ALLEGED SPY HAS I.C.R. PLANS IN POCKET

Captured by I. C. R. Police on Tuesday at Sellarville—Will not to Halifax

(Transcript)

I. C. R. Police Inspector Tingley arrived in Moncton on No. 36 Express from Campbellton, Wednesday afternoon, bringing with him Reinhold Reidel, a German naval reservist, who has been acting suspiciously around Sellarville, Que., and who was arrested by the I. C. R. officer as an alien enemy. He will be sent to the detention camp at Halifax. When arrested, Reidel had in his possession a packet of letters, written in German and plans of highway bridges and railway tracks and bridges through the Matapedia Valley.

Reidel was born in Hamburg, Germany, Oct. 15th, 1880. He joined the German navy in 1895, and left the service in 1910. He was three years on the training ship "Stosch" and spent one year on the battle cruiser "Odin", three years on the coast defence work and training ships.

He came to Canada in 1911, landing in St. John. He had a little money with him then and received at least one cash remittance previous to the breaking out of the war. This was from his mother, Mrs. Augusta Reidel of Hamburg. She is a widow, who it appears draws annually a pension of 400 marks from the Hamburg American Line on account of her husband's services to that company.

Reidel has been around Campbellton for the past two years or more, and during the last few months, has been around Matapedia. Having served in the navy, he is a sort of genius, an all round handy man. In Matapedia, he has done some house painting and paper hanging. He has had numerous communications to and from Washington.

He explained these by saying that he was making application for letters patent on several inventions he was endeavoring to put through and showed models he was working on, to prove this. No patents, however, have been taken out by him so far.

He seems to have kept up regular correspondence with his mother, and others in Germany, until August last and his last letter home was returned to him from the dead letter office, after the war broke out. Letters in his trunk, however, received from parties in Chicago, show that he has been able to, and did communicate to his people in Germany, as late as Jan. 7th, of this year, sending his communication by registered mail to friends in Chicago, who forwarded it to destination.

He is unmarried and made himself popular with the young people of Matapedia and Sellarville, taking part in social entertainments at both places, as a singer. He claims to be a nephew of the noted opera singer Madame Schuman Heing, who is at present in Chicago.

After the war broke out he made himself obnoxious to some of his former friends by his references to the war, allies, etc. It was so marked in the case of his boarding house that he was requested to leave which he did.

A search of his personal effects, in addition to papers and letters bearing out the above stated facts showed a pencil sketch of the highway bridge over the Restigouche River at Matapedia. Also another sketch, of the Matapedia Valley, showing the highway, and railway of the Quebec and Oriental Company, and showing bridges of both as well as naming owners of farms showing mill sites, etc.

There were also photographs of himself, at different times, taken in the German Navy uniform. These with other papers show him to have been at Panama in the battleship Geier when the Boxer war broke out in China in 1900 and he served on her during the war. It will be interesting to note, that this is the ship that was interned at Honolulu early in the war. Some newspaper clippings of Berlin and Vienna reports of the war were also found in his trunk as well as revolver and cartridges.

It is thought that Mr. Tingley was put on this case on the request of the Commissioner of Dominion Police and that Reidel will be interned at Halifax.

BANQUET TO VISITING CURLERS LAST THURSDAY

Large Gathering at Oddfellow's Hall In Connection With North Shore Bonspiel Did Splendid Justice to Good Menu.

THE TOAST LIST

Thursday night after the games, a banquet was given the visiting curlers by the citizens in the Oddfellows Hall, and the capacity of the spacious lodge room was taxed to the utmost to provide seats for those who attended, about 120 guests having been served. The room had been very tastefully decorated with flags and bunting by a committee of curlers and the tables with flowers. Upon a short table at the head of the long tables, was displayed the handsome trophy, which goes to the winner of the games. At this table President Miles presided, with Mayor Andrew, Judge McLatchey, W. A. Park and other guests seated thereat.

The menu was as follows—

The catering was attended to by W. H. Gray and was of a very high order. After justice had been done to the menu, cigars were passed around and the toast list was proceeded with.

GIRLS HOCKEY MATCH TOMORROW EVENING

Tomorrow evening the Fredericton City Girls will play their return hockey game with the Campbellton Princess Pats. The last game ended in a win for Fredericton, which was largely discounted by the fact that our girls had spent all day on their journey to Fredericton, and required a thorough rest before playing a heavy game, as it turned out to be. However we can look forward to the "Pats" giving a good account of themselves and they will have generous support in their endeavors.

The following will be the line-up:—
Campbellton: Fredericton: Stella McKenzie (Goal) Miss Parker
Muriel Mowat (Point) Miss Hawkins
Frances Fish (C. Point) Miss Crockett
H. McDonald (R. Wing) Miss Thompson
D. Farrar (L. Wing) Miss Edgecombe
M. Graham (Centre) Miss Palmer
G. Kean (Rover) Miss McLeod
Fredericton: spares: Miss Colwell,
Miss Crockett, Chaperon, Mrs. Harry

For the day of Auld Lang Syne.

Among the speakers who responded to the several toasts were S. D. Hickbert and W. A. Park for Our Guests, Judge McLatchey proposed the N. S. Curling Association and Messrs. E. P. McKay of Bathurst and Thos. Wran of Campbellton responded. J. L. Stewart for Our Governments and Rev. F. C. Simpson, formerly of Douglstown and C. W. Squires for The Clergy.

Mr. Harry Smith favored the assembly with a recitation, and by special request recited Hoch des Kaiser.

The speeches were short and witty, and the evening very pleasantly passed. Unfortunately some of the Chatham curlers had to leave early to catch their train, and they were missed when called upon to speak.

All the visitors were low in their praise of the manner in which their entertainment had been looked after.

The committee in charge providing entertainment, desire to thank the citizens who contributed towards the success of the banquet.

The Saturday evening games were commenced early, so that a "Smoker" could be enjoyed in the rink banquet hall at the conclusion of the Bonspiel. Nearly a hundred men were present, and a most enjoyable hour spent.

The first event after singing "God Save the King", was the presenting to the winners of the North Shore Bonspiel trophy.

Mr. E. P. McKay, in the absence of President Burns of Bathurst, in a few well chosen words made the presentation, which was replied to by President Miles.

The remainder of the time was taken up with songs and short speeches by those present.

The visiting curlers left on the Maritime Sunday morning, for their homes, all expressing themselves delighted with the hospitality which had been extended to them.

The committee in charge of providing entertainment for the visiting curlers wish especially to thank the ladies, who each afternoon and evening provided refreshments at the risk during the games. This was a feature of the occasion which was highly commended.

During the games the exhibit of trophies in the rink was visited by a large number and was an interesting feature. The most talked of trophy of the lot was the White House Cup which Campbellton curlers, who were defeated in the McLellan cup games at Bathurst, "lifted" on that occasion. This cup will be played for by eight rinks from Bathurst and eight from Campbellton, four of each playing on home ice. These games are being played to-day.

Take as a whole, the North Shore Bonspiel at Campbellton has gone down in the records of curling as a most successful one.

Next year the Bonspiel will be held at Newcastle.

CAMPBELLTON LIES WITH CHATHAM TEAM

Victorias at Chatham. Play Drawn Hockey Game Marked by Rough Work

In a very fast game of hockey the Campbellton Vics played Chatham to a tie 3-3. The game was featured by Campbellton's combination work, which bewildered Chatham's fast individual players. Campbellton clearly outplayed Chatham at all stages of the game, scoring two goals in the first to Chatham's nil.

In this period play was fairly clean, excepting a lot of dirty slashing, pulled off by Stan Veno of the Chatham team, who has been paralyzed since.

In the second period, Campbellton got one and Chatham one. Play was very rough, Veno in the game in trying to cripple the Campbellton players.

In the third, Campbellton outplayed Chatham again. Although not scoring, Campbellton had twice the shots at Armstrong of Moncton, who played a remarkable game.

During the latter part of the game, Campbellton were paralyzed heavily for insignificant things, while the opponents were let down very easily. Play was very fast in this period, Chatham tied the score with five minutes to play, while McLean and Wallace decorating the boards, and McLatchy just getting on the ice after a penalty.

The Vics were a very sore looking bunch and were very thankful that they did not get hurt more. Every one of the fans that accompanied the team said that Chatham would not have had a look in, if they had got a half a show. Veno especially getting off with a lot of dirty work.

All the Vics played the puck and not the man, in that way succeeding in staying on the ice. Troy of Chatham was referee. Penalties, Campbellton: McLean 3; Wallace 2; Matthew 1; McLatchy 1. Chatham: Veno 2; Currie 1.

The goals were scored by for Campbellton: McLatchy 1; Matthews 2. Chatham: Veno 1; Currie 1; Duncan 1.

GERMANY'S AIM

Germany's submarines are active in the campaign which Vice-Admiral Kirchhoff says will gradually produce "general uneasiness, universal uncertainty, high insurance rates, desertions of crews, abandonment of regular shipping service, suspension of particular imports and precaution on the part of neutrals." Some of these same results were expected from Germany's cruiser raids on English coast towns and from the bomb-dropping trips of the Zeppelins, but they have instead more recruits for Kitchener's army. British sailors have never shown fear, and they will not now. Germany is playing a desperate game that at any moment may arraign against her the few nations which are necessary to long marches on land. Every German movement on the sea has failed. Britain's navy is stronger than when the war broke out. There is everywhere confidence in its ability to secure the nation's food supply, and there is not a shadow of doubt in any mind as to the final and complete triumph of the cause of humanity over the brute forces of Germany. Some ships will be lost, some lives sacrificed in the weeks to come, but British sailors have never feared the dangers of the sea, either in times of peace or war, and now more than ever they will face the risk and pay the price that Britain may maintain the freedom which is the stake in this great war. If Holland and America and Norway and other countries are called on to make contributions to Germany's lust of blood it cannot occasion surprise if they demand blood in return. The war now has entered on a new phase and there may be at any moment some sensational developments.—St. John Globe.

MARCHED OUT ONE EARLY MORNING

Then Suddenly Disappeared and Were Next Heard of in Land of France

London, Feb. 18.—It appears that the British War Department rather fooled the Germans and stole a march on them. The Kaiser was especially bitter against the Canadian contingent, and airships and spies were employed for the obtaining of information as to their transference across the Channel and German submarines were to be in waiting to pay polite attentions, but the secret of the transference was well kept. Route marches were adopted, and a regiment would go out in the morning and come back at night, and day after day this was continued, but some morning a regiment would march out as usual, but would not return and disappeared off the map. Then a little later another would start out on one of the daily marches, and that did not return. The men found their way into ports, went to sea and were out there for days. Suddenly a ship would pop into a port away in the southwest of France, on the coast of the Bay of Biscay. The men would land and find themselves on the continent of Europe. The moment they landed, there were piles of trench clothing waiting for them, guns, cars, trains, everything requisite for transportation and for fighting. This kind of thing was continued until the whole of the 30,000 men were practically across the Channel. The Kaiser's submarine blockade of the English Channel is a little late.

CANADA RECEIVES LARGE WAR ORDERS

Contracts to the Total of $70,000,000 Have Been Placed According to Reports

Montreal, Feb. 18.—Orders placed during the last six months in Canada for munitions of war, and various supplies total $70,000,000, according to the Canadian manufacturers.

Orders for shrapnel shells already total $25,000,000, and it is likely that additional orders will follow. Fifty firms share in these orders and there will shortly be an output of 250,000 shells a month.

Several of the larger manufacturers of clothing have been busy turning out khaki suits and overcoats. As a result of orders for automobile tires, one large manufacturer has found it necessary not only to double his staff, but to operate his factory, twenty-four hours a day. Lead mines which have been closed down have been reopened. The sugar refineries have also been busy, and the leather market is exceptionally good.

Shirt manufacturers have for several weeks had their factories busily employed. About $125,000 worth of blankets kept twenty-eight mills busy on one order for the French Government. Manufacturers of tents, haversacks, kit bags, etc., have been running their factories night and day. About 4,000,000 army buttons have been made.

Up to January, orders aggregating about $5,000,000 have been given out for underclothing, sweaters, socks and various descriptions of knitted goods for the army. Contracts for large quantities of dried potatoes have been placed. Three hundred electric heaters were ordered in Canada for use in the trenches.

This department is conducted by the Local Union, and is under the charge of an editor appointed by them. This Editor assumes the responsibility for the statements and articles which appear in this column.

Mrs. Brown looked out of the dining-room window.

"Oh, dear, it is snowing, and I did intend to go to Union meeting this afternoon. I don't see how I can walk away up there. I'll get my skirts all wet, and likely the hall will be cold. I wonder who is to have the paper this afternoon. That program is such a bother. I never can find it. Oh, I put it in that book I lent Mrs. Smith. It doesn't matter much anyway. It will be some old prosy thing anyway. Look at the big flakes. Well, I did promise the President to go, but how did I know it was going to snow? I just won't go out in this. I can finish that new cushion top I was working. There isn't a cushion in the living-room that's fit to be seen. And I can't leave Paula with the maid too much. She gets the most dreadful expressions from her. One's home duties come first, anyway."

Half-an-hour later, the Brown telephone rings.—
Hello. Yes, this is Mrs. Brown. Mrs. Clark isn't it? Isn't it a dreadful day." Pause. "Why, how lovely. Yes of course I'll come right over. Oh no, I can walk quite well. You must give me time to dress though." Pause. Yes, oh, yes. The maid is very fond of Paula, and will keep her all right." Pause. "For this evening, to see Peg O' my Heart! Mrs. Clark your husband is a perfect darling. All right, I'll be right over, and will dress for the evening now. Thank you so much."

As she hung up the receiver, she espied the President wending her way up the street. "Oh dear, I ought. Oh well, I'll go next day. I can go to Union any time but a dinner with Mrs. Clark, and to see Peg O' my Heart afterwards. I just can't miss it. But I will try to go next day."

Mrs. Smith looked out of her window about the same time as Mrs. Brown.

"It is snowing I declare. It always snows on Union day. And last day the hall wasn't half warm, and I got such a chilling, I haven't half got over it yet."

But it did not occur to her that she might easily remind the janitor to have the hall warmed, although his house was only a stone's throw away. So she stayed home.

Next comes Mrs. Robinson.

"It is snowing again. That will give me a nice long afternoon to finish that new book of Churchill's, The Inside of the Cup. It does take so long to read. But then it is our duty to improve ourselves, and I do want to know if Hodder marries that millionaire's daughter. How nice it is snowing, and no one will come in. Dear me, there is Mrs. Blank. Where in the world is she going? Why—I do believe—Tuesday; so it is, Union day. I did think last week I would try to go to-day, but one can't go all the time. Besides, there would only be some dry old paper that would not be worth listening to. I won't go today. Maybe, next week."

And so it went on. Mrs. Jones had a seamstress by the day. Mrs. A. had a cold, which, however, did not prevent her from attending the opera house that night to see Peg O' my Heart. Mrs. B. had a virulent attack of industry and patched and darned and mended. Mrs. C. forgot all about the meeting, although it had been twice announced on Sunday, and she had remarked that morning that it was the second Tuesday in the month. Mrs. D. thought it a waste of time to attend, because all that the Union accomplished wasn't worth doing. In fact, she could not see that "they" were doing anything. She quite forgot that she herself was one of the aforesaid "they", and that if all the members had been satisfied to do as little as she herself, nothing indeed would have been accomplished. Mrs. E. disapproved of some of the Union's proceedings. Mrs. F. thought that she was too busy to attend regularly, and so did not go when she might have. Mrs. G. had a bridge whist party, and no other day would do. As for many of the others, some forgot, some were too indifferent to attend, and others were really unable for various reasons, to attend. And so, at meeting after meeting, the discouraged President faced a mere handful, and those who had spent time and energy on the preparation of the subjects for study, spoke to a small percentage of those who should have been there to listen.

The meeting on Feb. 23rd, was taken charge of by Mrs. Richards. The subject was the Progress of the War, and facts and figures were given from various countries. The clippings were necessarily brief, but most interesting. The Dominion Rallying Song was then sung to the tune of "The Maple Leaf forever", after which Mrs. Richards read an essay on the Life and Work of Frances E. Willard, which will appear in next week's issue. During the meeting, Miss Gilker sang a solo, "The Songs of the Old Church Choir", which was much enjoyed. At the close, a vote of thanks was tendered to her, and to Miss Lingley, who acted as pianist for the afternoon. The regular meeting then adjourned and a social half hour was spent, tea and cake being served under the supervision of the social committee.—Mrs. Cool, Mrs. Moores, Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Wallace.

AID TO FARMERS IN QUEBEC MUNICIPALITIES

Hon. Chas. Marcil Interrogates the Government With Regard to Farmers Assistance

In the House of Commons last Friday, Hon. Chas. Marcil, member for Bonaventure brought to the notice of the government the need of assistance to the farmers in his constituency. From the perusal of Mr. Marcil's remarks and the answer of the minister which follow, it will be seen that only the Western farmers will receive assistance from the government.

Hon. CHAS. MARCIL: Mr. Speaker, will you allow me to ask the right hon. the Prime Minister if he will give me a moment of his attention with respect to what I consider an urgent matter on account of the times of stress through which we are passing. The Department of Agriculture—I am sorry that the minister is absent to-day—has been following up the custom established by the department of sending agricultural lecturers to the provinces of Quebec, as well as to other provinces, for the purpose of furthering the interests of agriculture which is a very laudable purpose and should be continued. I hold in my hand one of the circulars which have been distributed by the department by authority of the Hon. Martin Burrell, in which the province of Quebec has been divided into five groups for the purpose of these lectures. This series of lectures is to be given in the district comprising the counties below the city of Quebec, or a majority of them, such as Bellechasse, Montmagny, L'Islet, Kamouraska, Temiscouata, Rimouski, and Bonaventure. These lectures, one hundred and one in all, extend throughout the whole province of Quebec. The object for which they are to be given is the promotion of patriotism and production which is certainly a very laudable object at the present time. These words convey the object of these conferences:

Les conférenciers qui parleront à ces réunions sont des experts agricoles, entraînés tout spécialement pour la campagne de "Patriotisme et de Production agricole", inaugurée sur toute l'étendue du Canada. "Servons l'empire en augmentant l'approvisionnement de vivres", tel sera le texte de leurs discours. Tous les cultivateurs devraient s'efforcer d'y être présents. Les dames sont invitées.

Ces conférences sont organisées par l'ordre de l'honorable Martin Burrell, ministre de l'Agriculture du Canada.

I approve entirely of this campaign, but I am sorry to say that in some of the more remote regions of Quebec, and in some of the new settlements, especially in my own constituency, with which I am more familiar—I am not speaking of the older parts of the province but of the remoter districts and newer settlements—the farmers have been through a very hard winter, and I am informed on reliable authority that many of them have not the means of raising the seed that is necessary to put in the ground for ordinary production. In the one or two districts in the county of Bonaventure that have been called to my attention the farmers have been entirely deprived of the means necessary to carry on work of this kind. I would ask my right hon. friend the Prime Minister to give this matter his attention, if he has not already done so, because it is probably the most important question that could come before him at the present time, and I would ask him if he cannot extend to at least some of the more deserving parts, not only in Quebec, but of the other older provinces, the benefits of the campaign which has been undertaken and of the aid which has been given in Saskatchewan and other parts of Canada. The farmers of the eastern provinces have borne the burden and heat of the day and they are willing to do their share to preserve the Empire and Canada. If you send an agricultural lecturer down to these poorer settlements and ask the people to go in for this new campaign of production without providing them with the means to do so this work will be useless and Canada will suffer from a declining production. I hope that the Prime Minister will give this more consideration and that he will, if possible, have an investigation and find out exactly to what extent this aid might be given.

Hon. W. J. ROCHER (Minister of the Interior): Inasmuch as the matter referred to comes more particularly under the department over which I have the honour to preside, I would call my hon. friend's attention to the fact that he apparently confuses the propaganda that is being carried on under the auspices of my hon. friend the Minister of Agriculture (Mr. Burrell) for greater production with the matter of seed grain relief in the western provinces. The one is under the jurisdiction of the Minister of Agriculture and the other under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior. They are entirely separate and distinct.

Mr. MARCIL: I thought both were under the Department of Agriculture.

Mr. ROCHER: No, we are granting assistance of the character referred to by reason of the exceedingly dry season in certain districts in Alberta and Saskatchewan, which has deprived settlers of their crop almost in its entirety. It has been the habit to a limited extent each year for some years past for the Department of the Interior to come to the relief of settlers deprived of their crops who were resident on their homesteads and the owners of the land. The reason is that we have encouraged immigration and we look upon these people, until they become the owners of the land, as in a certain sense wards of the Government. In the past owners of their land who have been deprived of their crops through drought have been provided for by the Provincial Governments but the Provincial Governments felt themselves unable to cope with such a huge proposition as presented itself this year and we have arranged with the Provincial Governments of Alberta and Saskatchewan that we would look after the seed grain of those who were deprived of their crops last year, while, the governments have agreed to pass legislation at the next sessions of their legislatures giving priority to our liens over their mortgages for our advance of seed grain. Wherever we have advanced provisions for people who are actually in need of food, either for themselves or for their stock, we have secured a promise from the provincial governments to give our lien against the crop priority in the same manner as they are giving priority to our liens in connection with mortgages against land for seed grain. Petitions along much the same lines have been presented to me from the northern provinces of Ontario, and I have referred back these petitions with the statement that the people should apply to the Provincial Government, which has handled this matter in the past, and is in the best position to give aid to them. The difference between the western provinces, in which farmers are receiving aid, and the eastern provinces, in which a certain number of settlers appear to be in need, is that the provinces of Quebec and Ontario are the owners of their natural resources, whereas the Dominion Government is the owner of the natural resources of the western provinces. In consequence of that we feel under an obligation to supply those of our homesteaders who are in need.

THE SAWDUST QUEEN

THE ARGENTINE NAVY'S LATEST BREADNOUGHT.

THE BATTLESHIP MORENO OF THE ARGENTINE NAVY

The Moreno, sister ship of the Rivadavia, is the latest addition to the Argentine navy and is now in the York Navy Yard, where her hull is to be overhauled preparatory to the official tests to be made at Rio de Janeiro.

While her armament is complete, the Moreno is only partly furnished below decks, but when she is accepted by the Argentine government and is placed in commission with the fleet, her crew of 1,100 men will be accommodated on board which might be considered luxurious. Instead of hammocks, which are in general use on the navy of this world, the gunjackets will have real beds to sleep in. In addition there will be a large dining room, from which the Moreno will be termed "all the comforts of home." These will be in the form of a large and elaborate ventilation system.

If she is equipped in her trials to the specifications laid down by the Argentine Naval Committee, she will be one of the finest fighting machines afloat. Her normal displacement is 28,000 tons and her 12-inch guns make her a fighting ship of the first class.

On the evening of the 14th, the Good Templars had a Bean supper in the Temperance Hall, and while beans, bread and butter, tea and coffee, was served for .15c, and cake, pie and tea or coffee for .10c, the sum of $25.25 was realized as a result, showing the appreciation of the object.

Quite a few of the New Carlisle members drove to Hopetown to visit the Lodge there last Thursday evening, and a number expect to go this week to encourage them in their good work. We are glad to learn the Lodge in Hopetown is doing so well, and report 40 members in good standing.

We are all delighted over the beautiful fire weather which continues so long, making it so favorable for lumbering purposes.

What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription. All druggists have D. D. D., 25c, $1.

Drop into our store today, just to look over the merits of this wonderful Prescription. Ask also about D. D. D. Soap. D. D. D. is made in Canada. A. McG. McDonald, Druggist, Campbellton.

BLACK CAPE
It is with great sorrow that we are called upon to record the death of Mr. Wellington Campbell, who died in the Hotel Dieu Hospital at Campbellton on Saturday the 13th inst., after a protracted illness.

The deceased had been in the employ of Henderson Brothers at Montmagny, Que. On account of sickness he left for his home here, and became so ill he was placed in the Hospital at Campbellton. The remains were brought down on Monday's train. Deceased was in his 27th year and leaves a sorrowful mother and father, one sister, Mrs. Acey Enright of Shigawake, five brothers, Colin, Wallace, Novin, Simeon and Hastwell of Black Cape. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Mr. Wm. McColm and Mr. Duncan Campbell. Interment took place in the Black Cape Cemetery and much sympathy is felt for the grieving mother and father and the remaining family.

Mr. William McColm returned on Monday, the 15th, from Campbellton where he had been attending the funeral of the late Fred Smith.

Mr. Ernest Campbell left on Tuesday the 16th for Hartford, Conn., where he has gone for treatment.

Rev. J. M. Sutherland of New Carlisle occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church here on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Acey Enright of Shigawake was here last week attending the funeral of his late brother-in-law, Wellington Campbell.

The many friends of Mr. Archibald Campbell will be sorry to learn that he is confined to the house with a very sore foot.

NEWPORT
Before over 500 spectators, the Newport Hockey Team defeated the Gaspe Team in a good clean game on Wednesday last. The game was a lively one from start to finish and no one sided as would seem to be by the score. The first period ended with the score 4 to 0 in favor of Newport. The second period started at the same lively pace, Newport scoring once more, shortly after Gaspe putting in their only goal. Three more goals were added by Newport, making the score 8 to 1.

MONCTON CAPTURES

THE McLELLAN CUP

Two Rinks From Railway Town Win
The Trophy From Bathurst by One Point

(From the Gloucester Northern Light)
Last Thursday's game for the McLeLellan Cup was distinguished by the most varying degrees of fortune yet experienced by the Bathurst curlers in their efforts to hold the famous trophy, and it was anybody's victory until the very last shot, which gave Moncton a total lead of one—just enough to win the coveted piece of silverware.

C. E. S. Robertson, who skipped against Dr. Duncan, got a big lead in the first few ends, that the doctor, try as he might could not overcome. On the first end he scored 3, on the second 4, and on the third five. The doctor took the fourth end with a count of four and the fifth with one point. The score was fairly evenly divided, after that Moncton scoring 13 in six ends and Bathurst getting 12 in 7 ends, making Robertson's total 25 to Duncan's 17.

On the other side Thibideau did better for Bathurst, leading his Moncton opponent Simpson all the way through. When these two skips had finished the 17th end, the other side had played their eighteenth and last, and Bathurst was leading by two points. All realized that everything depended on the play of the next few minutes, and the walks were packed with a crowd that watched the course of each stone in tense silence. When the skip's turn to play came, the tee showed the result of very careful playing, for though Bathurst lay the two best stones, Moncton's were laying in positions that made a turn of the wrist or a miscalculation of the eye fatal to either side. Everyone gasped when Thibideau's first shot swerved a little and gave him no advantage. Simpson's granite came down and rested number one after moving out Bathurst's best shot. Nick's last stone slid right through and then Simpson came down with his last one and neatly cleaned out Bathurst's next best stone and dropped into position for number three giving the visitors the point needed to take the Cup. It was a fine piece of play and all the spectators joined in a tremendous cheer that fairly cracked the ice. The Moncton players nearly went wild and Simpson was almost crushed to death in the exultation of their delight. The Bathurst curlers were disappointed, but they had put up a good fight and had the satisfaction of knowing that the Cup was only barely won by the smallest possible margin.

The victors were entertained in the usual generous manner, although the festivities had to be cut somewhat short on account of the departure of many for Campbellton to take part in the Bonspiel, and the Moncton players will vouch for the fact that the Bathurst curlers can take a defeat as cheerfully as anybody.

The rinks played as follows:—
Moncton Bathurst
J. Fred Cooke R. C. Rogers
Geo. C. Allan J. E. Connolly
E. W. Givan Geo. Gammon
R. W. Simpson N. Thibideau

Bathurst won the McLeLellan Cup from Pictou, on Feb. 5th, 1914, by a majority of 24. According to the records this was the 88th game played for the trophy. Since winning it, Bathurst has defended it on sixteen occasions, playing 12 games and retaining it four times by default, before Moncton captured it in the 104th game. This is a record that any club might be proud of, for on every occasion the challengers were careful to send their very best rinks, and it required exceptional curlers to retain the Cup against such competitors for such a time.

Bathurst has reason to be grateful to the curlers for their splendid work

WOMAN'S BEST MEDICINE

Mrs. Kelly Advises all Women to Take "Fruit-a-Tives"

HAGERSVILLE, ONT., AUG. 26th, 1913.
"I can highly recommend 'Fruit-a-Tives' because they did me an awful lot of good and I cannot speak too highly about them. About four years ago, I commenced taking 'Fruit-a-Tives' for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth, but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them. They are particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I trust that some other women may start taking 'Fruit-a-Tives' after reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied the results will be the same as in my own case."

MRS. W. N. KELLY

"Fruit-a-Tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial box, 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of order by Fruit-a-Tives Limited, Ottawa.

In bringing so many of the best men of other towns within its gates. The town could not have received a better advertisement, and its people have impressed the curlers of other places most favorably, if their own words count for anything.

Bathurst would like to have the McLeLellan Cup again, and the curlers' meeting on Monday night last took the first step toward this end, when they decided to immediately challenge for another try with four rinks. This year's schedule for the Cup games will not likely be entirely played, but Bathurst will have its turn probably early next year.

DEATH OF MAYOR

Every move which was made to advance the interests of the town always found a strong advocate and promoter in P. J. Burns, and he was chosen its first mayor by acclamation in 1912.

At the time of his death he occupied the position of Honorary President of the Bathurst Curling Club and was widely known and highly esteemed by all. He was past president of the C. M. B. A. and showed through all his career a deep interest in town affairs, in which he always took a leading part.
