GOVERNED BY HIS MAJORITY OF 42 VOTES DOWN OPPOSITION'S DUNDONALD RESOLUTION SIR WILFRID BURIES REAL QUESTION

Tries to Impress on House that His Lordship's Mission Was to Subvert Constitutional Government.

Ottawa, June 24.—(Staff Special.)—The dismissal of Lord Dundonald and the attendant circumstances were debated with untiring energy in the house today. Sir Wilfrid Laurier took part in the discussion. He went further than either Sir Frederick Borden or Hon. Sydney Fisher in justifying the action of the government. His strictures on the official career of Lord Dundonald in Canada were very severe.

He argued at length and with the aid of ponderous authorities that Lord Dundonald had violated the principles of constitutional government, and that the government had no choice but to dismiss him. Sir Wilfrid was fairly successful in burying the real question at issue, the right of the minister of agriculture to make places in the militia the prize of political favorites. His whole cry was the alleged attempt of Lord Dundonald to run the militia department independent of the authority of the minister of militia or any other member of the government.

He seemed to be anxious to make the house believe that Lord Dundonald's special mission in Canada was to overthrow constitutional government and to establish a military despotism. The weakness of Sir Wilfrid's position was in his failure to admit the fact that no matter how important or orthodox Lord Dundonald may have been his conduct does not lessen the offence of Hon. Sydney Fisher.

Application too Late. Sir Wilfrid made out an argument which would have supplied justification for the dismissal of Lord Dundonald several months ago, but he has no sound reason why the G. O. C. should suffer for the sins of the minister of agriculture. The subject of the government's plan of defence has been to obscure the issue raised by Hon. Sydney Fisher, by whipping up the cry of Dundonald's aggressions in the militia department.

Sir Wilfrid made an elaborate statement explanatory of his use of the words "stranger" and "foreigner" in referring to Lord Dundonald. With the aid of the dictionary and some other standard works he acquitted himself of the charge of using offensive language. Col. Hughes made a strong speech for which he suffered the penalty of a slang-whanging speech from Ben Russell. Sir Wilfrid refused to discuss the number of the letters written by Sir Wilfrid to the South African war, but he did give the generals abundant opportunity for side-splitting blarney, were not clearly related to the question before the house.

He answered to the argument advanced by Sam Hughes.

Rufus Pope went after the member for Hants with weapons similar to those which had been used against his warrior colleague in the militia. T. Chase Casgrain, Jabel Robinson, Andy Ingram and Mr. Hackett of P. E. I. also took part in the discussion. The house divided at 1:15 a.m. on Mr. Borden's resolution passing censure on the minister of agriculture and rejecting the loss of Lord Dundonald to the Canadian militia. The resolution was defeated on a vote of 42 to 34.

Fisher did not vote. He explained that as his conduct had been called in question he had refrained from participating in the division.

Asks Hughes to Resign. Col. Hughes expressed some surprise at the conduct of the opposition in the Dundonald matter. Having been caught red handed in the crime of meddling with appointments in the militia, it might be thought that Hon. Sydney Fisher would have admitted the gravity of his offence and asked pardon of the house and the people; but no, the government saw it was a case of hanging together or hanging separately, so they stood together and apparently gloried in their conduct.

The use made of Lord Dundonald's report, or at least those portions of the report which it suited Sir Frederick Borden's purpose to use, could not, Col. Hughes declared, be defended on any grounds. He demanded that the whole report be made public. Lord Dundonald had not violated the provisions of the constitutional government, Col. Hughes declared.

Mr. Fisher, speaking with pomposity and vanity had interfered with the G. O. C., and for his interference he should be dismissed from the cabinet. If Sir Wilfrid Laurier refused to dismiss his erring minister then the government should take action in the direction.

Col. Hughes made the statement that the Dominion government paid for the cabling of order-in-council resolutions to the English newspapers. He said also that the British press teemed every day with reports being circulated in connection with the English newspapers by officials employed by Canada in the high commissioner's office. Much of the "big wash" printed in the London Chronicle and London News Co. Hughes traced to the same source.

Col. Hughes said if he had been in Col. Smart's shoes, the minister of agriculture would have got out mighty quick. The colonel blamed Col. Smart severely for not cleaning the decks long ago and exposing the minister of agriculture. Col. Hughes said he had been in Col. OKU AND KUROKI UNITED IN ATTACK ON RUSSIANS Decisive Battle With Enemy's Main Army May Be Expected Soon.

Liaoyang, June 24.—It is reported that Generals Oku and Kuroki have joined forces and are attacking the Russians from the direction of Vafang-sow.

There is talk of a serious engagement shortly. It is also rumored that the Japanese forces which were recently advancing in this direction have fallen back on Fengwangcheng.

Captain Von Lang and 28 volunteer scouts have rejoined the command, arriving here on foot after a hot skirmish with the Japanese rear guard.

Von Lang and his little command started out on horseback to investigate the numbers and movements of the enemy. They rode clear around the Japanese advance and gained important information regarding the Japanese position.

When in the rear of the Japanese main body they were discovered and surrounded by two squadrons of cavalry, but they cut their way through sabres and poldrains, losing five men. Nearly all their horses were scattered. They escaped to the hills, where the Japanese cavalry was unable to follow them, and they succeeded in rejoining the colors with much valuable information.

Reinforcements are constantly arriving.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP OF PHONES.

Berlin, June 24.—The Waterloo county council in session here unanimously passed the following resolution: "That in the opinion of this council it would be in the public interest to have a telephone system and service throughout the Dominion owned and operated under direct government ownership and control. That the time is opportune for the inauguration of such enterprise; and that the Dominion government be urged to carefully consider this question and take such action as the earliest possible date as will ensure to the people of Canada the benefit of a cheap and effective telephone system."

ONTARIO MAY DEAL WITH BRITAIN IN MEDICAL DEGREE REGISTRATION

Colonial Opinion Asked by Home Government on an Important Proposal.

A bill has been introduced in the British House of Commons by a private member to enable the King to recognize any locally governed province, such as Ontario, as a separate British possession for the purposes of the Medical Act of 1903. The bill would enable the Home Government to establish a uniform standard and a licensing board for all the provinces. It has been proposed to put the bill in force without the agreement on the part of the provinces being unnecessary.

The English bill appears to be very much in the interest of the profession here so far as I have knowledge of its provisions. Ontario is to-day in advance of any other state or province in North America in the matter of regulating the study and practice of medicine. Any lowering of her standard would be regrettable.

Means Justice for Ontario.

Dr. Emory, who is a member of the Ontario Medical College, and was president of that body two years ago, and consequently had devoted much attention to the matter, said: "I think it is a very good idea indeed. Ontario has for years ranked very high as regards the requirements of her curriculum and examinations, and the fact of the province not being recognized as a separate British possession would be a great disadvantage to Ontario medical men ranking with British medical men, both in respect to the registration and military service."

WORLD'S FAIR. PRODIGY OF HERMIS. IN WITH NOTORIOUS MUDDERS, THE FAVORITE, WILL LIKELY MEET DEFEAT.

St. Louis, June 24.—The World's Fair Handicap will be run over a heavy, boulding track at the Fair Grounds to-morrow.

Heavy rain last night left the track fast and hard, and an amount of water can make good for the big race.

Light-weighted mud runners will get the backing. Hermis, the eastern champion, is thought by many to be the best.

Notorious Mudders, the favorite, will likely meet defeat. It is argued that a great mud horse cannot give weight to other horses who have performed well.

THE DEBATE ON THE MILITIA

Sir Frederick Borden repelled with some heat a charge that he had told a falsehood in declaring that the suppressed portions of Lord Dundonald's reports were secret. Possibly when the discussion is over it will be found that in the heat of controversy other charges have been made that sober second thought will regret—for instance, the charge implied, if not directly made, that Lord Dundonald is an ignoramus or a lunatic in regard to military affairs, and that he proposes as the best frontier of this country should be guarded by a kind of Chinese wall.

Lord Dundonald himself says that there was nothing in his reports that might not have been published to the world, and it would be fair at least to give him credit for some common sense as well as military knowledge, and not to decide this point against him without knowing what his recommendations were. The Globe keeps hinting at the contents of these reports, and founding upon them arguments most injurious to the late general commanding the force. Whether or not these hints come from an authoritative source, the procedure must be regarded as at variance with fair play. If there is any foundation for them, they may be torn from their context; they may be exaggerated, they may not give the public anything like a fair idea of Lord Dundonald's plans as a whole. It is fair to allude darkly to these reports, to suggest that if published they would have cast doubts on the sanity of the minister who passed them, and then to say that the public interest requires that the report as a whole should be withheld from the public?

If the matter could be thoroughly threshed out, it would probably be found that public opinion is not greatly divided as to the Canadian militia. We are all agreed that militarism, as it is known in France or Germany or Russia, shall not be introduced into Canada. We are all agreed upon the necessity of maintaining a defence force of some kind, and we are all agreed that, whatever the numbers may be, it shall be efficient and well-equipped. This is not militarism, but common sense; for there is no sense in spending the public money, however small the expenditure may be, without adequate returns. What is required is efficiency combined with as little noise and blare of trumpets as possible. We may not be able to carry out all the ideas of the military experts, but we ought to make the fullest possible use of their skill and experience. This, again, is based on the sane and democratic idea of getting value for our money.

BRITISH LIBERALS AND IRELAND

Lord Rosebery's emphatic declaration that home rule cannot form part of the Liberal program in Britain has been endorsed by Augustine Birrell, who not only the author of many charming, obiter dicta but a prominent member of the Radical wing of that party. Speaking at the annual dinner of the University Palmerston Club at Oxford a day or two after the ex-premier, Mr. Birrell declared that "there was not a living man who did not know perfectly well it was utterly out of the question in the coming parliament for anybody to do not care who it was or of what party to stand up by the treasury bench and introduce either of Mr. Gladstone's great home rule measures." Home rule, he said, in that sense, was impossible until such time as the English people had made up their minds on the question as it was presented to them as the governing issue at an election.

This, however, Mr. Birrell continued, did not mean that Irishmen had not grievances in the administration of affairs by Dublin Castle. That was a practical question which would meet the Liberal party at the very moment it took up the seats of office, and the difficulty, if there was any, was how far Liberals were prepared to give effect to truly Liberal principles in the administration of Irish affairs. On that point Mr. Birrell believed there was no real difference within the party, and he felt only had sufficient courage to introduce administrative home rule it would duce administrative home rule, the ultimate and peaceful way for the settlement of all British domestic questions. The significance of all this lies in the fact that Lord Rosebery's views on the domestic policy of the Liberal party seem likely to prevail. He was the author of the historic phrase which referred to England as the dominant partner without consultation, and it is only rarely that a Conservative is the only remedy admitted to cure permanently. No case of catarrh exists it can't cure. Get to-day and cure yourself; it will cure you. Get Catarrhose.

30 Black Cats Cremated

St. Louis, June 24.—Fire, which threatened for a time to destroy many buildings at the World's Fair to-day, consumed the House of Hoop, five floors above the ground floor, which compelled to climb down a tree. The fire is supposed to have started from an electric light wire.

At St. Lawrence Market

Green peas were on the market yesterday, selling at 7c a basket. Next week (and) a new potatoes are expected. Those now on sale are imported from the States. Tomatoes, new beans, new cauliflower, beans and spinach disposed themselves on the market at 10c a bushel. The very small little firmer, selling at 18c to 20c. Hay came in plentifully, 30 loads being delivered, there are also two loads of straw, which keeps high.

The Sons of England Hospital Board held their regular meeting last night and completed all arrangements for an excursion to Niagara Falls on Saturday, July 9.

IS ANYTHING MORE HORRIBLE

Than a slow, lingering death from consumption, to be eaten up by deadly little germs? Catarrh is only next door to consumption and ought to be killed out at once. Catarrhose is the only remedy admitted to cure permanently. No case of catarrh exists it can't cure. Get to-day and cure yourself; it will cure you. Get Catarrhose.

to be fought out at the general elections.

But will the extreme left wing of the party accept the abandonment of home rule as a present practical question, and how will it be taken by Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, who very recently went out of his way to declare his loyalty to the cause of Gladstonian home rule? It must be evident enough to him and to his sympathetic colleagues, as politicians of experience that the passing of the Irish question at this time must inevitably bring disaster. In the face of the avowed hostility of a large section of the party, the introduction of a home rule bill on the lines of those already condemned would be simply to court defeat. And this apart altogether from the estrangement which now exists between the Nonconformists and the Irish Nationalists over the support given by the latter to the government's education and liquor trade measures. There can be no doubt the Liberal party has a very favorable opportunity to reconsolidate itself and to regain much of the support it lost during the home rule agitation. If it fails to rise to the opportunity, it cannot but remain weak in parliament and distrusted by the country.

GARBLING IS NOT FAIR

The Hamilton Times quotes this passage from a World article: "We do not say that the plans of the G. O. C. should be accepted without question. There may be room for difference of opinion, even when the military expert is on one side. But it is surely unreasonable to brush aside military expert opinion as insane and unfit for publication." It then makes this comment: "Why should such plans be published? Why should military schemes under consideration be communicated to all nations?"

Our contemporary has misunderstood our article, which was simply an argument that it was not fair to ridicule the unpublished reports of Lord Dundonald on the strength of guesses as to their contents; that if the people are to form a fair judgment of these reports they must have the text before them. The advisability of publishing the whole report may be an open question; there can be no question of the unfairness of suppressing the report and then misrepresenting it in order to injure the writer.

A PUBLIC LOSS

Great sympathy will be felt with the family of Miss Gurofsky, who was killed on her way to New York on Thursday. Apart from the personal bereavement the community suffers a loss in the premature cutting off of this bright and promising life. Miss Gurofsky was not only a brilliant student at Toronto University, but a lady of public spirit, deeply interested in university life, a teacher in the Sunday School of the Holy Blossom Synagogue and president of the local branch of the Daughters of Zion. We can assure the family that the community not only sympathize with them, but, as far as outsiders can, share their sorrow.

Dr. Carman, chairman of the General Conference Special Committee of the Methodist Church, has issued notice calling a special meeting of the committee for the 21st July, for the purpose of taking up the report of the church union preparatory committee to meet the representatives of other ecclesiastical bodies concerned. Another matter that will be taken up is the memorial of the Anglican church respecting the Bible in the public schools, as well as fixing the date and place of the next General Conference.

can afford to allow the encroachment. The dotted lines in the illustration show the plan of the proposed new station, the dark lines of the present structure.

Close Main Artery. It is proposed, if the railway commission passes the application, to close Neeve-street and divert the traffic east and under the tracks to the business section of the city. But the company refuses to bind itself, and the general view of the situation is that the subway will never be built.

It is moved westward to Jubilee Park, it will mean the practical closing of the two main arteries reaching out to St. Patrick's Ward and a rich agricultural district. Huskisson-street, which is the continuation of Wynndham-street, the principal business thoroughfare, will be choked with railway traffic; and Neeve-street will be entirely cut off, thus shutting off St. Patrick's Ward. For this reason the opposition in that section of the city is vigorous.

Jubilee Park was dedicated in 1897 and a few trees laid out. Across Wynndham-street is the city hall and market and beyond there is the winter skating building. The proximity of the station and the snoring of locomotives make it an undesirable location, and to move the station westward will greatly intensify the evil. The adjoining property will be depreciated and business driven north, so it is claimed. The shunting of trains will be carried on in the very heart of the market if the Grand Trunk is granted its claim. Business will be seriously impaired and many farmers threaten to stay away from the market.

Generous With Grand Trunk. While there is no desire to hamper the Grand Trunk in its operations, the citizens are not disposed to consider any proposition coming from the railway that is not based on real necessity. They claim they have been generous to the Grand Trunk and are willing to listen to any reasonable proposition. The railway is asked to build its station on "the Diamond," which is the junction of the main line with the Wellington, Grey and Bruce. Here there is ample ground and the objections to the station being in the business centre will be removed. If it were not for the fact that the Grand Trunk is seriously competing for the local traffic now enjoyed by the C. P. R., this site would probably answer the purpose. But the City of Guelph is in the railway business itself. It owns the Guelph Junction Railway, a line 16 miles in length, tapping the C. P. R. at Campbellville. The city was forced into building this connecting line a division of the gross receipts, the city receiving 40 per cent, which amounts to about $100,000 annually. With the building of this line the value of the city's property greatly enhanced.

Discussing the question with The World Mr. Lyon said if the main station were at the Diamond, the G.T.R. would maintain the present station for the accommodation of the centre of the city. Were this done the Grand Trunk would have a monopoly of business in the west and an even chance with the C. P. R. for the balance of the city. From the standpoint of the city's

PEOPLE FALLING AWAY.

Rev. Abbe Brossseau Points Out What Will Result.

Montreal, June 24.—(Special.)—The St. Jean Baptiste celebration to-day was magnificent in point of numbers, but anything seen in the procession could have been marked fifty years ago. In a word, the classes have gone back to St. Jean Baptiste, the masses alone aiding in the demonstration. However, the religious part of the fête was most imposing. Mgr. Bruchesi singing high mass at Notre Dame. Rev. Abbe Brossseau preached upon the crisis produced by the falling away of the people from their clergy. What, he asked, would this crisis produce? A weakening of the faith, the church and the church will be forgotten and even attacked by her own children. All should work to continue the harmony existing so long between the clergy and the people and "seek the things of peace." To do this, the people must know the church and know the clergy. The church is divine, but her members are human. To do this, the church must know the church and know the clergy. The church is divine, but her members are human. To do this, the church must know the church and know the clergy.

LUDICROUS JUSTICE.

Milanesse Lawyers Enraged at the Verdict of a Jury.

Rome, June 23.—Another striking example of the ludicrous incapacity of Italian justice occurred in the trial yesterday, which the trial of Alberto Olivo for the murder of his wife. The married life led by the unhappy couple was far from smooth. Alberto Olivo was a miser and his wife gave him many hours of bitter and unavailing labor. On the night of May 16 last year in a fit of rage he shot her dead with a small piece, which he threw away. He then hid himself up to the police and made full confession to the crime. During the last twelve days all Italy has been agog over the verdict in the trial of this tragedy, as they were gradually unfolded in the law courts of Milan.

INJURY TO PROPERTY.

One of the strongest opponents of the Grand Trunk application is Col. Hislop, the county registrar. He outlined the negotiations between the company and the city. When the railway was asked to build an up-to-date station it asked for a gift of Jubilee Park, but this proposition not being entertained it raised the question of price. The company offered $250, but the city said it was useless to speak of that figure. "I am opposed to the expropriation," he said. "The Grand Trunk runs thru the very centre of the city to the great injury of the property south of the tracks. By moving the station west they would block other streets and there would be no ingress to the market from that section except by way of Gordon-street. The Grand Trunk, too, will not bind itself to not use the old station as a freight shed."

VOICES SENTIMENT OF PEOPLE.

Henry Gummer, proprietor of The Herald, of which J. P. Downey, M.L.A., is editor, voices the sentiment of a large section of the community. He pointed out the injury that would be done to the market and the adjoining business property by the removal of the station. He said, "The removal of the station would be a valuable asset of the city, and if it was to be sold in competition to-morrow it would bring more than the board of trade seems to be anxious to sell it for. Mr. Gummer said he would give $100,000 for the property. He said he would give $100,000 for the property. He said he would give $100,000 for the property."

BACK TO HIS FIRST LOVE.

The announcement that "Bob" Harrison, far-famed as a wrestler and professional wrestler, has taken to his old position as guard of the upper gate at the beginning of next month is a welcome one to his scores of friends among the traveling public, who have missed him during the past few months that he has been at the King Edward.

STAFFORD GROWS LARGE.

Stafford, June 24.—The G. T. R. proposes to extend its shops here. Tenders have been asked for and the work will begin at once. The enlargement will entail an expenditure of between $100,000 and $200,000, the figure being nearer the latter amount. The increased shops will bring the staff up to between 1100 and 1200—two hundred more than have ever been employed in the works.

COFFIN GOSSIP.

Marshall, Spafford & Co. wired J. G. Peary, King Edward Hotel, the close of the market to-day. After a somewhat active and strong today, influenced by the Liverpool cables and unsettled weather, the market presents a present condition represents a considerable improvement. The market's present condition represents a considerable improvement. The market's present condition represents a considerable improvement.

Available reports seem to have been discounted, and with the approach of a critical period is recognized as pending. The market's present condition represents a considerable improvement. The market's present condition represents a considerable improvement.

One of Pleasure and Profit—Markham to Organize Civilian Rifle Club.

The annual excursion of the East York Farmers' and Women's Institute took place to the Agricultural College, Guelph, yesterday, and was favored with ideal weather. From all points south of Stouffville on the Midland Railway and Richmond Hill on the Metropolitan they rallied forces at the Union Station and proceeded by G. T. R. to the Royal City. The East York Citizens' Band accompanied the excursion. Many of the leading farmers of Markham, York and Scarborough were present, accompanied by their families. The selection of the Model Farm as an objective point for the farmers of Ontario is a happy combination of pleasure and profit. A visit to the college at this season is invariably fraught with great benefit to the farming community. In every department the most interesting manifestations of interest. Probably no sphere of labor on the farm is of a more instructive nature than the experimental plots. Every known variety of grain is there on trial, and the order and system everywhere apparent was most favorably commented upon. In no single instance, notwithstanding the lateness of the season and the heavy rains following, was there a failure in the experimental plots, with the possible exception of wild goose wheat. In oats, barley, grass, clover, fall wheat and rye, where some varieties are more luxuriant than others, the showing is uniformly good, and of 500 acres, of which 345 are under cultivation, 45 acres are devoted to experimental work. The well-kept lawn grounds and other articles from the company's object lesson. That thorough cultivation is always attended by success is proved by the splendid fields of barley and other grains. The Consolidated School, the gift of Sir William McDonnell, is rapidly nearing completion and will open Sept. 1. The forestry department, the dairy and cheese in process of manufacture were alike full of interest. In the absence of Prof. Day, Donald Douglas, the energetic deputy farm foreman, directed the visitors. The G. T. R. special arrived in Toronto shortly before 7 o'clock. The officers of the East York Farmers' and Women's Institute are James T. Stewart, president, and A. J. Reynolds, secretary; and Mrs. R. O. Reynolds, president, and Miss Lulu Reynolds, secretary.

Toronto Junction. Toronto Junction, June 24.—Farar Ineson, who resides on Lindendree-street and was employed at C.P.R. shops, appeared before Police Magistrate Ellis this morning, charged with the theft of a quantity of tools and other articles from the company's works at various times, extending over a long period. Ineson was given 20 days in jail for the offence.

Mr. Milnary, a German, charged with trespassing on the C.P.R. tracks, was allowed to go on suspended sentence. Eleven boys were in court for rigging an alarm on one of the fire alarm boxes. "Dunlop" Dundall pleaded guilty and was fined $10. An interesting horse race match will be played at the Island Saturday afternoon, between the Young Torontos and Shamrocks, in a Junior C.L.A. match.

The annual picnic of the Presbyterian Church will be held to-morrow at Island Park. George Simpson, who lives on McMurray-avenue, has reported to the police the absence of his 6-year-old boy, who left home this morning and has not been seen since.

Mayor Chisholm, Councillors Ryding, Perfect and Baird have been selected as the deputation to represent the council before the railway commission to-morrow and oppose the application of the C.P.R., which is asking the right to lay a spur line across several streets in the town. E. A. DuVerne and Town Solicitor Anderson will fight the town's case.

A meeting of those favorable to the formation of a civilian rifle club will be held in the council chamber to-night. All the surrounding villages and country have signified their intention to send representatives.

St. Andrew's Presbyterians at their annual garden party on Wednesday evening held the sum of $65. T. B. Umpleby, who for more than a year has filled the position of superintendent of the Markham Woolen Mills, has resigned and will accept a position in Scotland.

Markham Baseball Club will play a league match with the Stouffville Club at the latter place to-day.

A pretty wedding took place in the new Methodist Church, Sand Hill, on Wednesday afternoon, June 22, at 1 o'clock, when Miss Isabelle Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gray, and Rev. John J. Coulter of Cheltenham, were wedded. The church was artistically decorated with marguerites, roses and ferns, the bride couple standing under a bow of marigolds. As the bridegroom entered the church, Miss May Snyder of Campbell's Cross, accompanied by Charles Langford, sang a beautiful solo. The bride looked extremely pretty in a gown of white silk organdie, trimmed with netting and embroidered chiffon, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Eva Gray, sister, was bridesmaid, and was also handsomely attired in white silk organdie, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. Little Evelyn McKown, niece, was flower girl, with very sweet looking in white silk, trimmed with lace. The groom was escorted by his brother, Rev. George E. Coulter, and the ushers were Rev. G. L. Gray and Charles Gray. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Langford of Rosemont, assisted by Revs. H. T. Ferguson, B.A., and G. L. Gray. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents after the ceremony, after which a wedding breakfast was served under a bow of the lawn. Mr. and Mrs. Coulter left for Muskoka Lakes, where they will spend their short honeymoon before going to their home at Cheltenham.
