The Offertory in January has fallen short of what is required to meet expenditures. We hope that the members of the congregation will take care that the coming month shall show an improvement in this respect.

A massive table of bygone style, once valuable and capable of being made valuable again, has been given for the use of the A.Y.P.A., and placed in the Boys' choir room.

Also a large framed lithograph of the interior of Gloucester Cathedral as it was in the early part of the last century, has been given to be hung up in the Crypt; and a print finely executed in colours of Holman Hunt's picture "The Light of the World" has been given for the same purpose.

The Rev. Charles H. Brooks of Grafton has given to the Diocesan Library several folio volumes, including files for some years, of The Church, a Church paper published about seventy years ago.

Fourteen of the Scholars of the Cathedral Sunday School wrote in the Inter-Diocesan Examination for 1907, and of these eleven received prizes and certificates in the first class, as follows: The Gold Medal, Beatrice Lean; Prizes, Harriet Sarge and Edith Harvard; First Class Certificates, Marjory Evans, Gladys Banks, Frank Lean, John Sneath, Vivienne Ricketts, Annie Russell, Florence Stephenson, Etta Houghton. As compared with the Diocese as a whole, our Sunday School comes out easily first; St. Stephen's comes next with two prizes and four first class and four second Certificates.

The following is a list of the Donors to the M.S.C.C. annual Collection for 1907.

R. Farthing	Mrs. Sweatman

The total amount being $350.70.

The members of the Girls' Auxiliary have in hand a very attractive stage Entertainment which they purpose giving in the Crypt later on in the month. We hope it will be well patronized, as the Girls need funds for their mission work.

The Altar Guild has received from Canon Macnab a very prettily designed card to send with flowers from the Altar to sick people.

On the 22nd ult. under the auspices of the Cathedral Sunday School, there was given in the Crypt the Cantata of "Old Mother Hubbard". A large and appreciative audience filled the room. The character and the infirmities of the historic old dame were well represented by Miss Gladys Sweatman, and the Fairy Queen in the play was also ably sustained by Miss Gladys Banks. Several well known Plantation Songs were illustrated in a very pretty manner, and Lionel Amsden as a Nigger was most entertaining. The Recitations of Miss Grace Wood and J. M. Stinson were heartily applauded. The organization and direction of the Cantata were ably carried out by Mr. J. M. Stinson of Parkdale assisted by Miss Gladys Banks. The proceeds go to the S.S. Children's Pier fund.

On Monday February 3rd, the Cathedral branch of the A.Y.P.A., will hold a Social Evening with Music and light Refreshments in the Crypt. Members of the Congregation and their friends are cordially invited.

Anybody in the Congregation wishing to use the Sunday Offertory Envelopes (the best known system of contributing to Church support) may have the entire outfit of Calendar and Envelopes by applying to Canon Macnab or any of the Sidesmen.
