindsay had the better of the score in every period, but the visitors battled hard in the first 40 minutes. Garnett, the husky defence player, was the star. Bell and Stoddart also did well. Sheepan of the Peterboro defence was their best man.

R. J. YOUNGS WIN.

R. J. Young's team beat Smallman's six at the Westminster rink last night, 8—2. Despite the score, the game was closely contested, and the winners had to travel all the way to win. Billbrough, Steel and Richardson were the stars of the winners.

P. P. C. L. I. ENTRY INTO INDOOR BALL LEAGUE CHANGES SCHEDULE

Meeting Will Be Held Monday To Draft New Guide, and "Pats" Play That Night.

The City Indoor Baseball League intends to reorganize the schedule of games and endeavor to infuse new interest into the season's program at a meeting which has been called for that purpose and which will be held in the armories at 8 o'clock on Monday evening next. The redrafting of the schedule has been made necessary by the fact that the P. P. C. L. I. has entered two teams in the league. Commencing on Monday night the following games will be played:

Monday—First game, P. P. C. L. I. first team vs. G. T. R.; second game, Dowlers vs. Knights of Columbus.

Thursday—First game, P. P. C. L. I. second team vs. Army & Navy; second game, Public Utilities vs. Technicals.

The members of all teams are requested to attend the Monday evening meeting and to come prepared to make the occasion a "booster" for the league.

HEADS Y ATHLETICS

BOBBY KERR, world's champion sprinter, who has been elected president of Y. M. C. A. Athletic League. The league has 65 branches and 20,000 taking physical courses.

Five Goals in Twelve Minutes In Wingham-Brussels Game

WINGHAM, Jan. 29. — Wingham hockey fans are holding their heads a little higher tonight as a result of Wingham's win over Brussels, 8 to 6, in a Northern League fixture here this evening. The game was fast and clean, a remarkable feature being that the last five goals were scored in the space of twelve minutes.

The line-up:

Brussels.		Wingham.
Lowrey	Goal	Thornton
Ament	Defence	Bloomfield
Govenlock	Defence	Lockridge
Bell	Centre	Lockridge
Fox	Wing	Mordan
Harris	Wing	Cruikshanks
Ballantyne	Sub.	McColl

Referee—Wood of Harriston.

TILLSONBURG FANS ARE STRONG FOR THEIR JUNIORS

TILLSONBURG, Jan. 29.—London's win over Woodstock has instilled unbounded enthusiasm into the hearts of local hockey fans, and have no doubt that the team that meets Tillsonburg will have to travel the full 60 minutes to win the group honors. St. Thomas plays the final game here on Monday evening, and although the locals expect a strenuous game, they fully expect to win the game and be ready to go into the scrap for the group honors. The local kids have not had a game for nearly two weeks, and with continued practice are in the pink of condition, and if they play on neutral ice at Ingersoll local fans will run a special train to the Pork Town, and half of the town will go ith the kids.

This Friday evening the 14th annual tournament of the Southern Counties League opens, and the present Junior O. H. A. captured the three-year trophy last season, and decided to go after O. H. A. honors this season. It is a safe bet that the team that beats Tillsonburg for the group honors will know they will have been playing hockey.

CY EDY'S THISTLES WIN COLT BONSPIEL PREMIER HONORS

Lockwood's St. Thomas Granites Are One Up in McLaren Trophy Play Over Anderson's Thistles.

After coming through in a class by themselves, Dr. J. W. White's Stone Town curlers went down to defeat against Cy. Edy's London Thistle rink in the finals of the Free Press trophy of the Colts' bonspiel last night. The local rink didn't look like winners for the first part of the play, but made a remarkable spurt in the eighth, and romped in five shots up on a 17 to 12 score.

Edy, by winning his semi-final game in the morning against his club-mate, W. J. Anderson, sprang a surprise, and continued the same disposition in the finals.

The McLaren trophy, which was contested by Anderson's Thistles and W. Lockwood's St. Thomas Granites, was won by the latter, 16 to 15, in a remarkably close game.

STRATFORD SENIORS DEFEATED MITCHELL BY SCORE OF 5--1

Game Well-Contested and More Even Than Score Indicates.

STRATFORD, Jan. 29.—In a fast and tight game of senior hockey tonight the local team walked away with the Mitchell bunch. The game was not as lop-sided as the score would indicate. The game was good and both teams showed good form. The score at the end of the first period was 1 to 1, and at the end of the second was 3 to 1 in favor of Stratford. The final score was 5 to 1, and Stratford was still playing strong.

Good combination was a feature of the game, and although it tended to be rought at time, only one man was laid out. He was Russell Lavelle, who rammed up against the goal tender, sustaining injurier to his stomach in the first period. He was on the ice again in the second period, and in the last stretch played a real good game of hockey.

INGERSOLL FANS ACCOMPANY TEAM FOR WOODSTOCK GAME

INGERSOLL, Jan. 29.—Owing to the intense interest that has been created in tomorrow night's game at Woodstock, the management of the local Intermediates have arranged for a special train. Grand Trunks and Imperials Win in Sarnia City League

Biggest Crowd of Season Watch Great Game in Border Town's Circuit.

SARNIA, Jan. 29.—Grand Trunks and Imperials were winners in the City League games tonight before the largest crowds that have yet turned out to watch these games.

In the first game no scoring was done until 40 minutes had slipped away, when McClellan started the scoring for the winners by batting in two. Tesky followed with the third from outside the defence. Cully in goal defied the veterans' best efforts to score.

Imperials had a real game on their hands against Point Edward. John, for the Imperials, did some wonderful net minding, and all-round teamwork was much improved. Burgess and Melon were the outstanding workers of the winners.

Bill McCart refereed and J. Simpson was judge of play.

PLATTSVILLE FAILS.

KITCHENER, Jan. 29.—Waterloo curlers keep the New Hamburg Cup, having defeated Plattsville in Waterloo today by 20 to 16. The rinks were skipped by E. F. Seagram and T. Pratt.

P. O. and Silverwoods Win in Mfrs. League

Latter Win First Game of Career in Best Pastime Staged Last Night Against Standard Drugs.

The postoffice took the first game of the evening from the Grand Trunk by the score of 4 to 3. Play was fast and smudgy throughout the game and combined with a great deal of wood-chopping made it one of the most wretched and yet exciting games seen in the Westminster rink in some time.

Harris of the Grand Trunk team was carried off during the second period with a sprained ankle, caused by a fast turn and spill.

Callahan of the Posties played a fine game all the way through.

The lineup:

Postoffice.	Position	Grand Trunk
Ruse	Goal	Moir
Southcott	Defence	Waugh
Callahan	Defence	Hicks
Chown	Centre	Goddard
Burgess	Wing	Woodcock
Reid	Wing	Gowanlock
Simmons	Subs	Harris

NEXT!

The second game found Silverwoods at the long end of the 3 to 2 score at the end of their tussle with the Standard Drug.

This was the best game of real hockey seen in the Manufacturers' League so far this season. The play was fast and clean all through.

The most exciting thing that happened in the first period was the $3 fine that was imposed on the cold storage men for not being dressed on time.

Ball and Wanless poked in the first scores of the game in the second period. The Standard Drug artists were not to be denied and they came back strong in the third. G. Brown and Manning each taking a shot at Silverwood's net for counters.

With three minutes to play the Druggists lost their star man, E. Brown. Everyone was traveling at top speed to break the tie and as Brown was the most dangerous man that the dopesters had he was watched. He bumped a husky egg saver and went down for the count. His head hit the ice with such force that it was clearly heard half the length of the rink.

Silverwoods scored the last goal when Last beat Martin to it for a lucky one with one minute to play.

The lineup:

Standard Drug	Position.	Silverwoods.
Martin	Goal	McIntyre
E. Brown	Defence	Wanless
Manning	Defence	Douglas
G. Brown	Centre	Gillies
Crittle	Wing	Last
Connors	Wing	Ball
Scott	Subs	Jell

Referee: Clarence Armstrong.

ENGLISH CHAMPION KNOCKS OUT ERTLE AT MILWAUKEE, WIS.

Jimmie Wylde Delivers the Sleep-Producer in the Third Round.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 29.—Jimmie Wilde, flyweight champion boxer of England, knocked out Mike Ertle, St. Paul, in the third round of a 10-round bout here tonight.

The blow that stopped Ertle was a right hand blow to the jaw, which followed a straight to the face.

Wilde was the first to land in the opening session. He peppered away with several straight lefts. Ertle got in some good right and left blows to head and body, but this apparently did not bother the Englishman.

In the second round Wilde scored with right and left blows to head and body at will and leaped away from anything dangerous offered by Ertle. The round ended with Wilde having much the best of it.

The Englishman waded in at a fast clip as the third round opened, offering rights and lefts to head and body without damaging return, and at the end of about a minute in the final session Wilde caught the St. Paul man with a stiff right to the jaw. Ertle's put his hands to his side and a second later he reeled, fell to the canvas and was counted out. He tried to rise, but could not make the effort in the prescribed time.

Wilde weighed 108½ pounds, and Ertle 115 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

JACK JOHNSON MUST GIVE HIMSELF UP IF HE WOULD RETURN

District-Attorney Clyne Says "Unconditional Surrender."

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—"Unconditional surrender" is the only basis on which local federal officials will treat with Jack Johnson, negro pugilist. This announcement was made today by District Attorney Charles F. Clyne, after reading The Associated Press dispatch from Mexico City to the effect that Johnson planned to return to the United States, and face his penitentiary sentence for violation of the Mann act. Johnson fled to Europe in 1913, while out on bail.

Johnson's indictment was the result of charges that he paid the railroad fare of a woman from Pittsburg to Chicago, and he was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary and fined $1,000.

N. Y. AND PHILADELPHIA SHARE RAQUETS HONORS

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 29.—New York and Philadelphia each won two matches in the first round of the national amateur racquets doubles championship, played on the courts of the Philadelphia Racquet Club. The two Chicago pairs entered in the competition were eliminated, one by default. The semi-finals will be played tomorrow, and the finals on Saturday.

DURHAM WON FAST GAME FROM MILDMAY, 7 TO 1

Durham, Jan. 29.—Durham won an interesting senior Northern game tonight from Mildmay by 7 to 1. By periods the score was 2 to 1, 6 to 1, 7 to 1.

The outstanding features were the brilliant work of the defence players, Zimmer and McLachlin for Durham and Pletch for Mildmay.

The teams from goal out:

Durham — McDonald, McLachlan, Zimmer, Cowan, Morlock, M. Saunders, R. Saunders.

Mildmay — Berry, Pletch, Kunkel, Sauer, Wendt, Devlin, Schmidt.

Referee—Murphy of Mount Forest.

ST. MARYS TIE STRATFORD.

ST. MARYS, Jan. 29.—In a junior O. H. A. game here tonight St. Marys held the much-talked-of Stratford Midgets to a tie. The game was very fast and was keenly contested throughout. Stratford led in the first period by 4 to 2, at the end of the second by 5 to 4. The score at full time was 6 to 6. This is the first time the St. Marys lads have had to show their mettle, as they were grouped with Seaforth, who defaulted.

SAYS CHURCHILL TRIED TO INCITE POLAND TO WAR

Lenine Blames Clemenceau's Agents For Promoting Trouble.

HOLDS OLIVE BRANCH

Soviet Recognizes Polish Independence—Wants Peaceful Settlement.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—A wireless dispatch received from Moscow says that a declaration signed by Premier Lenin, Foreign Minister Tchitcherin and Minister of War Trotzky addressed to the Polish Government on behalf of the council of the peoples' commissaries, invited a friendly settlement of all disputes and questions outstanding between Poland and Soviet Russia.

Accuses Agents.

At the beginning, the declaration says that it is incumbent on the Polish Government to decide whether or not to make war on Russia. It proceeds to accuse the agents of Winston Spencer Churchill, the British war minister, and M. Clemenceau, the former French premier, of endeavoring to incite Poland to a "senseless, commercial war against Soviet Russia."

Recognize Independence.

The declaration asserts that the Soviet Government from the first, recognized the independence and sovereignty of the Polish republic, and that this will be confirmed at the February meeting of the supreme executive committee of the Soviet. Further, it declares there is no territorial, economic or other question which cannot be solved peacefully by negotiation, concessions and mutual agreements, such as are now being arranged with Esthonia.

Rev. (Col.) G. W. Wood Is Inducted At Ingersoll

Hot Lunches Served at Verschoyle School Prove Very Popular.

INGERSOLL, Jan. 29.—Rev. (Lieut.-Col.) Geo. W. Wood of Toronto was tonight inducted into the pastorate of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. There was a large attendance at the service, which was conducted by Rev. J. H. Barnett, Ph.D., of Norwich. The sermon was preached by Rev. H. Bolingbroke, B.D., of Innerkip. Rev. D. Wallace Christie, pastor of Chalmers Church, Woodstock, addressed the minister, and Rev T. M. Murray of Verschoyle, the people. A reception was held after the service.

LECTURED ON EUGENICS.

Pupils of the collegiate institute and public school have during the last two weeks heard an interesting series of lectures by Arthur W. Beall, M.A., of Whitby. In giving this course of lectures Mr. Beall, represents the department of education. He has been heard with keen interest in speaking on eugenics and personal hygiene. The lectures have been spoken of in terms of praise by Principal S. Hales, of the collegiate, and Principal Stalker of the public school.

That there is need for a humane society in the town is the view of many citizens. Instances have been referred to where, it is claimed horses and other animals have been subjected to cruelty. With a view to discussing organization a meeting will be held tomorrow night.

HOT LUNCHES.

The pupils of the Verschoyle school, Dereham Township, are enjoying hot lunches. These are served at the noon hour and appreciation amongst the 80 pupils is very pronounced. This week the pupils have been treated to hot cocoa in connection with the lunches which they carry. Although the school is located in the village, over 70 hot lunches have been served daily, indicating that practically all the pupils carry their dinners. It is also the intention to serve soups of different kinds. A. W. Pow is principal of the school, and his assistant is Miss Kelly. The movement is being strongly encouraged throughout the section.

SICK HEADACHES CONSTIPATION

If you have suffered from constipation for years, tried doctors and all the remedies you ever heard or read of, without getting relief, if you have been subject to all the miseries associated with constipation, such as sick and bilious headaches, biliousness, specks floating before the eyes, water brash, heartburn, jaundice, and the painful troublesome, internal, bleeding or protruding piles, etc., wouldn't you consider it a blessing to be able to keep the bowels in a good healthy condition and prevent disease getting a foothold on your system.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are indicated just for this purpose; their regular use relieving the worst cases of constipation.

Mrs. Malcolm McDermid, Cranton Station, N. S., writes: "I have been sick for a number of years with sick headaches and constipation. I tried all kinds of doctor's medicine, but none did me any good. I tried Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and after using four vials I am completely cured, and would heartily recommend them to all sufferers."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by the T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BRIDGE ACROSS THE DETROIT RIVER IS LATEST PROJECT

New York Engineer Declares It Will Be a Fact in a Few Years.

WINDSOR, Jan. 29.—Charles Evan Fowler, engineer of New York predicts that a bridge will connect Windsor and Detroit within ten years, when the population of Windsor district will be more than 200,000, and yesterday employed "clockers" to collect statistics at Windsor ferry dock on traffic across the river.

In the event American and Canadian Governments refuse to finance the project, according to Engineer Fowler, the bridge will be built by private capital. American capital is ever ready to undertake work, he said. The "clockers" will gather data for the engineer during months of February, May and July.

Doctors Unable To Cope With Disease—Hospitals Full.

WINDSOR, Jan. 29.—With nine deaths from influenza in the border municipalities, Dr. F. Adams, medical health officer for the border health district, Tuesday night called into consultation Dr. J. W. S. McCullough, chief medical officer of Ontario.

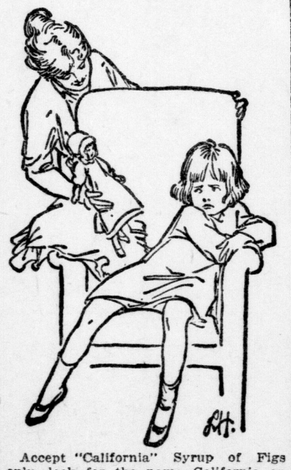

The number of new cases are so numerous that doctors have been unable to report them. It is estimated that there are 1,500 cases.

Hotel Dieu, Windsor, is so full of influenza and pneumonia patients that the management Tuesday announced that no more could be accommodated at present.

The staffs of the immigration, customs, and telephone companies are working with 50 per cent of their normal strength, as a result of the epidemic. Dr. Adams believes it would be useless to close the churches and schools, as is under consideration. This may be done, however, if the epidemic

ROAD BUILDING TO BE RUSHED AS FAST AS MONEY ALLOWS

Hon. F. C. Biggs Tells Large Meeting At Stratford of Government Plans.

MUST BE MAINTAINED

Minister of Public Works Strongly Opposed To Statute Labor.

STRATFORD, Jan. 29.—"As long as I am in office, road development in Ontario will be pushed with every vigor, as fast as money and labor will permit," was the declaration this afternoon of Hon. F. C. Biggs, minister of public works, addressing upwards of one hundred delegates from municipalities interested in the proposed straight line highway from Toronto to Sarnia, together with as many more from Stratford and the adjoining municipalities this afternoon. From as far east as Georgetown and as far west as Parkhill delegates were present. Large delegations from Sarnia and Arkona were held up at London because their trains missed connection. They sent a spirited telegram to the meeting strongly urging their sentiments in favor of it.

"For my part I do not think one trunk road is sufficient for Western Ontario," declared Mr. Biggs. "You can take what assurance you like from that." This was in reference to the rivalry between certain sections as to the location of the main trunk highway. The address of the minister was listened to with much interest, and his address was punctuated by applause, indicating the sympathy of the audience with his policy as outlined. The movement for the straight line highway was formally launched here in February, 1919, when at a meeting of several hundred delegates a Central Ontario Good Roads Association was formed.

Counties Interested.

County councils in session in different parts of the province were well represented, Perth County was there in a body; six were present from Wellington, four from Waterloo and Kitchener, the clerk and reeve of London Township, and representatives from Huron County. It was evident that the enthusiasm roused at the first meeting had not suffered in the interval, and the delegates made it plain that they were looking to the Farmer Government to set a mark in the construction of highways.

R. T. Orr of Stratford, president of the Highway Association, presided, and told Mr. Biggs that they desired not particularly a straight slab of concrete, but a road with a bottom that would not fall out and a top that would not blow away at the first windstorm.

Civic Welcome.

Mayor Stevenson extended a civic welcome, and he pointed out that it was not Stratford alone, but a wide area, that was seeking this road. The proposed road would run through a country rich in agriculture, in industrial activity and well populated.

Warden McCallum of Perth held that the desirability of the straight line road could not be questioned. Perth had taken the front rank in road construction and would be behind the highway proposition.

H. B. Morphy, M.P., declared that the people of the district want as near permanent roads as they can get. "You will be supported in a good many sources where there is now criticism," he assured Mr. Biggs. "If you reach up to the best you can do, and not the least you can do, you will make a name for yourself that you never dreamed of." Mr. Morphy declared that over 50 per cent of the population of Western Ontario was north of the proposed straight-line highway, and 50 per cent of the agricultural production and industrial development of Western Ontario is located five miles north and south of the proposed route. These figures were based on fact, and would indicate the great importance of the road.

Day of Road Building.

Reeve Skelton of Palmerston declared that they were looking to the Government to see the good roads program carried out.

Reeve Tudor of Parkhill said his municipality was out for good roads as much as they could be.

Reeve Robson of London Township said the road appealed to them. The day was one of road building. We need the road, you need the road, and we look to the Government to give our claim due consideration, he said.

Reeve Young of Colborne Township, Huron County; Reeve Clark of Goderich, and Mr. Bowden of the Goderich Board of Trade, spoke of Huron's desire for the highway. Their idea was to have a spur from the main line to Goderich eventually. Mr. Bowden declared that the most efficient and practical way to meet the war debt would be in developing first the main highways and then the spur lines into undeveloped territory.

Ald. J. Rebe and Mr. Debus of Kitchener, Mr. Foster of Waterloo and Mr. Bradly of Georgetown all added words of support of the scheme and pledged their co-operation, as did also Reeve McCallum of New Hamburg, H. P. Moore of Acton and James Hill of Mitchell.

Appreciates Value.

"I fully appreciate the value and importance of good roads and truck systems," declared Mr. Biggs at the outset. "I secured my schooling in Wentworth, which was the first county to go into the good roads system."

Mr. Biggs sounded the death knell to statute labor. "I am not in favor of it," he declared, pointing out that the municipalities have it within their power to do away with it. "We propose to help the townships, but we do not propose to give any help on days of statute labor performed." It was the policy of the department, he said, to give sane legislation with no favoritism to any one section of the province.

Everywhere sounds the cry for good roads, said the speaker. I would like to extend the present system of highways of 422 miles to 1,600 miles, but it will take time.

He said that arrangements have been made whereby Ontario is to get its share of the Dominion grant for good roads. The money must be spent on provincial roads, all for construction and nothing on maintenance.

Cities to Help.

When the provincial system is extended it will embody the provincial county roads, and on roads taken over the Federal Government would pay 40 per cent, the Legislature 40 per cent, leaving only 20 per cent for the municipalities to pay, part of which would also be borne by the cities. The roads thus taken over in the provincial scheme being the main roads and costing more to maintain, should be replaced in the county road system by other roads representing an equally large expenditure as is being made at present.

"The Government intends to go a step farther and pay the townships 20 per cent of the roads and bridges account, outside of statue labor, to bring the roads up to a permanent standard," said the speaker. Another amendment proposed is for the Government to pay 40 per cent instead of 20 per cent on construction and maintenance in suburban areas.

Must Be Kept Good.

"There must be continuous maintenance on the the country roads else the grants will not be paid," announced Mr. Biggs. "It is not sufficient to make it a good road, it must be kept a good road." The use of sectionmen along the roads was advised. The employment of a road superintendent for each township was advocated. He would give all his time to the work, and thus insure a continuity of policy throughout the township. Towards his salary the Government would pay 40 per cent for the best man secured.

"If the provincial secretary can be prevailed upon I am going to advocate the setting aside of $2,000,000 to help get the roads up to standard," announced Mr. Biggs. This money would be distributed similarly to that under the drainage act.

Good roads, he declared, would reduce the upkeep of automobiles 10 per cent, and he estimated this saving at $2,000,000, while increased efficiency would represent value to a like sum, making a saving of $4,000,000 annually to the people.

J. R. Macdonald, president of the chamber of commerce, in moving a vote of thanks to the speaker, announced that the chamber of commerce would soon establish an agricultural section, and he invited all members from the country to become members and join in the discussions. He said he had not supported the U. F. O., but was willing to give the Government every opportunity to make good. Ald. W. H. Gregory of Stratford seconded the motion. "We have seen the dawn of a new era in road building," he added.

a young physician practiced widely in Pennsylvania and became famous for his uniform success in the curing of disease. This was Dr. R. V. Pierce, who afterwards established himself in Buffalo, N. Y., and placed one of his prescriptions, which he called his "Golden Medical Discovery," in the drug stores of the United States so that the public could easily obtain this very remarkable tonic, corrective, and blood-maker. Dr. Pierce manufactured this "Discovery" from roots and barks—a corrective remedy, the ingredients of which nature had put in the fields and forests, for keeping us healthy. Few folks or families now living have not at sometime or other used this Golden Medical Discovery for the stomach, liver and heart. Evidence of the wonderful sale of this medicine is recorded in the books of Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Buffalo, N. Y., showing that over twenty-four million bottles of this tonic and blood remedy have been sold in this country. No one can fight the battles of life and hold his own if his blood is not pure. No one suffers from colds, "flu" and catarrh who has plenty of red blood corpuscles and a good digestion. Catarrh is a stagnation of the blood. Introduce pure red blood into the system, and health is assured.

Dr. Pierce advises you, if you wish to avoid the many germ diseases, to keep your blood in good order. You can obtain Golden Medical Discovery in tablet or liquid form at all drug stores, or send 10c for a trial package to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Buffalo, N. Y.

DRURY CAMPAIGN IS ON; PREMIER HOLDS OAKVILLE MEETING

General Opinion There That No Opposition in Field.

TORONTO, Jan. 29.—Premier E. C. Drury launched his campaign in Halton County tonight, when he addressed a meeting at Oakville. The greater number of people present were farmers, but a good many residents of the town also showed an interest in the new premier and his candidature. He was given a cordial reception. It seemed to be the general opinion of the people at the meeting in Oakville tonight that the premier would not be opposed in the by-election.

John F. Ford, the U. F. O. member-elect for Halton, who resigned his seat in favor of Premier E. C. Drury, asked his supporters to get behind the premier and secure his election.

A. G. Farrow, a farmer, who presided, stated Mr. Ford had resigned his seat with no thought of reward. His resignation was due to his loyalty to the cause of the United Farmers of Ontario, the chairman said.

Row About Hens Ends in Fatality; Quebec Man Shot

Long-Standing Feud Results in Killing At Victoriaville.

VICTORIAVILLE, Que., Jan. 29.—Alphonse Auger was shot and fatally wounded last night by Alphonse Letourneau, his father's business partner at the hardware store of Letourneau & Auger. He died in hospital at Arthabaskaville this morning. There has been a long-standing feud between the two men, which culminated, so it is said, after a row about some hens of Auger's, in the latter threatening Letourneau's life. Letourneau wrote Auger a letter, which annoyed the latter, and when Auger came to the store angrily protesting, Letourneau drew a revolver and fired five shots, all lodging in the abdomen.

SATURDAY SEES POLICE FORCES' AMALGAMATION

Dominion and Mounted Bodies Become One With New Name.

HEADQUARTERS OTTAWA

No Change in Western Provinces Except in Name of Corps.

OTTAWA, Jan. 29.—(By Canadian Press.)—On Saturday at midnight the Dominion police force, as it is at present constituted, ceases to exist, and the personnel is absorbed by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, the title of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police being changed with the coming into effect of the act at midnight Saturday.

Headquarters of the new organization will be in Ottawa, and Commander Perry is already here. Col. C. Stearns, commander, will be second in command at Ottawa headquarters. There will be little change in regard to the Dominion police as that force at present exists in Ottawa. The Ottawa force will be division "A" Canadian Mounted Police and will be a dismounted division, and the mounted section of the force will be extended in its operations to the east, so that a series of detachments will be available in all the provinces for the enforcing of federal laws and also to assist the provincial authorities at any time such assistance may be needed. The Ottawa division will be under a superintendent, and in the other sections of the east there will be inspectors, non-commissioned officers and men as needed.

Headquarters Moved.

It was emphasized by Commissioner Perry today that so far as the mounted police organization is concerned the only change is that the title is altered by the substitution of "Canadian" for "Northwest," and the headquarters are moved from Regina to Ottawa. With the Dominion police the difference is that that force ceases to exist on January 31. The Ottawa division Royal Canadian Mounted Police will retain the blue uniforms which have become so familiar to residents of the capital and visitors, but there may be some slight changes made in the equipment to align and match the uniforms of the men worn in the mounted division. Outside of Ottawa all detachments will be mounted, and will wear the red coats which have so frequently struck terror to the hearts of lawless characters in the western provinces.

Too Many Applications.

Commissioner Perry stated that the call which had been made for recruits brought forth more applications than could be handled. The barrack accommodation, it was found, was too limited to care for the great number of men wishing to join the organization and recruiting consequently had to be suspended. The commissioner was high in his praise of the class of men who were being enlisted. They are being carefully chosen, he stated, and were all men of splendid type and physique.

The great majority of them have good war service records behind them, and quite a number of former members of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police who having taken their discharge and served overseas, are now anxious to get back to the old force again.

In accordance with the provisions of the act setting forth the terms of the amalgamation Comptroller A. A. McLean of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police becomes financial comptroller of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The new organization will be under Hon. N. W. Rowell as minister.

DEBS PRAISED LENINE AND TROTSKY AS GREAT STATESMEN, COURT HEARS

General Aid Society Offered Its Assistance to Health Authorities.

ALBANY, N.Y., Jan. 29.—Eugene V. Debs' "last speech before his voice was silenced" by a penitentiary sentence of ten years for violating the espionage act was read into the record today at the trial of the five suspended Socialists assemblymen being tried by the assembly judiciary committee on charges of disloyalty.

In this speech, made before Socialists in Cleveland last March, Debs, declaring he spoke "as a socialist, a revolutionist and a Bolshevist," praised Lenine and Trotzky "as the greatest statesmen in the modern world," and expressed defiance of the laws of this country and the supreme court. The speech was distributed in pamphlet form by "the city committee of the Socialist party of Greater New York," according to the prosecution.

ADVISORY COUNCIL FOR FIELD CROPS

Blame Women For H. C. of Election

TORONTO, Jan. 29.—Unofficial but authentic figures place the cost of the last provincial election at about $1,250,000. The election in 1905 cost in the neighborhood of $85,000, and that in 1914 about $140,000. The tremendous increase in the cost of the last election is said to be largely due to the general registration and the enfranchisement of the women of the province.

MILITIA DEPT. KNOWS NOTHING OF ORDER

OTTAWA, Jan. 29.—(By Canadian Press.)—Asked with regard to a dispatch from New Glasgow to the effect that returned soldiers were receiving notices from the militia department to "hold themselves in readiness" for some unspecified purpose, militia authorities this evening expressed profound ignorance. No instructions of such a nature have apparently been issued from militia headquarters here.

THOSE INJURED IN WRECK PROGRESSING WELL IN HOSPITAL

NORTH BAY, Jan. 29.—No deaths have yet occurred among those in the hospital here who were injured in the fatal collision on the Canadian Pacific Railway at Corbeil last Sunday morning. Mr. Klemme and his wife, who were badly shaken up in the accident, are progressing favorably. Mr. Klemme's mother, however, is in a serious condition. She is 79 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell are at the Pacific Hotel, where Mr. Beall is recovering his injuries not having been serious. Mrs. Beall is suffering from the shock of her son's death, as well as her own injuries. Miss Brown, who was traveling with Miss McLaughlin and her aunt, Mrs. Peden, who was killed, is staying at the Pacific until Miss McLaughlin is sufficiently to leave, when they will go to friends of Miss Brown, near London, Ont., before Miss McLaughlin resumes her journey to the west.

WANT $48 A WEEK TO WASH WINDOWS

CHICAGO, Jan. 29. — Window washers in Chicago have gone on strike, demanding $48 a week for experienced washers to work on extension ladders, and $44 a week for apprentices—men who have served less than six months in the business. The washers demand pay for 44 hours a week regardless of whether or not work is done.

BOXING SHOW A FIZZLE.

GALT, Jan. 29.—The United Brethren League's first attempt to stage a boxing show tonight proved a fizzle. Only about half a hundred followers of sport turned out to the city hall, and as the result after two preliminary bouts between Battling Ray and Tiger Smith and Kid Gyp and Young Cooley, Referee Lou Marsh called off the show, offering those who wanted it their money back. A good card had been arranged, and the turnout was disappointing.

COBOURG 8, BOWMANVILLE 3.

COBOURG, Jan. 29.—In a junior O. H.A. game played here tonight Cobourg defeated Bowmanville by 8 to 3, winning this district without a loss. The locals will take a lot of beating. The work of Johns, Bulger and Rooney was splendid.

Remove Your Guns.

MONTESANO, Wash., Jan. 29.—"Gentlemen, remove your guns" is the order in the courtroom, where eleven I. W. W. "wobblies" are on trial here for murder in connection with the armistice day shootings at Centralia, Wash.

Today George F. Vandever, counsel for the defence, had to deposit his "six-shooter" in the county clerk's office before he could get into the courtroom. The other lawyers were not "heeled." Each venireman and spectator had to check his "gat" likewise. Selection of a jury is still going on.

DEWART WANTS HAMILTON DAIRY CAPITAL PROBE

Asks Raney To Include It—Says Biggs Holdings Jumped.

WHOLESALE GROCERS TOO

Attorney-General Requests Dominion Association Be Charged Under Prices Act.

TORONTO, Jan. 29.—H. Hartley Dewart, K.C., M.P.P., Liberal leader in Ontario, has written to Attorney-General W. E. Raney suggesting that the Board of Commerce be requested to include in its inquiry into the the alleged price-fixing organization of the grocers in Hamilton an investigation of the capital increases of the Hamilton Dairy Company, Limited.

Mr. Dewart states that the Hamilton Dairy Company began business in 1907 with a capital of $40,000; in 1914 increased its capital to $100,000, and in 1919 to $250,960, and he suggests that the question of profits earned and dividends paid by the company would furnish matter for an interesting investigation.

In this connection, Mr. Dewart says he feels satisfied that the attorney-general would have the active co-operation of one of his colleagues in the Government, Hon. F. C. Biggs, minister of public works, who is a shareholder in the dairy company, and whose holdings, Mr. Dewart states, jumped from $2,000 in 1912 to $11,000 in 1917.

CHARGE WHOLESALE GROCERS.

OTTAWA, Jan. 29.—(By Canadian Press.)—Mr. Roebuck, representing the attorney-general of Ontario, appeared before Commissioner Murdock today and made application that the Board of Commerce charge the Wholesale Grocers' Association of Canada, certain wholesales and certain retail grocers of the city of Hamilton, and other persons and corporations in other places not yet named, as offenders against the combines and fair prices act.

Mr. Roebuck was informed by Commissioner Murdock, Acting Chief Commissioner O'Connor concurring, that the board would charge and try not only the association named, but also all other persons and corporations which the attorney-general or his agent might name. When the necessary names are provided formal charges will be formulated by the board. The investigation will probably come about February 6 at Hamilton.

Asks Vote on Saskatchewan Liquor Import

Attorney-General Turgeon Wants Referendum On Importation.

REGINA, Sask., Jan. 29.—In the Legislature tonight Attorney-General Turgeon moved the second reading of the Saskatchewan temperance act, 1920. At the same time he moved that the Legislature petition the Dominion Government to take a referendum vote under the provisions of the Canada temperance act to determine whether the people of Saskatchewan want the importation of liquor prohibited or not.

The new bill provides for the appointment of a commission of three members, with headquarters here, who will devote their full time to the administration of the act, aided by such inspectors as may be deemed necessary.

The commission is given control of imports of liquor in wholesale quantities for sale in the province and may require all persons handling to submit an inventory of all stocks on hand and under order, but not delivered. If the quantity should exceed the small maximum amount allowed to be kept, the excess may be seized and disposed of or retained, as it is deemed advisable.

RECOUNT IMPOSSIBLE ON REFERENDUM VOTE IS DECISION REACHED

Confab At Parliament Buildings Over Matter.

TORONTO, Jan. 29.—A conference was held this morning at the Parliament Buildings between the Government and the representatives of the Citizens' Liberty League in response to a telephone call received by Mr. A. E. Knox, counsel for the league, from Hon. W. H. Raney, attorney-general.

Those present were Premier Drury, Hon. W. E. Raney, Hon. Peter Smith, provincial treasurer Hon. Beniah Bowman, minister of lands, forests and mines; Mr. Edward Bayly, deputy attorney-general, representing the Government, and Mr. A. E. Knox and Mr. J. E. Bill, representing the Citizens' Liberty League.

The matter under discussion was the question of a recount of the vote held under the temperance referendum act. It was thought impossible to proceed with a recount under the order-in-council passed by the late Government, as the ballots and ballot boxes have all been returned to the clerk of the crown in chancery at the Parliament Buildings, and the returning officers are now "functus officio."

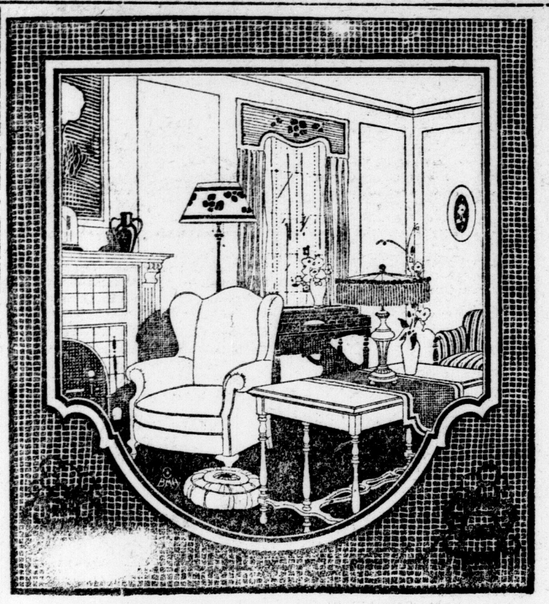

G. T. R. SHAREHOLDERS TO MEET IN LONDON TO RATIFY PURCHASE

OTTAWA, Jan. 29. — The special meeting of the shareholders of the G. T. R. system which has been called to ratify the agreement between the Government and the company regarding the acquisition by the former of the system will be held in London on February 19.

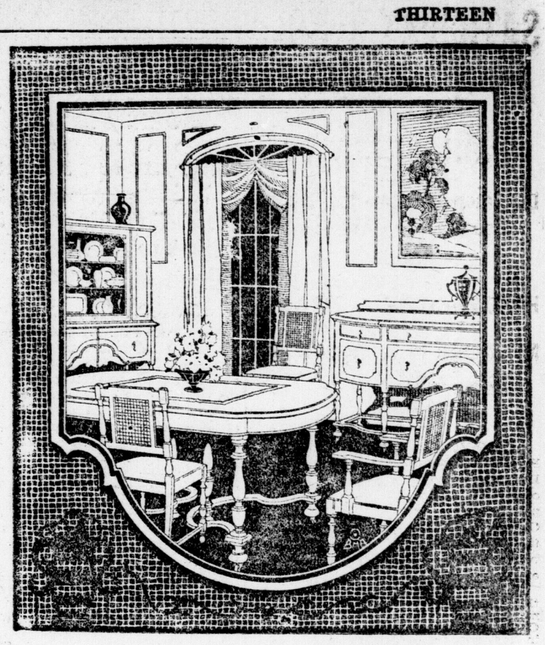

If the agreement is approved by the shareholders, arbitration proceedings for the valuation of common and preferred stocks will at once commence, and in the meantime a joint board of management will be appointed to operate the road. Refusal on the part of the shareholders to ratify the agreement is not thought at all likely.

TURN OUT PLATES FOR CANADIAN SHIPS

SYDNEY, N.S., Jan. 29.—The new Sydney plate mill will be turning out ship plates by February 20, according to a semi-official statement issued here today. The mill is the only one of its kind in the country, and will furnish all the plate needed for Canadian shipbuilding, the Dominion Steel Corporation having a contract to supply the Government with 50,000 tons of plates annually for five years.

STRIKERS' TRIAL COST $45,000.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 29.—Counsel fees, court and other expenses in connection with the trial of strike leaders in Winnipeg general strike cost the Government $45,000 last year, the provincial secretary-treasurer, Hon. Edward Brown, announced today.

BORDEN GOVERNMENT PROGRAM IS LIGHT, CAUCUS IS AWAITED

Speech From Throne to Contain Virtually Nothing of Importance.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, Jan. 29.—From present indications the speech from the throne at the coming session will be remarkable rather for what it does not than for what it does contain and set forth.

The sessional program to date is one of the most meagre on record. Ministers are mostly engaged at present in an endeavor to cut down estimates to fit the revenues, and the minister of finance is goading them on to the disagreeable task. But so far as prospective legislation is concerned it would appear to be confined to a new franchise act, still in embryo, and to a few minor amendments to existing legislation.

Simply Marking Time.

As a matter of fact the Government at present is simply marking time until such time as its future has been decided upon by caucus which will be held immediately after the session commences on February 26. The general attitude on the hill at present appears to be that it is useless to endeavor any reforms until such time as it is decided whether or not union is to continue and under what name and policy it is to be perpetuated.

Speaking tours which had been in contemplation have been abandoned, because it is impossible for any speaker for the Government to state what the Government's policy on great issues for the future is to be. Reorganization of the cabinet on anything but a "shuffle" basis is impossible, because by-elections without a policy are dangerous. Questions of importance are being shelved because there is no responsible leadership, and in the case of public works important projects are being held up for lack of a head of that department.

Chase for Ministers.

The appearance at Ottawa of H. H. Stevens, M. P. for Centre Vancouver, raised the rumor that he was to become minister of public works. Mr. Stevens, it is said, could be elected, but his appointment would bring British Columbia's representation in the cabinet up to three, and that is too many. On the other hand, should Hon. Martin Burrell retire, then there would be no need to the customs department, and the chase for a new minister would again recommence. Caucus will decide many things.

It will decide in the first place that the appointment of a new leader is necessary. It will decide also that unless the Government is to disintegrate into its component parts there must be reorganization and a policy. As the majority of the caucus is of the Conservative persuasion, the policy decided upon will undoubtedly be along the "safe and sane" lines of Conservatism, and the decision reached may conceivably result in a very considerable accession of strength to the cross benches.

Those who don't like the permanent policy will be allowed to depart even if their departure puts the Government into opposition. In the meantime the Government is marking time.

INVOLVE REDISTRIBUTION.

OTTAWA, Jan. 29.—(By the Canadian Press.) — It is understood here that the franchise act will embody a distribution to a limited extent. It is known that it is the intention to follow more closely the lines of representation by population than has been the custom in the past. This will necessarily mean that the representation of the larger centres of population will be increased.

Proportional Representation.

Another feature in connection with the holding of future elections which will receive considerable attention during the coming session will be the adoption of proportional representation, which, it is stated, will be taken up by Parliament this year.

At the national industrial convention held in Ottawa last year a resolution was adopted approving of the announcement of the prime minister that proportional representation would be the subject of research by a speakers' committee which would report to the House in time for their report to be the basis of discussion at the session which opens on February 26.

On Liberal Platform.

Proportional representation was also one of the planks in the platform adopted at the national Liberal convention held here in August last, and it is anticipated that therefore there will be little opposition to the adoption of this means of taking the vote.

There will also be legislation affecting the resumption of racetrack betting, based on the report which Dr. J. G. Rutherford of the railway commission is to lay before the Government at the close of his sittings as commissioner on racetrack betting.

ASQUITH SEES BIG MISTAKE IN TRYING TO COERCE IRELAND

Former British Premier Attributes Troubles To This Policy.

London, Jan. 29.—(By the Canadian Press.)—The close of the Parliamentary Labor Party's eleven-day tour of Ireland was signalized at Belfast yesterday by William Adamson, the leader of the delegation, repudiating any connection with the Nationalists.

The statement came as a reply to a deputation from the United Labor Association, which contained representatives of the principal trade unions. Mr. Adamson also on behalf of the delegates subsequently issued a statement that whatever solution of the Irish question might be proposed by the delegation would receive the assent of the party as a whole, not merely that of its parliamentary members.

The delegates' report will probably be issued within a fortnight, and in the meantime Mr. Adamson will go to Paisley to support the Labor candidate. Arthur Henderson will address several meetings in Lancashire.

Must Be Settled.

Some critics assert that this labor visit to Ireland was promised because the Labor party are convinced it is imperative that the Irish question must be definitely settled in some way before the Labor party attempts to form a ministry, otherwise such a ministry would not survive three months.

At Paisley the Irish vote will be an interesting factor. The local United Irish League is out to support the candidate likely to prove the biggest menace to the coalition government.

Questions Were Asked.

In last night's catechising of Mr. Asquith, the following questions were asked:

"Are you in favor of Ireland being free, and will you help De Valera to secure that freedom?"

The answer was: "I am not an Irishman and should be an intruder there."

"Do you want to see coercion or conciliation everywhere?"

"I think a great mistake is being made by the application of military measures to Ireland. I think some part of the present trouble there is due to that mistaken policy."

"Would you give Lloyd George 30 pieces if silver and a rope?"

At this there was great laughter, in which Asquith joined freely, but made no reply to the question.

"What do you think of the peace conference?"

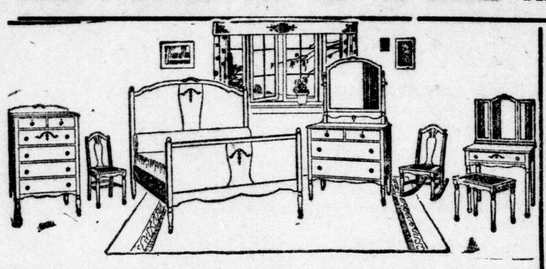

"I am sure it will be found quite impossible to carry out its terms."

WOULD ASK DANIELS WHAT PREPARATIONS NAVY MADE FOR WAR

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 29.—Rear Admiral Sims today wrote the Senate naval committee, asking that in connection with his charges of failure of the navy department properly to cooperate with the allies in the war, Secretary Daniels be asked to submit a detailed report regarding the condition of the navy when the United States entered the war.

The admiral also suggested that the report show what preparations were made by the navy for the war and what ships were in commission at that time together with their condition and location.

NATIONAL STRIKE OF MINERS IS POSSIBLE SOON IN GREAT BRITAIN

LONDON, Jan. 29.—A hint that a national strike of miners is possible within a short period was given by Frank Hodges, one of the miners' leaders, in the course of the meeting held here by the miners' federation today to consider its dealings with the Government. Mr. Hodges gave the hint in proposing an increase in the subscriptions of the members.

"In our progress towards the unification of the present wages system in the coal fields and our struggle for national ownership of the collieries, with joint control by the workers, we may," he said, "become involved in a national strike. This in itself proves the necessity of increased celebrations."

PAPER CONTROLLER RESIGNS; COMMERCE BOARD IN CHARGE

OTTAWA, Jan. 29.—(By Canadian Press.)—Mr. R. W. Breadner, who temporarily succeeded Mr. R. A. Pringle, K.C., as paper controller, has resigned and his resignation has been accepted. The whole question of paper control has been placed with the board of commerce. The Government has determined that owing to recalcitrant mills having been so much trouble in connection with the supplying of newsprint, the form of control should be placed in the hands of a body having the greatest possible powers to see that its orders are carried out. That body is the board of commerce.

The board of commerce, it is pointed out, has full and complete authority, is vested with the powers of court, and has the right of punishing, not only companies disobeying orders, but also directors and managers that disregard them.

This step, it is felt, will settle the difficulties which newspapers in both the east and the west have been experiencing in regard to their supplies of newsprint.

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur added, will turn grey, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or grey. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, grey, faded hair is no sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all grey hairs have disappeared and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

TELLS SAFE AND SIMPLE WAY TO TREAT AND RELIEVE AT HOME.

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, or if phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms may be entirely overcome in many instances by the following treatment which you can easily prepare in your own home at little cost. Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parmint (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. An improvement is sometimes noted after the first day's treatment. Breathing should become easy, while the distressing head noises, headaches, dullness, cloudy thinking, etc., should gradually disappear under the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell, taste, defective hearing and mucus dropping in the back of the throat are other symptoms which suggest the presence of catarrh and which may often be overcome by this efficacious treatment. It is said that nearly ninety per cent of all ear troubles are caused by catarrh and there must, therefore, be many people whose hearing may be restored by this simple, harmless, home treatment.—Advt.

LONDON GETS BYE IN HOCKEY CONTEST

Goes Into Final With Woodstock or Tillsonburg.

Manager Dave Wright of the London Junior Hockey Club received word at 2 o'clock this afternoon from Secretary Hewitt of the O. H. A., that London had drawn the bye in the group playoff made necessary by the tieing up of the district, when London beat Woodstock here last Tuesday night.

This will mean that Woodstock and Tillsonburg will play a sudden death game early next week. The date has not been set yet.

DESTITUTE FAMILY FOUND AND HELPED

Salvation Army Officer Comes To Their Relief.

With their mother, who was practically the only bread-winner, confined to bed as the result of a serious accident, and the father crippled by spasmodic paralytic strokes of the legs, a family of small children was discovered in the east end by Capt. F. Fox of the Salvation Army, to be suffering from great privations.

Five small children, ranging from five to eleven years, hungry looking and cold, were found clinging around the bed of the mother, while the father was doing his best to care for them. The destitution was promptly relieved by Capt. Fox, and the family is being cared for by the army until better times come for them.

SPENDING MONEY IS SOMETIMES ECONOMY, STUDENTS ARE TOLD

I. B. Whale Addresses Agriculture Class Here.

I. B. Whale addressed the young farmers taking the short course in agriculture at the department of agriculture this morning, in their closing session. The subject of his talk was "Economy on the Farm."

The great lesson that he urged his audience to learn is that it is sometimes the greatest of economy to spend money in running the farm. He said that it is poor policy to seek for a cheap farm at the risk of buying a poor piece of land. It was far better to pay a few thousand extra and get fertile land with good buildings.

He urged that money be spent in securing the proper fertilizers and in sufficient quantities. Although red clover seed is expensive it does not pay to neglect it. Great losses, he said, occurred from improper care of machinery and improper feeding of horses. He urged the raising of only pure bred stock.

In the afternoon the young men of the class organized a young farmers' progressive association for the advancement of modern methods in farming in Middlesex. This evening a banquet will be held by the class.

TRY TO REACH AGREEMENT ABOUT SUBURBAN ROADS

Another attempt to bring about a satisfactory agreement between the county and the city on the suburban roads question will be made next week, when Hon. S. C. Biggs, provincial minister of public works, comes to the city to address the convention of the Ontario Boards of Trade. At the meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce today, it was decided to arrange an interview in hope that an agreement might be reached.

Warden Thomas Clark of Middlesex County was present at the meeting, along with John Stuart, also representing the county. The directors and the county representatives hope to bring about a satisfactory agreement, and with this object in view the suburban area act was thoroughly discussed.

Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown, John Stuart and J. H. Lawton were selected as the C. of C. delegates to the convention of the Boards of Trade.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

THE LOCAL MARKET

Potatoes are a little firmer on the local market this morning. They sold at $4 a bag retail and $3.75 wholesale, with some asking higher.

Although there were fifteen loads of hay sold yesterday, there was a fair demand for it today. The top price, however, did not exceed $28 per ton.

There has been no barley and little wheat offered on the market by farmers for many months, because it is claimed by them that the price quoted locally is not equal to what they will get out of the grain by feeding. There is a good demand for both wheat and barley. Wheat is now being shipped into the city from outside points by the carload, for the first time in some months.

Straw is scarce, and the demand is by no means being filled. It is quoted at $14.25 a ton, but some are offering higher.

Eggs are still on the downward trend. The top price retail is now 80 cents a dozen, and wholesale they as a rule bring 72 cents for strictly fresh lots.

Butter is steady.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—Absence of selling pressure, together with the fact that offerings were unusually light, led to upturns today in the price of corn. January and February deliveries in particular showed strength. Continued meagreness of receipts and the lack of any accumulation of corn in stock here, gave considerable advantage to bulls. Opening prices, which ranged from a shade to 2c higher, with May at $1 36@1 36¼, and July at $1 33@1 33⅛, were followed by moderate further gains.

Oats hardened with corn. After opening a shade to ¼c higher, including May at 83¼@83⅜c, the market scored a slight further advance.

MONTREAL STOCK EXCHANGE.

Montreal, Jan. 30.—The local stock market opened quiet, with General Electric the feature, that stock advancing 2¼ points to 106. Macdonald recovered 2¼ points to 194. Penmans became active and gained a point after a week's interval. Lyall recovered 2 points over-night to 97, and reacted a point. Revival of interest in Lyall appears to be based on a report that the company is negotiating with the manufacturers of a popular-priced United States motor car for the right to turn out the car in Canada. Nothing of a definite nature has yet been consummated, it is officially stated.

WALL STREET.

New York, Jan. 30.—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—The stock market presented few features of interest at the dull and irregular opening of today's session. Aside from General Motors, which forfeited a small part of yesterday's 13-point advance, and Crucible Steel, which gained 1½ points, price variations among important issues were limited to fractions. In the less prominent stocks a 5-point rise in Virginia Iron and 1-point for Railway Steel Springs were the only noteworthy features. Early quotations indicated further disturbance in foreign exchange.

Noon.—Prices steadied when the automobile group rallied, General Motors and Chandler attaining new high levels for the present movement. Independent steels made further upward progress, and equipments and shippings moved irregularly forward with utilities. Foremost among the latter were American Telephone and Consolidated Gas. Oils and tobaccos were inactive, but rails, as represented by Southern Pacific and Reading, threw off some of their apathy at moderate advances. Partial forfeiture of these gains followed the posting of a 12 per cent money rate and a fresh depression in foreign exchange.

1:30 p.m.—Investment rails and high-class industrials strengthened their positions on very light dealings at midday with equipments and motor specialties. Some of these gains were largely dissipated later, however, when an urgent demand for call money over the week-end forced loans to 16 per cent.

THIN, NERVOUS PEOPLE NEED BITRO-PHOSPHATE

Weak, thin people—men or women—are nearly always nervous wrecks; thus conclusively proving that thinness, weakness, debility and neurasthenia are almost invariably due to nerve starvation. Feed your nerves and all these symptoms due to nerve starvation will disappear.

Eminent specialists state that one of the best things for the nerves is an organic phosphate known among druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, a five-grain tablet of which should be taken with each meal. Being a genuine nerve builder and not a stimulant or habit-forming drug, Bitro-Phosphate can be safely taken by the weakest and most delicate sufferer, and the results following its use are often simply astonishing.

By strengthening the nerves, weak, tired people regain energy and vigor; thinness and angularity give way to plumpness and curves; sleep returns to the sleepless; confidence and cheerfulness replace debility and gloom; dull eyes become bright, and pale, sunken cheeks regain the pink glow of health.

CAUTION—Bitro-Phosphate, the use of which is inexpensive, also wonderfully promotes the assimilation of food, so much so, that many people report marked gains of weight in a few weeks. Those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh, should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.—Advt.

CANADIAN DOLLAR IS WORTH 88 1-4 CENTS IN NEW YORK TODAY

Cabinet Council Discusses Exchange Question At Meeting Today.

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—The Canadian dollar is worth 88.25 cents in New York today. Closing yesterday at a discount of 11 per cent, Canadian exchange fell again this morning to a discount of 11½ to 11¾ per cent. The situation is causing much anxiety.

This morning there was a meeting of the cabinet council, and the question of exchange, it is understood, was discussed. It is felt, however, that anything Canada could do at the present juncture would not be of great effect. To shp more gold to New York would merely mean the depletion still further of the Canadian gold reserve, and would not materially affect the situation.

HAY BRINGS $29 DESPITE QUANTITIES

Purchasers Fear Break-Up of Sleighing, So Buy Heavily.

Although 60 loads of hay have been sold on the local market during the past three days, which is enough to glut the market under ordinary circumstances, the price went up $1 a ton today. Nearly half of the 20 loads that were offered brought $29 per ton.

The reason given by the market officials and dealers is that the buyers in the city who depend on hay brought in by the local farmers are fearing a break up in the weather and are having in an extra supply, thereby creating an abnormal demand. The country roads are in fairly good condition at the present time, but if the weather breaks up they will be impassible for at least a wook. Even now it is only possible to bring hay in from a radius of five or six miles. In that distance innumerable drifts are encountered which insist in dumping the venturesome loads of hay in the ditch. One farmer reported dumping a load of hay four times in one trip.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

DEATH FROM INFLUENZA.

William Robbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Robbins, died this morning from influenza. This is the first death reported this year in London from this disease. The young man, who was 21 years of age, had only been ill a few days.

He is survived by his parents, two brothers and one sister. The funeral will be held from the family residence on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

INSPECTED BARRACKS—At an inspection of the barracks held this morning at 10 o'clock by the district commander, everything was found to be in first-class order. No complaints were made, and all quarters were found to be in a very high state of cleanliness.

TWO CARS DERAILED—The derailment of two freight cars at Blandford, a point on the C. P. R. about 35 miles east of London, caused the tying up of the main line for some hours. The cars left the rails at 9 o'clock last night, but the road was clear in time to permit the eastbound trains to go through this morning. The London auxiliary responded to the call and succeeded in clearing the rails before traffic had been seriously interrupted. Superintendent Williams was at Blandford today.

"THE NAUGHTY WIFE," BRILLIANT AND SUCCESSFUL FARCE, AT THE GRAND TONIGHT AND TWICE TOMORROW

One of the most successful farces ever produced in this country is "The Naughty Wife," by Fred Jackson, which Selwyn and Company will produce at the Grand tonight at 8:15, and twice tomorrow, matinee 2:30, evening 8:15. Whenever and wherever plays are being discussed "The Naughty Wife" is invariably mentioned as being one of the few farces which has met the test of popularity throughout the country, and never failed to live up to all the good things said about it.

It was first produced in New York, where it instantly became a hit and ran the greater part of a season, playing to capacity business the entire time. From there it was taken to the Selwyn's Theatre in Boston, where it repeated its New York triumph. Then the farce moved to Chicago, where it instantly proved the most successful play of its kind seen during the entire season. And it is now one of the biggest kind of successes in London, England.

The great merit of "The Naughty Wife" is that its story is so human and plausible that no great tax is put on the imagination. All that happens funny, as it often proves to be, might really happen in the life of anyone. And this fact makes its appeal irresistible.

"The Naughty Wife," of course, has the advantage of being presented by one of the best casts of farceurs ever assembled for a play, including among them several of the leading players of farce in the country. In fact, while it is in no way disparaging the play itself, it is a fair statement to say that not a little of its success results from the excellence of the company appearing in it.

"The Naughty Wife" has a decidedly novel and original story, Fred Jackson, the author, long since earned the reputation of being able to write clever farce stories, and in this play he has, it is generally admitted, outdone his best efforts.

CONSTANCE TALMADGE, regarded as the screen's most vivacious star, appearing at the Majestic Theatre today and Saturday in her latest photo comedy, "Happiness a La Mode." "Happiness a La Mode" is the story of Barbara Townsend, who wishes to make a success of married life, and allows her husband, Dick, so much freedom that he attributes it to a lack of interest in him. Dorothy Mitchell takes advantage of his feelings and cajoles Dick into the idea of getting a divorce from Barbara. When he announces this to his wife her pride asserts itself and she acquiesces. A frame-up, agreed to by all parties, is staged, whereby Dick is caught in a hotel room in company with another woman. With this evidence the divorce is secured, and Barbara is gratified that within three months she may have the final decree. Dick now begins to crave Barbara's company, but she refuses to resume their former status as man and wife, while Dorothy becomes enraged with jealousy over the turn of affairs. Dick and Barbara dine together, and during the course of the dinner she is stricken ill. Dick takes her home and sends for the doctor, who pronounces it to be a case of nervous breakdown. While Dick is trying to nurse Barbara, Dorothy enters and accuses him of perfidy. Then things begin to hum, causing this delightful picture to come to a snappy and unexpected ending.

S. J. Meredith's big musical farce, "Sublet for the Summer," featuring a bevy of London's prettiest girls, will be presented again today and Saturday. A comedy and a New's Weekly film completes this excellent program.

C. P. R. DECIDES TO INSTALL ELECTRIC BLOCK SIGNALS

Will Replace Oil Lamps on 65-Mile Stretch.

On 65 miles of track between this city and Toronto electric signal lights will be installed on the C. P. R. during the coming summer, according to an announcement made on Thursday by Superintendent Williams of this division. The new system will replace the old oil lights, which now burn day and night.

The electric system is employed on a number of roads in the United State and is believed to be one of the most up-to-date systems in use at the present time. Batteries are placed in concrete boxes and the train upon arriving at each block automatically lights the electric signal.

The next system will save not only oil, but labor as well, as it will no longer be necessary to employ men to fill the lamps with oil.

SANDERSON IS LIKE NEW MAN

Declares Tanlac Put Him On His Feet With New Life, Strength and Energy.

"Yes, sir, I can recommend Tanlac because it has put me back on my feet with new life, strength and energy," said Samuel Sanderson of 1018 Retallack street, Regina, Sask., a few days ago.

"A little over a year ago I had a severe attack of the 'flu' that was so bad it kept me off work for seven months," continued Mr. Sanderson. "I was in a weakened, miserable condition couldn't get any strength and I was troubled with a chronic cough. My appetite went back on me, and the little I did manage to force down did more harm than good, and I could hardly retain a thing I had eaten. After I got back at work I would get so short of breath I would give out and have to stop and rest. At night I was very restless and would cough so bad that I couldn't sleep, and many a time I woke up all during the night.

"But things are exactly the opposite since I have begun taking Tanlac, and I have improved so much that I am feeling like a new man. I have a fine appetite now, and what I eat does not bother me any more and I have no trouble retaining everything I eat. My cough is much better, and I don't know what it is to lie awake, for I can sleep like a log from the time I go to bed till time to get up. I can do my work without getting short of breath, and I don't get tired except in a natural way. Tanlac has built me up in every way, and I am gaining in strength right along and I think the change that has come over me is remarkable. I cannot say enough for Tanlac, and it will always be a pleasure for me to recommend it highly.

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

MOVE TO HAVE ACTION TRANSFERRED TO HIGH COURT OF ONTARIO

Will of Late Joseph H. Switzer Attacked on Widow's Behalf.

TORONTO, Jan. 29.—F. F. Treleaven, before Mr. Justice Middleton this morning, moved for the executrix of the late Joseph H. Switzer of Hamilton to have the litigation over his will transferred from the surrogate court of Wentworth to the supreme court of Ontario. One of the clauses of the will left the residuary estate, valued at about $4,000, to the British Red Cross in Toronto. The estate is valued at about $14,000. The will is attacked by the widow to whom legacies of some $3,000 were left.

The order was made transferring the matter to the supreme court, but judgment was reserved for the purpose of giving directions as to service on the British Red Cross in England, the British Red Cross in Toronto having wound up its affairs and gone out of business.

"Orchestral" In Tone

THE Grand is the ultimate piano. But do not make the mistake of purchasing an instrument that is "grand" in name only. Hear them all—compare the tone—and your choice will assuredly rest upon

The Nordheimer Grand

In resources, in tone color, in responsiveness, this instrument provides the musician with possibilities as limitless as the subtle shadings of orchestration obtained from an orchestra by the master conductor. Hence it has been termed "the Grand with the orchestral tone." To appreciate the full meaning of such high praise you must play this instrument yourself or hear it played by some one capable of sounding the heights and depths of its glorious tone compass.
