DEPOSIT NOT LET PUT UP RE GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC

But It is Said That an Excellent
Understanding With the Government Exists.

A rumor gained currency yesterday that the Grand Trunk Pacific had not yet deposited the necessary $5,000,000 to bind the bargain with the Dominion government, and that failure to do so would void the whole project and necessitate another session of parliament if it was to be revived. The Director of the Grand Trunk Pacific, Mr. Wood, said that the $5,000,000 deposit has not yet been put up.

Mr. Wood said that, technically, the time allowed the Grand Trunk Pacific for putting up the $5,000,000 necessary to bind the bargain with the Dominion government, and that failure to do so would void the whole project and necessitate another session of parliament if it was to be revived. The Director of the Grand Trunk Pacific, Mr. Wood, said that the $5,000,000 deposit has not yet been put up.

ON DECEMBER FIRST.

Delegation From Ontario Towns to Meet Sir Thomas Shaughnessy.

Bowmanville, Nov. 26.—(Special.)—The various towns on the main line of the G.T.R. from Toronto to Campbellford have appointed delegates to meet Sir Thomas Shaughnessy regarding a proposition to have the C.P.R. build a line that will compete with the G.T.R. for the trade of the said towns. The delegates will meet Sir Thomas at the Windsor Hotel, Montreal, on Tuesday, December 1st.

MUST NOT MISTREAT.

Bavarian Chamber of Representatives After Cruel Army Officers.

Munich, Nov. 26.—The Bavarian Chamber of Representatives has unanimously voted a resolution requiring the dismissal from the service of all officers or non-commissioned officers found guilty of mistreating soldiers, and the War Minister, Gen. Baron von Aech, has approved the resolution, declaring that the Bavarian army authorities are already conforming with the spirit of the resolution.

ONE FIRE DRILL GAVED THREE HUNDRED CHILDREN

London Head Master's Forethought
Averted a Disaster in a Great
East End School.

London, Nov. 26.—Some lessons were taught yesterday by a fire which completely destroyed a large public school in the East Ham district of East London, but in which not one out of nearly two thousand children received the slightest injury.

The rules drawn up by the English Education Department makes little or no provision for dealing with fire beyond the ordinary drill through which every child must pass. Notwithstanding the defect the headmaster at East Ham, Mr. Richardson, devised a method by which in case of accident the whole building could be emptied in a few minutes.

Greatest Force of Future Politics the College Man

Political Life One of Highest Vocations For Aspiring Genus.

Hon. G. W. Ross addressed a gathering of over 200 students on "The College Man in Political Life," in the Varsity Y.M.C.A. yesterday afternoon. In the course of his remarks he said that it was very necessary to consider the college man in politics, because in the first place it left to himself the college man will not consider it at all, because he does not think politics a safe life work; and in the second place because the men who are in politics need to be trained in the highest type of education.

Large Order Placed with German
Firm Cancelled and Given to English Firm.

RESULT OF PREFERENCE GIVEN BY NEW ZEALAND

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)
London, Nov. 27.—Austen Chamberlain, addressing a mass meeting at Cambridge, Guildhall, yesterday, said the policy of the government was to secure liberty to negotiate freely and back the words with deeds if necessary. Before leaving London he warned that a large order placed with a German firm had, owing to the New Zealand preference, been cancelled and given to an English firm instead.

A CHURCHILL PARTY.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)
London, Nov. 27.—Winston Churchill, M.P., was boycotted again last night from a Conservative meeting at which he was announced to speak. The meeting was promoted by a group of Conservatives to promote a new organization.

WORKS CLOSED DOWN.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)
London, Nov. 27.—The Monmouthshire Steel and Tinplate works, at Cardiff, employing 600 hands, has been closed down on account of German and American dumped steel. The works had been producing 1,400 tons of steel a week, but has been closed since the effect of the foreign bounty system.

POSTER AS A PROPHECY.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)
London, Nov. 27.—Hon. Mr. Foster, replying to the toast, "Our Guests," at the American Thanksgiving banquet at the Cecil Hotel last night, said that even after the Alaska award Canada's square miles overtopped the Republic of the United States. He said that three Americans and an empire should decide the proper name of the Republic. The American eagle was decorated with pleasure at the award. As the centuries rolled by there would be one great power north of the 38th parallel of latitude strong in support of great social ideas. Canadians and Americans were thankful for what they were an offset of the great empire.

WANTS DECISION SOON.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)
London, Nov. 27.—Mr. Ritchie, speaking at Croydon yesterday, said that the agitation among the iron and steel trade, and he wanted the decision as soon as possible.

Frank Arnold in Dunt Role.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 26.—The grand trustees of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen today elected W. S. Carter of Indianapolis, Ind., as president of the "Fireman's Magazine," secretary, treasurer of the order to succeed Frank Arnold, who has resigned his office. George W. Goding of Chicago has been elected editor of the magazine to succeed Carter. He is a member of the grand trustees, and his acceptance has been asked by wire as he was not present.

EMERALD IN SAFE.

The schooner Emerald, over whose nonarrival in port with coal for the Toronto Electric Light Company some anxiety was aroused, is reported as laying safe and sound and far from Oswego, detained by drifting west winds. The captain, McMaster, and his son had left Toronto, and there are five more men in the crew.

WOUNDS HEALED OVER—THE AXE PENET- RATED THE BRAIN THREE TIMES.

Strathroy, Nov. 26.—Dr. Berdan, the physician in charge of Patrick Upton, who received the frightful injuries at the hands of James McCarvey nearly three weeks ago, is of the opinion that Upton will probably recover. He and others who had been called in consultation, have been amazed at the vitality of the patient, who, so the story set, was not believed to have one chance in a thousand of recovery. Upton has shown marked improvement within the past few days. The wounds have about healed over, notwithstanding the damage to the brain. Upton has maintained the fight for life for 19 days, many times being very low, but always having enough reserve force to rally. His case is one which will doubtless find a place among the medical records of the country.

WHIRLED ROUND SHAFT.

Goderich, Nov. 26.—John Tutt met instant death this morning by coming in contact with a coupling on a piece of shafting at the mill of the Lake Huron & Manitowish Milling Company. Mr. Tutt had about a place where the work was at work at the time on a large pile of grain, abutting the grain back. Part of his clothing was torn off and the unfortunate man thrown over the shafting. He leaves a widow and two stepchildren.

FAMOUS EXHIBIT IN THE EQUALLY FAMOUS "MARTIN BABY CASE" IS IN THIS CITY.

"Tiddley" is a baby. She got her name from the children of the neighborhood. She said she guarded something that looked like this. But for this accident she would have no name. The law says so. In fact the record casts doubt on Tiddley's existence. Lawyers sought to lift the veil of obscurity, but a wise judge remained in doubt. So Tiddley lives in contempt of court. With her flaxen curls and big brown eyes the cherub continues to cause trouble for police and lawyers and judges. Here is the house of trouble. Disowned by father, deserted by mother, Tiddley's cunning is

These are the elements that enter into the affair commonly known as the "Martin Baby case," recently injected into this country's history. The scandal in New York. While the fortune that is supposed to be the stake for which the name is used, is of no disputing the strangeness of the plot which seems to focus attention on the pitiful little Tiddley. Two years ago the preliminaries of the story now being unfolded in Toronto filed the New York papers. A new phase of the case developed when Mrs. Dewsbury of 58 Terrence street, made known for "keeping a baby farm," because she furnished the homeless Tiddley with a home.

PETERBORO MAN HEARD

Expresses His Opinion Regarding a Political Policy of Spying. Hampden Burnham, referring to a speech he made at a recent banquet, writes the following letter to a Peterboro paper...

"After making the time-honored remark that Canada had no secret of political institutions, I explicitly stated that I had nothing whatever to do with the personal merits or demerits of Mr. Stratton on that occasion, as I intended to speak by my text. Accordingly, I took the opportunity of remarking that a policy of spying, informing and affidavit mongering had become apparently a present day political institution, and the modern representation of the plan adopted by Owen, suggested and the host of their imitators, who had sent many of my friends down to a cruel and ignominious death..."

LEATHER GOODS OR UMBRELLAS

FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS. Our goods have the charm of novelty. They are not seen and handled and priced to suit the people in town for weeks previous to Christmas, and prices are accordingly low for some values.

LOVEMAKING AS A BUSINESS.

Whitwell Used Gentle Passion for Raising Money While in Jail. Napanea, Nov. 26.—(Special).—While Albert H. Whitwell was languishing in the jail here, awaiting trial for defrauding Miss Allison of some $800, he kept himself employed writing letters to other ladies. It is supposed, however, that he is only succeeded in working upon the sympathies of one woman, and that only to the extent of $8.

FOUR FIREMEN BURNED TO DEATH

Taken With Falling Floors and Bodies Not Recovered. Omaha, Neb., Nov. 25.—Four firemen burned to death and property loss amounting to $200,000 is the result of a fire in the wholesale grocery house of Allan Brooks, in addition to the big fire-storey building occupied by the Allan Brothers, that occupied by the Pacific Storage Company adjoining the same.

OTTAWA PERSONALS

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier left this morning for Quebec. Sir Frederick Jordan left this evening for New York, en route for England.

LOCAL BREWTHES

J. F. Bond & Co., Smith's Falls, are being sued for $208 by the Ontario Land and Wire Company.

ARE RICH NOVELISTS.

Austin, Texas, Nov. 26.—James Alan, in the novel, will be able to clear up a profit of $1,500,000 on an lease value of a few hundred dollars, which he made some time ago in land found to be situated in the heart of the oil district at Houston, Texas, Eastern Texas. He owns 250 acres close to the famous oil gusher that was "brought in" here a few weeks ago. His land is valued at $5000 per acre, and the strike it was worth less than $50 per acre.

UNDER THE MANTLE.
