

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT STAND

Says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well and Strong

St. Paul, N. Y.—"For over two months I was so sick I was not able to stand on my feet, and my husband did my housework. The doctor said an operation might be necessary. I read testimonial letters about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and began to take it. Before I had finished taking the first bottle I saw what good it was doing me. I am now well and strong, doing all my work for a family of four, all my washing and my sewing, which I think is remarkable, as I had not dared to run my sewing machine, but had done all my sewing by hand. I truly feel that were it not for your medicine I would not be here today as my case seemed very serious."—Mrs. GEORGE W. BRONSON, Glenn Falls, N. Y.

LADY LAURAS' RELEASE

THE STORY OF A SPOILED BEAUTY.

CHAPTER XL
But the danger of her position frightened her. She could hardly realize the fact that one person should seek to compass the death of another; yet it was most undeniably true. She had felt certain that the captain had told her, on that winter day when she was so nearly drowned, to go to the bend of the pool; she had been quite confident about it. It was true that at the time she believed there had been a mistake; but that belief had lasted long. Now she saw what his motive was. But for the brave and courageous young squire she would have been in her grave, and possibly her mother, too, by this time. Again she felt sure now that he had tampered with the boat, and had ridden away, leaving her to her fate. She was more than confirmed in her suspicion when she remembered how averse he had been to have the boat recovered from the lake, for he knew that the marks of his treachery were there and would be discovered. It all seemed to her so plain that she wondered she had not found it out before; but then she remembered that she did not at that time know anything of her mother's will.

The old nurse was waiting for her that evening when she reached her room; and one look at the girl's young face told the faithful servant that she had not been mistaken in her suspicion.

"You need have no fear, a good whip like you," he assured her. "I have no fear, Captain," she replied; "but I do not feel inclined either to ride or to drive this morning. I shall walk with mamma."

Captain Wynyard went away, but not before Angela had noticed the expression of baffled rage that swept over his countenance. She knew just as though she had been told that he had planned something to injure her, and she shuddered as she thought of it. If she had known that on this same morning he had received a note from Gladys Rane telling him how dreary and monotonous life was without him, and asking him to say when he thought it probable that they might meet, she would perhaps have been able to trace some connection between it and his renewed interest in her health.

She could no longer take refuge from her harassing thoughts in the hope that she was mistaken, and, even had she had any doubt, a discovery made later on would have finally convinced her. Yet, with the ample proof that she had, she felt sure that, were she to seek advice or help, she would be laughed at; the whole story seemed even to herself so incredible and horrible.

Angela was passing the library windows, which looked on to the terrace, at an hour when she was generally with her mother. On reaching the middle window, she halted, and out of mere curiosity looked in. She saw the captain standing inside, with his back to the windows and his face to the great mirror over the low mantle-piece; and, as the mirror was exactly opposite to the window, she could see the reflection plainly. He held two small bottles in his hands, and was dropping some perfectly colorless fluid one into the other, evidently counting the drops as they fell. He was so engrossed in his task that he did not hear the approach of the watcher, nor did he raise his eyes to the mirror. Had he done so, he must have seen the reflection of the colorless face so intently watching

CHEEKS COVERED WITH PIMPLES

Also Chin. Large and Red. Cuticura Healed.

"About a year ago a few small pimples broke out on my face. A month later my cheeks and chin were entirely covered with large, red pimples that festered and scaled over, and frequently caused irritation. I tried different remedies without success. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. After using it I could see an improvement so purchased more, and after using two boxes of Cuticura Ointment, together with the Cuticura Soap, I was healed." (Signed) G. MARCOU, Laval Hospital, St. Foy, Quebec.

his movements. Drop after drop was slowly and cautiously measured, yet the hands that held the vials did not tremble. One drop fell upon the side of the lowermost bottle, and she saw how carefully he removed it. Then he began again, and the drops trickled slowly from one vial to the other.

All at once the idea flashed through her mind that what he had in the bottles was intended for her. She could not avoid the suspicious thought; she could not help the quick impulsive action that followed. She opened the long glass door and walked quickly up to his side.

"What are you doing?" she asked abruptly.

She never forgot the terror her sudden appearance caused him. "Great Heaven!" he cried involuntarily.

He started back, fear and horror in his white face, and in his agitation both bottles fell to the ground. The next moment the room was filled with a faint odor as of peaches. He gave a swift glance at her and one at the fragments; then he made a desperate attempt to recover himself.

"How you startled me!" he exclaimed.

"I am sorry," she said coldly. "I did not mean to startle you. I have been at the window some few minutes, and I wonder you did not see me. How carefully you were measuring that fluid! What was it?"

Angela was not slow to notice the subject terror that came into his eyes; but it lasted only for a moment.

"I have suffered dreadfully from the toothache lately," he explained; "and this was something I had procured for it. I was obliged to measure it carefully; the druggist tells me that it is a poison."

"And meant for me," thought the girl, "as surely as I live!"

"You really startled me," the captain went on. The color was returning slowly to his lips and face. "And now see—I have lost my precious drops!"

"You can get more where those came from," she told him; and he looked with eager piercing eyes into her face.

Nothing was to be learned there; it was quite calm and inscrutable. It was possible that she should have even the faintest suspicion. Why or how should she?

"I thought my nerves were stronger," he said laughingly.

Angela was looking at the fragments of glass on the ground. "What a strange odor!" she remarked. "It is rather like musk, if anything. I will ring the bell and have the glass taken away."

When the servant answered the summons, he said: "I have had an accident, and have broken two small bottles and spilled some medicine. See that it is all cleared up."

He was not quite himself as he spoke, and his eyes moved restlessly from the servant to Angela. He would not leave the library until the fragments of glass had been removed and the carpet well cleansed. Even when that was done a faint odor as of peaches lingered in the room. He went to his dressing-room, and procured a bottle of strong perfume, which he sprinkled on the carpet, and gradually that overpowered the peach odor. Then he seemed content.

When you are "wandering around again" or at functions where full dress is usually worn, don't you feel out of place with a jacket on? Now is the time to leave your order for Full Dress or Tuxedo. Our prices for these Suits are remarkably reasonable. For special parades, or social calls, we can give you something within your means in a Prince Albert, or Morning Coat. We specialize in these garments.

A STYLISH GOWN IN SLEEVELESS STYLE, WITH OR WITHOUT GUMPE.

4275. Embroidered georgette was used for this model. It is also attractive for the new figured silks, for satin and crepe weaves. This will make a pretty afternoon frock in a combination of materials, and is lovely for a dinner or evening gown in velvet or cotton.

The pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. The width at the foot is about 2 1/2 yards. It will require 2 1/2 yards and 3/4 yards for the dress for a 38 inch size.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

A PLEASING VERSION OF A ONE PIECE DRESS.

4295. Novelty woolen, and serge are combined in this model. The style is also good for serge, jersey or wash materials.

The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. A 10 year size requires 2 1/2 yards of 44 inch material. For collar, cuffs and vest of contrasting material, 1/2 yards 32 inches wide is required.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

VULCANITE ROOFING

Vulcanite Roofing is made and guaranteed by the Beaver Company, Ltd., makers of Beaver Board. During the year 1920 and 1921 Vulcanite Roofing sold at seven dollars per roll. THE PRICE OF VULCANITE ROOFING IS NOW ONLY $4.00 PER ROLL. Each roll of Vulcanite Roofing is full size, complete with nails and cement for laying. A roll of Vulcanite Roofing contains 108 square feet and will cover 100 square feet of roofing surface. Vulcanite Roofing when laid by a certificated roofer, is guaranteed to last for fifteen years. Vulcanite Roofing is guaranteed fully equal to higher priced roofings of similar weight and size. At $4.00 per roll Vulcanite Roofing is cheaper than felt, because giving better wear it outlasts felt. When Vulcanite Roofing is used, you do not need to buy nails or tins, and your roof does not need to be painted or tarred, or otherwise coated until the Vulcanite has been 12 months on your roof. Roofs covered with Vulcanite Roofing pay lower insurance premiums than roofs covered with felt.

Coal Miners On Strike in Wales.

64,000 Men Quit Work and All Pits are Idle.—Lord Carnarvon Dead.—Irish Government Solving Land Troubles.

LABOUR QUARRELS.
 CARDIFF, April 4. Forty-six thousand miners in the Rhondda coal fields are on strike today, not a pit in the district is working. The strike is called for the purpose of forcing some five thousand non-Unionist members to join the Miners' Federation. Surface men and stokers have organized themselves into a Union which the Federation miners have refused to recognize.

THE FARMERS' STRIKE.
 LONDON, April 4. The stories about the farmers of Norfolk County arming themselves against striking farm laborers are exaggerated, yet the strike is assuming an ugly aspect and certain districts are being intimidated against the importation of non-Unionist labor. The strikers as a body discountenance violence. What has really happened is that farmers' sons and farm pupils in isolated instances have been cudgelled by casual bands of strikers. In one instance a boy was dragged through a river.

EARL OF CARNARVON DEAD.
 CAIRO, April 5. The Earl of Carnarvon died peacefully at 2 o'clock this morning. He was conscious almost to the end.

enty years. It is hoped that land-lordism may thus be removed.

SOCIALIST SCHOOLS DECLINING.
 LONDON, April 4. Sir John Butcher, M.P. for New York, and other members of the Commons, who are fearful about the ravages of the Socialists' Sunday School influence may take course from the proceedings of the British Socialist Sunday School Conference just concluded at Edinburgh. Of 132 schools in existence three years ago, there is now no record of thirty-eight of them. These schools have been closed in the districts where least expected, mainly in the Midlands, the North of England and even in Glasgow. The Secretary states, "the most appalling thing noticed is the weakness of many of the schools in the North of England and in places where Labor candidates were returned to Parliament in the last election or at any rate received a large vote."

EXECUTION CONFIRMED.

WAGE INCREASE IN STEEL.
 HAMILTON, April 4. Robert Hobson, President of the Steel Co. of Canada, to-day confirmed the report that the Company had increased wages eleven to thirteen per cent, bringing the scale up to that of 1921. About four thousand five hundred are affected. The Company has taken on a large number of men.

 LONDON, April 4. Lady Northcliffe, widow of Viscount Northcliffe, was married to-day to Sir Robert Arundell Hudson.

LATEST FROM THE RITA M. CLUETT.
 NEW YORK, April 4. Capt. A. H. Randall of the President Fillmore, reported by wireless to-day details of the rescue at sea of the crew of the schooner Rita M. Cluett, his second rescue since exonerated from a charge of ignoring distress signals from men in a motor boat off Long Island, two years ago. The Cluett's crew has been transferred to the Tampa to be taken to Halifax. The schooner was bound from Oporto to St. John's with salt. When sixty-three days out she ran out of food and water, lost her rudder and sprung a leak in a series of gales. At four o'clock on Tuesday morning the Fillmore's lookout saw the schooner helpless among the waves and Capt. Randall sent the steamer full speed to rescue the crew. He got the boat's crew over the side and prepared the sick bay for the patients. The captain and crew of the schooner said that a few days out from Oporto they struck a storm. They tried to put back but the halyards were stripped, the rudder broken and water seeping through open seams. They suffered greatly until rescued. One of the crew, Lewis Miller, is very ill from exposure but will recover.

STRIKERS RETURN.
 NEW YORK, April 4. Fifty hundred of the Brooklyn longshoremen who walked out Tuesday night in protest against the wage increases granted by the Arbitration Board voted to return to work Wednesday morning.

AND THE INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE.

The League of Nations has recently issued a report in regard to Esperanto as an international auxiliary language. Discussing a resolution that would have asked all member states to make Esperanto a regular subject of instruction in elementary schools, while evincing sympathy with the idea, it felt that the time was not opportune for this, and referred the whole question of an international language to its Committee on Intellectual Co-operation. Its report is, however, in itself a piece of fine propaganda for the movement presenting a thorough, competent, and impartial statement of the value and present situation and prospects of Esperanto. Subjoined are a few extracts of general interest.

In order to secure a trustworthy statement and competent opinions on Esperanto in the public schools, an International Conference of Teachers was held at Geneva, consisting of those who had had actual experience. It appeared that the language is being taught at present in certain of the primary and secondary schools in about 320 towns of 17 different countries, and in evening classes in about 1,900 towns of 39 countries of the five continents. Teachers are unanimous in their report as to the educational value of Esperanto, as a key language, in its moral effect through correspondence with children of other lands, and the quickening of interest in geography. Many teachers use the Esperanto lesson to make the children interested in the League of Nations and its ideal of universal peace. The report reproduces in full a long statement on behalf of the Commercial Education Committee of the Paris Chamber of Commerce, which makes Esperanto an optional subject in its Commercial Schools. The London Chamber of Commerce and the New York State Chamber also hold examinations and grant diplomas for Esperanto.

The Committee unhesitatingly approves of the principle of an international language. It agrees with the finding of a committee of the British Association a few years ago, that none of the national languages can fill this role. The Committee found that Esperanto functions perfectly as a means of international intercourse for all purposes of writing and speech. The roots of each European tongue are found in it in the proportion of nearly 75%. The grammar consists of 16 rules without exceptions; all verbs may be conjugated by learning 12 terminations. The pronunciation is so simple that it can be learned from a book. At the Antwerp Congress in 1911, when 800 Esperantists were present from 42 different countries, the nationality of each speaker has to be ascertained, it could not be told from his speech. Severe tests have proved that Esperanto can express the most subtle shades of thought and feeling with at least the precision of any national language, and often with far more certainty. The Esperantist movement is organized for immediate service in its Universal Esperanto Association, which offers facilities, through its 1,000 representatives in all parts of the world for tourists, exchange, commercial and other information, etc. There is a movement among a number of important Chambers of Commerce to urge that Esperanto be adopted as the commercial language of the world.

Acme Corn Silk is quite the simplest of corn remedies but it is certainly one of the best. Applied to a corn, it brings speedy relief, and a little persistence in its use will generally serve to root out the corn entirely. All that is necessary is to follow the directions strictly. If you have a troublesome corn, no matter whether or not it has resisted other remedies, we strongly recommend a trial of Acme Corn Silk. Price 10c. a pk. 25c.

Vivaudou's After Shaving Talcum is not exactly a novelty but it deserves to be better known. Our men customers will find it exactly what they have been looking for, and perhaps failed to find—a powder which is "just right" after the daily shave. Price 50c. a tin.

Campaign Opened in Ferryland District.

Sir Michael Cashin Accompanies the Two Candidates to the District.

The campaign in the District of Ferryland opened on Tuesday when the S. S. Cabot, carrying Sir Michael Cashin, his son Major Cashin and Mr. P. F. Moore, sailed for the Southern Shore at 10 a.m. Ferryland was the point of destination but a call was made at Bay Bulls and Cape Broyle on the way up.

No arrangements had been made for a meeting at Bay Bulls, but when the Cabot hauled into the wharf and the people found out that Sir Michael and the candidates were on the ship, they assembled in hundreds and insisted on Sir Michael coming on shore to address them, while flags made their appearance on many buildings.

The big factory was quickly offered for a meet, and the crowd hurried there to greet the speakers. Addresses were given in turn by Sir Michael, Mr. P. F. Moore and Major Cashin. The audience included many of the old supporters of Sir Michael, who had stood by him in every political battle the past thirty years. It was noticeable also that there were present near relatives of the Government candidate, Mr. J. P. Hearn, "the man who carries the bag."

There was never such a reception given to Sir Michael in all the thirty years of his association with the political life of the District. The enthusiasm was unbounded and the people made the rafters ring with repeated cheers as he scored the incompetency and misrule of the Government.

Leaving Bay Bulls the party called at Capt Broyle where they were met by nearly all the voters who were at home. This being Sir Michael's home town, and being anxious to get on to Ferryland, according to schedule, no meeting was held.

The climax of warm-hearted enthusiasm was reached, however, when they arrived at Ferryland. The hall had been cleared out and prepared for the meeting before the Cabot arrived, and men, women and children to the number of four hundred assembled. The meeting opened at 7.15 p.m., and did not terminate till 11.30. As Sir Michael and the candidates entered the hall, the audience rose in a body and cheered again and again, and as their old and faithful representative appeared on the platform to speak he was greeted by a storm of applause. Sir Michael spoke for two hours and twenty minutes, covering the principal points in the black record of the present Government and showing up their political rascality in all its hideousness. He then gave his reasons for deciding to leave the District and said that though absent from them his heart would be with them. He introduced the candidates in the coming contest, and appealed to the electors present to vote for them as they would for him, and to roll up for the Bennett party the biggest majority ever given in the District. "I feel," said Sir Michael, "that they will get all the votes in his part of the District. I regret to say that thirty five good men and true have gone from amongst you lately, compelled to leave their native land to seek a living owing to the depression brought about by the bungling and bad management of the present bunch of incapables."

Sir Michael then alluded to the additional taxation imposed on the fishermen by the Coaker-Squires party which made it impossible to get a living out of the fishery. He told of the 99 promises Squires made to his Manifesto in 1919, not one of which was fulfilled. He scored the Prime Minister and Minister of Justice for their antics abroad and remaining away in London and on the Continent having a good time at the expense of the taxpayers for nearly seven months of every year. He rang in the fish, salt, roads and other scandals and the visit of the New York auditors at Squires' request to try to find the Cashin Government guilty and to put them in jail. After costing the country $15,000, their report was tabled and turned out to be a certificate of character to himself and his Executive. Several weeks' scrutiny into the public accounts by a disinterested and impartial commission showed that there was nothing wrong and that they were all honest men. "Now," said Sir Michael, "you would naturally expect that Sir Richard Squires would have apologized for his false charges. But he showed the same cowardly and contemptible conduct in this as in all his other transactions, and never offered a word of apology to this day. He promised at a recent meeting in the West End of St. John's to visit Ferryland. I am glad to hear this and if he comes which I doubt, I shall make it a point to be present, and I promise you that the case will be placed before you fairly and squarely. I promise you also to ask him to apologize to your presence."

Sir Michael concluded by referring to the time when they stood by him in 1905 when he voted against the Foreign Fisheries Bill. The confidence they had placed in him then and during the years before and since, was highly appreciated by him. He could defy any man in the District and out of it to produce one individual witness that he had ever gone back on any single one of his constituents in any shape or form.

Messrs. P. F. Moore and Major Cashin then delivered short addresses, the latter making his maiden speech which was a creditable one, and receiving warm applause from the audience.

Sir Michael returned to the city by the Cabot yesterday morning, while the candidates began their canvass of the District.

Bonia and Colleagues Scorned at Argentina.

Messages received in town from Argentina, yesterday, give the same report of the meeting held by Bonia, Bindon and Browne at Argentina on Tuesday night. The people of the place did not take them seriously. The meeting was the joke of the season. Out of one hundred and twenty votes at Argentina, Bonia's colleagues will get four, and it is thought two of those will split, leaving out Bonia entirely. The same message states Fox Hr., Ship Hr. and Long Hr. are sold to a man for Walsh, Sullivan and Sianott.

In the Interest of Clean Government.

King's Point, via Burlington, April 4.—Messrs. Perry, Wellman and Taylor held a meeting here last night in the interest of the Bennett Party. Taylor and Wellman spoke for half an hour each on the general conditions of the country, comparing to-day with what it was five years ago. They were heartily received. Perry was the last speaker and for over an hour and a half he urged his hearers to weigh well the action of the Government the past four years and use all the influence at their disposal for clean Government and not be duped by the misrepresentations of the Government press whose sheets are full of promises and propaganda that are being paid for out of taxes, levied upon an over-burdened people. His remarks were heartily received and endorsed and not a dissenting voice was heard.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL PERFORMANCE.

The third performance of "Adam and Eva" by the Casino Stock Co. was presented last night to a capacity audience. Miss Amy Dennis who played the part of "Eva" the youngest daughter of the Rubber King, is undoubtedly one of the cleverest actresses a St. John's audience has yet had the pleasure of seeing. Miss Dennis made a fine impression by the excellent portrayal of the title role. To-night the show is being repeated, and another large audience is expected to greet these popular performers.

Boot Club Formed.

The People's Boot Club, the opening announcement of which appears in the advertising columns is intended to supply the means whereby the poorer people of the city may be able to obtain footwear which they are in need of but have not the ready funds to obtain. Mr. Morgan, organizer, resides at 24 Carew Street and will be pleased to receive members into the Club on any Monday evening from 7 to 9 p.m.

Chimney on Fire.

Shortly before noon to-day the Central and West End Fire Companies responded to an alarm from box 338 Water St. West. On arriving at the scene only a chimney blaze was in evidence at the residence of Mrs. Reddy. The fire was subdued in a few minutes. No damage was done the premises.

Shipping Notes.

CANTATA AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The sacred Cantata, "The Holy City," will be repeated in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church to-night. In the first performance the choir showed up to splendid advantage, therefore an excellent rendition of music can be assured all those who attend to-night. The many choruses, solos, trios and quartets with their appealing melody will not fail to satisfy the most exacting music lover. His Excellency the Governor and Lady Allardree, who were unavoidably absent on the first night, have signified their intention of attending this evening. Those without tickets can secure them at the door.

MAIL FALSEHOOD EXPOSED.

Humber Contract Not Dependent on Government Party.—Squires' Trickery Delays Work

There is no contract at present," says the Mail, "between the Government and the Nfld. Power and Paper Co., embodying the Humber proposition."

There is a contract now, complete in its details, signed, sealed and delivered. It is between the Government and the Company. It is not between the Liberal Party and the Company.

For months, last year, Squires and Warren lingered in London, negotiating the contract, and at last Squires outstayed Warren, to sign the completed contract, and then the Advocate, announced in big type, as the public will recall, "the last minute of 'Committee has been signed by the British authorities, Squires 'has completed the contract.'"

The true position is this, a contract has been made by the Government of this Colony with the British Government and the Nfld. Power and Paper Co. to secure the doing of certain things by each, and large expenditures have already been made, and onerous obligations undertaken, under the terms of that contract.

Take it With Your Eyes Shut.

It is evident that during the three years of Squires and Coaker control they cannot point to one solitary act done by them that would commend itself to the people.

Don't forget the Cathedral Girls' Club Tea and Entertainment in the Synod Hall, Monday, April 9th, at 8 p.m. Admission only 30c. Tickets on sale at Gray & Goodlands.—apr5.11

A Straight Talk to W. F. Coaker.

OATH BOUND REPRESENTATIVES A MENACE TO GOOD GOVERNMENT.

The present disastrous state of affairs in the public life of this fair Dominion, as well as abiding respect for the somewhat expansive sense of self-esteem with which you are endowed makes it necessary for me to address this letter to you, and incidentally to draw public attention to the momentous crisis in our affairs whereby a Government formed and constituted as it is endeavoring to exploit the country for their own ends.

There is a contract now, complete in its details, signed, sealed and delivered. It is between the Government and the Company. It is not between the Liberal Party and the Company.

Can't Fool the People.

The Government organs are trying hard to fool the people by publishing reports concocted in their offices, of the popularity of the Government candidates and of the certainty of the success that awaits them.

DESTROYING THE OCTOPUS THAT IS STRANGLING NEWFOUNDLAND.

IT SEES IT'S DOOM.

The tentacles of the Squires-Coaker Octopus have for three and a half years held our country in the merciless grip of extravagance, incompetence and indifference.

The votes of the Electorate will put such power in BENNETT'S hands that he will lop off the tentacles of destruction and leave Newfoundland free to develop and thrive, released from Coakerism and Squiresism that have proved so disastrous to the Country.

CANDID CRITICISMS.

The Mail says, "The North is a solid wall for the Government." If it had said "a solid wall for Coaker" it would have sounded more probable, though not true.

"The Humber never occurred to the Cashmires," says the Mail. No, nor to Squires either, nor yet to Coaker! It first occurred to the Reids, and nobody would have supposed that either Squires or Coaker would have anything to do with the Reids after the vile manner in which they were abused.

By the way, what has become of LeGrow? Has he been "cramped" out of Bay de Verde? "Some one's going to get hurt when Squires gets going," says the Mail. That's all too true.

"Watch Warren win," says the Mail. Win what, that High Commissioner in London, and $25,000 salary? Isn't it time he won something for Fortune Bay? There was a candid confession in the Mail yesterday. It said that Mr. Main "had been so long out in the cold with the Opposition that it had become almost blue in the face."

Received Enthusiastic Welcome.

BENNETT CANDIDATES SPEAK AT CENTRAL CLUB ROOMS.

The West End Candidates, Messrs. Cashin, Linegar and Hunt, received a most enthusiastic welcome at the rooms of the Central Amusement Club, Central Street, last night.

MR. HUNT RECEIVES OVATION. Mr. William Whalen presided and the first speaker was Mr. C. E. Hunt, who, on rising, was given a tremendous ovation.

Another Government official has been made a Government candidate. Poor Hawco, after being in the employ of Squires and Coaker for the past few years, but paid for out of the public taxes, has been sent down to Mr. Main to make a show as a Government candidate.

Coaker is reported by the Advocate as having got a great reception at Elliston. Why is Coaker hanging around his headquarters? Is he afraid to venture further afield? Nothing more significant has occurred lately than the fact that Coaker has kept paid canvassers in the Northern districts.

Will Stump for Bennett Party.

DISGUSTED WITH GOVERNMENT'S INCAPACITY.

Mr. J. R. Bennett, leader of the Liberal-Labor-Progressive-Party, has received the following message from J. M. Devine, formerly Trade Commissioner at New York, and a defeated Squires' candidate in the 1914 election:—

John R. Bennett, Esq., Leader of Opposition. My heartfelt congratulations on your assumption of leadership of Opposition. I offer unreservedly my services to contest any constituency now open in your behalf. Am prepared to oppose Downey in St. George's, to show how the incapacity and lack of ordinary intelligence on the part of the Government practically wiped out the herring industry of Bay of Islands. If the districts are filled, I will stump. Impossible to stand idly by while vital interests of the country are being sacrificed. J. M. DEVINE.

SENEF OUTWARD.—S. S. Senef, Capt. Norman, sailed for the westward yesterday at 11 a.m. She took a full cargo of supplies for Fortune and other intermediate ports of call. There was no report of her up to press hour.

Begging the Question.

The contention of the Telegram that the Humber Deal is not an issue in the forthcoming election has got under the skin of the Editor of the Mail. He does not refute our statement that the Guarantee was given, not to Sir Richard Squires, but to the Government of Newfoundland, but he quibbles by writing a lot of nonsense, chiefly to the effect that in his prejudiced opinion, the Leader of the Opposition has not the ability to put the Deal through.

We would also like to inform the Mail that our article headed "Mr. Coaker's Manifesto" had no reference whatsoever to the letter written by Mr. Coaker to a Twillingate plantier. It referred to the Manifesto which the F.P.U. leader has circulated through Bonavista District, and possibly a copy will be sent to the Mail if it asks Mr. Coaker nicely.

Change Islands for Bennetty Party.

Mr. Long addressed the largest meeting of voters on Tuesday night ever held at Change Islands, and held the attention of the audience for two hours. Mr. Long is the first to have courage to denounce the Coaker misrule here since 1913.

Beware Coaker's Audacious Scheme.

Plans Transferring Labrador to Canada -- Brazen Policy Denounced at East End Committee Meeting.

There was an enthusiastic gathering of the East End Liberal Progressive Committee last night and most encouraging reports were received from the Captains and sub Captains of the various wards. The committee which in 1919 brought the invincible Higgins, Fox and Vinicombe at the head of the poll, has been considerably augmented by the addition of some hundreds of former opponents. Last night the leader of the ticket Mr. W. J. Higgins, outlined the campaign in the city and down the shore and on Bell Island. Meetings will be held at various places throughout the city, especially in the back part of the town, while the usual meeting will also take place at the Battery.

THE COAKER MENACE.

Mr. Higgins in referring to public matters in general made special mention of the recent pronouncement of Mr. W. F. Coaker, when as pointed out in his recent letter to "Friend Jim" he says—"We will, if elected and returned to govern, arrange to transfer Labrador to Canada." Mr. Coaker is still dictating the policy of the Government, and without the slightest heed being paid to the public, who are the real owners. This self-appointed owner of this island home of ours, takes it upon himself to say that he will arrange the transfer of Labrador to Canada. Mr. Higgins said this had a special significance and the electors had to watch this matter very carefully. He termed it one of the greatest scandals yet perpetrated by the bunch of incompetents and incapables that are mismanaging the affairs of this country.

LOOKS LIKE CONFEDERATION.

Mr. Higgins said that in years past the Confederation issue was brought up periodically at election times, but it was looked upon more as a bugaboo, or an election kite. Now it has taken a different character. The real leader of the Government announces through his circulars to the people of the north that the Government is going to transfer Labrador to Canada. In 1893 a party went to the polls on a Confederation issue, but the people on that occasion turned them down and said our motto is Newfoundland for Newfoundlanders. No Government or party since that time had the audacity or brazenness to undertake that policy again, until Coaker and Squires got control, and then they brazenly announced what is the first step towards Confederation. They say they are going to deliver a part of Newfoundland and that most important part to Canada, without the voice of the people being consulted. They do not include it in their policy, but Coaker who is the dictator of the Government's policy, openly states that such is the case.

NOVA SCOTIA WAS SOLD OVER-NIGHT.

Those of the younger generation have often been told how Nova Scotia was sold one morning to find that it had been sold into Confederation with Canada. The people were not consulted, and it looks as if Wm. F. Coaker and Sir R. A. Squires, are up to the same game. Mr. Higgins questioned whether Coaker was in his sane senses, when he says he will deliberately sell a part of this country to Canada. Labrador belongs to us, and is as much a part of St. John's. This latest move of the part of Coaker and Squires, requires the serious consideration of the people, especially at this particular time when Labrador is in the eyes of the world. When from Canada, U. S. A. and Great Britain come the stories that thousands of people are going here and big expeditions are being formed to go over the alleged gold deposits that have been reported. This is not the time that a madman of the calibre of Coaker is to be allowed to sell out what may be our most valuable asset. We must be careful of our resources. It may be that Labrador will solve the problem of our National debt. There is every possibility of the gold being there and it is a matter that must be left to the people to decide. What right would a tenant have in selling his land to a stranger's house. Yet without disclosing the terms or agreements we have the Government announcing that Labrador is to be transferred to Canada. It is bad enough to witness their actions regarding the Humber proposition, which is kept dark, their bungling in handling the affairs of the country and her finances; the colossal expenditure of millions but this latest scandal is the most serious yet and Mr. Higgins said it was up to the people who were vitally interested to see that we are not all sold, and that the people's property, and no-party and no Government, had a right to part with an inch of this country unless the people who sent them to look after their rights had an opportunity to pronounce upon it. What right had Coaker or Squires who were only in power by the merest chance to say we will transfer Labrador to Canada.

NOT A GOVERNMENT AT ALL. Mr. Higgins termed them no Government at all. They hold out the glittering bait they call a Humber deal, which in view of their actions in keeping it from the public is in reality a secret Reid deal and tell the intelligent elector that unless Squires and Coaker are returned, Newfoundland is lost, because there will be no Humber deal. It was an insult to the intelligence of the people to suggest such a thing.

ASHAMED OF THEIR RECORD. The trouble is the Government is ashamed of its record of the past three and a half years and the Humber is now held out as their platform. But they will be judged by their actions during their term of office, and to-day they cannot look the elector straight in the face and ask for a renewal of office. They are condemned by their misdeeds. Mr. Higgins hoped the Humber was a good proposition, this would not be known until the new Government took office. It was ridiculous to think however, that once the Humber proposition goes through that every man would be a millionaire next day. The Humber, our mines, and various pulp and other activities were alright, they were a help, but they have not kept our forefathers, nor are they the mainstay of Newfoundland to-day. The fisheries are still the principal means of livelihood in Newfoundland and would continue to be so, and its the party that will encourage our fisheries that the people are supporting and looking to. That is why the country is rallying to Bennett's banner, because in men like Hickman, Monroe, Harris, Crosbie and Cashin, they see men who know how to handle the fisheries, who know about fish. They are not the type of men to whom shareholders throughout the country are looking for dividends that they never get.

In conclusion Mr. Higgins said the Bennett party was going to look after the fisheries and they were coming back because they held the confidence of the people. Mr. Higgins was heartily applauded at the conclusion of his splendid address, after which short addresses were made by Mr. Arthur English, Mr. C. J. Fox and Mr. N. Vinicombe all of whom spoke on the matters referred to by Mr. Higgins. To-night the Committee will assemble as usual and to-morrow night the big meeting of young voters takes place.

LECTURE ON CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS.

A most enjoyable illustrated lecture was given last night by Rev. Fr. Rawlins at the Parish Hall, Kilbride. A very large audience was present. The Rev. lecturer took as his subject the life of Christopher Columbus and for nearly an hour he held the closest attention of his audience on the achievement of the great navigator. After the lecture a hearty vote of thanks was tendered and the hope expressed that at an early date Fr. Rawlins would again lecture. The lantern slides which were very interesting were manipulated by Mr. F. Tobin. Following the lecture tea was served by the Ladies' Committee, after which a dance was held until the small hours of the morning.

Out They Must Go!

The people of this country are now given an excellent opportunity of bettering conditions by electing Bennett and the experienced men behind him. Every day under present misrule and corruption conditions are growing worse. No one has any confidence in the present Government except a few hangers-on who have fattened on Government pickings and who are anxiously looking forward to a continuance of same if Squires and Coaker are elected. The great bulk of the people who do not need or seek Government assistance but ask only that they be permitted to pursue their avocations unmolested are not alone disgusted with the way that public affairs are being conducted but they fear the feeling of uncertainty aroused by the interference of the Government in trade and the fisheries may have even more disastrous results unless speedily checked. There is but one way to restore security and confidence in public affairs; one way to check the evil that has overspread the country like a plague, causing confusion and distrust, and that is complete and absolute defeat of the Squires-Coaker party at the Polls. The party to-day opposing the Government comprises men of every walk of life in the Masonic Installation.

The installation of officers of Whiteway Lodge, No. 3541, under the English Constitution took place at the Temple last night, at 8 p.m., in the presence of a large gathering of Masons. R.W.D.G.M. John Bennett conducted the ceremony and installed the officers for 1923-24 as follows:—

EASTER DANCE GREAT SUCCESS.
The Easter card party and dance held at the B.I.S. Club Rooms last night, was attended by a very large gathering. In the card games prizes were awarded Mrs. Cotter and Mr. Alan Doyle. The dance was participated in by a greater number of people than the card games. The Prince's Orchestra provided a complete programme of new music and a delightful dance was the result, every item being encored two and three times. The hall was beautifully decorated and a profusion of confetti, Easter eggs, chicken, bon bons and such novelties, helped to make the affair enjoyable. At 11 o'clock the delicious supper was served by the Ladies' Auxiliary. Dancing was then resumed and continued up to an early hour this morning.

Mrs. Temple's Telegram.

POPULAR COMEDY TO BE REHEATED.

At yesterday evening's show of Mrs. Temple's Telegram at the Majestic Theatre his Excellency the Governor and Lady Allardice were present and expressed themselves as being greatly pleased with the performance. Both matinee and evening performances drew bumper houses. Mr. C. F. Watson, Secretary of the Grenfell Association announced that at the request of many persons who were desirous of again seeing the show, it would be repeated tonight. The object is to augment the funds of the Grenfell Institute which is one of the most deserving institutions in the city. The show itself is one of the best ever seen on the local stage for some time and in its production the various players have achieved wonderful success.

Gaelic League.

"EVA OF THE NATION."
On Tuesday night the members of the Gaelic League held a very enthusiastic meeting in the League Club Rooms. After several important matters had been transacted, Mrs. M. Walsh, B.A., read a paper on "Eva of the Nation." "Eva" was one of the inspired writers who contributed so largely to the literature of the young Ireland movement. Her writings were published in the "Nation," a journal founded in Dublin by the young Irishmen in 1842 and devoted to the development of Irish ideals. Born in the obscure village of Headfort in the County of Galway, Miss Eva Kelly at an early age showed a love of literature of Ireland and later under the pen name of "Eva" earned fame as Ireland's premier poetess, and while the history of that remarkable period lives, will be cherished by the Irish people as "Eva" of the "Nation." At the conclusion of the paper several members voiced appreciative and complimentary sentiments. A vote of thanks was heartily accorded the lecturer. It was decided to have the paper published in pamphlet form at a later date.

Forming Special Police.

WILL POLICE LABRADOR GOLD FIELDS.
In view of the anticipated rush to Labrador gold fields, Inspector General Hutchings announced at yesterday's parade that a special force for service there in the Spring would be formed. He gave the members of the present force a first chance to volunteer for the work. It is understood that there will be little difficulty in getting the required number of men. From all over Canada and the States comes the news of a big rush for the gold fields with the opening of navigation.

Bridge Party Success.

The handsome sum of $400 was realized at a Bridge Party in the C. C. Hall Tuesday evening. The proceeds are for the Child Welfare Fund and the Association is very thankful to Messrs. Higgins, Fox and Vinicombe for their kindness in giving them the use of the hall for the afternoon. The committee is to be complimented on the splendid success achieved.

Obituary.

MR. LAURENCE BOLAND.
The death of Mr. Laurence Boland, of Outer Cove, which took place at his residence, records the passing of another old timer. Deceased who was in his 76th year lived in Outer Cove during the whole period. Some 15 years ago he was stricken with paralysis which rendered him incapable of work. About a week ago he was seized with an attack from which he failed to rally, and fortified by the rites of his Church, his soul passed to its everlasting reward. Deceased was well known as an honest and industrious farmer, and his death comes as a severe blow to his family and friends. The late Mr. Boland leaves to mourn a widow, two daughters, and three sons, to whom the Telegram offers its deepest sympathy.

SIDE TALKS.

By Ruth Cameron.

REGRET BUT NO REMORSE.

A neighbor of ours has recently lost her husband from a disease for which the most common treatment is an operation which is successful in the majority of cases.

One of the doctors wanted to operate. The woman was very much against it. She has never believed in operations. Another doctor in whom she has always had faith advised her to wait. She waited and her husband died.

The man has been much beloved and there has been feeling against his wife.

"I guess now she wishes she hadn't been so set against operations," said one of her neighbors when we were discussing the case. "I guess she'll be sorry the longest day she lives that she wouldn't let the doctors try that."

"Oh, no she won't," said another neighbor. "Don't you believe it. She isn't that kind. She will feel sure that he would have died anyway. She will be perfectly satisfied with herself and think she did the best thing that could be done. That's the way she always feels about things."

They blamed Her.

There was considerable bitterness in that summing up. My neighbor evidently considered this woman's failure to flagellate herself for not having done something different as a very grave fault.

Or was it a sign of a well balanced mind?

She abided by the decision of a doctor in whom she had faith. She had acted according to her best judgment. There is no way of knowing for sure that the operation would have been successful. Is it not the part of sanity to marshal these facts instead of to torture herself with the thought that all would be well if she had only acted differently and that she is to blame for not having done so?

The tone of my neighbor's criticism shows a tendency most of us have to regard it as a virtue to flagellate oneself for past mistakes when their consequences have been serious. We seem to think it shows a more sensitive, high type of individual.

Morbid! Look Out!

Quite as often it shows a neurotic ill balanced, morbid individual. Health and sanity and balance are threatened by this tendency.

And since the wisdom and efficiency of future acts depends on one's health and sanity and balance, surely life is not made better or happier for the individual or the people around him by the excessive remorse.

Of course there are people who will never admit to themselves that they have made mistakes or been wrong in any way. Nothing, not even tragedy, can pierce the armor of their self-complacency. But between these people and the people who give away to remorse for mistakes in judgment, is a very wide gap. And somewhere between the two, as always, is the golden mean of common sense and sanity.

This Way to Sanity.

If you have acted according to your best judgment you have done all that any mortal can do. In the future you will try to improve your judgment and to do still better. If you have suffered loss through unwise judgment it is natural that you will feel regret and grief, but you need not torture yourself with remorse. Just make up your mind to do better if you get the chance and turn your face forward, not backward. For that is the way of healthy life.

Canadian Penitentiaries.

OTTAWA, ONT.—(Canadian Press.)

Grey walls which surround penitentiaries are not solely for the purpose of keeping inmates from escaping, but to keep persons from interfering with prison welfare by smuggling revolvers, whiskey and other undesirable goods to prisoners, said Brig. Gen. St. Pierre Hughes, superintendent of Canadian Penitentiaries, in an address upon the Canadian penitentiary system here recently. General Hughes gave a very interesting address on the improvements which had been made in the penitentiaries in recent years and explained fully the procedure which is followed from the time a prisoner is admitted until he receives his discharge.

Five women and two men were burned to death at the Alburgh County Almshouse at Hornellville, near Rochester, New York State, recently.

A fire broke out after a gas explosion in the basement, and the building was gutted. The victims were old bedridden inmates.

A stableman lost his life in an attempt to save them. His name is stated to be Charles Sanborn. He entered the blazing building and returned three times carrying the helpless inmates. The fourth time he went back the floor caved in.—Reuter.

"I Was Terribly Weak After Baby Was Born"

Mrs. H. McClure, Norwood, Ont., writes:

"After my baby was born, I was terribly weak and run down, with pains across my back. I had heard so much of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food that I decided to try it. Three boxes proved enough to make me quite strong and well again. I also used Dr. Chase's Ointment for a rash which broke out on the baby, and the rash disappeared completely in a short time."

No Entries for $5,000 Prize.

LONDON.—(Canadian Press.)—So far no entry has been registered for the prize of $5,000 for a soaring flight of fifty miles and expert opinion has been heard to express the view that it will not be possible to use gliders for travel across the country after the manner of the vulture and albatross. Attention is being turned to the possibilities of installing an engine of 20 horsepower in a glider and an aircraft company has produced a two cylinder air-cooled engine which weighs 85 pounds and develops 18 horsepower. An attempt is being made to interest pilots who cannot afford to keep a full-sized aeroplane in this new engine.

HAIL TO THE HEROES!

Noble Band of Volunteer Workers Will Win Rousing Victory for Bennett Trio in St. John's West.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir—I think it only right, at this, the outset of the campaign, that the thanks of every well-wisher of the country should be extended to the influential and noble band of volunteer workers who are so enthusiastically and patriotically championing the Opposition trio in St. John's West. They are setting an example to the rest of the districts well worth imitating, for determination is stamped deeply on the minds of every one of them to rid this intelligent district for evermore of the political desperados who have laid waste the business conditions and industries of the whole country as well as this Newfoundland with the wreckage of broken homes. The number of volunteer workers who thus of their own free will and unbranded by doles of patronage, have come forward to help get the country off the rocks of destitution and despair, is an inspiration to us all to give of our very best towards helping the patriotic cause in which they are engaged; and we hope every voter in the outports will learn in time that on the chief battlefield in this election the biggest army of volunteer workers ever engaged in a political contest are now lined up to defeat overwhelmingly the tools and puppets of Coakerism, who by their ruinous squandering and borrowing and madcap policies have ruined this once fair city.

There have been many great contests in St. John's West during the past thirty years or more, and large and enthusiastic committees were often in evidence backing up their respective admirers, but in all the political history of the district there never yet has been witnessed such an immense array of eager and determined men as that which is now rigorously campaigning on behalf of CASHIN, HUNT and LINEGAR.

A visit to their rooms is quite sufficient to demonstrate to any fair-minded and observing man that these volunteers realize that for their homes and their country, for the very existence of themselves and their families, they are now fighting; that if we fail on election day to do our duty, Newfoundland so expects us to do, it is over the precipice and into the chasm of prolonged and even more bitter destitution, all of us will tumble.

All hail then to the heroes of St. John's West, for realising in their innermost hearts the deep significance of the struggle, and for banding together, in such vast numbers, to free the country of the menace of Coakerism, and all the Squires' political despoilers associated with it.

I learn on reliable authority that there are over a thousand active campaigners now strenuously working day and night on behalf of CASHIN, HUNT and LINEGAR, every man amongst those active volunteers solid to the core for the straight ticket, and each one the representative of not less than four or five of his own particular family. Making all due allowance for any probable over estimate it undoubtedly means that no less than 4,000 staunch, straight ticket voters will be lined up on polling day to overwhelm by tremendous odds the trio, who, arrayed in the garb of Coakerism and carrying the slugs of further misery and desolation, are now attempting to foist their party once more on this poor old country that they have already nearly laid by the heels.

All honour to the volunteers of St. John's West, the straight ticket fighters for CASHIN, HUNT and LINEGAR. Their deeds of patriotic valor shall ring down the corridors of time as the men who saved St. John's West in the hour of its greatest need, and by so doing saving Newfoundland also, for their allies who are fighting for the same cause elsewhere will, we feel certain, join with St. John's West in gaining a victory for BENNETT AND BETTER TIMES and thus making a smiling land again of this our Island home.

Yours truly,
PATRIOT.
St. John's, April 4, 1923.

Harbor Grace Notes.

Messrs. John Mercer and Levi Wells, our two mail-carriers at the post office here, have resigned their positions. The former has six years of service to his credit and the latter five years of service. They expect to leave town this week enroute for the U. S. A., to try their luck in the land of Uncle Sam. Both are very popular young men, and their many friends while regretting their departure, wish them much success in the future.

John Crocker, son of Mr. Samuel Crocker, and Roy Yetman, son of Mr. Josiah Yetman, have been appointed mail-carriers, at the post office, in place of the two just left, and have entered upon their duties.

Messrs. Ronald Jones and Alfred Simmons, who are attending college in the city are at present home for the Easter holidays.

Miss Alice Cron, who is on the staff of teachers at the Presbyterian College, St. John's, is at present spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cron.

The storms and snow-drifts were such last week, that no train got through from the city from Thursday until early Sunday morning. Thursday's train got held up between Spaniard's Bay and Tilton, coming this way, and some of the passengers after their respective homes here; they made good time and felt none the worse for their experience. At the present moment the line is clear once more, and we cannot expect to have many more such blockades this winter.

The special services which were to be held in the Methodist Church on Easter Sunday, as referred to at an earlier date, has been postponed until Sunday next.

Rev. Wm. Swann occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Church at the Sunday evening's service.

Mr. N. S. Noel, who is a student at Queen's Theological College, St. John's, is in town spending the Easter holidays with his sister, Mrs. Crane, and friends.

Mr. Edwin Quinn was a passenger by Thursday's train to spend Easter here with his family.

The line-up on the Squires' ticket for this district has been announced, viz: Messrs. A. W. Piccott, G. Galpin, and E. Simmons. We now await the announcement of the Opposition candidates.

The Annual Anniversary Service of St. Paul's Sunday School took place on Easter Sunday at 3 p.m. The service was very largely attended by the parents and friends of the children. After a short programme had been rendered, distribution of prizes gained by the pupils during the year, was gone through.

The pupils of Victoria Street School, under the direction of their teacher, Miss Maud Butt, are holding a tea to-morrow, Tuesday afternoon. Handkerchiefs and fancy-work will be on sale.

S. S. Mary arrived in port on Good Friday afternoon from Bell Island, bringing some thirty or so men, to spend a few days of Easter with their families here.

The ice in the harbour has now broken off some distance inside the Point of Beach, but it still remains intact at the upper part of the harbour, and is used by horses and slides, as well as pedestrians all the time.

Again, we hail the glad tidings of Easteride, and in the different churches the usual services fitting to the occasion have been held.

THE BOYS ON THE PAPER.
The boys on the paper—eager for stories,
Sitting from life all its sins and its glories,
Treading the city streets late through the night,
Waiting and watching for something to write,
Something to tell of a man or a woman,
Let it be anything, so it is human.

What do you know of them, reading the pages,
Know of their was or their woes or their wages?
Littled the reader at morn understands
The life of a day has all run through their hands.

Shameful the story this morning you scan,
Blame not the writer, but censure the man.
The boys on the paper—but filters through which
Are poured all the deeds of the poor and the rich,
The great and the humble, the good and the bad,
The joyous achievements, the tragedies sad!
The wishes of God and the conduct of men,
These are the records which daily they pen.

Reader, I tell you that we are their servitors,
We are the source of life's crimes and its glories,
Have we served badly or have we served well,
Ours is the tale that each morning they tell,
We are the authors of all that we read,
They pen the record, but ours is the deed.

Civil Air Transport Subsidy

LONDON (Canadian Press)—Present arrangements for subsidizing the civil air transport will terminate in a year's time. To provide for the fresh subsidy that is considered necessary to keep the industry in being during the pioneer stages, a committee of business men, appointed by the government to investigate the possibilities has submitted a report embodying a scheme whereby the State would provide one million pounds spread over ten years. A company would be formed in which it would be necessary for private interests to invest £500,000 in order to obtain the subsidy. The important feature of the scheme is the subsidizing of only one company instead of several firms as at present. The Cabinet will consider the matter shortly.

CLERK'S STRUGGLES IN A STEEL PRISON.

Forty firemen and policemen after six hours of working in relays rescued a bank clerk, aged 19, from a steel vault in which he had been accidentally imprisoned by a colleague at Paterson, New Jersey, about 40 miles from New York city.

Impatient at the slowness of the clerk, who was filing documents, his fellow worker jokingly gave the door a slight push. It unexpectedly closed with the time-lock set for 8.30 the next morning.

The manufacturers, immediately notified by telephone, declared that there was no means of opening the vault except with acetylene torches. Huge crowds assembled outside the bank offices to await the outcome of the battle against time and asphyxiation.

At the end of 2 hours a small hole was bored through 18 in. of concrete and 3 inches of battleship steel plate. The doctor then inserted a tube through which oxygen was pumped. Through a second hole a note was pushed with the words "Keep up courage."

When, after four hours' more drill-

Poison in Furs.

MANY WOMEN ILL.

London doctors and hospitals are dealing with a number of cases of skin poisoning in women which is supposed to be caused by the dye on cheap furs. The patients are affected on the face or neck, or both, and the poisoning, which is liable to spread, is very disfiguring.

A London skin specialist told a Daily Mail reporter that he dealt with seven cases at one hospital recently. He has also dealt with cases in his private practice. The poisoning, he said, is caused by chemicals used in dyeing, which acts as an irritant to the skin and causes eruptions.

One woman told a Daily Mail reporter that the trouble spread across one side of her face in a few hours. It is thought that the furs causing the trouble, which has been prevalent since November last, have been dyed on the Continent. The trouble is believed to be caused principally by rabbit fur dyed as beaver. The matter is being investigated by members of the London fur trade.

Then and Now.

CONDITIONS FOUR YEARS AGO

We ask our readers to-day to recall conditions as they existed here four years ago and contrast them with those that exist to-day. In the spring of 1919 there was prosperity everywhere. The price of fish was up to fourteen and fifteen dollars a quintal; supplies were easily obtainable, work was abundant in every direction, and the people both in the city and the outports had all the employment they could wish for. Never in her history did her people enjoy such a promising outlook nor did they possess more money, more comforts, or more assurance of continued good times. But the Squires-Coaker party promised still more wonderful conditions if they were returned, and by means of these promises and indiscreet acts of unscrupulous politicians, they succeeded in inducing the electors to throw out the Government then in power and return themselves to office. They have had three or four years in which to show what they could do for the country and its people, and we ask in all seriousness and sincerity what is their record to-day? What have they done in these three years to better the condition of Newfoundland or those who dwell within it? How does the condition of the people compare to-day with what it was then and what is the outlook for the fishermen and other working classes amongst us? There is dire distress and poverty everywhere. In the city a couple of thousand men are finding employment in breaking stones or shovelling snow. In the outports whole settlements are being kept alive by dollops of meal and molasses. The only people who are prosperous amongst us to-day are the members of the Government and their friends and supporters. The taxpayers are weighed down with the burden of unjust taxation. The merchants, or most of them, at any rate, have been ruined by the Fish Regulations, and great sections of the country have been impoverished by the same. The money made in good years by an industrious and hard working people had to be taken to keep them and their families from starvation in these bad times, and the fishing season is now at hand with nobody to furnish supplies or to help the men of the various districts to carry on their fishery the coming summer. Not a single thing has been done during these three years to improve the lot of our people in any way, to open up any new employment for them, to help them to return to the prosperity which they enjoyed in 1919. But, on the eve of the election the Squires-Coaker crowd profess a death bed repentance and say they have secured the Humber Deal which is going to transform this country into a land flowing with milk and honey, and they invite the people to forget and forgive everything because they make this promise and to re-elect them at the polls next month on the mere promise that if this is done everything will be all right for the country.

We don't think the people of Newfoundland are so foolish as to be deceived by this sort of talk at the last moment from men who have neglected the country and its needs for the past three years. The Humber Deal will be all right whichever party is in. The agreement has been made, not with Squires or Coaker or Reid or any other individual. It has been made with the Government of Newfoundland, and the Opposition Party can, and will, carry it on just as successfully as Squires and Coaker. The British Government is a party to this agreement. The British Government has put up its guarantee in England for the money to be spent there on the machinery, and the British Government will see this thing carried through no matter who is in power in Newfoundland. Squires does not control the Imperial authorities or the Armstrong-Whitworth Company. The credit of the former and the reputation of the latter are at stake and whoever wins in the coming contest the Humber Deal is secure. Therefore, turn out the incompetents now in control of your affairs. Vote for BENNETT & BETTER TIMES.

New Appointment At Custom House.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—In passing entries at the Custom House to-day a fellow clerk pointed out to me an extra official put in there as a spare man or something of the kind, but that nobody could tell what there was for him to do except to stay quiet till the elections were over. I was told the man's name was Carvay and that he was Bonie's first appointment after he became Finance Minister. How does this fit in with the promise of the Government to give any jobs that are going to the veterans of the Great War? It fits in like all of the promises with which we who tried the battlefields at the risk of our lives, were deluded.

Yours truly,
RETURNED SOLDIER CLERK.

Obituary.

MISS MARY POWER.

It is with feelings of regret that the Telegram has to chronicle to-day the death of Miss Mary Power, the popular Proprietress of the Blue Puttee, Rawlin's Cross, which sad event occurred in Brooklyn, N.Y., after a very lengthy illness. The deceased lady had been suffering from a serious throat trouble for nearly a year, and underwent several operations. Two months ago her condition improved enough to go to New York for treatment, but the mainly grew worse, and as very little hopes were held out for her recovery her mother hastened to see her. The patient rallied slightly in response to a serum treatment but relapsed again, passing away peacefully, with her mother by her bedside, as well as her brother and other relatives. The late Miss Power was a lady who was loved and esteemed by the many who knew her. She was ever an earnest worker in charitable enterprises. Her countless acts of unselfish self-sacrifice merited for her a peaceful and holy, if premature, death which was fortified by the sacraments of the Church, by the prayers of many friends and by her conscious and courageous resignation.

ONIONS—Large cases, good condition, clearing at $4.00 per case, only few left. EDWIN MURRAY—apr. 5, 1923.

Gibbs' "Guff" About the Workingmen.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir—I am delighted to see that Sir Michael Cashin and his colleagues have issued a challenge to M. P. Gibbs to discuss the Humber Deal. This is the way to put it up to "Gibbs" he is. The man was quite right who interrupted Sir Michael Cashin on Thursday night when talking about Gibbs with the remark that "Gibbs is a cod."

prominent citizens whose names were dinned into the ears of the public, as the men behind the scheme, contributed nothing whatever to build them. The money was got out of the Bank on a Government guarantee and that is what the houses were built with. That shows the interest Gibbs had in the welfare of the working classes. When it was a case of making speeches on a public platform he was always to the front, but when it came to taking of a dollar of his own money to put into houses to help these unfortunate people there was "nothing doing." We have all heard Gibbs "speaking" about this housing question and drawing dreadful pictures of the condition of the people in some of the back streets of the city. He and Anderson used these distressful conditions to advertise themselves, but they were not sincere or else they would have put a few dollars, at any rate, into the scheme. Now Gibbs is talking loudly about the unemployment in the city and what the Humber Deal will do. Well what has he done to give anybody employment in St. John's. Isn't it a notorious fact that for years past, whenever he wanted his garden fixed up, he got an inmate from the Poor Asylum to do the work, instead of employing a man who has a family to support; that is the sort of working-man's champion that M. P. Gibbs is. He has endowed his son apparently with his own gall and impudence, if nothing else. His son is able now to get on a public platform and talk to the young people about the way they should vote. But where was this chap when the war was on? Isn't it a fact that he was sent out of the country by his father, so that he would not be an eyesore in St. John's and made do his part. When the boys of his own age were fighting and dying on the battlefields of France and Flanders, M. P. Gibbs's son was in a college "somewhere in Canada," hidden away so that people might not point at him as a "slacker." And what was M. P. Gibbs himself doing during the war, who now talks about what a burden the war has imposed upon us? What sort of service did Gibbs give during the years of the war. Did he do anything to help any of our war charities and had he ever a word for the cause of right during the trying years? And now this is the man Squires and Campbell put up to talk to the West End people and to tell the voters of that district what they must do on polling day.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Squires and Coaker say in effect "we want you to go it blind and vote for the Humber Deal, but we refuse to tell you anything about it."

Dr. Campbell said to his committee at the Cooperage, Monday night, "Boys, I implore you to get out and canvass. If we can't get the majority of the vote between Lime Street and Springdale Street were gone." He knows the game is up.

It is the same Sir Richard Squires who made the 39 promises in his Manifesto in 1919 and fulfilled not one.

It is the same Mr. Coaker who made the Fishery Regulations and ruined the business men and fishermen of the country.

The Executive met Tuesday and filled all the vacant positions in the civil service and added a few new and unnecessary ones besides. It is a sure sign that they realize that they will never come back.

A Government official is the authority for the statement that all the public institutions in St. John's have been supplied with splits enough for five years.

Trying to buy up the electorate in this way is poor business when the ballot boxes show that the electors can't be bought.

To the public in general it is not of any importance whether Sir Richard Squires is Prime Minister or not, but it is the utmost importance whether we shall be able to live in our own country.

If the coopers of this city have any doubts of the truth of what the Telegram says in a political campaign: "we need only ask them to read the back files of the Telegram on the eve of the 1919 election. What was prophesied then as to what would happen if Coaker and Squires were elected was fulfilled to the letter."

Coaker's last hope now is that he can again stampede the North by making them believe that Bennett is not the Leader of the Opposition. All we can say about this is that he is paying a very poor compliment and making a very poor—nay—insulting estimate of the intelligence of the men who made him what he is. From the look of things just now in those districts the North will hurl the insult back in his face on Polling Day.

If a man wanted you to buy a house and refused to let you look at the inside of it, would you sign the agreement to buy? Not likely! But this is just what Squires and Coaker want the people of Newfoundland to do with regard to the Humber Deal.

The Fishermen in the outports are, so one of them informed us yesterday after his arrival from Trinity Bay, laughing at the madness of the Advocate and Mail in trying to work the old cry against the merchants: "Why," he said, "tis the merchants we want now in the worst way."

"Vaulting ambition often overlaps itself," said the late William Shakespeare. Capt. Bonia should get this by heart and he will realize after the election that there is more truth than poetry in it.

When "Wandering Willie" reaches Fortune Bay, he will have some difficulty in explaining to his constituents why he refused them the old age pension and still could find money for a useless horse police.

Mr. Warren will also be puzzled in trying to explain why he permitted Coaker to enforce the Fish Regulations that destroyed the business of the West Coast.

When Mr. Warren has finished explaining these questions the District will be finished with him.

Watch Outerbridge win in Fortune District. Vote for Bennett and Better Times.

Fishermen of Newfoundland! Do you want to carry on your work without Coaker's interference? If you do then vote for Bennett and Better Times.

Do you want a bounty on the fish you catch? If you do, then vote for Bennett and Better Times.

This is not a mere promise like Squires' Manifesto. What Bennett says, he will do. What Bennett promises, he will perform.

Do you want to get the best prices obtainable in the foreign markets? Do you want a friendly feeling in the minds of the foreign fish buyers and have them pleased to do business without being forced "with a pistol to their heads"? If you do then, vote for Bennett and no restrictions on fish sales.

You do not want Coaker's Regulations re-enforced? No. Then vote

Engineers and Fellow Workers.

The time is fast approaching when we shall be called upon to elect men to look after our interest and the interests of the country in general, and men whose object it is to give us a square deal. During the past three years of the present Administration (if one can call it such) we have been made rosy promises—which turned out to be like a puff of wind which blows until it exhausts itself. We, the working people of the Dominion, were told by Sir R. A. Squires that our interests were to be looked after. In fact he actually stated in his 1919 Manifesto that he would uplift the working classes. Now let us ask ourselves a question—What has he done to better our cause? Take for instance the Shipping Department. How many of us walked the streets for 6 months out of the year of 1922—out of unemployment, but through no fault of our own. While the wealthy concerns of the city had their hands working overtime doing Government work. Then again, who did all the small repair work on the Government boats last spring? Were all these jobs divided amongst us or, were they given to one private individual—who is and will be living in luxury for the remainder of his life. How about the electrical work on these boats—were the orders for lamps, etc., divided amongst the electrical jobbers in the city, or was the lion's share given to that same individual? Who was the Supervisor on these boats? Was he paid by the Government or a certain firm on Water Street—or both, and what did he know about electrical work? Oh! Fellow workers—Men of St. John's East and West—voters in general, think of what you are doing. You know yourselves how you've been treated; you know positively what Squires said—you know absolutely what he has done. If you elect Squires and Coaker in the coming election, then God help the country and the people therein.

Yours for better times, R. D. B.

SEARCHLIGHT

St. John's, March 31, 1923.

Hurrah for St. John's West.

KEEP THE GOOD WORK GOING BOYS.

As we have the Coaker candidates on the run now, whipped badly by the public sentiment aroused so strongly in favor of the Bennett Government, let us now, enthusiastic determined voters of St. John's West safeguard our victory by keeping on the watch day and night till they are utterly wiped off the political map on Polling day. They admit now that their chances are gone to the vanishing point, that their third man is out of the question altogether, their second man's hopes gone too like the baseless fabric of a vision, and their leader too without the slightest hope of getting any way near the straight ticket vote of Cashin, Linegar and Hunt. That's how it stands to-day as you all know free and fearless voters of the West. Be on your guard and match with your well know intelligence their wily wits, their attempts to seduce you by all kinds of fair looking promises that are sure to prove deceptive, by all the arts of chicanery possible to entrap you into electing a Coaker controlled Government that will fleece you with taxes ever after, cripple your earning powers and bring a regular torrade of disaster on your homes to your devoted wives and affectionate children. Steer clear of all their wiles and tricks, keep the upper hand of them and stand true to your most dearest interests from now till the very closing of the polls. Keep the enthusiasm alive all the time, pass the word along in every home that for the straight ticket only are we going to vote, the sure straight ticket for Cashin, Linegar and Hunt.

The bigger the majority, the quicker will Coakerism be finished in St. John's so we must all be alert, we must keep leaning on our oars with all our might regardless of the fact that the enemy is well in the rear already. Let it be a roaring victory then voters, young and old, and let us all join in whole heartedly to make it so. We have the women of St. John's West with us too, to cheer us on and encourage us, so now then with all the vim and energy we are capable of let us all keep going and renewing the fight to place the straight ticket for Cashin, Linegar and Hunt with over a thousand majority in the lead.

WEST END VOTER.

Gold and embroidery on orange satin is used on a coat of black crepe de chine which ties on the left.

Unusual and smart was a tan camel's hair coat cross-barred with a wide white stripe and showing a collar of natural muskrat. An additional charm was a waistline seam.

BOILED RATS—FISHERMEN'S ARCTIC HARDSHIPS.

The Grimsby trawler Sargon, was given up as lost three days ago but had in the meantime towed to Iceland by a German steamer, reached Aberdeen yesterday and is on its way back to Grimsby.

The Sargon left Grimsby for the Sea in January and was rescued from Norway on February 2. It was so long that it was concluded the crew must have been lost, and the ship was reported as having been lost on the 11 out of 12 members of the crew went into mourning. Only the captain, the wife of the third hand and the mate were left to give up hope.

Thomas Higgins, the mate of the Sargon, gave a description of the sufferings and sufferings of the crew to a Daily Mail reporter at Aberdeen yesterday. He said that on January 20 the Sargon was towed off the Murrenisk. Fish were scarce and the cold was severe.

On the next day the boat was chased by a Bolshevik gunboat. The Sargon was in the air, steering a zig-zag course, no lights showing.

On February 5, a violent gale from the south-west was encountered. The coal engines were eased to speed. On Feb. 8 food gave out. There was no coal and every available piece of wood was burnt to keep the cabin a fire, which was allowed with old nets and fish liver oil.

LINSEED MEAL PUMPKIN.

Headlines were made of four spears of some oatmeal, which had been fitted with metal panish, and a barrel of linseed meal. Some of the meal was made into fishcakes with portions of the trawler's catch of fish which was rapidly going bad) and used in olive oil from the medicine chest.

On February 21 the position was so desperate that the crew killed and boiled and ate seal blubber. Seal blubber was weak coffee without sugar or milk and they dried the coffee grounds and smoked them. All the men became very weak and ill before their boat was sighted by the German trawler Schleswig-Holstein, supplied with provisions, and towed to Reykjavik, the capital of Iceland, where provisions and coal were obtained.

Boxing.

AN OFFER FOR DEMPSEY.

It is probable that the next match for the world's heavyweight boxing championship will be held in Buenos Aires, where the amazing success of the Argentine boxer, Luis Angel Firpo, are exciting the utmost enthusiasm.

A telegram from the Argentine capital to-day reports that the champion offer of $150,000 has been transmitted to Dempsey's manager as the champion's share of the purse should the fight be staged in Buenos Aires.

Dempsey, now at Los Angeles, says he is ready to accept it, but in New York Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, while admitting that negotiations were in progress, intimated that the figure mentioned from his South American agent was an exaggeration.

Firpo, who is in New York, also expressed doubts that a sum of the size indicated could be raised for a fight in Argentina. His latest victory over Bill Brennan, the Chicago heavyweight, has added vastly to his popularity with his own countrymen.

He says the blows he got from Brennan were more powerful than those he got from Dempsey.

PHOTOPLAY AT THE NICKEL.

The Golden Snare, the big Erskine Shipman production by James Curwood, on view at the Nickel Theatre to-night is packed with untroubled adventure. Let's all forget the hum-drum of politics and so on, and take a run to the Nickel Theatre to-night and witness, what is possibly a wonderful production.

The picture is an absorbing story of mystery, adventure and romance in the North. It deals with the lone fish of St. Philip, the fish of the W.M.P. for Bran Johnson, the man of the Arctic barrens, who finds Johnson, and also tells of the beautiful life of that wilderness, the mystery of whose presence there cleared up until Bran, his returned, sacrifices his own life to save her from a horrible fate at the hands of a white outcast and his of Esquimaux followers. Miss Esquimaux, watch for her name in this paper.

Everybody will keep Monday open for the production magnificent, "The Slave," featuring beautiful Esquimaux. Watch for her name in this paper.

Unusual Cast in Film Version of "Scramble Wives."

A remarkable cast was assembled by Director E. H. Griffith to assist Marguerite Clark in her initial independent production, "Scramble Wives," which is the screen adaptation at the Nickel Theatre to-night. There are at least two actresses in the cast who have appeared as stars in their own right, and nearly every actor and actress has had important roles on the screen or on the stage.

Florence Evelyn Martin, who plays Bessie Carlton, is a well known leading woman on the speaking stage, and recently co-starred with Guy Empey in "The Undercurrent." Virginia Lee has played in such productions as "The Fortune Teller" with Marjorie Rambeau; as co-star with Emmet Dalton in "Beyond the Law." Leon Gendron, who plays opposite Miss Clark, has had a swift rise to screen fame.

The part of John Chiverick is in the hands of Ralph Bunker, who was originally cast for this part in the stage production. Alice Mann has been a featured player in such popular screen comedies as "Fifty at Coney Island." Other parts are in the hands of America Childrester, Frank Badgley, John Mayer, John Washburn, Thos. A. Braidon, Harry Fisher, Wesley Jenkins, Ada Neville and Emma Wilcox.

"I'll Find the Money."

When the Squires administration spent their first loan of $6,000,000 and when it was hinted a little while after that another loan of $6,000,000 was not unlikely Squires was asked by a great supporter of his, "where he was going to get the money to pay the interest on all these loans." Squires replied "I'll get the money." Taxpayers of Newfoundland ask yourselves how he got the money and your answer must be that he got it from you in excessive taxation in the shape of sales taxes, sur taxes and super taxes, and all other kinds of taxes that the ingenuity of this man could think about. Now as a death-bed repentance and when he sees defeat staring him in the face he takes off the super tax and part duty off sugar but beware of Squires as Coaker says "he can't be trusted" and if by any chance (which it highly improbable), he should secure control of the Government again the duties that have recently been remitted would go on again without delay and as soon as he was secure in office he would be in a position to say as he said before—"I'LL FIND THE MONEY."

ANTI-COUL.

Day by day, in every way, I'm getting worse and worse; I have the fever known as hay, and I'll be busted when I pay the doctor and the nurse. I hear my dippy neighbors claim their ailments have expired: the blind, the bald, the sore, the lame, are working this "get better" game until they make me tired. I shudder when with baleful grins they seek my cottage door, and tell of ailments which were twins, of chilblains in their feet and shins which bother them no more. "We've conquered all our aches and ills," I hear these guys repeat; "we've thrown away the druggists' pills, we pay no more physicians' bills, and life is full and sweet. We merely cheat our rigmorle ten thousand times a day; then sickness wits and hunis its hole, and peace pervades the tortured soul, and pain is shooed away. You have hay fever and the flu, you have the blamsted time; why don't you join our merry crew, and chant a million times or two, the Frenchman's healing rhyme?" But I'll endure my punk disease, as I have long endured; if I took up that healing-whence, I might become a bore like these who tell how they've been cured.

"Gilt Edge" BUTTER!

Genuine Canadian Creamery Butter is rather high in price at present due to scarcity and between season periods, but with the advent of the "New Make" next month we expect to see much lower prices on this commodity.

To satisfy the immediate and pressing demand for "Gilt Edge" and keep our satisfied customers happy, we are importing a small shipment of this unequalled Butter per 'Canadian Sapper' due Saturday from Halifax, and shall be glad to have your order to bridge you over your requirements till we get cheaper Butter late this month or early in May.
