STEYN COATLESS AND BOOTLESS FLED FROM SURPRISE OF REITZ

Broadwood's Brigade Takes Twenty Prisoners of the First Magnitude, Among Others Piet Steyn—Only Two Escaped, One Thought to Have Been Dewet.

London, July 15.—"General Broadwood," says a despatch to The Daily News from Bloemfontein, "surprised Reitz due east of Lindley at dawn last Thursday, July 11. He took twenty-nine prisoners, including Gen. A. P. Glonwe and Gen. Wessels, Commandant Dwaal, First Cornet Piet Steyn (President Steyn's brother), Thomas Barn, secretary of government, and Roches Devillers, Secretary to the council. Steyn himself fled without coat or boots. Gen. Dewet is believed to have been present."

BRITISH PUBLIC IN ERUPTION OVER CENSORSHIP OF WAR NEWS

Rumor That, Owing to Disagreement With Lord Milner, Lord Kitchener Will be Promoted to the Command of the Forces in India.

London, July 14.—An apparently unimportant incident, the censorship of a newspaper despatch referring to the Vlakfontein affair, has had the effect of crystallizing all the widely differing sorts of public dissatisfaction concerning the conduct of the war in South Africa. This dissatisfaction has long been pent-up, and now finds free vent not, strangely enough, thru the columns of the Opposition newspapers, but in the government journals.

STRIKE DECLARED AGAINST STEEL TRUST SIXTY THOUSAND WORKERS GO OUT TO-DAY

Men Demand That the Union Shall be Positively Recognized by Employers.

Pittsburg, July 14.—After a three days session the conference between representatives of the American Sheet Steel, American Steel Hoop Company and American Tin Plate, subsidiary companies of the United States Steel Corporation, and the general Executive Board of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, adjourned finally at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, without reaching an agreement. In less than an hour after President Shaffer of the Amalgamated Association had telegraphed the following order to all the Amalgamated steel mills in the tin plate, steel hoop and sheet steel of the country: "Notify your men that the mill is on strike and will not work on Monday, July 15."

On its earnest. From present indications it looks probable that President Shaffer's strike order will be obeyed, and the great struggle between the Amalgamated Association, and the steel companies will be on in earnest to-morrow. In the union mills of three companies, against which a strike has been declared, it is predicted that not a wheel will turn to-morrow. An effort will be made also to close down some of the non-union mills of the companies and cripple the rest. The Amalgamated people are very sanguine of success.

Strike Forced on Him. "The strike was not of our own seeking," said President Shaffer to-day. "It was forced upon us. We were not contending for wages, but for principle—self-protection. The tin and sheet people will not be able to turn a single wheel to-morrow. We have our forces thoroughly organized."

BRITISH LIBERAL LEADERS PROCLAIM TEMPORARY TRUCE

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman Has Gained a Point, While Mr. Asquith May Have Lost Succession to Leadership—Sir Edward Grey Makes Complaint.

New York, July 14.—The Herald's London correspondent writes: The Liberal party that "insular organism," as Mr. Chamberlain unkindly calls it—has patched up its differences.

The meeting at the Reform Club last Tuesday was on the surface harmonious enough. Almost every one who was there professed to be pleased at the result.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman received a unanimous vote of confidence. It is probable that if he had resigned he would have been unanimously re-elected.

One might say that Sheridan applied varying the phrase which he had not agreed to "their unanimity is wonderful."

Sometimes the best judge of these things is an intelligent opponent. A few days ago I met an old personal friend of mine with a singularly well expressed opinion.

What a Party Meeting Really is. A party meeting is not the occasion of expounding a policy. That, at least, is the impression that it usually conveys.

It might have been thought that Mr. Asquith had exhausted this delicate and not to be repeated subject. But Sir Edward Grey must needs follow him, to do his "duty" and cross his "t.".

He explained that the best years of his life were spent in the bitter and agonizing struggle with whom—demanded liberty of action, which nobody proposed to restrict.

Sir H. Campbell-Bannerman Scores. Sir H. Campbell-Bannerman, speaking at Forest of Dean, Gloucestershire, yesterday, said:

Personally, I think Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman scored, having shown unflinching strength, promptitude and decision of character.

As for Mr. Asquith, he stood before the immediate line of succession. Now he is in a position to be a leader of the Liberal party.

GLASS BROKE IN CHURCH.

Small scene in St. Thomas—Thrilling musical performance.

As the offertory was being taken at St. Thomas' Church last night a crash of falling glass in the centre aisle, midway from the door to the chancel, caused a momentary sensation. It was a miracle of the centre light and would have been decidedly dangerous had it fallen two minutes later, when the congregation was dispersing.

Rev. Father Osborne of Boston gave a thrilling lecture last night on South Africa. Instead of preaching a sermon, he spent seven years as an Anglican missionary in South Africa his descriptions regarding the prevalent conditions there were of decided interest.

The Church of England in South Africa has now, he stated, 13 bishops, 300 clergy and 70,000 communicants. A very large proportion were native Christians.

The missionary clergy, holding the same views as Father Osborne on the confession and penance, have the native Christians confess regularly, and in cases of serious lapses from consistent conduct the penitents are required to make public confession and are placed on probation before being granted full church privileges. "We need more penance here," he remarked.

The great difficulty among the natives, when first approached by the missionaries, was that they had no clothes, no written language, and no religion, except a species of spiritualism which enables medicine men to prey upon their credulity.

The orator declared, ranging from tyrants in cities who consider the black man as worthy of little regard to others, who are content to live like rabbits in holes in the ground, with a slight wooden roof and low door to creep in at.

The war in South Africa is essentially the part of the British, for the cause of freedom. So utterly devoid of respect are the Boers of the rights of the colored races that when a company of British soldiers was at Johannesburg two of them were refused the privilege of being married. The minister declared that the marriage of colored people was contrary to the Transvaal law. They appealed to the British State, and being American citizens, and he gave them protection, while an English Church minister set the Transvaal authorities at defiance and officiated at the wedding.

Many of the native converts had proved themselves equal in intelligence to those to their Boer oppressors. One of them, who was ordained a priest of the Anglican Church, conducted the church services in English. While the Boer would shoot a colored man without hesitation, Englishmen would not do so.

The minister declared that the children of colored converts, and other denominations are equally savages. The Canadian contingent in fighting for the British flag in the Transvaal, was also clearing the way for the missionary and laying the foundation of freedom for millions who in South Africa are now enshrouded by superstitious customs, of which the Transvaal republic was the strongest bulwark.

BONAR CHURCH REOPENED. Absorbing sermon, but some of the congregation got "stuck."

A goodly number of those who attended the evening service at Bonar Presbyterian Church yesterday, carried away with them a tangible souvenir of the new edifice. The building has been decorated with flags, and the interior furnished with fresh varnished chairs in the interior.

To add importance to the auspicious occasion, Rev. Dr. Warden, moderator of the General Assembly, had been invited to officiate. He took his text from St. Matthew, ch. 21, and exhorted the congregation to the healing of the daughter of the woman Cuman.

When hymn 223 was announced, the organ pealed forth, but a portion of the congregation seemed reluctant to rise. The heat of the evening, combined with the thick coat of fresh varnish on the seats to such an extent that a large number of the congregation sat literally glued to their chairs.

At length, as the affair was raising a titter unshared to the solemnity of the occasion, drastic measures were resorted to, and, amidst a loud noise of ripping and pulling, the unfortunate were themselves from their seats, carrying away a good deal of varnish on their apparel.
