All roads lead to St. John and the exhibition. Every incoming train and boat was crowded with passengers this morning, all eager to see the big St. John fair. Stables, too, have been taxed to care for the teams of the farmers. All visitors are wending their way to the southern end of the city, where lie the fair grounds. The Fredericton train brought about 400 visitors from the capital and intermediate points, and a special train from Moncton arriving at 11.30, had fully 500 passengers on board. The Boston train was an hour late, and brought 12 carloads of people, numbering about 700. The Atlantic express had a big passenger list, and the Maritime brought a big crowd from all along the line between here and Halifax. At noon the crowds were beginning to arrive at the exhibition buildings and the turnstiles closed right merrily the hour after the opening of the gates.

Many anxious eyes watched the weather indications and there was a feeling that the day would not pass without some showers of rain. The fears proved to be well founded, for about noon there were slight showers. D. L. Hutchinson, of the meteorological bureau, when consulted, said the indications pointed to fine weather for today and tomorrow, but he thought some slight showers might be expected this afternoon. Judging was commenced this morning at the horse and cattle and also in the women's art department. One of the features for the afternoon is the grand parade of automobiles, driven by their owners, on the track in front of the grand stand.

The Dog Show Opened

How-wow, kiki, yelp-yelp, yow-yow! The dog show is in full blast. Starting shortly after eight o'clock this morning, the exhibits commenced to arrive, and from then on pandemonium reigned. There was an interesting exhibit of about 100 dogs when a big black Newfoundland, owned by Robert Blackall, was attacked by a bull terrier about a quarter past nine. The Newfoundland had just been brought in and was standing out in

The Marconi Exhibit

The Marconi wireless telegraph station, which is to be found near the fireworks display, is an interesting place for the visitor who has not seen this wonderful apparatus. The exhibit is in charge of Eugene Lawson, the engineer of the Port of St. John.

The Manual Training Exhibit

The manual training exhibit continues to be the popular centre of attraction, and much interest is being manifested in the work of the boys. The instructor in charge, Osborn Brown, and Mr. Kidner, the director, are kept busy answering questions regarding the work. Many inquiries are made as to where this instruction is to be had, and the city visitors seemed especially pleased to learn that the manual training school at St. John is almost an accomplished fact. Yesterday afternoon the general exhibits from the provincial schools received an attractive addition in the Woodstock exhibit. Three large cases of work came from this progressive town, and comprise the most complete set of manual training work yet received. Grades 5 to 10 are all represented, grades 5 and 6 sending cardboard work, and the rest their regular woodworking models. There are also complete sets of working drawings made by the pupils, and a beautiful collection of the leaves of New Brunswick timber trees. The hours during which the boys are at work are as follows: Mornings, 11 to 12; afternoon, 2 to 5; evening, 8 to 9. This is altogether one of the most attractive features of the whole show.

Funny Shows on the Pike

A Times man paid a visit to some of the shows on the Pike last night and managed to get considerable amusement out of it. The laughing mirrors proved one of the strongest attractions. The half-score of mirrors that distort the "looker" in various ways had a steady stream of visitors. Among those patronizing the show when the Times man was in, was a party of four, "two fellows and their girls." The husband of this party proved infectious, especially when one of the mirrors would find that one after another of the mirrors made her look funny and would cry out: "Look at me," and then take a laughing fit. One old gent with a sour face, who had the appearance of a man who could not crack a smile was disgusted at what he evidently deemed foolishness in laughing at the reflections and he took pains to tell all who came along that he was wishing to laugh at "the mirrors are made that way, it's the way they're bent," he gravely remarked and passed on.

The Frisco Pictures

Miles Brothers' moving pictures of the San Francisco disaster were seen for the first time on the Pike yesterday afternoon. They are shown at the head of the northern side of the Pike in a large black tent, and drew large attendances at all exhibitions. These pictures are most interesting, and give the clearest obtain-

FIVE SISTERS OF GREAT AVOIRDUPOIS

Parents Were Heavy, Too

The sisters are scattered over various parts of the United States, and Miss Thompson declines absolutely to disclose either their ages or her own. The parents, both of whom have passed away, were large and beefy, the father having been fully six feet in height, and maintained an average weight of 285 pounds; while Mrs. Thompson was five feet five inches in height and weighed 240 pounds. The sisters are all hale and hearty, and it is interesting to note that for fleshy people they are remarkably light on foot and active.

A Chat with Miss Thompson

The Times man was quick to accept Captain Perry's invitation, and on reaching the house, was introduced to Miss Rachel Thompson, who, in the course of an interview, narrated the following facts, which form an interesting and striking item in the history of the province of New Brunswick, and the settlers along the river St. John, as Mr. and Mrs. Thompson may be classed, almost as pioneers of what is now termed the "Ridge of America."

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

HIRAM AT THE FAIR.

Mr. Hiram Hornbeam began his tour of the exhibition grounds this morning with a visit to the laughing mirrors on the Pike. He says he will have a set of them in his house if they cost two dollars, for the moral effect on Mrs. Hornbeam, who occasionally falls into a baritone mood and sees farm life through tear-stained glasses. Hiram went in with Detective Killen this morning, and the detective wanted to arrest himself the minute he caught sight of the face that stared at him from the first mirror.

AN ENJOYABLE PARTY

The closing of the social season at Reid's Point, Kings county was marked last evening by a very enjoyable harvest dance and supper. Messrs Roy and Eugene Woodell were hosts and among the guests were visitors from New York, who have been staying at the "Willows." During the evening, Miss Blaine sang a solo, Miss May Kilfoyle gave a reading, and a trio by Misses Josephine Russell, Grace Johnson, and Belle Kilfoyle was greatly enjoyed. Supper was served and there was a good time generally.

The Heaviest of the Five

Mrs. Thomas Watts, the heaviest of the sisters, weighs 284 pounds, and her family numbers eight--three boys and three girls, their ages ranging from 24 to 38. (Thomas Thompson, the only surviving brother, lives at Salmon Creek. He is six feet two inches in height and 178 pounds in weight.)

Pure Food Products

Since the recent disclosures regarding impurities and uncleanliness in canned goods, the public has been rather wary in the buying of manufactured goods of all kinds. There is probably no line of manufactured products that can be adulterated more than preserved fruits, jellies or jams. Unscrupulous manufacturers use dyes, preservatives in the form of acids and glucose. These materials naturally exert an injurious effect on the consumer.

FUNERALS

The funeral of the late Mrs. William E. Raymond, wife of William E. Raymond, one of the proprietors of the Royal Hotel, was held this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the residence of her husband, 31 Dorchester street. The funeral was very largely attended and the pall-bearers were: Hon. A. H. Dunn, Mayor Swan, B. E. Macdougall, F. H. McLaughlin, George Blake and Charles D. Jones. The burial services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Diaker, and interment took place at Fernside.

THIRTY FEET OR NO EMPRESSES

General Superintendent Downie, Captain Walsh and Engineer Brown, of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, called at City Hall this morning and were closeted with the mayor for some time. The mayor, when asked the purpose of this lengthy consultation, did not care to discuss the matter, except to say that he had to do with the west side dredging. It is understood the C. P. R. has asked the city to guarantee that the depth of water in the Grand Ledge is thirty feet. The alternative would be that the C. P. R. employ steamers would not come. It is thought that a meeting will be called shortly to consider the matter.

HORSE RACES POSTPONED

The horse races at Mooseport which were to have been held tomorrow and Thursday have been postponed until Thursday and Friday on account of the races at Moncton being postponed for a day, and thus not allowing the horses from there to arrive here on time. The Barbours horses have arrived and are now quartered at the track.

TOO MUCH GRAPE JUICE CAUSED THEIR TROUBLE

The prisoner's bench in the police court this morning was not large enough to seat all the offenders that were called upon to face Judge Ritchie and although the majority of the prisoners had drunkenness charged against them the session was quite interesting. On Saturday John Booth was found lying drunk on Gasquet street and this morning he was fined $8 or 30 days, while George Duke, who had but one arm, was given the same punishment for a similar offence.

THE SUPREME COURT OPENED THIS MORNING

The supreme court opened at the court house this morning. His Honor Judge Landry presiding. The names of the grand jurors were called out in compliance with the request of Attorney General Pugsley. His honor instructed the sheriff to notify the members of the jury who were absent from the court.

JURY DOCKET.

Collins v. The City of St. John. Thorne Estate v. Bustin. Willis v. St. John Iron Works. McHays v. City of St. John. Smith v. Baxter.

NON-JURY DOCKET.

Bank of Nova Scotia v. McNutt. Proter v. McClasky. Thomas v. C. P. Railway. Day v. Myles. John E. Wilson was chosen jury foreman, and after swearing the jury his honor said that he would not charge the grand jury till 2.15 this afternoon, when the case of the King v. Clark will be placed before them.

Assault But Not Robbery

The county court session resumed this morning, Judge Forbes presiding. The case of the King v. Sales was postponed until this afternoon.

amusing one. Wormwood's trained monkeys and dogs perform many wonderful feats and keep the audience alternately amused and astonished.

The dogs turn back somersaults, do clever balancing acts, and one big fellow, who is old and looks exceedingly wise, is a veritable mathematician and can solve simple problems set by the audience. He backs out his answers with great accuracy. A very clever act in which dogs and monkeys join in a coaching expedition in which the coach is upset and the monkey passengers injured, caused rounds of laughter.

Wormwood's animals open the performance and bring it to a close. The intervening entertainment is given by Montagna's exquisites. They include in Roman chariot races, horizontal bar performances, rolling a ball on an elevated wire and many other clever acts, concluding with a sensational piece of work entitled Fighting the Flames. THE SCARLET PIMPERNEL

BY BARONESS ORCZY.

CHAPTER III. The Refugees

Feeling in every part of England certainly very high at this time against the French and their doings...

The execution of the Princess de Lamballe, Marie Antoinette's young and charming friend...

Yet with all that, no one dared to interfere. Burke had expounded all his eloquence in trying to induce the British Government to fight the revolutionary government of France...

But only for a moment; the next he had turned to Mr. Henswood, who was respectfully touching his forehead.

"Well, Mr. Henswood, and how is the fruit?"

"Badly, my lord, badly," replied Mr. Henswood, dolefully, "but what can you expect with this 'ere government favourin' them rascals over in France, who would murder their king and all their nobility?"

"Old's life!" retorted Lord Antony, "so they would, honest Henswood, at least those they can get hold of, worse luck! But we have got some friends coming here tonight, who at any rate have evaded their clutches."

It almost seemed, when the young man said these words, as if he threw a defiant look towards the quiet strangers in the corner.

"Thank you, my lord, and to your friends, so I've heard it said," said Mr. Jellyband.

But in a moment Lord Antony's hand fell warningly on mine host's arm.

"Hush!" he said peremptorily, and instinctively once again looked towards the strangers.

"Oh! Lord love you, they are all right, my lord," retorted Jellyband; "don't you be afraid. I wouldn't have spoken, only I know we were among friends. That gentleman over there is as true and loyal a subject of King George as you are yourself, my lord, saving your presence. He is but lately arrived in Dover, and is settling down in business in these parts."

"In business? Faith, then, it must be an undertaking, for I vow I never beheld a more respectful countenance."

"Nay, my lord, I believe that the gentleman is a widower, which no doubt would account for the melancholy of his bearing—but he is a friend, nevertheless. I'll vouch for that—and you will own, my lord, that who should judge of a face better than the landlord of a popular inn—"

Antony, as he deposited a Kiss on Miss Sally's blooming cheeks, "but you are growing prettier and prettier every time I see you—and my honest friend, Jollyband here, must have hard work to keep the fellows off that slim waist of yours. What say you, Mr. Waite?"

Mr. Waite—born between his respect for my lord and his dislike of that particular type of joke—only replied with a doubtful grunt.

Lord Antony Dewhurst, one of the sons of the Duke of Exeter, was in those days a very perfect type of a young English gentleman—tall, well set-up, broad of shoulders and merry of face, his laughter rang loudly wherever he went.

A good sportsman, a lively companion, a courteous, well-bred man of the world, with not too much leisure to spoil his temper, he was a universal favorite in London drawing-rooms or in the coffee-rooms of village inns.

At "The Fisherman's Rest" everyone knew him—for he was fond of a trip across to France, and always spent a night under worthy Mr. Jellyband's roof on his way there or back.

He nodded to Waite, Pitkin and the others as he laid Miss Sally's waist and crossed over to the hearth to warm and dry himself; as he did so, he cast a quick, somewhat suspicious glance at the two strangers, who had quietly resumed their game of dominoes, and for a moment a look of deep earnestness, even of anxiety, clouded his jovial young face.

But only for a moment; the next he had turned to Mr. Henswood, who was respectfully touching his forehead.

"Well, Mr. Henswood, and how is the fruit?"

"Badly, my lord, badly," replied Mr. Henswood, dolefully, "but what can you expect with this 'ere government favourin' them rascals over in France, who would murder their king and all their nobility?"

ARM CUT OFF NEAR ELBOW

James Ruhlín Met With a Frightful Accident on I. C. R. Tracks Yesterday.

A man whose name is said to be James Ruhlín, of Norton, had his right arm cut off near the elbow last night by the C. P. R. suburban engine, No. 9, which entered the depot at 10.20 o'clock.

The accident occurred near Lombard street. Ruhlín, it is said, had been drinking and was lying with his right arm across the rail when the train came along and completely severed the arm. Ruhlín's head was also bruised and one of his ears nearly taken off.

When the train went by where the accident occurred William McGowry, a young man, was on the engine, and stated that he believed something had been run over. Immediately cries from the unfortunate man could be heard and yard men carried him to the yard office and summoned the ambulance.

Before reaching the hospital the sufferer lost considerable blood, and his condition is regarded as critical.

BABY'S BODY FOUND

Policeman Lawson Discovered Body of Dead Girl Baby in Fairville Yesterday.

Policeman Lawson, of Fairville, made a peculiar discovery yesterday while searching at Lanesville in the vicinity of the reservoir where the box that had contained J. R. Clark's money had been found by some boys. He had an idea that the finding of the box might lead to the solution of the robbery and accordingly set about searching the locality.

At the foot of one of the largest rocks he came upon a place where the turf had been recently disturbed. Not doubting that he had here the solution of the mystery he commenced digging and in a depth of about a foot uncovered the lid of a tin box. This discovery strengthened his suspicions and he soon had the box opened. The body of a dead girl baby was lying inside and when the policeman threw it open he was horrified to find the body of a female infant wrapped in a cotton cloth.

Mr. Lawson, very carefully if somewhat hurriedly, deposited the box in the hole again and, covering it up, hurried to Fairville and returned to the spot with Corporal Macfarland and Albert Taylor, a special policeman.

The coroner, after viewing the body, expressed the opinion that it had been prematurely born. On returning to his office he was called upon by a doctor who told him that he had attended a premature birth in a Fairville family and the child had been buried there at the expense of the parents. Arrangements were afterwards made for interment in Cedar Hill cemetery.

DROWNED OFF GRAND MAANN

Hit by a swinging boom, Bedford Moses, of Grand Manan, aged about twenty-one years, was knocked overboard from the darning packet Shig Said No, while sailing with a party of ladies off the island about 11 o'clock Saturday morning last.

Word reached the city yesterday. "Although able to swim, it is said that he sank before assistance could be sent him. His body has not been recovered. He was the youngest son of John Moses, of Grand Manan, a respected and prosperous fisherman."

All told, there were four people on board. The ladies had come from the United States, and were of the island as tourists. Saturday forenoon, it is understood that Mr. Moses was engaged by the party to take them sailing.

He was managing the boat alone, and had reached the North Head of Long Island without mishap. There was a sudden gust of wind, and the boom, which was lying loose in the crotch, swung around and struck Mr. Moses with such force that he was hurled into the water. One of the women, Miss Felix, from New York state, who had arrived on the steamer Aurora from Eastport the day previous, was also knocked over the side but luckily she managed to seize a rope that was trailing in the water, and was pulled back to the deck by her companions.

The accident had been witnessed from the shore and help was soon at hand. Mr. Moses' deplorable death aroused much sympathy in the island.

HAVE A CLOSE CALL

Hampton, N. B., Sept. 3.—At an early hour this morning, Roy Whelpley, of Moncton, and Perkins, of Hampton Station, took their guns and went to Lakeside on a duck shooting excursion. Procuring a flat bottomed boat or duck canoe, they paddled up and down the shore and finally started across the lake.

The boat leaked so badly that it sank by the bow, and Whelpley, standing up as a small stroke caught them, the boat capsized and threw both into the water. Whelpley managed to climb upon the upturned canoe, where Whelpley joined him, but his fine double-barreled breech-loader went to the bottom.

Wet and cold, the young men held on for about half an hour, when Dr. Murray and his brother, William, who had gone to the lake also for a few hours' sport, saw their dangerous condition and pulled out to their relief. Happily no serious results, other than the shock, the drenching and consequent chill, were experienced.

Arthabaska, Que., Sept. 3.—Henri Laurier, prothonotary and clerk of the court of the district of Arthabaska, died last night after supper. Deceased was 45 years of age and leaves two brothers, Sir Wilfrid and Charlemagne Laurier, M. P., and a wife and two children.

Bathurst, N. B., Sept. 3.—Leo Godin, of Petit Rocher, brakeman on No. 10 train, had his shoulder badly dislocated while shunting at Gloucester Junction on Saturday. Godin was stepping from the engine when he slipped and fell. He was brought to Bathurst and attended by the district railway doctor, R. G. Daneau.

There have been evidences of ignorance of Canadian geography in England, but E. B. Williams, of this city, in a letter from Boston, proves that much nearer neighbors have hazy ideas on the subject. He writes that he saw in the window of the Maine Central railroad office in Boston a large picture of the Cantilever and Suspension bridges, Fairville. The pictures were very fine, and on a brass plate underneath was this inscription: "This is a picture of the Cantilever and Suspension bridges over the St. John river, and they connect Maine and New Brunswick."

A SIGN OF FAITH

WE believe in "The Slater Shoe!" Otherwise the sign pictured here would never swing from our store.

Our faith in Slater Shoes is based upon full knowledge and personal wear of them.

We had to sign a rigid contract in order to secure the exclusive control for this town. Naturally we "went slow," and investigated thoroughly before we signed it.

We bought several pairs of Slater Shoes and wore them personally.

We knew a score of people who had worn Slater Shoes regularly, and we consulted them confidentially, on the fit and service given.

Then we visited the factory to see just how carefully they were made, and what sort of materials were put under the finish. After we were convinced that no other shoes in Canada, at the price, were so carefully and uniformly well-made, we signed the contract which gave us control.

Then we placed a large order for a full range of Slater Shoe shapes, sizes and widths.

It had to be a large order for we must sell a raft of Slater Shoes in order to make a fair profit out of the line.

Because, the Makers' stamp their own retail price on the lining of every Slater Shoe, and that price doesn't leave any fancy margin for the Retailer.

But, we have seen that the actual difference in profit has been put into the shoes, and that what we lose in profit the Wearer gets in extra service, style and comfort.

We rely upon that extra value to increase our sales, so that the volume will make up for the small profit per pair.

Our new Slater Shoes are now in stock, and we are proud of them.

Come and tell us what you think of the new styles, and of our judgement in making this radical "move" in our business.

Look them over, and try them on, even if you don't want to buy at once.

If you are hard to fit, better choose while the stock is fresh—while sizes and widths are complete, and perhaps we'll lay aside for you the pair you select, till you want them.

Now don't defer—Come along today, or tomorrow, and see what we've got for you in—

ATTENDANCE RECORDS WENT BY THE BOARD AT EXHIBITION YESTERDAY

Already the attendance at the exhibition this year is far ahead of Saturday and Monday of the last exhibition. Yesterday 10,000 persons paid admission to the fair, as compared with 7,500 on the same day at the last show. With fine weather this year's attendance should total far ahead of all previous records. Yesterday's threatening weather undoubtedly had a deterrent effect upon the attendance and taking this into consideration, the showing was little short of marvellous.

The Pike and the amusement halls came in for a large share of attention, while the industrial buildings were thronged from early until late.

The orchestra consists of seventeen pieces as follows: Four 1st violins, two 2nd violins, viola, cello, double bass, flute, clarinet, two horns, two cornets, trombone and drum.

Today the programme at the afternoon and evening performances, at 3.15 p. m. and 8 p. m., will include the following selections: March, Diplomat; Sousa; overture, Die Schone Galathee, Von Suppe; intermezzo, Dainty Dames, Blake; Gems from Carmen, Bizet; waltz, Amor, Strube; selection, Mlle. Modiste, Herbert; seven airs, Moonlight, Morel; Lilliputis, Rogers; Excerpte from Pantana, Hubbell; two step, Peter Pan, Henry.

It may be interesting to mention that the Boston orchestra have just completed an eleven weeks' engagement at Rock Island (Me.) at the end of this month will start on a tour, opening in Boston and extending as far west as Utah. Concerts will be given in the principal cities en route.

A glass tank was partly filled with water, in full view of the house. There was ample space beneath and around it. A figure of a young woman reclining in the tank and below the surface of the water. Called upon to do so, she climbed out with the robe over her shoulders and stood out upon the stage. The trick was repeated and was watched with keenest interest.

Flower judging commenced yesterday. The results were:

Specimen cactus—H. E. Gould.

Awards in class 80 for cut flowers will be announced today. In class 70, for plants and flowers in pots, there were entries. H. E. Gould will judge the school flower exhibits.

In the poultry building the exhibit for purposes that of two years ago and excels any seen here for many years. There are an exceptionally large number of entries. The judging will probably begin this afternoon. Sharp Butterfield, of Windsor (Ont.), one of the best known authorities on fowls on this continent, will officiate. Superintendent Riley reports that the numerous birds are in better condition than any shown here in recent years. The class of white and buff Wyandottes are especially well-filled as are also the white and brown Leghorns and black Minorcas. Mr. Riley also speaks highly of the variety of crossed fowls. The water fowls, too, show to better advantage than formerly, there being a fine selection of geese and ducks.

The largest exhibitors are E. C. Campbell, of Calais; A. Bowell, of P. E. Island; Seth Jones, of Sussex; and Hugh Campbell, of Miramichi. Wm. Field, John Hain, A. Casselec, W. Jordan, John Cole, John A. Scott, W. H. Jackson, John E. Warren, W. O'Leary, H. H. Mott, Rev. Father, Wm. Kelly, Wm. E. Kervin, James Lettewee, Frank Hamm, city; Wm. Robinson, Amherst; Hatheway & Son, Fredericton; Miss Isabel Dunsmuir, John Barber, city; Wm. Crowley, Sandy Point Road; Mr. Goodspeed, Fredericton; Barry Clarke, city.

The judging in the exhibits of Clydesdale and Percheron stallions did not take place yesterday. The awards will be made today, together with those for the cart and dray horses owned in the city and county of St. John.

The Telegraph will also be commenced today. In the beef cattle section, the Shortborns will be inspected first, and other breeds if time permits. The awards will not be judged until tomorrow and the remaining Jersey breeds on Thursday. Walter McMonagle and R. Robinson, of Sussex, are the prize exhibitors of Guernseys and Guay Cart, of Compton (Que.), has a good herd of Quebec Jerseys to be shown.

The Telegraph and the Times' booth proved an attractive feature to the passing crowds. Many questions were asked as to the use to which the looking glass and the card-board indented with type were put and the plates and other evidences of the way in which the papers are printed were frequently resorted to compare with a copy of the handsome illustrated edition of St. John, which was issued by the Telegraph Publishing Company. Copies of the Telegraph or the Times, according to the time of day, were much sought after. The decorations in red, white and gold, and well set off the large picture of the buildings from which the two big papers are issued.

Did the Mysterius

Did the Mysterius make their first appearance in the amusement hall yesterday afternoon. Helman, the magician, opens the performance, and while he is performing commences to compare with the Great Herrmann as a magician or sleight of hand performer, still he gives a fairly good performance. It could be considered as a good up-to-date line of "patter."

"Did the Mysterius" is a wonderful illusion, in fact, one of the best ever seen, and yesterday's spectators were well pleased with it.

The Ladies Orchestra

The Bostonian Ladies Orchestra arrived yesterday and gave their first concert from the band stand in the Industrial Hall yesterday afternoon. The concert was one of the most enjoyable features of the fair. The orchestra, under the leadership of Mrs. Belle Yeaton Renfrew, played yesterday may be mentioned among the best of the Light Cavalry overture, Yankee Consul and a charming little waltz entitled Dainty Dances.

In ability to give full expression to the selections, in attack and in perfect blending of tone, the orchestra may be said to have equalled anything heard in St. John for years. It was at first feared that the effects of the band stand and its distance from anything which might act as a sounding board, but happily such did not prove the case and the frequent applause was ample evidence of satisfaction from those visitors who in many instances caused first to listen and remained standing until the end of the programme.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MARRIAGE

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 27, 1906.
Editor, The Times,
Dear Sir:—A dispatch to your paper from Toronto, dated August 26th, alleges that Christian Scientists have been performing the marriage ceremony "quite extensively in Toronto," and, as this is held to be an infraction of the law, you permit me to say a word in correction.

Article 38, of the Manual of the Mother Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, provides that Christian Scientists who are to be married must have the ceremony performed by a deaconman who has the necessary legal authority.

My correspondent in Toronto has examined the records of 132 marriages there, from Dec. 20, 1903 to June 23, 1906, and he does not find the name of a Christian Scientist among those who performed the ceremony.

There has been a mistake somewhere, and, as Christian Scientists are a law-abiding people, I will thank you for space in which to make the foregoing explanation. Yours truly,
ALFRED FARLOW.

Sunny South's Prettiest Girl

Miss Adelaide Allen

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—"The prettiest girl I have seen in the South," is what President Roosevelt said of Miss Adelaide Allen, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Pierce Allen, when that young woman was presented to him at the time of his visit to Atlanta, Ga., last October. Several young women met the president at that time, and, commenting on them later, he said that he believed he had never seen so many beautiful women gathered together at one time before, and that, in his opinion, Miss Allen was the greatest beauty of the South. Miss Allen's engagement was recently announced to Leonard Day, a lawyer, of this city. The two met in Washington last winter, where Miss Allen was studying music. She is an unusual type of Southern beauty, being blonde instead of the brunette usually pictured of the southland. She is a graduate of Farmount University, at Washington, and is a musician of more than ordinary accomplishments.

MISS BROOKS TO PLAY TITANIA

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Miss Ina Brooks has been chosen by Wagenhals & Kemper to play the part of Titania in their forthcoming production of Midsummer Night's Dream. Miss Brooks appeared as the fairy queen under the same managers when they started Miss Katherine Kidder.

ANOTHER STAGE FAVORITE

After this season, in which he will be heard in Wang and Happyland, it is said De Wolf Hopper will give up comic opera and devote his attention to comedy and farce.

OVERSEAS MAIL CROSSES ROCKIES

C. P. R.'S Special Fast Trans-continental Train Reached the Valley of the Columbia on Time.

REVELSTOKE, Sept. 3.—The overseas mail has crossed the Rockies and the Selkirk Range and arrived here in the valley of the Columbia on schedule time. We have now only the gold range to travel and to run down the Fraser Canyon to the rail terminus on the Pacific coast, where, at Vancouver, the steamship, The Empress of China, is awaiting to carry the Oriental mails to the Far East. The magnificent scenery of the mountains was an unforgettable charm to those on board and in the delightful summer weather, for the thermometer is in the seventies, the grand old snow-capped peaks, the large glaciers and the deep valleys were a constant and glorious surprise.

CALGARY, Alta., Sept. 2.—The fastest of autumn days was spent yesterday in crossing the great stretches of prairie of the Canadian West. There had been detentions after leaving Fort William, but the few hours were only temporarily lost and the overseas mail, within the day was running sharp on the original schedule. The 123 miles between Kenora and Winnipeg were covered in 180 minutes. The same distance between Winnipeg and Brandon was made in 187 minutes and the run to Broadview, 132 miles, occupied 170 minutes. From Broadview to Moosejaw, 154 miles, the overseas mail passed in 175 minutes. When Swift Current was reached in the evening the train was exactly on time, and at Calgary the overseas mail arrived ahead of its schedule. The 673 miles from Kenora to Calgary were made in 24 hours and 15 minutes, including stops at the different divisional points yesterday. Large numbers gathered to welcome the overseas mail, and even at the smaller stations there were manifestations of the great interest the people took in this epoch-making train of the Canadian Pacific, while the passengers were delighted at the sight of boundless, thickly stocked fields which indicated the wealth of the region. The large crop, largely harvested, recalled to many of them the words that answered Kipling's poem of Hyperborean Canada.

"CANADA." There are fields of grain unbroken, Where the white horizon glows, And the hot sun laughs at the very thought, Of the Lady of the Snows.

Sunny France or the vine hills of Italy could not have given a more pleasant or general sunny day than the west was blessed with on this glorious September Sabbath.

LETTER FROM JAMES HUEY

To the Editor of The Times: Sir—As contracting painter on the exhibition building a few days ago, I saw in one of the daily papers an accusation made against me by Ald. Rowan stating that I had not finished my contract according to specification. Mr. Rowan should have read the specification and inspected the work which he had not been near at all instead of listening to others, which reminds me of a small boy running to his teacher with everything he hears. He personally told me on Saturday morning that he should not have said what he did about my not finishing the contract. I would like to meet Ald. Rowan at the next meeting of the board. I am sure that I could convince him that I am right. If Ald. Rowan had been watching me as closely or had attended at the meeting when the bills were passed instead of waiting till the work was done and the contract paid, if he would pay more attention to his business as a city

An Invitation to Exhibition Visitors

When you visit the city you are cordially invited to inspect the newspaper offices of THE TELEGRAPH and TIMES. As you know, these papers have the most up-to-date equipment, and the largest circulations, east of Montreal.

We will take pleasure in escorting you about the building, and explaining the different steps in the making of a modern newspaper, and showing you in operation the finest printing press in this part of Canada.

You are welcome to make our offices your headquarters while in the city. Stop at our booth on the grounds and receive the little souvenir of the Exhibition we have prepared for you.

Remember, our entire plant will be thrown open to visitors during Exhibition Week. All our friends are requested to call.

LATE LOCALS

DIDA at the St. John Exhibition Sept. 1st to 8th. See her.

The Calvin Austin brought a large number of passengers from Esqueport and other places this morning.

The C. P. R. steamship Mount Temple landed her passengers at 5.50 this morning at Quebec.

The Prince Rupert had a large passenger list last night, another large crowd arriving today from Nova Scotia points.

Eye-strain produces more headaches than all other irregularities of the human system. Consult Dr. Boyaner, graduate optician, 38 Dock street.

During a thunder and lightning storm at Glace Bay Friday night, Rev. William Melville received a severe shock and Mrs. James Miller was struck, but not seriously injured.

Fred Flaherty and W. J. Coates, St. John men, arrived in the city last night and are at the Carlton. Coates rows in Monday's championship race. Halifax Mail, Saturday.

Exhibition visitors will be welcomed to the great clothing sale at the Union Clothing Co., 28-28 Charlotte street (old Y. M. C. A. Building). Pay special attention to their ad on page 2.

The death occurred at St. Stephen on Friday of Mrs. Sophia Lapsett, sister of Mr. Alexander and John (Shawn) St. Maryville. The body will be taken today to Marysville, en route in the Methodist cemetery.

On account of the Moncton baseball team selling $400 for four games here, they will not be seen on a Cape Breton diamond this year, as it is not believed that $400 could be realized at the gates the way the attendance is at present.—Sydney Post.

Rev. C. W. Vernon has resigned his position as editor of the Cape Breton Enterprise in order to devote his entire time to the managing editorship of Church Work, the Church of England newspaper for the maritime provinces.

A Stellarton, N. S., letter says: "The different pay rolls for the month of August will amount to a grand total of $65,000. The contractors in town find it almost impossible to carry on their work, owing to the scarcity of unskilled labor."

The committee appointed by the government will meet with the senate of the University of New Brunswick tomorrow to select a head for that institution. It is understood that Rev. C. C. Jones is the choice of the government. Dr. Jones is at Acadia College, and a graduate of the U. N. B.

A Liverpool, N. S., letter says: "The St. John schooner Bessie Parker is loading 500 tons of pulp for New London. L. H. Minard will load with lumber for Trinidad the schooner W. S. Fording, and for Cuba the schooner Caledonia. He wants one vessel for Barbados and another for Boston. Three hundred barrels of ball were sent off the Fort Wednesday night."

At a meeting of the executive of the Marathon Club, held on Saturday afternoon, it was decided to adopt as the club colors red and grey. The jerseys will be of red with letter 'M' in grey on the breast. The club has secured the lease of the Victoria grounds for the coming season and practice will commence immediately. Over eighty members have now joined the club, and the list is rapidly increasing.

First autumn opening of Parisian, London and New York imported pattern hats, in the wholesale millinery workshops of New York and Toronto. Over 200 imported pattern hats are on exhibition and the ladies of St. John are invited to call and see the display.

On the eve of her departure to attend the Normal School at Fredericton, Miss Helen G. Fotheringham was made the recipient of a handsome gold-mounted fountain pen and purse of money from the choir and Y. P. S. C. E. of St. John's Presbyterian church. The presentation was made by W. J. Parks, who also handed to the young lady other remembrances, including a beautiful ring (diamond and onyx), from personal friends, who desired in this way to give tangible expression to their good wishes for her success in her studies.

Commodore Stewart, of the C. P. R. Atlantic fleet of steamships, who was appointed in command of the "Empress of Britain" when the steamer was launched, has been superannuated with a pension. Captain Murray, formerly of the "Lake Montreal" has been appointed to command the "Empress of Britain." Captain Carr, of the "Empress of Ireland," steps up to the position of commodore. Commodore Stewart has a unique record on the St. Lawrence, having never lost a ship or a passenger during the 27 years he was plying to and from Montreal.—Shipping Illustrated.

There's hardly a lady who visits the exhibition, but is deeply interested in the demonstration of machine sewing as done by the experts in M. R. A.'s booths in the upper portion of the main building. Intricate sewing on a machine and the fastest work is really so novel, but the excellence and minuteness of the work done by the M. R. A. machines is conspicuously good in view of the remarkably low prices asked. The contention of the big house is that it can supply the best machines for the least money.

A FIRST-CLASS OPERA COMPANY

What a name! Nothing. Our old operatic friend Giraffe-Giraffe was presented at two performances in the Opera House by the Robinson Opera Company yesterday under the title of Pirates of Morocco, and the audiences which taxed the capacity of the theatre on both occasions went away very highly pleased with it.

To see the Robinson Opera Company in St. John again is like renewing pleasant relations with old friends. The company this year is fully up to the high standard of previous seasons. The principals are all particularly good and the chorus is shapely, comely, well dressed, and possesses of more than ordinary vocal ability.

Miss Kilkoyne is as charming as ever, and sings just as well. Yesterday she appeared in the dual role of Giraffe-Giraffe, and consequently had much to do. Her rendering of The Moon Has His Eyes On You, with the dear singing and dancing accompaniment by chorus, was well received by the audience and a triple encore was demanded. Her duets with Rudolph Koch were splendidly sung, the two voices blending perfectly.

Harry Burnham, the comedian, is very clever and extracted all the fun possible out of his role. He has a list with the audience from start to finish. Altogether the company is an excellent one, and a week of very enjoyable opera is in store for St. John's theatre goers.

Mr. Nelson and Miss Barton will arrive today and will be heard for the first time in Fra Diavolo tomorrow. This evening's Pirates of Morocco will be repeated. There is already a spirited demand for seats and a large audience is expected.

POLICE OFFICER IS IN TROUBLE

Safety Board May be Asked to Investigate His Conduct.

A police officer who has done duty on the force for a number of years, is said to have made considerable trouble for himself about two weeks ago by his antics in a public house in the Leack. Some of the things he did were so outrageous that it is stated that Chief Clark does not take action in the matter the case will be brought to the notice of the safety board.

It is said that the officer in question drove to the house of the proprietor and acted in an unbecoming manner while there. It is also stated that considerable damage was done by the policeman, who was off regular duty, to the property of the proprietor.

COME AND SEE US

The Times extends a standing invitation to its friends to visit its new premises, Canterbury St., at any time during the Exhibition. There are few manufacturing processes that surpass in interest the process of manufacturing a modern daily newspaper, and to visitors The Times, as an art and industry, has this advantage, that the entire plant may be seen in operation during the daytime. The typesetting machines are in operation from 8 o'clock in the morning, the stereotyping department is busiest between 12.30 and 3, and the big Goss press is in operation from 9 o'clock on.

The Times plant in completeness and up-to-dateness is not surpassed in Eastern Canada, and we think you will be interested in seeing it in operation. Come and bring your friends.

AT THE ST. ANDREW'S ROLLWAY

At the St. Andrew's Rollway a large number of spectators and skaters were present both afternoon and evening, and the marvelous LaKey children, the world's champion juvenile fancy roller skaters, gave their exhibitions at 4.30 and 9.40, and were accorded a rousing reception, and they certainly deserve it, as their exhibition is a marvel of gracefulness. Those who have guests visiting them should take them to St. Andrew's Rollway—a roller skating with a novelty to thousands of visitors, and the exhibitions of the children which are given twice daily, at 4.30 and 9.40, are well worth the price of admission, which is a small one. There will be a band every evening this week and Saturday afternoon. Tonight is "ladies' night."

AT VICTORIA ROLLER RINK

Miss Jessie Darling, who made such a decided hit in the Victoria Roller Rink a short time ago, has been secured for another one of her graceful and pleasing skating exhibitions for this evening. Since her last appearance here Miss Darling has been having crowded houses to her performances throughout Nova Scotia.

A band will be in attendance and Miss Darling will come on about 9 o'clock.

WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Wall Street—London carried prices of Americans today to a high level during the holiday interval here, and the influences, together with accumulated buying orders from domestic sources, swept prices upward throughout the list. St. Paul, the Harmsco, the Hill-top, and the Panna groups were most affected. St. Paul opened at an advance of 1/8, over the triple's closing price. Great Northern bid 1/8, Northern Pacific 2, Canadian Pacific 1/8, D. O. W. Panna, N. E. W. National Railroad of Mexico 1/8, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Brooklyn Transit and Amalgamated Copper 1/8, and a number of other stocks large fractions.

THE MONCTON RACES

MONCTON, Sept. 4 (special).—From present indications the horse races cannot take place before tomorrow. This probably means a postponement of the St. John races as many of the horses here are entered in St. John.

Men's English Gloves Dent's TWO SPECIAL MAKES Only $1.00 Per Pair

The best glove in the world for men is made by Dent of England. It stands the wear, it retains its dressiness. It costs very little. In quoting this quality at a dollar we are making a special proposition. The weight is medium and the materials, Kid and Heavy Calf. Good enough for the best-dressed man and of great service to the man who wears durability. In the Men's Outfitting Section.

Val. French German Laces NEW IMPORTATION IN Newest Designs

Truly the daintiest Laces and Insertions we have placed before the ladies of St. John for years are included in this fresh, sparklingly novel shipment. Real French Valenciennes, genuine round-thread German Valenciennes, elegant insertions to match. The new patterns cleverly imitate many of the heavier and uniquely artistic designs, making them very desirable for fancy work as well as utility purposes. In the Lace Dept., Main Store.

"NON-FLAM" --- A Safeguard to Children FLANNELETTE THAT WILL NOT BLAZE

So many accidents occur to little children, and often to adults, through the inflammability of nightgown materials that "Non-Flam" was invented to insure safety. It is of excellent woolly warm texture in pinks, light blues, white, etc. but is rendered non-flammable by a special and secret process. Parents in buying "Non-Flam" will rest assured their children—or whoever is wearing it—will not be exposed to that ever-existing danger of winter time particularly.

Costs Only 17 Cents Per Yard IN LINEN ROOM.
