FORD COAL PROPERTY LOOKS GOOD TO FROST

Municipal Coal Mine Proposal Has a Decidedly Ford Tinge, According to the Statement of Ald. Frost, One of the Inspection Committee.

OPENINGS IN PROPERTY SHOW MANY COAL VEINS

There is a 13 Foot Vein and Runs Through Entire Holding; Continuity of Veins is Demonstrated; Easy Grade for Railroad Construction.

FROM present indications, the Ford syndicate stand a better chance of doing business with the city of Calgary than does the Du Rocher company. The Ford people have a clear lead in the matter of development, from a layman's point of view, and right now the municipal coal mine for Calgary has a decided Ford tinge.

This is the impression one gains from talking the matter over with Alderman T. A. P. Frost, of the committee that made an inspection of the two properties last week. Mr. Frost, of course, reserves his report to council, and modified his statement that he looked over the property only with a layman's eyes, with an idea of accessibility of transportation.

Today the Ford people are ready to actually show a vein of coal, while the Du Rocher people, while they have coal in my belief, can show only an undeveloped prospect, says the alderman. In other words, the Ford mines were in excellent condition to allow an inspection, while the Du Rocher mines were in such a condition that we had to take the word of Mr. Du Rocher for a number of things that we should have actually witnessed.

When Peary outfitted his expedition to discover the North Pole, he used no more care than did the alderman when he selected their supplies for the trip to the mines. Ropes, block and tackle, chains, aneroid barometers, axes, picks, shovels and all the equipment of a mining prospector were taken along in the three automobiles which composed the motive power of the party. And strange to say, every piece of the apparatus was needed at the time or another of the trip.

WANTEL TOOK REFUGE IN FRENCH TONGUE IN THE HOUSE

Minister of Inland Revenue Shut Off Further Discussion By Using French

Ottawa, May 31.—The estimates were under consideration today and Mr. Rogers told Mr. Buchanan that the post office would proceed at Ottawa this year.

Mr. Buchanan, Medicine Hat, on the eve of the adjournment, brought up the question of the desirability of giving farmers grazing leases for small tracts of land when the grazing privileges for the Blood Indian reservation, Southern Alberta, now held by Gordon Ironsides and James, expired on June 30. He said it would be a great encouragement to mixed farmers if the department would decide to lease this land in small tracts.

Mr. Crothers, acting minister of the department, said that the matter was under consideration. An official had been charged to report on the matter, and the policy of the department would in all probability be announced in an early date.

RECENT FROSTS LEAVE EFFECT ON FRUIT CROP

Looks for Banner Year in Western Canada; Believes Immigration from South will Easily Reach 200,000 Mark; Talks on Roads Exhibit.

MR. P. L. NAISMITH, manager of the department of natural resources, C.P.R., returned to the city last night after an absence of three weeks in California and the Pacific states, during which time he motorized almost as far south as the Mexican border.

"The weather in southern California at this time of the year," said Mr. Naismith, "is extremely hot, and the large hotels in San Diego and other points are between seasons and rather empty. As soon as the summer season opens, the tourists from the coast will fill with the city people, who can afford to leave the baking cities and, in the summer season, replace the winter tourists."

"I am sorry to say it is," he replied, "but has not in any way dampened the enthusiasm of the fruit growers. On the contrary, it appears to have stimulated them to greater effort. The lemon trees which are the most tender have suffered, but the growers are cutting them off and grafting them to grape fruit. While the frost has proved just such a setback as we experience here from a lack of rain or a too early frost, it in no way interferes with the country's fruit industry."

"Did you visit the site of the Panama-Pacific exposition? I understand that the C. P. R. intend exhibiting there."

"I did, and I was very much impressed by the display of the products and natural resources of western Canada. Special attention was given to the exhibit which to erect our own building, and the plans and matter is now in the hands of our publicity branch. San Francisco is a veritable hive of industry, and will draw thousands to the exposition. The Canadian government has space for a large building, and I am quite convinced that Canada will come in for a large share of the exhibition."

TWELFTH YEAR—NO. 80

LONDON TO WINNIPEG IN FIVE DAYS BY LATEST ROUTE

New Port Blacksood on West Coast of Ireland to Connect With Labrador in Three Days—Thirty-six Hours Thence to Manitoba Capital.

IMPERIAL ALL RED ROUTE WILL LINK UP EMPIRE

One Week Saved in Journey to Sydney From London; Fastest Steamers of Atlantic will Make Passage; Railway Being Built Across Ireland.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—From London to Winnipeg, a distance of more than 3,400 miles, in five days is the object of the fast Crown-subsidized rail and steamship system which is planned to operate between the British capital and Sydney, Australia, reducing the running-time between those centers to 21 days. Twenty-six knot steamships of the Knapp type, having finer lines and smaller displacement than the "Mauretania," will run from Blacksood, a new harbor on the northwest coast of Ireland, to Cape St. Charles, Labrador, in three days. Thence to Winnipeg mails and passengers will be speeded over the air-line railway in another thirty-six hours. From the Manitoba metropolis to the Pacific coast one of the fastest is to be determined upon by the promoters of the "Imperial All-Red Route," as the latest highway to the Antipodes is known.

New All-Red Route The lowering of the time of passage between London and New York, as well as Toronto, Pittsburg, Detroit, Chicago and other Canadian and American cities is an important consideration in the working out of the new project, according to Harry Chapin, Plummer, who, in an article in the June issue of the National Waterways Magazine published in this city by the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, states that by the Blacksood-St. Charles route and Quebec, one day may be gained over the existing schedule maintained by the Mauretania and Lusitania between Liverpool and New York. He observes: "Although conceived as a new medium of transportation between the capital of Britain and far-away New Zealand and Australia, the 'All-Red Route' enters actively into consideration as a higher speed service between London to Winnipeg in five days is as important an object, relatively, as the accomplishment of a twenty-day schedule between London and Sydney.

"This great highway through England, Scotland and Ireland, across the Atlantic to Labrador, across British North America, over the most northerly parallels of latitude yet followed by trunk line railways, and, diversely, across the Pacific to distant Yokohama, Hong Kong and Shanghai, and yet to more distant Auckland and Sydney, is planned to serve the purposes of war as well as the pursuits of peace. It will be backed by the might of the combined resources of the United Kingdom, Canada, New Zealand and Australia."

Railway Now Started Sir Thomas H. C. Troubridge, of London, and a syndicate of leading financiers of England, have let contracts for the commencement of construction work upon the line of railway which is to connect Blacksood with the northern cross-country routes of the Irish railway system terminating at Larne, on the North Channel, near Belfast, where car-ferry connections will be effected with Stranraer, on the Scottish coast, near Dumfries. The All-Red Steamship company, originally planned to operate between Blacksood and Halifax, was incorporated under federal charter by the Canadian parliament in 1907, and the corporation will operate the steamship service between the Irish port and Cape St. Charles, whence the air-line railway is soon to be constructed, under heavy Dominion subsidy, to Winnipeg.

Irrepressible social and economic benefits to be derived by each of the territories which will be traversed by the "All-Red Route" are predicted by the writer, who writes: "Week Less to Antipodes. "Australia and New Zealand, by the saving of almost a week in the journey to and from London will derive manifold commercial advantages. Canada, in the words of Vice-Admiral Sir Charles Campbell, of the British Royal navy, must become the central province of the empire and the carrier of all the traffic between the Australian colonies and the mother country." Proportionately, however, Ireland must come to enjoy yet greater advantages. For the making of the erstwhile lonely and isolated Blacksood bay, on the Mayo county coast, the Atlantic terminus of the railway line from London must bring about the concentration at that point of the multitude of interests sure to follow the sudden diversion thither of a traffic universal in its scope and gigantic in volume. Grain elevators, coal and oil storage, warehouses and all the equipment of a great harbor terminals, where a vigorous and spreading population is sure to be attracted, will place Blacksood well in the race for maritime supremacy among the port cities of the British Isles. The consequent effect upon the industrial position of the North Irish country, of which Blacksood will be the logical gateway, is obvious.

Security for Britain The establishment of a first-class seaport so far north on the Atlantic coast of Ireland as Blacksood would not only afford greater security to the United Kingdom as a nation, but would better insure the entry into the country, under stress of war of provisions, for which the British Isles are quite dependent upon the outside world. In this respect Vice-Admiral Campbell is quoted as follows: "In the undesirable, but not impossible, event of war between Great Britain and two or more European powers, the position of Blacksood bay

THE CLERGYMAN WHOSE ELECTION CAUSED SPLIT

THE REV. DR. JOHN TIMOTHY STONE.

The election of the Rev. Dr. John Timothy Stone, of Chicago, as Moderator of the General Assembly of the Northern Presbyterian Church, at Atlanta, Ga., has aroused a lot of hostile criticism and unpleasant talk and has caused more or less of a split among the Presbyterians. Dr. Stone was elected as a "dark horse," and in commenting on this one clergyman said, "not only a dark, but a black horse."

The general opinion was that instead of being a non-political action the election was one of the most deep laid schemes ever perpetrated on a General Assembly. Not one word is said in criticism of Dr. Stone, who is one of the best known and most popular men in the Church, but there is the most pronounced criticism of the way his name for the office was sprung on the Assembly.

MEDICINE HATTERS SIT IN AT OPTIMISTIC LUNCH

William Cousins, 30 Years a Pioneer, Presides; Many Notables Make Addresses

Medicine Hat, May 3.—Last night about 125 representative citizens of Medicine Hat, at the suggestion of the board of trade, met together at the Silver Grill, at what might be termed an optimistic Dutch lunch. William Cousins, who arrived in this place over thirty years ago, was toastmaster, and presided with a dignity, wit, and grace that captured the audience from the outset.

Short addresses were made by a dozen representative men, optimism and working together for a greater and better Medicine Hat being the keynote of the evening. Music was furnished by the Silver Grill orchestra, and the D. and A. quartette, and there was not a vacant chair in the large dining room when the speaking started.

Among those who spoke were Acting Mayor M. A. Brown, Leigh Hunt of the Hunt Engineering company, C. F. Adams of Calgary, Gus Bailey, John Inwood, manager of the Quebec Bank, C. S. Blanchard, W. B. Wilcox, secretary of the board of trade, J. O. Adams and W. A. Clarke, of the Call, and E. L. Stone of The Times. Two leading features of the addresses were the need of a Canadian club and also of a board of trade building in Medicine Hat. For the consideration of the formation of a Canadian club, which were enthusiastically received, the following committee was appointed to take the matter up and report at a meeting to be called at an early date: John Inwood, William Cousins, H. S. Potter, Dr. C. E. Smith, A. M. Grace, W. G. Lynch, and J. C. Rand.

FIRST CONCERT IN NORTH HILL WAS VERY POPULAR

The first band concert ever given on the north side was held yesterday afternoon and never did such a crowd gather for such an event in Calgary. Fully 3,000 of every age and class were present, the day being so fine, and all around on the grass they were seated, the seats being quite unable to hold the great crowd. Tuxedo Park was thronged all afternoon and if there was any doubt before as to the advisability of holding these concerts on the north hill there will assuredly be none now. For a year there has been an agitation for the concerts and the realization is more than any hoped for.

Four special cars were run out by the street railway but these proved quite inadequate to carry the great crowds. The park was thronged and proves that the north hill is rapidly developing into one of the most important parts of the city. The park was a gift to the city some years ago by the Canadian Estates Co. and consists of two blocks. The pavilion, which was used by the band for the first time yesterday, proved of great advantage and it is hoped that the concerts will be continued as they will undoubtedly prove to be even more popular as the time goes on.

NAVAL POLICY IS DEAD.

The senate has killed the Borden Naval bill, and the government seems quite content to leave it at that. Vivid as is the imagination of the leaders of the Conservative party, the threatened horrors of the emergency pale into insignificance compared to the horrors of submitting the question to the Canadian people who have to pay for the assistance that the government purposed to give.

There were four courses which the government might take. The most logical was to submit the question to the electorate in the form of a referendum or election. As it is very probable that the people would defeat the Borden naval policy submitted in either form, those two courses may be eliminated. It is not at all probable that the emergency could be sufficiently threatening to force the party in power to lay violent hands upon the Dominion senate so long as many thousand good party supporters are looking with eager eyes upon the senatorships.

So the fourth course will be adopted. That is to abandon the bill for the time being, do nothing at all, put the blame on the other party, and attempt to forget the entire episode. To take such a course is very humiliating, but that is better than submitting the question to the people or to do anything desperate with the senate.

So the Borden naval policy is dead. And dead it will remain for some time to come. It is not likely that it will ever be resurrected.

JAPANESE EXCLUSION.

The Liberals of British Columbia have adopted a very aggressive platform, the most important plank in which doubtless is the exclusion of the Japanese. They are determined that British Columbia shall remain a white province. If they have their way it will remain a white province.

No government in Canada or British Columbia ever took up this serious question in a serious manner. The McBride government has passed resolutions from time to time, but more for the purpose of embarrassing the Laurier government than for solving the serious question facing the province. The Laurier government had little sympathy with the policy of exclusion, doubtless understanding that the McBride government was endeavoring to entrap it.

But the fact remains that British Columbia is threatened with an invasion of yellow men, who threaten the welfare, not only of the coast province, but eventually of all Western Canada. It is time that some statesman should rise in British Columbia, with motives above those of party, and take up this question seriously and intelligently.

The other planks which were adopted at the meeting in Revelstoke last week included: single tax, as well as the provincial ownership of the telephone system, and a better control of the liquor traffic. Altogether the platform adopted was aggressive and wise.

British Columbia Liberals, with an aggressive leader, would soon put the McBride administration where it belonged. The McBride-Bowser government is some respects outdoes the Roblin-Rogers combination in its palmy days. There are manifold symptoms that the British Columbia people are tired enough of it.

Editorial Notes

The Pincher Creek Echo, while not endorsing the prize fight calls the attention of Calgary ministers to the fact that there was much more brutality in the Stampede than in all the prize fights that Calgary ever saw. The ministers did not seriously object to that.

A number of Conservative newspapers are quoting The Montreal Herald as a staunch Liberal paper which declares against the Liberals in the house of commons. The Herald has changed ownership and it is not unusual when such a thing happens for it to change its faith. Our two contemporaries have often changed faith in the same manner. One declared for independence and the other was Liberal, but changed owners changed minds.

The government will not introduce one parcel post this session unless the opposition promises not to oppose it, which means that the government does not want to offend the express companies by introducing a parcel post act this year and is trying to get a smooth passage upon which to fall and is trying to blame it upon the opposition.

R. B. Bennett, who voted against the resolution in parliament that there should be no discrimination against Western Canada in the matter of freight rates, is the same R. B. Bennett who represents the city of Calgary in the commons, but that does not mean that the people of Calgary, whom he is supposed to represent, believe that the discrimination is justifiable.

Old-Time Rivals Meet. Regina, June 1.—Chief Justice Haultain, who was minister of education in the Northwest Territories, laid the corner stone of the new normal school this afternoon. Hon. Walter Scott, premier of the province, presided.

DISCRIMINATING AGAINST THE WEST.

"That in the opinion of this House there should be no discrimination as between East and West in the tolls for freight or any other service within the jurisdiction of the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada."

That is the resolution which was brought into the Dominion House of Commons by W. F. Maclean, Conservative member for South York, defeated by the Conservative House, and R. B. Bennett voted with the majority.

In other words, Mr. Bennett voted that there should be discrimination as between East and West.

Calgary Conservative papers defend the action of their member by declaring that this is a matter for the Railway Commission, and not for the parliament. It is a matter for both. But the discrimination exists, and has been existing ever since the Railway Commission was appointed. It is said that the Railway Commission has 2,300 cases affecting Western freight rates to consider.

The passing of the resolution submitted by the Conservative member of parliament declaring that the West should have the same treatment as the East would do more to secure justice for the West than anything else could do.

But R. B. Bennett, who represents Calgary, said nothing, but voted against the resolution. Thus are we represented.

THE EMERGENCY FIASCO.

"The long exploited war scare between Germany and Britain would appear to be played out. It has been so thoroughly exposed by the independent European press, and by the politicians of every party, the malignant power behind the scare has abandoned it."

The Albertan calls particular attention to the preceding paragraph. It expresses present conditions very fairly. That which is most interesting about the paragraph, however, is the fact that it is from the Conservative Ottawa Citizen, and The Ottawa Citizen is an older brother of The Calgary Herald, owned by the same people.

Can it be that there is a division in the one family, or will The Calgary Herald come out tomorrow and repeat that this emergency business, which was foolish in the beginning, is more foolish now than ever? Time will tell.

But the important fact is that even the Conservative press, which was alarmed at one time by the emergency talk, is now convinced, and is beginning to admit that the whole emergency talk was a fraud, manufactured by malignant persons who desired to make money out of it. And it was because of that that we were asked to turn from our Canadian traditions, impair our Canadian autonomy, and hand over in large amount our Canadian dollars without having a word to say about it.

The Senate acted wisely.

END OF THE SEVEN MONTHS' WAR.

On Friday last the peace treaty which will be known in history as the Treaty of London, was signed by the representatives of the nations concerned, marking the conclusion of the Seven Months' War. While we date the commencement of that sanguinary struggle from October, 1912, yet it was only the final phase of a state of hostility which has lasted for five centuries. The occupation of her European provinces by Turkey has never been in any real sense of the word pacific. They have been held by the sword as the appanage of the conquerors, without any effective attempt at the development of what the Western world understands as civil government. For the first time since their invasion their inhabitants may now look forward to that personal security, not easily established, and differing in degree, which is yet universally recognized as the criterion of civilization. The moment has now arrived when the prudence and self-control of the states which have won so notable a victory for progress will be put to its severest test. The Albertan does not believe, and no friend of good government can hope, that they will prove unequal to it.

It may be noted in conclusion the good work of Sir Edward Grey has been chiefly responsible for the happy issue of the Balkan trouble.

If the two aldermen who were prospecting last week landed a good coal mine for the city, we should send them forth again to hunt up a policy for attracting manufacturers to the city, which would not be objectionable to the board of trade.

There will never be much of a market in this city until it is in touch with the railroads and until people in the vicinity of Calgary get into the habit of raising market truck. It is easier to cultivate the market habit among Calgary people, than it is to cultivate the market habit among the producers.

The main point in the statement of Harold Riley is that he will not run again Mr. Mitchell in Bow Valley. The rest of the statement is rather interesting too, but the fact remains that Mr. Harold Riley has not lost all the wisdom he ever possessed.

The government will not introduce one parcel post this session unless the opposition promises not to oppose it, which means that the government does not want to offend the express companies by introducing a parcel post act this year and is trying to get a smooth passage upon which to fall and is trying to blame it upon the opposition.

R. B. Bennett, who voted against the resolution in parliament that there should be no discrimination against Western Canada in the matter of freight rates, is the same R. B. Bennett who represents the city of Calgary in the commons, but that does not mean that the people of Calgary, whom he is supposed to represent, believe that the discrimination is justifiable.

THE HAIR DRESSER

The hair dresser is an expensive expert who can't do a thing without the owner of a head of inherited hair needs $8 worth of dandruff extract or will be obliged to invest $22 in a dandruff switch. As a rule, she recommends the switch and guarantees that it will not be in the hair in a month or any other spot.

Half dressers are most generally frequented by women who are not able to do up their own hair or build the kitchen fire for tired husbands. Then there is a great difference in the texture and tractability of hair. Some people had curly hair handed to them in early youth, without doing anything to deserve it, while others have to strap their hair around the torrid legs of a curling iron a times a day in order to avoid looking like an Indian squaw.

It is the business of the hair dresser to take an assortment of natural hair which has gotten into the habit of climbing out of somebody's neck or sticking straight up in a defiant men and weave it into a close resemblance to an inverted clothes basket. This is accomplished by rolling the hair into a tight ball and then pulling the wind out as far as it will reach. Sometimes it does not reach far enough and has to be reinforced with other people's hair which is several tints out of tune with the landscape.

The ordinary hair seldom needs dressing oftener than twice a week, and if a hair dresser is sure of two regular customers a week she never called upon to pay her board in advance. Every once in a while some hair dresser will think up a new kind of coiffure which is a cross between the Psyche knot and the spool curl and sell it at a price which causes every husband in the community to wish that his wife was bald as a gnat.

Most women do their own hair dressing by curling up over a lavatory in the form of a chair and then pulling their hair in the back yard with a palm leaf fan. This is a laborious process, but is looked upon with pleasurable feelings by close-listed husbands.

DOGS AND CATS.

We always tax man's loving friend, the dog, that's faithful to the end and six months after, and if the dogtax left paid we'd have a new dog with a spade, 'midst hideous laughter; we put poor Fido in the pound or see that he is promptly dropped or else beheaded, the tax unpaid, the canine race is always a failure, fails that's that. And anger burns within our veins when thinking of the way the cats are always so sure of their claws, and anger burns within our veins, sneaking brutes, with midnight campfires in cahoots, and evil savored. They howl around at night and steal, and on your roostree squawk and squeal when you'd be sleeping; they always have a fondness for schemes to swipe the liver or the cream, and set you weeping. They do not guard your house by night, in which good boys wows take delight, or herd the chickens; they do not drive the cows away, or work the churn, or pull the sleigh, but raise the dinkens. They're of no use, they are alike in their methods. They are so much the same that they are monotonous. And why? Because they are it or it is them—that's why.

The same fakir stalks down through all history, appearing here and there, like the wandering Jew, but depend upon it never resting.

I have been thinking of that famous fakir of the Middle Ages—what's his name again? Oh, pah! I'll forget my own name next! You know who I mean, but it doesn't matter, anyway. He was a card. He was a smooth duck, too—sn't it funny I can't think of his name, and it was on the end of my tongue just now? Anyway, he made a fortune, but it did not do him any good. He humbugged—ah! I've got it—Paracelsus, with a t!

This fellow launched a thousand ships and loaded them with human hearts, and from the topless towers of Paracelsus watched them wrecked before they reached the open sea! Where has his ghost been these few hundred years? Did it visit another planet, or did it pick the lock of the local hell?

The fakir is back again with the same old gas, the same old nostrum, same old scheme, same old umbrella, same old plug of chewing, same old song and dance.

We dot an old thing. "Annie Laurie," "Sweet Alice," "Magpie Murph's Home," "Down Went McClinty," and the rest of the popular ones will again have their vogue. This old fakir with his cure-all pills is and comes into our homes and sits down at our cabinet organ and sings "Shall We Gather at the River?" and when we get through roaring the chorus he sells us five dollars' worth of pills and gets our old man to sign an acceptance of the same, just to show the boss that he is not throwing the goods away, and it hok up in the bank a few weeks later as a note of hand for a tidy bunch of cash.

The older I grow the more faith I have in my family doctor. He is up-to-date, and he knows his business. A few years ago I used to take pills by correspondence, same as how I learned to write.

It took the house surgeon, three nurses, and an orderly from the neighborhood of Waterloo, not to mention the interesting gent in the next cot who threatened to sue the hospital folks for some in'ards that had been separated from him, to cure me of the habit.

You bet your bottom dollar I don't swallow a pill till the good old doc looks it over, nowadays. As a rule he takes it away with him. I wonder what he does with them? THE KHAN.

RILEY UNWILLING TO OPPOSE HON. C. R. MITCHELL NOW

Issues Statement in Which He Claims He Could Win Seat But Says He Will Advise Members of Party Not to Hold Contest at This Time.

WILL CONSULT WITH LOCAL LEADERS TODAY

Says Lane Won the Seat by His Popularity and That a Cabinet Minister Could not Succeed as Local Men do Not Want Such Representative.

HAROLD W. RILEY issued a statement on Saturday to the effect that he personally was not in favor of opposing Hon. C. R. Mitchell in Bow Valley. He stated that the Conservatives could easily win the seat but was of the opinion that the party could do nothing by so doing except to drive Mr. Mitchell from public life. Mr. Riley stated that he would go to Bassano today and advise against contesting the seat at the present time.

Mr. Riley's statement was as follows: "Personally, I am not in favor of opposing Hon. C. R. Mitchell in the present contest in Bow Valley.

"My principal reason for arriving at this conclusion is the fact that we have recently had a general provincial election in the province during which the questions that constituted the issues in the campaign were very thoroughly discussed and placed before the people. As a result of the election the Liberal party has been returned to power for another term and the defeat of Mr. Mitchell in Bow Valley would not materially alter things so far as the standing of the parties in the legislature is concerned.

Says There is Dissatisfaction "Mr. Lane's retirement has caused much dissatisfaction in Bow Valley. Men of both political parties support Mr. Lane in the belief that his extensive knowledge of the ranching and farming community, he would make a better representative for them in the legislature than I would. It was also felt that on account of his extensive holdings in the constituency, he would constantly keep in close touch with what was going on. In fact the slogan throughout the campaign was 'Vote for George Lane, the big man who does his business and makes Bow Valley safe.' Apparently the 'biggest' thing Mr. Lane has been able to do is to resign his seat in favor of a defeated cabinet minister. It is a well known fact that a cabinet minister cannot give the same close attention to a riding that a private member can, as a private member only has his own constituency to look after, whereas a cabinet minister is required to give impartial consideration to the requirements of the entire province. This is fully realized by both the Liberals and Conservatives in Bow Valley today and for that reason I am confident it would not be a difficult task to defeat Mr. Mitchell.

Goes East Today "However, as I have stated, no particular good would be accomplished by opposing this, except to probably drive Mr. Mitchell from public life and, as far as I am personally concerned, I do not wish to do this. I will advise my friends in the constituency when I go east, and will intend to do so on Monday. The ultimate decision, however, as to whether there will be a contest or not, will rest with the Conservatives of the riding and, I believe, will be a contest, whether or not there will be a contest."

MARCONI OPERATORS AT COAST ARE ON STRIKE

A statement is issued by Harry Fry, district chairman of the Commercial Telegraphers' union of America, stating that the operators at the coast to take positions for the Wireless company here. He says that the strike is in progress in the coast waters. Strikebreakers are being employed from all parts of the coast. The statement says, and is intended to answer the advertisement in the papers to keep clear of the same.

Another Elevator for Grassy Lake "Grassy Lake, June 1.—Construction of a string of elevators to supply the new flour mill of the Grassy Lake company at Medicine Hat started at Grassy Lake on Wednesday and the foundations for a full 30,000 of material are down and seven cars may be completed in three weeks. The contractors and the elevator here, although the first, is only one of many to be built by the firm for the district.

Paper Cannon. To the amazingly long list of articles made by paper there may be added the paper cannon, which have been manufactured by the Krupp works in Germany. These paper field pieces are of special use of the infantry. Their calibre is little less than two inches and the pieces are so light that a soldier can easily carry one. But the real reason for their use is that they are made of steel of the same calibre. It is to be understood that these paper cannons are in any way replaceable by the movement of field artillery would be impracticable. Paper is an extraordinary thing, but it is hard to believe that more than paper wheels, for they were first introduced, or that matter, than paper water pipes.

MEXICO MISREPRESENTED, SAYS MR. DE LA BARRA

SENOR DON FRANCISCO DE LA BARRA

Senor Don Francisco de la Barra, Mexican Minister of Foreign Affairs, has published a statement to the effect that American newspapers have published statements concerning conditions in Mexico which are erroneous and that he expected to draw attention to facts in connection with the situation which are not known and which will greatly change certain opinions on certain subjects. In connection with this he says: "The false impressions prevailing abroad, even in the popular view of the Mexican people, unjustly wound a nation which merits better treatment because of its very misfortunes. 'The fact that the greater part of Mexican territory is unacquainted with the convulsions of war is not considered abroad. It is believed abroad that the Zapatista hordes dominate the entire country and that the insurrection is general. No one consults the statistics of production in Mexico. Few recognize the solidity of the business element, which for two and one-half years has successfully resisted all common-

THE MONEY SCARCITY HAS HELPED CASH SYSTEM

People in West Beginning to Like Change From Extravagance

(By Norman Lambert)

The present monetary stringency has succeeded in doing at least one good thing already in the west. It has begun to make the "cash" method of doing business popular. Since the beginning of the present year the wholesale houses have been insisting upon shorter terms in their dealings with the retail customer throughout the country, with the result that the storekeeper in turn has been insisting upon cash settlements in his business with the farmer and the townspeople. Credit, which has never been the incentive to extravagant living, has been curtailed on all sides, and the people are beginning to like it. Several wholesale men who have been interviewed here within the last few days by your correspondent said that retail dealers have actually been coming to them with the statement that their businesses had never been conducted so satisfactorily as since erecting in their stores the "no credit" sign.

From this city one receives an unusually comprehensive view of conditions as they exist in a wide district which possibly more than any other part of the West might be expected to be suffering from the present scarcity of money. Over fourteen hundred commercial travellers make their headquarters in this city and go forth each week or fortnight to supply the large territory which is tributary to Calgary. The stories which these men tell, particularly regarding the staple line of business, such as dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes, and hardware, agree in the assertion that whether or not there is more money in the country, money has most certainly been moving more freely during the past two weeks of period since January. It is also generally conceded that this improved tone to the commercial atmosphere is largely due to, and is the natural result of, the strict terms on which business has been conducted since the beginning of the year.

Sixty Per Cent. of Paper Met

Roughly speaking, the Calgary district extends as far north as Red Deer at which point it runs into the territory supplied from Edmonton, south to the border line, west through the Crow's Nest Pass as far as Cranbrook, and on the main line right through as far as the coast, and east to the boundary of Saskatchewan. Some of the wholesale houses here have even a wider field than that which has been outlined. For instance, one branch of a large Eastern dry goods company reaches into all parts of Saskatchewan as well as into British Columbia. Besides the wholesale firms there are the banks, which are in touch with all this wide district indirectly through the accounts of such large customers as these same wholesale houses. On the fifth of this month spring settlements were supposed to have been made. The percentage of outstanding paper which was met through the banks in Calgary on Monday, May 5, averaged about sixty. This means that a large number of accounts that should have been settled last November as well as those which fell due for the first time on May 5. A large proportion of spring settlements in the West are always renewals, so it is quite clear that much is depending upon the outcome of the following summer and autumn months.

Machine Agent Not So Well Off

The dealers in the staple lines of goods, as was mentioned above, are faring better than those business houses which have to depend directly and almost altogether upon one class of consumer. For instance, the grocery house has its customers in the city as well as in the country, but the dealer in farm implements is wholly dependent upon the farmer. And in Alberta, today, conservative estimates show that there is $20,000,000 owing for farm implements. The machine agent next to the real estate agent is possibly feeling the lack of monetary supplies more keenly than anyone else. The farmer in Southern Alberta is not in good condition financially. He has been the grain grower of the province, and in the past three years has naturally incurred the expenses of his labor. That is why one will find the farmer around Lethbridge, at this time endeavoring so eagerly to get into the hog business. But may just happen this year that the grain grower of Southern Alberta will get a good season, and make a killing in wheat, because the land between here and Macleod cannot be beaten anywhere. If he does, no one will be any happier than the dealer in farm implements.

Farmers' Outlook Fine

The outlook for the farmer in the south, where most of the wheat of the province is grown, is splendid at the present moment. All the seedling has been planted ten days ago, and under ideal conditions. A wholesale dealer in automobiles and trip through the south country, and that he had found the farmers rejoicing over the favorable opening of the present crop season. "We have never seen a better spring for the farmer," said he, "and," he continued, "anyone like myself, who is carrying nearly half a million dollars' worth of farm implements, that is great encouragement."

The same gentleman, speaking about the automobile business, said naturally about the feeling of depression effects of a monetary stringency have not delivered as many cars as I had at this time a year ago, as I have sold more." Meaning of, that paper that is great encouragement.

No Trouble in Settlements

Mr. Pat Burns, who besides providing meat for stores and restaurants throughout this province, has due to the curtailed capacity of his plant in Calgary since the fire of last January, been sending fifty and sixty cars of livestock to Vancouver, every week, says that he has been insisting upon prompt weekly and monthly settlements, and has been experiencing no serious difficulty in making collections. The representative of a farm implement company said that his collections were less than a year ago, and that he was acting very carefully in the matter of giving credit this year, or in other words, in seeking additional business.

Bright Prospects in Calgary

So far as the city of Calgary itself is concerned, the commercial outlook is of the brightest. The Canadian Northern railway, and the Grand Trunk Pacific are both within the city, and the joint gangs of workmen, and the authorities of these two companies hope to be operating out of the city within four months. These two lines will bring close to Calgary much territory which has hitherto been tributary to Edmonton and Saskatoon. Several new business institutions, such as the Hudson's Bay company, the finest Canadian store, the new C. P. R. hotel, and two large factories, are being erected here, and according to the estimate of Mr. Trebilcock of this city, will mean the return to the city of at least thirty thousand people to Calgary's population.

Woolford is Coming to Front for Hog Raising

Omaha Smith, who came into Calgary yesterday, stated that the first lot of hogs ever shipped from Woolford was sent out from the Owen-Eden farm in the month of May. Woolford is on a spur built formerly by the A. R. & L. railway for the purpose of hauling supplies for the workers on the irrigation ditch in the Raymond and Magrath territory. Woolford now has an elevator, lumber yard, post office and store, and from the large amount of grain grown in the vicinity and the big raise of hogs and sheep which have been recently brought in, it promises to be one of the best shipping stations in the southern parts of the province. The district is regarded as one of the surest winter wheat places in the whole of the west and the present crop gives signs of promise which have never been experienced about that vicinity. The Owen-Eden has raised over 300 pigs from 30 sows which makes a pretty good record for breeding.

Owing to a misunderstanding between the present mayor of the city and his council regarding the flotation of three million dollars' worth of treasury notes, money has not been forthcoming for public improvements as early as it should have been; but inside of the next two weeks the much needed work on the city's streets and its waterworks system will have begun. This will give employment to a large body of men whose wages will be a considerable item in the various accounts of the community.

Funds Withheld From Investments

Building permits and bank clearings are considerably less at the present time than they were at the corresponding time last year, showing how closely funds are being withheld from the investment markets. Real estate is inactive, that is vacant property, in which so much dealing has been done heretofore, but prices do not seem to be much affected. Not long ago a hundred feet of property at the corner of Eighth Avenue and Centre Street, the site of the old Hudson's Bay company's store and considered to be the most valuable frontage in the city, was purchased by one of the banks for $400,000, not by any means a weak-looking figure for a city of seventy-five thousand people.

CHARLES CUTHBERTSON FOUND DROWNED IN BOW

The body of Charles Cuthbertson, a young man about 24 years of age, was taken from the Bow River near Gleichen on Saturday, May 24. The drowned man had been in the river for some time, and must have come to his end some weeks previously. So far no trace has been found of any relatives, and the Mounted Police at Calgary would gladly hear from any friends of the man. He was in Calgary about April 14, and then said he was going south to work. He had in one of his pockets when found in the river a postal note from Conquest, Sask. He also had a prescription from Dr. Campbell, which was given during April. Any one knowing about the man is requested to communicate with the officers of the mounted police at the barracks in Calgary.

IRISH CANUCKS LEAD IN BIG FOUR RACE

Defeated Torontos Saturday 10 to 5; Kennedy's Aggregation Still Unbeaten

Montreal, June 1.—Irish Canadians took the leadership of the Big Four in lacrosse Saturday afternoon by defeating Toronto at the Mascoets grounds by a score of 10 to 5.

The Irish Canadians, with a clever aggregation of ex-Montreal, ex-Bhamrock and ex-Cornwall players, proved too aggressive and skillful for the Toronto 12, although the visitors presented a strong line-up.

The local aggregation had much the same team as represented the Irish Canadians last year, but Fred Scott and Roberts were missing from the home team.

CARPENTIER KNOCKS OUT BOMB WELLS IN FOURTH

French Middle Weight Delivers Sleep Producer After Almost Being Out Himself

Ghent, Belgium, June 1.—Georges Carpentier, the French middle-weight pugilist, today won the heavyweight championship of Europe by knocking out Bomber Wells, the British champion, in the fourth round.

Carpentier himself took the count of nine in the first round and was again sent to the floor in the second.

In the third round the Frenchman discovered the Bomber's weak stomach and, showing blows in the mid-section, crumpled up the Englishman. He ended the fight with a right hand punch to the solar plexus just before the end of the fourth.

Carpentier rushed but was met with a hard left to the face. The Englishman followed quickly with a short arm right to the head, sending the Frenchman down for the count of nine. Carpentier came up bleeding profusely.

Round 2.—Wells soon had the Frenchman to the ropes again, seemingly landing where he pleased. The left hook floored Carpentier. The Frenchman was groggy throughout the remainder of the round, but as Wells failed to push his advantage the Frenchman was able to stall.

Round 3.—Carpentier closed with his adversary at the sound of the gong and showed to advantage in the fighting. Wells was soon in distress from a shower of blows to the stomach, and the Frenchman sent him reeling with a hard swing to the jaw.

Round 4.—Carpentier came up the floor. He discovered the Englishman's weak spot and continued boring it. He missed a right swing, as a result of which both fighters slipped on the floor. They were up immediately and Carpentier landed a left to the body, followed this with a terrific right to the solar plexus, which floored Wells for the count.

The bout was scheduled for 20 rounds. Carpentier is a middleweight, who only recently was heavyweight champion of Europe, and previous to that, welterweight champion. The Englishman had a considerable advantage in weight and height.

CALGARY, MOOSE JAW AND MEDICINE HAT INSIDE

Of the Twelve Men Limit Imposed by President Gray; Some Clipping Necessary

Edmonton, May 31.—"Cut your teams down to twelve men, including yourself," was the rush order sent by President P. M. Gray of the Western Canada league to Messrs. Hurley, Hulien and Wiseman, managers respectively of Saskatoon, Regina and Edmonton clubs. This means that from now on the Western Canada league clubs will be held strictly to the league limit of twelve players, inclusive of the manager. Several clubs were already within the limit.

Secretary Horner sent out letters to the league magnates, which will please them better than Mr. Gray's order cut down their squads. Enclosed in Mr. Horner's epistles were cheques for $523, each club's share of the Victoria Day pool. Last year the clubs drew down a trifle more than this, but the receipts were hurt this season owing to the fact that owing to unfavorable weather only one game was played at Regina. The evening game in Calgary was also a poor money maker, only 400 fans turning out.

THE BROKEN ROSE

A few more letters in England today have had a more picturesque and checked career than Alfred Edward Woodley Mason, member of parliament, Oxford, Mr. Mason is the author of "The Witness for the Defense" in which Blanche Bate is the heroine. Sherman Grant for 3 days commencing Monday June 2.

THE BROKEN ROSE

After leaving Oxford where he was the highest honors, he exposed the stage as a vocation. Like Pirero who also became an actor, he found that his future lay in the field of authorship. Probably his apprenticeship behind the footlights, as in the case of Pirero, was invaluable to him in a technical sense of construction and stage technique, that is more easily grasped by one who has faced an audience as a player, than by an author whose knowledge of the stage is limited to the front of the house.

THE BROKEN ROSE

Stella Ballantyne ought to be the very character for Blanche Bate and she has never been more magnetic than in this part which is of magnetic compact. The crucial scenes are electric with passion and will doubtless reveal new phases of Miss Bate's emotional strength.

THE BROKEN ROSE

Kamsack, Sask., May 31.—At voting on local improvement laws and today, waterworks ($82,000), sewage ($1,500), and electric light ($22,000), were carried by large majorities, but the park bylaw ($7,000) was defeated as two thirds of the vote cast was in favor.

THE BROKEN ROSE

After twelve American players in the American tour, Mr. Towle is in charge of its de-humoring fifty and on October 1st, he is going as far south as Stratford-on-Avon. The scenery is magnificent and the board of government is magnificent. Mr. Towle is in charge of its de-humoring fifty and on October 1st, he is going as far south as Stratford-on-Avon.

FRENCH M. P. ANGRY ABOUT ALPHONSO XIII.

Paris, June 1.—King Alfonso XIII's visit to France has provoked from Deputy Emmanuel Brousse, reporter of the general commission of accounts, a strong protest against the reckless waste of public money which always attends these events here. The preceding visit of the King of Spain, in 1905, cost the nation no less than $15,000,000. M. Brousse cites the remark of the former reporter of the budget that "to spend royally seems to be the great aim of some of the republic's administrations." The chief blame for the present extravagance he lays at the doors of the ministry of foreign affairs, and he states as a characteristic fact that one of its attaches sent to attend the funeral of King Oscar of Sweden found it necessary to distribute $200 in tips among the coachmen. The fact of the matter is, he says, that the central administration takes advantage of every royal visit to renew its furniture, make expensive repairs and enlarge the buildings out of extra credits granted. Thus, when the sovereigns of Denmark and Norway arrived in Paris their visit was made the pretext for spending $2,000 on plumbing, $20,000 for new furniture, $4,700 for paintings, $1,031 for fitting new locks, and $7,970 for heating and lighting, although it was June, while the architect's fees alone amounted to $2184. Moreover, $57,738 was spent by the administration on the pretext of furnishing the royal apartments. Hints at Graft. He thinks it is certain that more than two-thirds of the amounts voted by parliament for the expenses of royal visits disappear in ways that have nothing to do with the reception of the sovereigns. These figures, he says, give one the impression that the Elysee Palace and the Foreign Office are bare all the year round, and have to be furnished every time a foreign ruler stops at the Quai d'Orsay. He adds that these visits are awaited with feverish impatience, not only among the underlings, who know they are about to receive princely pourboires for nothing whatever, but also among accredited trades people, who will be able to send in exorbitant bills without the slightest fear that these will be checked or disputed in any way. M. Brousse quotes as normal examples coachmen, who receive $3 each daily as a tip; several guardians of the Louvre, who got $10 each for merely unhooking a picture, and chauffeurs, who are in the habit of getting daily a gratuity of $20, while the shower of the French taxpayers' gold lasts. Economical Hospitality. "All this," he concludes, "could be changed if the Foreign Office would understand that genuine hospitality does not exclude economy, and that honor to guests, marked by good taste, is far preferable to easy extravagance, which is the sign of parsimony. Very artistic menus could be found at a cost of less than $5 apiece. It is not indispensable to buy 6,000 serviettes to entertain a dozen persons. Vehicles can be provided in some other way than by spending $2,600 for repairs on old carriages forgotten for fourteen years by ambassadors who have gone abroad." M. Brousse's article is stirring up considerable feeling among a large part of the public, and it is possible that questions will be asked in parliament on the subject of the amounts paid out during the King of Spain's recent visit.

FEATURES GOOD AND BAD IN THE CITY PLAN OF CALGARY

Mawson Lectures on Some of the Possibilities for Making Calgary the Most Beautiful City of the West; Take Opportunities as They Come.

RUGGED BLUFFS ROUND CITY SHOULD BE SEIZED

Great Chance is Given in Hills That Encircle the City; Wider Streets and Some Running Crosswise Needed; District Rich in Trees and Shrubs.

Calgary may yet become the most beautiful city of Western Canada. So said Mr. Thomas Mawson in his lecture at the Public Library on Saturday evening. Without foreboding any general or particular scheme which would be followed in his proposals for the planning of Calgary, the lecturer gave many instances of ways in which the City Beautiful might be made, while at the same time setting forth in concrete instances the various rules which guide the landscape artist in his work.

Some of the principles set forth by Mr. Mawson were the construction of diagonal roadways instead of the regular rectangular scheme, the conservation of the Canadian Pacific Hotel as a boulevard provided by nature, the provision of more ample sites for public buildings of the city, more playgrounds and beauty spots in the heart of the city, the building of a lake for boulevards and the removal of the many advertising and other ugly exposures which give to the newcomer the impression of a city, and the placing of electric, telephone and telegraph, and power wires underground as far as possible in the heart of the city.

Amphitheatre of Hills.

Mr. Mawson stated that Calgary gave a great opportunity for city planning, the city lying in a perfect amphitheatre by hills on every side. These hills should be kept, he felt, for the great boulevards encircling the city. In the centre of the city with a rectangular plan of roadways and a sparse amount of room given to the building were built together in a way that was hardly pleasant to the eye. The fine building of the Canadian Pacific Hotel could not be seen to any advantage while the Knox church was a fine building without a site. The architect had realized this for he had put nearly all the work on the over which alone practically could be seen at any distance.

Mr. Mawson announced that a contour plan of the city now being prepared by him would be published in a short time and all future improvements would be made in accordance with the contour plan. The city planning committee for Calgary, he declared, was not, as many people imagined, an extravagant scheme which could not be feasibly attempted at any time. It was rather taking every opportunity that presented itself of making an improvement. As an instance he gave the putting back of new buildings when the widening of the street was thought desirable.

Beautiful Rugged Bluffs

Those parts of the city which were used for building purposes were laid out to the very best advantage. The fertile swamp and the rugged bluffs and these could be treed and most used for artistic development. If every endeavor were not made to take over those bluffs and use them to the very best advantage the very greatest mistake would be made by the city.

As to trees and shrubs Calgary had its own indigenous products. Why go to Holland for rhododendrons and other shrubs which could live here but a few months, when there was a native shrub of far greater value and lastingness? By advancing little by little, taking every chance as it offered, great things might be done to make Calgary very beautiful indeed. Far more than by starting out with a great and seemingly impossible scheme.

The lecture was followed with great interest by the large number present and at the close the national anthem was sung.

Tokio, June 1.—Empress Yoshihito is better, but the Empress Sadako has fallen ill from a cold contracted during her long vigil at her husband's side. Her illness is not critical, but she is confined to her apartments, and the advice of the physicians will not attend tomorrow's meeting of the Red Cross society of Japan.
