Grim Tragedy On Yacht; 11 Bodies Afloat In Cabin

Noted Russians on Stranded Vessel, No Living Soul on Board; Large Sum in Rubles and Gold and Jewels.

Bucharest, April 17.—The discovery on the yacht Ostara, stranded at Sulina, on one of the mouths of the Danube, of the dead bodies of eleven noted Russian men and women, each shot through the head, and not a living soul on board, has presented to the Roumanian authorities one of the most mysterious tragedies of Bolshevism in the Black Sea.

The bodies have been identified as those of members of the noted Russian families of Falsfein and Skadowski.

The discovery was made by soldiers who found the cabin half filled with water and the eleven bodies floating around. On board the yacht were 14,000,000 rubles, in gold and paper and jewels. The elder Falsfein still grasped a pistol in his hand when his body was found, and whether the party committed suicide or was murdered is a question that remains unanswered.

"But what about parental rights?" queried the reporter. "Hiram," he said, "has a right to make a beggar or thief out of a boy or girl—or let it be done if they kin stop it. POSTAGE RATES ON NEWSPAPERS

Publishers at Ottawa to Protest Against Heavy Increase to Cost of Business.

(Special to The Times.) Ottawa, April 17.—Newspaper publishers now in Ottawa to protest to the postmaster-general against the reported government intention to increase the postage rates on newspapers, find that the subject has been receiving a great deal of attention. It is understood that a draft bill has been prepared for submission to parliament and that, if it passes, another heavy increase to publishing rates already made sufficiently onerous by the high price of newsprint, may go into effect.

The government's case is briefly that last year it carried 87,501,400 pounds of newspapers for a total revenue of $281,104, whereas it cost $2,000,000 to carry them over the railroads and $5,000,000 to transfer, cart and distribute them, of which $2,000,000 in all the railways want the carrying charges doubled, which would add another $2,000,000 to the cost of handling Canadian newspapers, or $9,000,000 for the coming year, the government claims.

On the other hand, it is pointed out that newspapers are a public utility, and that a great increase would saddle such some of them, and immensely increase to the public the cost of getting its news. It is also stated that the government had a revenue of $21,602,712.65 last year, and total expenditures of $18,775,888.98, leaving a surplus of $2,826,823.67.

The department represents, however, that $2,000,000 of this should not be represented as revenue of the department as it results from the sale of war stamps and the extra cent on letters. They say it belongs to the finance department. It is urged that to increase the cost of letters to three cents and to drop the extra cent for war purposes would make a difference to the public, and leave the revenue the same.

It is stated that in the contemplated legislation incorporated companies will be required hereafter to furnish the department with names of editors and managers and shareholders.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF 1917

Ottawa Man Said to Have Found or Stolen Signed Blank Check, Filled It in and Cashed It.

(Canadian Press.) Ottawa, April 17.—Hector Lacroque was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of having stolen $8,000 from Geo. F. Bergeron in 1917 by means of a check.

Mr. Bergeron is an old country Frenchman and was employed here in the agricultural department. Just prior to the outbreak of the war he had gone to France to visit his relatives, and while there he had an account with the Rine Bank and in order to ensure his being able to get funds if he needed some, he sent a friend here two blank checks. One was lost in some way, and the police say that Lacroque either found or stole it, filled it in for $800 and had it cashed at the bank.

STRIKERS RETURN TO WORK

Headquarters in Chicago Reports End of Idle Time With Statement That Objective Has Been Obtained.

Speedy Termination of Tie-up of Railroads

The Philadelphia settlement was effected on the basis of a promise from Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio officials that returning strikers would be permitted to retain their seniority ranking and would be free from all discrimination because of their having gone out.

Strikers at Baltimore, another eastern stronghold, also were returning this morning, having voted last night to end their strike.

In the New York district railroad officials declared the men were returning rapidly and reports from all sections of the country also indicated that the swing back to work was fast gaining momentum. This was reflected both in the increased amount of traffic handled by the lines and the loss of enthusiasm for the strike apparent in the attitude of many of the strikers.

The men will be paid, it was reported at headquarters of the Chicago Yardmen's Association, the "outlaw" union.

A mass meeting of the strikers, at which they will be advised to return to work is to be held this afternoon. The men will be told, it was reported, that their wages demand would receive the prompt attention of the new railway labor board, and that the new union would continue to work or without the sanction of the railroads.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

MONTREAL LIKED IT—HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY

Big All-English Show, "Little Red Riding Hood," a Monstrous Success—Ticket Sale Opens Monday.

Canadian interest in things theatrical is now centred upon P. Sturges-Whyte's spectacular extravaganza, which surpasses in merit and magnitude the preceding pantomimes staged under the same auspices. Many thousands of the theatre-goers who have already seen "Little Red Riding Hood" are enthusiastic in their praise of the wonderful spectacle which Mr. Whyte has prepared for the present season. In Montreal this week's business is capacity. "Little Red Riding Hood" is a feast for both eye and ear. It is a series of beautiful stage pictures, glowing in rich colors and with lighting effects skillfully used in bringing out the beauty of the settings. No more charming investitures have been seen in any production than are offered by this attraction.

The story of Red Riding Hood is developed along the usual pantomime lines. There are all the characters of nursery days, Mother Hubbard, Little Bo Peep, Boy Blue, Old King Cole and all the other celebrities of the story books, cleverly worked into an extravaganza that is full of melody and mirth. Variety is a feature of the performance. There are songs, dances, specialties in rapid succession and beautiful settings, and with costumes that are the last word in richness and charm. Lavish as was "Hobson Crusoe," and "Cinderella," under Mr. Whyte's direction, the present production far outshines these three successes.

Mr. Whyte has given "Little Red Riding Hood" a splendid cast of British artists. Miss Zara Clinton, charming as ever, is again the principal boy and she makes "Boy Blue" an outstanding feature of the production, both by her singing and her histrionic ability. A new comedian is Johnny Osborne, late of London and the Folies Bergere, Paris, who invests the part of "Mother Hubbard" with a rich vein of humor and who is sure to be a pronounced favorite.

The favorite, J. V. Barrett-Lennard, (the grotesque Baron in "Cinderella" last year), long an able assistant of Mr. Whyte's, is "Old King Cole" and is as amusing in this part as in the others in which he has been seen here. The old members of Mr. Whyte's earlier productions, who have been absent during the past few years, are in this year's cast, in Miss Harriet Down and Charles Carle, who are respectively Jack and Jill, and who will be heartily welcomed back. Miss Madge Locke as "Bo-Peep" sings with her old time charm at does Ian Hunter, while Will Hallett, who comes to Canada from Drury Lane to play the part of "Old Trudy," gives a fine performance. A special mention is merited by eleven year old Dorothy Kay, who is excellent in the role of boy and who sings and dances cleverly as well.

DETROIT WOMEN PUT BAN UPON POTATO PRICE

Detroit, Mich., April 17.—A two weeks' boycott on potatoes has been declared by the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs and Detroit Stewards' Club in a drastic effort to restore lower prices. The same means are to be employed by which the housewives of Chicago hammered down the price of eggs.

Mrs. Frederick G. Ray, president of the Federation, has addressed an appeal to the presidents of the ninety-five women's organizations connected with the federation asking them in turn to request their members to refrain for two weeks from eating potatoes.

Slides are to be shown in all large motion picture theatres and neighborhood houses urging people individually to cut out their bills of fare.

"Resolved"—At present the market price of potatoes is extremely inflated and unreasonable. Therefore, omit potatoes and help beat the market," is the way the women's resolution reads. This much was decided at a meeting of representatives of the Federation and the Stewards' Club. A fair price for potatoes was said to be seventy-five cents a peck.

W. C. T. U. PARLOR MEETING.
The W. C. T. U. at a largely attended and most helpful parlor meeting at the home of Mrs. R. I. Davis in Queen street, enjoyed an excellent program prepared by Mrs. Seymour, evangelist superintendent, and Mrs. David Hipwell, provincial superintendent of parlor meetings. Following the opening devotion, Miss Ester Logan gave an appropriate reading entitled "What to Drink," and as of joint solos were sung by Miss Stella Barle and Miss Edna D. Brown and appropriate readings were given by Mrs. J. J. Gilles, Mrs. W. H. Humphrey, Miss P. D. Brown and Mrs. R. D. Christie. Miss Stella Fox was at the piano.

THE KITCHEN MAID.

OVERALL CLUB GAINS STRENGTH

Washington, April 17.—The "overall club" yesterday obtained what amounts to official recognition. The navy department granted permission to members of such a club formed by civilian employees of the Norfolk navy yard and Hampton Roads base to purchase the denim garments from the navy at cost price. Two suits of overalls of the standard type worn by the American bluejackets are to be allowed each club member.

BY-ELECTIONS IN THE OLD LAND

Press Comment on Results—Irish in Sunderland Against Sir Hamar Greenwood.

London, April 17.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The Times, which has long shown pronounced hostility to the present coalition ministry, admits that the return of Charles McCurdy for Northampton is a considerable defeat for the government. It says: "The premier is getting his promoted ministers back one by one, and coalition has not been in such good spirits since the early days of the present parliament. The three results this week suggest that the government's chief ally in constituencies at the present moment is the fear of more extreme Labor demands."

The Manchester Guardian, independent Liberalism's chief exponent, looks with satisfaction on the excellent poll of 18,000 by Margaret Bondfield, Labor candidate, in Northampton.

The Daily Chronicle, Coalitionist, recalls Mr. Asquith's declaration at the National Liberal conference earlier in the week that the Independent Liberal disastors were due to the split vote between Liberalism and Labor, but the Chronicle asserts that Labor is determined to fight Liberalism everywhere, quoting several Labor leaders in support of this.

The Irish voters in the Sunderland by-election have resoundingly supported Labor candidate against Sir Hamar Greenwood.

Nova Scotia Man Gives the Reason Why He Advises Sufferers from Kidney Trouble to Use Dodd's Kidney Pills.

River Dennis, N. S., April 16—(Special).—"Dodd's Kidney Pills helped me wonderfully. My back is better and as I haven't taken any other medicine since starting to take them, they must have done me a lot of good."

In these words Alexander J. MacLeod, a well known resident here, gives the reason why he prides himself on Dodd's Kidney Pills. He says, "I would advise anybody who has kidney trouble to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial."

The reason Dodd's Kidney Pills are popular all over Canada is that people have tried them and found them good. Dodd's Kidney Pills have been in use in Canada for more than thirty years. They have been used by thousands of people suffering from various forms of kidney trouble, such as rheumatism, dropsy, sore back, weakness, diabetes and Bright's disease.

Ask any one of these thousands to give you his opinion of Dodd's Kidney Pills. It is on the relief afforded sufferers from kidney trouble that Dodd's Kidney Pills have built their reputation as the sovereign remedy for sick kidneys.

We don't ask you to pay more for High-grade Toilet Goods, very often you pay less; but what you buy here is better than other stores sell for the same money or more.

BELGIUM SHOWS GOOD COME BACK AFTER THE WAR

(Correspondence Associated Press.) Brussels, April 17.—Belgium has made rapid progress toward industrial recovery since the armistice, largely owing to the fact that the country has had no serious strikes, says M. Jaspard, minister of economic affairs. He estimates that the nation's industrial output has now attained perhaps seventy per cent of its pre-war record and that its mines are producing as much coal as in the year before the war.

About seventy per cent of our material which was taken out by the Germans has been returned to us," added M. Jaspard. "The money taken by the Germans from the Belgium treasury has thus far been returned to Belgium. Our recovery has been made without work. At the beginning of the armistice 800,000 of our people were without work. Our recovery has been made in spite of the fact that more than one-half of the Belgian villages destroyed in the war are being rebuilt, said M. Jaspard. It has been restored to such an extent that local administration has been resumed. "If the United States would do for Belgium what she has just done for Poland, establish a credit for her, most of our problem would be solved," declared the minister of economic.

BOSTON MAYOR'S RULES FOR SHOWS AND FOR DANCES

(Boston Globe.) For the maintenance of a proper standard in public amusements, Mayor Peters has promulgated eight rules, some covering points that are dealt with in existing regulations, which regulations have been accepted by the Association of Theatre Managers of Boston.

The new draft covers all theatres, moving picture houses and such other establishments as may from time to time be the scene of public musical, dance dramatic or vaudeville entertainments.

Performances of every kind must be governed by the dictates of propriety and refinement," runs the mayor's forward. The rules, as now in effect, forbid the following:

1. Dialogues, gestures, songs (especially parodies), language or conversation of any kind, which are directly or by double meaning obscene or lascivious, and intended to suggest sexual relations to the stage. This prohibits female performers, whether artists or member of chorus, from using the aisle or passageway of the theatre, and performers of either sex from undressing or occupying seats in auditorium, boxes or balconies of the theatre during their act.
2. Females from appearing upon the stage in bare legs. Exception to this only permitted upon authority of the mayor or licensing officer.

CALGARY WOMEN START THRIFT CAMPAIGN TO BE NATION-WIDE

Calgary, Alta., April 17.—Calgary women have organized a thrift campaign which they propose to make nationwide. At the instigation of the Business Women's Club all the women's organizations of the city sent representatives to a meeting where the movement was launched. Mrs. Bertha Staver is chairman. She declared that to make the movement effectual it must have all the women of Canada behind it.

The work of the board is divided into five sections—national thrift, provincial thrift, community thrift, personal thrift, and the press section. Each of these branches will have a junior branch. The city will hold a thrift week in the near future when all local merchants will be asked to make suitable window displays, and plans were put forward for the holding of a three-days conference in June, to which it is hoped women from all over the dominion will be drawn.

MAJOR; VETERAN OF TWO WARS, ARRESTED. Toronto, April 17.—Major Ross Cockburn, a veteran of the South African war, and the recent war, was placed under arrest yesterday on a charge of theft in connection with the handling of recent tag day funds of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association. Major Cockburn unsuccessfully contested East York in the last federal elections.

OUTLAW STRIKE IN MONTREAL

Montreal, April 16.—The "outlaw" strike of printers of the Montreal Star composing room staffs, day and night, continued tonight with no signs of its ending. The paper came out with twenty-two pages today and it is expected that the Saturday Star, usually of forty pages or more, will be twenty-two or twenty-four pages.

The International Typographical Union in defiance of which body the strike was called has authorized union men from other shops to assist the Star in getting out a paper. It was further announced that the union would next Monday bring a "flying squad" of printers into Montreal to take the places of the men who walked out, but James Deery, international organizer for this district, regards this as unfounded.

It was announced last night by A. Melanson, president of the Maritime Federation of Labor, that George Melvin has been selected to represent the federation at the labor congress in Ottawa, in place of C. G. Lafontaine, the original selection, who is unable to attend.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

We suffer no damage if occasionally we pause to consider the light in which we are regarded by our neighbors. Take, for example, the following extract from a letter written by a citizen of Halifax to the Echo, published in that city: "It was indeed satisfactory to note in a recent issue that Mayor Parker has proclaimed the first week in May 'clean-up week'. This early announcement enables citizens to properly prepare to have their places thoroughly cleaned. During that week, it matters not what the quantity or the kind of rubbish placed in the barrels, the teams will take delivery. Everything goes that week, including garden rakes. After that date, only ashes and garbage will be taken. If citizens will now do their part and act promptly, this year's clean-up week will be a success. Because the city has better equipment and the scavenging system is superior to anything Halifax has yet had. It might be well for the citizens to remember that St. John has no civic ashes or garbage collection, and no incinerator plant, all citizens being compelled to care for their own, at their own personal expense. How would you like to live in St. John? If citizens in Halifax generally knew the fact in regard to St. John, there would probably be considerably less criticism of our civic corporation and more individual effort."

It is of course possible that St. John people, even with no system of collecting ashes and garbage, have some advantages over those who live in Halifax—but is it worth while to leave ourselves open to comparisons such as this? Perhaps the new city council will feel that it is better worth while to remove what has long been a cause of reproach. Let us have a proper system of collecting ashes and garbage all the year round.

NOVA SCOTIA FARMERS.

The United Farmers of Nova Scotia are now organized, and have adopted the platform of the United Farmers of New Brunswick. They are not in sympathy, however, with the Labor party, and gave a cold reception, although applied with some heat, to a delegation from the Independent Labor party. Eighty-five farmers joined at the organization meeting in Truro, but it was pointed out that the United Farmers of Ontario started six years ago with 248 members and now have 60,000. The convention adopted a strong resolution denouncing the eight-hour day. Later a delegation from the Labor party was heard, and before its members had got very far there was an exchange of compliments which would seem to preclude anything approaching co-operation between the two parties, although the resolution calling for joint action was finally referred to the executive for consideration. The Echo report says that the meeting was so "hot up" over the discussion that the farmers left the hall on their way home without the formality of adjournment. It was in vain that a Labor delegate asserted that without the Labor party support there would be no Nova Scotia farmers' organization for the present to hoe their own row, although one of their officials has said since the convention that there might be co-operation with Labor in some constituencies at election time.

WHY PRICES ADVANCE.

Remarking that an increase in the cost of living in war time was easily understood, but that many seem unable to understand why prices should go on increasing in peace time, the Journal of Commerce gives the following clear explanation: "Actual shortage of supplies is greater now than it was during the war. There was an abundance of supplies in most countries when war broke out and through the expectation of shortage had an immediate and increasing effect on prices. The diminution of stocks was gradual, and it was only when the war was well advanced that actual shortage began to be keenly felt. Now all reserves have been exhausted. The world has to depend on the goods of recent production, and production, carried on under great difficulty and with a shortage of efficient labor, has not overtaken consumption. It is now, rather than most keenly felt, that the shortage is in commercial and industrial life. The discussion in the legislature yesterday brought out the fact that salaries in the departments, from the chief down to the lowest paid member, are very small in comparison with what is paid in commercial and industrial life. The like is true of the salaries of teachers and school inspectors. Hon. C. W. Robinson's remark that there were hundreds of men in Moncton getting more pay than school inspectors, and having no traveling to do, gives force to the plea that we hold educational work far too cheaply in New Brunswick."

ONTARIO TORIES PLAN CONVENTION FOR OCTOBER

Toronto, April 16.—A provincial convention of the Conservative party will be held here in the last week of October. A permanent leader for Ontario will be appointed, and party policy laid down.

WESTERN SCHOOL LANDS.

A full report of the speech of Mr. J. C. Tory in the Nova Scotia legislature on the rights of the maritime provinces in regard to western school lands shows that he has given the subject a great deal of study, and he made out a very strong case for these provinces. The Halifax Echo says: "Mr. Tory commenced by reading his resolution, which provides for the immediate calling of a conference of representatives of Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and New Brunswick, to formulate a plan to effect a settlement through joint action of the western school lands problem, to obtain compensation for the maritime provinces for the cash subsidies paid to the western provinces in lieu of lands, for the lands ceded to Ontario and Quebec, which the maritime provinces held a proprietary interest, and also compensation for the non-observance of provisions affecting the maritime provinces which were set forth in the British North America Act. He announced that the premiers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island had already promised their co-operation."

Mr. Tory pointed out that this was not a matter of party politics, and that co-ordination of all the forces in the three provinces was necessary; and that if prompt action were not taken the question might be settled at Ottawa adversely to their interests. The Liberal convention last year had passed a resolution favoring the granting to Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta the control of their resources. Hence the maritime provinces must look to their rights. The four original provinces had purchased in 1870 a vast area in the west, and in 1876 the balance of the territory was ceded to the Dominion, which was then composed of six provinces. Certain proportions of those lands were reserved by the Dominion for school purposes when the three other provinces were organized. The maritime provinces clearly have a claim on other provinces on these lands, and it should be recognized by the federal government. Quebec and Ontario have had large concessions to their territory without any consideration for these provinces. Mr. Tory argued that there are millions of dollars coming to us if we get our rights, and our people must bear themselves or lose wealth which rightly belongs to them."

THE CHILD WITHOUT PLAY.

Plenty of room for dives and dens (glitter and glare and sin)? Plenty of room for prison pens (gather the criminals in)? Plenty of room for jails and courts (willing each to pay)? But never a place for the lads to race, no, never a place to play. Plenty of room for shops and stores (Mammon must have the best)? Plenty of room for the running sores that rot in the city's breast? Plenty of room for the lures that lead the heads of youth astray. But never a cent on a playground spent, no, never a place to play! Plenty of room for schools and halls, plenty of room for art? Plenty of room for tea and balls, platform, stage and mart. Proud is the city that finds a place for many a fad today. But she's more than blind if she fails to find a place for the boys to play. Give them a chance for innocent sport, give them a place for fun— Better a playground plot than a quart and a jail when the harm is done. Give them a chance— that terrible war, now, tomorrow you'll have to pay. A larger bill for a darker ill, so give them a place to play. —Dennis A. McCarthy in "Social Welfare," Toronto.

LIGHTER VEIN.

A Worth-While Job. A pessimist and an optimist were discussing life from their different viewpoints. "I really believe," said the former, "that I could make a better world myself." "Sure!" returned the optimist, "that what we are here for. Now let us get to work and do it!" —Boston Transcript.

From Front to Rear.

Tramp—Madam, I was at the front— Kind-hearted Lady—My poor man! Another victim of that terrible war! Here's a dollar. Tell me how you got into these straits. Tramp—I was going to say that I was at the front door and nobody answered, so I came around to the back. Thanked you, madam.—The Home Sector.

James—Why is an after-dinner speech called a toast?

Dowdell—Because it is so dry.

Madden—I have here a little poem, the only one I ever wrote.

Ever Sensitive Editor—Then, my dear madam, haven't the heart to take it from you.

He—Will you marry me?

She—No. He—Whom are you going to marry? She—To marry whom I please. He—Well, you please me, let's elope.

Suspicious.

"It is very becoming, my love," is the first harbinger of the week-end living trip.

A Horrible Situation.

Nigs—Why did you give up that job I got you as a collector? Bigg—Why, hang it, I owed money to nearly all the men I was sent to dun.

The Doctor's Fee.

Chicago doctors have raised their rates to a minimum of $5 for each call. This, however, merely means that a lot of people will owe the doctor more money than ever.

THE SPRING COLD.

I have a cold; it should be hard to be a cheerful sunshine bard. I'd like to croak about despair, and rear on my hind limbs and swear; but habit is a wondrous thing, and so I dance around and sing. My head is clogged, my eyes are sore, and every breath sounds like a moan; I'm full of fever, and my bowels feel an old Dutch oven, and men would say I had excuse, if I should rant and raise the deuce. But habit has me in its grip, and so I sound my cheerful yip. For years I've piled this sunshine lute, and kept a smiling face in front, and now, when I cough as sin, but every groan ends in a grin. And this, my friends, methinks should teach that wholesome habit a peech. I'm glad I learned when I was young to leave the doleful dirge unsung, and chant glad ditties, span and spick, till some one hit me with a brick, to push my balls through my beard, until the poets interfered.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Dominion Happenings of Other Days

MARGARET BOURGEOIS.

One of the heroic French women of the pioneer days of Canada was Margaret Bourgeois, who was born in France on April 17, 1820. In early life she experienced considerable disappointment in not being able to enter a religious community in which she was greatly interested. Having made an unsuccessful attempt to found a congregation of sisters in France, her opportunity came in 1868 when the Missionaries arrived in Paris on a mission concerned with the spiritual development of the new colony in Canada. During his visit he met Margaret Bourgeois, who decided to return to the new land with him. This arrangement gave her the chance to found the Congregation of Notre Dame. On her arrival in Quebec late in the fall of 1868 she entered upon her religious and educational work with tremendous enthusiasm. She was urged to join the Ursulines, but she declined the invitation and went to Montreal. In two months after her arrival she had started a school with no better accommodation for it than an old stable she was able to procure as a meeting place. In connection with other French ladies, she formed the Congregation of Notre Dame, which was organized in 1870 and formally established seven years afterwards. After having enjoyed the great pleasure of seeing the first school in the city and being a great blessing to the colony, she died on Jan. 12. She is recorded in the histories of the country as one of the greatest educationalists of her time, and as the founder of the most fish workers for the general good of the new colony.

OUR PROGRESSIVE ENGLAND. That progressive Canadian manufacturers appreciate the possibilities and importance of new trade in this country is reported to the Department of Trade and Commerce from the chief Canadian Commissioner in London, Mr. Kingdon. The Commissioner writes relative to the British Industries Fair and says in part: "While there are still far too few Canadian exhibitors, it is gratifying to find that Canada is represented there. The London branch of the Otto Higel Co., Ltd., of Toronto, has a very elaborate display of piano actions and other actions. It will be known that this energetic Canadian enterprise has been supplying such a quantity of goods to British piano manufacturers since the war that it was found advantageous to erect a branch factory close to London, which is now in the course of being greatly enlarged. The company is understood to be supplying piano actions to almost all the principal United Kingdom makers. "Typo manufactured by the J. Finlay & Sons Co., of Norwich, Ont., and the 'Kiddie-Koop,' manufactured by the Keele Mfg. Co., of Toronto, are shown by their respective agents, Messrs. Winther, Perrin & Co., Ltd.

The Gillette Safety Razor Co., of Canada, Ltd., has its own stand; the Palmolive Co., Ltd., of Toronto, which maintains a London office, has a comprehensive display of soaps, toilet specialties, etc., and the Empire Typewriter Co., Ltd., of Montreal—the London office of which has done considerable business in this country for years past—is also well represented.

COVENT GARDEN.

"There is no 'rus in urbe' like Covent Garden Market," wrote Charles Kenny. "It is the metropolitan congress of the vegetable kingdom." If he could see it today he would call it the international congress of the vegetable kingdom, for the wealth of the world of fruit and flowers and vegetables is pouring day by day into this clearing house of beauty. There are people who will rise at 5 o'clock to visit the market, merely for the sight of the flowers and fruit, but few are like Charles Dickens, who confessed that in the old days, when he had no money, he took a turn in Covent Garden and stared at the pineapples. The sale of twelve sections of the Covent Garden estate brings to mind the original name, the Covent Garden which as far back as the first quarter of the thirteenth century was an enclosure belonging to the abbots of Westminster. Toward the west, adjacent to it, were seven acres of "fair spreading pastures" with an avenue of stately elms, with country lanes and green fields on either side. A plan of London published by Agnes in 1822 shows Covent Garden enclosed by a thick wall which ran straight on the north side parallel with this avenue of shady elms. A large pond is said to have existed near the middle of the market, fed partly by a local spring which afterward supplied a pump near the parish church, and partly by a running stream which made its way to the Thames. A writer in the last century speaks of the extraordinary taste for flowers by Londoners, and mentions it made of the prices given for them—ten and sixpence for a moss rose. The fine people who once had their residences in Covent Garden, and promenade on the piazza, would be astonished if they could see the working men and women of London "treating themselves" to flowers at prices unheard of.

EUROPE HAS GUM HABIT.

Previous to the American doughboys' arrival in France and England there was practically no European demand for chewing gum, but after their arrival and their free distribution of gum to the children and elder folk the habit greatly increased, as shown by a bulletin of the U. S. division of statistics, bureau of foreign and domestic commerce. Chewing gum to the value of $2,164,290 was exported from the United States during the year of 1919, which is an increase of $468,887, or 21 per cent, as compared with 1918. That this growth is extending into 1920 is shown by January returns of $380,236, representing a gain of $56,727 or 22 per cent, over figures for the corresponding month last year.

During the last year of the war European demand for chewing gum from this country, taking $1,119,888 of the total exports of $1,695,908; but sales of $828,404 to the United Kingdom in 1919 declined $291,404 from that figure. In contrast, purchases by France, valued at $208,299 during the last year, show an increase of $300,868 over the preceding year, when the amount was $94,431.

Restriction on the manufacture and sale of confectionery during the war in order to conserve sugar did not apply to chewing gum, as the sugar content of the latter is small. This was one of the factors, the bulletin says, leading to increased European sales, as the sweetness and flavor of the gum partly satisfied the craving for sugar. Gum chewing became very popular during the war in munition factories of the United Kingdom and in certain front line trenches of France, where smoking by the soldiers was forbidden.

With the exceptions of purchases by England, France and Italy, largely for the Allied armies, the only exports in 1918 to Europe consisted of $78 to Iceland and $483 to Spain. In 1918 exports in amounts varying from $1 to Germany to $109,642 to Belgium went to ten other European nations, while the total exports for the first peace year were distributed among seventy-two countries.

The various Central American states, Mexico, Brazil, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, China, the East Indies, Japan and Africa show considerable increases over 1918. Shipments to the Philippine Islands of $203,308 exceeded by $81,077 those of the previous year.

ROBBERY AND FIRE IN NORTH END HOME.

An early morning fire in Bridge street today in the home of Thomas Spragg is supposed to have been started by a thief or thieves who made off with $150 in cash, taken from a sideboard drawer in one of the inner rooms. Entrance was gained through the woodshed in the rear. It is believed that a match was dropped in the shed as the party or parties were sneaking their way out. Considerable damage was done, mostly by water.

Mr. and Mrs. Spragg were awakened by the smoke fumes and the alarm was at once given. The fire occurred about 1.15 this morning.

THE BOY SCOUT AS HANDYMAN WHEN PLUMBER NEEDED

What One Must Know to Merit the Plumber Badge. Important Announcement Made by District Headquarters—What the City Troops Have Been Doing This Week.

A Boy Scout badge which may be of considerable economic value at the present time, is the plumber badge. To obtain this badge a scout must (1) be able to use a soldering iron to repair a copper pipe; (2) be able to use a pipe wrench to tighten a nut on a pipe; (3) know how to hammer up a burst pipe and know the address of his local plumber.

Understand the ordinary hot and cold water system of a house; how to thaw out a frozen pipe and to protect pipes from frost.

Understand the use of stock and dies and be able to cut a thread upon 1-inch pipe.

No doubt many parents would like to have their boys know enough to pass this badge.

Dominion headquarters announces that the plumber badge will be issued after May 1, 1920. This badge was issued soon after the war commenced.

There are two standards for the badge. A scout who performed eighty-four hours' voluntary service for the navy, military, police, and other public authorities and private societies such as the Red Cross Society, is granted a red badge which is embossed with a crown and the figures "9114".

A scout who served as a foreman for 100 days, each day for at least three hours, and was granted a circular badge of red cloth and gold embroidered design.

Many scouts throughout Canada secured one or other of these badges, while the large majority of English scouts possess neither. As they will not be increased in value as time goes on as they are in the military forces, tried to do his bit.

The regular meeting of the provincial council will be held at provincial headquarters following a supper at the Y. W. C. A. building on Tuesday evening.

Toward the close of the month a large conference is to be held in St. John. Troop leaders, patrol leaders and other scouts will meet together in conference.

A splendid pack of Wolf Cubs is carrying on at Clifton, N. B. Scouts keep a knot tied in the end of their handkerchief each day until they are sent to school.

Look out Scouts, from now on the public will be watching you!

DEVELOPMENT OF ST. LAWRENCE WATERWAY. Ottawa, April 17.—(Canadian Press.) The first of a series of public meetings in the proposed joint development of the St. Lawrence deep waterways will be held at North Bay on May 7 by the international joint commission.

Engineering representatives of both Canada and United States governments have been appointed.

Challenge. Progress was reported on the bill. Mr. Tilley introduced a bill relating to the Indian and Lancaster ferry.

Hon. Mr. Robinson gave notice that on Tuesday next he would move for the suspension of Rule No. 77 to permit the introduction of a bill to incorporate the Central Trust Company.

Hon. Dr. Roberts gave notice that he would move on Monday next for the suspension of Rule No. 77 to permit the introduction of a bill to amend the Consolidated Statutes and another to enable the Parish of Lancaster to offer for recreation grounds.

Hon. Mr. Byrne moved that the order for the third reading of the bill relating to the Grand Manan Light and Power Company be rescinded and the bill referred back to a committee of the whole House.

Baxter Amendment Lost. On the amendment being put by Hon. Mr. Speaker the House divided as follows: Yeas—Messrs. Young, Tilley, Baxter, Smith (Carleton), Taylor, Campbell, Poits, Peck, Crockett, Pinder, Sutton, Grimmer, Smith (Charlotte), Carson, Hunter—15.

Nays—Hon. Messrs. Foster, Smith, Veniot, Murray, Dugal, Roberts, Burdill, McGrath, Dysart, Leblanc, Mitchell, Leger (Westmorland), Leger (Gloucester), Roddick, Bodge, Melanson, Mersereau, King—19.

The original motion, that the House resolve itself into a committee of supply was carried by the same vote reversed.

Mr. Baxter asked that the names be recorded in the journals of the House. The House then went into committee with Mr. Leger (Westmorland) in the chair and took up consideration of supply to be granted His Majesty.

ELECTIONS IN MANITOBA ARE LIKELY FOR JULY

More Members in Next House—Outlook for Big Crop of Candidates—Proportional Representation in Winnipeg.

(By Canadian Press.) Winnipeg, April 17.—Manitoba's sixteenth legislative assembly is to be elected before another harvest is gathered, and it is expected that a date in July will be chosen. The fifteenth legislature, which concluded its last session recently, was elected in mid-summer of 1915 and thus, under the premiership of Hon. T. C. Norris, conducted the affairs of the province during the greater part of the war.

Mr. Norris is to lead the government forces in the forthcoming campaign, and from present indications every member of his present cabinet will go back for re-election. Hon. A. H. Hudson, who has been a conspicuous figure in the government ranks for the last five years, part of the time as attorney-general, will retire to private life.

The old legislature contained forty-eight members. In the next there will be an increase to fifty-five; an increase made up by giving four more members to Winnipeg and by the creation of three new rural constituencies. Winnipeg has had six members, two each for Centre, North and South Winnipeg constituencies. Henceforth there will be members sitting for the capital, to be elected at large by proportional representation. Outside of Winnipeg the election will be conducted in the old-fashioned way.

A portion of the old constituency of Dauphin, lying northwest of the town of Dauphin, has been created into the new constituency of Ethelbert. Two new constituencies have been created in the newly settled district between Lake Winnipeg and Lake Manitoba. They are named Fairford and Fisher.

In the old legislature the government had an overwhelming majority. There was an official Conservative opposition of three members, and two or three other independent members. Several new factors will influence the membership which will gather next winter in Manitoba's palatial new government buildings.

It is expected that the government will have a candidate in the bid for every seat. The Conservative party elected R. G. Willis as provincial leader some months ago and began making plans for the campaign.

There is a movement by the official Winnipeg Labour Association, called in some quarters "Laurel Liberals," to offer candidates in opposition to the government. The United Farmers of Manitoba officially will undertake a provincial campaign, but it is expected that some constituencies will have to deal with candidates running on the farmers' ticket.

Labor and Socialist interests will endeavor to secure representation, and it is predicted that all or most of the strike leaders recently coming to the fore will be put in the field in their enforced absence from the hustings. If to these are added the usual number of independent candidates of one kind and another it is seen that the election promises to be of uncommon interest.

It is freely predicted that in Winnipeg the proportional representation ballot will contain thirty or forty names. It will be the first experiment with this modern polling system in Manitoba, and those who favor proportional representation equally with those who dislike the innovation are anxious to learn to what extent the claims made on its behalf are justified by its practical operation.

Notes. It is whispered that final arrangements for a big provincial camp, open to all Scouts, will be decided on at the coming provincial council meeting.

Although Scouts meet in church buildings and very often take their name from the church, the scout movement is absolutely non-sectarian, and any boy of proper age may join any troop.

MARITIME RIGHTS WESTERN LANDS

Able Speech by Mr. Tory in the Nova Scotia Legislature

Millions of Dollars Due These Provinces and We Should Go After Them - A Bit of History.

The following are extracts from the speech of J. C. Tory in the Nova Scotia legislature on the question of maritime province rights in western school lands. In 1870 an Imperial Order-in-council effected an agreement in which the four provinces agreed to purchase the vast territory and paid three hundred thousand pounds for the billion acres which were sold to the company owning Prince Rupert's and the four original provinces in several large and very fertile tracts. In 1876 another Order-in-council ceded to the Pacific the balance of the land outside the boundaries of the six provinces, British Columbia and Prince Edward Island, Gas joined the initial quarter of a million acres had been formed, but the terms of its constitution had been advanced in 1912. Saskatchewan and Alberta had been organized. The important point here was that the first six provinces had maintained administration of their minerals and resources while, in the last three, they were vested in the federal authorities.

Settling for School Purposes. Following the American idea, two sections in every township of the western lands had been set aside for school purposes. The United States, only the provinces which contained the lands benefited from the proceeds. Mr. Tory then proceeded to produce an amazing array of statistics to show how the trio of youngest members of the confederation had produced an area of 2,000,000 acres of school lands, Saskatchewan 8,421,000 acres, and Alberta 7,798,000, a total of 16,219,000 acres, or approximately twice the area of Nova Scotia. The interest on the funded principal of the lands in the United States, to Manitoba, $2,597,278.48 to Saskatchewan, $7,682,297.02 to March 31st, 1918.

Besides this, the school credit of the three provinces was $16,977,283.67, and the value of the lands as yet unsold was $20,136,443.35 to Alberta, $2,000,000 for Saskatchewan, and $25,408,000 for Alberta, making a total of $47,521,715.02. The value of the provinces comprising 18.3 per cent of the population of Canada, of $198,098,220. The lands were eventually given to the provinces, practically ten million dollars a year for school purposes. From her school lands, Nova Scotia had derived sufficient money for the grant to the teachers for one year; thus educational competition with the west would be hopeless in every respect.

Methods of Settlement. Mr. Tory next suggested methods of settlement, citing the use of the public domain in the United States to establish a general and comprehensive educational system, but suggesting that Canada might have sufficient lands available to do this. He thought a more practical scheme was that used in equalizing the amount paid out in subsidies in the Confederation process. The maritime provinces—he made it plain that he was not speaking of the maritime provinces—had been the cause of the Atlantic seaboard—should be credited with a net loss to the federal government of $89,000,000. Should the maritime provinces be granted similar subsidies on the basis of population, Nova Scotia would receive $682,000, New Brunswick $870,000, and Prince Edward Island $150,000. Mr. Tory suggested discrimination in subsidies as iniquitous and unjustifiable.

Large Additions to Territory. He explained the clause asking for compensation in lieu of extended boundaries. At Confederation, Quebec comprised 126,715,200 acres. In 1888, 100,000,000 acres had been added, and in 1912 227,315,000 acres more, giving the province an area of 454,030,200 acres equivalent to one-fifth of the total area of Canada. Ontario had begun with 144,000,000 acres, and had had 118,000,000 acres added. These lands had been purchased by the four original units of the Confederation but had been taken solid from the territory which Quebec and Ontario, a self-gift which would not only increase their material wealth, but also their population, given them the weight of influence and votes in parliament to control Dominion affairs and push the maritime provinces into insignificance. Mr. Tory claimed that the strong invariably opposed the weak and that the only hope was to form a league, and to present a solid front in seeking redress and self-protection. He said that it was difficult to value the territory which Quebec and Ontario had taken to themselves, but that, using the formal valuation of a dollar an acre, Nova Scotia should be entitled to $37,000,000; New Brunswick to $20,000,000; and Prince Edward Island to $1,000,000. This settlement might be effected in two ways, first by the issuing of scrips to the eastern provinces, and secondly by Ontario and Quebec surrendering any compensation in the Fred Mitchell's Move to Block Gamblers on the Baseball Games.

Chicago, April 17.—Gambling on baseball games will be curtailed this season, according to officials of the Chicago National League Baseball Club, who started a movement against the practice.

It is contended that numerous bets are made on the strength of who the opposing pitchers are to be. This year Manager Fred Mitchell declared he will not announce his pitcher until the time his batting order is handed to the umpire, just before the game.

Manager Mitchell, whose home is in Boston, declared he knew of numerous instances in which the wagers were placed after the pitchers had been selected. He said he also knew of a certain hotel waiter who was paid $5 a day by a gambler for obtaining from the visiting manager the name of the pitcher who was to perform for the visiting club that day.

Most of the betting is done in the pool rooms downtown," said Mr. Mitchell, "and I believe if the proprietors of these places do not know who is going to pitch they will not be so keen to accept wagers. By withholding the name of the pitchers, I believe much of the gambling will stop.

If we desire to keep the sport pure, gambling must be eradicated. The Chicago club is to do all it possibly can to stop it. President William Veck always has taken steps to keep it out of the ball park in Chicago, and I am going to attempt to keep them in the pool rooms from betting by giving out the pitcher at the last moment.

"Gambling is not to creep into the game and ruin it for the future fans and players if I can help it," Mitchell continued, "and if there is the least suspicion of it on my team an investigation will be made and the man or men who are apprehended will not stay a minute."

Mitchell one year played with the St. John Alerts.

CANADA AND PAN AMERICANISM

John Barrett Addresses the Young Men's Canadian Club of Montreal—Thinks We Should Be in It.

Following are summarized extracts from an address before the Young Men's Canadian Club of Montreal on April 12, by John Barrett, director-general of the Pan-American Union, the official international organization and league of the American republics (Washington, D. C.) and former United States minister to Argentina, Panama, and Colombia.

In order to grasp clearly the vital meaning to Canada of Pan America and Pan Americanism, let us first understand the exact significance of these terms. "Pan America," as a term, means simply "All America," but we use the prefix "Pan" instead of "All" because the former is common to the Spanish and Portuguese as well as to the English language. "Pan Americanism" as a term correspondingly means "All Americanism." Defined, however, according to common usage and its political interpretation, Pan America means the twenty-one independent republics of the western hemisphere—the United States and its twenty sister Latin American republics reaching from Mexico to Cuba south to Argentina and Chile. Pan Americanism correspondingly means, in its common political interpretation, the co-operation of these twenty-one governments for their common good. While Canada is just as much a part of Pan America in a geographical sense and should be just as much a participant in the enjoyment of the principles and practices of Pan Americanism as the United States or Argentina, yet today its connection with both of these terms is only relative instead of actual and practical.

As, moreover, the Pan American Union represents organized Pan America and Pan Americanism, its history, scope and purpose should be well known to Canada. Defined in a sentence, the Pan American Union is the official international organization or league of the twenty-one independent American governments, existing by voluntary and not compulsory agreement of these governments; maintained by their joint contributions or quotas based upon their populations; controlled by a governing board or supreme council composed of the secretary of state of the United States and the Latin American diplomatic representatives in Washington.

administered by a director-general elected by that board and, therefore, in every sense an international officer, who, in turn, is aided by a competent staff of international experts; and devoted to the development of commerce and intercourse, good understanding and friendship, and the preservation of peace among them.

It was organized thirty years ago as the result of the first Pan American conference held in Washington attended by representative statesmen of all the American republics. It was continued and enlarged by three successive Pan American conferences until now it has America." In it a large staff of authorities on Pan American trade and every phase of Pan American relationship conduct vast correspondence, prepare and publish a great variety of reports, receive innumerable callers, and edit and distribute a monthly bulletin in English, Spanish and Portuguese issues. Here is found an up-to-date library of 30,000 volumes covering every phase of Pan American progress; the newspapers and magazines of all Latin America; maps and atlases describing intimately every American country and section; a collection of 25,000 photographs, and a subject index of 150,000 cards.

The most convincing proof of the usefulness of the Pan American Union as an international organization, and of its material benefit to the United States and the other countries is the record of the growth of Pan American trade under its influence. Since the Pan American Union was reorganized, nearly fourteen years ago, or during the period in which I have served as its executive officer and of which I can hence speak authoritatively, Pan American commerce has shown an extraordinary development from less than $300,000,000 per annum to more than $2,000,000,000, an increase far beyond the expectation of the believers in Pan Americanism; and one which has confounded its critics.

Corollary to this is another most convincing evidence of the good work of the Pan American Union. Fifteen years ago, before this organization first began its new progressive career, Germany traded fifteen of the Latin American countries. Just before the war was going full speed ahead, the United States led in the trade of fifteen of the Latin American countries while Germany trailed behind with leadership in only five!

Although great credit is due to the departments and ministries of state and commerce of the United States and other American governments for the building up of Pan-American trade, it is a fact admitted everywhere, in legislative, financial, manufacturing, shipping and general commercial circles, that the Pan American Union as an international cooperative organization and league has done more, through the spread of reliable information, to promote Pan American commerce and intercourse than any other single official influence.

The great point which I desire to bring home here today is that for the good of Canada and for the good of the rest of America there ought to be devised some way of making Canada an active member of the Pan-American Union and thereby a practical beneficiary of its unlimited usefulness. I can think of no influence that would so help the building up of the commerce of Canada with all the rest of the western hemisphere, and would so benefit its material, moral, social, economic and general intercourse with the other American countries as would the membership of Canada in the Pan-American Union. It would mean that every chamber of commerce and board of trade in Canada, every manufacturing, exporting and importing firm, every bank and financial institution, every shipping house, every newspaper, college and public school, and in fact every citizen of Canada would have access to the service, facilities and assistance of the Pan American Union as an international Pan American bureau of information and an organization that covers every field of practical Pan-American relationship. In fact I cannot see how Canada can ever realize the magnificent opportunity before her in the Pan-American family of nations unless she shall become a member of this union. If anyone has the slightest doubt as to the possible usefulness of the Pan-American Union to Canada, and the practical character of its scope and work, he should visit its offices in Washington or, at all correspond with it for full information.

While I am not in any sense authorized or inspired by the governing board of the Pan-American Union, or by any of the constituent governments, to suggest that Canada should or might become a member of the Pan-American Union or how this end should be accomplished in view of the present constitution of the union which limits membership to the independent republics of America, I am aware that there is a strong growing sentiment throughout the American countries that a way should be devised for inviting Canada to become a member of the union. Although there has been no official discussion recently by its governing board or by the constituent governments of the union of this possibility, there is little doubt in my mind that it will come up for consideration directly or indirectly at the fifth or next international conference of American states which will presently be called to meet in Santiago, Chile.

To quiet misunderstanding of the Pan American Union, it should be emphasized that in no degree whatever does the United States dominate its control or policy. The Pan-American and Latin-American influence is greater than or equal to that of the United States. Every other country of America has equal voting rights and equal say with the United States in the sessions of its governing board or supreme council. There is not the slightest hidden meaning in the Pan-American Union to the effect that it is an instrument for greater United States influence on the western hemisphere but, on the other hand, it is a most powerful factor in giving every American country its rightful place in the Pan-American family. Membership of Canada in it would probably prove even more beneficial to Canada than such membership would be to the United States, and would put Canada correspondingly into far closer touch with Latin-America than it would with the United States. In other words, it can not be said that selfishness would prompt the United States in favoring Canadian membership.

In conclusion, it should be noted that while the Pan-American Union is not technically and solely a league of peace, there is no question that its general moral influence and the specific influence of its governing board or supreme council have been most powerful deterrents of warfare, and it is a fact that there has been no serious war between any two American countries since it was organized.

Blackheads are caused by excessive oil collecting dirt in the pores of the skin. Their presence is a confession that you are using the wrong method of cleansing for your type of skin.

To cleanse thoroughly skins liable to this disfiguring trouble, use the following special treatment. Apply hot cloths to the face until the skin is reddened. Then with a rough washcloth work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap and rub it into the pores thoroughly, always with an upward and outward motion. Rinse with clear hot water, then with cold—the colder the better. If possible, rub your face for thirty seconds with a piece of ice. Dry carefully.

To remove blackheads already formed, substitute a flesh brush for the washcloth in the treatment above. Then protect the fingers with a handkerchief and press out the blackheads.

Keep your skin free of blackheads by the above treatment and gain the clear attractive skin that the regular use of Woodbury's brings.

Get a cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap and begin tonight the treatment your skin needs. You will find Woodbury's on sale at any drug store or toilet goods counter in the United States or Canada. A 25 cent cake will last a month or six weeks.

Grey Says League Would Have Averted World War

Lone Statesman of 1914 Contends That if Existing Machinery Had Been Available Then, Nations Would Have Gone Into Conference Instead of War.

(Arthur Sweetser in New York Evening Post.)

Sir Edward Grey declares there would have been no world war in 1914 if the machinery provided in the League of Nations had been in existence.

Sir Edward Grey knows. More than any other man he strove to prevent the catastrophe. More than any other man he had his finger on the pulse of the world in these humid, desperate days of late July and early August when the world was shooting down to Armageddon, blissfully unconscious of its fate. Such a statement from him is startling. It immediately challenges proof or disproof.

Most emphatically Sir Edward Grey does not mean that the league is a panacea for all our ills or that it suddenly threw a spirit of righteousness and usefulness over men's minds which will make so sordid a thing as a spiritual impossibility. Human nature runs too deep for that. What he does mean, however, is that the war came into being largely by default, because the forces of negotiation and peaceful settlement marshalled against it suddenly collapsed under the unprecedented pressure and allowed all the rest of the world to cave in behind them.

Sometimes we take a course of action not because it is the course which by sheer desire we should select to take, but because it is the only course open to us to take. In other words, we sometimes get ourselves into a blind alley, where all doors were closed except that to war. What Sir Edward Grey means is that the League of Nations, if it had existed, would have opened several other doors of escape out of the Austro-Serbian imbroglio.

I well remember how in those same August days I found myself swept along in that vast Niagara of men, guns, automobile trucks, soap kitchens and all the other paraphernalia of war which surged over northern France in the greatest concerted military move in history up to the time of America's crusade to Europe. I had seen the French and British armies and was now with the German. From over hills and ridges, watching the French peasants and the German invaders, seeing the little human relationships that could not but crop up even against the background of flaming villages and mangled bodies, the one great, never resting wonder which churned about in my mind was why an assassin's bullet in a far-off desert in the Balkan town should have so disrupted all these peaceful lives, have torn the Germans out of their shops and their families and schools, have thrown them pell-mell across a friendly state in an orgy of blood, have uprooted the desperate French peasants and left these helpless, dumb-eyed women and children cowering under the scourge of the conqueror.

It was a colossal human tragedy. Not a fragment of these people desired it, even knew it was coming. They were but its unseeing victims, caught up in all its horrors by forces they had not learned to control. Why, why, why, kept ringing in my mind. I realized perfectly well that an evil philosophy had been rampant in Germany; that a tiny minority of misguided men had wormed their way up to the top and poisoned the wells of German super-policy, but even these facts did not give me the answer as to why the peoples of these countries, the intelligent, big hearted, earnest, friendly masses, should have tolerated a condition from which war was the only issue.

The picture of those fatal days of negotiation returned. I could see great masses of people which we call nations, dull, inert, unseeing, with a tiny fever spot burning in several of them, a spot where a handful of jeweled perfumed supernumeraries were planning huge offensives, scheming in terms of army corps, writing off ultimate gambling away the futures of their peoples, all unknowingly to the great human world that went its way outside. Then came the picture of a small Balkan nation set upon by a huge neighbor, surrendering, even humiliating itself, then a larger nation rushing up in all its grandeur to the rescue; then still another charging in in its flaming armor; a picture of the tiny fever spots burning still whiter as they threw the lives of their unseeing millions into the maelstrom of a series of blind, frantic, misunderstood messages flashing back and forth far above the heads of those who were to pay, and at last the inevitable monster explosion which immersed the world in four and a half years of blood and cost the lives of seven millions of the same kind of innocent people I had seen on both sides of the lines in Northern France.

The catastrophe began without a single conference. The nations were plunged into war by a handful of telegrams which in their portentous official phrasology are even today not fully understood. One false step led to another until the vicious circle was complete. No meeting ground was available, no obligation for discussion existed. The madmen who had worked for war could generate it without a pretence of discussion, without the simple human act of meeting their opponents face to face, without asking yea or nay of their peoples.

Sir Edward Grey proposed the one human course. He asked that the statesmen get together about a table; that they talk over their differences man to man; that they try to settle them by agreement and not by hostility. But no one heard him. And therein lies the whole great crime. Practically, even as the flames were mounting he telegraphed about Europe to this end. They did not hear, and, second, because they had no obligation to hear. They had carte blanche to plunge the world into blood.

For the world had failed to create any adequate machinery to settle international disputes peacefully. There was neither judicial court, arbitral body nor obligation to establish either before running to arms. States had grown and grown in power, each a jaw unto itself, each in all its national pride scornful of the others, yet all crossing and recrossing each other until an almost hopeless tangle was created.

Many men had seen the danger ahead. Back in 1899 the first Peace Conference at The Hague had been called together to create new contacts for this new relationship. The nations approached each other fearfully, self-consciously, distrustfully, above all, haughtily. National pride was all powerful. No one could forget he was the chosen representative of a sovereignty. Under these inhibitions an attempt was made to devise a method of settlement which might have prevented just such a world conflagration as some of the more far-seeing statesmen realized awaited mankind in the near future.

Head what John Hay said in his instructions to the American delegates: "The duty of sovereign states to promote international justice by all wise and effective means is second only to the fundamental necessity of protecting their own existence. Next in importance to their independence is the great fact of their interdependence. Nothing can secure for human government and for the authority of law which it represents so deep a respect and so firm a loyalty as the spectacle of sovereign and independent states, whose duty it is to prescribe the rules of justice and impose penalties on the lawless, bowing with reverence before the august supremacy of those principles of right which give to law its eternal foundation."

A start was made at those Hague meetings. This start was largely due to American insistence and urgency in pressing for a rule of law and arbitration in international relations. A procedure drawn up except for the question of the method of selecting the permanent judges. National hauteur here broke in, for the small nations demanded equality of representation and the big nations demanded representation proportionate to power.

So the Hague court was created, but only as a promise. The second conference, in 1907, stimulated again by the instructions given to the American delegates by Secretary of State Elihu Root, carried it on a little further, but not far enough. It remained still a promise, expandable into life if the nations saw fit to use it, but without any real vitality of its own. When the desperate negotiations just before the war were taking place it proved far too undeveloped for the nations to turn to it, even if there had been any real desire to turn to it. Sir Edward Grey was left without recourse, and the opposing statesmen without obligation.

The war thus came into being by default. For four and a half years the curtain was rung down on civilization; but men were thinking, especially in the United States, which had led the field in urging the settlements of disputes peacefully and which grasped out in vain to find a real reason for the holocaust. Fourteen months before we entered the war President Wilson, in two fervent sentences at Des Moines, gave expression to the deepest of America's impulses. Whether or not he was right in his later enunciation of policy, he certainly spoke America's heart when he said:

"I pray God that if this contest have no other result, it will at least have the result of creating an international guarantee of peace on the part of the nations of the world."

I did. The lessons of the war ran deep, deeper of all perhaps the lesson of humility. The pride and responsibility which had choked all previous attempts at united action were thrown to the discard. In the shambles of northern France the nations had consented to unified military command; in the desperation of hunger, burn-out resources, of diplomatic disasters, they had consented to a unified direction of resources.

So when they came to Paris they came chastened and more humble. Out of their past they realized they could cooperate in the future; out of their war sufferings they realized that they must unite to prevent new wars. The arrogant, irresponsible pride which had held the nations apart at The Hague and prevented the development of anything but the paper shell of international co-operation had been curbed. Men's minds were ripe for great advances; were receptive, indeed, to proposals which a few short years before only the most far-seeing would have advocated.

In casting the lessons of the war into a charter for the future the little selfish follies of the past fell helplessly away. The question of international co-operation as against international license stood answered against the grim spectre of 7,000,000 of dead. The smaller niceties which before had appeared as mountains were crushed under foot to make an end to the system of disorganization through whose yawning cracks the war had been allowed to creep. The League of Nations commission, representing the better personality of the peace conference, built up a whole great new machinery, and set in place the scaffolding for still more.

Only wish people on this side could realize the hopes and idealisms amid which the league was born. True, there were remorseless pulling and tugging at Paris and much playing of the old familiar game which has proved so disastrous throughout history, but alongside it was another, a newer and a better feeling. Men were writing visions, not of some dread superstate, but of mutual helpfulness and confidence; and those visions were blurred in many places by the fears, hatreds, jealousies and greeds of the pre-existing four and a half years of terror, they remained in large degree pure when it came to the League of Nations itself.

With the new machinery is, how it will work in actual practice, how it might have proved a safety valve to Europe's surcharged condition in 1914 I hope to show in the succeeding article. For it has been my fortune to see the league in birth, at work, and under criticism. Chance has put me in touch with the ideals of its creators through eight months as a member of the American peace commission at Paris with the plans of its present directors through having crossed over to London after the conference as one of those directed to prepare the detailed plans of the league.

PREDICTS 32-CENT SUGAR BY LAST OF JUNE.

New York, April 17.—So serious is the sugar situation confronting the United States that when the heavy consuming staple will then be selling to the public at from 32 to 37 cents a pound.

This prediction was made by a man who has been for the last forty-four years in a position to study the sugar trade, from all angles. Most men in the sugar market are of the same opinion, he said.

No permanent relief in the situation may be expected before two years at least, this informant asserts, depending entirely upon how quickly the best producing nations of Europe can recover their pre-war productivity.

Friends buying by refiners to recoup their failure to buy up a large supply earlier has within the last few weeks forced raw sugar from eleven cents a pound to 18 1/2 cents, as it was quoted today.

MOSCOW ERECTS OBELISK TO FOE OF BOLSHIEVISM

Man Who Appealed for Salvation of His Country to Be Honored in Centre of "Red" Activities — One Time Revolutionist.

(Toronto Mail and Empire.) In Moscow, centre of Bolshevist power in Russia, has been erected an obelisk to a man who, in his lifetime, was one of Bolshevism's most bitter foes. His last literary work before his death last September was a vehement denunciation of Bolshevism, and Leonid Andreyev's "S. D. S." has been translated into every European language. It was an appeal for the salvation of his country and the release of its mind-locked people from the nightmare of the rule of Lenin and Trotsky—an appeal from a danger which his warnings had been unable to avert. With all the art at his command—and few of his day had a more powerful gift of eloquence than Leonid Andreyev—he had sought to save his people from their own folly. And then, in 1917, his pleas and warnings unheeded, he wrote bitterly of the extremity to which Russia had been led by anarchy, says the Louisville Courier-Journal.

Every Ivan a Ruler. "To crown our ignominy," he said, "everything that is alive in Russia is striving toward disunion, as if driven by a mysterious centrifugal power. One county which has a supply of oats refuses seed to a neighbouring county, and the fields remain untown. In other places the local committees have abolished private property, have seized the lands, as has been persistently urged by the Bolsheviki, have confiscated implements, seed, live stock. Every Ivan is his own ruler, and a dozen Ivans make up a Vendee! And here is Finland, definitely and brusquely proclaiming its separation. Henceforth we are merely a "respected neighbor." And here is also Ukraine hinting at something more than autonomy. Siberia, too, has a strange look in her eyes. Who else? Who else detests Russia so deeply as to demand immediate separation from her—from her who is dying? Go to, club her, tear to shreds the decrepit imbecile, pull the keys from under her pillow, plunder all you can! Rejoice, you marauders, dealers in stolen goods, despoilers of the dead, honest loots, revolutionary hypocrites and maniacs! Why pity her who does not pity herself? Why preserve her and force upon her salvation when she lacerates her own flesh, finally seeks death, and in thousands of voices chants her own funeral mass!"

Protégé of Gorky's. So wrote Andreyev, the one-time revolutionist. For Andreyev, like his patron, Maxim Gorky, had rebelled against the autocracy of the Romanoffs. While still a young journalist in Moscow, with only a few short stories to his credit, Andreyev had become a protégé of Gorky, and was stepped in the ideals of the revolutionist. He was one of a little band of writers, of whom Gorky was a leader, suspected by the Czar's agents of plotting the overthrow of the government. But, if Andreyev ever gave his support to any such movement, it may be assumed from his writings that he already had some idea of another form of government to succeed that which was ended. He was ever opposed to that state in which "every Ivan is his own Czar." And, more bitterly than ever

"labor" in the cities is slack and soldiering at the farmers' expense. The farmer has had the fact forced upon him that production, in every line of activity except agriculture, has diminished. Even with increased earnings industrial labor is producing less—and deliberately. The output of the average coal miner, for instance, has declined seventy-five tons per year. And so on down the line. The demand for shorter hours goes hand in hand with a more every demand for higher pay. Except for the farmer, upon whose production our life necessities are based. Naturally, the farmer doesn't like it. He doesn't complain that he has to work too hard, but he resents being urged to greater production by classes clamoring for his work and lower prices as affecting themselves. In this resentment there are uncomfortable possibilities, if he also develops an ideal of idleness, the rest of us will most surely go hungry; and if he makes up his mind that city folk shall give more energy to working than to dodging work—dear, O dear, that sounds like civil war.

When you buy H.P. Sauce look for the letters H.P. and the view of the Houses of Parliament, which appear on every real bottle of H.P. sauce. Remember there are plenty of imitations, but only one. THE "DELECTO" assortment is the finest of all G. B. Chocolates—a box of distinction as well as deliciousness. It contains Fruits, Nuts, Jellies, Nugatines, Creams—in exquisite flavors and novel forms. Originated by GANONG BROS. LIMITED ST. STEPHEN, N. B. Makes for Fifty Years of Fine Chocolates. The finest in the Land.

he reviled the Romanoff autocracy did he denounce anarchy. "In an evil hour our Russian liberty was born," he wrote soon after the revolution. "A youthful bride decked with white flowers—may she not perish on her way to the wedding feast!" "Telling Them Off." And again, in 1917, in caustic irony he addressed the men who had overthrown a despot to take his place in even more despotic rule. "You gentlemen of the Provisional Government," he wrote, "persist in proclaiming tragically that 'without authority there is no responsibility,' keep standing by the roadside with extended palms begging the passerby for a pennyworth of powder—just a pennyworth, for the sake of Christ!" "You gentlemen of the council of the Executive Committee, do not for an instant remove your eyes from the government, guard closely these 'bourgeois' scan minutely every regulation—beware, they may deceive you!" "You parties, multiply and subdivide into fractions and sub-fractions, firmly and scrupulously observe every shade of your tenets, and, pray, do not forget to hate each other! All Are Guilty. "You soldiers, distrust the officers—they are all traitors! Do not obey the generals, they are all Judases!" "As for you, bourgeois, flee to the Crimea and the Caucasus, and if you can obtain no railroad ticket, bang up your shutters, put out the lights and tremble—"I accuse no one," he continued, "and whom, pray, shall I accuse when all are guilty? Whom shall we chastise when we are all criminals? If that which I dread with mortal anguish comes to pass many will be our ancestors and executors. We shall not into the seventh generation exhaust the cup of ignominy which the outraged and indignant world will present to us." THE FARMERS ARE FINDING OUT (Montreal Star.) One outcome of the active organized participation of farmers in public affairs is the growing rural conviction that

Who Shall be the U. S. PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES? The Literary Digest Is Asking ELEVEN MILLION VOTERS TO NAME THEIR CHOICES FOR BOTH GREAT PARTIES. The Greatest Poll Ever Taken In the History of the United States. INDIVIDUAL BALLOTS have been sent by mail to Eleven Million Voters throughout the United States—almost two-thirds of the total Presidential vote of 18,529,902 cast in the last national election, in 1916. Every ballot is mailed in an envelop, addressed with pen and ink, and delivered through the U. S. Post Office personally to the voter addressed. Return postage on the ballot is prepaid, and the voter has only to check or write the name of his or her Party and first and second choices for Presidential Candidates, with no other mark of identification, and then drop this Secret Ballot in the nearest letter-box or Post Office. Thus every vote cast is absolutely the free, un-influenced, secret choice of the voter, unknown to anyone but the voter himself or herself. The eleven million ballots have been mailed to ALL CLASSES OF VOTERS in all States and all communities in the Nation with complete impartiality. They include business men, merchants, farmers, manufacturers, railroad employes, bankers, clerks, builders, contractors, superintendents, managers, carpenters, plasterers, plumbers, painters, mechanics, printers, miners, steel workers, workers in every trade and branch of industry, both union and non-union, professional men and women of all classes, including lawyers, doctors, clergymen, authors, actors, newspaper men, dentists, engineers, educators, architects, musicians, etc., in short all the classes of men and women who make up the voting population in all parts of the country. This Great National Poll, Therefore, Will Be the REAL VOICE OF THE PEOPLE That Political Leaders and Conventions Will Heed. No propaganda of any kind as to party, candidate, or issues is connected with this great popular Presidential Primary. THE LITERARY DIGEST has no political ax to grind, and the absolutely impartial and non-partizan nature of the poll is guaranteed and protected in the most complete manner. It is the duty of all men and women to have their own opinions on the problems that now face their country and to express those opinions in the choice of their President in the approaching conventions and national election. This unofficial Presidential Primary, the greatest and most representative ever conducted in the history of America, will serve as a vehicle for the unhampered expression of popular opinion, and will have a very large influence on the nominating conventions of both great parties. WATCH THIS POLL IN THE LITERARY DIGEST. BEGINNING IN THE ISSUE OF APRIL 17th the returns from this national poll will be recorded, summarized, and analyzed, State by State, through successive numbers up to the actual meeting of the great conventions in Chicago and San Francisco. These reports will have unique and decisive interest for political leaders, the press, and citizens of the whole country, and will be awaited eagerly. DIGEST readers, of course, will get them first and in the most complete detail. At the same time, and all through the year, THE LITERARY DIGEST will be gathering carefully and reporting all the facts and opinions on all sides bearing upon the great problems and issues which are being discussed and which must be settled by the national election. THE LITERARY DIGEST is wonderfully equipped for this service by a system built up at great expense through many years of careful work, and reaching into thousands of newspaper and periodical offices in all parts of the world. The reader can depend upon THE LITERARY DIGEST with absolute certainty as it reveals, from week to week, free from all prejudice and partisanship, the real state of the Nation's mind, the real facts affecting all issues, and the progress of all the great problems toward settlement. THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1920

SUMMER STEAMSHIP SERVICES

(Moncton Transcript.)
While most of the government ships will use Montreal during the summer, enough will be sailed from maritime province ports to make a decided change in their summer transportation facilities. For years, business men in the maritime provinces have been urging the government to take action to provide a better summer service from St. John and Halifax to the United Kingdom and also to the West Indies. Unquestionably marine trade has suffered to some extent in the past through inadequate summer services. The Furness Line boats running from St. John and Halifax to London could not meet the demand for space at year, and tramp steamers being fixed to load full cargoes of lumber offered facilities for shipping various classes of products for which orders were readily obtainable in the United Kingdom. This summer sailings by the government boats ought to open opportunities of trade expansion of first importance to the industries of the maritime provinces. This winter the lumber cut in the United Kingdom has been larger than before, and Cuba as well as the United Kingdom offers a good market for a new service to Cuba should prove a lift to the fishing industry, as heretofore a large quantity of Canadian fish sold to New York houses has eventually found its way to the Cuban market. As to return cargoes the big sugar refineries at St. John and Halifax are large importers of Cuban sugar, and it is said the managers of the government fleet are considering the possibilities of supplying the Canadian markets with tropical fruits through the port of St. John, instead of as now through New York and Boston.

FIFTY COLLEGE GIRLS IN FATAL CAR COLLISION

Two Motormen Killed and Six Smith Students Injured in Massachusetts.
Northampton, Mass., April 16.—Two persons were killed and twelve injured, including six Smith College students, yesterday in a head-on collision between a special trolley car carrying fifty college girls and a Holyoke-bound car on the Holyoke-Northampton line. William Keating, motorman of the special, was crushed to death in the vestibule of the car. The cause of the accident has not been determined, but it is understood the block signal system failed to operate properly. None of the Smith College students was injured severely. Edward Marsh, the Holyoke motorman, died later. One of the Smith College professors is Dr. William F. Ganong, a native of St. John.

DIVVY OF AMUSEMENT TAX IN B. COLUMBIA

Vancouver, B. C., April 17.—Vancouver, according to the provincial minister of finance, will receive about $150,000 as its share if the province relinquishes its grip on the amusement tax, and now the outlying municipalities are asking Vancouver to "divvy up" with them because, they assert, "our people go to your picture shows, so we should have a share of your share of the tax."

FIRST NEWS OUT SINCE LAST SUMMER

Battle for the Furs Between Hudson's Bay Company and American Firm.
Dawson, Y. T., April 16.—Constables Wm. A. Campbell and Brooker, who arrived here with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police expeditions from Herschel Island and Fort McPherson on the Arctic coast, bring the first advices from the vast region on the topmost end of the world since last summer. They report a titanic battle for control of the fur trade in the vast McKenzie valley between the Hudson's Bay Company and the new American firm of Lanson & Hubbard, who are reported cutting prices of commodities and raising offers on furs in order to get established. The average prices paid for mink were $15 and for muskrats $14.00. Three ships made Herschel Island late last season. One of the ships forged ahead of the others and beat them to Banks Land, where there had been no ship for two years, and scored a big scoop, buying up a two years' fur catch. Constable Campbell reports meeting Jukiro Wada, a noted Arctic Japanese gold discoverer and stamper, who was outfitted in New York last year. He made an expedition down the Mackenzie last year, and is now exploring for lost gold mines reported to exist on the Arctic slope south from Herschel. He was last seen en route there last fall. A meeting of the captains, ward workers and others in Victoria were interested in the election of E. A. Schofield to the mayoralty, was held last night in the Victoria rink, City road. E. A. Goodwin presided and there was much enthusiasm.

Home Protection Policy for $5,000

This plan is the basis of all life insurance. It provides an "Estate" at the lowest net outlay it is possible to obtain. Experience has proven that it offers maximum insurance at minimum cost. The annual outlay is comparatively small, being only a moderate rate per cent on the capital "estate" created, according to age. The average is about 3%. Even these small payments are reduced by dividends. Many policyholders in the Canada Life have lived to draw large sums from this form of policy for their own personal use. Cash values are guaranteed—a fund for emergencies. A monthly income of $50 is paid if you become totally and permanently disabled before reaching age sixty. Policy continues in force while any cash value remains, thus preventing lapse and loss of protection. If it is desired to stop paying premiums any time after the third year, a "paid for" policy is issued for a proportionate amount, on which no further premiums are required.

Remember:

A policy on your life may do much that you intend to do, if you live. It may pay off the mortgage, supply food and clothing for your family, keep the children at school and prevent a forced sale of your other property. It may be all that is left of your life work—to keep you in comfort in your old age.

He said that he is unable at the present time to accept it as he is suffering from a heavy cold. When he gets better he says he will meet any welterweight in the world.

POTATO PRICES.
Houlton, April 15.—Distribution of potatoes from Aroostook county points has been seriously interfered with by the railroad strike and its resultant embargoes. Shipment of seed potatoes to Long Island and points farther south, ordinarily completed by the middle of March have not yet been commenced because of the severe storms and the railroad situation. Potatoes which were selling on Saturday last at $10 a barrel dropped on Tuesday, when the embargo to New York was placed to $4.50. Present price is $9 a barrel.

Sanderson, Texas, April 15.—Lieutenant D. M. Hunsell and Sergeant W. T. Maxwell, both of the 90th Aero Squadron, were instantly killed when their aeroplane fell here yesterday.

PENITENTIARY FOR TWO YEARS

Youths Who Stole Overcoats Are Sentenced

Several Cases Disposed of by Magistrate at This Morning's Session—Theft and Liquor Matters.

More postponed cases were disposed of this morning in the police court and a number of men charged with drunkenness, the accumulations during the week, were given their liberty on paying the charges.

John and Marcus McLan, charged with stealing a coat from the store of A. E. Henderson, King street, and also with stealing a coat from Donaldson Hunt's store in Charlotte street, were sentenced to two years each in the penitentiary on the first charge and a five years suspended sentence for the second charge.

James Murphy, charged with stealing a case of whiskey, the property of the Anchor-Donaldson Line, valued at $22.50, was allowed to go on suspended sentence. A friend named MacDonald, an employee of the S. S. Preston, said that Murphy was a veteran of the great war, having won the D. C. M., and was also a member of the Black Watch. He said the accused had an honorable record overseas and had never gotten into any trouble before. In view of this and that C. F. Inches, counsel for the prosecution, did not wish to have the man sentenced to a term in the penitentiary, the magistrate allowed the man to go to his ship. Michael Collins and Harry Ingraham, who were charged with having liquor in their possession other than their private dwelling, were each fined $50 or three months in jail.

John Edwards, charged with stealing bacon and eggs from the East St. John Hotel, was further remanded, but if some employment can be found for the accused he will likely be allowed to go on a suspended sentence.

Ezra White, a stowaway, was further remanded until the S. S. Chaleur is ready to sail for the West Indies.

Six men, charged with drunkenness, who have been remanded from time to time, were fined $5 each or two months in jail.

Three men arrested last night were fined $8 each or two months in jail.

COVERDALE WOMAN AMONG MISSING

Mrs. Reverdy Lutes Left Her Home and Went Towards Moncton—Has Not Returned to Her Home Since.

Moncton, N.B., April 16—Up to a late hour this evening there was still no trace of the whereabouts of Mrs. Reverdy Lutes of Coverdale, whose home is situated just across the Petitcodiac river from Moncton. Mrs. Lutes left her home last evening about 7 o'clock to meet her step-daughter, who had gone to the Moncton post office. The step-daughter reports that she met Mrs. Lutes at the end of the Petitcodiac Bridge, but was informed by Mrs. Lutes that she would continue her walk. Failing to return to her home last evening, her husband communicated with Mrs. Lutes' relatives in the city and friends called upon the police for aid. It was thought in many quarters that Mrs. Lutes had gone to the home of some friends for the night not believing that her absence would occasion any alarm, as she had many relatives in and near the city, while a grandfather resides in Stillsville, but inquiry during the day failed to reveal the slightest trace of her. Mrs. Lutes was formerly Miss Margaret Triles and was married last September. Previous to her marriage she was employed as bookkeeper in Givan's Laundry and later was employed by J. A. Roy. Mrs. Lutes was a well known and highly esteemed Moncton young lady and her mysterious disappearance has caused the much anxiety among her relatives and friends.

Addressed Club.
H. A. Powell, K.C., of St. John, a member of the International Joint Commission, addressed the Moncton Caban Club, tonight, at the Brunswick Hotel. His subject being the work of the International Joint Commission. Mr. Powell said that the idea of the United States being hostile to Great Britain was all rot. Here and there among the foreign element there are enemies of Great Britain but the great heart of the United States beats in sympathy with us. Responding to a hearty vote of thanks Mr. Powell said he would like to see the Moncton library, which was destroyed by fire, re-established for the benefit of the rising generation.

NOTED ARTIST DIES IN WANT

(Canadian Press Despatch).

Paris, April 16—Ferdinand Roybet, the noted artist, who died here on April 15, spent the last few months of his life in painting a portrait of the late General Gallieni, who in 1914, by using tactics, marshalled forces on the right flank of the advancing German army and broke the offensive of the enemy when it was almost within sight of Paris. He was in difficult circumstances but refused to sell this picture, preferring to present it to the Hotel Invalides where it will take a place among the other treasures collected by the nation.

NORTH END GIRL WINS CONTEST

The moving picture contest, which was concluded yesterday at the Imperial Theatre, resulted in Miss Mary L. Shaker, 227 Main street, winning the $25. Several of the gentlemen in the list are men who have here recently and with whom even the older residents of the city are not acquainted.

ROYAL ARMS DANCE

The Royal Arms Chapter of the I. O. D. E. gave a very pleasant informal dance at the Grand Ball, Gensens street, last night and a large number of guests attended. All enjoyed the event greatly. The dancing was provided by a three-piece orchestra and dancing was continued until a late hour. Delicious refreshments were served.

"Oh, My! How the Doctor Did Alarm Me When He Said it Was Your Heart"

"WHAT did he say?"
"Well, he says that the great majority of people who had the 'flu' have suffered afterwards from weak heart action."
"I never had heart trouble."
"No, but the way the doctor explains it is that the nervous system is so weakened by the 'flu' that there is not enough nerve force left to drive the machinery of the body."
"That is about the way I feel, for I have no appetite, and do not feel able to stir."
"No, and you do not seem to digest the little food you do eat. So you cannot expect to gain strength. Why not try some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food?"
"Oh, I do not see how that would help me."
"Now, John, I think that is exactly what you need. It always helped me when I got run down in health, and I hear so many saying the same thing that I think you should give it a trial. You know yourself that you are not gaining any these days."
"How would that help my heart?"
"Because it enriches the blood and increases the nerve force. Anything that strengthens the nerves will naturally strengthen the action of the heart, for the heart, like the stomach and other organs, is dependent on the nervous system for operating power."
"Well, you talk as though you knew. I guess your training as a nurse is coming in useful."
"Will you try the Nerve Food, then?"
"Yes, I will give it a good trial, for I want to get around, and not sit here like an invalid."
"I am so glad, for I feel sure it will soon get you feeling all right again."
"You can obtain Dr. Chase's Nerve Food from all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto. On every box of the genuine you will find the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author."

CUT THIS OUT

Old English Recipe for Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises.

If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh cut this out, and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. An English doctor, who has a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Sprays, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in the damp English climate is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climatic conditions.

Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parmit (Double strength). Take this home and add to it ½ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Parmit used in this way acts directly upon the blood, and restores the faces of the system and has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired results. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh or head noises or is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.

He Quits Cathartics—Finds the Internal Bath Relieves Him Permanently

Mr. Joseph A. Wells, Hotel Vendome, Washington, D.C., writes Tyrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows:
"On the 15th of June, 1915, I purchased a 'J. B. L. Cascade'. The results it has produced are simply marvellous. For 20 years I used cathartics, but have used nothing but the Cascade for almost a month. I feel like a new man. I want to be pleasant to everybody. Before I used the Cascade I was a grump. Did not like anybody and could not be pleasant."
"If you battle internally with the 'J. B. L. Cascade' you will find yourself always bright, confident and capable. Poisonous waste in the lower intestine makes us bilious, blue, dull and nervous. Internal Baths are Nature's own cure for constipation—just antiseptic warm water properly applied. Drugs force Nature—the 'J. B. L. Cascade' gently assists her."
"It is the invention of Charles A. Tyrell, M.D., of New York, who specialized on Internal Bathing for 25 years, and will be shown and explained to you by E. Clinton Brown, Druggist, Union and Waterloo streets, St. John. E. N. Munroe, Dispensing Chemist, 357 Main street, St. John, who will also be glad to give you free on request an interesting booklet, called 'Why Man of Today is Only 50 per cent Efficient,' which covers the subject in a very thorough way."
Clip this out as a reminder and ask for the booklet the first time you are in the neighborhood.

PUT STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION

Says Indigestion Results from an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach, decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says Dr. J. M. H. Gensens, M.D., who tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyperacidity, meaning there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything that enters the stomach much like garbage bags in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which infest the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heart burn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead of from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescing and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

THE PRIMARY CAUSE

of most sickness is neglect of the liver. Constipation follows. The poisonous matter which should pass out of the body spreads through the system. That is the cause of sick headaches, sour stomach and biliousness and these troubles are sure indications that the liver needs attention.

THE CURE FOR ALL LIVER ILLS IS Hawker's Little Liver Pills

pers and razors. The employees of the Canadian Pacific freight sheds and round house are going to combat the "high cost of barbering" and have purchased equipment with which a hair trim will be dispensed at a nominal charge to employees of those departments. "We are not wanting a millionaire's hair cut when a working man's will do," declared one of the men. "It's the height of nonsense to expect us to pay 75 cents for a few minutes' work like that."

Farmers Prosperous.
Senator Arthur Capper, in an article in the April issue of the Journal of the American Bankers' Association, states that the average buying power of the United States farmer has increased during the last four years from $140 to $2,400 per year, an advance of over 100 per cent, whereas the average buying power of a city man still remains approximately at $900 per year.

It Is Iron In The Blood That Makes Iron Muscles Like These—

Physicians Below Explain a Secret of the Great Power and Endurance of Athletes—Tell How Organic Iron—Nuxated Iron Helps Build Rich, Red Blood That Gives Physical Strength and Energy To Go In and Win

To touch the arm of a strong, sturdy man—to feel the steel-like firmness of those muscular sinews—to think of the tremendous force and power that must lie behind such strength—these are thrills that come to the thin-blooded men and women whose own bodies are weak and physically unfit.

It takes men of red-blooded force and power to hit the sledge-hammer blows that count—and whether you are a pilot-driver or a bank president you cannot expect to win out against odds forever unless you are a man of iron—constantly able to strike—and strike hard.

"There are countless numbers of men today who at 40 are broken in health and steadily going downward to physical and mental decay simply because they are allowing worry, over-work, nervous strain, dissipation and occupational poisons to sap the iron from their blood and destroy its power to change food into living tissue, muscle and brain," says Dr. John J. Van Horne, formerly Medical Inspector and Clinical Physician on the Board of Health of New York City.

"Yet these are thousands of such men, who undergo a most remarkable transformation the moment they get plenty of the right kind of iron into their blood to give increased energy and endurance. Their imagined ills are forgotten, they gain physical poise and fitness, mental alertness and greater power to combat obstacles and withstand heavier strains. To help build stronger, healthier men and women, better able physically to meet the problems of everyday life, I believe that physicians should at every opportunity prescribe organic iron—Nuxated Iron—for in my experience it is one of the best tonic and red blood builders known to medical science."

"Without iron there can be no strength, red blooded men," says Dr. T. A. Wallace, a physician of their blood to give increased energy and endurance. Their imagined ills are forgotten, they gain physical poise and fitness, mental alertness and greater power to combat obstacles and withstand heavier strains. To help build stronger, healthier men and women, better able physically to meet the problems of everyday life, I believe that physicians should at every opportunity prescribe organic iron—Nuxated Iron—for in my experience it is one of the best tonic and red blood builders known to medical science."

If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test. See how long you can walk or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day, after meals, for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. Many an athlete or game player has won the day simply because he knew the secret of physical strength and endurance, while his opponent has gone down at the first blow because his blood was iron deficient simply for lack of iron.

Manufacturers Note: Nuxated Iron, which is advertised throughout the world, is not a secret remedy, but one which has been known for centuries. The name Nuxated Iron is merely a trade name for a certain preparation of iron which is easily absorbed. For weak and physically unfit men, it is an excellent tonic and red blood builder. SAYS BERLIN FAVORS RULE OF HOHENZOLLERN

C. M. Fenwick, Son of a Former Kings County Resident, Reports Desire for Crown Prince's Son as King of Prussia—Cordiality to Americans.

(Special Record.) The following article, reproduced from the New York Times of March 29 last, will be read with interest, as the Mr. Fenwick referred to is the son of Geo. Fenwick, a former Kings county man, resident of the Millstream.

Frederick M. Fenwick, of 10 Bridge street, who returned last week from a business trip to Germany, having left Berlin just before the Kapp revolt, says that there is in the capital a strong sentiment in favor of a Hohenzollern restoration.

"I talked with men of all ranks in Berlin," he said, "and the general opinion there expressed regarding the government of Germany was in favor of a constitutional monarchy, with the son of the former Crown Prince as King of Prussia. He is the hope of the Hohenzollerns and is carefully guarded from harm somewhere in Europe, but the exact spot is a secret known only to a very few.

"Berlin has very much changed since the war," Mr. Fenwick continued, "and nothing like the gay capital and flourishing business center of 1914. The houses and the stores are dingy for want of paint; the streets are dirty, and the gutters filled with all kinds of refuse. The familiar receptacles for rubbish of former days have disappeared.

"Prussia, Taxation. Only one sign of the former prosperity remains and that is the taxicabs, which are far superior to any seen on the streets of New York. They are clean, comfortable and speedy. The fare is three times the amount indicated on the motor, but that, of course, is compared with the taxicabs fares we are accustomed to at home.

"Nearly every man in the streets was wearing a uniform of some sort or another, but there was no saluting of officers or standing at attention and clicking heels together, which was such a familiar sight in Germany before the war.

"There was plenty of food in the hotels and restaurants at reasonable prices in American money, but dear from the German point of view. Although the people had suffered severely from the lack of coal during the last two winters in Berlin, they had not touched the fine trees in the Tiergarten. The big palace in Unter den Linden made his historic speech in August, 1914, declaring war against France, in empty, and so are the palaces at Potsdam. The rooms have been stripped bare and the tombs which were the pride of Sans Souci have gone to ruin, and the plants are all dead. The rooms with Voltaire's writing scribbled on the bars walls remain, and the shell room in the new palace at Charlottenburg is intact, but nothing else remains for the future American tourist.

Good Service in German Hotels. "The service in the hotels in Berlin, Hamburg, Bremen and other cities is very good indeed, and every courtesy is shown to Americans. I have been in restaurants where the conductors of the "DANDERINE" Stops Hair Coming Out; Doubles Its Beauty.

A few cents buys "Danderine." After an application of "Danderine" you can not find a fallen hair or any dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG! Don't stay gray! Nobody can tell when you darken gray, faded hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says: "Everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful."

Had to Go to Bed Headaches So Bad. Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills Made Her Well. When your liver gets sluggish and inactive, your whole health suffers. Mrs. E. Bainbridge, 30 Maple Ave., Amherst, N. S., writes: "I take pleasure in writing you of the good I received by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for headaches. I was so bad I had to go to bed, and could not sit up. A friend told me about your wonderful medicine, and two vials have made me as well as I can be. IRRITABLE NERVES RESTORED AND HEALTH REGAINED IN A SIMPLE WAY

The man or woman who is rundown, not feeling up to the mark, perhaps irritable, nervous or sleepless, can well afford to learn about the wonderful results the newly discovered blood-food is giving to folks that use it. There is wonderful power in this new blood-food, and every weak, pallid person can be quickly nourished back to health that uses it as directed. After each meal, with a sip or two of water, you simply take two little chocolate-coated tablets, sold in all drug stores under the name of "PERRAZONE". The effect is noticeable at once. You feel happier, brighter, more contented. That old-time feeling of weariness disappears—you forget your "nerves" and no longer get irritable or cross over trifling annoyances. There is a reason for this change and that reason consists of the fact that Perrazone contains blood-making materials you can get in no other way. Perrazone makes the blood tingle and sing with new vitality. This ensures lots of nourishment and strength being supplied to every part of the body. No wonder the eyes brighten and the cheeks radiate color and happiness: With abundance of strength, a keen appetite, good digestion and plenty of sound sleep—all the result of Perrazone—you quickly feel as if life held new charms and pleasures.

orchestra recognized our party as visitors from the United States and played rag time and finished with 'The Star Spangled Banner,' and when we stood up the rest of the people followed our example. It was evident everywhere that the German people were looking to America to help them to regain their position in the trade of the world and hoped that we would lend them money later to rehabilitate themselves. The train service on the main lines was pretty good and food can only be obtained in the restaurants at the principal stations. Hamburg was the best city I visited. It was spotless in its cleanliness, appearance, and the streets were so neat that I carried an empty match box two blocks to drop it into a receptacle because I did not dare to throw it down in the roadway with the stern-eyed guardian of the law watching me. The shipping of the port was improving every week and steamships were leaving Hamburg for China and Japan, as well as for American ports.

The North German Lloyd and Hamburg-American steamship companies were still paying part salaries to their officers and pensions to the employees who had retired before the war. I was informed, Hamburgers were more hopeful about the future outlook than the Berliners and were going about their business as they did before the war, but they did not show much confidence to the Ebert government and seemed to prefer a constitutional monarchy. I do not think there is much danger of the Bolshevik element obtaining control of Hamburg, as the inhabitants are too sensible.

Bremen is a dead city, and its people are full of gloom because the fine docks constructed in 1914 are empty; and the same gloom is being felt by Bremenites miles away. The stores are full of merchandise, a good deal of which had evidently been manufactured long time ago and kept in the warehouses until the war was over.

STEAMSHIP IS PREY OF FLAMES AT DARTMOUTH Halifax, April 16.—The French steamer Barr, was destroyed by fire at Dartmouth tonight. The loss is estimated at $400,000. A short circuit is said to have been responsible for the fire which burned the steamer to the water's edge as she lay up to Wisdom's Wharf. The Barr was a new wooden vessel of fifteen hundred tons valued at approximately $400,000. She was insured and will be a total loss. The fire broke out late tonight below decks on her starboard side. The fire department of Dartmouth responded to the alarm sent in and put up a good fight against the flames, but their efforts were fruitless. The crew, including Captain Roddills and the firemen were able to save most of their personal baggage and effects.

BAD COLD LEFT HIM WITH BRONCHITIS However slight a cold you have you should never neglect it; if you do it can have but one result. It leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected. Bronchitis is one of the most common ailments of a neglected cold, and neglected bronchitis the most general cause of consumption. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is just the remedy you require to cure the bronchitis. It does this by loosening the phlegm and irritates parts and the weakened bronchial organs, always irritation and subdues inflammation, soothes the inflamed parts and thus prevents it becoming chronic.

Mr. R. P. Sundblad, Francis, Sask., writes: "I had a very bad cold and left me with bronchitis. I tried several cough remedies and oils of all kinds, but they all failed. At last I got Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and after using two bottles I have never since had a sign of bronchitis since. I therefore can honestly recommend it for coughs and colds."

Don't accept a substitute for Dr. Wood's. The genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper; 8 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

To Absorb Freckles And Other Blemishes. Every spring numerous inquiries are made by girls seeking some reliable recipe for removing freckles. Very favorable reports have been received from many who have used ordinary mercurized wax during the freckling season. The wax seems to possess unusual properties which completely absorb the freckles, with no harmful effect whatever. The complexion improves wonderfully, becoming as soft as a rose petal, and as delicately tinted. Get an ounce of ordinary mercurized wax at any druggist's, spread a thin layer of it over the entire face every night for a while, washing this off in the morning. For rough, spotty skin, sallowness, blackheads, pimples and all cutaneous blemishes, this treatment is superior to any other.

Don't Use Curling Iron! Here's a Better Method. Thousands of ruined heads of hair bear striking testimony to the injurious effects of the heated curling iron. The continued use of such instrument invariably means dull, dry, shagreened hair, with split, broken, uneven ends. If more women only knew it, the hair can be kept beautifully wavy, soft and fluffy—without any harmful result whatever—by the occasional use of plain liquid siltmerine. A small quantity is applied before doing up the hair, using a clean toothbrush for the purpose, drawing this down the full length of the hair. The curly effect lasts quite a considerable time. It is so natural looking, and the texture and lustre of the hair are so improved, that the woman who adopts this simple method will never go back to the atrocious waving iron. A few ounces of liquid siltmerine from the druggist will last for weeks. The liquid is agreeable to use, and it leaves no gummy, greasy or odorous trace.

Spring is Here. So is "Spring Fever"—that heavy, sluggish, upset feeling, which indicates a disordered system and impure blood.

Dr. Wilson's HERBINE BITTERS is an excellent regulator and blood purifier, and an ideal spring tonic. At your druggist 25c. and 50c. per bottle.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil: Remove Them With Othine—Double Strength. This preparation for the removal of freckles is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil that conceals them. Othine and remove them. From the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

Philadelphia, April 17.—Sixty-six hundred dollars in one hundred, fifty, twenty and ten. It's a lot of money to find in the street, and Albert W. Donn, a railroad telegraph operator, Camden, N. J., gasped when he picked it up at Sixth and Chestnut streets. It began to look as if the old U. C. C. had been solved for Donn, and it would have been for one thing—he has a conscience. Donn set out to locate the owner. In the small handbag containing the money was an envelope bearing the name "Jennie Henry" and her address. He located Miss Henry, who was prostrated by the loss, and she feebly answered Donn's request to see her when he called at the house. She was so overjoyed because the cash plans to be married soon.

Probably the most strange present ever given to a bride was that which an eccentric old gentleman sent on the occasion of the marriage of Edward Ridley, formerly Mr. Justice Ridley. It was the skeleton of an Austrian grenadier!

The donor had once seen the future Lady Ridley making a study from a skull and vowed he would send her a whole skeleton when she married. So among the presents was a tall oak box containing the skeleton, a gruesome addition to Miss Bromley Davenport's other charming gifts—London Chronicle.

THIEVES GET 42 BARRELS OF DRINK

Nervy Wholesale Theft from Warehouse in Brighton, Mass.

(Boston Globe.)
How could thieves move, without detection, $16,000 worth of hard liquor, in forty-two barrels or thereabouts, from the storeroom of M. H. Glynn in Washington street, Brighton, near the corner of Chestnut Hill avenue, in the very heart of the busiest section of that district?

That is the latest poser put up to the sleuths at the Brighton police station, as a result of the report of the theft brought to the attention of the authorities early today. The liquor apparently was stolen some time last night.

The building from which the liquor was taken is a one and a half story wooden building, and its situation would seem to have been not at all propitious for a getaway. It is the next building from the corner of Chestnut Hill avenue and Washington street. Opposite Chestnut Hill avenue and the store is Market street, which carries the main trolley line to North Brighton. The vicinity is generally the scene of unusually heavy traffic.

Mr. Glynn has been in business in Brighton for about ten years. He purchased a few years ago the building on the corner of the avenue and Washington street, which is now in process of demolition. This was an old business block containing a drug store and offices and a hall in which societies met.

Alley Led to Rear Door.
On the other side of the store from which the liquor was taken there is a small dead-end alley called Baldwin

If Breath Comes Hard If Nose Is Plugged You Have Catarrh

Perhaps you haven't heard of the new remedy—it's so pleasant to use—fills the nose, throat and lungs with a healing balsamic vapor like the air of the pine woods. It's really a wonderful remedy—utilizes that marvelous antiseptic only found in the Blue Gum tree of Australia.

The name of this grand specific is Catarrhose, and you can't find its equal on earth for coughs, colds, catarrh or throat trouble. You see it's no longer necessary to drug the stomach—that spoils digestion—just simply inhale the balsamic essence of Catarrhose, which are so rich in healing that they drive out every trace of Catarrh in no time.

For speakers and singers and persons troubled with an irritable throat, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh or la grippe, Catarrhose is of inestimable value. The inhaler can be carried in your pocket and may be used at any time or in any place.

Large size, guaranteed, and sufficient for two months' use, costs $1; smaller size, 50c; sample size, 25c. Sold by all storekeepers and druggists.

"77" FOR COLDS

For Grip, Influenza, Catarrh, Cough and Sore Throat.

To get the best results take "Seventy-seven" at the first sign of a cold, the first sneeze or shiver.

If you wait till your bones begin to ache, it may take longer.

The use of "Seventy-seven" points to the vast system of Dr. Humphrey's Remedies as uttering as the needle to the Pole.

EXTRACTS FROM AN IRISH PAPER

Giving Brief Accounts of Murders Committed—Condemners Are a Shining Mark.

The Times has received a copy of the Cork Weekly Examiner of March 27, which devotes about four full pages to the murder of Lord Mayor MacCurtain, the funeral, the inquest, the messages of sympathy and other matters relating to the tragedy. There is one page of illustrations. The whole city was profoundly moved and universal sympathy was expressed.

The identity of the murderers who went to the Lord Mayor's house and shot him down has not been discovered. He is survived by his wife and five young children.

In the same issue of the Examiner are reports of many other murders. Extracts from some of these may be quoted as an illustration of the shocking conditions that exist. We quote:—

"The tragedy enacted at Pope's Quay continues to be a most mysterious affair. The victim, Constable Joseph Murtagh, who was a member of the police force stationed at Sunday's Well, a well known in the city, and was stated to be very popular amongst his countrymen. He was a widower, aged about forty years, a native of County Meath, and had twenty-four years' service, while he leaves three bereaved children. On the previous evening Constable Murtagh was off duty, and he attended the second performance at the Palace Theatre at the time he was in plain clothes. At the conclusion of the entertainment, about a quarter to eleven, he proceeded to return to Sunday's Well station. While walking along the footpath at Pope's Quay, and when a short distance beyond the Dominican church, a number of shots rang out, and Constable Murtagh fell. Some pedestrians in the neighborhood at the time promptly went to his aid, and a Dominican priest was summoned, but an examination of the unfortunate man showed that life was extinct, death having been practically instantaneous. The spot where the outrage was committed was only very dimly lighted at the time, and the assailants were able to make the attack without attracting attention, and to quickly effect their escape. Murtagh had the reputation of being a most intrepid man, and was one of his many comrades who yesterday morning attended the funeral on his way through the city of Constable Healy, who was shot at Toomevara during the week.

Fuller particulars of the Toomevara tragedy show that the deceased constables were returning unarmed from the Novena devotions, and at a point about thirty yards from the church, opposite an old graveyard, or abbey, in the centre of the square, ranging out from the church, Constable Healy and Constable Healy, hit in the back, staggered to the graveyard wall, which he laid on to. The assailants fired several shots as he was in this position, but none took effect. The man, however, bears signs of the bullet marks, and apparently one of these bullets ricocheted off the wall and struck the man in the back, making his way home with the other constable from the devotions. Healy was removed to the hospital, but died soon after. Constable Healy was killed instantly.

Constable G. Doyle, who was wounded at Rathkeale on Wednesday night, 10th inst., when Sergeant Neasey was killed by a revolver shot fired by a party of raiders, was removed yesterday from Limerick to Dublin for special medical examination of the injuries received.

Bandon, Saturday—Police Constable Wm. McCarthy, of Kiltbritain Barracks, was fired at this morning at about ten o'clock and badly wounded. He was returning on a bicycle from a Ballinaspittle to Kiltbritain when fired at. He received slight revolver wounds. Constable McCarthy, who was wounded in Kiltbritain, has been removed to a Cork hospital. When fired at near Kiltbritain Castle, about one mile from the barracks, he jumped off his bicycle and walked to the barracks. He is wounded in the arm, the side of the abdomen, and the back of the neck. He is progressing favorably.

Patrick Blake, a young man twenty-six, residing at Rahona West, was shot dead in the street at Carrigaholt on Thursday night.

Tralee, Thursday—Cornelius Kelly, aged forty, was shot dead by six snipers at Cahlanish, South Kerry, between nine and ten o'clock last night. The deceased was caretaker of County Limerick court house, where four bicycles belonging to the police were stored a couple of days previously. A Mr. Kelly was shot dead the raiders carried off the bicycles.

Limerick, Thursday Night—An official constabulary telegram received in Limerick this evening states that while Sergeant Portobello and Constable Moran were returning to Kildimo on bicycles from attending Palskenny Petty Sessions they were fired at and both wounded—Constable Moran seriously and Sergeant Portobello in the legs severely.

The Cork Examiner, in an article on the murder of the Lord Mayor, makes this appeal to the people:—

"The duty of patriotic Irishmen, and especially of patriotic Corkmen, is to exercise the fullest restraint—to sacrifice their individual opinions or prejudices, and to comply with the discipline that is required by the moral law. Other laws may be repealed or amended or become obsolete, but the Ten Commandments are not liable to the changes of circumstance or time. They are the basis of God's law, which is immortal. Let then any thoughts of retaliation or reprisals, if they exist amongst any section of the community be discarded as unworthy and unwise. The Bishop of Cork has defined the moral law as to be for life, for property, for commercial and industrial enterprises in the city of Cork. If there be reprisals or retaliation there can be no peace. Let it be remembered that "peace hath her victories no less renowned than war," and Corkmen who love their city, and are jealous of her honor, should not allow themselves to be swayed by emotion or ruled by impulse, but should act in accordance with the Divine law, which ultimately secures justice for nations as well as for individuals, and rights the wrongs of oppressed peoples."

Growing Old Healthfully

IT'S no wonder, after years of active life, when the strength has often been overburdened and the powers of endurance taxed beyond all justice, that the evening of life finds so many men and women mere wrecks of their former selves.

With advancing years, the kidneys more than any other organ in the body are susceptible to disease and breakdown. This condition should be guarded against; precaution and experience suggests

When weak, the kidneys can be strengthened to perform their great task of taking the impurities and poisons out of the blood, by the judicious use of Gin Pills. When the kidneys function properly, there need be little fear of those wearing dull pains in the back, and across the groins, dizziness and headaches, rheumatism, gravel, sciatica, lumbago, neuralgia, stiff joints and swollen ankles, with the accompanying tired feeling and lassitude.

Gin Pills have all the good qualities of the gin without any of the alcohol. Juniper, so good for the kidneys and bladder, is combined with seven other diuretics and antiseptics, so scientifically that the beneficial effect is sure, safe and almost immediately felt.

SUFFRAGE TURNS TO THE SOUTH.

(New York Evening Post.)
North Carolina's Democratic Convention, by 585 votes to 428, has recommended ratification of the suffrage amendment, after the platform committee had counselled rejection. For the first time women sat in the convention. It is significant that the convention sent one woman as "honorary delegate" to San Francisco. The Charlotte Observer commenting on the force of the "woman influence" in state politics, carries on its first page the statement that "it is believed the Tar Heel State will fall in line and turn the trick." Gov. Bickett is counted a moderate but firm advocate of suffrage, and others—like Chief Justice Walter Clark—are earnest advocates.

Whatever You Do Don't Neglect Your Eyes, Says Dr. Lewis, Who Tells How to Strengthen Eyesight 50% in One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. He says neglect causes more eye trouble and poor sight than any other one thing. Many whose eyes were failing say they had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me."

A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto Tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two or four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

NOTE: Another prominent Physician to whom the above article was submitted said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent. in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." It is sold in this city by all druggists, including Wasson's Drug Store.

COMMUNISTS NOW RULE IN RUSSIA

Centralization Is Now the Watchword — Bolshevism Has Broken Down.

(New York Evening Post.)
The rulers of Soviet Russia, in their triumphant end of the civil war and formulated their plans of reconstruction. The "rulers of Russia" is here used advisedly. Lenin's exultation over the "miracle" of victory and Trotsky's exposition of his economic programme have been uttered, not before the All-Russian Congress of Soviets of Workers, Soldiers and Peasants, but before the delegates of the Communist party. It is the Communists that rule in Russia, a party comprising an infinitely small fraction of the Russian people. The sardonic epigram attributed to Lenin has come true: If 100,000 landowners, said the chief commissar, governed Russia under the czar there was no reason why 200,000 Communists could not rule Russia under the new dispensation.

The actual membership of the Communist party today is not much more than that. It is no doubt a tribute to so small a minority that it should have succeeded in imposing its leadership upon an empire. But it is important that the fact of minority rule be kept in mind. It will continue to be the guiding principle of Bolshevik policy. Trotsky's programme of compulsory labor armies is the climax of this philosophy.

Through this evolution Bolshevism has passed in the space of two years and half of power and of contact with facts. It is an evolution that should hold peculiar interest for a good many American sympathizers of the Bolshevik experiment. Bolshevism in its first phase was hailed on this side of the water as the emergence of true democracy in Russia. It did not matter that Lenin lost very little time in renouncing the democratic ideal. The dictatorship of the proletariat was immediately revealed to be a dictatorship of a minute minority. Bolshevism made no concealment of the fact, but their sympathizers in this country, though Lenin would slay them, still believed.

They believed until belief in Bolshevism as democracy vanished even for the most devout. Whereupon a new line of defence was thrown up. The exigencies of revolution and civil war made a political dictatorship inevitable. But at least Bolshevism brought economic democracy. The landowner was expropriated. The workers controlled in the factories. Behind the rifles of the Red army a new social experiment was working itself out. But that phase, too, passed into Nivana. American sympathizers with Lenin, who demanded "the truth about Russia," soon had the truth about Russia. Workers' control in the factories, if it was ever more than a dream, disappeared. The commissar replaced the committee. Lenin was the first to turn upon factory administration by public meetings.

The Soviet rulers were out for results, and they soon discovered, as friendly foreign correspondents repeatedly informed us, that the way to get a thing done was to send a "man" to do it. Today Trotsky asserts that political administration of the railroads is unsteady and temporary, but necessary. Unfortunately, railroad workers are more conservative in tendency than other workers. The idea of Bolshevik rule was Russia governed by Soviets of workers within their industries. But the most intelligent section of the Russian workers the railroad men, are not yet fit to rule. And so industrial democracy ends in Trotsky's compulsory labor armies.

The Soviet state was an ideal to which American sympathizers clung most fervently. The Bolsheviks might be tyrants, their economic theories might be heresy, but their ideal of the decentralized state was a contribution to the world's political thought. Good Americans revealed in the "decentralized" state.

They went further, and in the columns of the New Republic and the Nation speculated about the "disappearance" of the state. Once more they have their answer from Lenin and Trotsky. Lenin tells them that victory was made possible by "centralization." Trotsky tells them that reconstruction is only possible through centralization. In government, centralization; in factories, centralization; and for industry as a whole, militarization. Only among the peasantry, it must be confessed, is there no centralization. Bolshevism set out to introduce the pure gospel of Socialism and has created millions of peasant "petty capitalists." That is the record which has moved Karl Kautsky to describe the Bolshevik achievement as an inferior kind of Capitalism.

IRISH FARMERS AND SINN FEIN

(By One of Them in Cork Examiner.)
Today, with all these stories of murder and counter-murder in Ireland, it is worth remembering that the Irish farmer is at heart no more a Republican than the English landlord is a Bolshevik.

Since the disappearance of landlordism by the operation of the Land Acts there is no worker more independent, prosperous, and contented than whose grievances were formerly the centre of Irish political agitation and unrest. It is an outrageous misconception which figures him as a lean and lazy idealist, dreaming of Cuchulain, grey peace, and Brian Boru, longing for the return of the Brehon Law, and expressing his sense of nationality by taking an occasional pot-shot at a policeman.

From dawn to dusk he and all his house are engaged in tilling the soil which formerly it was not worth his while to cultivate, but which now, by the grace of God and the Wyndham Act, is his own. He may have bought the big house evacuated by his landlord predecessor, and as often as not is the proud possessor of a Ford car.

What is his attitude to Sinn Fein? It must be remembered that he is in a minority and having no grievance is longer of political importance.

Today, as in the rebellion of 1916, Sinn Fein depends not on the farmers but on the landless men, poorly paid workers, the clerks, poets, shop assistants, barbers and laborers in the towns.

The farmer embraced Sinn Fein during the war because it was the most effective method of opposing conscription. Like some English farmers, but with more reason, he hated conscription and avoided military service by every means in his power. It is notorious that, when the young farmer became less punctual in his attendance at volunteer parades and was very loth to lend his horses and cars as afloat for Sunday marchings and political excursions.

But for obvious reasons he must keep in with Sinn Fein. He knows just as well as the Sinn Fein leaders themselves that the demand for an independent republic is a crying for the moon; that the dream will never be realized, and that it would be a bad day for him if it were. Yet he has a very natural dislike of taxation, and he knows that the present agitation has weakened the executive and made the tax-collector more timid and less sophisticated than of yore.

At a wedding in Bantry recently a farmer from East Cork told me that he had been making more than £2,000 a year on his farm of about 500 acres. In reply to my question as to whether he had not to pay a heavy income tax, "Divil a penny," quoth he. "None of us do. The Sinn Feiners would be mad if we paid taxes to the English government and we don't want to anyway."

He knows very well that the independent republic would not spare him.

Mary Pickford Case Is Again Before Court

Minden, Nevada, April 16.—In the interest of the state of Nevada, a suit asking that the decree of divorce granted on March 2, 1920, by District Judge Langan to Gladys E. Moore, more familiarly known as Mary Pickford, from Owen E. Moore be set aside was filed in the district court here this afternoon, by Leonard B. Fowler, attorney-general.

The complaint is based on allegations of fraud, connivance and collusion between Moore, his wife and Douglas Fairbanks, to whom the former Mrs. Moore was married a short time after her divorce was granted.

Allegations are that Moore came to Minden solely to be served summons in the suit, and that Miss Pickford concealed her identity from the judge up to the moment of taking the witness stand. As Judge Langan is one of the witnesses summoned for the state, another judge will hear the complaint.

SOCIAL CLUB FOR MOOSE

The St. John lodge of the Loyal Order of the Moose has made an important new departure. It has been decided that the present hall should be given up on May 1, and that the lodge should move to new quarters at 12 Coburg street, and it has been also decided to organize a social club.

It was announced at a special meeting last evening that the new quarters would consist of one large room to be for the exclusive use of the social club and the adjoining hall would be used for the meetings of the lodge which are held twice monthly. At the regular meeting of the lodge, held this week, the election of officers took place and resulted in the following: Dictator, A. W. Chamberlain; vice-dictator, J. W. Morrell; secretary, W. J. Case; treasurer, A. W. Covey; prelate, George W. Brogan; sergeant-at-arms, William D. McLennan; past dictator, W. J. Crawford.

At the special meeting held last night, the social club was organized and the following officers elected: Chairman, Edward Hunt; secretary-treasurer, George W. Brogan; managing committee, W. J. Crawford, Herbert Bassett and W. D. McLennan. The constitution and bye-laws of the new club were read and adopted. It was pointed out that it would be necessary for all members of the social club to be members of the lodge, but not necessary that all lodge members should become members of the club. The new club rooms are to be fitted out with pool and billiard rooms and the other paraphernalia necessary for social purposes. There

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1920

WORLD WORSE AND NOT BETTER BECAUSE OF WAR

Bishop Farthing's Charge to Montreal Synod

Speaks of 18 Months' Unavailing Hope for Peace, and the Epidemic of Profiteering—Church Union—Stipends of Clergy.

(Montreal Star.)

Bishop Farthing's address to the Anglican synod this afternoon makes reference to the loss sustained by the deaths of Rev. R. D. Irwin and Rev. Canon J. F. H. Allnutt, D. D., the funeral of the latter taking place at the time the address was made. There follows a list of the episcopal acts performed in the year 1919, which included a number of memorial services and tablet unveilings and details of changes in the various dioceses.

War and Rumors of War.
In a resume of general conditions existing at the present time, his lordship said:

Eighteen months have passed since the armistice, and we cannot suppress the feeling of disappointment at the conditions which confront us. Peace has not yet been made between all the warring nations and the ink of the signatures to the peace treaty with the Central Powers is hardly dry when once more we face the possibilities of another world conflagration.

Instead of the dawn of the reign of Christ with its love and peaceful order, we see the spirit of intense selfishness appealing to the arbitration of force, just as it did in the pre-war days. We hear of wars being waged, we hear rumors of nations preparing for war. In our own nation we see what is to all intents and purposes a fratricidal war in Ireland. To what imperial and international complications this may lead, no one can forecast. The possibilities of appalling evil, pregnant with unknown suffering and calamity for ourselves and other nations, lie there.

Unrepentant Germany is satirically continuing her old policy of stirring up nations against nations that in the struggle she may escape the due reward of her wickedness. Others are apparently seeking to gratify ambition at the expense of the prostrate and war exhausted nations; while the near and far east seem to be seething with discontent and threatening unrest, and Russia is causing the horror of the unknown. Add to this the blind greed of the profiteers in our own and other lands, who are by adding burden to burden, leading on the peaceful and law-abiding citizens to join the forces of revolt which are indus-triously laboring to upset our civilization, and to destroy law and order. We seem to be the victims of a pernicious system, for which it is difficult to place responsibility. Selfish men inspired by greed are taking advantage of the opportunities which the system affords to enrich themselves at the cost of intense suffering to nameless thousands of their fellows. Hiding behind the system they escape detection and seek to evade personal responsibility. We must insist that the Christian is responsible for the evil he does, nor can he rightly profit by wrong no matter what human systems seem to justify the wrong.

The speaker also referred to the unfortunate success of the propaganda seeking to separate the two great Anglo-Saxon races, Britain and the United States of America, which he deeply deplored.

Church Union.
Upon the subject of church union, he added:
We must approach the subject by enunciating principles. Everyone baptized with water into the Name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost is a member of the Body of Christ. Our non-episcopal brethren are therefore members of the Church of Jesus Christ. This fact must be recognized. They are not members of the Anglican Communion, but they are members of the Body of Christ, which is to me, the Catholic Church. The cloth torn from the garment has not changed its general substance, it is of the same character as the rest of the garment from which it is taken. The garment is marred by the schism, and the separated piece is not as useful as when in its original place in the garment, both alike in substance, however. The duty of all is to weave the piece back into its proper place in the garment, and to do so it as to leave no ugly seam.

The expediency of Federation does not appeal to me at all. It seems to sacrifice our freedom to a large degree, to curtail our liberty, and cannot fail at times to put us in a most delicate position when it is well-nigh impossible to avoid compromising truth and principles.

Must Make Stipends.
With regard to the subject of re-organization the speaker said:
The decrease in the number of English speaking families in many of the country parts of the diocese necessitate a re-arrangement in the congregations. The policy which this diocese has ever pursued, and I hope will continue, is to bring the ministrations of the church to all English speaking people scattered throughout this province, and I feel in pursuing this policy, we have been abundantly blessed. It has been very encouraging to note that though the numbers are less than in years gone by, the contributions to the maintenance of the church locally, and in the mission field are greater than they ever have been, showing that the people in the country have been learning the blessing of giving.

The increase in the cost of living during the last few years necessitates the payment of larger stipends to the clergy, and consequently very much larger grants from the Mission Fund. These grants have increased until in some parishes they are larger than the total stipends were a few years ago.

Add to this the scarcity of men occasioned by the emptying of our colleges during the war which has completely shut off our source of supply for the past four or five years. If we are to pay even the modest stipends which are now in force, and at the same time minister to all our people scattered throughout the country, we must economize in men and money.

Budget is Larger.
The budget figures showed an increase over last year in funds raised for parochial purposes amounted to $340,459, being $66,472 more than in 1918. "The need for our budget is just as great as ever," said Bishop Farthing, "and the Forward Movement. Nothing must be allowed to interfere with it. Every effort, even a greater effort than usual, must be put forth to ensure a full and liberal response. The stipends of our clergy in the diocese, in the Canadian mission field, and in a limited measure in the foreign field, will depend upon it.

Last year we were able to pay the stipends on the scale of $1,000, $1,100 and $1,200 and home, through the giving of two bonuses. This year the executive committee recommended that the canonical stipends be increased to $600, $1,000 and $1,100. This is instead of the bonus given last February. It is a further step towards our goal, and puts the increase on a proper basis as a legal stipend, and not as a bonus."

Forward Movement.
His Lordship then proceeded to deal exhaustively with the Forward Movement, which he characterized as the first effort at united church action, and the success of which had surpassed all expectations. He also commented upon the work of parish organizations, candidates for the ministry, amusements and work and the moving pictures, in regard to the movement. With respect to the last named, there could be no greater mistake than to condemn moving pictures indiscriminately when considering the powerful influence for good of some exhibitions. The address concluded with a retrospect and forecast, which included reference to the work of Miss Dawke in looking after the girls brought before the Recorder's Court and the payment of curates to assist in the work of industrial parishes.

Over two hundred and fifty delegates, clergy and lay, attended the opening today of the sessions of the Anglican Synod of the Diocese of Montreal.

Shortly before 10:30 the clergy formed a procession from the chapter house and proceeded to the Cathedral for the celebration of Holy Communion. Rev. Dean Evans read the Gospel and Archdeacon Longhurst the Epistle. Right Rev. Bishop Farthing conducted the celebration, being assisted by Rev. Canons Rexford, Flanagan, and Carmichael and Rev. Dr. Taylor.

The preacher at the annual synod service to be held in the cathedral tonight at 8 p. m. will be Rev. Canon Cody, D. D., of Toronto, minister of education in the late Ontario government, and a well-known platform speaker and writer. The service will be conducted by the vicar, Rev. Dr. Symonds, who will be assisted by Rev. Dean Evans, Rev. Archdeacon Paterson-Smith and Rev. Canon Willis. The choir will also participate. The session will last for three days, closing on Thursday, and during this period business will be transacted in both mornings and afternoons.

AIRPLANE TO CARRY EIGHT MACHINE GUNS.

Washington, April 16—An army airplane, remodeled to carry eight machine guns, has been sent to the Mexican border for official test. In addition to the two guns synchronized to fire between the propeller blades, the plane has two fixed guns set to fire through the floor of the pilot's cockpit, two on the upper gun mount and two to fire through the floor or the observer's cockpit. In some planes the floor guns will be mounted so as to permit flexible aiming.

Other inventions ready for testing by army fliers include a new model gyroscope compass, weighing only seventeen pounds and a heater for oxygen, to be used in high altitudes.

GUARD IRELAND AGAINST FOES OF GREAT BRITAIN

To Give Home Rule That Will Provide That Protection Is Problem.

(Toronto Globe.)
 "There is today no statesman in the United Kingdom who is not convinced that there ought to be immediate restoration of legislative institutions in Ireland," declared Philip W. Wilson, parliamentary correspondent of The London Daily News, and formerly member of the British House of Commons, in an address on "A Moderate View of the Irish Question," before the Canadian Club at the King Edward Hotel yesterday noon.

"The British position in regard to Ireland," he said, "is not distinguishable from the Australian position with regard to the South Sea Islands. We say we will give them every liberty excepting a liberty, in association with some European power, to cut off not only the United Kingdom, but the whole of northern Europe and France as well, from the new world, including yourselves."

What the speaker said he feared in connection with the Irish question was "not so much the embarrassing of England as the isolation of Ireland. It is very possible for a nation toward which there has been extended an unusual measure of generous sympathy and a great wave of public affection—it is possible for such a nation at a time of world crisis to capitalize her grievances and to weary the heart and the ear of mankind with that which cannot be established in solid fact."

Mr. Wilson conceived the grievances of Ireland to be four-fold—religious, financial, agrarian and parliamentary—and he proceeded to explain how far each of these grievances had been dealt with. The Penal Laws which were applied to Ireland have been entirely removed, he said, in connection with the first-mentioned grievance, and a great university system, including Protestants and Catholics, had been established. He doubted if there was any system of education in which a great dominant faith like the Catholic Church has had greater influence than in the elementary schools of Ireland established in the south and west.

 (Canadian Press Despatch.)
 Albany, April 16—Announcement was made tonight by Senator Parton C. Swift, of Buffalo, and Assemblyman Louis A. Cuvillier, of New York, that they would introduce in the legislature tomorrow a bill designed to submit to the voters next fall the question of a bond issue of $50,000,000 for the payment of a bonus to residents of the state who served in the war.
 The bonds, the legislatures announced, will be exempt from taxation and bear interest at the rate of five per cent. annually. The measure provides that the bonus shall be paid to the executor or administrator of the will of any person who died in the service. It also provides that "conscientious objectors" will not be entitled to an allowance.

BOWLING.

Owls Win First Game.
The first of a series of games to decide the bowling championship of the city was played on Black's alleys last evening between the Owls, winners of the Y. M. C. I. league, and the Ramblers, leaders of the City Bowling League. The former won the initial contest by a total of twenty-six pins. The match was witnessed by a large number of fans and enthusiasm ran high. Cleary was high man for the winners, rolling a good count game, and averaging 102, while they led the losers with an average of 11-3. The individual scores follow:—

Table with bowling scores for Ramblers, Owls, and Commercial League.

Commercial League.
The final game of the roll-off for supremacy in the Commercial League was played last evening on Black's alleys, and resulted in a win for the C. P. R. They defeated their rivals by twenty-five pins and are now champions of the league for this year.

There seems to be some misapprehension about the miniature bowling they presented last evening at the Wellington League meeting on Thursday evening. The presentation was not made to Jack personally on account of his low average, but to the G. W. V. A. team who finished last in the league. Mr. Woods, in fact, had the good average of 82.2. The G. W. V. A. team labored under difficulties the other teams did not have to contend with. In the case of the others, with the exception of the "Procedero Club," all the players worked under one roof, whereas it was hard for the manager of the "Vets" to keep in touch with his players and always have the best team on hand.

Football.
British Game.
London, April 16.—A first league football match played today resulted in a win by Blackburn Rovers from Aston Villa, 5 to 1.

Athletic.
Britisher Injured.
New York, April 17.—An injury will prevent W. G. Tatham, one of the five star British runners of the Oxford-Cambridge relay team, from competing in the University of Pennsylvania meet at Philadelphia. Tatham severely hurt his left ankle by falling down a companionway when the Atlantic was two days out from Southampton. A wireless was then sent to England asking that Seagrave and Legge, two other fast Oxford runners, be sent to this country.

How Did They Do It?
Halifax Echo: We wonder just how the American Olympic hockey team managed to get through with a clean slate as to their amateur standing. Certainly had they taken the trouble to make inquiries on this side of the ice several of the Americans (?) would not have been blessed with a A. A. U. sanction unless that august body closed their lids and went peacefully to sleep. The personnel of the team cannot be called amateur according to our loose way of looking at such things and certainly cannot be called American as applied to those born in the United States. As a conglomerate organization, however, they should put up a pretty speedy game of hockey.

Wrestling.
Defended Title.
New York, April 16.—Joe Stecher successfully defended his heavy weight catch-as-catch-can wrestling title here tonight by throwing Ed "Strangler" Lewis of Lexington (Ky.), in three hours, four minutes and fifteen seconds with a head scissor and arm lock.

The Ring.
Montreal Amateurs.
Montreal, April 16.—Marking the revival of amateur boxing, the preliminary rounds of the lighter weight classes and the semi-finals of the heavier classes were decided in the gymnasium of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association here tonight. The outstanding feature was the fine finish put up by J. T. Dixon of the Griffintown Boys' Club over H. Lomas of the Grenadier Guards in the semi-final of the light heavy weight class. Dixon was outpointed to within ten seconds of the end of the last round when he sent in a wild right and knocked Lomas out.

AQUATIC.
Sticks to Shamrock IV.
London, April 17.—Regarding the statements that in the event of the Shamrock III, proving faster than the challenger, Shamrock IV, in the trials, he would ask the New York Yacht Club to be allowed to substitute the older boat in the race for the Shamrock IV, Captain Fred Roberts of the Associated Press yesterday said: "I have never dreamed of suggesting such a course. I am fully aware that having challenged with the Shamrock IV, I cannot race any other boat against the American defending yacht without issuing another challenge in accordance with the rules covering the contest."
New York, April 17.—The 28 metre yacht Shamrock, which Sir Thomas Lipton will use in the trial races against his Shamrock IV, preliminary to the America's Cup races, sailed from Southampton on April 8 for New York, Cal. on the side of the British sportsman, announced upon his arrival here today on the steamship Adriatic. He said the vessel will take a month to make the journey by way of Azores.
"I expect Sir Thomas will be here in about four weeks, and preparations for the racing will soon be on in earnest," Colonel Neill added.
The mast, boom, gaff, smaller spars and rigging for the "trial boat," and a gaff for the big racer were brought over on the Adriatic. When the sun at the yard at City Island, where the Shamrock IV, is located, and Col. Neill will arrive immediately to set her for the speed trials off Sandy Hook.

The Monahan Y. M. C. A. basketball team will play the local senior team tonight in the second game to decide the provincial "A" championship. A well-contested match is expected.

GOLF.
St. John Man in Finals.
Percy W. Thomson, of this city, defeated C. H. Lay, of Moncton, yesterday in the semi-final of the fourth consolation division at Finchurst, N. C. He will be the only Canadian representative in the finals. His son, Eric Thomson, was defeated in the fifth sixteen.

Women Competitors.
New York, April 17.—Three American women golfers sailed today on the steamer Baltic to compete in the British Ladies' championship tournament on the Newcastle course in Ireland next month. They are Miss Marion Hollis, metropolitan title holder; Miss Mildred Cavery, national runner up four years ago; and Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck, 1913 national champion.

SKATING.
Baptie is Winner.
Philadelphia, April 17.—Norval Baptie of Bathgate, North Dakota, won the indoor professional skating championship at the ice palace here last night by defeating G. Belfray of Winnipeg, Harley Davidson of St. Paul, and Phil Kearney of Brooklyn.

Baptie won all three of last night's events in easy fashion. He covered the mile in two minutes, which is said to be a new record over a twelve-lap rink. His time for the half mile was 1:17-3-5, and in the 440 yard event, it was 34-4-5 seconds.

Previous to last night Baptie had a total of 18 points. Davidson 12, Belfray 6 and Kearney 5. The final score was: Baptie 28, Davidson 19, Belfray 10 and Kearney 7.

LAST YEAR FOR GEORGE STALLINGS Will Retire From Baseball at the End of This Season.

New York, April 16.—An announcement by George Stallings, manager of the Braves, that this season would be his last in baseball and that he proposed to retire to his plantation in Georgia and give his entire personal attention to the breeding of cattle, came as a big surprise.

His contract with the Boston club will expire at the end of this season, but there is no doubt that "the miracle man" would have plenty of offers from other clubs, even if he did not care to renew.
