28TH YEAR

CONVENTION THOUSANDS CHEERED FOR ROOSEVELT

Unprecedented Scene at Chicago, When for Nearly an Hour the Chant of "Four Years More" Couldn't Be Stilled.

"MOST ABUSED—BEST LOVED" STIRRED VAST ASSEMBLAGE

CHICAGO, June 17.—The second day of the Republican national convention has brought the long-expected "Roosevelt yell," a whirlwind of enthusiasm, which raged within the vast amphitheatre of the Coliseum for full 45 minutes to-day, and for a time presented to the timid the spectre of a Roosevelt stampede.

This demonstration was decidedly the feature of a day otherwise notable for a stirring speech by the permanent chairman of the convention, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, for much practical procedure in placing the convention on a smooth running basis, and for the final defeat of the plan to reduce the representation of the Southern States at future national conventions.

Probably the most important act of the day, and the one having greatest significance on the final result of the convention, was the adoption of the report of the committee on credentials, seating the "Taft" delegates in the grand hall in toto. If there had been any lingering doubt of the Taft strength it disappeared before this decisive action, which in effect placed upward of 70 delegates in the Taft column.

Equally important and even more remarkable was the final acceptance of this result by the "allies" without the formality of a dissenting minority report. But the "Favorite Sons" still have their bonds of steadfast supporters, who will show their loyalty when the first ballot is taken.

The scene within the coliseum to-day repeated that of yesterday in the magnitude and brilliancy of its spectacular effect. Again every seat was occupied. Delay of committees in reporting gave an hour for diversion before the serious work of the day was begun. This time was given over to the visiting clubs, with bands and vocal choruses, hearing banners and strange devices of G.O.P. elephants. In front of the delegates paraded this motley throng, eliciting laughter and applause. The hit of the parade was a glee club, which halted before the Ohio delegation and varied the enlivening strain of "Billy Taft, Top that's Me" with a melancholy dirge for Bryan.

The presentation of the report on permanent organization, by Senator Burrows to yield his place as temporary chairman and to escort to the platform the permanent chairman of the convention, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts.

Just before the outbreak, Mr. Lodge, trim and business-like, looked as if he had a more than the white-haired retiring chairman. His voice, too, had that resonant New England twang of former ministers, and to the furthest corner of the galleries, carrying metaphors which startled the listeners to attention and applause.

"The fevered fancy of an uneasy dream" was his indictment hurled against the visionary policies of opposition parties.

The applause had hardly died away when Mr. Hodge launched his sentence which electrified the assemblage into its first real demonstration of wild enthusiasm.

"The president," exclaimed Mr. Lodge, "is the most abused and most popular man in the United States to-day."

This was the long awaited signal. Instantly a shout broke from the galleries and was echoed back from the floor, as first only a tempest of detached yells and catcalls and shouts of "Teddy," but gradually gathering force and volume, until it swelled to a whirlwind of sound and motion as delegates and spectators rose en masse, shouting chairs, waving banners, hats, handkerchiefs, flags, newspapers, anything which could be used to add turbulence to the scene. Amid the tumult the band struck up, but the crash of the brasses and drums was completely lost in the babel of sound which welled up from 14,000 throats.

For the first minute Senator Lodge stood waiting to proceed, occasionally raising his hand for silence, only to awaken a defiant yell, twice louder than before.

Continuous Cheering.
Five minutes passed, and instead of abating, the uproar was increasing. The urgent-at-arms moved up a chair for the presiding officer and Senator Lodge sank back to await a lull in the storm.

Five minutes.
Ten minutes.
There was no lull, no abatement. A hoarse roar had taken the place of the detached yells.

From Chicago to Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—With every incident in the great gathering at Chicago flashed to them on direct wires, President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft kept in constant touch to-day with the Republican National Convention, had a brief conference, and each wound up the afternoon by driving into the suburbs while the convention was still in session.

There were direct telegraph circuits from the convention hall into the executive office of the White House and the private office of Secretary Taft and a long distance telephone in Mr. Taft's office as well. These permitted of ready communication with the convention leaders. Confidential telegraph and telephone operators were on duty at the Chicago ends of the wires and not a move was made on the floor of the immense hall that was not almost simultaneously reported to Washington.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt drove from the White House through the great ovation to Mr. Roosevelt had exhausted itself, following 45 minutes of continued cheering.

ROY DESERTED BY ONE-TIME FRIENDS

Ex-President of St. John Bank Can't Even Get $60,000 Bail Bonds—Is Ill in Jail and Without Funds.

MONTREAL, June 17.—(Special.)—Deserted by his friends, Hon. P. H. Roy, ex-president of the St. John's Bank, and ex-speaker of the Quebec Legislature, is now lying ill in bed in St. John's jail. Several days ago he was thought to be a wealthy man, but now he is believed not to own a cent.

He is imprisoned on the double accusation of making false returns to the government and of conspiracy to defraud. Bail has been fixed at $60,000, and all day to-day his attorneys waited for some of his former friends to come forward, but none appeared.

Last January he was running for Mayor of Montreal and only two months ago, in the Quebec session, he was giving one banquet per week to his fellow members of the legislature. Then he apparently had a host of followers in St. John's, Montreal and Quebec.

"But they were all fair-weather ones," declared his attorney, who said the "black list" of the Bank of St. John's, referred to in the proceedings against President Hon. P. H. Roy, had his fellow officials, amounting in all to $549,276.26, which were certified for in the bank's reports to the department at Ottawa as "current loans," but which have since been found to be practically worthless.

City Will Cut Off Magistrate's Salary

Determined Effort to Be Made to Procure Information as to Fees For Bail Bonds.

"I think we should instruct the city treasurer to pay no more money to Magistrate Kingsford until he sends us a statement of how much money he has taken for bail bonds. The money belongs to the city, and we should get it. If we stop his salary he will not be able to give us the information."

Mayor Oliver spoke the foregoing words of advice to the board of control yesterday in warm criticism of the magistrate's continued refusal to give the information desired. The discussion arose out of the city solicitor's report that the fees on his salary he will not be able to give us the information.

COACHMAN WEDS GOVERNOR'S DAUGHTER

Miss Tweedie of St. John, N.B., Runs Off With Scotch Immigrant, Formerly in Her Father's Employ.

ST. JOHN, N.B., June 17.—(Special.)—Miss Tweedie, daughter of Hon. L. J. Tweedie, lieutenant-governor of New Brunswick, eloped to-day with her father's former coachman, David McEwan, a Scotch immigrant.

They were married this afternoon at St. Stephen and left on the evening train for Montreal, en route for the old country.

The governor and Mrs. Tweedie were in St. John attending the wedding of Judge Barker's daughter to-day, and received the news by telephone from their home in Chatham. Both are almost heartbroken.

McEwan came to the province last summer with an importation of cattle from Scotland by the provincial government. He is a young man of fine appearance. Soon after his arrival the governor hired him as his coachman.

His attentions to Miss Tweedie, who is aged 18 years, and her infatuation for him, have been obvious for some time.

A few weeks ago he left the governor's employ and went away to Chatham. Apparently, however, he kept in communication with Miss Tweedie, first by letter, during her parent's absence, she ran away to St. Stephen, where she met her lover and the two were married.

McEwan told some of his friends some time ago that he was going to Scotland, and it is presumed that he is on the clopping couple's destination.

The affair has created a sensation in St. John and has aroused a great sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Tweedie.

RIOTING AT MIDLAND BY STRIKING WORKMEN

Half-a-Dozen Foreigners in Jail, While One Man Has to Go to Hospital.

MIDLAND, June 17.—The foreigners employed by the Metcalf Elevator, contractors for the new G.T.P. company, on strike this morning, demanding a riot by threatening, assaulting and intimidating the other men who remained on the work.

An information for a riot was laid before Police Magistrate Jeffrey and the police, assisted by many citizens, arrested six of the rioters, who are now confined in jail.

The Italians seemed to have lost their heads and charged the police, and were held with a rope and crowbar because he would not stop work. Others used clubs and gas-pipe to try and frighten the workmen who remained.

Many men received a beating, but only one was badly hurt and is in the hospital.

BETTER, CLEANER DOGS THE NEW COY

Signs of Improvement at Ottawa—Public Ownership for Hudson Bay Railway is a Possibility.

OTTAWA, June 17.—(Special.)—The political pot is still boiling and revelations of extravagant expenditures and lax administration in some of the departments continue to be made.

The public mind is determined on an end being put to these abuses and on the Liberal caucus is credited with insisting on the quick retirement of the ministers who have allowed them to exist.

The Civil Service Bill announced to-day is a great concession in the eyes of the government and it is also said that the Liberals are getting ready for applying the principle of public ownership to the proposed Hudson Bay Railway for the Northwest.

It has been given out in papers supposed to be friendly to the Mackenzie-Mann interest that the construction of this line was to be given to the Canadian Northern and that big concessions in the way of a guarantee of the bonds by the line itself and make running rights over it common to all the three big lines now in the west, or any others that may be built in the future.

All events of the day the government on this subject will not likely be made known until next week.

Premier Would Rebuild.
Sir Wilfrid Laurier is credited by one of his friends in the senate with a desire to reconstruct on advanced and progressive lines, and that these are so extensive that he will not, however, be able to complete them until after the strenuous times of this session are ended.

It may result in a new communication with the west, the most progressive platform when the parties line up on the stump in the coming September and thereafter.

There is not much likelihood of another session. Henri Bourassa will make things lively in the Quebec Legislature when he meets, and Laurier chief begins hurling his thunderbolts in Old Quebec. Conservatives also see that there is much for them or more in a campaign on the stump than there is in a political party now saying that we want more men in political life of the political grasp and executive calibre of Sir Thos. Shaughnessy's Speech.

His speech at Toronto is universally praised and has done more than any other in the past to bring about a declaration that the tariff should be taken out of politics and handled by a commission, which would have to be able to recommend a policy of some kind, and when this had to be done it would be a political proposition.

On this point, however, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy declares in no uncertain way that he is for a policy of keeping Canada's trade and markets for Canadian products and having a commission work out its details.

To Be Better.
The people of Ontario are likely to be startled somewhat in the weeks near at hand by the changes, by the progressive announcements that the expenses of a western post office will be sent or no one goes at all. This will be a cheaper and equally efficient means of reaching the citizen who is paying the bill.

Can't Get 'Em to Hurry.
In police court Tuesday afternoon, David McGillivray, a "stool pigeon" used by Police Constables McDermott and Cronin to secure evidence of a violation of the Lord's Day Act by Richard M. Tutbill, who keeps a drug-store at Queen-street and Cowan-avenue, swore that he had not been sent in by the officers.

McDermott, when sworn, reluctantly admitted that he had instructed Tutbill to go into the store and buy a cigar. Cronin confirmed this statement. Magistrate Kingsford rejected McGillivray's evidence and dismissed the case.

Chief Inspector Archibald declared that he would lay the matter before the police court.

INSURANCE AGENTS WANT MANUFACTURERS' POLICIES TO BE MADE IN CANADA

Some Lively Criticism of the Placing of Risks With U.S. Concerns Heard at Agents' Annual Meeting.

The first annual Ontario convention of the Local Fire Insurance Agents' Association was held at the King Edward yesterday.

A good many members pointed at a published black list of big manufacturers who send their insurance premiums abroad and of reprisals against home offices which allow insurance brokers to invade local territory with cut-throat rebates.

One member said: "I think it is extraordinary that companies with such large Dominion Government deposits and under heavy maintenance expenses should be at such a cruel disadvantage as they are thru underground agents, contrary to law and justice, being encouraged by Canadian manufacturers to invade Ontario and other provinces and carry off large lines of business at rates which legitimate licensed companies cannot honestly quote."

Another member said: "It is a startling fact that the Canadian manufacturer who is so ready to seek fire insurance protection from unlicensed concerns is the first man to hold up his hands at the invasion of his territory by any foreign competitor, and he is the first man to protest most violently against the construction of this line was to be given to the Canadian Northern and that big concessions in the way of a guarantee of the bonds by the line itself and make running rights over it common to all the three big lines now in the west, or any others that may be built in the future."

At the evening session the convention elected these officers:
President, S. C. Young, Port William; 1st vice-president, G. L. Steele, Port Colborne; 2nd vice-president, W. B. Stephens, Owen Sound; secretary-treasurer, Neil Campbell, Arrprior; insurance brokers and agents of Great Britain, This, it was pointed out, shows the insurance agents of the whole Anglo-Saxon world are organizing.

The Agency Review, issued by the association and edited by Secretary Neil Campbell, was commended by the convention.

JUSTICE MOVES SLOWLY IF MONEY'S CONCERNED

Extraordinary Obstacles Placed in the Way of Persons Who May Require a Warrant.

A record for long-tolerance and rapid walking such as is held by Jimmy Reynolds of Port Hope would be of value to the man who sets out to get a warrant for the arrest of any criminal or suspect in Toronto.

Even though the matter be one calling for instant action, he must kick his heels in useless delay, and then if it be a matter of a comfortable office of clerks and magistrate he must dash wildly about the city in search of officials to set their august hands to the task. Even then he is lucky if he be not compelled to wait until morning, while the criminal may walk quietly to his train and be on his way to parts from which his return, should he be apprehended, will be a matter of large expense.

Too often, too, it is incurred thru no fault of his, a complacent government will compel him to secure before the magistrate's eyes the evidence of a criminal taken into custody.

This done, the man is not always even allowed to choose the officer of one of the provincial inspectors of criminal investigation, traveling with the expenses of a western post office, will be sent or no one goes at all. This will be a cheaper and equally efficient means of reaching the citizen who is paying the bill.

NEW ARCHBISHOP INSTALLED IN STATE

Installation at St. Michael's Cathedral is Attended by Picturesque, if Solemn, Scenes and Ceremonials.

"Most Glorious Prince Michael, the Archangel, be thou mindful of us; here, and in all places, pray for us to the Son of God."

To the beautiful chant, Te Deum, and with the foregoing anthem, Dr. Ferguson Patrick McEvay followed the cross into the Cathedral of the Metropolitan See of Toronto yesterday morning and heard, for the fifth time in that edifice a declaration of the primacy of the See of Peter, that Peter also received the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, with the power to bind and to loose, still lives in his successors and exercises thru their primacy of power and of jurisdiction over the whole church.

Ubi Petrus, Ibi Ecclesia.
The Cathedral of St. Michael was much overcrowded, and not nearly all who obtained entrance could secure seats, the long ceremony was attentively followed by the vast congregation. As a religious pageant it was very simply conducted; but as a public induction of the leader of the ecclesiastical hierarchy of the Province of Ontario, nothing was omitted to impress the beholders with reverence for the higher order of episcopal dignity in the Roman Catholic Church.

The archbishop had arrived from London on the preceding evening, accompanied by a large delegation of his former clergy and lay charges. The act of taking possession of his new ecclesiastical province was set down for 10 o'clock, and exactly at that hour Fathers McCann (vicar-general) and Morris (Dean of St. Catharines) left the sanctuary to meet at the cathedral portal the appointees of the Bishop of Rome. The church was then crowded.

The altar blazed with electric lights, the bells rang, the polychrome walls, windows and columns gleamed again from the brilliant sunshine outside, and the artificial illumination within; the papal colors, white and gold, draped from pillar to pillar, and making a setting for a tall white cross above the altar, blazed in the harmonious glow; the fine organ pealed forth and a choir of children's voices burst into the stately hymn of St. Nicetus.

Picturesque Procession.
The procession followed outside the church from St. Michael's palace to the cathedral was long and took 15 minutes to pass up the centre aisle into and around the sanctuary. It was composed of the resident and visiting clergy, with the following archbishops and bishops: Sbarretti, Archbishop of Ephesus and apostolic delegate to Canada; McCarthy, Archbishop of Halifax; Gauthier, Archbishop of Kingston; Macdonald of Alexandria; Dowling, Bishop of London; O'Connor, Bishop of Peterboro; Scollard, Bishop of Sault Ste. Marie.

Last came Archbishop McEvay, preceded by his cross, and accompanied by some of his London clergy. Clothed in cope and mitre, and bearing all insignia of his rank, he looked full of joy to be the companion on such an occasion of the successor of Timothy, who to-day represents Pope Pius X. in the capital of Canada.

The slow procession afforded the imagination some scope. It meant that ecclesiastical history of humankind involve no change in the Roman Catholic hierarchy; that the ceremony under way was the same in which Timothy, the same which ancient Chalcedon, Niceoecia, and Heraclea witnessed in the east, which was called with the progress of Christian civilization into western Europe and the British Isles, and which in a few weeks will be repeated here in America as the Island of Vancouver—for all these centuries and in all lands the succession of the Roman episcopate declares but one title, that which Archbishop McEvay had received from Pius X.

Government Representatives.
When an archbishop is being installed it is customary for the civic dignitaries to be represented. Invitations to this end had been sent out by Vicar-General McCann, and there were present to represent the Dominion Government the aged Senator Scott, secretary of the Ontario Government, Hon. J. J. Poy, attorney-general; the City of Toronto, Mayor Oliver and Controller Spence; the only member of parliament or legislature to be noticed was John Shaw. Hon. J. M. Gibson of Hamilton and D'Arcy Scott, mayor of Ottawa, were present.

The attendance of Catholic laymen had been named by the vicar-general to act for the laity. Mr. Eugene O'Keefe was chairman of this committee. Other leading laymen were William Dineen, B. Elmsford, H. I. Kelly, D. Miller, Dr. McCown, L. Congrave, L. V. McFarlane, W. Blake, J. I. Murphy, J. P. Hynes, and J. J. Poy.

Control of the Archbishop McEvay having bowed at the altar, went to his throne to receive the homage of his priests. Then, in a voice which resounded the pulpit of the vicar-general, he read the Latin text of the bull appointing the new metropolitan. The bull was read in French by the vicar-general, and the congregation gathered to kiss in succession the archbishop's ring, in token of their loyalty and fealty.

It is usual for the priests in any consecration to be present. It was for this reason that the archbishop's ring, in token of their loyalty and fealty, was used for this purpose.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

The declaration of the Methodist Conference at Winnipeg this week, in favor of taking the Canadian civil service out of politics, was closely followed by the introduction of Mr. Fisher's civil service bill in the house of commons at Ottawa yesterday.

Honestly administered, this bill is the beginning of a sweeping reform that will be hailed with satisfaction by the whole country. Mr. Borden was able to endorse it and to say that it was on the line of his Halifax platform.

Politicians themselves have come to see that patronage of this kind is a burden rather than a blessing, and that the time has come to abandon it for ever. England long ago found the wisdom of a non-partisan appointed civil service, and rapid strides in the same direction have lately been made in the United States.

Parliament is again doing business on the bill, and the public will appreciate any and all progressive legislation it likes to pass these days, even if the session is given up long and the warm weather at hand.

Since the inauguration of the Anglo-French entente cordiale, the exchange of visits by representative bodies has become one of the distinguishing features of the new internationalism.

The progress of this movement, which on every ground ought to be encouraged and promoted, has been rapid, and it promises to become an important factor in the civilized world.

These square undulate towards the centre, and the rain water flows to the catch pits and thru them into the pipes which carry the water to the ground and into the street sewers.

About 170 building permits have been issued so far this month.

The objects of this organization, as proposed, are stated to be the enabling of colonial and foreign visitors to get into closer touch with British national life than is at present possible.

In the last ten years Canada has received more than 600,000 immigrants. Of these, sixty per cent. have been British-speaking and forty per cent. foreign. More than 75,000 former United States voters will poll Canadian votes in the next Dominion election.

results. Indeed, an organization of this kind would probably be the herald of a world-wide movement for the establishment of similar departments designed to facilitate international intercourse. No more hopeful and helpful tendency could be imagined than that, already so conspicuous in the twentieth century, making for increased personal acquaintance among men of different countries.

FREEMASONRY AND RELIGION.

"Minnet" Muskoka is informed in reply to his query that the Roman Catholic Church strictly forbids membership in any society whose members take an oath of secrecy, and especially Freemasonry.

A TARIFF COMMISSION.

In commenting on the tariff plank of the Republican platform, the New York Times makes a suggestion for a commission on tariff matters along the lines of that voiced by Sir Thomas Shannon at the board of directors banquet the other night. The Times says:

It is obvious that the president would require the aid and advice of experts thoroughly informed as to the conditions of trade in order to make wise and safe decisions. A board of such experts, entirely free from partisan influence, having a fairly stable tenure, would be an extremely good agency in the administration of the tariff in connection with foreign trade treaties.

"It would be still more valuable could it be adopted with reference to the practical application of the principle of tariff duties equivalent to the difference of cost in production abroad and at home. If such a board should be charged with ascertaining cost at home and abroad, and if when the duties were found to exceed for a reasonable term the actual difference in cost, the duties could be proportionately lessened, that would be an automatic and effectual system to adapt the tariff to the principle of cost.

Up-to-date department stores cover such a large square surface that it would be a great waste of space to roof them in the standard style.

To understand the nature of draining water from a roof according to this system, imagine the surface to be marked off into large squares with "catch pits" in the centre.

These squares undulate towards the centre, and the rain water flows to the catch pits and thru them into the pipes which carry the water to the ground and into the street sewers.

In this way the roof of the new building of the Robert Simpson Company, Limited, will always be dry.

MAY COMPEL THE C.P.R. TO OPERATE THIS LINE

Attention of Minister of Railways Drawn to Lack of Service Across North Toronto.

OTTAWA, June 17.—(Special.)—That the railway commission has power to order the Canadian Pacific Railway to operate its main-line from Leaside Junction across the north of the city to West Toronto, was the intimation conveyed in the reply of Hon. J. P. Graham to W. F. Maclean in the house this afternoon.

During a discussion of an amendment of E. Northrup (Gleanings) to authorize the commission to compel the Grand Trunk to respect an agreement made by the Toronto & North Harbour Railway twenty years ago, and to operate it, Mr. Maclean said:

"I would like to call attention to a grievance of the character that exists in the riding of South York. The C.P.R. is not operating its main line—the line that runs from Leaside Junction to the City Centre—across the north of the city to West Toronto. The people have made complaint of it several times. The C.P.R. or companies that have been acquired by the C.P.R. received large bonuses for the construction and operation of the railway, and the City Centre is not operated. The passenger trains are not run over it."

"I would like to get more particulars about this," replied Mr. Northrup. "I am inclined to think that the commission have it within their power to deal with it. I would like to see the commission. Mr. Graham declined to allow Mr. Northrup to impugn any motives to himself. There had been no influence on the part of the C.P.R. to prevent the passage of Mr. Northrup's amendment. Mr. Graham did not want to entail upon the C.P.R. the expense of the line, which was appointed to see that the traffic of the country was carried on with the least possible expense at a minimum of cost. It would not do to load up the commission with cases that should be left to the courts."

Important Ruling. That on rules and order of business brought a majority report against the resolution offered by James Francis Burke...

The resolution was finally defeated by a close vote of 206 against 177, a margin of 17 votes in a total of 377, three delegates being absent.

The change of a single vote in the first round of the election was followed by a change of a single vote in the second round...

The final details of the platform are being arranged by the platform committee to-night, and this accomplished the convention will be followed tomorrow to make its declaration of policy and proceed to the selection of candidates.

To-morrow's session opens at 10 o'clock in the morning, instead of noon as heretofore, so that a full day may be had for the discussion of principle and men.

The platform is expected to go before the convention early in the day, and its adoption will be followed by the speeches placing in nomination the candidates for president.

Fairbanks Out. The promulgation of a letter from Vice-President Fairbanks, reiterating his "irrevocable determination" not to again be a candidate for the office he now holds was the most important development of the day in connection with the vice-presidential nomination.

RAIN: BADLY NEEDED FROST IS NOT SERIOUS

Latest Reports From the Gardens of Canada as to the Condition of the Crops.

The following reports to The World last evening give an indication as to the crop situation:

Grain: The indications at present in this vicinity for the fruit crop are as follows: Strawberries are an average crop, but rain is needed very badly. Raspberries are looking well and promise a good crop. Peaches at present indicate only about one-half a crop. Cherries very light, especially the sweet varieties, and sour cherries only about half a crop. Plums of the Japanese varieties are very light; others are fair, probably about three-quarters of a crop. Pears are light. Other fruits are probably an average crop.

The fruit crop has not suffered from frost this year, but unless rain comes soon all varieties will suffer, and there will be a serious falling of the crop. St. Catharines: Hay exceptionally heavy; wheat and oats looking well, also seeded. Late strawberries good; cherries light and plums fair; peaches and pears fair. Fruit dropping. Rain is badly needed in this district. No frost in this vicinity.

St. Thomas: The fruit crop in Elgin County promises to be good. The frost lately has concentrated the remainder, will not seriously hamper the outlook. Strawberries are plentiful; cherries promise to also be good; plums, berries do very well; peaches and pears also give good prospects.

Winds: Crop conditions are very favorable, but the recent frost did some damage in East Kent. Several farms are quite badly damaged, but others are unscathed. On the whole it is nothing very serious.

Winds: Crops are 'excellent and frost has done no harm, but rain would be welcome.

Plumbing and heating is the most important thing about a house and it is just as important that the work should be done by a firm having the reputation for doing good work and the equipment to do good work at a reasonable price.—The Fred Armstrong Co., Limited.

WAR CANOE UPSETS. Sixteen Young Men Are Given Ducking in Humber Bay.

Sixteen men of the Parkdale Canoe Club were spilled into the Humber Bay at a point 200 yards out and a like distance east of the river mouth. The accident occurred at 3.30 last night, when the club's war canoe was swamped by a wave.

One man came close to death, having gone down twice before he was noticed by his companions and brought to the overturned boat, which was overturned by the waves.

He was taken to the shore in Ryckman's gasoline launch, taken out by a veterinary surgeon, and over the unconscious man on the beach for ten minutes before he succeeded in reviving him.

HAS SPENT FREELY. Man Arrested Here for Theft of $980 in Winnipeg.

John O'Brien, alias "Kid McCoy," of Medicine Hat, was arrested in the city by Detective McAfee on Thursday night. He had spent the money of the Acting Chief McKenzie of the Manitoba provincial police. O'Brien is charged with the theft of $980 in Winnipeg. He had $230 on him when taken.

He admitted having had the sum mentioned, but declared that he had found it in the street in Winnipeg. Since that time he has spent the difference, having been to Vancouver and then back this way.

NO WORK FOR MACHINISTS. Employers Decline to Reopen Negotiations With Men on Strike.

J. T. Merrick, secretary of the Employers' Association, says that the strikers' meeting on Wednesday night was a request for a conference with the firm interested, but that the latter do not care to re-open negotiations, and a committee will wait upon him to-day in order to complete work requests. The machinists struck for a nine-hour day about a year ago. The employers persist in their demand that they be allowed to complete work requests. They are unable to accede to the request.

400 A DAY. Additions to Christianity Out of Heathendom Figured Out.

That in every 24 hours 400 individuals are added to the Christian church out of heathendom was one of the interesting facts given in an address in St. James' schoolhouse, by J. Campbell White, general secretary of the laymen's missionary movement. The results already achieved in Toronto had fully justified, he said, the wisdom of the policy decided upon.

Rev. C. H. Short, formerly vicar of St. Thomas' Church, and now a missionary in Japan, home on furlough, gave a brief address. Missionary reports, he said, were disappointing because actual mission work was an entirely spiritual work and results could not be definitely traced. The work was almost entirely personal.

Mrs. Matilda Anderson of Wingham, mother of A. R. Anderson, the Brockville school teacher who was convicted of bigamy and sentenced to seven years in Kingston, is dead as the result of a stroke of paralysis caused by her son's disgrace.

Bicycle Rider Runs Down Little Boy—Items of Interest Through the County.

WEST TORONTO, June 17.—A serious accident occurred in town about 8 o'clock to-night. Charlie Maynes, the eight-year-old son of A. Maynes, 208 Quebec-avenue, road foreman of engines on the C.P.R., was knocked down and badly hurt by a bicycle ridden by John J. Doner, 208 Quebec-avenue. Doner was coasting down the hill on Annette-street, near Law-street, when the boy, who was playing with another little fellow, started suddenly across the road in front of the wheel. Mr. Doner picked him up in an unconscious condition and carried him to his home, where he soon revived. Dr. Perfect and Kayler were sent for, and after an examination, expressed the opinion that the boy had only been stunned by the fall and would be alright in a few days if no serious developments took place.

"That an additional male teacher be appointed to the staff of the lower form, and that the secretary be instructed to advertise for the same forthwith, also that the property committee be requested to equip the room at an expense not exceeding $100." This was the resolution adopted by the collegiate institute board, which met to-day for the purpose of devising some means to relieve the over-crowding in the lower form. This will entail an additional expenditure of about $100 for the teacher's salary. Besides the room, such as heating. There is a large number of pupils from Toronto and from other places in attendance at the collegiate institute just now, and it has been a problem to find room for them all.

The tender of the Standard Fuel Company for coal at $4.40 and $5.60 per ton was accepted.

A wedding took place to-night of Miss Ina Clarke, 96 Clendenan-avenue, youngest daughter of the late A. H. Clarke, to William George Pell, 40 Murray-avenue. The ceremony took place in St. John's Episcopal Church, which was crowded to the doors. Rev. T. E. Eversley officiated. The bridesmaid was Miss Alberta Clark, and the groomsmen were Harry Pell, Alfred Pell, and William Pell, all of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Pell will reside on Clendenan-avenue.

NORTH TORONTO. Happy Event in the Northern Suburb on Wednesday Afternoon.

NORTH TORONTO, June 17.—Rev. W. G. Buck officiated at the wedding which took place this afternoon at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret Blong, of Kensington-avenue, when her daughter, Miss Mary McLaughlin (Mollie) was married to Alfred D. Morrow, Toronto.

The bride looked charming in her semi-Empire gown of white muslin, which was trimmed with satin ribbon bands, tassels trailing the shoulder folds and high ruffled ends. The white collar and cuffs were trimmed with buckles of ivory satin which adorned the gown were seeded with pearls and a veil with wreath of orange blossoms and bouquet of forget-me-nots and lilies of the valley completed the costume.

The bridesmaid wore a gown of pale blue silk voile, with which satin bands were woven, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Blong, wore a satin striped green chiffon silk dress.

About 70 guests witnessed the imposing ceremony, amongst whom were the bride's sister and her husband, Dr. W. M. Johnson of Erie, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrow left on the 5.30 p.m. train for Atlantic City, New York and Philadelphia, the bride traveling in a suit of light grey, with Charlotte Corday hat of white lace and daisies. On their return they will reside at 91 Woodlawn-avenue, Toronto.

Trustee Le Gros of the public school board states that Tuesday night's meeting was not a secret one, as reported in The World of to-day.

WHY REGAL LAGER Makes Red Blood

FULLY forty people in every hundred positively need either Regal Lager or a doctor's prescription for anemia. Because in every hundred there are that many anemic—people whose blood is thin and poor—people with an excess of white blood-corpuscles and a lack of red ones. And every thirty-eight of these people will find Regal Lager as good for them as any prescription, and their own doctors probably will tell them so.

Because Regal Lager, with all the rich nutriment of prime, sound, ripe, slowly-malted barley, and with all the tonic, nerve-strengthening value of good hops, makes the stomach do its work better, helps digestion, puts into the blood the kind of nourishment it can use best, and helps supply the lack that makes folks anemic.

Regal Lager, you see, is not only a sparkling, fine-flavored beverage, fit for a king's table—it is a food-drink as well.

You can't do better than use it in your household every day of your life—drink it at dinner—have your wife drink it too. Get it from your dealer (only in bottles). If he won't supply Regal Lager, shun substitutes and write us direct.

Regal Lager is brewed of purest materials exclusively by The Regal Lager Brewing Association, Limited of Hamilton.

JUDGE WAS FIRM. Regrets in Bigamy Case He Cannot Punish the Woman, Too.

In the county criminal court yesterday, Judge Winchester, after hearing the evidence in the case against Henry Cook of Haliburton, charged with bigamy, sentenced the latter to three years in the penitentiary. Cook married Libby Landrihan of Richmond Hill in March, 1908, knowing that his first wife was still living. In imposing the sentence Judge Winchester said: "I am not in a position to punish the woman too. I am going to punish bigamy severely. The marriage is too sacred to be considered lightly, and any violation will be severely dealt with."

MARRIED AT CITY HALL. Young Jewish Couple Climb Over More Than Ordinary Obstacles.

Unions are not common in the city hall, but one was doubly cemented yesterday morning.

Jennie Krangle, an 18-year-old Jewess, and Jack Cohen, her sweetheart, were married in the dingy little room used for the children's court, yesterday morning. The two were first united in the ordinary Christian service and then Rabbi Jacob took another hitch, performing the Jewish ceremony.

The couple stood up and drank from the same glass of wine. Then the glass was placed upon the floor and the bride and groom, holding hands, raised their right hands to the ceiling, breaking it, and with an invocation from the rabbi the ceremony was completed.

Because her parents did not favor her suit, the young man and Jennie fled from New York to Toronto two weeks ago. They were living at 204 Teraville-street, when the girl's mother arrested her on the charge of vagrancy, and just as the girl was going to the wedding of a friend, the mother relented and she, with the brother, was present at the wedding.

MARRIED AND ARRESTED. Stratford Girl Taken in Custody Here for Theft of Watch.

Elsie George of Stratford was arrested in the city yesterday by Detective Hanson on the charge of the theft of a watch from Mrs. A. Sylvester, 505 Cambridge-street, Stratford, with whom she was employed as a domestic.

Yesterday Saunders followed her to the city and they were married. Now Saunders, who was employed by G. T. R., is broke and cannot go home.

ARCHBISHOP INSTALLED

dition of things within the diocese should call for attention to name it. But Archbishop O'Connor had left nothing for them to say other than words of satisfaction with the progress of religion during the period of his administration. Father Hand of St. Paul's had written in stately phrases an address to express welcome to the new chief and sorrow for the ill-health which had caused the retirement of Archbishop O'Connor. Dean Morris read this address.

Presentation of Addresses.
It is also the privilege of the people to welcome the archbishop and invoke his sympathy with their needs. In an address prepared and read by Judge Anglin no needs were declared, for none had been overlooked by Archbishop O'Connor, and so the document was confined within conventional periods. The address was signed by Eugene O'Keefe and H. T. Kelly, William Dineen, Hon. J. J. Poy, Controller Ward and a number of others went inside the sanctuary railing whilst the paper was being read.

Formality having been thus complied with the congregation waited for the address of new archbishop. He spoke from his throne, grasping his crozier in the left hand. With manifest feeling he referred to the retirement of Archbishop O'Connor and to the line of bishops who had gone before him in the Toronto see from the time of Bishop Power, who died of fever contracted ministering to the wants of the poor in 1847. The archbishop's phrases grew more direct and animated as he spoke of the position of the Roman Catholic people in Ontario and Quebec, where they live and have lived under just laws that might well be the admiration of the modern world, inasmuch as they recognize the right of education to religious as well as secular education. Whilst thanking Judge Anglin and Mr. Kelly for speaking in the name of the laity of the diocese, he declared with special emphasis that it is an error of the worst kind to separate the cause of laymen and clergy. Their interests are one and their triumphs identical.

The clergy and laity of the Catholic Church in Canada have never asked for themselves what they do not freely concede to all others, and in justice and harmony their citizenship in this province would continue. He solemnly blessed the congregation with the disengaged right hand, which during the course of his address had only occasionally been raised in moderate gestures.

The pontifical high mass was then celebrated by the apostolic delegate. It being Mr. Sbarretti's first visit to St. Michael's Cathedral, Vicar-General McCann read an address of welcome and a congratulation to him, at the conclusion of the holy office, his excellency stood upon a throne facing that of the newly-installed archbishop. The address was in the nature of a happy report upon the condition of religion and education in the archdiocese. Mr. Sbarretti replied at considerable length, but as he lacks not only easy enunciation in the English tongue but also carrying power in his vocal apparatus, not one syllable of what he said in reply could be heard more than a few yards from the sanctuary railing. He spoke from his throne with marked enthusiasm of gesture. At the conclusion he imparted the apostolic blessing.

And so it was done according to the old ceremonial, that Simon Peter who went to Rome to crown the magician in the second year of the reign of Claudius, placed another representative of his power in a land and a civilization that neither Claudius nor Nero, who followed him, ever dreamed of.

ADDRESSES OF WELCOME.

Priests and Laity Join in Good Wishes to New Prelate.

The address of welcome to the new archbishop from the priests of the diocese said in part: "The history of the church in Canada is one of which every Catholic has reason to be proud. For three centuries the Province of Quebec has been the citadel of Catholicity in North America. The chapter of the church in Toronto tells a story which frees the heart of the most cynical. It was written in the blood of the archdiocese that the heroic Jesuit missionaries to the Indian tribes laid down their lives for the faith of the crucified Saviour. If the blood of martyrs be the seed of the church, the harvest of souls should be the portion of the church in these parts.

"The see of Toronto has been blessed by a line of illustrious churchmen, who in season and out of season, devoted their talents and their lives to the building of the church in the archdiocese. They laid the foundations deep and broad. With them there was no trimming of Catholic truth, no minimizing of sacred dogma. The lustre of their light was seen and the effect of their power felt beyond the most distant boundaries of the Dominion. To their valiant efforts in days of stress and struggle, the excellent school system which the Catholic children of Ontario enjoy to-day is chiefly due. Institutions of learning and homes of charity were planted and fostered by them. Everywhere in the archdiocese may be seen monuments of their zeal and labors. Their teaching and example were productive of a people of strong faith and patriotic spirit.

"Such, your grace, is the heritage which comes into your hands to-day. The memory of the martyred missionaries, the fruits of the labors of five most devoted bishops, the garnering of several generations of self-sacrificing priests, make a precious trust. This trust, we are sure, will be safe in your keeping. May your own reign add to the store of noble achievement of the prelates of Toronto.

"Opportunity will not be wanting. The building up of a priesthood to meet the growing needs of the archdiocese, the developing of Catholic education along safe lines, the devising of ecclesiastical legislation which will satisfy present requirement and safeguard the interests of the church in the future, call for the exercise of skillful churchmanship.

"In all your undertakings for the advancement of religion and the good of country, you may rely with absolute confidence on the unwavering loyalty and patriotic support of the priests of the archdiocese of Toronto."

From the Laity.

The address from the laymen read in part:

"While we deeply regret the cause which has impelled our late revered archbishop to lay down the burdens and to free himself from the responsibilities of the episcopate, the selection of yourself as his successor has filled us with confidence for the future of this diocese.

"Under the administration of your immediate predecessor the church and schools of the diocese have largely increased in number. The Catholic parishes in this, your metropolitan city, and its suburbs, now number seventeen; the Catholic population has grown until it approximates 40,000 souls. Your grace's new vineyard is large, and creditable as have been the achievements of the past, we realize that there is still much to be accomplished.

"Our educational advantages of today are undoubtedly great, as compared with those of years not yet remote, but we believe that there is still room for progress and improvement in this field, and we are especially delighted to know that the person of your grace, the cause of Catholic education, advanced as well as primary, has an ardent friend and advocate in your grace's person. In whatever measures you may deem it advisable to take for the welfare of your people, in whatever plans you may deem necessary for the advancement of the cause of religion and education, which we fully recognize cannot be separated, you may count on the active sympathy and the heartfelt cooperation of your people."

Archbishop's Reply.

In his address to the congregation, his grace referred to Catholic education—important alike to state and church.

"I am glad," he proceeded, "that the great question of Catholic education was referred to. All Christians acknowledge God as their Creator and believe that the soul of their child born into the world is made into the image and likeness of God. It is necessary, therefore, that the child be educated in the grace and truth to enable him to reach his home in heaven.

"It is the duty of parents," his grace declared, "to supply both the body and soul of their children. As the soul is more important than the body, if schools are necessary for the secular education of children for time of this world, surely they are necessary for the education for heaven and for eternity.

"His grace paid tribute to the government of Ontario, who have learned to protect the rights of the minority."

"Toronto," he said, "as the centre, should be a model for the rest of the province. All citizens should expect to receive justice and fair play. For my part I will try to keep the law. We greet to others what we ourselves so we expect to live in peace and harmony."

In reply to an address from the clergy, the apostolic delegate said: "The infinite wisdom of God revealing supernatural truth did not intend to put into the hands of man the power of life and death, and destruction. This deposit must be carefully guarded, and to the church, founded by Him, Christ, is entrusted the sacred duty. All the powers of darkness have combined against her, furious attacks have been made upon her, she has been subjected to every kind of persecution, rivers of innocent blood have been spilt, but no violence, no persecution, no terror can prevail against her. Her trials were but the prelude to a greater triumph. The blood of martyrs was the seed of Christians.

"Sanguis martyrum est semen christianorum." She came forth from the combat more powerful and more beautiful than ever, crowned with the laurels of victory.

"Even more dangerous enemies arose from within her own fold—who tried to darken the light of her faith, to tarnish the purity of her morals, and to break the unity of her communion. They, church, always and ever, hesitate to cut off the rotten branches. The branches so cut off are destined to suffer a reverse, and the church, with renewed life and vigor. So it has been and so it will be to the end of time. The enemies of the church have passed and will pass away, always with more or less noise, 'perpetua memoria' in our ears, but the church will survive and gain some apparent advantage, they and they fancy they are going to win a final victory; of a certainty they will be deceived. In the end, the church will be the desolation of Julian, they will be obliged to cry out, 'Galliaee et ciste,' 'Gallian, thou wast conquered.' The battles of the church will never cease, but she will ever emerge from the strife triumphant.

"Christ loves His church. He will be with her all days even to the consummation of the world."

SUMMONED; ENDS HIS LIFE.

CHATHAM, June 17.—Alex. Grover, aged 65, an engineer, shot himself himself at 6 o'clock this morning. He had suffered from rheumatism and was despondent, on day he quarrelled with a neighbor over a cow trespassing and had been summoned to appear in court on a charge of assault.

Ross Thompson of Mattland will lose his left eye as the result of the bursting of a ginger ale bottle.

AFRAID TO SLEEP. Miss Nora N. Straubenzle, well known in Bedford, says: "Every year I was attacked with the grippe, and every medicine I had ever heard of, and treated with many good physicians, was unable to get relief but never a permanent cure. I had a bad attack came on I was afraid to go to sleep, the coughing and choking were so severe that I could not sleep, and for more than a year I haven't been bothered."
