London, Eng., May 22 - A militant suffragette today slashed and damaged five pictures in the National Gallery. Among them were four valuable paintings by Giovanni Bellini. As Friday is students' day at the National Gallery, all rooms were thronged with artists copying masterpieces. Suddenly in the Venetian room, a middle-aged woman drew a loaded stick from bemeath her cloak, and made several victions slashes at all the pictures within reach. Had it not been for numerous easels standing about the room, the damage inflicted would have been much more serious. Students and attendants soon succeeded in overpowering the woman and taking her weapon from her.

At about the same time, a picture hanging in the Royal Academy was badly damaged by another suffragette. She

Remarkable Development Predicted by W. J. Magrath

Address of Head of Edmonton Industria Association-Mixed Farming One of the Chief Factors in Making For Great Prosperity

(Correspondence of Times.) North Battleford, Sask., May 18— Western Canada is on the threshold of an era of agricultural, industrial and commercial development and advancement that will eclipse anything the world has ever witnessed," said W. J. Magrath, president of the Edmonton Industrial Association, at the first colonization. tion and development convention for western Canada, held here. He added: "We are making remarkable progress in all lines of endeavor and to success-

This will create more markets, and the direct result will be mixed farming, the real source of "Comparing the province of Alberta with the older provinces of the Dominion, the states of the Union, or with the countries of western Europe, there is no question that between agriculture and manufacturing it has the potential capacity to sustain 100 inhabitants to the square mile, which would mean a population of 25,000,000. This is exclusive of about 1,520,000 acres occupied by lakes, rivers and creeks, and 60,000,000 acres of mountains, hilly and other lands, not suitable for agriculture at present. We had under cultivation last year 2,799,267 acres, or less than 3 per cent of the available farming area, and from this our farmers produced 75,575,632 bushels of grain, in addition to live stock, hay, roots, vegetables and dairy products having a farm value of between products having a farm value of between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000. I believe also that our manufacturers will share equally well in this unearned dividend. But manufacturing, mining, lumbering and wheat growing are not the only money makers in the western country.

Mixed farming and dairy and live stock will do more than all the rest put to-gether for many years to come.

marked by triple "TTT" and line of large "O" perforations are placed en a lengthwise fold and lengthwise thread, respectively, as has so often been advised here. The sleeve being in one with the waist makes the construction less difficult. After the lining is put together it is fitted to see that everything is all right. If a plain vest is to be used, adjust it on the right front, centers even, then stitch lower edges together, easing any fulness at the back edge. If a gathered shield or vest is to be used, cut off about an inch from the tep of the plain effect and face the lining back from neck edge to an inch below double "oe" perforations with seamless material. Gather upper and lower edges of shield between double "TT" perforations, and two inches above lower edge. Join band, notches and centers even, upper edge along double "oe" perforations; stitch back edge of shield along double "oo" perforations in lining; stitch lower edges together, back edge of shield at dart. Are all in the leaf used in the making of it. We have for years hunted the subtle and elusive elements of goodness in tobacco; we know what they spring from; we know how to retain them in the process of making smoking tobacco.

The raw leaf used is the whole thing; the goodness is in the tough, waxy finish and silky fiber of the leaf we use in making

READY RUBBED

In the process, we merely deprive it of all possibilities of "sting" or "bite". The result is a really fine smoking tobacco, a cool, mellow, free and even burner to the last shred, with a rich and pleasing aroma. These qualities cover all there is in smoking enjoyment.

whiskey formed a part of the regular official rations, when liquor of some kind was served, as a routine procedure, to officers and men before going into action, and when one of the chief characteristics of sailors, whether officers or seamen, was their ability to dispose of an amaz-

The fact that Doan's Kidney Pills are the original Kidney Pills has not prevented the placing of other preparations in pill form upon the market under the name Kidney Pills. CANADA AND LONDON

(Canadian Courier)

Judging by the lack of haste in filling the high commissionership, Canada's affairs in London are not considered by the government to be of much importance. Is this not a tactical blunder for a government which is imposibly inclinated.

If Canada owes as much to Great Britain as the members of the present government have claimed; if we are as dependent upon British sentiment for financial support as the financiers and ultra-imperialists have maintained; if our relations with the mother land are of supreme vital importance—then this of supreme vital importance—then this office should not be vacant a week. Mr. Griffiths, the secretary in London, is a capable and efficient officer, but why give man the duties without the authority? There are plenty of good men available. Sir Edmund Walker, Sir Edmund Osler, Hon. Mr. Perley, Sir Richard McBride and other prominent Conservatives are eligible and probably available. Then why should Canada's interests in Britain suffer by this unnecessary delay?

The need for further improvement is shown by the fact that only 55 per cent. of the students now in colleges in the United States are high school graduates. The decrease in the number of medical schools in the states from 162 in 1910 to 115 in 1918, and the rapid improvement of the better schools are commented upon with appreciation. A general study of the problems of the state regulation of higher education is illustrated by a detailed account of the recent crisis in educational affairs in

The report further presents a study of the financial status of college teachers as compared with the situation presented in a similar study published five years ago. The ordinary salary of a full professor in the institutions associated with the foundation is now $3,000. During the foundation is now $3,000. During the last five years the salaries of in-structors have risen by about $80; those of junior professors show a gain of from $120 to $225; those of full professors show an increase from $125 to $850.

The report concludes with a frank riticism of contemporary college cata-

Terrible Scalding Accident

ZAM-BUK GAVE QUICK RELIEF For taking the pain out of a burn or scald there is nothing equal to Zam-Buk. Mrs. Eugene Demers, of Pembroke, Ont., Mrs. Eugene Demers, of Pembroke, Ont. who was the victim of a painful scalding accident, proved this. She says: "I was carrying a boiler of steaming water from the stove to the wash-tub when suddenly my strength failed. As the boiler was falling in spite of my efforts, I heard my babies cry, and to avoid scalding them I gave the vessel a quick turn. The effect of this was that every drop of the boiling water poured over my feet and limbs, scalding me from my waist down.

"As soon as I saw the children had escaped, I told my oldest boy to bring the Zam-Buk (which we always keep in the house.) I applied Zam-Buk freely, and the pain was soon eased. I continued the pain was soon, eased. I continued the pain was soon eased. I c

London, May 22—With the America's cup defending candidates launched and turning up preparatory to the initial practice races on June 2, the attention of yachtsmen is turning toward the challenger Shamrock IV. Despite the secretary and conflicting reports from Gosport it is known that the Lipton yacht is almost ready for her slide from the ways to the water. According to those privileged few who have viewed the challenger, the Shamrock IV is a boat of extreme type, departing from many of the orthodox yacht building principles and lacking in many respects the at-the orthodox yacht building principles and lacking in many respects the attractive lines that have marked challengers and defenders of the past. In fact one English authority terms the yacht as distinctly ugly.

Designer Nicholson intimated some months ago that the challenger would show some radical departures from comment in English yachting circles only an exhibition of remarkable speed in light winds will be accepted as justifying this extreme style of design. One description states that she is several feet wider in beam than the American yachts; square stemmed, exaggerated at the bow and carrying an extreme mast and sail area. Still another authority writes:

tion, being built with some frames of an aluminum alloy called navaltum and others of steel, whilst her skin is of three thicknesses of wood and the deck of two-ply wood. Her spars are hollow and built of wood. The hull of the yacht and built of wood. The hull of the yacht is far from being what yachtsmen are accustomed to call a pretty form. The water-line will be 75 feet, but the overall length, despite of a snubbed stem and a sawn-off transom, will probably exceed this figure by 60 per cent. and if the sheer is hogged no scientist will be surprised. The vessel, too, is sure to have tumble-home sides, but the extent to which they may be employed in the challenger for the America's cup will cause the vessel to be regarded as a freak of an extreme type. The yacht will be fitted with a dagger-plate centreboard, and her sail area will be immense and of excessive holst."

Montreal, May 21—Dr. J. H. "A large proportion of the natives," he said, "are still cannibals and quietly carry on their human butchery among themselves, it being impossible to put a stop to this practice. four can't grow strong by merely exercising. You must have food—the kind you can digest and assimilate.

Unless the food you eat is digested it adds to the burden the digestive organs have naturally to carry. This often means a nervous breakdown.

"About a year ago," writes an Eastern lady, "I had quite a serious nervous breakdown caused, as I believed, by overwork and worry. I also suffered untold misery from dyspepsia.

"First I gave up my position, then I tried to find a remedy for my troubles, something that would make me well and strong, something to rest my tired stomach and build up my worn-out nerves and brain.

"I tried one kind of medicine after another, but nothing seemed to help me.

"Finally a friend suggested change of food and recommended Grape-Nuts. With little or no faith in it, I tried a package. That was eight months ago and I have never been without it since.

"Grape-Nuts did the work. It helped me grow strong and well. Grape-Nuts put new life into me, built up my whole system and made another woman of me!"
