Only a few hours now remain before the final wind-up of the money-raising campaign, instituted by the Young Women's Christian Association for $150,000 and devoted for three days towards securing $100,000 for the Young Women's Christian Association.

At 12:30 to-day the last luncheon will be held, at headquarters in the Lumsden Building, to receive reports from the captains of the various teams as well as from the young women's committee, who made a canvass of more than 10,000 persons yesterday. As far as possible, every factory that employs women was visited during the day, and those in whose interest a portion of the new program is designed, are giving of their substance to help the cause along.

Only $40,000 is required to complete the amount which is to place this great undertaking for women on a permanent basis.

Rev. W. F. Wilson, speaking at yesterday's luncheon, said that 20,000 young women were scattered throughout the factory districts of the city, and did not enjoy the comforts of a home or the advantages of a Christian environment. It was a work of great consequence for the moral and social welfare of the community.

In the Y. M. C. A. campaign there were about 950 subscribers; 10,000 subscribers were wanted so there was a splendid opportunity for a great many citizens to become tangibly interested in the biggest combined philanthropic movement that Toronto has yet undertaken.

It is only $40,000 more and those who are not solicited can send their subscriptions in.

The Spirit That Wins.

This is what a Porcupine miser wrote to J. M. Godfrey:

"I notice you are hustling money for the Young Women's Christian Association. As you know, I am not very strong on religion, but when anybody starts in to do anything for the women and the kids, count me in."

"I have just had the smelter-returns from the little test shipment we made."

SEPARATE SCHOOLS DRAPED BUT NOT PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Orangemen Inclined to Blame Socialist Tendencies of Chairman Simpson For Omission.

"If, as I am told by leading citizens, socialism is running the board of education, it is certainly not running the city council," said Controller Church last night in criticizing the neglect of the school board to have the public schools draped in honor of the dead King. The omission is made conspicuous by the fact that the separate schools have been bedecked in black and purple.

At several Orange Lodge meetings last night speeches were made hotly denouncing the school board for its tardiness in showing the marks of loyalty, and criticisms of James Simpson, the Socialist chairman, were uttered. Controller Church will, at to-day's meeting of the board of control move that all public halls, fire stations, libraries and entrances to parks be decorated at an expense not to exceed $10 in each instance as in other cities.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT MAY BE NEEDED IN ENGLAND

Suggested That He May Have to Remain Until Young Prince is Older.

LONDON, May 11.—The position in regard to the governor-generalship may be taken to be as follows. In fact King Edward expressed the wish that the Duke of Connaught should be the next governor-general, but no appointment then or since has been made. The question of Earl Grey's successor has, up to the present, not been officially considered. The demise of the crown, however, may render the fulfillment of His Late Majesty's wishes difficult.

At any rate the question is still unsettled, and will not be further discussed until the arrival of the duke in London. He is now coming home from East Africa.

In this connection it is suggested that concerning the appointment of the governor-general, the duke's consent should be secured before the duke's departure. The duke of Cornwall, the King's eldest son, is able to take part in high ceremonial of state.

"I WILL BE PRESIDENT WARD."

At a meeting of the board of control yesterday afternoon it was decided to call a special session of the city council Friday afternoon for the transaction of routine business.

Controller Ward will be elected to serve as president, or deputy mayor, during the absence of Mayor Geary, who will be away about a month on his trip to attend the royal funeral.

BRYCE FAVORED CANADA.

LONDON, May 11.—The Daily News pays a tribute to Ambassador Bryce's work at Washington, where it says he "appreciated as no other ambassador had, the weight which must be attached to Canadian sentiment in the determination of problems wherein Canada was intimately involved."

The McLachlan Tragedy Scene of the alleged murder; the accused husband and daughter

M'LACHLAN NOW FACES TRIAL FOR LIFE

Uxbridge Tragedy, Which It is Alleged Was Triple Murder, Before Jury—Crown Contends Deliberate Poisoning and Arson by the Accused.

WHITEBY, May 11.—(Special.)—It is natural that man should forget in which bedroom his wife and two children were sleeping, after escaping from a burning house, with an infant in his arms? Is it natural for him to stay around while the firemen and neighbors were fighting the flames and make no effort to assist even after it has been called to his attention that his "loved ones" may be perishing within? Is it natural that he should make no move toward removing the dead bodies when they have finally been rescued?

These are circumstances brought out to-day in the trial of Archibald McLachlan, charged with the murder of his wife and two little sons, Harold and Gordon, at Uxbridge about midnight Oct. 29 last.

The presence of strychnine in the woman's stomach is another suspicious circumstance, and on this point the crown will receive expert medical testimony of Dr. Arthur James Johnson, chief coroner, Toronto, and Prof. Ellis of the provincial analyst's department.

The court-room was packed to-day when Justice Testart accented to the bench at the request of counsel for the defence, all witnesses were excluded. McLachlan, who looked pale and the lines of whose face were tensely drawn, took a keen interest in the proceedings and conferred with his lawyer several times during the selection of the jury.

Mr. Blackstock concluded his outline of the case to the jury by saying that a fair trial for the prisoner, "Burr," he went on, "a fair trial is not hunting around by weak-minded men if they can get rid of an unpleasant duty. If a crime has been committed, then it is the duty of everyone concerned to see that the perpetrator is brought to justice."

Crown's Case Outlined.

Mr. Blackstock outlined the case to the jury in an hour's address. After telling of McLachlan's marriage nine years ago, his family of two boys aged 4 and 8, and a girl aged 5, his employment at Uxbridge as bookkeeper for a year, and his discharge, to take effect the day the fire occurred, Mr. Blackstock told of the tragedy.

"People coming home from work saw smoke coming from the house," said the counsel. "They shouted loud enough for anyone in the house to hear them, and when the door of the door the prisoner came out wheeling the little girl in a baby carriage. He did not pay any attention to them. They wheeled the carriage over to the fence. The neighbors asked him where his wife was, but he didn't answer them. They tried in vain to get from him any kind of knowledge as to where his wife and children were."

"The prisoner was asked for some explanation of this disaster. He said he found his wife and little girl in the house. He was looking after the girl. Now it will be shown to you she was not ill. The prisoner was fully dressed, with exception of shoe laces unfastened."

Believes Woman Was Dead.

The crown believed the woman was dead, but that, had McLachlan given any assistance, the children might have been saved for the cry of a child had been heard.

"The household was not a happy one," said Mr. Blackstock, and the responsibility for this rests entirely on the prisoner. The woman was an industrious, sweet-natured kindly woman. However, negligence was the cause of the tragedy.

He referred to McLachlan's friendship for Miss Alma Nix, an attachment of which he had openly boasted. Letters had passed between them, and Miss Nix had written that she did not want to come between him and his wife. Evidence would be presented to show that McLachlan had wanted her to elope.

"Mrs. Watson, a relative, will tell you that apparently to annoy his wife he would refer to Miss Nix as his girl or sweetheart. At that time his wife treated this as a bit of bad manners, but the prisoner had formed a strong regard for that woman," said Mr. Blackstock.

Indications in the house were that something on the floor had been burned.

WORRY OVER POLITICAL SITUATION ONE CAUSE OF KING EDWARD'S DEATH

Should Not Be Lost Sight of Say Royal Physicians in Statement as to His Majesty's Illness.

LONDON, May 11.—Parliament paid a tribute to the memory of King Edward to-day, adopting addresses of condolence and congratulations to the new King, Premier Asquith, and the house of commons, and the Earl of Crewe, in the house of lords, delivered eulogies on Edward VII., and both showed great emotion.

The day was chiefly devoted to recording the nation's official condolences to the royal family. King George and the Queen Mother received at Marlborough House and Buckingham Palace, respectively, deputations from the lords and commons, bearing the royal wreaths in procession would be incongruous.

Among the numerous functions abandoned or postponed owing to the King's death, is the royal military tournament.

Worry a Contributing Cause.

The King Edward's death was partly due to worry over the political situation is officially declared in a statement regarding his illness, which his physicians, Sir Francis Laking, Sir James Reid and Sir Richard Douglas Powell, are publishing over their signatures in The Lancet to-morrow.

The statement says: "His majesty had for some years suffered from emphysema with attendant bronchial catarrh; signs of which were permanently present at the bases of the lungs. On several occasions digestive disturbances had caused his medical attendants to realize that his majesty no longer had the reserve constitutional power which had stood him in such splendid stead after his serious operation in 1902, and that any intercurrent catarrhal or bronchitic attack, with such reduction in cost as would be long held in honor by his subjects at home and beyond the seas."

"It must be here said that those around him knew how earnestly concerned he was at the present strained position of political affairs, and this fact should not be lost sight of in an all-round consideration of the King's health."

The Biarritz Attack.

Referring to the King's recent visit to Biarritz, the statement says: "The first night in Paris his majesty had a severe attack of acute indigestion, with subsequent dyspnoea (shortness of breath). On his arrival at Biarritz this developed into a bronchitic attack, causing his physicians great anxiety. This passed off, and his majesty returned better in every way, but he contracted a chill at Sandringham while inspecting the gardens."

"On his return to London," the statement continues, "from May 3 the attacks of dyspnoea increased, although the King insisted upon attending to business of state as late as Thursday, May 5."

"On that day," the physicians add, "the attacks became more frequent and distressing, and with increasing cyanosis, gravely suggestive of threatened cardiac failure. With the King's permission the doctors issued the first bulletin on Thursday night, but not until it was seen by his majesty, who somewhat modified its terms."

"From Friday morning his condition rapidly became worse. There were several dangerous attacks and his ma-

NEW TEXT BOOKS AT ONE-THIRD OLD PRICE

Robt. Simpson Co. to Publish New Ontario Public School Arithmetic, and Gage Co. the Grammars — 25 Cent Books for 9 Cents.

Another marked decrease in the prices of public school text-books for the province was evidenced yesterday when tenders were opened for the new arithmetic and grammar.

The World Intensive Sir James Whitney, who happened to be in conversation with Hon. R. A. Pyne, minister of education, and the following announcement was received:

"The public school arithmetic, consisting of 215 pages, formerly retailed at 25 cents. The new one, consisting of 240 pages, will retail at 9 cents.

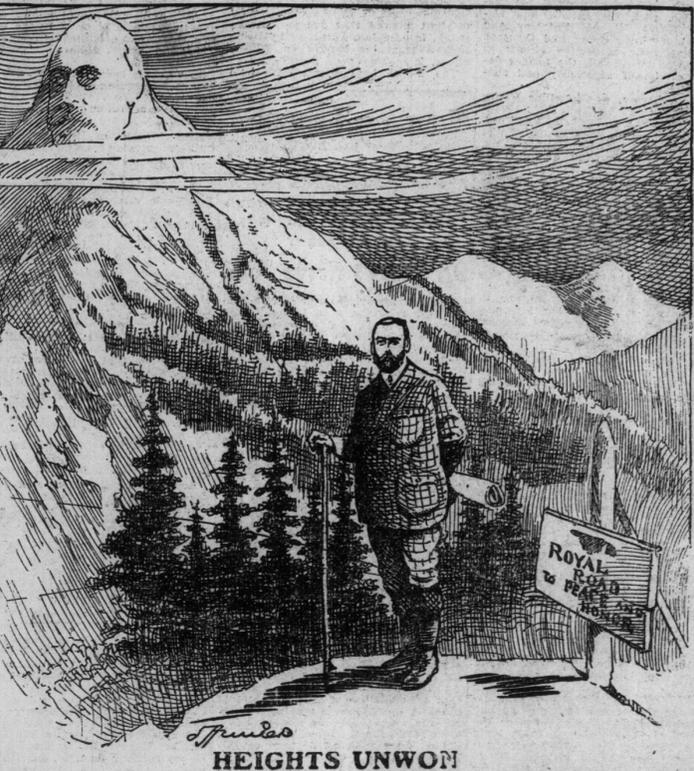

"The old public school grammar of 190 pages retailed at 25 cents. The new text-book on a basis of 224 pages will be sold at 8 1/2 cents.

"There will also be a discount of 20 per cent. off the retail price of the new books."

Sir James also announced that the successful lowest tenderers for the new books are:

Robert Simpson Co., Limited, for the arithmetic; Holland Linen Paper Co., W. J. Gage & Co., Limited, for the grammar.

"The issue of these books is consonant with the policy of the educational department to bring all high school and public school text-books up to date at such reduction in cost as will insure to the advantage of the people of the province."

HEIGHTS UNWON

KING'S MESSAGE TO COMMONS

The King knows that the house of commons shares in the profound and deep sorrow which has befallen his majesty by the death of his majesty's father, the late King, and that the house entertains a true sense of the loss which his majesty and the nation has sustained in this mournful event.

"King Edward's care for the welfare of the people and his skilled and reserved guidance of affairs, his unwearied devotion to public duty during an illustrious reign, with his simple courage in danger and in pain, will be long held in honor by his subjects at home and beyond the seas."

FOOT RUN OVER

Young Man Tried to Get Aboard a Moving Car.

Attempting to board a moving car coast William Pipher, aged 24, his left foot at 6:40 last night. He tried to get on to a west-bound King-street car at Princess and King-streets, but failed to get a proper hand-hold, falling under the treadle. He was taken in an automobile to St. Michael's Hospital, where Dr. Harrison attended him. The leg was amputated just below the knee. He will probably recover.

Half an hour earlier, at the same corner, Morris Couston of 400 Logan-avenue was struck by a car and rendered unconscious. After being attended by a doctor, Couston was taken home. His injuries were slight.

UNMUZZLE INNOCENT DOGS.

Why keep the innocent dogs of Ontario muzzled? Why not have a provincial officer who could, on examination, pass a dog as being free from suspicion of rabies? Owners of dogs would gladly pay a round fee and go to unusual trouble to have their pets certified as innocent and harmless. The un-muzzling of Ontario's dogs would be most popular with both owners and dogs. Can't Mr. Hanna be persuaded to do it?

SILK HATS.

The proper mourning hat is the silk and the proper silk is the best you can buy. The best doesn't cost any more than the other kind, and it looks right. The Dineen Company is sole Canadian agent for the hat the King wore, Henry Heath. Store open every evening until ten o'clock.

and of the ever tightening bonds of co-operative unity, has been developed as never before.

Parliament met this afternoon to pay a national tribute to King Edward and to welcome his successor, King George.

The royal message was received in the house of commons with solemnity, the members standing uncovered as it was read.

Upon a motion by Premier Asquith, seconded by A. J. Balfour, leader of the opposition, the house of commons adopted unanimously an address to His Majesty the King, in which His Majesty was assured of the heartfelt sympathy of the lower chamber in his grievous affliction, and in which also were expressed the congratulations of the house upon his accession.

The address proceeds: "We will ever remember with grateful affection the zeal with which our late sovereign labored to consolidate the peace and concord of the world; to aid every merciful endeavor for the alleviation of human suffering; and to unite in justice and freedom all the races and classes of his subjects with his imperial throne.

"We beg to offer Your Majesty our loyal congratulations upon your auspicious accession, and we assure Your Majesty of our sure conviction that your reign will, under the favor of divine Providence, be distinguished by unswerving efforts to promote the peace and contentment of the realm, and to guard the rights and liberties of Your Majesty's faithful people."

Years Crowded With Events. Speaking on the motion, Mr. Asquith referred to the reign of the great King suddenly taken from us "as years crowded with moving events through the empire. He continued: "In our relations with foreign countries they have been years of growing friendships and new understandings, strong and sure safeguards of the peace of mankind.

"Within the empire the sense of interdependence, the concentration of common interests and common risks.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD EXPRESSES SYMPATHY

Condolences With Royal Family on King's Death—Discussion of Committee Reports.

The Presbyterian Synod of Toronto and Kingston last night, on motion of Rev. Principal Gordon, adopted the following resolution:

"The Synod of Toronto and Kingston of the Presbyterian Church in Canada desires to express its profound sorrow at the death of our beloved illustrious sovereign, King Edward VII."

"The noble life and character of the departed King and the wisdom with which he ruled as a constitutional monarch drew to him with exceptional power the hearts of all his subjects. The example of fidelity to duty, which he has bequeathed to his people, the respect and reverence which he showed at all times to the ordinances of religion, the interest which he took in every work that tended to the alleviation of human suffering, and to the social and moral welfare of the nation and his peacemaking influences in the relations of Britain toward other nations will cause his name to be held in remembrance as one of the noblest worthies of our sovereigns."

"The synod expresses its fervent loyalty to the British crown, and its His Most Gracious Majesty King George the Fifth, beseeching on his behalf the constant guidance and support of Almighty God, and the same high standard of character and conduct which he has bequeathed to his people."

"The synod humbly tenders its sympathy to the beloved and honored Queen Dowager, and to their Majesties King George and Queen Mary in their irreparable loss. They unite in commending the royal family under their great bereavement to the gracious keeping of our Heavenly Father, praying that He will grant them abundantly the consolation of His word and spirit."

"During the three sessions yesterday various reports were received and adopted. The recommendation of the foreign mission committee that the Presbyteries' committee be authorized to form a missionary association in every congregation, and a missionary campaign undertaken, was adopted, as well as suggestions for improved organization."

"According to the report on French evangelization, a greater interest on the part of the church is recalled. 'To go into the homes of the French people,' said Rev. E. S. Loggie of Sudbury, 'and distribute the Bible among them and disturb them in their relation to their church and then to leave them alone, is not honorable. We should be prepared to follow them and to dispense the ordinances of the church to them in their own language or else leave them alone.'"

Rev. James Wallace presented the report of the committee on augmentation, in which it was noted that in view of the assembly's committee having added $50 to the present minimum stipend, a responsibility had been added to the committee, Sir Thos. Taylor, of the request that the committee, present the reasons for increasing the salaries of ministers. There were 71 congregations in the synod and 59 in the Hamilton area.

Rev. James Binnie of Tweed presented the home mission report, and referred to the attempt to recall the slums in Toronto as a missionary problem, as well as a city problem. He recalled the slums in Toronto as a missionary problem, as well as a city problem. He recalled the slums in Toronto as a missionary problem, as well as a city problem.

Rev. R. M. Hamilton, field secretary of the Dominion Alliance, and Rev. E. Spence, spoke on local option subjects.

M'CLACHLAN NOW FACES TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE

ing, not the floor itself. Pillars had been found which gave traces of coal oil. It should have been easy to rescue the woman from a shed roof close to the window. The bodies of the two boys were found beneath the bed. The wife, however, apparently had never moved. There was no sign of struggle, but the clothes on the bed were pulled up around her and her hands were folded on her breast.

The prisoner had been making remarks about town that he feared he might be poisoned, yet had bought strychnine the day before the fire, and strychnine had been found in the woman's stomach. McLaughlan, it would be shown, had been too, to friends that his wife might commit suicide, as she was a melancholy woman.

The Jury. The jury is composed of: Chas. Brown, Wm. Hepburn, Ed. Acton, J. E. H. David, M. Vipond, Geo. Burnett, E. Webber, Ch. McLean, J. Adams, Walter Annis, Chas. Schofield, and W. J. Stevenson. One man was rejected before the trial when he professed himself a Quaker.

Evidence given in the afternoon was mostly a repetition of that heard at the inquest, and preliminary trial. Thos. Palmer, bartender, said McLaughlan had three or four drinks of beer and left the hotel about 9 p.m. of the night of the fire. On the next Sunday prisoner was in a room under where I'll be next Sunday, in my grasp or behind the bars," McLaughlan had declared his wife and children were alive.

Bert Lott told of McLaughlan's acquaintance with Alma Nix. Once prisoner had laughingly wondered what people would say if it was found that he had suggested to McLaughlan taking her for a drive, prisoner had said he would wait any person to come between him and his wife.

Percy Kempton said McLaughlan was all right after leaving the bowling alley on the night of the fire. McLaughlan had told him of his love affair, and he copied letters from his sweetheart, as he called Miss Nix, and said he was going to stop in on his way down.

Witness Wasn't Asked. Mr. Henderson recalled that at the inquest witness had spoken highly of McLaughlan as a man who would not be unduly intimate. Witness said he hadn't been asked. He spoke of McLaughlan as "always a gentleman."

Charles Tuley, a painter, said McLaughlan had never mentioned Miss Nix by name to him, but had referred once to a letter from "my kid." He had been in his usual spirits the night of the fire.

Says All Suffocated. Dr. Walter Shier, who conducted the post-mortem, inquired, and who was the first witness to testify, stated that the death of the three victims resulted in each case from suffocation. Thos. Palmer, prosecutor, Geo. Tate Blackstock, K.C., prosecutor, admitted to-night that he did not know of the presence of strychnine, which he found in the stomach at the time he made the autopsy, and that he had allowed the stomach, to remain forgotten lying in a box in the underwear drawer of the prisoner. It is one of the points that it is believed prisoner's counsel, W. A. Henderson of Toronto, will rest his defence upon. In the preliminary trial he hinted that the poison might have been placed in the stomach after death. Dr. Shier, tho, told of having carefully tied the stomach of the stomach before it dropped into the box, and these bindings were not disturbed when he found it the following day. "The trial was shipped to Toronto for expert analysis. Even if he had known, as he did now, of the presence of strychnine in the stomach, Dr. Shier declared his opinion would still be unaltered that suffocation caused death.

Dr. Shier would not even after my report unless I got into the stomach, he added.

Suspected McLaughlan. Dr. Shier seems to be one of the first to have questioned the conduct during the fire. "The thought came to me," he said, "while at the inquest that night, how it was he did not know. We got a ladder, and I went to see him in the Basement House about 3 a.m. I knew he drank, and thought he might be intoxicated after the fire. He appeared particularly griefed. He talked gibberish. I spoke about rumors that he had been unduly fond of a young girl, and he said there was nothing between them."

Dr. Shier said the burns he had found on Mrs. McLaughlan's skin had been inflicted after death. In cross-examination, witness said suffocation might result from strychnine poisoning, as was found in the stomach.

"Do you think it would be possible for her to be dead before the smoke reached her?" he was asked and replied: "It is very possible from the condition of the heart, that death must have come very rapidly."

Eye-Witnesses Testify. Mrs. Norman Beal said she and her husband had noticed the smoke and encountered McLaughlan as he emerged from the burning house with his little daughter. Her husband asked him where his wife was and he said, "Upstairs in bed, and would likely be burned up." Mr. Beal said, "Well, show me which window is her room. I will try and get her," and he answered he did not know. McLaughlan seemed dazed, she said, and while in Mrs. Chin's house took his coat off and put on another. He changed garments three or four times. Witness asked him why he was up so late that night, and he told her he must have fallen asleep in a chair, and was awakened by the smoke.

Mrs. Joseph Chin swore she had run into the burning house with Mr. Beal and called out "Mrs. McLaughlan" several times from the dining room door, but got no answer.

"Was McLaughlan fully dressed when you first saw him?" asked Mr. Blackstock by the cross-examination.

"Yes, except that his boots were unlaced."

"And you say he was acting peculiarly?"

"Yes, he was very much agitated," showed No Emotion.

Rev. Alfred Bedford, Methodist pastor of Denison, testified that after the bodies were located and while they were being taken out, McLaughlan, who was standing beside him, showed no emotion nor made any effort whatever towards assisting in their removal.

Two Towns Destroyed. Disastrous Result of Forest Fires in Minnesota and Wisconsin.

DULUTH, Minn., May 11.—Grand Marais, on the north shore of Lake Superior, is believed to have been destroyed by forest fires which were advancing on it last night. The wireless operator stated late in the night that if the town was not burned he would attempt to communicate with the Duluth station to-day. This far no word has come from him, and the assumption, therefore, is that the town burned.

Half Gone. MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 11.—Forest fires have leveled the south half of Mosinee, Marathon County. The buildings destroyed include ten residences, four general stores and the postoffice. The latest reports said the fire was under control. Forest fires are raging north and northwest of Bayfield. The surrounding country is encroached in smoke.

Why the Morning Newspaper The Woman's Side of It

Being Chapter II. of the Calling of the Ancient and Honorable Bluff of the Evening Newspaper Posing in Borrowed Clothing as the Only Home Paper.

FIGURE it out for yourself. Take the woman of the house for instance. All day long she has been attending to the multitudinous cares of the house and the children, and the thousand and one matronly duties.

When night comes does she figure on sitting down and plowing through a newspaper?

Not Much! Not if she is the sort whom Mr. Advertiser is after—the live woman—not if she is the one whose trade is worth getting. Not if she cares for her husband and her home.

No Sir! She's been looking all day for John to come home—and after tea—she's planned to go to the theatre—or to see friends—or to go to a party—or do anything else but wade through a stuffy newspaper. The time she takes to read the papers is at breakfast—or just after hubby has gone—or she will read it at odd times in the morning.

If the day is her regular shopping day, that merchant is losing opportunities who does not have his attractions properly displayed in the morning paper, for she's eating her breakfast with her hat on ready to run down with hubby and she's looking for the announcements of the things she should have.

If it isn't her regular shopping day, and she sees something that's positively what she's looking for on sale to-day—John will be ordered to stop in on his way down.

The time to advertise is when you want to sell.

The advertisement that says "to-day" is more potent than the one that says "to-morrow."

And the morning paper is the only one that says "to-day," and it is delivered and ready long before the day's business is begun.

The advertiser who remembers this and places his telling "ads" in the morning paper is logically bound to win, for he has caught the woman's "to-day" at the psychological moment.

This is not a theory but a maxim and is proven by every other city in the country.

Try it out and watch results.

We have a large and competent staff of live young men attached to our advertising department who will see you at any time. Besides we maintain a Department of Suggestion and Design run by one Capable Worker in the Vineyard. Telephone 5308 Main.

UNIONIST PRESS OFFERS ASQUITH A COALITION

Doubted, However, Whether It Would Extend to a Budget.

LONDON, May 11.—(C.A.P.)—Asquith's announcement that the commons will meet on Aug. 4 gives the ministers a badly needed extension of their holidays and accords with the general desire that constitutional controversies should not be resumed earlier than the termination of the day's of national mourning. The premier's outline of the business to be taken up, namely the civil list and some unimportant bills (including possibly the bill dealing with the coronation oath), meets a further pause before the budget for 1910-11 is due.

Of course, whether it is introduced with the force veto still unduly with, one will. With several weeks' grace it is vent further dilatoriness of business by Asquith the Unionist press offering the House a coalition with the Liberals, and if it is necessary, to withdraw this accommodation would extend to a point at which the Commons would be elected to deal promptly and decisively with the question, and concludes firmly: "Will the pause lessens possibly the question which rests primarily on the issue of the House of Lords, with those who co-operate cordially with it."

The Times article regarding the "impasse" in commercial treaties involved in Canada's commercial treaty arrangements, says that unless the British public can be made to realize the importance of the Canadian preference is next few years.

TO REGULATE EXPLOSIVES

Minister of Mines to Be Given Authority to Supervise Manufacture.

OTTAWA, May 11.—(Special.)—The minister of mines has in preparation a bill which will be submitted at the next session of parliament, providing for the examination and testing of all explosives, with a view to preventing disasters similar to the one at Hull on Sunday and on railway construction work, which during the past few years have caused abnormally large loss of life in Canada, as compared with other countries.

An investigation is now being made by an expert of the department into the legislation in this connection in other countries.

It is proposed to give the minister of mines power to regulate the manufacture of explosives and all trafficking therein. Government inspectors will be appointed to enforce the provisions of the act, and an explosives division of the mines branch will be established. An explosives testing station will also be built, where all explosives to be used in Canada will be subject to examination.

An expert from the British Government testing station at Woolwich will be brought to Canada for six months, to assist officials here in respect to the proposed new regulations.

Warm Weather Coming. There is every indication that following the rather cold weather of late will come some weeks of beautiful weather, and again the threat produced by heat will cause many plans to enjoy that delightful sport of fishing and invigorating table water, fresh from the foothills of the Laurentian Mountains.

Nothing appears there to do with water, and also, it makes the best mixer of all.

Holiday at London. LONDON, May 11.—Mayor Beattie has issued a proclamation to-day, providing for a public holiday on Friday, May 13, the date of the burial of the late King Edward.

OAK HALL'S NEW STORE IS FINEST IN CANADA

Will Be One of the Show Places of Yonge St.—Modern Methods for Display of Clothing.

Undoubtedly the finest clothing establishment in Canada, and with the same certainty, taking second place to none on the continent, is that which "Oak Hall" now occupies in the new Lumsden Building at Yonge and Adelaide streets. Magnificent is really the fit word to use. The store occupies the entire ground floor of the splendid building, with frontage on Yonge and Adelaide streets. The windows will attract the notice of even the most hurried passer-by. The fittings are in highly polished oak, even the stands for the display of the clothing being of the same picturesque material. Palm and potted plants help to adorn the display. The large entrance doors, from both streets, are noticeable, too, for a score or more of beautiful glass wardrobes for the purpose, and installed in Oak Hall for the first time in Canada. The cases are large enough to contain 120 suits, which are neatly suspended in two rows on an apparatus that permits of easy turning, so that either side is instantly available for the customer's inspection. By an ingenious arrangement, the doors, also of glass, are made so that they can be turned back into the case. The woodwork is of polished oak. The cases, of course, perfectly dust proof, while the garments hang in such a way as to retain their proper shape. A feature of the store, too, that will appeal to mothers—yes, and usually non-observant fathers—is the special department for children's clothing. Rugs on the floor, tables and chairs arranged for shopping. Dressing rooms and mirrors specially arranged for observation of garments when being worn are other features to appeal to the adult shopper. The lighting, too, is such that colors can be as easily distinguished as by daylight. All the pillars of the store are surrounded by panel mirrors, while potted palms, set on top of the wardrobes, make the general view most attractive. The general offices and the private office of J. C. Colman, the manager, are in the rear of the store, and are in appointments thoroughly in keeping with the other furnishings. The reputation enjoyed by "Oak Hall" for so many years for high class tailored ready-to-wear clothing is so well known that the excellence of the garments in stock need not be dwelt on now.

WHEN WERE TUBERS FROZEN?

On That Point Depends Result of Suit Before Judge Britton. Suit against the Matthews Grain Co. of Toronto for $300 damages was begun yesterday in the non-jury assize court before Justice Britton by T. J. McCabe, a merchant of Caledon east. The evidence showed that the plaintiff had shipped four carloads of potatoes to the defendant company, which rejected the consignment, claiming the potatoes were frozen. The point to be decided was whether the potatoes were spoiled before or after they became the property of the purchaser. The company presented a counter claim of $300, and held that the cars were shipped by consignment, while the plaintiff claimed that he held a contract for shipment to Caledon East.

School Boy Struck by Farmer. Charged with having committed an assault on a 11-year-old Upper Canada College boy named Malcolm Cremer of Hamilton, Walter Corner, a wealthy farmer living north of the U.C.C. grounds, was brought before Squire Henderson of Wychwood and remanded until next Tuesday. Corner says that boy, with others, was shooting on his property.

BAR THE UNDESIRABLES AND HAVE ALL DISARMED

Features of Grand Jury's Report and Justice Riddell's Comment Thereon.

Strong criticism of the system of inspection of immigrants which permits moral imbeciles to enter Canada, and of the failure of officials to deprive foreigners of unlawful weapons, characterized the comment of Justice Riddell on presentation of assizes grand jury which drew particularly on the prevalence of such crimes of murder as that for which Pasquale Venturini will be sentenced to-morrow. Disarmament of newly arrived foreigners and prohibition of the sale of deadly weapons except under a system of permits was favored. Two additional wings for the jail and separation of the sick from the insane are recommended. The ed and unsanitary conditions of the children's court, and the fact that the children's court is a public office are not in such a condition of cleanliness as a visitor would be led to expect, and are liable to hurt the reputation of the city.

Justice Riddell, concurring in the report, referred to the having presided at the trial of a youth charged with brutally murdering an aged woman. The young man was an aged man, and medical men testified that he preferred Canada in May, 1909, would have been examined at the boundaries to determine whether they were of the material of which good citizens might be made. Such weapons as air rifles, daggers and revolvers should be taken from all immigrants, whether of British origin or otherwise. Judge Riddell deprecates "the constant effort to charge the police with the third degree." He had never found an instance where the police of any Canadian city had gone beyond their duty in trying to extract information.

DOUBLED COMPENSATION

KINGSTON, May 11.—(Special.)—A deputation of the city council has gone to Ottawa to seek cancellation of the lease of occupation given of land in the Pembroke Railway company and the council wants it for new G.T.R. freight sheds. Half a million bushels of grain will arrive on Saturday and Sunday from Fort William for the Montreal Transportation Co., for trans-shipment into barges for Montreal. Mrs. Walter Carnovsky of Kingston died suddenly in New York. By dying in June, 1909, the Dominion Government was prevented from paying her the full value of the range of farms beyond Barfield, a range of farms which she had bought for $100,000. A petition was filed in the exchequer court and Justice Cassels held the cases to-day. These made claims: John Gillespie, F. Cor-mack, Henry Milton, J. M. Sibbet, E. A. Painley, Wm. Bailie. One case worth $1800 of the government, was awarded $2500.

RABIES IN KENT

Many Cases Are Developing—Special Precautions May Be Necessary. Reports have been received by the Dominion and provincial authorities in Kent against rabies, from which it is found that Kent County is the real centre of the trouble, and it may be necessary to adopt special precautions in that district.

In addition to the cases forwarded to Dr. J. G. Rutherford, veterinary director-general at Ottawa, three heads were received yesterday by Dr. J. A. Amyot at the provincial laboratory, which showed positive indications of the disease in its most advanced and virulent stages. The dog's head came from Blenheim and two other heads from Thamesville and Ridgeway. Special attention is being directed to one steer's head. The steer was bitten by an infected dog. Immediately after the canine had lacerated the flesh of a boy's leg. Prompt measures were taken and the boy recovered. The best-known case at Toronto. He has apparently escaped the terrible consequences of the disease. Later the steer developed violent symptoms and ran muck until it fell exhausted and died. Another case was reported yesterday from Kent County, when a rabid dog is said to have run wild for 14 miles and bitten a number of unprotected live stock.

CHARACTER & REPUTATION

It is the high character of Gourlay Pianos as they are at present built that has earned the appreciation and demand for the instruments. Their sale does not depend upon a reputation due to the labor and skill of a former generation. This is the buyer's safeguard and assurance of permanent satisfaction with a Gourlay.

There is Not a Weak Link in this Chain of reasons why you should have a Gourlay Piano in your home

are all of one quality—the best. If we took a commission to build a piano for $1,000 it could be of no better material or workmanship than we regularly use in any one of our simpler, more moderately-priced styles. We could spend more money on ornamentation, but nothing to improve quality. Gourlay Pianos are to be found in prominent homes in practically every city and town in Canada. The most musical person in your coterie of friends is probably a Gourlay enthusiast.

Booklet Number 6 tells the names of over 2,500 homes where Gourlay Pianos are used. If you contemplate the purchase of a piano this booklet should interest you. Write for it.

TOUCH

To maintain the touch of a piano is a very important consideration. In Gourlay Pianos, the genius of the builder is demonstrated in what you might almost call individually, personally in the touch—a direct appeal to the player's real musical taste.

IN SOCIETY

The new women's office in the King Edward Hotel is one of the evidences of growth in that institution which may be remarked upon the occasion of the seventh anniversary of the opening of the hotel, which occurred yesterday. When the magnificent building was thrown open to the public, a great crowd flocked to view its magnificence, but it is doubtful if the steady volume of business was any greater than it was yesterday. At present only one metropolitan hotel, a prominent New York institution, caters exclusively to lady guests. So far as its office is concerned, the King Edward Hotel in its new department, has furnished a duplicate of this. There is no want ordinarily supplied at an hotel office which is not provided in the new rooms at the King Edward, devoted entirely to the use of lady patrons. The offices open directly off the Victoria-street entrance of the hotel, and they are superbly finished in green and gold. Lady clerks are in attendance at the miniature registration desk, and the service is performed by well-trained ladies maids. With the new department lady guests of the hotel are removed from the necessity of crossing the main rotunda of the hotel, the innovation is especially appreciated by those who patronize the tea rooms and by ladies who come to the hotel to call on friends.

LIONS FOR THE ZOO

Daniel Lamb has written Mayor Geary advising that the Hon. G. A. Cox has presented to the Riverdale Park Zoo two young male lions, one a black-maned two years old lion, cost $1400; and one a male cub, 8 months old, imported. These two lions are now in New York and will be here in a few days.

Hon. G. A. Cox presented all the lions in the zoo, and it is desired that the old lion be allowed to live out his natural life. "I am sure the senator's gift will be greatly appreciated," says Mr. Lamb.

New York Securities Fail To Maintain a Buoyant Tone—Canadian Operators Attempt To Follow the Larger Market.

World Office
Wednesday Evening, May 11.

The strength in the New York market incited a little enthusiasm in Canadian securities to-day and prices of some of the speculative stocks were bid up in accordance with this sentiment.

Strange to say the improvement, or apparent improvement, in the market was not concurrent with any big demand for stocks, the business to-day being considerably below that of the usual on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

The movement in Dominion Steel on the afternoon board was due entirely to orders which came from Montreal. It was supposed that these orders were given for the purpose of making prices in the market, and the sales were made by the clique which is still operating these and the Dominion Coal shares on the various exchanges.

A more general advance occurred in Canadian General Electric to-day, which shares were in demand at the close at 106, as compared with yesterday's bid price of 102. Numerous speculative and weakened shareholders in this company have been scared out during the last week, and after the absorption of this stock has developed there is evidently a scarcity of the shares in the market.

Taken together, the movements in the various securities to-day were mixed and such as might indicate the operations of syndicates for effecting small profits.

Viewed in a broad way, the market showed no improvement, although the prices of some securities were higher than they were on the day before.

Fractional advances in the market indicate nothing save that of market promotion, and until it can be definitely established that the buying power is stronger than the selling, it would be well to regard this market as still in the hands of those who are finding stocks difficult of sale.

Record of Small Banks.

The friends of the big banks, forgetting that these latter institutions once started and were producing some time ago that there would be few banks hereafter on small beginnings. The case of the Sterling Bank of Canada is the answer. It had a magnificent business and earnings last year, and it is following in the lines of the older ones, to its advance into their ranks in at more rapid pace. Canada is growing so rapidly that we must have more banks and bigger banks, and some more little ones as well. There is business for Reductions Being Made.

Charles Head & Co. to-morrow will say: Activity in the iron markets is not to be expected, while the compulsory adjustment of pig iron supply to demand is under way. The U. S. Steel Corporation has been steadily reducing its pig iron output to the demands of its steel works. Southern pig iron producers are making a firm stand for $12 Birmingham, for No. 20. More activity is reported from Cincinnati, where a foundry iron market shows indications of a buying movement. Cast iron pipe makers have been buyers in a moderate way. The market for steel making iron is weaker and in the Pittsburgh district sales of basic iron have been at a low level. A good many coke contracts have been negotiated in the past week. One deal put thru in the east is for 450,000 tons, deliveries extending over five years on a sliding scale of prices. In the Pittsburgh district a twelve month contract extending July 1 was made at $1.80 at oven. A sale of 12,000 tons of coke for the last half of the year was made at $1.35 at oven. More agricultural work has been contracted for bars, transactions in the Chicago district amounting to 40,000 tons. A reduction of 1-1/2 c in was made in wrought pipe.

On Wall Street.

Erickson Perkins & Co. say at the close: The sagging off of stocks this afternoon, after so sharp a rise, was to be expected. What the next swing will be is largely guess. It is altogether likely that the big people have left off some stocks and would welcome a break before re-purchasing. As a whole, however, we have had a rebound of 5 to 10 points and under ordinary circumstances, the rise has gone far enough, until we have had a substantial setback. We say this, as a favorable comment, not because we believe in the advance. We do not believe it is warranted by conditions, but we assume that prominent interests want to put stocks up and get out of their holdings. This being the supposed program, they will suffer another setback, but they want to-day, and distribute more stocks.

J. P. Bickell & Co. say at the close: Influenced by an irregular market in London stocks opened quiet to-day and immediately receded nearly a point on the average. In the theory that stocks are a sale on continuation of good news a reaction would normally be expected in to-morrow's market, but we believe the advance will continue further even should such a reaction occur.

Chas. Head & Co. to R. R. Bondard.

It is believed the U. S. senate will radically amend the railroad bill recently passed by the house. There is a possibility of inside selling in an unobtrusive quiet manner to-day by the large interests, although London purchases were said to be about 25,000 tons. Closing was a recession and it is possible we may see some lower prices before the end of the week, as the rally has extended for several days and a reaction would seem to be in order.

NO INDICATIONS OF AGGRESSIVE BUYING.

World Office
Wednesday Evening, May 11.

There was more semblance of strength to securities listed on the Toronto market to-day, but this did not bring about any increased business. It is accepted as quite natural that with advances of five to ten points on Wall Street, Canadian stocks should improve fractionally. Money tightness has become less pronounced locally, although it is still admitted that the best kind of collateral is all that the loaning institutions are willing to accept. According to the market to-day, it might appear that the frightened shareholders of Canadian General Electric had been relieved of their shares, as the stock was supported nearly four points above yesterday. An improvement in some issues is all that can be said of to-day's market, as there were no indications which would indicate aggressive buying for a future improvement.

C.P.R. MAKES PURCHASES OF LONDON REAL ESTATE

Will Establish Depot, Round House and Shops—Toronto Capitalist Gets Neighboring Sites.

LONDON, May 11.—(Special.)—In consonance with its matured plans for Ontario, the C.P.R. has made large purchases of land in the northeastern end of the city for a depot, a round-house and shops.

The C.P.R. has had its confidential agents at work quietly for months buying up whole blocks of lots along Adelaide-street, Quebec-street, Ontario-street and other streets adjoining Adelaide-street. The C.P.R. has also been purchasing the C.P.R. William Hayman has sold several blocks of land, and the Higgins property, comprising 75 acres, adjoining the city and new works, has passed into other hands.

The C.P.R. plans are well advanced. The east end station will be built at the southwestern corner of the city, tracks and Quebec-street. West of this station the shops will be erected and employment given to a great number of men.

These big real estate purchases on the part of the C.P.R. and the announcement of plans of railway extension have set the city agog. So quietly the purchases made that Londoners have hardly realized what has happened, but there were Toronto capitalists who were wide awake and got on the wagon.

James Curry, banker, Toronto, has had his eye on London real estate for some time and has quietly cornered most of the available properties adjoining the new purchases. It is Mr. Curry who bought both the Higgins properties of 75 acres. He has already negotiated with large manufacturing firms for the Higgins property. The Higgins property is built up with fine houses and this property and there is no city extension except the new Higgins property, it holds the key to the station and its purchase is highly desirable to the long-sighted Toronto banker.

Mr. Curry and one of the leading real estate agents of Toronto are expected in the city to complete the Higgins property at once and to put it in the hands of a hustling Toronto expert, who will open an office in this city.

Again Londoners have been caught asleep and the good thing in real estate has been the German mill, but in the long run they win for the C.P.R. has concluded that London is the centre of Ontario and is worth cultivating.

Mrs. Pardee's Complaint of Ill-Treatment at Falls Not Verified.

W. W. Scott, Dominion Superintendent of Immigration, writes the World:

"Prominent notice was given in the press to the complaint of Fulford Arnold, of Osgoode Hall, Toronto, that his daughter, Mrs. Alfred D. Pardee, when crossing the border at Niagara Falls upon her way to Toronto, received insulting treatment from a Canadian immigration officer, and was obliged to call in the train hands to convince the officers of her identity.

"A full enquiry into the complaint has been made by the superintendent of immigration, who finds that Mrs. Pardee, while re-iterating over the phone her complaint, said she would be unable to identify the offender, and after making these statements refused to discuss the matter further or to grant a personal interview to the official so that he might prosecute his enquiry in that direction.

"The only immigration officer who was on the train on hand Mrs. Pardee was a passenger, states that he did not speak to her yet she said she had supplied on a form printed for that purpose, the name of the immigration officer, who finds that Mrs. Pardee, while re-iterating over the phone her complaint, said she would be unable to identify the offender, and after making these statements refused to discuss the matter further or to grant a personal interview to the official so that he might prosecute his enquiry in that direction.

Business Will Not Be Materially Affected by the National Mourning Except in London

THE KING'S DEATH has, of course, cast a gloom over society, and in the Old Land, particularly in London, the cancellation of social functions and public entertainments will have, it is feared, a serious effect on business. At this distance however, and in this practical land, sincere though was our respect and esteem for the late genial English gentleman we were proud to call "The King," we shall still go about our business with uninterrupted energy. This store sees no reason for not emphasizing its daily shopping programmes with the forethoughtfulness they deserve.
