Fourth Series. "Transactions of the Canadian Institute." 1890 to last number issued, December, 1892, 5 numbers, forming 2 vols and a half vol, 8vo.

Also the Five Annual Archaeological Reports of the Institute, 1886-91, (all published), 8vo. A FINE, CLEAN SET IN THE ORIGINAL STATE. Of this old established and valuable CANADIAN JOURNAL OF SCIENCE, ARCHAEOLOGY and HISTORY, only three other complete sets are known to be in existence, these being in public libraries.

Herman Moll's Atlas. The World described, or a new and correct set of maps, showing the several empires, kingdoms, republics, principalities, etc., in all the known parts of the earth, wherein the errors of the ancient geographers are corrected according to the latest observations of travellers, as communicated to the Royal Society of London, and the Royal Academy of Paris. EACH MAP is engraved on copper by HERMAN MOLL, geographer, and printed on two sheets of elephant paper, whereby the scale being large, admits of showing the cities and chief towns in the most distinct manner. To render these maps the more acceptable several of them are ornamented with remarkable prospects, plans, etc. This rare and picturesque old volume was formerly adorned with heavy brass clasps, portions of which still remain, title and Western Hemisphere missing and some of the maps bear the imprint of age, but on the whole, and the American portion in particular, is in fair condition. Tall folio, half rough calf. 16.50. Circa, 1715-20.

Short Collation of the American Portion. 1. A new and correct map of the WHOLE WORLD, shewing ye situation of its principal parts, viz: —The Oceans, Kingdoms, Rivers, Capes, Ports, Mountains, Woods, Trade Winds, Monsoons, Variation of ye compass, Climat s, etc., with the most remarkable tracks of the bold attempts which have been made to find out the NORTH EAST and NORTH WEST Passages, with inset of CHART, shewing ye degrees of the variation of ye compass as they were observed in ye year 1700, in ye ATLANTICK and INDIAN OCEAN; and you will see in ye map ye variations of ye compass markt over ye GREAT SOUTH SEA, as they were found in 1709-10, also inset of THE NORTH POLE. The letter "A" in this draught is the place which all adventurers aimed to come at, in order to make ye N. WEST PASSAGE, and CALIFORNIA, to ye SOUTH SEA. etc., and "B" is that for ye North-East passage, Iapon to the East Indies, etc. 28x48in. [Title by Kirkall, Tracks of Hudson and James, going out and returning.] 2. North America, dedicated to Lord Sommers, with insets of ten harbour plans (including Boston, New York and Charlestown) 23 x 38 in. [Title by Vertue, engraving of the manner of the New-found-land codfish industry; tracts of Hudson, James and the Galleons; several places are named as newly by the French in 1712]. 3. New and Exact Map of the DOMINIONS of the King of Great Britain on ye Continent of North America, containing Newfoundland, New Scotland, New England, New York, New Jersey, Pensilvania, Maryland, Virginia and Carolina, with insets of South Carolina, Louisiana, plans of Charles-Town and small key-map; 24 x 41 in. [Title with Douglas arms, dedication dated 1715, fine views of "ye CATARACT of NIAGARA, some make this waterfall to be half a leagu' while others reckon on it no more than a hundred fathoms." "ye Industry of Beavers," account of the continental posts and the fishing rights, the Iroquois, fortifications of Charles-Town, etc.] 4. The North Parts of America CLAIMED by FRANCE, with insets of Mouth of Mississippi and Harbour of Annapolis Royal: 40 x 25 in. [Title with Bromsall Arms, and very quaint note by Moll, dated 1720, capital engraving of the Indian Fort of Sasquebanok (Penna.) Really a map of North America, on a French basis, shewing the English colonies crowded to the sea, the French touching the Atlantic in S.C. and Georgia. Most valuable as an illustration of French N.A. at its greatest extent]. 5. New Map of the WEST INDIES or the Islands of America in the North Sea, insets of four harbours; 40 x 23 in. [Title with view of shipping the treasure; map devoted chiefly to the proceedings of the Spanish "Gallions and Flota." 6. SOUTH AMERICA; 38 x 23 in. [Dedicated to Earl of Sunderland, engraving by Vertue, view of Potosi. Attack on rival maps, about 200 words.] 7. The Coasts, Countries, and Islands within ye limits of ye SOUTH SEA COMPANY four coppers, together, 19 x 26 in. The detached plates are Chiloe, Guiaquil and Baldivia, insets on large plates of Magellan, Pepys Island, Juan Fernando, Acapulco and others. [Arms of Earl of Oxford and Moll's dedication, tracks of Marlborough and Dampier.]

This is by far the finest series of Moll's maps, and no collection of early and rare American books can be complete without them, the above being of the largest size, each map being coloured and nearly six feet square.

MISCELLANEA CURIOSA.

Gerson Johannis Opera. 4 thick vols of fine old Gothic letter.

The interesting full-page Gerson portrait repeated in each vol; one leaf slightly torn, and a vol. slightly wormed; otherwise in good condition. THE CAPITALS RUBRICATED THROUGHOUT, in the original oaken binding, 3 vols covered with stamped leather. 15.50. Finit feliciter, Anno MCCCCXCIII. 364

GERSON surnamed the MOST CHRISTIAN DOCTOR and Chancellor of the University of Paris, was also Canon of Notre Dame. He boldly denounced the assassins of the Duke of Burgundy, and saved his life by concealing himself. He was a member of the Council of Pisa, which, it will be remembered, settled the claims of the two RIVAL POPES, BENEDICT XII. and GREGORY XII. His fierce controversy with JOHN HUSS is well known. THE IMITATION OF CHRIST was for 300 years considered by many to have been written by our author, who died at Lyons, 1429. There are five duplicates of the fine old portrait in the four volumes, for which we could realize more, by an act of Vandalism, than we charge for the entire work.

Guicciardino (Ludov.) OMNIUM BELGII sive Inferioris GERMAE REGIONVM DESCRIPTIO. 315 pages of letterpress, and nearly 100 double-page plans and engravings of old cities and towns now celebrated in the annals of Holland. Folio calf, 5.50, Amsterdam, 1613. 422

These FINE OLD PLANS and elevations of buildings of DELPIUM and LEYDEN, of AMSTERDAM and ROTTERDAM, are suggestive of the good old Puritans, who only six years previously had been banished by James and were then enduring untold hardships in LEYDEN, not knowing the Dutch language. A minority only was enabled to leave DELFT-HAVEN in the SPEEDWELL, 22nd July, 1620, and join the MAYFLOWER at Southampton. At Leyden they had toiled day and night for bread, in America they were destined to cut down the forest and build up the most distinctive and robust of the American States.

ADAM was a native of Usk in Monmouth, educated at Oxford, and became mixed up with the riots which took place in the University. After this, about 1390, he pleaded for seven years in the Archbishop's court at Canterbury, and in 1397 was daily in attendance in Richard's last Parliament at Westminster. Adam was a lawyer and a priest. This Chronicle is a most interesting Record of events, as well as a faithful picture of the times. The surprising thing is the fact of its never having been printed previously.

"Not only do these explanations afford a key to the religion and mythology of the ancients, but they also enable a more thorough understanding of the canons and principles of art. It is well known that the latter was closely allied to the other, so that the symbolism of which the religious emblems and furniture consisted, likewise constituted the essentials of architectural style and decoration, textile embellishments, as well as the arts of sculpture, painting and engraving. Mr. Knight has treated his subject with rare erudition and success."

SCARCE THEATRICAL BOOKS.

12MO REPRINTS on fine and large paper, uncut, of scarce Theatrical biography. Bound in old style vellum boards. Only one copy of each on hand.

Clive (Mrs. Catherine). With an ACCOUNT OF HER ADVENTURES ON and OFF THE STAGE. A round of her characters together with her correspondence, by PERCY FITZGERALD, F.S.A. Portrait. 1.50. 1888. 532

Jordan (Mrs.) Public and Private Life of that CELEBRATED ACTRESS, MRS. BLAND, otherwise MRS. FORDE, or MRS. JORDAN, late Mistress of H.R.H. the Duke of Clarence, afterwards William IV.; delineating the vicissitudes attendant on her early career of life, the splendor of her frontide blaze as mistress of the royal duke, and her untimely dissolution at St. Cloud, near Paris, resulting from a broken heart; accompanied with Remarks and Anecdotes of Illustrious and Fashionable Characters, from authentic sources hitherto withheld from the public, by Confidential Friend of the Departed. Lon. n.d., 3.00. 533

This remarkable expose was suppressed. It contains numerous extraordinary anecdotes and statements not to be found in Hoaden's Life of Mrs Jordan, who took rather a one-sided view in favor of royalty; while the present work exposes the cruel way she was treated by her royal protector, with an interesting account of her forcible detention at St. Cloud, where she died broken-hearted.

Cateley (Miss Anne). CELEBRATED SINGING PERFORMER OF THE LAST CENTURY. Including an account of her introduction to public life, her professional engagements in London and Dublin, and her various adventures and intrigues with well-known men of quality and wealth. Carefully compiled and edited from the best and most authentic records extant. Portrait. 1.75. Lon. 1888. 534

"The subject of this memoir was one of the most celebrated actresses of the latter half of the last century. Her personal beauty, her high vocal abilities, and her connection with certain well-known personages of the upper class, acquired for her a notoriety that was certainly distinguished, if not altogether enviable.

Betterton (Thomas). LIFE and TIMES of THAT EXCELLENT and RENOWNED ACTOR of the Dukes and United Companies, Dorset Gardens, Drury Lane, etc., during the later half of the Seventeenth Century. With such notices of the stage and English History before and after the Restoration, as serve to illustrate the subject. Portrait. 2.00. Lon. 1887. 535

"Such an actor as Mr. BETTERTON ought to be recorded with the same respect as RŒCICUS among the Romans. I have hardly a notion that any performance of antiquity could surpass the action of Mr. BETTERTON in any of the occasions in which he has appeared on our stage."—ADDISON in The Tatler.

Only a few copies printed on large paper. The above will become exceedingly rare.

Quin (Mr. James). Comedian. With the HISTORY OF THE STAGE, from his commencing actor to his retreat to Bath. Illustrated with many curious and interesting anecdotes of several persons of distinction, literature, and galantry. To which is added a supplement of original facts and anecdotes, arranged from authentic sources. Together with his trial for the murder of Mr. Bowen. Portrait. 1.75. Lon. 1887. 536

The first portion of this biography of Quin, the fellow performer of David Garrick, and, excepting him only, the most celebrated comedian of his time, is a reprint of the exceedingly scarce "Life of James Quin," published in 1760. The original title page is reproduced, and much new and curious matter added.

Cibber (Mrs.) An Account of the Life of that CELEBRATED ACTRESS, MRS. SUSANNAH MARIA CIBBER. With Interesting and Amusing Anecdotes. Also the two Remarkable and Romantic Trials between Theophilus Cibber and William Sloper. Portrait. 1.75. Lon. 1887.

This accomplished actress was the pupil of Colley Cibber, and the wife of Theophilus Cibber, who after throwing her into the arms of a Mr. Sloper, brought first a curious action against him for Crim. Con. and afterwards another action for unlawful detention of his wife. Mr. Cibber, discovering the retreat of his wife, with great brutality carried her off and secretly confined her. She managed to escape by crying murder, while her brother collected a crowd outside and forced open the door. Much information with regard to salaries, benefits, etc., was made known at the trial for Crim. Con. the whole of the curious evidence of which is given in the above book.

- Stevens (Thomas.) AROUND THE WORLD on a BICYCLE. Teheran to Yokohama. Numerous illustrations. 1 handsome vol. 8vo, cloth, 2.00. (pub 16s.) Lon. 1888. 823
- "But it was on his travels through wilder regions that Mr. Stevens encountered the adventures which make his book worth reading. It required no little courage to face the dangers of Asiatic Turkey alone, and save on exceptionally good roads, unmounted, and in overcrossing them Mr. Stevens seems to have displayed a great deal of that tact which is after all the best safeguard to the adventurous traveller. He was occasionally annoyed by a request for his money or life, but the applicants were always satisfied by a view of his revolver. After a variety of strange experiences, some of which are well depicted in the clever illustrations which accompany his book, he reached Teheran, to become there one of the favourite sights of the capital and receive the proud title of 'the shaib with the horse of iron.'"—Guardian.

CANADIAN AND AMERICAN AUTHORS AND LITERATURE.

Abraham Lincoln. A History, by John G. Nicolay and John Hay. Numerous full-page Illustrations, Portraits and Maps. 10 vols, royal 8vo., cloth, as new, 17.50. New York, the Century Co., 1890. 953

"The theme is a great one, and it has fallen into very worthy hands. We need hardly add that the work of Messrs. Nicolay and Hay is one which every public library ought to possess."—Speaker.

"The work is very richly illustrated with portraits of all the more important public men of the period, with which it deals, and with plans of the battle-fields, re-produced from the official surveys. The Century has done a great service to the history of the United States by the magnificent series in which "Battles and Leaders of the Civil War" has been followed by this monumental "Life of Abraham Lincoln."—Manchester Guardian.

- "These letters fully deserve their high reputation as original authorities of great historical value, for Busbecq enjoyed exceptional advantages of acquiring political information during momentous crises in European history. Equally well merited is their widespread popularity, for they form a delightful medley of valuable information, shrewd observations on men and manners, social and scientific gossip, humorous and pathetic anecdotes."
"The book is one which may be strongly recommended as well for its very general interest as for its combination of amusement with valuable historical information."

STANDARD HISTORICAL, AND OTHER FICTION.

We All, A story of out-door life and adventure in Arkansas. By OCTAVE THANET. With 12 full-page illustrations by E. J. AUSTEN and others. Crown 8vo, cloth, 1.00. Appleton, 1891. 1214

"A story which every boy will read with unalloyed pleasure. The adventures of the two cousins are full of exciting interest, particularly the account of the hog-hunt, which carries one breathlessly along by its moving, spirited, and truthful pictures. The characters, both white and black, are sketched directly from nature, for the author is thoroughly familiar with the customs and habits of the different types of Southerners that she has so effectively reproduced."—Boston Saturday Evening Gazette.

Little Smoke. A story of the Sioux Indians.

By WILLIAM O. STODDARD. With 12 full-page illustrations by F. S. DELLENBAUGH, portraits of Sitting Bull, Red Cloud, and other chiefs, and 72 head and tail pieces representing the various implements and surroundings of Indian life. 1.00. Uniform with the last. 1215

Crowded out o' Crofield. By WILLIAM O. STODDARD. The story of a country boy who fought his way to success in the great metropolis. With 23 illustrations by C. T. HILL. 1.00. Uniform with the last. 1216

"There are few writers who know how to meet the tastes and needs of boys better than does William O. Stoddard. This excellent story is interesting, thoroughly wholesome, and teaches boys to be men, not prigs or Indian hunters. If our boys would read more such books, and less of the blood-and-thunder order, it would be rare good fortune."—Detroit Free Press.

King Tom and the Runaways. By

LOUIS PENDLETON. The experiences of two boys in the forests of Georgia. With six illustrations by E. W. KEMBLE. 1.00. Uniform with the last. 1217

"The doings of 'King' Tom, Albert, and the happy-go-lucky boy Jim on the swamp-island, are as entertaining in their way as the old sagas embodied in Scandinavian story."—Philadelphia Ledger.

This well-known old author was the son of an Oxford tavern keeper, and in 1639 became the proprietor of the celebrated COCKPIT THEATRE. The Players being all Royalists, our author, who sought to fly, was caught, and made his escape. His famous GONDIRBERT is dated from Paris, and dedicated to HOBBS, "I delay," says D'AVENANT, "the publication of any part of the poem till I can send it from AMERICA." He embarked for VIRGINIA with a number of French mechanics, was captured and imprisoned where he finished his great Poem, afterwards making his escape by the connivance of Mitou. This rare and fine old volume should stand by the side of the first folio of Shakespeare, their character, size and appearance having a decided affinity. The edges of this volume are uncut.
