JAPS STILL ADVANCING. Kuroki Captures Another Important Position. News from Port Arthur Contradicts Report of Loss of Russian Battleship Peresviet.

TOKIO, July 5, noon.—A detachment of Gen. Kuroki's army has occupied North Pen Shan Pass without meeting with resistance. The main army advanced westward and occupied a line extending from Mao Tien Pass to the Shao Mo Tien and Sankai Passes. THE PERESVIET IS O. K. CROONSTADT, July 5.—All doubts as to the safety of the Peresviet which, according to reports, had been torpedoed at Port Arthur, were removed by the receipt of a telegram from the captain of the battleship saying the ship and all on board are well. The telegram, which was dated from New Chang, was brought here by the torpedo boat destroyer, Lieut. Burkoloff. CHEE FOO, July 5, 3:30 p. m.—Chinese just arrived here who left Port Arthur on July 3 and say that only nine of the larger Russian warships were there then. On June 23, when the fleet engaged the Japanese squadron outside Port Arthur harbor, it consisted of 12 of the larger ships. On July 3 the Russian and Japanese armies outside of Port Arthur, according to report, were still separated one from the other by a mile, the Japanese advancing steadily from hill to hill on all of which they were placing big guns. It is said they landed 150 of these guns at Port Arthur. CHEE FOO, July 5, 4:30 p. m.—A Russian, who left Port Arthur on July 3, and who has arrived here, says that the only damage done to the town during the bombardments was the destruction of two houses. There has been no loss of life. Refugees are not allowed to leave Pigeon Bay. They must come direct from Port Arthur. This leads to the belief that the Japanese are in the vicinity of Pigeon Bay. All business is now stopped in the town. ST. PETERSBURG, July 4.—Military experts believe that the centre of gravity has again shifted to Port Arthur, where siege operations are expected to engage most of the attention of the Japanese until the conclusion of the rainy season permits the resumption of the campaign in southern Manchuria. The war office believes that a further advance on Tatchekiao is impossible in view of the powerful resistance which can be met there. However, it is likely to continue the possession of the passes which are particularly valuable to either belligerent for the purpose of obtaining information regarding the other's movements. The Russian losses in killed or wounded so far number 1,000. Many more have been in hospitals, but no epidemic has yet been reported. ST. PETERSBURG, July 5, 7 p. m.—The latest despatches from the seat of war are to the effect that Kurapatkin is still at Tatchekiao and that Japanese forces are stationary at Senchen and along the roads from Siuy to Tachekiao, Tatchekiao and Kaitoung. The Japanese are making advance from Feng Wang Cheng the direct main road to Liao Yang, where the effect of the rainy season is not regarded as unlikely. The Japanese evidently are hoping in case of success to compel Kurapatkin with General Skobelkov's corps to fall back from Tatchekiao on Liao Yang and thus force an evacuation of New Chang. The admiral here has no news of the sea fight off Port Arthur on Monday last reported by Manning. It is inclined to believe it. The understanding is that the Russian warships are still at Port Arthur. ST. PETERSBURG, July 4.—The general staff has received the following despatch dated July 3, from Lieut. General Sakharoff: "On July 3 the enemy's advance guard in the Kai Chau district retreated southward, occupying the nine miles northeast of Senchen. "Senchen is occupied by an infantry detachment. "According to our information, the enemy has at least 60,000 troops concentrated around Su Yen. "The Japanese are now occupying their original positions at Dalin Pass. "No movement beyond Dalin Pass towards Hai Chen is observable." TA TOHE KIAO, July 4 (via Liao Yang).—A fight between Japanese torpedo boats and Japanese transports was reported off the coast this afternoon. Heavy cannonading was heard from the seaward. An officer who came in declares that from a hill top near the coast he saw vessels in a fight, but they were too far off to distinguish them. HENRY F. EATON SOLD. The well known Frontier Steamboat Company of Calais changes hands today and H. F. Burpee, who has been assistant passenger agent of the Washington county railroad, succeeds James L. Thompson, who has so faithfully and successfully managed the Frontier line for the past thirty years. The steamer Henry F. Eaton, which makes daily trips between Calais and this city, touching at Robinson and St. Andrews on the 30 mile trip along the St. Croix river, will have a few changes in officers. The new management, which is favorably known to the island city business men, having been general passenger agent of the W. O. R. R. for several years past, and his many friends along the St. Croix valley and this city will wish him every success in his new management. The Frontier line and the steamer Henry F. Eaton, in general, being very popular with the travelling public who enjoy the delightful trip along the St. Croix river.—Portland Press.

HALL-JARVIS. Beautiful and Fashionable Wedding in Trinity Church This Afternoon.

A beautiful and fashionable wedding took place at four o'clock this afternoon in Trinity church, when Miss Isabelle Helen Jarvis became the bride of Percy Gerald Hall, accountant at the branch of the Royal Bank of Canada here. There were quite a large number of invited guests and the church was filled with friends of the contracting parties, who have many friends in the city. The chancel was prettily decorated with flowers and palms. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Richardson assisted by Rev. A. G. H. Dicker, rector of St. Paul's church. G. S. Ford presided at the organ and the full choir under the leadership of A. C. Ritchie was in attendance. The bride, who was given away by her father, C. E. L. Jarvis, wore a handsome wedding gown of white satin trimmed with bouillon lace and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by her two sisters, Miss Florence Jarvis and Miss Ethel Jarvis and by Miss Winifred Hall, a sister of the groom. The Misses Jarvis wore cream voile over green with cream tulle picture hats with tulle strings. Miss Hall wore cream voile over pink silk. They carried bouquets of sweet peas. The groom was supported by Jeffrey Seal. The ceremony was held at the residence of the bride's parents, Duke street and later Mr. and Mrs. Hall left for Cape Breton on their wedding tour. Among the numerous and costly presents received was some rare old silver and cut glass that has been in the family for generations. There were also presents from England and New York.

THE FATAL FOURTH. Twenty-Five Dead and 4,384 Injured in America's Annual Jubilation—Fire Loss $177,000.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The Tribune today publishes a partial list of casualties resulting from the fourth of July celebrations all over the country. The list gives the total number of dead as twenty-five; injured 4,384 and a proportion of $177,000. A year ago the accidents reported on the night of July 4 were 48 dead, and 5,481 injured. Throughout the country the fire losses were generally smaller than in former years. In Chicago 115 alarms were sent in during the 24 hours, fourteen more than last year. The losses were all small. "ACOMA, Wash., July 5.—Fireworks were set off in Wright Park as a finish to a big Fourth of July celebration, caught fire from the flying rockets and it is estimated that as many as fifty were injured, none fatally. OGDEN, Utah, July 5.—By the premature explosion of a fireworks mortar at Inglewood Park, two persons were killed and injured in the process of three thousand people. The display of fireworks was given from a pontoon boat in a small lagoon in the end of the park and the spectators were seated around the banks of the lagoon. A small mortar for the purpose of throwing bombs into the air was being used and the bomb became fastened in it and exploded, and pieces of the mortar were hurled several hundred feet across the lagoon among the spectators.

CANADIANS AT HENLEY. HENLEY, Eng., July 5.—The Henley regatta was opened today with unpropitious weather. There were no entries from the United States and only two from Canada, those of the Winnipeg four and the Toronto sculler Schofield. The regatta drew a big crowd and they will not row until the final heat for the Steward's Cup Thursday. The spectators when the racing commenced were not so numerous as usual and there were fewer houseboats. HENLEY, July 5.—L. F. Scholten, the Canadian sculler won his best for the week of the Bedford Rowing Club. POST PROVERBIAL PHILOSOPHY. Necessity knows no law—except mothers-in-law. Every dog has his day—and some dogs every day. A little learning is a dangerous thing—too much is equally disastrous. The road to hell is paved with good intentions—and disinterested friends line up each side of it. If wishes were horses—automobiles would have to take to the Subway. A dollar saved is a dollar earned—for the benefit of some fellow that comes along with "a scheme." A stitch in time saves nine—but it has been known to shorten life. Silence is golden—the wise man's refuge and the fool's defence. The secret of success is nothing more than doing what you can do well—that is to say, what persons—Town Topics.

PLEASANT ANTICIPATIONS. "Why can't you marry me? It's true I'm not enormously rich, still I have plenty of money big enough to support you nicely." "Yes, but think how ridiculously small the alimony allowed out of it will be."—Town Topics. The funeral of James Barber was held this afternoon at three o'clock from his late residence, 258 Germain street. Revs. Dr. Macneil and Gates officiated, and interment was made in Fernhill cemetery.

SOLDIERS FACE ARMED STRIKERS. Bayonets Oppose Clubs in Sydney Today. Militia Called Out to Prevent Lawlessness—Men Kept From Work—Grave Trouble Feared.

(Special to the Star). SYDNEY, C. B., July 5.—As a consequence of the Dominion Steel Company's attempt to run its plant yesterday trouble has broken out at Sydney. The militia have been called out and the works are being closely guarded by soldiers. On their way to the works in the morning the strikers were met by about seven hundred of the strikers, and a struggle was feared, but the strikers met the mob with fixed bayonets and the crowd finally dispersed without blood being shed. There are no new developments in the strike situation today. The strikers are in absolute control of the plant, and crowds of strikers are massed about the different entrances. They are all armed with clubs and sticks, and are intercepting everybody who attempts to go to work. It is estimated that two hundred men failed in this way to get into the plant this morning. The strikers are as a rule orderly and good natured, but are making every effort to get "back" labor into the works. The work of recruiting men for the military corps is now going on. No further trouble is anticipated, though there is no guarantee to this effect. RIOT IN BRITISH PARLIAMENT. Police Called in to Quell a Disturbance Without Precedent in History of the House. LONDON, July 5.—The government last night carried through Premier Balfour's closure proposal under which the business will be transacted during the remainder of the session of the house of commons, by a majority of eighty, despite the opposition of the members of the opposition. Disorderly scenes without precedent took place in the lobby, when a group of members of the opposition, led by Mr. Balfour, sought to influence the members to vote against the government. The police, which were reinforced, finally forced the crowd into the open air courtyard.

BATTLE IMPENDING IN TRIBER. NEW YORK, July 5.—No Tibetan overtures were made today, says a despatch from the London Times correspondent at Gyantse. The Tibetans were reported to be at work building on the rear face of the Jong. If no answer is returned by today the armistice terminates and the signal gun will announce the fact. Half an hour's further grace for the removal of women and non-combatants will follow.

HER BREATH. Miss O. Sopher—Some people may think me heavy, but Mr. Kiddle, at any rate, was pleased to say he never met anyone so wide-awake as I am. Miss Peppery—Of that's just his talk. Of course, he will realize that you're just as wide when you are asleep.

ONLY ONE PROSTRATION. Towns—I suppose when you want to say Miss Roxley's father who was bordering on nervous prostration? Brown—Well, I was nervous, but the prostration didn't come until later. However, I picked myself up before he could kick me again.

CHURCH SYNOD. Bishop Kingdon Opened the Meeting Today—Archbishop of Canterbury Invited to N. B. FREDERICTON, N. B., July 5.—The annual meeting of the Church of England synod opened in Church Hall here at ten o'clock this morning. About a hundred delegates are in attendance, about half the number being clergy. More are expected. His Lordship Bishop Kingdon presided and delivered his annual address, after which the chairman of the various committees presented their reports. Notice was given of the motion that the Archbishop of Canterbury be invited to visit this diocese on his coming trip to America. The talk concerning the appointment of a coadjutor bishop will probably not materialize this session. The rumors that exist in regard to a division of the diocese and the appointment of a bishop at St. John, with Bishop as the episcopal, have also up substantial basis at present.

FELL FIFTY FEET ASLEEP. Wonderful Escape of a Man Who Thought He Fell From a Roof Was a Dream. Thinking he was dreaming last night Thomas Lundy, a seven-year-old child, a clerk of No. 445 West Fifty-fourth street, had a fall for his life after a long fall from the roof of the five-story tenement, where he makes his home. Lundy struck a stout cable that is fastened at the end in the rear wall of the tenement at the third story, and it caught him about fifty feet above the ground. According to his story he went up on the roof to get some fresh air and fell asleep. The next dawn a trifle to the rear. While asleep he rolled down this incline and went over the cornice. He awoke, he says, just after he began to fall he was only partly awake and thought at first he was dreaming. When he struck the cable and fell to the roof of the extension, the slide undoubtedly saved his life. The one-story extension is about 30 feet from the rear wall of the tenement in Fifty-fourth street, and it contained that Lundy was about fifty feet. According to his story he went up on the roof to get some fresh air and fell asleep. The next dawn a trifle to the rear. While asleep he rolled down this incline and went over the cornice. DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, July 4.—The house met at 3 p. m. after holiday recess.

In answer to Col. Hughes, the minister of militia said that Col. Jones and Col. McLean of St. John, were recommended as brigadier at Camp Sussex and the choice fell to the latter.

As to Col. McLean's absence from Canada the minister said it was not necessary for officers on the retired list to apply for leave of absence.

After routine this afternoon at four o'clock Hon. Mr. Emmerson in orders of today presented the I. C. R. estimate, prefacing them with an exhaustive array of figures to show the relative receipts and expenditures for the past three fiscal years.

John Hagar, ex-minister of railways, was not present, although it was announced Thursday that Emmerson would refer to his estimate and the criticisms were therefore not on occasion demanded.

Emmerson while claiming that the road was doing the best possible service to Canada at a minimum of cost, admitted that for the last ten months of the fiscal year, while the expenditures had increased the earnings had fallen off, the result being a net deficit of $44,577.

This, he said, was a merry game on the part of the railway department, Emmerson became sadly mixed up, but he held his temper in hand and made the best of a bad situation.

A COOL CUSTOMER. (From the Louisville Courier-Journal.) They had been talking about the abolition of titles who took up useful work.

Somebody mentioned Lord Ross who is a good, practical engineer, and then somebody else mentioned Lord Ross, who is a good, practical engineer, and then somebody else mentioned Lord Ross.

Lord Ross, having once—unknown to the employees—entered the engine room of a station of A.R. Barker, the attention was attracted by his odd behaviour.

"Well, what's up now?" he growled at the peer. "What are you shaking your head and pulling out your watch for? What have you got to find fault with?"

"Oh," replied Lord Ross, "it is all the same to me. I have no watch, and I am just waiting till the boiler explodes."

"The boiler explodes? Why, you are crazy, man!" exclaimed the engineer, angrily, preparing to turn the peer out as a dangerous crank.

"Well, retired to the ear, "if you work ten minutes longer with that loose screw there the boiler will certainly explode."

The engineer, gazing in the direction indicated by Lord Ross, paled and jumped to his feet, exclaiming: "Why didn't you say so sooner?" he burst out.

"Why should I?" answered the peer. "Why should I have had an opportunity of seeing a boiler explode?"

At the regular meeting of the common council yesterday afternoon, the Mayor presided, and the following were present: Mayor Hamm, councilors.

On motion of Ald. Barker it was decided to send one man to Boston and Providence to inspect chemical engines. That man will be District Engineer George Blake. A motion to increase the salaries of street foremen.

McLaughlin and Alexander, to $100 per day was voted down.

Director Cushing and City Engineer Peters submitted a report on the estimate for a municipal telephone system. It was referred to the board of works, which will meet later.

A letter was read from Wm. Thompson & Co., submitting a proposition to insure the city of St. John against liability for accidents to the general public, or to a special class of persons.

The limits are $1,000 on an individual, $500 on a civic employe, and $10,000 for a maximum to a number of persons. The rate being five dollars for each one hundred of population.

MILITIA ORDERS. Militia Orders No. 140 announce that certificates of military qualification have been issued to 2nd Lieut. G. M. Taylor, F. H. Copp, J. H. Spruel and E. P. Oigey, of the 7th Regiment, and to Sergt. F. W. Hewitson, of the 7th Regiment.

Col. F. L. Lessard will inspect the 8th Hussars at Sussex July 6th. Capt. and Brig. Major M. E. Edwards has been examined in equitation and awarded his certificate.

Leave of absence has been granted to Lieut. Col. G. R. White, D. O. C., from July 19 to Aug. 2.

Authority has been granted to Lieut. G. S. Morrison, 8th Princess Louise's New Brunswick Hussars, to be attached for duty to the Royal Canadian Dragoons.

Authority has been granted to Capt. E. P. Goodwin, 7th Regt., to undergo a special course in military sketching and reconnaissance at Sussex camp.

THE CALF NOT IN IT. (From Harper's Weekly.) A well known New York clergyman was told his Bible class the story of the Prodigal Son at a recent session, and, wishing to emphasize the doctrine, he related the following incident.

On that occasion, he laid special stress on this phase of the parable. After describing the roasting of the household over the return of the wayward son, he spoke of one who, in the midst of the festivities, failed to share in the jubilant spirit of the occasion.

"Can anybody in the class," he asked, "tell me who this was?"

A small boy, who had been listening sympathetically to the story, put up his hand.

"I know," he said, beamingly, "it was the fattest calf."

MESSIAH LIVES IN "ABODE OF LOVE." The Rev. T. H. Smyth-Pigott, who has Had Many Adventures, is Playing a New Role.

LONDON, July 4.—The Rev. T. H. Smyth-Pigott, a properly qualified clergyman of the Church of England, who some years ago started London by claiming to be the Messiah, has again come very prominently to the fore.

When Chilton, a suburb of the metropolis where he first became famous, was made too hot for him Mr. Smyth-Pigott took himself to Somersetshire village, where he is now residing in a large house standing in its own grounds.

The self-styled Messiah calls his residence "the abode of love," and there he has gathered around him more than a hundred disciples, whom he terms "Agapemontes." These are mostly young women, many of them said to be of remarkable beauty.

One of them is a special favorite of Pigott, who some days ago announced, "I am the lamb of God, and this is the wife of the lamb," as he waved his hand in the direction of his specially favored companion, who stood by the name of "Beloved Ruth."

"Beloved Ruth" is described as the daughter of a nobleman, and when she was not in attendance on the adored within the house, loitered on the lawn of "the abode of love" in a hammock with a scarlet hue and wears expensive summer dresses.

Pigott takes his meals by himself, and his disciples practically draw lots as to who shall have the honor of waiting upon him. Everything is of the best, for the motto of the "Agapemontes" is "luxury and enjoyment, and the doctrine of Brother Price, the founder of the northern town of Court Loyalist—W. Erb, A. O. Affair on the Barrack Green Promises to Be Most Enjoyable.

The garden party to be held on the Barrack green this afternoon under the auspices of the congregation of the church of St. John the Baptist, promises to be a very pleasant affair. Sentiment among schoolgirls of seven or thereabouts sometimes makes surprising manifestations, and Eleanor was heard to declare that she would not have Clara for her chum any more if Clara didn't quit being so silly about the boys. In a few days Eleanor's father saw Eleanor and Clara in arm in arm as usual and felt moved to investigate. "How is this, Eleanor?" he said to the little girl in the evening. "You said Clara should not be your chum any more because she was too foolish about the boys." "Oh, Clara's all right," Eleanor answered. "She isn't so silly now. I've been talking to her about it, and she's getting more sense every day."—Indianapolis Journal.

ENAMELLED MUGS. (New York Times.) Wishing to buy a shaving cup Chas. Hawtry, the English actor, stopped into a crockery store on Sixth avenue and said to a man whom he mistook for a salesman: "I say, would you be kind enough to show me some enameled mugs?" The man stared at the actor in amazement for a few seconds. Then, realizing that he had been mistaken for an employee of the shop, politely replied: "If you want to see the genuine article I'd advise you to go over to Broadway and take in a show where there's a bunch of chorus girls." Mr. Hawtry is still wondering why the bystander snorted so rudely.

A Rousing District Session at Belleisle. The quarterly meeting of the fifth Free Baptist district of New Brunswick was held in the Star Meeting House at Belleisle on Friday, Saturday and Sunday last, and though the latter part of the exercises were interfered with by the inclemency of the weather, the session can be put down as having been well attended. During the first two days a considerable amount of business was transacted. Reports from nearly all the churches were of an encouraging nature, and as needs were found out, grants were made. Isaac Carpenter, M. P. P., of Grand Lake, was clerk of the meeting, and Squire George Worden of Wickham, treasurer. On Sunday the whole district, which extends from the Belleisle to Grand Lake, was represented by lay and clerical attendants at the devotional services. Hundreds drove to the gathering, but some returned to their homes on account of the heavy rain. The str. Elaine left Wickham at 8.30 o'clock and took a large number from that section, taking them aboard at Wickham wharf, Hampstead wharf, Gerow's wharf, John O. Vanwart's wharf, and Oak Point, besides Palmer's wharf and numerous boat stops. Rev. Mr. Patterson of Grand Lake, preached the annual sermon on Sunday morning, and in the afternoon Rev. Dr. Jos. McLeod of Fredericton, delivered an able discourse. Rev. Mr. Mott occupied the pulpit in the evening. After the rain passed over and the afternoon turned out fine, the late meeting was very largely attended. Belleisle people sustained their reputation for hospitality.

SORROW.

Marie Jensen, whom Couvillon several years ago termed "the greatest of American courtesans," has the happy gift of forgiving and remembering hurtful things.

"I camped in Maine one summer," Miss Jensen said the other day, "and on Sundays I used to drive over the mountain to a little brick church in the village. It amused me to mingle with the village people and to hear them talk."

"Up the path to the church one quiet June morning two elderly and lean women walked ahead of me. The first one said:

"So poor Kate Rand is dead at last."

"Yes, the poor dear thing," said the other. "Her five years' suffering is ended now."

"Poor Kate. Poor unfortunate creature," said the first woman. "How does my new bonnet look?"

FULFILL MALARPROPIUMS.

As a meeting of ministers the other day one of them laid great stress on the importance of considering the sort of audience one is going to address.

"I once lost a chance to preach an effective sermon by using the stereotyped beginning, 'I am glad to see so many of you present this morning.' You see, they were prisoners in a state penitentiary."

HARRY AND THE POOR FELLOWS HAD TO BE PRESENT.

This brought forth another story from one who for some years was chaplain of a penitentiary. He had decided to remove from the town and take a change elsewhere.

"This is my last Sunday here, and I'm sorry to leave you," he told his congregation of stripes.

After the sermon one of the prisoners stepped forward and shook his hand. "This is my last Sunday, too, parson," he said. "But I can't say, as you did, that I'm sorry to leave."

FIGHT IN I. C. R. YARD.

Man's Arm Broken by a Blow With a Coupling Pin.

On Saturday afternoon there was a fight in the I. C. R. yard with some serious results to one of the contestants. Every effort possible has been taken to make up the occurrence.

The quarrel was between a yardman and a well known resident of the valley. The exact cause has not been ascertained, but it appears that the resident of the valley provoked the yardman with some remark which was followed by blows. Both contestants struck each other before bystanders could interfere. The resident of the valley received a severe blow from a heavy instrument—a coupling pin it is said—which broke his arm. The injured man, it is said, was taken to the hospital, but inquiry at the hospital failed to confirm the fact.

The examinations are in charge of Inspector W. S. Carter, who is assisted by Messrs. John March, M. D. Brown and Thomas Stohart. There are over two hundred candidates the majority of whom are writing Normal School entrance papers. Examinations are being held at other places throughout the province at the same time with those going on in St. John.

EQUITY COURT.

The case of Carman vs. Smith was to have come up for hearing in the equity court this morning, but in consequence of the absence of interested lawyers it was postponed until Monday next. Judge Barker severely criticized the lawyers who are to blame for the delay of the case. A. A. Stockton, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff and Weldon & McLean for the defendant.
