THOS. STONE & SON.

Carpets and Wall Papers.

TEN MEN DROP TO DEATH.

Rope Snaps and Mine Shaft Is Scene of Another Horror.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 27.—Ten miners were instantly crushed to death yesterday at the Conyngham Mine of the Delaware and Hudson Co., located in the northern part of this city. The men were being lowered into the mine, and when 350 feet from the surface the rope broke and the cage fell to the bottom of the shaft, a distance of 400 feet. A rescuing party was at once organized, and they found the bodies of the men in the dump at the bottom of the shaft beneath a mass of debris. They were terribly mangled. An examination of the rope had been made before the first cage full of human freight was lowered into the mine and it was found to be all right, but without any warning the rope snapped and the carriage dropped like a shot. The carriage had all the safety appliances, and its speed should have been checked before it reached the bottom, but the "catcher" did not work.

Dynamite's Mavoc.

Philadelphia, April 27.—One man was killed and 11 were injured, four fatally, by an explosion of dynamite yesterday near Bowlington, about 20 miles from here. The men were all Austrians. Twelve men were engaged in drilling when 16 pounds of dynamite exploded.

The Toronto Horse Show.

Toronto, April 27.—The eleventh annual Canadian Horse Show opened yesterday morning at the Amorty at 10 o'clock, and the judges settled down to work at once. This year a very remarkable record has been made in the number of entries, there being no less than 1,052, an increase of 337 over any previous year, equivalent to nearly fifty per cent. It is not alone in the quantity but in the quality that the show of 1905 stands as a high-water mark. The formal opening by His Excellency, the Governor-General, took place at 1:30 in the afternoon.

Want Chancellor Wallace.

Lewell, April 27.—The First Baptist Church has voted a call to the Rev. O. S. C. Wallace, president of McKean University, Toronto. Mr. Wallace is about 45 years old, a native of Nova Scotia and a graduate of the Newton Theological School.

Toronto, April 27.—Chancellor Wallace stated last night that he had received the call from Lewell, but was not in a position to say anything in regard to the matter.

Cut Her Own Throat.

Winnipeg, April 27.—A Polish girl, known as Lizzie, committed suicide late last night in the bathroom of the home of Dr. Stark, 23 Martha street, where she was employed as a domestic. The girl was found with her throat cut from ear to ear. A blunt table knife was used.

KILLED BY ETHER FIRE.

Uncovered Bottle Ignited and the Blase Filled Room—Grace Bland, Toronto, the Victim.

Toronto, April 27.—One girl was burned to death and a companion slightly burned by blazing ether in the Elliott & Co. chemical laboratory, 20 Beverley street, yesterday morning. Grace Bland, aged 16, 861 Bathurst street, with Jane Rule, was sealing 2-lb. bottles of ether over a spirit lamp. One was not tightly corked, and some of the contents dropped into the lamp and there was a sheet of flame in an instant. Miss Rule reached the door. Miss Bland ran in the wrong direction, and was unable to find an exit. When Howard arrived the flames were extinguished in a few minutes, but the Bland girl was dead. The monetary loss is about $2,000.

Little Maud Secord Killed.

Toronto, April 27.—The eighth fatal trolley car accident in Toronto this year occurred on Ossington avenue yesterday afternoon. The victim was little Maud Secord, whose age is only four years. The fatality occurred about 4 o'clock. The child had crossed the track in front of her home when a gust of wind lifted her hat from her head. The car struck her as she turned round to pick it up, the wheels going over both legs, which were severed. Dr. Watson, of College street, was at once called, but by the time he arrived the little one had died from her injuries. The motorman says the car was as close when the child turned that it was impossible to avert what happened.

Body Found Under Ruins.

Winnipeg, April 27.—Yesterday morning the body of W. Waddell, an Englishman, aged 24, was found in the ruins of the old C. P. R. depot, which is being torn down. The walls fell in last Saturday, and it is supposed the body has been in the ruins since then.

Powder Exploded—Houses Rocked.

Sherbrooke, April 27.—At 2:15 yesterday morning the mixing mill and wheel building of the Hamilton Powder Co., Windsor Mills, was blown up. The only person near by was the night watchman, who escaped with slight injuries. The explosion was so heavy that it was felt in Sherbrooke in heavy groes, and houses rocked as if shaken by an earthquake.

DRINK IS A DISEASE.

If you know any one who is addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors, tell him that he is suffering from a disease that can readily be cured. It only requires the desire and resolve to succeed. Write to the Leemington, Miles Co., Ltd., 288 St. James street, Montreal, for all particulars in regard to the use of Dr. Mackay's Specific for Alcoholism, that has had a remarkable success with the worst cases.

JAPS TAKE NO CHANCES

Flagships Have Expert On International Law Aboard.

Feeling in Tokio That Important Naval News Is Not Far Away—British Guard Boats Are Guarding the Approaches to Penang, Negobogoff's Squadron Is Nearing—Russians Have Cut the Hainan Cable.

Tokio, April 27.—The Imperial Navy Department, beyond saying no battle has been fought between Admirals Togo and Rojestyensky, will give no information about the outlook, and it is impossible to learn anything of the Japanese plans for a sea fight. It is very well known that the heavier fighting machines are off the south coast of Formosa, and that the main torpedo boat fleet is in Kelung harbor, the most extreme northerly port on the island.

There is a feeling here, gathered from official sources, that important news from the China Sea is not far hours away. Should it prove true that the Russian squadron has gone as far northeast as Hainan Island there is no reason why Japan should not strike without delay.

The Imperial Navy Department was, of course, anxious to avoid any international complications with France, but it can be said with certainty that Rojestyensky, once he is discovered in any of the harbors of Hainan, will be attacked forthwith, unless he observes the instruction of the Chinese authorities to put to sea.

Every Japanese flagship has on board two professors of international law, and undoubtedly in the case of Kamamatsu's squadron they will suggest the enforcement of law, in case it is defied by the Russians in Chinese waters.

On Guard at Malacca.

Penang Straits Settlements, April 27.—The fourth division of the Russian fleet, the Russian Pacific squadron, commanded by Vice-Admiral Negobogoff, was expected to pass Penang and enter the Straits of Malacca yesterday. The British authorities are on the alert. Guard boats at night are patrolling the approaches to Penang.

Cable Is Cut.

London, April 27.—The correspondent at Hong Kong of the Daily Mail states that the cable to Hainan has been cut, presumably by the Russian squadron to conceal the movements of the vessels there.

Schwab to Build Russ Navy.

St. Petersburg, April 27.—Schwab's negotiations with the Russian Admiralty have resulted in the practical conclusion of an agreement for the construction of a number of formidable line-of-battleships of a type which probably will startle the world. Schwab will leave St. Petersburg today. The details of the construction of the vessels remain to be worked out, but they will be monster 16,000-ton vessels of enormous horsepower and of a peculiar type, combining the projectile-resisting power of the battleships with the speed and wide radius of action of cruisers. They will be delivered fully equipped as to armor and ordnance. Mr. Schwab guarantees to create vessels with 20 per centum higher efficiency than any now existing.

FIGHTING ON LAND.

St. Petersburg Hears of Triumph of Linewitch and Tokio Also Gets Good News.

St. Petersburg, April 27.—General Linewitch, in a despatch dated April 25, says: "Our advance posts of April 22 forced the enemy successively to evacuate the fortified villages of Manchouou and Nemanpoum. The Japanese occupied a fortified position about three miles south of Nemanpoum, but our artillery fire and the appearance of our detachment on their left flank induced them to retreat hastily to Kayancheng. The same day Russian advance guards approached Changtu, about fifty miles above Tie Pass, which is strongly fortified and occupied by the Japanese. Our artillery opened fire, but when it became apparent that the place was strongly held our troops retired. Our cavalry destroyed the telegraph line between Kayancheng and Changtu."

These Russians Beaten.

Tokio, April 27.—The following official announcement was made yesterday: "On April 24 a Russian force pressed our advanced cavalry and attacked them in the vicinity of Kaiyuan. Our casualties were thirty-eight. The enemy left about 200 dead."

"Two other Russian forces attacked Changtu and Siatatsu, respectively, but retreated north when the other Russian force was defeated at Kaiyuan."

Prince Off to the Front.

Peking, April 27.—According to present arrangements, Prince Frederick Leopold of Prussia will leave on Sunday next via Kalgan and Khabitz to join the Russian army in Manchuria.

Gopon Has Initiators.

St. Petersburg, April 27.—Father Gopon has a successor in the person of a priest named Nicholas, who has been making a great stir among the workmen, addressing them nightly in various parts of the industrial districts.

Marital Law.

Tokio, April 27.—The privy council yesterday decided that martial law shall be proclaimed throughout the island of Formosa.

Will Meet in June.

St. Petersburg, April 27.—Several newspapers announce definitely that the representative body promised in the imperial rescript will meet at St. Petersburg in June.

Annual Parade Is Off.

St. Petersburg, April 27.—As all the guard regiments will be held in readiness in various parts of the capital to quell disorders on May Day (Russian style May 14), the annual parade of the Imperial Guard has been abandoned.

All On Strike.

St. Petersburg, April 27.—Private despatches of an alarming nature have been received from cities and towns along the Volga, saying that all the dock laborers have struck.

Succeeds Lesser.

Peking, April 27.—M. Pokotloff, one of the directors of the Russo-Chinese Bank, has been appointed Russian minister to China to succeed M. Paul Lessar, who died recently. M. Pokotloff has had many years' experience in Chinese affairs.

Officially Prohibited.

Moscow, April 27.—The general zemstvo congress which was to assemble here May 5 has been prohibited by the chief of police, the necessary permission having been refused by Interior Minister Boulguin.

Jews Warned to Keep Clear.

Warsaw, April 27.—A Jewish Socialist organization called the Bund has issued a manifesto urging members not to participate in any demonstrations on May 1 for fear they will lead to anti-Semitic disturbances.

The Warsaw garrison has been recently augmented by four regiments of infantry and two of Cossacks, bringing to total garrison up to 57,500.

MAKE OUR SALOONS CLUBS.

Lord Grey Speaks to Methodists on the Liquor Traffic.

Toronto, April 27.—Looking quite fresh after Tuesday's exacting program, His Excellency the Governor-General, received four large deputations yesterday morning in the yellow reception room at the King Edward Hotel. They were from the United Empire Loyalists, the General Conference of the Methodist Church, the Daughters of the Empire, and the National Sanitarium Association respectively. In each case an illuminated address was tendered him, and he delivered a reply.

Her Excellency Too Fatigued.

Her Excellency, however, was fatigued, and was unable to meet the deputations from the Daughters of the Empire, as expected. Earl Grey conveyed her sincere regrets.

Make Clubs of Saloons.

In speaking to the Methodist deputation His Excellency in the course of his reply, touching the liquor traffic, said:

"With regard to strong drink, I presume all you gentlemen are teetotalers, so I need not mince words. I want to say that I think you will make it headway against the evil until you succeed in eliminating the element of persons from the liquor traffic. Make your saloons clubs, as is done with the greatest success in parts of England. If the law in this country is that you give a common license to a man to make all he can out of the sale of liquor, you members of the ministry ought to work to bring about a change of method, and make it impossible for any man to try to push the sale of liquor for profit; let the Government of the Municipality take hold of the saloons and make clubs out of them, and future generations will be grateful to you."

Afternoon and Evening.

Yesterday afternoon Their Excellencies formally opened the Horse Show at the Amorty, a society event that is likely to prove one of the most brilliant of the season. In the evening they attend the Paderewski concert in Massey Hall.

BIBLE SOCIETIES FEDERATE.

First Meeting of New Canadian Bible Societies Held in Toronto.

Toronto, April 27.—The first meeting of the general board of the Canadian Bible Society was held yesterday, Dr. N. W. Hoyle presiding. Rev. H. F. Thomas and Rev. Dr. Shaw, of Montreal, responding on behalf of the delegates. Rev. J. Gibson, of Toronto, and Rev. F. M. Dewey, of Montreal, were elected secretaries. M. A. Morrison of Berlin, Germany, representing the British and Foreign Bible Society of London, England, also addressed the board.

The following auxiliaries have entered the new Bible society. Upper Canada, Montreal, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Western Ontario, Perth, Fredericton and Prince Edward Island.

A general discussion took place upon the work of the society, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, special stress being laid upon the necessity of providing the Bible in over thirty languages for the large foreign population now pouring into this country. Arrangements were made for the country to be divided into five districts with secretaries to organize the work in each district.

The following officers were elected: Dr. Hoyle, L.L.D., K. C., Toronto, president; vice-presidents, Rev. Dr. Shaw, Montreal; Thomas Ryan, Winnipeg; recording secretary, Rev. J. Gibson, Toronto; treasurer, Elias Rogers, Toronto, and an executive committee.

Costly Lumber Fire.

Warton, April 27.—Fire destroyed about $50,000 worth of logs, ties and posts and lumber at Cape Chin dump Tuesday night. About 2,000,000 feet of logs were burned. The fire started about the middle of the log pile, and the cause is supposed to be incendiary. The mill men affected here are Kastner & Co., loss about $10,000; Robert Watt, loss about $10,000; Hunter, Nisbaid & Crawford, loss unknown; Warton Lumber Co., loss unknown; John P. Newman, loss about $2,000.

About 30,000 posts of T. J. Austin, of Detroit, were also burned. There is no insurance.

Promptness is the soul of business.

TELLER SHOT BURGLAR

Four Men Make Desperate Attack Upon Sleeping Official.

One of the Band Killed—The Merchants Bank at Lancaster Forced Open With a Beam—Mr. Von Metzke's Pluck Alone Prevented Riffing of the Bank's Safe, But He Was Badly Beaten.

Lancaster, April 27.—One man lying dead in the Grand Trunk freight sheds, Herman Von Metzke lying in a delirious condition at the residence of Dr. Harkness, receiving the careful attention of the warm-hearted village doctor and his kind daughter, Miss Bertie Harkness, is the result of an attempted bank robbery in this village, which occurred between 1:30 and 2 o'clock yesterday morning.

The village was thrown into the greatest excitement by the report circulated that Herman Von Metzke was lying at the residence of Dr. Harkness, a very short distance from the bank, whither he managed to crawl and arouse Dr. Harkness, and tell him to hurry to the bank, as he thought it was on fire. The doctor immediately took charge of the plucky bank teller, placed him in bed and in charge of his daughter, and after obtaining assistance, went to the bank. Dr. Harkness with his friends found everything upside down, with a large Colt revolver lying on the floor and the bed in which the bank teller slept saturated and splattered with blood. After assuring themselves that everything was all right at the bank the villagers returned to Dr. Harkness' residence. By this time Von Metzke's wounds were dressed and he was able to give the following account to the doctor:

The Plucky Teller's Story.

"I was asleep in the bank and was awakened by footsteps which I mistook for burglars. Upon attempting to rise I was commanded by one of the men, who held a revolver in his hand, to lie still and at the same moment he dealt me a blow on the head with his large revolver. I knew then it was a fight for my life and grapple for my revolver, which was under my pillow. Getting hold of the weapon I threw myself out of bed and was again struck on the chin, then I fell over my shoulder at one of the men who was holding me from behind, and as I did so one of his companions threw up my hand and the bullet went crashing into the wall. Again I was struck, but breaking loose from the two men, was again grabbed and the second time I reached my hand around and fired into the body of one of the robbers. I knew my aim was good and you will find one of the men badly wounded. Follow them up. I will be all right," said the wounded man.

The Wounded Robber Dead.

Dr. Harkness then related the story as told by Von Metzke to those waiting outside his residence, and a search was begun. Leaving Main street the search party went through the village, examining the premises around the different hotels. Going up to the railway station they came upon a body on the station platform. The man was dead, the body being quite warm. The dead robber was shot in the left side, and upon investigation it was plainly seen that the robbers had dragged their companion from the railroad, crossing on Main street up the railroad track to the station, and upon finding he was dead rifled his pockets to destroy all evidence of his identity, and, taking the money, fled. The doctor will not allow him to be seen for some time.

Inquest in Progress.

To the freight shed, and Dr. Hamilton, of Cornwall, was wired for by the railway company to come to Lancaster, where, with Dr. Harkness, a coroner's inquest is being held. The dead man is apparently about thirty years of age and cleanly shaven. He wore a dark suit with a small stripe and had a gold front tooth. He has the appearance of being rather a superior person. When he registered at Ladue's Hotel on Saturday he signed his name as J. Dixon, St. John. He was seen around the village for the past three days.

Dr. Hamilton, the brave teller, is a native of Yarmouth, N.S., and came here about a year ago to take up the position of teller in the Merchants' Bank, the scene of the attempted robbery. Mr. Von Metzke is a decidedly popular fellow and is of an athletic build. He is very much broken up over the affair. The doctor will not allow him to be seen for some time.

Postoffice Surprised.

Brookville, April 27.—Information was conveyed to the police yesterday of a burglary committed Tuesday night in the general store and postoffice of John Dumbrell, of Matland. An entrance was gained by forcing open the front door with tools stolen from a blacksmith shop. The stock was turned topsy turvy. Dumbrell, however, had removed the day's receipts to his house. The robbery, however, several letters were stolen, but nothing of value.

Canada's Newcomers.

Ottawa, April 27.—During the nine months ended March 31, 71,120 immigrants landed in Canada, an increase of 5,814 over the corresponding period of the previous year. Arrivals by ocean ports totaled 55,830, an increase of 8,061, and 25,240 came in from the United States, a decrease of 1,447. There was a corresponding increase in immigration from the United Kingdom.

Straight character cannot come out of crooked living.

If wives had their way most men would go to work only about three days a week.

THE BOMBAY SCARE.

The scare from Bombay comes just at the moment when the special British commissioner who was sent to negotiate with the Ameer of Afghanistan regarding mutual defensive action in given circumstances, is due in London to make his report. That the Government of India is not satisfied with what is occurring on the frontier is shown by this commissioner being sent on to London to personally give the result of his observations.

The completion of the Russian double tracked railway to the very borders of Afghanistan puts the generals of the Czar in a far better position to conduct a campaign on the Indian or Persian frontier than they are in Manchuria. The distance is much less and supplies are more readily obtained locally, while such a war would be entered into with far less lack of enthusiasm by the irregular forces of the Czar than one which takes them thousands of miles away from their own sphere. The Japanese they know little or nothing about. A further advance to Herat, Kandahar and the Indies has been looked upon in Russia as something which must come sooner or later.

Nervousness in diplomatic circles is due to the fear that the German Emperor, recognizing that it is hopeless for him to achieve a permanent rapprochement with France, aims at replacing French by German influences at St. Petersburg with a view to common action in the affairs of Asia. A railway through Asia Minor to the Persian Gulf has long been a favorite scheme of his.

MILLARD-BACHELOR.

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John E. Bachelors, Dover, when his eldest daughter, Miss Ethel, was united in marriage to D. H. Millard, of Dover, the Rev. A. H. MacGillivray performing the ceremony. The bride looked very charming in a gown of white, with a train of white cloth with reseda green waist. Miss Jean Cosgrave, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore a gown of reseda green taffeta. Mr. B. McAlmon, of Detroit, cousin of the groom, acted as best man. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held. The groom's present to the bride was a sunburst of pearls, and to the bridesmaid a pearl bracelet.

The happy young couple left on the 5:08 P. M. for Toronto and other eastern points, and upon their return will reside in Dover. Their numerous friends join in wishing them all happiness in their wedded life.

ABOUT SIDEWALKS.

"I see the City Council is going to take a trip to Amherstburg to inspect the stone quarries," said a raterayer this morning. "That is a good idea and will no doubt be a source of benefit to the aldermen. If I would like to suggest to them, however, that when they come back it would be a good plan for them to take a trip around the city and find out the streets upon which it will be necessary this year to take the initiative for granite walks. Pretty soon the time for taking the initiative will be rather late in the summer, and there are some streets upon which action should be taken this summer. Two flagrant examples are in front of the Myles Hotel and also in front of Chrysler's livery stables.

BALDOON.

Miss Jessie McCallum, of Montreal, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. A. I. Brown, of the Methodist parsonage. Mrs. A. I. Brown and Miss Jessie McCallum spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday in Detroit visiting relatives. Rev. Dr. Brown preached a very appropriate Palm Sunday sermon last Sunday. Quite a number took in the Fish Social at Mitchell's Bay this week.

HOW TO AVOID GERM DISEASES

Strengthens the Stomach and Digestion, and you Will Keep Well

When there is an epidemic of germ disease, and most diseases are caused by germs, it is the person with a weak stomach who succumbs first.

People with healthy digestion are ordinarily not subject to sickness, and can throw off readily any disease germs that enter the system. Strengthen the stomach and digestive organs with a Mif-o-na tablet before each meal, and every atom of food taken into the stomach will be digested and assimilated, and the whole digestive system made so healthy, clean and sweet that there will be no chance for disease germs to breed.

If you suffer with pain or distress after eating, headache, belching of gases, sour food, a bad taste in the mouth, dizziness, pains in the heart, feeling of despondency and weakness, you should get well at once by strengthening the stomach with Mif-o-na. Just one small tablet out of a fifty cent box before eating, and your digestive system will become so strong that you will be the embodiment of good health and spirits, and need fear no germ diseases. Ask C. H. Gunn & Co. to show you the guarantee under which they sell Mif-o-na: it costs nothing unless it cures.

Palpitation of the Heart—Nervous Prostration—Cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

They make weak hearts strong. They make shaky nerves firm.

Mr. Ray V. Cormier had a very trying experience while at College; but, thanks to Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, he has been restored to health. He tells his experience in the following letter to us:—
"Wellington Station, P.E.I., Dec. 3rd, 1904."
"Messrs. The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ontario."

"Gentlemen—Having been cured of a very troublesome disease, I find it my duty to write you a few lines. I was troubled with a very great palpitation of the heart and nervous prostration. I was attacked with it at College, and could not follow up the games of the University without being overcome with fatigue. I could not descend the stairs without resting half-way. I have left College, and am working in a general store, where I found your famous pills. I used three boxes, and am now completely cured; I cannot thank you enough for having sent me this letter for the purpose of benefiting anyone who is suffering as I did. I am on Prince Edward Island."

"I remain, dear Sir, RAY V. CORMIER."

THE GERMS OF CONSUMPTION SWARM IN THE LAND

Consumptives who spit on the floors of cars, public conveyances, halls, or on the streets, leave the seeds of death behind them. In factories or other places in cities or towns, where consumptives have worked and on the floor, the very walls are full of TUBERCLE bacilli. ARTISTIC AND PRACTICAL IDEAS FOR THE COUNTRY HOUSE.

Floral Bedrooms—A Blue and White Dining Room—An Inviting Lounging Chair—The Newer Wall Papers. Linen Tulle Hangings.

Painted furniture has been revived during the past few years in bedroom sets for the country house. Natural designs of flowers are now added as a decoration, helping to name the different sleeping rooms—the pansy chamber, nasturtium room, etc.

Dining rooms in the country are often furnished now in the white paint of colonial times. Tables and chairs

LOUNGING CHAIR FOR WARM WEATHER. are following the idea in white enamel paint, and an old set of furniture that must be refinished may receive the new treatment in preference to the shellac and stain. In a white dining room the cool effect will be furthered with blue linen hung at the windows, a white and blue paper applied to the walls and a Scotch rug of blues and greens laid on the floor.

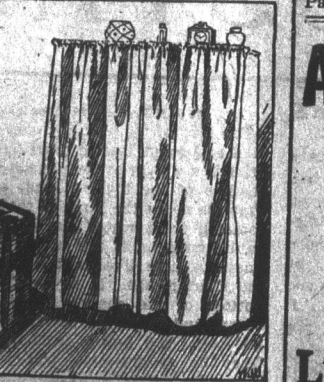

A lounging chair brought from the West Indies by tourists, who found it delightful for warm weather, has been imitated successfully in our own hand-made willow, with a shelf added for a cup and a glass and a pocket for slipping in a newspaper or magazine. With cushions and pillows properly adjusted the chair is almost as comfortable as a bed and picturesque from whatever angle it is seen.

The covering of the interior walls of houses out of town may be less restrained than that chosen for the city residence. Some radical departures are possible with the crown patterns that take the place of the old time frieze, the square trellis that supercedes the diamond shaped lattice, hunting and stag scenes that follow tapestry designs and imitations of wash goods—dimities, gingham and canvas—instead of burlap.

In one summer home where space was insufficient for the dresser and sewing machine in the family room a clever device combined both pieces of furniture. A pine board the width of the machine top was fastened to four legs that raised the board above the open works of the machine. A long rule of muslin was tacked around the top of the board, and when the machine was not in use this attachment served as a dressing table to hold brush, comb and the smaller articles for the toilet.

Cretone has held its popularity for many years as a hanging for bedroom windows and for covering furniture. Its usefulness is being lately extended into the living rooms of the summer homes, and a parlor or drawing room is often seen with flowered coverings on chairs and sofas.

Hand printed linens make artistic covering for upholstered summer furniture. New ways for using linen tulle are constantly being discovered. It has been adopted for furniture, either upholstered or as slip covers; for window or door hangings, for book rack and photograph covering and for bedstead and bolster covers.

A picture screen can find a place in almost any room in the summer home. The upper part of a screen of the kind is fitted with glass in each panel to protect the picture, the framework holding both together.

In a home situated on a much travelled, dusty highway the furniture is of necessity put into slip covers for three months of the year—Delineator.

Household Wrinkles.
Extra care should be taken not to get chilled when overtired.

Do you ever think of a "color scheme" for the kitchen? Why not? A "delft kitchen," blue and white, is very attractive.

To extract grease spots from leather rub softly with flannel dipped in ether. No more soggy pie crust. Sprinkle the bottom and side crusts of the pie with finely grated breadcrumbs. They will not be noticed in the fruit and mince pies.

To keep cheese from becoming hard wrap it in a cloth moistened with vinegar.

Avoid the dark circle around the poles of hard boiled eggs by putting them to cook in cold water and allowing them to boil slowly fifteen to twenty minutes after the water comes to the boiling point.

The use of stimulants to spur up a tired and worn-out nervous system is becoming very common in these days of competition and exhausting business pursuits. The woman, tired out by a day's shopping and "just ready to fly" finds immediate relief in a hot cup of tea, as the man seeks his cigar for solace after a hard day's work. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, nearly forty years ago, prepared a tonic for the use of weak women. He carefully eliminated any harmful or injurious substances from its composition, excluding alcohol and narcotic drugs, and only incorporated such drugs as his long experience had proved to be useful in relieving woman's ills. Its success was immediate and remarkable, and it stands to-day as the foremost remedy for diseases of women. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription not only cures, but it relieves pelvic congestion and inflammation and gives tone and vigor to the organs.

"I want to tell you of the great improvement in my health since taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" says Mrs. J. B. Jones, of Forest, N. C. "When I began its use I was a nervous wreck, and could not get on my feet. I noted a great improvement before the first bottle was all used. I feel like a new person. Can ride horseback and take all kinds of exercise and am very comfortable. For constipation, the true, scientific cure is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mild, harmless and sure. No other pill can compare with them."

THE PARIS CAFE.

It is the Frenchman's Outdoor Home

Part of the day the Parisian's outdoor home. There he gets all the morning and afternoon papers. There if he likes he may write his business letters and private correspondence. Many a "client" writes all or most of his correspondence at his little marble topped table. The graven brings him the black portfolio stocked with letter paper and envelopes and pens and ink. Notre client may use up as much paper and envelopes as he pleases. These are provided by the staff of waiters at their own charge, not by M. le Patron, the landlord—a curious custom. Notre client is welcome to sit there all day long over his newspapers and correspondence and his glass of bordeaux or his "chateau" (perhaps with a nip of rum in it when the weather is cold). The counter is reserved for waiters, and for M. le Patron's wife or daughter or lady clerk, who sits behind it receiving orders.

The "habitués," "nos clients" or passing customers are comfortably seated at their neat, scrupulously clean little tables. Outside the chairs and little tables are arranged in rows, three, four, five, six deep. There "nos clients" sit at their ease underneath the broad awning when the sun is ablaze. Winter drives "notre client" indoors, though out he will come again on the slightest temptation from the weather, for your Parisian loves fresh air, loves to gaze over his light bordeaux or his "bock" at the tide of human life as it sweeps by. On the inner half of the pavement beneath the awnings, behind the trees, along the miles of boulevard, sit in their thousands in spring, summer and autumn the customers of the Paris cafe.—London News.

SHAM ARMOR.

Story of a Once Famous Vessel in the Russian Navy.

Among the anecdotes told by Colonel P. A. Wellesley in his book, "With the Russians in Peace and War," is one concerning a once famous vessel of the Russian navy. When the ironclad Peter the Great, from which so much was expected, was in course of construction the deputy acting minister of marine, on being suddenly asked by the czar what progress the ship in question was making, lost his head and replied that she would be ready for sea in three weeks. The emperor expressed great satisfaction at the news and said that he would shortly inspect the vessel at Cronstadt. It so happened, however, that far from being ready for sea, the ship was still in dock and that her armor plates, which were being rolled in England, had not even been delivered. In view of the emperor's threatened visit all useful work on board the ship was stopped, and hundreds of men were set to work night and day at the erection of cabins, the covering of the ship with sham armor, the erection of wooden turrets and the like.

"When the Duke of Edinburgh came to Russia I told his royal highness this story," continues Colonel Wellesley, "which he was most reluctant to believe. I told the duke, however, that he would soon have an opportunity of judging for himself at a naval review, and I predicted that, as he was a naval officer and therefore sure to detect anything wrong, some excuse would be made to prevent his going on board that particular ship. The duke expressed to a Russian naval officer his desire to visit that ship, but objections were raised to his doing so.

"Then the emperor, noticing that something was wrong, ordered a boat to be lowered immediately to take his royal highness on board. After the review the duke told me that I was wrong about the turrets being made of wood, as he had placed his hand on one of them, and it was made of canvas and yielded to the pressure of his fingers."

A SWIMMING HORSE.

The Proper Way to Ride the Animal in the Water.

A military journal of Paris gives this account of the way a horse should not be ridden and of the way he should be ridden in swimming a stream:

To begin with, it must not be supposed that a horse always swims naturally and with ease the moment he is off his feet in the water. The animal under such circumstances has but one notion—to keep his head out of the water and to lift his shoulders as high as possible.

In doing this his hind quarters sink, and he finds himself almost standing upon his tail, or at least in a position three-quarters erect. In such a position, if the rider draws upon the reins or throws his body back in the least, the animal's hind quarters will sink more and more, his body will take a vertical position, and, beating the water uselessly with his forefeet, he will finally sink.

As soon as the horse gets off his feet in the water let the rider grasp a handful of the animal's mane, leaning at the same time well forward upon his shoulders, but without touching the horse's feet. The rider's knees should be pressed tightly to the horse's sides; otherwise he is likely to be swept off by the water.

This is the only position which will enable a man to remain in the saddle and the horse to swim at the same time.

The reins must be held loosely and each well to one side. If the horse is to be guided in the water give the loose rein a little jerk in the direction desired. But it is in the highest degree important never to pull on the reins.

Hair and Intellect.
"Did you ever notice," asked an observant woman, "how many intellectual people have Auburn hair? At the theater the other night I don't remember noticing a single reddish head of hair among the hundreds of uncovered heads spread out before me. They were the well-coiffed heads of the average nice woman. The next night I attended a meeting of a very learned society at which there were perhaps 200 or 300 of the brainiest thinkers and educators around town, and without turning my eyes I picked out at least a dozen Auburn haired women in the few seats in front of me. Now, that was more than a coincidence. It argues something for the possessor of Auburn hair, I should think."

Curious Paradox About Hands.
It is a curious paradox that, as a rule, the large handed man loves small things, details, exquisitely finished objects and is microscopic in his tendencies, while he whose hands are small delights in colossal of every sort, loving ostentation and display, immense houses, majestic estates and all else that is upon a great scale. His handwriting is large and perhaps full of flourishes, while that of the large handed man is small and precise.

Simply a Lottery.
Dr. Phaker—Take this prescription. It will either kill or cure you. Patient—But suppose it kills me? Dr. Phaker—Nothing ventured, nothing gained. My motto is, "No cure, no pay," so I'm taking a chance as well as you.

In Time of Trial.
Daughter (looking up from her novel)—Papa, in time of trial what do you suppose brings the most comfort to a man? Papa—An acquittal. I should think.

The soul of man is infinite in what it covets.—Ben Jonson.

Disraeli as a Dandy.

A contemporary of Disraeli in his memoirs records this impression of that famous dandy's personal appearance: Usually he wore a slate colored velvet coat, lined with satin; purple trousers, with a gold braid down the outside seam; a scarlet waistcoat, long lace ruffles falling down to the tips of his fingers; white gloves, with brilliant rings rippling down over his shoulders. When he rose in the house he wore a bottle green frock coat, with a white waistcoat, collarless, and a capful supply of gold chains.

YOUR EYES

Are surely worth more to you than the price of a pair of glasses. If you value your eyes have them properly fitted at once. Delay and your eyes may become so bad that no glasses will help them, then you will regret it the rest of your days. This is true every word of it. Do not trust travelling Opticians and peddlars to fit you with glasses. They get your money and you get the experience. This we know because it is told us by people that come to us for glasses after having bought of the Spectacle peddler. Our Optician is a graduate of the Detroit Optical college and is fully equipped with all the modern conveniences. We will examine your eyes free of charge, at the sign of the Big Clock.

P. M. TERMINALS

held an informal consultation relative to the establishing of the railway's divisional terminals here.

Mr. Cotter will return to the city in the course of a few days, when he will take the matter up fully

SUFFERS HEART ATTACK

Mr. Wright, South Renfrew, Unable to Continue Debate.

How Autonomy Debate Came to a Sudden End in Commons on Wednesday—House Wrestles With Private Bills, and New York Railway Bill
Is Held For Minister's Presence, as Important Principle is Involved.

Ottawa, April 27.—A day of ordinary interest was concluded by an incident
bordering on the dramatic last night
and the House adjourned very abruptly. Mr. Wright, the Liberal member for South Renfrew, spoke for a few minutes prior to the dinner adjournment. After the hour for private bills
was concluded he continued his speech.
He was just warming up to his subject when he stopped right in the middle of a quotation. He stood for a moment and then sank back into his seat, saying: "I cannot say anything more." Mr. Wright collapsed in his seat and Archie Campbell promptly
moved the adjournment of the debate
and the House rose with startling
abruptness. It is gathered that Mr.
Wright suffered from a slight heart
attack, and soon recovered when taken to the outer lobby. The other debaters on the autonomy bills yesterday
were Mr. Kemp, Mr. German and Col.
Ward.

Railway and British Subjects.
Private bills were taken up after the recess. When the bill respecting the Ottawa & New York Railway was called, Mr. Fielding asked that it be not proceeded with, in the absence of the Minister of Railways.

The bill seeks to except the Ottawa
& New York (which is not part of the New York Central), from the operation of the act of 1904, which provides that the majority of directors of all subsidized railways shall be British subjects.

Mr. Borden suggested the importance of having the Minister of Railways and other ministers present when departure
from such a grave principle was involved.

Mr. Belcourt said that the Ottawa
& New York was built in 1897. It received $375,000 in subsidies and the company, all Americans, spent $750,000
of their own money on it. The railway had been acquired lately by the New York Central, and was altogether
under American management. But haring one stockholder in Canada, the company was not in a position to have a Canadian board of directors. The company proposed to spend another $400,000 of American money in betterments of the road.

Mr. Borden took the ground that the fact that the railway was owned by foreigners rather strengthened the case for compliance with the act of 1904.

The bill was held over, as was also the bill respecting the Dominion Atlantic Railway.

The King of Mollusks.
The king of mollusks lives in the Indian and south Pacific oceans. He attains to a weight of 500 pounds and the shell is of the bivalve kind, and the shape is about the same as that of our common fresh water mussel. The gi-gantic tridacna is the largest mollusk
known to have lived on the earth since the silurian age. It is found on the bottom of the shallow parts of the ocean, and the large individuals have
no longer the power to move about.
They lie on one side, and all about
them the corals build up until King
Tridacna is sometimes found in a well-
like hole in the coral formation.—St.
Nicholas.

Why the Party Was Arranged.
Mr. Green—Now, I'm going to tell you something, Ethel. Do you know that last night at our party your sister promised to marry me? I hope you'll forgive me for taking her away.
Little Ethel—Forgive you, Mr. Green?
Of course I will. Why, that was what the party was arranged for, you know.

Plain Spoken.
"I understand that young Hustler is
the sort of fellow who calls a spade a spade."
"He's even more plain spoken than that. He calls his wages wages."

A Sure Starter.
Clara—How did you break your husband of stuttering? Grace—Every time
he started it I began to protest against his smoking. It never failed to start his flow of language.

Take heed of an ox before, a mule
behind, and a knave on all sides.—German Proverb.

Learn Dressmaking in Two Weeks

Wanted! Ladies to learn dress
and mantle cutting in two weeks.
Why spend from 6 to 9 months
learning dressmaking in a shop, and
then not know anything about cutting, when I can teach you everything from measuring to finish in the making of ladies' and children's garments in two weeks? I have taught over 500 girls in this way,
and offer $35 to any one who, after having taken a course with me, can show me an article in dressmaking
they can't cut, fit and put together,
not only the lining, but all the outer
goods in coats, skirts, waists, wrappers, sleeves, in fact everything in dressmaking, and you may rest assured it is reliable, for you don't pay
unless you are perfectly satisfied you know all. Charge for full course is now only $40, including one of the most perfect fitting systems in use,
which I give free.

I will teach in Chatham from May 16th to May 29th. Hours from 3.30 to 5.

All wishing to learn, or for full particulars, be sure to see me in the upstairs parlor of the Garner Hotel
on Monday, May 15th, between 11
and 5 o'clock.

I will give a suitable reward to any person informing me of any one teaching this course that does not hold a certificate.

RECOGNIZED THEIR MERIT

Rev. Dr. Battisby and Dr.
Bray of Chatham Honored at Queen's College
Convocation

Amongst the Other Distinguished
Men Given An Honorary Degree
was Mr. McBean, Engineer of the New York Tunnel.

Kingston, April 26.—Convocation
proceedings at Queen's University
this afternoon were of a quiet nature. Sir Sandford Fleming presided.
There was a very large assembly
present, but the spacious Grand Hall
was more than able to hold the gathering. After prayer by the chaplain,
Rev. W. W. McLaren, M. A., Picton,
the presentation of prizes and medals and the laureation of over one hundred graduates took place. Presentations for honorary degrees were made as follows:—For D. D.'s, Rev.
Eber Crumney, by Rev. Prof. Jordan; Rev. J. R. Battisby, Chatham,
by Rev. Prof. MacNaughton; Rev.
James Fleck, Montreal, by Rev. Principal Gordon. For LL.D., Dr. Bray, Chatham, by Dean Connell of the medical faculty; D. C. McBean, New York, by Dean Dupuis. Mr. McBean,
the engineer of the famous New York tunnel, just completed, was unable to be present. He was taken ill
in Montreal on his way to Kingston, and could not proceed farther. He sent a message, which was read by Dean Dupuis, and which stated that he was a Canadian, born at Lancaster, and had learned the first principles of engineering in Canada on the G. T. R.

Other recipients of honorary degrees were present and made brief addresses. Dr. Bray was born in Kingston, and graduated at Queen's Medical College in 1863. He stated
Queen's had the largest representation of any college on the Ontario
Medical Council, seven out of twenty-four.

The graduating class was addressed briefly by Rev. Dr. McCrae, formerly Principal of Morrin College, Quebec.

At a meeting of the University

The Letter-Box

A. O. U. W. NEW RATES.

Editor of The Planet:

Dear Sir,—Members of the Ancient Order of United Workmen having called my attention to their new rates as to their bearing heavy on the aged members; I now give some figures from the Acturaries Mortality
Table, compiled from the experience of 17 British Life Offices and 4 per cent. interest.

Where a man became a member
at the age of 45, twenty years ago,
the cost of carrying the risk the first year was only $11.74 per $1,000
exclusive of expenses, where it is now
worth $42.39, and at this period it would require a reserve of $405 to the credit of each $1,000 insurance
to counteract the increase of premiums with the age of the insured.

The net level premium at age 65 is $74.42 per $1,000, where at age 45
it is $28.85, which would have done
it as well as given a paid up policy
of $580 or a cash surrender value of $400 twenty years from date of issue.

The following gives the cost of carrying $1,000 risk from age 65 to age 99, where the last man of 100,000 will die during the year if the past experience repeats itself; also the new shortage of the A. O. U. W.'s new rates for one year term insurance:—

Age	Death Cost per $1,000	A.O.U.W.'s New Rates	Deficiency A.O.U.W.'s New Rates
65	$42.39	$32.28	$10.11
66	45.78	32.28	13.50
67	48.49	32.28	17.21
68	53.49	32.28	21.21
69	57.78	32.28	25.50
70	62.44	32.28	30.16
75	91.89	32.28	59.61
80	135.01	32.28	102.73
85	197.21	32.28	164.93
90	311.28	32.28	279.00
95	581.80	32.28	549.52
99	961.54	32.28	929.26

Yours truly,

A DEEP SEA GLUTTON.

This Marine Wizard Can Swallow a Fish Twice Its Own Size.

That one animal can devour another twice its own size at a single swallow is a statement that may seem as incredible as any fish story ever invented. "Nevertheless it is true of certain fishes," writes Dr. Sanderson Christison. "So far as known such fishes are inhabitants of the deep seas, where utter darkness perpetually prevails, with an unvarying temperature almost as cold as ice and a pressure ranging, according to depth, from a quarter to three or four tons upon every square inch of their body surface. The deep sea is commonly regarded as commencing where the rays of sunlight cease to penetrate, which is estimated to be less than 1,200 feet below the surface, and may extend to twenty times that distance or even much more, down to the bottom of the ocean. Fishes have been dredged from below 12,000 feet.

"A deep sea fish, the Chiasmodon niger, six, and five-eighths of an inch long, has been found to have swallowed another fish ten and a half inches long. The stomach of the devourer is stretched as this as gold beater's skin. It has sharp, hooked teeth, which cross each other from opposite sides of the mouth and usually point backward. According to Gunther, the fish after having seized its victim with its capacious and very movable jaws partly presses it down as a snake would do and partly draws itself over it. The prey is received into an esophagus and stomach the membranes of which are as extensible as an india rubber pouch. The stomach when empty is contracted and folded up and projects but little below the abdomen.

"When a deep sea fish is brought to the surface, bow gradually and carefully so, its bones are often like so much touchwood and its muscles like rotten pulp, while its eyes are burst from their sockets and its viscera are often blown out of the body cavity by the expansion of the air bladder. It frequently happens that deep sea fishes are found floating helplessly on the surface of the ocean with large prey in their stomachs. Their appearance under these circumstances is accounted for by the efforts of their struggling victims to escape from their jaws, causing them to ascend beyond the horizontal zone which they usually inhabit.

"Deep sea fishes are commonly black or dark brown. But, although it is claimed that light is essential to the formation of colors, some deep sea fishes are scarlet in parts or uniform red or rosy. Others are silvery white, while, according to Alcock, the neocopeins are 'one dazzling sheen of purple and silver and burnished gold, amid which is a sparkling constellation of luminous organs.'

When the Gods Love.

There are two standards of measurement of human life—the one by years, the other by achievement. Measured by years, Sidney Lanier's life of less than two score was a broken column; measured by achievement, his life is not yet ended—he is immortal. Robert Burns died at thirty-seven, Byron at thirty-six, Poe at forty, Raphael at thirty-six, Lanier at thirty-nine. It is whom the gods love die young. And yet who shall say that the Scottish plow boy, or the author of "Child Harold," or he who sang of the "Raven," or the painter of the "Transfiguration," or the composer of "Centennial Cantata," do not, one and all, still speak to us in voices whose echoes will command enraptured listeners away down the centuries?—Lippincott's.

Inmate Perverse.

The neighbors were discussing the peculiarities of an eccentric old resident. "I do think," remarked Mr. Higgins, "that old Mr. Tightrum is the contrastiest man on the face of the earth."

"What's he doing now?" asked Mrs. Jiggins.

"Doing? You remember he used to say that when he had accumulated $50,000 he was going to quit saving money—the old skinflint!—and settle down to the enjoyment of it?"

"Yes."

"Well, he's actually done it!"

"Glass and sunlight."

Common clear glass left exposed in certain desert regions of the earth soon changes greatly in appearance and acquires color, sometimes rose purple and sometimes amethyst. This change has been attributed by some observers to alkaline soils, but others maintain that such changes occur where there is no alkali and that it must be due to the great activity of the actinic rays of the sun where the atmosphere is very clear.

On the State Side.

An old woman who persisted in bowing during church service whenever the name of Satan was mentioned was reprimanded by the minister for so becoming a habit. The reproof had, however, no effect, and the minister asked her finally in exasperation why she thought it necessary to bow.

"Well," she replied, "it costs nothing, and you never know what will happen."

Requiem It.

Jenkins—Mr. Golding of your city is quite wealthy, I'm told. Did he make all his money himself? Miss Backbay (of Boston)—Oh, no! Most of it was a—limbacy from his father.—Exchange.

In a Glass House.

Tom—Didn't Grace's father call you down for staying so late? Dick—No; he didn't find it out till I was leaving. He was just coming in as I was going out.

Teas of Delicious Flavor

It might worry a man with a microscope to tell Grand Mogul Tea from the common kind by the looks; but a blind man can tell the difference in the first sip.

Q Grand Mogul Teas are a positive blend of superlative qualities that never deceive the user.

Q Mountain grown in Ceylon, cured and blended by experts, they enter your teapot with a flavor that no other tea possesses.

Q They are a contribution to good health.

Q High in theine and low in tannin—means high in flavor and not a mere substitute for bitters.

Grand Mogul Tea

Q Sold only in packages—all tea, no store dust, no microbes. Look for the premium coupon in each package. "Grand Mogul" shares the advertising appropriation with you by giving the premiums. The quality remains the same—the highest.

PITH AND POINT.

Few things are as good as they look. A little girl likes to take care of a baby, but it's different with a boy.

People complain a good deal. Still, they have a good deal to complain about.

Don't be too sure of yourself. The other fellow may only appear to be fooled.

How often you hear the expression, "He thinks no one has any rights but himself."

If a boy is healthy, two minutes after he has reached home from school he is eating something.

Some day the time comes to every man when the most he can do for those around him is to be patient.

There are two kinds of luck—good luck for which you must work and bad luck which appears unannounced.

The question of rent keeps many a man on the move.

Some false teeth look so natural that they ought to ache.

TAKE MY CURE, WHEN CURED YOU PAY ME

The fear that you could not be cured may have deterred you from taking honest treatment who have been treated in vain by inexperienced physicians. Free treatment, from trial samples, devices. Such treatment cannot and will never cure you, nor will these medical care themselves. When I offer you a cure, and am willing to risk my professional reputation in curing you, and have such faith and confidence in my cure, a dollar need be paid until cured. I have a diploma and state board of medical examiners, standing and abilities. It makes no difference to me to write to me for my opinion of your case, which I give you free of charge. I want to hear from patients who have been unable to cure, and I guarantee a positive cure for all chronic, nervous, blood and skin diseases which I accept for treatment. I not only cure the disease itself, but likewise all the complications, such as rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles, of vitality, stomach troubles, etc. All medicines for patients are prepared in my own laboratory. All medicines for Canadian patients sent from Windsor, Ont., duty and transportation prepaid. I will send a booklet on the subject which contains the 14 diplomas and certificates, entirely free. Address simply, Dr. S. G. Gilchrist, 216 Woodward Ave., Suite 511, Detroit, Mich.

RUSSIAN NIHILISTS.

The Tragedy From Which the Party and Its Creed Sprang.

Who was the first nihilist? How and where did nihilism first start? These questions are answered in the following narrative:

Exactly forty-three years ago, when Muraviev, the lieutenant of the present czar's father, was carrying out his cruel and barbaric crusade against Foles, a young student of that country attending the University of Dorpat returned home one day with half a dozen companions, whom he promised to entertain in his father's house. They entered, and a ghastly spectacle met their view. The whole mother and sister of the young Pole had been brutally treated by Muraviev's cowardly soldiers, drunk with vodka.

The students, who were Russians, stood dumb with horror, while the bereaved boy sat down by a little table. His head rested on his left hand while his right arm hung limply by his side. His companions expected a wild outburst of rage against themselves and their country, but the boy did not speak. He just sat there, pale and deathlike, while tears poured from his glassy eyes.

One of his friends went over to him and, touching him on the shoulder, said:

"Stanislav! Stanislav! Come to yourself again, and we will avenge this wrong!"

But the boy did not answer. In a few minutes the tears ceased to flow, the eyes turned upward, there was a heavy sigh, and Stanislav fell dead from his chair.

The terrible shock had killed him. Kneeling round the body of their dead companion, the Russian students bound themselves by a solemn oath to work out the ruin of the tyranny which had thus disgraced their fatherland. They secretly met afterward, and their creed was thought out and settled. It was the result of careful thought and was not wildly absurd or hysterical. It was as follows: "Liberty in religious belief, freedom of the press and the representative system and the redistribution of property." To secure these things they determined to resort to any measures—even assassination. And that has been the creed of the nihilists ever since.

Monte Carlo is like the Serpent of Old Nile—beloved even though feared and most alluring if most deadly; ageless, arresting, retaining always that which she has won.—Lady Helen Forbes.

People Who Make Wills.

An English lawyer says: "The moment a man has £20 clear to leave he will begin spending money on testamentary disposition. I have even known a small farmer whose savings, after the realization of his property and the payment of his just debts, could not have exceeded a £10 note to spend £3 or £4 a year over a course of thirty years in having fresh will drawn up. As a matter of fact, when he died at last a will was in force identical the same as the first one I had drawn up for him thirty years before. If he had saved the money he spent with me and had put it out at compound interest he would have had a very snug sum—well on toward four figures—to add to his estate."

"Dog Trot" a Misnomer.

"Dogs have a variety of gaits," said the boss of the kennels; "therefore I can't understand why it is that people who describe a certain style of locomotion always call it a dog trot. Judging by the universality of that expression, a body would think that a dog never moved any other way than on a trot. But he does. All the gaits belonging to other four footed animals are also his. He runs, he lope, he even racks and paces, so when a person in a hurry falls into a peculiar kind of canter there would be just as much sense in speaking of his gait as a dog run or a dog gallop once in awhile as always to call it a dog trot."

Men and Truth.

Archbishop Whately of Dublin once asked a young man how it happened that truth, although always sedulously sought after, is so rarely found. When the youth demurred giving his answer, Whately said: "I'll tell you why it is because men always prefer getting truth on their side to being on the side of truth."

A Wonderful Actor.

Winks—Talk about stage realism! You should see Strident in "Love and Woe." "Jinks—He can't hold a candle to my friend Mouthier. Why, sir, he played the heavy villain in "Woman's Wrongs" so realistically that his wife sued for a separation the next week.

The Reason.

"My mamma's got whiter teeth than your mamma," said Alito. "She'd oughter have. She changes 'em oftener," retorted Maudio.

PREPARING RAW OPIUM.

How the Drug is Taken From the Poppy and Made into Balls.

The preparation of "raw" opium in north India is carried out as follows: In February, as a rule, the juice is gathered, the poppy plant being then in full flower and of a height of three or four feet, each stem having from two to five capsules of the size of a duck's egg. Before the capsules are pierced the fallen petals of the flowers are carefully gathered and sorted according to condition in three grades and then are heated over a slow fire and formed into thin cakes, to be used for the covering of the drug when collected. The piercing of the pods requires great skill, and upon it largely depends the yield. The opium farmer and his assistants each carry a small lance-like tool, which has three or four short, sharp prongs, and with this a half dozen perpendicular cuts are made in each capsule or seed pod of the poppy. The juice begins to flow at once, but quickly coagulates. The day after the thickened juice is carefully gathered, being scraped off with a small iron trowel, and the mass thus gathered is put into an earthen vessel and kept carefully stirred for a month or more, great care being taken to have it well aired, but not exposed to the sun. The material is now examined by expert testers, who determine its grade or quality, and then the whole is put into a large box, where it is worked very much in the same fashion as baker's dough to give it the required consistency. The opium is now made into balls for export; the natives wade about in the large vats containing the paste-like drug and hand it out to hundreds of ballmakers sitting around the room. Every man has a spherical brass cup lined with the poppy flower petals before him. Into this is pressed the regulation quantity of opium. From this brass cup, when properly pressed, the opium ball is transferred to another man, who gives it a coating of clay. This gives the drug, when ready for shipment, the appearance of a fair sized cannon ball. When well prepared in this manner, opium will keep its properties for fifteen years or more. Before it can be used the opium balls have to be broken up and to stamp out an evil it is sometimes necessary to be well heeled.

Was Not Able To Walk
For Three Months.

Was Given Up to Die.
The Doctor Said So.

Burdock Blood Bitters
Saved Her Life.

Read what Mrs. Wm. Castillon, Newport, Quebec, has to say about Burdock Blood Bitters: "Last December I fell
very sick after confinement. I was not able to walk for three months, and was given up to die by the doctor. My husband read of the many wonderful cures
made by Burdock Blood Bitters, so procured me two bottles. After using it for about ten days, I was able to get around,
and could mind my baby without help
from anyone, and am now well, and able to do my own work. I told a lady friend of mine who was troubled in the same
way, and she used it with equal success.
I cannot too highly recommend your medicine, for I know just how good it is,
and hope and wish that anyone suffering
as I did will give it a trial."

A Dampener.
"I don't know any sensation as humiliating as that of being told after
you have just finished your best story, 'I've heard that before—but in a different way, of course,' or 'I heard that another way,' or some other polite way of saying 'Cheer up!'" said
a prominent lawyer. "If there is any thing that dumps cold water on the story teller and the audience it is that sort of thing. In some parts of the country it would almost mean gun
play. I entirely agree with the old Kentucky colonel who used to say,
'No gentleman, sah, ever heard a story
befoh, sir.'"

BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CAT-

MERCURY.

As mercury will destroy the sense
of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except
on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do
is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Cat-

mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mu-

THE RUINS OF NIPPUR.

Archaeologists Disagree Over Professor Hilprecht's Discoveries.

Scientists and students of archaeology are taking much interest in the controversy over statements of Professor Hermann V. Hilprecht as to his discoveries in Assyria. Professor Hilprecht is curator of the collection of antiquities possessed by the University of Pennsylvania and head of the Assyriological section of that institution. This university has contributed much to historical and archaeological lore by explorations of ancient cities conducted under its supervision. Five such expeditions have been organized for exploration and excavation upon
the site of the ancient city of Nippur,

PROFESSOR HERMANN V. HILPRECHT.
and several of the later expeditions
have been under charge of Professor Hilprecht.

The first expedition was directed by the Rev. Dr. John P. Peters, then a professor of the University of Pennsylvania,
but now rector of an Episcopal church in New York. One of Dr. Peters' assistants in this expedition was Dr. J. D. Prince, now professor of archaeology at Columbia university.
Dr. Peters and Dr. Prince and other experts in archaeology have criticized certain claims made by Professor Hilprecht as to his discoveries, especially his statements as to tablets
said to have been taken from the library of the temple of Bel or Bael.
The professor is charged with misrepresenting facts and with lack of scientific good faith. Much importance attaches to the question of
him the mystery. When the professor wrote his discoveries, he claims
to have unearthed tablets in the ruins
of Nippur that carry the history of the
race back to a period earlier by some
centuries than that of which other
known records tell.

The professor has as yet deciphered
but comparatively few of the tablets
found. In interpreting one inscription
he has said that he had found a remarkable dream, in which a priest
of Bel, who died thousands of years ago, seemed to appear to him and conducted him to a buried portion of the temple. There the priest revealed to him the mystery. When the professor wrote his discoveries, he claims
to have unearthed tablets in the ruins
of Nippur that carry the history of the
race back to a period earlier by some
centuries than that of which other
known records tell.

THE POWER OF LOVE.

To Love One's Neighbor in the Truest Sense is to Love All That Is Best and Purest in Man.

Maurice Maeterlinck, German author and thinker, writes: "It is well
that men should be reminded that this very humblest of them has the power
of fashion, after a divine model, that he chooses not, a great moral personality composed in equal parts of himself and the Ideal."

It is only in the depths of life that this great moral personality can be carried out, and only by means of incessant revelations of the divine can we add to the source of the ideal we require.

To every man it is given to attain
to the heights of virtuous life
and to know at all times what his conduct should be would he act like a hero or a saint. But to attain this is needed. It is essential that the spiritual atmosphere around us should be transformed to such a degree that it ends by resembling the atmosphere
of Swedenborg's beautiful countries
of the ages of gold, where the air
permitted not a falsehood to leave the lips.

An instant comes then when the smallest ill that we vain would commit falls at our feet like a loaded bull
upon a disk of bronze, when every thing changes, though we know it not,
into beauty, love or truth.

But this atmosphere envelops those
only who have been made to want it.
late their lives sufficiently by at times
flashing open the gates of the other world. It is when we are near to those gates that we love, for to love
one's neighbor does not mean only to give oneself to him, to serve, help and sustain others. We may possibly be neither good nor noble nor beautiful
even in the midst of the greatest sacrifice.

The nurse who dies by the bedside of a typhoid patient may perhaps have a mean, rancorous, miserable soul.

To love one's neighbor in the im-
movable depths means to love the others that which is eternal, for one's neighbor in the truest sense
of the term is that which approaches
the nearest to God—in other words,
that in best and purest in man-
and it is only by ever lingering near
the gates I spoke of that you can discover the divine in the soul. Then will you be able to say with the great Jean Paul, "When I desire to love most tenderly one who is dear
to me and wish to forgive him everything, I have but to look at him for a few minutes in silence."

To learn to love one must first
learn to see.

"I lived for twenty years by my sister's side," said I a friend to me
one day, "and I saw her for the first time at the moment of our mother's death." Here, too, it had been necessary that death should violently
fling open an eternal gate so that
two souls might behold each other in a ray of the primal light. In there one among us who has not near
to him sisters he has never seen."

CAN'T SAY ENOUGH
IN THEIR FAVOR

Why Miss Gusty V. Campbell Recommends Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets to all her Friends who have Stomach Troubles.

"I cannot say enough in favor of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets," so says
Miss Gusty V. Campbell, Little Ship-
pegan, Gloucester Co., N. B. Of course Miss Campbell has reasons for making a statement like this and
here they are:

"I suffered from Dyspepsia for two months and was always getting worse till advertisements led me to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. One box cured me and I can honestly
recommend them to anyone suffering from Dyspepsia."

The moral of this is that if you
take your stomach trouble before it gets too firm a grip it is easily cured
by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. One box cured Miss Campbell.

But as in Miss Campbell's case,
stomach trouble if neglected always grows worse. In its worst stages it takes time to cure it. But Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will do it.

Truth Prevails.

"I hope," she remarked as she toyed
with the sole of her shoe, "this isn't a cheap
imitation."

"No," he answered frankly, "it's the most expensive imitation I could find."

Procrastination is the gentle art
of not doing things when you have a chance to inconvenience yourself by doing them.

WHY THAT WEARINESS?

You're uneasy, restless, without appetite. Still worse you are thin and fagged out. Work must be done,
but where is the strength to come from?

Make your blood nutritious and you'll have lots of strength. Your only hope is Ferrozone, an instant
blood-maker, blood-purifier, blood-richer. It brings keen appetite, di-gests food and supplies nutrition for building up all the bodily tissues.
Ferrozone makes muscle and nerve-
fibre, increases your weight, instils
a reserve of energy into the body
that defies weariness or exhaustion
from any cause. To have vitality and healthy vigor use Ferrozone, which all dealers sell in 50c. boxes.

Her Strong Point.

"Mrs. Willeson is a woman of strong points, isn't she?"

"Well, rather. At the reception the other evening she gave me a dig with an elbow that left no doubt in my mind
concerning her strength of at least one of her points."

WOMEN WITH WEAKNESS.

For all weakness which girls and women suffer, no surer remedy exists than Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They maintain that bracing health every woman so earnestly desires; they operate on the system, and bring strength that lasts till old age.

"No medicine could be more beneficial than Dr. Hamilton's Pills," writes Mrs. Mary E. Ayerton, of Victoria. "I have been strengthened,
my digestion is better, I have improved in color and feel considerably
better since using Dr. Hamilton's Pills." Sold everywhere, 25c. per box
or five boxes for one dollar.

Caution Necessary.

The young man moved a little closer.
She moved a little farther away.

"Why are you so cold and distant
this evening, Miss Pinkie?" he asked.

"I am not at all cold, Mr. Spoon-
more," she answered, "but I am compelled to be distant. My vaccination is taking."

DON'T SQUANDER YOUR MONEY.

On worthless cures for catarrh.
There is only one remedy that's successful—"Catarrhoxone"—it cures
when the doctor says your case is hopeless. No drugs to take, no attention to bother with. You simply inhale the fragrant vapor of this unfailing cure and get well quickly. Relief is instant, cure is guaranteed, so
you run no risk with Catarrhoxone.
Don't experiment, don't put off, get Catarrhoxone from your druggist today.

Fire and sword are but slow engines of destruction in comparison with the bubble.

There are some women who seem to be perennially youthful. The grown daughters are companions as well as children, and the color in the mother's cheeks, the brightness in her eyes, the roundness in her form, all speak of abounding health. What is her secret? She is at the middle age of life when so many women are worn, wasted and faded, and yet time has only ripened her charms. The secret of this matronly health and beauty may be told in the brief
phrase, "Dr. Rogers' Favorite Prescription." The general health of women is so intimately related to the local health of the delicate womanly
organs, that where these are diseased, the whole body must suffer. "Favorite Prescription" dries the debilitating drains, heals ulceration and inflammation, cures female weakness
and imparts to the delicate female
woman natural vigor and vitality.
Women who have lost their health
and their beauty have been made
"robust and rosy cheeked" by the use of this marvellous medicine.

The man who spends time looking for an easy job rarely ranks among

I knew our time would come,
I think Irish Jack knows what
Jim-Jitsu is now.
They tell me that my friends the Dons. have the underhold on Irish Jack.
Rojostvenaky's boats seem to be fleet enough. Togo hasn't caught them yet.
When all these alleged don's were going on how is it I didn't score?
They know where I hung out.
It's always the biggest fish that gets away to New York. And the people of Chatham are fish hungry.
I told those foolish fellows that I could handle this thing myself, but
they didn't pay any attention to me.
Just serves 'em right.

GRAND MUSICAL

It was an enthusiastic and delighted audience that listened to an elaborate and unique musical program rendered in Campbell A. M. E. Church last evening, given under the management of Misses Mamie Howell and Dollie Scott.

The seating capacity of the church was taxed to its utmost. The program was clean, wholesome and full of mirth and music. Some of the selections were of the highest classic order and superbly rendered.

Miss Sertha Barton gave two excellent readings, which received applause.

The Japanese drill, by Misses Edith Harris, Minnie McCathrin, Bella Johnson, Lexy Brown and Hattie Duling, was performed so well that it set the house wild with delight.

Mr. M. C. Cooper scored a decided success in rendering a solo, "It's for Her Her." Misses Lena Lynn, Lizzie Pryor and Thelma Parker gave instrumental readings, which secured rounds of applause.

Miss Mamie Howell, our efficient music teacher, deserves the highest praise for the excellent manner in which she labored to make the entertainment a success. The Dominion Piano, from Tyrell's, was used.

Next Sunday two solos will be rendered at the evening service, by special request.
