TROTSKY IS REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN CAPTURED

"LEAGUE OF NATIONS" WILL TOMORROW BE DISCUSSED

Britain and States Have Their Plans Ready.

CERTAIN PORTS AND WATERWAYS TO BE INTERNATIONALIZED

PARIS, Jan. 24. (By Wm. Phillip Simms).—The league of nations matter will be formally taken up at tomorrow's session of the general peace conference, it was learned from authoritative sources today.

Much of the work in preparing drafts of the various nations' programs for the league is being done by representative delegations outside the joint meetings and it was expected the preliminaries would be in such shape as to permit of a full discussion of the broad outlines of the plans tomorrow.

The American delegation it is understood, spent two hours in going over their league plans yesterday with the result that the formal draft was practically completed. Yet it was reported that neither the American nor the British plans would be presented in their entirety tomorrow, though they are further advanced as regards details than any of the others.

Apparently Premier Lloyd George and President Wilson will wait until the other programs are submitted and thoroughly discussed, when they will bring forward the programs of their delegations.

The correspondents will, it was announced today, be admitted to the full meeting tomorrow, as at the initial session of the plenary congress last Saturday. Meanwhile the meeting of the steering committee continues secret.

Among other subjects to be discussed tomorrow are responsibility and punishment for the war; reparation for war damages; international labor legislation and the international status of ports, waterways and railways.

In connection with the latter proposition it is believed the Dardanelles, the Bosphorus and Constantinople will be considered. A move is expected to be made to internationalize that area, that there may be an open exit from the Black Sea, assuring continuous access of Russia's wheat to the world. The "Berlin-Bagdad" railway would be the first object of internationalization of railways.

Today's session of the Supreme War Council will, in addition to completing the program for tomorrow's discussions, be expected to take up certain matters in connection with the armies of occupation. This was forecasted by the presence of Marshal Foch, Field Marshal Haig, General Diaz and other members of the associated powers' military council.

NEW YORK PRESS APPROVES NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Morning newspapers here generally approve editorially of the decision of the Supreme Council of the Peace Conference.

GOOD WORK OF THE VICTORIAN ORDER OF NURSES CONTINUES

Despite Shortage in Assistance, Due to War Conditions, Many Families Received the Benefit of Their Attention. 3275 Visits Made in Last Year.

The annual meeting of the Victorian Order of Nurses Association was held in the parlors of the Y.W.C.A., and the following is a report of the work done for the past year. In reviewing the work of the V.O.N.A. for the year of 1918 the members feel that a good work has been done among the poor of the city also that many others have availed themselves of the services of their Nurses. Miss Ollivant the order's efficient nurse has carried on the work most successfully. An endeavor has been made to get a second nurse several times but Headquarters, owing to the fact that Nurses are very scarce, was unable to supply any assistance for short periods of time.

549 patients were nursed, 3275 visits were made and $1176.90 collected in fees during the past year. Since the last annual meeting of the Order 8 regular and 2 special meetings were held with an average attendance of 9 members. Miss Russell the visiting Inspector was here in June and gave a very satisfactory report. During the visit of their Excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, at the request of the Duchess who is very much interested in the work, the Executive and the Nurse had the honor of a short private interview.

Both were drowned. Their bodies have not yet been recovered. A letter found in their stateroom and addressed to the commanding officer of their Red Cross unit informed him of their intention to end it all. They had spent much time at the front and friends say they had complained of being tired physically and mentally.

Americans Expect German Competition

AND IT TO BE TWICE AS KEEN AS FORMERLY

PARIS, Jan. 24. (By Fred S. Ferguson).—A warning was issued by American officials today that Germany is planning a big commercial campaign, particularly in the United States and France. They pointed out that Germany has always been keen commercially and that for the last quarter of a century she has devoted half her energy to commerce and industry and the other half to building up a war machine. Now her industrial organization can direct vastly more energy to trade.

It is understood that Mr. Hurley will urge all nations to get back on a peace basis as rapidly as possible so as to stabilize the world's commerce. He is known to believe that the general demobilization of the French and Italian armies as well as the American and British, is essential to a revival of international trade.

German Delegates Favor Full Publicity

AT THE PEACE TABLE SITTINGS

BERLIN, Jan. 23. (By John Graudens).—Germany's delegates to the peace conference favor full publicity of all proceedings, the United Press was officially informed today. In response to a query, Philip Scheidemann and Count Brockdorff Rantzau, who will represent Germany at Versailles, said they sustain the attitude of Great Britain and America that the conference must be open. "Germany is in favor of no secrecy whatever," declared Scheidemann.

Having accepted all of President Wilson's points she wishes to begin with the demand that the peace treaty must be arrived at openly.

Urges Preparations For Ministers' Visit

HERE REGARDING A TECHNICAL SCHOOL

At the meeting of the Board of Trade last evening, Mr. A.S. Capwell, the president, alluded to the necessity of the City's public bodies uniting in the effort to have a technical school located here. The City, as was generally known, had a great variety of industries, enjoyed by no other city in Canada. This entitled it to recognition when technical schools are being established. Hon. Dr. Cody, would be here, a definite plan to show him what our claims are should be utilized. The members concurred that it would be well if the Board considered endeavoring to secure the co-operation of all the bodies. The president thought that undoubtedly the City Council would do something but nevertheless the Board should assist in starting the ball rolling.

One suggestion made was that a banquet be provided in the evening of the day on which the Minister will visit the City. "The matter was left in abeyance for the meantime."

Rev. Alfred Harding today completes his tenth year as Episcopal bishop of the District of Columbia.

Eight or Ten Storey Big Business Block

STRUCTURE COMING SOON OR LATER

At the Corner of King and Water Streets

A big modern business block is coming in this city. Sooner or later the northeast corner of West King and Water Streets will have an eight or ten storey building.

When the Record asked Mr. Jacob Kaufman, the owner of the property at this corner, about the report that he contemplated the erection of an eight storey structure there Mr. Kaufman said: "Oh, that may be a long time off. I have been thinking about building a big block there for years but when it will be I don't know."

"Have you any plans for the building that you intend to erect when the time arrives. I understand that you propose to erect an eight storey one?" the Record asked.

Mr. Kaufman replied: "Yes, I have thought of building an eight storey block, in fact I may make it ten."

Explaining the general idea Mr. Kaufman stated that it was his purpose to erect a reinforced concrete structure with a frontage of about 200 feet on King Street and about 65 feet on Water Street. The King Street side would be divided into sections of about 27 feet width, the division pillars to run all the way through the building from the bottom to the top. This width would make the building suitable for store purposes and if necessary each or any space could be subdivided. The other storeys would be used for business offices, professional men's offices and apartments. If necessary any of these divisions could be subdivided. A point which might be solved by the erection of the block was that of the city having suitable accommodation for the furniture exhibit. The feasibility of utilizing one of the floors for this purpose was pointed out by Mr. Kaufman. This question has been discussed by several furniture men of the city.

Mr. Kaufman repeating his reference to the uncertainty about the time he would build stated it would not be this year; in fact he did not know when it would be. At present building prices were still very high. Also it was the intention to first build the necessary additions to the Kaufman Rubber Co. plant, which will be undertaken this year.

"With normal prices prevailing what would the approximate cost of the new block be?" the Record asked. The reply was that the minimum cost would be $200,000.

Mr. Kaufman further added that it was also the intention to build a gymnasium at the northeast rear of the property.

In the formulating of the plan of the block Mr. Kaufman is utilizing knowledge about the best form of construction of blocks gained by travel not only in Canadian and American cities but in European countries. The plan, including the lay-out, concrete construction, fire-proofness and plumbing and heating will be based on a comprehensive and extensive knowledge of the question.

To an observer it is evident that the erection of such a big building would be in the right direction. Business is going westward. The location is favorable, being central and readily reached by street car from Waterloo, the G.T.R. station and the G.P.A.H. towns. The hope to build is another sign of the confidence the big men of industry have in the city's future. It augurs well for an era of prosperity.

As the Record departed, Mr. Kaufman again impressed the fact that the construction of the block may not come for some time as yet.

FRANCE WAS OPPOSED TO DEALING WITH RUSSIA

But Public Opinion Is Now Undergoing Change

SHE WILL SOON BE RECONCILED TO IDEA

PARIS, Jan. 24. (By Lowell Mellett).—President Wilson has selected the American representatives on the special commission which is to confer with delegates of the various Russian factions at Princes Islands. They were expected to be announced today.

The other associated powers were understood to be showing similar celerity in preparing to undertake solution of a problem in which speed is recognized as a vital element.

No word had yet been received from the soviet government in response to wireless messages sent out Wednesday night announcing the allied proposal.

France, the first of the "Big Five" to cry out against the Russian plan, which was eventually adopted, soon will be completely reconciled, in the opinion of a French official in close touch with political and military affairs. "There must be careful study of any proposition so prominent with international possibilities as the Russian proposal, in view of France's geographical position, because we know that in the event of another war she would be the first to suffer as she has always been," he said. "She is not likely to accept the assurances of other nations' disinterestedness as readily as would the countries farther distant from the center of possible menace. However time will wear down her apprehension and the real, generous nature of the country will begin to assert itself. She will be found to be one of the most enthusiastic members of the league of nations, leaving her naturally democratic impulse to its development."

Friction Disappeared Between the Soldiers

OF FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES

AMERICAN HEADQUARTERS IN GERMANY, Jan. 22.—To quiet rumors evidently in circulation that there is considerable friction between the American and French armies, some incidents, from which such a feeling might have arisen, are presented. Unavoidably there was some feeling for a time on the part of the men of the Third army, but it originated from minor causes and has entirely disappeared now. Publication of some of the incidents from which this feeling started will do more than anything else to halt exaggerated reports.

As the Third army reached the banks of the Rhine there was a sudden change in orders from the allied high command by which French troops came up and occupied the southern portion of the bridgehead. This necessitated much shuffling about of the American troops and caused several divisions to march thirty-six miles farther to rear of the new areas assigned to them. It also deprived men of the third and forty-second divisions of the honor of crossing the Rhine. Naturally the men were dissatisfied as much as it caused much extra labor and marching.

The French were apparently under the impression that the Americans should enforce regulations which the French themselves had put into effect. For instance when a French regiment marched through Coblenz and was reviewed by General Dismann, several French officers circulated through the crowds, knocking off the hats of German civilians as the colors passed and when the American national anthem was played. The American had promulgated no regulations regarding civilians removing their hats when the colors passed and some of the Third army officers disapproved of this procedure. Then, humiliate, the American soldiers recalled petty incidents in France such as over-charging, which could occur anywhere, and other small affairs that were inevitable. This added to the feeling of dissatisfaction.

Other incidents cropped up, mostly the outgrowth of misunderstandings. But within a week or two this feeling subsided.

Personally speaking, he wished to retire from office and make room for some younger members, who might be able to fill the office better than he could. The organization was a young men's one as well as older members, and if it was given an opportunity to do something, it would help in restoring unity here and there which had been broken up and if this could be accomplished he felt that it was his duty to retire.

Tribute to a Prominent Member. The members of the Board before the close of the meeting gave expression to appreciation of the services of a prominent citizen, Mr. D.B. Detweiler. The following resolution was passed on an unanimous standing vote: Moved by G.M. Debus. Seconded by L.J. Breithaupt. Resolved that a life membership in the Kitchener Board of Trade be conferred on D.B. Detweiler, Esq., a past president, and a member of the 1918 Council as a slight token of our appreciation of the many valuable services rendered to this Board, the City of Kitchener, this province and the Dominion.

Those present at the meeting were President A.S. Capwell, Secretary A.J. Cundick, N.M. Davison, E.J. Payson, L.J. Breithaupt, J.H. Dobbie, G.M. Debus, A. A. Rose and J. V. Uttley.

Paris Is Today on Foot

PARIS, Jan. 24.—Parisians walk to work today, the result of a general transportation strike called for by a wage increase. The strike was voted at a joint meeting of the subway, tramcar and omnibus company employees. They drew up a scale of the cost of living to show their demands were justified. Only a few buses were running to-day and a policeman sat by the side of each driver. Police were also guarding the subway entrances.

Grandma Used Sage Tea To Darken Hair
The dried Sulphur with it to Restore Color, Gloss and Youthfulness
Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous. Just a few applications will prove a revelation on if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe approved by the addition of other ingredients.
While wispy, gray, faded hair is not ideal, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hairs have disappeared and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrous.
This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

wonder where our ice supply for next Summer is going to come from. In former years the ice harvest was in full swing by this time but so far, apart from getting the apparatus ready the outlook is not any too promising. Last winter the great question was the shortage of coal and ice was not even thought of. Naturally in the Winter we are liable to loose track of the fact that during the hot summer month: ice is a very necessary commodity. With only one ice plant in the two towns it is hardly probable they would be able to handle the increased demand should the weather not turn colder as one and remain so for at least 6 weeks. While it may seem out of place to mention ice at this time of the year a d as the winter has still many weeks to run we may still have all we bargain for and then some.

Sweet "Innifallen" is nothing half so romantic as a local story, the closing chapter of which is almost complete. Many Kitchener people will remember Miss Berdie Smith, who about four years ago was head lady with Smyth Brothers on King street.

Just prior to the beginning of the great war Miss Smith said goodbye to Kitchener and left for a visit to her people, where her home is in Londonderry in the North of Ireland.

During her stay here she had made the acquaintance of Mr. and Mrs. Thamer of Alma street, and when the great war broke out two of Mr. Thamer's sons enlisted, Owen and Frank.

Frank, around whom this story went, went overseas with the 34th Battalion leaving in line with the late Major Rate, the Doctor Rate.

Of course it was the natural thing that Frank should get what furlough he was fortunate to get, in visiting his old Kitchener acquaintance, and it was while on the second leave that cupid did the trick, and the engagement was announced.

However the big war was still on and there was little time for pleasure in those days.

Frank went back to his unit in France in which he was a machine gunner, fortune smiled on him, until the Battle of Vimy Ridge he received shrapnel wounds in the leg and the drums of his ears became defective.

This, however, did not prevent him from returning to England, where he now awaits orders to sail for home—but—and this is the part that makes all the difference, before he set foot on the homeward bound vessel—cupid will finish his work, and Frank will arrive in Canada in company with Mrs. Frank Thamer—nee Miss Berdie Smith.

Mr. Thamer's son Owen, who has been interned in Holland at The Hague since the 6th of January 1918 was released at the time the armistice was signed and reported back to the headquarters of the Royal Air Force England, he was granted two months leave and spent most of it in Scotland and Ireland. Word is expected any time now as to his sailing date for Canada.

THE REVIVAL AT ALMA ST. CHURCH.

"When you get salvation" said Mrs. Durham "last night at the Alma St. Church" no one need tell you you will have the witness of the Spirit. When our sins are forgiven and the New Birth takes place we are conscious of the change and have the absolute assurance that we have passed from death unto life and that we are the children of God and that we have already everlasting life. We have not many new inventions such material progress such changes in manner of life, that we think we must also have a new theology. The road to God is the same as of old. It is the way of repentance and faith. It is still the pure in heart that shall see God. It is still the way of the Cross that leads home." The Evangelist said that it is very necessary to press through forms and ceremonies, thru ecclesiasticism even through the crowds of Evangelists and preachers and Christian workers, until we touch the Son of God, and then we shall know indeed that we are made every

BIG AND RAPID DROP IN PRICE OF BUTTER.

Chicago Jan. 23.—Butter dropped five cents a pound to-day wholesale. This makes a total fall of 15 cents a pound in less than two weeks. Wholesale trade in butter to-day was described as not merely demoralized but paralyzed. Demand both foreign and domestic was almost at the zero point. Stoppage of Government and foreign buying as a result of cheap supplies abroad especially from South America and Australia started the decline. Excessive high prices in the domestic trade did the rest.

ALKALI IN SHAMPOOS BAD FOR THE HAIR

If you want to keep your hair looking its best be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos of anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Salvation Army Campaign.

The local branch of the Salvation Army will commence a factory campaign next week to raise funds for their war work. Much has been done in surrounding towns and cities and there is no doubt that Kitchener will respond to this good cause has her neighbours are doing.

Has Returned From Overseas.

Intelligence has reached friends from Detroit that Mr. Ernie Waechter formerly of this city has arrived in that city and will soon arrive here, his home city. Ernie enlisted in Detroit with the American forces and went overseas with the same. Formerly he was employed at a local bank.

Congress Held in Chicago This Week

JAN. 21 AND 22 INST

New York, Jan. 23.—What is believed to be the most significant meeting ever held within the Lutheran Church of America took place in Chicago on January 21-22. The meeting was called by the Committee in charge of $500,000 the Reconstruction Service Campaign of the National Lutheran Council. It is the national organization congress of the campaign.

Chicago was chosen as the place of the congress because it is the center of Lutheranism in America. Within a radius of four hundred miles nearly two-thirds of the Lutherans of the United States are found.

The congress was attended by leading Lutherans in every state, who have been asked to organize their states for the campaign.

Preceding the organization meeting the National Lutheran Council met to complete its program and make arrangements to begin its work. It is planned to send a number of commissions to Finland, Estonia, and the Black Sea Provinces to survey the situation and take charge of the work.

A commission has already been sent to France and is in touch with the situation there.

es decision to liberate them and coincident therewith is the matter of draft evaders generally.

The enforcement of the M.S.A. produced two effects. It brought about 80,000 men into the army, who were sent overseas, and it drove a great number to the woods or other resorts of relative safety.

Returned Home.

When the armistice came, home looked good to many who have been away from it and in different parts of the country, faces that had been missed for months soon made their appearance. Most of them assumed that the war being over there was no likelihood of any prosecution being directed against them.

The conscientious objector likewise, when he had been sent to prison, imagined that his release would come with the dawn of peace. There has been no change, however, the deserters are still being rounded up or are sought for and the conscientious objectors are still in jail. There is more sympathy with the latter and the action of the United States, while not necessarily influential into the Government here, is at least a precedent which some will suggest should be followed.

The dragnet is still out for the evaders, many of whom are still

Ottawa-Prescott Section Is First

FIRST TENDERS TO BE CALLED IN TWO WEEKS.
 Toronto, Jan. 22—Contracts to be called for in the near future by Hon. Finlay MacDermid, minister of public works and highways, it is understood, cover a construction program for the session of about 100 miles of highway of a substantial type.

The first contracts will be advertised within the next two weeks and will provide for the construction of the Ottawa-Prescott highway, over a distance of about 50 miles. The other contracts to be awarded later will provide for the construction of short sections at various points along the main province highways from east to west.
 "The highways department, however, will have men out over practically the whole highway this summer," stated W.A. McLean, deputy minister of highways.
 Preparatory Work
 Much of the work to be done consists of clearing the smaller cities

apart from that covered by they contracts, will be of a preparatory character and in the main the contracts will be for actual construction of culverts, etc., being done by Government men.
 The type of construction for the big highway will vary according to local requirements and the proximity of road building material. One either side of the big municipalities, permanent pavements will be laid concrete where suburban traffic is exceptionally heavy and tarred macadam or some other type of surface. Much of the work to be done consists of clearing the smaller cities

The body of an American military policeman has been found in Paris suburbs with wounds indicating that he had been murdered.
 The taking over of the highway makes it necessary for the highway department to make arrangements for exercising supervision over traffic. It is expected that provincial officers will be stationed on the highway to see that the speeding is kept within bounds. This service will not mean added expense since the experience on the Toronto Hamilton highway is that fines collected from motorists exceeding the speed limit easily cover the cost of policing.

THE PEARL.
 The Sunbeam said to Moonbeam:
 Meet me at dawn on the sea
 And over the waves of the water
 I shall tell you and you tell me,
 What on earth we encountered,
 I in the daylight bright,
 You in the slumbering hours,
 In the darkness of the night.

And then they passed:
 The sunbeam east, the moonbeam west,
 The one to work, the other to rest.
 And they met again in the early light,
 When together came the dawn and the night.
 And told each other where they had been,
 And told each other what they had seen.

The sunbeam said:
 I saw the joy, as the mother awakes

OF THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Thousands Have It and Don't Know It! Says Physician, Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion—How to Recognize and Treat

"Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from furred, coated tongue, bad breath, sour burning stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, bitter eructations, gas, wind and stomach ache, bitter eructations, gas, wind and stomach acidity and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach," writes a New York physician.

Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the fermented unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

In catarrh of the stomach a good safe treatment is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure Bismarated Magnesia in half a glass of hot water as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water washes the mucous from the stomach walls and draws the blood to the stomach while the bismarated magnesia is an excellent solvent for mucus and increases the efficiency of the hot water treatment. Moreover the Bismarated Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach and sweeten its food contents. Easy, natural digestion without distress of any kind should soon follow. Bismarated Magnesia is not a laxative is harmless, pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any local druggist. Don't confuse Bismarated Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, mild, citrate, etc., but get it in the pure bismarated form (powder or tablets), especially prepared for this purpose.

with a kiss her boy.
 And I saw the love in the maiden's eyes
 And it made me tingle, way up, in the skies,
 And I saw success in the face of man
 As strong and happy, his work he began
 Whichever I went, wherever I came,
 The singing and laughter were the same.

And then the Moon:
 You saw the light;
 But mine came from the darkness of night.
 The silent prayer, the hopeless sigh,
 The look in the dark, out of tearless eyes,
 From aching breast, the trembling fears,
 From breaking hearts, the endless tears,
 And he showed the sunbeam a crystal clear,
 Which he had found,—a human tear.

And they mixed together, the tear of the night,
 With the sunbeams story of joy and light,
 And wondered what the mixture may be;
 But it slipped their hands and dropped in the sea,
 And in the waters churning and swirling
 Was thus created the wonderful pearl.

HARD COAL DISTRIBUTION

Owing to an easement in the hard coal situation, Fuel Commissioner Lang has recommended that the civic fuel office be closed on February first.

The armistice of Nov. 11, combined with one of the mildest winters in forty years, have greatly improved fuel conditions. To-day for the first time in several years, the dealers have a surplus of coal.

There are a number of interesting facts in connection with the city's consumption of anthracite. From tabulations made by Mr. Lang's staff it is learned that the normal requirements of our households for a fuel year are 36,900 tons of anthracite. This information was furnished by citizens when applying for their first allotments.

The total quantity of hard coal assigned to the city by the Canadian Fuel Controller for the year ending March 31st, 1919, was 25,000 tons. To date there has been 15,000 tons received yet a surplus has accumulated from say three-fifths of the quantity promised.

There are a number of reasons for this. The public have proved to be apt scholars. They have learned how to economize in the use of hard coal. Many of them have reserved their quotas of hard coal for January and February, which are customarily the coldest months. To do this they burned soft coal, buckwheat, or coke during November and December. Some have relied on these substitutes thus far in January. Fortunately the supply of domestic grades of soft coal increased early in the autumn.

The mild weather has had a deal to do with improving the fuel situation. Less coal was generally required. This has enabled the mines to catch up with the demand.

As a result the dealers are again in the position where they have coal on hand and the restrictions placed on its sale and distribution are to be removed. After next week the public will be free to buy where and what they will.

In the matter of price and quality the shoe still pinches. With hard coal at $12.50, the household will not, now that the restrictions are lifted, indulge in coalfeasts. They will continue to conserve anthracite, while demurring over its indifferent quality.

The mine owners control the price and during wartime seemingly seized the opportunity to unload anything that was black on the market. The price will probably recede before next winter and when they are again seeking trade, find themselves obliged to eliminate much of the near-coal they have been marketing during the last two years.

The appointment of a Fuel Commissioner a year ago was a good act. There was suffering in many homes and often a hundred men women and children in line trying to get a quarter or a half ton of coal with which to fight off the inroads of a severely cold January and February. The supply was so short that it became necessary to dole out the limited amount coming in.

Forethoughtful citizens then asked, What of the winter of 1918-19? Ottawa informed the country that it would receive only 70 per cent. of its ordinary requirements. This meant that unless an equitable distribution of the restricted supply was provided one half of the household might get their full supply and the other half little. Wisdom pointed the way to a system where under the available supply would be distributed pro rata.

Had we had another winter like that of 1917-18, some inconvenience would have been caused under the distribution system adopted but this inconvenience would have been spread over the whole community. All would have received 70 per cent. and none been overlooked.

Though world events have enabled the lifting of the restrictions there is a satisfaction in knowing that this community was prepared for the worst and can now easily turn to better fuel conditions.

As for the Fuel Commissioner he has performed an onerous public duty impartially and well.

LAND FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS

To many a weary war-torn man Eldorado will open up with the presentation of the full details of Canada's new and settlement scheme, which has a wide application. British subjects and those of the Allied forces who desire to take up farming are provided for under the same heading as the Canadian born and provision is also made for grants of land, loans, and training for men without previous experience.

Where suitable Crown Lands are held by the various provinces these Governments will be asked to cooperate with the Soldier Settlement Board, also to assist in acquiring lands at present held uncultivated by private owners, and the soldier will be allowed to purchase all such land at cost price by a cash payment of one-tenth the amount and the balance in equal annual instalments, which may extend over a period of twenty years or longer.

As his farm progresses and new buildings or implements are required a further loan may be granted this soldier settler up to the amount of $1,000.00.

Soldiers who have no previous experience of farming and are anxious to go on the land will be given the training necessary to qualify them for all of the foregoing privileges. To many this will be the fulfillment of a dream of bygone years.

Equal provision for assistance, advice and placement of returned soldiers on the land has been made in every province, under the Soldier Settlement scheme, this has been arranged by means of special courses in agricultural schools and experimental farms and by the co-operation of many of Canada's best farmers in every district.

The guard the returned man against fraud or misrepresentation a staff of land appraisers work under supervision of the Soldier Settlement Board in every district, who give their opinion as to the value and future of the land. Qualification Committees in each province will report to the Board upon the suitability of each applicant.

So far the sum of over one and a quarter million dollars has already been approved in loans to over one thousand returned soldiers, and since the completion of regulations in July last over eight hundred soldiers have made entries on Dominion Crown Lands under the Soldier Settlement Act.

THE HOG MARKET

While the hog market has received a jolt there is said to be no cause for alarm. Britain is reputed to have a six months' supply of bacon and to have temporarily ceased buying from Canada.

There is this to be said, the Associated nations are shortly to undertake to feed the nations of Europe that are suffering. When undertaken the demand for food-stuffs, including hog products will revive.

As soon as an inkling came that the market was likely to break, the farmers rushed their hogs to the stockyards in order to sell at the $17.00 price. Individually this course seemed a sensible one but with everybody doing it, a glut followed.

In their own interests, farmers should now take the opposite course and hold their hogs. The Ottawa authorities predict that there will shortly be a better demand and a profitable price offered. Not to heed this suggestion may result in the price dropping to a level which would spell serious loss for producers.

Now comes South Africans with a demand that their country be converted into a republic.

"In the Days News"
Crown Prince Alexander of Serbia, whose public acts and utterances as regent of the new Kingdom of the Serbs Croats and Slovenes, has awakened the peace commission-ers to the fact that the problem of the Balkans, running true to form, is likely to prove a troublesome one, is the second son of King Peter I. of Serbia. In June 1914, Peter was reported to have abdicated the throne, at a time when the Austro-Germans were in full possession of his country. But as Alexander is still mentioned in the dispatches as Crown Prince, it would appear that King Peter's abdication had a string attached. Alexander became heir to the throne in 1909 when his elder brother, Prince George, was forced by public resentment to resign his rights. Prince George took this step after he had been charged with having murdered his valet. Prince Alexander was born in 1888, and is said to be a steady and serious young man.

A Broken Wedding Ring

By Bertha M. Clay

It was by no means a difficult matter to find out Martin Ray's address. The general had been struck at once with the proud, stately beauty of Leah, and the promise of fair loveliness in Hettie. It was not strange, he reflected; for his sister had been beautiful. He saw at once that there was something wrong between Martin Ray and his eldest child, the words puzzled him. "I have been praying," she said, "for some one to deliver me from this furnace of fire, and Heaven has sent you. His heart went out to the beautiful trembling girl who had come to him, and chosen life with him, the words puzzled him—so he swore—as his own daughter, his heiress, the great comfort of his life. He loved her, and was grateful to her. Yet he admired Hettie; the memory of her, as she stood with her arms clasped around her father, her father's countenance, her calm decision, were never forgotten by him. Both the noble nature of; of that he felt sure. But, as he drove away from the house with his beautiful niece in his care, he asked himself which had the nobler nature of the two—Leah, whose whole soul had rebelled against the teaching, belief, the life of her father, who loathed the task he had wished her to perform, who had been thankful to escape, even at the risk of never seeing father or sister again; or Hettie, whose loyal, tender heart had clung more closely to the father whom Leah abandoned.

Which was the nobler of the two he could not decide. He admired the beautiful, proud girl who would never sacrifice the loves of her life than become what her father wished to make her; he admired her rebellion against what she believed to be mean, false, and unholy. He admired the faithful love with which the younger girl clung to her father. He could not tell which he thought the nobler, which he admired the more; but one thing was certain—the loved Leah best. Leah had chosen him and the life he was ready to offer her; Hettie had refused both, therefore he would always love Leah best. Still his heart yearned over the girl who had her mother's blue eyes.

"I must be content," he said to himself. "After all it is fair. I have one child, he has the other. Even Doris herself would scarcely have cared to see him deprived of both."

Chapter X.
General Sir Arthur Hatton and his niece were soon settled in their new and magnificent home. To Leah it seemed as though she must be in the whirl of a dream. Her own story was to her very much like one of the fairy tales that had delighted her when she was a child. "I am a real Cinderella," she said to herself, with a smile. But in no way did she resemble that humble little maiden. She was proud by instinct and by nature. She was proud of her mother's name of Hatton, of the good old family from which her name, of the blood, of the blood that ran in her veins from her mother's side. She was proud of being true to herself, of being loyal to what she believed to be right principles.

The compact made between her uncle and herself had been broken, the name of Ray had been given up and she had adopted that of Hatton.

"We will have no false pretenses, the general had said. "You are my adopted daughter and heiress, but every one must know that you are my niece, in the place of your father; but while one lives who claims the title, I should not like to usurp it. You are my niece, Leah Hatton; and as we are discussing the subject for the last time, let me say that, should you ever wish to marry, I will myself tell to your future husband what he ought to know of your history. You must not do it yourself."

After that, not another word was spoken between them on the subject.

People were not curious. It was sufficient to know that Leah Hatton was the adopted daughter and heiress of General Sir Arthur Hatton, K.C.B., one of the wealthiest and most famous men in England. Leah was troubled at first when she saw the magnificence of the home that was to be hers. She impatiently her fears frankly enough to the general, but he smiled at them.

"My dear Leah," he said, "no woman can be more than a lady—can be more than refined, bred, graceful and accomplished. You are all those. You will soon be accustomed to the new life; you will adapt yourself to it naturally. If there is any little deficiency in your knowledge of society matters, you will meet it by studying attentively the habits and manners of those about you."

From the first moment she entered his house she was, he told her, entirely mistress of it—there was no appeal against her authority. Most girls of her age would have been too young for such a position; but Leah was older than her years. It was a marvellous change for her, from the small, gloomy house in a dull street to that grand old mansion, where everything bespoke the pride of wealth and luxury. Some young heads would have been turned by it. Here was not. She fell into the position so naturally that

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT WALK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her to Health.

Perth Amboy, N.J.—"For three years I suffered with a severe female nervous trouble, was nervous, had backache and a pain in my side most of the time. I had dizzy spells and was often so faint I could not walk across the floor. The doctor said I would have to have an operation. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in my newspaper, and tried it. Now I am better, feel strong, have no pains, backache or dizzy spells. Every one tells me how well I look, and I tell them to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—that is what makes me feel well and look well. I recommended it to my sister and she is using it now. You can use this letter if you wish, for it is certainly a grand remedy for a woman's ills."—Mrs. MARTHA SPANIELAWSKI, 524 Penn St., Perth Amboy, N.J.

For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming such serious conditions as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, dizziness, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

Girls! Girls! Try It! Stop Dandruff And Beautify Your Hair

Hair stops falling out and gets thick, wavy, strong and beautiful

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Dandarine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Dandarine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Dandarine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty soft hair and lots of it, surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Dandarine from any druggist or toilet counter for a few cents.

no one would have dreamed that she had ever held any other. Miss Hatton of Brentwood was quite a different girl from Leah Ray.

"Home, Sweet Home"
"Be it ever so humble,
There's no place like home."

You need not try to call to mind the name of this famous national song, for everyone is familiar with it at first sight. Though written in 1823 by John Howard Payne, it has never lost its power, for the simple reason that its very words pull on the heart strings of mankind.

Is there in this broad land a man who does not want a HOME OF HIS OWN? Who does not want the pride of saying, "That is my home?" The pride of owning a home should be the ambition of every man. If you were to look into the past histories of men who have succeeded you will find that in most cases that the foundation of their success was OWNING A HOME. Russia's Case Is Up Uric Acid in Meat Brings Rheumatism

PREPARE PROGRAM FOR FULL CONFERENCE OF DELEGATES TO-MORROW.

Paris, Jan. 23.—Whether the effort of the great powers to tranquilize Russia was to succeed or fail was still in the balance to-night. No reply had come from the Bolsheviks or from any other faction and as the wireless message embodying the proposal of the associated powers was not sent until 1 o'clock this morning, some days may intervene before anything definite is known.

In the meantime prominent anti-Bolshevik leaders in Paris are not clear on their course and the first reports that they were favorable to the plan have been followed by a statement by such leaders as Sergius Sazonoff former Russian foreign minister that they would not sit at the table with assassins.

M. Sazonoff's statement appeared in an interview in the Echo de Paris. He declared he would not think of going to the Princes Islands for the proposed conference between representatives of the various Russian factions and the allied governments. He added that it was very likely that neither the Government or Admiral Kolchak nor that of Gen. Denikine would send emissaries, for they were fully aware of what Bolshevism meant.

Former premier of Russia, Prince Lvoff, was also emphatic. "We never thought," said Prince Lvoff, "that the conferences would commence its peace work by renewing relations with our tyrants. The Bolsheviks have won their greatest victory in Paris. The decision of the council not only is of danger to us, but to the whole world. It gives new impulse to anarchy."

The semi-official Temps also asserts that the supreme council's proposal permits traitors who withdrew Russia from the war and turned the entire German strength against France to be received on the same footing as the faithful. The American and British delegates feel, however, the proposal was the only course open. Information reaching the allies indicates that the Bolsheviks have a powerful army, in which discipline is being enforced. In view of this information one of the premiers pointed out to-day that the Bolsheviks could only be combated by a large number of allied troops which would have to be on the spot immediately, whereas none of the governments could ask people already wearied by war to undertake another large military expedition.

Four Main Subjects.
The council of the great powers to-day definitely set four main subjects to be presented at the full conference on Saturday:

First International labor legislation.

Second. Responsibility and punishment for the war.

Third. Indemnities.

Fourth. Internationalization of a points, waterways and railways. These subjects are not to be discussed in detail, but will be immediately referred to committees for study and report.

The American plans for the first topic are already well advanced. While there is no definite information on the second point, relative to responsibility and punishment for the war, the sentiment in American quarters inclines to a negative attitude, with some suggestions that those responsible who have fled from Germany should be returned for Germany to deal with.

Indemnities.
The third subject, indemnities, will not be presented to the conference with the amounts claimed by each Government, but a committee will be charged with the task of assembling these amounts and also of determining the probable maximum the enemy powers are able to pay.

Says a Little Salts in Water May Save You From Dread Attack.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism, get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water; and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.

ALICE VERLET
Coloratura Soprano proving there is no difference between her own voice and the New Edison's 'Re-creation' of it.

I wish I could tell you what entire contentment there is in owning a New Edison..

We put on a piano selection by the celebrated Andre Benoit. It is Godard's "Second Mazurka." What we hear—those mighty chords, those runs of stirring crescendo, those soothing modulated passages—ah! what we hear is not a mere resemblance, not an imitation of piano tone. It is as much Benoit and his marvelous playing as though the great French virtuoso was sitting there at our own piano. Only this is Music. There is nothing more in music to wish for. There is nothing more to be obtained.

Hear the New Edison yourself. Its "Re-creation" of an instrument or the human voice is really marvelous. Has permanent diamond point, no needles to change. Plays all makes of records. Easy terms if you wish.

Intelligence From Pte. C. Hessena

"PETE" HAD A REMARKABLE EXPERIENCE AS PRISONER OF WAR.

On One Occasion Without Food For Seven Days.

Friends have the pleasing opportunity of hearing from Pte. C. Hessena, who is in a hospital in England after being released from a prisoner of war camp. An interesting letter has been received from him, by his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Hessena, in which the intelligence is imparted that he is recovering from the wounds received after going over "The Top" during the battle of the Somme. Reading between the lines one can realize what gallantry and courage was shown by "Pete" when scrap was on. He was there to after "Jerry," he says and he like many a young Canadian, earned his cost suffering and deprivation to himself. However, this is only due to his characteristic pluck and readiness to help the "next low."

The story may be gleaned from the letter which follows:
King George Hospital, Stamford, St., London, Eng.

Dear Father and Mother, I suppose by now you are awed that I am in Blighty, and glad to get a good feed as well some attention. I might say I am getting along famously. I can walk quite freely but am a little weak in the knees and it is a little painful, but a week or two of massage treatment should me up. My arm is also O.K. though just a little weak, but I have control of it as you will be able to see by this writing; hope you can make it out, but at least I am improving.

I sure had a load lifted off my mind to-day; the lady came out with the missing list and my name was not on it. So I know you have been advised that I was missing, but can I hardly wait to get word from you telling me what to do and to know if everything is alright.

King George Hospital, Stamford, St., London, Eng.

Dear Father and Mother, I suppose by now you are aware that I am in Blyth, and sure glad to get a good feed as well as some attention. I might say that I am getting along famously and can walk quite freely but am a little weak in the knees and it is a little painful, but a week or so of massage treatment should fix me up. My arm is also O.K. although just a little weak, but have full control of it as you will be able to see by this writing; hope you can make it out, but at that my arm is improving.

I sure had a load lifted off my mind to-day; the lady came a-courting with the missing list and my name was not on it. So I know you will have been advised that I was a prisoner, but can I hardly wait till I get word from you telling me when and to know if everything is alright

YOU NEXT?

A factory worker was heard to remark, "We often have accidents, but I've escaped so far." His little thought he would be next. Yet he was! His injury was only a slight one and he neglected it. It began to fester. Then blood-poisoning set in and developed so quickly that he had to have his arm amputated.

How about you? You may be next! You can safeguard yourself against the result of accidents, as many other people have done, by keeping Zam-Buk always handy.

Miss S. A. Wernicke of Hilton, N.C., accidentally ran a needle so far into her finger that it pierced the bone. She writes: "My hand became so stiff and swollen that I could not use it. I naturally tried every remedy I knew of, but it only got worse. Blood-poisoning developed and extended right up my arm. The pain was intense, and I certainly thought I would lose my arm, which was in a terribly inflamed and swollen state, and literally covered with bumps. A friend advised me to use Zam-Buk, which I did, and it was not long before the pain grew less. With perseverance the inflammation was all drawn out, the swelling and lumps disappeared, and my arm was soon quite well again."

Zam-Buk is also best for eczema and all skin troubles, ulcers, running sores and piles. All stores, 60c.

with you people at home and if you have received my letters from Germany. I never received a ward from any of you. I suppose you would like to know how I was taken prisoner. I got thru the first time we went over the top on Aug. 8, the beginning of the last big push. On the 15th we went into the line again, and about noon the 16th an officer and about 12 of us were sent out to locate Jerry and (we locate him alright, alright) (so I'd be us) but to get back to the story, we ran up against him and we jumped into the first trench as; we saw the officer sent word back stating all particulars, as to how we were situated. A company was sent up to reinforce us; there were also a few fresh men who were out on patrol who joined us, but to make a long story short, we got orders to go over and give him—which we did and got him out of his trenches O.K. but I guess he saw how few there were of us and he came back and we had to get out and I got about 10 yards from his trench when he got me with a bullet in the right arm. We then hit for a shell hole thinking about a nice Blyth with a leave ahead of me but as you know I counted my chickens too soon. Well I lay there for quite a while and Fritz's machine guns were quiet. We made another attempt for our lines well I did not get more than five paces when he got me in the right hip the bullet passing through and coming out of the left hip; it hit some nerve which paralysed me. I lay there all afternoon till midnight when Jerry came out and saw me but as I wanted to leave me but as I was almost dead with pain and thirst I begged for water, so one of the Jerry's took pity on me and gave me a drink and go the others to take me in. They took me to a dug out and helped themselves to my haversack, shoes and socks. The next night they took me to another dug out quite a piece from the line, where the doctor fixed me up in a half sort of way. From there I was taken to Ham, where I got some coffee which was the first food I had since captured and the last for about seven days afterward. Then I was taken to St. Quentin Hospital and I was there for about a week and a half and our airmen were over every night. (talk about Fritz doing the disappearing stunt well he sure can do it) and they had to evacuate as our troops were advancing so rapidly.

Soldiers Home Coming Campaign

As the Boys Come Home

YOU will meet your soldier boy and what a glorious time you and he will have. You will kill the proverbial "fatted calf" and make merry. You will see that he is comfortable until he settles down again into civilian life.

But what of the men who arrive at the same time with NO friend to greet them, no home to welcome them, no job to turn to? There's a problem you must face—or let the Salvation Army face it for you.

SALVATION ARMY MILLION DOLLAR FUND THIS WEEK

The Salvation Army fills the breach here at home, just as it did, and still does, over there! It holds out open arms to the soldiers, welcomes them, feeds them, furnishes clean beds and hot baths, comforts for body and soul, and stands by a man and his family until he is on his feet.

Canada must solve the problem of repatriating her soldier sons who have done their part so valiantly. Apart from all obvious considerations of gratitude, it will pay us in dollars and cents to let the soldiers see we are standing firmly by them. To desert our men now the excitement of war has passed, would be to earn their just reproaches. Look at this appeal from all sides; ask any returned man about the work of the Salvation Army. Then help to make this campaign the success it deserves to be.

"They loved not their lives to the death"

Who mended the soldiers' clothes over there?	Who provides the Emergency Homes and the Maternity Homes?
Who entertained hundreds of thousands of soldiers and sailors daily at the Huts?	Who has cared for thousands of war widows?
Who helped to keep the soldiers' homes here intact?	THE SALVATION ARMY
	Shall their work stop for lack of funds?

Scout Newsletters. Thursday evening the Boy Scouts met at the Benton St. Baptist Church for their weekly meeting. After the usual opening, consisting of a Chapter of the Scripture followed by the Lord's Prayer and the repeating of the Scout Law and Promise. Rev. Schade gave the Scouts a talk on clean speech. He stated that to be clean, upright and honest a person must let Jesus come into his heart. The Boys, led by "Tuxas Hoffer, assistant Scout master, were put through some strenuous mat and trapez work. A game of basketball was played between the Beaver Patrol Leaders team and the Adjutant's team resulting in the former team winning by a score of 2-1. On account of soft ice the hockey game between the Bulldogs and the Beavers was postponed. Next Thursday they will meet at the St. Andrew's Church. All boys 4 feet 6 inches or over and who wish to join the Scouts are welcome to come to the meetings and to get into the game. This coming meeting will be taken up with bandaging signalling and athletic sports. Weather permitting all Scouts who wish to partake in a "hike" will meet at the market square at one fifteen sharp with full equipment. Closing Office. The end of the Fuel Department is in sight following the improvement in conditions. The office in the city hall this morning was being cleared of the equipment and applicants for coal were being referred to the dealers. Coal is coming in well these days, especially egg and grate. Nut and stove shipments are a trifle slower. The records of the department, it might be stated, will be kept for the time being.

Worth More Than All Money on Earth

Mrs. Raspberry Able to do Household Work First Time in Four Years—Gains Thirty-Five Pounds.

"I had rather see my wife well and happy like she is since taking Tanlac than to have all the money in the world, declared Henry Raspberry of 1812 Campbell St., Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Raspberry who has recently been employed as a foreman by the Armour Packing Company, was formerly in the service of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad.

"Before my wife took Tanlac, continued Mr. Raspberry, 'she had rheumatism in her limbs so bad she couldn't even dress herself. I would have to help her out of bed in the mornings and put her clothes on for her. Her stomach was in such a bad condition that she could hardly digest anything. The gas on her stomach would cause intense pains in her side and such awful spells of palpitation of the heart that she could hardly stand it. She was extremely nervous, her breath was short and very offensive, and she had fallen off in weight until she was hardly more than a frame. "At the time she began taking Tanlac she only weighed eighty-seven pounds and had not been able to do any of her household work in four years. But she now weighs one hundred and twenty-two pounds—has actually gained thirty-five pounds—and is as healthy and active as she was thirty years ago. The rheumatic pains have all left her and she can do all her work and look after the family without the least trouble. She can eat meats, pickles, all kinds of vegetables and anything else she wants and never has a sign of indigestion. She is not the least nervous anymore, sleeps like a child every night and is as well as she ever was. I can't find words to express my thankfulness for what Tanlac has done for her. It is nothing short of wonderful."

Tanlac is sold in Kitchener by E.O. Ritz & Co., in Galt by R.W. Meikleham, in Hespeler by Jno. R. Phin, in New Hamburg, by W.H. Boule, in Milbank by R.B. Hamilton, in West Montrose by A.E. Riches & Co., in Preston by H.L. Frick, in Waterloo by A.B. Learn, in Doon by L.C. Bullock.

MAIL CONTRACT SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the Postmaster General, will be received at Ottawa until noon, on Friday, the 21st day of February, 1919, for the conveyance of His Majesty's Mails, on a proposed Contract for four years, six times per week, Over Kitchener No. 3 Rural Route, from the 1st of July, 1919.

Printed notices containing further information as to conditions of proposed Contract may be seen and blank forms of Tender may be obtained at the Post Offices of Kitchener, Waterloo, Preston, Petersburg, St. Jacobs, and at the office of the Post Office Inspector, London.

Manager Harry Wismer had his team out to practice at the Arenal last night after the St. Patrick-Newman Hall game and quite a number watched the champions in action. There is practically no ice in the Kitchener rink and the team has decided to stay in Toronto and get in condition for Saturday night's important senior fixture with Newman Hall.

Barney Oldfield Cleveland for many years famous as an automobile racer and holder of the time record for one mile from a standing start announced his permanent retirement from the track. He will devote his time to a tire manufacturing concern of which he is the head.
On May 16 1910 Oldfield set a record for 40.63 seconds for a mile from a standing start at Daytona Fla. which still stands.
Oldfield was disqualified as a racer last year by the American Automobile Association because he drove in exhibition races at country fairs, as the official exhibitions were cancelled because of the war.

SKATE JUICE

By Dan

On Saturday night when the Champs meet Jerry La Flamme's Newman Hall in the Toronto Arena those boys will have to step to a merry tune if they are on the long end of the score. The Champs are going down grim and determined to register a win and providing the ice is kept their changes are good.

On Wednesday night the entire team saw the Saint Pats and the Newman mix it and they are all of the opinion Jerry's men should have won on the play. Any team that can give the Saints such a shake up are not to be lightly treated, and realizing this Hick has been getting his charges to bed bright and early.

After the game on Wednesday night the Champs took the ice and had a splendid workout. After the conditions that exist here it sure was a treat for them to get onto a sheet of decent ice. This was the only time the Champs have been on skates since their game here with the Saints on the 17th.

Providing the ice is hard the old machine that carried the Kitchener boys to the top of the hockey ladder last season will again be in operation. Team work and condition constitute eighty per cent of the winning essentials in hockey and providing the long overdue cold snap comes the Champs will have both these, and when the season is over the John Ross Robertson and the Allen silverware will remain here for another year.
The prospects of ice in the local rink continue anything but good and as the pros say "Mild" for Saturday the chances are it will be late next week before the ice is ready for practice.

The local juniors are to be disappointed again tonight, the game at Preston having been cancelled.
Ice at the Auditorium this morning was fairly good considering last night's freeze was the first for some time. An attempt will be made to have a workout there this evening providing the ice will stand it, if not, the team will try the Park Lake. This will be the better thing of the two to do, and so give the Auditorium ice a chance.

With the decided change in the weather today it is hoped that the scheduled will be run from now on the three games the juniors had booked this week have been cancelled and it has put things back considerably.
The story centers round nardo-well Squire and his endeavours to obtain the hand of a pretty daughter of Erin—needless to say he fails.
