Two Million Workers Quit Next Thursday.

Greatest Labor Struggle in History of Britain--Middle Classes May Supply Industrial Force--Cape Breton Mines Close For Three Days--Week's Casualties in Ireland.

A GREAT STRUGGLE FORESHADOWED.

LONDON, April 8. Tuesday night, unless there is some new development meantime, will see the commencement of the greatest labor struggle in the country's history. Approximately two million workers then will have ceased their duties in protest against what they consider to be an organized attempt on the part of employers to enforce a general reduction in wages. This is the central fact of the labor situation as it developed to-day in the breakdown in the miners' conference, and consequent decision by the Triple Alliance, made up of miners and railway and transport workers for the first time since it was organized, that its entire membership, roughly estimated at one million miners and a half million men each from railway and transport workers' organizations, should quit work in support of the strike of the miners. The government's standpoint as voiced by Lloyd George, in a brief speech in the House of Commons this afternoon, is that the action of the miners and other members of the Triple Alliance is an attempt to direct action to intimidate Parliament and the nation. The Prime Minister announced the military and other measures which the government intended to take to defeat this attempt. The standpoint of the miners is that the sudden removal of control of the coal mines is the result of a pact between the government and mine owners to enable the owners to enforce an unjustifiable reduction in wages. The attitude of the railwaymen is that, unless there is support of the miners at the present time, a similar dilemma will happen to railwaymen on some future occasion when the railways are released from government control. The refusal of the miners to yield on the question of permitting pump men to return to the mines had as its motive the conviction that the withdrawal of pump men is the only weapon in their hands. They argue that a few weeks' cessation of work will not really injure the mine owners, who considering the depressed condition of the industry, have ample stocks of coal on the surface. They declare that the mine owners have brought this fate upon themselves by including the pump men among those whose contracts will be cancelled until they accept the new wage terms, made not through joint discussion, but by the mine owners themselves. The arguments of the miners find absolutely no support except on the part of extreme Socialist newspapers. Other newspapers condemn them strongly and general regret is expressed that the miners refused to listen to the advice of men like Herbert Asquith, John R. Clynes and Arthur Henderson.

PREPARING FOR THE STRIKE.

LONDON, April 8. If the Triple Alliance order for general stoppage of work by its members is made effective, it seems certain there will be a rush of volunteers from elements not in sympathy with the strike movement. An organization which probably will have an important part in this emergency in the middle classes union, composed mainly of "new poor" and so called "salariat," who contend that through lack of organization they have failed to achieve increases commensurate with those received by trade unionists, and that they have been penalized through high living costs resulting from advances to trade unionists. When strike clouds began to gather this organization started registration of all those prepared to serve in any capacity during the national emergency and its officials to-night stated that many thousands of men and women had enrolled at the union's three hundred branches in all parts of England, Scotland and Wales. Similarly committees have been formed for enrollment of volunteers among professional men so if the strike comes King's Councillors may be seen driving motor buses, Doctors collecting tramway tickets and Pests stoking locomotives as was the case during the railway strike in September, 1919. For the protection of these civilian volunteers and to facilitate their services the Government has available not only the regular army and naval establishments and their reserve forces, but many territorial organizations. Lloyd George already has indicated that the special constabulary formed during the war and totalling about a quarter million men will be called out. This force is usually employed to assist police in the preservation of order in more populous centers. From Ireland comes reports of government preparations to transfer iron forces to England should necessity arise.

WILL STRIKE TUESDAY MORNING.

LONDON, April 8. Railway men and Transport Workers this evening decided to strike in sympathy with the miners on Tuesday morning, failing re-opening of negotiations for a settlement of the coal strike.

GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCEMENT.

LONDON, April 8. The intention of the government is to issue an appeal for volunteers for transport and other essential services in view of the prospective Triple Alliance strike, it was announced in the House late to-day by Lloyd George. A royal proclamation would call up army and navy reserves, he said.

COAL MINES CLOSED FOR THREE DAYS.

GLACE BAY, N.S., April 8. All Dominion coal mines will be closed for three days, beginning tomorrow, it is announced. Officials of the United Mine Workers will go to Ottawa to discuss the industrial situation with the Dominion authorities, it is understood.

THE WEEKLY CASUALTY LIST.

DUBLIN, April 8. The official weekly summary of attacks against police and military, issued to-day, shows casualties suffered by Crown forces during the week decreased to twenty-five, as compared with forty-six last week. Seven police barracks were attacked and two police murdered, the statement says, while ten civilians were murdered by Sinn Feiners.

MINER'S LEADER FINED.

PITTSBURG, Kansas, April 8. Alexander Howat, Kansas Miners' Union head, to-day was found guilty of contempt of court in ordering the strike of coal miners two weeks ago, and was sentenced to pay a fine of two hundred dollars by Judge Curran, of the Crawford County District Court.

HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT RESIGNS.

BUDAPEST, April 8. The Ministry of Count Paul Teleky has resigned. The collapse, it is understood, was brought about by the firm attitude of small farmers against legitimists' insistence upon an anti-Karlist Government.

CREW MUTINIED.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8. The steamer Will Hilo, accompanied by a United States cruiser, is steaming up the Mexican coast with her crew in mutiny, according to a message received here to-day by the agent of the steamer's owners, the Williams Line of New York. The Will Hilo sailed from New York March 5th for San Francisco with a crew of thirty-five men. Radio message from the Will Hilo indicated that a boarding party from the Tacoma had taken charge of the steamer.

What One of the Best Known Travellers in Canada Says.

"Now I am going to give you an unsolicited testimonial, as they say in the patent medicine advertising. Heretofore I have had a profound contempt for patent medicines, particularly so-called liniments. Perhaps this is due to the reason that I have been blessed with a sturdy constitution, and I have never been ill a day in my life. One day last fall after a hard day's tramp in the slush of Montreal, I developed a severe pain in my legs and of course like a man who has never had anything wrong with him physically, I complained rather hotly. The good little wife says: 'I will rub them with some liniment I have.' 'Go ahead,' I said, just to humor her. 'Well, in she comes with a bottle of MARYARD'S LINIMENT and gets busy. Believe me the pain disappeared a few minutes after, and you can tell the world I said so.' (Signed) FRANK E. JOHN'S, Montreal.

MEN and WOMEN of Newfoundland READ and THINK

MEN! Many of you are working three days instead of six. Many of you are not working at all. How are you going to strike a balance between half pay, no pay at all and living expenses?

WOMEN! Your men bring you home very light pay envelopes these days. Food and Clothes must be found. How are you going to make ends meet?

THE BIG REASON for your small pay envelope is NO WORK FOR YOUR MEN. This is largely your own fault because you buy imported goods, when you can buy the same article made by your own Husbands and Son in your own Island.

MY COLUMN

By the CUB-EDITOR.
MY NOVEL.

I have written a novel. Its really not a thing I am in the habit of doing, but I was so impressed by a wild West Picture I saw at a Movie Theatre recently that I was inspired to write a story on similar lines and I am going to give the readers of the Telegram the first opportunity of reading my literary masterpiece. I intend to publish it in serial form in this column and I would advise all those readers who appreciate real literature to cut out each instalment and so obtain the whole novel, for I am altogether too modest to consider publishing it in book form. (No wun wood publish it for him.—Horris).

(The Story is Entitled).

JEM GUMCHEW

Or The Outlaws of Deadshot Gulch.

CHAPTER I.

INTRODUCING OUR HERO.

A big crowd had gathered in the only saloon that Deadshot Gulch possessed. Big Bill Rummy, the saloon-keeper, was busily engaged in handing the fiery spirit (Home brew) across the counter as fast as he could pump it from the well. In one corner of the room three men were seated, playing the very exciting game of Old Maid for exceedingly high stakes, judging by the pile of meal tickets heaped before two of them. Suddenly, the man who was losing jumped to his feet, knocking over his stool and most of the bystanders as he did so. "Yew are cheating," he cried in a voice filled with justifiable anger. All eyes were turned on the speaker, and he was well worth a second glance. Six feet six in his bed-socks, with broad shoulders and a long neck upon which was set an enormous head, as he stood there with his jaw set firmly, his eyes blazing and a wad of chewing gum stuck in one side of his mouth, he was indeed worthy of notice. The two men whom he accused drew simultaneously, but shooting out his enormous arms, Jem Gumchew, for it was he, seized them by their shirt collars and crashing their heads together with a sickening thud, flung them into opposite corners of the room. Then he turned towards the bar—thank goodness Deadshot Gulch was not yet dry! Unseen by any, one of the victims drew a carving knife from the leg of his boot and slowly crept up behind Jem who was in the centre of an admiring crowd. Slowly but surely, he approached his victim. Then, letting out a mighty yell, he sprang on the back of Jem Gumchew. (To be continued next Monday).

A "DAMP" TALE.

It's pretty hard luck to be caught when your moonshine is almost prepared. I don't think that the police ought to come round till it all has been shared.

Take the case of a man of this town who must now feel decidedly blue. He was charged with attempting to drown His car in a keg of home-brew.

Said the Judge "My man, what do you say to this charge?" and the man made reply.

"If the 'lads' hadn't come on that day I'd be just as 'wet' now as I'm 'dry'."

They were too quick that time," said the judge.

Said the man "Twas for my own use." "None the less from the law I can't budge."

Said His Honour, "Nor can I reduce the amount of the fine that you've now got to pay."

That man won't make moonshine again, I should say.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Encyclopedia.—The word "Yorns" is from the Persian and was first introduced into this country by a cat, a native of that country. You have spelt it a great deal more correctly than you have "origin" which does not contain two "O's." You would be better advised to pay more attention to your school work as I can see by your writing that you dance too much. What a hope!

Weigh yourself the day you commence to take Brick's Tasteless, then weigh yourself two (2) weeks later and note the increase.—Jan27,tf

For your special type of skin—there is a special treatment!

Skins differ widely—are you using the right treatment for your type of skin?

IF your skin is a constant problem to you—if you cannot keep it smooth and flawless—then you may be sure it is because you are not using the right treatment for your special type of skin.

Skins differ widely—and each different type of skin needs a different kind of care.

The girl whose complexion is of an oily type should use a special form of cleansing to counteract the tendency to become disagreeably shiny.

The girl with a pale, sallow skin needs a treatment that will rouse and stimulate the delicate pores and blood vessels.

No matter what your type of skin happens to be—you can overcome its defects! By the right treatment, followed persistently, you can give it the natural charm, the fresh loveliness and color that come from a healthy, well-cared-for condition of the skin itself.

Remember that your skin is constantly changing—each day old skin dies and new skin takes its place. Even if, through neglect, or the wrong kind of treatment, you have allowed your skin to lose its attractiveness—by giving the new skin which forms each day, the special care suited to its needs you can actually make it over—make it as clear and smooth as you want it to be.

Study the special needs of your skin—find out just what its weaknesses are, and begin, now, to use the treatment that will overcome them. Three of the famous Woodbury treatments for improving the skin are republished on this page. You will find additional treatments for each different type of skin in the booklet of treatments, "A Skin You Love to Touch," which is wrapped around every cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap.

Get a cake of Woodbury's today and find in the booklet the treatment recommended for your skin. Begin using it tonight.

The very first treatment with Woodbury's will leave your skin with a slightly drawn, tight feeling. Do not regard this as a disadvantage—it is an indication that the treatment is doing you good, for it means that your skin is responding in the right way to a more thorough and stimulating kind of cleansing. After a few nights this drawn sensation will disappear and your skin will emerge from its nightly bath so soft and smooth that you will never again want to use any other method of cleansing your face.

You can get Woodbury's Facial Soap at any drug store or toilet goods counter. A 25-cent cake will last for a month or six weeks of any treatment, and for general cleansing use for that time. The Andrew Jergens Co., Cincinnati, New York and Perth, Ontario.

For the girl with an oily skin

If you are continually embarrassed by that most common of troubles—an oily skin and shiny nose—begin tonight to use this simple treatment:

FIRST cleanse your face thoroughly by washing it in your usual way with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water. Wipe off the surplus moisture, but leave the skin slightly damp.

Now with warm water work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap in your hands. Apply it to your face and rub it into the pores thoroughly—always with an upward and outward motion.

Rinse with warm water, then with cold—the colder the better. If possible, rub your face for a few minutes with a piece of ice.

This treatment will make your skin clearer and fresher the first time you use it. Make it a nightly habit, and before long you will see a marked improvement—a promise of that lovelier complexion which the steady use of Woodbury's brings.

Special treatments for each type of skin are given in the booklet, "A Skin You Love to Touch," which is wrapped around each cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap.

For the girl who is troubled with blackheads

APPLY hot cloths to the face until the skin is reddened.

Now with a rough washcloth, work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap and rub it into the pores thoroughly—always with an upward and outward motion. Rinse with clear, hot water, then with cold—the colder the better.

If possible, rub your face for thirty seconds with a piece of ice. Dry carefully. To remove blackheads already formed, substitute a flesh brush for the washcloth in the treatment above. Then protect the fingers with a handkerchief and press out the blackheads.

Woodbury treatments for each different type of skin are given in the booklet, "A Skin You Love to Touch."

For the girl who is pale and sallow

If your skin is pale and colorless, try this new steam treatment for it:

ONE night a week fill your bowl full of hot water—almost boiling hot. Bend over the top of the bowl and cover your head and the bowl with a heavy bath towel so that no steam can escape. Steam your face for thirty seconds.

Now lay a hot cloth with Woodbury's Facial Soap. With this wash your face thoroughly, rubbing the lather well into your skin with an upward and outward motion.

Rinse the skin well, first with warm water, then with cold.

Finish by rubbing it for thirty seconds with a piece of ice. Dry very carefully.

The very first time you use this Woodbury steam treatment, your skin will begin to show more color. The other six nights of the week, cleanse your skin thoroughly in the usual way with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water.

Woodbury treatments for each different type of skin are given in the booklet, "A Skin You Love to Touch."

Use daily—to keep your skin in good condition

If used regularly, Woodbury's Facial Soap has a markedly beneficial effect on the skin as an organism. It stimulates the little blood vessels, keeps the pores in an active condition, and gives the skin tissues firmness and tone.

The power of Woodbury's Facial Soap to benefit and improve the complexion is due to the fact that it is based on a special formula, the result of years of scientific study of the skin and its needs. Only the purest and finest ingredients enter into this formula. In consequence Woodbury's Facial Soap can be used with extremely sensitive and tender skins which often react unfavorably to other toilet soaps.

Use Woodbury's daily in your toilet and see how instantly your skin will begin to respond to its tonic qualities—what a new feeling of softness and smoothness your skin will have.

You will find Woodbury's one of the most economical soaps you have ever used. A 25-cent cake lasts for a month or six weeks—almost twice as long as an ordinary toilet soap of the same apparent size.

Replies to Mr. Dooley.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir—I respect Mr. W. M. Dooley's sincerity and his patriotism for his adopted country. At the same time I must believe that he is just a little too willing to think of the United States as a spotless angel with wings outstretched to shelter small peoples and nations. To tell the truth, I was myself, up to a very few months back, an ardent admirer of everything American—including even its Government. I still am an admirer of the American people, and of the principles of the Declaration of Independence and of the early fathers. These principles have been hamstrung, as I have said, since the regime of President McKinley. America is out on a colonizing rampage and is fast becoming an empire, to the deadly cost of her republicanism.

Now regarding Haiti. Mr. Dooley says that he has the report made by the American commission of inquiry which went to Haiti and sifted the evidence. As a matter of fact I have not that report nor have I read it. Nor, as a matter of fact, do I want to read it. I pretty well guess what it says. In fact, before the commission was appointed at all (and I was one of those who, in New York, wrote considerably much in demand for the appointment of a commission) I knew pretty well what the report would be. The American government is not so innocent altogether as to allow the truth concerning its treatment of Haiti to get out.

Mr. Dooley intimates that I may have some private information. I have none. At the same time I am fairly conversant with the facts. I had several conversations with the former minister of foreign affairs of Haiti, a Haitian who resigned his portfolio because of the treatment accorded his country by America. I have many times conversed with James Weldon Johnson, field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, who was the first to make the exposure of the misdeeds of the American marines in Haiti.

Haiti, having gone there in disguise and spent two months investigating. I met Herbert Seligman, co-investigator with Johnson, several times. In his former letter Mr. Dooley stated that Mr. Dartiguenave, President of the Republic of Haiti, had in the inquiry admitted that he had no personal knowledge of atrocities. That is so. He said, however, that it was common knowledge that the atrocities had taken place, but that it would be impossible to get a native to give evidence, as a terror existed on the island, and it would be worth the life of any man telling anything. Three thousand odd Haitians were murdered by American marines, who went to the hills where the natives were hiding and hunted them down with machine guns and rifles and shot them like rabbits.

Mr. Seligman said: "Haitian men, women and children, to a number estimated at 3,000, innocent for the most part of any offense, have been shot down by American machine guns and rifle bullets; black men and women have been put to torture to make them give information; theft, arson and murder have been committed almost with impunity upon the persons and property of Haitians by white men wearing the uniform of the United States. . . . In this five years' massacre of Haitians less than twenty Americans have been killed, or wounded in action." Now, can anything justify the murder of these Haitians? Remember that Haiti is a republic, and is not part of America, tho, to be sure, being a part would not make her justifiably liable to such treatment.

Now for Hawaii and the American annexation of that country. I said in my last letter that the American resident minister in Hawaii had connived with plotters there to bring about the "revolution," and that he was a party to the plot. The "revolution" took place on January 17, 1893. Thirteen men, headed by a lawyer named Sanford B. Dole, met in an office, drew up a "proclamation," walked several miles to the Government building, met at that time the exposure of the misdeeds of the American marines in Haiti.

from the ship "Boston," had been landed by order of the American resident minister, Stevens, and were within 75 yards, with rifles and machine guns. This constituted the "revolution." These thirteen men thereupon constituted themselves the government, and Stevens immediately recognized them as such, having done so, really, before the revolution took place at all. Here is the irony of it: The thirteen arranged with Stevens, days in advance, to land the marines when needed. They wrote him a formal request and placed it in his hands, to remain inoperative until they wrote him a note telling him from what an hour it became operative.

The proclamation having been read at the Government building, guarded by American troops, the U.S. Minister proceeded at once to recognize the new "Government." They had not an armed man. They had proceeded to the Government building, where there were clerks and officers of the Hawaiian government, with not even a policeman present. They stood up in front of that building, within 75 yards of the Gatling guns of the marines from an American battleship, and had read a paper declaring that they were the government. Three-quarters of a mile away the Queen had 500 men under arms. Without waiting a moment Stevens recognized these thirteen men as the government of Hawaii, knowing that he had violated international law, and wrote the regular ministers telling them that he did not recognize them as a government.

Now, the story of why all this was done, and why America annexed Hawaii, is too long a one to tell here. Suffice it for me to state that the act, in both cases, was outrageous, and in contravention of all decency and propriety, not to speak of international law.

Mr. Dooley refers to the fact that in 1842 Captain Paul, a British naval commander, entered Honolulu harbor and compelled the Hawaiians to declare allegiance to Great Britain. It was not in '42. It was on Feb. 10, 1843. Lord (Captain) George Paulet did arrive on the frigate "Caryfort" and did take the King prisoner. The King signed a provisional cession of the islands to Paulet, "subject to the decision of the British government after the receipt of full information from both parties." The English government promptly restored the King to his throne.

Side Talks by Ruth Cameron

THE SONG OF COLOR.

I sing the song of color to-day. Aren't you tremendously glad that when the Lord was making the earth He was not satisfied only with it h making beautiful forms, but bethought Himself to make colors, too? Just suppose He had chosen to make everything a single dull grey, what a lot of happiness we should have missed! Yesterday I went to town. On the way I passed a florist's window in which were masses of daffodils and some kind of a dark blue flower. We passed so quickly that I could not tell you what that blue flower was, yet not so quickly that there passed through me a warm sense of pleasure at the beauty of those two masses of color together.

Blue and Green and Red. In a shop I was waiting for my change when a pretty shop girl went by carrying a gown to a customer. She herself wore a dress of some dark blue clinging stuff, with a gliding of vivid green, and the gown she was carrying over her shoulder, was a wonderful shade of red. Perhaps an artist would not have said that those three colors belonged together.

NOTICE OF QUESTION.

Sir M. P. Cashin—I give notice that I will on to-morrow ask the Prime Minister, in the absence of the Hon. Minister of Finance and Customs (a) if any person imported by the s.s. Canadian Miner in July last, six motor cars from the General Motor Supply Company and what person or firm imported the same; (b) if their removal from the possession of the Customs Department was secured on a temporary permit; (c) if the same was signed by the Hon. Minister of Finance and Customs and if not by whom; (d) if the duty on the same has since been paid and if not why not; (e) what is the amount of the duty altogether, and (f) what steps do the Government propose to take to secure the payment of the said duty.

That I will ask the Hon. Prime Minister, in the absence of the Hon. Minister of Marine and Fisheries, to lay on the table of the House a statement showing the details of the sum of over seventy-seven thousand dollars as shown in The Auditor General's statement as having been made for the purchase of salt, which purchase the Minister of Shipping yesterday stated had been made through the Fisheries Department; and to show (a) how the Treasury lost sixteen thousand thereon; (b) what the sum of over four thousand four hundred dollars to Messrs. Job Bros. & Co. represented; (c) what is the firm which owes sixty-one thousand dollars to the Colony for salt; (d) what steps are being taken to secure the payment of this amount; and (e) to table copies of all correspondence, Orders-in-Council and other documents in relation thereto.

That I will ask the Hon. the Prime Minister if his attention has been called to a publication in New York newspapers, copied into the local papers a few days ago, purporting to be an interview by Mr. John M. Devine, Newfoundland Trade Commissioner, in that city, and to describe an alleged "four million dollar corporation" to be formed for the purpose of handling fresh fish from Newfoundland, and to say if the Government has any knowledge of this matter, if the Colony is in any way involved by way of guarantee or otherwise, and if so to what extent, and to lay on the table copies of all papers and documents in relation to the same.

That I will ask the Hon. the Prime Minister, in the absence of the Hon. Minister of Finance and Customs (a) any parties are permitted to take delivery of goods imported into this Colony without paying duty by obtaining what are known as "Temporary Permits" from the Customs for goods imported and on which duty has not been paid; (b) to lay on the table of the House a statement showing (1) the quality, (2) the quantity, (3) value, (4) the loss to the revenue, (5) how many such permits were outstanding up to the 31st of March of this year, (6) if the practice of obtaining these temporary permits, originally intended as a convenience in emergencies, is latterly being abused by various parties who, by the use of these permits, are able to obtain and sell goods and leave the Custom House for weeks and months without the duty that should have been paid thereon, if the Government intends to take steps to prevent this abuse continuing, and to table a statement showing the number, value, and duty involved of the temporary permits issued for (a) the calendar year 1919; (b) the calendar year 1920, and (c) the three months January-March, 1921.

Capt. Lewis—I give notice that I will on to-morrow ask the Minister of Public Works to lay on the table of the House a copy of the Minutes of Council forwarded to his department appointing the Commissioners who expended the money for snow shovelling in the District of Harbor Main during the months of February and March, 1921.

Mr. Bennett—I give notice that I will on to-morrow ask the Hon. the Prime Minister, in the absence of the Hon. the Minister of Finance and Customs, to lay on the table of the House a statement showing the distribution of the sum of $400,000 paid from the Surplus Trust Fund to the account of the Minister of Militia or his department during 1919-20, and to lay on the table of the House copy of all correspondence or other documents in relation thereto.

That I will on to-morrow ask the Minister of Public Works for a detailed statement of all monies allocated for main line, local roads and special grants to the District of Bay de Verde by his Department from January-1st, 1920 to date; also copy of the original returns received by people to whom monies were allocated.

Mr. Walsh—I give notice that I will on to-morrow ask the Colonial Secretary to lay on the table of the House a statement, showing (a) the total amount of money expended by the Commissioner of Public Charities or by any other department of the Government under the head of emergency poor relief for the six months ending March 31, 1921; (b) the amount spent in each electoral district; (c) giving the name and address of the several relieving officers, showing the amount distributed by each officer or agent.

BLEEDING GUMS.

Do your gums bleed? Do you suffer from Pyorrhoea? Have you abscesses on your teeth? Listen! Pus pockets form at the roots of these teeth and poison the whole system by the discharge of virulent germs. Many headaches are due to this gradual poisoning; joint troubles, such as rheumatism, have been traced to this source; heavy affections, often serious, follow this so-called "rheumatism". Good teeth are priceless, but a tooth with a pus pocket at its root is almost as vicious as a cancer. Pyorrhoea is not painful usually, and one is apt to let it go unnoticed. Watch for these bleeding gums, they are your warning.
