TO EARL GREY: GREETING.

The people of Victoria and vicinity will join with one voice in welcoming their Excellencies the Governor-General and Countess Grey...

While Victoria is a Canadian city in the best sense of the word, it is also a British city to a degree reached by few other places in Canada...

It is true that if we pay strict attention to the way in which the Canadians run, there are more westerly points in Canada than this city...

Whether President Hill of the Great Northern Railway was a little optimistic when he said a few years ago that the development of the Pacific coast had been so great...

Earl Grey will find in Victoria a people who are not only very hopeful of the future of their city...

THE QUESTION OF BETTER TERMS.

We referred Thursday morning in a general way to the question of Better Terms for the provinces...

For the progress which has been made up to the present, British Columbia is entitled to a reputation...

A good deal has been said about the contributions from the province to the Dominion for which there has not been an adequate return...

The grounds upon which this province demands special consideration are the mountainous character of its territory...

THE PRICE BRITISH COLUMBIA PAID.

Yesterday we dealt with some of the general principles of the question of Better Terms...

As we stated yesterday, there is no contention to be advanced that there has been violation of the Terms of Union...

This is not, as has been remarked, a party question or a question which has been raised by the government in power...

What makes the case of British Columbia, and of all the provinces, much stronger are the very liberal terms granted to the new provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan...

to accept—either the new provinces have not generally dealt with, or the older provinces are entitled to much better treatment than they are receiving...

Nothing more was done, and the further protests of the province against delay brought out Lord Dufferin as peacemaker in 1876...

Reference is made to the Settlement Act, under which the E. & N. Railway was built by a joint arrangement between the province and the Dominion government...

It is a strong argument in their favor that the Dominion government has not been able to carry out its obligations...

Just what it cost British Columbia to build the railway, which should have been built without cost to the province...

A DELICATE SITUATION.

A despatch has been received from the north stating that the anticipated settlement with the Babine Indians has not been reached...

Commercial, Plummer and Gregg, Shorthand, Telegraph, Typewriter, and all standard makes of machines...

from Esquimalt to Nanaimo on the Island of Vancouver. Although the Senate refused to ratify the terms...

EARL GREY'S VISIT. Judging by his reply to the address presented by His Worship, the Mayor, yesterday Earl Grey was deeply impressed with his western trip...

After the accession of Sir John Macdonald to power in 1873, that statesman set himself earnestly to work to solve the problem for the creation of which he, more than any other person, was responsible...

Reference is made to the grant of 2,500,000 acres in the Peace River country to the Dominion in lieu of a cash subsidy of $750,000 towards the construction of the E. & N. Railway...

himself suggested that it might be advisable, as a means of protection to the interests of Americans, as well as for the maintenance of order in general, to land marines at some convenient point, suggesting the Plaza de Armas as the place. U. S. INTERVENTION IN CUBA. New York, Sept. 14.—A London despatch in the Sun says that the news of the landing of American marines at Havana confirms the opinion held at the British capital that American intervention in Cuba cannot be long delayed.

Either the Americans must tolerate anarchy in Cuba or exercise an effective protectorate. President Roosevelt would doubtless act promptly and vigorously, if he did not have to think of the election campaign.

(Continued from Last Sunday) Her eyes traveled first to anxiety, then with relief Mayenne, sitting over jewels; last, to Lucas, with satirical. She advanced without hesitation.

"I am come, monsieur, to fetter to supper." "Fardieu, Lorraine!" Mayenne claimed, "you show me a difference from that of dinner-time." Indeed she did, for her eyes were shining excitement, while the color of Etienne had faded into them.

"If I do," she made quick an "it is because, the more I think the surer I grow that my loving will not break my heart." "I want a word with you, Lorraine," said quietly. "As many as you like, monsieur," replied promptly. "But will you send these creatures from the first?"

"Do you include your cousin Paul that term?" "I meant these jewels. But you suggest it, perhaps it would well for Paul to go." "You hear your orders, Paul," she returned. "Mademoiselle, I talk much joy in your presence to be going to leave it." "Monsieur," she said to the duke, "nor my cousin Paul with a cool head, must have made you see you not diminish your tradesmen. When we talk comfortably."

"Yes," answered Mayenne. "I am as more radiant than Paul. I command it, out they go, though I not half time to look their wares. Here, master jeweler, he address his Etienne, signing promises, his pack up your wares and depart. M. Etienne, bursting into his thanks to his Highness for his consideration, he turned to the duke set about packing. Mayenne turned his lovely countenance.

"Now for my word to you, made sell. You went so last night, it impossible to discuss the subject. But now I rejoice to see more tranquil. Here is the begin and the middle and the end of the year; your marriage is my affair, a steady look her color slowly died. Etienne, whether by accident or sign, knocked his tray of jewels on the table. M. Etienne, because you he dropped on, his knees to grope them. Neither of the men heeded, but kept their eyes steadily on the duke. "Mademoiselle, Mayenne delirium went on. "I have been over-whelmed. I had followed my own interests instead of bowing to your wishes. I have indulged you, mademoiselle, because you were my ally. My daughter, because you came to the north orphan, because you were little cousin, whose baby mouth I had. I have let you cavil at this and that, but that you was one too and one too short, and a third too and a fourth too, and I have been patient to let you cajole me, I am at the end of my patience."

"Monsieur," she cried, "I never mean to abuse your goodness. You let cajole you, as you say, else I could have done it. You treated my wish as a jest. You let me aim them. You let me know that I have done it. I have always done your will." "Then do it now, mademoiselle, faithful to me and to your birth. Ceasing for the moment to discuss the subject, she said, "when you brought him to me, he was not enemy of our house. When he came here day after day, season after season, he was not my enemy. He was not that letter, at Paul's dictation, I not know he was our enemy. You me that night that I was not for her, but for you. You let me know she came here to me and implore me with him, I would send him away. Mayenne little imagined how true she was up to be wed. You say to you self that much may happen in three months. So it may. Therefore your bridegroom be at hand tomorrow morning. He will not come here again. He gives it up, monsieur—he he himself out of Paris. I promise you is over. He gives me up." SOMEONE ACTED RATHER HASTILY

In Landing Armed United States Sailors at Havana, According to Report

RESULTANT BACKDOWN EVENTUATES

By Their Equally Hasty Withdrawal Having Been Unauthorized.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The sailors landed from the cruiser Denver at Havana have been ordered to return immediately to the vessel, save for a small guard for the American legation. The landing was not made under instructions from Washington, and the recall of the marines was announced here tonight.

Mr. Sleeper Gets Orders

Havana, Sept. 14.—Mr. Sleeper, the American charge d'affaires, has received a cable from the state department at Washington directing him to request the withdrawal of the armed sailors who were landed last night from the United States cruiser Denver. This he did in a note to Commander Colwell. At half past nine o'clock Commander Colwell called and after visiting the legation went to the police where he conferred with President Palma. As a result the force of sailors is about to be withdrawn.

How It is Explained

Washington, D. C., Sept. 14.—Cuba is the sole topic in official Washington which is dealing with the disturbed situation in the island republic. The policy of the government is shown in the order to withdraw from Havana all forces save the small guard which is maintained in the American legation and which remains as a legation guard. Strict neutrality between the warring factions but with every possible precaution to protect the property of the United States is the policy of the United States. The navy is ready and prepared to furnish such force as may be necessary to carry out this policy. If the ships already in Cuban waters are not sufficient, others will be despatched.

Indirect Blame for Mr. Sleeper

The withdrawal of nearly the entire force landed by Commander Colwell on orders from Washington has caused considerable comment but it is asserted that no reflection on the officers is involved. Under the instructions received when he departed for Cuba, he was to put his force at the disposal of the state department authority in Cuba, which was vested in the person of Mr. Sleeper and his actions in landing a force was at the latter's request.

BEAUTIFUL KASLO.

A Rival of Victoria Discovered in the Kootenay Country.

F. E. Simpson, of the Cranbrook Herald, who is on a political and business tour of southeastern British Columbia, has the following description of Kaslo in his paper:

Have you ever seen Kaslo? It is without doubt one of the finest looking cities in British Columbia. New Denver is really its only rival, but the wide creek bottom, that makes New Denver on one side robe it of much beauty. But Kaslo is beautiful at long range, and more beautiful at closer inspection. It lies on a point in the Kootenay Lake, with a magnificent beach and a pleasing cool wind that robs the summer heat of all its terror. Too many people in this country have not visited Kaslo, and consequently have not had an opportunity to know the town and its people. And speaking of its people, there is not a town in all of the province that has a better bunch. That is where the Hon. Robert Green was discovered, and that is where John Keen, Arthur Goodenough, Mr. Mann, one of the best lawyers in British Columbia, J. L. Retalack, W. V. Papworth and a host of other good fellows reside. And this year Kaslo is going to be a fair, and people who are desirous of ascertaining where good fruit can be grown should be sure to visit that fair. That is an ideal climate for fruit-raising, and men who are wise enough to secure lands in that district, at the present prices, are laying the foundation for big fortunes. You have time, by going to visit that fair. You will get information that in the future may prove invaluable to you.

FALSE PASSPORT BUREAU.

Moscow, Sept. 13.—Following the recent capture by agents of the secret police of Vladimir Maury, the leader of the Moscow section of the "Flying group," the police have taken into custody ten other members of the organization—eight here and two in southern Russia. All were concerned in the bank robberies committed here last March by Belenkov, and several are alleged to have taken part in the general slaughter of policemen in Poland as invited guests of their Polish allies.

The police have discovered a false passport bureau, provided with official blanks and seals stolen in the Baltic provinces and elsewhere. Many of the false passports are in circulation.

ORDERS TO ARTILLERYMEN.

New Orleans, Sept. 14.—It is reported that the artillerymen at Forts Philip and Jackson, on the Mississippi River below New Orleans, have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness for movement to there to two companies of artillery in these forts.

AN APPEARANCE OF BUSINESS.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Apparently in conformity with plans put in execution several days ago, the United States navy department is quietly preparing several other vessels to join those already ordered to Cuba. Common prudence has obliged the military and naval general staff and board to provide against any eventuality. While the navy is preparing its ships, the army is being carefully studied by the responsible ranking officers, with a view to quick sharp and effective action in case its services are needed.

A SEATTLE BULLY PUNISHED.

Limit Given Him for Assault, Vulgarity and Resisting Officer.

E. E. Caine, an alleged captain, was yesterday fined $100 and costs in Justice P. V. Davis' court upon conviction of a charge of assault and battery on the person of Adolph Hammer, whom the defendant had run down with his automobile. The Post-Intelligencer, Walter Fulton, attorney for Capt. Caine, at once gave notice of an appeal of the conviction to the superior court. Capt. Caine was not present in the court room during the trial, but a certificate signed by his physician to the effect that he was unable to attend, was produced. He made to the trial taking place at the time, however, by the attorney.

In stating his conclusions Justice Davis said:

"This assault appears to me to have been the most vulgar that has come under my notice for some time and I feel that my limit of punishment is too small to punish this defendant as he should be."

Caine, after running down his victim, treated him in a shamefully vulgar and brutal manner and threatened the same conduct to a police officer, who was, however, too much for him.

HAGUE PEACE CONFERENCE.

Second Meeting to Take Place Next May or June.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Although the date has not yet been definitely fixed, the second meeting of the Hague Peace Conference will probably be held next May or June, according to Dr. David Hill, minister to the Netherlands, who is now in Washington on a special mission.

The postponement of this important gathering, at first regretted by everyone interested in the encouragement of the great principle of the settlement of international disputes by arbitration, is now believed by the officials here to have been very fortunate. In the first place, several events of importance have taken place raising issues which it will not be possible to bring before the Hague conference, some of these indeed being superior in interest and importance to the topics that were suggested for consideration in the first tentative Russian programme. In the second place, as a result of Secretary Root's speech at the conference held here last week, it is probable that nearly all of the governments of that continent will be represented at the second conference, which was not at all certain had the conference been held when originally proposed. The representation will thus be increased by 30 nations to about 45.

As between Port Hope and Trenton for the outlet of the Trent canal at Lake Ontario it is said that Trenton has been decided upon.

Mr. Todd is well known in both Canada and the United States, being the organizer of the Cigar-makers' International Union, and by his connections with the Canadian Trade Labor party. He is to come to the city as a delegate to the 22nd session of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, which will shortly be held in this city and represents the Cigar-makers' International Union.

MEXICANS AGAINST AMERICANS.

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 13.—The Times today publishes a report that the American railroad colony of Agua Calientes is under military guard and that several hundred Mexican workmen to drive out Americans and burn the railroad shops. Many shots were fired promiscuously Sunday and Monday, and the article further states that a woman who formerly resided here has written a letter from Agua Calientes that Americans there are very much alarmed, and many are leaving.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 13.—The grand jury today returned indictments against the directors of the Bank of America, State bank, of which Paul O. Stensland was president. The indictments charge embezzlement and name various amounts from $10,000 to $50,000. Frank Crane, Joseph Lester, Eloy Johnston, M. Kirby are the directors. Additional indictments were returned against Stensland and Henry W. Herring, the former cashier of the bank.

FRIENDLY RELATIONS SEVERED.

San Bernardino, Cal., Sept. 14.—Out on the desert at the little town of Manvel, where 30 Cocopah and 75 Piute Indians comprise the larger part of the population, a feast of the old fighting spirit has shown, and the tribal relations of the two branches have been rudely shaken. John Cocopah, chief of his tribe, was shot last night by John Snyder, who enjoys the title of chief of the Piutes. Chief Snyder is being chased over the desert by fifty Cocopah braves, who swear vengeance. In turn the Cocopahs are being followed by Piute warriors, who say they will protect Chief Snyder at the risk of their lives. The miniature warfare has awakened the "blanket" Indians as nothing has for a long time.

ENGLISH WORKMAN WELL OFF.

Gets Forty Per Cent. More For His Labor Than His American Brother.

London, Sept. 14.—The workman is better off in England than in America. That is the assertion made by Bart Kennedy, a well-known writer. No serious analysis of conditions in both countries has ever appeared here. Kennedy has just returned from a long trip in America, where he once worked as a laborer.

Too long, he says, has America run the bluff that it is the finest and most country under the sun to live in. The time, he says, is coming at last when the truth is beginning to be revealed and the statements of Secretary Shaw and his crowd of boasters will be exposed. When everything is reckoned up, Kennedy maintains, the working-man here gets 40 per cent more for his labor than in America. He points out, too, that in America there is no law of laborers' compensation for injury, such as exists in England.

GOING TO THE SCENE OF WAR.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 14.—It is officially announced that Secretary of War Taft will leave Washington for Cuba on Sunday, Sept. 17. He will be accompanied by Robert Bacon, assistant secretary of state. They will go to Key West and leave at once for Havana on board a naval vessel.

Thirty-three companies were represented at the organization meeting. The objects of the association are to promote mutual interests, to extend the extent of watching legislation.

ROSSLANDERS ENTERTAIN

The Members of the Visiting Spokane Chamber of Commerce.

Rossland, B. C., Sept. 14.—The Spokane Chamber of Commerce today arrived here. The four long coaches were awkward to handle on the sharp curves in the vicinity of the Big Four and this caused some delay. The members to the number of 123, were escorted to the Hotel Washington, in Hoffman and Watson hotels. After breakfast some strolled around town, some visited the works of the mines, while a majority descended into the mines, going down into the deeper levels of the mine to the surface specimens of ore. At one o'clock luncheon was served in the Armory where covers were laid for 205.

The Labor party of the city, in the absence of His Worship P. McDonald, held a meeting at 3 o'clock the party trained for Northport. As the train moved out, three times three cheers were given for the city of Washington, the city of Rossland and the city of Northport.

WONDERFUL PREPARATIONS.

Looks as if the United States Were About to Conquer a Continent.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 14.—It appears that within a short time an effective fleet of eight naval vessels will surround Cuba, and they will be manned by marine contingents, making good a deficiency in the present equipment of the Denver. In addition to the Denver, the Newhaven and Des Moines already are cruising the Florida Straits.

The interrupted telegraph lines make it difficult for her to report. The Dixie, with 300 marines aboard, is making all haste from Guantanamo for the Cuban capital, while in the home ports the Tacoma is about to sail for Cuba from Norfolk, to be followed tomorrow by the Oregon and the Newark at the same port, and the Oregon will have more, are taking on stores with all speed under preparatory orders and will be ready to sail when the starting gun is fired. The Oregon will have more, while the marine corps is in perfect readiness, and expects to be able to place two thousand marines aboard ship at a few hours' notice, most of the men being new by League Island, New York and Norfolk.

FORESTERS' ORDER UNDER FIRE.

Dr. Oronhyatka Gives Interesting Information on Its Operations.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 14.—Insurance commission yesterday afternoon examined officials of the Independent Order of Foresters. Dr. Oronhyatka gave in detail the various sources from which the Supreme court derived its funds. He stated that the revision of the constitution, which went into effect in 1899 was made on a basis of expectation of the life of members. The revenues were banked as soon as received. The general fund was composed of the extension of the order tax, charity fees, registration fees and profits from sale of supplies. The Supreme Court Chief said that owing to the rapid extension of the Order into other provinces and into the United States under its Ontario incorporation, they were advised to obtain Dominion incorporation. They had nothing to invest for which they were not secured in securities, but were authorized by the Ontario act, but Dominion legislation is sought because of the prestige which it would give the Order. The jurisdiction of the International Typographical Union, but most severely by the old law, but companies on the ground of the inadequacy of the rates charged by the Order.

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION WINS BIG STRIKE

Only 4,500 Men Now Out With a Total Membership of 48,480

(Contributed)

One of the most remarkable strikes in the history of organized labor, and probably one of the most bitterly fought contests between capital and labor—the fight for the establishment of an eight-hour workday in the printing trades throughout the United States and Canada, is now nearing its end. Although there are 4,500 men still on the strike pay roll, this does not give a true idea of the real state of affairs, as there are as many union printers now employed as there were before the strike was inaugurated only a few of the large centers are still putting up a feeble resistance. It is only a question of time before the Typographical Union will have more of its members working than before the inception of the fight, as they have made big gains which more than offset any losses which they otherwise might have suffered. Over $2,000,000 has already been expended by the Union alone, and they claim to stand ready to spend more if necessary, as on the absolute victory of the Typographical Union depends the eight-hour question of other crafts throughout the entire continent of North America.

The following extract is taken from the International Typographical Union Journal, the official organ of the International Typographical Union:

An Eight-Hour Jubilee

"The Colorado Springs convention of the International Typographical Union was the greatest event in the history of the organization. It was as much in the nature of a jubilee as a business session, although a great amount of business was done. There was not a discordant voice raised at any time during the session in opposition to the eight-hour movement. On the contrary, every proposition relating to the conduct and continuance of the fight was unanimously endorsed."

10 Per Cent. Reduced

"In accordance with the action of the convention, the eight-hour assessment will be reduced to 8 per cent on October 1st. Beginning with that date all assessments collected under authority of the International Typographical Union must be sent to the International Typographical Union, and will be disbursed at the direction of the executive council. The eight-hour day has been established throughout the entire continent of North America. There are some 4,500 members affected by the strike who must be cared for until they find employment. The International Typographical Union has placed where the normal number of members are working. This will enable the officers to conduct a more energetic and effective campaign in cities where opposition is still encountered, but may necessitate the continuance of an assessment for some time, as the full force and strength of the International Typographical Union will be directed against those who are still opposing the eight-hour day and the union shop."

CUBAN CONGRESS IN SESSION.

With Less Than a Quorum, in Special Sitting, Funds Are Voted.

Havana, Sept. 13.—The extra session of congress called by President Palma completed at one sitting the business for which it was summoned, namely, the granting to President Palma of the fullest powers not already constitutionally possessed by the executive for carrying on the war, including the right to appropriate any public lands for war purposes, revoking appropriations voted at the preceding session of congress in order to permit the diversion of the moneys involved to prosecute the conduct of the war, and the raising of rural guards to 10,000 and the artillery to 2,000.

This troubles the former force of rural guards and doubles the artillery. These measures, which were combined in one blanket bill, were passed by party votes, the Liberals and Independents refraining from voting and the Liberal Nationalists voting with the Moderates.

President Palma submitted a brief message, principally devoted to denouncing the conduct of the opposition, whom he charged with the responsibility of causing the rebellion. The message contained no recommendations beyond suggestions that congress approve all recent executive decrees and take such steps as may be deemed advisable for ending the war.

When the senate assembled, it was one short of the necessary two-thirds for a quorum. After the message and blanket bill had been considered, Senator Reelo, Liberal, and Senator Sanguily, Independent, called attention to this, disclaiming any intention of obstructing congress during a grave situation, but insisting that the discrepancy be made a matter of record.

Senator Estrovo Corroaso asserted that in an extraordinary session a quorum was not necessary, and this view was affirmed by a party vote.

In the eventuality of representatives only 40 were present—two less than the legal opening quorum. The senate bill passed the house by a party vote, and by a party vote also, a resolution of confidence in President Palma was adopted.

Havana, Sept. 15.—General Rodriguez with a force of 1000 men encountered General Castillo and General Asbott with forces of about the same number last night near Waiaj.

The government claims the insurgents were dispersed, while rebel and other accounts say the government forces were driven back and retreated.

Gen. Rodriguez returned to Havana during the night and his troops are encamped a short distance outside of the city. The government lost three killed and several wounded. The insurgent loss is unknown.

ROCK ISLAND TRAIN WRECK

A Number of Passengers Yet to be Accounted For.

Guthrie, Okla., Sept. 18.—Eighty sons are dead, twenty more are injured and as many more missing as a result of the wrecking of a Rock Island passenger train three miles from Guthrie, Okla., at 8:30 o'clock this morning. The engine, tender, baggage and mail smoking car and day coach of passenger train No. 12, northbound, left high bridge that spans the Cimarron river and plunged into the stream where it is flanked by treacherous quicksands. The locomotive disappeared almost immediately, and the baggage car escaped from their cars and was stranded on the shore. The accident was due to driftwood piled against the bridge which swayed it out of line.

The train was an hour late and was running at high speed. The engineer did not see the condition of the bridge and was within a few yards of it when it collapsed. The train was on the verge of the river and escaped unhurt. The fireman sustained severe injuries.

When the engine struck the bridge the structure collapsed, precipitating the engine, smoking car and tender into the water. Two Pullman coaches on the track. The day coach loosed against a sand bank and the occupant were helped out through the doors. The smoking car floated on sand bar and four men were seen clamber through the windows and themselves on top of the car calling for help. Those on shore were unable to reach them on account of the water and while they were begging assistance a mass of driftwood was driven against the train.

The most authentic account of the number of passengers in the wrecking car at between 25 and 30. A few exceptions they have not been counted.

One man was found and fished out of the river at Cashion, twenty miles from Guthrie. The injured were hurried to Kingfisher, where the accident occurred. Their homes into temporary dwellings.

DIGGING FOR ANCIENT HISTORY.

Some Very Interesting Relics and Data Discovered in Palestine.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 15.—Excavations in the ancient city of Gezer, mentioned in early sacred and profane history carried on by members of the Palestine exploration fund for the last three years, have developed numerous discoveries, according to advices from Jerusalem published in the September number of the Biblical World, issued from the University of Chicago press yesterday.

Eighty ditches have been found superimposed upon each other on the side of the old defence to the Western road to Jerusalem. The culture history and religious life of the country during the last 3,500 years have been revealed by architecture, jugs, weapons, masonry, etc. E. W. G. Masterman, a member of the excavating party, writes as follows: "The inhabitants lived in caves and used their weapons and instruments of flint. In the middle period bronze is the only metal known while at a time roughly synchronous with the coming of Israel, spears of iron gradually replace bronze. The work of excavating is temporarily suspended as the three years of the Turkish firman has expired. It is hoped to secure a new firman when the excavations will be resumed."

The note expressed the sentiment that she loved her husband dearly, but that his attitude toward her she construed as being that of a man who loved not. Overseas Mail of the Canadian Pacific Is Popular at Home

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The Scotch express train on the Great Northern Railway left London last night was wrecked side of Grantham at midnight. Bodies have been taken from wreck already, and the loss of it believed to be large.

The train should have stopped Grantham, but failed to do so. After passing the station the train dived over the embankment, the engine turning turtle. Several coaches immediately took fire. There are passengers beneath the debris. Extricated, five have since died. A number of lives lost is not known. It is believed to be large. Many were injured.
