TWO CENTS

SEES HOPE OF AGREEMENT IN MINER STRIKE

Conferences Between Labor Leaders and Gov't Continue With Bright Prospects.

LONDON WORRIED OVER RAILWAY TROUBLES

Suggestion to be Made That Transport Men Postpone Walkout Until Thursday.

London, Oct. 22.—The strike situation tonight was considered more hopeful by the fact that the peace conversations between the government and the miners' leaders are continuing unbroken. There were no new developments, however. At a joint conference tomorrow between the railwaymen and miners from which it is hoped peace may spring, it is expected the suggestion will be made that the railmen postpone their strike, set for Sunday night, should there be no agreement between the government and the miners by Saturday night after Wednesday's Trades union conference.

London is worried. The greatest anxiety exists among Londoners for if the rail strike becomes effective Sunday night the underground tube railways will cease working. It is possible also that the trams and buses, whose drivers are members of the transport workers' union, will suspend operations. The bus and tram drivers, however, have expressed themselves as reluctant to join the movement.

There is division among the railwaymen with regard to a strike, large sections of them opposing it. J. H. Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, has authorized the statement that he is against the strike.

Not Before Thursday. This has brought about the very general opinion that there will not, in any case, be a rail strike before Wednesday, but should it transpire, the delivery of transport has an emergency plan. The dislocation of the operation of the railroads by volunteers and all machinery created for the purpose during last year's strike will be utilized.

Emergency Bill Delayed. The desirability for a session of the House of Commons Saturday to pass the Emergency Bill, giving the government wide powers in the event of public disorders, was considered this afternoon, but it was decided that the House should take a recess over Saturday and Sunday and continue on Monday. From this understanding the parliamentary writers have assumed that the strike outlook was regarded as somewhat less menacing.

Predicts Nationalization. Montreal, Oct. 22.—"Nationalization of the British mining industry is inevitable," said Ben Spoor, British M. P., prior to sailing for England on the Metagama. Speaking of the miners' strike, he said, "this is not a wage dispute in the ordinary sense. It is rather an active protest against the government's violation of pledges. The government had promised to stand by the decision of Mr. Joslin Sankey in the commission of 1917, who recommended nationalization of mines as the only practical alternative. The government, however, refused to give effect to this recommendation. Mr. Spoor does not think the strike will last long. The dislocation of the whole nation will be so terrible that an early offer of terms by the government is certain. The financial loss, he said, "will be incalculably more, but the small advance in wages would be, so it would have been a better policy for the government to have released this and conceded to the men's demands."

GRIM DEATH HE SOUGHT WAS IN RAGING NIAGARA

Suicide Waded Into River Until Current Caught Him and Took Him Over Brink.

THINK HE CAME FROM HAMBURG N. Y.

"I Can't Vote for Harding So I May as Well Go Over Falls" Remark to Vendor Near.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Before the eyes of a score of sightseers at Prospect Point late this afternoon a man climbed over the railings, waded into the river and was carried over the American falls. Too astonished to move the spectators stood by while the man drifted to the brink waving his hand and shouting: "Here's where I leave you; good-by." In a black dory found near the place where the man climbed the railing was found a piece of paper on which was written: "This hat belongs to Carl A. Ellis, of Hamburg, N. Y."

The description of the suicide corresponds to that of Ellis, who could not be located in Hamburg tonight. The owner of a souvenir stand near the falls told the police that the man approached him and laughingly said: "Well, I can't vote for Harding, so I may as well go over the falls." The souvenir seller thought the man was joking and paid no more attention to the incident until a short time later when he saw the fatal leap.

NOT GUILTY VERDICT IN M'NEAL CASE

Prisoner Collapsed for First Time When Free of Charge of Slaying Little Girl.

"CLOSE CALL" IS VIEW OF JUDGE

Held by Authorities for Deportation to United States on Robbery Charge.

Wolland, Ont., Oct. 22.—After three hours' deliberation, tonight, a jury acquitted David McNeal of the murder of four-year-old Margaret Boscock, of Thorold, on July 13th last. As the words "Not guilty" fell from the lips of Foreman Neff, McNeal was embraced by his wife and her mother, Mrs. Honeywell, who came from Los Angeles, Cal., to comfort her daughter through the trial. A demonstration of approval was started, which brought from Justice Kelly a strong rebuke.

Then the nerve which the accused displayed all through the trial and his ordeal in August at Thorold, when he was almost lynched by a mob, disappeared. He sank into his chair in the prisoner's box and wept like a child. Justice Kelly informed McNeal, whose correct name is Wals, that he had a close call, "that another jury might have convicted him on the same evidence. As McNeal walked from the box he was taken in charge by Inspector Reynolds, of the Dominion Immigration Department, and will be held for deportation, which is expected to fit in with the plans of the United States Federal authorities, as he is wanted in Philadelphia for robbery and other charges.

REFINERS WANT GOVERNMENT TO COME TO RESCUE

Delegation Sees Sir Henry Drayton to Urge Some Assistance for the Trade.

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—Sugar refiners were in conference with Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, for some time this morning, but decision as to a definite line of action was not reached. Members of the delegation are loaning that of a remission of duties in raw sugar is likely to be accepted, and there is much questioning if the government will be able to give any effective assistance. Should the government decide to lend assistance, it is understood that two of the main conditions will be: 1. Previous examination of the books of all the refineries seeking assistance to determine what their profits in recent years have been. 2. Assistance to be based on actual losses sustained by each refinery as a result of the operation of government control.

COMMERCE B'D QUILTS; PLACES LEFT VACANT

Hon. Mr. Meighen Says No More Appointments Until Legal Status Decided.

ACTION FOLLOWED CABINET COUNCILS

After Judicial Position is Cleared up Gov't May Reconsider Need of Board.

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—The Board of Commerce is so grave. Announcement was made from the Prime Minister's office tonight that the members of the Board had tendered their resignations to the Government and that no appointment to the vacant positions would now be made. The announcement from the Prime Minister's office followed a series of meetings of cabinet council which were held today, the last of them concluding at 5.30 this afternoon and lasting for a couple of hours.

OFF UNTIL STATUS DECIDED

The statement says that when a decision is given by the judicial committee of the Privy Council, as to the extent of the Federal authority in relation to the Board of Commerce Act, "it will be for the Government to consider what should then be done."

Premier Meighen's statement does not occasion much surprise in the capital, as it was felt here that the resignations of the members of the Board were certain to be handed in following the cabinet's reversal of the Board's order with regard to the maximum price of 21 cents per pound for sugar.

THE LATEST THREE

The three commissioners who have now resigned are Captain William White, who was formerly secretary of the Board, and who was appointed a commissioner on the resignation of the original commissioners—F. A. Acland, Deputy Minister of Labor, and Major A. Dillon, purchasing agent for the Department of Justice. The formal announcement of Captain White's appointment as chief commissioner of the Board of Commerce is expected in this week's Canada Gazette, published tomorrow.

The appointment of the three gentlemen who have now tendered their resignations was stated to be a temporary measure following the resignation of Judge H. A. Robson, of Winnipeg, the first chairman; W. F. O'Connor, K. C., and James Murdoch, labor representative on the board.

THE MURDOCK LETTER

Mr. Murdoch's letter of resignation, written to Premier Borden as the subject of much discussion just prior to the ending of the last session of parliament. The Dominion Government has been pressing to have this case heard with the least possible delay but as the provinces have a right to be heard it has not yet been possible to have the exact date of the hearing decided on."

Were Real Desperadoes While Making Flight With Canada as Objective.

Warner, N. H., Oct. 22.—A man-hunt on the heavily wooded southern foothills of Keersarge Mountain ended today in the capture of George Stivers and Marcus Bassett, who escaped from Sing Sing Prison at Ossining, N. Y., last Saturday night. The men, tired and hungry, were surprised while eating apples under a tree by the roadside, and surrendered without resistance. They readily admitted their identity and tonight were on their way back to the prison in custody of Wardens Lewis E. Lawes and three prison keepers. They had been making for Canada, but that the general alarm sent out headed them off.

Prisoners Talk Freely. Stivers and Bassett talked freely after their capture. They said that their first move after escaping from the prison was to steal an automobile nearby. They drove back and forth over Connecticut roads, Saturday and Sunday hoping to throw pursuers off the track. On Tuesday they dashed into Western Massachusetts and managed to find their way to Springfield and Worcester, then turned northward again and drove to Keene, N. H. From Keene they proceeded to East Hopkinton, in Concord they stole another automobile, and Bassett drove it off followed by Stivers in the first car.

Failed in Robbery. They returned to Henniker and tried to rob a lunch room proprietor, firing one shot at him, but were frightened away by the arrival of armed neighbors. A short distance from the village they abandoned the car in which they had come into the state, and proceeded in the stolen automobile obtained in Concord.

On Wednesday morning their gasoline had given out and they obtained a small quantity at Carl Jewett's garage in Warner. When this was used up they abandoned the car, and seeing men approaching realized that they were being pursued and took to the woods.

EDMUNDSTON MURDER CASE IS POSTPONED

Preliminary Hearing of St. Pierre Alleged to Have Murdered Miss Stevens.

DR. ABRAHAMSON NOT IN COURT

Provincial Expert Not Called to Testify as to His Finding.

Special to The Standard. Edmundston, Oct. 22.—The preliminary examination of William St. Pierre, who is being held on suspicion of having caused the death of Miss Minnie Stevens, the young telegraph operator from Nova Scotia, who was found murdered on the night of October 11th was begun before Magistrate John E. Michael at two o'clock this afternoon. The examination was not completed at the supper hour, and an evening session was held.

The evidence submitted at the two sessions held today was practically the same as brought out at the coroner's inquest. The evidence was purely circumstantial. Witnesses testified to having seen the respondent the night of the alleged murder and thought his face looked as though it had been scratched.

Miss Johnson, the last person known to have been with Miss Stevens before she met her untimely end, was not called to the witness stand today.

Dr. Abramson Absent. Another fact in connection with today's proceedings was that Dr. Abramson, the provincial expert, was not present to give evidence as to the results of his examination of the suit of clothes worn by St. Pierre on the night of the alleged assault and murder. Nor did there appear in evidence today any sworn statement from Mr. Abramson.

Postponed Until Nov. 19. Attorney-General Byrne, conducting the case for the crown, was unable to finish the prosecution's side today and asked for an adjournment until Nov. 19th.

Arthur T. LeBlanc, of Campbellton, and Max Cormier, of Edmundston are looking after the interests of the prisoners.

Much sympathy is expressed here for the young man held on this serious charge. He has always borne a splendid reputation and was regarded as a well-mannered young man.

STILL SEEK STRANGERS

It was learned today that the officers have not given up their belief that two mysterious strangers, who so suddenly left town when the body of Miss Stevens was taken from the water, know something of the tragedy which has shocked this community. It was intimated tonight that the authorities had not given up their quest for these two men and their arrests were hourly expected.

"I Am Having a Terrible Time, I Simply Cannot Sleep"

PERHAPS it is something you have been eating? "No, it is not I am always careful about what I eat, particularly in the evenings."

"Are you often that way?" "Yes, two or three nights a week, and I am getting worse all the time."

"Is it your nerves?" "Yes, I suppose it is, for after a night's rest I am sure to have a sleepless night, and I do not know anything much worse than tossing in bed, unable to sleep."

"Do you have headaches?" "Yes, often, more especially after a restless night."

"Why don't you try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food? That is what nearly everybody uses for nervous troubles these days."

"I don't know just why, unless because I have a dread of taking any drug that is strong enough to produce sleep."

"But, my dear Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will not produce sleep in that way. It is only after using it for a time and after the restorative influence is felt by the nerves that you will find yourself sleeping well and naturally."

"So many of my girl friends have told me about using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for sleeplessness, headaches, nervousness and such troubles that I have the greatest confidence in it."

"How does it act?" "It is a restorative, makes the blood rich, feeds the nerves and builds up your system in every way so that the benefits are lasting."

"How long will I have to use it?" "Oh, I suppose two or three months. It takes time, you know, to get exhausted nerves fully restored. It will not be long, though, before you find yourself sleeping well, enjoying your meals and entirely free from headaches."

"Say, I believe I will try it, for I do suffer most terribly when I cannot sleep, and then I am so tired out next day."

Tuxis Boys Open Their Conference

Large Attendance at Germain Street Hear Address—Officers Were Elected.

With a spirit of enthusiasm and good fellowship which argues well for success, the first regular meeting of the Tuxis Boys' Conference was held at Germain Street Institute last evening. The hall was packed with boys there being a few adults among the leaders and visitors. Energy and interest were shown in all the proceedings.

Rev. A. S. Bishop took the chair and a hymn was sung. Rev. J. M. Rice asked a blessing. Ralph Findley acted as accompanist during the evening. A. M. Gregg took charge and introduced in a few humorous words several of the speakers, offering the reports of Rev. R. Taylor McKim, Anglican representative, of inability to be present. A few bright words were spoken by Rev. J. M. Rice, H. N. McEwen, Rev. F. M. Milligan, Rev. W. A. Ross and Rev. William Lawson of Kewick "the youngest boy of them all" who was heartily applauded. All were warmly greeted by the audience.

Election of Officers

Glory of Service

"Every Boy in Service Every Day" was the theme of a splendid talk given by Rev. W. C. Macnam. He told all to enlist in the great army of those doing good for others. Jesus, he said, is the hero of the Tuxis Boy, his example for life. Love is proved by service and that ideal has caught the imagination of man. Today it is not the Caesars or Napoleons who are admired but men like Livingstone, Abraham Lincoln, men who dedicate themselves to redressing wrong or uplifting the lives of others.

Tuxis Squares

The meeting then resolved itself into organization of Tuxis Squares under the following names: Crusaders, Rev. R. T. McKim; Pathfinders, Rev. W. C. Macnam; Ever Ready, Rev. J. M. Rice; Up Streamers, Rev. F. M. Milligan; Lays Wires, Nelson McEwen; Beavers, Mr. Baiser; Victors, A. M. Gregg; Champions, H. Usher Miller; Climbers, Rev. W. A. Ross.

Today's Programme

Today the conference will open at 9 o'clock. Papers will be read by Elfred A. Mowat of Fredericton and Harold Holder, St. John, on "Is the C. S. E. T. a Boys' Programme?" and "What a Boy can do to help in C. S. E. T." A discussion follows led by Rev. R. Taylor McKim. Other addresses are to be given by Rev. W. A. Ross, A. M. Gregg and Rev. W. C. Macnam.

Drink More Water If Kidneys Bother

Eat less meat and take Salts for Backache or Bladder trouble.

Uric acid in excess excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarbonate and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

The Monthly Cheque That Never Fails

It is all so simple and effective!

Just a few dollars set aside regularly, and the Canada Life will guarantee to your home a continuous monthly income.

What a relief to know that no matter what may happen, the monthly cheque that never fails, issued regularly by the Canada Life, will come to your home!

Your present Life Insurance will no doubt "clear the mortgage," pay off the obligations of your estate, and leave something for your family, but

Consider This

In addition to a "lump sum" of money, you should provide a definite income that cannot fail.

A weekly or monthly income is the natural thing for most people.

A woman can keep a family together on even a small income, provided it is regular.

Financial problems should not be thrust upon a woman who is not used to business deals.

The hands of unscrupulous men are always outstretched for money held by the unwary.

The Monthly Income Plan

You will be surprised to learn what a reasonable proposition can be made to you; how only a few dollars saved and set aside from your regular earnings can be multiplied into a substantial income for your Beneficiary.

UNITED STATES SLACKER LIST OVER 173,911

Number of Those Who Failed to Answer Call to Arms Being Increased Daily.

(Copyright, 1926, by Public Ledger.) Washington, Oct. 22.—The slacker list of the War Department which at the present time indicates the names of 173,911 persons, is still being held up in order that the names of all those who have wrongfully been included may be eliminated according to a statement issued today by the Department.

The reductions that have been made already in the list due to enlistments in the army and navy prior to the operation of the draft law, 1917, and the number of alleged deserters apprehended prior to July 15, 1919, number 143,728.

Some Big Changes. Since July 15 approximately 10,000 men who were carried as deserters were found to have enlisted in our army and navy or marine corps, and at the expiration of the records of the Adjutant General's office, progress the number who served, and who are consequently erroneously reported as willful deserters, is being added to from day to day.

"The number of desertions is being reduced and will be further reduced after the examination of the records in all cases has been completed," says the statement. "A number of names will be eliminated through the receipt of information now being obtained from the Adjutant General's of the states to whom the lists of the deserters from their respective states have been sent."

His Brilliant Career. General Nivelle was commander-in-chief following the retirement of Marshal Joffre and conducted a great offensive in the spring of 1917 on the Chemin-des-Dames, which the majority of critics now agree would have ended the war a year earlier had not the offensive been stopped by M. Painleve, then French war minister.

Teachers' salaries today, though higher, are relatively lower than they have been at any time in the past decade, because the buying power of the dollar is now about one-eighth of what it was in the pre-war period.

NIVELLE TO GRACE MAYFLOWER FETE

Former Generalissimo Coming to United States as Representative of France.

By WYTHE WILLIAMS. (Copyright, 1926, by Public Ledger.) Paris, Oct. 22.—General Nivelle, former commander-in-chief of the French armies and now a member of the superior war council, will sail for the United States on the Lorraine October 30 as official representative of France at the Mayflower celebration.

His Brilliant Career. General Nivelle was commander-in-chief following the retirement of Marshal Joffre and conducted a great offensive in the spring of 1917 on the Chemin-des-Dames, which the majority of critics now agree would have ended the war a year earlier had not the offensive been stopped by M. Painleve, then French war minister.

After the peace treaty was signed he was given public exoneration by his appointment to the Superior War Council of the French army, which he is now one of the most valued members.

Famous Boxer Publishes Book

Georges Carpentier, Champion Heavyweight Boxer of Europe, Tells His Own Story.

By London Daily Mail: Cross-Atlantic Service. Copyright, 1920. London, October 22.—Georges Carpentier, champion heavyweight boxer of Europe, idol of sporting France, and favorite everywhere, has written a rating good book, "My Fighting Life," and dedicated it to "all British sportsmen." And while he has told much that will be eagerly absorbed by followers of his art, he has told it in a manner that will entertain and charm all sorts of readers.

Earning a Franc a Day.
When "scarcely more than a baby" earning a franc a day as a bicycle messenger in his native town of Lens, he entered a travelling boxing booth and put on the gloves for the first time. And that was against an Englishman. Carpentier decided to go into the business. He was discovered in a street of Lens the academy of a boxer Anglade. New, the horror of his mother notwithstanding, Georges made a start. He "ate his boxing lessons greedily" and fostered his love of gymnastics at the same time under Descamps' care.

An interesting chapter on his fights in 1914, including that with Gunboat Smith at Olympia, which he won on a "heart-breaking experience." It includes a brief account of his experiences as a flying man in the Great War. His heavy and skill won him the Médaille de Guerre and the Médaille Militaire; but about a dozen pages suffice for this part of story of his fighting life, and he returns to boxing and the days of preparation for the encounter with Beckett.

Hypnotic Touch.
Here he has something to say about the "hypnotic touch."
"We have all talked about the 'hypnotic touch,' the 'Indian sign' at some time or another, but what we strictly mean is personality. Well, is without what I call personality—the spirit, the quality, what the man-in-the-street will have as the 'Indian sign' or what one English critic suggested I possessed—the power to hypnotize. We were to observe the 'Indian sign,' the 'hypnotic touch,' and treat with and study psychology. The public who are bitten with the ring would come to have a better and fiercer appreciation of the importance of these differences in fighters which are psychological and not merely physical."

Of his attitude towards the "unimpaired" Beckett, he says:
"From the first time I saw Beckett, I wondered whether I would cause him to think I had the more towering personality. . . . During my training at Stanmore and on the occasions when I went to the Holborn Stadium to see the weekly boxing shows, there, though I detected a certain inferiority in myself, he never lost his confidence in himself, but the more polite I sought to be, the more uncomfortable did he become. . . . He wanted to get away from me. . . . Gradually I forced whatever personality I had on him until he became irritable. The same with Mr. Bernard Morin, who came to see me in my friends to go to Southampton and say to him, 'Have you seen Carpentier at work yet?' The reply was, 'No. We are not troubling about him and Joe does not want to see him until he gets into the ring.' . . . Little feelers of this kind were most helpful to me, and I set out to the mind of Beckett, as to become an obsession. I neither employed the 'Indian sign' nor the 'hypnotic touch.'"

Eastern College Football Contests

New York, Oct. 22.—Tomorrow's eastern college football contests include several second in interest only to the great games of late November. One of these will be the clash between Princeton and the Naval Academy, the first of the so-called "big games" of the year. Princeton tonight is the favorite, the navy having sustained one defeat this year, while the Tigers have been uniformly victorious.

At Cambridge the eastern college eleven of Kentucky will try conclusions with Harvard. This event is being watched with great interest, the small Southern college having attained a remarkable reputation for the defensive during the past two seasons. Harvard has not been scored on this year.

Other games are: West Virginia at Yale, Georgia Tech at Pittsburgh, Colgate at Cornell, Syracuse at Dartmouth, Tufts at West Point, Springfield at Brown, Wesleyan at Columbia, Union at Amherst, New Hampshire State at Connecticut State, Bates at Maine, Franklin and Marshall at Rochester, Mass., Agassiz at Vermont, Swarthmore at Johns Hopkins.

CRICKETERS ARRIVE AT FREEMANTLE
London, Oct. 22.—The members of the Marylebone cricket club team, which is to tour Australia, landed at Freemantle, West Australia, today, but will be kept in quarantine until Tuesday next.

The ship on which the team travelled, the Orestes, in a case of typhus on board, which is it doubtful yesterday if the team would be allowed to land at all until the consequent quarantine delay had expired.

Man o' War Will Never Race Again

Great Son of Fair Play Will be Retired to the Stud, Says Owner.

By WILLIAM H. ROOP, Sports Editor Public Ledger. "You can tell the world that Man O' War will never race again. I am going to retire him to the stud. He will be my gift to the American turf." Thus spoke Samuel D. Riddle yesterday afternoon standing under the shadow of the great Fair Play colt's stall at the Rose Tree track. Trainer Louis Feustel was at his elbow. The decision was made after a long consultation with the faithful trainer. It came like a thunderclap out of a blue sky. There have been insistent rumors that Man O' War would be shipped to Europe and compete for the Astor Cup at its next running.

There was another that the stout-hearted champion of the turf was being groomed for a race with Exterminator. Again it was published that the colt would go to California and run a special race on Thanksgiving Day.

The climax came when it was reported that a syndicate of British turfmen were determined to get Man O' War at any price to grace an English stud. In order to set the public straight the writer asked Mr. Riddle the question in the presence of his trainer.

It was in reality a real moment for both. Mr. Riddle loves his horse and also racing. Like all men, he likes to win. He was loath to make the decision, "but it had to be made," said Mr. Riddle. "I would never forgive myself were Man O' War to continue racing and meet with some mishap that would impair his value for breeding. The colt has done all that has been asked for him. He has gone down the line, and I feel that he has given the public and racegoers all the unquestioned champion of his class. What he could do if given his head no one but Trainer Feustel knows; he and the colt have been chums. Man O' War has never been extended to his limit and he is being retired from racing possessing all the vigor, strength and stamina of a well and thoroughly trained colt."

Trainer Feustel, as stout-hearted as the colt which he has sent to the winning post so often in such superb condition, listened to the message from Mr. Riddle's lips. He could scarcely speak. His throat seemed to choke up. You know Man O' War and he has been made. I will certainly miss the daily companionship. He was like a kid, but so sensible what he seemed to divine when you wanted him to do, and so well mannered, too. It will be a long day until you see his equal."

"I suppose you will send him off to the farm, take off his shoes and let him run barefooted?" was the incidental query. "No," answered Feustel, "we have arranged to take him to the farm of Mr. Riddle's Maryland farm, Berlin on the Riddle's Maryland farm, remove his plates and put on heavier shoes so he can romp around and get rid of his excess steam, to use the vernacular. He is a high-strung horse and needs work of the proper sort, and we propose keeping him in good condition for the next three or four months, then he will go to Kentucky. Mr. Riddle has a 300-acre farm in the Blue Grass region and that is where Man O' War will grace a stud. We have a number of brood mares in view, and just watch for the offspring of Man O' War."

"The son of Fair Play is the wonder horse of the age. He is sure to make turf history."

CITY LEAGUE FORMED
At a well attended meeting of prominent bowlers at Black's Alleys last night the City Bowling League was formed, which will be composed of the six following teams: Lions,

True Bills in The Baseball Scandal

Chicago, Oct. 22.—The Cook County grand jury investigating the baseball scandal today voted true bills against Chase, former major league player, expelled for alleged gambling; Abe Attell, former featherweight boxing champion, who is now in Montreal, and Bill Burns, ex-big league pitcher.

Players indicted. The jury also again voted indictments against the eight Chicago American League players accused of throwing games in the 1919 world's series. This was done to overcome legal technicalities believed to have been located in voting the indictments previously. Announcement of the jury action was made by the state attorney's office.

The names of Chase, Burns and Attell have been frequently mentioned in connection with the investigation. Attell and Burns were said to have been mentioned by witnesses as some of the "fixers" of the series. An official of the state attorney's office said that the indictments were voted after testimony had been given to the jury that Chase was the "real fixer" of the 1919 world series. Chase was said to have approached Attell, asking him if he could place $100,000 in bets, and also if he could raise money for the scheme. Attell is said to have approached a New York gambler whose name has been given to a state official.

"Sport" Sullivan Mentioned.
The name of "Sport" Sullivan of Boston also was mentioned by witnesses who told of Chase's activities in connection with the series, fixing, the state official said. Sullivan was approached by Chase and his clique for financial support, he said. Claude Williams, White Sox pitcher, in his confession of accepting a bribe to throw games said he and other White Sox players were approached by men named "Sullivan and Brown," and the jury voted indictments against these men, although it could not identify them further.

Baseball Pools.
Grand jury investigation of baseball gambling will take a new turn today when the Cook County jurors begin an inquiry into baseball pools.

Several men, including Roy Crossman, a street car employe, have been called to tell about them. Crossman is reported to have won the ten thousand dollar capital prize in a baseball pool, but asserts that the pool operators refused to pay him and proposed he compromise his claim for five hundred dollars.

The state attorney's office announced that investigation of one pool has disclosed that 134,500 combinations were sold during the past season for one dollar each. Only $25,000 in prizes was paid and after all expenses were met the gamblers had a profit of $104,500.

Local Bred Dog American Winner

Some dog gossip is always good reading to the fanciers, and they hear of the local livers when they hear of what is happening among the favorites bred in the city.

Queensbury Revival, owned by W. L. Kendrick of Wynnewood, Pa., won the prize for best specimen at the Toga Kennel Club show in Philadelphia, recently. This English bull terrier was local bred and was by international champion Allie Alive, ex-Roseland Baby Doll and was sold to Mr. Kendrick about a year ago by R. L. Daniels, of this city.

Thomas Kiffin, a prominent local fancier, has sold his black cocker spaniel "Flash" to Thomas Wise, of Lebanon, Pa., at a price that ranges into three figures. "Flash" is a daughter of champion Drumclaph Baronet and won the cup for the best solid color cocker at the recent show of the New Brunswick Kennel Club.

Bliss Smith is mourning the loss of a cocker spaniel puppy who was a particularly promising specimen. The marks are white with lemon markings and can be identified by a growth on one eye. Mr. Smith's friends are hoping that he will be able to recover the dog, as it is a pup with excellent prospects. The pup strayed away and it is thought that someone picked him up and is awaiting information as to his whereabouts. It is hoped that he will be returned to the rightful owner.

Sweeps, Ramblers, Thistles, Cubs and Nationals. Many of the leading bowlers have joined the various teams and as they all evenly matched many interesting games are assured. Arrangements have been made for the schedule to start on November second and the teams will roll on every Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

Schooner Race Grows Interesting

Gloucester Vessel Getting Into Shape—Lunenburg Skippers to Sail on Delawana.

Boston, Oct. 22.—Premier Murray, of Nova Scotia, today acknowledged the telegram yesterday of Acting Governor Cox, endorsing the international fishermen's race to be held off Halifax next week. The premier reciprocated the wish that the contest would prove another link of friendship between Nova Scotia and Massachusetts.

The Esperanto, which will represent the fishing schooners of Gloucester, was in the hands of a swarm of riggers, caulkers, painters, carpenters and sail makers today, racking details of overhauling so that she may be ready for a test run in Massachusetts Bay Sunday.

Lunenburg Skippers
Halifax, N. S., Oct. 22.—All the skippers in Lunenburg are anxious to sail on the Delawana of that port when she meets the Gloucester schooner Esperanto off Halifax harbor in a series of races commencing October 30 for the speed supremacy of the two fishing fleets. As there are more than one hundred skippers in Lunenburg, the owner and captain of the Delawana have a difficult task in selecting the crew and are not yet ready to announce their choice.

The Delawana will go on the marine railway at Lunenburg tomorrow for cleaning and painting. The vessel's underbody will be sandpapered and then given a coat of green copper paint. Gloucester reports that the Esperanto will be ballasted with pig iron, but the Delawana will adhere to the old-fashioned rock ballast used in the fishing fleets.

The Delawana
Halifax, N. S., Oct. 22.—The schooner Delawana, Nova Scotia's representative in the big international schooner race, on October 30, will be ready for sea on Wednesday and will likely sail for Halifax on Thursday. Her officers and crew have been made up and will consist of the following:

Captain—Captain Tom Himmelman; mate, Captain Roger Conrod; crew, Captain Albert Himmelman, Captain Angus Walters, Captain Albert Selig, Captain J. Simons, Captain Foreman Mosman, Captain Ben Cook, Captain Newlan Bachman, Captain Collins Gerhardt, Captain Bertie Demone, Captain Irvin Gerhardt, Captain Artamus Schure, Clarence Gerkum, Albert Conrod, Edger Winters, Kenneth Vilde, Paul Melaner, Maurice Berringer.

The announcement from Gloucester that the schooner Esperanto will carry pig iron for ballast is considered favorable for the American boat, as the Nova Scotia schooner Delawana will be ballasted with rock, the same as is used by fishing vessels on the Banks.

Will Oppose The Twelve Club Idea

President of International League Announced His Organization Against it.

New York, Oct. 22.—President David I. Fultz, of the International League, announced today that any attempt to include cities of the international circuit in the proposed twelve club amalgamation of the National and American Leagues would be opposed by his organization.

President Fultz's statement was evoked by printed interviews with major league club owners, intimating that clubs in cities such as Baltimore and Toronto would be available to complete a twelve club league composed of the present eight National League teams and the New York, Chicago and Boston clubs of the American League.

St. George Club Meet Mill Owners

Special to The Standard. St. George, Oct. 22.—The executive of the St. John Motor Boat, Fish and Game Club met with the owners of mills on the Magaguadavic River, tonight, for the purpose of devising ways and means to rid the river of that which has been an annoyance to members of the club, the plugging of the river with logs.

Each season the river has had so many logs floating in it that motor boat enthusiasts were unable to enjoy trips up and down the river, as they were kept continually busy with a pole pushing logs aside to make a passage-way for their craft. The nuisance was referred to Ottawa, and the authorities there have endeavored to find some solution of the difficulty.

At tonight's meeting it was suggested by the mill owners that a committee consisting of two from the club and two representing the mill owners be appointed and given full authority to provide means for the handling of river logs so as not to interfere with the measure and aims of the club. This plan will be placed before the club members at a later meeting and is expected to meet with their approval.

MIKE O'DOWD WON
Camden, N. J., Oct. 22.—Mike O'Dowd, St. Paul, middleweight, out-fought Frank Corbano, New York, in a ten round bout here tonight. Casbon substituted for Augie Ratner, Willie Jackson, New York, outpointed Gene Belmont, also of New York, in ten rounds. Gene Tunney, New York, knocked out Sergeant Ray Smith, Camden, in the second round of a scheduled 8 round bout.

THE STRIKE IN BRITAIN.

It is earnestly to be hoped that the possibility that is said to exist of some arrangement being come to between the British Government and the striking miners will materialize, and thus avoid a situation that, to say the least, would result in tremendous pecuniary loss and inconvenience to the nation. The strike of the miners is bad enough of itself at this season of the year when large supplies of coal are needed more than ever, but, if added to this, there is to be a walkout of railway and transport workers, the situation would be deplorable. One satisfactory feature appears to be that a large section of railway men are opposed to any participation in a strike.

Fortunately for Great Britain, Premier Lloyd-George possesses the whiphand on the striking miners, and the other large unions which threaten a sympathetic strike. He can dissolve Parliament, appeal to the nation for support in behalf of constitutional Government, as against a Soviet policy of dictation by Labor extremists, and be assured of overwhelming victory. The responsible Labor leaders know this, and would fain prevent a national repudiation of the Trades Unions which are getting out of hand. But the miners wanted to strike, and extremists in the Railwaymen's and Transport Workers' Unions want to join them, and turn the tumult into civil war.

On of the Labor leaders admits that the miners who caused the strike were chiefly young men whose first experience of Unionism was gained during the war, when every demand was granted. These have not been educated in the face of most extraneous, whether they be professors or would-be dictators. The chief danger comes from a reaction by even the responsible Labor men that a straight defeat in this issue—even if it is wanted and unobtainable—created by the miners—would react severely on the whole Labor movement. But what is even more sure is that if British Labor has ambitions to gain control at Westminster, and govern Britain constitutionally, it is being bombed by its own friends. The women of Britain have voices. The middle class is the great political power. If it voted solidly for the Government, against the Labor extremists, the Labor political movement would be set back twenty-five years. The present trouble is the great political crisis that overhung the Motherland for the latter period of the war, and even threatened her ability to pull through in a condition befitting victory.

The assault on the Downing Street headquarters of the Premier by a mob of unemployed emphasizes the sorry straits into which Britain is falling. On every hand mills are closing, and unemployment will be general within a week. To prevent this reaction, the whole Labor and capital resources of the nation should be pulling harmoniously together. But instead of this, the extremists among the miners, and possibly other large unions, seize upon the opportunity to strive to leave over the weakening structure.

PRICES.

Further inquiry among the city merchants only results in making it quite clear that the feeling that no very great drop in prices need be looked for in the immediate future is pretty generally existent. Nobody, of course, who is at all conversant with business conditions as they exist today, is looking for any very great drop at all. Moreover it would not be in the interests of trade that any sudden and sustained drop should take place, for it would dislocate business to a deplorable degree. In the natural course of events prices will no doubt gradually fall, but not to pre-war levels, because wages, which are a considerable factor in fixing the price of commodities, will never again drop to that level, or anything like it. It is true that prices are dropping fairly fast in some parts of the United States, but it seems that Canadian trade is becoming less and less influenced by the state of the American markets than it was, and is becoming more linked up with those of Britain and the Empire generally. This is as it should be, and patriotic Canadians will be less inclined to grumble if prices do not come down as quickly as they would perhaps like, when they know that the conditions of Empire trade will not permit any great reduction at present. Business must be kept going; and no doubt where conditions justify a loosening up in prices, the public will get the benefit of it.

MR. KING AND THE RAILWAY QUESTION.

The criticism of the Government's policy of public ownership of railways by Hon. Macdonald King is about what might be expected from the leader of a party which conveniently forgot to mention the whole subject of public ownership in its platform, and the majority of whose followers in the House of Commons have time and again expressed themselves as antagonistic to the principle.

The Liberal party in the House opposed the acquisition of the Canadian Northern Railway and the consolidation with it of the Grand Trunk System. Their only alternative was a continuance of a policy of subsidies.

As the London Free Press says, Mr. King is asking business, democratic nonsense when he blames "an autocratic, monopolistic Government appointed railway executive" for the increased cost of transportation and freight rates.

The Canadian Northern and Grand Trunk Pacific had huge annual deficits before the Government took them over. The mere fact that the Government owns these lines cannot convert overnight deficits into net earnings. The American freight and passenger rates have been increased even more than the rates in Canada. Does Mr. King blame the Meighen Government for the increased American rates? Operating expenses have jumped by leaps and bounds largely through wage increases. Canadian roads have raised their wages to meet the American scale. Does Mr. King blame the Government for this?

Mr. King's attempt to stir up political strife on this subject comes with bad grace from the leader of a party which is largely responsible for the railway muddle in Canada and a party which has shown by its record in the House in recent years as being antagonistic to public ownership.

The Globe persists in its contention that there is some doubt as to the validity of the sheriff's return in the case of St. John County, by which Mr. Baxter was declared elected. What ground has The Globe for this attitude, and for what reason does it continue to insist that Mr. Baxter should virtually admit that he was not properly elected? Why does The Globe vilify Mr. Baxter because he stands upon his rights? The Globe is merely playing the Government's game, which is to leave no stone unturned to beat Mr. Baxter. With him out of the way, the Opposition would be leaderless in the House, and the Government could do what it liked.

When a man goes to law and wins his case, he naturally opposes any attempt on the part of his unsuccessful opponent to obtain a reversal of the judgment. No one ever accuses him by so doing of trying to keep something he has improperly obtained. This is Mr. Baxter's position. The sheriff awarded him the seat as the recipient of the greater number of votes; and no one but a bitter partisan will accuse him of bad faith when he goes what he can to keep it. If there were any legitimate doubts as to the validity of the sheriff's return, Mr. Baxter would be the last man to want to avail himself of it.

The Globe describes Mr. Baxter's protest against the recount as based on a technicality. Is not the whole election law full of technicalities? What can be more technical, in fact, than the contention that a cross party candidate's name invalidates the ballot? What can be more technical than the requirement that if a voter wishes to vote for two members of each ticket he must not put in two ballots with two names crossed off each, but must cross off two names from one ballot, and write on it the names of the two members of the other ticket? Common sense would dictate that as long as only four names remained on the ballots, those should stand.

If the attempt to obtain the recount in St. John County is not a political trick to try to do Mr. Baxter out of the seat, what is it? What ground exists for the contention that he was not properly elected? And what is there to support the view that Mr. Bentley has any just claim to the seat?

The Ontario Government makes about a million dollars a year out of its liquor dispensaries. Here is a "tip" for Premier Foster. He will be wanting cash pretty badly, if reports are true, to meet his expenditures this year, and he might make money this way.

The British Parliament is now gathered in a critical session, sessions of this description being quite normal today.

One day last week there were 115 suicides in the United States. Our neighbors are determined to hold all world's records.

The Board of Commerce has resigned. Its members should be crystallized.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

War Loses.
 (Kitchener Record.)
 In calculating the losses resulting from the war, the positive facts are had enough without enlarging them by drawing upon the imagination. The Society for Studying Consequences of the War places the death list at 35,000,000, made up as follows: Killed, 10,000,000; died from epidemics, results of blockades, etc., 5,000,000; fell in birthrate because 15 millions of men were mobilized for war, 20,000,000. You cannot very well lose what you never had. The loss of the twenty millions who might have been born is about as real as that of a man who might have bought a certain stock at 50, but did not, and then calculated the amount of money he lost when the stock went to 125.

Mr. King's Position.

(Sydney Post.)
 But "free trade" in the Canadian political discussions can mean only one thing, for the total abolition of the tariff is obviously out of the question, and none but a madman would advocate it. A Canadian free trader is one who would have a revenue tariff, under which customs duties would be collected on manufactured goods as they come out, and cannot be produced in this country, while there would be no duties levied on industrial products that are manufactured both in Canadian and in foreign factories.

Mr. King surely knows that there is such a thing as a "free trade tariff." Such a tariff is that which is described above. Such a tariff was maintained in England for two generations before the war. No one questions that England was a free trade country from 1846 till 1914, and everyone knows that during that period England collected many billions of pounds in customs duties.

Mr. King therefore talks inconsequential nonsense when he says he is not a "free trader" because he is not advocating the total abolition of the tariff.

What the public have a right to know, and what he shall yet be obliged to disclose, is whether he favors a free trade or a protectionist tariff.

A BIT OF VERSE

WHEN FALL BEGINS.
 All Summer long
 My world was wrapped about
 In leafy folds of living green,
 Which way you looked no house was so real.

No glimpse of curving gray
 Where winds the road.

All Summer long
 The valley seemed a well
 Of soothing green and deep untold,
 Where sunbeams sunk their shaft of gold;
 And not a bird would tell
 What lay below!

Now thinning boughs
 Reveal a hidden wall—
 A peering chimney-top—a roof;
 No longer hidden, the material
 My neighbor's nearness calls,
 And I must heed.

Through bronzing boughs
 The chill white mists arise,
 And soon from every chimney-throat
 The smoke from evening hearts will rise.
 And I will turn my eyes
 To watch the road.

Nathan Burkan, who was the attorney for the late Olive Thomas, has been appointed administrator by the New York Surrogate's Court for the estate left by the picture star. Mr. Burkan informed the court the estate would exceed $25,000, which is the nominal estimate usually in the applications for letters of administration. Miss Thomas left no will.

Her life was insured by the Solntzack concern for $200,000, the policy having been issued a short time before she went abroad. The Solntzacks have not been in touch with the attorney for the estate, although it was reported they would make an offer to add part of the insurance to the estate. Miss Thomas during her life was the support of her mother and several relatives.

Mr. Burkan stated that no real property had been disclosed in the estate.

WOMEN'S POWER ABILITY TO SAY "NO"

Women's greatest asset is her ability to say "No," according to Paul Oliver, the French psychologist.

Men often fail because they can't say "No" or by saying it too bluntly when they do.

Women, on the other hand, know how to express infinite shades of meaning and feeling in that one syllable.

The word "No" is the essence of woman's sovereign power.

MONTANA TO STOP SLAUGHTER OF ELK

4,000 Were Killed in Yellowstone Park During the Year.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 22.—This is going to be the last year for the elk slayers on the Montana side of the Yellowstone National park, according to "Jake" DeHart, state game warden. And it may be that an aroused public opinion and a late season will unite to prevent this year a repetition of the slaughter in 1919, when Mr. DeHart estimates that more than 4,000 park elk were killed by hunters in the two counties adjoining the great national playground and game preserve.

The branch line of the Northern Pacific railway was unable to handle all of them and scores of carcasses spoiled at stations along the line.

DeHart predicts changes in Mont- ana's game laws by the legislature, which meets in January. Protest- ers against the elk slaughter have come in from almost all parts of the nation.

Present laws not only permit each person owning a hunting license to kill one of these tame elk but provide that a second one may be killed upon the payment of an additional license fee of $25. The tooth, hide and antlers of the animal are worth more than that, saving nothing of the meat.

When the snow comes, the elk leave the park in herds of thousands. They are so numerous and so gentle that hunting them offers no greater thrill than it would to walk into a stock- yard, select a suitable animal and shoot it. Instances are recorded in which a hunter changed his mind af- ter shooting, left the animal lying where it fell, and proceeded to kill his second choice.

MR. TAYLOR MIS- QUOTED IN REPORT OF HIS CONFERENCES

To the Editor:

Dear Sir:—In reading the news item which appears in your issue of 22nd inst., representing the discussion at the Board of Trade with regard to the Sales Tax, I observe one or two in- accuracies which I would thank you to have corrected, in view of the fact that said inaccuracies will prove misleading and, possibly, therefore, frustrate the object of my visit to St. John.

In the first paragraph, under the heading "Open Discussion," I am re- ported to have stated that the Sales Tax was a 2 per cent. tax on sales by man- ufacturer or jobber to retailers or con- sumers—the inaccuracy arises from the use of the words "or jobber," as sales by the wholesaler or jobber to the retailer or consumer are subject to a Sales Tax of 1 per cent. only, and it is in respect to sales by the manufac- turer to the retailer or consumer that a 2 per cent. Sales Tax is collectible.

A second inaccuracy appears in con- nection with my replies to Mr. Dyke- man on behalf of the Retail Merchants' Association.

In discussing this phase of the mat- ter, I had reference to the Manufac- turer's Tax only when I stated that goods were sold prior to May 19th, and paid for in full the Luxury Tax is not collectible, etc. In respect to Sales Tax, however, the same conditions do not apply, as the Act refers to sales and deliveries in the latter case, whereas in the case of goods subject to Luxury Tax the tax is collectible upon the sale thereof.

G. W. H. TAYLOR,
Asst. Deputy Minister Inland Revenue.

How the League Issue Is Splitting the Parties

The desertion of the Harding camp by a former Republican National Committeeman and a number of other prominent pro-League Republicans after Senator Harding's uncompromising rejection of the League of Nations in its present form in his Des Moines speech, convinces many observers that the League has taken its place at the eleventh hour as a clear-cut issue of the Presidential campaign. But if the League issue is now rending the Republican ranks, it is also a matter of common newspaper remark that earlier in the campaign it won over to the Harding banner many Irish-American and German-American voters who supported Wilson in 1916. And it will be remembered that it was on this issue that the Hearst papers abandoned their traditional Democratic allegiance.

In the Democratic camp Senator Harding's Des Moines speech was greeted with every appearance of rejoicing. The New York Times (Dem.) declares that "the election of Cox means a League of Nations acceptable to President Wilson, and Republican success apparently precludes American participation in the League," but, affirms the Baltimore American (Rep.), all that Senator Harding has done in this matter has been to "turn his back upon the Wilson League and turn his face toward the Constitution and toward the Senate," and the New York Globe (Rep.) is "convinced that Senator Harding will be compelled to move for the ratification of the Treaty of Versailles."

A most interesting and instructive analysis and digest of public opinion on the League of Nations issue will be found in the leading article of THE LITERARY DIGEST FOR October 23rd. Other striking news- features in this number are:

WEDDINGS.

Brown-Elliott.

An event of much interest took place Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Elliott, Knightville, Kings Co., when their eldest daughter, Frances Margaret, be- came the bride of Wayne A. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay H. Brown of Corn- Hill. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Bell of Petticoat, under an arch of asparagus fern, in the presence of over one hundred guests.

The bride looked charming in a dress of Alice blue silk Georgetown crepe over Duchess satin, with bridal veil and orange blossoms, carrying a bouquet of carnations and maiden hair fern, entering the parlor on the arm of her father, to the strains of a bridal march from Lohengrin, nicely rendered by her sister, Miss Julia Elliott. Little Miss Irene Elliott, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl, carrying a basket of white and pink carnations.

After the ceremony the guests were repaired to the dining room, which was decorated with autumn leaves and partook of a nicely arranged wedding supper.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts.

The bridal party left by auto for Petticoat to connect with the Mari- time express, taking with them the best wishes of everybody, mingled with showers of confetti. While away Mr. and Mrs. Brown will visit Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Ni- agara Falls. On their return they will reside in St. John.

NOVA SCOTIA GETS READY FOR "BONE DRY" TIME

Halifax is Receiving Huge Quantities of Liquor Daily Now from Montreal.

Halifax, Oct. 22.—The people of Nova Scotia may vote next Monday to prohibit the importation of liquors for personal use from outside the province which is now allowed, but many of them won't give a care for a few months or years after the law comes into effect, for they are now providing for the future.

There is probably a month still left for the thirty-one to replenish their cellars, and indications are that they are going to do it. The vote will be taken next Monday, Declaration Day, and after that an order-in-council will be passed, giving legal effect to the wishes of the people and naming a day on and after which the new law will be in force.

"I think there was a bottle for every citizen of Halifax on board," said a customs agent yesterday in referring to the chief part of the cargo of a ship which unloaded here from the West Indies. "Liquor is coming to Halifax from the British Isles, from the West Indies, from St. Pierre and other parts of the world, but to mention other provinces, especially the city of Montreal."

Inquiry into the number and character of incoming shipments has led to the discovery that all the bottles in the world won't be able to absorb liquor dry up this province next Monday. Of course, when the law is once in force no more liquor can be lawfully imported, but there will be many an oasis in the desert for some time after that.

It is said that hundreds of thousands of dollars are being sent out of this province by those who value their personal liberty to such an extent that they want to drink what they want when they want it, as well after as before Oct. 25, or whatever date the law will come into effect. Enough liquor is coming into the province in return to stock a fair-sized river, in the words of one man who should know, when seen yesterday.

"Most of our leading citizens," says a letter received by this paper yesterday "are stocking up for the next five years. Doctor, lawyer, judge, bank manager—all are getting theirs now." This writer is evidently against the referendum, as he claims that the poor man is not in a position to take time by the forelock in this manner and that those who like a drop once in a while will have to go without it soon, unless they can secure it unlawfully while the wealthy man will have all he wants in the cellar.

The movement of money out and liquor in has just started, in the opinion of customs and shipping men. Every small Montreal brings bales of letters from liquor houses offering all kinds and conditions of the hard side wet stuff, and with Christmas in the offing and the probability of a bone-dry law (practically everybody seems to believe the province will go bone-dry) passing, there will be "rivers of blessing" arriving here by boat and every train for the next few weeks, if the movement grows as expected.

GREAT FUNERAL FOR LIEGE HERO

King Albert Attends to Honor Man Who Defended the Fortress.

Brussels, Oct. 22.—An immense crowd yesterday attended the funeral of General Leman, the defender of Liege. The body arrived from Liege, where the general died Sunday from pneumonia, and was met at the Northern Station by representatives of the king and the government, and military and civil authorities. The streets were lined with troops, former soldiers and school children. The French and Italian armies were represented by delegations.

Members of the diplomatic corps and of the court of justice awaited the arrival of the cortege at Parliament House, where orations were delivered. The body was buried in the Xelles cemetery.

NEW RAIL SERVICE TO PACIFIC COAST

Canadian National Railways Inaugurate New Fast Daily Service Between Montreal and Vancouver—Luxurious Trains in Operation.

From all points in the Maritime Provinces there is the finest through rail service to the Pacific Coast, via Canadian National Railways.

All that travel comfort can suggest, convey, or devise, is here for the traveler. The most modern of steel equipment—first class coaches, standard sleepers, tourist cars and luxurious compartment cars, are on the through trains between Montreal and Vancouver. The excellence of the connecting train from Eastern points, the "Ocean Limited," is known to all travelers. The new service from coast to coast is the best that any railway offers anywhere.

The Ocean Limited leaving Halifax at 8:10 a. m. daily, arrives in Montreal at 9:20 a. m. the day following. Connection is made with the splendid train operating under Canadian National and Grand Trunk management, leaving Bonaventure station at 6:00 p. m. This train, with its equipment of compartment cars, standard sleepers, standard diner, tourist and colonist cars, arrives at Ottawa at 8:00 p. m. and leaving at 8:20 p. m. is at North Bay early the following morning. Port Arthur and Port William are reached the morning of the day following and Winnipeg that evening. Leaving Winnipeg at 9:40 p. m. the journey to the coast is continued via Saskatoon, Edmonton, Jasper, Mount Robson and New Westminster and the train arrives at Vancouver at 9:00 a. m. the third day after leaving Winnipeg.

The government also considers that the brief appearance of Zoroviev and associates should be entered on the credit side of the ledger because their virulent attacks against the moderate leaders evoked such strong anti-Moscow feeling that the chance of co-operation of the moderate wing with the Kremlin leaders is definitely past.

Particulars of this new through service can now be supplied by all Canadian National Railway ticket agents. Rates can be quoted and reservations made. It is a new era in Transcontinental travel that is but the beginning of a greater railway development under the Canadian National system.

COLORED PAPER OFFERS PRIZE FOR BEAUTY

(Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic.) London, Oct. 22.—The editor of the African Review is offering $500 as a beauty prize, the winner to be used as a proof that negro girls compare favorably with the whites in beauty. He says he has received photographs from South Africa, the West Indies and the Sudan to justify the claim.

RUSSIANS' TALK REVEALS SOVIET

Germans Let Them Talk at Halle to Show Character of Their Plans.

Berlin, Oct. 22.—The German press raised a great commotion over the entrance of Zinoviev, Locomax and other Bolshevik personages into Germany. Equally great is the hubbub over their expulsion after the break-up of the Halle congress.

Your correspondent learns as a bit of inside history that the government's decision to admit the chairman of the Soviet executive committee and his auxiliaries was not enforced upon it by radical pressure, as is generally assumed, but was taken with the deliberate design of attempting to immunize German workmen against Bolshevism. It is considered that to permit the more moderate workmen to see and hear the Bolshevik leaders in action and to allow the latter to develop their doctrines of terrorism and hostility to the German trades unions and of Moscow dictatorship of the radical movement in a few speeches would prove one of the best deterrents to the spread of Bolshevism in Germany.

Government representatives today claimed their policy was justified by results throughout the country, particularly by the comparatively small impression made upon the Independent Socialists in the Reichstag, of whom only 21 out of more than 80 members who attend the party caucus yesterday, seceded from the old organization, and joined forces with the two lone Communist members, which establishes the extreme radical left of 24 representatives—enough to make a considerable showing, but insufficient to materially affect the proceedings in the house.

The government also considers that the brief appearance of Zoroviev and associates should be entered on the credit side of the ledger because their virulent attacks against the moderate leaders evoked such strong anti-Moscow feeling that the chance of co-operation of the moderate wing with the Kremlin leaders is definitely past.

Particulars of this new through service can now be supplied by all Canadian National Railway ticket agents. Rates can be quoted and reservations made. It is a new era in Transcontinental travel that is but the beginning of a greater railway development under the Canadian National system.

42 STOWAWAYS ON SHIP FROM ITALY

Police Suspect Anarchists Are Trying to Place Plotters in the States.

New York, Oct. 22.—Forty-two stowaways from a single ship being marched under an armed military guard into the immigration station was the extraordinary spectacle presented today on Ellis Island when passengers from the steamship Logan were being landed for inspection.

Forty-two stowaways from one ship on a single voyage in the stowaway traffic of the immigration office. It was not recalled by any of the oldest immigration workers—and there are some Methuselahs on the force of Ellis Island—that a band of stowaways ever before were escorted to the island by an armed military guard—real soldiers with real guns.

The stowaways came from Naples. There is great mystery about the methods they must have employed in that city to smuggle themselves aboard the Logan, and the mere fact that so many of them succeeded in doing so strengthens the theory of Detective Edward Hughes, of the Phelps Steamship Line, that there is a powerful and mysterious band of anarchist plotters in the Italian sea ports who aid such persons in getting aboard departing ships bound for America. Officials of the Phelps Line, however, say they have not been able to get any definite proof of such a secret band.

They say the latest stowaways completely baffled the ship's officers and crew in getting aboard and hiding in the hold of the Logan until the vessel was well out to sea and steaming for New York.

HOW TO COMBAT DISEASE

Facts Everyone Ought to Know

GOOD health is impossible, if the kidneys are out of order! Once these organs fail to properly perform their natural functions, you have trouble ahead. Disease in many forms lurks ready to grip you. Uric acid and other impurities immediately begin to collect in the system, and poison the blood stream. Then, in their train, quickly follow a chain of afflictions.

Symptoms Not to be Neglected

Only those who have lived through the dreaded pains of kidney and bladder troubles know what distress awaits you if you fail to give the symptoms early attention. Backache, headache, and dizziness are often treated lightly, whereas they are danger signals. If these symptoms of kidney trouble are ignored, as naturally as night follows day, will trouble come. Sciatica, or lumbago, stones, gravel, rheumatism, swollen joints or one of the many other similar serious and painful,—yes, and sometimes fatal,—maladies is bound to come.

Yet the remedy is within reach of all—GIN PILLS. You may be skeptical, but if you were to read some of the thousands of remarkable stories reaching us daily by letter, you would sit down and think awhile.

First Get Rid of the Cause

The reason why Gin Pills afford instant relief where other "remedies" fail can be easily understood without a highly trained medical mind. It is impossible to get rid of any physical illness without first getting rid of the cause. It is only natural that as long as the root of the trouble remains, a permanent relief cannot be hoped for. Therefore, as the painful diseases referred to are the result of the failure of the kidneys to act properly, the first step necessary is to rectify the action of these organs.

The function of Gin Pills is to help the kidneys to perform their natural duties once again. The result is immediate relief. Even cases of long standing are benefited by a reasonable course of Gin Pills treatment. Sometimes, permanent relief is accomplished in remarkably quick time.

Gin Pills contain the beneficial ingredient of Gin without the slightest taste of alcohol. The formula comprises several other tested diuretics and antiseptics.

Our "Money Back" Offer

If you doubt that Gin Pills can relieve you, we do not ask you to go to any expense to try them. You can have a sample sent you, by writing us or you can purchase them from any dealer and we will refund your money (up to the price of six boxes) if you are not satisfied with the result.

You owe it to yourself to try them. What Gin Pills have done for thousands of others, they can do for you.

Read these few letters, which are typical of the hundreds that reach us from all parts of Canada and abroad. The addresses can be furnished upon request.

UNABLE TO WORK

"I have been troubled with Rheumatism for five years, one of which I have been unable to do any work whatever. Have spent much money on other remedies, until I purchased from my druggist, L. T. Best, Kingston, one box of Gin Pills, on his recommendation. The result was beyond my expectations. The first box banished all traces of Rheumatism. I now keep Gin Pills in the house, and take one occasionally. My sincere thanks are due you for your wonderful remedy, which has done so much for me."

(Signed)
"GEORGE VANDEWATER."

A SKEPTIC CONVINCED.

I have suffered from kidney trouble for several years. I have tried numerous remedies and used medical prescriptions without having permanent relief, my case being chronic. After seeing your advertisement for "Gin Pills" and, as it is a known fact that Jander with no alcohol is excellent for kidneys, I decided to try your "Gin Pills," although having but little faith in same.

One dose, taken from sample, received, gave me great relief. Since, I have taken almost four boxes of these pills and find myself completely well. Notwithstanding, I will continue to take these pills for a while yet.

No more bad humor, increase in weight, clear eye, fresh and ruddy coloring, more will, more strength and vigor. This is what the "Gin Pills" have made for me. I can now use my bicycle, and bend with no pain.

(Signed) H. POWIS HENBERT.

THE FALL WEATHER HARD ON LITTLE ONES

Canadian fall weather is extremely hard on little ones. One day is warm and bright and the next wet and cold. These sudden changes bring on colds, cramps and colic, and unless baby's little stomach is kept right the result may be serious. There is nothing to equal Baby's Own Tablets in keeping the little ones well. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, break up colds and make baby thrive. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

KIPLING WILL NOW WRITE FOR SCREEN

Famous English Author Consents to Write and Direct New Play.

Word has just come from New York that Rudyard Kipling has at last consented to write for the screen. Up to the present time only two of the noted Englishman's books have been adapted.

Like Barrie, Maeterlinck and several other notables who have been over by the movies in the past year, Kipling is equally important in the art of scenario writing.

The future of Labrador is great, according to the doctor. Physical difficulties alone have to be surmounted. The weather is ideal, never getting colder than 40 degrees below zero.

The methods of transportation form one of the main barriers to the development of the country. Attempts have been made to rectify this by using a road programme by the Quebec Government.

An Opportunity... During the war, Dr. Grenfell stated, he had urged the Dominion Government to compel all prisoners of war to work on road building in that country.

Stork was very pleased to find that the school law had happened to him, wondering why the White Babies, they round the Black Baby, ever and when the Black Baby had his adventures at last-time all so interested they near to drink their milk.

LUXIS BOYS AND TRAIL RANGERS

This week ends on right in on the Days' Work Conference. At the time of writing there are about 115 applicants in, but this is very small when we consider the number of churches and boys in St. John.

A report of the Conference will be coming out in the next few days. Last Monday being Thanksgiving Day, no doubt several groups spent the day hiking, and reports have been received from the "Trail Rangers" of St. Mary's that they had a very enjoyable day at Rugged Point.

Mr. McEwen reports several "Tuxis" and "Trail Rangers" groups lined up in the new Co-operative scheme, and will be pleased to hear of others who are interested.

"That's the way to buy heat - by the roomful!"

YES, the "roomful" is the practical way to measure heat. It does not matter how much fuel is bought, nor how much heat is produced, unless you get the full benefit of it in the room where you want it. A Perfection Oil Heater gives prompt heat on the spot.

If you could build your house over again you would change a good many of the radiators and registers around, wouldn't you? Why not put a Perfection Heater near the window where the radiator ought to be? By using the Perfection Heater in this way you get both fresh air and comfortable heat. It throws out ten hours of clean, intense heat on a single gallon of coal oil.

As cheerful as an open fireplace The warm cheerful glow of the Perfection Heater makes it a favorite in many homes that have no open fireplaces. It is indispensable in Fall and Spring, because it saves running the furnace to heat one room. It is invaluable in Winter to give auxiliary heat in cold spots. It weighs but a few pounds and can be safely carried from room to room.

Hardware, Housefurnishing, and Departmental Stores everywhere sell Perfection Oil Heaters. Let your dealer show you how simple the Perfection Heater really is. Over four million in use, and the number is growing daily. Your dealer can also show you the New Perfection Oil Cook-stove and Perfection Water Heater - models of convenience and economy.

Protect against fuel shortage You can save a hod of coal every time you use your Perfection. That's worth money these days, and besides coal is scarce and it may be hard to get this Winter. Get a copy of our new Perfection Heater folder.

LOSSES IN ALMOST EVERY SECURITY AT SESSION'S END

Sugar Down to 89 Points, a Net Loss of Two and a Half.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—As yesterday, net losses predominated in the close of trading today on the local stock exchange. Bromption again led the list, and the papers generally were active. Among the stronger issues were Wayagmack, with a net rise of five points to 165, and Rordon, up 4 at 212. Bromption was again somewhat erratic and apparently influenced by the directors' declaration of an increased dividend. It opened strong, touching 77, then sold off to 74, where support coming in, a rally to the close of 75 1/2 followed, a net gain of a fraction.

Spanish River common ranged between 104 3/4 and 102 1/2, with final close at 103 1/2, a net loss of a large fraction. The preferred moved between 105 and 108, the close at 107 showing a loss of a point.

Gains Predominated in Day's Trading While British Labor Situation Was Better.

New York, Oct. 22.—The stock market again rose and fell mostly within a contracted area today, the slightest drift of prices and light dealings expressing the further indecision of traders in the absence of definite factors.

Gains predominated among the usual leaders, however, until the final hour when the rate for demand loans suddenly rose to the maximum of the week on the withdrawal of funds by local and interior banks.

M. J. Thorne, of Simonds street, and W. A. T. Thorne of Rockland road have returned home after a very enjoyable trip of ten weeks in the west, visiting their brother, W. B. Thorne of Aldersyde, Alberta. They went some time in Edmonton, Calgary and High River, also taking a trip through southern Alberta by auto.

VISITED MEADOW WHARF

The Mayor and Commissioners visited the vicinity of the Meadow wharf yesterday morning to look over the ground referred to in L. G. Crosby's application for a change in the bounds of the lot leased to him by the city at that place. They also took into consideration the selling of the city morgue and the transfer of a lease to Mr. Crosby of an additional piece of ground leased to James H. McParland. The matters will likely come up at the Monday meeting of the council.

SOME OF THE COMMISSIONERS

Some of the commissioners are opposed to any action which might be taken to transfer the property on the eastern water front as they do not wish to block any movement towards development of that area in the way of additional wharves for handling the winterport business. It is therefore likely, one of them said yesterday morning, that the present scheme will receive some opposition.

Coal Situation Is Not Serious

Local Dealers Do Not Anticipate Any Shortage and No Cause for Panic.

The summertime weather of the present autumn is exercising a most favorable influence upon the coal situation in St. John. A continuance of those weather conditions for a week or two would practically remove the possibility of a serious shortage of anthracite during the winter months. The saving by the average family of from one-half to a ton of coal up to the present time, as compared with last year, means the conservation of a very large quantity of coal in this city.

Shortage Not Anticipated.

Local dealers do not anticipate any particular shortage here this season. The great majority of consumers have their winter's supply in the bins. There are some who delayed placing their orders for furnace coal until late, and because the dealers have been unable to fill these orders up to now, a wall of distress has gone forth from the tardy ones, which has given the impression in some quarters that the city is in for hardship because of a coal shortage.

Cargoes on Way.

At the present time the stock of stove and furnace coal in the hands of the dealers is below average, in fact some dealers have none at all, but cargoes are on the way, and are daily expected here. Heavy demands have been made on the United States coal piers and as there have been no large supplies in reserve the jobbers have been delayed in filling orders.

Local dealers say there is no cause for a panic over the situation in the city, as they have every reason to believe there will be plenty of coal for all.

Question of Price Reductions

General Consensus of Opinion of Local Merchants is Little Likelihood of Slump.

The question of whether or not there is any possibility of a slump in the price of goods and other commodities was pursued further yesterday, and several prominent merchants were interviewed in the matter. The general consensus of opinion, however, was that there was little or no likelihood of such a reduction, and many reasons were advanced supporting this view.

Another Merchant's View

Another very prominent merchant voiced the following opinion, which he had arrived at after careful consideration. "There may be a gradual decline in prices in certain cases, but nothing to warrant any great alarm. One thing is certain, and that is that there will not be any material drop for some considerable time; and it will be an abjectly necessary for production to increase in order that prices may recede. We will certainly never be able to get back to 1914 prices for years to come, and as long as the cost of living is as high as it is, we will not be able to obtain any reduction in any line at the present scale of wages. The whole problem hinges on production; and we must also bear in mind that transportation rates have been greatly increased."

Strike in England

It was also pointed out that the present strike in England, if it continues, will have a tendency to keep prices up at least; and that especially in the case of steel, the latest reports indicate that there is a change in the downward trend it will be at a very moderate rate. Among the numerous explanations for any sales which have recently occurred are that it is essential in some cases to make room for new stock, which had been ordered some time ago, and also that sometimes the merchant considers it advisable to give reductions in order to keep up his average volume of business.

Local Beer Vendors In Police Court

Fines of $200 or Nine Months Jail Against Those Found Guilty of Selling Liquor.

The prosecution of several local beer vendors charged with the sale of intoxicating liquor contrary to the Prohibition Act attracted a large number to the police court yesterday afternoon. The first case was that of one who had been charged with selling a bottle of gin. Kelly produced a square face and witness paid him the sum of $4 for it.

A square face marked "Geneva Gin" was produced in evidence and identified by witness as the bottle he had purchased. In answer to Daniel Mullin, K.C., who appeared for the defence, the witness stated that he had been sworn in as a sub-liquor inspector on the 25th of September. On the 15th, the day on which the gin was purchased, he was in the employ of the prohibition authorities, having been engaged on the 13th.

The official stated that the city were standing for the new union. The new union reported to have held a meeting last night and every member decided to stand firm in their choice, despite an opposition from employers.
