FOURTEENTH YEAR

HOMICIDAL CARELESSNESS. TO SAVE HERSELF AND BABY.

SENTENCED FOR INDIRECTLY CAUSING A CHILD'S DEATH.

A Nurse Lett in Charge of a Child Licks It in a Room and Goes Out—The Child Dies.

Plays With Matches and is Burned—The Girl Accused of Three Months' Imprisonment.

Paris, Oct. 31.—A very tragical case before the Paris police court yesterday, when Marie Martez, a domestic servant, was tried for the homicide, through carelessness, of the infant child of Mrs. Blanche Treville, an American actress, known on the stage as Miss Irving.

Last summer Mrs. Treville was living at No. 37 Avenue d'Antin, and her daughter, who was only four years old, was being educated at a convent in the neighborhood of Paris. When the holidays commenced the child came to live with her mother in Paris.

The Child Played With Matches. On Aug. 20 Mrs. Treville had to go out in the afternoon. She left the child to the care of Marie Martez, who promised not to leave sight of her. She, however, left the child in her own room, locked her in and took the key away with her. When Marie Martez returned she found her room full of smoke. The child was lying on the floor unconscious, with its clothes burned to shreds. There had been a box of wax matches in one of the drawers in the room. The child, it was ascertained, had been striking matches and had set fire to her lock.

The poor child's little arms were unburned. There were no marks on her face or neck. The child died in a few minutes.

Accused Her of Murder. In her defence Mrs. Treville accused the servant of murder, saying that Marie Martez detected the child and had purposely shut her up in a room with matches which she had always liked to play. But the judicial authorities made enquiries and learned that Marie Martez was a very attentive to the child and took good care of it. The charge of murder was consequently changed to that of homicide through carelessness. Mrs. Treville herself appeared in court to give evidence and renewed her accusation that the servant had wanted to burn the child's death. "I am sure of it," she said, weeping. "She detected baby, and she hid the court took a different view of the case and sentenced Marie Martez to three months' imprisonment."

REDMOND'S POLICY INSANITY. Every Vote Taken From the Liberals Will Be Taken From Home Rule.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—T. P. O'Connor, Member of Parliament for the County of Liverpool, editor of The Weekly Sun, and President of the Irish National League of Great Britain, in a formal statement of his views upon the Irish policy, writes: "What is the meaning of this latest cry? I have not had the opportunity of seeing any of my colleagues in the House, therefore I am without knowledge of the inside history of this latest move of Redmond's. But I have no doubt that his policy seems very insane."

"The fundamental point to remember is that the Irish people are not a majority of British as well as Irish voters. Unhappily, the Liberal party, in its present constituencies as well as from Irish constituencies it will be impossible that we should ever be elected to the House of Commons. The position of the Liberal party, when it comes to the question of the Home Rule, is that it is a party which is not a majority of British voters at the next election."

"Every vote taken from the Liberal party will be given to the Conservative party, and every vote taken from the Liberals will be taken from Home Rule."

THE KAISER IS IN BERN. Determined to Put Down Gambling in the German Army.

Berlin, Oct. 31.—Emperor William is very much interested in his determination to suppress gambling in the army. The revelations in the great gambling case now on trial in Hanover have opened his eyes to the fact that little attention was paid to the Imperial receipt issued some time ago on the subject of gambling in the army, and the results are likely to prove disastrous to a number of officers who all branched the Emperor's army for many years.

A large number of officers in all branches of the service, but more especially in the cavalry, are implicated in the gambling case. The Emperor has ordered that a strict enquiry be made into the habits of these officers and their ability to pay the obligations they have contracted. The Emperor has also ordered that the inquiry be confined to these officers alone, but that it extend in a like manner to every officer who has been implicated in any other gambling affair.

As a result of this action it is expected that many officers will throw up their commissions. Those who do not resign and are found to be implicated in the gambling case will be dismissed from the service. It is believed that there are many such—will, it is thought, be degraded in rank.

ENGLAND'S COAL STRIKE. The Mine Owners to Make Another Proposal to the Miners.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Mine Owners' Association will meet here on Friday. A Derbyshire member, who is an extensive mine owner, states that a proposal will be made at the meeting to the miners to accept a 10 per cent. reduction in wages forthwith and a further 10 per cent. reduction on April next. This plan, according to the mine owners, is feasible because the strike has reduced stocks and enhanced prices. Coal will, he says, bring higher prices for six months.

AN EMPRESS SAYS A TRAITOR. Elizabeth of Austria Writes a Train of an Obstruction to the Emperor.

Paris, Oct. 31.—According to The Gaulois the Empress Elizabeth of Austria recently prevented what might have proved a railway catastrophe. Her Majesty, who was taking a ride on horseback, noticed as she was crossing a railroad track a great stone placed across the track over which the Duke de Saxe was to pass in a few minutes. Expressing from her horse she ordered the groom who was riding to remove the obstruction, she herself assisting him to do this. The work was hardly completed when the train, which was crowded with passengers, passed over the spot.

SIX SAILORS DROWNED. By the Sinking of the British Steamer Freda.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The British steamer Freda, from Brazil, Oct. 7, for Rotterdam, was sunk today in a heavy gale. Six of the crew were drowned.

MR. GLADSTONE WILL REST. HIS PLANS FOR THE COMING SESSION OF PARLIAMENT.

Edmund Yates' Gossip—The Irish Party and the Labor Leaders—Proposed Memorial to George Eliot—A Princess' Wedding Given for a Friend's Vestments—The Queen's Movements.

New York, Oct. 31.—Edmund Yates cables The Tribune.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Queen will leave Balmoral after luncheon on Friday, the 17th, and arrive at Windsor Castle about 8.30 Saturday morning. Her Majesty is to reside at Windsor until Tuesday, December 10, and then proceed to Osborne for about nine weeks. Nothing has yet been settled about the Queen's next trip to the Continent, except that Her Majesty will go abroad on March 19 or 20 for five or six weeks.

The widowed Crown Princess of Austria has just presented her bridal robes of broad white satin, embroidered with gold and silver, to the Emperor of Austria, who has just returned from his first time last week by the death of the consoeration of the new saint.

An Archbishop by Mistake.

Dr. Knox, Primate of Ireland, who died last week at his palace in Armagh, in his 87th year, had worked up to the rank of Archbishop of Down and Connor for 27 years prior to his promotion to the see of Dublin. He was, however, intended for another Dr. Knox, and that the latter conveying it was sent by mistake to Dublin. The Archbishop of the same name who the late Dr. Bickerstick was said to have owed his rise to an error in initials.

Made Christian by Force.

The Jewish infant who was baptised in extremis and detained at Rome by the Pope in spite of his parents is now a very fervent Catholic and in high favor at the Vatican.

The Premier Will Not Be Active This Week.

Although Mr. Gladstone is to come to town earlier than was expected it is not probable that he will be at all regular in his attendance at Westminster. He is, however, expected to be in town for a few days.

At Last the Labor Members.

At last the labor members of the better kind of them have found out the hollowness of the cry raised so loudly by the labor press, of alliance between the British and Irish democracy. If the talk of the clubs and the labor members and prominent anti-Parnellites have been conducted with a view to the election of Mr. Mackintosh to the office of Premier, it is a very serious matter.

AN EPIDEMIC OF CRANKS. One Demands $5000, Another Asks $25,000—A Third Sends a Revolver to Supt. Byrnes.

New York, Oct. 31.—With a long-bladed knife and a keen-edged razor in his pocket, a demoted student stalked into the 36th-street station house today and told Supt. Byrnes that he had $5000 right away, as he was in reduced circumstances. The visitor was promptly arrested and detained. He said his name was John Grebb, that he was 31 years of age and that he had no home.

Believing that he was going to the bank, the crank was quietly taken to the Yorkville Police Court this afternoon. There he was committed to the care of the Commissioner of Charities and Correction for examination as to his sanity and sent to Bellevue Hospital.

The Crank Wanted $25,000.

New York, Oct. 31.—Thomas J. Reilly, a crank, called on Supt. Byrnes at the station house today and had an interview with Superintendent Byrnes, who ended in the crank demanding $25,000. The crank, who was dressed in a suit of broad cloth, turned over $75,000 to the Chief of Police for the same purpose. Reilly demanded $25,000 from Superintendent Byrnes as an interest on the $75,000. When searched the demoted pauper was found to have no weapons.

A Shooting Outfit for Supt. Byrnes.

New York, Oct. 31.—At 2:10 o'clock this afternoon a man dressed in a suit of broad cloth and a hat addressed to Supt. Byrnes. In the box was found a revolver, a pair of pistols and a letter. The letter was written in a bad hand and in a foreign language and has not yet been deciphered. It was said to be written by a crank.

The cook, who is a Russian, was arrested for complicity in the attempt to poison the general. The guilty cook is supposed to be the same as the one who was arrested in London for poisoning the Russian papers were allowed to say no more than that Gen. Gouko was suffering from a bad cold.

STUDENTS WRECK A BUILDING. Varsity Students Turn Down During the Session Dispersed by the Police.

Hollywood, Oct. 31.—The students of the one night of the year that the whole body of students unite to enjoy themselves as did their fathers of old. Their right to a certain amount of freedom on this one evening of the year has ever been recognized. No one begrudges them the mirth they have. All are anxious to see them enjoy themselves to the full.

How He Attempted to Flee—THE BANK OF MONTREAL.

Stole a Draft From the Toronto Office, Fled From the Name of Two of the Bank's Officers, and Presented a Draft of $5000 to Cash It, but Was Caught in the Act.

Manager Brough and the staff of the Toronto branch of the Bank of Montreal are endeavoring just now to identify a swindler and forger of more than ordinary ability.

This very smooth chap is presently in custody at New Westminster, British Columbia, where he was arrested while attempting to cash a forged draft on the bank.

On Monday last a man giving his name as Butler called at the New Westminster branch bank, and presented a draft of $5000 for payment. The draft was drawn on the Calgary branch, and bore the signature of Messrs. F. W. Winslow, pro-manager of the Toronto branch, and A. L. Brantford, pro-accountant of the branch in this city.

Butler was induced to call later on the present day to the Toronto office, as it is one of the bank's offices, and he then filed it and tried to cash it.

It is believed that Butler must have stolen the draft from the Toronto office, as it is one of the bank's offices, and he then filed it and tried to cash it.

It is thought that "Butler" is no other than William Griffith, alias Griffin, alias Graham, one of the men who fled recently from England after swindling scores of people and who is known to the police.

Griffin went through Australia a few years ago and worked the forged draft scheme, making a fortune of $100,000 to $200,000. His name is well known to the police, and he is now in the hands of the law.

CHAMPIONS OF THE YEAR

Plenty of World's Records Are Found Among the Best of the Season.

As the season draws to a close it would seem almost safe to prophesy the end of the remarkable series of record-breaking meetings that have followed so closely upon each other during the entire year. But it is too early yet to say this record is thus or no.

To-morrow may be changed. It will be remembered that the fastest mile ever trotted by a yearling is the 2:07 of Fro Fro, made Nov. 28, 1891. It was in November also that Arion trotted in 2:10, placing the 2-year-old mark where it has since appeared to be unassailable. It was in November also, for the first time, that Suno trotted in 2:10, the fastest mile ever trotted by a 2-year-old, and when it was equalled last year by Arion did the track during the same month. The 4-year-old record of Arion, 2:10; the 5-year-old and stallion record of Kremlin, 2:07 1/2; and the 6-year-old record of Arion, 2:07 1/2, were both the result of November. There is reason to believe, therefore, that many new records will have to go into the record book before it closes for 1893. A list of the best records for the present year, as compiled by The Horseman, will be of interest at this time with corrections to date:

- Yearling trotting colt, Boral, by Bow Ball, 2:07 1/2
Yearling trotting filly, Frisco, by Frisco, 2:07 1/2
Yearling trotting colt, Arion, by Arion, 2:10
Yearling trotting filly, Arion, by Arion, 2:10
Yearling trotting colt, Arion, by Arion, 2:10
Yearling trotting filly, Arion, by Arion, 2:10

NEW YORK POOL ROOMS

Authorities Will Not Interfere If the Turf Joints Are Opened.

After months of weary expectancy the New York pool room owners on Monday received word from "official sources" that business may be resumed, and if all goes well the pool rooms down town will be reopened this week.

It has been a bitter fight between the people who control the administration and the pool room men. All summer the pool rooms have been closed and their owners have been deprived of their opportunities to acquire riches.

It has been to the interest of people who have these poolrooms closed. The former carried the weight of power, and the law pool law was found to be a convenient means to render the operations of poolroom keepers illegal.

When the law was put into effect last spring many of the poolroom men were on all sides. Peter De Lacy, who has an interest in half a dozen gambling joints, was very bitter in his denunciation of the law in which the leaders of politics had manipulated the closing of the rooms.

He openly made accusations of treachery against people high up in the government, and intimated freely that the generous subscription to the campaign fund last fall, which came from the pool room men, was the distinct understanding that the business would not be interfered with.

This word has been sent out to the authorities in New York that it will not be necessary to keep a too close watch on the pool rooms, and if business is resumed in a small way the law will be made.

An unwonted degree of activity was immediately observed in and about the rooms. The accumulated dust of the rooms was swept up. The blackboards, upon which the names of the winners and the prizes laid have so often figured, were cleaned and made ready for use.

Captain Barney Dewar Says the Tigers Will Defeat Queens'.

(Rocheester, Democrat and Chronicle.)

One of the most remarkable and delicate operations in the line of what is known as skin grafting was performed in the City Hospital on Saturday morning by Dr. Charles R. Barber and several of the house surgeons. A little over two weeks ago Arthur Wheeler, aged 8 years, living at 40 Herman-street, was playing near his house with some other children. They started a bonfire of dead leaves. While Arthur was running about the flames he stumbled and fell into the fire. His coat and shirt were scorched and he was badly burned. The fire was extinguished by the fire department, but the child was so badly burned that he was taken to the City Hospital.

It was as last decided that the only thing that could save the little sufferer's life was to engraft the skin of some healthy person on the burned parts, and efforts were made to secure some one to consent to such an operation. It was suggested at last that Miss Wheeler, the sister of the child, should be selected for the purpose. She was a girl of 17 years, and her hair was of the same color as that of the child. She was taken to the City Hospital, and her hair was shaved and the skin of her forehead was removed and grafted on the child's face.

Nothing can be determined as to the success of the operation, but it is believed that the operation will result in saving the boy's life.
