OFFICIALS GO OVER SUBWAYS

Engineers With Grand Trunk Superintendent of Motive Power Inspect Crossings—Robb Intimates That Something Big is to Break Later

As the result of a short stop-over in London this morning, Mr. W. D. Robb, Grand Trunk superintendent of motive power, Montreal, this city may be just a little nearer having subways than it has been for some time.

Mr. Robb during his stay here was made acquainted with the present situation and a party of engineers who accompanied him looked over the crossings where subways have been proposed. When questioned by an advertiser representative, Mr. Robb stated that he had nothing at present to give out for publication on the subway question, but intimated that there might be something big doing a little later on.

Mr. Robb and the men accompanying him left in their private car on the train for Detroit, where Mr. Robb will meet a number of the Michigan Central officials in a conference over running the Grand Trunk trains into the new Michigan Central depot.

For some time past the Grand Trunk officials have been talking of tearing down the old G. T. R. Fort street station and running into the new Michigan Central Union depot, and it is believed that Mr. Robb's visit to Detroit may mean the consummation of the proposition.

BENZINE BUGGIES SELLING RAPIDLY

Tightness of Money Has Little Effect on Local Demand for Motor Cars.

DEALERS ARE OPTIMISTIC

One Says This Year's Sales Will Be More Than Double Figure in 1913.

Despite the tightness of money and the so-called high cost of living, more automobiles have been sold so far this season in London than ever before. The cars purchased are all fairly expensive ones, the usual prices ranging from $1,800 to $2,500. Some of the most expensive models are being sold, too.

"People are buying as if there were not the slightest shadow of money stringency, or ever had any," said one dealer, who has the agency here for an expensive line of cars.

Another dealer said: "Prospects are brighter right now than they ever were before for a record sale of cars. There may be something to this tight money talk, but we don't see it in our business. I expect that I shall sell 50 per cent more cars this year than last year, and 1913 was a good one for us."

The public shows no particular liking for any one build or style of car, though the light six-cylinders are somewhat more in favor than others, perhaps. Many physicians are intending to purchase cars this season, dealers say.

LEAMINGTON MEN ARE PROMISED AN ARMORY BY HUGHES

Can Have Small One This Year or Big One Next Year.

WANT A BREAKWATER

Delegation Not To Be Led Off Trail by Militarism—Intends to Have What It Wants.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, March 3.—Leamington wants a breakwater and Dr. Hillier wants an armory. If Leamington gets what it wants, and Dr. Hillier doesn't, Leamington will rejoice, although she will not refuse the armory if she has to accept it. But if the Government tries to satisfy the busy little town in South Essex, with a ten thousand dollar memorial to militarism gone mad, there will be squalls around Pelee Point.

The special train bearing the hundred Leamington stalwarts reached Ottawa two hours and twenty minutes late. Too late to see the Premier and cabinet ministers this morning, so an appointment was made for 4 p.m. That delay of the special may have been responsible for the armory idea or it may not, but it is a fact that most of the delegation were fighting mad by the time the Chateau Laurier was reached at 10:45. Then it was announced that Dr. Hillier was after the armory. Moreover it was apparent that armory appointments are easily made, for arrangements were soon completed to see the minister of militia at 11:30.

There was a murmur of disapproval in the throng at once. It was a breakwater they came after, and they were in favor of telling the Prime Minister that it was all they came after. Some of them even wanted to oppose the armory. Mayor G. A. Brown gathered the delegates at the hotel lobby, and the rest of the delegation behind him and beside him, and made it very plain to the member that everything had to give way to the one request that Leamington did not want an armory unless it was just thrown in.

In the meantime Dr. Hillier and some of his friends headed for Parliament Hill to interview Colonel Sam. As they tramped along the street an old lady looked on s.d. and remarked that there must be a funeral.

When the parade return an hour later there was no funeral tread. Col Hughes promised the armory. Leamington can have a small one this year or one have a larger one next year, to cost $30,000, similar to the structure at Halesbury. Dr. Hillier says Leamington will wait a year.

COUNTY ENGINEER SAYS BILL IS MERE FREAK

Expresses Belief That Autoless Day Measure Will Never Pass.

County Engineer Charles Talbot does not think that the "autoless day" bill, which W. J. Anderson, for South Bruce, intends introducing at this session of the Legislature, will ever be made law. The idea of the bill is to give municipalities the right to set aside safety periods during which no automobile would be allowed to traverse any of the county roads, so that for twenty-four hours each week farmers would have a chance to use the roads without meeting automobiles.

Mr. Talbot is of the opinion that there is not so much feeling against the automobilists among the farmers as the introduction of the bill would appear to indicate.

"After all, the county roads are the King's highway," he said, "and any subject should be allowed to use them, provided he does not abuse the privilege. It would be just as reasonable for the city people today to say to the farmer, 'You must not drive over our streets.'"

He added that he thought the bill was one of the "freak" variety, and would not command much serious attention.

GAS COMPANY FINED FOR INJURING HEALTH

Brantford, March 3.—The Brantford Gas Company was this morning fined $100 and costs on a charge of injuring the public health. The suit was brought by the city, following upon the introduction of Tibury sulphur gas here without purification, and the case was adjourned from time to time to allow the company to get a purifier working.

Abandon All Hope of Sir George Ross' Ultimate Recovery

Most Sanguine Have Given Up Hope, Despite Desperate Battle Against Death.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, March 3.—"Sir George Ross' condition remains unchanged."

Such is the only bulletin available on the condition of Ontario's premier, who lies dying in his room at the new General Hospital. That the end is inevitable has been conceded by friends and relatives. The veteran statesman, however, is making a heroic fight against death. It is his indomitable will that has sustained him through the entire period of his grave illness. That it has prolonged his life wonderfully is admitted by his physicians, but even the most sanguine have abandoned all hope of recovery.

ENFORCE THE LAWS NOW ON THE BOOKS SAYS THE PREMIER

FAMILY LIFE INFLUENCE

Bishop Farthing Refers to Corruption in Politics, and Holds Politicians Responsible.

[Canadian Press.]

Ottawa, March 3.—"We, at this congress, stand on guard for Canada, to marshal the forces of an enlightened and patriotic people—that is why we are assembled here at the headquarters of Canada, where the men in power have the ability to grant what this congress will pray for."

This was the opening statement of the address with which Rev. Dr. A. Carman, president of the Social Service Congress of Canada, and general superintendent of the Methodist church in Canada, opened the first social service congress ever held in the Dominion, in the Normal School here today.

"We are here to redeem the land, to help our fellow citizens to live a higher life, to exalt the morals of the country and inspire the manhood to better things," explained the chairman, with an earnestness that was felt throughout the great audience.

Inspiring addresses of welcome to the delegates, who have come from all parts of Canada, representing all the churches and several religious orders, were given by Premier Borden, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Controller Dr. Parent.

Family Influence Failing.

That the family life today has not the influence on the child or on the man that it had 30 or 40 years ago was one of the statements of the Premier. He said that one of the greatest needs of today is the enforcement of the laws.

BOARD TO DISCUSS BUILDING PLANS

Maintenance Estimates Not Yet Ready, But Will Be in Excess of Former Years.

This afternoon the members of the board of education will discuss the prospects for going ahead with the work outlined by the committees, and the likelihood of the requests made for the board of control, being acceded to. The trustees have asked the controllers to recommend the issue of debentures amounting to nearly $300,000 for the purpose of improving and adding to the educational facilities of London, but at a joint meeting of the two boards on Monday, the controllers did not appear very favorable toward the proposed expenditure. If all the plans of the board were carried out, it would mean about three-quarters of a mill additional for school purposes.

The maintenance and operation estimates for the school board for next year have not yet been prepared, but it is estimated that they will be considerably in excess of other years, owing to increased salaries, additional teachers and other causes. At the present time, the board uses about eight and a half mills of the tax rate.

TEMPERANCE WORKERS SHOULD BUILD HOTEL

J. F. Madden Declares It Is Up to Them To Provide Commercial Accommodation.

"The temperance people in London ought to get busy and erect a $100,000 commercial hotel here," declared J. F. Madden this morning on his return from the "temperance parliament" of the Ontario Alliance in Toronto. "We cannot expect the hotelkeepers to put one up without a bar, and as we are going to take the bars away from them before long, they won't undertake the proposition. Therefore, it is up to the temperance people, and we must get busy."

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, March 3.—A bill to empower the corporation of the city of London to take over, electrify and operate an electric road the London and Port Stanley Railway was approved without amendment. There was but little discussion, Major Beattie explaining the plans of the city. The road is now to go under public ownership with hydro electric as the motive power.

ASQUITH'S STATEMENT TO BE GIVEN MONDAY

Home Rule Bill Will Then Pass Through Its Second Reading.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 3.—The second reading of the home rule bill for Ireland will be delivered next Monday in the House of Commons, according to announcement today by Premier Asquith, who said he would then make his promised statement as to the proposed concessions to Ulster.

Premier Asquith's announcement takes the House of Commons by surprise, as it had been expected he would delay his statement until the financial business of the Government had been disposed of.

The Premier explained that arrangements having been made to insure the completion of the Government's financial business by March 31, he was able to promise the statement on Home Rule for Monday.

More Municipalities Announce Intention of Sending Radial Delegates.

Among the municipalities heard from with announcements that they would send representatives to the radial conference here on Thursday are: West Williams, Parkhill, Dorchester, Ailsa Craig, Wilkesport, Elmiskillen Township, Ridgely, Township, Sombra, Briden, Elfrick, West Oxford, Stratford, Blenheim, Dorchester Township, Pingal, Bismarck Township, South Norwich, London Township, Seaford, Embro, Arva, Thamesford, Chatham, Petrolia, Derryham Township, Mount Brydges and Henshaw.

PROVINCIAL SURPLUS MADE UP BY LOANS AND SUBSIDIES

Treasurer's Report Shows a Surplus of Over Two Millions, But Receipts Include Those From Extraordinary Sources.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, March 3.—The public accounts submitted today by Hon. I. B. Lucas, provincial treasurer, show total receipts from all sources for the year of $18,475,638, and total expenditures $16,091,672.

The receipts include Dominion subsidy, $2,396,378; subsidy from Federal Government on account of the T. and N. O. Railway, $2,134,080; lands, forests and mines, $2,739,309; succession duties, $1,062,694; licenses, $901,486; law stamps, $134,483; education, $60,600; provincial secretary's department (mainly from provincial institutions), $267,366; fish and game, $135,364; agriculture, $17,131; income from various sources under the supplementary revenues act, $937,599; interest on hydro-electric advances to municipalities, $253,000; bank interest from Dominion Government on T. and N. O. account, $564,629; sale of treasury bills, $2,821,341; provincial loan, $1,637,173.

The heaviest items of expenditure are: Education, $1,969,291; public institutions, $1,366,038; civil government, $729,223; justice, $715,384; agriculture, $693,391; hospitals and charities, $416,812; colonization and immigration, $134,801; legislation, $302,293; colonization roads, $406,024; crown lands, $383,593; hydro-electric commission, $129,592; refunds, $164,212; miscellaneous services, $371,190; public buildings accounts, $278,689; roads in New Ontario, $1,063,655; advances to T. and N. O. Railway, $950,000; good roads statutory fund, $388,387; new provincial prison, $224,396; new provincial prison, $328,975; new hospital for insane at Whitby, $209,563.

The accounts as presented show a surplus of over two million dollars, but the Government figures a net surplus of $290,000. Critics of the budget, on the other hand, will point out that $9,946,514 of the gross receipts are from extraordinary sources, such as loans, specials, subsidies.

BRITAIN WILL NOT SEND ARMED FORCE TO MEXICO

Sir Edward Grey Says It Would Be a "Fantastic Attempt" to Secure Reparation for Benton's Death—Will Take Action When Possible.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 3.—The British Government's view that no immediate action could be taken by it in connection with the deadlock over the investigation into the death of Wm. S. Benton, the British ranchman, was made quite plain today in the House of Commons by Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary. Sir Edward was, however, equally explicit in pointing out that if Great Britain failed to secure satisfaction through the United States, the British Government reserved to itself the right to secure reparation whenever it was able to do so.

The promised pronouncement on the Mexican situation from the foreign secretary had been anxiously awaited. It was delivered before a keenly interested gathering of the members of the House of Commons, while the entire nation looked forward to a declaration reparation whenever it was able to do so.

Intense resentment has been expressed throughout the British Isles over what is regarded as an attempt on the part of Venustiano Carranza, the Constitutional leader in Mexico, to sow discord between the British Empire and the United States, and also over the repeated delays in the investigation of the circumstances of the death of Benton.

Replying to another question, Sir Edward Grey said that Great Britain had not recognized Gen. Villa as a belligerent.

A further question brought the statement from Sir Edward Grey that no assurances had been given back from Provisional President Huerta regarding the protection of British subjects in Mexico.

U. S. A. Not Responsible.

"Communications with the Government of the United States are still proceeding, but I would repeat what I said last week—that these communications do not imply that the Government of the United States has any responsibility for what has taken place—by which I mean, of course, the death of Benton."

"While, therefore, we shall welcome any action that the United States is prepared to take to secure justice, we have no title to demand as a right that the United States should itself resort to the use of force."

"One can demand that Government should go on all lengths to secure reparation."

Police, Hotel Clerk and Travelers Would Welcome Return of Alleged Traveller Whose "Paper" Was Worthless.

Secretary Bryan will dine at the British embassy this evening, before Sir Lionel leaves for New York.

The British minister declined to comment upon the Mexican situation in any way.

"I am sorry," he said to all questioners, "but my Government does not permit me to give interviews."

Immediately after his brief conference with the two British diplomats, Secretary Bryan went to the cabinet meeting with the latest Mexican dispatches, where the killing of Bauch, the American, the Benton case, and the probable attitude of Carranza in the light of latest developments were discussed.

There was no outward indication of any change in the situation, as President Wilson outlined it yesterday.

Washington, March 3.—Sir Lionel Carden, Great Britain's minister to Mexico, will confer with President Wilson tonight at six o'clock, and later will leave for New York to sail for England tomorrow morning on the Olympic.

Secretary Bryan will dine at the British embassy this evening, before Sir Lionel leaves for New York.

El Paso, Texas, March 3.—Members of the Benton investigating committee did not know today whether they were to proceed to Chihuahua or not. They were given instructions from Washington.

Should it be decided to proceed with the investigation, the commission will make the trip to Chihuahua on a special train, which yesterday brought Marion Letcher, American consul at Chihuahua, to the city. The train is being held in readiness across the river at Juarez.

The commissioners entertained but slight hope that the proposed investigation would reveal the manner of Benton's death at the hands of Gen. Villa. It is the belief of many here that if the Briton's body is not in an advanced stage of decomposition, it probably has been mutilated by chemicals.

WASHINGTON WAITING.

Washington, D. C., March 3.—Developments in the Mexican situation today were dependent upon receipt of word from General Carranza, the constitutional chief, as to whether he insisted upon maintaining the attitude that the United States has no right to inquire into the recent execution of William S. Benton, a British subject.

ROWELL GIVES LIE TO LONDON PAPER

Ontario Club Is Not Headquarters for Liberalism—Conservatives Members.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Toronto, March 2.—During the brief sitting of the Legislature this afternoon Mr. Rowell gave the "retort courteous" to an editorial appearing in a London paper charging him with responsibility for the sale of liquor at the Ontario Club in Toronto. When the orders of the day were called the Opposition leader said:

KEPHALDOL
Allays Fever and Cures
Colds and Grip

The quick, sure action of Kephaldol in reducing body temperature to normal health standard, gives to this great natural remedy an altogether priceless value in the treatment of every kind of fever and feverish cold. Though it is just being introduced into Canada, Kephaldol has been prescribed by physicians and used in the hospitals of Great Britain and the continent for many years. It relieves the burning heat and fullness in the head which comes with a "grippy" cold, allays pains and aches, soothes the nerves, and brings that sweet rest which means speediest restoration. For colds, influenza, catarrh and similar complaints Kephaldol is unequalled. A tablet or two taken at the first indication of trouble will unfailingly arrest development and restore health. Get a 50c tube of Kephaldol tablets from your druggist, and be ready to check a cold the day it attacks you. Kephaldol Limited, 31 Latour street, Montreal.

gestion of the honorable member for West Hastings in this House, the other day, though the honorable member did not go as far as the London paper.

An Absolute Falsehood.

"Permit me to say that the statement is entirely without foundation. The Ontario Club is not the official headquarters of the Liberal party in this Province. It is a social club, organized in the same way as the Albany, the National or the Toronto clubs. Its membership is composed of both Liberals and Conservatives. In the second place, I am neither an officer nor a director of the club, and have no more to say in its management than any other of its more than 500 members; and on the other hand, the Ontario Club, as such, has no say or voice in shaping the policy of the Liberal party. I believe it is an exceedingly high-class and well-run club, but like all the other leading clubs in Toronto, it has a club license.

Would Abolish All Licenses.

"The honorable member for West Hastings asked the other day if I have been doing anything to get this license cancelled. Permit me to say that I have been doing my best, not only to secure the abolition of this license, but the licenses of every other club in this Province. My regret is that I have not received any support in so doing from the honorable member for West Hastings, or any other member on the Government side of the House."

CLAIM PERSECUTION IN EVANTUREL'S DOWNFALL

Friends Start Race Cry, Hinting That Member Is Victim of Conspiracy.

Vankleek Hill, Ont., March 2.—The executive of the County of Prescott Liberal Association has been summoned by President J. N. Lapointe to meet in Vankleek Hill on Saturday, March 7, to consider the question of Gustave Evanturel, M. L. A., and his expulsion from the party.

From opinions freely expressed it looks as though the association will almost unanimously demand Evanturel's retirement. Some of his friends have started the race-religion cry in his favor, declaring he is being persecuted by Messrs. Pyne, Ferguson and Hanna and the Orangemen of Ontario. This was freely discussed in various parishes after church on Sunday.

Mr. Evanturel's personal friends in Alfred are outspoken in these declarations. Mr. Evanturel, it is understood, will be asked to attend the meeting on Saturday.

Chatham, Ont., April 3, 1913.
"I am a veteran of the Crimean War and the Indian Mutiny, volunteering from the Royal Artillery into the Royal Engineers, and served under Lord Roberts during the Indian Mutiny, and am a pensioner of the British Government. Pierce hand-to-hand fighting and continual exposure, left me a great sufferer from Rheumatism, so much so that my legs swelled up, making it impossible for me to walk. My bowels were so constipated that I only had one passage a week until I got to using 'Fruit-a-tives.' They cured me of both the Rheumatism and Constipation. Introduces Resolution to That Effect in Legislature.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Toronto, March 2.—To assist the iron and steel industry R. R. Gamey (Montreal) has filed notice of a resolution in the Provincial Legislature that in "The opinion of this House, the development of Canada would be stimulated and public interest promoted by the granting of such a measure of assistance by the Parliament of Canada as would place the iron and steel industry of this country on an assured and permanent footing."

A similar resolution is now before the House of Commons and Mr. Gamey is endeavoring to secure the Legislature's endorsement to the motion at Ottawa which seeks to have a bounty of 50 cents a ton paid on all pig iron smelted in Canada from Canadian ores.

Hanna Admits License Inspector Visited Peel, Huron and Welland.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Toronto, March 2.—The House sat for barely half an hour. The paper was cleared of a number of encumbering questions today to make ready for the budget on Thursday.

Hon. J. J. Poy stated that the total expenditure to date in connection with the workmen's compensation commission exclusive of printing was $8,702.17. The amount is made up as follows: 1911, $1,574.49; 1912, $3,964.68; 1913, $3,163.

Hon. W. J. Hanna admitted that Provincial License Inspector W. K. Snider had been in the three counties that stood on the Canada temperance act on Jan. 29 last. Mr. Snider was in Peel County at Brampton, on Jan. 20; he was in Huron County at Wingham on Jan. 23; at Clinton, on the 24th, and at Goderich on the 25th; in Welland County, at Ridgeway, on the 26th; at Stevensville, on the 27th. He said he would explain the whole matter when the estimates were being debated.

Hon. W. T. Hearst stated that construction had been commenced on the Lake Huron and Northern Ontario Railway. No official report has been made to department.

Lieut.-Col. T. R. Mayberry (South Oxford) introduced a bill to amend the assessment act to again press on the Government the desirability of permitting municipalities to have a differential assessment on land improvements.

Another bill to amend the assessment act was brought in by Mr. J. G. Anderson (South Bruce) to enable township councils by bylaw to have tax notices sent through the mails, instead of having to be delivered by the tax collector.

Mr. Anderson would also keep motor vehicles off the highways during certain hours.

The Annual Festival of Spring
Fashions Opens in Millinery
Section Tomorrow

THIS FASHION DISPLAY can only be likened to a textbook of strictly correct information and guidance on new styles, as the whole magnificent gathering is the original selections of expert authorities on fashions.

Paris seems to be in one of those periods which produce inexhaustible new ideas, each more charming and beautiful than its predecessors—and the story to be unfolded tomorrow and following days by the Annual Festival of Spring Fashions is more interesting even than those of the past two years.

During the past weeks many harbingers of spring styles have been making their advent in the various departments of the store.

Tomorrow's great event in the Millinery department is of the utmost interest to every woman, but visitors should take the opportunity to also see the many new styles in the Fashion department—many of which are being received into the departments today, and will be shown first tomorrow.

The silk and dress goods sections particularly are bright with the new fabric fashions.

Each succeeding season brings a greater and more widespread knowledge of fashion and a closer understanding on the part of the Paris designers of fashion of the requirements of American womanhood, and a keener knowledge on the part of our artists in the art of duplicating and adapting—for art it is.

It would be useless to attempt descriptions of the great variety in this opening display except in a general way.

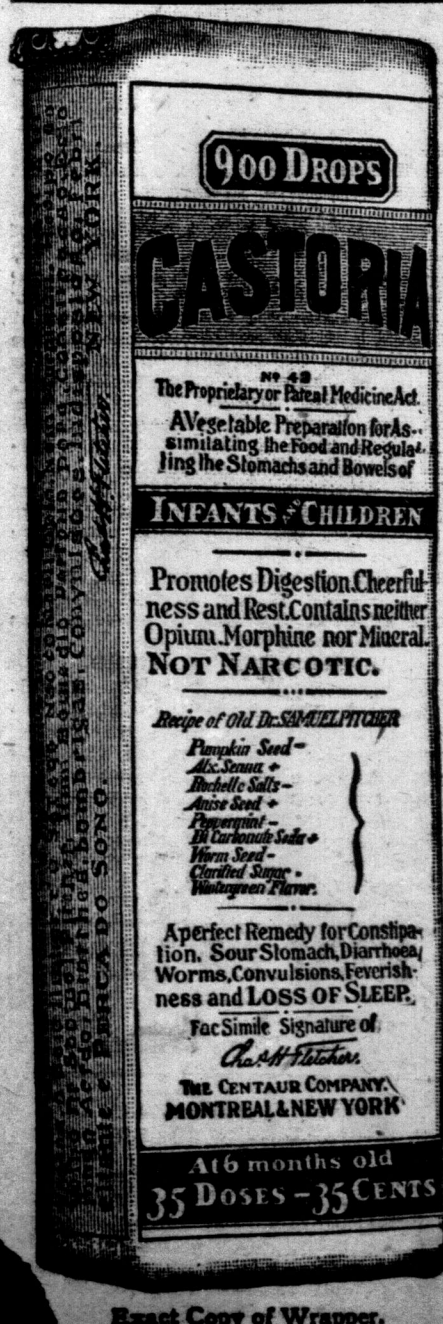

The shapes are small and snug fitting, and black will again be very strong. First colors are persian blue, soft green, mahogany and brown tones.

Ostrich feather mounts, moir ribbons and flowers are the most conspicuous trimmings, with jets a very strong feature, being shown in great variety of trimmings, bandeaux, crowns and ornaments—To-morrow (Wednesday) and following days.

Monster Leamington Harbor Deputation Leaving to Board $5,000 Special Train

This deputation, more than one hundred strong, and including Leamington's most prominent citizens, businessmen and public officials, went through London at 8 o'clock last night via special C. P. R. train to Ottawa. The above photograph shows the members of the deputation grouped together just before they boarded W. E. and L. S. special traction cars that carried them to Walkerville Junction, where they met the special C. P. R. train, made up of five coaches, two pullmans and diner.

LEAMINGTON CITIZENS CARRY THEIR CRUSADE TO CAPITAL

Demands for Harbor Improvements Unheeded, They Charter Special Train and Go to Ottawa to Secure Proper Protection for Their Port.

In their own special train of eight coaches, which cost Leamington businessmen $5,000 in cold cash, a deputation from that town, made up of more than one hundred leading citizens, merchants, business and professional men of Leamington, four from Pelee Island and others from the surrounding district, passed through London over the C. P. R. at 8 o'clock last night en route to Ottawa, where they will demand from the Dominion Government adequate harbor protection to permit lake boats to call with safety at Leamington in the winter months. The deputation had arranged for an audience with Premier Borden some time today.

Mayor G. A. Brown explained the plans of the proposed breakwater which the deputation is asking for. The original plans called for a harbor to cost $105,000, but what the deputation will emphasize the most urgent need of is a breakwater running 700 feet, from Belle Point to a point opposite the Government dock.

Big Ports On South Shore. "Look at the big lake ports on the south side of Lake Erie," said Mayor Brown, "Sandusky, Conneaut, Toledo, Cleveland, Ashtabula, Erie and others. Why shouldn't there be just as good harbors on the Canadian side? Do you think one hundred businessmen would leave their businesses and charter a special train to go to Ottawa if they weren't in earnest in their demands and weren't sure that what they wanted was a necessity? We were quite sure that Leamington harbor would be one of the first to be mentioned in the estimates, but when we found out our surprise, that Leamington had been overlooked altogether, why we just decided all at once to go down to Ottawa en masse and impress the Government with what we want."

Pelee Island Shut Off.

"Tobacco and around Leamington today brings $200 an acre. Fruit land cannot be bought under $500 an acre. Pelee Island is four times as rich and valuable, but Pelee Island is shut off from Leamington, just across the channel, because the boats cannot use Leamington as a winter port without danger of being wrecked."

The big deputation embarked at Leamington by Chatham, Wallaceburg and Lake Erie traction cars to Walkerville Junction, where the special C. P. R. train was waiting for them. They will meet Premier R. L. Borden today and expect

Are You One of The Unfortunates

With Backache, Headache and That Tired Feeling.

If So Listen to the Story of George F. Stander, and Use Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Handsworth, Sask., March 2.—(Special.)—If you are one of those unfortunates who suffer from sore back, headache and that tired, listless feeling that makes work a hardship and life not worth living, the story of George F. Stander, a well-known young man of this place, will interest you.

"For nearly ten years," Mr. Stander says, "I suffered from sore back and headache. I had a bad taste in my mouth in the morning, and I was always tired. I finally decided that my kidneys were the cause of my trouble, and decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I got half-a-dozen boxes, and before I had finished taking them I was completely cured."

"I advise anyone suffering as I did to use Dodd's Kidney Pills." Healthy kidneys strain all impurities, all the seeds of diseases, out of the blood. Weak kidneys leave these impurities in the blood, and the result is nervousness, tired feeling and pains and aches that often develop into Diabetes and Bright's Disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills make weak kidneys strong and healthy.

to leave Ottawa tonight if they get what they want. If they don't get through today with the mission which took them to Ottawa, they will stay until they do, and their special train will wait to bring them back.

Cut Off From Land.

One hundred Pelee Islanders had planned to accompany the Leamington deputation of 100 to Ottawa, but the break-up of the ice prevented this. Four Islanders at great risk crossed Sunday in a rowboat, but were nearly frozen and half drowned as a result of their daring. They will represent Pelee Island at Ottawa today, however, and will join with more than 100 Leamington citizens in asking for harbor protection for that town.

Pelee Island tobacco fields pay to the Dominion Government an annual revenue of $50,000, but Pelee Island in the winter months has no regular communication with the Ontario mainland, and despite her proximity to the neighboring town of Leamington, has, as it were, to go shopping to Sandusky, on which American port the Pelee Islanders depend for their winter supplies. Not that the Pelee Islanders are unpatriotic, but far from this, but the sole reason is because of lack of proper harbor protection boats cannot touch at the port of Leamington in the stormy weather. It is true that while the ice is firm, the Pelee Islanders have sleighing communication with Leamington, but as might be expected, this is very irregular and attended with a great element of danger.

BREAK IN WATER PIPE FLOODS EAST END STORE

Causes Damage of $1,000 to Jewelry Stock and Fixtures in Diamond Hall.

Damage to the amount of $1,000 was done to the stock of W. G. Young's branch jewelry store, Diamond Hall, at Dundas and Elizabeth streets, when a water pipe in the office of Dr. A. J. Wyckoff, directly above, burst and flooded the office and store below with a volume of water to the depth of six inches at 6 o'clock last night.

Both store and office were unoccupied at the time, and when the break occurred there was no one to notice it. The pressure in the main was unusually strong and the water gushed from the pipe in a heavy stream. Flooding over the floor of the dentist's office, it soon ran through into the jewelry store below. The trickle became a miniature deluge and water was dripping through every crack and cranny in the ceiling when Mrs. J. McNeillie, who resides at the rear of the premises, noticed, through a window, that something was wrong. Knowing that the pipes supplying the block were connected with a "main" in the basement, Mrs. McNeillie descended to the cellar and closed off the water.

W. G. Young was then notified and upon arriving an examination of the store was made. The place had the appearance of a room gutted by fire. Show cases and stock were saturated with water which stood more than six inches deep on the floor and splashed out through the opened door.

CARDINAL'S NEPHEW SENTENCED TO PRISON

[Canadian Press.] Rome, March 2.—Giovanni Vannutelli, a nephew of Cardinal Vannutelli, was sentenced today to serve two years in prison for inducing a friend to steal and pawn his mother's jewels. The jewels, valued at $6,800, were pledged for $2,000, of which sum Vannutelli took $1,800. Afterwards the two men went to Mexico, where Vannutelli left his friend penniless.

FARMER FOUND DEAD UNDER HIS WAGON

George Hitchcock Lay in Ditch at Chatham—Inquest Will Be Held.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Chatham, March 2.—George Hitchcock, a farmer residing on the fifth concession of Raleigh Township, was found dead under his overturned wagon this evening in a ditch on Parke avenue west.

His team, which had broken away from the wagon, was found standing a short distance down the road. Hitchcock had spent the afternoon in town on business, and it is believed, was driving home, when his wagon slewed on an icy spot in the road, and, going into the ditch, overturned. Hitchcock had apparently not been dead long. The fourth and fifth vertebrae were broken.

His wife was notified and at once drove in to town. Besides her he leaves two daughters, one in the West, and another at home, who was intending to start on a visit to the West in a day or two.

Coroner Dr. R. V. Bray will conduct an inquest into the death on Tuesday.

PETROLEA DRILLER IN MIDST OF FIGHTERS

Charles Snyder Would Like to Leave Mexico, But Is Hemmed In.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Petrolia, March 2.—Two Petrolia men are in Mexico in the zone of the fighting, Frank Lawson and Charles Snyder, engaged in drilling. The former is in Laredo but is in little danger as he is just across the Rio Grande and can cross into American territory at a few moments' notice. He writes that he is not anxious to leave Mexico.

Surrounded by Fighters. Mr. Snyder is about twenty miles inland from Tampico on the east coast of Mexico and would like to get home but cannot as he is hemmed in by Mexican forces. He is drilling for the Tampico Oil Company.

Hector Morrison and Arthur Brown, well-known drillers, leave for Madagascarr on Thursday.

RULES WERE BROKEN SAYS CORONER'S JURY

Inquest Into the Recent Fatality at Mandaum—Contradictory Evidence.

Sarnia, March 2.—That if the rules of the company had been more closely adhered to and adequate switching facilities provided, the wreck at Mandaum, which resulted in the death of Fireman Charles Symes, of Sarnia Tunnel, might have been averted, was the substance of the verdict brought in by the jury empaneled by Coroner Dr. Thomas Bradley, in the police court here tonight. Interest in the case was keen, the room being packed to the doors, mostly with railwaymen.

ALDERMEN VISIT FOUNT OF WISDOM

Their Thirst for Information Is Cause of Long Council Session.

TO TRIM MAYOR'S SALARY
Council May Secure Options on Fair Grounds' Sites.

Old Big Ben, who handles the time in the city council chamber, had climbed almost around to the twelve mark before the wisecracks of the aldermanic body finished their deliberations last night. No great items of important business were put through, but the frequent trips made by Ald. J. A. Tancock, Ald. W. A. Wilson and one or two others to the fountain of knowledge, represented by the mayor, were responsible for the delay.

Courthouse repairs, storm sewers, day labor, giving contracts to local men in preference to outsiders, two-year terms for aldermen and controllers, proposed return to the ward system of elections, deep waterways, garbage wagons, garbage collection, Sunday cars, better street railway service, debentures, the traffic bylaw, new fair grounds, a proposal to reduce the mayor's salary, local improvements, and a thousand and one other things were touched on.

Tough on P. and C.

Practically all the discussion arose out of the minutes, and Vice-Chairman J. P. Moore, of the board of control, who was confronted with the task of reading the minutes, and along with the mayor, of answering all the questions that were fired in his direction, must have been very tired before the session was over. On the recommendation of the city engineer, the council passed bylaws for curbs and gutters and a new vitrified brick pavement on Ridout street, from Horton street to the north side of Craig street to the north side of Victoria bridge. The brick pavement is to be used on the above stretches owing to the grade. From Craig street to South street the thoroughfare will be paved with bituminous concrete.

To Trim Mayor's Salary.

Ald. J. A. Tancock gave notice that he would move when the estimates are being struck, that the mayor receive $1,000 instead of $2,000 for "office expenses" this year.

The council accepted the controllers' recommendation to grant $200 to assist the Great Waterways Union in the expense now being incurred to set the advantages of the St. Lawrence route before the Government. Mayor Graham stated that he was planned to reduce the 27 locks in the Welland Canal to six, and the 26 locks on the St. Lawrence to six, with the result that great rush of water would develop hydro power, and eventually pay for the initial investment. This proposal, said his worship, had a great bearing on the hydro radial situation, and London being "on the lake" and therefore a harbor town, was greatly interested.

The mayor, as a member of the executive of the waterways union, is to speak on this subject to the board of trade tonight.

Forward on Ward System.

On an eight to seven vote, the council decided not to ask the Legislature for permission to go back to the ward system of electing aldermen, as legal machinery is provided for such a step. Ald. W. A. Wilson fathered the proposal, but was strongly opposed by the mayor and others, the mayor pointing out that to return to the system would be a retrogressive step.

Ald. Wilson indicated that a petition would be submitted to the ratepayers to go back to the old system.

The council favored the two-year term for controllers and aldermen. Some complaint was made of the service supplied by the Street Railway Company on Sunday, and the mayor said that a special meeting of the council would be held soon, when the speed and a service question would be gone into. A caucus of the city will probably be taken in order that the proper track mileage may be secured. Ald. J. E. Gwalchmai will move to have the traffic bylaw applicable only on the main business streets, as far as the requirement re rigs turning in and stopping in front of houses is concerned.

For New Fair Site.

The board of control will consider a motion submitted by Ald. George Haney, to have a committee appointed to take options on new Western Fair sites, and to see what arrangements may be made for selling Queen's Park as a building subdivision.

The mayor intimated that he and others had been working on this matter and would have something to present at the next meeting. The question of a fair grounds, Government remount station and permanent camp grounds, combined, were being considered, he said. A fairly smooth area of four or five hundred acres for field work was necessary, said the mayor.

Firemen's Insurance.

The council accepted the tender of Beddome & Brown for the insurance of forty-one firemen at $14.20 per man, giving $2,500 payment on death, and indemnity of fifty-two weeks at $10.00 per week; $2,000 for loss of both hands or both feet; $1,000 for loss of one hand or one foot; $400 for loss of an eye; $10.00 per week for fifty-two weeks for certain diseases; an annuity of $100 for permanent disablement, and $5.00 per week for partial disablement.

Magic "Nerviline" Ends Stiff Neck, Lumbago

Any Curable Muscular or Joint Pain Is Instantly Relieved by Nerviline.

GET TRIAL BOTTLE TODAY

You don't have to wait all day to get the kink out of a stiff neck if you rub on Nerviline. And you don't need to go around complaining about lumbago any more. You can rub such things away very quickly with Nerviline. It's the grandest liniment, the quickest to penetrate, the speediest to ease muscular pain of any kind.

One twenty-five cent trial bottle of Nerviline will cure any attack of lumbago or lame back. This has been proved a thousand times, just as it was in the case of Mrs. E. J. Grayden, of Caledonia, who writes: "I wouldn't think of going to bed without knowing we had Nerviline in the house. I have used it for twenty odd years and appreciate its value as a family remedy more and more every day. If one of the children gets a stiff neck, Nerviline cures quickly. If it is earache, toothache, cold on the chest, sore throat, Nerviline is always my standby. My husband once cured himself of a frightful attack of lumbago by Nerviline, and for a hundred ailments that turn up in a large family Nerviline is by far the best thing to have about you."

Are You Dizzy?

MOTHER! IT'S CRUEL TO FORCE OIL OR CALOMEL INTO A SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" Can't Harm Tender Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "physic" that mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing give "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow. It should be the first remedy given, as it always does good, never any harm.

At your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

NO STOMACH MISERY, INDIGESTION, GAS, SOURNESS—PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

Time It In Five Minutes Your Sick, Upset Stomach Feels Fine.

Sour, sick, upset stomach, indigestion, heartburn, dyspepsia; when the food you eat ferments into gases and you feel sick and miserable, that's when you realize the magic in Pape's Diapepsin. It makes stomach distress go in five minutes. If your stomach is in a revolt—if you can't get it every home.

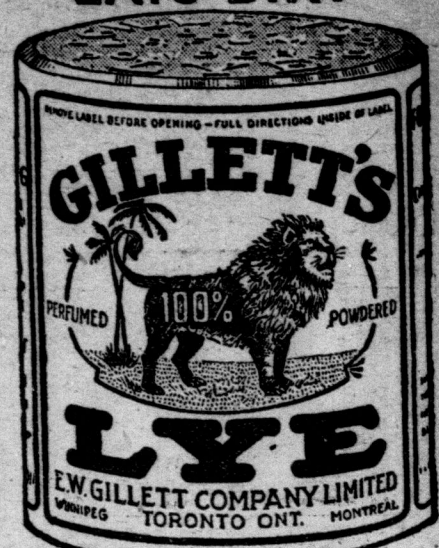

What Is Mentho-Laxene? What Is It Composed Of?

Why Does It Surely Check Colds, Overcome Coughs and Banish Catarrh So Quickly?

2 1/2 Ounces, Concentrated, Will Make a Pint of Effective, Home-Made Remedy.

Mentho-Laxene, a pure essence, is composed of Japanese menthol, Wild Cherry, Tolu, Grindella, Anisum Chloride, and alcohol, to retain all in solution. The proportions are just right and the action is almost scientific—so near so that we guarantee money back, where the results are not satisfactory. You can just take one dose, and at once you feel the beneficial effects—it goes right to the spots that are inflamed and morbid; you actually feel it penetrating the passages by inhalation, and then it keeps up the good work through the stomach, bowels and blood. The cold, cough and catarrh quickly disappear to your great relief. Send for a bottle now—your druggist has it or can get it.

SUFFERED EVERYTHING

For Years, Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Canadian women are continually writing us such letters as the two following, which are heartfelt expressions of gratitude for restored health:

Glanford Station, Ont.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and never found any medicine to compare with it. I had ulcers and falling of womb and doctors did me no good. I suffered dreadfully for years until I began taking your medicine. I also recommend it for nervousness and indigestion." — Mrs.

HENRY CLARK, Glanford Station, Ont.

Chesterville, Ont.—"I heard your medicines highly praised, and a year ago I began taking them for falling of womb and ovarian trouble."

"My left side pained me all the time and just before my periods which were irregular and painful it would be worse. To sit down caused me pain and suffering and I would be so nervous sometimes that I could not bear to see any one or hear any one speak. Little specks would float before my eyes and I was always constipated."

"I cannot say too much for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, for there are no medicines like them. I have taken them and I recommend them to all women. You may publish this testimonial." — Mrs. STEPHEN J. MARTIN, Chesterville, Ontario, Canada.

LONDON, TUESDAY, MARCH 2.

Imagine an afternoon tea at Mrs.

Pankhurst's!

In doing little things for other folks

you are doing something big for yourself.

Eggs in China are ten cents a dozen. Now we know why they call it the celestial kingdom.

Are those Ottawa legislators earning their salaries? They don't even put up an exhibition game this year.

While there was a lot of superfluous air around Sunday night, it was decidedly not of the heated variety.

When the war is over in Mexico, if ever, there will be a fine lot of ruins to attract the tourist and his money.

Good business!

Great Britain has not recognized

Carranza. If he is not careful no one will recognize him when she gets through with him.

If some men exercised as much persistence in looking for work as they do in borrowing a match, there would be fewer soup kitchens.

Carranza appears to be trying to force Uncle Sam to show his hand and for Carranza's sake we hope when he sees it, it won't be doubled up.

Monsieur High Cost of Living will,

it is feared, make another aeroplane record for altitude before long. It's time something went wrong with his gear.

"And he went away not only very colorful, but highly infuriated against

Lloyd George, for he had great possessions, and wanted more." It happens today in England.

It was left for a private member at Ottawa to bring in a bill to prevent corruption at elections. The Borden Government significantly omitted to contaminate its program of do-nothing

by any reform of elections or of civil service.

Rev. Dr. Rainford has evidently had an eye on the successful election

methods pursued in Chateaugay and

MacDonald. He has been saying that

Canada is years behind the United States in dealing with political corruption.

The Standard Oil Company devised

a cheap lamp for sale to the Chinese.

At 7½ cents, $75,000 lamps were sold the first year, and 2,000,000 the next.

This was good for the oil sales, but with a light to lighten his labor, the heaven Chinese will work all night

now as well as all day.

The Honorable the Minister of Militia protests that he doesn't need to take lessons in intrigue from the leader of the Opposition. The country will accept his word for it. As an intriguer

he may be as expert as he claims, but we question whether Hon. Robert

Rogers couldn't give him a few points.

The House of Lords must be re-constituted so that it will perform the proper function of an Upper House.

At present it merely holds up Liberal measures for two years, and reduces proceedings in the House of Commons to a rignarole. What is wanted is an Upper House that will co-operate and advise, not merely act as a Tory blockade.

We cannot go as far as some of our contemporaries in charging the Honorable Colonel Sam Hughes with on the legislative machinery than on the men who shall operate it. When the Liberal Government undertook this work it placed the new department nominally under the control of the Postmaster-General; but it was actually in the hands of a deputy who had made a special study of his subject, and who so well demonstrated his fitness for the place that in a short time he was placed at its head, and the department made separate and distinct. Under such a minister, good work could be done, even though the legislative machinery were crude; and any defects could be remedied easily as experience showed advisable. Such, indeed, was the case; for from the very beginning Mr. King made a success of his department.

If the Ontario Government can find a man with the requisite qualifications, the establishment of a ministry of labor will be a good thing. But if it cannot find a better man than Mr. Borden selected for the position in his cabinet, then it would be wise to postpone the matter until the right man appears. A minister who tacitly confessed his inability to investigate and report on a serious strike would not be of much service to labor, or to capital. Rather than be compelled to make such a choice, Mr. Hanna, or Mr. Foy, or Dr. Pyne, or whoever is running the Provincial Government at present, would show good judgment by deferring any action in the direction suggested by the leader of the Opposition.

SAFE ROADS.

THE death of a prominent farmer of Yarmouth Township in Elgin County as a result of the overturning of a load of lumber calls to public attention the necessity of safe roads as well as good roads.

It has been the wonder of city people driving through the country that more accidents do not occur as a result of the narrowness of the average country road. The farmers themselves are not so much to blame as the provincial authorities, upon whom falls the responsibility for the general plan of road building. But there is no doubt that every day the lives of men driving heavy loads to or from their homes are risked just as James H. Westlake's life was risked, and sacrificed. Since the roads have come to be so much travelled by motor cars, the wonder grows that the loss of life is not greater. There are miles of road throughout the counties surrounding London with narrow wagon tracks and sheer sides, upon which it is impossible for two vehicles to pass for stretches of miles. The only way by which a passage for both may be effected is for one to take the ditch. Whether this is done by a heavy automobile or a loaded wagon, there is always danger of accident. By the merest chance the automobile or the wagon is saved from turning over, and the passengers always take the chance, rather than lose time.

These are the days when millions are being spent on armories and show and fine buildings by the Government at Ottawa. Can one dollar of the vast Hughes' appropriations improve the welfare of the farmer or the city man either? Will the building of an armory in any district make the life of the farmer safer or afford him closer relation to his market? Practically nothing is to be spent to make roads safer or better, or to improve agriculture in general, while unstinted spending goes on for armories in places where they are not required and will never be used excepting on special occasions. Had a portion of the money that is expended for one armory been used to widen the road upon which this Elgin County man lost his life it would have been a thousand times more justified than the expenditure of one dollar for armories in Canada anywhere.

Against this discrimination in favor of caste and in favor of pomp and show that goes with the military madness of an addle-pated minister, the farmers of Canada should take a stand that will overthrow the Government that permits it, a Government that has kept not one pledge to the farmers, that has offered them nothing but a patronage system of good roads, and counted their interests the last interests to be looked after.

LONDON'S BEAUTY SIGHTS.

WHAT is the most pleasing view in this fair city? The battlemented Court House by the river, flanked by the wooded reach of the north branch and banked by the business section and the spires, towards sunset, in the closing of a glorious day at Tecumseh Park, with London ahead in the 13th inning; the Thames, with the mill and its lights on the west side at night, seen from the high ground to the east; the old broken dam and the flats in flood time or in snow time, from the Western University verandah; a southward glance from Regent street over St. Joseph's Hospital and westward over the river bottom; the glorious amphitheatre at the north end of Maitland street; anywhere around Victoria Park; the view from the high ground near Wolsey Barracks, embracing the downtown chimneys and the spires of St. Andrew's and St. Mary's; the eastward vision from Reservoir Hill; most impressive perhaps, a northward look from Brick street down upon all lovely London, nestling and laboring quietly, surely by the forks of Governor Simcoe's River; all these please and contend for first favor. Better 50 years of London than a cycle of the forest from which she was born. Her beauty and worth are varied and many-sided.

MARCH PREDICTIONS.

[Montreal Star.]
Ho, blusterer! This song I sing
Should tell of "raw and gusty days";
That is the customary thing
When March closes up the springtime

The chances are ten to one
That you will prove both bland and meek,
If to such adjectives I run.
As "fierce," and "rough," and "rude,"
And "bleak."

But should I prophesy you "mild,"
And sing of bud and balmy breeze,
No doubt you'd turn out grim and wild,
And pile up snow and make us freeze.
Called "lion," just a lamb you'd be,
Called "lamb," you'd like a lion roar—
Deceitful March! You shan't fool me,
As you have often done before.

A roysterer you, an anchorite,
A lamb, a lion; loud and meek;
A gentle thing—a roaring fright—
A giant—as an infant weak!
I'm learning this prophetic game,
I'll make a hit beyond all doubt.
My formula? It is this same:
Be sure that you leave nothing out!

TORONTO'S REVEL.

[Brantford Expositor.]
The proprietor of a Toronto restaurant has had his license suspended for permitting a New Year's revel on his premises. According to the evidence as summed up by the magistrate that same revel was no Sunday school picnic. Men kissed their wives and other people's wives; women staggered out into the street under the influence of liquor; some had to be carried out. The whole incident affords further evidence of what the students of social progress are continually telling us, that civilization is never very strong upon its feet without the restraints and supports which civilization itself imposes.

A WORD OF WARNING.

[Woodstock Sentinel-Review.]
At the conclusion of an instructive address the other evening on political and social conditions in England, Registrar Pattullo pointed out that the very serious problems with which the British reformers were confronted today were the outcome of generations of growth and development. Canada is still free from many of these problems, but he warned his hearers that this was no reason for cherishing a sense of false security. He emphasized the necessity of being constantly on guard against allowing the development in this country of conditions such as those that were taxing the skill, the courage and energy of the British reformers.

Voice of the People

The Paardeberg Celebration.
The other day Mayor Graham censured our city school board and citizens in general for not showing a greater interest in the celebration of the victory of Paardeberg. Now, there are two good reasons why some of us plain citizens do not approve of such celebrations.

In the first place, as the defeated Boers are now our fellow-citizens in the empire, it is contrary not only to good taste and management but also to sound imperial policy—it is contrary to both of these considerations to have a glorification of their defeats.

In the second place, of all the unrighteous wars which have stained the pages of British history, the South African war was the most deplorable. It was unjustifiable in its beginnings and inglorious in its course. It was denounced by many of the wisest men of the empire, and was universally condemned by the best public opinion of all civilized nations. The only redeeming feature of the war, so far as Great Britain was concerned, was the magnificent treatment of the vanquished by the victorious nation. But it is to be remembered that this generous treatment was meted out to the Boers by the political party in England that had opposed the war from the outset, supported as it now was by the vast majority of the nation, who had in the meantime recovered their senses and their judgment, and were filled with a mighty indignation against the party that had brought on the war and had befuddled them into supporting it.

It makes a nice pleasant-sounding phrase to say that the war was carried on for "Queen and country." As a matter of fact the poor fellows who were killed in that war laid down their lives, not for Queen and country at all, but to serve the selfish interests of the Chartered Company of South Africa, and to carry out the arrogant aggressive policy

FRANKNESS

Be very frank with all you meet
And tell them, clear and true,
With no concealment or deceit,
Just how they seem to you;
Point out to them their every fault
Of heart and soul and brain,
And don't allow your tongue to halt
Until you've made it plain.

So when you talk with Age or Youth
With mighty folk or low,
Be sure to blurt the brutal truth,
For people love it so!
Thus every one will say, "How frank
And honest is that guy;
It's just like money in the bank of the English allies of the company, Messrs. Chamberlain, Lansdowne and Milner and their supporters.
To meet his truthful eye!"

In the face of all the facts it would seem that if the term "glory" is to be applied to the events of the war at all, the glory was won by the little handful of farmers, who, with their backs against the wall, so long withstood the combined imperial and colonial forces of the world's greatest empire, trying to deprive them of the right of governing their own little country in their own way.

During the celebration proceedings Col. Hodgins is reported to have said that "we shall have to pay dearly in the future for the doctrines of anti-militarism." But it is not possible that we should ever have to pay as dearly for anti-militarist doctrine as we have already paid again and again for militarist doctrines—paid in the hundreds of thousands of men shot, stabbed and blown to pieces on the battlefield, paid in the mangled and shattered bodies of hundreds of thousands of wounded survivors, paid in the agony and lamentations and poverty of thousands of widows and orphans, paid in the general savagery and brutal degradation with which the war spirit, like a fearful moral pestilence, infects the whole nation, paid in the immense and incalculable destruction of property

MRS. W. E. HODGINS AGAIN NAMED REGENT OF MUNICIPAL CHAPTER

Some rather animated discussion marked the annual meeting of the Municipal Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, held yesterday afternoon in the Manor tea rooms, when the regent, Mrs. W. E. Hodgins, called for suggestions and a motion regarding the future status of the chapter.

Many suggestions were advanced. Mrs. T. H. Smallman finally made a motion to the effect that the Municipal Chapter be merely a consultative and executive body for the primary chapters, and should not enter into any scheme for raising money.

In amendment to this, Mrs. A. A. Campbell moved that the Municipal Chapter hold one entertainment a year for the sake of replenishing the treasury. A further amendment was voiced by Mrs. Johnston, who advocated the holding of a large entertainment, preferably a rose ball, each year, all chapters to lend their united efforts, and the proceeds to be equally divided amongst them.

Both amendments were finally lost, and Mrs. Smallman's motion carried.

Other business of the meeting included receiving of reports from the officers of the Municipal Chapter, all of which were very satisfactory. Representatives from the Lord Roberts Chapter, Seventh Regiment Chapter, Lord Elgin Chapter, Princess Patricia Chapter and Trafalgar Chapter were also present, and gave brief reports of the year's work.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Honorary regent, Mrs. Boomer; regent, Mrs. Hodgins, 1st vice-regent, Mrs. Niven, 2nd vice-regent, Mrs. Whitman; secretary, Mrs. R. M. Graham; treasurer, Mrs. C. T. Campbell; standard bearer, Mrs. McCrimmon; councillors, Mesdames T. H. Smallman; R. W. Puddicombe, Beddome, W. T. Edge, Tooley, Scatcherd, Geo. Gann, J. C. Duffell, Tucker and Young.

Afternoon tea was served at the close of the meeting.

Perseparation Spots On Silk.

Dear Miss Grey: Can you tell me anything that will remove perspiration spots from a navy blue silk waist? The waist is new and the spots are of good quality. I think it would stand rubbing. I have sponged it with chloroform, but the dark stains linger. Can you tell me what will restore the color? ANXIOUS.

Ans.—White wine vinegar is highly recommended for removing the unpleasant combination of salt, acid and oil that make up perspiration stains. Those who have tried it assert it does the work well. If you had tried it before applying anything else, it would be a more likely derivative. Should it change the color of the silk, touch with ammonia after drying the spots.

Dear Miss Grey:

1. Please tell me the meaning of the following names: Alice, Jean, Florence, Emma, Ina, Edith, Ethel, Evelyn, Thelma, Bessie, Zillah, Ella, Stella, Eusebia, Yella and Velma.
2. I am 12 years of age. Am 5 feet 4 inches tall. How much should I weigh?
3. I have auburn hair, hazel eyes and pink complexion. What are my colors?
4. I'm almost afraid to ask, "What think you of my penmanship?"
Thinking you, I am, "GOLDENROD."

A.—1. Alice, of noble birth; Jean, gift of God; Florence, blooming; Emma, industrious; Ina, pure; Edith, happiness; Ethel, noble; Evelyn, life; Thelma, lovely; Bessie, consecrated; Zillah, hand-maiden; Ella, light; Stella, a star. I do not know the meaning of the last three names.
2. About 112 pounds.
3. Gray would no doubt be very becoming; so would brown, blue and green, I think.
4. Tremble no longer, little "Goldenrod."

Thanking you in advance.

WESTERNS SECURE OVER ELMIRA FIRST GAME

Great Game of Hockey in Princess Rink Last Evening in the Northern League Semi-Finals—Final Score Was 8 to 5—McAvoy Stars For Local Students.

BY JINX.

If that second half could be eliminated or rather if the things that happened in it could be eliminated, we could truthfully say that last night's Northern League fixture between Elmira and Western University at the Princess Rink was the real hockey game of the season. We could say it was one of the fastest and best of the season, but that second half quivered. The first period was as good hockey and as exciting as the ardent fan could wish for. It was real sizzling, red-hot hockey dished up in large packages and it had the fans on edge in eager anticipation for the second period. But—well Westerns won by 8 to 5 anyway, they should have won by a much larger score, but then that is where that second period cuts in again.

Is Three Goals Enough?

The Elmira team is a good one and just what a three-goal lead is enough for this University team in Elmira is a question. The Elmira rink is reported to be a good one and if it has the ice surface the Princess has, the Westerns are expected that they would at least get as big a margin on their opponents in the second period. However, a remarkable change in the luck which seems to be the only way to account for the times without number that the locals had chances to score but failed to do so, prevented them and they were lucky to hold the margin gained in the initial period. It was heart-rending to watch the students fall down on apparently easy chances to score in that final period. It made no difference whether they shot from right in front of the nets or out a piece, they could not locate the goal. Goal-keeper Alexander did not have to exert himself much either, for the shots mostly flew around him and not at him.

Score Tied in Second Half.

It was not until the visitors had notched two corners in a minute and tied the score that the Westerns were able to locate the nets and then with only eight minutes to play they went out and got the three final goals.

The teams were playing five men a side at that stage, owing to a chapter of accidents which put Beattie Martin, of the Westerns, and Miller, of the Elmira team, out of business and necessitated the dropping of Ruppel, who was injured in the first period. Martin ran against the butt end of his stick in a collision with the boards, while Miller and he were talking the count. Shortly after Otto, the visitors' centre man, collided with Dot Reid and he was laid out for a while, but resumed play after delaying the game a few minutes.

Elmira Scores First.

The visitors started off by notching a couple of corners in the first ten minutes, Miller and Heimbecker turning the trick. It was not until 16 minutes of play had passed that Andy McAvoy scored on a great piece of combination with Davy Reid. A minute later Martin notched the tying goal on a pass from Schumacker via McAvoy and Davy Reid. Five minutes later McAvoy scored on a magnificent cent rush and in 30 seconds more he repeated. Just a half minute before half time Davy Reid shot the fifth goal for the Westerns.

The Elmira team came strong in the second half, although they did not have as many opportunities to score as did the students. It was not until ten minutes had passed that Ott broke through the London defence and scored on a neat side shot. The visiting net guardian had a bad habit of getting down on his knees to stop shots and after repeated warnings Referee Hearn penalized him. The Westerns could not score when he was on the fence although they had the play around the Elmira nets most of the time.

Visitors Tie Up Score.

When Martin was hurt Ruppel went off to even up, and when Miller was hurt Ruppel was sent off, although just why Ruppel was put back on again and Hawkey kept on in order to keep the six-man game is hard to understand. With the teams playing five men a side Heimbecker scored for Elmira on a rush in 22 minutes and 15 seconds later Otto, who had just recovered from the collision with Dot Reid, repeated. It looked as if Elmira would win the game, but the Westerns took a brace and Schumacker scored on a long shot in 23 minutes. Davy Reid got the next one four minutes later on a lucky shot. The puck was travelling very slow when it reached Alexander, but he deflected his stick in such a way as to cause the disc to slide into the corner of the net. It was a lucky goal. With two minutes to go McAvoy scored the last and final goal.

For the visitors, Weichel was the most dangerous man. He is a big, heavy fellow and surprisingly fast for one so large. His stick handling is good and he is even better than his kid brother on the Ingersoll team. Otto, Miller and Heimbecker also started. The contest was a battle royal all the way to the end. The Elmira seven is one of the heaviest and sturdiest that has been seen in the Intermediate O. H. A. hustle.

McAvoy in Great Form.

For the Westerns McAvoy was the shining light, especially in the first half. He looked like the Amby of old then and showed the best work he has displayed. He seemed to be loafing too much in the last half but spurred when the goals were needed. Dot and Davy Reid played a great game while Hawkey also started. Chapman, in goal, let in a couple of easy ones, but saved a number of hard ones and was always on the job. Martin and Schumacker were up to their usual standard. The Westerns will stand a lot of beating and Elmira will have to travel all the way to beat them out on the round Wednesday night.

Wally Hearn made a satisfactory referee. The teams were:

Heimbecker.....Right defence.....Hawkey

FINAL GAMES TONIGHT IN MANUFACTURERS' LEAGUE

Perrins and Lawson and Jones Will Clash in What Promises To Be an Interesting Struggle.

The final games in the Manufacturers' League will be played at the Westminster rink this evening. The Lawson & Jones team will meet Perrins in the second game, and around this struggle the interest will centre. The players for the Perrins team are: Lawson, Jones, Green-Swifts and McCormicks will battle in the first contest, and although this game will not affect the race to any extent, it will be an interesting contest. Sid Rankin will handle both games.

Walter Burnside, of Kincardine, Ont., has bought from Charles Barrett, of Parkhill, the 1-year-old pacer, Lady Earl, that is said to have shown very fast and will be trained for the Canadian meetings.

THAT SARNIA TEAM KEEPS ON WINNING

Defeated Ingersoll in Latter Town Last Evening by Score of 9 to 5 in Fast Game.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ingersoll, March 2.—Another victory was added to their unbroken string by the Sarnia "Exhibits" tonight. They disposed of Ingersoll in a game featured by the brilliant rushes and clocklike combination by a score of 9 to 5. At half-time Sarnia was leading by 5 to 3. The game was played on keen ice and was witnessed by about one thousand spectators. The contest was a battle royal at all stages and excitement ran high. The visitors are undoubtedly the fastest team that has ever played here.

The teams: Sarnia—Goal, Prout; defence, Grannary and Imbilen; centre, Leszer; left wing, Dore; right wing, McCart; rover, Far.

Referee—Fraser, Paris.

PLAY-OFF AT KINGSTON

[Canadian Press.] Montreal, March 2.—With McGill and Toronto Varsity tied for the inter-collegiate basketball championship, it was announced today that the Queen's gymnasium in Kingston had been selected as the location for the play-off, but that the date had not yet been fixed.

It was said today that McGill would not send in a request for the play-off of the tie in the intercollegiate Hockey Union, owing to the lateness of the season.

GUELPH O. A. C. MAN BREAKS TANK RECORD

Guelph, March 2.—Fitzpatrick, the South African swimmer, set a new record for the 200-yard swim at the annual aquatic meet held in the gymnasium tank at the Ontario Agricultural College today. His time was 2 minutes 15 seconds. The previous record, held by E. L. Davis, was 4 1-5 seconds slower.

SEVEN COUNTRIES WILL ENTER IN BALLOON RACE

New York, March 2.—Seven countries are expected to be represented in the international balloon race to start from Kansas City next October. The present entry list, it was announced at the Aero Club of America tonight, includes three balloons from the United States, three from Germany, three from France, and one from Belgium. Assurances have been received, however, that three entries each from Great Britain, Switzerland and Italy have been sent. This would make nineteen balloons, the largest number and the widest foreign representation of the international contests.

SEVERAL CHALLENGES FOR THE ALLEN CUP

Montreal, March 2.—The trustees of the Allan cup, emblematic of the world's amateur hockey championship, have received challenges from the Inter-Provincial Hockey Union on behalf of Grand Mere, from the Kenora Thistles, winners of the Manitoba and Western Ontario Hockey Association and from Edmonton Dominions, winners of the Alberta League. Letters have also been received from the winners of the Cobalt League and from Renfrew.

TORONTO CANADIAN LEAGUE CLUB PASSED UP THE BERLIN PLAYERS

Ernie Dinsmore, Jack Au'd, Jack Getsel, Biddy Burns and Others Are Now Free Agents—Dinsmore Will Go to Cobalt to Play Ball This Season

BY JINX.

That the Toronto Canadian League team will be composed of none but Toronto international League recruits and that it will have no resemblance to the Berlin Club whose franchise it took over, is evidenced by the fact that no effort was made to retain any of the Berlin players who belonged to the club when the transfer was made. The Toronto Club passed up every one and did not even bother sending them a contract.

Among the players who were passed up by the Toronto Club and who are free agents as a result are "Biddy" Burns, Jack Getsel, Pitcher Schaeffer, Mike Sweeney, Catcher Stroth, Jack Auld and Ernie Dinsmore the local boy. Some of these players were promising, particularly Auld, Getsel and Dinsmore, who are all youngsters with only a couple of years experience. The others are a mediocre lot and it is doubtful if the Toronto Club really lost anything by passing them by. Burns was a good lead off man, but he stops there. The others were has-beens.

The Berlin management wrote the majority of these players at the time the transfer was made, telling them that each would receive a contract for a trial with the Toronto Club. Those contracts were never sent out, the Toronto Club preferring to sign up a brand new team out of players who can easily be secured through the International League clubs.

Ernie Dinsmore is Not Worried. Ernie Dinsmore, the London player, who is a free-agent at present, is not worrying about his baseball future. He would have liked to try out with the Toronto team and is confident that he would have made the fellow beat him out for a place step some, but he is at present considering an offer to play in the Cobalt district this summer, and it is altogether likely he will spend the baseball season in Northern Ontario. According to Ernie, one of the Northern Ontario clubs was after him last season, but he preferred to remain with organized baseball. This season another offer has been made, and as the salary is a much better one than he received from Berlin and as good as a class B league could afford to pay, he thinks he'll accept. They only play two games a week in the silver district league so that life up there is one grand, sweet song for the ball players, that is if the black flies and mosquitoes let him alone.

Other Players May Follow His Example.

It is also likely a couple more players who were with the Berlin Club last season will follow Dinsmore's example and leave themselves to the region of bush fires and solid rocks. Jack Auld came from Cobalt to the Canadian League and after he had played a couple of games with Berlin last season he wished he was back in Cobalt. Not that the Berlin Club didn't suit him, but he claimed the league he came from was away better than the one to which he came. At least, the financial remuneration was much more satisfying. Auld proved one of the best twirlers in the league before he had been in it long and it seems strange that the Toronto Club did not look up the dope on him. Auld is a promising young pitcher, a scarce article now-a-days and it's something a pretty costly business passing times a couple of times over. If the Toronto Club or any of the other clubs in the league are in need of pitchers, they should lose no time in grabbing up Auld. That kid Getsel, who played shortstop for Berlin last season, is also worth a trial on any of the clubs this present season.

Curling Notes

The Thistle Curling Club bonspiel for the Johnson & Barbour prizes is on at the North End Rink this afternoon and evening. The bonspiel started at 4 o'clock and a big crowd of curlers turned out to compete in it. The Warren Thompson trophy is being played for by the Thistle skips. As the weather from now on will be uncertain, the curlers are turning out in large numbers to take full advantage of the ice remaining.

Five rinks of London and Thistle Club curlers will go to Galt Wednesday afternoon, providing the weather is satisfactory.

The London Curling Club bonspiel will be held in the Thistle Rink on Thursday evening.

HOCKEY MEETING AT Y. M. C. A. TONIGHT

The adjourned meeting of local hockey enthusiasts who are contemplating forming a new hockey club in London will be held in the Y. M. C. A. this evening. A big turnout is expected.

WATERLOO COUNTY CLUB IS GROWING RAPIDLY

Galt, March 2.—Waterloo County Golf and Country Club has a membership of 360, with 20 on the waiting list. The club was recently organized for trap-shooting, and a large bowling green will be added to the links in the spring.

WINGHAM FIREMEN DID SPLENDID WORK

Stopped Fire at Abner Cosens' in Gale—Sick Woman Taken Out.

Wingham, March 2.—The fire brigade made a splendid stop of a fire which broke out yesterday at the residence of Abner Cosens. In spite of the high wind the flames never got the upper hand, and the damage done was small.

The fire occurred when some water pipes which had frozen and burst were being mended.

Cosens was lying seriously ill in the house and had to be carried to the residence of a neighbor, Mrs. Spaulding. The damage was covered by insurance.

The C. P. R. has had its troubles fighting storms these last few days, and yesterday a train got stalled in a snow-bank near Orangeville. It was due here at 1:15, but did not arrive until after 5 o'clock.

Some travellers driving through the country to their customers state that the weather recently has been the worst they have seen for some time.

Mr. Stewart McGee has taken over the business of William Bone.

H. T. Thompson bought out E. B. Hart. Mrs. Robert Deyell, who was recently taken to the hospital, is doing nicely. There are present many patients in the hospital and are all doing nicely.

The stock was very busy last month, several families having been visited by it. The sleighing is about done in some parts of the country and farmers are obliged to use the wheels in place of the sleighs.

HANFORD ACCEPTS TERMS.

Montreal, March 2.—Outlander Charley Hanford has accepted the Montreal Club's terms, but has not yet signed his contract with the local club of the International League.

The Wolverines, 2:05%, that was the hope of Dymore farm at one time, has been leased by a New Jersey man, who has him in the stud in that state.

APPLY FOR CHARTER FOR NEW LONDON LINE

Considerable Doubt Regarding Its Being Granted—Conflicts With Scheme.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, March 2.—It was learned here this evening that solicitor J. J. Gray, acting for McAllister, Beer & Co., of Montreal, will make application to the Provincial Parliament here this week for a charter for the company which plans to build a radial railway from London to Grand Bend and Stratford.

It was stated to The Advertiser that unless the new company agrees to use hydro entirely the Government will not grant a charter. There is some doubt that even then the charter may be granted as the proposition would conflict with Hon. Adam Beck's plans of a Government hydro radial system.

Mr. McAllister is at present in Paris and it is stated that the money for the project has been secured from French financiers.

DECLARES GENERAL ELECTION IN SIGHT

Pall Mall Gazette Says That Home Rule Question Requires It.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, March 3.—A London cable to the Gazette this morning says:

The Pall Mall Gazette declares that a general election is in sight, the deadlock being absolute, with no prospect of its being solved under the conditions existing in the present Parliament. Nationalist control of the Commons and the Government forbid any effective attempt to secure a compromise in Ulster.

The Pall Mall Gazette asserts that the Government is preparing its suggestions while well knowing that they will be rejected. The Unionists of both Houses will resist, and will use every constitutional method which is likely to compel the Government to face the country before actual civil war is inevitable.

The news from Ulster leaves little doubt that the covenanters are prepared to mobilize as soon as the home rule bill passes the Commons. The whole situation is so profoundly altered that, if the ministers are not constrained to face the people before the bill is passed, they must be induced to dissolve immediately afterwards.

The Westminster Gazette demands the settlement of the question whether one party has the right to manipulate the army in order to exempt Ulstermen in case of their resistance.

Leo Ottinger, of New York, bought Guy Axworthy and has shipped him to Poughkeepsie, where he has a number of good mares.

The Toledo fair, which will be held during Labor Day week, has been added to the short ship tracks, which will give $1,000 events.

"I am glad to get out of baseball," remarked Mr. Murphy, thus making it unanimous.

At that, if Comiskey were not so unselfish, he might regret the passing of Murphy.

Murphy relies with a million or more. Do not envy him. He earned it dearly.

Mathewson Signs With Giants as Feds Offer Him $65,000

Big Six Decides To Remain in Organized Ball Before Gilmore's Big Offer Reaches Him—Giants' Terms Not Made Public.

Marlin Springs, Texas, March 2. — President James A. Gilmore, of the United States, has signed a three-year contract made to "Big Six" by President Gilmore, of the Federal League, with $15,000 payable in advance. Mathewson today signed a contract with the New York club. The terms were not made public. President Gilmore, of the Giants, executed the contract with Mathewson.

Chicago, March 2. — An offer of $65,000 for three years' service, and an advance of $15,000 to be paid the minute he signs a Federal League contract, was wired to Christy Mathewson, the star New York Giants' pitcher, today, by Matty-get away if he could help it.

Canadian League News Notes

MADE SMITH HAPPY.
March 2.—Manager "Heinie" Smith, of the Yankees, was happy when he left Erie yesterday, for Buffalo has returned to him Billy Wright, the right fielder with a good left arm, who was a heavy hitter and a sure fielder. Wright was grabbed by the Bisons but needs more seasoning.

DRAPER NOT DEAD YET.
Topsy Draper, of the champion Senators, is in about the same position as was Mark Twain—the report of his death was greatly exaggerated. Draper isn't dead, although he is lucky to be alive at the present moment. He is in the hospital at Wytheville, Virginia, with two bullet wounds in the face, one of which may cost him the sight of his right eye. Andy Robertson, the Senator's second baseman, received word some few days ago that Draper had met death in a mining accident, but details were lacking, and he wrote for further information. A friend sent him word that Draper was alive, although he had come out second best in a gun fight. According to the latest news, Draper started the fight and managed to shoot his opponent in the hand before two bullets plowed across his face and put him hors de combat. From the brief account of the trouble it appears that Draper will not play baseball again, and that he will lose the sight of his eye. Draper had a very fiery temper, and black legs they were known as the Tigers, and the year previous as the Kolls.

Manager Smith, of the Erie Club, is endeavoring to land Gygis Schang, Jenkins and Dawson, who were with the Erie team last season but were transferred to St. Joe in the Western League. Schang is a brother of Wally Schang, the star catcher of the Philadelphia Athletics.

MRS. SMITH A FAN.
Mrs. "Heinie" Smith, wife of the Erie manager, is an ardent baseball fan and she will be present at every game the Erie team plays this coming season. Her knowledge of the game is much greater than that of the ordinary fan.

RESERVED SEATS IN BERLIN SOLD IN FIFTEEN MINUTES

Over 100 Fans Were in Line When Plan Opened—O.H.A. Is Handling the Sale of Tickets.

Berlin, March 2. — Berlin, March 2. — Indications are that all records for attendance at the auditorium will be broken Tuesday night when Orilla and Berlin intermediates meet in the first game of the finals for the O. H. A. championship. The plan for the reserved seat section opened tonight and over 100 fans were in line. The sale was handled by the O. H. A. and in less than fifteen minutes the entire reserved section was sold out. The intermediates are in good shape for both games, and the confident of being able to secure a safe lead to take to Orilla Friday night. The last intermediate championship came to Berlin in 1907.

Halpin and Meyers Establish New World Marks in 600 Yard and 300 Yard Races.

New York, March 2.—Five new championship records, two of which established new world's indoor marks, were made at the indoor national championships of the Amateur Athletic Union, held at Madison Square Garden tonight. Two other championship records were equalled.

Thomas J. Halpin, of the Boston Athletic Association, and Alvah T. Meyers, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, set the two new world's records. Halpin won the 600-yard run in the new time of 1:13.25. Meyers, in the 300-yard run, established a record of 32.1-5.

The other events in which new championship figures were hung up were the two-mile walk, won by Richard F. Remer, Irish-American A. C., in 14:21.4-5; the 1,000-yard run, won by Abel R. Kiviat, Irish-American C. C., in 2:15.2-5; and the two mile run, won by Harry J. Smith, Bronx Church House, New York, in 9:18.

Platt Adams, of New York, was a triple winner, winning the standing broad jump and pole vault for distance. Meyers and Patrick J. McDonald, both of the Irish-American A. C., were double winners. In addition to making his record in the 300-yard run, Meyers captured the 24-pound shotput and was first in throwing the 56-pound weight for height.

The championships point banner was won by the Irish-American A. C., with the New York A. C. second and the Boston A. A. third.

The fact that the free-for-all race at the blue ribbon meeting is to be the best three in five heats is causing some talk along the line. Those who have been racing on the small ovals say it is all right.

Contracted A Severe Cold After An Operation.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

Effected A Complete Cure.

Mrs. Thos. A. Julian, Almonte, Ont., writes:—"Just a few lines to let you know how thankful I am for what Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has done for me. A few years ago I was operated on for appendicitis, and was confined to the hospital for five weeks. When I returned home I contracted a severe cold which left me with a bad cough. A neighbor told my husband about Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup so I decided to try a bottle. When it was finished it had done me so much good I took another which completely cured me. I can very, very strongly recommend it."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup contains all the lung healing virtues of the famous Norway pine tree, which makes it the very best preparation for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, and all Throat and Lung troubles.

Price, 25 and 50 cents.

See you get "Dr. Wood's" as there are many imitations on the market. The genuine is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SEATON FOR CHICAGO TEAM

Pittsburg Millionaire Is Behind That Club According to President Gilmore Work Starts on Chicago Park This Week.

Chicago, March 2.—President Gilmore, of the Federal League, announced tonight that "a Pittsburg millionaire" had decided to become backer of the club in his town. Stories that Henry C. Frick, of Pittsburg, had seriously contemplated taking an active part in the national game have been current for some time, and though Gilmore would not say Mr. Frick was the man, followers of the game here believe he is the one.

The announcement was made after a conversation over the long distance telephone between Gilmore and W. A. Kerr, of Pittsburg, in which the latter is said to have promised that the deal would be closed on Thursday in New York.

Blandy Going Back to Naps.
The telephone conversation led President Gilmore to declare any attempt by organized ball to sign players already signed by the Federals would be the beginning of a war that would threaten the foundations of the organized game. This statement was made in answer to questions concerning the reported defection of Pitcher Blandy, who, it was said, finally had agreed to join the Cleveland team despite his contract with the Federals.

It leaked out this afternoon that Tom Seaton, the pitcher last year with Philadelphia, would join the Chicago Federals. It was understood that the Brooklyn club was to get Seaton, but the allotment on Saturday gave him to Tinker's club.

Work on Chicago Park to Start.
Ground will be broken for the local Federal League plant Wednesday, President Weegham said today. The contractors agreed to have the stand finished by April 21.

Much disappointment was shown by the Federal managers when it was learned that Christy Mathewson had signed a contract with the Giants and had not waited for their offer of $65,000 for three years, made today in a telegram by President Gilmore. Mathewson was wanted to manage and pitch on the Brooklyn team, but efforts will be made to get Sam Crawford, the Detroit outfielder, for the job, while President Gilmore intimated that Filder Jones, former manager of the Chicago White Sox, might be made an offer.

AUSTRIAN AND WIFE BURNED TO DEATH

Pete Bonivant Returned to Blazing House to Save Spouse—Bodies Found.

[Canadian Press.]
Campbellford, Ont., March 2.—A terrible catastrophe occurred early this morning at Healy Falls, six miles north of here, when two Austrians, Pete Bonivant and his wife, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their boarding-house. Twenty fellow countrymen, employed on power construction were occupants of the house, and escaped in their night clothes. About 1:30 a.m. Bonivant discovered the place to be on fire, and hastened to arouse the inmates and give the alarm. He then re-entered the blazing building for his wife, but the fire had gained such headway that their escape was cut off, and only the charred trunks of their bodies were found in the ruins. An inquest will be held by Coroner Dr. W. F. Leucks.

GIN PILLS Brought Relief

Larder Lake, Ont., March 26. — "I had been suffering for some time with my Kidneys and Urine. I was constantly passing water, which was very scanty, sometimes as many as thirty times a day. Each time the pain was something awful, and no rest at night.

I heard of your GIN PILLS and decided to give them a trial at once. I sent my chum 60 pills to get them and I am pleased to inform you that in less than six hours, I felt relief.

In two days, the pain had left me entirely. I took about half a box and today I feel as well as ever, and my kidneys are acting quite natural again."

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN under the first part of the Dominion Companies Act, that Letters Patent have been issued under the seal of the Secretary of State, bearing date the 23rd day of February, A. D. 1914, incorporating JOHN PUMPHREY FORRESTAL, manufacturer, SIR GEORGE GIBBONS, King's Counsel, GEORGE SUTTON GIBBONS, barrister, and AGNES PRINCE PELTON and LILLIAN ADELAIDE FOWLER, stenographers, all of the City of London, in the Province of Ontario, for the purpose of:

(a) To acquire and take over the business heretofore carried on at the City of London by The London and Petroleum Barrel Company, as co-partners;

(b) To buy, sell, manufacture, import, export, distribute, store, warehouse, import and export, either finished or partly finished, the materials used in a co-operative business, and any fittings, parts and appurtenances used in connection therewith;

(c) To buy, sell, manufacture in whole or part, or deal in, sell on commission, distribute, store, warehouse, import and export, either finished or partly finished, boxes, barrels, casks or other containers manufactured from any material, and any fittings, parts and appurtenances used in connection therewith;

(d) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its business, or calculated to increase or indirectly to increase the value of or render profitable any of the company's property or rights;

(e) To acquire and use all necessary lands, mills, machinery and plant, and other articles and property necessary or required in connection with the carrying on of the said business;

(f) From time to time to acquire, own, buy and sell such real and personal property as the company may deem necessary or convenient for its purpose, and to acquire the same by purchase, lease, license, exchange or otherwise, and to hold, sell, alienate, transfer or otherwise dispose of the same;

(g) To apply for purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, licenses, concessions and the like conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive right, title or use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used in connection with the business of the company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the company, or to use, exercise, develop or grant licenses in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights or information so acquired;

(h) To act as general agents and commission merchants for any person or persons engaged in any business;

(i) To purchase or otherwise acquire the whole or any part of the business, assets, liabilities, rights, titles, contracts, whatsoever and wheresoever situated, of any person or persons, corporation or corporations carrying on any business within the objects of this company, and to pay for the said business, assets, property, privileges, lands, rights, contracts, undertakings or good-will either in cash or in fully paid-up and non-assessable common or preferred stock, debentures, bonds or securities of this company;

(j) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit the company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same;

(k) To purchase and acquire shares in any other corporation carrying on any business similar to that carried on by this company, and to pay for the same in cash or fully paid-up common or preference stock, bonds or debentures of the company;

(l) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities, municipal, local or otherwise that may seem conducive to the company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions;

(m) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of the company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the company;

(n) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways and branches or sidings on lands owned or controlled by the company, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to advance the company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control thereof;

(o) To produce or secure the production of electric or electro-motive force, or other agency, similar or otherwise, and to supply the same for the production or use of lighting, heating and motive power, or otherwise for the purposes of said business, and to sell and dispose of any surplus electric and electro-motive force, for power, lighting and heating purposes, subject to provincial and municipal laws and regulations;

(p) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts and other bodies, calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the company for its predecessors in business, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition or for any public, general or useful objects;

(q) To lend money to customers and others having dealings with the company and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons;

(r) To draw, make, accept, indorse, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants and other negotiable or transferable instruments;

(s) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the company, or any part thereof for such consideration as the company may think fit, and in particular to sell shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects, altogether or in part, similar to those of the company;

(t) To adopt such means of making known the products of the company as may seem expedient and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by public and private sale, by medals and by granting prizes, rewards and donations;

(u) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the company;

(v) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, either alone or in conjunction with others;

(w) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, by the name of The London and Petroleum Barrel Co., Limited, with a total capital stock of five hundred thousand dollars, divided into five thousand shares of one hundred dollars each. Dated at the City of London, the 23rd day of February, A. D. 1914.

CHAPTER XIV.

In the Shadow of the Mill.

Later on Sara, in sober reflection, indowed what had appeared at the time to be a whimsical, quixotic proceeding on her part. She brought herself completely to the point where she could view her action with complacency. At first there was an irritating, nagging fear that Mr. Wendall had been genuinely soul-sacrificing in his effort to defend her; that his decisive falsehood was a sincere declaration of loyalty to her, and that the transference of the outburst of an actuated by a sort of fanatical selfishness, in that he dreaded the further dragging in of the name of Wendall, and all that in spite of his positive belief that she was being wrongfully, unfairly attacked. She knew that her father-in-law had no doubt in his mind that she could successfully combat any charge Smith might bring against her; that her innocence would prevail even in the opinion of the scheming de-

Disheartening Effect of Piles

It is not only the itching and stinging of piles that is to be dreaded, but also the depressing and debilitating effect on the whole system. The victim of piles cannot do efficient work. There is an uneasiness and discomfort by day, and at night the distress from the itching prevents sleep and rest, and undermines the general health.

From almost the first application of Dr. Chase's Ointment you get relief from the annoying itching and burning, and gradually the ulcers are healed up and the disease thoroughly cured. Do not make the mistake of discontinuing treatment as soon as relief is obtained. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a proven cure, but it depends on you to apply it persistently until a cure is effected.

Even the most severe cases of long standing yield to the soothing, healing influence of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Surgical operations are no longer necessary, for, as a matter of fact, Dr. Chase's Ointment has cured cases that were not cured by operations. No sufferer from piles can afford to delay the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

and was instantly surprised to find that her voice rang with new life, new interest. The grayness seemed to lift from the view that stretched beyond the window; she even looked for the sun in her eagerness.

It was then that she knew why the world had been bleaker than usual, even in its cloak of gray.

A little before eleven she set out briskly to intercept him at the gates. She viewed her departure with gloomy eyes. The world also was gray for her. They came upon each other unexpectedly at a sharp turn in the avenue. Hetty colored with a sudden rush of confusion, and had all she could do to meet his eager, happy eyes as he stood over her and proclaimed his pleasure in jerky, awkward sentences. Then they walked together, a strange shyness attending them. She experienced the faintness of breath that comes when the heart is filled with pleasant alarms. As for Booth, his blood sang. He thrilled with the joy of being near her, of the feel of her hand, of the sound of her voice. He wanted to crush her in his arms, to hold her forever, to exert all of his brute physical strength so that she might never again be herself, but a part of his.

They uttered commonplaces. The spell was on them. It would lift, but for the moment they were powerless to struggle against it. At length he saw the color fade from her cheeks; her eyes were able to meet his without the look of pleading that made her so wonderful to him. He wanted to crush her in his arms, to hold her forever, to exert all of his brute physical strength so that she might never again be herself, but a part of his.

"I must paint you all over again," he said, suddenly breaking in on one of her remarks. "Just as you are today, an outdoor girl, a glorious outdoor girl, in 'muddy boots.'"

He laughed, drawing her skirt away to reveal a shapely foot in an American walking shoe. She smiled and gave voice to a new thought. By Jove, how much better looking our American shoes are than the kind they wear in London!

"I insist on American shoes," he said, as long as I am with her. "I don't think our boots are so villainous for you."

Heart and Nerves Were Bad.

Could Not Sleep.

To the thousands of people who toss on a sleepless pillow night after night, or who pace the bedroom floor with nerves on the jump, the heart action all wrong, and to whose eyes sleep will not come, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills offer the blessing of sound refreshing slumber, as they restore the equilibrium of the deranged nerve centres and correct the wrong action of the heart.

Charles Teel, Horncastle, Ont., writes: "Just a few lines to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. My heart and nerves were so bad I could not sleep, and the least noise or excitement would make me feel so that I used to think I was going to die, and I would tremble until I could hardly stand. I took doctor's medicine, but it did not do me much good. At last I tried Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and can certainly say they did me a great amount of good. I can recommend them to anyone who is suffering as was I. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have been on the market for the past twenty years, and have done more to steady shaky nerves and strengthen weak hearts, than any other known preparation.

DUTCH SUPPER AT "Y"

That it is possible to obtain a meal for 10 cents, was given practical demonstration in the Y. M. C. A. last night, between the hours of 6 and 8 o'clock, by the Ladies' Auxiliary of that institution. Everything Dutch was included in the menu of the evening, with the possible exception of sauerkraut. The charge for any article was 2 cents per dish, so that five varieties of good things were obtainable for one-tenth of a dollar. The result was economy only equaled by Governor Carter in the daily combat with the H. C. of L.

The supper was well patronized, as is always the case, and no difficulty was experienced in disposing of the toothsome dainties on sale at the various booths. During the evening the "Y" orchestra, under the direction of H. Simpson, gave many pleasing numbers.

OUTLINES CHANGE ASQUITH MAY MAKE

Daily Chronicle Says Ulster Will Be Given Protection—Home Rule of Own.

[Canadian Press.] London, March 2.—Commenting on Premier Asquith's promise to introduce the Irish home rule bill for the last time with a statement of what concessions the Government is inclined to make to Ulster, the Daily Chronicle says the Cabinet will not consent to the dismemberment of Ireland but will propose that education and licensing remain under imperial control as already provided for in the case of the police, for a period of six years.

Postoffice Unchanged. The newspaper says also that the post-office will remain under the Imperial Parliament; that provision will be made for a board of patronage so as to insure that all public appointments will be made on merit and not on a sectarian basis; that the Ulster members of the Irish Parliament will have a right to veto legislation inimical to Ulster's interests and that Northern Ulster will be included in the Irish Parliament from its inception, but with the right to withdraw from it by a plebiscite in five years.

Within a Fortnight. Should the Opposition reject the above offer the Daily Chronicle says the Government will proceed to pick up a crank.

CAR AND MOTOR COLLIDE

Normal and "Buzz Patrol" Crash at Carling and Richmond Streets.

Turning sharply from Carling street on to Richmond street, in answer to a call, the police motor patrol, driven by P. C. Walsh, rammed Normal car No. 64, south-bound, about 10 o'clock last night. The car, which was in charge of Motorman Westman and Conductor Newell, was moving at a fair rate of speed and the crash did not see the patrol until the two conveyances came together with a crash. The big motor suffered little from the collision but the street car was not so fortunate. The glass in the windows of the front vestibule was broken while the fender was bent and twisted. The car was ordered to the barns for repairs. The motor proceeded to pick up a crank.

[Canadian Press.] Washington, March 3.—Arguments both for and against the proposed constitutional amendment giving women the right to vote, were made before the House Judiciary committee at a hearing today. Prominent speakers from all parts of the country were brought here by both sides for the occasion, and the hearing room was crowded with interested spectators.

FINANCIAL and COMMERCIAL

HAY BECOMES DEARER SUPPLY BEING SMALL

Eggs, Butter and Other Produce Remain Firm in Price.

The market today was small, although the roads are reported as being good in all parts of the country. Hay was sold at an advanced price, the supply being scarce. The range in hay prices was from $12 to $15 per ton, the prevailing price being $14 to $14.50 per ton. No straw was on the square in the morning. Eggs remain at about the same prices as on Saturday. Grade lots were sold for 28¢ per dozen, but the supply was small, and this product may become unsteady, on the first bright market. Butter continues firm. A few casks of the best were sold early in the morning at 28¢ per lb. This was the only way butter was offered on the market. Only one load of oats was on the market, but the price remains unchanged. Wheat sold for $1.08 per cwt. Wheat brought 97¢ per bu, the highest figure.

Small quantities of vegetables of all kinds were offered, the prices remaining as quoted below.

No apples on the square this morning, but the price will likely keep steady at from $1 to $1.30 per bag, as the cold storages are not yet stocked. Barrels bring from $2 to $3 each, according to quality.

No poultry or meats were on the square, but a few hides sold at the firm prices quoted below.

THE EXCHANGES.

New York, March 3.—(Wall street, noon)

—Trading during the morning was on almost as small a basis as yesterday. The market still felt the effect of the storm, particularly in the curtailment of outside business owing to the continued interruption of wire communication. There was a large quantity of stock pressing for sale, and although the early movement was downward, the small decline was followed by a recovery and by noon prices were restored to about a level with yesterday's close. Bonds were steady.

their meeting today were confronted with a new element of the situation since they had met—the position taken by Carranza that all foreign governments should address him directly instead of through the United States.

Another phase of the Mexican situation, which occupied attention today, was the President's engagement to discuss Mexican affairs with Sir Lionel Carden, the British minister to Mexico, who arrived in Washington last night.

Interest in the outcome of the Benton incident is uppermost in diplomatic circles. Whether Great Britain will insist on recognition at this time or will prefer not to involve the United States in complications with Carranza are points upon which information is awaited.

As there have been no announcements on the subject it is not quite certain whether any note has been dispatched to American Consul Smith at Nogales in answer to the two communications received from General Carranza last Sunday, or whether the United States is awaiting the outcome of messages sent to Carranza by his friends here, who are familiar with members of the Washington administration. These friends have been expected for the last 24 hours that they would learn of a change of attitude by Carranza, and they pointed to his calling of a cabinet meeting and references in news dispatches to a diversity of opinion as likely to mean, in the end, the influencing of the cabinet.

HOUSE AND CONTENTS CONSUMED BY FIRE

Home of Bluevale Farmer, James Mesher, Burned—Cause Unknown.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Bluevale, March 3.—One of the finest houses in this part of the country, belonging to James Mesher, a prosperous farmer living about six miles from Wingham, was completely destroyed by fire yesterday, the cause being unknown. The building was insured.

Fire started on Sunday afternoon, and was put out by hard work on the part of the neighbors, and yesterday it broke out again, with a fierce gale blowing. Not a thing could be saved.

Mr. Mesher will rebuild as soon as the weather permits.

MIDDLESEX TO SEND AGENT TO GREAT BRITAIN

Greater County Association Appoints T. Benstead to Secure Settlers.

MAN WILL GO TO SEAPORTS

S. D. Dawson Will Meet Incoming Throgs at Quebec and Montreal.

BIG EXHIBIT FOR THE FAIR

Sum of $400 Set Aside to Provide for Production of Displays in Harvestime.

A special meeting of the executive of the Greater Middlesex Association was held in the County Buildings on Monday afternoon. There was a large attendance and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. President S. F. Glass addressed the meeting and spoke strongly of sending a representative to the old country at the earliest possible date to secure farm hands for the county. W. J. Bartlett concurred in Mr. Glass's views, but he believed the representative should be sent to the agricultural districts over there, as Middlesex farmers wanted experienced farm laborers.

T. Benstead Appointed.
A discussion followed and finally T. Benstead was unanimously appointed to go to Great Britain this spring. Mr. Benstead was exceedingly optimistic as to the securing of a large number of immigrants. He would leave no stone unturned to build up a Greater Middlesex.

Mr. Bartlett then addressed the meeting and stated a man should be sent to the ports of entry—Quebec and Montreal—where a good number of immigrants could be induced to come to Middlesex.

Want the Single Men.
The president believed it would be a good scheme. "We want all the men we can get, especially the single men," he stated.

S. D. Dawson, secretary of the Greater Middlesex Association, was selected for the position and will go to Quebec and Montreal as soon as navigation opens.

The executive decided to revise the Greater Middlesex Association's pamphlet and let 15,000 more be printed. Mr. Laughton believed the pamphlets had done much good. Especially had they been the means of inducing old country people to come to Middlesex.

A Western Farm Exhibit.
C. W. Baker took up the matter of the association giving a grant for the purpose of erecting exhibits of Middlesex farm products at the Canadian National and the Western Fair next fall. A grant of $400 was passed.

N. E. Belyea stated the exhibit at the Western Fair last fall was a great credit to the county, but this year they would achieve greater things.
The publicity executive will meet next Thursday at 10 a.m. at Mr. Whaley's office, King street.

paration for a crime only when one holds that Government in some responsible for the commission of the crime.

"So far the United States has shown at least as much interest in the death in Mexico of a British subject as it has in the case of outrages on American citizens—for I understand that several Americans have been killed in Mexico, and the United States has shown every desire to use its influence to secure protection for British subjects in the Mexican territory controlled by those described as constitutionalists.

Reserve Right to Act.
"I would therefore sum up the situation by saying that if the United States thinks it proper to take further steps either on behalf of its own citizens or of a British subject, we will gladly wait the result. But if, for reasons of its own, the United States does not think it desirable to take such steps, we must, of course, reserve to ourselves the right to secure reparation whenever there is an opportunity to do so.

"Our general policy towards Mexico and the Central and South American republics is confined to commercial interests, which we keep within non-political limits. As a rule, therefore, all questions that rise between those republics and ourselves are settled by diplomatic means, or can be referred to arbitration.

"But the violent death of a British subject and the refusal by those responsible in Mexico to allow the circumstances to be investigated make it incumbent upon us to do what we can on our own behalf.

What Can Be Done?
"Assuming that the United States does not itself desire to take any responsibility for intervention, it has been urged upon me that we should take immediate action without, however, giving me any suggestion or indication of what action we can take at the moment.

"I must repeat what I said last week: that there is nothing we can effectively do under the conditions; that the Government in Mexico City has no control over the territory where the death of Benton took place, nor over those responsible for his death. We cannot, therefore, under the present circumstances, secure reparation through that Government.

"We have no intention of engaging in a war. On our part would be such a fantastic attempt as the sending of a force—which to be effective would have to be a very large force—into any part of Mexico.

War Would Help Rebels.
"Under ordinary circumstances we might have taken action at a port or by way of blockade. Under present conditions, if we took such action and it had any effect, it could only result in giving assistance to the contending party in North Mexico.

"To take action that would positively help those from whom we demand reparation simply for the sake of appearing to do something, would be worse than futile.

"But we do not mean to let the matter rest, and as soon as by any chance of circumstances, it is in our power to rectify the matter we shall take whatever steps may be practicable."

DENIES THAT SYNDICATE PROVIDES FOR HEAD TAX

London Celestial Says Vancouver M. P. Is Wrong in His Declaration of Actual Slavery Enforced on the Chinese Who Enter Canada.

Charlie Cheu, a local Chinese restaurateur, declares that H. H. Stevens, the Vancouver member of Parliament, is all wrong when he alleges that there is a syndicate with offices in China, Canada and the United States, which makes a business of advancing the head tax and transportation expenses of Chinese coming to the United States and Canada, and keeps them in a condition of virtual slavery until they have paid back from their earnings in this country the amount loaned.

Comes From Relatives.
He admits, however, that the head tax of the great majority of Chinese in the first place comes out of this country, but it is advanced not by a syndicate, but by relatives and friends of the Chinese in China, who wish to emigrate. The Chinese are clamorous. They never forget their relatives or parents in the old land. A portion of their earnings they regularly send back to the support of their parents, and wives and families if they have any. From their savings they are always ready to aid their brothers and cousins to come to Canada.

While the Chinese believe it is unjust to require them to pay a head tax of $500 on entering the country, and an additional $500 if they wish to bring their wives, yet they have no redress or means of retaliation. The Chinese Government treat Canadian missionaries and traders the way the Chinese are treated in Canada and the United States? Don't the Chinese appreciate the pleasurable life of the western life of retaliation?" was asked Mr. Cheu.

Object to Emigration.
His reply was that the Chinese Government do not object to the Chinese people emigrating, and so rather welcomes all the restrictions which the Canadian and United States Governments place on the immigration of the Chinese.

Mr. Cheu stated that from reports he had received from the Pacific coast, the Chinese there are feeling, to some extent, the effects of quietness in trade and business, and pointed out that the Chinese consul at Ottawa has advised his people in China against further emigration at the present time.

Come From Canton.
All the Chinese in Western Ontario, Michigan and other mid-western parts of this continent come from the Canton district, a thickly populated country, literally covered with villages, often only a few hundred yards apart.

Under the new political regime in China, the Chinese are looking forward to better times at home. "I would much rather live in Canada," said Mr. Cheu, speaking from his personal standpoint, "but I would feel much more at home here if I could bring my mother or father without the payment of another $500. Besides my mother I have only distant relatives in China. But with the Chinese who have large families of relatives back in China it is different. Many of them would not be of returning to China if they could bring their wives out here free of additional head tax. But as the immigration laws are they save their earnings with a view to returning to China as soon as they are enabled with the amount of their savings."

DIGGING NEW YORK OUT OF SNOW BANK

Thousands of Men Engaged in Removing Fall of Past Two Days.

TRAFFIC BEING RESTORED
Trains and Boats Now Running—One Train Stalled and Passengers Without Food

[Canadian Press.]
New York, March 3.—New York began today to dig itself out of the snow. The weather is fair and the temperature rising, with warmer days in prospect, according to weather bureau announcements, to aid the army of snow shovellers at work in the streets and on the roads. The snow is being packed with a foot of ice and snow packed hard on the heavy coating of snow left by two heavy storms, the city today is assuming something like normal conditions after 36 hours of blizzard weather.

It was estimated that in New York and vicinity, including the employees of the railroads, that an army of 50,000 men is engaged in raising the snow embargo.

Street car and railroad traffic improved today. All the trunk lines with terminals in New York, Jersey City, Hoboken and Weehawken began moving trains to distant points for the first time in two days and hundreds of passengers, marooned in stations, resumed their journeys. With the resumption of railroad traffic, the threatened milk and meat famine, which it was believed that the supply of coal would be sufficient, because of the warmer weather. Difficulty in moving coal resulted in much suffering during the last two days, especially among the poorer classes.

Inbound liners which had been waiting in the outer harbor ventured into port yesterday and today. Off Fire Island yesterday eight barges laden with coal were cut adrift by tug boats. Each barge has four men aboard, and it was feared that they would drag anchor, and be dashed to pieces in the shoals.

The loss to business interests and the cost to the city and public and private corporations and companies for snow removal will run into the millions.

Want Work, But—
While the city, railroads and private companies are seeking ways to remove snow, there are nightly meetings by a small group of self-term unemployed, who assert their need of food and a place to sleep. Last night at St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal Church, 250 of these men were found and offered work at 20 cents an hour shovelling snow. They refused to work at that price, demanding 30 cents an hour.

Rev. William Miller gambled welcomed the men on behalf of the Social Fellowship of St. Mark's, and said the unemployment was intolerable. He then introduced Frank Tannenbaum as chairman of the meeting.

Require 33 Days.
"At last we have a chance to let the city know what we want," Tannenbaum began. "We have a right to share in every house and in every man's loaf of bread. What's more, we are going to make the city give it to us or take it by force."

"We want work, but we will not work for 50 cents or 33 a day. We want 33 a day for an eight-hour day. We want union wages and union conditions, and we will not work unless we get them. We would rather go to jail."

No Food For Passengers.
Red Bank, N. J., March 3.—One of the trains stalled in a snowstorm two miles south of here since Sunday night at 8 o'clock. It is the Lakewood-Atlantic City train, which was stalled in a snowstorm which has been working for two days to extricate the train held out little hope for the release of the passengers before tonight or tomorrow. Food in the dining car gave out Sunday night. Monday morning, L. Stoddard, the polo player, braved the gale and obtained food from nearby dairymen and a country store. Last night only canned goods were left, and this supply is not large.

STUDIES BIRD LIFE AT POINTE PELEE

Unique Ornithologists Club Has Observatory at Feathered Visitors "Calling Port."

W. E. SAUNDERS A MEMBER
Has Returned From Week-End Trip—Point's Wonder-ful Possibilities.

W. E. Saunders, a leading London ornithologist, is a member of a naturalists' club of five which has established permanent club quarters away down in Pointe Pelee, where they report at all seasons of the year to study birds. Pointe Pelee and Pelee Island, the migratory birds arrive in the spring, and the last places they leave in the fall.

Mr. Saunders, in company with a Toronto member of the club, Mr. Wallace, a traveller for a Toronto firm, spent last week-end in Pointe Pelee.

"We didn't see many birds this time," said Mr. Saunders, "only about thirty species. We didn't see a single blackbird or high-bird, as we expected to."

Just how many species the bird-lovers would have seen at a more favorable season only they themselves can estimate. Pointe Pelee, the birds' paradise, here practically all the birds which inhabit or visit Canada may be found at one season or other of the year.

Intentional Quarters.
The club quarters of this ornithological association, it hasn't even named it, are humble to be sure; in fact, the members always speak of it as their "shack." But it is conveniently located about 300 yards from the lake on one side of the point and about 500 yards from the other side.

Farmers in the vicinity, despite the drawback of the long haul to market, are raising a crop of land in the marsh, but is being reclaimed by ditches and drains, from which the water is pumped. Much of it is sandy, but on the latter land a 40-acre peach orchard, set out two years ago, is making very good headway. Fishing is the occupation of a number of the Pointe Pelee inhabitants. They claim that their spring is at least a week earlier than in Leamington. It is accounted for by the Pointe being so narrow a strip surrounded on both sides by water.

Dangerous Transportation.
The dense head of Pointe Pelee is about eight miles from Pelee Island. Here the Islanders land on their way to Leamington. Direct by water, the distance is about fifteen miles from the island to Leamington. The Pelee Islanders in the winter use boats with runners which are pushed over the ice from one expanse of water to another. It is a mode of travelling fraught with a considerable element of danger. Steamers from Sandusky, which call at Canadian points for fish, provide daily communication between the island and Sandusky in the summer months.

Mr. Saunders expressed the opinion that the Pelee Islanders and Pelee Pelee are capable of much greater development along agricultural and horticultural lines, but great strides have already been made in the last few years.

ENFORCE THE LAWS

that are on the statute books. It is a significant fact, however, said Mr. Sargent, that laws which are passed contrary to public opinion are not a success.

Mr. Wilfrid Laurier said that as leader of the Opposition he would do all possible to advance the objects of the congress. He fully appreciated that the purpose of the organization is to elevate and improve the condition of mankind.

The social service congress is one of the most notable gatherings ever assembled in Canada. It has attracted some of the leading dignitaries connected with every church and religious organization in Canada, and also the leaders of the trades and labor congress, the National Council of Women and the Canadian Purty Education Association.

There are equally as many women delegates as men in attendance. At this preliminary session there were fully 800 present.

"In the age of rapid development, when the cry of the market and materialism is louder than ever, you must make the people of Canada understand there is a higher and a greater consideration on which the foundations of this nation are to be laid," said Premier Borden at the outset of his address.

"I am not an old man, but it seems to me that within the last 40, even 30, years there was in the family life a more powerful influence in child life than there is today."

Important Subjects.
"You are to discuss church and industrial life; the radical changes in the life of the working man; neglected and dependent children, and the commercialization of vice and white slavery. All these subjects have a great and urgent importance." You have alluded to the part that the Government may be expected to take in passing co-operative legislation. You may talk on matters that require remedy and redress. I think the Government of today and of the past, has ever been ready and willing to co-operate. But so far as the Government and Parliament are concerned, I must say that it is as bad to have no law as a law that is not enforced.

"Whatever decision the congress will come to regarding the co-operation to be sought from the Government, I would say the legislation must not only be effective, but there must be an effective means for enforcing it. An attempt to buy public opinion, however, has not been successful in the past."

Political Corruption.
"Some of the recent examples of political corruption have startled us. Would to God the conscience of the people of Canada would be aroused," said Rev. J. C. Farthing, Bishop of Montreal, in his reply to the welcome.

He maintained that the spirit of the church and the state can never be separated if the good of the country is to be considered primarily.

"The church, not the hierarchy, but the spirit, must be in the state, in the family, in business, in social life; in short, it must be everywhere. If the church were more in the social life, we would not see such caricatures of womanhood parading the streets. We would not have scandals in the halls of legislation, if the church and state were closer together."

Bishop Farthing scored the politician who thinks he is privileged to lie or be crooked in public life. He is as responsible for lies and corruption in political or public life as he is in his private life, declared the bishop. The Prime Minister, Mr. Borden, said that it is as much a minister of Christ as is a recognized minister of the gospel.

A few more public scandals such as we have had recently will effectually lower the standard, he said. Rev. W. M. Rochester, general secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance of Canada, spoke on "The Weekly Rest Day and the National Well-Being," in which he advocated the advantage of everyone having one day per week for rest.

Canon Tucker Present.

Rev. Canon Tucker, of London, spoke on "The Indians and Their Relation to Canada," advocating the appointment of a general superintendent of Indian affairs. The time had arrived for the passing of the reserves and Indian children should be reared as citizens of the future. On reserves today, Indians were put up in schools and dormitories, which were hotbeds of tuberculosis, the scourge of the Indian race.

BAPTIST DIVINE FOR PRESBYTERIAN MINISTRY

London Presbytery Approves of Acceptance of Rev. John Elder.

On recommendation of its special committee the London Presbytery this morning recommended to the general assembly that Rev. John Elder, formerly a Baptist minister, be received into the Presbyterian ministry. Rev. Dr. D. L. McCrene, who presented the committee's report, declared that it had examined all documents presented by Rev. Mr. Elder, had consulted with him on his theological views, and as a result presented the recommendation. It was unanimously indorsed and sent on to the general assembly.

Rev. T. H. Mitchell was given leave to moderate in a call to a minister in London West.

The assembly's fund on travelling expenses of commissioners was considered by a committee composed of Dr. Smith, Messrs. Millar, Currie and Geddes.

The following were elected to the general assembly: J. C. Robinson, T. H. Mitchell, D. Kelso, J. O. Stuart, J. K. McDonald, and W. L. Nichol. Elders will be elected from Knox Church, London; St. Andrew's, Thamesford; Wallaceburg, Hyde Park, Komoka, Dorchester, Crumlin, and Cooke's Church, Delaware.

Rev. J. P. Falconer, of Rodney, was appointed moderator for the next six months. The meeting was adjourned for dinner. It is being continued this afternoon.

JAMES VANCE WAS WELL KNOWN HERE

As Representative of Hamilton Bridge Company He Was in County Many Times.

James Armstrong Vance, whose death occurred in New Hamburg Saturday, was well-known to many Londoners, and also to residents of Middlesex County. He was the representative of the Hamilton Bridge Company, in charge of its high-way contracts, and superintended the construction of many county road bridges in this vicinity.

Only a week ago he was in London preparing for the building of the bridge over the Thames at the Wharncliffe road, and to those who met him on that occasion the news of his death came as a great shock, as he appeared to be in the best of health then.

County Engineer Charles Talbot was well acquainted with him. "He was a splendid fellow," he said. "He had been representing the Hamilton Bridge Company ever since I have been county engineer, and superintended the construction of a number of bridges in this county."

BLAMES COLD WEATHER FOR HIS APPEARANCE

"Lister" Sprung a New One in Police Court This Morning.

"Yesterday was a pretty cold day, your worship, so I went in and had a couple of whiskeys," pleaded James Kelly to Magistrate J. C. Judd in court today.

"Well, Kelly, you are on the Indian list, and it will be 10 or 21 days this time," responded Magistrate Judd. Kelly pleaded for a chance to get out of town, but Magistrate Judd had no course open but to fine or send Kelly down. Kelly spent the next 21 days a guest of the governor.

Three citizens were up for breach of the traffic bylaw, and enriched the court coffers $3.00.

One first-time drunk was allowed to depart with a warning that his next appearance would mean 21 days.

Nerves Are Sore and Painful

Neuralgia, or inflammation of the nerves, is the most painful of nervous ailments. You may feel the soreness or tenderness throughout the body, or it may be confined to certain nerves. In the head it is called neuralgia; in the hips, and legs, sciatica; in the face, tic douloureux, and in the chest, intercostal neuralgia.

The application of dry heat affords relief from the lance-like pains, but the essential thing is to build up the exhausted nervous system by the persistent use of such a restorative as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. You will have the benefit of the benefit being obtained by its use. This is Nature's way of curing diseases of the nerves, and it is the only way to obtain lasting benefit.

While this great food cure is instilling new vitality into the starved nerve cells it is also forming new, firm flesh and tissue, and, by noting your progress in weight, you can prove beyond doubt the benefit being obtained by its use. This is Nature's way of curing diseases of the nerves, and it is the only way to obtain lasting benefit.

Boys and girls can enjoy a Brownie Camera right from the start. Popular with grown-ups too. Prices $1.00 to $12.00. Prompt developing and finishing of films.

CITY BUSINESSMAN FACES DEATH AT SEA

Jose Gaste, Passenger on the Threatened Esperanza Off "The Keys."

THE WIRELESS USELESS

Giant Waves Hit Ocean Levianthan Staggering Blows, Causing Consternation.

"It was the most thrilling experience I ever had," said Jose Gaste, cigar manufacturer, of this city, in describing his return trip from Cuba, to the Advertiser, last night. "The waves crashed against the sides of the vessel, while the spray dashed over even the upper decks. Throughout a day and night the storm increased, and for more than 28 hours we were cut off from the world, our wireless operator being unable to 'pick up' on-shore stations or passing vessels. No one on board expected to set foot on dry land again."

Storm Isolates Boat.

Mr. Gaste was returning after a month's buying trip in Cuba, on the steamship Esperanza, from Havana to New York. When the vessel was off "The Keys," a storm broke, which completely isolated the vessel from all communication. At times the waves threatened to swamp the ship, and none of the passengers were able to sleep because of the tossing of the boat, and the fear that disaster might lie in the wake of every huge roller that swept toward the vessel.

"Through it all the captain never left the bridge," said Mr. Gaste. "His actions were the picture of a man who was not only looked after the safety of his vessel, but buoyed up the spirits of the passengers as well. For more than 48 hours we lay off 'The Keys,' and it was during that time that our wireless failed us. We were cut off from the world completely."

An 80-Mile Gale.

"The gale howled increased, until at one time a blow of 80 miles an hour was recorded. The waves swept the decks, drenching any of the passengers who had the courage to remain outside the cabins. We were 64 hours late when we sighted Sandy Hook. At the termination of the voyage a resolution was circulated for the signatures of the passengers, commending the bravery of captain and crew."

In speaking of the Mexican situation Mr. Gaste stated that the feeling seemed unanimous among the residents that Great Britain should be allowed to step in. Little sympathy was extended to the Americans, who were not regarded in a friendly light by the Mexicans.

Villa Capitalists' Tool.

"As near as I could gather," continued Mr. Gaste, "the general feeling was that Villa was being paid by American capitalists. The money market is tottering. The Mexican dollar at present is only worth one-fifth of its current value, or, in other words, 20 cents of American or Canadian money is equivalent to one dollar."

FUTURE REPUBLIC SOCIALISTIC STATE

John Cooper Powys Declares Human Race Will Be Vast Industrial Army.

SEES MONEY'S ABOLITION

Work Coupons Will Succeed It in Socialistic Utopia, Conjeered Up by Lecturer.

That the republic of the future will be a socialistic state with government by commission, the human race formed into a vast industrial army, and the unit in society composed not of a man and his wife and children, but entirely of the individual, were some of the conclusions arrived at, and convictions voiced by John Cooper Powys, M. A., in his lecture last night on "The Republic of the Future."

Mr. Powys reached this climax by asking his hearers to consider first the great world movements of the day, that there were these movements and continual changes politically, morally and socially, no one could deny. It had been the case since the world began.

"In history there have been great movements existing for a time; they have played great parts and then vanished completely, leaving, so far as one can see no trace on the future of the world. It is therefore quite conceivable that there are even now existing great moral, political and even revolutionary movements that will in time disappear and leave no trace," said Mr. Powys.

"So in discussing the republic of the future, we must consider what particular currents now existing are going to be master. Obviously, they are in embryo now, for nothing ever sprang out of the void all at once."

Religious Movements.

"Look abroad over the world. You see certain great religions—Christian, Buddhism, Mohammedanism, Confucianism and so on. A great many people realize that Christianity is not making the headway that they would have hoped. Is the coming into the world of the Buddhist, Mohammedan and all the rest so great and so rapid that we are compelled to think that within a limited space of time all the world will accept Christianity? I do not know," said Mr. Powys.

"But if it does happen to appear simultaneously among Christians, Mohammedans, Confucianists and Buddhists—among every conceivable kind of race the world over, in fact, a similar movement is this not what we are in search of? I do not see how anybody can deny that in every country in the world at present there are two forces at work. One is socialism, the other, individualism or philosophic anarchy."

Of these two, Mr. Powys, deemed socialism by far the greater influence, and averred that the socialistic ideal would govern the republic of the future, although philosophic anarchy might dominate later.

The tendency of the present age was commercialism, industrialism and competition. This latter phase of commercial life was rapidly becoming eliminated, however, by scientific organization. One by one certain "Napoleonic-Bismarckian" brains were taking up the threads of competition of trusts and becoming less and less.

"What is this pooling of capital and labor but socialism in the germ?" asked the speaker.

Experts in Finance.

In his ideal state with government by commission, Mr. Powys would have his commissioners experts in finance, who should each be in power for ten years. The representative system of government was strongly urged by the speaker. "Government by parties must come to an end; it is a most unsatisfactory thing, and has encouraged graft, recalcitancy, and meanness, and has hindered over and over again the will of the people."

Under the new system of things as foreseen by Mr. Powys, the republic of the future will be a great state department-store by presenting coupons stating the number of hours which he has worked. In this state there will be no chance for the "man higher up" to grind down the man lower down. The pinch that is felt by the unskilled laborer of today will be a thing unknown. "I would rather be a slave in the courts of Nero of old, than an unskilled laborer under present conditions," said Mr. Powys.

Woman's Standing.

Woman's standing in the new republic will be a much more important one than is at present the case, according to Mr. Powys. A husband will not dare beat his wife, because she will be considered as a distinctive unit by the state, and as such receive the state's protection. "A mother and wife will be united—no dependent upon the man. For every child born into the world the mother will receive a stated sum from the government, and this will render her independent."

With a vision of free theaters, free music of the best kind, free picture galleries, and plenty of leisure for the human race, Mr. Powys concluded his picture of the Republic of the Future.
