This gambling with dead men's bones may be but to the travellers it suggests apprehensions too often fatally verified. If the Federal Government every man will be at his post, as it is very probbe content to tolerate the evil, the State Govern- able that the excellent Band of the XXth will be ments can apply a remedy, by imposing such taxes on the field, the greater will be the inducement er-box boats as will force the builders consult rather the public safety than their own rience from the calamities which occur almost within view of our shores, and adopt such precautions as will remove the probability of their recurrence on the Canada waters. Paint should be employed, which checks and resists the action of fire, and iron should enter more freely into the construction of the beats. No skill, no precaution can ward off such scenes as the Griffith presented ble paint, curtains, and light drapery carry the fire, like a train of gunpowder, over the crisp pine scantling of the upper decks, courage stion are of no avail, and the promptings of humanity consign the generous-hearted to certain death. It is in the advocacy of such reforms that the Press finds the legitimate exercise of its nfluence and power; and it is a consolation to learn that the leading journals in New York have demanded at the hands of their Government those nary enactments which can alone effectuunteract the tendencies of personal avarice.

We copy the following paragraph from the Toronto Patriot. It would have been more satisfactory had that paper informed us exactly what the alteration is; as it is, we can only conjecture that the Orangemen participate to a great degree in the disentisfaction that pervades the whole Province; they cannot, more than other classes of ity, be contented to see the people the community, be contented to see the people virtually deprived of all share in their own Govwitness the disgusting tyranny of the clique of Officials, manifested even within the walls of Parliament, in attempts, continually repeated, to prevent freedom of discussion; they cannot but be indignant at the reckless waste of the public money, squandered in enormous salaries, and in the payment of large sums for purposes which are on the face of them improved and water. ernment; it can be with no pleasure that they are on the face of them immoral and unjust:
neither can they shut their eyes to the naked fact that Canada does not proceed at an equal rate in the march of improvement and prosperity with its Republican neighbor. We conclude, therefore, having no other information on the subject, that the alteration spoken of by the Patriot has reference to the connection of Canada with England. Alluding to the recent Convention of the chief men of the Orange Society at Hamilton, the Patriot says:

"We have, however, received a hint of what we consider as one of the most greguant and momentous signs of the times, and of the immersible and unnitural tendency of affairs which has been caused by gross miscovernment in this audits of the Canada of the content of the Canada of the content of the

Those who have had the misfortune to be joited over a cordaroy road in some Upper Canada swamp, may enjoy a repetition of the exercise in thiest streets. Mud ruts are telerable, stones may be avoided; but no vehicle can pass over St. James' Street, Great or Little, can pass over St. James' Street, Great or Little, or Notre Dame Street, without proving that the Corporation could not device a more abominable material for a road than the pointed blocks of wood, with the hollows which surround them. As we are informed that the majority of the Corporation are not carriage-makers, it is to be hoped that they will root up the unsightly and dangerous blocks, aren't fee authoritate he supplied. The abop-hospers, who contribute so largely to the Assessment Funds, may reasonably complain of a naisance which interferes with the ordinary loss.

If some of the steamers on the Western waters were to advertise "fresh roasted emigrants," instead of cheap fares, they would but too faithfully tell the truth. It appears perfectly monatrous, that, year after year, a Government like the United States, which is so realous for the dignity and honer of the American name abroad, should suffer tindershoxes like the Grifith to earry the American flag at home, and lure American citizen to a violent and cydel death, in order that a few speculating stesimboat proprietors may divide large dividends. The Grifith was one of those boats decked out with materials which made her as inflammable as gunpowder; consequently a slight for beaking out soon bested the efforts of those on board to suppress it, and the result was, that two hundred and fifty travellers were half roasted.

A Fire broke out yesterday morning, (Thursday,) at the hour of four, in Mr. McConkey's Confectionary Store, Notre Dame Stree the inside; the roof, however, and upper purt of the hou escaped. The exact origin we have not ascertained.

We are informed that the residence of Mr. Dc-Lery, at St. Marie, Nouvelle Beauce, was struck by highing on Sunday evening last, and that Mr. DeLery very narrowly escaped death. The light-ning came down the chimney, and smashed a sofa-from which he had just risen-to pieces.— Quebec Chronicle.

GREAT PIRE IN SAN PRANCISCO. On Saturday morning, thinst, the whole population of the city were aroused by the city of size. The United States on Portamouth Square, was on fire, and by the time the people were out of bad and in the streets, the Sames had spread to the adolning buildings on situer side. There was but it is air storing, yet, from the extremely combustible nature of the buildings, the fire apread to the El Dorado on one side, and Delmostor's on the other, before people had time to collect their scattered senses. Strong efforts were made here to prevent further ravages, but in value. The Verandah, opposite the El Dorado, was soon wrapt, in fames, thence spreading along Kearny and Washington Streets.

dah, opposite the El Dorado, was soon wrapt, in fames, thence spreading along Kostny and Washington Streets.

At the same time the fire was spreading with equal force down Clay Street, house after house talling almost as soon as the famres touched it, till finally every building but two in the entire block, lying between Clay and Washington, and Kesrny to Montgomery Streets, were destroyed.

In the meantime, destruction, squally as great and rapid, was going on along Kesrny and that portion of Washington Streets opposite the Squars. Finding that the only method of staying the destroying elements in that direction, was in taking away its food, every house on Bupont Street, from Washington to Jackson, was ten down. On the block not a single building is left standing.

The block below this, towards the Bay, fared but little better; saves housewally are left. Thus it will be seen, that the very heart of San Francisco is burned out. Upon the three several blocks mentioned but aims buildings are left standing.—

FROM ORXGON.—We have dates from Oregon City up to the 18th of April. The farmers throughout the Territory are actively engaged in putting in crops. The amount of grain in the ground is said to be about twice as great as it was last year. A difficulty occurred near Fort Vancouver, on the 5th May, between a Mr. Short and Dr. David Gardner, in relation to a land claim, which resulted Mr. Boulton dwelt on the bad effects of night salaries in creating a feeling of dependence in those who receive them, in attracting the youth of the country from their proper pursuits, creating an artificial aristocracy, and engendering habits of extravagance amongst a part of the population. To show the good effects of the superior educaction of the masses in the United States, Mr. Boulton exhibited two new hammers and then the work of the superior education of the masses in the United States, Mr. Boulton exhibited two new hammers and then the superior education of the masses in the United States, Mr. Boulton exhibited two new hammers and then the superior education of the masses in the United States, Mr. Boulton exhibited two new hammers and then the superior education of the masses in the United States, Mr. Boulton exhibited two new hammers and then the superior education of the superio two adgress, respectively of English and American manufacture, which excusably created a good deal of merriment. Not that there was anything ridiculous in the comparison—far from it; but the novelty of the thing was striking. Mr. Boulton contended strongly for the superiority of the American over the English articles—attributing the difference to a superiority in those institutions which insure to the mechanic a sound education.

Mr. Sherwood (of Toronto) utterly repudiated the sentiments contained in the Resolutions, though, as he stated on a previous occasion, he was willing to go the length of making the Legislative Council elective.

Mr. Papineau censured Mr. Robinson for officiously steeping forward, when, by the Constitutional control of the constitution of the constitution lative Council elective.

Mr. Papineau censured Mr. Robinson for officiously stepping forward, when, by the Constitution, the Ministry are the proper defenders of the prerogative. He said, the Ministry could not, with any regard to consistency or self-respect, continue, day after day, to oppose proposals of this nature, on the pretext that they are not shaped as they ought to be, as they did not assume them and shape them to their liking. He thought the greatest fault of the Resolutions was, that they gave too much power to the Executive and to England. They proposed to leave to England the power to appoint our Governors, not because it was right and good, but because we have been trained to bear the misfortane, the disgrace, and the disadvantage of having Governors appointed by England. If the Ministry desired to, secure necessary changes in the Constitution, they would, before now, have proposed some definite scheme for that object; but all they had done was simply to oppose every sensible proposition that had been made. He contended, that in every respect the present Constitution is worse than that of 1791. It was a mass of usurpations, with a false system of representation. No honest man, he contended, would have taken office inless on the stipulation that the required changes in the Constitution should be made. He denounced the Ministry as destitute of moral courage, and condemned them for refusing to conciliate influential men, during the troubles in Montreal, because they wished to shed innocent blood.

This brought of the propose Mr. La-refusing to conciliate influential men, during the troubles in Montreal, because they wished to shed in mocean blood.

This brought on a skirmish between Mr. Lafontaine and Mr. Papineau.

The former replied with a good deal of warmth, and was sufficiently personal in his remarks; more so than was at all decorous in a Minister of the Crown. He retorted upon Mr. Papineau the charge of a want of moral—and added of physical—courage. He also charged Mr. Papineau with gross inconsistency, and read that gentleman's sulogy on George III., at the death of that Monarch. Having called upon Mr. Papineau with gross inconsistency, and read that gentleman's sulogy on George III., at the death of that Monarch. Having called upon Mr. Papineau to prove the assertion that the Ministry were desirous of shedding innocent blood in Montreal, the latter replied that he mean by this statement that the Member for Montreal had refused to obtain the assistance of the Members for Hamilton, Huron, and the County of Sherbesole, to take measures to allay the disturbance. Mr. Lafontaine then charged Mr. Papineau with insincerity and being actuated by spits, and savernal other failings of that class; citing as panel, that Mr. Papineau now complained of the Constitution, because the quotum of the House is composed of a minority; though he sat in the House in Lower Canada from 1807 to 1831, where the same rule existed, without proposing any change. SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—A canal-boat, which was being towed up the shore on the Canada side of the Niagara River, a short distance above Chippewa, on Friday week, the 14th inst., broke loose by some accident, and floated down towards the Falls. There were several passengers on board, who were extricated with great exertions by the Chippewa people: but the boat, baggage and all, continued on its way down the rapids. Strange to say, it kept on its course unhurt, amil rocks and breakers, which no other boat ever out-lived, and arrived at the very edge of the Horse-shoe Fall, when, apparently not liking the leap before it, it suddenly turned out of the current and ran on a huge rock about sixty yards from the shore, where it now remains, an object of great interest to the curious, and of capi tity to some gentlemen from the neighboring Republic, who have been contriving ways and means to rescue the property on bear, to be appropriated to their own especial use and behoof. When I commenced taking them, I had at the point of death, with Dropsy, Piles, and Asthlife. When I commenced taking them, I taid at the point of death, with Dropsy Piles, and Asthma. My Physicians had given me over as past cure, and my family had lost all hope of my recovery. While it his deadful situation, your Forest Wine and Pills were procured for me, and belore I han finished the first bottle of the Wine, and box of Pills, I experienced great relief; my body and limbs, which were greatly swollen, became sensibly reduced. Hopes of my recovery began now to revive, and after continuing the use of your medicines for about a mouth, the Files and Asthma were completely cured. The Bropsy, with which my life was placed in such great danger, was also nearly gone. I have continued the use of your Medicines until the present time, and I now enjoy as perfect health as ever 1. my life, although I am more than sixty year. age. I ascribe my recovery entirely to the use of your excellent Medicines. Several of my neighbors have also used them with similar success in obstinate complaints, and I can cheerfully recommend them to the public.
