—Francis Thompson who is hailed in London as a great poet, was selling matches in the streets not long ago.

This was only a temporary experience with poverty, however, for he is a college-bred man, well up in the classics and medicine. His first book of verse published last December, has already gone through three editions. At present he is living a retired life at a Capuchin monastery in Wales.

It is well to be on good terms with the Khedive of Egypt. This young monarch has lately presented a beautiful bracelet to a young Englishwoman who took his fancy, the value is beyond calculation. It is gold set with scarabs and each stone is upwards of 4,000 years old. Some of these belonged to high priests in the days of the Pharaohs, and the inscriptions on them relate to magic.

"Blind" cried Prescott, with his life before him, "I must have a reader and a penman." "You will not hear me!" shouted Daniel to the stony House of Commons. "But the time will come when you will hear me!" "Never more enter the halls of Harvard!" exclaimed the paralyzed young student, who, having recently finished a translation of Dante has passed away from his life of suffering. "Then send the examiners to my bedside." "Eternity deformed!" broke from the young lips of an English prince. "Yet I will be Richard the Third, and great, in spite of it!"

—There is a young man now in Jefferson Market Police station, New York, who went to that city from Pittsburgh a week ago, and has since managed to have a highly exciting time. On Monday he obtained a position in a well known business house. On Tuesday he met a young woman with whom he fell in love. On Wednesday he married her. On Thursday he forged orders, on which he obtained from his employers a considerable sum of money. On Friday he was arrested, and on Saturday his wife instituted proceedings for divorce.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Mark Twain has absolutely no regard for neatness in his apparel. His clothes look as if they had been pitched forked onto him at long range.

—Four years ago, says Home and Country, a New York syndicate cabled a message to Mr. Bennett, asking: "What is the lowest price of the Herald?" His reply was: "Three cents daily, five cents on Sunday."

—Donald G. Mitchell, otherwise known as "Ik Marvel," is 72 years of age and his white hair is like a crown. He has a horror of publicity either in the newspaper or magazine and clings tenaciously to his quiet life on a farm in Connecticut.

—The wife of the new Japanese minister, Madame Fatenos, has a hard time trying to accustom herself to customs. She finds special difficulty in sitting upon the floor in native style when she has them on; but she is struggling to become accustomed to it, as she likes the American dress and wishes to adopt it.

—Persons who have ridden in vehicles equipped with the pneumatic tire describe it as like "walking on velvet in your bare feet." A few of these vehicles are in use around New York. A Philadelphia invention seeks to obtain a new kind of tire by setting the spokes of the wheel in rubber cushions fitted to the rim of the wheel.

—The Russian Prince Galitzin, whose conversion to the Salvation Army some months ago was reported, has decided not to travel with the Army. He left San Francisco on his way to Russia on March 12 and seems to have changed his mind on religion. Instead of becoming a warrior of cynicism he will undertake another of the trips of exploration that have made him famous, going north from St. Petersburg on horseback and on through Siberia to Behring Sea, over Straits and down to San Francisco.

—Whether or not dangerous insects were carried to Chicago with exhibits for the world's fair, it is well established that many such insects reach this country through the domestic houses. Entomologists believe that the latest and most destructive borer is a recent importation from Europe, and it is not unusual to hear of numerous tropical spiders being found in newly imported bunches of bananas. Nearly all raw materials, vegetables or animals, come in bearing insect eggs or living insects.—New York Sun.

—It was a man governor, who said recently in a lecture, after describing the power of Joseph Jefferson to amuse, "I would rather possess the power to remove dull care than to be President of the United States, afflicted with the Sherman law and disappointed with two girls babies." "I was a woman editor who answered: "Girl babies but a very small fraction of the country and much less than half the idiots. They are quite as likely to be carrying off the honors at the universities and going into partnerships with their fathers in business."—New York World.

—Some years ago an old deacon in Pennsylvania was very self-willed, and on two or three occasions made end less trouble in church. After some years they got started again, but another row soon broke out. At their church a deacon named Jones was and since, I wish Deacon Jones was in hell about six months he would bust it up."—Argonaut.

THE PROPOSED CHANGES IN THE MARSH LAW.

CONCLUDED.

18. Section 37 of said act is hereby repealed and in lieu thereof the following is enacted:—

Section 37. In case of a change of ownership of any portion of any lot, he shall number the portion which has so changed ownership by a new number, and mark the same on the said plan and Section 38 is hereby repealed and in lieu thereof the following is enacted:—

Section 38. Any proprietor of marsh, interested or claiming to be interested in the matter of any application under the 21st section of this Act, may within six days after the clerk has published the order made thereon, or within six days after the Commissioner has refused such application file with the clerk an application in form "M" in the schedule to this Act, and every proprietor whose lands have been assessed may within ten days after the filing of the assessment file with the clerk an application in form "N" in the schedule to this Act; provided however that no order or assessment made by the Commissioners of Sewers District No. 6, and any person filing such application with the clerk shall serve a copy thereof upon the Commissioner making such order or refusing such application or making such assessments.

Section 39 is hereby repealed and in lieu thereof the following was enacted:—

Section 39. The clerk shall upon notice "M" or "N" being filed with him as above said forthwith in the presence of the applicant, or the person filing said notice on his behalf, select by lot from the Commissioners of the other districts three disinterested commissioners, as Revising Commissioners, and notify them that they are required to meet at a time and place named by him, not less than six days from the date of any such notice, to review the decision or assessment complained of and the revising commissioner shall within ten days after such notification proceed to review such decision or assessment and may affirm or alter the same in any respect and shall file their order in respect to such application with the clerk who shall proceed therein as in the case of the original order or assessment had it not been reviewed. The Revising Commissioners in revising any assessment shall have jurisdiction to enquire into and adjudicate upon any allowance or charge in respect to such assessment has been made and reduce or increase as the case may require, the total amount of such assessment.

23. Where any ditch or canal, has already been cut or shall hereafter be cut, for the purpose of flooding lands lying beyond and away from any bay, river, creek or tide channel, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of the District wherein situated the lands so flooded, or intended to be flooded by such ditch or canal, to inclose and confine, to such channel, the waters thereof, with dykes sufficient to protect lands not requiring to be flooded, and the Commissioner shall extend any dyke along any such ditch or canal for the purpose of inclosing lands requiring to have the tide shut off, as he or the Revising Commissioners may from time to time think necessary, and shall assess the lots benefited by such ditch, dyke or canal, for the expenses, damages, and costs thereof.

SECTION 41.

24. No objection shall be allowed to any assessment made between the year A. D. 1889 and the date of the passing of this Act, on the ground that the bill of assessment does not contain such a description of the marsh assessed, as the said Act requires, or that any bill of expenses filed, is not agreeable to the forms prescribed by said Act, or that any application or order for the work in connection with which such bill of assessment was made, does not contain such description of the work applied for as the said Act requires, and any amount assessed, upon any marsh and uncollected either in whole or in part, may be collected under said Act, as if this Act had not been passed. Providing however that before proceeding to collect any such assessment the clerk shall publish a notice in form "I" in the schedule to this Act and all such assessments together with bills of expenses in connection therewith shall be subject to like reviews as provided for in the 39th section of this Act.

And the Commissioner shall have power to assess such portions of marsh in the Parish of Westmorland in connection with such work, in all respects as if it were a part of the marsh in the district of the Commissioner. There were conceptions indications everywhere, of dilapidation, of decay, in shabby churches, shabby school-houses, shabby dwellings, neglected and shabby barns. Now there is nothing of all this, but everywhere are seen conclusive proofs of industry, activity, enterprise and thrift, no dilapidated or neglected buildings anywhere, either public or private, but everywhere unmistakable proofs of an industrious and thrifty people.

There is a gentleman named Captain A. G. Pareis, who has written us a letter in which it is evident that he has made up his mind concerning some things, and this is what he says:—

"I have used your preparation called August Flower in my family for seven or eight years. It is constantly in my house, and we consider it the best remedy for Indigestion, and Constipation we have ever used or known. My wife is troubled with Dyspepsia, and at times suffers very much after eating. The August Flower, however, relieves the difficulty. My wife frequently says to me when I am going to town, 'We are out of August Flower,' and I think you had better get another bottle." I am also troubled with Indigestion, and whenever I am, I take one or two teaspoonfuls before eating, for a day or two, and all trouble is removed."

THE MAINE LIQUOR LAW PROHIBITS BY fine and imprisonment (1) the sale of intoxicating liquor (except as especially provided), (2) knowingly bringing liquor into the State, or transporting it from one place to another with intent to sell, (3) manufacturing for sale any intoxicating liquor, except cider, and further prohibits all places where liquors are kept, sold, given away, drunk, or dispensed in any manner not provided by law, are to be considered and dealt with as common nuisances. Local authorities may meet the "exceptionally provided" clause, by annually appointing an agent to sell for medicinal, mechanical, and manufacturing purposes only. These agents obtain their supply from a commission appointed by the Governor of the State in Council.

The enforcement of the law is laid upon:—

(1) The Marshal and the ordinary police of each city and town, and

(2) The County sheriff and his officers who may proceed to take, or cause to be taken, any person who is found guilty of any offence under this law.

IV.

Portland, the chief city of Maine, a considerable seaport with a population of 35,000, has a "Rum Room" in the basement of the City Hall, where, at domiciliary visits, sequestered liquor is periodically destroyed, and since 1891 by an exceptional provision. Although Port has grown the more sober, and therefore open to all the foreign anti-prohibition influences, good order is easily preserved by a force of not more than from thirty-six to forty constables.

V.

It is not denied that in the lower parts of the city, there are secret haunts of "dives," where drink is illicitly obtained, and that "Pocket peddlers" have and there ply their trade, but the smallness of these places and the vigilance of the police, make them of little consequence. That results therefrom compared with those which we should find in a sea port with licensed grog-shops, is comparative ly nil. The arrests for drunkenness have declined from 1,558 in 1872 to 279 in 1892, and the arrest for all crimes during the same period have declined from 2,538, to 1,500.

VI.

In Country Districts, which contain five-sevenths of the population prohibition is very generally effective. It is here that the strength of the prohibition movement lies. Even the custom, which as a rule dies hardest, of supplying liquor at harvest time, is completely unknown, and in a large portion of the whole area and population, the demand for drink seems almost to have disappeared, and the supply to be rarely met with. The cider too, alluded to in the law, is used almost entirely for making vinegar, and an entire generation has grown up never having seen a public-house, or the effects of wine.

VII.

Maine is now one of the most prosperous States in the Union; but before the adoption of prohibition it was undoubtedly the poorest.

The whole face of the State has been changed for the better. Before the law there were conceptions indications everywhere, of dilapidation, of decay, in shabby churches, shabby school-houses, shabby dwellings, neglected and shabby barns. Now there is nothing of all this, but everywhere are seen conclusive proofs of industry, activity, enterprise and thrift, no dilapidated or neglected buildings anywhere, either public or private, but everywhere unmistakable proofs of an industrious and thrifty people.

CHIGNECTO POST AND BORDERER

SACKVILLE N. B., APRIL 5, 1894

AN IGNORANT PREMIER.

The correspondence read in the legislature by Mr. Pitts shows that election contributions have been demanded, received and accepted as consideration for appointments to office. The transaction has all the features of a bargain and sale. The demand was made by Mr. Blair's partner. The receipt was given by Mr. Blair's colleague. The money was used in Mr. Blair's election. The office of engineering clerk was given to the contributor by Mr. Blair himself. Yet the attorney general says that he knew nothing of the transaction.

This is unfortunate. It discloses the fact that all sorts of corruption and stealing may be going on without Mr. Blair's knowledge if he does not know what is going on in his own office or what compacts his partners and colleagues make on his behalf, or what are the circumstances connected with appointments made to office by himself how can he know that there is anything like honesty or decency in the conduct of the administration of which he is the head? If it were charged by opposition members in their haste that the government is a den of thieves Mr. Blair could not contradict the statement. All he is justified in saying is that he has not been present at the stealing. He cannot speak for his colleagues or partners. He cannot even say that no part of the booty comes to him, or is used for his benefit. He really does not know anything about it. The confession of the attorney general makes him an object of sympathy. But he ought to try and find out what his associates are doing.

The New Marsh Law.

The Post of two weeks ago gave a full and correct report of the meeting held in the Town Hall, Middle Sackville, on the previous Monday to take into consideration the changes in the marsh law proposed by the committee appointed last winter to draw up the changes. We supposed at the time that the proposed bill would be altered to suit the feeling of the marsh owners as expressed in that meeting. It appears, however, that the committee have judged it best to act otherwise and have sent it forward to Mr. Powell in the form drawn up by the committee, with explanatory letter to Mr. Powell in which the changes voted on and carried by the meeting are noted. It will be remembered that the question which caused most discussion at the meeting was in regard to the franchise to be exercised in selecting commissioners of sewers. Section 6. The section proposed by the committee, rejected by the meeting, but still left in the bill as forwarded to Mr. Powell reads as follows:

"Section 6. Every proprietor of marsh land or female not less than 10 years of age may vote at the election for any commissioner for the district in which said marsh is situated and shall be entitled to as many votes as there are acres in said 'disturbed' or 'fractional' parts; provided however that a proprietor of 'bog land and lake (so called)' shall only be entitled to vote on so many acres thereof as appear by the records in the office of the Clerk to have been assessed to the amount of at least, fifty cents per acre, and the clerk shall be empowered to verify the same. The votes of the proprietors of marsh land entitled to vote thereat, and the votes of the proprietors of bog land and lake, shall be counted in the office of the Clerk to the vote of the same in his office not less than 30 days previous to such election. The said list shall close on the day previous to such election be subject to revision by the clerk as it may appear to him from the said plans, registers and other records to be necessary, and the list as corrected by him shall be conclusive both as to the proprietors who may vote and the number of votes each is entitled to at such an election.

The accompanying letter states "All that part relating to the Franchise to be exercised in selecting commissioners of sewers was rejected by the meeting, and a motion by David Whetton seconded by J. T. Carter carried 19 to 10 to have provided that each proprietor have but one vote." The letter continues: "The amendments recommended by the committee to have enacted were exclusive of motions referred to as having been passed at the meeting. Such motions are regarded by the undersigned, should the principle be put into practice, as unsuited to meet the requirements of the matter in question. The second motion carries to have notices mentioned in Section 35, made 20 instead of 10. As the adoption of such would only tend to keep assessments published 10 days beyond the time when they are due, the committee recommended that the amendments proposed by the meeting that of substituting 'Town Hall Middle Sackville' for 'Clerk's Office' and the insertion of word 'dyke' in added section 'A' were retained in the bill by the committee, the former as expressing the idea of the committee and the latter having been referred by the meeting to the committee and approved by them.

THE NOVA SCOTIA PLEBISCITE.—Full returns of the plebiscite in Nova Scotia have been awaited with interest and the result must prove highly gratifying to the temperance people. The votes of the separate counties were as follows:

County	Yes	No
Halifax	5,377	2,351
Annapolis	3,223	1,201
King's	3,170	249
Hants	2,741	454
Digby	1,684	296
Yarmouth	1,885	430
Shelburne	1,838	136
Queen's	1,137	225
Lunenburg	2,507	916
Pictou	4,190	192
Colchester	3,053	382
Cumberland	4,395	511
Antigonish	1,121	101
Guyborough	776	280
Victoria	1,165	280
Cape Breton	2,044	116
Richmond	978	430

Returns show an aggregate of 52,878. Plebiscite vote cast, about 89 per cent for the electorate. Of these there were 11,419 votes in favor of the liquor traffic and 41,459 votes, about 80 per cent, nearly four to one were cast in favor of prohibition. Inversus returns only are delayed but will not change the relative strength of the prohibition vote.

The Provincial Legislature.

On Wednesday last Attorney General Blair rose to a question of privilege and spoke at some length on the Barry-Quinn-Wilson charges challenging Mr. Pitts to demand an investigation and bring the receipt to the light of day.

On motion that the house further consider supply in committee, Mr. Phinney moved an amendment that Mr. Speaker do not now leave the chair, but that it be resolved that in the administration of public affairs the expenditure be kept within the income.

Phinney's amendment was lost, the vote being:

Yeas—Powell, Stockton, Phinney, Shaw, Smith (St. John), Alward, Pitts, Allen, Howe, Pinder, Perley—11.

Nays—Blair, Mitchell, Emmerson, White, Tweedie, Lablanc, Goggin, Lewis, Harrison, Blanchard, Theriault, Russell, Sivebright, Mott, Killam, Fowelling, Scovill, Baird, O'Brien, (Northumberland), Dibble, Dunn, McLeod, Wells, Farris, O'Brien (Charlotte), Hill—28.

The House then went into supply. On Thursday, on going into supply Mr. Howe moved the following amendment:

"That Mr. Speaker do not now leave the chair, but that it be resolved that whereas the travelling expenses of the members of the government have of late years considerably increased, this house doth hereby resolve that no member shall be paid on detailed statement of such expenditure being given to the auditor general.

The amendment was lost by yeas 10, nays 28. The house then passed a bill, dairying and other estimates.

On Friday, Mr. Mitchell submitted his supplementary estimates. They are as follows:

Bathurst school investigation, revolve balance undrawn in '93 $ 622.00
Deaf and Dumb Institution, 500.00
Fredericton (in aid of) 500.00
Assessment commission, revolve 1,800.00
Additional amount 1,027.94

Total $5,150.00

Mitchell moved that estimates be referred to committee of supply.

On motion that House go into committee of supply Phinney moved amendment that speaker do not now leave the chair, but that it be resolved that after present session the official salaries be brought into line with explanatory letter to Mr. Powell in which the changes voted on and carried by the meeting are noted. It will be remembered that the question which caused most discussion at the meeting was in regard to the franchise to be exercised in selecting commissioners of sewers. Section 6. The section proposed by the committee, rejected by the meeting, but still left in the bill as forwarded to Mr. Powell reads as follows:

"Section 6. Every proprietor of marsh land or female not less than 10 years of age may vote at the election for any commissioner for the district in which said marsh is situated and shall be entitled to as many votes as there are acres in said 'disturbed' or 'fractional' parts; provided however that a proprietor of 'bog land and lake (so called)' shall only be entitled to vote on so many acres thereof as appear by the records in the office of the Clerk to have been assessed to the amount of at least, fifty cents per acre, and the clerk shall be empowered to verify the same. The votes of the proprietors of marsh land entitled to vote thereat, and the votes of the proprietors of bog land and lake, shall be counted in the office of the Clerk to the vote of the same in his office not less than 30 days previous to such election. The said list shall close on the day previous to such election be subject to revision by the clerk as it may appear to him from the said plans, registers and other records to be necessary, and the list as corrected by him shall be conclusive both as to the proprietors who may vote and the number of votes each is entitled to at such an election.

The accompanying letter states "All that part relating to the Franchise to be exercised in selecting commissioners of sewers was rejected by the meeting, and a motion by David Whetton seconded by J. T. Carter carried 19 to 10 to have provided that each proprietor have but one vote." The letter continues: "The amendments recommended by the committee to have enacted were exclusive of motions referred to as having been passed at the meeting. Such motions are regarded by the undersigned, should the principle be put into practice, as unsuited to meet the requirements of the matter in question. The second motion carries to have notices mentioned in Section 35, made 20 instead of 10. As the adoption of such would only tend to keep assessments published 10 days beyond the time when they are due, the committee recommended that the amendments proposed by the meeting that of substituting 'Town Hall Middle Sackville' for 'Clerk's Office' and the insertion of word 'dyke' in added section 'A' were retained in the bill by the committee, the former as expressing the idea of the committee and the latter having been referred by the meeting to the committee and approved by them.

THE NOVA SCOTIA PLEBISCITE.—Full returns of the plebiscite in Nova Scotia have been awaited with interest and the result must prove highly gratifying to the temperance people. The votes of the separate counties were as follows:

Returns show an aggregate of 52,878. Plebiscite vote cast, about 89 per cent for the electorate. Of these there were 11,419 votes in favor of the liquor traffic and 41,459 votes, about 80 per cent, nearly four to one were cast in favor of prohibition. Inversus returns only are delayed but will not change the relative strength of the prohibition vote.

and speeches of the meeting only as advice and not according to their own judgment. It is to be regretted that the bill was forwarded in this unfinished state at this circumstance, and that against its becoming law and necessitate a continuance under the old system. It would have been better if a bill could have been sent forward of which every section was indorsed if not by all marsh owners at least by a majority. In regard to franchise a most important section it is now left for Mr. Powell to decide provided that he will take that responsibility. Otherwise the bill or that very necessary section of the bill relating to franchise must drop. It is not necessary to enter into a discussion on the merits of the 'one man, one vote' system. Much can be said on both sides and this has already all been said and probably every marsh owner has his mind now fixed and immovable on the question. But in regard to the preparation and forwarding of this bill though there may be depths and shades and heights to the question with which we are unacquainted, yet speaking from our limited knowledge we are forced to express our opinion that the action of the committee in this matter is not unworthy of censure.

"Be it therefore resolved that the said statutory declaration and all papers in anywise connected therewith be referred to a select committee of five members of this house to investigate and determine whether there was or is anything in the alleged matter reflecting unfavorably upon him or upon his integrity in office and that the said committee be empowered to inquire into all matters connected with the facts alleged in the declaration as they relate to Mr. Blair and that such committee be empowered to send for persons and papers and examine all witnesses upon oath, in pursuance of the power conferred by chapter 33 of the third Victoria and to report the evidence so taken on such inquiry to this House and the opinion and finding of such a committee upon such evidence."

Phinney moved the following amendment seconded by Smith (St. John):

Resolved, that all the words of the word "referred" on the second line of the resolution be omitted and the following words inserted in lieu thereof:

"To an independent commission, being a judge of the Supreme Court to investigate all the facts and circumstances connected with the statements made in said statutory declaration; to take the evidence under oath and to report the same to this house."

The debate was then resumed and after speeches by Stockton, Blair, Mitchell, Emmerson, Hill, and Quinn the amendment was lost, the vote being 10 to 27.

Mr. Alward moved, seconded by Mr. Allen, the following amendment: That the statutory declaration of Wm. H. Quinn now on the table of the House and all papers in any wise connected therewith be referred to a select committee of five members of this house to take evidence and take the evidence under oath and to report the same to this house.

After discussion the amendment was lost, the vote being 10 to 27.

The resolution was carried on the same vote reversed as on Dr. Alward's amendment.

Mr. Speaker appointed as such committee Killam, Tweedie, Sivebright, Pitts and Powell.

Bathurst Schools.

Hon. Mr. Fraser's Report submitted.

A pamphlet of over seventy pages embodying the report of Hon. Mr. Fraser on the Bathurst school question has been received. This which was submitted to the legislature on Thursday last gives a review of all the leading charges answered by the commissioner and the conclusions drawn by His Honor as a result of the investigation. His Honor concludes as follows:

I think as a general result of the evidence I may state my opinion, formed therefrom, as to some of the questions in brief, as follows:

1st.—That no convent school have been established in Bathurst town or village in the direction indicated in the complaint; that is, schools which it was sought to have under the control of the Roman Catholic church, but on the contrary that the trustees of both town and village in securing for school purposes certain school rooms in the town convent building and certain rooms in the village convent building, intended that the schools carried on in such buildings should be bona fide and conducted in all respects in accordance with the common school act and regulations of the board of education.

2nd.—That their idea did not establish that there has been any Roman Catholic priestly or clerical interference with the schools in the town or village, or in any of the school districts of the county of Gloucester.

3rd.—That the trustees in the town and village districts had not, up to the time of my holding the investigation in the town of Bathurst in May and June last, discharged their duties as trustees as sufficiently as they might have done in regard to having a satisfactory grading of the school of the town and village notwithstanding the efforts and directions of the chief superintendent of the board of education looking to that end.

4th.—That there has been a tendency on the part of the trustees both in the town and village to grant permits to Roman Catholic children to attend the school rooms in the convent building in which the Sisters of Charity are teachers, to a larger extent than is consistent with the satisfactory grading of the schools in both the public school buildings and the rooms in the convent school buildings, taken as a whole school district, and to consider largely attributable to the desire of Roman Catholic parents to have their children placed as pupils in schools in which the teachers of the same are of their own faith and of their own denomination.

5th.—That the trustees of the town and village districts had not, up to the time of my holding the investigation in the town of Bathurst in May and June last, discharged their duties as trustees as sufficiently as they might have done in regard to having a satisfactory grading of the school of the town and village notwithstanding the efforts and directions of the chief superintendent of the board of education looking to that end.

6th.—That the trustees of the town and village districts had not, up to the time of my holding the investigation in the town of Bathurst in May and June last, discharged their duties as trustees as sufficiently as they might have done in regard to having a satisfactory grading of the school of the town and village notwithstanding the efforts and directions of the chief superintendent of the board of education looking to that end.

7th.—That the trustees of the town and village districts had not, up to the time of my holding the investigation in the town of Bathurst in May and June last, discharged their duties as trustees as sufficiently as they might have done in regard to having a satisfactory grading of the school of the town and village notwithstanding the efforts and directions of the chief superintendent of the board of education looking to that end.

THE LATE SENATOR ROTSFORD.

5th. The evidence establishes that several of the teachers in Bathurst town and village have during the recreation hour at noon taken the Roman Catholic catechism and given religious instruction during such hour, after the dismissal of the pupils at noon and before the hour for assembling in the afternoon, under the full belief that such hour was not a part of the teaching day. While this was an infringement of the law, according to the regulation, as I have interpreted it, it was not in my opinion, a willful infringement of it, inasmuch as the teachers who so taught the catechism honestly believed that the recreation hour was no part of the teaching day.

6th. That Roman Catholic prayers have been used at the opening and closing of the schools in certain of the schools, but that they have been used with the permission of the school trustees under the wording of school regulation 22, which permits the use of prayer approved by the school trustees, and Roman Catholic prayers have also been used in a few of the schools at the close of the morning session of the school and at the opening of the afternoon session, the teacher who so used such prayers being under the impression that he or she was to open and close each school session, forenoon and afternoon, with prayer and not with any intention in so doing of violating the school law or school regulations.

7th.—That in a few, but in perhaps not more than three or four schools in Gloucester county, which are all situated outside the town and village, the Roman Catholic catechism may have been taught by the teachers in the school service, during school hours, the instances going back to the years 1878 or 1879 and 1880.

8th.—That no Protestant child or pupil has been forced by any teacher to kneel or cross himself or herself in school.

9th.—That no Protestant pupil was ordered by the teacher of any school to leave the same because he would not kneel in the school with the Roman Catholic pupils nor did he leave the school under and by reason of such order.

10th.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

11th.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

12th.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

13th.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

14th.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

15th.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

16th.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

17th.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

18th.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

19th.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

20th.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

21st.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

22nd.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

23rd.—That some of the Protestants of the town and village object to the licensing of Sisters of Charity as teachers, and refuse to send their children to any department in which the teacher is a sister of Charity.

PORT ELGIN.—The Union Sabbath School at Port Elgin held a very successful meeting on Sabbath evening last at Port Elgin. The sermon of the day was taught by the Pastor of the Baptist Church and the answers to the questions showed that the school was well acquainted with the scriptures, bearing upon the Subject of the Resurrection. John Lamb Esq. is the Supr. and the excellent staff of teachers with him are doing good work. Miss King the Secy. of the W. C. T. U. has received a letter from Gen. Neal Dow acknowledging the receipt of a copy of the resolution prepared at the meeting held here in honor of his birthday, and also conveying his best wishes. Special Services of a union character are being held at present.

DEATH AT HILSBORO.—Mr. John L. B. Steeves one of the most respected citizens of Hillsboro A. Co. and an earnest worker for years in the church and temperance societies died on Sunday evening last of consumption at the age of 71 years. He leaves two sons and five daughters, nineteen grand children, and one great grand child. His wife who also survives him is prostrated by the reaction after long weakness and suffering.

ELECTIONS.—The pupils of the Election Department will give an entertainment in Beethoven Hall on Friday evening the 13th inst. Assistance will be rendered by representatives of the Conservative department. A nominal fee of 10 cts will be charged to cover expenses.

WEST QUACO N. B.—The public of this locality have gaily drowned the sadness of Lent in the enjoyment of the Easter Monday picnic, which opened at three p. m. in the Sweeney Hall and was as usual largely patronized by all creeds and classes. Among the most enjoyable features of the day were the musical and literary entertainments which were given by the ladies of the church and the young people of the town.

THE TORBET CONCERT CO. will give one of their first class entertainments in Music Hall on Tuesday evening, 17th inst. Of their recent concert in St. John the Telegraph of the 3rd inst. says: Last night's performance was by long odds, the most successful one that has ever taken place in the Opera House. The success of the concert from a musical point of view, was never in doubt after the upsurge and continued applause with which the first number of the Luttemann Sarette was greeted. As the evening wore on, the quality of the music appeared to improve, the performers and audience got into hearty sympathy with each other; every number followed, every number receiving one, and when the curtain fell the audience appeared loath to leave the house. The St. John Sun says: The Torbet Concert Co. gave last evening one of the best musical entertainments ever presented to the people of Sackville. The open number introduced the famous Luttemann Sarette, whose name is a household word in many parts of the old world. They sing without the accompaniment of any musical instrument whatever, and completely enthralled listeners by the purity and freshness of their voices as well as by those glorious vocal effects which are the products of the most careful culture. It is seldom that St. John has an opportunity to hear a pianist of the ability of Mr. Moquist.

Without the burdens of its original indebtedness the seminary is self supporting.—Telegraph.
