RICHMOND'S LEGAL FORMS & LAW MANUAL.

ABSTRACT OF IMPORTANT ACTS OF THE PARLIAMENT OF CANADA OF 1860.

TRADE WITH FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

The Governor in Council is authorised to reduce duties on the following articles:—On wine of all kinds, dried fruits, currants, figs, almonds, walnuts and filberts, to 20 per cent. ad valorem, or brandy to 30 per cent. ad valorem.

Proclamations to that effect have been published; the Act refers to the said articles when imported from GREAT BRITAIN, as well as from any FOREIGN COUNTRY.

FOREIGN JUDGMENTS AND DECREES.—ACT OF 1860.

In any suit brought in either section of the Province on a judgment or decree obtained in the other section, in a suit where personal service was made on defendant, no defence that might have been set up to original action can be pleaded. If service in original suit was not personal and no defence was made, any defence which might have been originally set up may be pleaded. In case of suit against a corporation, service on officer or officers named in act of incorporation, or if there be no officers, then service according to the law of section where process is served, is deemed personal.

In any suit or foreign judgment or decree, (that is upon judgment or decree not obtained in other section of Province, except as before mentioned), any defence set up, or that might have been set up to original suit may be pleaded.

EFFECTS EXEMPT FROM SEIZURE.—ACT OF 1860.

The following are exempt from seizure in both sections of the Province:—Beds, bedding and bedsteads in ordinary use by, and necessary, and ordinary wearing apparel of, debtor and his family, one stove and pipes, one crane and its appendages, one pair andirons, one set cooking utensils, one pair of tongs and shovel, one table, six chairs, six knives, six forks, six plates, six teacups, six saucers, one sugar basin, one milk jug, one tea-pot, six spoons, all spinning wheels and weaving looms in domestic use, and ten volumes of books, one axe, one saw, one gun, six traps, and such fishing nets and seines as are in common use; all necessary fuel, meat, fish, flour and vegetable actually provided for family use, not more than sufficiation for the ordinary consumption of the debtor and his family for thirty days, and not exceeding in value the sum of forty dollars; one cow, four sheep, two hogs, and food therefor, for thirty days; tools and implements of or chattels ordinarily used in the debtor's occupation to the value of sixty dollars.

The debtor may select chattels exempt, out of larger number seized. Chattels seized in satisfaction of debt contracted for them not exempt.

PREFACE

TO THE SECOND EDITION.

THE rapid sale of the First Edition of this Work, which was 2000 copies, and the great demand for a Second, has induced the Author and Compiler to issue a Revised and Enlarged Second Edition, entitled, RICHMOND'S BOOK OF LEGAL FORMS AND LAW MANUAL. Work is very much enlarged, containing all the Legal Matter of the First Edition Revised, with nearly six hundred pages of additional Legal Matter (including the Supplement now in press, completing the work to the close of the Session of 1859), devoted to Legal Forms and Parliamentary Acts, thus making a work of upwards of seven hundred pages of valuable Legal Information for the people. The want of such a work of practical utility, which cannot but readily be acknowledged by all as being of great value, and much wanted when taking into consideration the large number of Legal Forms that arc in the work, and the facilities afforded for drawing up documents Legally, without the waste of time and money, as there is nearly three hundred Legal Forms that are Practical.

The draft of the Legal Forms are in accordance with the Laws of the Province of Canada and the British Colonics generally. The Author and Compiler has spared no expense nor labor to prepare such Forms as are most generally wanted by the Merchant, Mechanic, Farmer, or Professional Man. The aim of the Author and Compiler has been to make the Legal Documents as plain as possible, and of that class which will be of great value to all classes of the community.

And with reference to the Acts of our Provincial Parliament, which are embraced in this work, they will be found of great utility to the Business Man and all others that wish to keep posted in certain Acts of general interest, and very requisite in a work of this kind; comprising in part such Acts as follows:—The Consolidated Municipal Loan Fund Act, with the Amendments: Insolvent Debtor's Act, Heir and Devisee

Act, Real Estate of Minors Act, Patent Right with the Extension Acts. Joint Stock Companies Act for Manufacturing, &c., Mortgagees Relief Act, Unincorporated Companies Extension Act for C. E., The General Banking Laws, The Acts respecting Notes and Bills of Exchange, The Registry Laws, The Act respecting Lessors and Lessees, with a large number of other Aots too numerous to be here named (See Index). Thus it will readily be perceived that the Acts are very munerous and of the utmost importance to the enlightened portion of the community. There are public general Acts applicable to Eastern and Western or United Canada. and a large number of Acts only for Canada East, and certain others for Canada West, also containing many technical remarks and explanations of importance to be known. The present Edition, which is limited, will very much excel its predecessor, if one can judge from the great demand for the work, as it contains such information as should be known to all; and there is not the least doubt but that this Edition will soon all be sold, therefore the business man, and all others requiring the work, will please to give their orders and supply themselves without delay, as the Price is but small in comparison to the value that the work will be to them. It will be the means of saving much time and many a pound of money to persons requiring Legal Information or Legal Forms, by being in posses-The utility of the work will be apparent to every enlightened person who examines it, will admit it to be a useful LEGAL COMPANION. The price will only be THREE DOLLARS WITH THE SUPPLEMENT, on and after the 20th day of January, 1860, in order to place it within the reach of all. With these considerations, the work is respectfully issued to the public for their approval and support if found worthy.

The undersigned takes this opportunity to return his sincere thanks to the public generally throughout the Canadas, for their liberal Patronage extended to him for the different Publications which he has issued.

RICHMOND'S LEGAL FORMS AND LAW MANUAL, WITH SUPPLEMENT.

Opinions of the Press on Richmond's Legal Forms and Law Manual.

This work is full of useful Law Forms, and should be in the hands of all men of business.—Montreal Herald.

This is a work we are safe in saying that no man of business, and especially no merchant or trader, no professional man, magistrate, sheriff, coroner, or balliff should be without, were the cost thereof three times as much. We cannot speak too highly of this book, feeling assured that the person who avails himself of a copy will have no cause to regret the expenditure of the sum necessary to procure it.—Montreal Transcript.

It is just such a work as should be in the hands of all persons in every station of life.—Montreal Pilot.

We can recommend it to our readers as a work which is very valuable.— Montreal Gazette.

It is a book which the Canadian citizen could only illy (as the Yankees say) want.—Toronto Leader.

We strongly recommend this work to the patronage of the public.—Toronto Patriot.

This is a work of great practical ntility to all classes of society. There are but few persons who have not occasion to use some of the Legal Forms which are to be found in this valuable compendium, and it is highly to be desired that on such occasions the proper form should be adopted in place of such as may be defective in some respect, and thereby entailing very considerable expense.—Toronto Globe.

A book of this kind is eminently useful, not only to the official, but to many private individuals, who, wanting it, have recourse to an Attorney, which costs in many instances, double the price of the work.—Toronto North American.

No person should be without a copy of this valuable and indispensable work. The price is only three dollars, which we consider is very low for a work containing so much legal information.—Toronto Mirror.

This valuable Manual of Forms, adapted to all ordinary purposes, and containing copies of the various Acts of Parliament essential to be known by the man of business, the municipal councillor, and others, has, after long delay, been just issued from the press. It forms a handsome octave volume, and is neatly bound in law style. Price $3.—Toronto Examiner.

It is all it professes to be, and should be in the hands of every individual in the County.—Cayuga Sachem.

The author has laid a copy of this valuable book on our table, a work which no man of business, or even private individual, should be without.—Hamilton Spectator.

We find it filled with most valuable information. This work will be found to be of the greatest utility to all county and town officers, coroners, sheriffs, and magistrates, all of whom should procure a copy.—Hamilton Gazette.

Mr. Richmond is well known to the community as the author and compiler of the first book of legal forms in this province adapted for general use. The work now sent us, which is most creditably got up, with convenient marginal notes and a most copious index, is also of handsome and durable binding. It contains upwards of two hundred and seventy important legal forms, for ordinary business transactious: with upwards of forty of the latest Parliamentary Acts, which will be found to be of interest to all persons; such as the Act to protect Merchants and others, the General Banking Laws, Law of Evidence, Usury Laws Amendment, Ejectment, Registry Laws, Landlord and Tenaat, Division Courts Act, &c., &c.—Quebec Mercury.

A valuable compendium for an Upper Canadian magistrate or lawyer, and the businesss-man of the Lower Province. It is a really useful work.—Quebec Morning Chronicle.

With it one may do business in the Courts, with the notary, the merchant, or banker without assistance. It is an omnium gatherum of great value.—Quebec Observer.

A work exceedingly well calculated for the use of Merchants, Mechanies, Farmers, and professional men, by which they will be enabled to draw up from the most simple note or receipt, up to the most Legal document, at a saving of much time and cost. We cannot speak too highly of this work, feeling assured that the person who avails himself of a copy will have no cause to regret the expenditure of the sum necessary to procure it. It well merits an extensive sale.—Woodstock Sentinel.

Riehmond's Book of Legal Forms and Law Manual supplies a want that has long been felt by the mercantile man, the magistrate, the legal practitioner, and the private gentleman. This work contains a great many forms that are almost daily required by a man in any business whatever, and has the best selected useful Acts of this Province that we have ever seen compiled. It is a useful work—a cheap book—and should be in every house.—Owen Sound Comet.

This useful work is specially deserving of notice. It contains a vast amount of information, with regard to all important legal forms which are commonly in use, and also a number of valuable facts relative to the every day transactions of life. No public officer, and few business men, should be without the Manual.—London Prototype and Railway Advocate.

Its varied contents are well calculated to guide satisfactorily all persons in legal transactions of business. We advise all persons who have not a guide of this kind to examine Mr. Richmond's work.—London Times and Western Advertiser.

CAP. CXXXVI.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE ACT TO REGULATE THE DUTIES BETWEEN MASTER AND SERVANT IN CANADA WEST.

[Assented to 30th May, 1855.]

THEREAS it appears that doubts have been entertained whether the Act here-Preamble. inafter mentioned, does or does not extend and apply to Journeymen or skilled Labourers in the various trades and callings, and their respective Masters or Employers: For the removal of such doubts, Be it therefore declared and enacted &c.,

I. That the Act passed in the Session held in the tenth and eleventh years of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, An Act to regulate the duties between Master and Servant, and for other purposes therein mentioned, extends and applies to Act 10 & 11 V c. 23, declared to apply to and skilled Labourers.

Journeymen or skilled Labourers in any trade, calling, craft or employment, and to their Masters, that is to the tradesmen or persons employing them as such Journeymen or skilled Labourers, as fully to all intents and purposes as to other Servants and Labourers and their Masters or persons employing them, and the said Act shall be construed and have effect

II. Notwithstanding any thing contained in the Act last above cited, the provisions of the said Act shall apply to engagements entered into for the performance of any service or work, and to the parties thereto, whether the same may have actually been entered upon or not.

Act to apply to engage-ments made whether entered upon or not. See Act, on pages 492 to 493.

FENCES AND WATER COURSES.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE ACT RELATING TO LINE FENCES AND WATER COURSES IN CANADA WEST.

[Assented to 30th May, 1855.]

HEREAS it is by the third section of the Act of the eighth Victoria, Chapter twenty, Preamble provided, that the party who shall neglect or refuse to make or repair an equal or just proportion of the division or line fence, shall pay therefor a sum not exceeding the sum of two shillings and six pence currency, per rod; And whereas it is found from the scarcity of timber and materials in many localities, that the said sum of two shillings and six pence per rod aforesaid, is not an adequate or fair remuneration to the party who shall make such fence: Be it therefore enacted &c.,

Value of fence to be determined in the same recited Act, as limits the said sum to two shillings and six pence per rod, is hereby repealed, and the proportion to be made by each party.

I. So much of the said third section of the above two shillings and six pence per rod, is hereby repealed, and the provided by the said Act as to the parties who shall pay therefor, and the parties may be heard to ascertain the amount in like manner as they may be heard as to the proportion of fence to be made.

WORTH BEING REMEMBERED.

The Unity of Common Law and Common Sense.—Mr. Cox, an English barrister, having written an article, addressed to Lord Chief Justice Denman, complaining of the injury likely to result to the legal profession in England, from the enlargement of the jurisdiction of the County Courts, and the simplification of the practice, Lord Denman has communicated a reply to the Law Review, in which he says:—

"If it be true that three-fourths of all the causes tried in County Courts are, on both sides, conducted by the parties, without assistance either from counsel or solicitor, here is matter for serious reflection. The disputes which grow out of ordinary transactions seldom involve legal doubts, or require the exertion of professional skill, and the diffusion of improved education has taught men in general a freer use of their own powers of narration and argument. What is called a legal understanding is rarely required, except for a discussion of the rules, unavoidably arbitrary, which regulate the descent and transmission of real property, and of those more recondite secrets in the art of mystery of special pleading, which the good sense of the late House of Commons virtually extinguished by putting an end to special demurrers.

"Lord Mansfield advised the student of English law, with the intention of practising at the bar, to begin with "Tully's Offices," the title then given to Cicero's three books, "De offices." A clear understanding of the duties of men in society was considered by him as the true basis of legal science. I may cite one of the ablest lawyers of this century, who to strong natural sense united to largest experience, for a similar opinion—my honored master, the late Mr. Tidd. I well remember the advice he gave to a pupil who was about to commence practice; When you are called upon for your opinion make yourself perfectly master of the facts, and then consider what is right, You may be pretty sure that is the law, without looking much into cases.

"When once the facts are well ascertained, few persons differ in opinion as to the result of a civil action."

Note. This statement shows the balance only of accounts due from others to me, and from me to others, together with the present value of the various kinds of property of which I am in possession as owner. Whenever you wish to know the amount of nett profit realized in business during a given interval of time, it is necessary that you should make a statement of all the debts due to you, together with all the property of which you are in possession as owner, as they are exhibited in the above left hand columns. Then place all the balances which are due from you to others in the right hand columns, including the amount of capital commenced with (as above.) The difference between the aggregate of these columns, when footed, is the result of the investigation. If the left hand columns contain more than the right hand, the difference is your nett amount of profit. But if the right hand columns contain more than the left, the difference is your misfortune, and shows that your business has been so much worse than nothing; in other words, that you have lost rather than gained. The difference between your present nett capital, and what it was at any previous period, is the loss or gain during the interval. In the above example it appears that the total amount of debts due me, together with the amount of cash and merchandize on hand, is £2510 4s. 1d.; the amount of debts due from me to others, together with the £2000 capital stock commenced with, (and which is placed in the right hand columns,) is £2273 0s. 7d. The difference between £2510 4s. 1d. and £2273 0s. 7d. is £237 3s. 6d., which is my nett gain subsequent to the date of my last balance sheet.

RESPECTING PROMISSORY NOTES.

A Promissory Note is an engagement in writing to pay a certain sum of money, mentioned in it, to a person named, or to his order, or to such person or bearer.

A Note, in its original form of a promise from one person to pay a sum of money to another, bears no particular resemblance to a bill of exchange; but when it is endorsed, there is a very great resemblance, for then it is an order by the endorser to the maker of the note, to pay the money to the endorsee. The endorser of the note corresponds to the drawer of the note; the maker to the drawee or acceptor, and the endorsee to the payee. The rights and obligations of these corresponding parties, are nearly or quite the same. It will not be necessary, therefore, to repeat all the rules that are applicable to, and govern the parties to a promissory note; we will, however, state the principal ones, and first, of the requisites of Promissery Notes.

No precise form of words is necessary to constitute a valid promissory note. A promise to account for a certain sum, or an acknowledgment of indebtedness for value recived, is sufficient.

Like bills of exchange, they must be for the payment of money only, and not for the performance of some other act; and the amount to be paid must be fixed, and not variable, and must not depend upon contingency, but must be payable absolutely and at all events.

There should be no uncertainty as to the person by whom or to whom it is payable. For example, a note payable to H.

Jones, or to Lewis Davis, is not a valid promissory note.

A note payable to bearer generally, or to the payee or bearer, is transferable by mere delivery; and possession of such a note is primû facie proof of title. But if a note is drawn payable to the order of the payee, the title will pass only by the endorsement of the payee; and if the endorsement be in full, the title passes to the person named therein; but if it be in blank, it passes to the holder by delivery merely.

To make a note payable at a particular place, it is not sufficient that there be a memorandum of the place at the bottom or margin thereof but it must be expressed in the body of the note itself, and form a part thereof.

The words "value received" are not essential to the validity of a promissory note, although they should be inserted.

A note may be made by two or more persons; and in that case may be joint or joint and several, according to its form. The makers of a joint and several note, may be sued upon it either jointly or separately; and if sued separately, a recovery of Judgment (without satisfaction) against one, will not be a bar to a recovery against another maker. But the makers of a joint note, should be sued jointly; for if they are sued separately, the action

A note signed by two or more persons, written thus;—"We promise to pay," &c., is a joint note only; otherwise, if the words "jointly and severally" be added. A note written, "I promise to pay," &c., signed by two or more persons, is a joint and several note.

All who have signed or endorsed a note, are jointly and severally liable to the holder.

Consideration.

A valuable consideration is necessary to support a promissory note. A consideration founded in mere love or affection is not sufficient. Thus, a note drawn as a gift to a son or other relative, or to a friend, cannot be enforced as between the original parties. A mere moral obligation, though coupled with an express promise, is not sufficient consideration to support a note. A consideration which the law esteems valuable must exist, in order to furnish a just foundation for an action.

A note will be void, as between the original parties, if founded upon fraud, or where undue advantage was taken to obtain it of the maker; as, for instance, getting the maker intoxicated, for the purpose of obtaining his note.

Illegal consideration also will render a note void; as, when a note is given for the prepetration or concealment of a crime, or for a wager, or whenever the consideration is founded upon a transaction against sound morals, public rights, or public interests. There is but one case in which a note is void in the hands of an innocent endorser for a valuable consideration; and this is when the consideration in the note is money won at a play.

Note.—Usurious interest according to our statutes for 1853 do not render a note of hand void, but in case it comes to suit the principal and six per cent, is allowed according to law.

Of Presentment for Payment.

The contract of the maker being to pay the note upon due presentment at maturity, in order to charge the endorsers, it is the duty of the holder to demand payment of the maker on the very day on which, by law, the note becomes due; and unless the demand be made the holder loses his remedy against the endorsers, although the maker would still be liable. The rules that were given to determine when bills of exchange become due apply as well to notes. Three days grace are allowed on all notes except those payable on demand, and those in which no time of payment is expressed; on such no days of grace are allowed.

When a note is made payable at any particular place, as, for instance, at a certain bank, due presentment must be made at that place in order to render the endorsers liable in case of non-payment. Notes payable at a particular bank, should be left with that bank for payment.

If the note is payable generally, without any specification of place, the holder may present it for payment to the maker wherever he may be found; but it is not absolutely necessary that a personal demand be made; a demand at the maker's place of abode or business, is a good demand in some cases. The holder must use reasonable diligence in finding the maker, or his place of abode or place of business, in order to charge the endorsers. But the maker is liable without such demand,

Proceeding on Non-payment,

No protest is required to be made upon the dishonour of a note; although it is common to protest them for non-payment, especially in commercial towns. But in every case of the dishonour of a note, it is the duty of the holder to give due notice thereof to all the prior parties on the note to whom he means to look for payment; for the holder cannot recover against a party to whom he has failed to give due notice of the dishonour.

Of payment.

If the maker makes due payment of a note to a bona fide holder, it will amount to a complete discharge of all other parties thereto.

But when payment is duly made by an endorser to the holder, such endorser, as a general rule, will retain his right to recover over against all the antecedent parties to the note, until he has received a full indemnity; such payment, however, will discharge all the endorsers, subsequent to himself.

Interest.

Interest is recoverable on a promissory note, in which there is no special agreement to pay interest, from the time when the principal becomes due, or ought to have been paid. A note payable on demand carries no interest till a demand is made, either by suit or otherwise, unless there is an agreement to pay interest. A note not on demand, in which no time of payment is mentioned, draws interest from date.

Whenever there is a special agreement to pay interest, that is, when the words "with use," or "with interest," &c., are contained in the note, it draws interest, of course, according to such agreement or contract.

In Canada West a note is outlawed in six years, from the time it becomes due. The statutes require that all claims founded upon any instrument or contract not under seal, actions for the same must be commenced within six years, next after the cause of action accrued, and not after.

And in Canada East a note is outlawed in five years, from the time it becomes due. (See Section 31 of 12 Vict., cap. 22, on page 293, in this work.)

Of Notice to an Endorser.

In giving notice to an endorser, it is not necessary that any particular form should be observed, provided that you describe the note for which he is bound, in such terms as can leave no room for him or others to misconstrue your meaning. If you state in your notice the date of the note, the amount, the time on which it became due, together with the maker's name, it is presumed that would be quite sufficient. It may be well to present a short and convenient form as follows:

Form of Notice.

Mr. Joseph Draper,

Sir,-The note for two hundred and ten pounds, currency, dated September the twentieth, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, that I hold against Jacob Rich, as maker, and which became due January the twentieth and twenty-third, and on which you are endorser, remains unpaid; therefore I shall look to you for the payment thereof.

RESPECTING CHATTEL NOTES.

We have seen that in order to constitute a promissory note, it must be for the payment of moncy only; if then a note be payable otherwise than in money, it is called a chattel note. Chattel notes are not negotiable, and, cannot be sued except in the name of the payer. No days of grace are allowed upon them.

It is the duty of the maker of a chattel note, payable in specific articles, at a place mentioned in the note, to tender the articles, at that place, and at the time the note becomes due. If the maker neglects to make such tender, he will be liable to the payce to pay him the amount of the note in cash. But if, on the other hand, the maker tender the articles mentioned in the note, at the proper time and place, according to the contract, and the creditor neglects or refuses to receive them, the debt is thereby discharged; but the right of property in the articles tendered passes to the creditor. The debtor may abandon the goods tendered; but if he still elects to retain possession of them, he will be considered as bailee of the creditor, at his (the creditor's) risk and expense. The relation of debtor and creditor would in such case be changed to that of bailor and bailee.

There is a difference as to tender between portable and cumbrous articles. With respect to the former, a tender as above must be made; as to the latter, it will be sufficient if the debtor offer to deliver as the creditor shall direct.

RESPECTING BILLS OF EXCHANGE.

Exchange is the act of paying or receiving the money of one country for its equivalent in the money of another country, by means of Bills of Exchange. This operation, therefore, comprehends both the reduction of moneys and the negotiation of Bills; it determines the comparative value of the currencies of different countries, and shows how foreign debts are discharged, and remittances made from one country to another without the risk, trouble, or expense of transporting specie or bullion.

A Bill of Exchange is a written order of request, addressed by one person to a second, desiring him to pay a sum of money to a third, or to any other to whom that third person shall order it to be paid; or it may be made payable to bearer.

Bills of Exchange are very useful to business men, who wish to send large sums of money to individuals living at a distance from them. "If A, living in Montreal, wishes to receive £250 sterling, which B, in London, owes him, he applies to C, who is going from Montreal to London, to pay him £250 pounds sterling, and takes his order or Draft on B for that sum, payable at sight. A receives his debt by transferring it to C, who carries his money across the Atlantic, in the shape of a Bill of Exchange, without any danger or risk in the transportation; and on his arrival at London, he presents the Bill to B, and is paid." It is a mercantile contract in which four persons are mostly concerned, as follows:

First.—The person who makes the bill is called the drawer. Second.—He to whom it is addressed, the drawee; and when he undertakes to pay the amount, he is then called the acceptor. Third .- The person who gives the value for the Bill, who is called the buyer, taker, and remitter.

Fourth.—The person to whom the Bill is ordered to be paid, who is called the payee, and who may, by endorsement, pass it to any other person to receive the money, that other is called the endorsee, as the payee is with respect to him, the endorser; any one who happens for the time to have the legal possession of the bill, is called the holder of it.

Many mercantile payments are made in Bills of Exchange, which pass from hand to hand until due, like any other circulating medium.

A bill is either foreign or inland. It is called foreign when drawn by a person in one province or country, upon one in another province or country; and inland, when both drawer and a awee reside in the same province or country. These last are generally termed drafts.

Foreign bills are usually drawn in sets; that is copies of the bills are made on separate pieces of paper, each part containing a condition that it shall continue payable only so long as the others remain unpaid. Whenever any one of a set is paid, the others are void; for the whole set constitute but one bill. The reason for drawing them in sets is, that in ease one part is lost or accidently destroyed, the other may be received by the drawee.

Of the Requisites of a Bill.

A Bill of Exchange must always be in writing. No precise form of words is necessary. It will be sufficient if it contain an order or direction by one person to another, to pay money to a third. It must be for the payment of money, and money only; and the sum to be paid must be payable absolutely and at all events, and must not depend upon any circumstance that may, or may not happen; the exact sum also must be inserted. The place where, and on which it is drawn, should appear on the face of the bill; there should be also a date. The time when bills are payable should be fixed; usually they are drawn payable at a certain time after sight, or after date; that is, after acceptance. It is not essential to the validity of a bill that it be negotiable, or that it contain the words "value received," although in many cases it is highly important that these words be inserted.

Of the Obligation of Parties.

The drawer's undertaking in a Bill of Exchange is, that the drawee, upon due presentment to him, shall accept such bill, and pay the same when due, and that if the drawee do not accept it, or pay it when due, he will pay the amount of the bill to the holder, together with eertain damages, which the law allows; provided he is duly notified of such non-payment.

It is the payee's duty, if the bill remain in his possession, to present it to the drawee for acceptance and for payment, at the proper time and place, and in ease the drawee refuse to accept or pay, to give notice without delay to the drawer of such refusal. If the payee endorse the bill, his undertaking, in regard to all subsequent holders, is exactly the same as the drawer's.

The obligations of the endorsee or holder, are the same as those of the payee previous to his endorsing the bill.

The acceptor undertakes, and is bound to pay the bill, according to the tenor of the acceptance, when it becomes due, and upon presentment thereof. In short, all those who have signed, accepted, or endorsed a Bill of Exchange, are jointly and severally liable upon it to the holder.

Of Transfer.

A bill which does not contain a direction or request to pay to the order of the payee or the bearer, is not negotiable or transferable, only fera blan is not the mal

A bill which is made payable to order is transferable only by endorsement; but if payable to the bearer, it is transferable by mere delivery. Endorsements are of two kinds—blank, and full or special endorsements. A blank endorsement is made by the mere signature of the endorser on the back of the bill; and if it be the signature of the payee, its effect is to make the bill thereafter payable to bearer.

An endorsement in full expresses in whose favour the endorsement is made. Thus an endorsement in full by Charles Dill is usually in this form: "Fay James Harrison or order," and signed "Charles Dill." Its effect is to make the bill payable to James Harrison or his order only.

An endorsee has a right to convert a blank endorsement into a special one, by writing over the signature the necessary words; and on the other hand he may convert a special into a blank endorsement, by striking out the words that made it an endorsement in full.

Of Presentment for Acceptance.

If a bill be drawn payable at sight, or at a certain period aftersight, or after demand, it is absolutely necessary that the holderpresent it to the drawee for acceptance. For until such presentment there is no right of action against any party; and generally, unless it be made within a reasonable time, the holderloses his remedy against the antecedent parties.

Of Acceptance.

An acceptance is an engagement by the drawee to pay the bill when due. It may be general or conditional, and either before or after the bill is drawn. It must be in writing, though no precise form is necessary; any written words clearly denoting an intention to accept the bill are sufficient.

The holder is entitled to require from the drawee an absolute engagement to pay according to the tenor of the bill, unencumbered with any condition or qualification. If the drawee refuse to give the holder a general and unqualified acceptance, he may treat the bill as dishonoured.

A bill is said to be honoured when it is duly accepted; and when acceptance or payment is refused, it is said to be dishonoured.

Of Proceedings on Non-Acceptance.

Immediately upon the dishonour of a bill, by the refusal of the drawee to accept it, it is in general the indespensable duty of the holder to have the bill duly protested, and notice of such dishonour and protest given to the antecedent parties to whom he intends to look for indemnity.

The protest is generally drawn up by a notary public; it is a solemn declaration against any loss to be sustained on the part of the holder by the non acceptance or non-payment of the bill.

In respect to inland bills a protest is not absolutely necessary, although it is usual; notice of their dishonour, however, must be given by the holder to the antecedent parties, in order to make them responsible.

Upon non-acceptance of a bill, if due notice thereof has been given to the antecedent parties, the holder can insist upon immediate payment of the bill from them.

Of Presentment for Payment.

If the bill has been duly accepted, it is the duty of the holder to present it to the accepter for payment on the very day on which it becomes due; and if the bill was accepted payable at a particular place, the holder is bound to make a demand of payment at that place. For, if the holder neglect to present the bill at such time and place, he cannot recover against the drawer or endorser in case the accepter refuses payment.

In determining when a bill becomes due, days of grace, as they are called, must be allowed. It is a custom in this country to give three days grace on all bills except those payable on demand. Demand of payment must not be made, therefore, until the third day of grace, unless such day be Sunday or a holiday observed at public offices, and places of business, in which case demand must be made on the second day of grace.

Of Proceedings on Non-Payment.

The duties of the holder, upon dishonour of a bill by non-payment, are the same as upon dishonour by non-acceptance. He must make due protest for non-payment, and give due notice of the dishonour to the other parties to the bill; in which case the holder is entitled to a full satisfaction of all damages sustained by him by reason of the dishonour against such other parties to the bill; but if he neglect to do this the antecedent parties are discharged from all liability to the holder.

Of Payment and Other Discharges.

The accepter being primarily liable on a bill of exchange, it is evident that a payment by him to the holder discharges all the other parties from liability on the bill, provided the payment is made without knowledge of any infirmity in the title of the holder, and the names of the parties to the bill are not forgeries. Payment by the accepter should be made at maturity, and not before.

The drawer and endorers will be discharged from liability by a valid and binding agreement (in which they do not concur) between the holder and accepter, whereby time is given to the accepter for the payment of the bill after it is due.

A discharge to the accepter, we have seen, is a discharge to all parties to the bill; but a discharge to an endorser is no discharge to the prior endorsers, though it is to the subsequent endorsers.

PRACTICAL REMARKS ON CONVEYANCES BY DEED OR MORTGAGE, ETC., ETC.

Certain Instruments of writing, such as Deeds, Bonds, Mortgages, Transfers, Leases, &c., are required by law to express a consideration as having been received by the person who conveys property, or grants privileges, from the person to whom the property is conveyed, or to whom the privilege is granted. They are often begun with the following preamble:-

This Indenture Witnesseth, that on the tenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three Chas. Ball, of the Town of ——, in the County of ——, (in the District of——,if for property in Canada East,) of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of five shillings, of lawful money, of the Province of Canada, to him in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged and confirmed, hath bargained and sold (or leased) &c., unto William Hall, of the (here insert town of ——, County of ——), (and add District of ——, if for property in Canada East), of the second part, &c. &c. &c.

In presenting this short preamble, we have only one object in view, viz.: to inform those who are not aware of the fact, that a consideration is necessary, as the infallible wisdom and unquestionable authority of law, require that it should be observed.

Perhaps I shall be told, that the law is based upon the broad principle which entitles one person who sells property, or grants a privilege to another, to an equivalent in return, or in other words, that no man shall claim a right in the property of another, without paying him for it. The principle is good enough; but how far is it adhered to by its votaries? Five shillings is but sum commonly named as the consideration, and even one shilling would answer the end of law, although the amount of property, or the privilege bestowed, for which it is named as the consideration made in return, should be worth five thousand pounds.

All Instruments under seal are Deeds; but the term "deed" is generally understood as applying to conveyances of land, houses, &c. &c. The consideration of a deed may either be good or valuable. A good consideration is founded upon natural love

TO THOSE PURCHASING PROPERTY, OR TAKING MORTGAGES.

It is essential that all Persons purchasing Property for the safety of themselves and others that are to succeed them: That they should first make themselves acquainted with all the transfers of the said Property, which are of Record; respecting that certain parcel or tract of land, since the same passed from the Crown by Grant or Puerhase, or other properties of Record, purchased from Individuals, or Companies. The same precautions are also essential in case of Mortgages of Real Property, or of Goods and Chattels. This can be ascertained by addressing a letter (if not convenient to call personally,) to the County Registrar, for the County wherein the property is situated: Giving a full description of the property that the information is sought for. Inclosing a fee for making the searches, say the sum of five shillings, and the Registrar, after making a thorough search, will transmit per Mail a statement of all that appears of Record, respecting the said property; and the over plus of money, if any, after deducting his fees will be returned.

Property is given to the first Conveyance, or the first Judgement; registered. (see 13 & 14 Vict., cap. 63.) And by the 8th section, the mere fact of registration is declared to be full notice to all purchasers.

This Statute then does, in effect, render it necessary that all Deeds, Mortgages, Wills, Judgments, Conevyances, Bills of Sale, &c., should be registered; Therefore it will be well for every person to bear that in mind, and get their Deeds and other Documents Registered, without delay.

See Registry Law Amendment, 13 & 14 Vict., cap. 63 on pages 384 to 387, and section 8 of 16 Vict., on page 391, in this work.

RESPECTING BONDS.

"A Bond or obligation is a deed whereby the obligor binds himsel, his heirs, executors and administrators, to pay or cause to he paid, a certain sum of money at a day appointed, with a condition to declare the same void; on due performance, and which is properly a money bond."

The obligor is the party bound, and who signs, seals, and delivers the bond. The obligee is the party to whom the obligor

It is usual to insert double the amount of money to be secured in the obligation; that is to say, the penalty is made double the amount of the condition.

It is a general rule, that the obligee cannot collect from the obligor, more than the sum named as the penalty at any rate; "for a man can have no more than his debt, and the penalty is understood to be the utmost of his clam."

127

The costs, however, can be collected, over and above the amount of the penalty. If then the obligee cannot collect of the obligor, any more than the amount of the penalty; it is desirable that such penalty should be sufficiently large to cover all contingencies.

LETTERS ON BUSINESS.

"THE FIRST THING NECESSARY," says Lord Chesterfield, "in writing letters of business, is extreme clearness and perspicuity; every paragraph should be so clear and unambiguous that the dullest fellow in the world may not be able to mistake it, nor be obliged to read it twice in order to understand it. This necessary clearness implies a correctness, without excluding an elegance of style."

LETTER I.

Answer to an Advertisement for the Situation of a Clerk. SIR,

In reply to an advertisement inserted in the "Transcript" of this day, I beg to present myself to your notice, as being qualified to fill the situation referred to-that of Clerk and Bookkeeper in your establishment. I have long been accustomed to that employment, and my last engagement, which I left on account of ill-health, continued for the space of five years, during which time, as I am prompted to believe, from the flattering assurances made by my employers, my services gave them the fullest satisfaction. My present letter will serve as a specimen of my hand-writing, and I beg to add that I am well versed in book-keeping, both by single and double entry, and also well acquainted with the public offices, and the business of the Custom-house. Should you wish to communicate with my late employers, the Messrs. Jewett & Stearns, of Quebec, I have confidence in the belief that they will speak favourably of me.

I am, Sir, Your obedient servant.

LETTER II.

Application for the Character of a Clerk.

Having lately parted with one of my elerks, I advertised, SIR, a few days since, in the Montreal "Transcript," with a view of meeting with a suitable person to fill his place. Among other applicants, there is one named Hamilton, who tells me that he has been engaged in your office in the capacity of elerk during the last four years, I was somewhat pleased with his address and manner; and if his pretensions as to eapability and character should prove satisfactory, I feel disposed to give him a trial. I shall therefore feel obliged if you will inform me whether he has been in your employment during that time, and if so, whether you found him quick and correct in his ealculations, well versed in book-keeping, industrious, sober, and punctual in his habits, and of the strictest integrity. On the last point, it is needful I should be particularly eircumspect, as his situation would be one of trust. An early answer to these inquiries, with any information you have to give in reference to what you may know about him, will extremely oblige.

Your very obt. servant.

LETTER III.

In answer to Inquiries respecting the Character of a Clerk.

Your letter reached me this morning, and in reference to my knowledge of Mr. Hamilton, I beg to inform you that he performed the duties of elerk in my counting-house for upwards of four years, during which time his conduct was marked with the strictest integrity: and in his habits of business, I always found him alert, industrious and punctual. Indeed these praisefound him alert, industrious and punctual. Indeed these praisefound the property of the present and I should not have wished him to quit my employment, had I not been, from peculiar circumstances, obliged, for the present, to reduce my establishment.

A Gentleman proposing his Son as an Apprentice.

Sir,

As I understand that you have a vacancy for an apprentice, I am anxious to place my son under your charge, in order that he may acquire a competent knowledge of your business, which he seems strongly inclined to follow in preference to another. I know not what your terms may be, but if favourable, I shall have no objection to complying with them; and with the view of settling that point, shall be happy either to receive a note from you, or to meet you at your own, or my house. Allow me to add, that my son has received a good plain education, fully addequate to all the requirements of a man of business, and that I think you would find him of a cheerful and pliant disposition, of industrious habits, and quick in receiving any kind of instruction.

I am, Sir, Your very obedient servant.

On Retiring from Business, and Recommending a Successor.

GENTLEMEN.

We flatter ourselves that we have many friends among our connection who will regret to hear that we are just upon the point of relinquishing business. In doing so, our extensive stock of goods will be transferred to the hands of the Messrs. Hutchins & Wilson, who will, in future, carry on the business on the same approved system, and the same extensive scale as our selves, provided they can rely on receiving the patronage of our connection; in the hopes of which, it is our pleasure and duty to present those gentlemen to your notice. We need scarcely speak of the confidence we feel in their liberal mode of conducting business, and their strict attention and punctuality in their mercantile transactions. Feeling assured that they will meet with the same countenance received by ourselves from your Respectable firm.

We beg to subscribe ourselves

RESPECTING POWER OF ATTORNEY.

A LETTER, OR POWER OF ATTORNEY, is a written delegation of authority by which one person enables another, to do an act for him. When a power is Special, and the authority limited, the attorney cannot bind his principal by any act in which he exceeds that authority; but the authority of the attorney will be so construed as to include all necessary means of executing it with

WHEN the power is in writing, and subject to the inspection of the party, no good reason exists for binding the principal, beyond the scope of it; though in general he who employs an agent or attorney shall lose by his fraudulent or illegal acts, in preference to an innocent third person.

WHERE a Letter of Attorney is granted, to be used in a different or distant jurisdiction, it ought to carry with it evidence of its being genuine or authentic. It is therefore proper that it should be witnessed and acknowledged before some Officer in the town where it is executed. Such as a Justice of the Peace, or Mayor of a town.

SUMMARY CONVICTIONS ACT, (C.W.) 16 VICT. 1853.

CAP. CLXXVIII.

AN ACT TO FACILITATE THE PERFORMANCE OF THE DUTIES OF JUSTICES OF THE FEACE, OUT OF SESSIONS, IN CANADA WEST, WITH RESPECT TO SUMMARY CONVICTIONS AND ORDERS.

[Assented to, 14th June, 1853.]

THEREAS it would conduce much to the improvement of the administration of justice within that part of this Province called Upper Canada, so far as respects Summary Convictions and Orders to be made by Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace therein, if the several Statutes and parts of Statutes relating to the duties of such Justices in respect of such Summary Convictions and Orders were consolidated, with such additions and alterations as may be deemed necessary, and that such duties should be clearly defined by positive enactment: Be it therefore enacted, &c., That in all cases where an Information shall be laid before one or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for any Territorial Division in Upper Canada, that any person has committed or is suspected to have committed any offence or act within the jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices of the Peace, for which he is liable by law upon a Summary Conviction for the same before a Justice or Justices of the Peace; to be imprisoned or fined or otherwise punished;

II. And be it enacted, That if the person so served with a Summons as aforesaid shall not be and appear before the Justice or Justices at the time and place mentioned in such Summons, and it shall be made to appear to such Justice or Justices, by oath or affirmation, that such Summons was so served what shall be deemed by such Justice or Justices to be a reasonable time before the time therein appointed for appearing to the same, then it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, if he or they shall think fit, upon oath or affirmation being made before him or them, substantiating the matter of such information or complaint to his or their satisfaction, to issue his or their Warrant (B) to apprehend the party so summoned, and to bring him before

IV. And be it enacted. That in any information or complaint or proceedings thereon, in which it shall be necessary to state the ownership of any property belonging to or in the possession of partners, joint tenants, parceners or tenants in common, it shall be sufficient to name one of such persons, and to state the property to belong to the person so named and another or others, as the case may be; and whenever in any information or complaint, or the proceedings thereon, it shall be necessary to mention, for any purpose whatsoever, any partners, joint tenants, parceners or tenants in common, it shall be sufficient to describe them in the manner aforesaid; and whenever in any such information or complaint, or the proceedings thereon, it shall be necessary to describe the ownership of any work or building made, maintained or repaired at the expense of any Territorial Division, or of any materials for the making, altering or repairing the same, they may be therein described as the property of the inhabitants of such Territorial Division respectively.

V. And be it enacted, That every person who shall aid, abet, counsel or procure the commission of any offence which is or hereafter shall be punishable on Summary Conviction, shall be liable to be proceeded against and convicted for the same, either together with the principal offender, or before or after his conviction, and shall be liable, on conviction, to the same forteiture r such forfeiture and punishment as such principal offender is or shall be by law liable, and may be proceeded against and convicted either in the Territorial Division or place where such principal offender may be convicted, or in that in which such offence of aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring may have been committed.

VI. And be it enacted, That if it shall be made to appear to any Justice of the Peace, by the oath or affirmation of any credible person, that any person within the jurisdiction of such Justice is likely to give material evidence on behalf of the Prosecutor or Complainant or Defendant, and will not voluntarily be and appear as a witness at the time and place appointed for the hearing of such information or complaint, such Justice may, and is hereby required to issue his Summons (G 1,) to such person, under his Hand and Seal, requiring him to be and appear at the time and place mentioned in such Summons, before the said Justice, or before such other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division as shall then be there, to testify what he shall know concerning the said information or complaint; and if any person so summoned shall neglect or refuse to appear at the time and place appointed by the said Summons, and no just excuse shall be offered for such neglect or refusal, then (after proof upon oath or affirmation of such Summons having been served upon such person, either personally or by leaving the same for him with some person at his last or most usual place of abode) it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices before whom such person should have appeared, to issue a Warrant (G 2,) under his or their Hands and Seals, to bring and have such person at a time and place to be therein mentioned, before the Justice who issued the said Summons, or before such other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division as shall be then there, to testify as aforesaid, and which said Warrant may, if necessary, be backed as hereinbefore is mentioned, in order to its being executed out of the jurisdiction of the Justice who shall have issued the same; or if such Justice shall be satisfied, by evidence upon oath or affirmation, that it is probable that such person will not attend to give evidence without being compelled so to do, then instead of issuing such Summons it shall be lawful for him to issue his Warrant (G 3,) in the first instance, and which, if necessary, may be backed as aforesaid; and if on the appearance of such person so summoned before the said last mentioned Justice or Justices, either in obedience to such Summons or upon being brought before him or them by virtue of the said Warrant, such person shall refuse to be examined upon oath or affirmation concerning the premises, or shall refuse to take such oath or affirmation, or having taken such oath or affirmation, shall refuse to answer such questions concerning the premises as shall then be put to him, without offering any just excuse for such refusal, any Justice of the Peace then present, and having jurisdiction, may, by Warrant [G 4,] under his Hand and Seal, commit the person so refusing to the Common Gaol for the Territorial Division where such person refusing shall then be, there to remain and be imprisoned for any time not exceeding ten days, unless he shall, in the meantime, consent to be examined and to answer concerning the premises.

VII. And be it enacted. That in all cases of complaint upon which a Justice or Justices of the Peace may make an Order for the payment of money or otherwise, such complaint shall be in writing, and on oath, unless it shall be enacted or provided to the contrary by some particular Act of Parliament upon which such complaint shall be framed.

VIII. And be it enacted, That in all cases of informations for any offences or acts punishable upon Summary Conviction, any variance between such information and the evidence adduced in support thereof as to the time at which such offence or act shall be alleged to have been committed, shall not be deemed material if it be proved that such information was in fact laid within the time limited by law for laying the same; and any variance between the said information and the evidence adduced in support thereof, as to the place in which the offence or act shall be alleged to have been committed, shall not be deemed material, provided the offence or act be proved to have been committed within the jurisdiction of the Justice or Justices by whom such information shall be heard and determined; and if any such variance, or any variance in any other respect between such information and the evidence adduced in support thereof, shall appear to the Justice or Justices present and acting at the hearing, to be such that the party charged by such information has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, upon such terms as he or they shall think fit, to adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day, and in the meantime to commit (D) the said Defendant to the Common Goal or other prison, Lock-up House or place of security, or to such other custody as the said Justice or Justices shall think fit, or to discharge him upon his entering into a Recognizance (E) with or without Surety or Sureties, at the discretion of such Justice or Justices, conditioned for his appearance at the time and place to which such hearing shall be so adjourned: Provided always, that in all cases where a Defendant shall be discharged upon Recognizance as aforesaid, and shall not afterwards appear at the time and place in such Recognizance mentioned, then the said Justice who shall have taken the said Recognizance, or any other Justice or Justices who may then be there present, upon certifying (F) upon the back of the said Recognizance the non-appearance of the Defendant, may

IX. And be it declared and enacted, That every such complaint upon which a Justice or Justices of the Peace is, or are or shall be authorized by law to make an Order, and that every information for any offence or act punishable upon Summary Conviction, (unless some particular Act of Parliament shall otherwise permit,) shall respectively be made or laid on oath or affirmation as to the truth thereof, and in all cases of informations where the Justice or Justices receiving the same shall thereupon issue his or their Warrant in the first instance, to apprehend the Defendant as aforesaid; and in every case where the Justice or Justices shall issue his or their Warrant in the first instance, the matter of such information shall be substantiated by the oath or affirmation of the informant, or by some witness or witnesses on his behalf before any such Warrant shall be issued, and every such complaint shall be for one matter of complaint only, and not for two or more matters of complaint, and every such information shall be for one offence only, and not for two or more offences, and every such complaint or information may be laid or made by the Complainant or Informant in person, or by his Counsel or Attorney, or other person authorized in that behalf.

X. And be it enacted, That in all cases where no time is already or shall hereafter be specially limited for making any such complaint or laying any such information, in the Act or Acts of Parliament relating to such particular case, such complaint shall be made, and such information shall be laid within six calendar months from the time when the matter of such complaint or information respectively arose.

XI. And be it enacted, That every such complaint or information shall be heard, tried, determined and adjudged by one or two or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, as shall be directed by the Act or Acts of Parliament upon which such complaint or information shall be framed, or such other Act or Acts of Parliament as there may be in that behalf; and if there be no such direction in any such Act of Parliament, then such complaint or information may be heard, tried, determined and adjudged by any one Justice for the Territorial Division, where the matter of such information or complaint shall have arisen; and the room or place in which such Justice or Justices shall sit to hear and try any such complaint or information, shall be deemed an open and public Court to which the public generally may have access, so far as the same can conveniently contain them; and the party against whom such complaint is made or information laid, shall be admitted to make his full answer and defence thereto and to have the witnesses examined and cross-examined by Counsel or Attorney on his behalf; and every Complainant or Informant in any such case shall be at liberty to conduct such complaint or information respectively and to have the witnesses examined and cross-examined by Counsel or Attorney on his behalf.

XII. And be it enacted, That if at the day and place appointed in and by the Summons aforesaid for hearing and determining such complaint or information, the Defendant against whom the same shall have been made or laid, shall not appear when called, the Constable or other person who shall have served him with the Summons in that behalf, shall then declare upon oath in what manner he served the said Summons; and if it appear to the satisfaction of the Justice or Justices that he duly served the said Summons, in that case such Justice or Justices may proceed to hear and determine the case in the absence of such Defendant, or the said Justice or Justices, upon the non-appearance of such Defendant as aforesaid, may if he or they think fit, issue his or their Warrant in manner hereinbefore directed, and shall adjourn the hearing of such complaint or information until the said Defendant shall be apprehended; and when such Defendant shall afterwards be apprehended under such Warrant he shall be brought before the same Justice or Justices, or some other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, who shall thereupon, either by his or their Warrant (H) commit such Defendant to the Common Gaol or other prison, Lock-up House or place of security, or if he or they think fit, verbally to the custody of the Constable or other person who shall have apprehended him, or to such other safe custody as he or they shall deem fit, and order the said Defendant to be brought up at a certain time and place before such Justice or Justices of the Peace as shall then be there, of which said Order the Complainant or Informant shall have due notice; or if upon the day and at the place so appointed as aforesoid, such Defendant shall appear voluntarily in obedience to the Summons in that behalf served upon him, or shall be brought before the said Justice or Justices by virtue of any Warrant, then, if the said Complainant or Informant, having had due notice as aforesaid, do not appear by himself, his Counsel or Attorney, the said Justice or Justices shall dismiss such complaint or information, unless for some reason he or they shall think proper to adjourn the hearing of the same until some other day, upon such terms as he or they shall think fit, in which case such Justice or Justices may commit (D) the Defendant in the meantime to the Common Gaol or other Prison, Lock-up House or place of security, or to such other custody as such Justice or Justices shall think fit, or may discharge him upon his entering into a recognizance (E) with or without Surety or Sureties at the discretion of such Justice or Justices, conditioned for his appearance at the time and place to which such hearing shall be so adjourned; and if such Defendant shall not afterwards appear at the time and place mentioned in such Recognizance, then the said Justice who shall have taken the said Recognizance, or any Justice or Justices who may then be there present, upon certifying (F) on the back of the Recognizance the non-appearance of the Defendant, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace for the Territorial Division in which such Recognizance shall have been taken, to be proceeded upon in like manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient prima facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said Defendant; but if both parties appear, either personally or by their respective Counsel or Attorneys, before the Justice or Justices who are to hear and determine such complaint or information, then the said Justice or Justices shall proceed to hear and determine the same.

XIII. And be it enacted, That when such Defendant shall be present at such hearing, the substance of the information or complaint shall be stated to him, and he shall be asked if he have any cause to show why he should not be convicted, or why an Order should not be made against him, as the case may be; and if he thereupon admit the truth of the information or complaint, and shew no cause or no sufficient cause why he should not be convicted, or why an Order should not be made against him, as the case may be, then the Justice or Justices present at the said hearing, shall convict him or make an Order against him accordingly; but if he do not admit the truth of such information or complaint as aforesaid, then the said Justice or Justices shall proceed to hear the Prosecutor or Complainant and such witnesses as he may examine, and such other evidence as he may adduce in support of his information or complaint respectively, and also to hear the Defendant and such witnesses as he may examine, and such other evidence as he may adduce in his defence, and also to hear such witnesses as the Prosecutor or Complainant may examine in reply, if such Defendant shall have examined any witnesses or given any evidence other than as to his the Defendant's general character; but the Prosecutor or Complainant shall not be entitled to make any observations in reply upon the evidence given by the Defendant, nor shall the Defendant be entitled to make any observations in reply upon the evidence given by the Prosecutor or Complainant in reply as aforesaid; and the said Justice or Justices, having heard what each party shall have to say as aforesaid, and the witnesses and evidence so adduced, shall consider the whole matter and determine the same, and shall convict or make an Order upon the Defendant or dismiss the information or complaint, as the case may be; and if he or they convict or make an Order against the Defendant, a Minute or Memorandum thereof shall then be made for which no fee shall be paid, and the conviction (I 1, 3,) or Order (K 1, 3,) shall afterwards be drawn up by the said Justice or Justices in proper form, under his or their Hand and Seal or Hunds and Seals, and he or they shall cause the same to be lodged with the Clerk of the Peace to be by him filed among the Records of the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace; or if the said Justice or Justices shall dismiss such information or complaint, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, when required so to do, to make an Order of Dismissal of the same (L) and shall give the Defendant on that behalf a Certificate thereof (M) which said Certificate afterwards upon being produced, without further proof, shall be a bar to any subsequent information or complaint for the same matters respectively, against the same party: Provided always, that if the information or complaint in any such case shall negative any exemption, exception, proviso or condition in the Statute on which the same shall be framed, it shall not be necessary for the Prosecutor or Complainant in that behalf to prove such negative, but the Defendant may prove the affirmative thereof in his defence, if he would have advantage of the same.

XIV. And be it enacted, That every Prosecutor of any such information, not having any pecuniary interest in the result of the same, and every Complainant in any such complaint as aforesaid, whatever his interest may be in the result of the same, shall be a competent witness to support such information or complaint respectively, and every witness at any such hearing as aforesaid shall be examined upon oath or affirmation, and the Justice or Justices before whom any such witness shall appear for the purpose of being so examined, shall have full power and authority to administer to every such witness the usual oath or affirmation.

XV. And be it enacted, That before or during such hearing of any such information or complaint, it shall be lawful for any one Justice or for the Justices present, in their discretion, to adjourn the hearing of the same to a certain time and place to be then appointed and stated in the presence and hearing of the party or parties, or of their respective Attorneys or Agents then present, and in the meantime the said Justice or Justices may suffer the Defendant to go at large, or may commit (D) him to the Common Gaol or other prison, Lock-up House or other place of security within the Territorial Division for which such Justice or Justices shall then be acting, or to such other safe custody as the said Justice or Justices shall think fit, or may discharge such Defendant upon his Recognizance (E) with or without Sureties at the discretion of such Justice or Justices, conditioned for his appearance 172

XVII. And be it enacted, That in all cases of Summary Con. viction or of Orders made by a Justice or Justices of the Peace, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices making the same, in his or their discretion, to award and order in and by such Conviction or Order that the Defendant shall pay to the Prosecutor or Complainant respectively such costs as to the said Justice or Justices shall seem reasonable in that behalf, and not inconsistent with the Fees established by law to be taken on proceedings had by and before Justices of the Peace under the Act passer! in the Session held in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, An Act to establish an uniform rate of Fees to be received by Justices of the Peace in Upper Canada, and to repeal the Act of Upper Canada, passed in the fourth year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, chapter seventeen, or with the provisions of any other Act or Law in force in Upper Canada regulating fees or costs in proceedings before Justices of the Peace; and in cases where such Justice or Justices, instead of convicting or making an Order as aforesaid, shall dismiss the information or complaint, it shall be lawful for him or them in his or their discretion in and by his or their Order of Dismissal, to award and order that the Prosecutor or Complainant, respectively, shall pay to the Defendant such costs as to the said Justice or Justices shall seem reasonable and according to law as aforesaid; and the sums so allowed for costs shall in all cases be specified in such Conviction or Order or Order of Dismissal as aforesaid, and the same shall be recoverable in the same manner and under the same Warrants as any penalty or sum of money adjudged to be paid in and by such Conviction or Order is to be recoverable, and in cases where there is no such penalty or sums of money to be thereby recovered, then such costs shall be recoverable by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party, and in default of such distress, by imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any time not exceeding one calendar month, unless such costs shall be sooner paid.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That where a conviction adjudges a pecuniary penalty or compensation to be paid, or where an Order requires the payment of a sum of money, and by the Statute authorizing such Conviction or Order, such penalty, compensation or sum of money is to be levied upon the goods and chattels of the Defendant, by distress and sale thereof, and also in cases where, by the Statute in that behalf, no mode of raising or levying such penalty, compensation or sum of money,

XIX. And be it enacted, That in all cases where a Justice of the Peace shall issue any such Warrant of Distress, it shall be lawful for him to suffer the Defendant to go at large, or verbally or by a written Warrant in that behalf, to order the Defendant to be kept and detained in safe custody, until Return shall be made to such Warrant of Distress, unless such Defendant shall give sufficient security, by Recognizance or otherwise, to the satisfaction of such Justice, for his appearance before him at the time and place appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Distress, or before such other Justice or Justices for the same Territorial Division as may then be there: Provided always. that in all cases where a Defendant shall give security by Recognizance as aforesaid, and shall not afterwards appear at the time and place in the said Recognizance mentioned, then the said Justice who shall have taken the said Recognizance, or any Justice or Justices who may then be there present, upon certifying (F) on the back of the Recognizance the non-appearance of the Defendant, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace for the Territorial Division within which the offence shall be laid to have been committed, to be proceeded upon in like manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient prima facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said Defendant.

XX. And be it enacted, That if at the time and place appointed for the Return of any such Warrant of Distress, the Constable, who shall have had execution of the same, shall return (N 4.) that he could find no goods or chattels or no sufficient goods or chattels whereon he could levy the sum or sums therein mentioned, together with the costs of, or occasioned by, the levy of the same, it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace before whom the same shall be returned, to issue his Warrant of Commitment (N 5,) under his hand and Seal, directed to the same or any other Constable, reciting the Conviction or Order shortly, the issuing of the Warrant of Distress and the Return thereto, and requiring such Constable to convey such Defendant or other person to the Gaol or Lock-up House within the Territorial Division for which such Justice shall then be acting, and there to deliver him to the Keeper thereof, and requiring such Keeper to receive the Defendant into such Gaol or Lock-up House, and there to imprison him, or to imprison him and keep him to hard labor, in such manner and for such time as shall have been directed and appointed by the Statute on which the Conviction or Order mentioned in such Warrant of Distress was founded, unless the sum or sums adjudged to be paid, and all costs and charges of the distress, and also the costs and charges of the commitment and conveying of the Defendant to prison, if such Justice shall think fit so to order (the amount thereof being ascertained and mentioned in such commitment) shall be sooner paid.

XXI. And be it enacted, That where a Justice or Justices of the Peace shall, upon such information or complaint as aforesaid, adjudge the Defendant to be imprisoned, and such Defendant shall then be in prison undergoing imprisonment upon conviction for any other offence, the Warrant of Conviction for such subsequent offence shall, in every case, be forthwith delivered to the Gaoler XXII. And be it enacted, That when any information or complaint shall be dismissed with costs as aforesaid, the sum which shall be awarded for costs in the Order for Dismissal, may be levied by distress (Q 1,) on the goods and chattels of the Prosecutor or Complainant in the manner aforesaid; and in default of distress or payment, such Prosecutor or Complainant may be committed (Q 2,) to the Common Gaol or other Prison or Lock-up House in manner aforesaid, for any time not exceeding one calendar month, unless such sum, and all costs and charges of the distress, and of the commitment and conveying of such Prosecutor or Complainant to Prison (the amount thereof being ascertained and stated in such commitment,) shall be sooner paid.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That after an appeal against any such Conviction or Order as aforesaid shall be decided, if the same shall be decided in favor of the Respondent, the Justice or Justices who made such Conviction or Order, or any other Justice of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, may issue such Warrant of Distress or Commitment as aforesaid for execution of the same, as if no such appeal had been brought, and if upon any such appeal to the Court of General or Quarter Sessions shall order either party to pay costs, such Order shall direct such costs to be paid to the Clerk of the Peace of such Court, to be by him paid over to the party entitled to the same, and shall state within what time such costs shall be paid; and if the same shall not be paid within the time so limited, and the party ordered to pay the same shall not be bound by any Recognizance conditioned to pay such costs, such Clerk of the Peace on application of the party entitled to such costs or of any person on his behalf, and on payment of a Fee of One Shilling, shall grant to the party so applying a Certificate [R] that such costs have not been paid, and upon production of such Certificate to any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, it shall be lawful for him or them to enforce the payment of such costs by Warrant of Distress [S 1,] in manner aforesaid, and in default of distress he or they may commit [S. 2,] the party against whom such Warrant shall have issued, in manner hereinbefore mentioned, for any time not exceeding two calendar months, unless the amount of such costs and all costs and charges. of the distress, and also the costs of the commitment and conveying of the said party to prison, if such Justice or Justices shall think fit so to order, [the amount thereof being ascertained and stated in such commitment,] shall be sooner paid.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That in all cases where a Warrant of Distress shall issue as aforesaid against any person, and such person shall pay or tender to the Constable having the execution of the same, the sum or sums in such Warrant mentioned, together with the amount of expenses of such Distress up to the time of such payment or tender, such Constable shall cease to execute the same; and in all cases in which any person shall be imprisoned as aforesaid for non-payment of any penalty or other sum, he may pay or cause to be paid to the Keeper of the Prison in which he shall be so imprisoned, the sum in the Warrant of Commitment mentioned, together with the amount of the costs, charges and expenses (if any) therein also mentioned, and the said Keeper shall receive the same, and shall thereupon discharge such person if he be in his custody for no other matter.

XXV. And be it enacted, That in all cases of Summary proceedings before a Justice or Justices of the Peace out of Sessions, upon any information or complaint as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for one Justice to receive such information or complaint, and to grant a Summons or Warrant thereon, and to issue his Summons or Warrant to compel the attendance of any witnesses, and to do all other acts and matters which may be necessary, preliminary to the hearing, even in cases where by the Statute in that behalf such information and complaint must be heard and determined by two or more Justices, and after the case shall have been so heard and determined, one Justice may issue all Warrants of Distress or Commitment thereon; and it shall not be necessary that the Justice who so acts before or after such hearing, shall be the Justice or one of the Justices by whom the said case shall be heard and determined: Provided always, that in all cases where by Statute it is or shall be required that any such information or complaint shall be heard and determined by two or more Justices, or that a Conviction or Order shall be made by two or more Justices, such Justices must be present and acting together during the whole of the hearing and determination of the case.

XXVI. And whereas doubts may exist whether under the provisions of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's Reign, chaptered fifty-four, and intituled, An Act to extend the rights of Appeals in certain cases in Upper Canada, Appeals will lie from conviction and decisions under By-laws of Municipal Councils; Be it therefore enacted, That in all cases of complaints against any person for committing any offence against any By-law of any Municipal Corporation in Upper Canada, all decisions, convictions

XXVII. And be it enacted, That the several forms in the Schedule to this Act contained, or forms to the like affect, shall be deemed good, valid and sufficient in law.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That any one Inspector and Superintendent of Police, Police Magistrate, or Stipendiary Magistrate, appionted or to be appointed for any City, Borough, Town, Territorial Division or Place, and sitting at a Police Court or other place appointed in that behalf, shall have full power to do alone whatever is authorized by this Act to be done by two or more Justices of the Peace; and that the several forms hereinafter mentioned may be varied so far as it may be necessary to render them applicable to the Police Courts aforesaid, or to the Court or other place of sitting of such Stipendiary Magistrate.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That any Inspector and Superintendent of Police, Police Magistrate or Stipendiary Magistrate as aforesaid, sitting as aforesaid at any Police Court or other place appointed in that behalf, shall have such and like powers and authority to preserve order in the said Court during the holding thereof, and by the like ways and means as now by law are or may be exercised and used in like cases and for the like purposes by any Courts of Law in this Pravince, or by the Judges thereof respectively, during the sittings thereof.

XXX. And be it enacted, That the said Inspectors and Superintendents of Police, Police Magistrates or Stipendiary Magistrates, in all cases where any resistance shall be offered to the execution of any Summons, Warrant of Execution or other Process issued by them, shall be hereby empowered to enforce the due execution of the same by the means provided by the laws of Upper Canada for enforcing the execution of the Process of other Courts in like cases.

XXXI. And he it enacted, That from and after the day on which this Act shall commence and take effect, all other Acts or parts of Acts contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, shall be and the same, are hereby repealed.

XXXII. And be it enacted, that the word "County" whereever it occurs in this Act, shall include any Union of Counties for judicial purposes, and the words "Territorial Division" shall include any Union of two or more territorial divisions.

XXXIII. And be it enacted. That this Act shall apply only to Upper Canada, except in so far as any provision thereof is expressly pressly extended to Lower Canada, or to any act to be done there.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That whenever the word "Prison" occurs in this Act, it shall be held to mean any place where parties charged with offences against the law, are usually kept and detained in custody.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence and have force and effect upon, from and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and not before.

INDICTABLE OFFENCES (C. W.) ACT. 16 VICT. 1853.

CAP. CLXXIX.

AN ACT TO FACILITATE THE PERFORMANCE OF THE DUTIES OF JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, OUT OF SESSIONS, IN UPPER CANADA, WITH RESPECT TO PER-SONS CHARGED WITH INDICTABLE OFFENCES.

[Assented to, 14th June, 1853.]

HEREAS it would conduce much to the improvement of the administration of Criminal Justice in Upper Cauada, if the several Statutes and parts of Statutes relating to the duties of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace therein, with respect to persons charged with indictable offences, were consolidated, with such additions and alterations as may be deemed necessary, and that such duties should be clearly defined by positive enactment: Be it therefore enacted, &c., That in all cases where a charge or complaint [A] is made before any one or more of Her Majesty's Majesty's Justices of the Peace for any Terrritorial Division in Upper Canada, that any person has committed or is suspeeted to have committed, any treason, felony or other indictable misdemeanor or offence within the limits of the jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices of the Peace, or that any person guilty or suspected to be guilty of having committed any such crime or offence elsewhere out of the jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices, is residing or being, or is suspected to reside or be within the limits of the jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices, then, and in every such case, if the person so charged or complained against shall not then be in custody, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices of the Peace to issue his or their Warrant (B) to apprehend such person, and to cause him to be brought before such Justice or Justices, or any other Justice or Justices for the same Territorial Division, to answer such charge or complaint and to be further dealt with according to law; Provided always, that in all cases it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices to whom such charge or complaint shall be preferred, if he or they shall so think fit, instead of issuing in the first instance his or their Warrant to apprehend the person so charged or complained against, to issue his or their summons [C] directed to such person, requiring him to appear before the said Justice or Justices, at the time and place to be therein mentioned, or before such other Justice or Justices of the same Territorial Division as may then be there, and if, after being served with such Summons in manner hereinafter mentioned, he shall fail to appear at such time and place, in obedience to such Summons, then, and in every such case, the said Justice or Justices, or any other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, may issue his or their Warrant (D) to apprehend such person so charged or complained against, and cause such person to be brought before him or them, or before some other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, to answer to the said charge or complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any Justice or Justices of the Peace from issuing the Warrant hereinbefore first mentioned, at any time before or after the time mentioned in such Summons for the appearance of the said accused party.

II. And be it enacted, That when any indictment shall be found by the Grand Jury in any Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, or in any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, against any person who shall then be at large, and whether such person shall be bound by any Recognizance to appear to answer to any such charge or not, the person who shall act as Marshall at such Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery, or as Clerk of the Peace at such Sessions at which

III. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace to grant or issue any Warrant as aforesaid, or any Search Warrant, on a Sunday as well as on any other day.

IV. And be it enacted, That in all cases when a charge or complaint for any indictable offence shall be made before such Justice or Justices aforesaid, if it be intended to issue a Warrant in the first instance against such party or parties so charged, an information and complaint thereof (A) in writing, on the oath or affirmation of the informant, or of some witness or witnesses in that behalf, shall be laid before such Justice or Justices: Provided always, that in those cases only when it is intended to issue a Summons instead of a Warrant in the first instance, and where it is so specially provided in some Act of Parliament, it shall not be necessary that such information and complaint shall be in writing, or be sworn to or affirmed in manner aforesaid; but in every such ease so provided for in some Act of Parliament as aforesaid, such information and complaint may be by parol merely, and without any oath or affirmation whatsoever to support or substantiate the same: Provided also, that no objection shall be taken or allowed to any such information or complaint for any alleged defect therein in substance or in form, or for any variance between it and the evidence adduced on the part of the prosecution, before the Justice or Justices who shall take the examination of the witnesses on that behalf as hereinafter mentioned: and if any credible Witness shall prove upon oath (E 1) before a Justice of the Peace, that there is reasonable cause to suspect that any property whatsoever, on or with respect to which any larceny of felony shall have been committed, is in any dwelling house, out-house, garden, yard, eroft or other place or places, the Justice may grant a Warrant (E 2) to search such dwelling house, garden, yard, eroft or other place or places, for such property. '

V. And be it enacted, That upon such Informatian and complaint being so laid as aforesaid, the Justice or Justices receiving the same may, if he or they shall think fit, issue his or their Summons or Warrant respectively as hereinbefore directed, to cause the person charged as aforesaid to be and appear before him or them, or any other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, to be dealt with according to law: and every Summons (C) shall be directed to the party so charged in and by such information, and shall state shortly the matter of such information, and shall require the party to whom it is directed to be and appear at a certain time and place therein mentioned, before the Justice who shall issue such Summons, or before such other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division as may then be there, to answer to the said charge, and to be further dealt with according to law; and every such Summons shall be served by a Constable or other Peace Officer upon the person to whom it is so directed, by delivering the same to the party personally, or, if he cannot convenietly be met with, then 212

VI. And be it enacted, That every Warrant (B) hereafter to be issued by any Justice or Justices of the Peace to apprehend any person charged with any indictable offence, shall be under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of the Justice or Justices issuing the same, and may be directed to all or any of the Constables or other Peace Officers of the District within which the same is to be executed, or to such Constable and all other Constables or Peace Officers in the Territorial Division within which the Justice or Justices issuing the same has or have jurisdiction, or generally to all the Constables or Peace Officers within such last mentioned Territorial Division; and it shall state shortly the offenee on which it is founded, and shall name or otherwise describe the offender; and it shall order the person or persons to whom it is directed to apprehend the offender, and bring him before the Justice or Justices issuing such Warrant, or before some other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, to answer to the charge contained in the said information, and to be further dealt with according to law; and it shall not be necessary to make such Warrant returnable at any particular time, but the same may remain in force until it shall be executed; and such Warrant may be executed by apprehending the offender at any place within the Territorial Division within which the Justice or Justices issuing the same shall have jurisdiction, or, in case of fresh pursuit, at any place in the next adjoining Territorial Division, and within seven miles of the border of such first mentioned Territorial Division, without having such Warrant backed, as hereinafter mentioned; and in all cases where such Warrant shall be directed to all Constables or other Peace Officers within the Territoriol Division within which such Justice or Justices shall have jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for any Constable or other Peace Officer for any place within such Territorial Division to execute the said Warrant at any place within the jurisdiction for which the said Justice or Justices shall have acted when he or they granted such Warrant, in like manner as if such Warrant were directed specially to such Constable by name, and notwithstanding the place within which such Warrant shall be executed shall not be within the place for which he shall be Constable or Peace Officer; Provided always, that no objection shall be taken or allowed to any such Warrant for any defect therein, in substance or in form, or for any variance between it and the evidence adduced on the part of the prosecution, before the Justice or Justices who shall take the examination of the witnesses in that behalf as hereinafter mentioned; but if any such variance shall appear to any such Justice or Justices to be such that the party charged has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, at the request of the party so charged, to adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day, and in the meantime to remand the party so charged, or to admit him to bail in manner hereinafter mentioned.

VII. And be it enacted, That if the person against whom any such Warrant shall be issued, as aforesaid, shall not be found within the jurisdiction of the Justice or Justices by whom the same shall be issued, or if he shall escape, go into, reside or be, or be supposed or suspected to be in any place within this Province, whether in Upper or in Lower Canada out of the jurisdiction of the Justice or Justices issuing such Warrant, it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace within the jurisdiction of whom such person shall so escape or go, or in which he shall reside or be, or be supposed or suspected to be, upon proof alone being made on oath of the hand-writing of the Justice issuing the same, and without any security being given, to make an endorsement [K] on such Warrant, signed with his name, authorizing the execution of such Warrant within the jurisdiction of the Justice making such endorsement, and which endorsement shall be sufficient authority to the person bringing such Warrant, and to all other persons to whom the same was originally directed, and also to all Constables and other Peace Officers of the Terri-

X. And be it enacted, That after the examinations of all the witnesses on the part of the same to the part of the same.

X. And be it enacted, That after the examinations of all the witnesses on the part of the prosecution as aforesaid shall have been completed, the Justice of the Peace, or one of the Justices by or before whom such examination shall have been so completed as aforesaid, shall, without requiring the attendance of the witnesses, read or cause to be read to the accused the depositions taken against him, and shall say to him these words, or words to the like effect: "Having heard the evidence, do you "wish to say anything in answer to the charge? You are not "obliged to say anything unless you desire to do so, but what-"ever you say will be taken down in writing, and may be given "in evidence against you upon your trial." And whatever the prisoner shall then say in answer thereto shall be taken down in writing (N] and read over to him, and shall be signed by the said Justice or Justices, and kept with the depositions of the witnesses, and shall be transmitted with them as hereinafter mentioned; and afterwards, upon the trial of the said accused person, the same may, if necessary, be given in evidence against him without further proof thereof, unless it shall be proved that the Justice or Justices purporting to sign the same did not in fact sign the same: Provided always, that the said Justice or Justices, before such accused person shall make any statement, shall state to him and give him clearly to understand that he has nothing to hope from any promise of favor, and nothing to fear from any threat which may have been holden out to him to induce him to make any admission or confession of his guilt, but that whatever he shall then say may be given in evidence against him uyon his trial, notwithstanding such promise or threat: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained or enacted shall prevent the prosecutor in any case from giving in evidence any admission or confession, or other statement of the person accused or charged, made at any time which by law would be admissible as evidence against such person.

XI. And be it declared and enacted, That the room or building in which such Justice or Justices shall take such examination and statement as aforesaid, shall not be deemed an open Court for that purpose; and it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, in his or their discretion, to order that no person 217 shall have access to or be or remain in such room or building without the consent or permission of such Justice or Justices, if it appear to him or them that the ends of Justice will be best answered by so doing.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Justice or Justices before whom any such witness shall be examined as aforesaid, to bind by Recognizance (O 1) the Prosecutor, and every such witness, to appear at the next Court of competent Criminal Jurisdiction at which the accused is to be tried, then and there to prosecute or prosecute and give evidence. or to give evidence, as the case may be, against the party accu. sed, which said Recognizance shall particularly specify the profession, art, mystery or trade of every such person entering into or acknowledging the same, together with his Christian and surname, and the Township or place of his residence, or if his residence be in a City, Town or Borough, the Recognizance shall also particularly specify the name of the said City, Town or Borough, and when convenient so to do, of the street and the number [if any] of the house in which he resides, and whether he is owner or tenant thereof, or lodger therein; and the said Recognizance, being duly acknowledged by the person so entering into the same, shall be subscribed by the Justice or Justices before whom the same shall be acknowledged, and a notice (O2) thereof, signed by the said Justice or Justices, shall at the same time be given to the person bound thereby; and the several Recognizances so taken, together with the written information (if any), the depositions, the statement of the accused, and the Recognizance of Bail (if any) in every such case shall be delivered by the said Justice or Justices, or he or they shall cause the same to be delivered to the proper Officer of the Court in which the trial is to be had, before or at the opening of the said Court on the first day of the sitting thereof, or at such other time as the Judge, Justice or person who is to preside at such Court at the said trial shall order and appoint; Provided always, that if any such witness shall refuse to enter into or acknowledge such Recognizance as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices of the Peace by his or their Warrant (P 1) to commit him to the Common Gaol for the County in which the accused party is to be tried, there to be imprisoned and safely kept until after the trial of such accused party, unless in the meantime such witness shall duly enter into such Recognizance as aforesaid before some one Justice of the Peace for the Territorial Division in which such Gaol shall be situate: Provided nevertheless, that if afterwards, for want of sufficient evidence in that behalf, or other eause, the Justice or Justices before whom such accused party shall have been brought shall not commit him or hold him to bail for the offence with which he is charged, it shall be lawful for tices for (P 2) in mon Grand him frondischar

XIII. And be it enacted, That if from the absence of witnesses, or from any other reasonable cause, it shall become necessary or advisable to defer the examination or further examination of the witnesses for any time, it shall be lawful to and for the Justice or Justices before whom the accused shall appear or be brought, by his or their Warrant (Q 1) from time to time to remand the party accused for such time as by such Justice or Justices in their discretion shall be deemed reasonable, not exceeding eight clear days at any one time, to the Common Gaol or House of Correction or other Prison, Lock-up House, or place of security in the Territorial Division for which such Justice or Justices shall then be acting; or if the remand be for a time not exceeding three clear days, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices verbally to order the Constable, or other person in whose custody such party accused may then be, or any other Constable or person to be named by the said Justice or Justices in that behalf, to continue or keep such party accused in his custody, and to bring him before the same or such other Justice or Justices as shall be there acting at the time appointed for continuing such examination: Provided always, that any such Justice or Justices may order such accused party to be brought before him or them, or before any other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, at any time before the expiration of the time for which such party shall be remanded, and the Gaoler or Officer in whose custody he shall then be shall duly obey such order: Provided also, that instead of detaining the said accused party in custody during the period for which such accused party shall be so remanded, any one Justice of the Peace before whom such party shall so appear or be brought as aforesaid, may discharge him, upon his entering into a Recognizance (Q 2, 3,) with or without a Surety or Surcties, at the discretion of such Justice, conditioned for his appearance at the time and place appointed for the continuance of such examination; and if such accused party shall not afterwards appear at the time and place mentioned in such Recognizance, then the said Justice, or any other Justice of the Peace who may then and there be present, upon certifying (Q 4) upon the back of the Recognizance the non-appearance of such accused party, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace for the Territorial Division within which such Recognizance shall have been taken, to be proceeded upon in like manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient prima facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said accused party.

XIV. And whereas it often happens that a person is charged before a Justice of the Peace with an offence alleged to have been committed in another Territorial Division than that in which such person has been apprehended, or in which such Justice has jurisdiction, and it is necessary to make provision as to the manner of taking the examination of the witnesses, and of committing the party accused or admitting him to bail in such a case: Be it therefore enacted, That whenever a person shall appear or be brought before a Justice or Justices of the Peacein the Territorial Division wherein such Justice or Justices shall have jurisdiction, charged with an offence alleged to have been committed by him within any Territorial Division whererein such Justice or Justices shall not have jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and he or they are hereby required to examine such witness, an I receive such evidence in proof of the said charge as shall be produced before him or them within his or their jurisdiction: and if in his or their opinion such testimony and evidence shall be sufficient proof of the charge made against such accused party, such Justice or Justices shall thereupon commit him to the Common Gaol for the County where the offence is alleged to have been committed, or shall admit him to bail as hereinafter mentioned, and shall bind over the prosecutor (if he have appeared before him or them) and the witnesses, by Recognizance accordingly as hereinbefore mentioned; but if such testimony and evidence shall not, in the opinion of such Justice or Justices be sufficient to put the accused party upon his trial for the offence with which he is so charged, then such Justice or Justices shall bind over such witness or witnesses as he shall have examined by Recognizance to give evidence as hereinbefore is mentioned; and such Justice or Justices shall, by Warrant (R 1) under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, order the said accused party to be taken before some Justice or Justices of the Peace in and for the Territorial Division where the offence is alleged to have been committed, and shall at the same time deliver up the Information and Complaint, and also the Depositions and Recognizances so taken by him or them to the Constable who shall have the execution of such last mentioned Warrant, to be by him delivered to the Justice or Justices before whom he shall take the accused, in obedience to the said Warrant, and which said Depositions and Recognizances shall be deemed to be taken in the case, and shall be treated to all intents and purposes as if they had been taken by or before the said last mentioned Justice or Justices, and shall, together with such Depositions and Recognizances as such last mentioned Justice or Justices shall take in the matter of such charge against

XV. And be it enacted, That when any person shall appear before any Justice of the Peace charged with a felony or suspicion of felony, and the evidence adduced shall in the opinion of such Justice be sufficient to put such accused party on his trial as hereinafter mentioned, but shall not furnish such a strong presumption of guilt as to warrant his committal for trial, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice jointly with some other Justice of the Peace to admit such person to bail upon his procuring and producing such surety or sureties as in the opinion of such two Justices will be sufficient to ensure the appearance of such person so charged, at the time and place when and where he is to be tried for such offence; and thereupon such two Justices shall take the Recognizance (S 1, 2,) of the said accused person and his surety or sureties, conditioned for the appearance of such accused person at the time and place of trial, and that he will then surrender and take his trial and not depart the Court without leave; Provided firstly, that when the offence committed or suspected to have been committed is a misdemeanor, any one Justice may admit to bail in manner aforesaid; and such Justice or Justices may at their discretion require that such bail should justify upon oath as to their sufficiency, which oath the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby authorized to administer, and in default of such person procuring sufficient bail, then such Justice or Justices may commit him to prison, there to be kept until delivered according to law; Provided secondly, and it is hereby declared and enacted, that in all cases of felony, where the party accused shall be finally committed as hereinafter provided, it shall be lawful for any County Judge who may be also a Justice of the Peace for the County within the limits of which such accused party is confined, in his discretion on application made to him for that purpose, to order such accused party or person to be admitted to bail on entering into Recognizance with sufficient sureties for such an amount, before two Justices of the Peace as the said Judge shall direct, and thereupon such Justices shall issue a warrant of deliverence (S 3,) as hereinafter provided, and shall attach thereto the order of the Judge directing the admitting of such party to bail; Provided lastly, that no Justice or Justices of the Peace, or County Judge shall admit any person to bail accused of treason or murder, nor shall any such person be admitted to bail, except by order of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench or of Common Pleas, or one of the Judges thereof in vacation, and nothing herein contained, shall prevent such last mentioned Judges admitting any person accused of misdemeanor or felony to bail when they may think it right so to do.

XVI. And be it enacted, That in all cases where a Justice or Justices of the Peace shall admit to bail any person who shall then be in any prison charged with the offence for which he shall be so admitted to bail, such Justice or Justices shall send to or couse to be lodged with the Keeper of such Prison, a Warrant of Deliverance (S 3,) under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, requiring the said Keeper to discharge the person so admitted to bail if he be detained for no other offence, and upon such Warrant of Deliverance being delivered to or lodged with such Keeper, he shall forthwith obey the same.

XVII. And be it enacted, That when all the evidence offered upon the part of the prosecution against the accused party shall have been heard, if the Justice or Justices of the Peace then present shall be of opinion that it is not sufficient to put such accused party upon his trial, for any indictable offence, such Justice or Justices shall forthwith order such accused party, if in custody to be discharged as to the Information then under 222

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the Constable or any of the Constables, or other persons to whom any Warrant of Commitnent shall be directed, authorized by this or any other Act, shall convey such accused person therein named or described to the Gaol or other Prison mentioned in such Warrant, and there deliver him, together with such Warrant, to the Gaoler, Keeper or Governor of such Gaol or Prison, who shall thereupon give such Constable or other person so delivering such prisoner into his custody a Receipt [T 2,] for such prisoner, setting forth the state and condition in which such prisoner was when he was delivered into the custody of such Gailor, Keeper or Governor.

XIX. And be it enacted, That at any time after all the examinations aforesaid shall have been completed, and before the first day of the Sessions, or other first sitting of the Court at which any person so committed to prison or admitted to bail as aforesaid is to be tried, such person may require and shall be entitled to have, from the Officer or person having the custody of the same, copies of the depositions on which he shall have been committed or bailed, on payment of a reasonable sum for the same, not exceeding the rate of Three Pence for each folio of one hundred words.

XX. And be it enacted, That the several forms in the Schedule to this Act contained, or forms to the like effect, shall be good, valid and sufficient in law.

XXI. And be it enacted, That any Inspector and Superintendent of Police, Police Magistrate or Stipendary Magistrate, appointed or to be appointed for any Territorial Division, shall have full power to do alone whatever is authorized by this Act to be done by any two or more Justices of the Peace, and that the several forms in the Schedule to this Act annexed, may be varied so far as it may be necessary to render them applicable to such Inspector and Superintendent of Police, Police Magistrate or Stipendary Magistrate aforesaid.

XXII. And be it enacted, That from and after the day on which this Act shall commence to take effect, all other Act or Acts or parts of Acts which are contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall apply only to Upper Canada, except in so far as any provision thereof is expressly extended to Lower Canada, or to any act to be done there.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence and have force and effect upon, from and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and not before.

JUSTICES

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE PROTECTION ACT, (C. W.) 16 VICT. 1853.

CAP. CLXXX.

AN ACT TO PROTECT JUSTICES OF THE PEACE IN UPPER CANADA FROM VEXATIOUS ACTIONS.

[Assented to, 14th June, 1853.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to protect Justices of the Peace in Upper Canada in the execution of their duty: Be it therefore enacted, &c., That every action hereafter to be brought against any Justice of the Peace in Upper Canada for any act done by him in the execution of his duty as such Justice, with respect to any matter within his jurisdiction as such Justice, shall be an action on the case as for a tort; and in the declaration it shall be expressly alleged that such act was done maliciously and without reasonable and probable cause; and if at the trial of any such Action, upon the general issue being pleaded, the Plaintiff shall fail to prove such allegation, he shall be non-suit or a verdict shall be given for the Defendant.

II. And be it enacted, That for any act done by a Justice of the Peace in a matter of which by law he has not jurisdiction, or in which he shall have exceeded his jurisdiction, any person injured thereby, or by any act done under any Conviction or Order made or Warrant issued by such Justice in any such matter, may maintain an action against such Justice in the same form and in the same case as he might have done before the passing of this Act, without making any allegation in his declaration that the act complained of was done maliciously and without reasonable and probable cause: Provided nevertheless, that no such Action shall be brought for anything done under such Conviction or Order until after such Coviction or Order shall have been quashed, either upon appeal or upon application to one of the Superior Courts of Common Law for Upper Canada; nor shall any such action be brought for any thing done under any such Warrant which shall have been issued by such Justice to procure the appearance of such party, and which shall have been followed by a Conviction or Order in the same matter, until after such Conviction or Order shall have been so quashed as aforesaid; or if such last mentioned Warrant shall not have been followed by any such Conviction or Order, or if it be a Warrant upon an information for an alleged indictable offence, nevertheless if a Summons were issued previously to such Warrant, and such 245 Summons

Summons were served upon such person, either personally or by leaving the same for him with some person at his last or most usual place of abode, and he did not appear according to the exigency of such Summons, in such case no such Action shall be maintained against such Justice for any thing done under such Warrant.

III. And be it enacted, That where a Conviction or Order shall be made by one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, and a Warrant of distress or of commitment shall be granted thereon by some other Justice of the Peace bond fide and without collusion, no Action shall be brought against the Justice who so granted such Warrant by reason of any defect in such Conviction or Order, or for any want of jurisdiction in the Justice or Justices who made the same, but the Action (if any) shall be brought against the Justice or Justices who made such Conviction or Order.

IV. And whereas it would conduce to the advancement of justice, and render more effective and certain the performance of the duties of Justices, and give them protection in the performance of the same, if some simple means, not attended with much expense, were devised by which the legality of any act to be done by such Justice might be considered and adjudged by a Court of competent jurisdiction, and such Justice enabled and directed to perform it without risk or any Action or other proceeding being brought or had against him: Be it therefore enacted. That in all cases where a Justice or Justices of the Peace shall refuse to do any act relating to the duties of his or their Office as such Justice or Justices, it shall be lawful for the party requiring such act to be done to apply to either of the Superior Courts of Common Law in Upper Canada, or to the Judge of the County Court of the County or United Counties in which such Justice or Justices may reside, upon an affidavit of the facts, for a rule calling upon such Justice or Justices, and also the party to be affected by such act, to show cause why such act should not be done: and if after due service of such rule good cause shall not be shown against it, the said Court may make the same absolute, with or without or upon payment of costs, as to them shall seem meet; and the said Justice or Justices upon being served with such rule absolute shall obey the same, and shall do the act required; and no action or proceeding whatsoever shall be commenced or prosecuted against such Justice or Justices, for having obeyed such rule and done such act so thereby required as aforesaid.

V. And be it enacted, That in all cases where a Warrant of Distress or Warrant of Commitment shall be granted by a Justice of the Peace upon any Conviction or Order which, either before or after the granting of such Warrant, shall have been or shall be confirmed upon appeal, no Action shall be brought against such Justice who so granted such Warrant, for any thing which

VI. And be it enacted, That in all cases where by this Act it is enacted that no action shall be brought under particular circumstances, if any such Action shall be brought, it shall be lawful for a Judge of the Court in which the same shall be brought, upon application of the Defendant, and upon affidavit of facts, to set aside the proceedings in such Action, with or without costs, as to him shall seem meet.

VII. And be it enacted, That no Action shall be brought against any Justice of the Peace for any thing done by him in the execution of his Office, unless the same be commenced within Six Calendar Months next after the act complained of shall have been committed.

VIII. And be it enacted, That no such Action shall be commenced against any such Justice of the Peace until one Calendar Month at least after a Notice in Writing of such intended Action shall have been delivered to him, or left for him at his usual place of abode, by the party intending to commence such Action, or by his Attorney or Agent, in which said notice the cause of Action, and the Court in which the same is intended to be brought, shall be clearly and explicitly stated; and upon the back thereof shall be endorsed the name and place of abode of the party so intending to sue, and also the name and place of abode or of business of the said Attorney or Agent, if such notice have been served by such Attorney or Agent.

IX. And be it enacted, That in every such Action the venue shall be laid in the County where the act complained of was committed, or in Actions in County or Division Courts the Action must be brought in the County or Division within which the act complained of was committed or the Defendant resides, and the Defendant shall be allowed to plead the General Issue therein, and to give any special matter of desence, excuse or justification in evidence under such plea, at the trial of such Action: Provided always, that no Action shall be brought in any such County or Division Court against a Justice of the Peace for any thing done by him in the execution of his office if such Justice shall object thereto; and if within Six Days after being served with a notice of any such action, such Justice or his Attorney or Agent, shall give a written notice to the Plaintiff in such Action that he objects to being sued in such County or Division Court for such cause of action, no proceedings afterwards shall be had in such County or Division Court in any such Action, but it shall not be necessary to give another notice of Action in order to sue such Justice in any other Court; Provided secondly, and it is hereby declared and enacted, that the several County Courts in Upper Canada shall have Jurisdiction and shall hold plea in all Suits or Actions to be brought against Justices of the Peace for any thing done or pretended to be done by them in the execution of their office, when the damages claimed shall not exceed the sum of thirty pounds.

X. And be it enacted, That in every such case after notice of Action shall be so given as aforesaid, and before such Action shall be commenced, such Justice to whom such notice shall be given may tender to the party complaining, or to his Attorney or Agent, such sum of money as he may think fit as amends for the injury complained of in such notice; and after such action shall have been commenced, and at any time before issue joined therein, such Defendant, if he have not made such tender, or in addition to such tender, shall be at liberty to pay into Court such sum of money as he may think fit, and which said tender and payment of money into Court, or either of them, may afterwards be given in evidence by the Defendant at the trial under the General issue aforesaid; and if the Jury at the trial shall be of opinion that the Plaintiff is not entitled to damages beyond the sum so tendered or paid into Court, then they shall give a verdict for the Defendant, and the Plaintiff shall not be at libery to elect to be non-suit, and the sum of money, if any, so paid into Court, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to pay or satisfy the Defendant's costs in that behalf, shall thereupon be paid out of Court to him, and the residue, if any, shall be paid to the Plaintiff: or if, where money is so paid into Court in any such action, the Plaintiff shall elect to accept the same in satisfaction of his damages in the said Action, he may obtain from any Judge of the Court in which such action shall be brought, an order that such money shall be paid out of Court to him and that the Defendant shall pay him his costs to be taxed, and thereupon the said Action shall be determined, and such order shall be a bar to any other Action for the same cause.

XI. And be it enacted, That if at the trial of any such Action the Plaintiff shall not prove that such Action was brought within the time hereinbefore limited in that behalf, or that such notice as aforesaid was given one Calendar Month before such action was commenced, or if he shall not prove the cause of Action stated in such notice, or if he shall not prove that such cause of Action arose in the County or place laid as venue in the margin of the declaration, or (when such Plaintiff shall sue in the County or Division Court) within the County or United Counties for which such Court is holden, then and in every such case such Plaintiff shall be non-suit, or the Jury shall give a verdict for the Defendant.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE ACT, INTITULED, AN ACT TO AMEND AN ACT, INTITULED, "AN ACT TO COMPEL VESSELS TO CARRY A LIGHT "DURING THE NIGHT, AND TO MAKE SUNDRY PROVISIONS TO REGU"LATE THE NAVIGATION OF THE WATERS OF THIS PROVINCE."

Assented to, 14th June, 1853.]

In amendment of the Act passed in the session held in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled: An Act to amend an Act, intituled, "An Act to compel Vessels "to carry a Light during the night, and to make sundry provisions "to regulate the Navigation of the Waters of this Province:" Be it enacted, &c., That at least one of the Boats provided for and carried with every Steamboat engaged in the transportation of freight and passengers in pursuance of the ninth section of the said Act hereinbefore first cited, shall be a life-boat, made of metal, fire-proof, and in all respects a good, substantial, safe sea-boat, capable of sustaining, inside and outside fifty persons, with life-lines attached to the gunwale at suitable distances, and that all of such boats shall be well furnished with oars and other necessary apparatus, and shall be good, substantial and safe boats, and in good condition at all times for service.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall also be the duty of the Owner and Master of every such Steamboat as aforesaid, to provide and carry with the said Steamboat upon each and every voyage. a good life-preserver, made of suitable material, or a float well adapted to the purpose, for each and every passenger, which life preservers and floats shall always be kept in convenient and accessible places in such Steamboats, and in readiness

And be it enacted, That the same penalty shall be and the same is hereby attached to the contravention of any of the provisions of this Act, or of any such Order in Council as aforesaid, as is contained in and enacted by the said ninth section of the Act hereinbefore first cited, that is to say, that for every contravention in respect of any Steamer in this Province, on any one voyage or trip thereof of any provision in this Act or in any such Order in Council applicable to such Steamer, the owner or master thereof shall forseit and pay the sum of Fifty Pounds, currency.

RESPECTING WILLS.

EVERY PERSON, of sound intellect and of age, having the legal exercise of their rights, may devise or bequeath by last will and testament, their Estates, both Real and Personal.

Wills should be Registered as soon as possible after the death of every respective Devisor, Testator or Testatrix, in the County or District, within which the property is situated, so as to be where they would always remain subject to the inspection of any-one that might be interested to know their import; and to that end, it would be well that the testator should, in his last illness, acknowledge in the presence of a Justice of the Peace, that the Will in question is his deliberate act and final determination, and that he does, in the presence of said Magistrate, confirm it as his last Will and testament. It is very important that Wills should be so written, as to admit of no possible misconstruction: They must be, in every respect, according to law, or they will be in a manner, if not wholly, useless.

Every last Will and Testament of Real or Personal property, must be executed and attested, in the following manner: The testator's name must be subscribed by the testator, at the end of the Will; accompanied by a seal, executed in the presence of two witnesses. Such subscription must be made by the testator in the presence of each of the attesting witnesses, or by him acknowledged to have been so made to each of the attesting witnesses; at the request of the testator, and in the presence of each other. The testator must declare the instrument so subscribed, at the time of acknowledging the same, to be his last Will and Testament.

A codacil is a supplement to a Will, and must be attested in the same manner as the Will.

To Disinherit an Heir at Law.

An Heir, At law cannot be disinherited by a will, unless by express terms in the Will, showing such an intention on the part of the testator. It is, therefore, generally requisite to name in the Will every person or family, who would be lawfully entitled to share in the inheritance, if there were no Will. And this may be done by naming such individual or individuals as the testator intends to disinherit, and declaring that he shall give them nothing, assigning the reasons for such decision, or by giving to each of such persons, five or ten shilling, or any other nominal small sum.

This, however, is a ceremony which is not of very frequent occurrence.

A WILL OF REAL AND PERSONAL ESTATE.

This Instrument, Witnesseth: That I, William Stearnley, of the City and District of Montreal, of the Province of Canada, being of sound and disposing mind, memory, and understanding, do make, publish, and declare this to be my last will and testament; hereby revoking and making null and void all former last wills and testaments, and writings in the nature of last wills and testaments by me heretofo: a made.

BANKS AND BANKING ACT, (AMENDED.)

CAP. LXIX.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE ACT TO ESTABLISH FREEDOM OF BANKING IN THIS. PROVINCE.

[Assented to, 30th August, 1851.]

HEREAS it is expedient that statements of the Assets and Liabilities of Banks to be established under the Act passed in the Session held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, An Act to establish Freedom 13 & 14 Vict. c 21. of Banking in this Province, and for other purposes relative to Banks and Banking, should be made up and published more frequently than is required by the said Act: Be it therefore enacted, &c., That the statements of the Assets Statements required by Sect. 30 of the said Act, to be made up and published monthly instead of half-yearly. and Liabilities of every Bank established or to be established under the Act first above cited, required by the thirtieth section thereof, shall (instead of being transmitted half yearly, as in the said section provided,) be transmitted to the Inspector General on the first day of each month in every year (or if such day be Sunday or 273 Holiday, Holiday, then on the next day not being so) made up to and bearing date upon the evening of the last day of the preceding month not being a Sunday or Holiday, and such statement shall be published by the Inspector General, at the expense of the Bank. and in such way as he shall think most conducive to the public good; and every such statement shall contain all the particulars mentioned in the said section, and shall be attested in the manner therein provided; and by any neglect to transmit any statement or by any wilfully false statement, the Bank in default shall incur the same penalties and consequences, and the Inspector General shall have the same powers, if he suspects any statement to be wilfully false, or if it appears by any statement that the Bank is insolvent, as are provided in similar cases in and by the said section, which shall hereafter be construed and have effect as if the words "the first day of each month in every year" had been inserted in the said section, instead of the words "the first day of January and July in each year," where they occur in the said section, except in so far as such construction would be inconsistent with any provision of this Act.

Time allowed to certain Banks or Companies by Section 2, of the anid Act extended on certain

II. And whereas by the last proviso to the second section of the Act hereby amended, it is provided that the said section shall not, during twelve months next after the passing thereof, apply to any Banks or Company not thereinbefore excepted, and authorized by Legislative enactment to issue Bank Notes, and it is expedient to extend the time allowed by the said proviso: Be it therefore enacted, that the said section shall not, until the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, apply to any Bank or Company excepted from its operation by the said proviso, provided such Bank or Company shall reduce the amount of its Bank Notes not secured by the deposit of securities upon which registered Bank Notes may be issued under the said Act, in the following manner, that is to say: before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, such amount shall be reduced to not exceeding three-fourths of the average circulation of such Bank during the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty; before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, such amount shall be reduced to not exceeding one half the said average circulation; before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, such amount shall be reduced to not exceeding onefourth of such average circulation; and before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, such amount shall be reduced to nothing: but if any such Bank or Company shall fail to make any such reduction as aforesaid, then, upon such failure, the said section shall immediately apply to such Bank or Company which shall be liable to all the penalties imposed by the said Act for any contravention thereof.

CAP. LXXVI.

AN ACT TO REGULATE THE RATES OF DAMAGES ON PROTESTED BILLS OF EXCHANGE IN CANADA WEST.

[Assented to, 30th May, 1849.]

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient for the purposes of Commerce that the law regulating the Rates of Damages on Protested Bills of Exchange in Upper Canada should be better defined: Be it therefore enacted, &c., That from and after the passing of this Act, the Rate of Damages to be allowed and paid upon the usual protest for non-payment of Bills of Exchange drawn, sold or negociated within Upper Canada, and although the same may not have been drawn on or by any person residing therein, shall in the following cases be as follows:—

First. If such Bill shall have been drawn upon any person or persons at any place in Europe or in the West Indies, or in any part of America not within this Province or any other British North American Colony, and not within the Territory of the United States, ten per cent. upon the principal sum specified in such Bill.

Secondly. If such Bill shall have been drawn upon any person or persons in any of the other British North American Colonies, or in the United States, four per cent. upon the principal sum specified in such Bill; Interest to be also allowed.

Bill shall also be subject to six per centum per annum of interest on the amount for which the Bill is drawn, to be 302

And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any one Justice of the Peace on complaint made Power to issue warrants to before him upon the oath of one credible person, search for coun-terfeit Coin, coin-ing Tools, &c. that there is just cause to suspect that any person or persons is or are or hath or have been concerned in making, counterfeiting or imitating any such Coin as aforesaid, by warrant under the hand of such Justice of the Peace, to cause the dwelling house, room, work-shop, out-house or other building, yard, garden, ground or other place belonging to such suspected person or persons, or where such suspected person or persons shall be suspected to carry on any such making, counterfeiting or imitating, to be searched for any such counterfeit Coin; and if any such Coin or any such die, press, tool or instrument, metal or material as aforesaid shall be found in the possession or custody of any person or persons whomsoever, not having the same for some lawful purpose, it shall and may be lawful to and for any person or persons discovering the same, to seize, and he or they are hercby authorized and required to seize and carry the same forthwith before a Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction within the locality in which the same shall be seized, who shall cause the same to be secured and produced in evidence against any person or persons who shall or may be prosecuted for any such offence as aforesaid, in any Court of competent jurisdiction, and the same after being so produced in evidence, shall by order of the Court be defaced or destroyed, or otherwise disposed of as the Court shall direct.

XVI. And be it enacted, That any person to whom any pretended Gold, Silver or Copper Coin Counterfeit Coin tendered may be broken, &c. shall be tendered in payment, which shall by the Stamp, Impression, Colour or Weight thereof, afford reason to suspect that the same is false or counterfeit, may cut or break such Coin, and if the same shall be counterfeit, the person who tendered it shall bear the loss, otherwise the person who shall have cut or broken it shall receive it for a sum proportionate to its weight; and if any question shall arise whether such Coin be counterfeit, it shall be determined by any Justice of the Peace, who, if he entertain any doubt in that behalf, may summon three skilful persons, the decision of a majority of whom shall be final.

Counterfeit Coin produced in Court to be broken, &c.

XVII. And be it enacted, That if any false or counterfeit Coin shall be produced in any Court of Law, the Court shall order the same to be cut in pieces in open Court or in the presence of a Justice of the Peace, and then delivered to or for the lawful owner thereof, if any such lawful owner there be claiming the same.

wilfully tendering light Coin, to be a misdemeanor of less than its lawful weight, or shall diminish the weight of any such Coin with intent to utter or offer it in payment, as lawfully current, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on being duly convicted shall be liable to be punished accordingly.

Evidence in cases of offences against this Act.

XIX. And be it enacted, That on any trial for any offence under this Act, it shall not be necessary to call any Officer of the Mint or other person employed in producing the lawful Coin, in order to prove any counterfeit to be such, but the fact may be proved by any evidence which shall be satisfactory to the Jury trying the case.

Commencement of Act.

XX. And be it enacted, That this Act shall have force and effect upon, from and after the day to be appointed by Her Majesty for that purpose, by Proclamation, and not before.

VI. And be it enacted, That the production of the certificate in the next preceding section mentioned, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, and of the authority of the Judge, Registrar or Clerk, without any proof of his appointment, authority or signature.

VII. And be it enacted, That whenever in any suit or action pending or hereafter to be brought, Probate of Will in either of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law or Equity in Upper Canada, any party is desirous of proving the Execution of the Will of any person, who at the time it shall be necessary to give such proof, may be dead, the production of the Probate of such Will or of Letters of Administration with the Will annexed, shall be received and taken as prima facie evidence of the due execution of such Will and of the contents thereof, in the same manner as if the original Will had been produced, and the execution thereof proven by the subscribing witnesses thereto; subject, nevertheless, to the provisoes hereinbefore in the fifth section of this Act contained, as to notice to the opposite party of the intention to use such Probate or Letters, in place of the original Will, and to any order that may be made by the Judge or Court disallowing the production of the same as therein mentioned.

VIII. And be it enacted, That whenever any action or other legal proceeding shall henceforth be pending in any of the Superior Courts, or in any County Court in Upper Canada, such Court and each of the Judges thereof, in vacation, may respectively, on application made for such purpose by either of the litigants, compel the opposite party to allow the party making the application, to inspect all documents in the custody or under the control of such opposite party relating to such action or other legal proceeding, and if necessary, to take examined copies of the same, in all cases in which previous to the passing of this Act a discovery might have been obtained by filing a Bill, or by any other proceeding in a Court of Equity, at the instance of the party so making application as aforesaid to the said Court or

Judge: Provided also that such application may Proviso. be made to and granted by a Judge of a County Court in suits depending in the said Superior Courts, in the same manner and under such circumstances as is provided for similar applications in the said Courts, by the thirty-fifth section of the Act passed in the twelfth year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled. An Act to make further provision for the adminis-Act 12 Vict. c. 63. tration of Justice by the establishment of an additional Superior Court of Common Law, and also a Court of Error and Appeal in Upper Canada, and for other purposes.

III. And be it enacted, That if any of the children of such intestate be living, and any be dead, the inheritance shall descend to the children who are living, and to the descendants of such children as shall have died, so that each child who shall be living shall inherit such share as would have descended to him if all the children of the intestate who shall have died, leaving issue, had been living: and so that the descendants of each child who shall be dead shall inherit the share which their parent would have received if living, in equal shares.

Same rule as to other descendants in unequal degrees of consanguinity.

IV. And be it enacted, That the rule of descent prescribed in the last section shall apply in every case where the descendants of the intestate, entitled to share in the inheritance, shall be of unequal degrees of consanguinity to the intestate, so that those who are in the nearest degree of consanguinity shall take the shares which would have descended to them, had all the descendants in the same degree of consanguinity who shall have died leaving issue, been living, and so that the issue of the descendants who shall have died, shall respectively take the shares which their parents if living would have received.

INFANTS' REAL ESTATE ACT, (C. W.)

CAP. LXXII.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE SALE AND DISPOSITION OF THE REAL ESTATE OF INFANTS IN CANADA WEST, IN CERTAIN CASES THEREIN MENTIONED.

[Assented to, 30th May, 1849.]

HEREAS it is expedient to authorize the Sale and Disposition of the Real Estate of Infants in certain cases where the same is for their benefit: Be it therefore enacted, &c., That any Infant seized or possessed of, or entitled to any Real Estate in fee, for a term of years, or otherwise be made for leave to self-real leave to finfants. Application may be made for leave to finfants. Some of the property, or a competent part thereof, in manner and for any of the purposes hereinafter directed: Provided always, that no such application shall be made to the said Court of Chancery without the consent of such Infant if he or she be of the age of seven years or upwards.

II. And be it enacted, That whenever, upon any such application as aforesaid, it shall appear satisfactory to the said Court, that a disposition of any part of such Rea. State of such Infant is necessary and proper, either for the support and maintenance of such Infant or for his education, or that the interest of such Infant requires, or will be substantially promoted by such disposition, by reason of any part of his or her said property being exposed to waste and dilapidation, the Court may order the sale, or the letting for a term of years, or other disposition of such Real Estate or any part thereof. to be made under the direction of the Master Conveyance, &c., how to be made. of the said Court, or by the Guardian or Guardians of such Infant, or by any person appointed by the said Court for the purpose, in such manner and with such restrictions as to the said Court shall seem expedient, and may order the Infant to convey such Real Estate as the said Court shall think proper: and every such conveyance shall be as valid and Conveyance, &c., effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if the Infant had been, at the time of making or executing the same, of the age of twenty-one years; Provided always, Proviso as to esthat no such Real Estate shall be so sold, leased. tates by devise, or otherwise disposed of as aforesaid in any manner, against the provisions of any last will or of any conveyance by which such Estate was devised or granted to such Infant. or for his or her use.

III. And be it enacted, That where the said Court may order some person other than the Infant to Court shall find or deem it more convenient that the conveyance to be made and executed in purmake the conveysuance of the provisions of this Act, should be executed by some person in the place of the Infant, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the said Court of Chancery to direct any person whom such Court may think proper to appoint for that purpose, in the place of the Infant, to convey such estate to such person, and in such manner as the said Court shall think proper; and every such conveyance shall be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes, as if the Infant had made and executed the same, and had been of the age of twenty-one years at the time of making and executing the same.

Application of moneyraised. IV. And be it enacted, That the moneys arising from any such sale, lease or other disposition, as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be laid out, applied and disposed of in such manner as the said Court shall direct.

Money to repreent the estate.

V. And be it enacted, That on any sale or other disposition which shall be made in pursuance of this Act, the moneys thereby raised, or the surplus thereof, as the case may be, shall be of the same nature and character as the Estate so sold or disposed of, and the heirs, next of kin, or other representatives of the Infant, shall have such and the like interest in any surplus which may remain of such moneys at the decease of such Infant, as they would have had in the Estate so sold or disposed of, if no such sale or other disposition had been made 12 V

CONVEYANCE OF REAL PROPERTY, (C. W.)

CAP. VI.

AN ACT TO FACILITATE THE CONVEYANCE OF REAL PROPERTY IN CANADA

[Assented to, 18th May, 1846.]

HEREAS it is expedient to facilitate the sale and conveyance of Real Property: Be it therefore enacted, &c., That whenever any party to any deed made according to the forms set forth in the first Schedule to this Act, or to any other deed which shall be expressed to be made in pursuance of this Act, or referring thereto, shall employ in any such deed respectively any of the Preamble.

Where the words of column 1 of the second Schedule are employed, the deed to have the same effect as if the words in column 2 were informs or words contained in column one, of the second Schedule hereto annexed, and distinguished by any number therein, such deed shall be taken to have the same effect, and be construed as if such party had inserted in such deed the form of words contained in column two of the same Schedule, and distinguished by the same number as is annexed to the form of words employed by such party; but it shall not be necessary, in any such deed, to insert any such number.

II. And be it enacted, That every such deed, unless any exception be specially made therein, all houses, &c., and the reversion shall be held and construed to include all houses, out-houses, edifices, barns, stables, yards, gardens, orchards, commons, trees, woods, underwoods, mounds, fences, hedges, ditches, ways, waters, water-courses, lights, liberties, privileges, easements, profits, commodities, emoluments, hereditaments and appurtenances whatsoever, to the lands therein comprised, belonging or in any wise appertaining, or with the same demised, held, used, occupied and enjoyed, or taken or known as part or parcel thereof; and also the reversion or reversions, remainder and remainders, yearly and other rents, issues and profits of the same lands, and of every part and parcel thereof, and all the estate, right, title, interest, inheritance, use, trust, property, profit. possession, claim and demand whatsoever, both at law and in equity, of the grantor, in, to, out of, or upon the same lands, and every part and parcel thereof, with their and every of their appurtenances.

Remuneration for deeds under the Act, it shall be lawful for the taxing officer, and he is hereby required, in estimating the proper sum to be charged for such transaction, to consider not the length of such deed, but the skill and labour employed and responsibility incurred in the preparation thereof.

Deeds failing to take effect under this Act to be as valid asif Act not made.

IV. And be it enacted, That any deed or part of a deed, which shall fail to take effect by virtue of this Act, shall, nevertheless, be as valid and effectual, and shall bind the parties thereto, so far as the rules of law and equity will permit, as if this Act had not been made.

Construction of Act.

V. And be it enacted, That in the construction, and for the purposes of this Act, and the Schedules hereto annexed, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, the word "lands" shall extend to all freehold tenements and hereditaments, whether corporeal or incorporeal, or any undivided part or share therein, respectively; and every word importing the singular number only shall extend and be applied to several persons or things as well as to one person or thing, and the converse; and every word importing the masculine gender only shall extend and be applied to a female as well as a male; and the word "party" shall mean and include any body politic or corporate or collegiate as well as an individual.

Schedules, &c., to form part of Act.

VI. And be it enacted, That the Schedules, and the directions and forms therein contained, shall be deemed and taken to be parts of this Act.

Commencement of Act.

VII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall only apply to deeds executed upon or after the First next.

To extend only to lands in Canada WIII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall only extend to lands in that part of the Province of Canada formerly Upper Canada.

III. And be it enacted, That whenever the plaintiff shall be entitled to a judgment under this shall be executed Act, by the Circuit Court or by a single Judge in vacation, it shall be lawful for the Circuit Court, Circuit Judge in vacation, or Judge of the Superior Court in vacation, as the case may be, to render judgment, and order the same to be entered of record by the Clerk of the Circuit Court at the place where the Writ of Summons in such cause issued, and by such judgment to declare the plaintiff the lawful proprietor of the real property in contestation, or any portion thereof, and to order and adjudge the defendant to abandon and deliver up the same to the plaintiff within twenty days after a copy of such judgment shall have been served upon him; and in default of the defendant's abandoning and delivering up the same within the said twenty days after such service upon him, a Writ of Possession may issue from the Circuit Court at the place where the record in such suit is, directed to the Sheriff of the District within which the real property adjudged is situated, to cause the plaintiff to have the possession thereof.

IV. And be it enacted, That whenever a judgment shall have been rendered under this Act, by the Circuit Court, a Circuit Judge in vacation, or a Judge of the Superior Court in vacation, an appeal shall lie to the Superior Court sitting within the District where such suit shall have been originally instituted, which said Superior Court shall proceed to hear and adjudge on such appeal as to law may appertain, and in the manner hereinafter provided.

V. And be it enacted, That the party appealing from any judgment rendered as aforesaid by the Delay allowed for appealing: Security to be given. Circuit Court, or by a Circuit Judge in vacation, or by a Judge of the Superior Court in vacation, shall, within fifteen days after the rendering of the judgment to be appealed from (but without being bound to give notice thereof to the adverse party) give good and sufficient security by sureties who shall justify their sufficiency to the satisfaction of the person before whom it shall be given as hereinaster provided, that he will effectually prosecute the appeal, and (if the plaintiff be the party appealing) that he will pay the costs as well in the Court below as in the Superior Court if the judgment appealed from be affirmed; and (if the defendant be the party appealing) that he will pay the costs as well in the Court below as in the Superior

VII. And be it enacted, That the Circuit Court, Circuit Judge in vacation and Judge of the Superior Court in vacation, shall have jurisdiction in the manner hereinbefore stated and to the extent hereinbefore given, in all suits provided for by this Act, as well where the value of the real property claimed is above as when it is under Fifty Pounds current money of this Province.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the security for costs required to be given by the first section of this Act, previously to inscribing a suit for the How security under Section 1 Superior Court as therein provided in certain cases, may be given by the party inscribing (without giving notice to the opposite party) within three days after the enquête is closed by the contesting parties, by good and sufficient sureties, who shall justify their sufficiency either before the Clerk of the Circuit Court where the suit is of record, or before the Judge before whom the enquête in such suit is had, and the Bond shall be deposited and remain of record in the office of the Clerk of the said Circuit Court; and any two sureties, each of Qualification of whom shall be a proprietor of real property of the surcties. value of Fifty Pounds current money of this Province above all ineumbrances payable out of or affecting the same, shall suffice to render such security valid: and the said Judge or Clerk is hereby authorized to administer all oaths required by law in such cases from the persons so becoming sureties, and to put to them all necessary inquiries and questions.

IX. And be it enacted, That an appeal shall lie Right of Appeal. from all judgments rendered in the Superior Court in cases instituted under this Act to the Court of Queen's Bench in the same manner, and subject to the same rules and restrictions as other appeals from the said Superior Court.

X. And be it enacted, That the costs in any suit under this Act before the Circuit Court, Circuit be allowed. Judge in vacation, or a Judge of the Superior Court in vacation, shall be the same as are now allowed in actions in the Circuit Court, when the sum of money or the value of the thing demanded exceeds the sum of Twenty-five Pounds currency: Provided, nevertheless, that if such suit be removed by appeal or otherwise to the Superior Court, the costs shall be the same as in other petitory actions before the said Court; and provided further, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to deprive any proprietor or proprietors of the right they now possess of instituting any petitory action before the Superior Court, but that it shall be at their option to proceed under this Act, or to institute a petitory action in the Superior Court in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed.

Act not to affect claim for improvements.

Contained shall have the effect of depriving any person or persons of any claim they would by law have previous to this Act coming into effect, for betterments or improvements made by them upon any real property of which they may be in occupation, nor have the effect of interfering in any way with any suit or action pending or being prosecuted in any Court in Lower Canada, for the possession of any such lands and tenements, which suit or action shall be continued as if this Act had not been passed.

Extent of Act. XII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall apply to lands held in free and common soceage, in the Town ships situated in Lower Canada only, and shall continue in force for two years, and from thence, until the end of the then next Session of the Parliament of this Province, and no longer.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE ACT TO REGULATE THE EXERCISE OF CERTAIN RIGHTS OF LESSORS AND LESSEES IN CANADA EAST.

[Assented to, 14th June, 1853.]

HEREAS the Act of the Legislature of Lower Canada, passed in the third year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled, An Act to regulate the exercise of certain O. E. 3 W. 4 c 1. rights of Lessors and Lessees, has been found to work badly, and it is necessary to amend it: Be it therefore enacted, &c., That in all the cases mentioned in the Act first above cited, whether the lease or agreement of lease be verbal, written or authentic, the cause and all proceedings therein, and matters relative thereto, whatever be the amount of the claim, or of the lease, or agreement of lease, or of the value of the thing in contestation, shall be heard, tried and determined before any Judge of the Superior Court or Circuit Judge, and in any case in term or in vacation: Provided always, that in all cases in which an action shall be brought for use and occupation, a lease shall be considered as existing between the proprietor and the occupant, but it shall not be necessary to produce or prove the same, and such lease shall be considered as expiring on the first day of May following, unless it be proved that an agreement to the contrary has been made between the parties.

II. And be it enacted, That the proceedings in all such cases shall be commenced by Summons with declaration annexed, in the usual form, and according to the practice of the Court, which shall be directed to a Bailiff of such Court for service thereof; and the service shall in all cases be one clear day before the return where the defendant shall reside within five leagues from the place of return, with an additional day for each additional five leagues of distance from the said place of return.

III. And be it enacted, That the said proceedings shall be summary, and no exception, whether formal or otherwise, shall be allowed to prevail against any such proceedings, if the same be amended forthwith by the Plaintiff, but any defect, error or omission therein may be amended at any stage thereof, according to the facts of the case, with costs or without costs, at the discretion of the Judge.

When proceedings may be commenced.

IV. And be it enacted, That the proprietor or lessor may proceed under the said Act and this Act, at any time after the end of three days from the expiration of the lease, or agreement of lease, to recover possession refused.

If possession refused.

IV. And be it enacted, That the proprietor or lessor may proceed under the said Act and this Act, at any time after the end of three days from immoveable leased and detained after that time, and in the event of the lessee refusing to give up the leased premises at the expiration of the said three days, the proprietor or lessor may commence proceedings on the next day after the expiration of the said three days.

Delay between service and appear and plead on the day following the return, before noon, on which day, or the next day following, the plaintiff shall answer such plea, and the enquéte shall thereupon be ordered ipso facto without delay; and if the defendant fail to appear and plead within the time aforesaid, default shall be recorded against him, and thereupon judgment shall be immediately entered against him if the service has been personal, and after proof if the service has not been personal.

VI. And be it enacted, That the Plaintiff may, in and by the same proceedings, and at the same time, sue for and recover possession of the immoveable leased, and of any arrears of rent due, and may seize the goods of the lessee by saisie-gagerie, saisie-arrêt simple before judgment, or saisie entiercement, according to law, without in either case being deprived of his privilege as such proprietor or lessor, and on due proof thereof, the judgment shall be entered for the possession of such arrears.

Bffects selzed not to be left in charge of defending twithout security.

VII. And be it enacted, That whenever a Writ of sasie-gagerie shall issue to seize the effects of a tenant, the same shall not be left in his guardianship without the consent of the plaintiff, or unless hall be liable to the same penalties and obligations therefor, as guardians now are under ordinary Writs of Execution.

Plaintiff may demand the recision of the lease, &c.

Execution shall be made on the day next after the sale, if the place of sale be not more than five leagues from the place where the judgment shall be rendered, and one additional day shall be allowed for every additional five leagues.

IX. And be it enacted, That the droit de suite shall and may be exercised by Writ of saisie-arrêt simple or saisie-arrêt en mains tierces before judgment according to law, against the effects of any tenant for the entire amount due and to become due in virtue of any lease in writing or verbal agreement for lease, which said amount shall on due proof be adjudged to the proprietor or lessor, and together with the costs of judgment and execution aforesaid, shall be levied by Writ of Execution, upon and from the sale of the said effects, if the same shall suffice therefor.

X. And be it enacted, That the Sheriff or Bailiff executing any Writ of Possession, under the said Act and this Act, shall have full power to use force, if necessary, to execute the same.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in any case where the proprietor or lessor shall have obtained a judgment of possession for any unexpired portion of any lease in writing or verbal agreement, or shall have proceeded by droit de suite as aforesaid, the Writ of Execution shall direct the said unexpired portion of the said lease to be first realized and sold before the sale of the said effects shall be made, and the said effects shall in that case be sold only to the extent of and for an amount sufficient to cover the entire amount of the judgment with costs as aforesaid, and in all cases the amount levied under Writ of any Court shall be returned into and deposited in the office of the Prothonotary of such Court, as the case may be, for distribution thereof according to law and the practice of such Court, but such distribution shall not be ordered except as the terms mentioned in the lease shall expire and as rent shall become due.

XII. And be it enacted, That an appeal shall lie Appeal given: in what cases and on from any judgment rendered as aforesaid, when what conditions. the amount thereof shall be sufficient, or the object in contestation shall give a right of appeal according to law, in the same manner and on the same conditions as in other cases, but in addition to the usual security, the appeal bond shall be conditioned for the payment of all damages arising from the nonexecution of the judgment, in consequence of such appeal; and no sureties shall be received unless they shall give Whatsccuritythe appellant must in writing, signed by them, a description of real property to them belonging, the value whereof shall be equal to the amount for which security is to be given, over and above all hypothecs, charges or incumbrances, payable out of or affecting the same, nor unless they shall (if required by the opposite party), justify their sufficiency on oath, and produce the titles to such real property as aforesaid.

Proceedings upon oppositions to executions under this Act. which an opposition shall be filed to the execution of any judgment rendered under this Act, and the Act amended thereby, the trial, hearing and determining of the said opposition shall be proceeded with as in original actions, adopting, as respects the proceedings but not as respects the delay, the ordinary mode of procedure on similar oppositions.

Saisies-Arrêts may issue on the hands of third parties may be issued under the said judgments rendered or to be rendered, in the same manner as in ordinary causes, and the same proceedings shall be had on such saisies-arrêts as in ordinary cases.

CAP. XCIII.

AN ACT TO EXPLAIN AND AMEND THE LAWS RELATING TO THE REGISTRATION OF DEEDS IN CANADA EAST.

[Assented to, 30th August, 1851.]

THEREAS in and by an Ordinance of the Legislature of the Province of Lower Canada, passed in the fourth year of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, An Ordinance to prescribe and regulate the Registering of Titles to lands, tenements and hereditaments, real or immoveable estates, and of charges and incumbrances on the same, and for the alteration and improvement of the Law in certain paticulars in relation to the alienation and hypothecation of real estates, and the rights and interests acquired therein, it was amongst other things in effect ordained and enacted, that the Registrars of Deeds for the several Deeds in the Ordinance mentioned, should severally and respectively, before taking upon themselves the duties of their offices, enter into Recognizances in the several and respective penal sums therein mentioned, conditioned for the due and faithful performance of the said duties: And whereas, in and by an Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the seventh year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to amend the Ordinance providing for the Registration of Titles to Real Property, or incumbrances thereon in Lower Canada, and further to extend the time allowed by the said Ordinance for the Registration of certain claims, so much of the said Ordinance

Ordinance as provided for the establishment of a Registry Office and the appointment of a Registrar in and for each of the Districts therein mentioned, was repealed, and it was amongst other things in effect enacted, that a Registry Office should be establisted and a Registrar should be appointed in and of each and every County in Lower Canada; And whereas by various subsequent Acts, several of the said Counties have been divided into Districts or Divisions for the purposes of the said Ordinance and Act, and of other Acts relating to the Registration of Deeds and other documents affecting real property in Lower Canada; And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether the Registrars of and for Counties or portions of Counties as aforesaid are bound to enter into such recognizances as aforesaid: And whereas, also, the several penal sums in the said Ordinance mentioned are disproportioned to the extent and population of the Counties severally and respectively substituted to the Districts in the said Ordinance mentioned, and still more so to the extent and population of the Registration Districts and Registration Divisions into which some of the said Counties have been divided as aforesaid; And whereas it is expedient to explain and amend the said Ordinance and Acts in this and other respects: Be it therefore declared and

CREDITORS TO ATTACH THE EFFECTS OF DEBTORS, (C. E.)

CAP. XVIII.

AN ACT TO ENABLE CREDITORS TO ATTACH THE EFFECTS OF DEBTORS ABOUT TO LEAVE THE PROVINCE IN CASES UNDER TEN POUNDS.

[Assented to, 2nd August, 1851.]

Preamble. WHEREAS persons often evade the payment of their just debts, in cases where they are indebted to individual creditors to an amount less than Ten Pounds, by secreting or making away with their estate, debts and effects, or by leaving the Province before judgment can be obtained against them: For the prevention thereof, Be it

Attachment before judgment may issue in cases between £1 5s. and £10, on affidavit to a certain effect. enacted, &c., That Process of Attachment, as well in the hands of the debtor as in the hands of a third person or of third persons, (arrêt simple, or saisie arrêt or entiercement) prior to trial and judgment, may issue from the Circuit Court in Lower Canada, in all cases where the sum demanded is under Ten Pounds and exceeds One Pound and Five Shillings, current money of this Province, upon the affidavit of the plaintiff or his agent to the effect that the defendant or proprietor of such estate, debts, or effects, is indebted to the plaintiff in a sum exceeding One Pound and Five Shillings, current money of this Province, and that he is about to secrete, or make away with the same, or doth abscond, or is about to leave the Province to defraud his creditors; Provided always, that the Commissioners' Courts shall have the like power to issue such Process of Attachment in cases within their jurisdiction, and above the sum of One Pound Five Shillings.

Clerks of Circuit Courts may issue such attachment, &c. II. And be it enacted, That any Clerk of the Circuit Court or Commissioners' Court is hereby authorized to receive the necessary affidavit and issue such Writs of Attachment as aforesaid, in the same manner as he is now permitted and authorized to do in cases above Ten Pounds: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein enacted shall prevent any Judge of the Superior Court or Circuit Court from receiving such affidavit, and from granting a Fiat upon which to issue such Writs of Attachment as aforesaid; and the said Judges are

In actions for damages for in-fringement of rights granted by Patent, the Court may grant treble costs.

II. And be it enacted, That in any action for damages for making, using or selling the thing whereof the exclusive right is secured by any Patent heretofore granted or to be hereafter granted, the issue shall be tried by a jury, and if a verdict shall be rendered for the Plaintiff in such action, it shall be in the power of the Court to render judgment on such verdict, to the amount found by such verdict, as the actual damages sustained by the Plaintiff, with treble costs, and such judgment shall be enforced and recovered in the same manner and by the same proceedings at law, as are used and in practice in that part of this Province in which the action shall be brought, as to any other judgment for damages; Provided always, ter of defence. that nothing herein contained shall have the effect or be construed to have the effect of depriving a Defendant in any such action from specially pleading the matter of defence to the said action, specified and detailed in the said Acts; And further provided, that whenever it shall satisfac-

PATENTS FOR INVENTIONS, EXTENDED TO BOTH SECTIONS OF THE PROVINCE, &C.

CAP. LXXIX.

AN ACT TO ENABLE PARTIES HOLDING PATENTS FOR INVENTIONS CONFINED TO ONE SECTION OF THIS PROVINCE, TO OBTAIN THE EXTENSION OF THE SAME TO THE OTHER SECTION THEREOF, AND FOR OTHER PUR POSES THEREIN MENTIONED.

[Assented to, 30th August, 1851.]

THEREAS it is expedient that parties holding Patents for the invention of any new and useful art, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement on the same, issued under the Acts of Parliament of the respective Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada previous to the Union of the same, should be enabled to obtain the extension of the exclusive privileges granted by such Patents, to that section of the United Province not embraced within such Patents; and whereas by the eighteenth section of the Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the twelfth year of Her Majesty's Reign, chaptered twenty-four, and intituled, An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws of Patents for Inventions in this Province, it is provided that all Patents thereafter to be granted under the provisions of the said Acts or of that Act, should extend and be privileged throughout the said Province of Canada, but no effectual provision is made for the extension of privileges theretofore granted in either section of the Province to the other section thereof, as aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted, &c., That whenever any party holding a Patent for any such invention, issued under the au-How a party holding a Patent for an invention tority of either of the Acts above mentioned, shall for an invention extending only to one section of the Province, may obtain the extension thereof to the other section. be desiorus of obtaining the extension of the privileges thereby granted to the other section of this Province, it shall be lawful for the Governor of this Province. upon application made to him to that effect, and on the due proceedings being had, as directed by this Act, (except that no declaration of invention or discovery shall be required, but it shall be sufficient to allege that the applicant holds a patent for the other section of the Province,) to issue Letters Patent to such grantee, which shall be available in that section of the Province not embraced by the Patent already issued as aforesaid, which said Letters Patent so to be issued as aforesaid, shall be subject to all the provisos, conditions, reservations and restrictions mentioned and contained in the said Act of this Province, and shall, as regards such section of the Proivnce, convey to the grantee all the privileges conferred by the said last mentioned Act, for and during the period of fourteen years, and shall for such section of the Province as aforesaid be renewable for the period and under the conditions prescribed in the eleventh section of the said last mentioned Act: Provided Proviso. always, that nothing hercin contained shall be construed to extend the period limited by Patents heretofore issued under either of the said Acts of the late Province of Unper or Lower Canada, within the sections to which the said

Proviso as to persons using the invention before such extension.

Patents are thereby confined: Provided also, that every person or corporation in that section of the Province to which such Letters Patent shall extend solely by virtue of this Act, who has or shall have purchased, constructed or used, within such section of the Province as last aforesaid, any machine, manufacture or composition of matter, included in such Letters Patent, prior to the application therefor by the party entitled thereto, under this Act. shall be held to possess the right to use and vend to others to be used, the specific machine, manufacture or composition of matter, so actually purchased, constructed or used by him, before such application as aforesaid, without liability to the Patentee or other person interested in the invention for which Letters Patent shall have been obtained as aforcsaid, for such section of the Province.

Act of C. E. 6 Wil. 4, c, 34, and of C. W., 7 Geo. 4, cap. 5, repealed.

II. And whereas it is expedient to repeal the several Acts of Upper and Lower Canada respectively, relating to Letters Patent for Inventions, and to consolidate and re-enact as applicable to the whole Province, such of the provisions thercof as have been found useful, and as are not inconsistent with the Act cited in the preamble to this Act: Be it therefore enacted, That the Act of the Parliament of Lower Canada, passed in the sixth year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, and intituled, An Act to repeal certain Acts therein mentioned, and to consolidate the provisions therein made for the encouragement of useful arts in this Province, and the Act of the Parliament of Upper Canada, passed in the seventh year of the Reign of King George the Third, and entituled, An Act to encourage the progress of useful arts in this Province, shall be, and the said Acts arc hereby repealed; but all Letters Patent lawfully issued under Proviso. either of them, shall remain in force and be of the same effect, as if the Act under which it was issued had not been repealed, but subject to the provisions of this Act and to those of the Act cited in the preamble of this Act. IIL

V. And he it enacted, That every inventor, before he ean receive a Patent, shall make a solemn declaration that he does verily believe that he is the true inventor or discoverer of the Art, Machine, or Improvement for which he soileits a Pa-

Inventor to make a solemn declara-tion that he believes himself to be the inventor, and to file a spe-cification, draw-tent (which declaration may be made before any Justice of the Peace,) and shall deliver a written description or specification in duplicate of his Invention or Improvement, and of the manner or process of compounding the same, in such full, clear, and exact terms as to distinguish the same from all other things before known, and to enable any person skilled in the art or science of which it is a branch, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make, compound and use the same; and in the case of any 439 machine, he shall fully explain the principle and the several modes in which he has contemplated the application of that principle or character, by which it may be distinguished from other inventions; and he shall accompany the whole with drawings and written references made in duplicate, where the nature of the case admits of drawings, or with specimens of the ingredients, or of the composition of matter, sufficient in quantity for the purpose of experiment: which description or specification. signed by himself, and attested by two witnesses, shall be filed in the Office of the Secretary of the Province, and certified copies thereof shall be competent evidence in all Courts where any matter or thing touching Patent Right shall come in question; and such inventor shall moreover deliver a model of the machine by him invented, provided the Provincial Secretary shall deem such model to be necessary.

VI. And be it declared and enacted, That every Patents to be assignable at law. Patent, whether issued before or after the passing of this Act, is and shall be assignable at law, and that the fifth section of the Act cited in the preamble to this Act does and shall apply, as well to Patents issued before, as after the passing of this Act.

XI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any executor or administrator to sue and be sued in any Division Courts in Upper Canada, in like manner as if he were a party in his own right, and the judgment and execution shall be such as in the like eases would be given or issued in any Superior Court.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Clerks of the several Division Courts in Upper Canada, to make out a copy of the summons for each defendant in every suit, together with a copy of the particulars of the plaintiff's demand therein, for service, for which such Clerks shall be entitled to receive six pence for each defendant, to be allowed in the costs of the cause; and such Clerks shall and may issue alias and pluries Summonses in actions within the said Courts, for which the same costs shall be allowed as for original Summonses.

XIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Courts respectively, upon proof of personal service of a copy of Summons, and of the particulars of the plaintiff's demand, in undefended cases, to give judgment in their discretion for any such demand.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the Judges of the said Courte upon proof of and being satisfied with the general correctness of the plaintiff's books, may receive the same in evidence and give judgment to the amount of two pounds in any case within the said Courts; and that it shall be lawful for the Judge in any Division Court, in his discretion, to grant a new trial, upon application of either party, within fourteen days after the trial of any cause therein.

XV. And whereas it is desirable that judgments in the said Division Courts should be revived by and against the personal representatives of the parties thereto: Be it therefore enacted, That in the event of the death of either or both of the parties to any such judgment, it shall and

and may be lawful for the party in whose favor such judgment may have been entered, or his personal representatives in case of his death, to revive such judgment against the other party, or his personal representatives in case of his death, and to issue execution thereupon, according to such practice and after such notice therein, as may be provided and established by the Judges of the said Courts respectively.

Judges may make rules of practice and forms.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the Judges of the County Courts respectively shall have power, from time to time to make general rules regulating the the practice and proceeding of the said Division Courts, and also to frame forms for any proceeding in the said Courts, for which they shall think it necessary that a form be provided, and from time to time to alter any such form.

XVII. And whereas the amount of business in Recital. certain Divisons is not so great as to require the holding of Courts therein once in every two months, while from the remoteness and inaccessibility of the same, the holding of the said Courts therein is, especially at certain seasons of the Governor in Council may in certain cases diminish tho year, attended with great difficulty: Be it therefore enacted, That if it shall be certified to His Excellency the Governor General in Council, by frequency of sit-tings of any Division Court. the Magistrates of any County in Quarter Ses. sions assembled, that in any Division of such County, it is expedient for the above causes that such Courts should be held there less frequently than once in every two months, it shall and may be lafwul for his Excellency in Council to order such Courts to be held therein, at such periods as to 14 & 1t Vict.c. 10. years of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, An Act to provide a Remedy against Absent Defendants, is such as to have caused doubts to arise as to the meaning of the said Act, and it is expedient to declare and explain the meaning of the same: Be it therefore declared and enacted, &c., That the said Section of the said Act was intended to Sec. 1 of the said Act explained. refer and does refer to cases of persons having real or personal property in Upper Canada, although such persons may not have resided in Upper Canada.

APPRENTICES AND MINORS ACT, (C. W.)

CAP. XI.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO APPRENTICES AND MINORS. [Assented to, 2d August, 1851.]

HEREAS there is no Statute in force in Preamble. that part of this Province called Upper Canada, to provide for binding Apprentices for a less term than seven years; and whereas it would promote the general interest of society if shorter terms of Apprenticeship were made legal, and the law relating to Apprentices more clearly defined: Be it therefore enacted, &c., That from and after the Power of Parents, passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for &c., to bind min-ors as apprenany parent, guardian, or other person having the care or charge of any Minor, not under the age of fourteen years, with the consent of such Minor, to put and bind the same as an Apprentice by written Indenture, to any Master Mechanic, Farmer, or other person carrying on any trade or calling for any term not to extend beyond the minority of such Apprentice.

II. And be it enacted, That in any City or In-Power of the Mayor or Chief Magistrate to corporated Town, it shall and may be lawful for the Mayor, Recorder, or Police Magistrate, and in bind orphans,&c., any County or Union of Counties, it shall and may as apprentices. be lawful for the Chairman of and at any Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to put and bind as aforesaid, to any Master Mechanic, Farmer, or other person as aforesaid, with the consent of such person, and with the consent of the Minor, any Minor who may be an orphan, or who may be deserted by his or her parents or guardian, or whose parents or guardian may for the time be committed to any common gaol or house of correction, or any Minor who may be dependant upon any public charity for support; and such Apprentice and the Master of such Apprentice shall severally be held in the same manner as if such Apprentice had been bound by his or her parent. 5. On the day and at the hour and place (or Proceedings at such meeting. places) appointed by such notice as aforesaid, the qualified Municipal Electors, or such of them as choose to attend the Meeting, shall take the said By-law into consideration, and shall approve or disapprove the same; and at such Meeting the Mayor or Reeve of the Municipality in which it is held shall preside, or in his absence some other Member of the Council of such Municipality to be chosen by the Meeting, and the Clerk of such Municipality shall act as Secretary; and it shall be the duty of the said Clerk to have with him the Assessment Rolls of the Municipality then in force, or certified copies thereof: The only question to be determined at such Meeting. shall be whether the majority of the Municipal Electors present thereat, do or do not approve of the said By-law; and when the question has been put, the person presiding shall declare whether in his opinion the majority is for the approval or disapproval of the By-law, and his decision if not forthwith appealed from, shall be final, and it shall forthwith be communicated to the Council of the Municipality which originated the By-law, by a certificate under the hand of the Secretary of the Meeting.

A poll may be demanded.

6. Any six duly qualified Municipal Electors present at any such Meeting may appeal from the decision of the person presiding, and demand a Poll, and such Poll shall be granted by the person presiding at the Meeting, and shall be immediately taken by him, the Clerk of the Municipality acting as Poll Clerk: each Elector shall then present himself in turn to the person presiding, and shall give his vote "yea" or "nay," the word "yea" meaning that he approves the proposed By-law, and the word "nay" that he disapproves the same:—but no person's vote shall be received unless he appears by the Assessment Rolls to be a duly qualified Municipal Elector.

Adjournment of Poll.

7. The person presiding may, if necessary, adjourn the Poll at sunset on the day of meeting, until ten o'clock in the forenoon of the following day, not being a Sunday or statutory holiday, when the Poll shall be continued as on the first day, but shall be closed at sunset of such second day:—it shall be closed at any time on the first or second day if one half hour shall elapse without a vote being offered.

8. At the close of the Poll the person presiding shall count the "yeas" and the "nays," and ascertain and certify for the information of the Council which originated the By-Law, whether the majority is for the approval or disapproval of the said By-Law; and such certificare shall be countersigned by the Clerk of the Municipality acting as Secretary of the Meeting and kept by him, with the Poll List, among the records of his office, and a duplicate thereof transmitted to the

9. If the By-Law to be considered be a By-Law By-law of a County Council. of a County Council, the meeting to consider the same, or the poll of the electors, shall not be held for the whole County at one place, but such meeting or poll shall be held in each of the several Municipalities of such County respectively; and the question whether the By-Law shall be approved or disapproved, either by the majority of the total number of electors voting "yea" or "nay," in the whole County, or by the majority of votes of Municipalities approving or disapproving of the same, giving to each Municipality one or two votes, according as it is by Law authorized to return a Reeve or a Reeve and Deputy Reeve to the County Council of such County, in which case each Municipality shall be held to have voted for the approval of the By-Law, if the majority of Electors voting at the Meeting held therein shall have voted "yea," and to have voted for the disapproval thereof if the majority of such Electors shall have voted "nay;" and each such County Council shall make a By-Law to provide which of the two modes of decision shall be adopted, and shall also thereby declare the manner in which the decision of each Municipality, or of the electors thereof, shall be made known to the County Clerk.

10. If such By-Law be disapproved by the majority of the Electors (or of the Municipalities) as aforesaid, the Council shall not proceed to pass the same, but if it be approved by such majority, and afterwards passed by the Council, then such By-Law, and all the provisions thereof shall be subject to the approval of the Covernor in Council, and shall have no force until such approval shall have been given; but shall not be subject to the special provisions made by the Upper Canada Municipal Corporations Act of one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, or by any Act amending the same, concerning By-Laws creating debts, or to any provisions or formalities, except those prescribed by the said Acts with regard to By-Laws generally, and those proscribed by this Act; and every such By-Law, when submitted to the Governor in Council for his approval, shall contain a recital that it has been approved by a majority of the duly qualified Municipal Electors (or of the Municipalities) of (or in) the Municipality, at a meeting (or meetings) called and held in conformity to the requirements of this Act, and such recital shall for all the purposes of this Act be conclusive proof of the facts therein stated, nor shall any such By-Law, or anything done under it, be invalidated by any error of fact or incorrectness in such recital; but this provision shall not affect the responsibility of 583

CONSOLIPATED MUNICIPAL LOAN FUND AMENDMENT, (C. W.)

CAP. CXXIII.

AN ACT TO EXPLAIN AND AMEND THE ACT INTITULED, AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A CONSOLIDATED MUNICIPAL LOAN FUND IN CANADA WEST.

[Assented to, 23rd May, 1853.]

HEREAS it was intended that the ninth Section of the Consolidated Municipal Loan 16 V. c. 22. Fund Act should apply to By-laws passed or in course of being passed before said Act came into force for the purpose of aiding in the construction of any Rail-way, or for the improvement of any navigable river or other such work as provided for by the said Act: Be it therefore enacted, &c., That the ninth

Section of the Act aforesaid shall be held to include any By-law for any of the purposes mentioned in the preamble to this Act which was passed before the said Act came into force, or which has been passed since the said Act came in force, but at the date of such Act was in the course of being passed.

purposes, by reason of the difficulty for parties doing business with such Partnerships, Companies or Societies, to ascertain the names, surnames, residence and addition of all the persons so associated as aforesaid, and great expense and inconvenience are thereby incurred: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all persons associated in Partnership for trading purposes in Lower Canada, shall cause to be delivered to the Prothonotary of the Court of Civil Jurisdiction, in each District, and to the Registrar of each County, in which they shall carry on business, a declaration in writing, signed by the several members of the said Copartnership, when all such members shall, at the time of making the same, be in the said Province; and if any of the said members be absent at the time, then by the members present, in their own names and for their absent co-members, under their special authority to that effect, and containing the names, surnames, addition and residence of each and every Partner as aforesaid, and the name, style or firm under which they carry on or intend to carry on such business, and stating also the time during which the Partnership has existed, and declaring that the persons therein named are the only members of such Partnership; and such declaration shall be filed within Sixty days after the passing of this Act, if such Partnership shall have been or shall be formed before the time when this Act shall come into force and effect, and within Sixty days after the formation thereof if it shall be formed after the said Act shall come into force and effect; and a like declaration shall be filed in like manner when and so often as any change or alteration shall take place in the members of such Partnership, or in the name, style or firm under which they intend to carry on their business-under a penalty of Fifty pounds against each and every member of any Partnership with regard to which the requirements of this section shall not have been complied with, to be recovered before any Court having jurisdiction in civil cases to the amount of such penalty, by any person suing as well in his own behalf as on behalf of Her Majesty; and one moiety of such penalty shall belong to the Crown for the uses of the Province, and the other moiety to the party suing for the same, unless the suit be brought (as it may be) on behalf of the Crown only, in which case the whole of the penalty shall belong to her Majesty for the uses aforesaid. 595 II.

II. And be it enacted, That the said Prothonotary and Registrar shall enter each such declaration as aforesaid, in a book to be by them kept for that purpose, which shall be at all times, during office hours, open to the inspection of the public, gratuitously; and for registering each such declaration the Prothonotary and Registrar shall each be entitled to demand from the person delivering it to him the sum of Two Shillings and Six pence if it shall not contain more than two hundred words, and at the rate of Six pence per hundred words, for all above the number of two hundred: and such declaration shall be in the form or to the effect of the Schedule to this Act annexed.

III. And be it enacted, That the allegations made in the declaration aforesaid, shall not be controvertible as against any party, by any person who shall have signed the same, nor as against any party not being a member of the Partnership, by any person who shall have signed the same, or who was really a member of the Partnership, therein mentioned at the time such declaration was made; nor shall any such Signer or Partner be deemed to have ceased to be a Partner until a new declaration shall have been made and filed by him or his Copartners, or any of them, as aforesaid, stating such alteration in the Partnership; but nothing herein contained shall exempt from liability any person who, being a Partner, shall not have mentioned in the declaration, and such person may, notwihstanding such onission, be sued jointly with the Partners mentioned in the declaration, or they may be sued alone, and if judgment be recovered against them, any other Partner or Partners may be sued jointly or severally, in an action on the original cause of action, upon which such judgment was rendered-nor shall any thing in this Act be construed to affect the rights of any Partners with regard to each other, except that no such declaration as aforesaid shall be controverted by any signer thereof.

IV. And be it enacted, That after the expiration of sixty days from the passing of this Act, if any persons shall be or shall have been associated as Partners for the purposes of trade in Lower Canada, and no declaration shall have been filed under this Act with regard to such Partnership then any action which might be brought against all the members of the Partnership, may also be brought against any one or more of them, as carrying on or as having carried on trade, jointly with others, (without naming such others in the Writ or declaration) under the name and style of their said Copartnership firm; and if judgment be recovered against him or them, any other Partner or Partners may be sued jointly or severally on the original cause of action on which such judgment shall have been rendered: Provided always, that if any such action be founded on any obligation or instrument in writing in which all or any of the Partners bound

LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS IN C.W. CAP. LXXV.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE LMITED PARTNERSHIPS IN CANADA WEST. Assented to, 30th May, 1849.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, &c., That after the passing of this Act, Limited Partnerships for the transaction of any mercantile, mechanical or manufacturing business within Upper-Canada, may be formed by two or more persons, upon the terms, with the rights and powers, and subject to the conditions and liabilities hercinafter mentioned; but the provisions of this Act shall not be construed to authorize any such Partnership for the purpose of Banking or making Insurance.

II. And be it enacted, That such Partnerships may consist of one or more persons, who shall be called General Partners and who shall be jointly and severally responsible as general partners now are by law, and of one or more persons who shall contribute in actual cash payments, a specific sum as capital to the common stock, who shall be called Special Partners, and who shall not be liable for the debts of the partnership beyond the amount or amounts so contributed by him or them to the capital.

III. And be it enacted, That the general partners only shall be authorized to transact business and sign for the partnership, and to bind the same.

IV. And be it enacted, That the persons desirous of forming such partnership shall make and severally sign a Certificate which shall contain-

First. The name or firm under which such partnership is to be conducted.

Secondly. The general nature of the business to be transacted. Thirdly. The names of all the general and special partners interested therein, distinguishing which are general and which are special partners, and their usual places of residence.

Fourthly. The amount of capital stock which each special partner shall have contributed.

Fifthly. The period at which the partnership is to commence, and the period at which it will terminate.

V. And be it cnacted, That the certificate shall be after the form in the Schedule annexed to this Act, and signed by the several persons forming such partnership, before a Notary Public, who shall duly certify the same.

VI. And be it enacted, That the certificate so signed and certified, shall be filed in the Office of the Clerk of the County Court of the County in which the principal place of business of the partnership shall be situate, and shall be recorded by him at large in a book to be kept for that purpose open to public inspection.

VII. And be it enacted, That no such partnership shall be deemed to have been formed until a Certificate shall have been made, certified, filed and recorded as above directed; and if any false statement be made in such certificate, all the persons interested in such partnership shall be liable for all the engagements thereof, as general partners.

VIII. And be it cnacted, That every renewal or continuance of such partnership beyond the time originally fixed for its duration, shall be certified, filed and recorded in the manner herein required for its original formation; and every such partnership which shall be otherwise renewed or continued, shall be deemed a general partnership.

IX. And be it enacted, That every alteration which shall be made in the names of the partners, in the nature of the business, or in the capital or shares thereof, or in any other matter specified in the original certificate, shall be deemed a dissolution of the partnership, and every such partnership which shall in any manner be carried on after any such alteration shall have been made, shall be deemed a general partnership, unless renewed as a special partnership, according to the provisions of the next preceding section.

X. And be it enacted, That the business of the partnership shall be conducted under a name or firm in which the names of the general partners, or some or one of them, shall only be used: and if the name of any special partner shall be used in such firm with his privity, he shall be deemed a general partner.

XI. And be it enacted. That suits in relation to the business of the partnership may be brought and conducted by and against the general partners in the same manner as if there were no special partners.

XII. And be it enacted, That no part of the sum which any special partner shall have contributed to the capital stock shall be withdrawn by him, or paid or transferred to him in the shape of dividends, profits or otherwise, at any time during the continuance of the partnership; but any partner may annually receive lawful interest on the sum so contributed by him, if the payment of such interest shall not reduce the original amount of such capital; and if after the payment of such interest, any profits shall remain to be divided, he may also receive his portion of such profits.

XIII. And be it enacted, That if it shall appear that by the payment of interest or profits to any special partner the original capital has been reduced, the partner receiving the same shall be bound to restore the amount necessary to make good his share of capital, with interest.

XIV. And be it enacted, That a special partner may from time to time examine into the state and progresss of the partnership concerns, and may advise as to their management; but he shall not transact any business on account of the partnership, nor be employed for that purpose as Agent, Attorney or otherwise; and if he shall interfere, contrary to these provisions, he shall be deemed a general partner.

XV. And be it enacted, That the general partners shall be liable to account to each other and to the special partners for their management of the concern, both in law and equity, as other partners now are by law.

XVI. And be it enacted, That in case of the insolvency or bankruptcy of the partnership, no special partner shall under any circumstances be allowed to claim as a creditor until the claims of all the other creditors of the partnership shall be satisfied.

XVII. And be it enacted, That no dissolution of such partnership by the acts of the parties shall take place previous to the time specified in the Certificate of its formation or in the Certificate of its renewal, until a notice of such dissolution shall have been filed in the office in which the original Certificate was recorded, and published onee in each week for three weeks, in a newspaper published in the County where the partnership may have its principal place of business, and for the same time in the Canada Gazette.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the County Court shall be entitled to have and receive for filing any such Certificate or any renewal thereof, and for recording the same, the sum of Two shillings and six pence.
