from a letter of his which was published in the arrived at Paninsula, having destroyed large amount favor of the scheme; but in this Island nothing of the kind is attempted. Our pre-Union Deegates centent themselves with giving expression to their views on the subject at cancus meetings, such as that which they lately held under the auspices of the Caledonia Club. They have not sufficient courage to face the public openly; avarything they do in reference to the proposed Confederation is performed in the most accret and underhand manner. Such "actings and doings" on their part are sufficient to cause the public to believe that there is some truth in the assertion that "scores influences" have been brought to bear upon them. If they believe that there is anything which this Island will gain by joining in a Confederation with her eister Qelonies, on the terms contained in the Report, let them come out manfully and shew what that thing is. Let them come out manfully and shew what that thing is. Let them call public meetings and discuss the question fairly and homestly and if they can shew that we shall gain by joising in the Coafederation, or, at all events, that we shall not less thereby, then, of course, our people will withdraw their objections, and give their support to its constant and give their support to its constant and give their support to its constant and give their support to the weekly has been guilty of a species of lavency of which he accused the Queen's Printer some to go flavency of which he accused the Queen's Printer some to go flavency of which he accused the Queen's Printer some to go flavency of which he accused the Queen's Printer some to go flavency of which he accused the Queen's Printer some to go flavency of which he accused the Queen's Printer some to go flavency of which he accused the Queen's Printer some to go flavency of which he accused the Queen's Printer some to go flavency of which he accused the Queen's Printer some to go flavency of which he accused the Queen's Printer some to

DESPOTISM OF THE EXAMINER;

WHOEVER has read with attention the above paper without acknowledgement from the Weekly, has been guilty of a species of larceny of which has caused the Queen's Printer some two years ago, at that time, Mr. Ings, who was too pair to be a species of larceny of which has taken place in the tone and style of its editorials. Some years ago, it stood untrivided smong our Island periodicals, but Time appears to have alid his beary hand upon the controlling gonius of the Opposition organ, and the freshness and vigry which none characterized the effusions of its Editor, have passed with his vanished years. The dogmatism and petulance of advancing age are now the weapons employed by our contemporary, and at this, perhaps, we would be increased he to complain. We have, however, the right to advance a plea for our "impedence" and provided a which now agitates this "sand bank in the Gulf of St. Lawrence,"—as the Editor of the Examine is now pleased to call this island. The issue was not to the interest of the control of the con "Edward Reilly and W. W. Sullivan, when his interference in political matters in this Island was deemed beth impudent and presumptaeses, and it is one of the wishouse of weakness on his part to use that as an argument against us now. The Editor of the Examiner acquirtobeard, in this Colony, solely by advocating a system of popular rights and liberties, for which its inhabitants sought and contended; and what has happened in his tion question with the Editor of the Examiner. If this be so, "nine-tenths" of the people of this Celony are "simpletons," for they endorse our "bosh," while the Han. Edward Whelas, with all his training, influence and talent, has not been able to convert one out of ten to his views! This fact speaks something in our favor. We have reason to beast, too, that we never advocated the slavish doctrine that the people of this Colony can be bought and sold like cattle or driven like the unfortunate Poles to accept a form of Government to which they are averse. This doctrine, preached in America at the present day by a representative of popular rights, is somewhat astounding, and is much aggravated by the gotic state of things without a murmur. To show that potic state of things without a murmur. To show that and gratified pride to his numerous relatives here we are not misrepresenting the Examiner, we quote from —Examiner.

Let our contemporary keep coel and not lose his temper, for we shall venture into his strongheld, and we imagine we run very little risk in doing so, except from that effective weapon, Mr. Whelen's eily tongue. As to coming to "grief" in any other way, or suffering in bodily health at the hands of the warm-hearted Irishmen of St. Peter's, it can only be effected upon the principle of being "killed with kindness." We shall conclude with our formidable, armorgaleted antagonist, the Examiner, by prophesying to ham plated antagonist, the Examiner and the Easts of the Longist and the Easts of the Longist and the Easts of the East plated antagonist, the Examiner, by prophesying to him in the words of the valiant Falstaff:

"If I do not beat thee out of thy kingdom, I'll never wear hair on my face more," *A plague of all cowards, I say, and a vengean boo! marry, and amen."

The rumors of changes in the Government of this Island to which we gave pupilisty last week, have been partly confirmed. Col. Gray has resigned his position in the Government, alleging as his reasons therefor, that he could not with a due regard to his own honor and that of the Island remain any longer is a Government of which Mr. Palmer was a member—as the latter had in the estimation of the Gol. been guilty of deception and inconsistency in regard to the Confederation Question. The gallant Colone's sense of honor has been wonderfully reflaed by recent events as we intend to show in a fature No. by referring to his past political history in gouth, his less during campaign in Tenessee of a this Colony.
