Demand For Vigorous Reprisals Growing

London Stirred Over The Air Raid of Saturday

GERMANS BOLDLY FLEW LOW

Their Bombs, However, Less Effective Than Before—Government Likely to be Pressed For Definite Statement of Policy—What if Hundreds of Machines Cross?

London, July 9.—Inferential to a steady downpour of rain, which lasted the whole day, many thousands visited the area where bombs fell on Saturday, hoping to see extensive damage to property. In this they were disappointed. A close inspection of the damaged buildings showed that the zone effected by each bomb was marvelously circumscribed in nearly every case.

Bombs Less Effective

The damage consisted mainly of broken glass and window frames. The actual material damage effected was comparatively insignificant and tends to prove that the bombs carried by the airplanes were far less destructive than those dropped previously in the Zepelin raids.

Saturday's aerial attack more than ever proved the wisdom of seeking shelter. The fleet of raiders was plainly seen by the general public before the bombardment commenced. Nearly every one took measures of self-protection, while in previous raids when the enemy airmen were so high as to be practically invisible people remained in the streets.

Since there were fewer casualties on Saturday and the injured to a large extent were slightly wounded from the shattered glass, it is certain that the life was considerably less than in the previous airplane raid, Saturday's attack appearing to have been a mere reconnaissance owing to the peculiar circumstances and the temerity of the raiders in flying low.

Little else is talked of but the impunity whereby the raiders were enabled to deliberately set about their work in the face of the most ardent and emphatic reprisals demanded by the public and the press and in parliament.

Even those comments which are more restrained complain that Great Britain is falling behind in aircraft construction and needs speedily up. General Haig's reference to increased German activity is regarded as highly significant.

All the comments there is some note of outraged national pride and disgust at the impunity with which the enemy came, raided and departed. It is remarked also that the aerial attack raises a practical level of the question of a possible absolute devastation of London by aircraft and the infliction of such losses as would amount to a serious military defeat. If a score of enemy machines are able to co-operate with calm impunity, it is asked, what will happen if 200 come, or as the Koolhaas Zeitung recently urged, 1,000?

These favoring reprisals naturally emphasize their demand while the more opposed contend reprisals not only are useless but would lead to a competition in brutality whereby the expert will beat the amateur.

Word Comes to His Sister—Guns Shot in His Thigh

Miss May Fleet, 97 Duke street, was advised on Sunday from Ottawa that her brother, Corporal Colin Fleet, a member of a local infantry unit, had been wounded in the thigh by gunshot and had been admitted to No. 20 General Hospital at Camer on June 30.

Corporal Fleet is about twenty-two years old and prior to going overseas was employed in Bathurst, N. B.

Patterson-Pochoontas Coal and Coke Company, and William Leckie, of Welch, Va., who heads the company bearing his name.

GERMANS QUIT BECAUSE THEY ARE OUTGOTTEN AND CAN "NO LONGER FACE THE MUSIC"—REPORT ON WORK OF DOMINION TROOPS IN LAST WEEK OF JUNE

London, July 9.—The following communique covering Canadian operations around Lens for the last week of June is issued by the Canadian war records office: "The week ended June 30 was full of incident and distinctly fruitful in results. On the afternoon of June 29 a report was received that the enemy had retired from Hill 60 and that patrols had been pushed forward. On receipt of this news the Canadians sent out patrols to gain touch with the enemy, who was believed to be retreating. Acting on the information received from these patrols, Canada and Toronto trenches were occupied and posts were established in various communication trenches in advance of this.

"A government, however, which is neither one thing or the other is inconceivable. Yet this unthinkable thing is a reality. We have a government which is striving to satisfy all factions. The same old trot will no longer do nor will we change of course to the right or there is danger. Quo vadis, Germany?"

RUSSIAN PREMIER IS FILLED WITH HOPE AS ARMY FIGHTS AGAIN

Petrograd, July 7.—(Delayed)—A staff correspondent of the Associated Press was received this morning by Prince Lvoff, premier and minister of the interior, who made a statement on Russia's part in the war, internal and diplomatic problems and the influence of the revolution and the war on world problems.

Prince Lvoff declared his unshaken optimism that, despite grave difficulties to be faced, Russia is marching towards reconstruction and stability and that the war is developing towards victory.

"Regarding the war," continued the premier, "say that the latest action of our army inspires in me full hope. I am convinced that the new advance, if temporarily stayed, is not finished but is a prelude to much greater success. The advance thoroughly confutes the pessimists who unanimously predicted that an offensive by our supposed disorganized troops was impossible.

THE WAR SITUATION

Air-raids on London will not help Germany to win the war. The material damage done is not such as to arouse fear of greater depredations, while the sheer wantonness of cruelty which prompts the killing of women and children only serves to intensify the determination of all the Allies to make such conduct impossible in the years to come.

defence would be boys from 20 to 24.

This would consist of boys who were in high school, universities and young men just preparing for life. It was also found that they would be the best of the first burden. Sir Robert expressed surprise to hear that the young men of the country from 20 to 24 were largely in school. It was felt that the men from 20 to 24 had less responsibility. They had as a rule no family ties. It was felt better to divide into classes so that too many would not be called out at once. It was felt that this was a fair and reasonable plan.

German Empire on Eve Of Parliamentary Upheaval

Berlin, Saturday, July 7, via London, July 8.—Unless all present indications fail in the course of the next few days, the German empire is on the eve of a momentous if not historical parliamentary upheaval. Developments under the gilded dome of the Reichstag building in the last 48 hours point squarely to a significant realignment of various factions in favor of sweeping electoral and parliamentary reforms, in spite of the present stubborn resistance of the reactionary old guard.

That recent discussions have been of gravely significant import is indicated clearly by the sudden decision to postpone the Saturday plenary session which was to have marked the opening of the general debate and the expected speech of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg. The absence of the chancellor from the sessions of the main and constitutional committees in the last few days has caused general comment in parliamentary circles as exceptional in view of the confidential character of the discussions. Late yesterday it was announced that the desire of the chancellor to inform himself more thoroughly on the nature of the committee conferences was responsible for the delay of the general session.

Monday will mark the inauguration of what promises to be one of the most memorable parliamentary sessions in the history of the empire.

SAYS FRANCE HAS LOST THIRD OF HER MANHOOD

Other Entente Nations Have Suffered Heavily, Declares Franklin-Bouillon

London, June 28.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—M. Henri Franklin-Bouillon, who is in London en route to the United States to urge the American Congress to participate in the inter-parliamentary conferences of Allied parliaments this fall, gave out here an outline of what he purposes to do in America. He said:

"First of all, I shall visit New York and Washington and present my invitation to Congress. Later I shall probably tour the middle west and west in order to tell the people there what France has done and what she needs. We in France very fully appreciate the value of American help.

"Of course, my main business in going to the United States is to ask both houses of Congress to nominate delegates to the inter-parliamentary conferences and to join the movement, which aims always at closer co-operation and re-ordination of the war work of the Allies.

"The idea is to have these delegations meet in an Entente capital at regular intervals, once in three months, during and after the war.

"We have held meetings in Paris, London and Rome. Our last congress was in Paris, where for the first time British, Italian and French delegates met together. I hope this fall to see

British Airmen Avenge Latest Raid on London

London, July 8.—Only the splendid achievement of the Royal flying corps detachments from Dunkirk which destroyed three enemy seaplanes and eight airplanes caught on patrol duty in the Channel Saturday relieves the public anger over the murderous German raid yesterday morning in which thirty-seven persons were killed and 143 were injured. But one enemy machine out of twenty engaged, was brought down while engaged in the raid.

Damage was done in the heart of London by the raid, which was one of the greatest ever attempted by the Germans over the metropolis.

An intensified demand for reprisals has followed the air raid of yesterday. All the Sunday newspapers declare the people of London are furious at the inadequacy of the city's defense as it was revealed yesterday.

London, July 7.—The official report from British headquarters in France given out today reads:

"After a heavy bombardment the enemy attempted to raid our trenches east of Loos, but was driven off with loss.

"There was much aerial fighting yesterday, chiefly on the front between Lens and Arras. In this area enemy machines were encountered in large numbers, one formation was composed of as many as thirty. Despite this and the pronounced activity on the enemy's part, we bombed his aerodromes during the day, causing damage, and carried out successful artillery work and photography.

"Activity was continued by bombing during the night, in which the enemy showed more enterprise than he had hitherto done. He dropped 144 bombs on our side of the line, four bombing machines dropping nearly three times that number on his side.

"In this fighting during the day and night eight hostile machines were brought down; six others were driven down out of control.

"Five of our machines are missing."

Canadian Headquarters in France, Sunday, July 8, via London.—(By Stewart Lyon, Special Correspondent of the Canadian Press)—Tennyson's dream of "Aerial Navies Grappling in the Cavalry Blue" has become very much a reality.

After the introduction of a new type of British plane a few weeks ago and the destruction of many of his fighting machines, the enemy seemed for a time to give up all hope of maintaining equality in the air. At Messines the British mastery in the flying service was so complete that the enemy evidently ordered the refusal of the German airmen to provide efficient observation for their guns or cope with our own fighters with planes. On our own front the same conditions existed, and continued until about week ago.

Enemy Stronger in Air.

During the past week there was a notable renewal of enemy aerial activity, in co-operation with greatly increased gun fire. During a trip behind the front yesterday in northern France and Belgium the correspondent heard the "ar-chis," or anti-aircraft guns, putting away at enemy planes at numerous points.

Deprived of direct observation by the loss of high ground, the German general staff has evidently ordered an available aeroplane into active service on the western front. The observation thus obtained has resulted in a corresponding increase in German artillery fire, especially in the Lens and other sectors.

Yesterday in northern France and Belgium many air fights took place, during which two enemy machines were shot down out at enemy planes at numerous points.

GERMANS PLOTTED IN U. S. BEFORE THE WAR

San Francisco, July 8.—Preparations for war with England were being made in the United States by German agents and Hindu agitators more than a year prior to the outbreak of the European war, according to a statement made here by United States District Attorney Preston.

The government charges that the conspiracy dated from the outbreak of the war in 1914, and that it was organized in Berlin and financed with German gold.

The indictments charge the defendants with assisting in the carrying of German warships in the Pacific ocean with arms, ammunition, coal and supplies, to have used in the proposed revolution of India. It is alleged these activities extended from Aug. 1, 1914, to January, 1916.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Conway-Murphy. Sydney, N. S., July 8.—(Special)—The Church of the Sacred Heart was the scene of a quiet, but very pretty wedding on Thursday evening when the marriage of Mary Helen Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Murphy, George street, to F. Louis Conway, son of Thomas Conway, of Hampton (N. B.), took place. Rev. D. M. McAdam being celebrant. The bride was given away by her father and looked charming in a traveling costume of navy blue gaberdine with hat of pink gergette, carried a spray of brides roses, and was attended by her little nephew, David Steek, who floral decorations of the church were done by the young friends of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Conway left for a honeymoon trip through the provinces, reaching the groom's home on Friday night, where a reception was held, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents, including silver, cut glass, china and several checks, including a substantial one from her father.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Murdock-Hazlett. At the Brunswick street Baptist persuasion, Frederick, Rev. G. C. Warren united in marriage Pte. Fred Murdock, of the 298th Kilites Battalion, and Miss Annie Hazlett of that city.

McInnis-Sudbury.

Bangor Commercial—A pretty event to place this week in St. Mary's Catholic church, when Miss Myrtle J. Sudbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Sudbury, of Summerside, P. E. Island, was united in marriage to Thomas J. McInnis, son of Mrs. Hugh McInnis of Amherst, N. S. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richard H. Harris. The bride was attended by Mrs. Overy Legere, sister of the groom, and Overy Legere was best man.

The Heckler Heckled.

The candidate was an excellent speaker when he had prepared his speech carefully beforehand, but sudden interruptions were apt to upset him. He had a particularly trying time at a meeting when a persistent heckler kept on putting awkward questions, which the candidate answered awkwardly and somewhat lamely. Matters reached a climax when the heckler demanded to be answered with a plain "yes" or "no."

Prices of Pig Iron Still Soar

A Necessary Commodity is Fast Becoming Almost Unobtainable—It Now up to $52 a Ton—Other Market Reports

(Toronto Globe.) Pig iron is now being classed among the precious metals. Gold can be produced; pig iron is practically unobtainable. Platinum is so precious, and is probably the most expensive metal in the world, from the standpoint of bulk, but there is a very large number of Canadians who, if given the choice, would take pig iron in preference to platinum.

Never in the history of the iron and steel trade has pig iron been so valuable, or been so much at a premium. It now jumps a dollar a day, and $22 a ton is accepted with considerable resignation.

Experts give many reasons for this. One is that there is such a scarcity of coke, and such a big shortage of cars, that it is no wonder prices are up. But there are other reasons. The necessities of the buyers, who seem to jump around the market waiting for the individual who has pig iron for sale. The purchasers of pig iron seem to "bunch hit," and naturally prices get firmer.

But instead they have found themselves in a worse predicament than ever, and when at last they swelled the ranks of those who had to wait, let the price rise. It would, they contributed their energy in bidding up the market against their fellow-buyers and themselves.

DEMANDS BOOST PRICES.

Every time a demand has gone forth for iron there has been a tantalizing advance. This sometimes has angered the producers, but they have not rejected an offer which next day they would have only been too willing to accept. But the market has been either sold out its available iron or else had advanced its price another round.

It is not until this week that it has happened until the buyer has been almost content to say: "Send along the iron and mail me the bill." Just last week the course of iron has run uninterrupted by a single reaction—is as interesting as a stock market.

The great staple of the pig iron market is known as No. 2X foundry. It was sold at $44 a ton yesterday at $19.75, says the Journal of Commerce, New York. One month ago it was $18.75, and a year ago it was $15.75. It cannot be had for less than $20, here in 1917, and it is severely hoped that it will be sold at $25 per ton.

When iron could be sold at $21.95 it is but natural to profit a year ago it was $15.75, and a year ago it was $15.75. It cannot be had for less than $20, here in 1917, and it is severely hoped that it will be sold at $25 per ton.

NAMES INSURANCE BOARD

Will Work Out Government's Plan to Insure Lives of Fighters

Washington, July 9.—Secretary McAdoo has appointed a committee of insurance company officials and expert actuaries as advisers of the government in the plan to insure the lives of men in the army, navy and marine corps.

The committee comprises George E. Woodard, vice-president of the Metropolitan Life; Franklin B. Meade, secretary of the Lincoln Life; E. Blackburn, secretary of the American Life Convention, and I. I. Boak, president of the National Fraternal Congress of America.

The appointment of the committee is the result of a meeting of more than 100 life insurance experts with Secretary McAdoo. It is probable that they will be asked to consider the system worked out by federal experts, which will be the basis for legislation now being sought enabling the treasury department to undertake the insurance work.

War Problems to Have Prominent Place—Influx of Foreign Labor After Peace Comes—Basis of Representation

Substitute for Potatoes and Cereals. Have we ever tried manioc in this country? asked the London Daily Chronicle. It is the root of a tree that flourishes in the Amazon forests of Brazil. G. T. Bruce, in his "Brazil and the Brazilians," tells us that, dried and ground into a meal, this root is the staple food of the Brazilians, as oatmeal is that of the Scots. Manioc meal is eaten dry, made into porridge, bread, cakes, and prepared in several other ways. It is rich in starch, dextrine, and glucose. Leaps Ten Stories to Death in New York

FIRST OPENS WRIST VEINS

Then Lies in Bath Tub to Die But Becomes Impatient and Springs From Window — Once Bank Manager

The suicide of Richard Adam Timmerscheidt, once manager of a German bank and representative of important German interests, who threw himself out of a window of his apartment on the tenth floor of the house at 200 West

DNIR Fifty-ninth street, New York, early on last Thursday, was followed by the disclosure that he had been interviewed on several occasions by the federal authorities in relation to the activities of secret agents. The fact that the last interview took place not more than seven days ago led to a report that he had been under surveillance as one of the men who had been giving Germany information of troop movements, but this was denied.

"It is true," said John C. Knox, assistant United States attorney, "that the federal authorities had occasion to question Mr. Timmerscheidt, but nothing was learned as the result of these interviews offering a reason for the suicide."

Timmerscheidt threw himself out of the window a little before five o'clock in the morning. He had severed the veins in his wrists with a safety razor and there was evidence to show that he had lain down to die in the bathtub, but evidently had grown impatient and had jumped from the window.

Up to 1900 he had been manager of one of the foreign departments of Ladougue, Thibault & Co., New York. According to a statement made by a member of this firm, he then left to accept a place in the foreign department of the Deutsche Gesellschaft, in Berlin, at a large salary. He left that place to become manager of the Hong Kong branch of the Deutsche Asiatic Bank, which has close affiliations with the German government.

At the outbreak of the war he returned to New York, sending his wife, who is an English woman, and their children to England. It was understood that he went back to New York as the representative of the Deutsche Asiatic Bank, but efforts to learn details of his business were not entirely successful.

AUTHOR AND NURSE WED

Announcement of the marriage of Owen Johnson, author, to Miss Cecile Denis de Lagarde of Chignens, France, was made last week. They were married on July 5 in Boalsburg, Pa., in the private chapel at the home of Captain Theodore Davis Boal of the First Pennsylvania Cavalry, the Rev. Byron A. O'Hanlon officiating. Captain Boal, whose wife was a sister of the bride, is a nephew of the late Theodore M. Davis of Newport, the Egyptologist, of whose family Miss de Lagarde was long a member.

She was born in France, and spent much of her time in Washington, D.C. She has been in the Red Cross service in France as a volunteer nurse during the war, in charge of the wards in the hospitals of Chambery and Cannes, and wears the medal of the Red Cross. Outside of her activities as a nurse she is the founder of the society for disposing of the handwork of French gentlemen, known as "Abelles de France."

Miss de Lagarde was married in the blue habit of the Red Cross. The wedding was a quiet one, those attending including Captain Boal, who was in uniform; his mother, Mrs. M. A. B. Boal, and his aunt, Miss Buttles of Washington, with officers of the camp at Boalsburg; also Robert Underwood Johnson, father of the bridegroom, and his daughters, the Misses Olivia and Katharine Johnson, who represented Mr. Johnson's family.

After spending August at York Village, Me., where Mr. Johnson's parents and his children are passing the summer, Mr. Johnson and his bride plan to return to Paris. Mr. Johnson is best known as the author of "The Salamander," "Stover at Yale" and "The Roman Games," and has also written several plays, including "The Comet," in which Mme. Napoleon is a graduate of Yale, class of 1900. He is a member of the National Institute of Arts and Letters, and belongs to the Playwrights and Authors Clubs.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIVES

A shipment of spars from British Columbia has arrived at Parrishboro for G. M. Cochrane of Porterville and will be used in two tern schooners he is building. The freight bill of the shipment was $1,007.

Two commercial men, H. P. Crouse of St. John, and Frank L. Magee, of Moncton, were in an auto accident at Bass River, Kent county, on Friday afternoon. While going down Murray's hill their car struck a sand bed, the machine got beyond control and plunged over a bridge into a gully twelve feet deep. The occupants were thrown headlong over the windshield. Crouse fell under the car, but escaped with few bruises and scratches. Magee was thrown clear and escaped with a slight shaking up.

The new principal of the Mount Allison Ladies' College, Rev. Hamilton Wigle, B.A., has arrived at Sackville and taken up the duties of his office. Dr. B. C. Borden, who has been acting principal of the Ladies' College in addition to his duties as president of the university, remains at the head of the latter institution.

Veterans in Boston. The St. John veterans who have been in Boston for the last week, enjoyed their first evening rest on Friday, that evening not having been set aside for a function of some kind. On Saturday afternoon, they assembled outside the city hall and listened to a farewell address by Mayor Curley, who is largely responsible for the splendid hospitality that has been shown them by Boston citizens. The veterans will arrive in St. John tomorrow.

Bride Is An Orphan

Date Was Set Within a Week, Mrs. Gould Asserts — She is Skilled as a Dancer — Second Gould Wedding Within a Few Days

Following a few days on the heels of his brother Kingdome's wedding, George J. Gould, Jr., youngest son of a noted financier, was married in Philadelphia on last Thursday to Miss Laura M. Carter of Ardona, N.J.

So quietly were the arrangements made for the wedding that even Rev. Dr. William D. Chalfont who married them was unaware of the bridegroom's prominence. No member of Mr. Gould's family was present.

Dr. George A. Coleman, a dentist, and another man and a woman, said to be the bride's aunt, Mrs. E. J. Callahan of Ardona, N.J., witnessed the ceremony. The bride is said to be an orphan. Soon after noon they walked to the City Hall, and entering the marriage license bureau on the fifth floor, took their places among those waiting for licenses. Mr. Gould was identified for Chief Clerk Ferguson by Dr. Coleman.

Leaving the city hall, Mr. Gould and Miss Carter walked to the home of the Rev. Dr. Chalfont, about three blocks away, where the wedding ceremony was performed. It is believed that they were married there at the suggestion of the marriage license clerk, as Dr. Chalfont is known as a "marrying person" at the City Hall.

Following the wedding, Mr. Gould and his bride, who were in a traveling suit of serge, disappeared. Dr. Coleman, who admitted he was an intimate friend of Mr. Gould, said he did not know where they had gone. George J. Gould, Jr., gave his age at the license bureau as 21. His bride, who also gave her age as 21, is a handsome brunette of medium height.

In signing the application for the license Mr. Gould gave his occupation as a clerk. Dr. Coleman said that he believed Mr. Gould had obtained a place as school instructor in New York City for next fall. Dr. Coleman would not divulge the name of the school. According to custom Mr. Gould was asked to show his draft registration, and he produced it.

Bride Skilled as a Dancer

Mrs. George J. Gould, Jr., said at Ardona, N.J., where she and her husband went after their marriage, that the parents of the Goulds had been reading that the marriage was to take place.

Miss Carter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Carter, who died when she was 4 years old. For the last seven years she has lived with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Callahan, formerly of New York. For the last six years their home has been on a farm at Ardona, near Freehold, N.J. The Callahans, formerly were well known in New York, where Mr. Callahan was said to have many friends among racing men.

Miss Carter, who has considerable fame for her skill as a dancer, has been frequently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, Sr., "Georgian Court," at Lakewood, N.J. Mr. and Mrs. Gould Sr. were at Georgian Court with George J. Gould, Sr., until Tuesday of last week, when the parents left to go to Partridge, their summer home in the Catskills. George J., Jr., stayed at Lakewood until Thursday morning, when he went to Philadelphia.

George J. Jr., refused to say anything over the telephone, but his bride confirms the fact that they had been married. She was asked if the inspiration for the suddenness of their matrimonial plans came from the unexpected wedding of Kingdome Gould. She said:

"No, I don't think so." Asked how long ago it was that the marriage was decided upon, she said: "The date has only been fixed within the last week."

"Was it a surprise to your relatives?" she was asked. "Not at all," she replied. "Mr. Gould's relatives knew all about it and mine were present at the ceremony."

Mrs. G. J. Gould, Jr., was graduated from the Freehold High School in 1914. They first became acquainted about a year ago.

The weddings of two of the Goulds within the last week have contrasted strikingly with the weddings of their brother and sisters which were among the great society events of their season. Police reserves were required to control the crowds which gathered on the sidewalk and in the street at the weddings of three other children of George J. Gould.

The first of the children of George J. Gould to marry was Miss Marjorie Gwynne Gould, who became Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel, Jr., in 1910. Miss Helen Vivien Gould married Lord Decies in 1911.

In the same year Jay Gould married Miss Annie Douglas Graham, who has in her veins blood of the royal house of Hawaii. Among the guests at this wedding, which took place at St. Thomas church, Fifty-third street and Fifth avenue, was the Princess Kawakani of Hawaii.

The next marriage in the family was that on last Monday, that of Kingdome Gould and Miss Annunziata Canilla Maria Lucet, an art student and formerly instructor to Miss Vivien Gould. This wedding took place in the rectory of St. Patrick's Cathedral. The only member of the Gould family at the marriage of Kingdome Gould was George Jay Gould.

London, July 8.—A Reuters despatch from Peking announces that Hsuan Tung, the young emperor, has abdicated. Reuters' Peking correspondent also reports that the palace there was bombarded by an airplane yesterday.

Republic Re-established.

Washington, July 8.—Official despatches to the Chinese legation here tonight say the republic has been firmly re-established at Nanking, with Feng Kuo-Chiang, the former vice-president, as president of the new provisional government. Republican troops were reported converging toward Peking to drive out the Manchu forces remaining in possession there in the name of the Imperialists.

TWO WERE KILLED

S. S. Marie, Michigan, July 7.—Four persons were killed and one was injured last evening, when an automobile was struck by a Canadian Pacific passenger train near Blind River (Ont.). The dead are: Mrs. J. D. Stover, her daughter Mary, Mrs. J. W. Brooks and her daughter, all of Blind River.

The injured man was Ralph Glynn, a lumberman, of Sault Ste. Marie.

Good Tubes Increase the Mileage of Tires

You have read of extra long mileages that other motorists have got from tires. You may be amongst the thousands of motorists who wonder why the same brand of tires goes farther for other men.

Allow us to give you a pointer. Look to your tubes.

Good tubes—Goodyear Tubes—will get many extra miles from tires.

Because a poor tube, through slow leaks, causes under-inflation, the commonest enemy of tires.

Goodyear Laminated Tubes overcome this. Their exclusive method of manufacture insures air-tightness to the greatest possible degree.

For we take the highest quality rubber and roll it thin to transparency—so we can detect all flaws, sand holes, air bubbles. The inspected, perfect sheets are then built up, layer on layer, into a perfect, inseparable whole. This is the only right way to make tubes.

And we even vulcanize the valve patch, instead of merely sticking it on.

It is very much worth while, for the sake of your casings, and for longer tube service, to say "Goodyears" when you buy tubes.

Goodyear Tubes, along with Goodyear Tires and Tire-Saver Accessories, are easy to get from Goodyear Service Station Dealers everywhere.

SHE WAS THE JAILOR'S FAIR DAUGHTER and he loved her dearly. But he was a stranger with a lowly job in a munition factory. She spurned him, so he sought solace in the flowing bowl, eventually landing in her father's jail-house. Here he pressed his love-suit as far as the bars would allow. Papa got wise and discharged him. The rest of the uproariously funny story is devoted to our hero's attempts to get back into jail. The climax is side-splitting and for seven reels everybody is kept excited and laughing. A pure wholesome comic offering. No cheap devices to raise a laugh but clever, intelligent story, artistic, strenuous and mile-a-minute action. Is a Fairbanks picture, that's sufficient.

Fulton Knocks Out Flynn

Fred Fulton, a Minnesota heavy-weight, required a little more than three rounds on last Thursday night to dispose of Porky Flynn, veteran Boston heavy-weight, in their bout, scheduled for ten rounds, at the Claremont S. C. Club, Brooklyn. Up to the time the finishing blow was landed the contest was decidedly uninteresting, with Fulton so far outdistancing his older rival that the affair was one-sided.

Shortly after the start of the fourth session Fulton latched Flynn against the ropes near the latter's corner, and, feinting an opening with a pawing left hand jab, he quickly shot his right torated alongside Grover Alexander. These two things, backed the come-back of Grovy Gravath, the continued good baseball of Dode Paslerk and George Whitted are whooping things up. The Philites would not be so good in a world series as the Giants, for the Giants counted a stronger factor.

THE SLUMP IN POTATOES.

Of the drop from 87 to 81 in the price of potatoes in a week the Prediction Gleaser says—

"The slump in price is due to the fact that the farmers are all done seeding and find themselves with a large supply on hand, which they were holding for higher prices. Across the line the bottom has fallen out of the market altogether as the new crop is beginning to make appearance in Boston and selling for 83 and 84 a barrel. From all appearances the potato crop will be an excellent one and there will be no scarcity next winter."

The Mail says—"Potato buyers are now contracting for the new crop. The usual price in the field is 83 a barrel. This may change as the season progresses."

CUTS THE FINES DOWN TO $2

Judge Armstrong's Decision in Cases of Chinese

Critical Administration of Justice in Police Court in This Matter—Original Fine Was $100—Text of County Court Judgment

In the matter of several Chinese who were convicted by Magistrate Ritchie on a charge of being inmates of a gambling house and fined $100, the case having been heard and appealed to Judge Armstrong. His Honor gave judgment in the County Court Chambers this morning. He reduced the fine from $100 to $2 and allowed no costs to either side.

D. Mullin, K.C., appeared in behalf of the Chinese and Dr. J. B. H. Baxter, K.C., in the interest of the city.

Following was the judgment: In the matter of Long Sing, We Fuch, Hum Poy, Ho Low, Hum John, Jho Lee, Hum Poo, John Sing and Chaeh Lin.

In the matter of Tom Loy, Tom Kok, Hing Sing, Charlie Sam, Fred Ling and Hing Si.

This is an appeal from the decision of the police magistrate of the city of St. John, convicting the appellants of being found without lawful excuse in a certain disorderly house, that is to say, a common gaming house, kept by one Lin King, at 125 Mill street, St. John.

Including the appellants some twenty-two Chinese in all were arrested, including also the keeper of the premises, Lin King, who was subsequently discharged by order of the chief justice of the King's Bench Division. Six of the rest apparently forfeited their deposit in lieu of bail of $50 each.

A common gaming house under the criminal code, section 226, is defined as: (a) A house, room, or place kept by any person for gaming, in which persons resort for the purpose of playing at any game of chance or at any mixed game of chance and skill, or

(b) A house, room or place kept or used for playing therein at any game of chance, or any mixed game of chance and skill, in which

(1) A bank is kept by one or more of the players exclusively of the others, or

(2) Any game is played, the chances of which are not alike favorable to all the players, including among the players the banker or other person by whom the game is managed, or against whom the game is managed, or against whom the other players stake, play or bet.

By consent, in order to save time, the evidence given before the police magistrate was read and taken as though given in this court. According to such evidence there is only one witness, Tom Chen, who gave evidence which might bring the case within the section, and that under a of said section, that no profit or advantage to the proprietor of the premises wherein the gaming took place. The proprietor, Lin King, specifically denied that he made any profit. Had I been trying the case in the first instance on the presumption that the accused should receive the benefit of a doubt, I would probably have found that the charge that was made against the accused was not proved, but the police magistrate who heard the evidence having decided that the case did come within the act, I will not disturb such finding except as to the amount of the fines.

At the hearing before me the player of fan-tan was fully described by three or four of the appellants. According to such description the game itself does not come within the statute. Some of the appellants apparently played this game and no other. The stake was not high, twenty-five cents being the limit, with the option to each player to stake as low as five cents only on a game. Apparently there was no advantage to the proprietor, dealer, or anyone else in this game. If by reason of some other game being carried on by a portion of those present, and it is difficult to determine what portion took part in the game, or profit of ten cents on the dollar, as sworn to by Tom Chen and denied by the proprietors, I do not think it would be very large for the use of his money, especially if the profit was on one only of the games or on one of the stakes were five cents to twenty-five cents.

It was stated by the appellants that the magistrate endeavored to induce those charged to forfeit their bail of $50 each, threatening that if they did not, they would be sent to jail for a period of $100 each. This is something novel in a British court of justice. Bail is supposed to be taken for the purpose of assuring the appearance of the accused to answer the finding of the court, and in my opinion accused should not be encouraged to fail to so answer. Six did so forfeit their bail, amounting in all to $300, and though presumably still in the city, got off with the payment of the $50 each. The others are fined the full limit of $100 each and in default two months' jail. If $100 was the proper fine, why encourage those who should also be so fined to break their bond or bail, and get off for half the amount?

These facts do not appear on the return, and I do not take them into account in coming to my conclusion, but I think I should comment upon them in the interests of the proper administration of justice. I think that the fines imposed are entirely too great. This is the second time that a similar raid has been made on the Chinese here, who, as a rule, though away from their families and in a strange country, are peaceable, industrious citizens. It seems somewhat remarkable that raids in this city on account of suspected gambling have been particularly directed to places resorted to by Chinese. It may be that there are no other violators of this law, but such is probably not the opinion generally entertained. All of those who did not forfeit their bail of $50 each have already been in jail for varying periods, six of them for a month. Besides this, apparently there were hearings or adjournments at the police court on six different days, at which all those not forfeiting their bail had of necessity to be present, besides their attending on the appeal. Had the cases been disposed of promptly, the sums to which I will reduce the fines would, if fines should have been imposed, be entirely inadequate, but under all the circumstances above related, I reduce the fine to the sum of $2 each, no costs to be allowed either side, and if such sums are not respectively paid forthwith, I adjudge that each of the appellants not having such fine be imprisoned in the common jail of the city and county of Saint John, there to be kept for the term of ten days from the

INCREASE WARRANT FOR FAIRVILLE SCHOOLS

Annual Meeting of Trustee Board This Morning—The Financial Statement

The annual school meeting was held at ten o'clock this morning in Fairville school. W. J. Linton was elected chairman.

The office of auditor was vacated by J. Stout after years of faithful service. H. Marshall Stout was elected auditor for the coming year.

A resolution of confidence in the board of trustees, and expressing hearty approval of a plan suggested to place anti-freezing coils and bubbling fountains in school building No. 2 was moved by Glendon Allan, seconded by A. W. Carter and carried.

Mention was made and some discussion followed regarding the large number of delinquent tax payers and an effort will be made this year to get more taxes in.

The fact that some children were not attending school regularly was also brought to the attention of the meeting.

A letter from Mr. Carter, principal of the Union Point school, was read asking for desks in two rooms in the lower school. This was left with the trustees to deal with.

The taxation warrant next year for school purposes was fixed at $7,500, which is an increase of $1,000 over last year. Of this increase $650 will be devoted to raising salaries of the teaching staff.

During the meeting Secretary James E. Bryant read his report as follows: Fairville, N.B., July 9, 1917.

To the trustees and ratepayers School District No. 2, Parish of Lancaster.

Its fun to take care Nice Things

Dear Mary:— Do you know I faithfully believe that very few men think about the personal comfort of their wives. It is only careless, ness in most of them. A man wants his wife to appear pretty and cheerful in the evening, but seldom thinks of what she must go through with in keeping house during the day.

I wish I could get every husband in this town in an opera house and tell him that he owes it to his wife to give her new furniture and rugs, and make her housekeeping easy.

Affectionately—HELEN

P. S. Say, wouldn't this make lots of business for
