AMERICA HONORS ROOSEVELT.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Congress to-day unanimously adopted a resolution Wednesday a day of national mourning in honor of the death of Theodore Roosevelt. It was decided to have inscribed on the White House tablet a copy of the President's letter to President Wilson written on the occasion of the death of the Republic. The tablet would be placed in the White House.

OLDIERS IN LONDON CLAMORING FOR DEMOBILIZATION.

London, Jan. 7.—Soldiers, objecting to delay in the demobilization of the British armies, engaged in further demonstrations today. The vicinity of the war office was invaded by lorries and with men and by marching bands. They came from the Shoreditch Camp; many of them were on leave from Saloniki and objected to being sent back. On the sides of the lorries were signs reading "Get us out of here", "We won the war", "Give us our tickets", "Get on with the war", "Get on with the war", "Get on with the war". Men were generally well behaved and treated the matter humorously, but they refused to disperse until they were assured that they would be sent home. The Secretary of State for War, General Sir, Wm. Robertson, was present at a conference on the grievances advanced by the soldiers. The press is generally displaying sympathy with the troops but more influential newspapers do not hesitate to tell them that they are inadvisable in taking their present course, which is not open to the comrades overseas, who are equally entitled to demobilization.

GREAT INCREASE IN DEMOBILIZATION.

London, Jan. 8.—It has been announced officially that the rate of demobilization, which last week was 10,000 per day, has been already increased to between twenty thousand and twenty five thousand daily.

The planes started from San Diego, Calif., on Dec. 4th, the actual flying time was 4,200 miles trip was only 53 hours. Major Smith explained that the squadron had been compelled to remain in active for three weeks because of adverse weather conditions.

Laugh When People Step On Your Feet

Try this yourself then pass it along to others. It works!

Ouch! ? ! ? ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain.

He says freezone is an ether compound which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissues or skin. A quarter of an ounce of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.

DIED PEACEFULLY IN HIS SLEEP.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Jan. 6.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt died in his sleep early today at his home on Sagamore Hill in this village. Death is believed to have been due to rheumatism, which affected his heart.

The Colonel suffered a severe attack of rheumatism and sciatica on New Year's day, but no one believed that his illness would likely prove fatal. The former President sat up most of Sunday and retired at eleven o'clock last night. Several hours later, about four a. m. Mrs. Roosevelt, who was the only member of the family Oyster Bay, went to her husband's room and found that he had died during the night.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT DIED AT FOUR O'CLOCK THIS MORNING.

New York, Jan.—The attack of rheumatism settled in Colonel Roosevelt's right hand and Mrs. Roosevelt sent at once for a Nurse in the village of Oyster Bay. His condition did not at first seem to be alarming as far as is known and the turn for the worse is believed not to have come until last night.

In announcing Colonel Roosevelt's death Miss Striker said, "Mrs. Roosevelt called me on the telephone shortly before seven o'clock saying that the Colonel had died early today. She did not give me any particulars and I am leaving at once for Oyster Bay."

"The attack must have been very sudden. On New Year's day inflammatory rheumatism developed in Colonel Roosevelt's right hand which very much swollen. Mrs. Roosevelt sent for a Nurse in the village and the Colonel was made as comfortable as possible. I did not occur to me at that time that he was seriously ill."

Miss Striker went to Oyster Bay last Saturday to pay the Colonel a visit, she said; "At that time the Colonel was sleeping in his room and I did not see him, and there was nothing in the circumstances of his condition to indicate to me that death was near."

When Mrs. Roosevelt called me this morning and told me of the Colonel's death I could hardly believe it. It is understood that only Mrs. Roosevelt and the Nurse were with him at the time of his death. The other members of the family are in other parts of the country or abroad. A telephone message received later this morning from Oyster Bay said that the Colonel had died at four o'clock this morning.

PROMINENT MASTER-MARINE DIES OF FLU.

New York, Jan. 4.—Capt. Emory Rice, who commanded the steamer Mongolia the first American vessel to sink a German submarine and who made 41 voyages across the Atlantic during the war, died today at the New York Navy hospital, of pneumonia following influenza. He was ill only a week.

FORMER PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT DIED EARLY TODAY.

New York, Jan. 6.—News of the death of former President Roosevelt was received here by Miss Josephine Striker, the Colonel's Secretary, in a telephone message from Mrs. Roosevelt. Miss Striker said that the Colonel had suffered an attack of inflammatory rheumatism of New Year's day and had since been more or less confined to his room.

ANOTHER FELLOW GONE "NUTTY."

New York, Jan. 5.—Rev. Dr. Haynes Holmes, pastor of the Unitarian Church of the Messiah in this city, announced to his congregation today that he would leave the Unitarian denomination and recommended that the church likewise quit the denomination; and its members join him in establishing a "Community" or "liberty" church.

Among other changes Dr. Holmes recommended that the church make its pews free, abolish the historical Unitarian plan of double membership and change its name.

NORWAY'S LOSSES.

Christiana, Jan. 5.—Naval statistics show that the losses to Norway commercial shipping thru the year number 823 ships of total gross tonnage of 1,240,000; the number of sailors who lost their lives were 1,157.

POLAND IN NEED

Warsaw, Jan. 3.—Poland is in need of vast quantities of medicine besides coal and food, said Dr. Chodsko, Minister of Public Health, today.

CANADIAN EXHIBITION IN LONDON.

London, Jan. 4.—All alliances in London today, attended the opening by Premier Borden at the Royal Academy of the exhibition of Canadian war memorial pictures. The Premier said: "I hope that the year may be crowned by such an alliance or concert of nations as will relieve humanity for all time from the burden of such sacrifices as have been heroically endured as sustained by the nations of Europe and Allied nations." The Premier paid a generous tribute to Lord Beaverbrook's services to Canada in securing the work of men of genius in the interpretation of the war. The exhibition is generally favorably commented upon and will certainly attract large crowds. It comprises nearly four hundred examples of the work of Canadian and British artists. Certain pictures are notable for their large size, particularly a cartoon by Augustus John, depicting the Canadians opposite Lens, where the British and Americans held their ground.

SOME GERMAN MILITARY PARTS

Coblenz, Jan. 6.—German cannon, in accordance with terms of the armistice were rejected by the States receiving commission. Americans contended that the requirements, that some were of old models and damaged by premature use and that others were inferior parts.

Feeding Cattle in Nova Scotia

BY

JOHN M. TRUEMAN

I would pay more for linseed than for cotton seed and even when roots were available I would buy linseed unless the cotton seed was much the cheaper.

Furthermore the linseed meal is a safe feed to give to all classes of farm stock, while on the other hand cotton seed meal should never be fed to calves or pigs except in very limited quantities and under the careful supervision of an expert feeder. It contains a principle that will cause sickness and even death in young calves and all pigs. Linseed meal may be fed to pigs, cows, calves, horses, colts and sheep. It may make up one fifth of the meal ration of pigs, calves and sheep to great advantage, and gives excellent results when fed in quantities of from one to two pounds daily to horses. With dairy cows the best results have been obtained when linseed constituted anywhere from one-fifth to one-half the total meal fed. The Nova Scotia Department of Agriculture has placed this year with dealers, and farmers co-operative societies some 2000 tons of linseed meal and will continue this policy as long as the present difficult feed situation exists. The Feed Division of the Dominion Department of Agriculture is offering similar assistance to anyone in Canada.

Cotton seed meal appears on our markets in several different grades. The highest grade contains at least 41% of protein and is sweet in odor and bright yellow in color. The next grade contains about 38% of protein, and the next 36%. These three are all excellent feeds when clean and sound in color and odor.

Among the low protein feeds dried beet pulp should be especially mentioned. It is not high in protein or fat but is specially rich in digestible carbohydrates and is a valuable ration. It is especially suitable for fattening and young stock. In addition to its nutritive value it is a good conditioner of the digestive organs.

The feeding of dairy cows during the summer months should have more attention than it often receives at the hands of the farmer. It is a common practice to turn cows out to pasture in the latter part of May and give them no extra feed until they are put in the barn again in the fall. In order to make this method profitable the pasture must be of the very best quality. In most cases the drier weather of July and August the grass and the cows shrink a great deal in their condition. Where pastures become short in this way it is impossible to maintain some supplementary feed be given if any large amount of milk is to be maintained. Some green forage is valuable. It may consist of clover from the hay field and peas in August, and of corn and white clover in September and October. The oats and peas should be sown on good land as early as possible in the spring. In the latter part of April or the early part of May they will be ready for cutting by the middle of July, or sometimes earlier. A second sowing made the last of May will be ready for cutting in August. (2 1/2 bus. oats, 1/2 bus. peas per acre).

The green feed a small quantity of bran and cotton seed meal may be fed to advantage. Cows that have been milking a long time and are only giving 20 to 25 pounds of milk will not need much, or any grain if they are given an abundance of green feed, either from soiling crops, or from a good pasture. Cows giving over 30 lbs. daily will need some grain in order to keep the milk flow up to the maximum. Another advantage gained from grain when the pastures are rather short is a better condition in which the cow goes into the barn in the fall. This enables her to do better work during the winter and even during the whole of the next period of lactation. A cow that is allowed to get very thin and freshens in that condition, will never give as much milk as if she had freshened in good condition.

Especially care should be given the cows at calving time. They should have at least six week's rest from the time of drying off until freshening again. The grain ration should not be stopped at this time. They need about the same amount (say 6 to 8 lbs.) and about the same mixture as they would receive if they were giving 25 lbs. of milk. This gets them in shape for the work of the next lactation period and is used wisely.

About ten days before freshening they should be given succulent food as far as possible. The only grain that it is wise to feed at this time is wheat bran. This can be fed in liberal amounts right up to calving time. The bran is loosening and cooling in its effects upon the system, and prepares the cow for the dropping of her calf. Furthermore, wheat bran contains a large amount of ash, and other material that is good for the developing calf.

At calving time the cow should be placed in a comfortable well bedded box stall. As soon as the calf is born the cow should be given all the warm water she will drink. This will help to keep her from having a chill, and make it much more likely that the afterbirth will be properly expelled. The box stall should be furnished with plenty of fresh dry bedding after the calf has arrived and the cow and calf not left in wet cold quarters.

The cow should be fed wheat bran for the first few days after calving and not much heavy grain given until the swelling, or caking is pretty well out of the udder. A large amount of caking is not harmful if the cow is not overfed until it subsides. In fact a much swollen udder indicates a good milker and is a welcome sight to the observant dairyman. The swelling may extend along the underside of the belly without indicating anything wrong.

In feeding the Dairy Calf the first food given should consist of the mother's milk. If the cow is a heavy milker the calf may get too much if allowed to suck all it wants. Light feeding for the first week or two should be the invariable rule. It should be allowed to suck for a day or two, he will only need to buy a small proportion of his cow's daily ration. I cannot impress too strongly upon the farmer the fact that an extensive cultivation of those crops that are naturally suited to the Nova Scotia climate is the surest road to success in feeding all forms of live stock.

Ration No. 14 shows how small an amount of feed needs to be bought when the farmer raises a large variety of crops.

Altho oats are used as an ingredient of several of the rations given above, it will often pay better to sell some of them and buy other feeds such as middlings or gluten, or oil meal. When the farmer is some distance from market and has more oats than he needs for his horses he can often feed them to the cows to good advantage. In most cases they should be crushed before feeding to cattle, altho whole oats may be fed to calves with good results.

The O.P.V. silage mentioned in a number of the rations is made from oats, peas and vetches grown together; oats and peas may be grown for the same purpose, when vetches are hard to get. Where the climate is not suited to corn, as is the case for the northern and eastern parts of the province, this mixture has proved valuable. It is sown early in the spring on good land and harvested from the 1st to the middle of August. The mixture for 1 acre is made up of two and a half bushels of oats, three quarters of a bushel of peas, and one third of a bushel of vetches, or two and a half of oats and one of peas. It should be cut when the oats are just coming into the dough stage, just before the straw begins to turn yellow. If cut too late it is too light and strawy and will not pack well in the silo. It has been fed for four years to the College herd and has given good results. Ten tons or more of green feed should be grown per acre, which is equal to over three tons of dry hay. Anyone interested in growing this crop can get full information by writing to the College.

The feeding of dairy cows during the summer months should have more attention than it often receives at the hands of the farmer. It is a common practice to turn cows out to pasture in the latter part of May and give them no extra feed until they are put in the barn again in the fall. In order to make this method profitable the pasture must be of the very best quality. In most cases the drier weather of July and August the grass and the cows shrink a great deal in their condition. Where pastures become short in this way it is impossible to maintain some supplementary feed be given if any large amount of milk is to be maintained. Some green forage is valuable. It may consist of clover from the hay field and peas in August, and of corn and white clover in September and October. The oats and peas should be sown on good land as early as possible in the spring. In the latter part of April or the early part of May they will be ready for cutting by the middle of July, or sometimes earlier. A second sowing made the last of May will be ready for cutting in August. (2 1/2 bus. oats, 1/2 bus. peas per acre).

The green feed a small quantity of bran and cotton seed meal may be fed to advantage. Cows that have been milking a long time and are only giving 20 to 25 pounds of milk will not need much, or any grain if they are given an abundance of green feed, either from soiling crops, or from a good pasture. Cows giving over 30 lbs. daily will need some grain in order to keep the milk flow up to the maximum. Another advantage gained from grain when the pastures are rather short is a better condition in which the cow goes into the barn in the fall. This enables her to do better work during the winter and even during the whole of the next period of lactation. A cow that is allowed to get very thin and freshens in that condition, will never give as much milk as if she had freshened in good condition.

Especially care should be given the cows at calving time. They should have at least six week's rest from the time of drying off until freshening again. The grain ration should not be stopped at this time. They need about the same amount (say 6 to 8 lbs.) and about the same mixture as they would receive if they were giving 25 lbs. of milk. This gets them in shape for the work of the next lactation period and is used wisely.

About ten days before freshening they should be given succulent food as far as possible. The only grain that it is wise to feed at this time is wheat bran. This can be fed in liberal amounts right up to calving time. The bran is loosening and cooling in its effects upon the system, and prepares the cow for the dropping of her calf. Furthermore, wheat bran contains a large amount of ash, and other material that is good for the developing calf.

At calving time the cow should be placed in a comfortable well bedded box stall. As soon as the calf is born the cow should be given all the warm water she will drink. This will help to keep her from having a chill, and make it much more likely that the afterbirth will be properly expelled. The box stall should be furnished with plenty of fresh dry bedding after the calf has arrived and the cow and calf not left in wet cold quarters.

The cow should be fed wheat bran for the first few days after calving and not much heavy grain given until the swelling, or caking is pretty well out of the udder. A large amount of caking is not harmful if the cow is not overfed until it subsides. In fact a much swollen udder indicates a good milker and is a welcome sight to the observant dairyman. The swelling may extend along the underside of the belly without indicating anything wrong.

In feeding the Dairy Calf the first food given should consist of the mother's milk. If the cow is a heavy milker the calf may get too much if allowed to suck all it wants. Light feeding for the first week or two should be the invariable rule. It should be allowed to suck for a day or two, or until the milk is good for use, at the end of four or five days. After that it should be fed from the pail preferably three times daily until it is two weeks old. A small amount at each feed is the rule, not more than a quart at a time for the first ten days. After that, part skim milk may be substituted for whole milk, and by the time it is three weeks old all skim milk may be given.

At this time some fine hay and grain should be given in addition to the skim milk. A little fine mixed hay should be put in a rack fresh every day, where the calf can reach it easily. A grain mixture should be made up of equal parts of bran, middlings, ground oats and one quarter part of oil meal. A small handful of this mixture may be given daily until the calf learns to eat it with relish. The meal should be put in a box dry after the calf has had its milk, as it will be masticated better and be more useful to the calf if it is fed dry. Great care should be taken to keep the feed box clean and fresh, also all pails used in feeding should be cleaned thoroughly every day. The amount of grain fed may be increased gradually until by the time the calf is three months old it is getting some two pounds or more of the mixture per day. The skim milk may be increased to eight quarts per day given in two feeds.

The importance of feeding calves liberally the first year cannot be too strongly emphasized. If the calf is not fed enough to make it grow well the first year it will always be under sized. It is a better practise to feed some grain the first year and none the second than to feed none the first year and attempt to make it up by feeding heavily the second year. More returns in growth will be obtained by feeding grain to the animal when it is young than at any other time.

NOLDS WRITES
LETTER FROM MONS TO
HIS MOTHER IN MINAS
VILLE, N.S.

Mons, Nov. 21st, 1918.

Dear Mother: I must drop you a few lines tonight in answer to your letter of Oct. 13, received a few days ago; glad to hear you were all well.

Received your box of Oct. 4 O.K. and the cake was fine. There were three of us who ate it and the two cakes did us quite a while.

We are not fighting now and I do not think we will have to fight any more. I think the Germans had enough when they accepted the terms of the Armistice. You spoke in your letter of us having some hard fighting; yes, we did have to scrap a bit for Cambrai, but we have got our reward for it now and I will tell you of our reception as we entered Mons. The Royal Canadian Regiment, the company I am in, was in front in one place, but no difference about that; we entered the town of Mons about 5 A.M. the morning of Nov. 11 and the fighting stopped at 11 A.M. the same day; so we were just in time. We got some reception from the people of the Town, as well as all the way along the road through other towns. The people came out with hot coffee and cocoa and all kinds of drinks and it was not yet daylight. We were held up the day before at the canal and they did not want to turn the artillery on the place so we entered it next morning, but during the night Fritz had gotten cold feet and beat it, so we had no opposition and we could scarcely get along at all as the people had to shake hands and kiss us! We were looking for the Germans to squeal and doing our best to make him, but we did not think it was going to end so soon.

Mons is quite a nice town. I have lived thru the great fight and am fatter and heavier than you ever saw me; and I stand a pretty good chance now of seeing home and friends once more! When I come home I will want a holiday. Tell Father he must keep that colt growing good as I have walked so much lately I will want something to drive, before I start farming!

Your loving son,
HARRY

(We hope "Father" will not forget to feed up that colt as the gallant soldier son is deserving of the best that farm and home can give him. Ed. News.)

HIGH PRAISE FOR MISS
REBECCA CAMERON, CHIEF
NURSE AT U. S. A. GENERAL
HOSPITAL, WILLIAMSBURG,
N. Y.

Miss Rebecca Cameron, Chief Nurse, came to Plattsburgh, Baedek from U. S. A. General Hospital, Williamsburg, N. Y.

She arrived on June 8, 1918, at a time when the old Infantry barracks were just beginning to be made over into Hospital Wards. Carpenters, painters and plasterers' for lay everywhere and plaster dusts in all the wood work.

The detachment was undisciplined, yet the hurry call for wards for occupancy had to be met.

Under Miss Cameron's steady and firm leadership the Corps and nurses worked incessantly, putting the place into shape. Well after ward was opened in great haste.

Miss Cameron has the efficiency that commands respect. She has been unsparing of her time and efforts to see that the patients had been at all times comfortable and contented.

General Hospital No. 1 owes a debt of gratitude to Miss Cameron for her untiring energy in organizing and directing the Ward work. All who have met her like her because her attitude is invariably one of helpfulness and kindness.

The above very interesting and complimentary article is published in "The Christmas Number" of "The Plattsburgh Reformer," New York.

Miss Cameron, who has won such high commendation for her efficiency and ability in her position as a nurse in several leading hospitals of United States, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cameron, the well known citizens of this town.

Nurse Cameron will be remembered by Truro citizens as chief in establishing and successfully conducting "The Truro Hospital," Park Street, and later removal her hospital quarters to the site of the present Ainslie Hospital, Prince Street West.

FORMER LONDONDERRY
FAMILY CELEBRATE A 50th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Framingham, Mass., Dec. 28, 1917.

One of the most pleasant gatherings of the year was that of the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hattis, on the evening of the 26th inst., celebrating the 50th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Hattie Hattis. Arranged as a complete dinner party.

and Clarissa,
The plan was well laid and carried out to the letter, both Mr. and Mrs. Hattie as well as the guests were surprised. The guests, about twenty in number, were invited to come to the house about 7 P. M., but were not informed of the purpose. Many conjectured that it might be a wedding, and the pastor, Rev. J. A. McLelland, in order to be ready for any emergency, slipped his book of forms in his pocket before starting. Mrs. Hattie was sent down street in the afternoon by the girls on some pretext, and when she was absent, the Misses Hattie, assisted by other willing hands, proceeded to turn things upside down. When mother Hattie returned she was surprised to find her dining room decorated, tables set, and all ready to receive guests.

In due time the guests were invited to the dining room, and there Mr. and Mrs. Upham of Dorchester, Mass., former neighbors of the Hatties in Londonderry, Nova Scotia, gave away the secret of the evening's gathering. Grace was said by the Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, of which Mr. Hattie is the esteemed treasurer. The guests were the church officers, with their wives.

Mrs. Hattie was presented with a beautiful bouquet. The evening was spent in social intercourse, and music vocal and instrumental, after which the guests reluctantly took their departure, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hattie, many happy returns of their wedding day.

Since coming to Framingham, Mr. and Mrs. Hattie have made many friends, who hold them in high esteem, and this occasion was much appreciated by their church friends who desired to do them honor.

They have another daughter, Mrs. George H. Hattie, residing on Folly Mt.

"Cascarets for Mother's Pets"

Careful mothers know that Cascarets in the home mean less sickness, less trouble, less worry, less cost. When one of the kiddies has a white tongue, feverish breath, sour stomach or a cold, a Cascaret quickly and harmlessly "works" the poisons from the liver and bowels and all is well again—only 10 cents a box.

TO MOTHERS! While all children detest castor oil, calomel, pills and laxatives, they really love to take Cascarets because they taste like candy. Cascarets "work" the nasty bile, sour fermentations and constipation poison from the child's tender stomach, liver and bowels without pain or griping. Cascarets never disappoint the worried mother. Each ten cent box contains directions for children aged one year old and upwards.

THE LATE MRS. ALBERT MacLAUGHLIN.

The death of Mrs. Albert MacLaughlin, aged 70 years, occurred at her home in Great Village on December 23rd after a lingering illness born with Christian resignation. She was a devoted wife and mother, a woman of sterling qualities and always a friend of the needy. There are left to mourn besides a sorrowing husband, two sons and six daughters; also two brothers and three sisters. The funeral took place at the home of the deceased in Great Village on Thursday, December 26 and was attended by a large circle of relatives and friends. The services were conducted by a former pastor, Rev. F. G. Francis of Mahone Bay, assisted by Rev. F. M. Milligan, Glenholme. There has passed away truly "A Mother in Israel."

CUT HIS ARM OFF WITH AN AXE.

In the late railway accident to the troop train west of Edmundston, the case of Private Olson is particularly sad and distressing. Attracted by his cries for assistance his comrades found him tightly imprisoned by his arm in the wreckage of one of the cars. Struggle as they might, it was impossible to extricate him and after hours of fruitless efforts it was found that the only possible way to liberate him was by amputating his arm, and unfortunately this had to be hacked off by an axe. First aid was then rendered and he was later brought to the hospital at Edmundston. It does seem sad that this hero, who went thru the war safely, had to be mutilated to save his life in a railway accident in his own home country.

FORMER PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT DIES AT OYSTER BAY.

At the quiet home at Oyster Bay, in the early hours of this morning three passed from the stage of human life one of the world's great men,—Col. Theodore Roosevelt, ex-President of the American Republic. Col. Roosevelt has not been in good health for some time. On New Year's Day he had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism and had kept his room since that date.

Other complications followed and he past away either late Sunday night or in the early hours of this morning. The deceased, with all his faults and his best friends say they were very few, was one of the ablest men that the United States has yet produced. As a soldier, patriot, leader, speaker and general all round big man Theodore Roosevelt "Teddy" as he was delighted to call him, has but few equals in the Republic of clever and brainy men. ## TOTAL CASUALTIES FOR THE WAR, 31,591,758.

Lives Lost On Both Sides In The Fight 7,909,768.

The vast toll of human life taken by the world war is now available in official and estimated figures, showing the total number of men who were killed in battle or died of wounds. The figures in the first table do not include the vast numbers who died of disease of privations. The figures show that the Allied Powers lost 4,559,768 men dead as against the Central Powers' 3,350,000. ## Comfort of Body Many children and adults are constant sufferers from cold hands and feet and are acutely susceptible to every chill and sudden climatic change. There is definite help in which furnishes fuel to warm the body, helps make pure, red blood and maintain the system in a state of robustness, so that the buffeting winds or the sudden chill of evening are enjoyed rather than feared. For comfort of body and buoyant health, take Scott's Emulsion.

A BRULE BOY, ALBERT HISLOP, MAYOR OF PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

In the late municipal elections in Portsmouth, N. H., on Dec. 10, the Republicans, the high protectionist party, swept the city—every one of their candidates, except two, being elected.

The city of Portsmouth for the past three years had been in the hands of the Democrats—the free-traders; but with Albert Hislop, a Colchester County man, as their leader the Republicans defeated the Democrats horse, foot and artillery.

The Republicans elected the Mayor, all four councilmen at large, three Ward Councilmen, members of Board of Public Works and Assessor of Taxes. Mayor Albert Hislop; was born in Brule, Col. Co., son of the late Aaron Hislop and a nephew of the late Edward Hislop of New Annan and D. C. Hislop, Onslow Station.

Well done, Mayor Hislop, your Home Paper congratulates you; you honor your native country by such deserved success in your adopted country. You can't do too much for "Uncle Sam"; he's all right.

S. CONCERT AT PORTSMOUTH.

In Thursday evening, Dec. 26 the annual S. S. Concert was held in the Presbyterian Church. The decorations were in keeping with the festive season, and in one corner was a large and heavily laden tree from which Santa Claus distributed many nice presents at the close of the entertainment. The children rendered their part in a most creditable manner, and receive praise for their efforts. The presence of a regular minister, the Rev. Supt., Chas. P. Smiley, occupied the chair and presented the following program to a most appreciative audience:—

London, Jan. 2—Comparing the speech of Premier Clemenceau before the French Chamber of deputies and the President Wilson's address at Manchester the Times argues there is no fundamental discrepancy between the two men.

BEAVER FLOUR

MILLED OF BLENDED WHEAT

"Beaver" Flour is just as good for Pastry as for Bread. It is the product of Ontario winter wheat, blended with western spring wheat to increase the strength. "Beaver" Flour has the best qualities of both kinds of wheat—the whiteness, lightness, delicate flavour and perfect Pastry making qualities of Ontario winter wheat—coupled with the extra strength of western spring wheat. Being scientifically blended in exact proportions, the blended wheats are always the same in strength and quality—and so is the flour.

If you have never tried a blended flour, you cannot imagine what a difference there is between "Beaver" Flour and the usual western spring wheat flours. Get a sack of "Beaver" Flour at your dealer's, and try it for yourself.

WORKING FOR THE WORLD'S PEACE.

Miss Lorinda Davison, 305 The Highlands, Washington, D. C., a native of Portauque, Col. Co., is spending the winter in Washington and Virginia. She sends us a little clipping from a United States paper in reference to President Wilson, the most interesting paragraph of which is:—

"Born in a humble parsonage at Staunton, Va., today he is in Europe conferring with the heads of the world's great nations to formulate a peace treaty which will rank with the world's greatest historical documents, alongside the Magna Charta, the Declaration of Independence and the emancipation proclamation."

Under the recall election in St. John two old candidates were defeated by 700 votes. The Trades and Labor Council supported the successful men. One of the defeated had 16 months to serve and the other had 40 months before his commissionership was ended.

FOCH PROFESSORSHIP AT OXFORD.

An announcement of great interest has just been made public at Oxford. Sir Basil Zaharoff, K. B. E., has intimated to the Vice-Chancellor his desire to offer to the University the sum of $125,000 for the establishment of a Chair of French, to be called the Marshal Foch Professorship of French Literature, and for other purposes connected with the promotion of French studies. A decree will be brought forward by which the University will gratefully accept this munificent benefaction and will ask the Vice-Chancellor to take the necessary steps for carrying out the founder's wishes to effect.

(So the most classical University in the world wrapped up in Latin, Greek, Hebrew and hosts of "dead languages," will now be fully equipped to give a full course of instruction in one of the most beautiful and most admired of all modern languages.)

Unusual Responsibility

CONDITIONS brought about by the war have placed many women in positions of unusual responsibility, involving mental strain and anxiety.

Think, for example, of the girls who have been placed in tellers' wickets in the banks, and whose duty it is to handle each day tens of thousands of dollars.

It is not as though such positions had been reached after years of training and development, for in many instances the new teller has had little experience, and the strain thrown on the nervous system is enormous.

But similar conditions apply in many lines of work, and whether the overstrain is mental or physical the result is the same, for vitality is exhausted and sooner or later health gives way.

The rapid spread of influenza and pneumonia is largely due to the low vitality of many thousands of people who have been living under a constant, unusual strain of mind or body.

In a state of continual fatigue you have practically no reserve force left to fight disease, and are, therefore, easy prey.

There is only one way to restore feeble, wasted nerve cells, and that is by supplying to them the vital substances which nourish them back to health and vigor.

This is exactly what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food does, and that is why it is in such enormous demand at this time when so many people are living under such unusual nervous strain.

A dead nerve cell can never be replaced, but an exhausted nerve cell can be restored, and just here is where Dr. Chase's Nerve Food comes in to cure by means of the building-up process.

One of the first indications of trouble is headache, and then sleeplessness—you fail to regain at night the nerve force expended in the day's work and worry.

You get up tired in the mornings, and your work seems a burden to you. You get discouraged and lose confidence in yourself, and as the nervous system weakens the worry increases.

There is no light ahead for the person suffering from nervous exhaustion, but, fortunately, there is help in the use of this well-known restorative—Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Take all the rest you can—get out into the fresh air and use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food regularly, and you will soon find yourself on the way to health.

This is the message we have brought to many thousands who are now enthusiastic in telling their friends about this great food cure. We can only tell you of the experience of others. It remains for you to act if you are to obtain similar benefit. You can get six boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for $2.75 from any dealer, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

The name of Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Mitchell, Castlereigh, Col. Co., is in the list issued by the board of pension commissioners, of names of next of kin of soldiers for whom pension might be claimed.

A WORD TO WORKMAN.

On every hand we find a demand for labor and on most every side, too, we see idle fellows too lazy to soil their hands with honest toil.

The demand for exorbitant wages is going to cure itself before long. Certain enterprises cannot afford to pay the big wages that are being demanded, and will shut down. The oldest tannery in the Maritime Provinces, established in Charlottetown in 1842, will close in a few weeks, as the concern cannot make the two ends meet; and pay the terrific advance in wages that the workmen demand.

Wages, we all realize, must be greatly increased from the war figures, but when the advance is so great that business enterprises are throttled and must cease, then it is indeed bad for all concerned; and the man who demanded this business bleeding wage is worse off than ever.

A short time ago a man in Truro fitted a chopper out with everything necessary for the woods. He built a good, comfortable shack; furnished it with blankets etc. and offered the man $2.00 a cord for his work. He could easily cut two cords a day, $4.00 a day is pretty good pay; but in a few days time the fellow gave up his job and slipped off unknown to his employer; probably looking for a softer job and bigger pay. It is unfair, such action, and the workman must remember that he must act as fair and square and carry out his part of the contract just the same as he demands his employer should do.

Be careful men, that in this higher wage demand you are not in some cases striking too high—higher than business conditions will permit.

Days are growing perceptibly longer.

The Perfect Balance that Insures the Telephone Stockholders' Dividends

IN 1916 the Government of Nova Scotia enacted a law, which provided that all Public Utilities (in which is included the Telephone Company) should be permitted to earn 8% upon the value of their property, as found by the Public Utilities Commission.

Should there be any excess of earnings over 8%, three quarters of that excess was to be paid as a tax to the Government of Nova Scotia, and the other quarter retained by the Company.

The Public Utilities Commission has also decided that 8% is a fair return for the Telephone Company, and will, from time to time, through investigations of the Company's property and operations, adjust its rates so as to produce this fair return of 8%.

The promise of 7% interest upon any financial investment is usually considered highly satisfactory, but when that promise is combined with the practical guarantee of the Government of Nova Scotia, as above explained, the 7% Preferred Stock of this Company takes its place in the gilt-edged class.

OBITUARY.

The Kingsley district has been sadly bereaved during the past few days by the death of two of their young men, Herbert Hudson and James MacDonald, who both succumbed to influenza and its after effects.

Herbert Hudson was a young man of only 28 and was working a farm belonging to Mrs. Swinton of Manitou, when he heard that his friends McDonald Bros. were all ill with the flu; he at once went to their help and unfortunately also contracted the disease and he passed away on Friday morning, 6th inst. A very sad feature of his death was his loneliness and no relatives in Manitoba and wires sent to his previous address in Clayton, Ont. brought no response. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, interment being made in the Kingsley cemetery, the Rev. Lee of La Riviere taking the service.

On Monday morning the news of the death of Jim McDonald was received in town; he was the second son of Alex. Macdonald of Kingsley, and was only 27 years of age; he was born on the farm where he succumbed to his last illness. Jim was a widower, his wife having died 11 years ago. He leaves one son, his father, two brothers and many friends to regret his early passing and to them all we join with the community in offering sincere sympathy. The funeral was held the same afternoon and the remains laid to rest in the Kingsley cemetery.

(The above clipping, from some paper unknown to us, has been sent us from Balmoral Mills, Col. Co., for publication. We gladly give it a place in the News, but it would be of greater interest if we knew the source of the clipping and whether either or both of these young men mentioned in this obituary have any connections here in the East—Ed. News.)

BROKER ON AMERICAN RAILWAYS.

Dr. Henry Clewes, broker of New York city, one of the ablest financial minds in great Gotham, says of the United States railways:

"The future of our railroads is still uncertain. No experienced judge believes they can possibly be run as well under Government ownership as under private ownership. Besides, public opinion as a whole is decidedly against such a remedy, which is only wanted by a noisy minority. If satisfactory regulations can be put into effect, the call for public ownership would have no justification. Meanwhile the roads should be returned to their owners as soon as consistent with safety, and in strict accordance with the promise made when taken over by the Government."

I used five boxes and they have cured me so that I can sleep all night without being disturbed, and I feel better in every way. I cannot say too much in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills."

The cause of death was pneumonia, following an attack of influenza, which she contracted at Economy. She was twenty-five years of age, and had been married but a few months.

Mr. Hill is an overseas hero and he has the deep sympathy of every acquaintance in his bereavement.

A. E. HUNT & Co.

Mr. Win Nelson, Sydney, C. B. was in town for a few hours Sunday en route to Halifax. "Win" always has a good word for his native town and says there is no place like Truro.

Harry Lauder had crowded houses on Saturday. Sunday morning he attended Fort Massey Church with the Lieut. Governor and family. In the afternoon he visited Camp Hill Hospital and sang the patients a few songs.

NOTES FROM FORT DUFF ERIN, HEX. CO.

Mrs. Jas. P. Balcom has closed up her house for the winter months, and has gone to Halifax to live with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. McLeod. Mrs. Balcom's Grand-daughter, Margaret Dooks, is also staying there, and is taking up the D work at the 'Morris St. School.

Mrs. Thos. O'Leary, has also closed up her home and moved her family up to the Capital for the winter and is living on South St.

Our principal teacher, Miss Helen Reeves, has gone to her home in Odham, to spend her holidays. The pupils in her department as well as in Miss Hilchies of the Primary, were made happy on the last day of school by a Xmas treat and distribution of gifts.

Miss Mildred Gallagher, who came home to spend Xmas with her mother, drove through the country on Friday in order to reach the city in time to resume her duties on the teaching staff of Bloomfield School, Halifax.

Miss Alberta Whitman has arrived home after a two months stay in the City.

Miss Cora Self arrived on the Dufferin a week ago to visit her friend, Miss Jennie Tibbo for the festive season.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Hartling spent Christmas Day at Moser River, with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Irwin.

W. E. Whitman arrived home from Pictou in time to spend the Xmas season with his family.

The A. O. Forrester's held a Pie Social in the Masonic Hall on Thursday evening. The affair was well patronized, and $75.00 made on the sale of pies.

Miss Jean Dunlap drove through the country to catch the Eastern train on Monday morning for Halifax, where she is attending Dalhousie College.

The S. S. Dufferin, this week on account of a short delay for repairs, arrived at two o'clock and becoming reunited in a German prisoner camp are a few of the incidents of the military life of Lieut. George S. Harvey of Everett and Lieut. Roger E. White of Taunton.

It seemed as if these two chaps just couldn't be kept apart. Before that enlistment they had never seen nor heard of each other, but they became acquainted on the train on their way to train at Toronto for the British aviators and it was a case of love at first sight. From that time on where one was found, there could be seen the other.

They both enlisted in July, 1917. Being good American boys, they had endeavored to get into their country's service in the flying corps but for some of the technical reasons that resulted in many Americans being turned down in the early stages of the war, they were unsuccessful. They were accepted by the Canadian authorities, and on August 1 were on their way to Europe.

For three months at Toronto they were munched together, munched together, munched together, completing their course there, both were sent to Texas for flying and returned to Toronto together. Christmas eve they sailed for England together. Had it not been for their close friendship they would have parted rather a gloomy Christmas.

They are assigned to the same flying squadron and with the exception of a few days while Lieut. Harvey was in hospital they enjoyed each other's company until last June. In May they were both granted a furlough and the brief rest period together in Scotland, and it was there that the photograph accompanying this story was taken.

On returning to duty in June, Lieut. Harvey was assigned to the 87th squadron and Lieut. White to the 93rd squadron for the first time in a year.

On July 19, which was Lieut. Harvey's birthday, he learned that his name was reported as "missing in action" on July 17. On that day in a letter he wrote to his wife, in Everett he had been in a hard day but came out all right.

On August 10, Mrs. Harvey received a telegram stating that Lieut. Harvey reported "missing in action" on Aug. 10 and then came in a day anxious waiting until a cablegram came from Switzerland, sent by Lieut. White through the Red Cross. It consisted only of four words but they were volumes, "Alive, prisoner, White." was all that it said, but it told the reunion of these two chaps in a prison camp behind the Hun in It was later learned that they were confined at Karishrue, Baden, many, no more remarkable news a joyful reunion has been noted at the war.

Detail how these young lieutenants were taken prisoner have been learned. Lieut. White's engine went into a ditch, while he was on a raid over enemy's lines. He landed with the enemy's lines. He escaped with, but rammied the machine into a tree to wreck it and prevent it falling into the hands of the enemy.

Lieut. White was driving one of five English planes over the German lines when he was shot by 25 Hun machines.

A Child's Tongue Shows if Liver Or Bowels Are Active

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue. Mother! If coated give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, a surburled and indigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a we playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

MEN'S SOCIAL GATHERING IN FIRST PRESBYTERIAN HALL FRIDAY NIGHT.

Truro Daily News, Jan. 4

There was a most enjoyable Social Gathering in the Hall of the First Presbyterian Church last evening, and there was a good attendance. This Brotherhood of which Mr. John Hay is president and Stipendiary Crowe is Secretary, plan on other, similar social entertainments during the winter.

On this occasion there was a Debate with a little social time besides. The subject of the Debate was: Resolved:—That in the future interests of the Dominion of Canada will be best promoted by restricting Immigration to Peoples of the Anglo Saxon and Celtic Races.

The affirmative was supported by Messrs. C. M. Dawson and Prescott

"BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN"

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Ohio Woman.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and was so weak at times I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. I took it and it has restored my health. It is certainly the best medicine for woman's ailments I ever saw."—Mrs. SARA SHAW, R. No. 1, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. Shaw proved the merit of this medicine and wrote this letter in order that other suffering women may find relief as she did.

Women who are suffering as she was should not drag along from day to day without giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its forty years experience is at your service.

CHUM PRISONERS.

Aviators, Departed Only Once in Same Camp.

Enlisting at the same time in the Royal Air Forces, sailing for France together and assigned to the same squadron, later being separated for a few months, only to be captured by the Germans within a few days of each other and becoming reunited in a German prisoner camp are a few of the incidents of the military life of Lieut. George S. Harvey of Everett and Lieut. Roger E. White of Taunton.

SENTENCES BY COURT-MARTIAL.

Toronto, Jan 3—Three sentences by Court Martial were promulgated at Military Headquarters this afternoon, as follows: Private Wm. Hortog, a Dutchman, for desertion from the Army Medical Corps, six months detention at Barracks. Private Jack McGillen of the Canadian Garrison Regiment for disobeying a lawful command by a superior officer two years imprisonment with hard labor; Private Edward Joseph McDonald of the Canadian Garrison Regiment for striking his superior officer, forty two days detention.

FRENCH TROOPS IN MONTENEGRO.

Paris, Jan. 4—French troops entered Cetinje, the capital of Montenegro, on December 22, it is announced. They were greeted enthusiastically by the people and found that good order prevailed in the country. Five members of the national assembly have been charged with the management of the country affairs until the union of Montenegro and Serbia under the Karah Georgevitch Dynasty has been completed.

HER LITTLE GIRL COUGHED UNTIL SHE FAIRLY CHOKED.

Mrs. John Reinhardt, Ridgeway, Ont., writes:—"My little girl at the age of a year and a half old had an awful cough. She would cough until she would fairly choke, and I was afraid it would go to her lungs. I thought I would use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, as I knew of quite a few persons who had used it with good results. I am glad I did so, as I only used one bottle. It is a sure cure for coughs and colds."

There is no reason why Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup should not be recognized as the very best cough and cold remedy on the market to-day, combining as it does the lung healing virtues of the Norway pine tree, to which are added wild cherry bark, squills, and other soothing and healing pectoral remedies.

It has stood the test for the past 30 years and is becoming more generally used every year on account of its great merits in curing coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, asthma, sore throat, and preventing pneumonia and in many cases consumption.

So great has been its success that there have been a great many imitations put on the market to take its place. See that none of these so-called "pine syrups" are handed out to you when you ask for "Dr. Wood's." The genuine and original is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

KINDLY ACTS TO A POPULAR PASTOR.

The Congregation of Coldstream have been giving tangible evidence of the esteem in which they hold their pastor and his wife.

On November 26 some friends had a telephone installed in the Manse. Later others supplied two tons of Kempton Coal. On December 18, a large number from Valley and other sections of the Congregation surprised the occupant of the Manse. They came fully prepared to make the evening one long to be remembered. After some time spent in social chat, a presentation was made to Mrs. Bradley of a substantial sum of money and to Mr. Bradley a sack of grain, a sample of the many larger sacks already deposited in the barn, the winter's supply for his horse.

A very enjoyable evening was spent during which supper was served by the Ladies.

Such tokens of appreciation are very encouraging.
