Brown, Mr. J. L. (Lisgar)

Address in reply, 69. Our system of government really a combination of dictatorship and bureaucracy; regulation of the Department of National Revenue concerning duties on repair parts of agricultural implements; learning from the mistakes of the past; by-elections in South Huron and Three Rivers, 69; new organization known as the Importers' Association in existence; the imperial conference and resulting trade agreements; resignation of members of the British cabinet; the Prime Minister and Mr. Thomas; endeavouring to build up a united empire on tariff agreements; Lord Hailsham's statement that nothing was binding the empire together but a froth of sentiment, 70; getting down to discussing things as they are; no betterment for our conditions until agricultural prices are nearer the cost of production; inability of municipalities to collect taxes; discriminatory regulations of National Revenue Department with reference to repair parts for agricultural implements, 71; history of imposition of Budget, 3589. Critical economic situation of the country; discarding impractical doctrines and policies and adopting radical measures for the good of Canada; crippling of the world's capacity to pay because of enormous war debts; bringing about an economic disarmament by world economic conference and ridding the world of exclusive and bigoted nationalism, 3589; evils arising from creation of fictitious capital and watering of stocks; necessity for definition of positions of federal, provincial and municipal governments; using palliative measures to deal with unemployment instead of adopting a national curative measure; redistribution of our population by the back-to-the-land movement; proposed stabilization fund to aid agriculture, 3590; necessity for a change in our fiscal and trade policies; giving the farmer the same guarantee against bankruptcy as has been given to other large financial institutions; effect of income tax exemptions; proposal to suspend veterans' pensions during time of employment in government service; the excise taxes; patience and courage of Canadian people during last few years, 3591-2
